"Last year at this time, California Valencia Oranges of good quality were in heavy supply...

"Advices from California indicate that their Valencias will probably be out of the way by the time Florida Oranges begin to go forward...

This means that Florida Oranges will not go up against California Valencias competition at the beginning of the season...

SUNKEN SUBMARINE RAISED AT HONOLULU

SUBMARINE SANK SIX MONTHS AGO WITH CREW ABOARD

Honolulu, Aug. 30.—The United States submarine F-4, submerged outside the harbor here since March 25 last, was refloated last night and taken to the docks in Honolulu Bay.

The wreck probably will not be drydocked until Tuesday. Nothing has been divulged by the naval officers of conditions, is known, inside the vessel.

The actual raising operations occupied two hours, the plans of the engineers working without a hitch. The derelict was towed into the harbor, where all the ships, including the Intrepid German gunboat, Geir, lowered their flags to half-mast.

When the submarine has been placed in dry dock a Navy Board will begin a thorough examination to learn the cause of the disaster.

The submarine F-4 commanded by Lieutenant Alfred E. End, and a crew of twenty-one, went to the bottom of the harbor of Honolulu March 25, 1915, during maneuvers of the "F" squadron.

Lakeland Paper Suspends The Lakeland Morning Star announced editorially this morning that it would suspend publication, owing to the existence of "internal dissensions." Seminole Canning Factory The following article appearing in the Times-Union will be of interest to the producers of vegetable products in this county.

SEMINOLE WILL BOND FOR GOOD ROADS NEXT WEEK

From every part of Florida comes the glad tidings that bonds for good roads will be carried and the entire state will soon be a network of good hard roads, the majority of them being built of brick.

ENCOURAGING REPORTS FROM EVERY PART OF FLORIDA ON ROADS BEING BUILT

Aside from the bringing of new people into the state, the counties will also be looking after the interests of their own citizens. Here in Seminole county, the greatest fruit and vegetable growing county of the state, the economic value of good roads for the many benefits to the farmers cannot be estimated.

The Central Construction Co., of New York is now building eight miles of the famous sand-asphalt roadway, 9 feet wide, beginning at Altamonte and extending to or near the northern limits of the city of Eustis.

The Eustis Lake Region tells of the road making in that county as follows: "The Central Construction Co., of New York is now building eight miles of the famous sand-asphalt roadway, 9 feet wide, beginning at Altamonte and extending to or near the northern limits of the city of Eustis."

"It makes thousands of acres of the best lands in Putnam county immediately available for settlement and accessible to Palatka and the markets of the world."

"It is a positive necessity for any live, progressive community. We cannot afford to fall behind."

CLYDE LINE SUMMER TRIPS BRING PEOPLE

NEW YORK TO SANFORD EXCURSIONS GREAT ADVERTISING FOR FLORIDA

The summer trips on the Clyde Line from New York to Sanford and return have been the means of more people seeing Florida in the summer time than ever before.

It remained for the Clyde Line to inaugurate an excursion trip that was cheap enough to appeal to the people of the eastern seaboard and induce them to take this trip in the summer, as many of them are working in the winter and cannot possibly leave their business for the trip to Florida.

"Surrounding counties are sending delegations to inspect the work of construction which is highly educational to all."

"We do one of two things. We go forward or we stand still and are left behind."

"When bond issues, already passed or pending, for good roads in Volusia county are totaled, the amount reveals the astonishing figure of $1,100,000."

"Good roads, payable at all times, are the arteries of commerce through not altogether the rich tourist class but the substantial home builders, the working classes, the people who are slaving at different tasks in the great cities and who would like to change their conditions if possible, in a state that offers so many advantages for the home-seekers.

Florida owes a debt of gratitude to the Clyde Line for these summer excursions. They will inaugurate them from the first of the summer next season, as they are well satisfied with the results of the two months trial this summer.

"The prosperity of a community depends upon the prosperity of its people. The prosperity of its people depends upon the prosperity of the surrounding country."

"Without them we are merely a dead place in the way of a good road."

"We are known by the company we keep—progressive or non-progressive."

"The fire department fought the fire high by inch and finally overcame the flames about twelve o'clock with the front part of the wooden building still standing."

FIRE ALARM BADLY NEEDED BY FIRE DEPT.

AT PRESENT TIME THERE IS NO ADEQUATE ALARM SYSTEM

The fire on Sunday night demonstrated that Sanford needs a fire alarm that will really alarm people, and get them out. The fire department is well equipped in many ways although more ladders that would scale the tall buildings are needed.

FIRE FIEND BURNS BLOCK--CHARLIE BURNER LOST LIFE

CATASTROPHE ON SUNDAY NIGHT WHEN FIRE STARTED IN HYNES BLOCK

What seemed at first to be a fire that would sweep the entire block of buildings on First Street between Park and Oak, and what is known as the Hynes block, started in the rear of the Royal Cafe Sunday night about nine thirty.

The upper part of the building over the restaurant was used as sleeping rooms and several were occupying them at the time of the fire, among them being Charlie Berner, who several years ago had one of his legs cut off while in the employ of the A. C. L. Railway, and who used a cork leg.

"What's that you want, mister? I beg your pardon, he replied. 'A haberdasher, we repeated. 'Haw, haw, haw,' the durned stamp roared."

"Look here, white man, he said. 'You got to come clean with me. What you looking fer, whiskey' or women?'—Sarasota Sun."

The fire department fought the fire high by inch and finally overcame the flames about twelve o'clock with the front part of the wooden building still standing.

AT PRESENT TIME THERE IS NO ADEQUATE ALARM SYSTEM

In order to get these volunteers out there should be some means of acquainting them of the fact that there is a bad fire, and the whistle that formerly acted as an alarm on the ice plant has been discontinued.

In any event there seems to be a general demand at this time for an adequate fire alarm, and the city council should heed the call and make some provision for the same.

If the signal had been heard on Sunday night the populace would have gathered at the fire and more volunteers would have been available in which event the life of Charlie Berner might have been saved.

Rube Allen "Insulted"

The editor of this little sunbeam was grossly insulted by a common nigger when in Tampa last week. We did not intend to say anything about it, but we just got to get it out of our system.

"What's that you want, mister? I beg your pardon, he replied. 'A haberdasher, we repeated. 'Haw, haw, haw,' the durned stamp roared."

"Look here, white man, he said. 'You got to come clean with me. What you looking fer, whiskey' or women?'—Sarasota Sun."

The fire being in the frame buildings with tin roofs made it very difficult to overcome, as there were several frame buildings in the rear of the restaurant, and the fire quickly communicated to them, requiring the efforts of the department on these also.

The Lakeland Star has suspended. Another case of too many papers in a one paper town.

Don't go over to the beach until you have voted for good road bonds. This is of more importance than the races at the beach.

Reports are prevalent of big catches of fish at the beaches, and the local fishermen are getting ready to go over and make some new records.

The Clyde Line summer excursions from New York to Sanford are bringing people to this city, and there were some fifty excursionists here yesterday taking in the city.

Sanford needs a fire alarm system. Not only a big bell or whistle, but a system of alarm boxes that can turn in an alarm and let the department know just where the fire is located.

Next Monday's election day for good roads bonds and next Tuesday is election day for school bonds. Both of these should carry for the county needs more good roads and more good schools.

Who is the "M. B. H. of Sanford"? We thought it must be our friend H. B. H. The Herald says "Mr. H. B. H. is an interesting figure, and we know that the Bob will know. (Feature Column)

Bob Hilly, editor of the Sanford Herald and former president of the Florida Press Association, was to be postmaster of the City of Sanford. Better come clean, Bob, better come clean or we'll expose you for something or another Tampa Times.

Seminole County should have a county board of trade. Much could be accomplished by such a trade body as it could be the means of a better and more complete understanding, better cooperation and better advertising for the county than any other method of procedure.

If "Shorty Davison" of High Springs fame, has been pardoned by Governor Traub, an offence has been committed against the peace and dignity of the state of Florida. Any Floridian who signed a petition in favor of Davison's release should be ashamed of the act. Tampa Times.

You are right, Frank. We happen to know something about this case.

A FAIR EXHIBIT
Seminole county, among the youngest and most progressive counties in the state made a record last year by putting on a fair that was free to the public. The fair was all that could be desired, although the association had no grounds and buildings. We should have another fair this season or at least arrange for an exhibit of the resources of the county either at Orlando or Jacksonville or Tampa.

Last year Seminole carried off the first prize at Orlando and received a cash prize of $250 which was just half of the sum appropriated by the city and county. There is no doubt about advertising received by the county by such an exhibition and if our county is still of the opinion that we should have a county fair or an exhibit at some other city, this is the time to agitate the question and begin getting ready for the event. Let us have a county fair if possible.

Russians Falling Back
London, Eng. Aug. 31. Reports from the eastern front indicating that the Austrians and Germans are engaged in an effort to clear the last corner of Galicia still held by their opponents have excited great interest here. The Russian line on the upper Bug and the Zlota Lipa have been serious, but it is not yet clear how serious a resistance is being offered to the vast enveloping movement from the south.

Having lost at Brest-Litovsk, Grand Duke Nicholas cannot afford to hold this river position in the face of an important movement, for to do so would be to endanger his army. The opinion is ventured by some English critics that this latest move may conclude for the present the great offensive effort against the Russians, which has been in progress since May; and that once Austrian soil is cleared of the invaders a new campaign may be undertaken by the Teutonic forces, this time in the near east. In support of this theory is cited the report that the central powers are massing troops near the Roumanian border.

The week-end witnessed violent and almost continuous activity on the part of the artillery of the allies all the way from the North sea to the Vosges. There are no indications, however, that this expenditure of big gun munitions is being followed by infantry attacks.

London is again awaiting official reports from the British or French authorities concerning the campaign at the Dardanelles where according to Constantinople heavy fighting is under way.

B. Y. P. U. Meeting in Longwood

A very interesting meeting was held by the young people of the Baptist Church of Longwood Aug. 29, at 3 p. m. Rev. Geo. Hyman of Sanford was with us for the purpose of organizing a B. Y. P. U., and we can truthfully say that the interest which was taken by him was appreciated by the enthusiastic people of the town, who were present.

Other representatives of the Sanford union were:

- Mrs. Geo. Hyman, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gatchel and Miss Jimmie Laing. The officers elected for the ensuing six months were as follows:
President Mrs. J. M. W.
Vice Pres. M. W. F.
Secretary Mrs. M. E. P.

A Good Tree Story

The burning of the old wooden building on First street, having been a long time in the making, the burning of its building on that lot.

Way back in 1888, when the First National Bank was the only building on the block facing first street, Fred Hotchkiss bought the corner on Palmetto avenue and First street at which stood the wooden building. He intended to put up the present brick block on that corner. He purchased the present site of the old building and proceeded to move the building. The foxy city council, wanting the brick block and wanting the wooden building removed, allowed him to proceed with his work, until the wooden building got as far as the Phillips block on First street and then enjoined him from putting it on the new site because it was in the fire limits.

Fred urged that he was not bringing it into the fire limits, that it was already in the limits etc. etc. but to no avail. Just at this time an Italian organ grinder appeared and a bright idea struck Fred and he hired the organ grinder, by the day for a week got a ladder and placed the organ grinder on the roof and removed the ladder, and started the music. The fun began. Fred got a pile of missiles to hurl at the organ grinder whenever the music slackened.

The first day this was fun and laughing crowds gazed at Fred. The second morning it was not so funny, and the continued repetition of the same tunes on the loud sounding organ got on everybody's nerves. At two o'clock of the second day, the Council considered and told Fred to put his old house anywhere he wanted. As far as can be learned, this is the only case where an injunction was dissolved by the court.

Notice

We wish to publicly thank the Sanford Fire Department, both individually and as a department, for their heroic work on Sunday night when fire threatened our place of business. Funeral of Charles Bernier

The funeral of Charles Bernier, the young man who was burned to death in the fire of the Hynes block Sunday night occurred yesterday. The remains were taken from Miller's Chapel to the Catholic church, where the funeral was held. A large concourse of friends and relatives attended the funeral, for the young man was of a genial and sociable nature and had friends by the score. The interment was made in Lakeview Cemetery.

This is a sad ending for a young man who had not reached his prime and it seemed that Charles Bernier was doomed to suffer disappointments, accidents and death. While learning the business of railroading, and being one of the strongest and most healthy specimens of young manhood, he had the misfortune to lose one of his legs while making a coupling. This deprived him of the means of making a living at any active service, and he drifted from one business to another, always with the thought that some day he would obtain the use of his leg with the aid of an artificial limb and did wear a cork limb that was used with indifferent success, but he had attained a proficiency in packing fruits and vegetables and followed this business at the time of his death.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Berner and besides his parents leaves two sisters and a brother to mourn his loss.

The sympathy of the community goes out to the family in their hour of affliction.

Pressure Was Good

The pressure of water at the fire Sunday night was all that could be expected, regardless of the fact that needed repairs were being made at the plant and the hand pump was on the pumps. The department had sufficient pressure at all times to keep three streams going at a strong pressure, and this assisted in saving the block. The Sanford Light & Water Co. have their plant in good shape here to fight any kind of fire and this should appeal to the fire insurance companies for a reduction in the rates.

Fire Department Praised

The Sanford Fire Department, while not perfect, is about the best small organization in the state. The department needs more equipment in the shape of ladders and a volunteer force of good strong men who can be depended upon to assist when a large fire breaks out that is apt to tax the strength of the regular fire force. A better alarm system is also needed.

Our County Fair

Many enquiries come to the Herald office from parties interested in the county fair and it is not too early to take up this matter. If Seminole county is to have a fair in world know it now and not wait until the last minute as we did last season. If Seminole does not intend having a fair then some arrangements should be made to have an exhibition of our crops elsewhere.

For Sale

Two good horses; thoroughly safe, sound and reliable - one an all-round farm horse, also riding and driving horse. Also have for sale an orange sifter, practically new. 70-egg Cyphers incubator. George G. Herring, Sanford, Florida. 3-3tc

New Born Baby Found

A new born baby was discovered this morning on second street near the coal chute by members of a negro family named Hines who reside next door to an empty house, in the yard of which, the baby was hidden under a guava bush. The baby which was dead when found, is a well developed male child and was evidently hidden under the bushes this morning early, or some time during the night. Judge Stringfellow empaneled a jury and investigated the circumstances and the coroner's jury is still pending.

The baby is apparently a negro child, although the opinion of County Physician Miller will be taken as soon as the evidence is all before the jury.

Another Magnolia Home Contractor Pope started the new residence of H. M. Louckes on Magnolia avenue, yesterday and the home is to be finished and ready for occupancy by the first of December, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Louckes will become permanent Sanford residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Louckes have been winter visitors here for many years, where Mr. Louckes represented the well known commission house of Voorhees & Co. After visiting every part of Florida, they were satisfied that a home in Sanford would be the most desirable, hence the new building.

This adds another nice residence on Magnolia, a street that has attained remarkable growth in a few years, and is one of the most desirable residence sections of the city.

The Church Musician Returns

Mrs. Luella Aspinwall Tackach returns to her place as leader in music at the Congregational Church next Sunday. She spent several months in New York City, taking special work of a great artist and is planning to give special voice culture for the fall and winter.

One never tires of listening to her charming voice, and her work in church music has always been most eminently satisfactory to all listeners. Mrs. Tackach will be welcomed by the congregation to her place again.

Marketing Fruit

Western Peach Growers prescribed rigid rules for grading and packing their output.

New York, Tuesday

A western newspaper says: The great fruit this year in practically all sections has brought out very definitely that the problem of fruit is successful marketing even more than successful culture. The peach growing sections of Arkansas and Missouri will produce about 1,000 car loads this season, and they must previously close together. Because being most profitable they must find a market within a very narrow time limit.

The first step in the solution of this problem was taken by co-operating growers' associations who prescribed rigid rules as to grading and packing and whose duty to every member is to find markets not already glutted where the products can be disposed of to advantage. Co-ordinating the fruit to commission merchants in distant cities, all the way from Minneapolis to Boston, in many cases has been found to be most unprofitable to the growers as they never know what they will get for the fruit. So one of the large trunk lines running southeast from St. Louis arranged with the important fruit buyers to send representatives to all the great producing districts. They thus secure the best fruit offered and, by arrangement with the local banks, pay cash for every lot, all free on board, point of shipment.

This plan has proved of incalculable benefit to the growers by relieving them of all anxiety and further responsibility and assuring them a living price for their products. It has also been a boon to the local dealers for, once the cash in hand, the fruit grower is a free spender and purchaser of the very best both in quality and reputation.

Argentine Meat

The Armour's will see that prices are kept up all right. Good Night to cheap meat.

New York, Tuesday

According to an excerpt from the Review of the River Plate, reprinting a commerce report, the new Frigorifico Armour de La Plata, Argentine, has a capacity of 1,200 cattle, 2,000 hogs, and 2,500 sheep daily. The entire plant, exclusive of a few minor buildings, is of concrete and steel construction and is equipped to manufacture all the various products known to the packing-house industry.

The refrigerating, pumping, and electrical machinery constitutes the first word in installations of this kind and was brought from the United States. The canning room, sausage plant, curing plant for beef and pork products, and smokehouses for hams and bacon are either installed on the process of arrangement. Altogether the plant will be one of the most modern in the world. The dock, when completed, will accommodate two of the largest refrigerator boats, as well as a lighter.

Appropriately Named. Of course the morning-glory derives its name from the fact that it blooms only in the morning, and the "four-o'clocks" because they close at that hour in the afternoon.

DAMANOCKER, BEAROOSTER The dog sat in the midnight chill And howled at the beaming moon; His knowledge of music was strictly nil And his voice was out of tune. And he howled and he howled as the hours went by...

I noticed in the Live Oak paper that a doctor up there signs his name in his advertisement, J. W. King, B. S., M. D. Now I know some doctors that are afraid to tell the truth about their business.

It does my heart good to see the bulkhead filling coming along so nicely, and when it is finished it will seem that part of my work in Sanford is finished. If the hotel will only come next I can leave here with a light heart and a light pocketbook.

I never was in favor of dispensing with the fire whistle unless they had something equally as good to take its place, and the fire last night demonstrated this fact. What this city needs is a good fire bell or whistle that will wake the dead and have every able bodied man get out and help when help is needed.

The burning of that building in the Hines block last night will call to mind to the old timers around here of the time when that building was moved from Palmetto avenue, Sanford, to the main street to the accompaniment of the dago organ grinder on the top of the building, with Alcohol Mary and various other attractions all staged with the idea of raking it in on the people who objected to the building being moved from Sanford avenue to the heart of the new part of Sanford.

I reckon the folks who came here about the time I did some twenty-five years ago or more will recall that movement with many a laugh, for it afforded talk for the populace for many a day. I remember writing it up for the New York papers at the time but memory fails me in regard to the exact points. Maybe some of my old chums can supply the missing links in the story for the Herald.

The Miami Herald takes Ft. Lauderdale to task because the local school board of that place turned down a teacher in the schools on account of her religion being Catholic. The Herald cites that fact that when the information gets abroad that any community in Florida is full of such bigotry it will hardly redound to the credit of that particular section, with people who want to settle there, regardless of their religion.

The Herald is right. The Catholics pay taxes, are citizens and good citizens at that. They have as good right to hold a position in the schools as have the people of any other religion. We have teachers in the schools of Sanford, or did have, that were Catholics and they are good teachers and our school board and our people here are broad

YOUR CHILD!

What are YOU DOING when you take out an insurance policy on YOUR CHILD'S life? Do you agree with the BEST CONSTRUCTIVE BRAINS of the WORLD, when they insist that a life insurance policy teaches YOUR child to save its pennies; teaches YOUR child the value of money; and develops in YOUR child the HABIT of THRIFT, which is of such GREAT IMPORTANCE in shaping the character of YOUR child for life's tense struggle?

Remember, fond parents, that in the doing of any act it is always the MOTIVE, the INTENTION that counts. In law, and in the morals nothing else does count, and nothing else should count. Then what higher motive; what higher intentions could you have than to mould the elements of good character in your child's life?

As parents, your very BEST PURPOSES find expression in the welfare of YOUR CHILDREN.

Teaching by precept HAS NOT the EFFECT upon the child and youthful mind that teaching by example and teaching by object lesson has.

By everyone of matured experience it is conceded that "Old Line" insurance carries with it three principles of practical, material value in life. These three principles are that of the "SAVINGS BANK"; INVESTMENT and IMMEDIATE FINANCIAL PROTECTION TO DEAR ONES. Though the third principle is not always applicable to MERE children, I dare venture the statement that there are few, if any, widowed Mothers who are not pleased, that their deceased husbands learned early in life the value of life insurance, and put such knowledge into practical effect.

To all such Mothers, and such Fathers as have learned the value of life insurance as a SAVINGS PLAN; an INVESTMENT plan; a sound PROTECTIVE plan; a CHARACTER building plan, I ask this question: "Can you really afford to delay teaching YOUR CHILDREN the primary elements of success and character which life insurance teaches? I think NOT for GOOD CITIZENSHIP DEMANDS alertness on the part of the parent for the child's welfare.

My phenomenal success in Sanford has proven to me, beyond doubt, that her citizens are keenly awake to many of the things which make for the progress and general uplift not alone for the immediate community, but for the state and nation.

Just the following word about our Convertible Savings Policy:

A child seven years old may apply ten cents per week for a period of ten years, and one week maturing a dividend paying life policy of $125.00 payable at death.

By the time the child is ten years old one week more is required for a child up seven, the entire amount of which is $52.10. At the end of the eleventh year the child may draw a total of $35.87, at the end of the 20th year $116.81 and so on. The child will, in due season, be able to pay for his education, which is even more than the child needs for his support.

And this is the chief value of this policy. The child is able to save by the time he is ten years old, and his parents are, in the meantime, able to save by the same principles of success.

Nine-tive percent of the people who go into business fail at some time during their lives. They are, of course, not failures, but they are not successful. They are not successful because they do not know how to save.

ELMER E. ROGERS, Agent

minded enough to cut out all thoughts of religion and take teachers on their merits. It would be just as fair to say that our school should be taught by Methodist teachers only, or by Presbyterians only, or Baptists only or any other creed to the exclusion of all other religions and beliefs.

Public schools are just what the name implies, and this tommyrot about barring Catholics from any public institution or office makes me tired. I have lived in Catholic communities, among Catholic neighbors and as a boy grew up with Catholic children and Catholic people have been my associates in civic life, and if they are any different in any way from people of other religions I have failed to note it.

Political demagogues are leading some of the people of Florida astray, and it is high time we were getting back to the safe and same rule of "all men are equal and have equal rights."

W. C. T. U. Notice The ladies of the W. C. T. U. are requested to meet at the Baptist church next Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The meeting is of great importance and should be attended by every member.

BABY MYSTERY CLEARED UP BY MOTHER

DEMENTED NEGRO WOMAN KILLED HER NEW BORN CHILD

They mystery of the new born baby found beneath some guava bushes in the back yard of a vacant house on Second street last Tuesday has been cleared up, thanks to some shrewd detective work on the part of Dr. Miller, Constable Whitten, Judge Stringfellow and the coroner's jury.

When the baby was discovered, Dr. Miller was satisfied in his own mind that it had been killed from the appearance of the lips, being slightly bruised as if some acid or pressure of a hand would have made and this aroused his suspicions. He also noted footprints leading from the guava bushes to the house nearby, occupied by a negro woman named Hines. Upon investigation another negro woman named Bessie King was found to be sick although none of the inmates of the house could tell whether she had given birth to a child or not.

The coroner's jury grided the Hines woman for an hour or more, but she knew nothing and the jury brought in a verdict of "death by unknown causes," after Dr. Miller had performed an autopsy and found that the child was alive when born.

The next day Dr. Miller was called to treat the woman, Bessie King, who is mentally unsound, and after cross questioning her she told the story of the birth of the child in an out house, and that she had killed it by pressing her hand over its mouth. The deed of wrapping it in newspapers and placing it on the ground under the bushes is the act of a crazy person as one mentally sound would have buried the child and hidden all traces of the crime.

The woman will probably be adjudged insane by a lunacy commission and placed in the asylum where she really belongs.

Prof. Cate to Conduct Fall Party

Prof. W. B. Cate, who recently conducted such a successful special train party over one hundred and sixty people to the Panama-Pacific Exposition and the Golden West, is organizing a grand fall tour to leave Jacksonville on September 7th. A most excellent itinerary has been planned and a large number of the Floridians are availing themselves of this opportunity to visit the wonderful west in this ideal manner.

The party will be gone for nearly four weeks and will take many interesting side trips enroute. They will visit both expositions and stop in Chattanooga, St. Louis, Denver, Colorado Springs, Salt Lake City, Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco and Chicago, taking sight seeing and side trips in all of these places.

The cost of the trip including railroad fare, Pullman, hotel bills, meals, admission to the grounds and in fact all necessary expenses is $175 from Jacksonville.

The party will leave Jacksonville over the Atlantic Coast Line using the Dixie Flyer Route and the well known Louisville & Nashville Railroad from Nashville to St. Louis on the going trip and from Evansville to Nashville on the return. They will return via Chicago and spend some time there.

David Garrick Made a Hit
"We must have Mr. and Mrs. D'Oize back again with the same cast to play something else this winter" is the general verdict of the playgoers over the city among those who witnessed the production of David Garrick at the Imperial Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. D'Oize and Edward Desforges arrived in the city last week, decided to put on David Garrick for the Elks and arranged their cast, printing and advertising campaign and put on the show Tuesday night which is going some for home talent.

The famous old English comedy is a general favorite and was truly enjoyed by those who braved the showers and turned out to see it. David Garrick, the famous actor of Drury Lane has seen and loved Ada Ingot, the daughter of a rich merchant. Ada loves Shakespeare and seeing David in the title robes, naturally falls in love with him. Her father has other plans, among them the marriage with his nephew, a dissipated follower of the ponies.

There is no cheap dyed villain, no weeping persecuted heroine, no stolen will, no slap stick buffoonery, but a sweet, strong pretty, wholesome romance with a strong vein of refreshing and refined comedy.

The parts of David Garrick by Mr. D'Oize, Simon Ingot by Edward Desforges and Araminta Brown by Mrs. D'Oize were anticipated to be good, but they were even better and their old time favorites added new laurels to their name. Mr. D'Oize is one of the best on the stage in any of these characters, having made Shakespeare roles his life work and has lost a fortune trying to convince the American public that the drama is the thing and Shakespeare is the best among them all.

The local cast could not have been better, for while they were amateurs on one sense of the word, they were perfectly at home on the stage, being some of Sanford's best.

Clarence Mahoney as Dicky Chivy, the dissipated young nobleman, was well handled, although Clarence is not familiar with jazz.

Miss Gretchen Schultz in the leading role of Ada, was up to her usual form, and this talented young lady was never better. While Miss Schultz has made a study of light comedy roles, she is excellent in heavier stuff, and as Ada, satisfied every requirement of the part.

The trio of comedy characters, Mr. Smith, the wine merchant, played by Chas. H. Dingee; Mr. Brown, the silk merchant, played by Sam Younts; and the stuttering bashful Mr. Jones played by Reginald Holly, kept the audience in a constant roar, and each and every one of them were admirably cast for their part.

Miss Lucy Whitner as Mrs. Smith, carried off the part to perfection, and the servants, George played by Hume Rumph and Thomas, the butler played by Ned Chittenden, were admirable.

The drawing cards on the program of course were the Lyman Twins, and Patti Rossi, and when the curtain arose between the acts and disclosed these universal favorites on the stage again, the house fell down. They were up to their usual high standard and were recalled time after time until they were forced to quit. Their "Memories is a favorite" with the people here, where they sang it several times in different homes. The Lyman Twins and Patti Rossi (Mrs. Herbert Lyman) have left the stage and come in for oranges and now reside near Forest City where they have valuable grove property, but they will enjoy a momentary flash before the footlights again several times this winter.

David Garrick was all right—and the only regret is that it was played in the midsummer season when so many were out of town. If really deserved a better house.

The Order of Eastern Star will hold its regular meeting Tuesday evening, Sept. 7th at 7:30 p. m. All members are urged to be present.

SHOT WIFE BY MISTAKE FOR BURGLAR

R. D. BOSTWICK HEARD NOISE AND PULLED TRIGGER TOO QUICK

Shot my her husband, who mistook her for a burglar, was the fate of Mrs. D. R. Bostwick, and luckily the wound was only a flesh wound and she will recover with no serious effects.

Mr. and Mrs. Bostwick reside at the corner of Tenth street and Park avenue, a district that, a few weeks ago seemed to be the haunt of the burglars, who were terrorizing that part of the city, and to be on the safe side, Mr. Bostwick had his revolver handy to the bedside, resolved that if he caught a glimpse of Burglar Bill it would be all over except the singing.

On Wednesday morning about four o'clock Mrs. Bostwick was awakened by her baby crying and took it to the kitchen for milk. Upon returning, she sat down in the front room for a few minutes to rock the baby to sleep, and the morning being warm, she opened the blinds. Mr. Bostwick did not know his wife had arisen, and hearing the noise of the blinds opening, jumped from the bed, grabbed his pistol and seeing a shadowy form at the window, fired two shots, one of them taking effect in the fleshy part of the hip of Mrs. Bostwick. The escape of the mother and baby are miraculous and when Mr. Bostwick discovered his mistake, he frantically summoned the neighbors and two physicians hastily responded to the call for help.

It was soon discovered that Mrs. Bostwick was not fatally injured, and aside from the scare to both Mr. and Mrs. Bostwick there will be no bad effects from the accidental shooting.

Howard is Still Alive

Among the prominent visitors to the city yesterday was C. E. Howard, editor of the Orlando Citizen. Mr. Howard and family have recently returned from a trip to the beach at Ft. Pierce where they had a very pleasant stay. He was in the city on Monday the other night by accident and who did not grow with him on the Sunday closing.

Mr. Howard is a publicity man for the Orange county fair and produced a ringer and better fair than ever that a thing is possible.

THE DAVIS PACKAGE LAW

THE NEW PROHIBITION LAW FROM SEVERAL VIEW POINTS

FROM PALM BEACH

This article is not written to defend the Davis Sealed Package Law or to condemn it. It is the most drastic liquor legislation ever enacted by any legislative body.

In several states legislatures can pass a prohibition law. In Florida the liquor law is part of the state constitution, being Article XIX which provides for local option. The county is first unit, and a precinct the second unit. If a county should vote wet but some of the precincts should vote dry, liquor cannot be legally sold in precincts that vote dry.

The Florida Legislature has power under the state constitution, and what is known as a police power, to enact laws regulating the liquor traffic, and the Davis Package Law regulates it to a stand-still.

There are two kinds of prohibitionists, absolute and political.

The absolute prohibitionist offers no compromises. He is, as a rule, an honest man with a fixed principle; he is against liquor and its sale, because he thinks it is wrong to sell liquor, and that the traffic should be eliminated. He does not believe in persecution of liquor interests, but if by his vote the traffic could be wiped out of existence, he would walk through fire to cast it for that purpose. He may be termed narrow minded in his views by some people—but the facts are he is invariably an honest man, a good citizen, and has the regard and respect of all men—even those engaged in the liquor business.

The political prohibitionist will advocate prohibition with an ulterior motive. Politics is power, and no man can get power without influence. The political prohibitionist will in some instances be a leading church member, curse liquor and tell the dealer that he is too good a man to be engaged in that nefarious business and exhort him to go into another line and be a better man; but in itself usually before an ordinary conversation is ended. He will want support for himself or his friends, whereby he will be directly or indirectly benefited.

The absolute prohibitionist is of the opinion that the enactment of farther laws regulating the liquor traffic is illogical, for the reason that if the laws that have been on the statute books of Florida for the past ten years were enforced, very few liquor dealers in the state would be out of jail, therefore, farther laws are not necessary.

An opinion has just been prepared by Messrs. John E. and Julian Hartridge, attorneys of Jacksonville, in which they are of the opinion that the Davis Package Law can be contested successfully in the courts of Florida, and some of the sections declared unconstitutional. This opinion will, no doubt, be published in the newspapers of Florida, as it concerns a vital question and one of great interest to all the people in the state.

At the time this article is being written, this opinion has not been released to the newspapers. However it is probably that it will be soon—and that at that time the readers of the Post can read it for its full value. Not being an attorney or with knowledge of legal lore, the writer of this will not attempt to discuss legal aspects on the law or opinion.

The liquor interests are to fight the Davis Package Law to the last ditch. When any man's meal ticket becomes involved he will go to the front. They have retained Hon. John E. Hartridge, one of Florida's leading attorneys. He is a learned and astute man, and rights of liquor dealers will be fully protected, and there is no doubt that he will make every effort to protect the constitutional rights of the liquor interests in Florida.

The liquor question is to a certain extent a foot-ball for politicians, as the question is much kicked around at times. It is conceded that a senator from a county or city where the liquor interests predominate in Florida cannot attempt constructive legislation provided he is friendly to the liquor interests. All he can do is to traffic and trade his vote on measures that senators from dry counties or districts wish enacted into law and upon which they are divided among themselves.

Some of the liquor interests are of the opinion that the political aspirations of those that they considered their friends and real protectors explain why the Davis Bill was enacted into law—but in this they are no doubt mistaken.

THOUSANDS FOR THE GOOD ROAD BONDS

Potash In Georgia

Atlanta, Sept. 3.—Potash fertilizers, impossible to obtain since the European war stopped commerce with Germany, will soon be supplied from rich fields recently discovered in Pickens county, Georgia, and on Saturday purchased by A. R. Oppenheim of New York, representative of a British syndicate, which is headed by Davis L. Thomas, multimillionaire Welsh coal operator and head purchasing agent for the British government in the United States. The price paid for the land is said to have been in the neighborhood of $400,000. It was owned by D. L. Pitner, a North Georgia capitalist.

The discovery of the potash bed was made a short time ago when officials of the U. S. Geological Survey were examining mica deposits. Mill and chemical tests show the beds rich in sericite, the best of the potash foods. Mr. Oppenheim states that it is the intention to develop the property immediately.

The German government has always controlled a monopoly on potash.

The Country Boy

AT THE STAR, MONDAY
Marshall Nolan, widely known as a favorite star, is to make his debut under the management of the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Co. in the photodramatization of Edgar Selwyn's famous play "The Country Boy." Mr. Nolan plays the title role and is supported by a company which included Florence Dagmar, Dorothy Green, Loyola O'Connor, Mrs. Lewis McCord, Horace B. Carpenter, Edward Lewis, Ernest Joy, Tex Driscoll and Al Ernest Garcia.

It will be remembered by all people familiar with theatrical events that "The Country Boy" ran for an entire season on Broadway and that it continued to tour as one of the most genuine and prolonged successes on record. The simplicity and appealing quality of the story fascinated theatregoers throughout the country and the theme of the boy from the small town who loses his way in the big city is eternally popular.

Tom Wilson is the name of the boy, who lives with his mother and has a very high opinion of himself. He is in love with the daughter of the local Judge, and finally confident of his own ability, decides to go to New York, win a fortune which will enable him to marry his sweetheart and take care of her in the manner to which she has been accustomed.

"The Country Boy" is an entertainment which can truly be recommended to the most refined theatregoers everywhere. See it at the Star on Monday night.

Gainesville Firefighter Here

Mr. and Mrs. James Moyer and Mrs. McKay of Gainesville were in the city on Wednesday morning, enroute home from Daytona Beach. They have been in Georgia and other points in an automobile tour, Mr. Moyer having a leave of absence from the Gainesville Fire Department of which he is the assistant chief.

They stopped in Sanford to see the editor of the Herald and renew old acquaintance. They were greatly impressed with Sanford and Seminole county, our good roads and fine city streets and left for their home with a feeling that they had not lost any time in going home via Sanford. Mrs. Moyer is a former employee of the Herald editor in the newspaper business in Gainesville and thought the Herald office was just about the best equipped office in the state.

Thanks For Firemen

I hereby wish to thank the Sanford Fire Department for their good work Sunday night when my fixtures were in danger and also the good people who so generously moved out the heavy pool tables when the fire seemed dangerous and moved them back when the danger was over.

Essington Here

W. C. Essington, Business Manager of the Orlando Sentinel was in the city on Wednesday and took the Clyde Line for Jacksonville. He was on his way to Indianapolis, where Mrs. Essington is spending the summer and they will sojourn a few weeks in Hoosierdom and enjoy the frost on the pumpkin and a little sweet cider on the side.

Mr. Essington and his partner, W. M. Glenn, purchased the Sentinel about a year ago and are making a good paper in the capital of Orange. Both of them are young men and hustlers of the real type.

Mr. Essington was given a taste of Sanford hospitality and has promised the editor of the Herald that he will return some day, and take a trip up the St. Johns river and enjoy life as Sanford people do. We feel sorry for both Essington and Glenn and the other newspaper boys in Orlando because there is very little water to drink there and everything is closed on Sunday.
