

PUBLIC OPINION SHOCKED AT BURNING IRISH TOWN MIDDLETOWN WIPED OUT

NO ONE APPROVES OF THIS ACTION OF THE MILITARY RESULT OF AMBUSH

OF POLICE NEAR THE TOWN AND PEOPLE WERE GIVEN ONE HOUR TO VACATE

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Jan. 3.—Public opinion was shocked when details of the burning of the Irish town of Middleton Saturday was made public today. No where was the outspoken approval of the punishment meted out to the village by Major General Strickland expressed and evidently some reluctance to endorse this method of keeping order. Official statements declared seven dwellings were destroyed, as the result of the ambush of police near the town Wednesday. Occupants were given one hour to vacate, and were permitted to remove valuables but have to leave furniture. The houses were then set on fire.

FIND DEAD BODY OF NEGRO NEAR TAFT

ORLANDO, Jan. 3.—Yesterday morning Chief Vestel received a long distance phone call to come to Taft. A negro named Jess Franklin, who had been missing for several days, had been found in a bog five miles west of the city lying dead with his neck broken. A horse which he had departed in quest of when he was last seen was also found dead near the body. The sheriff's office had been notified and Deputy Furen was soon on the scene. A coroner's jury hastily empanelled, viewed the body after hearing the story of the negro's disappearance and making other investigations, arrived at a verdict of death from accident.

It appears that the negro, after finding his horse, immersed in the bog, attempted to free him and in some manner the plunging animal dealt him a death blow. Money found on the body served to disprove any theory that death had been the result of foul play.

ED. SALTER HERE— THE SEASON IS ON

Ed. Salter, one of the most popular and certainly one of the finest press agents that any organization carries, is in our city. He is not a tourist, although he may be disguised as one, he is not a millionaire, although he was known as the "Millionaire Press Agent" but we opine that Ed. Salter is out from under that title on account of the income tax. He is not a bit cheery, although he has considerable hair in turning gray, but he is just Ed. Salter, press agent for Johnny J. Jones, the biggest and best show on the road today and much of his publicity and popularity is due to the boasting done by Sir Edward. He said the Herald office his customary visit this morning, talked over old times, said the show had a phenomenal season, said Johnny had not grown any since we saw him last and left the sanctum brighter for his visit. These show people are the greatest boosters in the world, they are among the best people in the world and they are all old friends of the Herald and always will be for they are square and they never go back on a friend and that is really two of the biggest things in life after all.

DIES FROM WOUNDS AT HANDS OF MOB

DAYTONA, Fla., Jan. 3.—"I told you Jones said he would have me killed tonight," Lena Hames testified today at the coroner's inquest were the dying words of her brother, Grady Hames, who was shot down while defending his father, Arthur Hames, from a mob of six or eight men who went to the Hames boarding place here Friday night of last week and mortally wounded young Hames, and then took the elder Hames into the country and gave him a severe beating.

Miss Hames said that earlier in the day the crime was committed the nineteen year-old youth told her that Jones had threatened him with death at the hands of the "Klu Klux Klan." The young woman said she could not identify any of the men who were in the party. She said several persons, whose names she did not give, had told her that Jones had made threats to have Grady Hames killed. The coroner's verdict, as a result of the inquest into the death of Grady Hames, rendered today, was that he came to his death at the hands of "parties unknown."

CHEAP SUGAR IN SIGHT FOR 1921

SUGAR MEN PREDICT NINE CENTS PER POUND OR BETTER

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—White granulated sugar should cost American housewives not more than nine cents a pound early in 1921. The price may go lower. This is the prediction of sugar men as the market continues collapsing.

Cuban raw sugar is being offered freely in New York market around three and a half cents a pound. On this basis the fair price retail is nine cents. Some eastern stores already are selling sugar at nine cents.

The latest bulletin of the American Sugar Refining Co. says that "the price of most refiners is now eight cents per pound, less 2 per cent for cash."

This is one cent lower than the fair price allowed wholesalers in war-time when sugar retailed at 11 cents a pound.

It is now generally accepted in the sugar industry that there will be no shortage next year.

ALL CABINET OFFICES NOT CERTAIN YET

MARION, O., Jan. 1.—Although President-elect Harding will publicly name his secretary of state and several other members of his cabinet here soon, his close friends believe it will be several days before he names his entire cabinet. It is said he has encountered many difficulties in fitting the right man in the right job. Much changing about already has been necessary in the lineup, it is said, and it may be some time before the task is finished. It is also said the next president is reserving selection of men for one or two less important portfolios for men he desires to have near him and who might be crowded out of larger assignments in the rush.

His advisors could throw little light on the makeup of the cabinet, but they did bring into prominence the name of A. T. Hert of Kentucky, who heretofore has been little mentioned in cabinet gossip. Those in a position to know believe Mr. Hert is being strongly recommended to the president-elect for some position, but what place is uncertain.

Today Representative Mondell, majority leader of the house; Representative Anthony, Kansas, and James Heron, senator-elect from Arizona, called at the senator's home.

WILL INTRODUCE BILL IN CONGRESS TO THAT EFFECT IS FINANCIER

MAY BE CRANK ON SOME THINGS- BUT HAS RIGHT IDEA ON BONDS

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 3.—Thomas E. Watson, United States senator-elect, from Georgia, announces in a copyrighted statement to be published in the Atlanta Constitution Sunday that at the extra session of the 67th congress he will introduce a bill to make Liberty and Victory bonds and other government war paper legal tender.

Mr. Watson has announced plans for introducing bills to force the federal reserve and farm loan banks to lend money directly to individuals and to require the secretary of the treasury to issue the unissued greenbacks authorized by a bill signed by President Lincoln. The total of these authorized but unissued greenbacks, according to the senator-elect, is $102,000,000.

Discussing his plan to make legal tender of Liberty and Victory bonds, credit certificates, war savings stamps and all government obligation paper issued during and since the World War as a remedy for what he claims is an existing "domestic crisis," Mr. Watson declared such action would have an electrifying effect upon American business.

On passage of such legislation Mr. Watson declared "all apprehension of a panic would as quickly disappear."

Regarding the nation's financial system Mr. Watson said he would introduce bills to make it mandatory under penalty to the regional banks to lend direct to farmers on approved securities at an interest rate not over 5 per cent; to repeal that section of the farm loan bank act requiring a group of ten signatories to a loan and insertion of a mandatory clause compelling such banks to lend to an individual applicant upon approved security without the requirement of additional obligators.

BITING DOGS LOOSE ON OUR STREETS

This morning as the editor of the Herald was walking around the Peoples' Bank corner a white and tan fox terrier ran up behind him and tried to take a piece out of his leg. He succeeded in tearing the bottom part of the leg of the trousers off and just grazed the skin. The only thing that saved the dog was the fact that the editor had no gun in his pocket but that dog had better keep scarce because if he ever crosses our path again we intend to kill him if possible. This dog is evidently mad or is going mad and if he is allowed to roam the street at will he will bite children and everyone else who comes in contact with him. Dogs have been allowed to run loose in Sanford for years. This paper has spoken about it from time to time. We are speaking about it again and we do not care who these dogs belong to they should not be allowed to run loose on the streets without their owners. We also noted in the statement of the city clerk last month that a few dollars had been collected for dog tax. There are at least 1000 dogs in this city. They should pay taxes and if they are as dangerous as the one that bit us this morning they should be killed. No real city allows dogs to run at will on the streets any longer. It is about time that Sanford took some steps in this matter or went back into the village class and let the dogs and hogs and cattle have the streets and the pedestrians will stay indoors and let the animals fight it out.

Miami is seriously considering changing over from the aldermanic form of city government to the more concrete and businesslike commission government including the city manager feature, such as Tampa recently adopted.

At Palm Beach they are talking of $400,000 for a system of roads into the Everglades country.

CITRUS MEN TO TAKE FIGHT TO
NORTHERN R. R.

Following the concessions granted them by southern traffic executives Thursday, Florida Citrus Exchange men and independent growers and shippers were busy Friday preparing to carry their contention to the northern lines in an effort to obtain similar concessions on the proposed rules regarding reconsignment and diversion privileges.

An examiner for the Interstate Commerce Commission will be in Jacksonville January 21st to take evidence in the case which is pending before the commission. At the hearing here, it is anticipated the carriers will propose a continuance of all former diversion privileges, with the exception that a charge of $5 per day per car will be made on all diverted cars that remain at a diversion point in excess of 48 hours. This method of handling the situation was agreed upon Thursday afternoon by committee representing the shippers and carriers.

Simultaneously with the hearing in Jacksonville, an examiner for the I. C. C. will be taking testimony on the diversion rule at Chicago and at San Francisco. A hearing also will be held in New Orleans and the final summing up of the case will be had in Washington January 31st before the Interstate Commerce Commission itself.

The proposed reconsignment and diversion rules have been suspended by the commission until March 31st.

The concessions granted Florida shippers Thursday by carriers of the southeast apply to Florida shippers only, it was pointed out Friday, and the shippers of this state will have to carry their freight to the northern lines, if the diversion privilege is to be continued elsewhere in the nation. The privilege will be granted on all southeast lines, under the decision reached Thursday.

The agreement reached between shippers and railway executives does not mean that the railway men will ask the Interstate Commerce Commission to make final its suspension of the diversion rule. The traffic men will offer an amendment to the rule, it is expected here, embodying the concessions granted Florida, and this will be opposed, and will, in all likelihood, be allowed by the commission, it is pointed out.

The shippers and railway executives were in session practically all day Thursday. The morning session was given over to an exposition by growers of the difficulties under which they are laboring in marketing crops, and the afternoon was given over to a conference of committees, representing the railroads and the shippers, at which the final agreement was worked out.

The case of the shippers was presented by J. H. Rose, president of the Florida Citrus Exchange; E. D. Dow, traffic manager; George A. Scott, sales manager; John F. Thomas, J. C. Chase, George Williams and W. H. Mouser.

STATE EDUCATORS WILL MEET IN ORLANDO NEXT YEAR

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 1.—Orlando was chosen as the place for the next convention of the Florida Educational Association.

At the afternoon session officers to represent the association were elected. They are as follows:

President, W. D. Cawthon, Gainesville; vice-president, Miss Christian McDonald, DeFuniak Springs (re-elected); secretary, R. L. Turner, Inverness, who has served as secretary of the association for 13 consecutive years; treasurer, J. H. Brinson, Jacksonville. Executive committee: For district, Macclenny; I. T. Pierson, 4th the term of one year, C. H. Gray, third district, Homestead; for two years, Mrs. Nellie Miller, first district, Inverness; C. E. Yowell, fourth district, Kissimmee; B. D. Gullett, first district, Bradentown; for three years, F. W. Buchholz; second district, Gainesville; Miss Evelyn Thornton, Pensacola, third district; F. A. Hathaway, Jacksonville, state-at-large.

There was a larger attendance at the morning session, many teachers arriving on the night trains. An attendance of 500 is reported.

The principal speaker of the morning program was Dr. Harry Clark, president of the University of Tennessee. Dr. Clark is a prominent educator and his address, entitled "Froebel and His Philosophy," was very instructive. As an orator Dr. Clark has few equals.

Section meetings consumed the remainder of the morning, including the kindergarten-primary section, which was presided over by Miss Stockton of Jacksonville, on account of the absence of Miss Mabel H. Wheeler, chairman.

The rural school section met in the Methodist church, Miss Christine McDonald presiding. During the session Hon. R. L. Turner, secretary of the association, gave a talk on "The Rural School as the Center of Rural Community," which was helpful. The high school section, under the chairmanship of Prof. H. G. Metcalf, also enjoyed an interesting meeting. Talks were made by Dr. Joseph Roemer and Dr. F. W. Buchholz of the University of Florida. Prof. Arthur Williams of the State College for Women led the history session, and a general discussion of history and its relation to other social studies was conducted.

The committees on resolutions and legislation, respectively, made their reports at the afternoon session. The committee on resolutions was composed of Dr. W. H. Russell, principal-elect of Fernandina; Supt. D. H. Moore, Tavares; Principal, M. P. Geiger, Homestead; Principal, R. M. Dorsey, Apalachicola; Principal, R. M. Evans, Quincy; Miss Elsie Partridge principal, Monticello, and Miss Evelyn Thornton, principal, Pensacola.

The committee on legislation is composed of Prof. J. H. Workman, chairman, Pensacola; Supt. C. H. Gray, Quincy; Supt. J. E. Knight, Tampa; Miss Christian McDonald, state rural school inspector, DeFuniak Springs; Superintendent-elect Charles M. Fisher, Miami; Principal R. M. Sealy, Tallahassee; Principal S. A. Draper, Leesburg.

At the evening session Hon. Geo. W. Schofield, state attorney for the Fifth circuit gave an interesting address treating on teachers and politics. Dr. Harry Clark, who spoke during the morning, was also heard.

OPEN BIDS OF PURCHASE OF HOUSING PROJECTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—Bids were opened today by the Shipping Board for the purchase of the government-owned housing projects in various parts of the country. The combined projects offered for sale by the board aggregate 348 acres of land and include 2762 dwelling houses and 58 other buildings.

The projects are located at Wilmington, Del.; Camden, N. J.; Chester, Pa.; Lorain, O.; Wyandotte, Mich.; Groton, Conn., and Dunalk, Md. Terms of sale, officials of the board said, would depend upon localities, but in general would be on the basis of part cash and part in deferred payments.

Miami is filled with fine visitors, so is Jacksonville, and Pensacola, and Key West, and Sanford and Tampa. Of course, that means Orlando and all other cities in Florida are full, too.

Counties interested are working now the Tamiami trail through the Everglades, linking the east coast with the west.

Exposition week.

Something doing every minute.

Sanford is some busy city every day in the week.

And everything that brings in new people to trade in Sanford is doing something for Sanford.

The Herald New Year's number is being complimented everywhere. It only shows what can be done here by the merchants backing up their home daily.

And the surprise of the season is the plant that Sanford can afford to print the daily paper and do all kinds of job work promptly and up-to-the-minute. The Herald printery is one of Sanford's show places for there is no more complete plant in the state.

Back of the whole proposition is our editor, Robert J. Holly, who is one of the best in the state, or anywhere for that matter. And Sanford surely can be complimented on having one of his calibre among her number.—The boys in the back office set this unbeknown to Mr. Holly.—Back Office Force Bouquet.

Last week the Herald had an editorial on "Reciprocity." We hope everyone read it and digested it thoroughly. It will save us much talk and save the public much talk to abide by that resolution. We are standing by our friends and patrons. And this is one New Year's resolution that will be kept.

We hope the Weather Man will be good to us this week. It is the chance to have a week of amusement and fun and good time for everyone. Instead of going elsewhere to see these amusements they have been brought to your door and with good weather it will be a gala week in every sense of the word. Some day Seminole county will have a fair and then we can have Johnny J. Jones every year.

NO RE-APPORTIONMENT

The erstwhile popular sport of south baiting has lost much of its charm to all but a small group of fanatics in the north. In spite of the efforts of the "Society for the Advancement of Colored People" to stir up trouble in congress, there are no signs of any avid acceptance of the "society's" point of view on the question of negro voting. The census committee of the lower house of congress, before which these hearings have been had, is frankly bored.

The suggestion to cut down the representation of the south is blatantly out of tune with current sentiment. After watching the situation for years, the better minds of the north have concluded that the south knows much more about the negro question than the north does. They realize, too, that the only true friends the darkey possesses are the people of the south.

There are no laws on the statute books of the south which apply to the negro as a voter, without applying also to the white man. Some of the laws are designed to keep incompetent voters away from the ballot box.

J. P. SAYS: Many successful careers have been blighted by the delusive expedient of putting off, deferring a more propitious time. Many a man has lost the opportunity of his life by hesitating and waiting, as nothing else so paralyzes a firm resolution and weakens a strong will as the habit of procrastination. The man who is made of winning material does not dabble and waiver. He jumps right in and tackles the job. He is not a slave to circumstances, conditions or environments, but steadily, resolutely and systematically, step by step forges on and upward on the ladder of Life. Among the best stepping stones in Life is an investment in SOUTHERN UTILITIES COMPANY'S 8 PER CENT CUMULATIVE PRIOR PREFERRED STOCK. This stock can be purchased for cash or on the installment plan. There is none better.

Such are the registration laws, the poll tax requirement, and, with perhaps less wisdom, the peculiar form of the ballot. But the white man must comply as well as the negro, and the negro who complies can vote just the same as the white man.

It is notable that there is no evidence that the Republicans of the south are backing the "Society." In Florida, and presumably in other Southern states, there is quite a respectable body of Republicans, who are eager for more power. One of their severest handicaps is the negro question. We believe all the Republicans who entered the lists in this state in the last election are proud of the vote they received, and they will certainly not jeopardize their standing in the future by entering the lists against the south. The national administration will not do it. Mr. Harding has been too earnest in his expressed desire to deserve the good will of the south to throw it away in any fanatical crusade which harks back to reconstruction days.

There is nothing to worry over. The proposition to cut down congressional apportionment can not carry; and its emphatic rejection by a Republican congress may well be accepted as a vote of confidence in the south.—Lakeland Telegram.

DRIVE FARMERS TO FLORIDA.

Increasing prices of farm lands in the middle west are driving many farmers to Florida where there is available practically the only productive low priced land that does not require reclamation or irrigation.

In the last five years the selling price of farm land and improvements in the United States increased 65 per cent according to estimates made by the Secretary of Agriculture in his annual report. Between March, 1919, and March 1920, the increase was 21.1 per cent.

Although data for the 1920 census are not yet available, it is probable, the Secretary said, that while the average price of farm land and improvements per acre increased only 20 per cent during the forty years from 1860 to 1900, the price in 1920 is two and a half times that of 1910 and five times that of twenty years ago.

"In some sections the net return on the purchase price of farm lands is considerably less than the ordinary rate of return on first mortgages and similar investments," he said. "The rental rate of cash leases, also, is frequently less than half the rate of return on mortgages. Studies made by the department indicate that, in certain regions, the recent advance in the price of land has still further aggravated this condition. Such a situation is unfortunate, for it increases the difficulties of a tenant who is seeking to become an owner. If he borrows a considerable part of the purchase price of a farm at from 5 to 7 per cent and then finds that the investment will earn little more than 3 per cent, it will be impossible, in many instances, for him to discharge the debt."

Naturally Florida farm land is attractive to farmers facing such conditions as these. If a Florida farmer received as low as 20 per cent net on the value of his land he would think himself on the road to the poor house if he had such an institution.—Leesburg Commercial.

LITTLE INTEREST IN SUMMER BASEBALL

"Lack of financial support" will probably be the reason given in Florida for a discontinuance of baseball in 1921—according to all reports among the more important league towns. The claim was put up among the enthusiasts at the commencement of the past season that "the games were not to be conducted for profit," and the considerable deficits at the close of the season proved the sincerity of that declaration.

In Daytona the deficit for the season was in excess of $10,000, and all down the coast and in the interior as well there was the same cry—albeit not always in so large an amount. But in no case did the organization make good—and it is always difficult to make a start a second time with a heavy debt hanging over the project. The trouble in most cases was that too high wages were paid the players—and the public hardly liked to part with good money to see games that were "fixed" before "play ball" was called. It might be asserted that the "big league men" were not the only ones to consent to have pre-settlements arranged; and while those who "were on" made a lot of money by placing their bets on the right side, those who lost—and realized that the skinning process was done without chloroforming—began to grow a bit apathetic over the great national game.

It would appear that there has been lost a great deal of interest in Florida baseball since the days of the home club made up of the home boys. There has been too much commercialism entering what should be clean sport, and until there shall have been restored full confidence and a belief in square playing it is probable there will continue to lack that interest which will make the sport self-supporting.—Kissimmee Gazette.

CHAIRMAN LAKE IS AS TALKATIVE AS A CLAM ABOUT CHANGES

The Bhuddist creed of "hear no evil, see no evil and speak no evil," represented by three imitation monkeys, has nothing on Forrest M. Lake, chairman of the state road department, when it comes to commenting on Governor Catts' dismissal of J. D. Smith of Marianna, and W. A. Holt of White Springs, and the appointment in their stead of H. V. Maund of Tallahassee and A. J. Johnson of Perry.

Mr. Lake says he knows nothing further than that he understands Smith and Holt have been dismissed and that they are replaced by Maund and Johnson, except that he understands Johnson is an uncle of Governor-elect Cary A. Hardee. "I think I have met Mr. Johnson, and I have probably seen Mr. Maund in Tallahassee," and with this, the state road department chairman played the game of the Bhuddist monkeys to a fare-you-well.

Mr. Lake is attending the weekly session of the Hillsborough commissioners, but expects to return to Tallahassee in time for the inauguration. He refuses to venture any prediction as to where the governor's axe will fall next, or whether the department is fixed to stay.—Tampa Times.

Great interest is being taken in Broward in poultry raising. One merchant buys poultry from Tennessee and sells it cheaper here than he can buy it here. Recent contest created much enthusiasm, and a number of influential people are encouraging the work among the clubs.

SOCIAL CALENDAR FOR THE WEEK

Monday—

Thursday—
Duplic ate Luncheon Club with Mrs. E. T. Roumillat.
D. A. U. with Mrs. Sam Yontz.

Arthur Hazard returned to Augusta, having been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Dumas for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Dumas have as their house guest, Mrs. Legge, of Charleston.

Miss Serita Lake has been prevented by illness from returning to Stuart Hall Sunday, but will go as soon as she is able.

Mr. and Mrs. George Knight and family move today into their new home on the Heights.

Mrs. Claude Howard has returned from a two months visit in North Carolina.

THE DANCANT FOR MISS LEE.

One of the most delightful affairs given in Sanford for some time was the At Home and The Dancant given New Year's afternoon by Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Puleston and Mr. and Mrs. David Thrasher for Miss Lee, who is the attractive guest of her aunt, Mrs. Hill.

The rooms of the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Puleston were opened en suite and most beautiful decorated in poinsettias and ferns.

Guests were met at the door by Mrs. W. E. Watson and Mrs. E. M. Galloway.

Receiving were: Dr. and Mrs. Puleston, Mr. and Mrs. Thrasher, Miss Lee and Mrs. R. A. Newman.

In the dining room Mrs. C. E. Henry poured coffee and Mrs. A. P. Connelly poured tea, they were assisted in caring for the guests by Mrs. Geo. Knight, Mrs. Allen Jones, Mrs. Billy Hill, Mrs. E. F. Housholder and Mrs. Roy Bowers.

Music for dancing was furnished by the Sanford Jazz Orchestra and was very good, indeed.

About two hundred guests called between the hours of four and six.

DINNER FOR MISS ALLEN.

A pleasant affair of New Year's evening was the dinner party that Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wathen gave in honor of Miss Minnie Lee Allen, who is leaving Sanford to make her home in Bristol, Tenn.

The tastefully decorated table was centered with a Madeira piece and a basket of red carnations and fern. Artistic cards bearing New Year's greetings marked the places of the guests.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Wathen, Misses Minnie Lee Allen, Elizabeth Musson, Elizabeth Bleck, Agnes Berner, Mr. J. E. Wathen, Mr. W. L. Rumble, Mr. M. V. Bradbury, Mr. Jim Huff and Mr. A. M. Berner.

Ed. Meisch, G. W. Spencer and Allen Jones return to the University of Florida at Gainesville.

John Edward Fox returns to the Florida Military and Naval Academy. Paul Radford returns to Randolph Macon School for Boys in Virginia.

Sidney Chase returns to Exeter.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS TO MEET TOMORROW

The Board of County Commissioners will hold their regular meeting tomorrow and it will be a busy session. They will install all the county officials as well as one member of their board and will also be obliged to set the salaries of the county officials as per the new law that goes into effect today and that will put the officials on a salary basis instead of on the fee basis.

CIRCUIT COURT NEXT WEEK

Among the many attractions for next week is the opening of the fall term of the Circuit Court which opens here in January being belated on account of the fall term winding up in this county. There are at least two murder cases to come before the court and it is likely that court will hold at least two weeks as there is always a larger docket in the January court than in May. Court will open next Tuesday at 10:00 o'clock unless otherwise ordered.

When that expedition to Africa succeeds in locating the missing link, it should then go after the lost chord.

FINDS COBURN SHOW IS GOOD

MINSTREL PLEASURES BIG CROWD AT ST. PETERSBURG FRIDAY

If there is a theatre-goes that can sit through J. A. Coburn's Minstrels without shaking with both laughter and "Jazz" he has a stone heart and hard muscles.

There isn't a bad spot in the entire ally clever. The cross-fire comedy between the interlocutors and the valots Jordan, Horn, Ford, Turner, Clark, Johnson, Turner and Murry kept the audience in laughter all the while.

Charley Gano is just as full of fun and wit as ever and it didn't take the audience long to recognize "Charley" when he made his appearance. The singing of the double quartet composed of Clifford, Coffin, Broome, Byrne, McAnnallon, Featheringill, Denton and Dolan was in reality "big time" stuff.

The Olio of minstrel vaudeville would have done justice to any of show from the time the curtain rises on the scene in the Alps until it drops on the oriental scene in the heart of Chinatown. To begin to pick out the stars is just like trying to pick them out of the heavens. Everyone stared, from Charley Gano down to the fellow that plays the second violin. Edward Clifford, Cleon Coffin, and Pat Byrne as interlocutors kept the first act full of "pep" all the while. Their modes of introducing the various entertainers was exceptionally clever. The feature of the olio was easily the novelty acrobatic dancing of the Turner brothers. The singing of the "American Singing Sextette" was very well received by the audience and the boys were called to answer many encores.

The Chinese fantasy, "The Fiesta of the Sooye Tonga" was exceptionally clever and won favor from the beginning. The action throughout this act was lively and extremely funny. —St. Petersburg Times.

WRESTLERS HAD DRAW AT PRINCESS

PIERSON AND HOFFMAN WILL TRY IT AGAIN EITHER IN SANFORD OR TAMPA

The wrestling bout between Jimmy Pierson, the light heavyweight champion, and Billy Hoffman of this city who is seeking honors as the coming champion, was not as well attended on Friday night of last week as it should have been probably on account of so many other attractions in the city.

The match took place at the Princess theatre and promised to be a good one, but unfortunately Hoffman strained his back and was forced to quit which proved a disappointment for those present. Hoffman has a bad back which was hurt in wrestling several years ago and he is forced to nurse it more or less and the people who know the game say that Hoffman is a comer and all he needs is more experience and he will try the best of them.

Jimmy Pierson is a clean wrestler who enjoys the sport for sport's sake and he believes in giving the public the best that he has although he is against any rough stuff or stalling and goes in to give the fans their money's worth. The small house took the heart out of the boys Friday night and they expect to put on another bout that will decide the best man and the match will be in Sanford if they can get the backing of the American Legion or some other organization to sell sufficient tickets to make it worth while. Both men work hard to give the audience a run for their money and a small crowd does not pay them to keep in training and work for two hours steady grind before a small bunch of fans. If the match cannot be arranged for Sanford it is probable that it will go to Tampa or some other city where sufficient crowd can be guaranteed to pay the boys for their work. Sanford has a small number of men who are interested in good clean wrestling and there would be more if they could witness a wrestling match or two but there seems to be so many amusements in Sanford at this time that the wrestling game lacks the crowd large enough to make it a success.

BLOWN TO BITS BY THE KICK OF A MULE

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Jan. 3.—Frank Pelon, a stable boss, today found a stick of dynamite and put it in his pocket. Later, while working in the stable, he was kicked by a mule. The dynamite exploded, blowing Pelon to pieces and destroying the stable.

PREMIERS TO MEET SOON

PARIS, Jan. 3.—The meeting between Premiers Leygues, Lloyd George and Giolitti, which has been prominently anticipated in recent discussions, will be held in Paris next week, Gaulois announced today. No confirmation of this statement was obtainable at the foreign office.

LIFE CARDS TO BE ISSUED

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 3.—Pocket-size cards for life and patron members of the American Red Cross have been issued and are now ready for distribution, it was announced today at the Southern division headquarters of the Red Cross.

The purpose of the cards, it is stated, is to identify such members at all times and to protect them from solicitation during the annual roll calls. Cards will be issued to may life and patron member, old or new, on application.

SHIPPING FINE FRUIT

F. F. Dutton brought in some fine grapefruit and oranges to the Herald office this morning. They are from Indian river where the finest of fruit is grown and all of the fruit is stamped with the Blue Goose stamp, this brand being one of the many put out by the American Fruit Company. We appreciate the oranges and grape fruit and hope that the American Fruit Company will not forget that printers do not eat hay but oranges when they can get them. Mr. Dutton stated that the Blue Goose brand was bringing top notch prices all this season and expected to get them right on. This demonstrates that good fruit and careful packing and standard brands will get the price.

TRUTH ABOUT AVERAGE MAN

Not a Bad Fellow at Heart, and Really is at Least Entitled to Toleration.

The average man is not a bad fellow when you come to know him. You have not to hold yourself aloof from this human, interdependent world, remarks a writer in the Philadelphia Ledger. He constitutes a majority. It is by his vote that candidates are set up and issues determined and business governed and charities supported and plays patronized. There is a great deal of money in pleasing the average man. Moreover, the level of his tastes is rising, though pessimists refuse to see it or to say so. He is capable of education and he has traveled far since his training began.

He needn't always be given all that he asks for; sometimes he makes mistakes, and sometimes he wants what isn't good for him. Sometimes he loses his head, and in an incendiary or inebriate temper, loses that which a cooler judgment in a calmer hour leads him to worry for. But on the whole he is strangely reasonable and patient and self-controlled. It is touching to find how often he is doing the best he can, according to the light he has. He serves the world far better than some eccentric and unconventional mortals who sneer at him for following a dull, unemotional routine.

Leaders of men have learned to deal with the average man, to talk his language and to understand his ways. They have taught the rank and file to discover a latent capacity and to reveal a strength hidden and unsuspected. They have had faith in "the general good sense and honest intentions of mankind." They have genuinely loved their fellows and their sympathy has been real and manifest. Neither in war nor in peace is a victory to be won unless the captains put their confidence in a host.

Private Stocking.

A North Shore citizen took Junior up on his knee and asked him: "Well, my little son, what would you like for Santa Claus to bring you for Christmas?"

"Oh, I want him to bring me a hum-dinger."

"A humdinger, eh? And may I ask you to describe one?"

"I don't know how they look, but when you and Mr. Jones came up from the basement the other evening you said to him: 'Wasn't that a humdinger?' and he said: 'It sure was! I would like to have one just like that for Christmas.' So I thought if it was something nice for Christmas I would like to have one, too."—Publisher's Auxiliary.

WEATHER REPORT

For Florida—Partly cloudy in south and probably rain north and central portion tonight and Tuesday.

Florida weather again,

Everybody ride, at the carnival.

Rumors are that lettuce will pick up some.

Mrs. W. F. Blackman of the Wekiwa Ranch near Lake Monroe is in the city today.

The streets are crowded with people today and it looks like circus week or court week.

Miss Rose Narvis is with the Ball Hardware Company for a few weeks as stenographer.

Allen Jones, G. W. Spencer, Edwin Meisch, Sherman Moore and several other local boys returned to the University of Florida today.

Mrs. Ralph K. Gore and two children returned home Sunday afternoon from Orlando where they spent the week end with friends.

The Daily Herald is on sale at Joe's Smoke House every evening. If you do not subscribe for it you can always get one from Joe.

Mrs. Dwight Babbett, the efficient teacher of the eighth grade of the grammar school, is confined to her home after an operation for tonsillitis.

Ralph Yearby of Orlando, agent for the Delcho system of lighting, is in the city today visiting his many friends and also looking for new patrons.

B. A. Howard is home for a few days from Pahokee and Okeechobee City. He reports everything as booming in that section and says the growers are getting good money for their bean crop just now.

All the boys and girls have gone back to school and the city will miss them every one. It is the joy of the children's and the parents' hearts to have them home for the holidays and holiday season would be dull indeed without the merry crowd of young people.

Everyone will be glad to hear that Manager Herndon has secured Coburn's Minstrels for Sanford next Saturday night. Coburn's Minstrels are a household word in Sanford and they can always be assured of a good house.

Mrs. H. H. Pattishall, of Geneva, was in the city today accompanied by her daughters, Misses Blanche and Georgia. Miss Blanche is in Washington in the Liberty Loan department of the government and Miss Georgia is in the military headquarters in Atlanta, both of the young ladies having joined Uncle Sam's forces when the war broke out.

F. F. Dutton took his first hunting trip and vacation last week and to his great surprise it worked wonders with him. In the party were Mr. Dutton and Messrs. Woolfolk and Scally, of the American Fruit Co., forces and Charles Whitner of the Armour Fertilizer Co., and several others. The party went into the reaches of the upper St. Johns river and caught plenty of fish, killed turkeys, quails and ducks and had the time of their lives. It is safe to assert that the entire party will take this trip every winter from this time forward.

Miss Rosamond Radford is leaving this afternoon to return to Bessie Tift College.

Deane Treadwell and Ralph K. Gore, of the mechanical department of the Herald Printing Co., fivvored over to Orlando Sunday afternoon in "Red's" Filivverette.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Waters, of Sanford and Miss Ruby Baker, returned from Tampa where they were called on account of the illness of Mrs. Water's brother.

C. D. Wetmore, of the firm of Warren & Wetmore, architects for the Grand Central Depot in New York, was calling on his old friends, A. T. Rosseter on Magnolia avenue New Year's day.

The new year is here and you will want to stock up with new stationery and everything that goes with the office. Come in and get what you want in this line from the Herald Printing Co., the people who are helping to make your town by putting in one of the biggest and best plants in the state.

HOW TO KILL YOUR TOWN—
HOW TO HELP YOUR TOWN

Knock.
Keep knocking.
And don't quit knocking.

One pull one way, one the other.
Go to other towns to do your trading.

Denounce your merchants because they make a profit on their goods.

Make your town out a very bad place, and never let an opportunity pass to give it a kick.

Refuse to unite in any scheme for the betterment of the town and the people.

Keep every cent you get and don't do anything of a public nature unless you can make personal gain out of it. Patronize outside newspapers to the exclusion of your own, and then denounce them for not being as large as the city dailies.

On the other hand, if you would help to make your town a better town, Boost.

Keep boosting.
And don't quit boosting even though the outlook ahead may be anything but cheery.

Talk about it.
Write about it.
Say all the good things you can about it.

Never see the ill, except to remedy it.

Patronize its merchants—a dollar spent in the home town is more than apt to stay here.

Make your town healthy by cleaning up the waste places.

Do your part toward improving it. Don't leave it all to George.

Advertise in its papers.
Elect good men to office.

LARGER CROPS PRODUCED ON LESS ACREAGE IN FLORIDA DURING YEAR

CORN IS STATE'S LEADING FIELD CROP; SEVERAL BIG STAPLES SHOW DECREASE OVER PREVIOUS YEAR; STATE HAS SIX MILLION ACRES IN FARMS

By SAM T. FLEMING,
Agricultural Statistician

GAINESVILLE, Jan. 3.—The year just closed shows a gain in production of staple crops and fruits over the preceding year although several of the big staple crops show a loss and the total acreage in cultivation was somewhat less than for 1919.

The heaviest increase in production has resulted from the small acreage crops, sugar cane, Irish potatoes, rice, tobacco, etc., for each of which there has been either an increase in acreage planted or exceptionally good yields.

With the exception of cotton, oats and sweet potatoes all of the state's big staple crops show decreased production, either as the result of a cut in acreage planted or from low yields.

For the fruit crops, the production of oranges will exceed last season's by approximately 20 per cent, while grapefruit will show a decrease of at least 10 per cent. Production of peaches and pears did not come up to last season, the pear crop, especially, being almost a failure.

The most interesting features of the year's agricultural work have been high-priced indifferent help, long periods of exceedingly wet or dry weather, a splendid harvesting season and, finally, the inability of the farmer to dispose of most of his products at a price that will leave him where he started last spring, financially.

There has been a general tendency during the fall to hold up on framing operations. Only 20 per cent of the farm lands have been plowed this fall, compared with 30 per cent last year and 64 per cent two years ago.

Wages of male farm labor show a tendency to drop just at the close of the year but have been the highest ever paid throughout the working season. The average daily wage paid during 1920 was $2.30, without board, as compared with $1.25 in 1916.

The bureau's financial estimates for 1920 with revised estimates for 1919 are as follows, for the principal staple crops and fruits of the state:

Crops	Unit	1920		1919

Based on the reports of thousands of the best posted farmers and local representatives for this bureau, we estimate that the state has approximately six million acres of land in farms in 1920 divided about as follows:

Totals acres in farms, 6,000. Acres land in crops, 1,700,000. Acres in fruit, 180,000. Crop land lying idle, 200,000. Pasture lands, 1,120,000. Wood lands, 2,800. (Thousands of acres of open or fenced range lands are not included.)

INSURGENTS IN NEW CONGRESS

PROGRESSIVE INFLUENCE WILL BACK UP NEW GROUP

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—When the new congress meets on call of President Harding it will find a new progressive insurgent group organized in the house and senate.

Although its members will form a comparatively small number in either house, they will have the backing of organized progressive influences in each state and at their services a bureau of information and research.

Preliminary organization work was completed late this month at a meeting attended by individuals and representatives of organizations who fear the scheduled "return to normal" may mean a swing to reaction and conservatism.

With a nucleus of half a dozen senators and a score of representatives who may be regarded as militantly progressive all along the line, it was decided to enlist the help of those members progressive on special lines, although conservative in general.

Anticipating that special interests will be pushing much legislation, the new organization will keep to the front the welfare of the public at large.

Approximately $50,000 has been pledged to establish a bureau to provide the information necessary for the effective presentation of the public's side of all questions, as against the data heretofore easily obtainable only from highly paid lobbies of special interests.

Among the senators ready to carry on the progressive fight are France of Maryland, Norris of Nebraska, Walsh of Massachusetts, LeFollette of Wisconsin and Ladd, newly-elected from North Dakota.

The bureau which will supply the insurgent ammunition probably will be headed by Basil Manly, economist, investigator and publicist, whose report on the investigations of the Federal Industrial Relations committee was one of the most comprehensive documents ever published by congress.

A second meeting, at which plans for extending the supporting organization into every state will be taken up, and a program mapped out for meeting issues coming up at the special session, probably will be held early in January.

With the Republican majority firmly in control of the new congress, the progressives look for steam roller tactics in putting through much of the legislation proposed.

But even a party juggernaut, they hold, can be swayed from its path or wrecked by a few high explosives bombs.

SWORD WORTHY OF OWNER

Blade Worn by Miles Standish Has Been Traced to the Time of the Crusades.

Among the relics of the Pilgrims that may be seen when visitors through the old town of Plymouth for the tercentenary observances few are more interesting than the sword of Miles Standish. It may be seen in Pilgrim hall.

It is a Damascus blade and presumably came into the possession of the Pilgrim captain from someone whose ancestors had brought it from the Crusades.

It bears several curious inscriptions, which waited until June, 1881, to be translated. Then Prof. James Rossdale of Jerusalem went with a band of Arabs to America's most important shrine and found that the carved characters belonged to different dates—some in Coptic and very old.

He was only able to translate one, of a later period, in Arabic. The words given here show that its spirit was quite appropriate to the spirit of the Pilgrims:

"With peace God ruled His Slaves. And with the judgments of His arms He troubled the Mighty of the wicked."

Even lazy people are perfectly willing to acquire corns in their hands from handling hard cash.

THE CAPTAIN'S INSPECTION

Captain's inspection aboard ships of the battle fleet had its inception in the Navy many, many years ago. And while the methods of inspection and the days upon which it is held have changed from time to time it still means the same spotless uniforms, clean-shaven faces and neat ship that it did years ago.

In the old days the Captain inspected the ship and the crew Sunday morning, but since the procedure broke into a man's day of rest and recreation it was decided to change the inspection day to Saturday, thereby giving the crew the entire Sunday to utilize in whatever manner it wished.

During the inspection the Captain and his staff wear dress uniform with their swords. The various divisions vie with each other to see which will receive the Captain's nod of approval. Every member of the ship's company, except those absolutely required to see to the safety of the ship, stand inspection on the main deck, while the Captain passes between the ranks scrutinizing the men and their uniforms. During the inspection the band plays military marches and the whole affair is accompanied by a great deal of pomp and ceremony.

We are reminded of the negro ser-

SET RECORD FOR PROFLIGACY

Danish Courtier, Hundreds of Years Ago, Started Fashion Copied by Some Modern "Sports."

The "sport" who lights his cigars with $5 bills had the pace set hundreds of years ago by courtiers in the reign of Queen Caroline Matilda of Denmark. Bills worth $30 were used by them as pipe lighters, and the leadership was taken by an old roue, Count Rantzau, who, although 60, won the love of the beautiful Sophia Livernet, of the royal ballet, a maid of 18 years. Rantzau was the brains behind the plot that broke the rule of the guilty queen and her lover, Dr. Struensee, and put the dowager queen, Juliana Maria, in power.

That astute lady promptly turned on Rantzau and ordered him banished. He was sunk in melancholy, but brightened long enough to give a series of balls and entertainments more brilliant than any the kingdom had known. Then he drew his pistol, and all would have been over had not the lovely Sophia entered at that moment and by singing a trio of old melodies to the tinkle of her harp, won back his desire to live. He did not die until many years later, and then died as he would have wished to die with his boots on, and as the result of a duel in France over the favor of a lady.

Capt. Roger Clap to His Children.

Roger Clap's words to his children were:

"You have better food and raiment than was in former times; but have you better hearts than your forefathers had? If so, rejoice in that mercy, and let New England then shout for joy. Sure all the people of God in other parts of the world, that shall hear the children and grandchildren of the first planters of New England have better hearts, and are more heavenly than their predecessors, they will doubtless greatly rejoice, and will say: 'This is the generation whom the Lord hath blessed.'"

Capt. Roger Clap, an English colonist in America, was one of the founders of Dorchester, Mass., settling there in 1630. He was captain of the fort or "castle" on Castle Island from 1665 to 1686, after which, until his death, he lived in Boston. He is best remembered for his "Memoirs," which he prepared about 1676, but which were not published until 1781, when they were edited by Thomas Prince.

Miami's first palm fete was an unqualified success. The next one will be on a greater and more splendid scale.

grant who, previous to an inspection, admonished him men, thusly: "When I see 'eyes right,' I want to hear you all eye-ball click." While a sailor-man's eye-balls can hardly be heard clicking, still the smartness of the men and the neatness of the ship would certainly receive praise from the negro sergeant and answer the purpose.

JOHNNY J. JONES' $20,000 HERD OF ELEPHANTS HERE

COTTON MILLS PAY DIVIDENDS OF GREAT SIZE

SPARTANBURG, S. C., Jan. 3.—Twenty-one cotton mills in Spartanburg county, having a total capital stock of $8,908,900 January last, have paid dividends amounting to $6,058,000 and cash dividends amounting to $2,184,049.50 during the year ending today, according to figures compiled by E. M. Law & Co., for the Spartanburg journals.

Most of the companies had good surplus left after paying their dividends. All mills are running on practically full time now and it is said the 20 per cent wage reduction has been met in this way.

One mill this week sold 50 cases of goods at a net loss of $1.50 per case. The cloth, however, was made months ago from high priced cotton and under the wage scale then prevailing.

Missed Her. "How is your afternoon bridge club getting on?" "Oh, rather poorly. You know, dear, Mrs. Gaussip has left us."

Much interest is being shown in Brevard county in sugar cane and citrus culture. The sugar cane acreage next year will be increased over that of this year.

JOHNNY JONES SHOWS HERE ALL OF THIS WEEK

When a manufacturing concern or retail merchant can display and sell more rapidly their line of goods than their competitors, they have sufficient cause for rejoicing.

Such is the feeling of every native Floridian in regard to Johnny J. Jones Exposition. Jones is a cracker, property owner and votes in this state.

This season Johnny J. Jones promises to fairly outdo himself with the marvelous list of attractions with which he'll regale the whetted appetites of the vast army of Sanford amusement seekers who are going this week to attend the greatest celebration ever held in Southland.

Jones' route this year again gave him contracts for all the big Southern State Fairs, the Western Canadian string of Expositions and the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto, known as the largest in the world.

"Amusement devotees of this city owe a debt of gratitude to the local celebration directors for having contracted with the Johnny J. Jones Exposition to furnish all the amusement for their Mid-winter Festival to be held all this week.

The claim made by Mr. Salter, manager of the publicity department that Johnny J. Jones Exposition "is the greatest in the world," is undoubtedly nearer the truth than the claims set forth by similar out of doors amusement companies which have visited this city.

"There is one thing which is outstandingly noticeable about the Johnny J. Jones Exposition, and this information is worthy of first mention," states Mr. Salter, "that among the host of attractions which form the great amusement aggregation there is absolutely not one to which the slightest objection can be taken.

Continuing, Mr. Salter said: "Johnny J. Jones, being in a class by himself, very naturally must be the leader in all new ideas and innovations, and he makes one announcement that causes much discussion and dissent in the amusement world, but will meet with warm approval from the press and public, and that far reaching idea was to bar all monstrosities from being exhibited with his organization.

Good times may be ahead, but if so they are so far ahead that overtaking them seems hopeless.
