

Sooner Dreams Of Using Water For Heating US Homes

STILLWATER, Okla.—Hot and cold running water for every home! That was the dream 50 years ago.

It's the dream today of Robert E. Irwin, but he wants to use it for heating and cooling homes.

Irwin, assistant professor in mechanical engineering at Oklahoma A&M college, is working on a variation of radiant heating that he hopes will be inexpensive enough for every home owner to install.

In his workshop at the college, Irwin has developed a "hot box" which has scientific instruments and controlled ventilation.

The biggest drawback to air conditioning, or cooling a home now, is the cost," Irwin explained.

"Refrigeration units are expensive for the average home-owner. Evaporative cooling systems are inexpensive but they are limited because while reducing the temperature, they also raise the humidity."

Irwin has found in experiments with his "hot box" that from 80 to 95 per cent of the heat flowing into a house comes through walls and windows. The remaining 5 per cent is supplied by body heat, electric lights and pilot lights.

The solution Irwin is working on is to circulate cool water between the inside and outside walls of a house and between ceiling and roof. The idea is not new in itself, but he is attempting to develop means to make it inexpensive enough for everyone to use.

Meanwhile, in London, the Labor government, still riding out attacks on its finance program has agreed to a new test of strength June 26 in debate on the French government's plan to pool Europe's coal and steel.

Despite Prime Minister Herbert Morrison announced the debate in the House of Commons. It will take place six days after six nations—Britain, government has held aloof—begin to work out pool details in Paris.

The labor government has shied away from debating the plan and instead has nonparticipation. If the government is defeated on any challenge facing it, Prime Minister Clement Attlee is expected to ask the king to dissolve the parliament and order a new election.

Attlee told Commons the cabinet believes it would hinder things to propose a rival program before voting on the plan which renounced the Schuman Plan.

The Conservatives and European socialists have criticized Britain's holding back.

Conservative attacks failed to shake labor margins of 10 to 12 votes in the House last night. Laborites beat down an attempt to lower taxes on earned income and won compromise dispute over heavy sales taxes on commercial vehicles. The government has won 11 test votes on finance policy.

It is the second in the National Sesquicentennial series and will be placed on first day sale at Washington, D. C. on June 12. Meanwhile in Pasadena, Calif., the FBI announced the arrest of Dr. Sidney Weinbaum, 53, California Institute of Technology scientist formerly with its propulsion laboratory.

Richard B. Hood, head of the Los Angeles FBI office, said Weinbaum is charged with perjury and fraud against the government.

In a complaint filed with U. S. Commissioner Howard V. Calverly, the government alleges that: "On or about Sept. 23, 1949, at Los Angeles, Sidney Weinbaum under oath before the industrial employment review board willfully and fraudulently testified that he had never been a member of the Communist Party, when in fact he held membership in the Communist Party Professional Unit No. 123, under the party name of Sidney Empson."

At 1717 S. Inglewood street in Los Angeles, Weinbaum also charged that about April 3, 1949, Weinbaum, "in his personal security questionnaire which he signed in connection with his employment with the Jet-propulsion laboratory at Caltech willfully omitted a statement that he had been a member of the Communist Party."

Weinbaum's employment with the jet propulsion laboratory was terminated last July. The FBI said. Since then he has been a research fellow in Caltech's chemistry department.

Truman To Seek $300 Million H-Bomb Boost

2 Senate Committees Okay European Aid; Rent Control Bill Gets Congress' Nod

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(AP)—A top White House aide said today that President Truman has decided to request the four present members of the Atomic Energy Commission. This source said Mr. Truman has not yet settled on a new chairman or a man to fill the vacant fifth membership.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(AP)—Congressional sources said today President Truman will ask Congress for $300,000,000 to speed up work on the hydrogen bomb.

A member of the House Appropriations committee, asking not to be named, said the money would be used entirely for construction work at existing Atomic Energy Commission installations mainly at Oak Ridge Tenn., Los Alamos, N. M., and Hanford, Wash.

This informant said he understood Mr. Truman's request would be sent to the capitol in a day or two.

Such a request would mark the first time that money had been asked already for work on the hydrogen super bomb.

President Truman ordered the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) last January to go ahead with development of the hydrogen bomb which might be 1,000 times as powerful as the original atomic bomb.

At that time, figures ranging all the way from $100,000,000 to $4,000,000,000 were being considered as the cost of the project.

Those who reported the $300,000,000 request in a prospect did not say whether the money would be now reached a point where it is turning to actual construction of the super bomb.

Members of the AEC met about two weeks ago with the Senate committee on the subject.

Mission Plane Reported Lost Over Venezuela

15 Americans Aboard Unreported DC-3; Search Is Started

MIAMI, June 19.—(AP)—A missionary plane reported missing over Venezuela with 15 Americans aboard was the object of an expanding search today.

Mrs. Donna Wetherald, wife of the plane's missionary-captain, said the United States State Department will ask the Venezuelan government to make an air and ground search for the plane.

Coast Guard air-sea rescue headquarters here is conducting a communications search, and requested the air attaché in the U. S. embassy at Caracas to do anything possible in Venezuela.

Mrs. Wetherald reported that Paul Fleming, head of the New Tribes Mission at Chico, Calif., would arrive in Miami tomorrow en route to Venezuela. He will use another church-owned plane for a search.

The twin-engine DC-3 owned by the New Tribes Mission left Miami June 9, refueled at Kingsport, and was last reported over the Venezuelan coast about 7 P. M. that same day.

Three missionaries, their five children and members of the missionary staff were on board in addition to a crew of three.

Capt. Ben Wetherald was in charge. David Kimball, formerly of Chicago and now a resident of Chico, was co-pilot, and his wife, Mrs. Hazel Kimball, was stewardess.

Mrs. Wetherald said there had been a "mistake" about the lack of communication from the Venezuelan government. She had been quoted as saying the South American country had refused to make a search.

She had never been officially notified or requested to make the search, she stated.

She declared she "feels sure the plane will be found and everyone will be all right."

Accused Killer Gives Self Up To N. Y. Police

Walter Winchell Accuses Macri To D. A.'s Offices

NEW YORK, June 19.—(AP)—One of two men accused of killing an AFL International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union organizer gave himself up last night. He was accompanied by Walter Winchell, radio commentator.

The man, Benedetto Macri, is under indictment for the stabbing of William Lurye on May 9, 1949. Less than two hours before, Winchell had predicted on his radio program that he would turn Macri over to police as the climax of a year's radio campaign to induce the Lurye killer to surrender.

Another man indicted in the slaying, 31-year-old John (Scarface) Giusto, a paroled convict, is still at large.

At the police station, Winchell immediately laid claim in the name of the Damon Runyan Cancer Fund to the $25,000 reward posted by the AFL International Ladies' Garment Workers Union, Lurye's organization, after the killing May 9, 1949.

The surrender was an almost exact duplication of Winchell's success of 1939 in persuading Louis (Lepke) Buchalter, one of the heads of the notorious Murder, Inc., to give himself up. Buchalter was later electrocuted at Sing Sing prison.

Lurye, 40, was fatally stabbed in a phone booth in the lobby of a building in Manhattan's garment center. He had been directing a campaign to organize non-union shops, and his death touched off one of the biggest man-hunts in New York's history. Nearly 100 police and detectives worked on the case, resulting in the indictments against Macri, a shop partner, and Giusto.

His union, headed by David Dubinsky, set up a $50,000 fund for Lurye's widow and children and offered the $25,000 reward.

A year ago, Winchell began broadcasting pleas to "B. M." and "J. C." to give themselves up. At various times he repeated the plea, asking them to surrender to him so the reward could go to the cancer fund, of which Winchell is treasurer.

The contact began three and a half weeks ago, Winchell said last night. "Then last Wednesday we were supposed to have a radio broadcast. Nothing happened. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights I was there but nothing happened."

Then the third party called again, and I said the only time would be after the (Sunday) broadcast.

I drove to the spot after the broadcast and the intermediary, absolutely unknown to me, gave the signal and broke into tears and kissed Macri.

D. B. Stafford Turns Back Time With 1904 Copy Of N. Y. Tribune

History has a way of repeating itself as is shown in a New York Tribune of Nov. 18, 1904, which was discovered here not long ago by D. B. "Bronze" Stafford.

"Grouse to run for next mayor," states a headline. A sub-headline reveals that the Brooklyn leader, intent on destroying or supplanting Murphy, plans coup that will mean Republican victory. The victory hasn't arrived yet.

From politics we turn to the theater advertisements, and may imagine ourselves as theatergoers of that period. At the Empire is John Drew playing in "The Duke of Killarney." Edna May appears at the Herald Square in "The School Girl." At the Hudson, Ethel Barrymore is making a bid for fame in "The Reward's Play, 'Sunday'."

Ethel may have run into some competition for underneath is the advertisement of the Knickerbocker stating that E. H. Sober and Julia Marlowe are appearing in "Hamlet" at the Madison Square Garden. Wednesday and Thursday they appear in "Much Ado About Nothing" and round up the week Friday and Saturday with "Romeo and Juliet." Starts ready, the ad states.

At the Criterion, states the next ad, is Fay Davis in "The Rich Rich Repton." The Garrick features Henry Miller in "Joseph and the Coat of Many Coloreds." At the Savoy is the play, "Mrs. Winslow's Christmas." Charles Wyndham and Mary Moore are at the Lyceum and at Daly's Miss Nancy O'Neill is scheduled to appear the following week in "The Girl of the Year." Metropolitan Opera House, Catania and Scotti are in the cast of "Aida" which is to be followed during the week by "Lucia," "Parafal," "Carmen," "La Traviata" and "Hansel and Gretel."

Other announcements include "Montgomery and Stone" at the Academy of Music in "The Wizard of Oz," and the Garden features a new American comedy by George Ade, "College Widow." At the New York, Henry W. Savaris is giving Caruso some competition with his own production of "The Merry Widow." Mrs. Pike at the Manhattan is packing the house with her playing of Ibsen's "Hedda, Gabler." At the Weber Music Hall is Weber and Ziegfeld and an all-time show.

Governors Asked Ex-Navy Officer To Inform People Seeking Election Of Foreign Policy

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., June 19.—(AP)—President Truman called on the nation's governors today to stir up grass roots interest in American foreign policy.

In a letter to Gov. Frank Carlson of Kansas, chairman of the annual governors' conference in session here, Mr. Truman said the governors "have a wonderful opportunity to exert leadership in stimulating people to take a more active interest in the grave question of how to preserve world peace."

"Some people feel that foreign policy is formulated and carried out entirely at Washington and in our foreign services in many other lands," the President said. "But the strength of our foreign policy rests on an intelligent understanding and support of the people at the grass roots."

Millionaire Gambler Frank Erickson Charged With Book-making Conspiracy

NEW YORK, June 19.—(AP)—Millionaire gambler Frank Erickson pleaded guilty today to charges of conspiracy and bookmaking.

Erickson admitted conspiring with a nationwide bookmaking racket to make the place where he was brought into special session today in the opening of his trial.

The plea of guilty to 30 counts against him was entered by his attorney, Sol Gelb, who told Justice Nathan D. Peckman.

The defendant wishes to withdraw his plea of not guilty and plead guilty to the information.

The maximum penalty on each count of the charge is a year in jail and a $500 fine which makes the big-time gambler subject to a possible sentence of six years in prison and $3,000 in fines.

The information charged one count of conspiracy and 29 counts of bookmaking. District Attorney Frank J. Hogan said he will file a motion to set aside the plea.

Justice Peckman set June 26 for continuing the trial.

The plump, balding 47-year-old, dressed in a dark suit with white pocket squares and a high collar, stepped out beside the judge today as his attorney entered the plea.

New Jersey Supreme Court Takes Swipe At "Easy" Florida Divorces

TRENTON, N. J., June 19.—(AP)—The New Jersey Supreme Court today condemned "easy divorce" states for contributing to what it termed little less than a national scandal.

Centering its attack on Florida, the court said liberal provisions of a few "easy divorce" states have thwarted efforts of most of the states to maintain marital responsibilities.

"Matrimonial suits ought not to be permitted to take on the aspects of a game wherein wits, speed, daring and finesse prevail over elemental right and justice," the court said. "Divorce and their incidents have become little less than a national scandal."

Hollywood By HOWARD C. HEAN (For Bob Thomas)

HOLLYWOOD, June 18—(AP)—While the cinema side of Hollywood is turning out seven or eight crisp new pictures a week, television is sopping up 60 oddies. The feature films you see at home have lost their boxoffice appeal. They're strictly from the archives. Otherwise TV wouldn't get 'em. And yet these venerable flickers are earning higher fees for third and fourth TV showings than they did for first video ones. People will still look at them if they don't have to buy tickets.

Such is the paradox that has developed from the refusal of major studios to provide television with reasonably recent pictures. But can you blame the movie producers? Film companies have fortunes invested in cinema houses. Are they going to dump their theaters in favor of the living room circuit? Not any sooner than they have to, anyway. Even old films are in short supply. Heaviest user of pictures among the seven local TV stations is KECA the ABC network outlet, George Horne, ABC director of film programs, says he uses 30,000 feet of film a week. Features, shorts, westerns, come-

KECA TV bills 16 1/2 hours of pictures every week

KECA TV bills 16 1/2 hours of pictures every week. KNBH (NBC) shows films only 3 1/2 hours a week and KTLA (CBS) 2 hours.

None of the networks makes its own feature films for television. They buy, later, a couple have acquired old movie studios. Independent TV movie producers can't begin to meet the demand, at prices today's sponsors will pay.

That's why vintage pictures (with a few slightly newer British ones) are populating the picture with such restricted luminaries as Janet Gray, Charles Farrell, Dolores Costello, Mary Astor, Tim McCoy, Howland Casler, sometimes known as Bill Boyer and Hoyt Gibson.

Beves estimates that TV stations in Los Angeles alone will spend $1,000,000 maybe $1,500,000 for such ancient material this year.

Other sources hint that film companies will cut more than 100 TV shows. Movies are their mainstay. And already certain movie producers are asking "Why should we rent our old pictures to television when we can't release them in theaters?" They are releasing some of them.

Almost every feature available on TV regardless of age has been shown since television's most

What Constal Cables will do to the situation is only a pointless guess, since transcontinental TV networks are still a fluttry gleam in the cathode eye.

Old comedies are running close to westerns in popularity. Charlie Chase, Laurel and Hardy and Billy Gilbert are building new audiences among the generation which followed their heyday. Charlie Chaplin is a recent addition to the roster. A fan who met Chaplin at a play told the comedian: "I sure do enjoy seeing you again on television." To which Chaplin replied: "I enjoy seeing myself."

Sanford Giants Bow To St. Augustine 8-5

Clyde Stevens Tapped With Third Loss; Bailey Hits Homer; St. Here Tonight

The Sanford Giants dropped an 8-5 tilt to the St. Augustine Saints last night. Bill MacDonald went the route for the winners giving Sanford 11 hits; none less than his teammates collected off of Stevens and Singleton. Stevens record is 5-3.

Cotton Chaffin lead the hitting attack with a triple and three hits for five plate appearances. Dan Bailey hit a homer for the locals.

The Giants take on the Saints again tonight at Municipal Ball Park. Manager Ed Levy hinted that he might give the hurling assignment to Callahan, a newly acquired Giant pitcher.

GAINESVILLE, June 19 (AP)—After taking the opening decision from the Daytona Beach Islanders by a 2-0 margin, the Gainesville G-men dropped a 1-0 nightcap verdict to gain an even split in two games here this afternoon.

The split dropped the Isles into a first place tie with the Bats who won their game. In the opener Daytona misused these times in the first inning to give the G's a three-run lead which was never halved.

In the final frame, the home team took the lead on a two-base error by Jack Cade, a sacrifice and a fly to left by Jack Healey gave the Islanders the only run of the game.

DAYTONA BEACH, June 19 (AP)—Eyeing the top rung of the Florida State League ladder, DeLand conquered Leesburg here this afternoon.

SOLONS EXPLODE—The Sanford Giants went all out last night with an 18-hit barrage that netted them a lopsided 3-0 win over the home team.

Every man on the bench hit and scored at least once during the struggle that saw Orlando score three times and DeLand score three times with four hits in the top two innings.

Gone are the days when the top seeded tennis stars milled in the sun on New York or California. Now the hot shots are getting into the habit of putting a Florida address on their names when they sign up to play in the nation's top tournaments.

The Neutral Corner

By BILL HERING

Marcel the Man (any reference that reflects on Musial is purely intentional) has come a long way since May 3 when his batting average was a good deal lower than his weight.

Aside from the fact that Marcel's batting average has climbed .112 points in a little more than one month, the bunt artist, at the time of this writing, has managed to hit safely in twelve straight contests.

	May 3	June 13	Gain
Runs Scored	12	46	34
Hits	12	69	57
Runs Batted In	2	14	12
Doubles	0	8	8

While almost every other member of the Giants has managed to climb the ladder in league batting averages, none can come close to the effort put forth by Poelker. His about face can be compared to watching the sun come up after a very dark night on a lonely island.

Marcel possesses several other outstanding attributes. First, he can bunt the ball on a sacrifice play and likely as not manage to dig his spikes into the first sack seconds before the ball arrives in the first baseman's mitt.

Time was in the Sanford press box when Poelker's advance to the plate with two gone and men on base would produce many groans, moans, and other assorted showings of discomfort.

The addition of Joe Tomek to Sanford's hot corner has been paying off in almost every game in which he has played.

In team batting, the Giants take on sixth place laurels with a .2608 average, which, incidentally, puts them a short .0041 points behind fourth place Leesburg.

Mattson note: This is the second of a four part story by Frank Eck which deals with Bob Carpenter, president of the Phillies.

With Carpenter and Pennock pulling the strings, the Phillies grew from a "one-club farm system" at Wilmington, Carpenter's first team, into a 15-team chain.

"We're down to 12 teams now," says the blue-eyed executive. "After all I believe in an expanding and contracting system to maintain the number of players at our command."

Carpenter, a 215-pound ex-athlete, credits Herb Pennock with much of the foundation for the new Phillies. He is too modest to claim credit for himself.

It was Herb who brought Joe Neaton in as director of their minor league chain, points out Carpenter, and it was Herb who, during his minor league travels, became acquainted with Eddie Sawyer, manager of the Yankee farm team at Binghamton, N. Y.

After leaving Duke, Carpenter worked in the duPont Wilmington headquarters for two years. His work was in public relations.

In 1940, Carpenter backed two fighters and promoted fights at Wilmington Park, the field his father built at a cost of $150,000.

Bob then got 2,000 shares in the Phillies as a starter. After Judge Landis barred William D. Cox, Phillies president in 1948, from baseball for life for betting on games, Bob, then 28, was installed club president.

But Bob wanted more shares in the Phillies. He spoke to his father, brother-in-law of industrialist Lamont duPont and an executive of the duPont Co.

However, before the 1944 season opened, Bob went into the Army as a private. He missed two baseball seasons and it was just as well. In '44 and '45 his Phillies held undisputed possession of the league cellar.

After 22 months in the Army, Bob left it as a staff sergeant, Bob was ready to take an active hand in running a big league club.

For any one of the four teams who have already lost one game in the double elimination tourney, a second defeat will mark the end of the tournament road.

Texas and Tufts will play the second game tonight at 10 P. M. The game constitutes a schedule change.

The Merion Golf Club, scene of this year's U. S. Open, is 364 yards and a 70 par.

DELAND, June 19 (Special)—Thanks to a Daytona losing streak and a display of power by DeLand, the Red Hats took over first place in the Florida State League last week.

Sanford was moving up rapidly as Leesburg continued to knock off the top teams, Palatka, however, broke a 15 game losing streak at the expense of the Packers.

Manager Ed Levy bid fair to set a home run mark that will last for some seasons as he clouted his 21st against DeLand.

Fans made ready to make their choices for the league all-star game July 4. The club leading the league at midnight June 27th will be the team the all-stars have to beat.

Daytona Beach hollered for help from Hank Greenberg and the Cleveland farm system, getting Ralph Henriquez, a new catcher, with more changes due to take place.

St. Augustine signed Russell Single, a pitcher, Al Topnick was transplanted to DeLand and Red Hat pilot Bill Perrin, somewhat more satisfied with his infield, was off on scouting trips looking for pitchers.

Sunday afternoon ball was coming back. Gainesville and Leesburg reverted to Sunday afternoon and the DeLand club changed its mind about playing on Sunday night.

Flying Octet Of Greyhounds Will Gallop Tonight

DAYTONA BEACH, June 19 (Special)—Tenton, Sly Hunter, Alrock and Kensman highlight a flying octet of greyhounds slated by Racing Secretary Merrill Watta to gallop in the feature ninth race at the Volusia County dog track tonight.

Stephen Stricker's Sly Hunter, popular in Daytona Beach last season, has landed five times in the money in five starts this summer, and has rewarded her owner with $223 in purses.

There is certain to be thrills aplenty in tonight's ninth race over the long distance route for seven of the competing greyhounds have already clocked up beach course wins this season.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERR

OFFICIALS of a New York department store are wondering how to make advertising capital of a recent contretemps with the minister of a little church in an upstate village. The minister returned five of six bath towels he had purchased in 1931, because they showed obvious signs of wear and tear. "I'd have sent the sixth too," he wrote, "but that would have left me none at this end."

The store replied that 18 years' service for towels that had retained at least a dollar apiece in the first place was not a bad record; they proposed, indeed, to send him six brand new towels in exchange for 4 testimonials.

The reverend accepted the proposition, specified that the new towels should be red, and saved his killer-diller for a postscript: "It may interest you to know that those towels were seconds when I bought them!"

A bookseller near the Communist official headquarters in New York complains, "Even those fellows won't leaf through any more. Radical books sell so poorly now that with every copy I have to give an extra pair of pamphlets."

6 Western Nations Open Conferences On Schuman's Plan

Foreign Minister Declares Surrender Of Some Sovereignty Is Necessary

PARIS, June 20.—(AP)—Six Western European nations opened a historic conference today aimed at pooling their coal and steel production. French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman, father of the plan, told the delegates the ultimate aim was to abolish war from the continent of Europe.

Britain remained on the sidelines, although she will be kept informed of what goes on in the elaborate Salon De l'Hotel (clock room) of the French Foreign Ministry. There was some talk that the British were coming around to the view that the advantages of joining the plan might outweigh the disadvantages. Schuman said he hoped Britain eventually would join.

Schuman told delegates of France, Western Germany, Belgium, Italy, the Netherlands and Luxembourg that these would be great political benefits in a plan which stems from a French-German understanding.

"It is our desire to associate in a common and permanent work of peace two nations which for centuries have fought one another in bloody conflicts," the French Foreign Minister said.

JACKSONVILLE, June 20.—(AP)—Appointment by the new chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee of 11 persons to fill vacancies on the Duval County Democratic Committee today brought the committee's election of a week ago a step nearer a contest in the state supreme court.

Chairman E. B. Donnell made the appointment yesterday following his election at the state committee's meeting in Daytona Beach. He said 11 appointments to fill the same vacancies, made by former Chairman Alex D. Littlefield, were contrary to state law.

State Witness Tells Of Plot To Kill Seven

Jimmy Martin Claims Arthur Velasco Always Talked About "Rubbing Out Men"

TAMPA, June 20.—(AP)—A state witness unfolded a sensational story today that a plot was hatched to kill two public officials and five other men.

The witness was Jimmy Martin who testified Sheriff Hugh Culbreath had gotten him to work for Arthur Velasco, one of the defendants in a murder conspiracy trial.

San Martin related that Arthur Velasco talked with him about "jumping off" State Attorney Rex Frazier, Sheriff Culbreath, Salvatore (Red) Italiano, Jimmy Luma, Augustine (Pino) Lazzara, Augustine (Gus) Fortia and Sato Takasato.

Arthur Velasco has brother Roy, City Rep. (Councilman) P. Joseph Rodriguez and six and Mrs. John Meatus are charged with conspiring to kill Sheriff Culbreath.

Jimmy Martin, who was brought to the criminal court room under heavy guard, gave this testimony. Sheriff Culbreath approached him and "asked me to do a favor by going to work for Arthur Velasco."

Arthur Velasco asked him to obtain a machinegun which he did when he asked Arthur what he was going to do with the weapon. Arthur replied that he wanted to have some men killed—"five or six at one time."

Then Velasco named the group of victims he wanted to have slain. Arthur Velasco "talked about jumping this guy off and bumping that guy off—that's all he talked about."

During the months that he worked as a carpenter for Arthur Velasco the murder plot narrowed down to having Culbreath, Luma, Lazzara and Italiano killed.

Roy Velasco joined in several conversations about killing the sheriff and others.

Finally, Arthur Velasco asked him (San Martin) if he would kill Culbreath. Roy said maybe it would take $1,000, but Arthur said it would take at least $3,000 or $5,000.

San Martin then related how the witness brothers talked about holding up a man with a law of money to get funds to pay off an assassin.

Arthur Velasco, continued San Martin, wanted to do away with Luma, Italiano and Lazzara because he thought they had something to do with the murder of his brother, Jimmy Velasco.
