BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

DO NOT CRY DOWN THOSE WE KNEW WHEN THEY WERE NOTHING...

AMERICAN HISTORY

From Spirits: Francis and John Alden lie at rest...

Across the hills their cottage still remains.

Dest of summer, deluge of the rains...

We are drawn together in that hour.

We pause a moment, pick a ragged flower...

And remember too, that all does not glitter that is gold.

We stare as that most of the 7,000,000 people who live in Barcelona...

Grassfruit is now 'not less than $2 cents a box on the trees.

Remains only to find the buyers...

Another qualification of Justice Frankfurter for his place on the Supreme Court...

The state radio station, WRUF, shows a $12,000 increase in its expenditures...

The President lost in his battle with Congress for a $275,000,000 appropriation...

The 25 prisoners balked at assorted cold meat sandwiches one night and continued their strike...

DECAPITATED BY TRAIN

SOUTH BAY, Fla. (AP)—William Gardner, 51, committed suicide yesterday by placing his head in the path of a sugar cane train...

Automobile owners paid $23,000,000 in taxes in Florida during the fiscal year of 1938.

Hitler's Contribution

If there had ever been any doubt as to the future course of Nazi Germany under Hitler rule, the Reichsfuehrer made it perfectly clear in his address to the Reichstag yesterday...

But Hitler made it plain that Germany intends to go right ahead with the Nazi program. Just what the program may consist of, he did not make entirely clear...

But what must have been especially disturbing to England and France was Hitler's comment on the solidarity of the Rome-Berlin Axis.

That may be grounds for believing that Germany entertains no territorial ambitions against either France or the German empire.

There's Hitler's contribution to the peace of the world.

What The Tourist Likes

As long as Sanford is considering ways and means of developing itself into a tourist resort, a recent survey conducted by Fortune magazine, showing what kind of a person the tourist is, and what he likes to do, should prove of help.

"Nearly all of them with incomes in excess of $7500 a year travel," says the St. Petersburg Independent reviewing the Fortune survey.

"More than 60 percent of both sexes listed swimming as a favorite sport. More than half of the men and nearly a third of the women listed golfing.

"Half the winter vacationists said their favorite vacation environment was the seashore. Mountains ranked second (because of skiing and winter sports) with less than nine percent.

"Florida is in a class by itself, too. The survey showed the state ranking first choice for a winter vacation with 35 percent of those questioned.

Uses Strong Odor Instead Of Strong Arm

RACINE, Wis., Jan. 31.—(AP)—Racine county's new sheriff, Miles Hulet, conquered a hunger strike at the jail with the aid of aromas from the kitchen.

The 25 prisoners balked at assorted cold meat sandwiches one night and continued their strike the next morning when they were served sweet rolls. They wanted more to eat, they declared.

At noon, the sheriff wistfully carried pork shanks and sauerkraut. The cooking odors helped the prisoners' stubbornness. They ate heartily.

Don't Make A Bogey Of Papa, Mamas Say

LONDON, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Qualities which constitute the ideal father have been outlined by Doctor D. H. Giffen, Medical Officer of Health for Enfield. For instance:

"Before and during the first months of his child's life the father must be sympathetic and tolerant, be prepared to give up much of his leisure to his wife.

"Fathers should not insist on having the radio blaring forth to the detriment of the child, and should remember that it is harmful for children to be in an atmosphere laden with tobacco smoke.

"It is the mother's duty to see that father is not held up to his children as a 'bogey-man'."

Cocoa Residents Look Forward To Canaveral Hearing

COCOA, Fla., Jan. 30.—This section of Florida expects to see a long way towards completion of its dream of a harbor at Cape Canaveral at a hearing by the United States District Engineer at the Cocoa Municipal Auditorium on Monday, Feb. 13.

During the past six months, C. C. Kirkpatrick, nationally known traffic analyst, has been conducting a traffic survey of Central Florida in behalf of Atlantic Peninsula Corporation, to which he has offered to spend $5,500,000 on harbor improvements, if the port project is approved.

Atlantic Peninsula Corporation is asking the federal government to dredge a channel about one mile long across the Canaveral peninsula to the Banana River and to build the necessary protective jetties.

The corporation will agree to build piers, wharves, warehouses, precooling and refrigeration plant, and nine miles of roads and causeways across both the Indian and Banana Rivers, shortening the distance between Canaveral and U. S. 1 at City Point, near Cocoa, by some 15 miles and reducing the distance from Orlando to Canaveral to only 65 miles.

The many similarities apparent from the start between the two countries, each ruled by a single party which ruthlessly crushes all opposition, increase with every new move of the German government.

Activities Of Bird Conservation Committee Of Garden Club Reviewed

The Bird Conservation activities of the Sanford Garden Club have been of varied types this past week-end. On Friday afternoon 14 Garden Club members and their friends made a field trip to Tuscawilla, the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Papworth to see what could be seen in the way of bird life.

There was a high wind accompanied by low temperature which was not good for birding. Regardless of the conditions 36 species of birds were seen. The wish was expressed by those on the field trip that the next Nature Walk be early in the coming month.

Those on the Nature Walk to Tuscawilla were: Mrs. Fred Wilson, Mrs. H. M. Papworth, Mrs. Wade Carpenter, Mrs. F. E. Holz, Mrs. S. C. Dickerson, Mrs. J. H. Root, Mrs. G. L. Loucks, Miss Nona Wylly, Mrs. O. J. Pope, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Mason and of Sanford, Mrs. Joseph Raddin, Mrs. Smith and Mr. Himes.

The other activity of the Bird Conservation Committee of the Sanford Garden Club was the Bird Contest. A great deal of enthusiasm was shown by the 28 entrants in the contest. The entries began pouring in by 7:30 o'clock Saturday morning and continued to come in until the time of judging.

Of the 35 entries there were 61 houses large and small, painted and unpainted, stained and covered with bark. There were covered stations of the merry-go-round type, triple decks and others with screened floors. Some of the most unique entries were the roosting box, an adult entry; the Woodpecker box made from a telephone post, the cat-gard, and the merry-go-round feeding station, all in the juvenile group.

Due to the interest and co-operation of Mrs. James Gut in securing the use of the window space of 116 Magnolia Avenue for this week it is possible for everyone who is interested in seeing the complete exhibit of the Bird Contest to do so. Attached to each exhibit is the name of the entrant and the type of exhibit entered.

The only entry not on display is the entry entered by Laurelle Dutton of the Sanford Junior High. It will appear in full in the next weekly "Natter's Ways" in The Sanford Herald.

Karl Nordgren walked away with the prizes in the adult group. He received first prize for the Roosting Box, The prize awarded was the look, "The Hawks Of North America" by John Richard May. The prize given for the class of "Other Bird Houses" was an annual membership in the Florida Audubon Society. Mr. Nordgren was awarded this prize on his Crested Flycatcher box. In the adult group the third prize of mixed seed for wild birds was given to Mr. Nordgren for his triple-decker feeding station.

In the juvenile group the judges awarded Wayne Faltz of Wilson school, Paola first place in the Martin House class. He was given a copy of Roger Tory Peterson's book, "A Field Guide To The Birds." Honorable mention went to Thomas Hanson of the Sanford Grammar School for his Martin House entry. So close were the exhibits in measuring up to the requirements for a Florida Wren House and a Bluebird House that the judges were compelled to make their decision for first place a tie between Melvin Dekle and John Belynt of the Sanford Junior High School. To each boy was given an annual membership in the Florida Audubon Society. They were urged to attend the annual meeting soon to be held in Winter Park at the Annie Russell Theatre. There were so many attractive and very worthwhile entries in the class of "Other Bird Houses" that the judges asked permission of the Bird Contest Committee to award two second prizes instead of honorable mention. To Charlotte True of Wilson School, Paola, went two pounds of seed for Wild Birds as a prize for her unique Red Headed Woodpecker house. The other prize of two pounds of seed went to Clifton Perry of Croombs Academy for his excellent Florida Wren House. Harold Hall of Seminole High School placed first in the Feeding Station Class with his Merry-Go-Round feeding station. He was presented with four pounds of seed for wild birds. Laurelle Dutton was given honorable mention for her original feeding station. The judges also asked permission to grant Laurelle Dutton a prize for her story on "How I Attract Birds To My Home." She received two Blitz Theatre tickets.

To everyone entering the contest the Sanford Garden Club gave the leaflet "Fruits Attractive To Birds—Florida." To each school child entering the contest was also given a bird leaflet containing one color plate of a bird and another picture of the same bird and coloring. In each leaflet was interesting information regarding the bird pictured.

Those entering the Bird Contest are: John Belynt, Junior High, Bluebird box; Melvin Dekle, Junior High, Florida Wren; David Howard, Grammar School, Bluebird; Charles Stum, Lyman School, Bluebird; Elmer Wilno, Lyman School, Violet Green Swallow; Frederick W. B. Line, Lyman School, Chickadee; Billy LaBree, Lyman, Tree Swallow; Clifton Perry, Croombs, Florida Wren; William Earle, Junior High, Florida Wren; Ellsworth Harper, Grammar School, House Wren; Carolyn Rosier, Junior High, Cat Gard; Laurelle Dutton, Junior High, Feeding Station, Story; Karl Nordgren, Roosting box, Screech Owl box, Red Headed Woodpecker box, Crested Flycatcher box, Bluebird box, Feeding Station, Florida Wren; Thomas Hanson, Elmer Hall, Lyman, House Wren; Harold Hall, Seminole High, Feeding Station; Charlotte True, Wilson School, Red Headed Woodpecker; Ralph Odum, Wilson School, Florida Wren; Marjorie Walters, Wilson School, Florida Wren; Clyde Brunson, Wilson School, Bluebird; Dede Jones, Grammar School, House Wren; Wayne Faltz, Wilson School, Martin House; and a boy whose name was not secured entered a Florida Wren box.

Many of the exhibits will be for sale by the exhibitors when they claim them Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock, Feb. 4.

The Bird Contest Committee composed of Mrs. Roy Williams, Miss Nona Wylly, Mrs. S. C. Dickerson, Mrs. Alan Moseley and Mrs. C. R. Mason is sincerely grateful to those who helped make this contest a success. Especially does it wish to publicly thank Mr. James Gut, Mr. Joe Marentette, Mr. Henry Russell, The Sanford Herald, the Seminole County Sentinel, and the judging committee composed of Miss Ruth Hand, Mrs. Harry Heeren, Mr. C. R. Mason, Mr. Elton Moughton, and Mr. E. B. Stowe.

Fredric March Stars In 'There Goes My Heart'

Fredric March and Virginia Bruce romp through the merry adventures of the year in "There Goes My Heart," Hal Roach's gay comedy romance, which begins a two day engagement at the Ritz Theatre on Wednesday.

The story casts Virginia as a madcap heiress who tries to run out on her fortune and March as a reporter who tries to run out on his boss.

Virginia gives up her yacht for a job in a bargain basement and finds a new world full of walk-up apartments, a kind-hearted salesgirl and a eccentric motorman.

Then into her life comes the roving reporter; and the pair have a barrel of fun eating hamburgers, visiting skating rinks, riding in the subway—and falling in love.

The new streamlined Patry Kelly heads the supporting cast as the electric vibrator demonstrator who befriends the poor little rich girl, and versatile Al. Moore plays one of his madcap roles as Patry's subway motorman sweetheart, who works all night and studies chiropractic by day.

Nancy Carroll returns to the screen in an important featured role, while others who are prominently cast are Eugene Pallette, Etienne Girardot, Claude Gillingwater and Arthur Lake.

The screen play for "There Goes My Heart" was prepared by Eddie Moran and Jack Jerns from an original story by Ed Sullivan, the famous columnist.

Norman Z. McLeod directed the production, which marks Hal Roach's first picture under his new releasing contract with United Artists.

Nazi Friendship Is Desired By Britons, Chamberlain Says

The most enthusiastic reaction came from Rome where Fascists interpreted Hitler's promise for aid as strengthening their hand for colonial bargaining with France.

United States officials looked for increased German trade competition in South America.

Great privation and suffering were reported, meanwhile, from the Spanish side of the French-Spanish border where thousands of refugees fleeing before insurgent armies were concentrated.

Chairman Pittman (D-Nev) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said last night that if Adolf Hitler's future actions "are as tolerant as his Reichstag speech yesterday there will be no fear of any immediate war."

Pittman, who heard Hitler's address by radio, told reporters his preliminary study disclosed "no demands based solely on force."

"As that exists," the Nevada Senator added, "it is very encouraging."

Senator King (D-Utah) took a different view, saying the talk was an indication that Hitler and Mussolini "have conspired to reorganize the map of Europe."

"The democratic nations might just as well make up their minds," King said, "that the Nazi and Fascist governments are going to make war—economic or political—against democracies."

The Hitler speech was regarded by some officials as a direct reply and challenge to President Roosevelt's opening message to Congress in which the President upheld democracy as contrasted with dictator rule.

A number of officials of the State Department intend to be broadcast and then read telegraphic accounts of it. They reserved official comment until after a complete study.

Officials close to the State Department regarded as highly significant Hitler's declaration that Germany would support Italy in any fight.

They feared this might encourage Mussolini to take a strong action in furtherance of his territorial claims against France.

Principal interest here, however, centered on Hitler's remarks about relations with the United States in view of their present strained state. He was regarded as referring to President Roosevelt and the United States when he said "we live in a time filled by the 'chicks of democratic uplifters' and added that 'spokesmen for these democratic countries laud the superiority of the democracies. They do it so far as their countries are concerned but we have absorbed 7,000,000 unemployed, thanks to our regime.'"

He was regarded as referring to President Roosevelt and the United States when he said "we live in a time filled by the 'chicks of democratic uplifters' and added that 'spokesmen for these democratic countries laud the superiority of the democracies. They do it so far as their countries are concerned but we have absorbed 7,000,000 unemployed, thanks to our regime.'"

Officials close to the State Department regarded as highly significant Hitler's declaration that Germany would support Italy in any fight.

City Invokes Law To Complete Bond Refund Program

(Continued From Page One) than 61 percent of the holders of Sanford bonds had signed their approval of the refund of $5,274,000 in 1937, to bear interest graduating from one percent the first 10 years to 2-1/2 percent the last decade of a 40-year period.

An additional $620,000 in bonds was also refunded in 1937 and validated at the same time of the above issue, March 10, 1937.

Officials who signed the petition for bankruptcy claimed in the instrument that the City of Sanford was being operated on a 15-mill levy for expenses and that such expenses were "held to a minimum."

The petition stated that the municipality was now insolvent because of failure to refund the remaining $246,000 of general obligation bonds, all of which mature between now and 1956.

Officials who signed the petition included Mayor Edward Higgins, M. J. Lodge, Walter S. Coleman, H. James Gut and G. E. Rollins, City Commissioners.

"In this connection, it is well to remember that the merchant must make a sound, regular statement of his bill, and in order to do this, and maintain his credit standing, he must have not only your patronage but the reasonably prompt payment of your accounts as well.

"We are not forgetting that in the co-operative picture presented by the merchant has a very definite part. He must supply merchandise of a quality, style, variety and price to be acceptable, as well as satisfactory service.

"Your city government has been complimented by impartial observers as being very efficient and economical—and this is in the face of a staggering bonded indebtedness. In my contacts with some of the officials, I have thus far observed no signs—they are not infallible, but I believe honestly intent on doing a good job. Let's give them our support and co-operation. Help them by prompt payment of license fees, taxes, etc. Don't accuse your city fathers of being fools or worse simply because you do not agree with all the details of their decisions or actions. "I am persuaded that the philosophy of Ben Franklin, illustrated by his remarks upon signing the Declaration of Independence, can be used to good advantage in Sanford. Ben said: 'We must all hang together, or we shall hang separately. Let us all give and take a little, but hang together and boost Sanford.'

"The Merchants Association of Sanford is now sending out questionnaires for the purpose of learning what needed merchandise is not carried in Sanford—if the price is right, and the service good or bad.

"Your frank and full response to these questionnaires will be of vital help. We ask for your co-operation."

Outline Of State Deficits Given By Comptroller Lee

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 31.—(AP)—Comptroller J. M. Lee told the State Budget Commission yesterday that the 1937 Legislative Budget failed by $7,503,950 to balance its appropriations with revenues.

It authorized expenditures of $20,282,958 from the general revenue for the two-year fiscal period which will end June 30.

Already, however, officials have trimmed the difference by $996,743 through non-expenditure of authorized appropriations.

The remainder of the prospective deficit is based upon amounts contracted before the fiscal biennium ends.

The comptroller's figures will be printed in the Budget Commission's report to the 1939 Legislature which convenes in April.

"This is what I think will be the condition of the State," Lee said.

"We've got to find that money if the Legislature means for us to spend what it appropriated. If it means that, it should provide the money."

Lee's operations from the general revenue fund, Lee estimated, will exceed the revenues by about $2,000,000.

Other appropriations which have not been expended include $87,500 for the Everglades National Park; $50,000 for the St. Augustine Historical program; $100,000 for a Spanish-American war memorial at Tampa; $20,000 for the State Employment Service; $250,000 for maintenance of the tuberculosis hospital at Oklawaha; about $175,000 difference between amounts budgeted and amounts paid for county school and $300,000 for the State hospital.

The Legislature's appropriation for public schools, Lee said, was $23,117,911 for the two years, but definitely specified revenues will be $2,300,712 short of that total, so that the difference, if it is paid, will have to come out of the general
