U.S. Relay Unit Is Defeated By Japanese Team

Nippon Lass Leads Way In 200-Meter Breast Stroke

BERLIN, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Paced by Dick Degener, team Detroit serial artist, America's Olympic divers swept the first three places of the springboard finals yesterday but her 800-meter relay team absorbed an awful lacer from Japan.

The day thus was no more than half-way a success for Uncle Sam.

The 20,000 fans were given more thrills than ordinarily would be anticipated in any diving event when blond Marshall Wayne of Miami, Fla., made a heroic but unsuccessful effort to overtake Degener in his final optional springs.

German audiences filled the stadium with "pfeifs" when the judges decided he hadn't quite done it. The final tally was 163.57 points for Degener and 159.56 for Wayne, a thin margin of 4.01 points.

Al Green of Chicago finished a comfortable third with 146.29 points but never endangered the lead his teammates piled up the first day in the compulsory program. The competition consisted of five compulsory and five optional dives spread over two days.

The Americans' elation over their first medal of any sort since the water games opened Saturday proved of short duration.

Immediately after Wayne and Green had the laurel wreaths placed on their brows—Degener wasn't there, having rushed off to visit his wife who was ill with a severe cold—America's relay team hooked up with the wrong quartet in the Japanese.

Head Coach Bob Kiphuth shot the works by inserting Ralph Flanagan of Miami, and Johnny Macdonald of Yale into the lineup in place of Charles Rutter of Cambridge, Mass., and Ralph Gilman of Alameda, Calif. He might as well have tried to corral a flock of live turkeys.

Still smarting over the loss of the 100-meter title to Yuzne Calk, the Hungarian surprise package, Masanori Yusa gained a full length on Flanagan on the first 200-meter leg and the next three little brown scoters followed his example with intense enthusiasm.

By the time they had finished they had left the runner-up Americans at least 15 meters behind and established a world and Olympic record of eight minutes, 51.5 seconds that may take a long time to beat.

"Something must have stirred up those boys," commented Kiphuth. His swimmers proved too dazed and out of breath to say much except: "You saw it, didn't you?"

The fact that three members of the team, Yusa, Shoji Taguchi and Shigeo Arai were clocked within fourth-tenths of each other attested to their remarkably even pace. Their slowest man, Yusa, proved a full two seconds faster than America's fastest, Flanagan, leaving little further doubt where the world's greatest free-style swimmers are being incubated.

The "leg" times of the rival teams were: Japan—Yusa, 2:13.4; Shigeo Arai, 2:11.9; Taguchi, 2:15.0; Arai, 2:13.2.

United States—Flanagan, 2:15.4; Macdonald, 2:16; Paul Wolf, Los Angeles, 2:16; Jack Medina, Seattle, 2:15.5.

After watching her men-folk perform, luxuriant Hideo Maehata could not do much less than win the women's 200-meter breast stroke championship but only after a heated tussle with Martha Genesee, German girl who stayed right at her shoulder for the last 50 meters and was beaten only a foot.

The small margin of the Japanese girl's margin was small consolation to the German crowd which roared and waved itself into a tangle of arms and legs.

Miss Maehata was behind the world Olympic record she set at Berlin in the preliminary trial.

U. S. RELAY TEAM TIES WORLD RECORD

Uzcuden Reported Killed In Spanish Revolution

Basque Woodchopper's Death Unconfirmed; Lost Last Fight To Joe Louis In United States

BAYONNE, France, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Paolino Uzcuden, the "Basque Woodchopper" who several times contended for the world's heavyweight boxing championship, was reported killed in heavy fighting between Spanish rebels and loyalists at San Sebastian yesterday.

Uzcuden's death was reported by the Bayonne Courier, afternoon newspaper. Officials at the Popular Front center, here, were unable to confirm the report.

Uzcuden's last fight was with Joe Louis, American negro who was the only fighter ever to knock the Basque out.

Paolino, who collected a fortune during 13 years in the ring, is considered Spain's greatest pugilist. Until his bout with Louis, Uzcuden boasted he had never been knocked off his feet.

He engaged in 70 bouts starting in 1923, winning 34 by knockouts and 16 by decision, losing 16, getting three draws and being knocked out once. He was born at Bagli, Spain, May 3, 1892.

In his early days he was famed for his woodchopping ability, but later became a prize fighter when he found it was more lucrative. He invaded the United States in 1926 and the next year was considered one of the promising contenders for the heavyweight title.

After Gene Tunney retired in 1927, Paolino was one of the three leading contenders for the vacant title. The other two were Jack Sharkey and Max Schmeling and the German won a 15-round decision, giving the Basque a bad beating in the late rounds. Schmeling went on to win the heavyweight title on a foul from Sharkey.

Among the outstanding victories scored by the Basque were a 6-round K. O. of Phil Scott, a 4-round K. O. of Harry Wills, 10-round decisions from Tom Henney, Otto Von Porat and K. G. Christner, and a 24-round decision over Max Baer.

Always happy go lucky, Paolino engaged in pranks even during the height of training. He always was picking up some new trick or game to show one of his acquaintances. One of his favorite tricks was to give an unsuspecting friend a "hot foot."

Slipping Daytona Beach Nine Falls Before Reds, 6-1

DAYTONA BEACH, Aug. 12.—Home runs accounted for all the scoring yesterday as DeLand's Reds defeated the slipping Islanders, 6 to 1. The second game of the scheduled doubleheader was called because of rain.

Jim McGloin locked up with Bill Kinsey in a mound duel, and except for weakening by the Daytona Beach right hander in the sixth, it was an even game. Both clubs got seven hits.

All the DeLand runs came in the sixth inning, after Duggan's homer hit he fourth had given the Islanders the lead.

In the sixth, a single and an error by Davis put Patterson and Didrikson on base. Then Welch lifted a homer to left field. Simon and Chiado got on through Dillingham's error and a base on balls, then Robertson homered to right.

Gainesville Is Beaten 5-3, By Palatka Outfit

G-Men Get To Pair Of Hurlers For 12 Hits; Padgett Fans 6

PALATKA, Aug. 12.—Ebert Padgett, Gainesville's right hander, continued to have the Indian sign on the Azaleas here yesterday and limited the local nine to seven well spaced blows to post a 5-3 victory over the Palatkans.

Padgett fanned a half dozen and walked three during the contest while the G-Men were combing the deliveries of Berger and Gould for a total of twelve base hits.

Palatka tallied twice in the initial stanza when Guerra was hit, went to second on Hines' infield out and scored on Kinard's double to right which landed on top of the berm. Smith's single to second scored Kinard.

Berger, who started, weathered the first two frames without difficulty but was pulled in the third with the bases loaded, three runs in and one out. Gould replaced Berger and finished the tilt but the G-Men tallied twice more in the third stanza before the side was retired.

Palatka's final marker came in the eighth when Hines doubled with one away and scored on Kinard's single to left. Gallegos followed with a single but Smith hit into a double play which retired the side.

Adair and Pitman led the Gainesville attack with three blows each while Kinard and Swift were the leading hitters for the Azaleas with a double and single apiece.

Nation's Trotting Classic Billed Today in Goshen

Colt, Filly Owned by Ben White Leading Hambletonian Bet

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 12.—(AP)—The Hambletonian, the magnet that annually packs this little village upwards of 40,000 farm and city folk, draw 10% of the country's leading three-year-old trotters today for its biennial renewal over Good Time Park's triangular track today.

The owners and trainers of the six colts and four fillies, posted the final declaration fee of $600 with hopes that the investment would be returned many fold today. If the 10 trotters start for the first heat, the race will have a gross value of close to $36,000 with nearly $20,000 going to the winner.

Heading the field are two stallions, a colt and a filly, conditioned by Ben White, veteran Lexington trainer. The colt is Ed Lester from W. N. Reynolds' Winston-Salem, N. C. barn. The filly is Rosalind, the story-book trotter owned by White's 21-year-old son, Gibson.

Experts were of the opinion there would be little to choose between the pair.

Neither was favored by the draw for positions for the first heat, however Ed Lester drew the outside lane, with the possibility he may have to score in the second flight, while Rosalind was placed seventh from the pole.

The favored pole position went to Hollywood Hermes, the only surprise of the entry list. Owned and driven by the near 70-year-old John L. Dodge of Lexington, Hollywood Hermes has raced only once in his career and in that effort failed to show anything.

If either of the favorites is beaten, the winner is likely to come from a group composed of the three other fillies and Brooklyn Hanover, a colt from Lawrence B. Sheppard's Hanover, Pa., farm. The fillies are William Hughes' Clara, of Cleveland, Ga.; Gale's Mita, which came in the silks of John E. Kelley of Bangor, Maine; and Ruth M. from C. B. Shaw's Cold Spring stud of Lexington.

California Girls' Olympic Oarsmen Spring Surprise In Sustain Defeat At Rye Tennis Meet

RYE, N. Y., Aug. 12.—(AP)—Two California girls, Dorothy May Sutton Bundy of Santa Monica, Calif., and Dorothy Workman of Los Angeles, furnished major surprises yesterday as the Easter Grass Courts singles tennis championships reached the quarter final round.

Miss Bundy, daughter of the former national women's champion, cashed in on her training and tennis heritage by eliminating the sixth seeded player, Mrs. Dorothy Andrus of New York, 6-2, 10-8. Her doubles partner, Miss Workman, won more easily from red-haired Norma Tabele of New York, seeded seventh, 6-3, 6-4.

One other seeded player, Mrs. Mary J. Lamme of Rye, the defending champion who was fifth on the list, fell yesterday while the men's division produced one surprising result. Otherwise the top-ranking favorites, led by Don Budge and Bryan Grant, came through with little trouble. Doubles players kept the courts busy all afternoon with first and second round matches.

The biggest surprise in the men's division came when Arthur Hendrix of Miami turned back the Orange, N. J. veteran, J. Gilbert Hall, 5-6, 6-4, 6-4. Rivaling this battle was the protracted duel between John McDiarmid, the Princeton instructor from Fort Worth, Texas, and Gene Mallo, brilliant young Oakland, Calif. player. McDiarmid, seeded fourth, won 8-10, 7-5, 6-2, mostly because of his greater endurance.

Charles A. Lindbergh's father, who was a member of Congress, wrote a book called "Your Country At War," which was suppressed in 1918.

Dean And Carleton Draw Fighting Fine

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Dizzy Dean, star St. Louis Cardinal pitcher, and Pitcher Tex Carleton of the Chicago Cubs yesterday were fined $25 each by President Ford Fric of the National League for fighting in Monday's ball game at St. Louis.

Incensed by Carleton's taunts from the Cub dugout, Dean stopped pitching in the first inning Monday following an internal hemorrhage.

Physicians said a blood transfusion was urgent. Immediately six peace-makers from Nat'cy velodrome offered to give their blood. McManara, 51, has completed in 122 six-day bike races and has survived many serious accidents.

Morganthau Forecasts No Rise In Taxes

Improved Business Bolsters Treasury, Wards Off Need Of Additional Revenue

Nuisance Fees May Be Curbed

Immediate Study Of Taxation Basis Is Planned By Chiefs

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—(AP)—A forecast that taxes will not be increased and may be "slightly reduced" was made today by Secretary Morganthau and congressional tax leaders after a conference with President Roosevelt.

The Treasury head, chairman Harrison of the Senate Finance Committee and Chairman Doughton of the House Ways and Means Committee, said that improved business conditions so fortified the Treasury that no new or increased taxes will be necessary at the next session of Congress. They announced that an immediate study of the whole tax structure, including the law enacted this spring, would place corporate taxation on a new basis.

Dairy Products, Potatoes To Bear Brunt Of Price Rise; Poultry And Eggs Level May Remain Same

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Sunday's chicken should cost no more this winter than last, figures from the department of agriculture show. But the food bill seems likely to go up for several other commonly used staples such as milk and potatoes.

The weather had most to do with it, the report says. First, there was the late spring frost which harmed fruit trees, and then the drought hit stables which grow feed for the animals which supply meat for the market.

Two Government Loans Available To Local Farmers

Only two government loans are available to Seminole County growers and farmers today, according to C. R. Dawson, county farm agent, who announced late yesterday the government suddenly discontinued rehabilitation loans.

An emergency crop loan, limited to a maximum of $200, may be obtained by those engaged in agriculture, although the money is restricted solely to the purchase of seeds and fertilizers for the next year's crop.

A second loan, and not strictly governmental, is obtainable from the Sanford Production Credit Association, Mr. Dawson asserted.

He explained that the Association method of finance was started by the government but later turned over to private industry to "sink or swim." He also said that the movement met with considerable success and that only one had loan ever been made by the local institution.

Coughlin's Following Smooths Out Controversy In Ranks Of Priest's Group

CLEVELAND, Aug. 13.—(AP)—A controversy within the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin's National Union for Social Justice, over whether Dr. Francis E. Townsend should address the convention was settled today with an announcement by Coughlin that Townsend would speak to delegates Saturday. That will be after the official close of the business session of the convention.

Opposition to the appearance of the founder of the Old Age Pension movement has been raised by Walter D. Davis, convention marshal. In an open letter to delegates, Father Coughlin wrote, "If one of the twelve apostles were Judas Iscariot, it was an even bet that one of the 1,200 delegates in the national convention will be a Gomer Smith."

Sons Of The Legion Get First Practice For Shooting Team

Eighteen members of Sanford's Sons of the Legion last night received their first actual training in shooting at the National Guard Armory. They are organizing a rifle team to meet state-wide competition.

The ministerial group and other interested parties plan an intensive campaign designed to persuade every person, who visits the polls, to vote.

It was pointed out that on nearly all referendum problems, attached to a ballot containing the names of candidates for public office, do not receive the attention of all who drop tickets in the ballot box.

Texas Grapefruit To Cause Florida Much Competition

Florida will have twice as much competition from Texas in the grapefruit market this year than last season, according to word received here today from A. M. Pratt, secretary-manager of the Associated Citrus Growers and Shippers in Lakeland.

Chase and Company, a local firm, is a member of the Association. After surveying crops in Florida and Texas, Mr. Pratt reported that the Lone Star State's grapefruit production this year tends to be larger and larger. He said there is certain to be a great amount of competition between the two states.

Mr. Pratt said that Texas has 4,000,000 grapefruit trees at least six years old and estimated an 8,000,000 box production for 1936-37.

Florida has 5,000,000 trees at least six years of age and declared a 15,000,000-16,000,000 box production is likely.

Delinquent Tax Collection Plan Aids Municipality

Mayor Shinholser Is Pleased That Idea Meets With Favor

Sanford's delinquent tax collection method, since its installation on Mar. 1, has proved beneficial to the municipal government, according to an unofficial statement made today by Mayor Shinholser.

The mayor said he was pleased that a considerable number of local citizens have taken advantage of the method's benefits to reinstate their property and put it back in good condition as regards the tax rolls.

About five months ago the City Commission decided to adopt a collection plan whereby a small discount would be made available to those who wiped out their delinquencies.

To date, about 200 persons have applied for the benefits to be obtained under the system, and more than 100 settlements have been made.

The average discount allowed is 15 percent, according to City Clerk Frank M. Lamson, although in some cases the amount is larger and in others it is smaller.

He said the Commission declares the size of the discount which is determined by the class of property after the improvement, non-improvement, location and other factors have been considered.

(By Associated Press) Government troops today pressed every advantage in Spain's civil war in a supreme effort to crush rebel forces. Demands that the government surrender went unheeded.

Rebels began a new offensive against Estepona, near Gibraltar, and reinforcements were dispatched to Algeciras, which was under fire of government warships.

A rebel radio station at Seville announced that 40 officers and soldiers in the Madrid government's air force were executed after being captured in the storming of San Rafael Espinar.

Four British airplanes, two for the rebels and two for the government, left London for Spain, while two Dutch planes took off at the same time from London for Lisbon, destined, it was said, for the rebels.

France continued her efforts to draw European powers together in a general neutrality, and barred general recruiting for the Spanish armies.

The government at Madrid announced the end of the revolution was not far away, but the rebels continued to show power in both the north and south. All Europe watched to see what former King Alfonso would do.

Borah - Robinson Can't Be Beaten By Townsdenites

Florida Has 2 Senators And 3 Representatives Pledged

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Senator Robinson of Arkansas and Borah of Idaho were soundly defeated by their opponents Tuesday in the Senate, while Representative Townsend of New York defeated his opponent in the House.

The three primaries brought to the contests in which candidates have now been chosen for the 33 senatorial seats to be filled in November. Eleven states have yet to hold primaries: Colorado, Delaware, Georgia, Massachusetts, Michigan, Mississippi, New Hampshire, New Mexico (two seats open), Rhode Island, South Carolina, and Wyoming.

Senator Townsend of Delaware, who heads the Republican senatorial campaign, has expressed hope that he will pick up several seats. Of those being contested, 13 are held by Democrats, 12 by Republicans and one by a farmer-laborer.

Robinson, the Democratic floor leader, far outdistanced his two opponents from the time returns began accumulating at Little Rock, Ark. Borah called his own margin "the finest compensation a man can have." His Democratic opponent will be Gov. C. Behrman.

TAMPA, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Two Florida nominees to the United States Senate and three to the House are definitely committed in writing to support the Townsend Plan in Washington. J. E. Matlock, of Orlando, state manager of the Townsend movement, said yesterday.

Matlock said his office has "definite commitments" from Claude Pepper and C. G. Andrews, nominees to the Senate, and R. A. Green, J. Hardin Johnson and Joe Hendricks, nominees to the House.

All except Pepper made Townsend an issue in their campaigns. Pepper had no opposition and made no speaking campaign.

In the Senate and Congress primary races the Townsendites lost only one hard-fought battle, that on the lower east coast to J. Mark Wilcox, who was renominated over A. Pat Canyon, the Townsend candidate. Wilcox was one of the original opponents of Townsendism and has openly fought the $200-a-month plan in Washington.

Millard Caldwell, of Pensacola, by Miss Lila Zalesky, dancing instructor from Washington, D. C. Then followed tap dances, later interspersed by ballets and ballroom dancing. The Dance of the "Red Flute" by Miss Zalesky and Miss Charlotte Bologna of Baltimore, climaxed the evening's performance.

Girls from Sanford were members of a surprise party given Tuesday at midnight for the councilors. The novel part of the party was a trip to Olympus to see the gods and goddesses in the moonlight. Miss Joyce Hunt posed as Minerva; Miss Ellen McCreath as a warlike deity; and Miss Dorothy Mitchell as Charon.

was renominated to the House without pledging his support of the Townsend Plan, but 's movement has gained little headway in his section, which went against Andrews for Carlton in the special senatorial primary Tuesday.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Three former aides of Dr. Francis B. Townsend met here Wednesday and predicted that the California's Old-Age Pension movement will be "the rocks" in three months if the leader "continues on his present course."

The trio were Dr. Clinton C. Wunder, ousted eastern director of the Townsend campaign; John E. Kiefer, ousted central state director; and Nathan J. Roberts, southern director, who said that his resignation is imminent.

Convinced that Dr. Townsend is willing to wreck his cause if necessary to prevent the re-election of President Roosevelt, they said, they are working on a program to rescind the pension movement, the nature of which they would not disclose.

The three asserted that Townsend has been distracted from his original goal by the Rev. Gerald E. K. Smith of Louisiana, who merged his share-the-wealth movement with the Townsend movement, and whom they accused of being "dictator minded."

Dr. Wunder said he would maintain headquarters in New York, Roberts in Jacksonville, and Kiefer in Chicago.

The James Gleasons have been married 30 years.

Dorothy Mitchell Is Active At Camp

Miss Dorothy Mitchell was one of the Sanford girls taking part in the annual cabaret, marking the end of half a season at Laurel Falls camp. The gymnasium, where the party was held, was decorated to represent a garden with a rock and pool at one end, in the middle of which was a fountain spray. Water lilies floated on top of the pool, and ferns, moss, and flowers grew in cracks in the rocks. A pink dogwood tree bloomed near a white daisy tree, while a white dogwood stood near a rose arbor. Light came from vari-colored Japanese lanterns. The tables had colored cloths with Japanese fans as placemats. Against a background of trees and green shrubs, spaced with flowers, the first specialty dance number of the evening was given.

Sanford Annexes 2 To 1 Victory From St. Augustine

Medler Pitches Well In Pinches Gives Up 8 Hits

Locals Rally In 8th To Push Winning Tally Over Plate

By E. H. CULLUM
The Sanford Lookouts out-fought, out-hit and outplayed the St. Augustine Saints to gain a 2 to 1 victory here yesterday afternoon.

Harman Medler, a St. Augustine castoff, was on the mound for the Lookouts although yielding eight hits, three of them good for extra bases, limited the Saints to one lone tally, that coming in the first inning.

Gibson, first up hit the second pitched ball to right center, for two bases. McGowan went cut short to first, Gibson going to third. Fitzgerald then hit a high fly to center field which was gathered in by Duncan, Gibson scoring swindle popping out to short to end the inning.

From then on, although the Saints had men on the paths in every inning except the fifth, sixth and ninth inning. Medler bore down in the pinches and did not allow another run to cross the pan.

Bill Butland, youthful Saints hurler, was on the hill and although giving up nine hits kept them well scattered except in the third and eighth innings when Sanford put over their two runs. Duncan opened the third inning with a single to short center, and advanced to second when Emerson threw the ball into right field trying to nip him off of first. Medler hit a long double to right field, scoring Duncan.

The Lookout, staged a rally in the eighth inning putting over the winning run on three hits and an out to right field. Langston, first up in this inning laid down a neat bunt along the first base line which he beat out. Davis to second; Cates advancing both singled to left. Langston going runners with his single to left field. Langston crossed the plate with the winning run on Overstreet's flyout to right field.

Butland pulled himself out of a very bad hole in the fourth inning. With the bases loaded and one out he caused Malby to hit into a double play, then walked Duncan to again fill the bags. However Medler struck out to

Rally In Eighth Gives G-Men 5-3 Azalea Conquest

Palatka Mixes Walks And Errors To Get Score In Fourth

GAINESVILLE, Aug. 13.—Staging a 4-run rally in the eighth inning, the league leading Gainesville G-Men trounced the Palatka Azaleas 5-3 here yesterday afternoon.

Southpaw Calvin Lowe limited the locals to three hits and one run until that inning when he lost control and walked the first two batters. Bill Gould was sent in to relieve him.

The G-Men scored their first run in the second inning when Milton McDougall, local receiver, poked one of Lowe's fast ones high over the left field barrier for a home run.

The runs in the eighth came as Buck and Adair walked. Pitman forced Adair at second on a grounder, Buck going to third, and Pitman holding first, on an infield roller by Beach, First Baseman Smith, in throwing to second, hit the runner, the ball caroming off into the outfield with Buck scoring. Pitman taking third, and Beach pulling up at second. Pfeiffer lined a single to center to score Fitzman, and McMullen singled sharply to right to score Beach and Pfeiffer for the final runs.

Malby made a circus catch of Fitzgerald's line drive in the third inning, leaping high in the air to snag the ball, and then doubled McGowan off first. Duncan also made a beautiful catch of Emerson's fly in the seventh. Bistrup's strategy in the fourth inning cost the Saints a run when on an attempted double steal he failed a throw to second base to get Owens, trapping Andrews between third and home.

Andrews was the heavy hitter for the Saints getting two hits out of three trips to the plate. Davis and Cates for the Lookouts each got two hits out of four times up.

U. S. Swimmers, Divers Capture Unofficial Lead

Medica And Gestring Shine For America In Water Sports

BERLIN, Aug. 13.—(AP)—Two smashing triumphs by Jack Medica, 21-year-old University of Washington graduate from Seattle, and Marjorie Gestring, 13-year-old Los Angeles girl and former portrayer of kid roles in "Our Gang" comedies, lifted the United States into the lead yesterday in the unofficial team standings of both men's and women's Olympic swimming.

Medica's powerful stroking gave the United States its first swimming victory as he churned to an Olympic record of 4 minutes 44 5-10 seconds in winning the 400-meter free style. Ralph Flanagan, husky Miami, Fla., star, finished fourth behind two Japanese.

Led by blue-eyed, blonde-haired Miss Gestring the United States scored a "grand slam" in the women's springboard diving. Miss Gestring, who stands 5 feet, 4 inches and weighs 102 pounds, finished first with 89.28 points. Katherine Rawls, 19-year-old Miami, Fla., girl, repeated her second place of the Los Angeles games, with 82.25 points. Mrs. Dorothy Boynton Hill, 17-year-old blonde who won the Olympic platform diving in 1932, finished third with 82.36 points. In addition to winning both titles the Americans gave promise of winning more laurels by their qualifying performances.

Adolf Klefer, 18-year-old German-born Chicago schoolboy, smashed the world and Olympic record in leading 15 other qualifiers into the semi-finals of the 100-meter backstroke. America's other two backstrokers, Taylor Drysdale, University of Michigan graduate from Detroit, and A. Bert van de Weghe, 19-year-old Paterson, N. J., boy also qualified for today's semi-finals.

The American women's 400-meter relay team moved into the final of that event, by winning the first semi-final heat in 4:47.1, and Edith Mottridge Segal, tall Los Angeles blonde, and Alice Bridges, dark-haired Uxbridge, Mass., girl, moved into today's final in the women's 100-meter backstroke.

Ferrell Gains Fifteenth Win Of 1936 Season

Pair Of Homers By Hurler Has Great Part In Victory

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—(AP)—After Wes Ferrell belted in a 6-4 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics with a pair of successive home runs in Tuesday's opening game, the Red Sox were shut out, 6-0, by Harry Kelley in the nightcap.

The Sox were out-hit in both contests but Wes gained his fifteenth pitching triumph of the season by putting two drives over the left field wall in the third and fourth frames. Brother Rick was on first when he bashed out his first homer and the bases were ended on his next turn at bat.

The Red Sox were held to three hits by Harry Kelley, who hurled a two-hit shutout against them in Philadelphia earlier in the season. Jimmy Foss got two of the Boston blows, one a two bagger, and Ossie Melillo provided the other, a double.

'Champion Runner-up' In Golf Is Shooting High

Mrs. Dan Chandler Sees Door To Link's Throne Room Close In Face As Jinx Is Unshakable

DALLAS, Aug. 13.—(AP)—General, matronly Mrs. Dan Chandler has seen the door to golf's throne room slam in her face many times, so this year she's shooting high and means to smash her jinx in the biggest way possible.

The Dallas mother—"champion runner-up" they call her in Texas—calmly announced it's the national women's amateur title she wants.

Then, by way of emphasis, she stepped out on Brook Hollow's treacherous par-70 layout and shot 39-33-72 to shatter her own women's course record by three strokes.

Her amazing round, which included four birdies, nine pars, four bogles and a "bussard," was scored over Texas' most difficult golf test.

"Never played any better," she grinned. "My game has been at this point for two months and I certainly hope it lasts through the western and national tournaments."

Mrs. Chandler had her heart set on the national title last year, but freckled Patty Berg stopped her in a quarter-final match at Interlachen. They came to the 18th green all square and both were on the carpet with two putts for pars.

Patty's ball lay within 10 inches of the spot made famous by Emperor Jones in 1930. From that spot, now marked to preserve its historical significance, Jones rolled in a 40-foot putt to win the national open and complete his golfing grand slam. Patty Berg chose the same spot to run down a putt that eliminated the Texan.

Six years ago Mrs. Chandler took up competitive golf. She captured the Texas women's title a year later, but since has been suffering from a runner-up-complex.

She has finished second best to Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth, Curtis Cup team member, twice; Miss Mildred (Babe) Dickerickson and Miss Betty Jameson, former southern champion. Never, however, has she missed being medalist.

If there ever was any doubt as to the New York Yankees' right to head the American league parade it was seemingly dispelled by the success of their recent swing around the western loop. The Yanks proved their class and gameness by taking over the White Sox and the Indians when those leading challengers were distinctly hot.

The other contenders failed to make a dent in the big lead the Yankees enjoyed when they headed west. As a matter of fact, the New Yorkers added half a game to that lead. There were times when the pitching was spotty, and other times when the vaunted power at the plate appeared to be weakening, but when the pressure was on Joe McCarthy's boys rallied to win.

The return of Johnny Murphy to winning form was particularly heartening to Yankee fans. Against Cleveland he twice saved the day, Pat Malone, "Old Blubber" to his teammates, turned in several splendid relief jobs, among them the tie game with the Indians when Pat pitched shutout ball from the ninth inning to the sixteenth.

The intense interest in the Yankee's western swing was reflected in the huge gates they attracted. Wherever they played mobs followed. The tour attracted almost 217,000 customers.

The three Yankee victories in as many games in Chicago were disappointing to White Sox rooters. Hundreds of bottles were hurled on the field by rabid Chicago fans when the Yankees and White Sox battled it out in a Sunday doubleheader. Umpire Bill Summers was felled by one of the bottles and forced to retire from the game. Judge Landis, among the spectators, offered a reward of $5,000 for information leading to the arrest of the individual who threw the bottle.

In Detroit the Yankees lost the services of Myril Hoag when Hoag and Joe Di Maggio collided when attempting to catch a fly ball from Goose Goslin's bat. Hoag had been coming along at a fast clip and had just about succeeded in boosting his average over the .300 mark when he was forced out of the lineup.

All in all, the tour was filled to the brim with thrills and excitement. And after the smoke cleared there sat the Yankees with a sufficient margin to permit them to breathe easily.

Tobacco Chief Not Interested In Club

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 13.—(AP)—William N. Reynolds, the multi-millionaire tobacco magnate, checked good naturedly and said: "No, I am not interested in buying the Brooklyn Dodgers, and never have been. I don't know how that story got started."

The big, white-haired man in panama and grey pongee suit chuckled again and remarked that he enjoyed seeing a ball game now and then, but that he never would consider buying a club because: "That's out of my line. I'm interested in only one sport—this horse racing. I do not even play golf."
