The canine was tired and shivering from the cold when hauled ashore and returned to Sanford police headquarters. Efforts are being made to locate the owner. (Bill Vincent Photo)

Burglary Suspect Ends Life

LONGWOOD — All indications are that the death of a 23-year-old Longwood man, hit by a train early Sunday was suicide, according to Coroner Wallace Hall. He added, however, the ruling is not official until the results of an autopsy are known.

Richardson apparently threw himself into the path of the Seaboard Coast Line train near the crossing at Orange Avenue, according to Engineer L. E. Reel, Conductor W. P. Peterson and Flagman P. W. Barnes.

U.S. Airlines have paid deposits of $10 million to buy 38 British-French Concorde supersonic transports when they are ready for delivery, tentatively in 1974.

The Anglo-French consortium building the Concorde with government backing must sell 250 SSTs to reach the break-even point. So far 16 world airlines have ordered or optioned for 74 Concordes. The price tag, quoted in 1968 at $24 million a plane, now is estimated at from $28.8 million to $30 million by delivery time.

Sewerage Hook-Up Ok'd If... City Studies New Refuse Pickup Rules

By BILL SCOTT
Sanford residents and refuse customers of the city can be prepared for the institution of new refuse handling regulations that may include the requirement that all collections be made at curbside or alley line.

The curbside pickups are being recommended by Sanford City Manager W. E. Knowles in a memorandum to the City Commission for study.

These new costs would boost the annual cost to $27,000 to utilize the city's disposal system. If the city passes the costs onto the refuse customers, then an additional 12 cents more per month must be added to the present $2.25 residential rate, the city manager added.

Seminole Republicans Flex Political Muscles

Seminole County Republicans have staged their annual Lincoln Day dinner and, in so doing, have afforded a display of political confidence and also an exhibition of partisan loyalty that could make this single event very important.

In the event, held at the Sanford Civic Center was attractively decorated with the noble countenance of the Great Liberator vying with an eye-filling American flag, put together by the nimble fingers of young GOPsters.

On hand were the key Republican politicians on the dais and along the tables where the $50-a-plate dinner was served. Cynosure of all eyes, ears and attention was the personable senior United States Senator from Florida, the Winter Park lawyer — Edward Gurney.

He filled the role for which he was intended, that of the bold — even to the extent of raising the eyebrows of some who were well acquainted with the facts of the Nixon administration—defense of the Republican president.

Indeed, the only appreciable applause which greeted his address came when he predicted the re-election of Nixon and called on all the Republicans present to do their duty.

While it may have seemed strange to some that Gurney's Lincoln Day speech was not broken into by applause from the party faithful as he extolled the achievements of the Republican administration and damned the failures of the two Democratic regimes which preceded it, it was no surprise to experienced political reporters.

It is an axiom among such that, regardless of all the factors which come into play, the Democrats have much more fun and are more emotional at the gatherings of their rambunctious members and that GOP members are more dignified.

If there was one sour note sounded during what was, at all intents and purposes a very positive political affair, it came from State Senator Ken Plante, the dinner chairman. In a quiet expected attack on the Democratic Governor of Florida, Reubin O'D. Askew, he unexpectedly called him a "hypocrite" and held his no-smoking, no-drinking, and generally moral character up to ridicule. This was not needed nor welcome.

Senator Gurney, for his part, emphasized the positive achievements of the Republicans. All around the tables there were smiles and pat-on-the-back as the senator termed Seminole County as a shining example of what the Republican party can accomplish.

The seating of a majority on the county commission and the school board, he pointed out was a political achievement of no small measure. And then he went on to describe the local municipal and county victories which Republicans have rung up since '68, as the true indication of the growing GOP strength in city halls and courthouses.

When it is realized that for many years, voters who were Republican in much of their political beliefs had registered as Democrats in order to get a voice in such elections — the Republicans had fielded no candidates — this is a key to what is taking place right now and right here.

We congratulate the Republican leaders who put on this dinner and the 250 or more who attended. In talking with Senator Gurney prior to the dinner, we learned that the local Republicans were very happy to hear his express his firm belief that Florida was now and would continue to be an honest two-party political battleground.

In this achievement the Republicans have played a major role and have given the Democrats a standard of action that the majority party could emulate with consequent even greater health for the body politic.

Space Staring

A study prepared by the Library of Congress for the Senate Space and Aeronautics Committee concludes that the leadership in space technology which the United States of America has gained in the last decade will probably pass to the Russians by the end of this century.

Dr. Charles Sheldon, chief of the library's science policy research division, says the Soviet Union could carry out manned landings on the moon in this decade and could be sending cosmonauts to Mars in the 1990s. The Soviet Union is already more active than the United States in earth orbital scientific missions.

While the Soviet Union is maintaining "long-term, orderly development" of space technology, the U.S. space program is going forward in fits and jerks, begging for new funds and putting some of its projects on the shelf.

Budget restrictions have resulted in abandoning plans for a "grand tour" of the planets by an unmanned spacecraft late in this decade, and in shelving the program for developing a nuclear rocket engine that could have carried astronauts to Mars.

The new space budget includes funds for two final Apollo missions to the moon, and there is no follow-on program in sight to take advantage of our capability for manned lunar exploration.

Even the projects which are now the main theme of our manned space program — the space shuttle and orbiting laboratory — face an uphill struggle for funding.

America's triumph of landing men on the moon in 1969 is now part of history. It would be tragic if the record shows that America gained leadership in space and then decided to throw it away.

VIET STANCE IMPACT DWINDLES

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
WASHINGTON (NEA) — We don't have any firm evidence that Democrats voters this year are going to pick a presidential nominee on the basis of who was "first" against the Vietnam war, but Sen. George McGovern thinks they should and is getting stirred up about it.

His agitation is leading him to attack a fellow contender, Sen. Edmund Muskie. He is obviously resentful that the Nixon administration's assaults on Muskie for criticizing the President's peace proposals seem to make the Maine senator the "peace candidate."

McGovern, of course, was an early opponent of the war. One can sympathize with him at this moment. For a year, he has been charged with being a one-issue candidate. That's had enough. But then to have the Nixon crowd help Muskie take the issue from him!

So, on the record today are McGovern's arguments that Muskie, along with candidates Hubert Humphrey and Henry Jackson, is right in there with Nixon himself; that Muskie is one of the "architects" of Vietnam war policy; that Muskie proved his incapacity for leadership by opposing the "peace plank" in the 1968 Democratic platform.

It's this last charge that interests me the most. Only if you were for the peace plank, says McGovern, can you offer the credentials of purity as an antiwar candidate.

He rejects as unacceptable a unilateral withdrawal... We strongly support the Paris talks to (negotiate withdrawal)... On bombing: "Stop all bombing of North Vietnam (but only) when the action would not endanger the lives of our troops..."

Only a difference of tone that separates the two planks on the poll question. Neither urges unilateral withdrawal. The majority plank declares against it openly, the peace plank just turns its around and calls for "mutual withdrawal."

Is this the cutting edge on which presidents are to be made or destroyed? If so, then McGovern and every other dovish Democrat should work for Richard Nixon's re-election. Since mid-1969, he has been engaged in the unilateral withdrawal of our Vietnam force, a course no prominent Democratic dove ever advocated through 1968.

The President's actions have reduced BOTH 1968 Democratic planks to very timid fare. As for bombing, the two planks agreed air protection (including bombing) had to be maintained for the safety of our troops. The majority plank urged an end to bombing of North Vietnam only when that safety seemed assured (a halt actually was called Oct. 30). The peace plank used the word "unconditional," but its proposal was less sweeping than that sounds. It really affected only North Vietnam's area from the 17th parallel north to the 20th. LBJ had stopped bombing above the 20th on March 31, 1970.

The platform fight was merely symbolic. The symbols look frail today. They neither help nor disabie any candidate.

February, Day Dreaming Time

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Sluggish flows the blood in February. Man's nose runneth and his voice complaceth, as does the voice of the surly winter wind. There is much to be done, but nobody wants to do it.

To the optimist, however, this is one of the grand seasons of the year. As the pulse of his body slows, the pulse of his mind quickens. He is free to dream and let his fantasies run riot.

In his imagination he can, if he chooses to—

- Soar to the North Pole and gloat while the memoirs of Santa Claus.
- Invite Mac West to come up and see him sometime.
- Become the first man to fire a broadened veal cutlet into space.
- Proclaim the end of the world.

Proclaim the death penalty for motorcycle drivers who refuse to use their mufflers.

Fine suburbanites $100 each for approving any dandelion from their lawn until its yellow heralds piles to gray.

Launch an expedition to find out where all the go-go girls went.

Return all the Valentine cards sent you by girls who were too cheap to buy you a present last Christmas.

Global View

Overtones Shadowing Nixon

By RAY McLAUGH
Chief, Washington Bureau
Copley News Service

WASHINGTON — There really is no parallel in American history for President Nixon's trip to Communist China.

There is no echo of the "betrayal" or "abandonment of principle" charges that are heard from some on the American right.

Despite President Nixon's assurances to Moscow that he is not trying to put China and history.

Russia — "at each other's throats," the bell peering in Europe that his visit to Peking is a search for new counters against an ambitious Kremlin.

The Russian press, too, has taken an increasingly suspicious and hostile attitude toward the Nixon Peking trip. There are warnings of a "deal" between the United States and China, which is described as "the most active anti-Soviet force."

The placating tone of the White House toward the Soviets, the President's caution to the public against great expectations in Peking and his repeated emphasis on "an era of negotiation" and "a generation of peace" may have helped narrow the weariness that has grown out of the frustrations of Vietnam.

This mood, many informed observers insist, is now assuming dangerous proportions. It is most disturbing public concern over Soviet nuclear and conventional military gains. Pragmatic men on both sides of the Atlantic fear the day is fast approaching when Russia might literally blackmail both Western Europe and the United States. It carries equal dangers in Asia and the Pacific.

Birth Control Warning Sounds

By DAVID HENDIN

Has population control, with its use of contraceptives, abortion and sterilization, become simply another technology? If so, will this technology begin to dominate human affairs as so many others have already done?

Will the time come in the not too distant future when man will have to "mop-up" the after-effects of his gallop toward the technology of population control?

These are all possibilities according to Dr. Catherine Chailman of the University of Michigan School of Social Work. She believes that if the psychological side-effects of birth control continue to go unchecked, family planning programs may do at least as much harm as they do good.

"Human feeling about sex, reproduction, childbirth and parenthood are central to family planning (or nonplanning) behavior," Dr. Chailman says.

is in condition to have an extraordinary and handled with skill and empathy, efforts to curb population growth will be adversely affected."

The psychologist notes that the contraceptive which are used by woman alone, without the cooperation or even knowledge of her mate, put the full burden on the female, thus denying the male's essential role in reproduction. This can, she says, disturb the partnership and the couple's emotional well-being.

An example Dr. Chailman cites is the couple that has "been using a supposed fear of pregnancy as an excuse to abstain from sexual relations." With efficient, birth control methods, they face, she says, "a new, perhaps unwelcome freedom. The male may feel pressured to become more sexually aggressive than he feels able to be. Environmental Units Merger Is Suggested

By RICH OPPLE
Associated Press Writer

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Gov. Reubin Askew's proposal to merge environmental agencies under his authority was approved by a House group Tuesday night, but his land use bill ran into stiff opposition from construction industry interests.

The House Governmental Organization and Efficiency Committee voted 10-7 to recommend passage of Askew's proposal to merge more than a half dozen agencies into a new Department of Environmental Affairs.

The superagency would be headed by a secretary of the environment, a Florida citizen would be able to go to the one agency — rather than the three or four he now must approach — to get a permit to build a dock or deepen a boat channel.

Rep. Jerry Melvin, D-Fort Walton Beach, was rebuffed in an attempt to write into the bill language giving the full Cabinet control over the agency. "If the Cabinet system is so bad," he asked, "why is Florida so great?"

Meanwhile, the Florida Home Builders Association blasted Askew's land use proposal as leading to a forced moratorium on construction throughout the state and the "sterilization of land."

The bill, recommended by the governor's Task Force on Water Management, which studied south Florida drought problems, would create a state land planning agency under the governor with the power to designate "areas of critical state concern."

But it was the proposed agency's authority to halt construction temporarily within such areas that prompted the most criticism from association members who packed a meeting of the Senate Commerce Committee.

"This comes at a time when the state of Florida cannot stand still," said lobbyist Perry Odom. "Orderly growth, yes, moratoriums, no." The committee did not vote on the bill. Chairman Ray Knopke, D-Temple Terrace, said he planned to hold a vote on the issue next Tuesday.

Issues Pop Up On All Fronts

Senators Face A Busy Agenda

by JOHN VAN GIESON
Associate Press Writer

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — The House Governmental Organization and Efficiency Committee passed Gov. Reubin Askew's bill to put virtually all environmental agencies under his control.

Developers bombarded Askew's proposed land use planning bill with objections in its first hearing before the Senate Natural Resources Committee.

The House passed collective bargaining for public employees.

Legislators set the tempo of the session hurrying through Tuesday in less than 48 hours.

The House Health and Rehabilitation Services Committee passed in a new "superagency" to preserve a mother's life, mental or physical health; if it was reasonably certain the baby would be deformed or if rape or incest caused the pregnancy.

The bill is designed to replace the 194-year old abortion law declared unconstitutional Monday.

The Senate took up his request to define business expenses.

Sen. Dempsey Barron, D-Panama City, called for a combination of the questions, saying he favored the equal education question "on the ballot with it back against wife and it could worsen relationships."

Also before the Senate was the issue of whether the Cabinet as Board of Education or the governor should control the schools. The Senate is attempting to find a compromise to replace the bill putting the governor in charge that the House voted last week.

Sunland Overhaul Vowed By State

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Retarded children at the state hospital in Orlando are subjected to unsatisfactory food, the power to designate a panel of doctors has reported.

The nine-member medical review committee found that physicians at the 1,600-patient hospital relied "too heavily" on feeding a panel of doctors has reported.

The physicians' committee was divided by Jack McAllister, Director of Retardation director, last month after reports that two-thirds of all active gastrostomies in 36 institutions across the country were at the Orlando Sunland hospital.

Some 300 patients there are fed in this manner. While the gastrostomies reviewed were found medically sound, the committee said there was too much dependence on them, and the number of operations could be curtailed if employees were retrained in feeding techniques and if the diet were upgraded.

A liquid "house diet" given some 400 other patients, consisting of Diet-Aid powder, skimmed milk, sugar, salt and water, was found to be "rather unpalatable" by the committee. McAllister said more money for food would be given to the hospital.

Mrs. John Woodruff Heads Heart Drive

Mrs. Charles Massey, 1972 Heart Fund chairman for the Canaveral Area Heart Association, announced Mrs. John B. Woodruff, of Maitland, will head the 1972 Heart Fund Campaign in Seminole County.

The campaign will be conducted here and throughout the country during February which has been declared American Heart Month by an act of Congress.

According to Mrs. Woodruff, Heart Sunday, volunteers will visit all residential areas on Feb. 27 to distribute heart saving information and to collect funds to support research, educational and community service activities of the local chapter of the American Heart Association.

Mrs. Woodruff also served as the 1971 Heart Fund chairman for Seminole County and is currently serving as secretary of the Canaveral Area Heart Association which serves Brevard, Flagler, Seminole and Volusia counties.

"There can be no doubt that diseases of the heart and circulatory system accounting for 54 per cent of all deaths (353 deaths from heart disease in Seminole County during 1970) constitute our nation's foremost health problem," said Mrs. Woodruff. "Apart from this latest statistics show that more than 27 million Americans suffer from some form of heart disease."

Chief Karcher said he concluded by the operation the same gang did both jobs.

An undisclosed amount of money was taken from a cash register Tuesday night at Handy Food Store, Country Club Road, Havana Park, by two men, one holding a revolver on Mrs. Curtis Bryant, clerk.

Detective Ray Parker and Sgt. John Wright Jr. are investigating the robbery that occurred at 8 p.m. when the pair sporting a goatee, came into the store and demanded money.

Mrs. Bryant reported the men left on foot going west after the robbery.

County Clamps Down On 'Odd Sales'

By ANN SIECKROWSKI
County Commissioners Tuesday adopted a resolution which will govern the operation of "carport sales" or "flea markets" in Seminole County.

Because such operations create traffic hazards and cause much abuse occurs, he said, the county will regulate these operations, some controls were considered necessary.

According to the resolution, carport sales may be held only after issuance of a permit which will be good for not more than three days and no permits for that same address may be issued more often than once in each two years.

All unsold items must be removed or packed away so as to avoid creating an unsightly view from the street or adjoining property. No merchandise may be stored or displayed outside the carport area.

"Carport sale" is defined as a sale of old, used and/or unwanted household articles displayed or offered for sale in any area not zoned to permit such commercial operation, and includes garage, porch, yard or shed.

The casual sale of household items such as refrigerator, stove, washer or dryer shall not be considered as a carport sale as long as it is advertised by means other than poster or signs and as long as it is kept solely within the interior of the residence itself.

A "flea market" is defined as any commercial operation for the sale of miscellaneous new and/or used items, household in any facilities approved by the county sanitarian. There must be two off-street parking spaces for each table, counter, truck, station wagon, sale booth.

Times sales may be held in those areas where there are no public or dealers at such site.

It is desired to conduct such an operation. The owner or agent conducting the "flea market" must provide adequate sanitation facilities approved by the county sanitarian. There must be two off-street parking spaces for each table, counter, truck, station wagon, sale booth.

CLIFFORD Martin is caught in the act of performing two super leaps in these photos by Don Vincent. In the right photo, Martin goes up to drop one in the bucket during recent action. In the photo below, Martin is up well above everyone else as he grabs a rebound for Seminole High. The big center is the team's leading rebounder and scorer. He is currently averaging 17 points per game for coach Joe Mills' squad. The Seminoles are 19-7 and close out this Saturday night at their regular season play 8 p.m. when they visit the Lyman Greyhounds. Seminole will compete in the district tournament Feb. 24-26 which will be hosted by Lyman.

Hornets Sting Hounds, 64-59

By HERKY CUSH
Herald Sports Writer
Lyman High School's floor team withstood a blast by Bishop Moore's Jeff Hopfenberger but could not hold off a charging Hounds team effort and as a result went down to their sixth straight loss in Metro Conference competition, 64-59.
Hopfenberger really put on a show for the home folk in the first eight minutes of the game as he fired in 11 points and helped the host Hornets build a 19-13 lead.
However, when Hopfenberger cooled off in the second period so did the rest of the Bishop Moore team and this enabled the Greyhounds to grab the lead.
Sophomore center Randy Wright led the Hornets in the second period with his scoring and his job under the boards. Unfortunately Wright also gathered a few personal fouls in the second period and they played an even larger role at the finish.
The Hounds took a 29-27 lead into the locker room and seemingly had the momentum going their way. But Hopfenberger regained his shooting eye and this seemed to spark the Hornets after the intermission. At the end of three periods the Hornets

In Thrilling Come-From-Behind Win
Sanford Squad Slips By Bulldogs

DELAND—Billy Jimmes was thrown out of last night's basketball game between the Sanford Seminoles and the DeLand Bulldogs and it could have been the thing that helped the Seminoles the most. The Tribe pulled off a 70-69 come-from-behind victory over the Bulldogs and tipped their mark to 15-7.
The Seminoles opened with a see-saw first period and trailed 12-10 at the buzzer. Things looked even worse in the second period as they trailed 25-17 with less than two minutes to be played. But the stubborn Seminoles fought back with the last seven points of the half and trailed only 25-24 in the dressing room.
The Seminoles jumped ahead 25-23 with four quick points at the beginning of the third period. The Tribe led 33-29, but DeLand went back in front 34-33. With 3:14 left in the third right back Tommy Wheaton sank two free throws, cutting the Bulldogs lead to 40-33. Then the Bulldogs broke the game open with 11 consecutive points, taking a 47-34 lead. The Bulldogs still had an 11 point lead with 2:53 left in the game when the game had to be delayed because of a free-for-all in the stands. The fight started when DeLand fans invaded the visitors' bleachers.

With less than two minutes in the game things looked hopeless for the Seminoles as they trailed 69-59. Pat Crimmins then hit for a field goal and when the Tribe got the ball

Saints 'Clip' Falcons

Trinity Prep clipped the wings of the Florida Air Academy Falcons last night in the Lyman gym to record their 12th win of the season. The win assures the Saints of a winning slate in their first season intercollegiate cage tournament. The Saints now stand 12-7 for the season with two regular season contests left to play. Friday night the Saints will trek to Bronson and next Tuesday night the Trinity eagles will wind up the regular season with their last "home" game slated against Sanford Naval Academy in the Winter Park Junior High School gym. Last night's contest in the Lyman gym marked the third place the Saints have called home this season.
Florida Air is without a win this season in 10 outings, but last night the Falcons quit came the closest yet to a win. The Melbourne team established a slim two point margin in the initial frame, but the Saints kept pace with the Falcons all the way. By the intermission Florida Air led by an even slimmer margin, 55-52.
The Raiders rallied in the third period to gain the upper hand in the contest as they assumed a 47-46 command over the Falcons. The battle continued as Florida Air led by an even slimmer margin, 55-52.
The Raiders jumped ahead in the second frame when they scored one run. Paul Russo led the Raiders off with a walk and Mike Coombs sacrificed him to second. Steve Lindbeck followed with a base hit as Russo scored from second. The lead was short-lived as Indian River came back to knot the score at 43 with a tally in the bottom of the third.

FT. PIERCE—Indian River Junior College pushed a run across in the bottom of the ninth without the benefit of a base hit as they defeated the Seminole Junior College Raiders 9-2. The Raiders fell to 1-3 on the season, while Indian River boosted its mark to 5-2.
"The playing ability of both teams was hampered by a steady downpour as it began raining in the fourth inning and didn't let up.

Isaac Will Be Sitting In 500 Pole Position

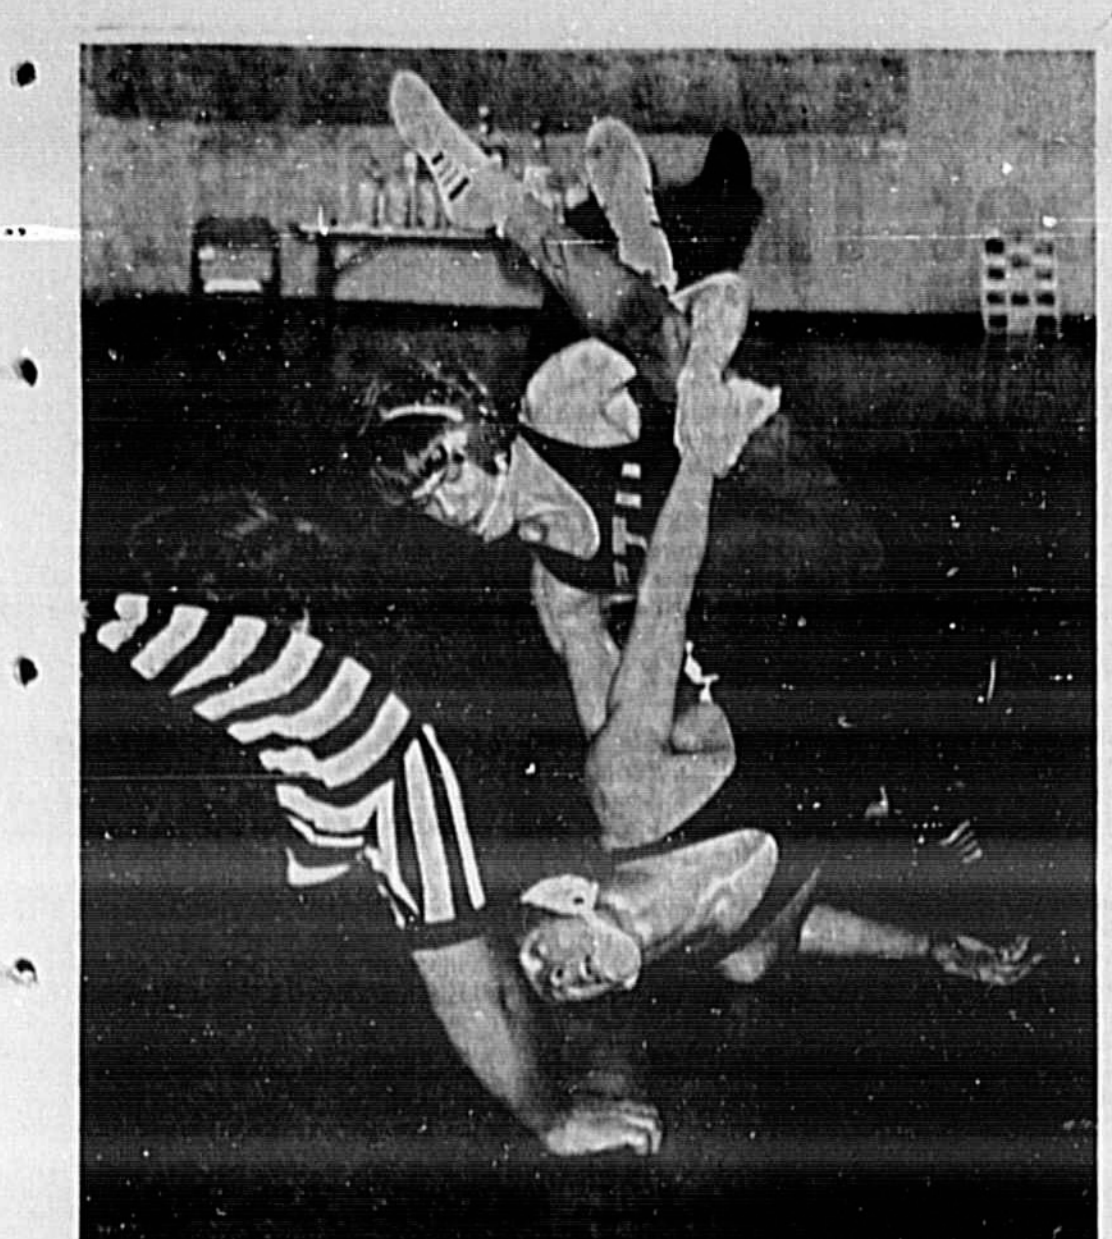

By GEORGE CROSSLEY
Herald Sports Staff
DAYTONA BEACH—The working is all over for Bobby Isaac... until Sunday that is. Isaac nailed down the pole position for the 500 with a qualifying speed of over 186 miles per hour. Isaac drives a 1972 Dodge with a Ray Fox Jr. prepared engine.
Isaac came from west track in the pack to win last year's Firecracker 400. It marked a triumphant return for Isaac and car owner Harry Hyde, who withdrew the car from competition for a while as they were dealing with NASCAR over the controversial carburetor plate. Isaac won the NASCAR Grand National points champion in 1970 and is a real threat to repeat that trick this year. Isaac's luck is turning from bad to good on the super speedways as this could be his year to take home a

Lakers Whip Cincinnati, Sparked By Pat Riley

LOS ANGELES (AP)—There was Tootie, Little Beaver, Rocky, Dr. Watson and Gabby Hayes. And now there's Pat Riley.
The sidekicks of the Lone Ranger, Red Ryder, Batman, Sherlock Holmes and Hopalong Cassidy have been joined by the guard of the Los Angeles Lakers among the assistants.
Thus while Gail Goodrich, Jerry West, Walt Chamberlain and the rest of the Lakers were attempting to dispose of the pesky Cincinnati Royals Tuesday night, Riley made his entrance to post career bests for points and rebounds in a 125-118 triumph.
Elsewhere, Boston beat Portland 111-104, Baltimore whipped Houston 113-98, Atlanta downed Detroit 113-105 and Golden State shamed Buffalo 102-100.
Coach Bill Sharman admitted Riley played well Tuesday night but said his super reserve has been consistently great off the bench.
"The key to Riley's play," said Sharman, "is the first two or three shots. If he hits them, he goes. So for him to do well, he's got to look for good shots early, hit them and that gets him untracked."
The Lakers led 20-16 early in the game when the Royals scored 14 points in a row to grab a 10-point lead. In came Riley to score eight points in 11 minutes as the Lakers closed the gap to six. And when they trailed by nine after one period, Riley stayed in and propelled Los Angeles to a 40-point quarter.
His overall statistics: 12 of 17 shots from the floor, 3 of 8 from the free throw line in 27 minutes of playing time, nine rebounds, 27 points and hustle on the fast break.
A fourth-quarter Boston explosion ignited by Dave Cowens powered the Celtics over the Trail Blazers. Cowens poured in nine of his 21 points in the final frame as Boston scored nine consecutive points to break open the game.
John Havlicek led all scorers with 31 points in helping Boston to its 10th triumph in the last 11 starts. Rookie Sidney Wicks led Portland with 30 points.
Jack Martin scored 39 points and was Unseld grabbed 18 rebounds as Baltimore snapped an eight-game losing streak by beating Houston. Martin and Archie Clark scored 13 points apiece in the third period as the Bullets, ahead by only five at the half, roared to an 89-70 bulge.
Clark contributed 29 points while Elvin Hayes led the Rockets with 31. Baltimore's Phil Chenier and Houston's Mike Newlin were ejected for a second period fight.
A 22-11 spurt in the third period carried Atlanta past Detroit. The Pistons trimmed the Hawks' lead to 107-104 with 1:29 left but two free throws by Pat Maravich and four by Lou Hudson secured the triumph.
Miami (AP)—More and more girls are working with race horses at Hialeah Park this winter. Trainers Del Carroll and Reggie Cornell often send out as many as five exercise girls who work their horses during early morning workouts. Some of the girls will also escort the horses in the post parade for the meeting opening March 2.

Season's First Team Meet
Raider Thinclads Top Lake City

GAINESVILLE—Seminole Junior College swept to first place in eight of 16 events as they dropped Lake City Junior College 79-69. It was the first team effort of the season for the Raider track team. The University of Florida also ran in the meet, but their competitors were not scored.
The 440-Relay team got things started right with a first place finish. The team consists of Charlie Harris, Syrral Kinsler, Larry Washington and Vesco Bradley. They streaked to the win in 42 seconds flat.
The Raiders took the first three positions in the 100 yard dash with Bradley taking first place in 8.7 seconds. Harris was second and Washington was third.
Bradley and Washington finished one-two in the 200 yard dash. Bradley's winning time was 11.2 seconds, while Washington covered the distance in 22.6 seconds.
The relay team of Kinsler, Wheeler, Russell Bingham and Robert Gully won the mile relay in three minutes, 23.7 seconds.
In other running events, Randy Tindol set a new school record with a four minute, 19 seconds performance in the mile run, though it was only good yard high hurdles for the Raiders. Washington jumped 44 inches for the second place finish. David Ullar was the only entrant in the pole vault and automatically took first with a vault of 11 feet, six inches. In the 50 yard sprint, William Henry was second with a jump of five feet, four inches.

Rounding out the Raider scoring in the field events, Jamie Andrews tossed the shot put 43 feet, 5 1/2 inches for second place and also finished second in the javelin throw with a throw of 164 feet, one inch.
Coach Terry Long was quick to praise the efforts of Bradley and Harris, both junior college All-Americans, of which Long has four on the team.
Though Tindol set a new school mark in the mile run, Long feels certain that the Brandon athlete, another of the JuCo All-Americans, is "capable of doing better."
Overall Long was pleased with the performance since it was the season opener for the team. The Raiders will run in a variety of meets until April 28 when the Division II championships will be held in Lake City. The state championships are set for May 5 in Gainesville and the national meet is May 25-27 in Mesa, Arizona.
The next completion for the Raiders will be this Saturday as they trek to Miami for the Miami Relays. On Feb. 26 they are slated to compete in the Civitan Fiesta Invitational at Manatee Junior College in Bradenton.
The Raiders will run in a variety of meets until April 28 when the Division II championships will be held in Lake City. The state championships are set for May 5 in Gainesville and the national meet is May 25-27 in Mesa, Arizona.

New Look In Motor Savings Coming To First Federal S&L

FIRST FEDERAL Savings and Loan Association is now constructing an auto teller facility on West First Street, between Elm and Laurel Avenues, west of its present plant. Construction, designed by the Gutmann, Dragash and Matz architectural firm, is being done by Shoemaker Construction Company. The facility will have an enclosed work area for tellers, who will keep face and voice contact with all savers using the drive-through set-up.

'Real Issue Of Nixon's Trip' 'Peking Will Seek Aid From U. S.

However, at a later session with a few reporters, Malraux said he doesn't expect Chinese Communist party Chairman Mao Tse-tung to ask Nixon for economic aid during this visit and he modified his earlier indication that economics was the paramount factor of the trip.

Nixon Burns Midnight Oil For Journey

WASHINGTON (AP) — The lights burned late in a cottage atop a Maryland mountain and in the White House as President Nixon and his aides raced against the clock to complete preparations for his historic mission to China.

At secluded Camp David in Maryland's Catoctin Mountains, where he flew Tuesday by helicopter, Nixon worked into the night reading loose-leaf notebooks containing classified material on China and its leaders prepared by Henry Kissinger's National Security Council.

FIREBRAND BERNADETTE DEVLIN, the youngest member of the British Parliament, is still in the thick of the bloody strife in Northern Ireland.

90,000 Foe 'Disappear' From South Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Somewhere, about 90,000 of the enemy have disappeared from South Vietnam since last year.

Whether most of them were there is open to question. In his annual report to Congress, Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird said Tuesday there are at least 150,000 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong in South Vietnam.

The details of arranging a 20,395-mile, 13-day presidential journey are many.

Coal Strike Hikes Britain's Jobless

LONDON (AP) — Britain's coal strike and the resulting power famine sent the unemployment total above 2.5 million today, the highest since the Depression year of 1933, but the Trades Union Congress rejected a back-to-work appeal by Prime Minister Edward Heath.

With industry cut back to a three-day week because electric power stations can't get coal to fuel their generators, the Department of Employment said 12 million men and women, or 3 per cent of the working population, had been laid off since Monday.

Nixon Is Withholding Billions OK'd To Spend

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration says it's withholding $12.3 billion in appropriated funds, but denies any of the money is an election slush fund for use later this year.

Congressional critics charge President Nixon has built a multimillion-dollar political war chest with withheld appropriations.

The Office of Management and Budget has released a list of the $12.3 billion in withheld appropriations to show that disbursement of $10.8 billion is awaiting confirmation that proposed recipients are legally eligible or approved.

Spaghetti Souffle For Ulcer

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

After 10 years of cooking for a husband with an ulcer, Tom Marsh, Bryn Mawr, Pa., decided it was time to write a cookbook so she could share her special knowledge. And when her friend, Sister Jean Robey, said she'd help, the two went off to a good start. Their new cookbook is called "For Gourmets with Ulcers" (Norton) and the authors tested every recipe. Two doctors contribute introductions, testifying that the dishes are nutritionally sound.

Here is a recipe, adapted from "For Gourmets with Ulcers" for a Spaghetti Souffle. It's a delicious dish that the ulcer patient plus the rest of the family can enjoy as a welcome change. Non-ulcer dieters may like a sprinkling of freshly ground pepper on a tomato sauce with the souffle.

SPAGHETTI SOUFFLE
Salt
2 quarts boiling water
8 ounces spaghetti
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup flour
2 cups milk
2 eggs, separated

Add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Break spaghetti into small pieces and gradually add to boiling salted water. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander.
Melt butter; blend in flour. Gradually add milk and cook, stirring constantly, until sauce boils 1 minute.
Beat egg yolks and 1 teaspoon salt until thickened and lemon color; gradually stir in hot sauce. Combine sauce with spaghetti; cook 15 minutes.
Beat egg whites with 1/2 teaspoon salt until stiff; fold into spaghetti mixture. Turn into a buttered 3-quart souffle dish or casserole.
Bake in a preheated 375-degree oven until browned and set in center—30 minutes. Serve at once.
Makes 6 servings.

Ginger Cookies Recipe

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

DEAR CECILY: Do you have a recipe for old-fashioned ginger cookies? The dough is rolled and the cookies are cut out so they are thick and very large around—COOKIE BUFF. DEAR COOKIE BUFF: Yes, we have the recipe you want, and it follows: At first glance, after the dough is chilled, you may think it is too soft to roll. But if you follow our directions carefully for rolling the dough in flour before rolling, and use a pastry cloth and stockinet-covered rolling pin, you should have no trouble. When stored in a lightly covered tin box the cookies stay soft for a couple of weeks. —C. B.

OLD-FASHIONED GINGER COOKIES

4 1/2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons ground ginger
1/4 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 cup old-fashioned molasses
1 cup buttermilk
Sift together the flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt and ginger.

In a large mixing bowl cream shortening and sugar; beat in molasses. Stir in the sifted dry ingredients alternately with the buttermilk, blending well. Dough will be very soft. Chill dough until it becomes firmer—about 1 hour in the freezer.

Work with one-half the dough at a time, keeping the remainder in the refrigerator. Use a well-floured pastry cloth and well-floured stockinet-covered rolling pin.
Dough will still be very soft when you remove it from the freezer. Shape the half you are working with into extra flour on the pastry cloth, then roll out 1/4 inch thick. Cut with 1 1/2- or 1-inch round floured cookie cutter.

Place cookies 3 inches apart on greased cookie sheets. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven until lightly browned—15 minutes. With a wide metal spatula remove to wire racks to cool. Store in a lightly covered tin box.

Makes about 2 dozen very large cookies.
Note: For slightly smaller cookies, use a 1-inch round floured cutter and bake 1 inch apart on the same cookie sheets, at the same temperature and for the same time. The yield will be about 3 dozen cookies.

2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon ground ginger
Place chicken in a shallow container in 1 layer. In a small bowl stir together the remaining ingredients until sugar and ginger are dissolved; pour over chicken. Allow to stand at room temperature, turning chicken several times in marinade, for at least 1 hour. Arrange chicken, skin side down, on foil-lined broiling pan without the rack. Broil, about 9 inches from high heat, regulating distance or heat so that 20 to 30 minutes. Turn, skin side up, and continue broiling until well browned and tender—about 20 to 30 minutes. Baste several times with marinade during broiling.
Juices in pan will taste good over rice. Makes 4 servings.

Shabu-Shabu Is A Simple Japanese Meat Treat

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

Japanese meals characteristically are simple and nutritious. Usually they consist of lean meat, pork, shrimp or fish and fresh vegetables. Those with a fondle unit will enjoy the conviviality of entertaining guests with a Japanese fondue party. Cooking Shabu-Shabu is easy. Each guest dips his piece of beef or vegetable into a boiling broth. Topping off the meal is a cup of fine noodle soup made with the remaining broth. There is little work for the hostess in preparation or cleanup.

SHABU-SHABU

- 4 cups chicken or beef broth*
- 1/2 cup sherry
- 2 pounds tender boneless beef, thinly sliced
- 1 Bermuda onion, sliced
- 1/2 head Chinese cabbage, cut in segments
- 1 bunch watercress (or 1/2 pound spinach)
- 1/2 pound fresh mushrooms, sliced
- 2 cups fine noodles, uncooked

Pour broth and sherry into base of automatic fondue. Position tray and rack. Plug unit into outlet. Bring broth to a boil. Have beef and vegetables arranged on a platter, noodles heaped in a bowl. To serve, beef and vegetables are dipped into boiling broth and cooked to taste, then dipped in sauce. When all the meat and vegetables are eaten, add the noodles to remaining hot broth and cook until tender, about 3 minutes; serve in cups or small soup bowls. Makes 4 servings.

PONZU

(Soy and lemon sauce)
Thoroughly mix 1/4 cup soy sauce, 1/4 cup lemon juice, 1 teaspoon instant minced onion, and 1 or 2 dashes Tabasco. Let stand for about 30 minutes, then serve at room temperature. Makes about 1 cup.
*If condensed soup is used, add water called for on label.

Food For Americans: Steamed Fruit To Cut Calories

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

With most persons paying some lip service at least to losing a few pounds, a tasty but less-fattening dessert is welcome. One such is a steamed fruit. Using artificial sweetener rather than sugar also cuts down on calories. A fruit compote or individual pears, apples, plums or other favorite fruit in season make an attractive closing for a family or party dinner.

HOT HOUSE STEAMED APPLES

4 medium apples
1 lemon cut into quarter wedges or cinnamon sticks
Artificial sweetener to equal 2 tablespoons sugar
Peel one inch of skin off the top of apples, hollow out core and fill with lemon wedge or cinnamon stick. Steam covered in electric steamer for 15 minutes or until apples are tender. Remove from steamer; sprinkle with sweetener. Makes 4 servings.

HOT HOUSE STEAMED PEARS

1/2 cup water
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla extract
4 small plums, halved
Artificial sweetener to equal 2 tablespoons sugar
Combine water, lemon juice and vanilla extract in electric steamer. Remove pits from plums; place on rack in steamer. Cover and steam for 30 seconds. Remove from steamer. Sprinkle with sweetener. Serve at once. Makes 2 servings.
NOTE: Be sure to observe the very short cooking time plums require. There is a dietetic maple syrup on the market that is an excellent alternative for the sweetener.

HOT HOUSE PEARS

1 cup water
2 medium pears, halved
Vanilla beans, lemon slices, or berries of any kind
Artificial sweetener to equal 1 tablespoon sugar
Scop out cores from pears. Place vanilla bean or lemon slice in cavity. Steam covered for 30 minutes or until pears are tender. Remove from steamer, if using berries, now is the time to place them in cavity. Sprinkle pear halves with sweetener. Makes 2 servings.
To make a compote combining apples, plums and pears, cook the pears first for 5 minutes, add the apples and cook for 15 minutes more. Add plums for an additional 20 seconds and voila—a colorful dessert triptych.

Mexican Chicken Is Tasty

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Food Editor

MOLCHA PECAN COOKIES
Refrigerator cookie dough to make into a roll and slice.
2-3rd cup butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 ounces (2 squares) unwrapped chocolate, melted and cooled
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
1/4 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup quick-cooking oats
Frosting, see below
Chopped Pecans

Cream butter and sugar; add egg, vanilla and chocolate; beat until well combined. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt; add to creamed mixture, mixing well. Stir in oats. Shape dough to form a roll 12 inches long. Wrap and chill several hours or overnight. Cut into slices. Bake on ungreased cookie sheets in preheated 350-degree oven 12 to 14 minutes. Spread frosting on cooled cookies; sprinkle with pecans. Makes about 3 dozen.

FROSTING: Beat together 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar, 2 tablespoons soft butter or margarine and 2 tablespoons strong brewed coffee.

DINNER FOR FOUR
Chicken Madras Chicken
Rice Green Salad Bowl
Fruit Compote Cookies

CHICKEN MADRAS
Cut up chicken in cooking in a curry sauce.
2 1/2 to 3-pound frying chicken, cut up
Salt and pepper
1/4 cup butter
2 small onions, finely chopped (about 1/2 cup)
2 medium apples, peeled and diced (about 1 1/2 cups)
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons curry powder
1 1/2 cups fat-free clear chicken broth
Wash and dry chicken; sprinkle with salt and pepper. In a 12-inch skillet, heat butter; add chicken and over moderate heat brown on both sides. Remove chicken. To drippings in skillet, add onion and apples; cook, stirring, until soft, about 5 minutes. Stir in flour and curry powder, then chicken broth; stirring constantly, bring to a boil—sauce will thicken. Replace chicken in skillet. Cover and simmer until chicken is tender—30 to 40 minutes. Stir often to keep sauce from sticking. If sauce is thicker than you like, add a little more broth. Makes 4 servings.

FAMILY DINNER
Meat Loaf Baked Potatoes
Fanned Green Cabbage Relish
Layer Cake with Caramel Frosting

CARAMEL FROSTING
Quick to make and delicious.
1/2 cup butter
1/4 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar
Dash of salt
2 tablespoons milk
1 1/2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
In a 1-quart saucepan over low heat melt the butter; add the brown sugar and salt; mix well and cook for 2 minutes. Add the milk; cook, stirring constantly, until mixture boils. Remove from heat and cool 10 minutes. Gradually beat in the confectioners' sugar until of good spreading consistency. Use to fill and frost top of two 9-inch round layer cakes; if sides of cake are spread with the frosting, the covering will be thin.

BRUSSELS SPROUTS SALAD
2 packages (each 10 ounces) frozen Brussels sprouts, thawed
2 tablespoons minced parsley
2 tablespoons finely grated onion, pulp and juice
1 hard-cooked egg, chopped
4 tablespoons olive oil
2 tablespoons wine vinegar

Dash of pepper
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
Lettuce
2 large carrots, pared and shredded
Ripe olives
Cut Brussels sprouts in half; cook as directed on package until tender-crisp. Drain and chill. To make salad dressing, mix together parsley, onion, egg, oil, vinegar, salt, pepper and mustard; chill. Just before serving mix Brussels sprouts with salad dressing; mound in center of lettuce-lined serving plate. Surround with shredded carrots. Garnish with olives. Makes 6 servings.

Burgers international...made at home!

Americans probably serve hamburgers more often than any other meat dish. Here are six new, interesting ways to spark this great every-day meal with flavors from around the world.

It's easy! Start with 1 1/2 lbs. of ground beef, add 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 cup cold water and mix lightly to combine. Now shape into 6 burgers, and you're ready to enjoy your choice of 6 international variations on the burger theme. Cooking tip: Broil or pan-fry burgers 4-5 minutes on each side for medium rare.

- DANISH SURPRISE BURGER
Divide ground beef for 1 burger into 2 thin patties. Top 1 patty with 1 tablespoon blue cheese. Cover with second patty, press edges together to seal. Cook as usual. Serve on toasted bun.
- PIZZABURGER
Cook burger on one side, turn and top with 1 tablespoon each shredded Mozzarella cheese and pizza sauce. Cook second side until done. Serve on toasted bun spread with more heated sauce.
- CHOW MEIN BURGER
Place cooked burger on toasted bun spread with mustard. Top with heated vegetable chow mein, fried noodles and sprinkle of soy sauce.
- BURGERMEISTER
Place cooked burger on toasted bun spread with mustard. Top with sliced grilled Canadian bacon or ham and crisp French fried onion rings.
- ALL-AMERICAN BURGER
Butter and toast burger bun. Place cooked burger on bun; top with onion rings, tomato slice, mayonnaise, pickle relish, catsup, mustard.

Roast Duckling w/Kraut

ROAST DUCKLING WITH KRAUT STUFFING
The low-calorie stuffing is an excellent contrast with the rich duck.
4 to 5 pound duckling, thawed if frozen
1 can (about 1 pound) sauerkraut
1 medium onion, finely chopped (1/2 cup)
1 medium carrot and coarse apple, finely diced (3/4 cup)
Wash and dry duckling. Drain liquid from kraut, squeezing it out. Mix kraut with onion and apple; stuff into body cavity of duck. Close body and neck cavities with small poultry pins. Tie legs together with string. Place on a rack in a shallow roasting pan and roast in a preheated 350-degree oven until leg feels tender when pressed and skin is crisp and browned—about 30 minutes per pound. Let rest 15 minutes before carving. Place on a wire rack until warm; cut into squares and with a small spatula remove carefully. Cool completely on wire rack. Wrap in transparent plastic film and then store in a tightly covered tin box. Makes 18 squares.

An Indonesian restaurant is a recent arrival to New York City's host of foreign eateries. Opened last fall with considerable fanfare, the Ramayana is a symphony of oak wood, batik wall and intricate Balinese carvings.
The Indonesian cuisine blends hot and mild spices and sweet and sour sauces, which is fine if you have a sturdy digestion. The specialty is the traditional satay or rice table. It is a smorgasbord of meat, fish and vegetables dishes served with relishes and sauces.
Indonesian specialties include skewered morsels of charcoal cooked beef or pork known as Sate. There is also Ikan Atjar Kuning, a fish that has been marinated and fried. Omitting any more tongue-twisting Indonesian names, there is also chicken marinated in spices and broiled, fried rice and a mixed vegetable salad.
Among the desserts there is a delectable concoction of bananas browned in cinnamon, sugar and coconut milk.
For those who like entertainment with their fare, the restaurant features Indonesian singers, dancers and musicians who perform nightly, and an area in the rear of the Sita Room is reserved for dancing.
One specialty of the house that appeals to many diners is a shrimp dish known as Udang Goreng. Here is the recipe from the Ramayana kitchen.

UDANG GORENG
2 pounds large shrimp
1 cup flour
2 eggs
2 cups milk
1 cup tomato puree
1 teaspoon finely chopped garlic
1/4 pound sliced carrots
1/4 pound sliced cucumber
Slice of ginger
Tablespoon cornstarch
Salt and pepper to taste
Peel and devein shrimp. Prepare batter with flour, eggs and milk. Dip shrimp in the batter and deep fry with hot shortening. Serve with sweet and sour sauce.

BOSTON BROWNIES
This fudge-type brownie recipe is repeated by request.
1/2 cup butter
2 squares (2 ounces) unwrapped chocolate
2 eggs
1/4 cup sifted flour
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 cup coarsely chopped walnuts
In a medium-size heavy saucepan, over very low heat, melt the butter and chocolate. Cool slightly. Add the eggs and, with a wooden spoon, beat thoroughly. Add the flour and sugar; with the spoon beat just until combined and smooth. Stir in walnuts. Turn into a well-oiled 8-inch square cake pan. Bake in a preheated 375-degree oven just until the center top is set but still moist—less than 30 minutes. Place on a wire rack until warm; cut into squares and with a small spatula remove carefully. Cool completely on wire rack. Wrap in transparent plastic film and then store in a tightly covered tin box. Makes 18 squares.

$50 Million Park Seen By Ringling

ORLANDO (AP) — Walt Disney World turned Central Florida flatlands into a booming tourist Mecca, and now another group is transforming farmlands to fantasia in hopes of diverting the flow of pleasure pilgrims. Ringling Bros. Barnum and Bailey Circus has purchased a 600-acre site in northeast Polk County and plans to construct a $50 million, year-round amusement complex, reliable sources revealed.

Formal announcement of the development was to be announced jointly this afternoon by Gov. Reubin Askew and Ringling president Irving Feld at a press conference at Orlando's Citrus Club.

The Ringling center, sources confirmed, is located near the intersection of Interstate 4 and U.S. 27, some 15 miles from the Disney amusement center in neighboring Orange County.

"This will be a tremendous complex," the source said, with "preliminary plans calling for expenditure of $50 million."

He said the land was purchased from First Continental Development Corporation, a New York based firm.

The Miami Herald reported the Ringling complex adjoins an 800-acre hotel, motel and restaurant development called Summit Point, already announced by First Continental.

Ringling Bros., which celebrated its 100th anniversary two years ago, was acquired recently by Mattel Toy Co. Inc., of Hawthorne, Calif.

AROUND THE CLOCK
By JOHN A. SPOLSKI

It's absolutely amazing what one sees across the AP wire desk. As an example, did you realize that the inmates at Green Haven Prison in Saratoga, N. Y. are pressing for recognition of a labor union to act as their bargaining agent in matters of wages, working conditions, job training and fringe benefits.

Headlines Inside THE HERALD

TALLAHASSEE — Labor leaders have protested the Florida House's approval of a right-to-work bill providing jail terms for violators. (Page 5A)

TALLAHASSEE — Supporters of a Florida House bill that would give 18-year-olds the right to drink and other adult privileges say the measure's final approval is a certainty. (Page 5A)

SAIGON — U.S. warplanes make heavy attacks on long-range artillery in North Vietnam for a second day. At least one plane is shot down, with two crewmen missing. (Page 4A)

WEATHER — Yesterday's high 63 low 56 with 1.43 of an inch of rain. The average rainfall for this area for the month of February is 2 inches and we have already accumulated 5 inches.

Showers and a few thundershowers becoming less likely. High 65 to 75 and the lows tonight 55 to 62.

Wet and windy weather will be central part of the nation today while another storm scattered rain across the southeast, already soaked with 24 hours of rain and periodic thundershowers.

WELL, WHY NOT?
After all, when they see a swimming pool (and each of us has one in our back yard now, don't we?) ... WE GIVE IT TO THEM!

They're also terribly misunderstood ... pity, pity!

How about a little pity and understanding for some of their victims.

On this same subject ... there is a "peeping Tom" making his rounds in the Longwood area. Word has it that he's been caught a couple of times, but for one reason or another, always manages to get off the hook (probably another case of misunderstanding, eh what?)

In any event, there is also a very active burglar making his rounds in the Wildmere Section of Longwood, so I've been told.

And the people living in that area are tired of both these characters ... some getting a small arsenal to take the matter into their own hands.

BANG! BANG! Thinking that it just might be the burglar that they're shooting, it could be the peeper ...

Killer Stabs 3 To Death
BLACKPOOL, England (AP) — A tall young man with dark hair, a foreign accent and a knife ran amok in the children's ward of a Blackpool hospital early today and escaped after stabbing three sleeping children to death.

The killer also wounded two nurses badly and gave another child minor wounds.

More than 200 police with tracheal tracers searched the grounds of Victoria Hospital and a nearby park. Detectives combed the hospital, and roadblocks were set up on every highway leading out of the holiday resort on the northwest coast of England.

Police said the man walked into the second floor ward at 1 a.m., said he was a member of the staff and asked for sleeping tablets. Then suddenly he pulled his knife and stabbed the two duty nurses in the chest.

A chorus of terrified screams echoed through the ward as the killer raced from cot to cot, wielding his knife. Despite her wound, one of the nurses raised the alarm. Orderlies rushed in, but the intruder had gone.

Two 2-year-old boys and a 4-year-old girl were killed. Another 2-year-old boy was wounded.

GLEN W. TURNER, Chairman of the Board of Glen W. President Nixon Is In The Air En Route To Communist China

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, his wife and a handful of top aides left today on a "journey for peace" to Communist China, saying he hopes it will reduce the possibility of future war.

The presidential jet, the "Spirit of '76," took off from Andrews Air Force Base on the first long leg of the trip at 10:30 a.m.

Before leaving the White House by helicopter for Andrews, Nixon briefed 19 Democratic and Republican leaders of Congress. Then he delivered brief remarks to a crowd including about 1,000 school children on the South Lawn.

Standing coatless in damp, 35-degree weather, he repeated a prediction he first made last July 15 when he stunned the world with his announcement that he would become the first American president ever to visit China. The China trip, he said, "would be a journey for peace."

He said again that he does not expect the trip to erase all difficulties between Washington and Peking, but hopes it will help to avoid any possible future war.

"We of course have no illusions that 20 years of hostility between the United States and China are going to be swept away by one week of talks," he said.

"As we look to the future we must realize that the government of the People's Republic of China and government of the United States have had great differences," he said. "They will continue to have differences. But what we must do is to find a way to see that we can have differences without being enemies in war."

Some 1,000 area school children were recruited by their teachers to show up for the first step in the first journey by any American president to China.

Some teachers confused the occasion with the traditional White House welcome for visiting heads of state and instructed students to place their hands over their hearts during playing of the Star Spangled Banner and the Chinese anthem.

'Divorce Seminole From Orange' — C of C

By BILL SCOTT

Opposition to Seminole County remaining in the same legislative district with Orange County was expressed this morning at a meeting of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce legislative and national affairs committee.

The committee, chaired by Robert Daehn, voted to send a letter to all members of the Orange-Seminole legislative delegation, indicating the feelings of the committee.

The group stressed that Seminole County would prefer individual representation in the Legislature but, in the event the county must be aligned with another county, the committee voted to advise the legislators of a preference to be united with one of three adjoining counties: Brevard, Volusia or Lake.

Daehn and George Crossley, vice chairman, were appointed to compose the letter indicating the committee's wishes.

In another action, the committee indicated the legislators would be asked to give their individual preferences concerning congressional redistricting.

A five-man committee was named to consider the districting of the City of Sanford. Walter Gierow was selected to chair the group, composed of Dr. Charles Starke, Robert Morris, Daehn and Crossley, who will study the requirement of having candidates for the Commission live in one of four geographical districts to be designated within Sanford. The office of mayor will be a city-wide elective post with no district requirement.

Committee also voted to continue its support for a charter revision study of Seminole County looking toward possibility of county consolidation.

It is the intention of the Circuit Court to present these mock trials to many Seminole County schools in order that the students may observe the judicial system in operation, first hand.

News Ban Asked For Gattis Trial
By MARION BETHEA

Multitudinous motions have been entered by defense attorney Thom Rumberger in the case of Louis Smith Gattis III, who is charged with first degree murder in the death of Karl Fulmer, 18-year-old Walt Disney World employee.

Gattis pleaded innocent at his arraignment on Feb. 4 before Circuit Judge Dominick Salfi.

In the motions, the court is requested to control discussions between court officials and state's officers as well as defense and law enforcement personnel and the news media. The court granted an oral motion in this matter.

A subsequent motion asks that the court quash the grand jury indictment alleging that the grand jury heard hearsay evidence although an informant was available for direct testimony.

The motion asks that the minutes of the grand jury be inspected and/or dismissed.

An application also is made for admittance to bail and for production of statements and confessions of grand jury testimony.

There is also a motion to compel the disclosure of all evidence favorable to the defendant and a motion to control prejudicial publicity.

Rumberger claims in the motions that due to widespread publicity in the case Gattis will be denied the right to a fair trial, and requests the court to bar reporters from Gattis' April 24 trial.

The motion also requests that the news media be refrained from photographing Gattis from within the courthouse and jail.

Gattis was arrested on Jan. 23 in Inverness while law enforcement officers were recovering parts of Fulmer's body from the site of the Little Wekiva River. A jawbone found at the river bottom was identified by dental records as that of Fulmer.

Fulmer, of Groose Point, Mich., moved to the area last October, after which he rented a room at a Winter Park address from Gattis. Fulmer was allegedly killed after he accidentally learned of a teenage girl they ring operated by Gattis and threatened to disclose the matter to authorities.

Killer Stabs 3 To Death
BLACKPOOL, England (AP) — A tall young man with dark hair, a foreign accent and a knife ran amok in the children's ward of a Blackpool hospital early today and escaped after stabbing three sleeping children to death.

The killer also wounded two nurses badly and gave another child minor wounds.

More than 200 police with tracheal tracers searched the grounds of Victoria Hospital and a nearby park. Detectives combed the hospital, and roadblocks were set up on every highway leading out of the holiday resort on the northwest coast of England.

Police said the man walked into the second floor ward at 1 a.m., said he was a member of the staff and asked for sleeping tablets. Then suddenly he pulled his knife and stabbed the two duty nurses in the chest.

A chorus of terrified screams echoed through the ward as the killer raced from cot to cot, wielding his knife. Despite her wound, one of the nurses raised the alarm. Orderlies rushed in, but the intruder had gone.

Two 2-year-old boys and a 4-year-old girl were killed. Another 2-year-old boy was wounded.
