Misinformation On Hepatitis

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.
DEAR DR. LAMB—Would you please answer some questions on hepatitis? There is so much of it around now and also a lot of misinformation about it, too. I would like to know what hepatitis is. Why is it that medication is not given for it, just rest and good food? It is contagious until the patient's blood tests are normal? Why does it take so long to recover from it? Does it come back after recovery? How soon after recovery can a person have an occasional beer?
There is abundant evidence that alcohol is a toxin to liver cells. This is not dependent upon a poor diet or anything like that. It is a direct toxic reaction to alcohol. Obviously, when the liver cells are already damaged and trying to recover, you don't want to take a chemical that damages the liver.
Alcohol should be strictly forbidden until there is good evidence that the liver has completely recovered. This is judged by various tests of liver function and other clinical information the doctor gets from his examination. The length of time it takes for the liver to recover from hepatitis varies greatly, and depends also on how much liver damage has occurred. Obviously, it can be months before a person with severe viral hepatitis can safely drink alcohol again. And, if there has been extensive liver damage, any amount of alcohol poses some hazard.

John Carli To Head Chamber

John Carli, 47, director of services for Chase & Co., Sanford, succeeds Chamber President Wayne Albert.
The Chamber has so many worthwhile projects to launch the businessman... It should be a real fun job," said Carli.
The other new officers are Tom Hunt, vice president; Deibert Abney, treasurer; and executive directors Vic Arnett and John Spolski.

City, County Act On Drainage Problems

City and county officials have teamed up to attack drainage problems and county commissioners Tuesday instructed County Attorney Thomas Freeman to draft a joint resolution.
Since drainage problems are not confined to any one specific area, the special "task force" or team, will first seek funding for an overall study of drainage.
Later on, the study can be turned into action. The Tuesday session was attended by representatives of the county commission, members of the county's professional staff and Altamonte Springs Mayor Norman Floyd.
Bob Ellis, the commission's administrative assistant, said he will contact Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) personnel to see if federal money could be used to fund activities related to drainage problems.
Calling the meeting a "very productive session," Ellis said he felt it could be the first step toward solving drainage problems in the county.
According to a memo from County Engineer William Bush, drainage problems have been experienced in several areas of Seminole County.
"Until now the county commissioners have confined drainage expense to problems associated with the county road system."
"Now, however, with increasing residential density drainage problems are affecting personal property as well as the road in a manner that requires joint solutions," Bush said.
Bush identified the following as areas where drainage problems exist: Rolling Hills, East Altamonte, Grassy Road, Bear Lake area, English Estates, Oxford Road, Lake-O-The-Woods, Tanglewood, Eastbrook, Goldenrod, Sanford East and Sanford West.
"Recent years," he said, "little, if any, progress has been made in alleviating drainage problems in such areas. As time goes by, the problems are aggravated by increased development."
The "task force" would study each area, assign priorities and begin mapping each individual area to come up, eventually, with a comprehensive drainage plan.
Each area would be funded by the city and the county upon approval of elected officials in each governmental body.
Flooding has been prevalent in South Seminole, particularly in Altamonte Springs.

Longwood Man Jailed In Car Death

A Longwood man was in the county jail today facing a possible maximum prison sentence of 15 years after being charged in the traffic death of a three-year-old child.
Monroe P. Lee Jr., 25, of 565 Seminole Ave., Longwood, entered the plea when scheduled to come to trial on Monday before Circuit Judge Robert B. McGreggor.
Lee was ordered held in the county jail pending completion of a pre-sentence investigation and sentencing in the case on Jan. 21.
Highway Patrol investigators said a car driven by Lee was northbound on I-4 near SR-436, Sept. 3 at a speed of 80 miles an hour or more when the vehicle struck the car of a New Jersey family from the rear and sent it rolling into the median.
Lee left the scene of the accident that killed Fabian Montez, three, and injured his parents and was arrested later after FBI investigators for a pre-sentence investigation and sentencing in the case on Jan. 21.
Judge McGreggor released Lee on $25,000 bond for trial on Monday before Circuit Judge Robert B. McGreggor.
Lee was ordered held in the county jail pending completion of a pre-sentence investigation and sentencing in the case on Jan. 21.

SEEDCO Master Plan Unveiled In Sanford

A $3 million, master plan for the long range development of 35 acres off I-4 and S.R. 46, which includes the pending purchase of the Sheraton Longwood Inn — was unveiled Monday by a member of a federally-funded agency.
All property except the present motel site is owned by the Seminole Employment and Economic Development Corp. (SEEDCO), an agency designed to raise the economic level of Seminole County.
Horace L. Orr, SEEDCO's president and executive director, said the anticipated purchase of the 100-room motel for about $1 million and its development into an eight acre Sanford "Community Center" with clubhouse, banquet-center and putting green is the "key or core project" in the plan.
The development of the "interstate quadrant" to include offices, a tourist information center and light industrial complex, is "five to 10 years away," said Orr.

Taxi Co. Given License

Sanford Transit Line, which operates Yellow Cabs in the city, finally received an option to purchase an eighth taxi license at Monday night's city commission meeting, but only after a marathon debate.
The heated discussion involved commissioners; Fadel Elhadramy, president of Sanford Transit Line; and Johnny Madison, a representative of Deluxe Taxi.
Several times during the discussion Elhadramy, who was present to answer commissioners' queries about the company's operations, said the City of Sanford was giving "unfair treatment" to Sanford Transit Line.
" We have to follow certain rules and regulations while other companies do not," Elhadramy said. " We have done our best for the people of Sanford, we want the people to back us up."
Elhadramy cited alleged illegal activities on the part of his company's competitors as an example of the discriminatory treatment Sanford Transit was receiving.
He said other cabs solicit business at the Win-Dixie store on First Street, and take away Yellow Cab's customers. He also said other cabs listen to Sanford's Transit's dispatch frequencies, then rush to pick up the customers first.
" But Mayor Lee Moore reminded Elhadramy that any illegal activities on the part of competitors was "between them and the city of Sanford," and while the city was interested in stopping any such activities, Elhadramy's purpose at the meeting was to answer charges that his company was not utilizing all of its seven licenses taxis.
The Sanford Transit Line president said his company was operating with a reduced number of cabs because a rash of accidents had crippled four of the taxis, which had to be repaired.
Madison, then rose to assure commissioners that his two taxis were in good condition, and not delapidated. Madison also stated his opposition to a proposal by Elhadramy that all taxis in the city be equipped with meters.
" Sanford isn't ready for meters," Madison said. "It's hard enough for us (taxi owners) to get along now."
After the lengthy debate on the issue of licenses Mayor Moore said the cab companies (Continued On Page 3-A)

Jury Sits; High Court Hears Plea

The Seminole County Grand Jury that last week reportedly returned four indictments in connection with a county government corruption probe was back in session today and believed to be continuing its investigation into other areas of county government.
Meanwhile, the Florida Supreme Court was expected this afternoon to set a hearing date on Seminole-Brevard State Atty. Abbott Herring's effort to set the four sealed indictments released by local circuit court judges and the persons named in the indictments arrested.
A spokesman for State Attorney General Robert Shevin in Tallahassee said Shevin is asking the Supreme Court to consider Herring's petition as soon as possible.
The indictments returned Wednesday were accompanied by an interim grand jury report believed to have named at least one unindicted co-conspirator.
Circuit Judge Joe A. Cowart Jr. ordered both the jury report and indictments sealed for 15 days citing a state law allowing persons named but not indicted by a grand jury time to ask the court to repress or expunge portions or all of grand jury reports concerning the indicted persons.
When receiving the jury report and indictments Cowart noted that he was doing it for Circuit Judge Velle Williams, who was out to lunch. Cowart said Williams had prepared an envelope for sealing the documents.
Judge Williams told reporters 30 minutes before the grand jury made its return that if public officials were indicted the indictments would be sealed and no arrest warrants would be issued. He said the court would personally notify the officials and that only the court, grand jurors and state attorney would know who was named in the documents.
Herring, in a petition for a writ of mandamus asking the supreme court to order the indictments released, noted newspaper accounts of Judge Williams' statements.
" This is a deliberate and intentional act by the court which was intended to protect public officials from undue and excessive publicity," Herring said in the petition.
Herring claims the applicable provisions of the law in the sealing of the indictments is unconstitutional and asks the high court to rule.
" The effect of the court's action is to treat one class of persons charged with a crime different from all other persons so charged and is an unlawful, arbitrary and capricious abuse of the court's function and power," Herring's petition says.
Herring's office tried to get Judge Cowart to release the indictments Thursday in a secret hearing also attended by attorneys Newman Brock and Gerald Rubberg.

Bradshaw Fee Payment Okayed; Vote Charge Rebuffed

By JANE CASSELLBERRY
Herald Staff Writer

WINTER SPRINGS — The city council voted 5-2 Monday night to pay legal fees incurred by building official Ray Bradshaw and heard city attorney Gary Massey tell an unsuccessful council candidate that alleged irregularities in last week's election were not covered by city codes.

Voting against Councilman Donald Browning's motion to pay Bradshaw's expenses were Councilmen Irene Van Eppel and John Daniels. Daniels called the move to pay the unbudgeted fees without a public hearing required by city charter, "an interdepartmental transfer of funds is made to handle unbudgeted items, 'illegal' and 'unethical.'"

Massey, who called the amount charged by Bradshaw's attorney Terrence Acker

"reasonable," told the council payment would be justified if it were in "requisite public interest." Some items were deleted from the original total of $1,940.50.

Councilman Ernest Hendrix asked for a recess before the vote so he could confer with Massey on the definition of "requisite public interest."

In citing previous court cases relating to payment of legal fees for individuals by cities, Massey said the precedents all dealt with elected officials involved in law suits and he could find none dealing with an in-house investigation of a city employee, as in Bradshaw's case.

In agreeing to vote for paying the fees, Hendrix asked that payment be deferred until Jan. 5, 1976. "To give anyone an opportunity to contest or file an injunctive suit."

"I do not recognize the 'public interest,'" Daniels said, "I feel before any decision is made to pay there should be a public hearing." Laurent, Pellerin, unsuccessful candidate for mayor in last week's election, said, "At least in a public hearing we could speak without hiring an attorney. If we are forced to hire an attorney, is the city going to pay?"

When Daniels asked where the money was coming from, Browning suggested the mayor's office, but Mayor Troy

Piland objected that amount allotted for city attorneys' fees and legal emergencies had already been taxed when the city hired Howard Marzee to defend the city in the suit brought by Seminole Baptist Temple and Newman Brock as attorney during the investigation into alleged irregularities in the building of-poll watchers were allowed in the polling place where they talked to voters.

Massey said, however, there could be no irregularity as the city has no election procedure since state election law has not been adopted by the city and the codification of the city's ordinances had left out election procedures.

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

Defendant Sheds Clothes, Shouts 'Crucify Me' In Court

VERO BEACH (AP) — A fruit picker charged with stabbing a young woman to death and attacking two motorists with a machete stripped off his clothes during a court hearing and shouted, "Crucify me, crucify me, just like Jesus Christ."

Three deputies then subdued Windford Jasper Mines, 30, as members of a junior high school civics class sat silently in the courtroom's front two rows during the Monday hearing in Circuit Court.

Mines is charged with the Nov. 13 death of Marie Hatnoll of Satellite Beach and with assaulting two motorists who stopped to render aid at the scene of Mines' broken down van, in which the woman's body was found.

Case Against Turner Closed
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Trade Commission has closed its case against controversial Orlando businessman Glenn W. Turner.

While announcing the end Monday, the FTC criticized itself and other agencies for not moving sooner to protect thousands of consumers from a "wide variety of specific misrepresentations and high-pressure sales tactics."

The FTC issued a cease and desist order against the operations of Turner's Kosco Interplanetary Inc. firm nearly three months after Turner pleaded no contest to charges stemming from an alleged pyramid sales scheme.

are involved in a "dog-eat-dog business," but added that the people of Sanford are being served — in a very unusual situation.

More criticized Elhadramy's company for what he called a "failure to comply" with the city's demands that the company's parking lot be cleaned up.

"We never got any action unless we sent the Chief (Police Chief Ben Butler) over there, or had the city manager write you a letter," Moore said.

Nevertheless, a motion by Commissioner A. A. McClaran that an option to buy the eight taxi license be granted to Sanford Transit Line, with the condition that all eight taxis be in operation within 90 days, was approved.

In other activities, the Commission approved the purchase of a $6,000 closed circuit security system for the Sanford Police Department.

Chief Butler made the request, citing the need for continual surveillance of the department's parking lot to prevent vandalism.

Butler said the television system also would be useful when prisoners are arriving at the jail, since jailers could open the prisoner portal without having to be contacted by radio from the car outside.

Another item on the commission's agenda was a request by ABC Liquors to waive the requirement for construction of a fence on the site of its new lounge on South French Avenue.

Oviedo Man Posts Bond On Drug Charge

By BOB LLOYD
Herald Staff Writer

An Oviedo man has posted $5,000 bond and been released from the Seminole County Jail on a drug charge and another Oviedo resident has been jailed on an escape charge.

Robert Ashe, 26, surrendered Monday at the circuit court warrant charging delivery of a controlled substance. Ashe posted bond and was later released from jail.

Officials said the warrant was issued in connection with a three-month undercover probe of illegal drug traffic in the Oviedo area. Four other men, including a former Oviedo policeman, were arrested earlier in the probe and were released on bond.

John Lee Nickson, 21, of Oviedo, was held without bond on a warrant charging he escaped from the Oviedo City Jail on March 1, 1974. Oviedo police arrested Nickson Monday on SR-426 at Oviedo.

Man Jailed
Sanford police jailed Horace Lee Thornton, 23, Castle Brewer Court, Sanford, in lieu of $5,000 bond on a circuit court warrant charging buying, receiving and concealing stolen property.

Theft Probed
Sanford police today were investigating the theft of caroling, a door, a window, three light fixtures and a table in a burglary at a house on Mara Court.

Lt. Mike Rotundo said burglars entered the house owned by National Acceptance Corporation and removed carpeting from four rooms and a dining table. Also listed among missing items valued at $745 were a sliding glass door and a window unit.

Shop Rifled
Lt. Ralph Russell reported burglars made off with items valued at $116 in a break-in at Irene's Beauty Shop, 2640 Hiwassee Ave., Oviedo.

Police said the business was ransacked and vandalized. Listed as missing were four hair driers, cosmetics and supplies, jewelry and $30 in change.

Cash Taken
Sheriff's deputies reported burglars entered Forest Lake Elementary School, Sand Lake Road, and ripped open a floor safe in a vault, taking $150 cash. Detective A.J. Sanchez said the operation "was quite unprofessional" and that the vault at the Seventh-Grade Adventist school was entered by breaking through the ceiling.

Business Gutted By Fire

CASSELLBERRY — A fire of undetermined origin gutted Southern Line Cleaning's Inc.'s offices and machine shop at 250 Lyman Rd. early today.

Owner George Brown, who estimated the damage at $300,000, said the blaze apparently began on the north side of the building in the area of the coffee room and machine shop and was discovered at 12:25 a.m. by the night watchman.

Fire units from Winter Springs, Longwood and Altamonte Springs joined Cassellberry firemen in fighting the fire which was brought under control about 5 a.m.

Brown said he was only able to save a few personal files containing patients and pertinent information. All other records in eight offices were destroyed along with valuable closed circuit television and electronic acid machine shop equipment.

Williams Play Set At College
The Seminole Community College Players will present Tennessee Williams' comedy, "A Period of Adjustment," Thursday through Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the College Theatre.

The Seminole Players give a new approach to the Tennessee Williams comedy.

Act I opens with Ralph Bates (Gregg Phillips) sitting alone on Christmas Eve waiting for George Haverstick (Albert Mathers) an old war buddy who has just married a Texas girl named Isabell (Sondra Drexler).

Bates' wife (Kathy LaPointe) left him on the same day. All of this sets the scene for the action that takes place.

Enter the Stuart McGillicuddy's (David Watson and Marilyn More), Ralph Bates' in-laws, to add to the flaming period of adjustment that the two couples are going through.

There will be no admission charge.

A Correction
In a story on page 10 of the Evening Herald last Sunday concerning the Chamber of Commerce women's brunch, Chamber Executive Manager Jack Horner was incorrectly quoted as arguing those attending to shop and do business in "Downtown" Sanford. Horner actually urged that shopping be conducted in "Greater Sanford" and specifically named several shopping areas throughout the city.

County To Grade Ballfield

By agreeing to grade a baseball field at Lake Howell High School, the Seminole County Commission today may have opened up a new era of cooperation between the county and its 27 schools.

The proposal to grade the field at Lake Howell was made by Commission Chairman Mike Hattaway. Hattaway said he saw no problems with the project or with similar future projects as long as the general public is not denied access to the playing field.

However, Commissioner John Kimbrough opposed the Lake Howell project because he said it opens up an entirely new list of projects for the county's public works department.

A Word To Polk: Easy, Now...

Seminole County Sheriff John Polk, commenting on a recent wave of robberies, assaults and abductions in Central Florida, made a series of alarming statements that could easily be misunderstood by frightened citizens.

The Sheriff said that "the good people are going to be living in an armed camp to protect themselves." He indicated his reluctance to endorse the practice of keeping weapons in the home for protection. Nevertheless, he added: "I have one in my home. People have the right to protect themselves."

Now we certainly don't quarrel with a citizen's right to bear arms, nor do we advocate rigid gun control. We merely feel that the sheriff's words were ill-chosen. We believe that high law enforcement officials should choose their words carefully and use their statements to reassure a frightened populace.

Too often, these law enforcement officials fail to realize that their words carry considerably more weight in such cases than would a private citizen's utterances.

And we fear that all too often, there would be those among us who would accept such a statement at face value and regard it as an invitation to arm themselves and blast away at anything that moves.

Maybe this might have a noticeable effect on crime. But then again, it might have a noticeable effect on a few innocent persons who might get into the sights of a frightened, gun-wielding citizen.

We have high admiration for Sheriff Polk, but we urge him to consider its impact before making a statement which could be misunderstood by so many of the non-thinking members of the community.

DON OAKLEY Getting Parents Involved

One of the basic concerns of school districts across the country is how to get parents more involved in the educational process.

Over the years, schools have organized such things as Parent-Teacher Associations, open houses, conferences between parents and teachers and educational fairs to induce parents to consider the school a part of the community and, more importantly, to become directly concerned in the success or failure of their children.

The U.S. Office of Education has also recognized the importance of parent and community involvement and has insisted that it be an integral part of all Title I-funded programs, which are directed towards the disadvantaged.

However, traditional methods of persuasion, such as advertisements, press notices, posters and sending children home with announcements (which don't always get there) have had a minimal impact. The number of parents visiting schools is not large, especially among disadvantaged parents who may not have good memories of their own school days.

The Dallas Public Schools had much the same problem in other school districts in getting parents involved in what was going on in 20 of the city's Title I schools containing some 8,000 pupils.

They initially tried the traditional techniques but found them ineffective. "It just dawned on us to do something on a concentrated basis, not a brain storm but a logical approach," says Janice Arredondo, director of a reading program in the Dallas schools developed by Hoffman Educational Systems of El Monte, Calif.

"We didn't want it to be a case of parents coming to see films or hear speakers lecture on why parents should assist their children at home, since we knew these techniques would not work."

Thus the Dallas administrative and teaching staffs decided to reach into the community instead of expecting the community to come to them. Because the supermarket is a place most parents visit, the first step was to hold reading laboratories in stores where parents for the first time had the opportunity to see teachers demonstrating what this basic skill was being taught to their children.

Once the schools had attracted the parents' attention through the supermarket demonstrations, they then had to develop ways of getting the parents into the schools where they could participate in workshops and learn games and other activities they could use at home to reinforce achievement in school.

Such inducements included providing a day care center of baby sitting service for the younger children of parents and serving everyone a hot lunch. Parents were given stars for coming to a workshop and at the end of the year the most stars received a trophy.

This may sound like kid stuff, but apparently it works. Last year more than 400 parents participated in workshops at one time or another. Previously, the schools were lucky if 50 parents came all year.

Pearson, Champion Of The Helpless

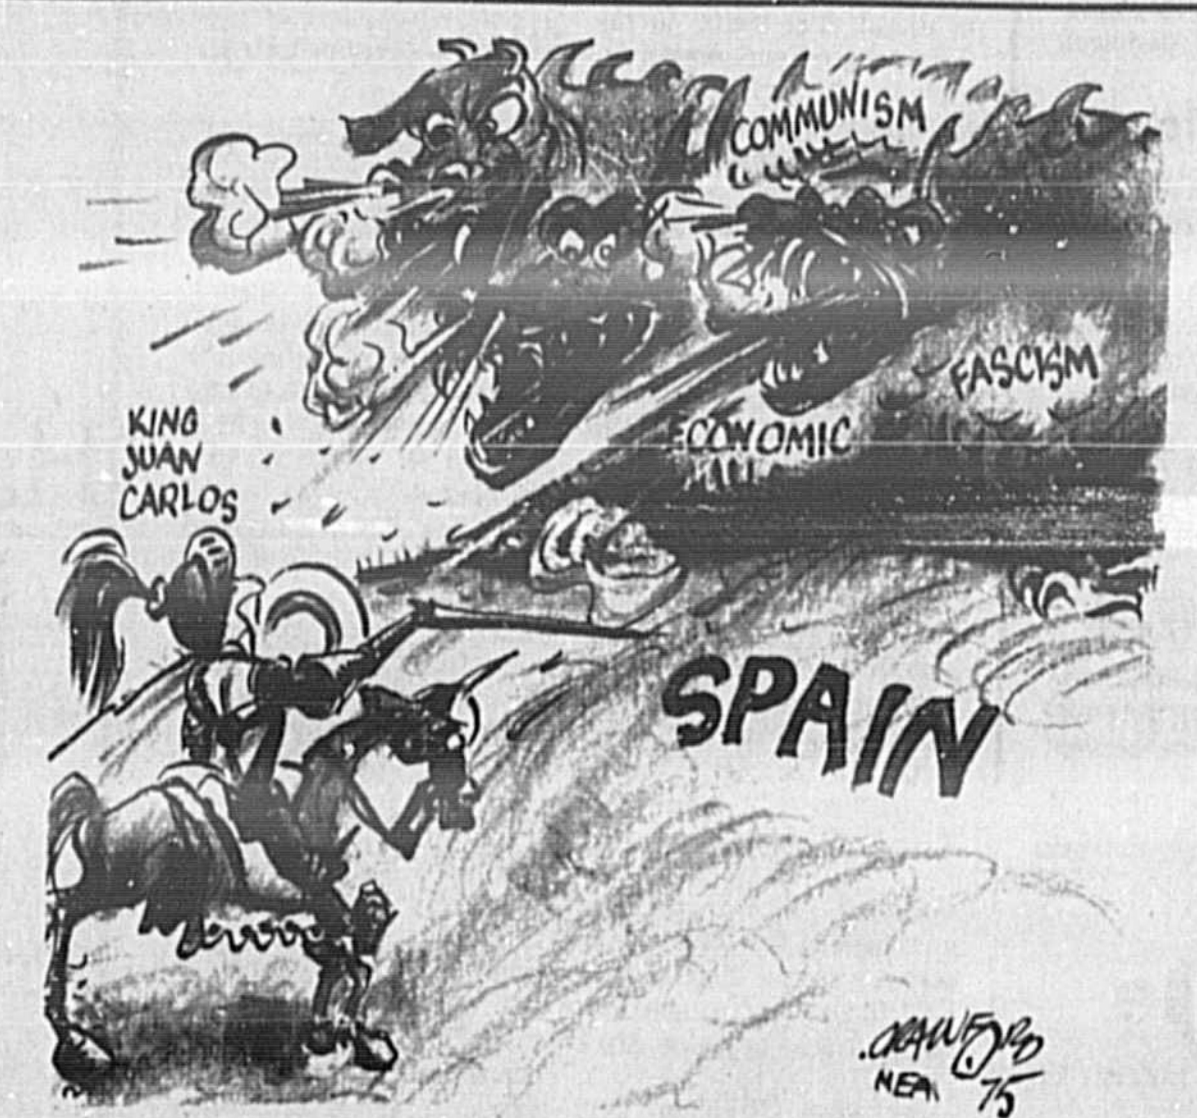

WASHINGTON — It wasn't long ago that investigative reporters were the pariahs of Washington journalism. The ruling institutions and their human instrumentalities were accustomed not only to having their way but to receiving only accolades from a press that, except in passing moments of upheaval, was generally docile and respectful.

At the turn of the century, political reporters in the nation's capital were likely to be prestigious and successful. They reported deaths, carried canes, practiced affections, were grave and dignified. They were called "journalists."

Should one of these learn accidentally that a high official was a disseminator, an incontinent, a bragger, a bankrupt, an illiterate, an aberrant, a narcoleptic or a simon — the correspondent would not dream to report such distressing news for it would shock his peers, demean his professional dignity and breach the comfortable decorum of the gentlemen's club he fancied he shared membership in with the elect.

My friend and mentor, Drew Pearson, who would have been 78 this month, pioneered the Waterloo-style reporting that has become the fashion today. Day by day, he flailed away at the maelstroms of the age — imperialists, militarists, monopolists, racists, religious bigots, plutocrats, hypocrites, crooks in government and the swindlers and exploiters of the poor.

In his day, he was more than a menace to the

Letters To The Editor

On Grand Jury

Some great problems have been created in Seminole County when Judges Cowart and Williams developed these indictments brought in by the grand jury. The fact that the officials have little to do with the grand jury system is not to be confused with the grand jury system itself.

Our grand jury system will be destroyed if these indictments are not acted on immediately. This sealing of these indictments and in the future any judge or attorney can request the sealing of the grand jury indictments and by citing what has taken place in Seminole County, Florida, December 3, 1975 established a precedent, this will enable the future manipulation of our laws.

The public is the grand jury and just because, you, Mr. John G. Public do not happen to be serving in this particular session does not mean you are not the grand jury. This is one of our most precious privileges. It is not a right, it is a privilege and it must be protected.

It would seem to me that if there is in fact some minute infraction in the way the indictments were handled down the grand jury could participate in workshops and learn games and other activities they could use at home to reinforce achievement in school.

RAY CROMLEY Government Has Fourth Branch

WASHINGTON — We watch Supreme Court appointments with care and analyze each choice in depth. We know the man or woman chosen for this third branch of government could have a major effect on our lives for years to come.

Quite frankly, I have always supported and enjoyed the Sanford Christmas parade until the past few years when they changed to an evening time. Spectators are unable to see well because of lack of lighting, and it is too late for many small children to stay — particularly on a school night.

I, as a band parent, will strongly urge the Seminole High band to refrain from performing in the Christmas parade again unless there are some firm commitments and guarantees of crowd control and possibly a change to an afternoon or Saturday time.

Memorial Hospital tomorrow (Wednesday) night

The 7:30 p.m. program will feature a film and discussion led by a member of the hospital medical staff. The seminar, the final in a series of monthly film-discussion programs this year, will seek to explain the dangers of the misuse of drugs and medicines.

You might plan to attend, just to be better informed on the misuse and abuse of drugs.

Recently, Craig Keogh, seventh grade social studies teacher at Milwee Middle School, taught a unit on the world's endangered species.

As an outgrowth of this particular class, the students of Milwee and Mr. Keogh decided to collect money for the Central Florida Zoo.

Monies were collected through the use of specially made collection cans constructed by the students, who felt they needed to take some type of positive action and the zoo seemed the logical choice.

—Bill Currie

As a result of their efforts, the zoo, our zoo, is rich.

Representatives of the zoo, accompanied by a young jaguar named Bitigita, met with the students and were presented with the check for $110, plus a can of money collected on the day of the presentation.

We're proud of these kids from Milwee Middle School, who discovered there are ways to apply lessons learned in the classroom to the world outside the school.

Keep up the good work, kids.

Church Nearing Candidacy, According To Close Aides

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Frank Church, chairman of the Senate intelligence committee, is within days of becoming the 11th Democrat to seek the party's 1976 presidential nomination, close aides report.

A spokesman for the 51-year-old Church said a national political committee will be set up later this month to assess Church's chances and to give him a solid base on which to make a final decision.

Gag Sought In Hearst Case

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Prosecutors, accusing Patricia Hearst's lawyers of using the media to create sympathy for the jailed heiress, have asked a judge to issue a gag order barring attorneys from further public comment on the case.

The government's motion Monday charged that defense lawyers F. Lee Bailey and Al Johnson waged a "publicity campaign devoted to evoking a sympathetic public image for the defendant by stressing her mental condition."

The result of the publicity, the government alleged, "can only be to influence potential jurors."

Now Opposed To Stevens

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Organization for Women is asking President Ford to withdraw the Supreme Court nomination of John Paul Stevens because he "is a man who would be 'more concerned' about the discrimination against blacks than against women."

Stevens, who is returning for further testimony today before the Senate Judiciary Committee, told the panel Monday that blacks "are a more disadvantaged group" than women.

Moynihan Calls Israel Censure One-Sided, Casts U.S. Veto

UNITED STATES, N.Y. (AP) — The United States has cast its 12th veto in the United Nations Security Council to defeat a resolution condemning Israeli attacks on Palestinian camps in Lebanon.

U.S. Ambassador Daniel Patrick Moynihan told the 15-nation council his government, as a principal mediator in the Middle East, could not support the resolution because it did not ensure guerrilla violence against Israel and therefore was one-sided.

Thirteen countries voted for the resolution, and Costa Rica abstained. "The condemnation is there," said a spokesman for Lebanon, which had asked the council to take action against Israel.

Hostages' Fate Unceded

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands (AP) — An Indonesian Embassy official was to meet today with a representative of South Moluccan nationalists holding more than 50 hostages in the Indonesian consulate in Amsterdam and aboard a stranded train in northern Holland.

The train siege was in its eighth day and the consulate sleep in its sixth, and police expressed doubt that either would end soon.

Kissinger Plans Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger is holding up a final decision on a trip to Moscow until he has assurances from the Soviet Union that it is ready to break the nuclear arms deadlock.

The reported gains by the pro-Moscow Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola (MPLA) came at a time when President Ford is under fire from Chinese leaders as well as several Republican for not taking a tough enough stand against the Soviets.

Lormann Vetoes Lot Ordinance

LONGWOOD — Mayor James R. Lormann Monday night vetoed an ordinance which would have banned lot coverage by buildings on more than 50 percent of properties in industrially, commercially and business zoned property in the city.

In his veto message, Lormann said the ordinance was a duplication of existing law, unconstitutional under the due process amendment and that major changes in the ordinance occurred between the first and second readings in violation of state law.

Although the city charter permits an override of a veto by a simple majority the council Monday night made no effort to take the action.

This marked Lormann's second successful veto this year. The earlier veto was on an ordinance which would have required land speculators to begin development on newly rezoned lands within one year or zoning would lapse.

City Attorney Ned Julian Jr. said Monday night that Public Safety Director Doug Kellier has recommended that charitable and church organizations be exempted from the proposed law, that it is not as stringent as believed and that criticism of it is a "red herring."

Seminole County Sheriff John Polk, commenting on a recent wave of robberies, assaults and abductions in Central Florida, made a series of alarming statements that could easily be misunderstood by frightened citizens.

The Sheriff said that "the good people are going to be living in an armed camp to protect themselves." He indicated his reluctance to endorse the practice of keeping weapons in the home for protection. Nevertheless, he added: "I have one in my home. People have the right to protect themselves."

Now we certainly don't quarrel with a citizen's right to bear arms, nor do we advocate rigid gun control. We merely feel that the sheriff's words were ill-chosen. We believe that high law enforcement officials should choose their words carefully and use their statements to reassure a frightened populace.

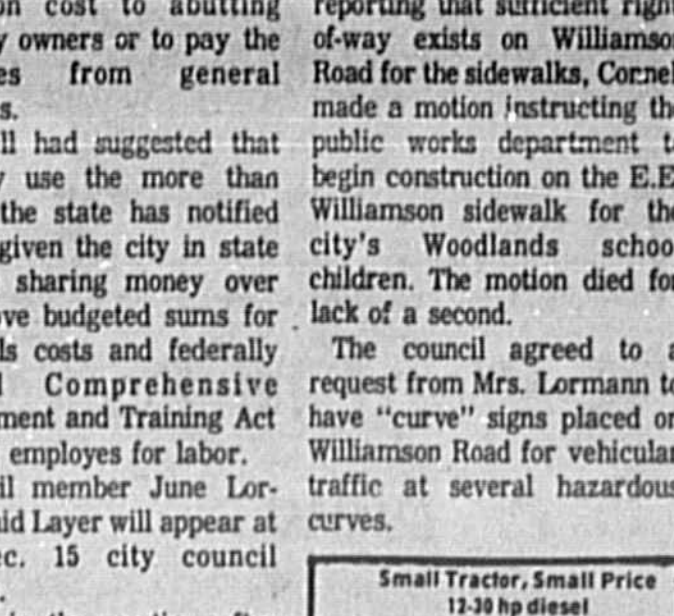

Too often, these law enforcement officials fail to realize that their words carry considerably more weight in such cases than would a private citizen's utterances.

And we fear that all too often, there would be those among us who would accept such a statement at face value and regard it as an invitation to arm themselves and blast away at anything that moves.

BERRY'S WORLD

"Good heavens! It's an order from the Pentagon. They want two hundred-and-fifty thousand 'Pat Rocks'!"

Peeping Husband Perplexes Wife

Dear Abby: I am writing to you out of desperation. After nine years of marriage that I thought was good, I have to face the fact that my husband is a "peeping Tom."

Three years ago he watched my sister take a bath. She caught him. There was an ugly scene. I made excuses for him. "It was an accident, etc." — and he really seemed sorry for having done it. I finally got over it.

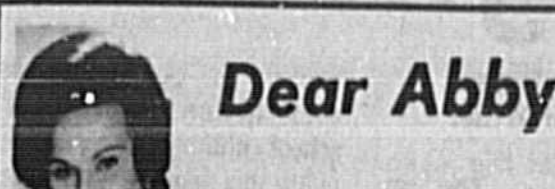

Well, last night he did it again. This time it was another sister. He knew she would be sexual demands, yet I feel that it must be my fault. Could he become dangerous? I don't know how many other windows he's looked into. Please help me.

HEARTSICK: The chances for your husband being "dangerous" are very small. Most voyeurs (people who like to look) are usually harmless, but on the chance that he is not, talk to him about it and insist that he phone the Local Mental Health Association for an appointment to discuss his problem with a professional. He can overcome it if he wants to.

Everyone has a problem, what's yours? For a personal reply, write ABBY, Box No. 4700, L.A., Calif. 90048. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Host a Lavender Wedding," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (24¢) envelope.

When I couldn't find him in the house, I went outside and caught him looking in the window at my sister. I didn't want anyone to know what was going on, so I didn't make a scene.

Abby, I am heartsick! I love him so much, and he is such a good man in every other way. I've never said no to any of his

Delta Family Cookbook Reflects World's Taste

By ELDA NICHOLS, Herald Correspondent

There's a fascinating story behind a great new cookbook on the market: The Delta Family Cookbook, Over 500 recipes are in the book, gathered by members of Delta Wives Club of Orlando, from all over the United States and several foreign countries. In fact, from every Delta Air Line station.

It all started when a Delta employe, F. E. Williams, Orlando, became ill with renal failure (kidney disease). He required treatment at least three times a week, and at that time, the Kidney Center in Orlando, had facilities for only two patients.

Mrs. Williams (Jimmie) said, "We were in Miami for eight weeks, being trained to use a dialysis machine, as there was no place here to receive the home training. We found it was cheaper to buy or rent a dialysis machine and keep it in our home. Even so, the rent is approximately $100 per month, plus each treatment costing $75."

Williams received a kidney transplant in January, 1973. Said Jimmie, "We were so happy to see that machine go out the door! It is now on loan to other patients." Williams had a minor rejection of the transplant in January, 1973. In the Air Flight Department.

Williams' story turned out happily, but for many other afflicted people in the Central Florida area, their need is as great as ever. The Delta Wives Club of Orlando, under the guidance of Jimmie Williams, began to discuss ways of raising money to be able to raise kidney transplants, and especially indigent patients.

At first, when a cookbook was suggested, the women gathered a few local recipes for a small book. Then the idea began to mushroom, and letters were sent to all Delta Wives Clubs, explaining the project. It wasn't long before the recipes started pouring in.

"Response was tremendous," said Mrs. Billie Doolittle, consultant for the Cookbook. "We received over a thousand recipes, and then began the job of getting them organized. Talk about blood, sweat and tears!" Billie's husband piloted Delta planes for 31 years.

"There is a children's section, as well as one for men who enjoy cooking," said Carolyn Street, and editor of the book. "The proceeds from the book will all go to fund the center," said Mary Hensel, another editor. "There is now a satellite center in Melbourne, with 12 chairs, and it helps those people who formerly had to travel to Orlando for the treatments."

Billie admits she is a "nut" about cookbooks, with over 400 lining shelves all over her house. "Anyone buying this book will be well-blessed," she stated. "There's something for everyone and you can have lots of fun with it."

The Delta Family Cookbook is presently on sale at Frey's and the Golden Crickler, in Winter Park; Jordan Marsh in Orlando; and at McCoy Jet Port. It costs $5.50. A copy may be ordered from the Delta Wives Club of Orlando, P.O. Box 20333, Orlando, Fla., 32814. Try a few of these sample recipes taken from the book!

HOT CANAPES

1 1/2 cups cheddar cheese, grated
1 cup chopped ripe olives
1/2 cup mayonnaise
Mix ingredients together and spread on buttered toasted triangles of bread. Broil until bubbly. (Note: spread will keep one month in refrigerator.)

CRANBERRY BREAD

Beat together following:
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1 heaping tsp. grated orange rind
1 Tbsp. melted butter
Add to the above mixture, alternately with the dry mixture, the following:
2 Tbsp. hot water in a cup, and add orange juice to make 1/4 cup liquid. Set aside.

Sift together the following dry ingredients:
2 cups flour
2 Tbsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. soda
1/2 tsp. salt
Add alternately to egg mixture.

Mix together well and add:
1 heaping cup cranberries, cut in half
1 cup chopped nuts
Bake in loaf pan one hour in 350 degree oven.

BEEF BURGUNDY STEW

2 lbs beef cubes (about 1 1/2 inches)
2 Tbsp. butter
1 can (10 1/2 oz.) condensed beef broth
1 1/4 cups Burgundy or other dry red wine
1 can (16 oz.) tomatoes
1 sm. bay leaf
1 med. clove garlic, minced
Dash pepper
4 med. carrots, quartered lengthwise
4 med. potatoes, quartered
2 cups sliced fresh mushrooms
1/4 cup water
In large heavy pan, brown beef in butter; pour off fat. Add broth, wine, tomatoes, bay leaf, garlic and pepper. Cover; cook over low heat 2 hours. Add carrots, potatoes and mushrooms. Cook 30 minutes or more, until vegetables are tender. Remove bay leaf. Gradually blend water into flour until smooth; slowly stir into stew. Cook, stirring until thickened, makes 6 servings.

SPICY WALNUT SAISON PIE

3 eggs
two-thirds cup sugar
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. each, cinnamon, nutmeg and cloves
1 cup light or dark corn syrup
one-third cup butter
1/2 cup coarsely chopped walnuts
1/2 cup raisins
1 1/2 cup crust
Heat oven to 375 degrees. Have pastry ready. Beat eggs, sugar, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg, cloves, syrup and butter thoroughly with rotary beater. Stir in walnuts and raisins. Pour into pastry-lined pie pan. Bake 40-45 minutes or until filling is set.

AVOCADO MOUSSE

1 pkg. lime Jello
1 cup hot water
2 cups ripe avocados, mashed
1 small onion, grated
1/2 cup mayonnaise
Juice of 1 lemon
1/2 tsp. salt
1 cup whipped cream
Dissolve Jello in hot water. Cool and add remaining ingredients. Fold in whipped cream. Pour into a ring mold. Chill until set. Serve with center filled with your favorite chicken salad.

Seven Years Later, Mother's Best Cake Pan Still Missing

The Pillsbury basketball bakeoff continues Saturday night at Seminole Community College. To date it has been an inside joke. But I'm letting the cat out of the bag. Or rather, the cake pan out of the bag.

Just how a cake pan fits into basketball goes back to the spring of 1969. Seminole had won the state tournament at Fort Pierce with its magnificent pair of superstars Simon Harper and Vernell Elzy. The Raiders beat Brevard in the final, and the two teams advanced to the regional against Georgia and Alabama teams.

It was no shocker that Brevard and Seminole tangled in the regional finals at Statesboro, Ga. It was something of a surprise — at least to a few Seminole partisans — that Harold Fox and Co. brought Brevard back to win the big one and go to Hutchinson, Kan. for the national tournament.

A Seminole cheerleader was prepared for victory, not defeat. Her mom had baked a victory cake, which was left in the Seminole locker room.

After the game, the cake wasn't touched. Too sad a reminder for what would have been: Seminole coach Joe Sterling took the loss hard. To this day, he doesn't even remember seeing the cake.

Saturday's Recipe: SCC-Brevard

But, after Seminole left and Brevard entered the locker area, the Cocoa boys certainly hadn't lost their appetite. What cake they didn't eat was carried off by a cake pan thief.

The mother protested to Brevard coach Jim Oler for months, insisting that someone had seen Fox walk away with the pan and that she wanted it back. It was her best cake pan, she explained.

The crime is still unsolved seven years later. Brevard plays at Seminole Saturday night. The Raiders and Titans have baked at 350 degrees for seven years now. Next instruction seems to be to show up at Seminole Saturday night for Part II of the Great Bakeoff.

It won't be a cake pan the two teams will be contesting. More likely that 96-84 defeat handed Brevard back on Nov. 22 had too much salt for Brevard.

The natural inclination from Brevard's side is that the Titans will be out for blood. Maybe not in buckets full, because they won't have their best player, Tony Warren, lost for at least a couple months. But at least two cups.

Seminole is in a good position, playing at home and the knowledge that they can beat Brevard in its hip pocket.

But, basketball being basketball, and the round ball taking funny bounces, it's one of those games in which anything could happen.

It should well be one of the best drawing games of the season.

As close as the two schools are, they have met only five times over the years. Brevard showing a 3-2 edge to date. Sterling and Oler were engaged in a standoff scheduling hassle the last five years, but that has been ironed out.

Little Of This, Little Of That

SHORT STUFF: Just 18 shopping days left until the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club opens its winter season of greyhound racing. It's handicapper delight upcoming as official schooling is set to begin next Monday night.

The Seminole Turf Club is staging winter training currently and has about 150 horses on hand for morning workouts and that many more expected by the first of the year. Seminole is applying for racing dates May 4 through Sept. 25 with Herb Holliday, track publicity director, kept track of favorites winning and found in the recently-completed meet they won 33.4 per cent of the time and finished in the money 57.6 per cent. Don Brainard was wins champion with 22 and a UDR of 548.

Orlando-Seminole Jai-Alai is giving away money — $200 to the winner of the slogan contest. Rules call for 10 words or less, including the name of the place, which leaves six words to come up with.

Eagles At Lyman Heads Prep State

High school basketball in Seminole County gets one of its stiffest tests tonight.

The major exam is at Lyman, where the undefeated Greyhounds try and stay that way against one of the expected-to-be powers of the Metro Conference, Edgewater.

Other testers include Lake Howell at Orsiedo, Oak Ridge at Seminole and Trinity Prep at Taylor Finsen.

Junior varsity encounters begin at 6:30 while varsity games begin at 8 p.m.

Seven Games Open Youth Basketball

Youth basketball got underway Saturday in the Sanford-Recreation Leagues with seven games.

In the intermediate league the Eagles got off to a slow start, but downed the Vikings, 37-32. High scorers for the Eagles was Jim Jones with 16 points. In the junior league, Atlantic National Bank of Sanford stopped Flagship Bank of Sanford, 43-35. High scorers for Atlantic were Mark Huanan 13 and James Litton 15. (Try to lead all scorers with 15, and Thus James led at 15, Anthony Smith had 10 of Daniel's points.

Crooms Crushes Eustis, 55-29

Crooms Junior High reeled off its second straight victory without a loss Monday night, crushing Eustis by a 55-29 margin.

Crooms' attack was three-pronged with Willie Nelms scoring 18 points, Felix Williams adding 10 and Ed Hudson eight.

Nelms and Hudson grabbed 11 and nine rebounds, respectively, to help dominate the boards.

Crooms coach Bob Bray wasn't pleased entirely with the effort. "We are lucky to be playing badly and still by a convincing score," he said.

The team plays again Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 at Lake Brantley.

EUSTIS — Barber 10.3, Brant 10.2, Carroll 10.3, Gilson 6.11, Harrison 3.04, Morgan 1.3, Smith 3.6, Whitaker 2.15, Watts 12.9.

No Powder, Puffs Of Dust As Senior Girls Win 14-0

It was billed as a powerpuff game. That's what happened Monday night as the senior girls' basketball team (if that's the word) their way through the juniors to record a 14-0 victory before a frenzied crowd at the high school stadium.

But there wasn't any powder on the noses of the junior and senior Seminole girls — only red walls and blue bruises. And the only puffs were of dust kicked up by the fleet senior backs.

And the hitting! Wow! There's one thing about flag football that's inevitable. As sure as you can say win one for the Gipper, flags are playing and gladiators are fought and losses-afoodness block and tackle.

Two long touchdowns and smashing over for a two-point conversion.

It was after Miss Hayes' second touchdown jump down the sidelines and was always ready and willing to lend a hand to the officials, who spent most of the evening trying to come up with the right call on some tough plays.

Spolaki, Mike Good and David Parker directed the seniors, while Kenny Lee and Ray Bertram coached the juniors.

Winning coach Whigham called most of the plays from the sidelines and was always ready and willing to lend a hand to the officials, who spent most of the evening trying to come up with the right call on some tough plays.

At one point, the seniors, perhaps imitating the Seminole varsity early in the season, had trouble getting a full team on the field one time, but with Miss Hayes in the backfield and a stingy defense, the outcome was never in doubt.

Moment Of Truth At Hand Tonight For Ross, Perez

By LOUIS SAPHIRS, Herald Boxing Writer

ORLANDO — Victor Perez and Eddie Ross.

They are the principals in 10 rounds or less, starting about 10 o'clock tonight at the Orlando Sports Stadium.

All the halcyon is over. All the predictions have been noted. All the analyses have been digested and all the angles covered. Now it's up to the fighters.

The entire boxing community seems to be split right down the middle, as to who will come out of this bout the winner.

Ross is known for his heavy-handed attack on the body. Not much on footwork or hand speed. The Dog is relentless in his attack.

Ross enters the ring with a record of 22-1 (16 knockouts) as compared to Perez' mark of 16-31 since he came out of retirement last year.

Both men have done most of their fighting at the Sports Stadium where they have become two of the area's most popular fighters.

Broken Thumb May End Len Dawson's Long Career

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Len Dawson's long, distinguished career may have ended in the shadow of his own goals, in pain and frustration.

He, it would seem an unfitting way for the American Football League's all-time leading passer to go out.

The 40-year-old Dawson has maintained that this, his 19th season as a professional quarterback, may be his last. But he insists he still has not made a decision and will not do so for several weeks.

In any event, he will play no more this year. Midway in the fourth quarter of the San Diego-Kansas City game Sunday, Dawson, all season a Chargers pass rush and broke his right thumb.

The Chiefs went on to lose to lowly San Diego, 28-20, failing to 57. An obviously disappointed Dawson said later, "It sure wasn't a very glamorous finish if this is the way I went out. If this is the end, it's been a great experience playing in Kansas City."

Both figures represent American Conference records.

On the all-time NFL, quarterback list, the boyishly handsome Dawson ranks fourth behind Johnny Unitas, Fran Tarkenton and Sonny Jurgensen.

Dawson, who played at Purdue and led the Big Ten in passing and total offense for three years, languished for three seasons at Pittsburgh and two at Cleveland before catching on.

In 1962, Hank Stram brought him to the young AFL's struggling Dallas Texans and Dawson promptly led them to the AFL championship over the Houston Oilers in pro football's second longest game. The next year, owner Lamar Hunt moved the Texans to Kansas City and renamed them the Chiefs.

For the next seven years, Dawson and the Chiefs hovered near the top. On Jan. 15, 1967, at the AFL champions, they met the Green Bay Packers in the first Super Bowl and were dispatched, 35-10.

Three years later, they extracted their pound of flesh from the rival NFL by upsetting the Minnesota Vikings 23-7 in Super Bowl IV, giving Kansas City its finest hour.

The Kansas City Star ran a front-page story last Thursday saying the Chargers contest might be the home fans' last opportunity to see Dawson and Buck Buchanan, a 12-year veteran of the defensive line.

When Dawson ran onto the field, the crowd jumped to its feet and gave him a standing ovation.

Stetson, Rollins Triumph

Senior forward Dave Stetson scored 24 points in leading Stetson's Halftime from a one-point deficit to an 81-66 basketball victory over St. Bernard of Alabama.

In other action involving Florida teams Monday, No. 1-ranked Indiana beat Florida State 83-59, in Indianapolis and No. 10 Cincinnati smothered visiting Biscayne, 74-52.

Jacksonville rushed past host California-Bakersfield 81-69 and Rollins downed Clearwater 85-52, in an in-state game.

In competition slated for Wednesday, Florida Tech meets Memphis State in Memphis, Tenn.

Friends, they are — there's no doubt about that. And friends they say they will be again, after one has been named the winner.

The scheduled 10-rounder for the Southern junior mid-level championship heads a card of four professional and four amateur bouts in the Sports Stadium's last boxing show of the year. Included on that card is a Southern mid-level title bout between champion Gene Wells and challenger Eddie Davis.

But the big one is the battle between Ross and Sanford's Perez. The two were scheduled to collide last week but the fight was postponed when Ross begged off, claiming a head cold had limited his ability to get ready for the crucial contest.

The delay has caused a rift in the relationship of the two being ring friends, as Perez feels he is being taken advantage of. "Eddie never took off one day from training but he was given an extra week to prepare for this bout. What gets me is, they (the promoters) have never given me an extra minute to get ready for any fight. This delay was unfair to me, as I was ready to fight and now I don't know if I am as sharp as I was then."

This controversy has added more fuel to a fire that has raged, almost out of control, ever since the fight was announced.

The entire boxing community seems to be split right down the middle, as to who will come out of this bout the winner.

Ross is known for his heavy-handed attack on the body. Not much on footwork or hand speed. The Dog is relentless in his attack.

Taco has flirted with the idea of retirement while Ross has his mind set on a boxing career, win or lose.

If Ross wins the fight he hopes to start meeting better men than he has faced in the past, while Perez has his sights set on a possible shot at world champ Elibas Obed.

The second largest crowd to ever watch a fight in this area is anticipated with the distinct possibility that it may exceed the record audience that sat in on the Joey Vincent-Perez fight last summer.

Wells match against Davis is a rematch of a bout they had earlier this year in Tampa. In that contest Davis gave Wells one of his most difficult bouts and narrowly lost a split decision.

Since that time Wells has won.

Joy Of Stitching Artist Must Experiment

By FIP WILLIAMS, MIXING YARNS

Just as the gourmet cook sometimes changes the amounts — or even ingredients — in a recipe to modify or improve it, so the experienced needle artist may experiment with mixing her ingredients on canvas.

One way to achieve added depth and more contrast in texture is to vary your embroidery wools. For instance, you might use tapestry wool for the facial parts and major design feature in a needlepoint picture. To make your shading subtler and more gradual, select tapestry yarns in colors that are available in a spectrum of shades. Tapestry yarn with extra long fibrils (mine, for instance) are stronger and produce a flat, smooth surface on the canvas.

When it comes to the background and the smaller flowers or subordinate details, you might choose crewel wools which produce a slightly different surface look and texture. I've often created a lovely highlight by using six-strand embroidery cotton when a sheen and luster quite different from that of wool. If you use this thread to highlight a needlepoint, you may want to use nine strands to be sure you cover the canvas completely.

Tarkenton Closing In On Johnny U. Georgia Peach Setting Records

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP) - Professional football's version of the Georgia Peach is packing up all of the game's passing records for shipment to his home state, where many of baseball's hitting records already are enshrined.
Francis Asbury Tarkenton needs only two touchdowns to surpass the record of 290 held by John Unitas. That record could fall by next Sunday during Minnesota's game at Detroit.
The 35-year-old minister's son from Athens, Ga., throws the way the original Georgia Peach, Ty Cobb, used to hit. "Francis is going to set some records that never will be broken," says Unitas, who spent 18 years establishing his brilliant totals.
Tarkenton already has surpassed Unitas' completions mark by 28 this season, while all the qualities of greatness and enthusiasm, but a scrambler in his early years, has given respectability to that frenetic activity. Grant likes to say Tarkenton's elusive maneuvers "buy time" for the quarterback and the receivers. Tarkenton also has rushed for more yards than any other quarterback in the game's history, with 3,627 yards on 608 carries. That averages just less than six yards per run.
Tarkenton still has one year remaining on his present contract with Minnesota, and physically appears capable of playing for a number of seasons after that.
"I want to play as long as I'm healthy and have the right attitude about the game," said Tarkenton. "And I still get excited about this game."

Raiders' 10 Sacks Pave Way SCOREBOARD

OAKLAND (AP) - The Oakland Raiders' defense rose to the occasion by knocking down Denver quarterback John Huftnagel and Steve Ramsey all night.
"Ten sacks! That's what makes my job easy - when the line is putting pressure on the quarterback," said rookie safety Charles Phillips, who intercepted three passes in the Raiders' 17-10 victory over the Broncos in a nationally televised game.
Otis Sistrunk, from his defensive tackle position, led the charge on the Denver passers. He took part in five of the sacks which took some heat off the Oakland offense and helped the playoff-bound Raiders win their seventh straight National Football League game.
The normally explosive offense run by quarterback Ken Stabler seemed to be working with a silence. Denver was held to one yard on a one-yard run. That was about it offensively. Denver outgained Oakland by 78 yards, 254 to 176, despite the 74 yards subtracted from the Broncos' total by the 10 sacks.
"Still, Oakland keeps on winning, and you can't knock success," said Broncos' Coach John Ralston, whose team is 5-7 and aiming only for the runner-up spot behind the Raiders, 10-2, in the American Conference West.
Ramsey threw a 33-yard pass to Haven Moses to set up Fran Lynch's five-yard touchdown run in the final period and Denver cut the Oakland lead to 14-10.
Two killing pass interference calls against cornerback Gerald Wright then hit Denver's defense, setting up George

Ross, Perez Fight Tonight
been fighting better than at any other time in his career and has run off a string of impressive wins over Sammy Barr, John Finney, Mike Morgan, Mike Baker and Jose Martin Flores.
The 37-year-old Wells is currently ranked sixth in the world in the junior middleweight division.
But both his ranking and his southern title, along with a promised shot at Abel, will go to the boards if Davis comes out the winner.
Davis holds a pair of scores over Perez along with scores over men like Tommy Van Hatten and J.T. Dore. A quick, impressive boxer, the Tampa fighter will try to out box Wells for the decision.
Goldenrod's James Salera is also set to make an appearance. Only 14 years old, Salera is a fighter who has many moves that some of the pros don't. Standing 6-1, and weighing 145 pounds, Salera hopes to grow into a heavyweight before he turns pro at the age of 18. Heavyweight Rick Constantine of Winter Springs will make his return to the ring after an absence of almost a year.
Rick's opposition will be furnished by the Melbourne Athletic Club.
The first amateur bout gets underway at 8 p.m.

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSLO

For Wednesday, December 10, 1975

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Problems of your making are likely to catch up with you today. Don't complicate things further by losing your cool. TAURUS (April 20-May 20) This is not one of your better days for having financial or business dealings with friends. Somebody will come out with the short end. GEMINI (May 21-June 20) The spotlight is on your today. Others will eye you critically. Don't do anything that could tarnish your image. CANCER (June 21-July 22) Try not to pass yourself off today as being an expert in something you know little about. The mistakes will be traced back to you. LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Make no impulsive moves businesswise today. There's a possibility you could make a costly blunder by not knowing what you're doing. VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You're likely to have trouble today in getting co-operation essential to your activities. HOLD ON TO YOUR SEATBELT! LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Pace yourself carefully today where your work is concerned. If you try to take on too much, you'll become very frustrated. SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Steer as far away as possible today from anything that smacks of speculation. The odds aren't in your favor. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Be understanding with those who come under your charge today. Dictatorial or harsh methods will gain you nothing. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Drive with both eyes on the road and both hands on the wheel today. Take your time — so what if you're a few minutes late! AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You might impulsively decide to go on a shopping spree today and bruise your wallet badly. Live within your means. PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Try to avoid head-to-head confrontations today with anyone who exerts authority over you. They'll get in the last word. YOUR BIRTHDAY Dec. 10, 1975 This coming year you will be able to take some positive steps toward shaping up situations that contribute to your basic well-being. Be diligent in what you undertake.

WIN AT BRIDGE

quite unbound, but it succeeded because North held four hearts and two spades. North actually held the heart queen, but all he needed was four hearts. Experts used it for about 20 years and then started to get away from it because of two weaknesses. The first was that you used four bids to cover the few hands that warranted an opening force. The second, that the negative two no-trump response tended to make the wrong hand declarer at no-trump. In the next articles we will show how the experts have found ways to handle forcing opening bids in better manner. Ask the Jacobys

By Oswald & James Jacoby The forcing two bid with the bust two no-trump response was invented by Theodore Lightner, Waldemar von Zeltwitz and Oswald Jacoby back in 1929. Here is a hand that led us to that invention. Jacoby, who sat South, opened one spade. He hoped that he would get a second chance and he did when the unfortunate East player reopened with two clubs. Young Jacoby simply jumped to seven hearts. The bid was spectacular and

SANTA CLAUS CAUGHT NAPPING Everyone needs a break every now and then and Santa Claus is no exception. He was caught by the photographer yesterday at Magnolia and First Street in Downtown Sanford as he took a short rest between his many chores. Note how he precariously guards the bag of goodies he hands out to the many children who stop him on Sanford's streets. (Herald Photo by Bill Vincent Jr.)

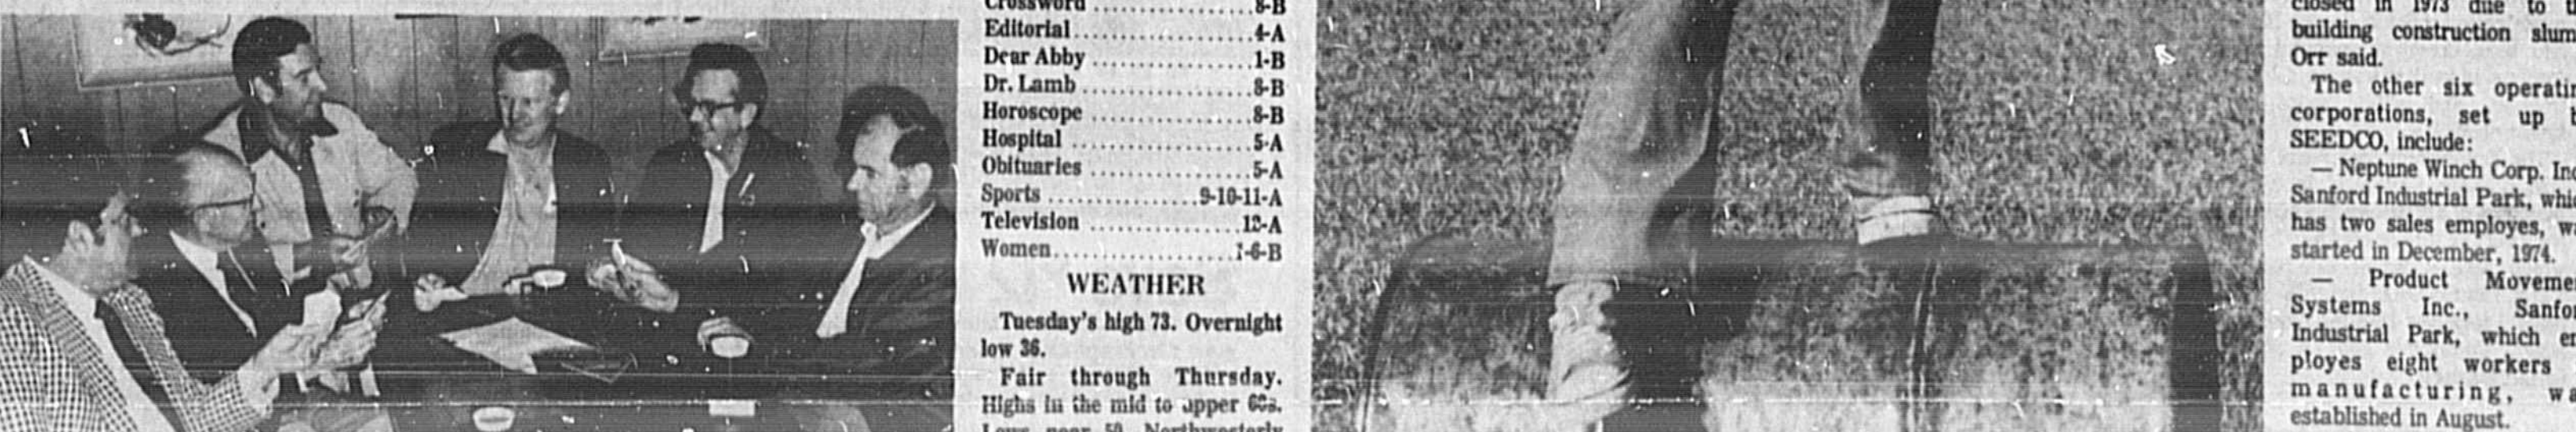

Insurance Coverage Expires Jan. 1

By JOE ASKREN Herald Staff Writer Jesse Chappell, the hospital's present agent with Jones, Hill & Cowan Insurance Agency of Jacksonville and Savannah, Ga. Administrator Robert Bessener said a special meeting will have to be set before the end of the year before the hospital renews and revises its insurance needs. Three bids received to handle the hospital's insurance, which were tabulated, were submitted from Seminoke Agency, Sanford; All Risk Insurance Co., Casselberry; and the Jones, Hill Agency. Chappell said the personal liability and the new state and federal high cost coverage requirements are "enough to scare a hospital board member to not serve on the board." —Jesse Chappell

City Eases Low-Cost Rules

Housing Boost Expected

By AUDIE MURPHY Herald Staff Writer A new ordinance that reduces square footage requirements for some buildings in Sanford will open the door for increased construction of low-cost housing, according to City Manager Warren E. Knowles. The ordinance requires 280 square feet for efficiency apartments; 400 square feet for one bedroom houses or apartments; 600 square feet for two three bedroom houses or apartments and 700 square feet for three bedroom houses or apartments. "Under the old requirements, it was difficult to build apart-

Herring Gagged On Jury Probe

By BOB LLOYD Herald Staff Writer (See Editorial, Page 5-A)

Seminole-Brevard State Atty. Abbott Herring and attorneys involved in litigation surrounding grand jury indictments sealed by Circuit Court Judge Joe A. Cowart Jr. are under a "gag order" not to discuss anything connected with the case with the press. Herring, Judge Cowart and other attorneys have refused to confirm or deny that Cowart issued the gag order last week and had it sealed and locked in a courthouse safe along with the grand jury report and indictments. But sources in Tallahassee have confirmed that the gag order was issued by Judge Cowart and information on it was included by Herring in documents filed with the State Supreme Court in an effort to force Cowart to release the

Regulations Cause Hospital Costs To Soar

Board member Andrew Carraway said he is concerned about the hospital's basic state-required, seven pairs of smoke barrier doors. Only one bid for $10,000 was received from Dunn Brothers Hardware, Daytona Beach. The board ordered a bid of $2,500 for a second telephone switchboard console system, to be installed within 60 days. The board approved a low bid of $388 for freezer for the hospital laboratory, but called for clarification of bid specifications for a refrigerator. The board also approved a low bid of $29,000 for Safelight Inc., Winter Park for phase II expansion of the X-ray department.

SEEDCO Expands Operation

Two of the eight separate corporations set up by a federally-funded agency are expanding their operations in Seminole County. Horace Orr, president and executive director of the Seminole Employment and Economic Development Corp. (SEEDCO), said he hopes the corporations will reduce the dependency of low income people on the economic base of the community by becoming self-sufficient and provide job training opportunities. Orr said the two growing corporations are the Seminole Bakery Products Inc., Sanford, which has 15 employees since its organization in September, 1973. Sem-Sun Nursery & Landscaping Corp., Casselberry, which was the first company set up by SEEDCO in 1971, was closed in 1973 due to the building construction slump, Orr said. The other six operating corporations, set up by SEEDCO, include: Neptune Winch Corp. Inc., Sanford Industrial Park, which has two sales employees, was started in December, 1974. Product Movement Systems Inc., Sanford Industrial Park, which employs eight workers in manufacturing, was established in August. Seminole Citrus Products Inc., Sanford, which employs two workers and was set up in June, 1974, is expected to open Jan. 1. Smith Fruit Co. Orinda, which has 130 employees, was set up in April, 1975. Evergreen Enterprises Inc., Sanford Airport, a land holding company for real estate and equipment and managed by 27 SEEDCO staffers, was established in the spring of 1974. SEEDCO Motor Inns Inc., Sanford Airport, was set up in 1972 and is involved with the pending $1 million purchase of the Sheraton Sanford Inn, off I-4 and S.R. 46.
