 George T. Pittard, of Sanford, and Thomas A. Deppen, son of Mrs. Robert Deppen, of Casselberry, and the late Mr. Deppen, were united in Holy Matrimony, June 24, 1967, at 7:30 p.m. at First Baptist Church, Sanford. Rev. Fred B Chance was the officiating clergyman at the candlelight, double ring cere-mony before the altar accented with four standing, branched candelabra, potted palms and pedestal baskets of white glads, mums and pom poms. The couple knelt on a white leather prieu deux. Mrs. Joe Morgan, organist, presented a program of nuptial selections and accompanied Bernard Harkey, soloist, who sang "Why Do 1 Love You?" "Because" and 'Wedding Praver." Given in marriage by her mother and father, the bride chose for her vows a formal length ensemble of silk shantung. The sleeveless gown, fashioned along the Empire silhouette, was enriched with Venice lace at the bodice. Her slim coat was highlighted by Kabuki sleeves adorned with Venice lace appliqued motifs. A cluster of petals held her fingertip veil of silk illusion and she carried a formal cascade of fugi mums interspersed with Cattleya orchids and centered with a removable orchid cor-

"Miss Central Florida" will be selected from contestants throughout the entire Central Florida area and the beauty show will be a part of festivities that will include a water ski show, fishing tournament, antique car show, sanctioned power boat races, and other attractions that is expected to draw thousands of spectators to the Monroe Marina.

The pirate's chest will be given by the pirate's invasion krewe to Mayor Joe Baker in exchange for the keys to the City of Sanford at high noon on Labor Day.

Dureen Nutter reigning "Mis Central Florida Cruise," will accompany Buccaneer captain W. K. Robinson as his Pirate Queen and will assist in the official exchange of gifts. The beauty show will be held at 5:30 Labor Day evening in the Civic Center auditorium. The treasure chest will be among the many prizes going to the newly-crowned "Miss Central Florida." John Mercer, beauty show chairman, states that contest ants from any Central Florida community may enter the competition if between ages 16-21
