HIGH SPOTS IN PEACE TREATY. Alsace-Lorraine goes to France. The Saar valley will be temporarily internationalized. Danzig will be permanently internationalized. Germany renounces all territorial rights outside of Europe. Germany recognizes the independence of Poland and Czechoslovakia. The German army is reduced to 100,000 officers and men, and conscription within Germany is abolished. The German navy is reduced to 24 warships and no submarines. Germany may have only 100 unarmed seaplanes, to search for mines off her coast. Germany will pay an indemnity, the amount of which is not yet fixed, the initial payment to be 25,000,000,000 marks, about $6,000,000,000. Germany cedes a large part of her merchant fleet to the allies. Germany agrees to the trial of her ex-kaiser. The disposition of the surrendered German fleet, the German colonies and the German cables is left to future action. The league of nations becomes a living organization.

FINAL COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

festoons of crepe paper in the class colors, purple and white.

Promptly at 5 o'clock the Seniors took their places, with the Freshmen on their left, the Sophomores on their right and the Juniors directly in front of them. It was then the program was carried out.

Miss Lela Hutchinson as class historian was very good.

A glimpse of the future ten years hence, by the class prophets, Miss Lillian Schwartz, assisted by the members of the Junior Class was splendid.

The Seniors were very generous as read in the class will by Miss Alysce Andes.

Much praise should be given the Seniors by their generous gifts to the High School, namely a one hundred dollar Liberty Bond and a drinking fountain in the hall of the High School building.

Miss Nellie Long then presented "The Key to Success" of the Seniors of the Juniors, which was graciously accepted by Miss Adele Rines, their class president.

Miss Helen Hand gave a most delightful little talk, thanking the teachers and all members of both county and local boards and patrons and friends for their help and kindness in making their High School work a success.

This was followed by a song by the High School.

High School Graduation

The concluding number and likewise the most important one was the graduation of the Class 1919 Tuesday evening. This is an exceptionally large one for a high school and Sanford has needs to be justly proud of such a large and splendid class.

The auditorium was beautifully decorated with festoons of white and purple crepe paper, palms, ferns and moss. The entire front of the stage was banked with ferns, forming a lovely background for the bright and happy faces of the Seniors.

"Stars of a Summer Night" was beautifully rendered by the class, with Miss Anna Mason as accompanist. This was followed by the invocation by Dr. C. DeW. Brower.

Miss Helen Hand then delighted the audience with a piano solo, which was most artistically rendered.

Prof. McKinnon then made a short talk and introduced Mr. T. W. Lawton, who gave an outline of the work that had been done by the school, despite the many interruptions and difficulties that occurred this year. He congratulated the schools most highly upon their efficient work. He then told of the improvements that the county had wished to add if possible, such as domestic science, manual training, commercial course and department of music. All of these he hoped would be added in time.

Miss May Thrasher, one of our most talented musicians rendered a piano solo with much feeling and skill.

Prof. McKinnon then introduced the speaker of the evening, Prof. Farr, vice president of the University of Florida who made a splendid address, his theme being "Service."

An announcement by Mr. B. F. Whitner of the local board was then made. This was followed by a piano selection by Miss Izzetta Stone. Prof. McKinnon, with a few chosen words then presented diplomas to twenty young women and men, and certificates to two.

The concluding number of the program was a song by the class, "Black and Gold."

St. Agnes Guild

The annual meeting of the St. Agnes Guild was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert E. Herndon.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. M. Minarik; vice president, Mrs. Archie Betts; secretary, Miss Lillian Shinholser; treasurer, Mrs. W. Gwynn Fox.

After the business of the meeting was attended to a social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Herndon served dainty refreshments.

The next meeting will be held May 25th at the home of Mrs. Earl Burdick.

Reception for Visitors

The ladies of the Methodist church entertained most delightfully Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors in honor of Mesdames J. K. Mettinger of Jacksonville and F. E. Steinmeyer of Live Oak, both former members of the Methodist church here.

Mesdames Thornton, Elder, Spencer and Hagan acted as hostesses. The church parlors were thrown en suite and very beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns.

Two beautiful quartets were sung, "He Sleepeth Not" and "Love's Old Song" by Mesdames J. K. Mettinger, C. P. Herndon, Geo. Fox and W. S. Morgan, which were greatly enjoyed by all.

Another feature of particular interest was reports read by the delegates who attended the annual missionary meeting held in Lakeland, by Mrs. Kelly, delegate of this church, Mrs. J. Lawton Moon, second vice president of the conference and Mrs. F. E. Steinmeyer, superintendent of publicity and study.

Late in the afternoon the ladies served delicious ice cream and several kinds of home made cake.

Engagement Announced

It is with much interest that the friends of Sanford learn of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Geneva Brooks Cason to Mr. John Penh Tomberlin of Pensacola.

The wedding will take place at the Methodist church, June 17th at four o'clock in the afternoon, Enterprise, Florida.

Miss Cason is a talented and popular young woman, and has been connected with the work in the Florida Methodist Orphanage for several years. She is a graduate of Stetson University of Music of 1917 and has been very generous with her music and other talents at Enterprise. It is with many regrets that her friends see her leave this part of our state.

Mr. Tomberlin is a rising young business man of Pensacola, being connected with The Texas Co. of that city in an official way, their many friends wish them happiness in their married life.

Garage Changes Owners

The Allen garage located on the corner of Oak and First streets in the building formerly occupied by the Hill Hardware Co., changed hands this week.

The new owners are W. D. Driver and Blaine Smith, two young men who hail from Tarpon Springs. The new firm name will be Driver & Smith. A quantity of machinery, lathes, etc., is being installed and the new firm will be able to handle all kinds of auto work.

The Allen brothers are leaving for Iowa where they will be employed during the coming summer and fall as tractor operators on a large wheat ranch.

Mothers' Day at M. E. Church

Members of the Methodist congregation of this city who failed to attend the special Mothers' Day services on last Sunday morning missed a rare treat.

The preaching service was confined to a short talk by the pastor, who spoke briefly and interestingly of Mothers' Day, its origin and meaning. The balance of the time was given over to a beautiful song service by the choir, which under the able direction of J. D. Parker, rendered what was considered by many to be one of the best song services heard in Sanford for many months. Mrs. Mettinger, for many years connected with the choir, but now of Jacksonville was present and delighted the congregation with a solo.

Under the direction of Miss Marian Philips, the Juniors of the Sunday school gave several recitations and a song which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Through an oversight the notice of this service did not appear in last week's Herald and the result that many who would have enjoyed this rare entertainment were not present.

The program was as follows:

- Doxology
- Invocation
- Gloria Patri
- Scripture
- Solo, "I'll Wear a White Flower for You" - Lillie Ruth Spencer
- "A Present for Mother" - Mary Helen Rumley
- Home Sweet Home - Choir
- Duet, "Sing Old Hymns to Me" - Mr. Parker, Mrs. Claude Herndon
- "My Ma" - Jack Igou
- Solo, "Dreaming of Home and Mother" - Mrs. Mettinger
- "The Song His Mother Sang" - Emily Bailey
- Chorus, "Making Mother Happy" - Junior Girls
- History of Mothers' Day, Rev. C. W. White
- Anthem, "Heaven is My Home" - Choir

Maines - Masey

Two of Sanford's well known young people were married Sunday night at the Congregational church, Mr. Harley Maines and Miss Bertha Masey. A large number of friends witnessed the ceremony, Rev. Mr. Brower officiating. The bride and groom departed at once for a brief wedding tour but will return to make their home here. The Herald joins in the many congratulations.

Song Recital Program

The numbers to be given by Mrs. Julius Takach Friday evening at the Congregational church include the very latest of the best songs. Here are the titles: "Have You Seen Him in France?" by Ward Stephens; "The Like O' Him," by John Prindle Scott; "God's Service Flag," by Robert H. Bowers; "The Skylark," by Alfred Moffat; "Smilin' Thru," by Arthur Penn; "When Pershing's Men Go Marching into Picardy," by James H. Rogers; "The Dearest Place," by John B. Wells; "De Ol' Ark 's a Moverin'" by David Guion; "O'reatest Miracle of All," by David Guion; "O, Whistle and I'll Come to You, My Lad," Helen Hopokirk; "A Khaki Lad," by Florence Aylward.

The organ numbers of Mrs. Frances Frye are: "Celeste Aida," from Verdi's Aida; "The Prisoner and the Nightingale," Necke; and "Ghost Story," Gurlitt.

The concert begins at half past eight.

Death of Mrs. F. J. McDannel

The following from the Owosso (Mich.) News will be of interest to Sanford people. Mrs. McDannel is well known here where she spent several winters.

Frank McDannel, prominent in Eastern Star circles and a musician and reader of ably died at her home at 617 Grand avenue early this morning. She had been in poor health for two years.

Mrs. McDannel was born in Bryan, Ohio in 1864, and spent her girlhood there. In 1892 she was married to Mr. McDannel and they immediately came to this city where they have resided since.

The deceased, when her health permitted took an active part in the affairs of Abigail chapter, O. E. S., and was past worthy matron of the chapter. She was also active in the Woman's Club. Her banjo playing and reading have featured numerous musical entertainments.

Surviving the deceased are her husband, who is an Ann Arbor train dispatcher and one brother, living in Cleveland.

The funeral will be held at the house Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. o'clock and the body will be taken to Bryan, Ohio, for burial. Rev. F. D. Draper will officiate.

The passing of Mrs. McDannel is an incalculable loss to Owosso and to her many friends.

She was a woman of great ability and talent intellectually. She had an unusual grasp of all public affairs in the state and nation, and was conversant on all questions before the legislature.

She was a musician who had won distinction in concerts and before large private audiences by her banjo playing—one who could render such difficult compositions as Schubert's Serenade and Miserere from Il Trovatore on the stringed instrument.

But better than all she was pre-eminently a lover of her friends and had an unlimited capacity for friendship.

She was one whom it was a delight to know, and whose presence was a joy. One of God's gentlewomen, delicately responsive to all that was fine and good, with the desire and the ability to accomplish great things and do the things that would count for good and the uplift of others.

Although ill health made it impossible for her to realize the longing of her heart, and although her life was cut off in its prime, still the influence of her sweet spirit and the remembrance of her steadfast and unwavering friendship will abide.

Dr. McKinnon Leaves

Rev. J. F. McKinnon left yesterday for a month's vacation. While having recreation he will also have a busy outing. He has engagements to preach, next Sunday at Summerville, S. C., the first Sunday in June at Westminster church, Charlotte, N. C., and the second Sunday in June at the Second Presbyterian church, Washington, D. C. He will also attend Commencement of Davidson College as member of the board of trustees. On his return he will attend the great Laymen's Convention of the Southern Presbyterian church, Atlanta, June 10-12.

Fire at A. D. Smith's

The department was called to the home of A. D. Smith on West First street at noon on Monday to extinguish a blaze that seemed in a far way to do considerable damage.

The fire, which was of unknown origin started in the attic and quickly spread to other parts of the house. It was discovered by neighbors, however, and an alarm turned in. After considerable effort the fire was extinguished but not until a damage of approximately $250 has been sustained.

OUR QUALITY, PRICES, SERVICE AND HONEST-TO-GOODNESS DEALINGS IS JUST WHAT'S DOING IT.

We have from the very beginning tried to give our customers the very best that their money could buy. We have treated them fairly, treated each and every one alike and we find it pays.

It was impossible for us to try and estimate the amount of business we could do the first month, but we did set a figure, an amount we would like to do. And we did it. We more than did it. At the end of the first two weeks we had exceeded the amount we had set for the month. At the end of the third week we had doubled it and at the end of the month we found we had done THREE times the amount of business we had even hoped for.

We appreciate this confidence our friends have placed in us. We have tried our best to please and if you are not already a customer of ours, ask the man that is, he will tell you that at our place you get an honest dollar's worth, regardless of what you are or who you are.

If you are not a customer of ours

Where Do You Buy Your Clothes?

Are you getting value received? Or did you ever stop to figure whether you were or not? Just think it over a little, give us a trial, and we know that you will stay lined up with a store that will make good anything that goes wrong, stand behind every piece of merchandise we put out, and see that you are satisfied.

We carry in addition to our Men's Furnishings, a complete line of hosiery for the lady and child. The Arrow-head Brand, the best money can buy, will be found at our place. We have the child's sox, boy's and misses' stockings and real sure enough guaranteed hose for the lady.

WE WANT TO PROVE WHAT WE SAY GIVE US THE CHANCE

Compare Goodrich 375's with other Ford Car Tires

If you have not used these husky, de luxe tires for the Ford car, go at once to a Goodrich dealer and say to him, 'Give me a Goodrich Three-Seventy-Five.'

Compare it with an ordinary Ford-size tire, and you will find it bigger and burlier in every way.

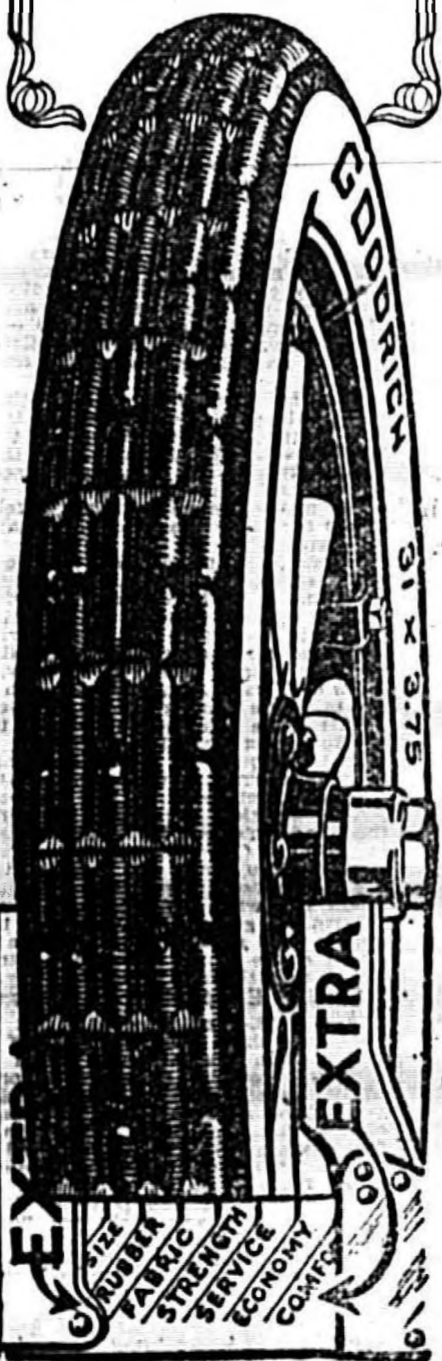

As a matter of figures and measurements, it is an inch bigger on the circumference, and much thicker in the cross-section—that is, a 3 1/2 inch tire.

That extra size means a finer looking, easier riding Ford car to begin, and a longer lived car and tires in the end.

Though 'Three-Seventy-Fives' cost a little more at the outset, built to meet the special needs of the Ford car and bring out its known virtues, they soon reveal a greater dollar economy, which makes it the better buy in the long run.

OFFICIAL SUMMARY OF PEACE TREATY HUNS ARE TO SIGN

FAIR COMPETITION.—Germany undertakes to give the trade of the allied and associated powers assistance and safeguards against unfair competition and in particular to suppress the use of false wrappings and markings and on condition of reciprocity to respect the laws and judicial decisions of the allied and associated states in respect of regional appellations of wine and spirits.

TREATMENT OF NATIONALS.—Germany shall impose no exceptional taxes or restrictions upon the nationals of the allied and associated states for a period of five years unless a separate treaty or act, for an additional five years, German nationality shall not continue to attach to a person who has become a national of an allied or associated state.

MULTILATERAL CONVENTIONS.—Some forty multilateral conventions are annexed to the treaty, and special conditions are attached to Germany's readmission to several.

PREWAR DEBTS.—A system of clearing houses is to be created within three months, one in Germany and one in each allied or associated state which adopts the plan for the payment of prewar debts, including those arising from contracts by which the allied or associated states have assumed the obligations of the German Empire.

ENEMY PROPERTY.—Germany shall restore or pay compensation for property seized or damaged by her, the amount of damages to be fixed by the mixed arbitral tribunals. The allied and associated states may liquidate German property within their territories as compensation for property of their nationals not restored or returned to them by Germany.

INDUSTRIAL PROPERTY RIGHTS.—Industrial, literary and artistic property rights and interests in the allied and associated states shall be restored or paid for by Germany. The allied and associated states may take such measures as they deem necessary to protect their rights.

Section Nine.—The contracting powers agree, whether or not they have signed and ratified the special protocol of January 23, 1912, to amend the special protocol of the League of Nations with respect to the League of Nations Convention of 1911 for the settlement of international disputes.

Section Ten.—Aerial navigation.—Aircraft of the allied and associated powers have full liberty of passage over land and water in German territory, equal treatment with German planes as to use of German airports, and with most favored nation treatment as to international commercial traffic.

Section Eleven.—Freedom of transit.—Germany must grant freedom of transit through her territories by mail or water to persons, goods, ships, cargoes, and mails from or to any of the allied or associated powers, without customs or transit duties, under such conditions as to prohibitions based on nationality, means of transport, or other matters, as may be agreed upon by the allied or associated powers.

Section Twelve.—Railways.—Germany in addition to most favored nation treatment of her railways, agrees to co-operate in the establishment of through ticket services for passengers and baggage; to insure communication by rail between the allied, associated and other states; to allow construction or improvement within twenty-five years of such lines as necessary and to conform her rolling stock to enable its incorporation in traffic of the allied or associated powers.

Section Thirteen.—International labor organization.—Members of the league of nations agree to establish a permanent organization to promote international adjustment of labor conditions, to consist of an annual international labor conference and an international labor office.

Section Fourteen.—Guarantees.—As a guarantee for the execution of the treaty German territory to the west of the Rhine, together with the bridgeheads, will be occupied by allied and associated troops for 15 years' period if the conditions are faithfully carried out by Germany.

Section Fifteen.—Miscellaneous.—Germany agrees to recognize the full validity of the treaties of peace and additional conventions to be concluded by the allied and associated powers with the powers allied with Germany, to agree to the decisions to be taken as to the territories of Austria, Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey and to recognize the new states in the frontiers to be fixed for them.

Section Sixteen.—Modern Slavery.—There is no legal and formal slavery now in any Christian country. It survives in a mild form in most Mohammedan countries. The peonage system of Latin American countries is not much different from slavery, but rests upon a different theory.

Section Seventeen.—The Florida Citrus Exchange.—The Florida Citrus Exchange has completed its tenth year of work for the growers who are associated with it.

Section Eighteen.—The organization is today stronger and more efficient than ever before, with capacity for better service to members.

Section Nineteen.—In every department the Exchange now has the best organization of its history, composed of men who are loyal to the interests of the producers of citrus fruits.

Section Twenty.—Speculative marketing agencies have such a large margin of profit that they can afford higher salaries than the Florida Citrus Exchange will pay its officers and employees.

Section Twenty-One.—Yet the splendid aims and inspiring purposes of the Exchange are such that it always has been and still is able to engage the services of thoroughly competent, efficient and loyal men.

After Ten Years' Work for Citrus Growers Stronger and More Efficient Than Ever!

The Florida Citrus Exchange has completed its tenth year of work for the growers who are associated with it.

The organization is today stronger and more efficient than ever before, with capacity for better service to members.

In every department the Exchange now has the best organization of its history, composed of men who are loyal to the interests of the producers of citrus fruits.

Speculative marketing agencies have such a large margin of profit that they can afford higher salaries than the Florida Citrus Exchange will pay its officers and employees.

Yet the splendid aims and inspiring purposes of the Exchange are such that it always has been and still is able to engage the services of thoroughly competent, efficient and loyal men.

Employes unable to make their performance in harmony with the high ideals of the organization soon eliminate themselves to give way to others who can put the prosperity of the citrus industry of Florida above personal gain.

The Florida Citrus Exchange Is Controlled and Operated By Growers for Mutual Benefit

Every citrus grower who markets his fruit through the Exchange has the same voice as any other member in its management.

That a grower may have but a few acres of grove gives him no less participation in determining the policies of the organization.

The Florida Citrus Exchange is of, for and by the growers who believe that, with their fellow producers of citrus fruits, they are completely capable of marketing their own product.

The Exchange has been successful in securing for its members prices enough higher than could be obtained through other marketing agencies to more than cover the entire operating cost of the organization.

Due to the growing knowledge of the fact that this is true, during the season just ending the Florida Citrus Exchange has handled a proportion of the total crop of the state almost one-third greater than in any preceding year.

Join the Exchange now and take part in the annual selection of directors and officers of your local association. For more detailed information write, phone or call on

BIG CLOSING OUT SALE

OF
Men's Furnishings and Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes
Beginning Friday, May 16th, at 9 A. M.

We have decided to discontinue our lines of Men's Furnishings and Men's, Women's, and Children's Shoes, and in order to get rid of this stock at once we will put on this sacrificing sale. This is no fake sale or just a scheme to raise money. Our reason for putting on this sale is to make room for ladies goods exclusively. This is an unusual time for a sale on new spring goods, but we want to change our lines, and in order to do this, it is necessary for us to discontinue the Men's Furnishings and Shoes. If you will give us the opportunity we can convince you that we mean just what we say. These goods must be closed out at once.

GEORGE A. SCOTT
The New General Sales Manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange

Mr. Scott was unanimously chosen to his new position by the board of directors of the Exchange.

His selection for the place was in the nature of a promotion. Mr. Scott having faithfully served the organization for about ten years in other capacities.

For almost seven years he was assistant manager in charge of the New England field, and for the past three years Mr. Scott has held the position of division manager of the territory east of Pittsburg.

Mr. Scott has made a record for successful work during his connection with the Florida Citrus Exchange and in the field of the department is expected to give the Exchange a most efficient service in the future.

Two capable assistant sales managers, Class A, P. Hagan and Hal C. Allen, whose work has largely contributed to the successful record of the Exchange during the past season will continue in their positions, giving Mr. Scott loyal support, and the selling force of the organization in the north will be enlarged by next fall.

BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS MEET

County Commissioners Proceedings

Sanford, Fla., May 6, 1919.

Hon. Board of County Commissioners met at 10 o'clock a. m. Present: L. A. Brumley, chairman, and Commissioners L. P. Hagan, C. W. Entzinger, O. P. Swope and E. H. Kilbee, with V. E. Douglass, deputy clerk and Roy Tillis, deputy sheriff in attendance.

Minutes of last regular meeting, also call meeting held April 11th were read, approved and ordered filed.

Motion of C. W. Entzinger, seconded by L. P. Hagan and carried, clerk is instructed to employ the necessary help to move into the new court house.

The following resolution was offered by O. P. Swope and duly seconded by L. P. Hagan and adopted:

Whereas, on April 26th, 1919, a petition was circulated throughout State Highway Commission, to the board of county commissioners of Seminole county, and to any one else having power in the matter, asking the bodies named to work for the designation of a State Highway through the central portion of the state to Orange City, Florida, hence to Enterprise, Osteen and Osteen Ferry, and into Sanford from the east, side, and on south, and

Whereas, The petition circulated in Sanford was in the hands of a lady and was somewhat confusing, in that it failed to state that the Florida State Highway No. 3 was and had been designated to traverse the central portion of the state to Orange City, Florida, to Lake Monroe, and into Sanford from the west side and on south, and

Whereas, a number of people of Sanford signed the petition without knowing the import thereof, and without knowing that it was meant to disturb the already designated highway, and

Whereas, a great number of the people signing this petition have appeared before the board of county commissioners for Seminole county, asking that some action be taken to counteract whatever effect the said petition may have, inasmuch as it is the wish and desire of most of the people of Sanford that the designation of State Highway No. 3 be allowed to stand as heretofore made.

Now, therefore, be it resolved, by the board of county commissioners for Seminole county, in regular session, that this board favors the designation of Highway No. 3 as already made, and that this board acquaint the State Highway Commission with the actual facts surrounding the circulation of the said petition, and in view of the fact that a number of the signers of such petition have publicly stated that they knew not the true import of the petition when same was signed, that the said commission disregard the said petition in any deliberations they may have regarding the said highway.

Bond of M. S. Nelson to carry firearms was approved and license ordered issued.

Motion of O. P. Swope and seconded by C. W. Entzinger and carried, clerk is instructed to turn over to S. O. Shinholser enough W. S. Stamps to pay his bill for the month.

Motion of L. P. Hagan and seconded by O. P. Swope and carried, clerk is instructed to advertise for the purchase of one auto truck of one ton capacity, bids to be received

BEHIND THE CLOUDS

By CHARLOTTE LONG.

(Copyright, 1919, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

"Be still, sad heart, and cease repining; Behind the clouds is the sun still shining."

"Thus spoke a voice rather severely in Margaret's ear. 'Really,' it continued, 'you ought to be ashamed! You haven't taken one bit of interest in anything since John Stevens went away ten years ago. Then you were the belle of the town, Margaret, and now at thirty-two look at you! Supposing he should come back suddenly; do you think he would be pleased with the present appearance of the girl he used to know?'"

Mary, you're my sister; I suppose you have a right to say such things," returned Margaret wearily, although the bright color flamed in the usually pale cheeks.

Choosing a simple white dress of soft, clinging material, she looked very lovely as she adjusted the fast fold; but the pink in her cheeks ebbed aloud for a touch of blue.

"Sure enough, it was Mark—he was coming towards her now." After a hand-shake and a brief conversation with the two sisters, he disappeared; but when the evening was over and Mary and Margaret were ready to go home, they were surprised to find him waiting outside the door.

"I have something to say to you, Margaret," he said in a low tone. "I have no objection to Mary's hearing it. I will tell you as we walk back over the old road where years ago we all romped and played together on our way to school. You would always let me carry your books, Margaret, when John wasn't there," he said, as they started forth, "and the idea got stuck in my boyish brain that if he wasn't around at all I might always have the pleasure of serving the little girl of my choice."

"That idea grew with the years, and while outwardly John and I seemed friends, no one knows how I longed for a clear field in which to press my suit with you."

"It was the winter that John's uncle in the West came home for a visit that I lost all hope and began to get morbid. I could see the love growing steadily between you two, and my heart was as icy in those days as the frozen millpond where we used to skate. I was walking home one evening when John overtook me. 'Hello! Mark,' he said. 'How would you like to go West on short notice with Uncle Bill? His uncle had received a telegram calling him back at once, and he wanted some young man to go along with him. John had refused to consider going, you can guess why. He was on his way then to you, Margaret. Then and there I played my last card. 'No,' I told him, 'I don't care to go West at present. Margaret has promised to marry me, and our plans for the future are still unsettled.' John was too honest to suspect deceit in an old friend. With white lips he asked, 'Is that true, Mark?' and when I assured him that it was, he simply said, 'Good-by, old chap, and the best of luck to you both. I go West tonight with my Uncle Bill.' I tried hard enough to win you after that, Margaret, but I am glad now that I failed, and at this late hour I am trying to make what reparation I can. Before John sailed for France I told him all, and when he comes back he'll come straight to you. He has never ceased to love you; nor have I—it has been my punishment." He turned abruptly and was gone.

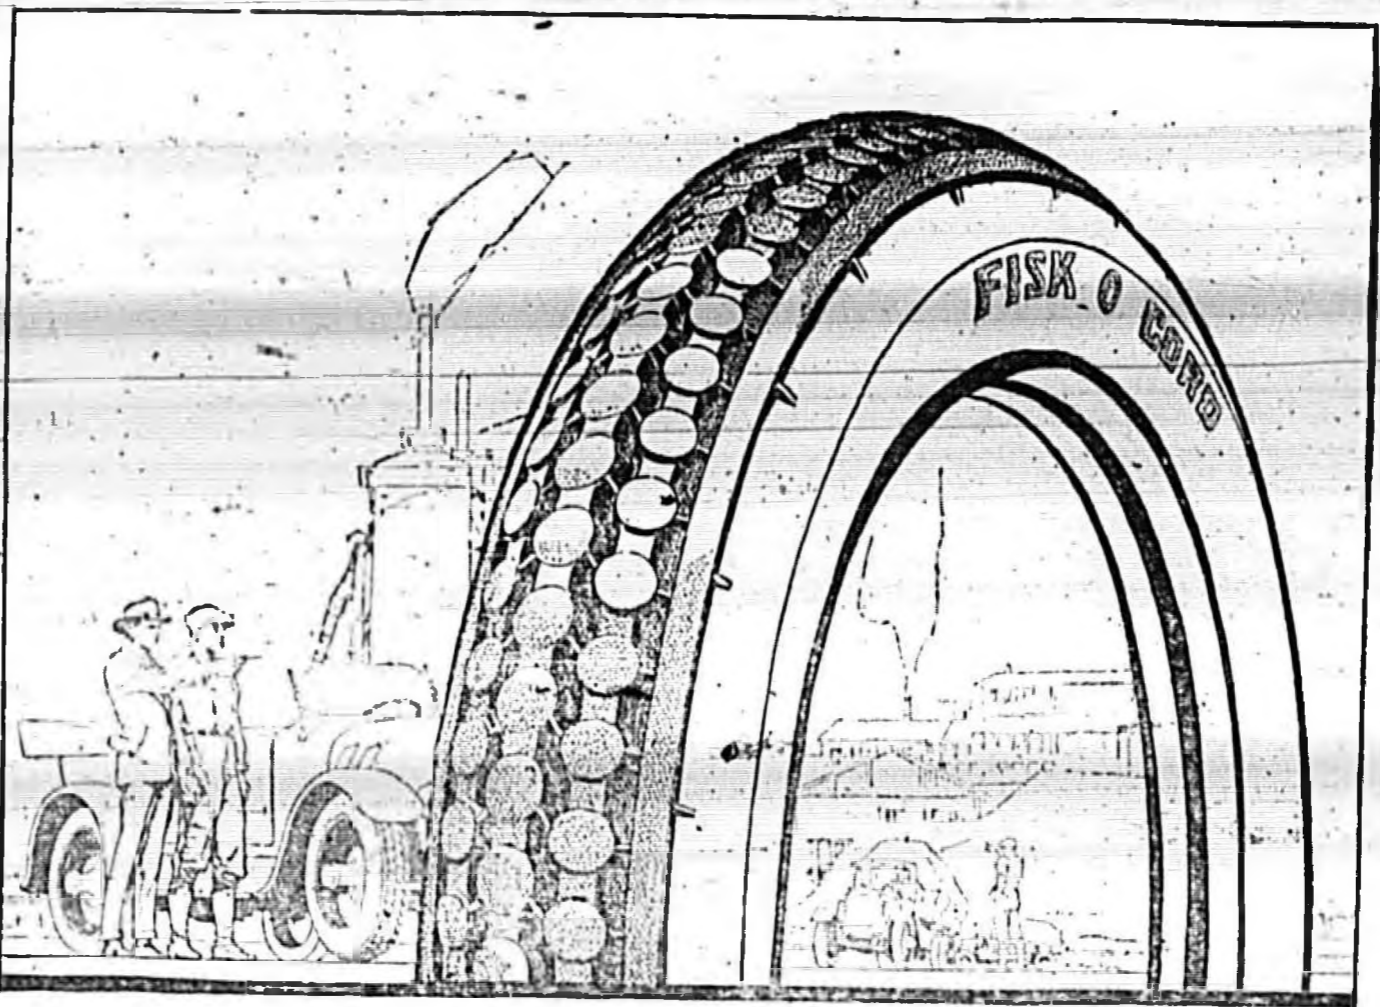

Margaret was weeping softly in her own little home when her sister finally bade her good-night, but they were tears of joy. In her heart she felt glad. Womanlike, she was already planning a wonderful new wardrobe in which black and gray had no part. Throwing open her shutters the next morning she looked out upon a world which seemed to be all blue sky, golden sunshine and pink roses. "Behind the clouds," at last," she thought happily to herself as she reated two plump arms on the window sill and watched for a moment the humming birds flitting in and out among the blossoms below.
