Kids Can Leave The Gift Of Life

DEAR ABBY: I am an 11-year-old boy who has been reading your column in the Camden Courier Post ever since I can remember. I sure have learned a lot. One thing it got me to thinking about is this: If I should die or get killed accidentally before I am a grown man, I would like to donate by eyes and kidneys to some young kid who needs them.

DEAR ROSITA: Profitable, it is. Tasteful, no. I don't recommend it.
DEAR ABBY: My 15-year-old son needed to see a doctor in an emergency situation, so I called our physician. He was not available, so he recommended another doctor. I called him, and was told that he, too, was busy, but if I brought my son in between patients at 12:45 p.m., he would see me.

Correction
In the March 11 "Cook Of The Week" column, Beth Nicholas' recipe for Fudge Pie was incorrect. The Herald regrets the error and makes the following correction:

Suck In That Gut Help Cure Hernia

DEAR DR. LAMB — My doctor told me that I have a hiatal hernia in my stomach and to eat small meals and avoid spicy foods. I take Maalox every day. Could you tell me more about this type of hernia? Does it limit my activities? Someone told me I shouldn't push a vacuum cleaner as that could cause the hernia to strangulate. Is that true? I am about 30 pounds overweight and I would like to start an exercise program to lose weight. I have lost 13 pounds because I eat less now. I would like to tighten my muscles, especially those of my stomach.

DEAR READER — A hiatal hernia is caused by a portion of the stomach sliding through the hole in the diaphragm where the esophagus (food tube) passes through to connect to the stomach. That hole gets larger when the abdominal contents are under pressure and that is often the problem. It is a frequent complication of pregnancy, caused by the enlarged uterus. But anyone, man or woman, can have one. An important factor is the accumulation of fat inside the abdominal cavity. That is why it is good that you are losing weight. As you empty out your abdominal cavity, the pressure to push the stomach through the diaphragm hole decreases.

WIN AT BRIDGE

North jumped to game and both Wests opened the four of clubs to East's king. And for a quick, deliciously different supper, make Petite Salmon Souffles — salmon-topped English muffins, crowned by a mild, natural Swiss cheese-enriched soufflé and baked to a crusty golden perfection.

CHEESES: Mild And Mellow

When it comes to taste, a sharp, pungent cheese — much like a heady, aged wine — is a great gustatory experience once in a while. But a steady diet of palate-shocking cheeses can tire even the greatest connoisseur.

— Mellow Monterey Jack — A mild cheese with a growing popularity due to a creamy white color, wholesome flavor, and soft and moist texture that is great for snacking and cooking. Monterey Jack takes its name from Monterey, California, where it was first made by monks, and it's a good example of an American-made natural cheese carrying traditional tastes into today's kitchens.

— Melling Mozzarella — A native Italian cheese familiar to all pizza and lasagna lovers. In the Old Country, it was first made from buffalo milk. Today, most Italian-produced and popular American-made natural mozzarellas are cow's milk cheeses.

— Butterfly Gouda — A familiar sight with its flattened wheel shape and protective, distinctive red wax covering. The cheese originated in the Dutch town of Gouda in the 13th century. Its color is creamy, its texture buttery, its flavor rich and mild.

— Smooth Muenster — Originally a German favorite, French and German muensters are pungent and sharp-tasting, while American and Danish muensters are smooth and mild. All muensters are semi-soft, and they shred beautifully for cooking.

— Mild Brick — Like Monterey Jack, brick is a native U.S. cheese. It was first made in the 1870s in Wisconsin in the traditional bricklike shape that gives it its name, and it is one of the most popular all-purpose cheeses for slicing, snacking and cooking.

— Nutlike Swiss — A perennial favorite, this flavorful cheese with its distinctive holes (which develop during the ripening period) came to us first from Switzerland. It is now made in America — milder, but wildly popular.

— Natural Cheeses in Your Kitchen — For centuries, mild natural cheese has been the creative cook's great friend. It adds, and can be the sole source of protein in main dishes. It enhances, but never overwhelms, the flavors of other ingredients and its own flavor is heightened by melting.

— Petite Salmon Souffles — A creative variation on the Italian theme — baked fettuccine and mozzarella, cut in squares and topped with Italian sausage and a colorful garden array of vegetables.

Pennywise And Protein Rich

First, consider the per-pound price of natural cheese and the amount of protein it contains, the number of servings it yields, and the great variety of meals it makes for any occasion. Since all cheese is made from milk (mostly cow's milk, whole or partly skimmed), it's a top source of protein and calcium — with other vitamins and minerals. A pound of cheese goes a long way for main dishes, snacks, sandwiches, side dishes, desserts. Or you can quickly cube it for the hors d'oeuvres tray ... or slice it to brighten up a buffet, and extra pieces of natural cheese can be shredded for tasty toppings or sauces. Petite Salmon Souffles, left, and Monterey Jack Filled Beef Rolls are great dishes using cheese.

THE ANYTHING OMELET (1 Serving)

Has your home garden produced a bumper crop? Got some leftovers you'd hate to waste? Turn them into nutritious, delicious elegance by enveloping them in an omelet. Use one or more filling foods to total about one-third to 1/2 cup for each omelet. Flavor the omelet, filling or both with about 1/4 to 1/2 teaspoon of your favorite herb or spice, or herb or spice combination from salad dressing or other flavoring mixes. Multiply the omelet recipe for as many servings as you need and use 1/2 cup of the egg mixture for each 2-egg omelet (1/4 cup for 3-egg omelet). For a sweet dessert omelet, substitute a pinch of sugar for the salt and pepper.

2 to 3 eggs
2 to 3 tablespoons water
1/4 to 1/2 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
1 tablespoon butter

Mix eggs, water, salt and pepper until blended. Heat butter in 7-10 inch omelet pan or skillet over medium-high heat until just hot enough to sizzle a drop of water. Pour in egg mixture. (Mixture should immediately set at edges.) With an inverted pancake turner, carefully push cooked portions at edges toward center so uncooked portions can reach hot pan surface, tilting pan and moving cooked portions as necessary. While top is still moist and creamy-looking, fill, if desired. With pancake turner, fold omelet in half or roll, and invert onto plate with a quick flip of the wrist or slide from pan onto plate.

Shrimp dish perfect for Lent.

Shrimp: Lenten Specialty That's Anything But Dull

Traditionally the Lenten season has featured rather dull and somewhat bland foods. Not true today! During the 1981 season shrimp is readily available and delicious recipes abound. Shrimp is the perfect seafood—complete with protein, minerals, vitamins, and an unforgettable flavor. In addition they are low in calories (very important information for the diet conscious), easily digestible, and can be prepared in a "jiffy." It's no wonder that shrimp is recognized as America's most popular delicacy from the sea.

The Florida Department of Natural Resources suggest Shrimp Noodle Dinner Casserole as a special method of celebrating Lent. Whether for a special party or the family supper menu, this is a casserole that proves to be anything but dull and uninteresting!

SHRIMP NOODLE DINNER CASSEROLE
3/4 pound cooked, peeled and deveined shrimp, fresh or frozen
1 package (8 ounces) medium noodles

2 cans (10 3/4 ounces each) condensed cream of mushroom soup
1 cup dairy sour cream
one-third cup sliced green onion
1/2 teaspoon dried dill weed
1/2 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
1 medium size tomato, sliced
Fresh dill sprigs for garnish, (optional)

Thaw shrimp if frozen; drain. Cook noodles as directed on package; drain well. Combine and mix soup, sour cream, onion and dill weed; stir in noodles. Cut 1/4 of the shrimp into thirds and fold cut shrimp and cheese into noodle mixture. Spoon into a shallow 2-quart baking dish. Cover dish with aluminum foil, crimping it to edges of dish. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees F., 20 minutes. Remove from oven; remove foil. Arrange remaining shrimp in rows on top of casserole. Return to oven and continue baking 10 to 15 minutes or until hot, and bubbly. Garnish with half tomato slices and fresh dill weed sprigs, if desired. Makes 6 servings.

SURPRISE CHOCOLATE EGGS

DESSERTS: Get A Head Start On Easter

For youngsters of all ages, Easter calls for jelly beans, marshmallow chicks, Easter bunnies and brightly colored eggs.

Parents who remember with nostalgia their Sunday school or family egg hunts on Easter following church will share this tradition with their small ones this year.

The idea of the Easter egg hunt was imported from Europe in the 18th century. Youngsters were told that the Easter bunny had laid his eggs throughout the house and the child who found the most eggs would win a prize.

Dolly Madison got the country started on another Easter egg binge with the first Easter egg rolling contest at the White House in 1892.

Adults with a sweet tooth may share a special Easter egg with family and friends this year. This is actually two tortes layered with a chocolate confection, whipped cream and raisins and baked in the shape of an egg.

These truly are a surprise taste treat. Make them at least 24 hours before serving. This allows the flavors to mellow and layers of pastry to soften for easier slicing. Let your imagination fly when decorating the tops.

SURPRISE CHOCOLATE EGGS
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup semi-sweet chocolate bits (6-ounce package)
2 teaspoons vanilla
1 package (11 ounces) pie crust mix
2 cups whipping cream, whipped
1 cup California raisins
Colored candy crystals

Prepare 24 hours before needed. Heat water in small saucepan. Stir in sugar, cinnamon and chocolate bits. Cook and stir over very low heat until chocolate is melted and mixture is smooth. Add vanilla. Cool to room temperature. Pour pie crust mix into bowl. Blend in all but 1-3 cup of the cooled chocolate sauce. Divide into 6 equal parts. On waxed paper, draw and cut out oval pattern—about 5-7 inches—(to resemble an egg shape. Press dough onto pattern. Invert on baking sheet and peel off paper. Repeat for remaining dough. Bake again at 400-degrees for 8 to 10 minutes or until just firm. Let cool in pans 10 minutes before removing to rack. Then cool completely. Swirl remaining chocolate sauce into whipped cream. Spread all chocolate layers with filling. Sprinkle each with raisins. Stack 3 layers for each egg. Place egg on plate and refrigerate overnight. Decorate top of each egg with more raisins and colored candy crystals. Cut each egg into 6 thick slices to serve. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 2 Easter eggs, about 12 servings.

CITRUS ZUCCHINI CAKE
1 cup butter or margarine, softened
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon cloves
2 cups packed light brown sugar
4 eggs
3 cups sifted all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
one-third cup Florida orange juice
1 cup shredded unpaired zucchini

In large mixing bowl cream butter, orange rind, cinnamon, nutmeg, cloves and brown sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt; blend into creamed mixture alternately with orange juice. Stir in zucchini. Turn into a greased 10-inch tube pan. Bake in 350 degree F. oven 55 to 65 minutes, or until cake tester inserted in cake comes out clean. Cool 10 minutes, remove from pan and cool completely. Spread top with White Glaze (below) and garnish, if desired, with silvered orange rind and shredded zucchini.

WHITE GLAZE
1 1/2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
1 1/2 teaspoons butter or margarine, softened
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
2 to 3 tablespoons milk
Beat all ingredients in bowl until smooth.

Cheesecake lovers really will love this new version of the Popover dessert. "Pineapple-Yogurt Cheesecake" features a smooth yogurt-cream cheese filling, flavored with rich pineapple milk, almond extract and vanilla. The unusual coconut-yogurt crust is a perfect complement for the tangy filling.

Un drained crushed pineapple, combined with a little sugar, is boiled down to make a flavorful concentrate which is used both in the filling and as a topping after the cheesecake is baked.

Imaginative and easy to put together, this cheesecake is the perfect answer for a family treat or as a delectable finale to a luncheon or dinner party.

PINEAPPLE-YOGURT CHEESECAKE
1 (8 1/2 oz.) can crushed pineapple
1/4 cup sugar
Coconut GINGER Crust
1 (8 oz.) package cream cheese
1 (3 oz.) package cream cheese
4 large eggs
1 (8 oz.) container plain yogurt
2 teaspoons vanilla
1/4 teaspoon almond extract
1/4 teaspoon salt

Turn pineapple into small saucepan, add 1/4 cup sugar, and boil rapidly 6 to 8 minutes, until syrup is absorbed, watching carefully as syrup thickens to avoid scorching. Prepare Coconut GINGER Crust, and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F) for 10 minutes. Meanwhile, soften cream cheese and beat smooth with remaining 1/4 cup sugar. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Add yogurt, vanilla, almond extract and salt, and beat smooth. Fold in 1/3rd cup of the pineapple. Pour into baked crust, and return to oven. Bake 40 minutes, until barely set in center. Open oven door, and let stand 20 minutes. Remove cake from oven, then cool at room temperature before refrigerating. Just before serving, top with remaining pineapple. Makes 1 (8-inch) cheesecake, about 8 servings.

Coconut GINGER Crust: Combine 1 cup fine zwieback crumbs, 1/3rd cup flaked coconut, 3 tablespoons brown sugar, 1/4 teaspoon ground ginger and 1/4 cup melted butter; mix well. Press over bottom and about 1 inch up sides of 8-inch spring form pan.

BOOGIEING AT CONCERT

The Sanford Civic Center was alive with the wonderful sound of music Monday night when Seminole Mutual Concert Association presented the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra to nearly a full house of SMCA supporters, right, as the final concert of the 1980-81 season. Shortly after the theme song "I'm Getting Sentimental Over You," the irresistible beat got to several couples who danced in the rear of the auditorium even before the orchestra's infamous "Boogie Woogie" was sounded before the intermission. Mr. and Mrs. John Mercer, left, were among the dancers to "boogie on down."

Tornadoes Hit Seminole, Two Other Counties; 11 Hurt

A Seminole County man was one of 11 persons injured early today when tornadoes ripped through three central Florida counties, smashing homes and house trailers, overturning cars, and toppling trees and utility poles. Several other homes in the area sustained heavy damage, but no serious injuries were reported. Florida Power Corp. spokesman Tracy Smith said there were no power outages in the area as a result of the storm. Just before 1 a.m., a twister hit the southeast edge of Orlando near the international airport. It resulted in only one injury—to a little girl cut by flying glass—but it hopped along a mile-wide path for seven miles. Several homes were destroyed and many damaged. Preliminary damage was estimated at $500,000. At 2:15 a.m. a third tornado chewed a five-mile-long swath through the St. Cloud area of Osceola County, 20 miles south of Orlando. Nine persons were injured, two seriously. Cars were overturned, house trailers and a home destroyed. Preliminary

FIRST STEP'S A LULU
A tornado that roared through the Oviedo area early today made a few minor adjustments in the location of Susan Sonafelt's home: it picked it up off its foundation and slammed it down six feet away. Sonafelt, 20, was inside at the time, but was not hurt. The tornado struck about 12:45 a.m. and damaged at least four South Seminole County homes. Trees were blown down, and cars overturned, but there were no power outages, according to a Florida Power Corp. spokesman. No serious injuries were reported.

Workers Comp For Romance?

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A failed on-the-job romance has made Michael P. Muesig so desperate he is asking the state Supreme Court to find him eligible for "worker's" compensation benefits. Muesig told the court his troubles began when Stephanie Launer came to work at the Eureka, Calif., office of the State Transportation Department and began to pursue him. He said he was not attracted to her at first, but he began developing an interest and his supervisors at the office gave him support for the endeavor. They started dating and a year later he asked her to marry him, but she refused. After her refusal, his interest in her became "obsessive and eventually became a disabling psychiatric condition," Muesig said. Muesig said he met Miss Launer because of his job and his supervisors were responsible for his continued pursuit which led to his psychological condition. The State Court of Appeal refused to accept the argument and Muesig then asked the high court to decide whether he was entitled to worker's compensation benefits.

Heathrow Tug Of War:

Paulucci Says Don't Annex

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer
Jeno Paulucci has written a letter to Lake Mary Mayor Walter Sorenson, making the position of his family clear about the pending annexation by the city of the 1,600-acre Heathrow planned unit development property. "We are totally against the annexation," Paulucci's letter said. But, Paulucci's position appears to make little or no difference to the city. "It is the right thing to do," said Sorenson today about the proposed annexation. Sorenson said the matter will be on the agenda for consideration by the city council at its March 26 meeting. "I can understand Mr. Paulucci's desire to develop his property," Sorenson said. "I understand why he wants to quit fooling with this."

Paulucci has also written a letter to Sorenson asking that the city either plan to build a city hall complex on property he sold the city or to sell the property back to him at his original sale price. The city purchased 10 acres from Paulucci on April 23, 1979 for $50,000, with $10,000 down. The city financed the balance with a bank. The bank is being paid $8,000 per year plus interest on the loan. The property is located off Rinehart Road. "It was clearly understood amongst all of us that the reason I accepted a value less than realistic (for the property) was because the whole idea and purpose was that the city of Lake Mary would be building a civic center on the property," Paulucci's letter said.

Death Penalties Upheld

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — The Florida Supreme Court today unanimously upheld the convictions and death sentences of two murderers, one of whom raped and repeatedly stabbed a 94-year-old Gainesville woman living alone. Appeals were denied for Stephen Todd Booker, who killed the elderly woman and has asked to die, and Ronald J. Straight, who tortured and murdered the Jacksonville man who employed him. Lawyers for the two death row inmates appealed on a variety of grounds but the high court held that in each case the murder was "heinous, atrocious and cruel," aggravating circumstances outweighed mitigating factors and execution was proper.

Haig Says Soviets Trying Takeover

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Alexander Haig has backed up the U.S. hard line toward the Soviet Union by accusing the Soviets of trying to take over Central America and training thousands of terrorists. But the lines were blurred somewhat Wednesday by a public conflict of perceptions within the administration. Spokesmen at the White House and the State Department disavowed statements attributed to a "high official" in a Washington interview with the Reuter news agency that went well beyond Haig's headline views. The official — not identified by Reuters but reported by sources to be Richard Pipes, a White House Soviet specialist — said war with the Soviet Union is inevitable unless the Soviets change to a more Western-style government. The interview also said "detente does not exist" and there is no point in negotiating with the Soviets at a summit or on arms control. A spokesman for Haig said, "The secretary has instructed me to say the views expressed do not represent the views of the Reagan administration." Haig, nonetheless, in more than two hours of testimony before the House Foreign Affairs Committee was nearly as critical of Soviet designs on the world. In wide-ranging testimony, Haig said El Salvador is only one entry on a "hit list" of Soviet targets in Central America. The secretary, defending the administration's proposed $5.9 billion security assistance program, was asked about almost every aspect of U.S. foreign policy. Haig warned the committee, if the United States does not move to stop the spread of what he regards as Soviet-sponsored terrorism, "we will find it within our own borders tomorrow."

ALEXANDER HAIG

"When you get to the bottom line of this question, it is the Soviet Union which bears responsibility today for the proliferation and hemorrhaging of international terrorism as we have come to know it," he said. "They maintain training camps in the Soviet Union, in their Eastern European satellites, and in Libya, in which literally thousands of Third World embryo terrorists are being trained." "I think it's time this issue be addressed publicly and be stated forthrightly no matter how much anguish it may give us."

FATAL CRASH

A 67-year-old Sanford man was killed and five people injured Wednesday in a three-vehicle wreck on State Road 46 in the Midway section about a mile east of Sanford. Dead on arrival at Seminole Memorial Hospital was William David Jackson of Mullet Lake Park. Also injured in the 3:25 p.m. crash was Jackson's roommate, 80-year-old Toliver Youngblood; William E. Carter, 25, of 200 Avon St., Port Orange; James R. Little, 19, of 1819 Summerlin Ave., Sanford; David Dodge, 24, of Daytona Beach; and Bruce Duhamel, 30, of Port Orange.
