

Closer Marina Study Proposed

Vision of a modern boat marina at Sanford stirred again in the minds of city commissioners Monday night, but such a facility remained in the embryonic stage after a lengthy discussion.

The commissioners noted that the proposed marina still lacks form or shape, however, inasmuch as no formal plans have yet been submitted by a group of business and professional men promoting the marina.

The city officials noted the group has expressed interest in a 50-year lease from the city for the pier property, site of the proposed marina.

City Attorney W. C. Hutchison Jr. questioned the advisability of such a long-term lease until more basic knowledge of plans and details are available to the city.

The city attorney said there are still too many questions remaining to be answered before a lease should be executed. He called for an investigation of figures and costs, whether the marina's boat slips would be covered or uncovered, how many boats to build for, and what would generally be accomplished over a 50-year lease period.

"If the canal (St. Johns-Indian River Canal) is completed in five years, anything could happen as far as a marina is concerned," Hutchison said. He added that the number of boats for which storage facilities could be built could range from 25 to 50.

Board Will Ask College Bonds

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Board of Control meets Friday to ask the Cabinet to issue its share of the $75 million college building bonds, but bonds to buy recreational land may be held up until two law suits are settled. Gubernatorial candidates, meanwhile, are assessing the effects of off-year elections on their campaigns. This and the two bond programs were approved by Florida voters Tuesday.

Boy's Condition Reported As Satisfactory

CINCINNATI (UPI) — A Sanford boy was reported in satisfactory condition today following an eight-hour operation Wednesday for cancer of the liver.

Eighty per cent of Kenneth Harriett's liver was removed by Dr. Lester W. Martin, director of surgery at Children's Hospital. It was the second time this year the rare and delicate operation has been performed here.

"No complications; things went smoothly," said Dr. Martin. He added, "it will take several years to see if the malignancy has been arrested."

The doctor said a minimum amount of liver remained for Kenneth to lead a normal life.

The 12-year-old's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Harriett, and his eldest brother George Jr., waited the eight hours at the hospital. Kenneth is expected to spend a month here recovering.

Democrats Lose Percentagewise

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Political diagnosticians began running Kentucky and Philadelphia elections returns through their computers today and found at least superficial evidence of a backlash among white voters from the race issue.

Tuesday's contests for the Kentucky governorship and the Philadelphia majority had been watched for signs to measure the political effect of racial tensions. Democrats won both races but by sharply reduced majorities.

Philadelphia was given particular attention by Republicans because the party line has been that the GOP lost the 1960 presidential election in the big cities.

President Kennedy polled 68 per cent of the vote in Philadelphia, giving him a plurality of 330,000 which enabled him to carry the entire state of Pennsylvania.

In Tuesday's majority election in Philadelphia, Republican James T. McInerney polled about 66 per cent of the vote in his bid to unseat Democratic Mayor James H. J. Tate. The GOP share of the vote in the last city election was 34.4 per cent.

The Central Florida Council of the Navy League will honor him at a 5 p.m. reception Sunday at the Orlando Country Club. On Monday, Admiral Daspit will review Orlando's annual Veterans' Day parade, then he at Eola Park at 10:45 a.m. to deliver an address.

Board Will Ask College Bonds

The Board of Control, which gets $46 million of the $75 million bond issue, is expected to designate specific construction projects and the bond validation is expected to start around the first of the year.

Gubernatorial aide William Kidd said Wednesday the issue of recreational bonds will probably be withheld until two suits challenging a 6 per cent tax to back the bonds is settled.

The tax, passed by the 1963 Legislature, was placed on most sporting goods at the wholesale level.

Hardware and sporting goods firms have challenged the tax as discriminatory and unconstitutional.

Planning is already underway on 12 university projects to be financed by the bond issue and Board of Control architect Forrest Kelly said contracts could be awarded in the spring of 1964.

Kelly said contractors would be staggered system of election of directors will be explained by President Francis E. Roumillat Jr. at the Chamber of Commerce directors' quarterly meeting at 7:30 this evening at the Florida State Bank lounge.

A nominating committee will be appointed this evening. Ballots will be mailed Saturday and must be returned by midnight Nov. 15.

Mrs. Camilla Bruce, Seminole County supervisor of registration, will be recognized for her 15 years of service to the Chamber of Commerce.

Douglas Stenstrom will give a report on the proposed East Central Florida state university. Scott Burns will report on industrial committee activities. Clifford McKibbin will report on progress for metropolitan telephone service in Seminole County.

"We were very proud of the vote of the people of our County to authorize the Board of County Commissioners to call for a bond election, if necessary, for the purpose of acquiring a site for the new state university."

"Four of our five sites must be purchased. Until now, the County Commissioners had no authority to do this. Should the Board of Control select one of the four sites, the Commission is now in a position to call the bond election. I believe that the voters approved this authority for the County Commission by something like a 4-to-1 majority. This is a tremendous vote and certainly indicates that the people of our County are overwhelmingly in favor of the effort being made to have our County considered as the possible location for the new state university. All of us appreciate the effort of each one who took the time and trouble to vote on this question."

"I want to say, too, how pleased I am at Seminole's vote on Amendment No. 2. This was the higher education amendment. Next to Broward County, I believe Seminole gave the Amendment its greatest plurality. This is another indication that the people of this County are deeply interested in the very finest higher educational facilities for our youth."

Additional funds still are coming from men deployed with other squadrons in the Mediterranean. They will complete their fund raising activities before the Nov. 15 deadline.

The base contribution, Lewis added, is better than two per cent of the total UF goal.

Lewis stated: "If we could get the full co-operation of all of the people of Seminole County that we have and are receiving from the Navy we would more than break our goal this year."

Vote Results Unchanged By Official Count

Official count in the city and county elections Tuesday revealed no change today over the unofficial count released Tuesday night after the polls closed.

Voting in the city election saw only 35.8 per cent of the registered electors turning out while in the county, as a whole, only 4,057 voted out of 16,589 registered electors.

School board will conduct its official canvass Nov. 14. In the unofficial count, two school millages were approved and Fred Blitting, Ray Slaton and Don Hale were elected as school trustees.

Douglas Stenstrom, who spearheaded the campaign for the county issue as chairman of the Chamber of Commerce university site committee, today issued this statement:

"We were very proud of the vote of the people of our County to authorize the Board of County Commissioners to call for a bond election, if necessary, for the purpose of acquiring a site for the new state university."

"Four of our five sites must be purchased. Until now, the County Commissioners had no authority to do this. ## Altamonte Building Gets $7,500 Start Financing of the new Altamonte Springs Recreational Building got off to a good start Wednesday night with the Town Council making an initial pledge of $7,500 toward construction.

At the same time the Recreation Committee, Bob Newell, Lorne Jacob and Mrs. Jean Pasternack, with Robert C. Webb as architect, was authorized to proceed with plans and specifications for building the 2,400 square foot facility which will go up on the west end of the city property facing Newburyport Avenue.

The building will be of concrete block construction with cement floor. It will contain a 10 by 38-foot general purpose room with a 12 by 16-foot stage, a kitchen and restrooms and showers for boys and girls. Space is provided for possible future additions to the north and west of the building. Estimated overall costs are expected to be in the neighborhood of $15,000.

Council approved request from Dr. J. W. Hickman to supply city water to Seminole Industrial Park subject to final approval of the Housing, Home and Finance Agency.

Mains will be put in by the city up to the west line of Atlantic Avenue with Hickman to be responsible for providing lines and arteries within the park. Hickman has agreed, after the first year, to guarantee the town a total of $450 annually for the next three-year period. After this time revenue will come from the individual customers locating in the Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Faulhaber, who appeared before council with a list of fire complaints, were assured by Mayor Lawrence Swafford that all would be taken under consideration within the next few days.

Deviation on paving Second Street between Sanford Avenue and Hermita Trail was tabled until the next meeting pending check on drainage. Estimated total costs for this project were set at $4,750. Construction will consist of a six-inch sub-base covered with six-inch stamp asphalt and sand seal.

Progress report on the municipal water system showed that the work was 84.4 per cent completed at the end of October. Mains in the south end of town have been pressure tested and most of them sterilized, necessary changes along Altamonte Avenue are being made and it is expected that construction on the entire system will be in the final stages of completion within the next 30 days.

The low bid of $2,080.11, submitted by Huller Motors of Sanford for a 1964 pickup truck for the water department, was accepted subject to compliance with specifications and approval of the government financing agency. Council also voted to accept the best bid for small equipment items needed by the department subject to final approval of the engineer.

Action on request to close an alley in Stuart Subdivision was tabled pending completion of the town's overall drainage plan by the engineer.

4-Year-Old Victim Of Brutal Beating

First degree murder charges have been preferred against a Negro couple in the fatal beating of their four-year-old son, it was reported this morning by Justice of the Peace Hugh Duncan.

Alton R. Williams, 26, and his wife, Valeria Jean Williams, 21, of 1832 Lincoln Avenue, are being held without bond in county jail, Judge Duncan said.

The Judge quoted the couple as having admitted that both beat four-year-old Christopher Kinnen Young, son of Mrs. Williams.

An autopsy at Sanford Naval Air Station, Judge Duncan said today, revealed the boy died from internal injuries. Judge Duncan stated that the boy's internal organs were injured and a number of ribs broken. Further, he added, the boy's entire body was covered with cuts and bruises. He said, "It was impossible to lay your hand on any part of that child's body, arms, legs or head without touching a bruise or a cut."

Judge Duncan said he was of the opinion this beating practice had been continuing since the Williams couple was married last March.

Williams is an enlisted metalmith in the Navy, assigned for the last two years to the Sanford Naval Air Station.

Sheriff's Deputy Leo Kisp said the stepfather and mother took the boy at 12:20 a. m. Wednesday to SNAB dispensary, where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am in hot water with a very good friend of mine. I have known her since she was a baby, which is the only time I've ever seen that looks like the person's own hair. I told a group of men at my club that he was a trouper. (None were surprised, and many were not.) Later, when I saw my friend, he let me know in no uncertain terms that he did not appreciate my telling people that he was a trouper. I did not mean to be unkind. I simply stated a fact. I didn't think he'd mind. Was I wrong?

CHECKING

DEAR CHECKING: Yes. You should have checked with him first. If he didn't "mind" — why do you think he would wear a toupee?

DEAR ABBY: No. often when I am eating my lunch at a counter, two or three people will come in and ask if I would move down a seat or two so they can all sit together. I don't always feel like moving because it involves moving my purse and perhaps some packages. Also, I am usually absorbed in reading something, and I don't like to be interrupted. I used to move without a moment's hesitation, but the more I thought about it, the more I realized that it was just plain rude of people to ask me to move, and I quit doing it. Now when I refuse the request, everyone in the place (especially the waitresses) glare at me as though I were the rude one. Why do strangers feel it is owed to them to be accommodated in this way? Or am I wrong?

NOT MOVING

DEAR NOT: Moving over a seat or two in order to accommodate people who wish to sit together is, in my opinion, no slight inconvenience that it is rude to refuse.

DEAR ABBY: Three weeks ago my husband died of cancer. I can't find the words to tell you how much I loved him. When it became obvious to him that he was dying, he asked me to promise him that I would not grieve and that I would not let others who loved him grieve over his death. I am 36. He was 89. It was his last wish that there be no public type funeral. He requested that our minister say a little prayer with only those present who had to do the actual labor in burying him. He did not want me, our children, or even his parents to "see" him buried. I promised him and he died in my arms. I discussed it with our minister and everything was carried out according to my husband's wishes. Now, my husband's family and even friends and neighbors are saying hateful things about me. Abby, I thought I was doing the right thing. Did I?

KEPT MY PROMISE

DEAR KEPT PROMISE: Yes. Have no regrets.

Homemakers

By Mrs. E. L. Johnson

Have had several calls this week for the CRANBERRY CONSERVE recipe to be reprinted. Since it is the cranberry-apple season again, here it is.

1 lb. cranberries
3 large oranges
3 large cooking apples
Wash oranges and apples, remove seeds, leaving peeling on. Grind oranges and apples and cranberries (which have been washed). To each cup of mixture add 1 cup of sugar. Mix well and store in refrigerator.

This sounds very good for those who like squash. BAKED PECAN SQUASH
2 12-oz. pkgs. frozen squash
1/2 cup melted butter
1/2 cup undiluted evaporated milk
3 tbsps. brown sugar
1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
1/2 cup coarsely broken pecans

2 tbsps. corn syrup
In large bowl combine thawed squash, melted butter, milk, sugar, salt, pepper and nutmeg. Turn into greased 1 1/2 quart casserole. In small bowl combine pecans with corn syrup, sprinkle over squash in casserole. Bake about 30 minutes in 400 degree oven or until the mixture is heated through. Serves 4.

Green seedless grapes are on the market now so here is a tempter to try. HEAVENLY GRAPES
4 cups green seedless grapes
1 cup sour cream
brown sugar
Wash grapes, drain well. Combine grapes with sour cream. Pour into a large bowl or individual dishes. Sprinkle tops generously with brown sugar. Serves 4.

Another tempting, colorful dish is JELLO DELIGHT using Coca Cola.
2 pkgs. black raspberry Jello
2 cups hot water
1 can black sweet cherries (drained)

1 10-oz. pkg. frozen strawberries (drained)
1 Coca Cola
1 cup broken nuts
1 cup small or chopped marshmallows
Dissolve the Jello in the hot water. Measure the drained juices and Coca Cola. Add water, enough to make 2 cups of the cold liquid. Pour this into the Jello and hot water mixture. Add the remaining ingredients, pour into mold. Place in the refrigerator to congeal. Stir occasionally to keep the fruit from settling to the bottom. Top each serving with whipped cream. Serves 10.

While making popcorn balls or even popcorn strings for that Christmas tree make this POPCORN CAKE
1 cup sugar
1 cup white corn syrup

1 cup black sweet cherries (drained)
1 10-oz. pkg. frozen strawberries (drained)
1 Coca Cola

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

South bid and played very well, but I have to credit West with an assist in the bidding department. West's bids of two and three diamonds gave North two chances to show weakness by passing and South plenty of time to show distribution.

Finally, when North raised him to three hearts, South decided that North would surely hold at least four hearts and, while the queen was not guaranteed, South was willing to gamble on a slam.

Had West jumped right to three or four diamonds he would have crowded the bidding and South would probably have wound up at game only.

There wasn't much to the play provided South was careful not to play three rounds of trumps. Actually, South did not play trumps at all at the start of his campaign.

He ruffed the diamond opening, led the ace of clubs and ruffed a second club low in dummy. He didn't try to guard against five clubs in the East hand because he did not see any good way to play against such an annoying development.

When both opponents followed to that second club, South was strolling down the boulevard. He led a trump to his ace, ruffed another club with the queen of trumps and trumped and conceded a spade trick.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

The woman who is most likely to be happy, loved and admired is the one who has learned that a charming woman never talks about her health, her personal troubles, or her pet peeves. That she has a duty to herself to make the most of whatever nature gave her.

That the way a woman walks and talks and smiles is more important than anything she can buy in the way of beauty at a drug store.

That even in this day and age a woman's reputation is her most valuable possession.

That the job of homemaking is no lowly occupation, but offers a woman her best chance of expressing her whole personality.

That a sunny disposition and a warm smile are her best weapons.

That boredom is a weakness, not a sign of superiority.

That the woman who expects a man to spend his life trying to make her happy has read too many love stories.

That neatness is one of the important foundations of feminine attractiveness.

That it is every bit as important for a woman to be liked by other women as for a man to get along well with other men.

That the least attractive traits a woman can have are snobbishness, bossiness, sloppiness and spitefulness.

Holiday Decorations Workshop Held By Club

The Christmas spirit came early to members and guests of the Lake Mary Woman's Club as they gathered recently for a workshop on holiday decorations. The Chamber of Commerce building took on the aspect of Santa's North Pole headquarters as members, busy as the jolly old gentleman's elves, worked to create lovely decorative items for the upcoming festive season.

MRS. JOE SMATHERS, left, and Mrs. Harry Sandusky demonstrated how to make Christmas wall decorations and beautiful trays from old records.

Mrs. J. O. Gregory, chairman for the event, garnered such talented guest speakers as Mrs. John Morgan and Mrs. Fred Ganas. With just a twist of a bit of wire and a snip here and there, Mrs. Morgan showed the group how to make an elegant wreath out of chicken wire, podocarpus, spray and shiny Christmas balls.

With her magical touch, Mrs. Ganas created arrangements that members feverishly copied and proudly took home where they will add beauty and pique the decor for the holiday activities.

Not lacking creative talent in their own ranks, the club provided a most interesting and productive afternoon with club members, Mrs. H. E. Sandusky, Mrs. Joe Smathers and Mrs. Paul Poor taking the curtain calls. With a nominal expenditure, Mrs. Poor demonstrated how blotter paper of various colors, coupled with clear spray can create a handsome table for holiday guests. Mrs. Smathers and Sandusky revealed how a bit of rummaging through the attic and finding such items as old 78 records and other materials can be turned into wall decorations that will draw rave notices.

Surely "Ola Santa" won't forget the committee members who worked so hard for Mrs. Gregory and Mrs. Olan Boutwell, the program chairmen. On Santa's list will be Mrs. John C. Noel, Mrs. Poor, Mrs. William D. Shattuck, Mrs. Richard Davidson and Mrs. Robert C. Martin. Guests who came to collect ideas included Meses Raymond Ball, John Hoganson, John F. Barlow, Tom Gallagher, A. W. Epps Sr., and L. E. Leeper. They weren't disappointed! They went home with bags chock full of "how-to" instructions and heads dancing with dreams of the coming Christmastide.

Chuluota Club Observes Fourth Birthday

A fruit cake, frosted and decorated with candles, was served the members of the Illis and Her Garden Club by Mrs. Alfred Van Wormer to celebrate the fourth birthday of the club as well as give a Thanksgiving touch to the Nov. 4 meeting held at her home in Chuluota.

Mrs. Van Wormer, who is a past chairman, met with Mr. and Mrs. George R. Boulton, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. McCune on Nov. 2, 1959 and organized the garden club. Membership now numbers 20 and recently was limited to 25.

"Hints and Short Cuts for Florida Gardeners" was the subject of the program conducted by the hostess. The use of materials usually discarded, such as milk cartons, pickle jars, plastic bags and bottles, ice-cream sticks and pine needles, as well as things not usually associated with gardening such as moth balls, ice cubes and chicken wire, was explained. Almost 40 suggestions were submitted, including several given by members.

Mrs. William W. Dill, formerly of Attalla, Ala., was welcomed as a new member. Guests of the club were Mrs. Jasper Smith of Akron, Ohio, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe C. Morrison, and Mrs. William Lampinen of Second Street.

The Dec. 2 meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell J. Hammond of Fourth Street at 11:30 a.m. The program will be a Christmas workshop.

Cahills Host For Sorority Halloween Costume Party

Ghosts and goblins invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Cahill when members of the Theta Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi gathered for a Halloween party.

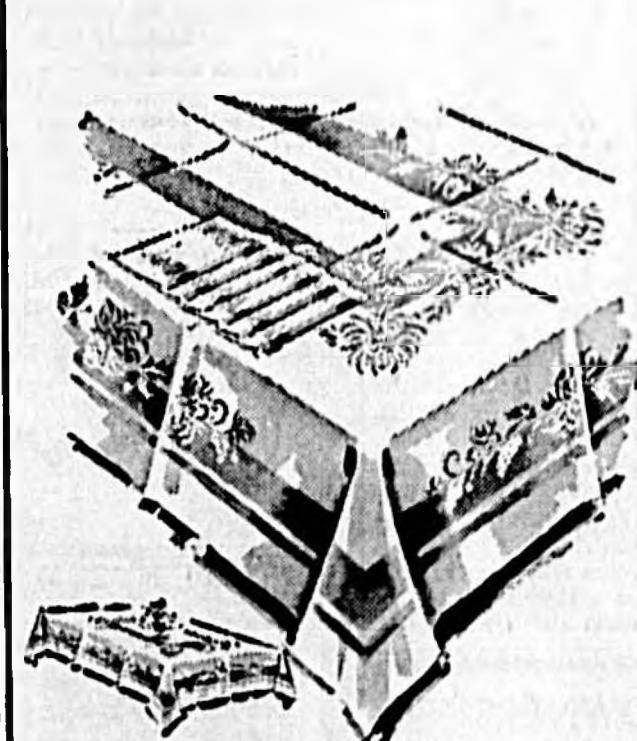

The costumed guests were greeted by the host and hostess, who were cleverly dressed as Mr. and Mrs. Satan.

The patio was decorated with bright Jack-o-lanterns, black cats, witches and individual tables centered with colorful pumpkins. There were tubs of crisp red apples for bobbing and Mrs. Rick Walker won a prize for the "spookiest" costume. She was dressed as a witch in a long black cape, tall hat and witch's mask with a hook nose.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lewis portrayed Anthony and Cleopatra and won prizes for the most original costumes. The group enjoyed several games and listened to recordings for the remainder of the evening. Sandwiches, coffee and cake were served in the Florida room. Others attending were Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Largent, Mr. and Mrs. Hob McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Hob Kieck, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Peacock, Mr. and Mrs. Al Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rivero, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Garner, Mr. and Mrs. Sterne Bolte, Rick Walker and Mrs. Faye Stetson.

Anyone interested in joining is invited to attend the next meeting on Dec. 7, when a Christmas party is planned.

Miss McKinney Attending Horse Shows

Miss Sandra McKinney, daughter of Mrs. Mary McKinney, left last weekend for a three week stay in the north and to attend the International Horse Shows.

She first stopped in Maryland for the dressage tryouts. This was the first time the international horse shows in the U. S. had held regular dressage classes in connection with the shows.

From there Miss McKinney went to Washington, D. C. and attended the show there. This week she is in New York City and will attend the Madison Square Garden International Show.

She has been staying with college friends in the various places she has visited.

Rare Art

Few of us ever have folding money in our pockets long enough to become very well acquainted with it. And even fewer people have enough familiarity with money to have bred contempt for it.

But there's a fellow in Miami who has complained to his congressman about the $10 bill. He thinks the obsolete car in the picture on the back gives America a bad image and certainly does not convey the idea of progress which this nation is so proud of.

Actually, the street scene in front of the Treasury Building was ridiculously inaccurate even when it was engraved in 1929. There are a mere four motor vehicles and 12 pedestrians in sight. Washington hasn't been that depopulated since the British were careless with matches in 1814.

However, as one Treasury spokesman commented, the out-of-date ten-spot is "a symbol of the stability of the American economy."

On that controversial note, perhaps it is best to close the subject.

Hard Problem

It may not be true, as charged, that you can prove anything by statistics.

Takes the matter of marriage and divorce.

In 1960 — latest year of record — 390,000 married couples in the United States were divorced.

This was approximately one-fourth the number of marriages in the U. S. that year.

So your first impulse — unless you're a statistician — is to assume that one of every four U. S. marriages ends in divorce.

But the Marriage and Divorce Statistics Branch of the U. S. Public Health Service (how does health get into this?) shakes its head.

A truer comparison, says USPHS, is to put the number of annual divorces up against the total number of married women 15 years old and older in this country.

Do it this way and you find that only one U. S. marriage in every 109 ends in divorce.

Now this is more like it. Maybe we Americans aren't so divorce-dizzy after all.

But wait—

Is it accurate to compare one year's divorce crop with ALL surviving marriages over the years?

Wouldn't it be fairer to match the total number of divorced men and women 15 years old and older with the total number of undivorced men and women in the same age group? Or would it?

And even if we did it that way, how about the fact that many of these ladies and gentlemen may have been married and/or divorced more than once?

Confusing, isn't it?

Regardless of statistical shenanigans, it's a sobering thought that in one year 390,000 once-happy marriages have gone down the drain.

It is even more sobering to remember that more than 850,000 children have been left as innocent and confused and helpless victims of these broken homes.

What of their future?

No matter how you figure it, it adds up to the fact that we ought to be doggedly careful when we wed — and then do our darnedest to make it work.

Lyle C. Wilson Says: Barry Vs Rocky

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) should be able to lick Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in any showdown debate on what a presidential platform should contain.

Rockefeller wants an itemized platform containing specific promises on such major issues as taxes, foreign aid and civil rights.

Goldwater is against that. The senator wants a platform consisting of a statement of Republican principles without spelling out promises to do this that and the other thing.

Rockefeller has precedent going for him. It is customary for the political parties to make specific promises in their presidential platforms.

Some of the Kennedy administration's recent trouble with the civil rights bill in the House Judiciary committee flowed from the ambiguous specifications of civil rights action to which the Democratic Party pledged itself in the 1960 presidential campaign.

It has been the custom, however, for political parties to make specific promises. So, Rockefeller defends a well established position in his proposal that the Republicans do likewise next year. Only if the platform were specific and satisfactory, Rocky said, would he support Goldwater if the senator were nominated for President.

The weakness of Rockefeller's position and the strength of Goldwater's opposition is that platform specifics have been carried to the point of absurdity and political dishonesty.

Platforms now are written to include something for everyone — vote catchers. The platform writing committee of any national convention is a pressure group lobbyist's paradise.

Suppose the spokesmen for the NAACP and other Negro organizations appear before the committee to proclaim aggressively that there are millions of Negro voters in key states and that they want U. S. Senate rules changed to prevent filibusters.

Most of the politicians seeking the presidential nomination are pretty sure then to endorse the proposition and denounce filibusters. They do that to win delegate votes in the convention and Negro votes in the election. They endorse and denounce even if they know they can't make good on their promises. Language satisfactory to NAACP goes into the platform.

That happened at the 1960 Democratic National Convention. Such things occur also among the Republicans. And such things are giving platforms, politicians and political conventions a bad name. The name is for political dishonesty.

So long as nominating conventions write specific political promises into their party platforms, just so long will this bad name prevail.

Moreover, these specific platforms compound political scalawagery by inducing the habit of political dishonesty. Phoney platforms make con men of politicians.

Confronted with campaign promises after an election, they have been known to brush them off as mere campaign oratory.

In such an environment there thrive in Washington the little scandals, the little messes, the mis-use of official stationery to arm-twist political donations.

Why blame Senate Democratic Clerk Bobby Baker for adjusting himself to the established political environment?

The rotten apple is buried deep in the nominating convention barrel.

SKIING SEASON, WITH UNLIMITED POSSIBILITIES

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

CASE Q-494: Fred J., aged 24, was a graduate student enrolled in a large California University.

He was taking a course in economics, taught by a very liberal type of professor.

Fred and several of the other top students in the course realized they would need to parrot back this pinko's ideas in order to win good grades.

So they did. And Fred's marks ranged between "A" and "B" all semester.

That is, they did until two weeks before the end of the term.

Then this pinko professor learned that Fred and some of his other top students had organized a Conservative League among the undergraduates.

This caused him to go almost berserk. So he gave Fred and the other top students an "F" for the course!

This illustrates one of the types of bullying that takes place not infrequently on American campuses.

For the usual student is almost helpless in such a situation.

It is standard administrative policy that the professor is the dictator of grades for his own courses.

Besides, unless the prof hands back the exam papers, the typical student has very little evidence to prove his side of the case in a conflict about grades.

But Fred was an older man and also a brilliant attorney, with a law degree. So he resented this black mark against his superlative scholastic record.

For Fred had never received even a "D" grade, not to mention an "F," either in undergraduate school or Law School or as a graduate student.

So Fred stormed into the dean's office and in no uncertain terms he exposed this pinko professor.

Then the dean did something unheard of in college circles.

For the dean immediately crossed out the "F" and substituted a "D" grade.

Actually, Fred should have had at least a "B." And so should the other classmates who had joined him in launching that Conservative League.

For they were the top students in the Class. And top scholars certainly merit no lower than a "B" mark.

Alas, several departments in college education have been infiltrated the past generation with ultra liberal profs.

In fact, we have two schools in Chicagoland that are popularly known as "Communist Colleges."

They are brainstroming their students more disastrously than did the Communists in Korea.

For their graduates now go forth, apparently as respected men with graduate degrees, to take teaching posts elsewhere and thus further contaminate high school and college youth.

Last year, for example, one of our 10 largest universities abolished the requirement that college freshmen must take American History!

Instead, they are now FORCED to study Asiatic or Russian history!

Dick West Says

Tell-Tale Dresser

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The fact that an attractive young German woman was forced to return home because of her alleged friendship with unnamed officials here is of little interest to me.

What I find intriguing is the manner in which the matter came to light.

According to a report I have been reading with beady little eyes, the State Department became suspicious of her conduct because she was "dressing beyond her means."

Presumably, her clothing was more expensive than the wife of a German sergeant would ordinarily be able to buy.

This strikes me as being a rather slim reed upon which to base an investigation. My own wife, for instance, has been dressing beyond her means for years. Or at least beyond my means.

But as far as I know she has never caused an eyebrow-wrinkling at the State Department.

If buying dresses that her husbands can't afford is a sign that women are less than virtuous, then there must be a terrific traffic jam along the path.

What I would like to know is this: Who at the State Department has charge of noticing that women are dressing beyond their means? And how do you go about getting a job like that?

Much of the social life in Washington revolves around the embassy circuit. The dress inspector therefore must be a pretty busy fellow.

Publicity that the Ellen Romech case has been getting, coming on top of the Christine Keeler case in London undoubtedly will make his work a lot harder.

If I were a socialite, I would be sure I wore last year's dress the next time I attended a party on Embassy Row.

Ladies attending these functions probably will find it more difficult from now on to maintain their composure when they spot some guy giving them the once-over.

It could well be, of course, that the State Department's dress inspector is a woman. That would permit the inspector to feel the quality of the dry goods without risking a punch in the nose.

Or it could be that the department uses a two-man inspection team, one being a fashion expert and the other an accountant.

As for us husbands, the case suggests a rule of thumb that we can follow. As long as our wives' clothing keeps us broke, we can be fairly certain they are being faithful.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The United States government is leaning over backward to be strictly neutral on the Algerian-Moroccan border dispute. But this is so complicated an issue it must be watched closely.

It is not yet considered a split in the Arab League or a test case for the existence of the new Organization of African Unity—OAU—set up at Addis Ababa last summer. If not settled quickly, however, the dispute might be brought before the United Nations Security Council as a threat to peace.

There is a legitimate borderline dispute between Algeria and Morocco, going back over 100 years to Ottoman empire days when sultans ruled all of North Africa.

After the area became a French protectorate, a 1901 Protocol of Paris established an East-West borderline between Algeria and Morocco. It ran south from the Mediterranean to Figlig, then jogged southwest to Guir. No dispute here.

All the argument concerns extension of the line from Guir to the northeast corner of Spanish Sahara.

This 500 miles of desert on the southern slope of the Atlas Mountains is largely uninhabited. French military commanders shifted borders at will to administer security zones.

There was a Varner Line established by the French in 1912. It ran north of the 1901 line, but it is shown in different places on different maps. Then there was an unofficial "Used Dra" line, following a sometimes dry and sometimes flooding river that shifted course after every rain. A 1938 Triquet line is accepted by the Algerians as border.

Morocco bases a claim to territory south of this line on two official letters from the French government; one to the late King Mohamed V has not been released. A second letter to his son, the present ruler King Hassan II, has been released. It moves the Triquet line south and east.

Furthermore, on the basis of tribal suserains of the middle ages, Morocco lays claim to not only what Algeria considers her westernmost territory, but also to Spanish Sahara and the Islamic republic of Mauritania.

Morocco now has no common frontier with Mauritania. To gain a corridor from southern Morocco to Mauritania—according to the Algerian version—Morocco "invaded" the westernmost triangle of Algeria. This is where the fighting has been, around the towns of Tinjoub and Tindouf.

The situation is complicated by the fact that this area is supposed to have rich iron ore deposits. They have never been surveyed. There is no road to get the ore out of there.

But this would be something far more worth fighting for than a stretch of desert. Communist propaganda has therefore been whooping it up against the Rothschild banking interests in Paris for backing Moroccan claims to keep control over the iron. This would make it an economic war.

At the All-African Conference in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, last summer, the new nations agreed that for the time being they would accept boundaries as set by European colonial powers. The dispute is the first break in agreement.

The greatest danger as now seen is that if this dispute cannot be settled among the African powers themselves, it may deteriorate into a battle between two philosophies of government that could split all Africa.

Algerians supporting the new regime of Premier Ahmed Ben Bella will say that Morocco is backed by the Western imperialists trying to overthrow African socialism.

King Hassan's supporters will say that making any agreement with the Algerians would be playing into the hands of Communists who want to destroy his kingdom.

Phil Newsom Says . . .

War Of Ideologies

In Rabat, a UPI correspondent just back from the scene of the desert fighting along the Algerian-Moroccan frontier, sat down at his typewriter and endeavored to sort out his impressions.

... like something out of Beau Geste," wrote UPI man Carlos Mendez.

Indeed, it scarcely seemed eight days palm trees. No town. No vegetation except for those pitiful palms clustered around one well . . .

Indeed, it scarcely seemed worth a man's life.

But around the small Haasi Beida oasis men were dying, even as leaders of both Africa and the Arab world maneuvered for peace.

There were compelling reasons for settling the quarrel quickly. But there also were reasons why peace would not come easily and why, if it did come, it might prove as illusory as Arab or African unity.

A compelling reason for peace was a fear that, if continued for long, the fighting could not be confined to a single border.

In Paris, with intimate knowledge of both, there was a belief that militarily the Moroccans were better trained and equipped for this kind of fighting and would win out over Algeria.

But there was also the belief that United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser and the Communist bloc would intervene to save Algerian President Ahmed Ben Bella from disaster.

Eventually, such a war would engulf the whole of North Africa.

There were plenty of would-be peace-makers, including virtually every head of every state bordering on the Sahara. The belligerents also spoke of a desire for peace but contin-

Manager Beautifies School Lunchroom

By Bernice Kelsey
Mrs. J. M. Dingman is going into her fourth year as manager of the Oviedo High School Cafeteria and is very interested in her work and in the children of the school.

In 1961 she started a beautification program in the lunchroom by bringing a turtle aquarium for enjoyment of the students. Some of the turtles have been brought to school by the children and there now are also three fish aquariums on display in the room.

Mrs. Dingman, who enjoys showing the students how ingenuity can make use of what is on hand, has made containers from plastic bleach bottles for each table which hold crotons, collis and other varieties of plants.

Longwood Civic League Sees Film On March Of Dimes

By Donna Estes
Film showing the work supported by the National Foundation of the March of Dimes being carried on throughout the country were viewed by members of the Longwood Civic League at the regular monthly meeting held Tuesday.

Ed Forman, state representative of the March of Dimes and Al Davis, Seminole County representative of the organization, explained, as the film illustrated, that the March of Dimes helps retarded children as well as those afflicted with arthritis and polio.

Following the program, Mrs. Elizabeth Hillie, president, conducted the business meeting and announced that the League will entertain the County Federation of Women's Club on Nov. 31, at 10 a. m. at the Civic League Building on Church Street in Longwood.

The executive board will meet at 9:30 the same morning.

Mrs. Otis Lee, house and grounds chairman, reported that 73 place settings, as well as 50 pieces of a complete set of dishes, has been obtained for the kitchen. Supplying a complete set of new dishes is one of the League's projects this year.

Gingerbread and tea or coffee were served from tables decorated with fall flowers including golden rain and Confederate roses. Serving as hostesses were Miss Elizabeth Abbott, Miss Ella Cummings, Mrs. Cassie Maier, Mrs. Opal McElroy, Mrs. Leota Putnam and Mrs. Vesta Payne.

The next regular meeting, to which all interested women of Longwood are invited, will be held Dec. 3.

Businessmen's Action Heated

Much of the action in the Businessmen's League last Tuesday centered around the battle for first place between Team No. 8 and Kondracki and Cline's Sinclair with a two and two verdict resulting. Rich Wallsted's 211 high game was enough to swing the third game and total points the way of Team No. 8. Steve Mason topped both teams with 207-561 and Buddy Boyles aided the Sinclair team with an even 200 game.

Faron Builders grabbed a three point win over Dick's Appliance to push themselves into the fourth slot in the league standings. Curtis Reuman provided the spark as he came through with a 201 game.

Joe Pickens paced Team No. 1 in their steady rise in the league standings while shooting a 209-522 good enough for series honors for the night. Their four point win over team No. 3 upped them to a fourth spot tie.

Team No. 6 won their second consecutive four point decision in a determined effort to vacate the cellar. This week it was at the expense of Team No. 5.

Ten men rolled better than 500 series in this league at Jet Lanes as the bowling improves weekly in a league that is made up of quite a few beginner bowlers.

Hoople's Nephews At Bat

'Maryland Will Sink The Navy'

By Major Amos B. Hoople
Originator of Offenses
Greetings, my millions of friends! What a treat I have in store this week for the faithful followers of the Hoople System.

In keeping with the youth movement which is sweeping the country, I have turned over the preparation of my football predictions for this Saturday to my nephews, Leander and Alvin.

Their card for this weekend includes 10 colossal upsets. Editor's Note: Egadi! There's a lot of Hoople in these lad's!

Using their own system, based on quick kicks, wayward passes and falling bodies, the boys have selected Maryland to sink Navy, Baylor to trim Texas, and Stanford to edge Southern California in the three biflat surprises of the day.

Nearly as startling is their prediction of a Penn State victory over favored Ohio State, 18-15—hak-kaff!

Other juicy upsets include Rice over Arkansas, Mississippi State to subdue Auburn, Texas Christian to shock Louisiana State, Northwestern to down Wisconsin, and Purdue to defeat Michigan State.

Howard Named AL's Most Valuable Player

BOSTON (UPI)—The American League's Most Valuable Player award remained almost the exclusive property of the New York Yankees today when Elston Howard won the 1963 honors in a landslide.

The 33-year-old Yankee catcher collected 15 of 20 first place votes in balloting by selected members of the Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA) and finished 100 points ahead of runner-up Al Kaline of the Detroit Tigers.

The results of the voting were announced here by Hy Hurwitz, national secretary of the association. Two members in each of the 10 American League cities participated in the balloting.

In scoring his clear-cut victory over outfielder Kaline, Howard became the fourth successive Yankee to capture the coveted award and the eighth New York winner in the last 10 seasons.

Howard succeeded Yankee outfielder Mickey Mantle, the 1952 MVP selection. Roger Maris won the award in 1960 and 1961 and Yogi Berra, the Yankees' new manager, captured the title three times, in 1951, 1954 and 1955.

Only the third catcher to win MVP honors, Howard totaled 248 points to 148 for Kaline. Yankee pitcher Whitey Ford finished third at 125 points and was second only to Howard in first place votes with three. Kaline and Yankee Tom Tresh, who was 11th in the point totals, netted the remaining No. 1 votes.

American League home run champion Harmon Killebrew of Minnesota won a close three-way battle for the fourth spot, his 85 points barely edging Boston relief pitcher ace Dick Radatz (81) and American League batting champion Carl Yastrzemski of the Red Sox (81).

Ends Card Tie

ATLANTA, Ga. (UPI)—Atlanta Cracker President Bill McKechnie Jr. has announced the team has ended its baseball affiliation with the National League St. Louis Cardinals.

Braves To Play One More Game

The Sanford Junior High School Braves will play one more game this season—in addition to tonight's Peanut Bowl contest with South Seminole Junior High.

School officials announced this morning that the Braves have scheduled a tilt with Ocala Junior High in Ocala next Tuesday night.

This contest will replace a game originally scheduled earlier in the season with Wildwood. However, the Wildwood school requested cancellation of the game.

Floridan Wins Top Open Money

CARLSBAD, N. M. (UPI)—An also-ran earned more money than the winner in the $7,500 Cavern City Ladies Open golf tournament.

Marilyn Smith of Tequesta, Fla., finished first with a 54-hole total of 212. Her prize money amounted to $1,250.

But the ladies pro tour rookie of the year, Clifford Ann Creed of Alexandria, La., shot a hole-in-one on the 18th of Sunday's last round, which netted her $2,000 plus $520 for her fifth place score of 224.

Festivities To Begin At 7 p. m.

The stage is set for tonight's presentation of the sixth annual Peanut Bowl gridiron classic featuring a clash between the Sanford Junior High School Braves and the South Seminole Junior High Hurricanes.

Wednesday afternoon Head Coach Dan Pelham ran his charges through a light drill in preparation for this evening's engagement. In Casselberry, Head Coach Jim Clark put his club through a light workout with an emphasis on the Hurricanes' offensive formations they'll throw at the Braves.

Clark said his eleven was "Up for this game, and we feel certain it will be a better one than the game we played earlier in the season with Sanford."

In that affair the Hurricanes jumped into a quick six point lead when halfback Larry Lott took the opening kickoff for a touchdown. However, the Braves fought their way back to knot the count and then go on to a 27 to 0 victory.

"Last year," said Clark, "Sanford beat the Hurricanes in the first of two games played but the South Seminoles came back to shutout the Braves in the second tilt. We're hoping to be able to do the same thing tonight. Our kids have been waiting for this game, and we sincerely believe we have a better club

$50,000 Pot Largest For PGA Tourney

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI)—Some 150 professional golfers start taking potshots today at a pot of $50,000 in the first Sinatra Open Invitational at the new Canyon Country Club course.

This is the largest pot ever put up for the opening of a PGA tournament but there's an explanation — sponsor Frank Sinatra is a well-heeled and a well-known golfer.

The Sinatra fun-fest—modeled after that of his older pal, Bing Crosby, will be topped by a $10,000 pro-amateur 18-hole event Monday and an evening party at $35 a plate.

Profits go to boys clubs in this area.

NEW YORK (UPI)—The 1964 Thunderbird Open golf tournament will be staged for the second consecutive year at the Westchester Country Club, Harrison, N. Y., June 4-7.

Twin-Double Pays Record $79,660

WESTBURY, N. Y. (UPI)—Every Wednesday night, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mariano of Waterbury, Conn., journey to Roosevelt Raceway and wager a few dollars on the trotters.

Mrs. Mariano decided to remain at home Wednesday night because of the rain, so Joe a 39-year-old bartender, "didn't feel too lucky" when he bought 10 two dollar tickets on the 2 and 6 combination in the first half of the twin-double.

When both horses won, Joe decided to "wheel" the No. 5 horse in the eighth race with every entry in the ninth.

It was the smartest wager Joe Mariano ever made.

Sure enough, the No. 3 horse (Sea Missile) won the eighth and when Lieut. Byrd clicked at $61.60 in the ninth, Joe the bartender wound up with the only winning ticket on a record twin-double payoff of $79,660.30.

Asked what he planned to do with his windfall after accepting a check for the full amount from the harness track's mutual manager, Joseph Lynch, Mariano said: "I plan to help my married daughter, Elaine, with her new house and pay my taxes with the rest."

The previous record twin-double payoff was $68,228.00 at Suffolk Downs, Oct. 19, during that track's thoroughbred meeting. The highest previous twin-double return at a harness track was $37,118.10 at Monticello Raceway.

Seminole Considered For Azalea Bowl

Liston Is Facing California Ban

Seminole High School athletic department officials revealed today that the school's football team has been offered a tentative bid to participate in the 1963 Azalea Bowl contest to be played in Palatka following the completion of the high school football schedule.

Bowl officials will be in Sanford Friday night to see the Seminole-Wildwood game which could decide this season's Orange-Belt conference championship.

However, the best the Seminoles could accomplish would be a tie for the conference title provided they beat Wildwood and also win over Winter Garden Lakeview and the DeLand High Bulldogs.

The chances are that the winner of Friday's contest will get the bid to the Azalea Bowl affair. If Seminole or Wildwood is selected they will meet Head Coach Rabbit Smith's Palatka High School Maroons. Thus far this season the Maroons are undefeated. However, they have been tied in a pair of engagements.

Local football fans will recall that Smith was one of Charlie Trippi's running mates with the all-American at the University of Georgia Bulldogs in the mid-fifties.

Local school officials said, however, they are not certain that Seminole would accept a definite bid should they defeat Wildwood Friday night.

There is a possibility, perhaps remote, they admitted, that if Seminole can finish the season without any further losses the Celery Bowl game might be re-inaugurated and Seminole might invite another Class-A school to meet them in a post-season contest.

JIM TOUHY, Seminole high tackle, is a senior and playing his second year on the local high school's varsity squad. Jim, an offensive left tackle, weighs 190 and wears jersey No. 74. Jim has been a pleasant surprise to Head Coach Jim Pigott because of developing into a top-notch blocker both in the line and downfield. For a tackle Touhy possesses excellent speed and his jaring blocks have cleared many a path for the Tribe's ball-carrying backs on many fine yardage plays. Touhy has also been a member of Seminole's track squad. He throws the discus and puts the shot. Jim also holds one other position on the Warrior football team. He's the club's chaplain.

BARRY BARKS, a senior end for the Seminoles is playing his second year on the varsity. Barks plays offensive right end and fills in as a defensive end. Barry, at 176 pounds, wears jersey No. 81. He was a jack-of-all positions on the JayVee squad, playing end, quarter, full and half back. On the varsity he has played end and has done an excellent job. His talent includes blocking and has good speed for an end which helps downfield blocking. Barry's pass receiving has been excellent. Barks plays basketball and is in track. Last year in the state track meet he ran a mile relay which set a new Seminole High record of 3:32.2.

EARL BLACK, one of Seminole High's most exciting halfbacks, is a senior this year, and playing his second year on the varsity. Earl weighs 165 and wears jersey No. 22. Earl has thrilled Seminole fans on numerous occasions, as well as shocked opponents, with the long bomb. He scored against Orlando Colonial on a short pass, went 82 yards on the opening kickoff against Apopka, went 78 yards with a touchdown pass on the first offensive play of the game with Winter Park and 61 yards on another play up the middle for a TD. Black has good speed, excellent hands, and is a talented blocker. Earl is also a sprinter on Seminoles' track squad.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A California boxing official warned Los Angeles promoters Wednesday they may be wasting their time in attempting to obtain the Sonny Liston-Cassius Clay heavyweight fight.

Sol Silverman, chairman of the Governor's Committee for

Safeguards in Professional Boxing, pointed out that Liston does not have a license to fight in either California or New York—and that both states "are as one in their opposition to mismatches."

And Liston may have trouble getting a license in California.

Silverman said he recently received a letter from Chairman Hayward Plummer of the New York Joint Legislative Committee stating that his group would "like to hear Mr. Liston state under oath that he has severed all connections with criminal elements."

"I'm sure our California Athletic Commission, with a fine sensitivity to its responsibilities, and the desire to promote safeguards in boxing, shares New York's urge," he said.

Silverman also expressed doubt about the wisdom of matching the cocky, talkative Clay against the heavyweight champion, who does his talking with hamlike fists in a cold, crushing style.

"If Liston displays the same ferocity against Clay as he did against former champion Floyd Patterson then serious — if not grave — injuries could result from their meeting," he said.

And if the champion "carries" Clay, Silverman said boxing would be "further degraded and the public disgustingly defrauded."

"Boxing cannot stand a setback like this . . ." he said. "Promoters should be aware of the long range pull and not take shortcuts to big gates."

Silverman said no boxing critic or pugilistic expert has commended the Clay-Liston match as a contest of equal gladiators — and many have spoken out against it.

"Let Clay or Liston or their promoters name one former heavyweight champion among the eleven now living, who regards Clay as being ready for Liston, despite Clay's potential as a champion," Silverman said.

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

If you football fans want to see a pair of the best junior high school football teams in this area all you have to do is visit Sanford's Memorial Stadium tonight. It'll be the sixth annual Peanut Bowl game. Kickoff time is 7:30 p. m.

This year's edition of the Peanut Bowl features the Sanford Junior High School Braves and the South Seminole Junior High School Hurricanes.

Probably the most interested spectators at this evening's affair will be the principals of the two schools, and former class mates in Sanford, Hugh Carlson of Junior High and John Angel of South Seminole. They're the best of friends. But from the kickoff tonight until the final gun this friendship will be suspended temporarily.

Unless one of these young ball club experiences an off night, fans in this County should see some of the finest junior high football to be found in Central Florida. South Seminole and Sanford both have top notch coaching crews. Dan Pelham leads the Sanford staff which is also comprised of Owen McCarron, Ed Buckner and Ron Hunt. Head Coach Jim Clark at South Seminole is assisted by Dave Miller, Dick Prater, Tom Barnes and Pete Poore.

The Hurricanes will put a couple of flashy halfbacks into action tonight. They'll be Larry Lott and Shifty Brent Helms. On the other hand, the Braves will use four of the best junior high backs in the business. These are quarterback Frank Whigham who's going to make some high school and college a great passer, halfbacks Fred Weber and Ralph Stumpf, and full back Dan Simon. Keep your eye on Simon—even though he'll be starting in place of another fine youngster, Ron Dudley.

Fans, these youngsters and these schools deserve your support and tonight would be a good time to give it—especially if you haven't seen either one of these clubs play. Really, you will be in for a surprise.

Also, you'll be delighted to see and hear the fine bands that will be on hand tonight!

NEW YORK (UPI) — Germany has opened a 10-point lead over Canada after three International Jumping events in the New York National Horse Show.

The Germans increased their point total to 35 by winning the Murray Trophy Wednesday night. Canada, which finished second, now has 25, followed by Argentina 8, Ireland 7 and the United States, which dominated the previous two indoor shows this season, last with 2.

National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) have approved a plan for televising 58 football games during the 1964-65 season, it was announced today.

Walter Byers, NCAA executive director, said the plan was approved by a 226-21 vote.

The plan provides for 23 broadcasts on 13 Saturday's and Thanksgiving Day of each season. During the current season the NCAA authorized 24 telecasts.

Byers said of the 11 dates, nine will consist of a single telecast and the remaining five dates are to be composed of four regional telecasts.

Bids on the 1964-65 televising rights will be received at a meeting of the NCAA television committee in New York Dec. 27, Byers said.

$1.2 Million Fight Offer

DENVER (UPI)—Backers of world heavyweight champion Sonny Liston and challenger Cassius Clay were weighing offers today ranging up to $1.2 million to stage their title fight next February.

Denver promoter and restaurant owner Milt Willner announced Wednesday he had formed a syndicate to offer $1.2 million to hold the bout "in Denver or other places."

Earlier, three $1 million offers were made — two from Los Angeles interests and one from Miami. Lesser bids have been made from Chicago, Las Vegas and Minneapolis.

Willner said Sheldon Wolfman, owner of Pal Joe's restaurant in New York, was a principal member of the syndicate. He did not name any others.

"We mean business and are prepared to put a half million dollars on deposit right now," Willner said.

Liston and Clay signed Tuesday for a 15-round fight, to be held tentatively in February. The site and exact date were not determined.

And I'm sure our California Athletic Commission, with a fine sensitivity to its responsibilities, and the desire to promote safeguards in boxing, shares New York's urge," he said.

Silverman also expressed doubt about the wisdom of matching the cocky, talkative Clay against the heavyweight champion, who does his talking with hamlike fists in a cold, crushing style.

Scientists Uncover Remains Of Viking Community

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A new conference here Tuesday said scientists have found the remains of a Viking community in North America.

The settlement was founded nearly 500 years before Christopher Columbus sailed to the New World in 1492.

It may well be the Vinland which, according to the Icelandic sagas, was established around 1000 A.D. by Leif Ericson, popularly known in his day as Leif the Lucky. It is on the northern tip of Newfoundland near the fishing village of J'Anse Aux Meadows.

The discovery of what so far appears to be the only scientifically authenticated Norse remains in America was made by the Norwegian explorer Dr. Helge Ingstad, who reported his findings at a news conference here Tuesday. He found it after years of misdirected effort by studying a "road map" made by Leif and reported to detail by the sagas. The sagas are legendary Norse narratives, handed down by word of mouth from generation to generation.

MRS. J. M. GARRETT looks on as her husband signs the lease to the property where Garrett's Department Store will open Friday.

The sagas say Leif and his fleet of longboats sailed from western Greenland around 1000 A. D., arrived at the coast of Labrador, sailed down the coast until they passed a steep-sided island in a fairly large fjord, and wound up a short distance beyond at a sandy strand fringed by luxuriant greenlands.

According to modern linguists, the "vin" in Vinland meant grass. And according to Dr. Junius Bird of the American Museum of Natural History, if you follow the route described in the sagas to the site excavated by Ingstad, "you can't miss it."

Nevertheless, "it was almost a miracle," Bird said, that Ingstad found anything at all to unearth. The old Norse buildings, nine houses and a primitive smithy, were built of sandy sod which long since has crumbled, leaving only their outlines plus some typical Norse hearths and the rusty remains of Viking iron smelting.

Ingstad's findings, authenticated after three years of painstaking excavation, were reported at a news conference sponsored by the National Geographic Society, which helped to finance his 1960 work.

Toy Collection Set In Village

Firemen Begin Fund Drive

By Mrs. Adam Miller
The DelRay Volunteer Firemen have begun their annual house to house canvass for funds needed to operate the fire truck and for maintenance of equipment.

Although they are asking only for a $5 contribution from each residence, many donate larger sums in gratitude for the many services performed by members of this organization.

10 FSU Professors Under Board's Fire

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Ten Florida State University professors came under fire at a Board of Control meeting today for soliciting money to pay fines of college students jailed in a racial demonstration.

Dr. Charles Forman, board member from Fort Lauderdale, said the professors, including some of the school's top scientists, "embarrassed the university and all of us." The professors were accused of sending letters soliciting funds to a court order that violated a court order that limited the number of pickets at a Tallahassee theater.

The professors who signed the letters of solicitation, which they claimed was private correspondence to select colleagues, were Paul M. Minus, University chaplain; James A. Gould, professor of philosophy; Paul J. Picard, professor of government; M. A. Melvin, professor of physics; Harry M. Walborak, professor of chemistry; James F. Jones, professor of history; Raymond K. Shelton, professor of chemistry and physics; George A. Lensen, professor of history; T. Stanton Dietrich, professor of sociology and Michael Kasha, professor of chemistry and director of the Molecular Biophysics Institute.

Forman demanded to know if FSU President Gordon Blackwell approved or disapproved of the professors' actions. Blackwell said the university had taken strict disciplinary action against the students but said he believed the professors were "motivated by humane considerations." The board took no action on the matter.

Lake Mary Map Is Still Open

Businessmen who were not at the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce meeting Thursday night will have another opportunity to check their ad in the new map brochure and make any changes desired if they do it within a week. C. D. Donaldson has proof copies at the Lake Mary Post Office.

Richard Keogh, president, advised that two more ads are needed before the map can go to press. As soon as these are in it will take only one week for printing and merchants can expect to see the finished product in about two weeks.

Bill McLaughlin, representing the printing company, was at the meeting to discuss ad setups. He assured members that the finished product will be very attractive.

A meeting of the talent show committee is called for Monday at 8 p. m. at the home of James Daughtrey, chairman.

French Convoy Goes Through

BERLIN (UPI) — The French army today sent a test convoy of 50 soldiers in 10 vehicles through a Soviet-controlled checkpoint onto the highway across East Germany into Berlin. It passed without incident.

A French spokesman said Russians at the Marienborn checkpoint did not ask the troops to dismount and they passed through in one hour. Last Monday the Russians halted a U. S. convoy of 44 men in 12 vehicles at a Berlin highway checkpoint for 41 hours before allowing it to go through. The Americans, British and French protested the action and called on the Russians "once and for all" to end the harassment.

School Site Selection On Agenda

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — The Board of Control met today to discuss the location of the state's new university in East-Central Florida, but no final decision was expected.

A spokesman said the board probably would narrow the choice down to several sites and then take final action later.

The board has inspected 23 proposed sites.

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — The Board of Control met today to kick off the most ambitious building program in the history of the state's university system.

The board was expected to approve specific projects, name architects to design them and ask the Cabinet to validate and sell $45 million in bonds authorized by Tuesday's election.

Planning work is already under way on 12 university building projects. Officials say the bond validation should begin in January and construction start around May next year.

One of the first projects to be undertaken is a $625,000 infirmary at Florida State University and the largest single project is a $4.3 million chemistry building at FSU.

Other items on the board's agenda today are: —Final action on policies to govern the use of television to extend the University of Florida engineering college to the east-central part of the state.

—Selection of a site in east-central Florida for a new state university.

—Discussion of a proposal for creating research programs at Florida State and the University of Florida.

Senator Asks Warning Put On Cigarette Packs

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Maurice B. Neuberger, D-Ore., proposed today that each package of cigarettes be required to carry a warning that smoking can lead to lung cancer, heart disease and other health risks.

The proposal was part of a four-part attack on smoking outlined by the attractive former school teacher in her book, "Smoke Screen," which was published today.

Mrs. Neuberger, a former smoker, stopped short of advocating tobacco prohibition, but she said there were "practical and judicious measures which can effectively be employed to brake the rising toll of smokers."

"It is my purpose in this book to enlist the support of my readers in the task of implementing such measures," she said.

Mrs. Neuberger's book was the signal bell for what is expected to be a difficult round for the tobacco industry in the battle against any action that would curtail its products.

A special committee appointed by the U. S. surgeon general is expected to deal the industry a severe blow late this year by reporting that there is a definite link between smoking and lung cancer, heart disease and other ailments.

Mrs. Neuberger said a host of surveys left no doubt there was a link between smoking and lung cancer, heart disease, emphysema, cancer of the bladder, gastric and duodenal ulcers, bronchitis, pneumonia, influenza, and other diseases.

She said her "best guess" was that there would be 300,000 to 500,000 fewer deaths each year if it were not for smoking. In addition, she said, there probably are about 1 million or 2 million persons in this country who are "disabled to some degree by the effect of smoking cigarettes."
