SHOWDOWN ON ECONOMY BILL HANDED DELAY

Heads Of Automobile Industry Come Before Committee To Protest Sales Tax

WASHINGTON, Apr. 18.—(A.P.)—The House economy committee was unable to agree today on a retrenchment program and a showdown on the question of cutting government salaries was postponed several days. The announcement was made that the naval supply bill will be brought before the House tomorrow.

Automobile manufacturers made their arguments before the Senate Finance Committee against the imposition of a sales tax on their industry. Led by George Graham, president of the Rockwell Corporation, a group of the industry's leaders, including Edsel Ford, and Walter Chrysler said it is a serious plight and that taxes will be burdensome. Right enforcement of prohibition and ample appropriations to carry it out were demanded by the Women's National Committee for law enforcement meeting here. The Interstate Commerce Commission recommended a federal regulation of motor vehicles engaged in interstate commerce and that railroads and water lines will be encouraged to use the public highways.

Seminole County Has High Rating in P. T. A. Of Florida

Among the interesting disclosures at the recent State Parent-Teacher Convention at Clearwater, is the fact that Seminole County is one of the three 100 percent counties in the state, 100 percent in that every school in the county has a P. T. A. council associated in membership with the State and National Congress of P. T. A. councils.

Publicly chairman of the Geneva and Chuluota councils were awarded certificates for having completed in a satisfactory manner the course given by the publicity bureau of the state Mrs. E. E. Tribble, Chuluota, and Mrs. W. M. Kilbee, Geneva, were the chairman.

Among other honors won by county councils at the convention were the following: Silver membership cup went to Seminole High association because of the largest increase in membership in a city school in the state. The cup will be held one year unless the association wins it again.

The Procedure Book of the Chuluota Association was judged as one of the 10 best books from the state, and it will be sent to the National Convention in Minneapolis for display.

Seminole County was honored as an honor county in Parent Education classes. More than 50 percent of the persons taking this course received certificates of merit from the State Board of Health.

Oviedo and Geneva were rated as Standard associations in the county.

One Superior association rating, the highest an association can receive was awarded the Chuluota group.

According to Mrs. J. C. Bille, of Geneva, the empty membership this year is 593 as against 546 of last year. A gain of 147 members was reported in the state, to make the membership 24,000 as against 23,553 in 1931.

MASSIE FACING QUIZ AT HANDS OF PROSECUTOR

Naval Officer Terminates His Dramatic Account Of Slaying

HONOLULU, Apr. 18.—(A.P.)—Having shouldered a blame for the killing of Joseph Kahahawai, Lieut. Thomas H. Massie yesterday faced a grilling at the hands of Honolulu's vigorous young prosecutor, John C. Kelley. The young naval officer climaxed his court story Saturday by saying he confronted Kahahawai with a pistol in the home of Mrs. Granville Fortescue and that his mind went blank when Kahahawai admitted participating in a criminal attack on Mrs. Massie. In a voice sometimes hallow, sometimes strident, Massie told how "vile rumors" about himself and his wife had arisen after Kahahawai and four other men had been tried on charge of attacking Mrs. Massie. The jury disagreed.

Massie said the rumors—that he was going to get a divorce; that he had found Mrs. Massie in the company of another naval officer; that she had been attacked by a group of naval officers; and that she had not been attacked at all, but was merely a notorious seek—

Girl Brings Back Money For Goods She Stole Long Ago

Seven years ago a young woman employee of Benjamin's Department Store on First Street misappropriated several small articles of clothing, unknown to the owners of the store.

Saturday morning this woman walked into the store, called Mrs. Benjamin aside, and from a worn and tattered pocketbook, extracted $3 which she begged that Mrs. Benjamin take "so that I can have peace again."

"In recounting this unusual experience, Mrs. Benjamin today declared it without parallel in her many years' contact with customers."

"When the woman walked into the store," Mrs. Benjamin said, "I thought that she was just a poor girl looking for a job. I never dreamed that she would tell me such a tragic story of years of unhappiness and remorse. When she handed me the money after telling me her story, I told her that she should keep it, for I felt that she was giving me her last cent. I told her that I had forgiven her for what she had done. But she would have none of my assurances that everything was forgiven. Bloodlessly she pressed the money into my hand asking me 'please to take it. I don't remember the girl at all, for we had several persons with us during the busy days of the boom, but I do know that she was tremendously relieved when she walked away from the store. It was remarkable.'"

PROBE WILL BE RENEWED UPON SHORT SELLERS

Whitney To Again Take Stand As Administration Strives To Curb Bear Raiders

WASHINGTON, Apr. 18.—(A.P.)—Armed with the names of the big short sellers on the New York Stock Exchange, the Senate Finance Committee will resume today with renewed vigor its investigation of administration charges that bear raids have depressed the market. Richard Whitney, president of the Exchange, will again be on the stand, but in contrast with his appearances last week, the committee this time will have ammunition to support their cross-examination. Agents of the committee have spent the week-end working over voluminous data, furnished by Whitney in compliance with a subpoena, on short selling and those who are engaging in it. The information has been closely guarded by the committee, but some of its members are confident it will throw light on the influences which they believe have been active during the recent rapid decline in market values. Whitney was asked to furnish the names of the corporations in which there was a short interest of 10,000 shares or more at the close of the market, Friday, April 15. He was also asked for the names of Exchange members who handled the transactions, and a list of the clients for whom they sold the stocks. Names of the leaders of stock for short sales—

FRANCE BELIEVES U.S. HAS PASSED FINANCIAL CRISIS

Sees New Period Of Economic Prosperity On Solid Basis

PARIS, Apr. 18.—(A.P.)—A belief that the financial crisis in the United States now is passing through its final "healing phase" and America is headed for renewed prosperity was expressed yesterday in the newspaper Le Temps. The newspaper said it thought the American recovery would be achieved without any real inflation. "American money will remain stable," said its weekly financial review. "Losses will be registered and accepted. The United States will enter a period of new credits with the likelihood of an economic prosperity less brilliant than before the crisis, but more real and more solid." Nearly two columns were devoted to the article. It was signed by Frederick Jenny and led the special financial supplement, which is a regular feature of the newspaper's Sunday edition. Reviewing conditions after the passage of the Glass-Steagall act in the American Congress, which permits banks to borrow money on securities other than those stipulated in the federal reserve regulations, Jenny said: "With the financial history of the United States full of lessons, it shows how difficult it is to find a remedy without at the same time enfeebling the national vitality. If things go normally the budgetary deficit will be met, at least temporarily, reduced by new fiscal resources and economies. The longer proposition will be sidetracked. There will be no inflation on the proposition of the term. The currency will remain solid." Le Temps' reassuring review of American financial conditions followed reports of an attack in France on the dollar, which was not evident, however, in London on the same day. In the principal French newspapers, "L'Etiquette," a small newspaper of the nationalist tenor, already had reacted with apologies. It stated it printed that a large New York bank had suspended payments and which was promptly denied in financial circles. Its statement was made coincidentally with extracts from an article by Sir Walter Layton, British economist, in which he said the fall of the dollar was likely.

ADVOCATES OF BONUS FINISH UP CASE TODAY

Opponents Of Plan To Launch Opposition Testimony Tuesday Before Committee

WASHINGTON, Apr. 18.—(A.P.)—Advocates of passing the two billion dollar soldiers bonus today closed their case before the House Ways and Means Committee and opposition to the testimony by administration and Democratic leaders against the pay will begin tomorrow. Advocates spent more than a week presenting their contentions that inflation of currency to pay the remaining money outstanding on bonus certificates would prove a spur to business. Chairman Reed Smoot of the Senate Finance Committee predicted last night the Senate would defeat the bonus, if, and when, it reaches that body. That it will get to the Senate is generally conceded by House leaders, who see no way to beat it, though encouraged in the last few days by what they profess to believe is a weakening of the ex-soldiers' campaign. "I think the bonus will be defeated by the Senate," Smoot declared. Republican Floor Leader James E. Watson, Indiana, said he has made no canvass yet and could give no clue to the possible Senate stand, but added, philosophically "I hope it never reaches the Senate."

WIDOW CARRAN IS GIVEN ACQUITTAL IN MURDER CASE

Is Freed Upon Charge She Killed Husband For Another Love

ATLANTA, Apr. 18.—(A.P.)—Acquitted Saturday night of a charge of murdering her husband, Mrs. Carran, Jacksonville, today resumed her life at the home of relatives near here and laid plans to resume the hunt for her young daughter which Carran's death six months ago interrupted. She told her attorneys after the midnight verdict had been returned by a jury which deliberated 30 hours that she would go on with the search. Mrs. Carran's story of the killing of her husband was that they were set upon by men in a rooming house last September, as they returned from a trip to Campbell county in search of some trace of her former husband, Lucius Giddis, who took the daughter more than two years ago. She said the negroes beat her husband to death, ransacked their automobile, beat her, and left her tied, Fox hunters, attracted by her screams, found her early the next morning, lying bound near the body of Carran. The state charged the robbery story was a fabrication Mrs. Carran was indicted jointly with J. Earl Smith, Jacksonville salesman, who has never been located. Witnesses at the trial, which lasted four days, testified to a long period of association between Smith and Mrs. Carran. The prosecution charged Mrs. Carran loved her husband to the spot where he was slain with her story of a search for the missing child, and that Smith met them on a lonely road and slay her husband. The motives alleged by the state were an infatuation by Smith, and greed for her husband's estate which witnesses estimated at $10,000. The prosecutors attacked Mrs. Carran's claim that she was searching for her child, with testimony that her former husband had not lived in the vicinity for about ten years, and that she had visited him in Birmingham in 1929. Mrs. Carran's plans for continuing the search for the child were not revealed in detail.

Local Legion Body Plans Interesting Program Tonight

A unique program of entertainment is promised members of the Campbell Legion Post of the American Legion and the Auxiliary, who will meet in joint session at the Legion Hut tonight at 8 o'clock. It will be the first time in months that both groups have come to hold a business and social meeting. The feature of the affair will be the giving up of a National American Legion radio program coming from New York City over a national hook-up, and starting at 10:00 o'clock. A radio has been installed at the hut, where there will be a one hour program, filled with patriotic addresses by Legion heads, as well as martial music by Legion bands. The broadcast will open from Chicago with the Electric Post Band, national champions, playing "The American Legion," and will then switch to New York, where Henry I. Stevens, national commander of the Legion will speak. Stevens will be followed by Mrs. Louise W. Williams, national president of the American Legion Auxiliary, who in turn will relinquish the microphone to Reginald Warrumbath and "The Legionnaires' Glee Chorus." William D. Lyons, chief of showmen of the "Forty and Eight," will speak next, and the program will be switched back to Chicago, where the Electric Post Band will play "Over There Medley" and O. L. Bodenhorn, past national commander of the Legion will speak. Another switch to New York will bring Elsie Jans and an orchestra on the air, and they will be followed by a sketch, "Squads Right" after which Schumann-Hain will sing "Danny Boy." The Electric Post Band in Chicago will then play "The Stars and Stripes" and the program will close with an invocation from New York by the Rev. H. A. Darby, national chaplain of the Legion.

"Jafsie" Reiterates Faith In His Ability To Effect Return Of Lindy's Child

With the Kidnapers.

HOPEWELL, N. J. Apr. 18.—(A.P.)—A reiteration of faith in his ability to treat with the kidnapers of the Lindbergh baby came yesterday from Dr. John F. Condon as the 72-year-old "Jafsie" spent an active Sunday appearing as an umpire in a charity baseball game. "We are in contact with the kidnapers and the baby will be returned soon, I hope," said the retired educator and welfare worker at an athletic field at City Island. This statement, voiced in the course of a brief talk for motion pictures, did not make clear to what extent, if any, communication had been re-established with the abductors since payment of $50,000 ransom April 2 failed to effect the child's recovery. "This is the most dastardly crime in history and nobody connects with it will give up until the baby is back," said Dr. Condon. Visibly weary but still walking briskly Dr. Condon smiled as the more than 1000 spectators gathered at the community baseball game applauded him. Col. Henry Breckinridge, Lindbergh attorney, frequently in company with the doctor, referred Saturday to Dr. Condon as "the only direct contact we have had with the kidnapers."

I will co-operate with the other officials to the best interest of every department of our county government. I will deal impartially with everyone regardless of whether they support me or not. A Army Concentration Near Manchuria Is Pointed To As Expectation Of Clash

TOKYO, Apr. 18.—(A.P.)—Military preparations of Soviet Russia on the North Manchurian border were taken by Japanese military experts as a clear indication that Russia expects a clash with Japan, a spokesman for the foreign office said today. He said it is estimated that Soviet forces on the Manchurian frontier number 70,000 men while the Japanese there total less than 20 divisions. The League of Nations commission to Manchuria will be delayed, it was understood yesterday, until the new state of Manchoukuo makes its attitude clear on the presence there of Dr. Wellington Koo, the commission's Chinese assessor. Latest press reports from Manchuria said Manchoukuo officials were adamant in their stand that Dr. Koo will be arrested if he sets foot inside of Manchurian territory. The Japanese government has been just as firm on its insistence that Dr. Koo accompany the commission with full protection as scheduled. The Japanese government said it will do its best to see that Dr. Koo is unharmed if he accompanies the commission, which is examining Sino-Japanese affairs, but stressed that they had no influence with the Manchoukuo government. The commission has already conducted its hearings on Manchurian affairs from Chang Hsiao-Liang, Manchurian war lord who controlled that section of China until the Japanese invasion of last Sept. 18, his staff, and Japanese military officials and business men. Testimony was taken on the customs, salt revenue, railways, army airplanes, politics and economies. The young Marshal Chang, son of the famous Chang Tso-lin, was frequently heard by the commission and told how he and his wife had lost a fortune in jewels alone when the Japanese occupied his palace in Mukden.

Three Pickets Are Shot By Soldiers On Guard At Mine

Troops are on duty there following a riot last week in which one miner was killed. Two other guards' strongholds were the scenes of shootings today in the mined section. In one of them the guards fired to ward attackers. Guards officers said the soldiers did not fire directly at the men. Lindys Baby Is Believed Alive

By Negotiators

(Continued from Page One) The lawyer was in the Condon home for hours. During that time, the doctor made several short trips. At 8:30 Dr. Condon left in an automobile with his bodyguard, Al Reich, former pugilist. At that time Colonel Breckinridge was still in the house. It is no secret Dr. Condon has been pressing in every way possible toward re-establishment of contact with the men he dealt with, but what progress, if any, he has made and exactly what means he is using have remained undisclosed.

The Lindberghs themselves have emphasized in a formal statement the necessity of silence and secrecy. The Washington Evening Star said the federal government has been moving secretly to invoke the income tax evasion law against those who received the $50,000, if they are caught. It is assumed no income tax return would be made for the ransom money. In this event, the paper said, the government stands ready to proceed against the men the way they did in jailing Al Capone.

Such action, however, would have to wait until next March, when this year's income report must be filed. The Star said internal revenue agents were kept advised of the progress of negotiations and knew of the final arrangements for the ransom payment Apr. 2, but at the request of Lindbergh remained away from the scene of the transaction. Elmer I. Ivey, chief of the internal revenue operations, and two of his men, Frank Wilson and A. P. Maden, who directed the Capone investigation, were said by the Star to have held numerous conferences with Lindbergh.

Secretary Mills said internal revenue officials were not actively working on the case, as did the commissioner of internal revenue, but they confirmed the fact Ivey had been at the Lindbergh home. Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, state police head, said his aide Maj. Charles H. Schofield had been instructed to return from abroad, where he has been conducting a secret investigation of some phase of the case. A report another of the ransom bills had turned up in New York proved upon investigation to be without foundation.

Colonel Breckinridge and an unidentified woman left the Condon home for an undisclosed destination shortly before 10 o'clock. were present and both made talks complimenting the school for the success of the year. A short musical program followed in which little Miss Evelyn Ratan sang, followed by two songs, "I'll Take You Home Again Kathleen" and "Memories" by Mrs. Carl Rabun, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. L. W. Carr, of Louisville.

A May Day program will be staged by the primary department of the Monroe School Monday morning at 11:00 o'clock, under the supervision of Mrs. Bates and Mrs. Buchanan. The public is cordially invited. An entertainment will be given Monday evening at the school by Sanford talent. A small charge will be taken at the door to defray expenses of the school.

Merger of Postal and Western Union

Not Being Planned

NEW YORK, Apr. 16.—(A.P.)—Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union Telegraph Company said yesterday that no merger of his company with its chief competitor, Postal Telegraph was being discussed. His remarks at the Western Union stockholders annual meeting Wednesday had given rise to reports that such a consolidation might be under consideration.

"I might suggest a thought," Carlton explained yesterday, "that must come to most people in this day of economy and retrenchment when they observe the costly duplication of facilities which the principal telegraph companies are supporting. But no one has been discussing merger as a remedy, even informally." Carlton's statement to stockholders contained these two sentences which gave rise to reports a merger might be imminent: "Whether Western Union is destined to stand alone as a corporation as it has for the past 76 years or whether it will be part of a larger plan I cannot tell. No action or plans have been made to bring about anything of this kind, but we must be prepared for a change when business comes back."

CALL OF THE BRAVE
CAPTAIN

Upon the hard highway
When I did walk alone
I met a Brave Captain
Whom I had known

What is your quarrel, Captain,
And who hath done you wrong?
For they shall suffer in their pride
Who war against the Strong.

Who are your foes, Captain,
For whose'er they be
Which wrath hath mingled with My blood

When you are of their fellowship,
And not of mine," said he.

Where are your comrades, Captain,
Who plighted troth with you:
Of all that brave army

"Captain, what are these thorns,
What is this cross you bear?"
This is my standard, brother,
And this the crown I wear;

"Will you be with me there?"

Pleasure In Work

A visitor from Europe to this country during our highest peak of prosperity, just before the stock market debacle, remarked on the apparent unhappiness of Americans despite their favored financial position. He compared the carefree contentment of the English, burdened by taxation such as the United States has never dreamed of, to the strife and stress manifested by Americans as they hurry to their business in the mad rush for success.

The visitor's observations doubtless had a great deal of truth. Americans have been guilty of taking life too seriously, of not allowing social amenities or minor pleasures to enter into their business lives in the fear that they might interfere with attaining the ultimate goal of success, which, interpreted into the common conception, means money.

It is this interpretation of success which probably has caused most of the unhappiness among our people and has often resulted in strained looks and haggard expressions. Anyone whose sole purpose in life is merely to "make money" will usually miss the greatest joy and satisfaction of work, that of doing a job well. A man who has his mind on the dollar sign can't take pride in his work and will be just as satisfied with a bad job as with a good one, provided the pay is there.

The man who is always seeking to do the best job instead of striving to get the most money will always have the advantage in happiness. He will never be disappointed. His efforts to accomplish something better will be rewarded with improved skill and more excellent results. The man whose goal is money will usually be disappointed. Only a few men ever attain wealth or are comparatively well-to-do, so the person who makes this his sole goal will in all probability be denied it and will in addition be deprived of the rewards of pride in work well done.

The Go-Getting Type

What is a typical American? We suppose there are as many different types of typical Americans as there are of typical women, or typical preachers. One type of typical American, which is rapidly losing its popularity, is the go-getter type. It seems. This world depression, which is having its effect on all the peoples of the earth, is certainly playing havoc with American go-getting. Somehow or other we don't seem to get any more, no matter how much we go.

The Financial News of London, commenting on the financial situation in the United States," according to the Miami Herald, "said the picture of the American as a go-getter is a myth, as much so as the strong and silent Englishman, the musical and emotional Welshman, and the non-moral Frenchman. The legend of the business-like American full of pep is just a figment of imagination, asserts this journal. It charged we like to be shepherded, that we depend upon some outstanding leader, and he has not shown up yet for the present crisis.

"Well, the bally old English editor may be right. Perhaps the advertised American pep does not come up to specifications and falls in the pinch. Possibly our go-getters are bench warmers.

"But that editor never encountered a Yankee salesman at the door, nor watched an American at bat, nor heard a crowd of football rooters, nor ridden with a reckless Miami motorist, nor even listened to luncheon speakers. He would change his mind. We are sure go-getters at such times. And when prosperity is booming we get the dollar, only to lose it the next day. But when it comes to go-getting justice, better and less government, lower taxes, putting crime on the run and solving problems sanely, why we stumble along all out of breath."

SANFORD, TWENTY YEARS AGO

George Fox, Sr. has gone to Jacksonville to serve his country as a juror, in the United States Court. His stay is therefore indefinite.

Miss Mabel Anderson of the Howard-Packard Land Co. is entertaining her brother, A. E. Anderson and wife, of Cadillac, Mich.

Under the energetic and unselfish efforts of Mrs. A. H. Meese, of New York City, who is spending the winter here, and who has become enthusiastic in advancing the interests of the Sanford Hospital Association, that association has received $75.00 from the Tent Show, and $25.00 from a number of new members.

The Auction Bridge Club was entertained Monday afternoon by Mrs. S. O. Chase. The highest score was made by Mrs. Samuel Puleston, who won the first prize, a handsome Bohemian vase. The guest prize was received by Mrs. E. M. McCullough, of Orlando. Mrs. B. F. Whitner's sister and guest, Mrs. Chase's guests were:

Meedames Keeler, Brady, McLaughlin, Puleston, McCullough, Newman, Miller, Lane, Papworth, Whitner, and King.

Col. W. M. Toomer, of Jacksonville, candidate for Congress at large, was in the city today, accompanied by his son, William. Col. Toomer did not have an opportunity to address the people, but managed to meet many of the most favorably.

The many friends of Mrs. D. G. Wagner will be glad to learn that she is doing nicely under care of Dr. Masters, of Fort Orange. It is hoped that she will soon regain her health.

Lab Ratliff, a valued employee of The Herald, will leave tonight for Philadelphia where he will take a 10 week's course at the Monotype factory and become thoroughly experienced with the machine which will play an important part in The Herald office. account of a public document and had not been guilty of a malicious attack upon the 78-year-old plaintiff. George P. Bedell, Jacksonville, attorney for Burgman, asked the court for extended time to consider filing of a motion for a new trial. Judge Marion G. Rowe allowed him 15 days. Thomas N. Tappy, Daytona Beach municipal judge, and Herbert B. Frederick, Volusia County Criminal Court solicitor, were of counsel for the defendant.

CHICAGO, CONVENTION CHAMPION

Chicago has jumped into a long lead over other cities in the race for winning convention assignments.

Getting the two great assemblages of Democrats and Republicans in June puts Chicago well in the lead and gives the "Windy City" an opportunity to stage these colorful affairs as a curtain raiser to the "Century of Progress" which will be a headline attraction in 1933. Already the convention got in rolling merrily as committees of prominent business men are organizing to receive thousands of visitors in Chicago during June.

One of the leaders who has helped to bring the blue ribbon convention assignments to Chicago is Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First National Bank and a business man with a flair for tackling big jobs. Mr. Traylor, a native of Kentucky, has achieved national and international fame in finance and business by his distinguished service in Chicago, Texas and throughout the Middle West. He was one of the delegation headed by E. N. Hurley and Mayor Cermak of Chicago who went to Washington and clinched their bid for the National Democratic Convention with a fund of $200,000.

Chicago has exceptional facilities for entertaining both Republican and Democratic conventions within a single month. Already, the engineers are at work with blue prints to arrange the interior of the huge Chicago Stadium where both conventions will be held. The assembling of both conventions promises to be a great spectacle, for the arena where delegates will be seated will accommodate between 8,000 and 10,000. Circling the arena are 10,000 seats where guests and visitors may be accommodated.

SHOWDOWN ON ECONOMY BILL HANDED DELAY

(Continued from Page One) ers hope to speed up the legislative machinery this week to expedite the economy and revenue raising programs in an effort to complete all necessary business and adjourn the session on June 10.

The Senate Finance Committee will go ahead with hearings on the billion dollar tax bill, pending receipt from Secretary Mills of a plan he is drafting at the Treasury for revamping sections of the House bill to which he is opposed. It hopes to end the hearings by the middle of the week. Party leaders expect to get the bill before the Senate by May 1.

On the House side, Speaker Garner said 90 per cent of the members favored adjournment by June 1, but added he felt Congress would be ready to end the session at least by June 10.

House party leaders in the meantime have indicated strongly they would seek to have approved as quickly as possible the economy slashes made by the Senate on annual supply bills, none of which has been sent to the White House. The House alone, has cut President Hoover's budget estimates on Government costs for 1933 by $121,000,000.

The Senate is seeking an additional 10 per cent cut on all supply bills but is meeting strong opposition on the $1,000,000,000 Treasury Postoffice bill, embodying the building program throughout the country. It expects to act

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"DOCTRINE OF ATONEMENT" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 17.

The Golden Text was from Hebrews 9:28, "Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation."

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement" (Rom. 5:1, 11).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus aided in reconciling man to God by giving man a truer sense of Love, the divine Principle of Jesus' teachings, and this truer sense of Love redeems man from the law of matter, sin, and death by the law of Spirit,—the law of divine Love" (p. 19).

The announcement that Herbert Hoover weighs twenty-seven pounds less than he weighed in 1929 was a serious mistake on the part of the Republicans. There'll be too many women candidates clamoring for the office.—Life.

Fort Myers Makes 1st Move Against Bondholders' Writ

Fort Myers, Apr. 15.—The city made its first legal move recently against litigation instituted recently by a bondholder to force payment of delinquent interest and principal.

City Attorney W. Whitehurst said he would hear arguments on the motion to quash in chambers Monday.

The city attorney bases his action on the contention that taxes collected for operating expenses cannot be used for any other purpose.

Among them, he named the alleged falsification of Krueger & Wolf financial statements; reports of delinquent taxes; and the House tax bill, with its tax on security transfer.

The committee's failure to approve information about bear raids caused dissatisfaction among some of its members over the conduct of the inquiry.

This was opposed by administration members, and the issue was postponed at least until after the completion of the current phase of the inquiry into bear raids.

Massie Facing Quiz At Hands Of Prosecutor

Massie, his mother-in-law and co-defendant, had plotted Kahakawai's abduction, aided by E. J. Ford and Albert O. Jones, and how the ruse had been carried out by which Kahakawai had been brought to the Fortunate house.

Massie said he remembered nothing thereafter until he was taken to the police station.

Massie answered guardedly as Kahakawai's cross-examination. The witness denied having intended to kill Kahakawai. He said he had taken his pistol to the Fortunate home "to scare" the victim.

Clarence Darrow, head of the defense, was a tactical witness but before Massie told his story, Darrow previously had named Massie as "the man who held the compass and had said the defendant would plead insanity."

The prosecution demanded to know what form of insanity the defense would plead. Darrow said he did not know, as plaintiffs had disagreed on the point.

The court held that the defense need not answer the prosecution's demand.

Forty-five persons passed to attend the trial, but the trial, held at 10:30 a. m. today, was held in the courtroom.

Members of the recently organized Anti-American Political Club held their first meeting at 8 p. m. yesterday afternoon with several candidates for public office in Seminole County addressing the group, consisting about 25 of the members.

A MAY DAY PARTY

Who bids us come with nimble feet and snapping finger tips— I am the Spring, the Spring, the Spring with laughter on my lips!

To have a most delightful May Day Party the hostess must only consider the underlying anxiety which bubbles up in everything and everywhere at this delicious time of year.

Let her fill her house with flowers—paper flowers will do nicely and the Ten Cent Store will serve an abundant source of supply. But on the most have hundreds of paper to scatter through living room, dining room, halls and chambers, and she will do well to make some herself.

Blowing birds may be borrowed—from a bird store or pet shop, and placed or hung about in their little wooden cages to further the illusion of a spring day with their trills and warblings.

It is best to permit the guests to come singly—too many flowers are impossible at a May Day party, so suggest that each participant do his bit—you might suggest it tentatively by sending your invitation like this—

Flask and white spring flowers In a basket for Come bring them to a neighbor's house The first night in May! P.S. The party begins at eight o'clock.

If you have a large room for dancing, rig up a May Pole in the center. It is easily done by means of a clothes pole thrust into a Christmas tree holder. Paint the pole a lovely color, a warm Italian blue for instance, and wind about it a garland of gay flowers and green leaves.

A Flower Hung Bowler In the corner of the room a little bowler may be arranged for dispensing cool drinks to thirty dancers, and the bowler itself may be very pretty and decorative.
