Committees Busy On Eve Of Congress

Rayburn, Barkley Are Minority Leaders; First Bill To Be On Income Tax Cut

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2 (AP)—Representative Sam Rayburn of Texas was elected by House Democrats today as their floor leader for the 80th Congress which convenes tomorrow.

Rayburn was elected at a caucus attended by most of the 187 Democrats who will serve in the Republican-dominated Congress. The vote was unanimous.

The nomination of Rayburn was made by John McCormack of Massachusetts. It was McCormack who was most prominently mentioned for the post of minority leader when Rayburn said recently that he did not want the job.

A Republican committee has recommended that Democratic Senator Theodore Bilbo be kept out of the Senate when it convenes tomorrow.

The Democratic minority of the Senate has re-elected Senator Albert Barkley of Kentucky as their floor leader. They've chosen Senator Lutes of Illinois as their whip.

Rep. Knicker of Minnesota, the new chairman of the tax-writing committee, said means committee is still talking about a 20 percent cut in personal income taxes. He says they're going to be the first bill to be introduced in the new Congress.

Chinese March On American Embassy

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Chinese capital of Nanjing was the scene of another anti-American demonstration today.

About 1,000 Chinese students marched on the American Embassy and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's headquarters, yelling "Americans go home." They said they would follow this up with marches on the home of Gen. George C. Marshall, the American peace envoy in China, and on the Chinese Foreign Office, Shanghai, however, was relatively calm today after a stormy anti-American demonstration on New Year's Day.

Bowl Games Give Throgs Varied Thrills

Rose Bowl Scene Of U.C.L.A. Downfall; Decision Disputed In Sugar Bowl Tilt

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
There is plenty of material today for post-mortems on yesterday's big bowl football games.

A great many of the 73,000 fans who saw that game are still puzzled by some of the official rulings.

One incident occurred in the third period when Carolina was leading 7 to 0, and had the ball in Georgia territory.

The laugh of the bowl games was provided in the Rose Bowl classic. Al Haisch of UCLA, who returned an Illinois kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown, was asked to get up after the run.

One more bowl game remains to be played. Yesterday's Alamogordo contest at San Antonio, Texas, had to be postponed because of the weather.

Quick Action In Palestine Seen Urgent

Britain, Facing Full-scale War, May Turn Whole Issue Over To United Nations

LONDON, Jan. 2 (AP)—There's still another indication that the British government wants to get the Palestine problem settled in a hurry.

The government spokesman said that if it carries out this threat, it will be necessary to proclaim martial law in parts of the country.

The other plan, if the partition can't be accomplished, would throw the whole problem into the lap of the United Nations.

Florida Schools Are Behind In Two Grades

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 2 (AP)—A report from the Citizens' Committee on Education said today Florida's fifth and eighth grade pupils are "far below par."

The committee also reported that pupils in smaller schools tend to lag behind those in larger institutions.

The group, which has been making a survey of the state's school system, said tests showed that the average fifth grader is four months behind his expected standard of achievement and the average eighth grader lags by six months, the committee reported.

The surveyors said that in one or two-teacher schools some pupils were as much as nine months behind children in more populous institutions.

In junior high school, the report said, the lag between small rural schools and city schools is as much as two and a half years.

former governor Spessard Holland was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Senator Andrews. Holland had already been nominated for a full senatorial term when the senior senator died.

The political battle of the year revolved around a successor to Comptroller J. M. Lee who died in October. To succeed Lee until a new comptroller could be elected, Governor Millard Caldwell named Clarence M. Gay. Then the State Democratic Committee selected Gay as the party candidate and named State Senator Edwin G. Fraser, who had the backing of anti-Caldwell forces.

Only Fraser's name was listed on the general election ballot. After the election, Governor Caldwell said Fraser was barred from the comptroller's office because he had been a member of the legislature which raised the comptroller's pay.

As the issue now stands, Gay has been appointed for the next two years and Fraser is getting ready to take the matter to the courts.

Also on the political front, Senator Claude Pepper made homestate headlines with his na-

There was news in the prison department too. Newspaper criticism of the state road camps prompted Governor Caldwell to ask the Federal Bureau of Prisons for a study of Florida penal conditions.

The federal agency gave a not too complimentary report, recommending wholesale changes in prison administration and suggested reconstruction of many buildings. Some of the repair and reconstruction work has already started and following the federal report the Cabinet created the Office of Coordinator of Penal and Custodial Institutions.

The Florida open-shop amendment was still drawing headlines in 1946. The U. S. Supreme Court declined to say whether the so-called "right to work" amendment was constitutional and State Attorney-General Tom Watson tried, for the most part unsuccessfully, to enforce the amendment by court suits and persuasion.

On the lighter side, a Tallahassee couple had their fourth consecutive set of twins and got a new home from donors who were shocked by news pictures of the shanty in which the family lived.

The sensation of the year was the finding of 153,000 buried in the back yard of a Jacksonville home. The money was part of $180,000 lost from a 1945 Jacksonville Post Office robbery. It was buried beneath nine feet of dirt in the back yard of a postal employee who died before he could be tried for the robbery.

Mrs. Ocie England, superintendent of Intercession Bible school told of her early work as a school teacher in Ohio before joining the movement, and its early history at Mt. Pleasant, Va. She stated that at first she had thought the present project too big to handle, but recalled that she had experienced the same feeling when Intercession City was formed 12 years before. "The only satisfactory life is to live for others—it pays to serve God" declared the vigorous, gray haired woman who has devoted half of her life to the ethical training of youth.

as the design for a special crown to be worn by the state's 1947 Centennial Queen.

The idea was conceived by Mrs. E. E. Erickson who felt it was high time to break away from the traditional conception of the royal crown and develop one for Utah that symbolized pioneer traditions. Tentative plans call for the "royal sunbonnet" to be fashioned of metals mined in Utah—gold, silver and copper. Sego lilies, the state flower and the beehive, state symbol, would be used as decorative motifs.

Although grandmother never dreamed her home-made bonnet would be worn by "rally," Daughters of Utah pioneers feel the gold sunbonnet will mean more to Wasatch Valley folk than a fancy diadem.

Large Crowds Turn Out For Basketball During '46 Season

By FRANK HICK
AP Newfeatures Sports Editor
NEW YORK—College basketball returned to prewar standards during 1946 and fan interest was at a fever pitch in most sections with large crowds turning out for big college doubleheaders in the New York and Boston Gardens, Chicago Stadium, Philadelphia's Convention Hall and the Buffalo Auditorium.

Cecil Henry (Hank) Iba's Oklahoma Aggies from Stillwater turned up with a great team that won 18 games while losing two. Featuring seven-foot Bob Kurland, the Aggies halted California, Pacific Coast kings 52-35, for the western division NCAA crown and came east to retain the national title with a 43-40 triumph over North Carolina in the NCAA final.

North Carolina gained the final by halting Ohio State, Western Conference champs, 60-57, in an overtime game here.

In the ninth annual New York invitation tournament, Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats finished on top, conquering the race horse team from Rhode Island State, 40-15, in the final.

Dartmouth won its eighth Eastern League crown in nine years. Duke walked off with the Southern Conference title; Kansas the Big Six, for the first time; Wyoming returned as Big Seven champion, and Baylor scored in the southwest.

The professional basketball field became more crowded than ever with the start of the 1946-47 season with the inception of the Basketball Association of America.

The Ft. Wayne, Ind., Zollners won the National Basketball League championship while the Baltimore Bullets triumphed in the American League.

Fred Hunt of the American Hockey League's Buffalo Bisons operated a string of juke boxes at a summer resort as an off-season occupation.

INSIDE SPORTS REPORT

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR.

BASKETBALL ROUNDUP

Since Christmas and New Year's Day celebrations have occupied much of the average person's time, it is hard for us to realize that the opening of the national season is just around the corner, but the fact is, that baseball days are nearly upon us.

The Toledo Mud Hens are slated to arrive in our fair city Mar. 6 to begin Spring training activities and shortly thereafter the Sanford Oclery Peds will be engaged in the Florida State League "wars."

Sanford has lost five key men from the 1946 team, Dave Irlbe, Jim Schaniel, Manager Ed Levy, Jodie Howington, and Charlie Eason. The loss of these men will surely be felt when the Peds start the next season, but there are many able men returning around which a formidable '47 team can be built.

The same status as last year by operating an independent club with Jule "Boss" Hoff, who caught for them the latter part of the 1946 season, as manager.

Daytona Beach has lost the Brooklyn team but recent announcement confirms the rumor that the Islanders are dickering with the New York Yankees for a working agreement, and for the Yanks to train at the world famous beach. No definite plans have come from the resort city but they are expected at any time.

Bill Steinecke has agreed to manage the Deland Red Hots during the coming year. The Red Hots will remain an independent organization since contacts with Detroit and the New York Yankees seem to have fallen through.

Lass Of Arm Fails To Halt Pro Gridder

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
AP Newfeatures

ROCKFORD, Tex.—Jack Sanders, who made professional football history by playing a full season although he lost an arm in the war, also made a little end history for Rockport High School.

Sanders was a star tackle with Southern Methodist in his college days. He earned more laurels playing in professional ranks with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Sanders missed the Marines early in 1943. A Japanese mine blew off his left arm just below the elbow and he served with his friends that his football was over.

But when he landed in a biller of the Navy Hospital in Philadelphia and started his recuperation with the sound of the Philadelphia Eagles' field—the old football fever returned. He believed that he still could play. He asked the matter over with Navy doctors and they thought his idea was a whiz.

"Seeing you a one-armed casualty, playing out there would do more for the morale of these 21,000 wounded boys and marines than all the folks in the hospital," one doctor declared.

Workers Barefooted UNRRA Shoes Rot

WARSAW, Poland—(AP)—The Communist-backed newspaper, Glos Ludu declares, 28 railway cartloads of shoes supplied by UNRRA were allowed to rot at Wroclaw (Breslau) while "workers are walking around barefooted."

The journal said the shoes were stored in the warehouse of the government monopoly "Spolem" at Jelena Gora in Lower Silesia last July for distribution among workers.

The newspaper added: "As the warehouse were damp, Spolem notified the authorities, advising immediate distribution or removal of goods. As no steps were taken by the authorities, the whole transport of shoes was completely ruined while the workers are walking barefooted."

Boston had the first passenger car subway in America.

A Note of Thanks...

We, who represent the Woodmen of the World in this community, are naturally pleased by our success in 1946 in enrolling new members and providing them safe, sound, legal reserve Woodmen life insurance protection.

We, therefore, wish to express our appreciation for the help so generously given us by officers and members of the local Woodmen Camps and our many friends in this community.

The Woodmen Society's "Fraternity in Action" program of fraternal, civic and patriotic service has promoted a more widespread and intimate knowledge of Woodcraft's purpose to serve our fellow man. That program will be further improved and enlarged in this and in the years to come as more men and boys join us to help carry it forward.

Please accept our sincere thanks for your valued assistance in the past year. May 1947 bring you health, happiness and prosperity in full measure.

Workers Barefooted UNRRA Shoes Rot

WARSAW, Poland—(AP)—The Communist-backed newspaper, Glos Ludu declares, 28 railway cartloads of shoes supplied by UNRRA were allowed to rot at Wroclaw (Breslau) while "workers are walking around barefooted."

The journal said the shoes were stored in the warehouse of the government monopoly "Spolem" at Jelena Gora in Lower Silesia last July for distribution among workers.

The newspaper added: "As the warehouse were damp, Spolem notified the authorities, advising immediate distribution or removal of goods. As no steps were taken by the authorities, the whole transport of shoes was completely ruined while the workers are walking barefooted."

Boston had the first passenger car subway in America.

Schwollenbach May Avoid Merril's Labor Trouble... Senate Hearings on Bilbo Has Its Share of Laughs

WASHINGTON—Secretary of Labor Lewis B. Schwollenbach and his aides hope to anticipate and head off any new outbreak of labor trouble in the maritime industry...

They have been quietly canvassing the industry's wage situation with the two men who aided in settlement of the recent sea strikes...

Labor Department officials are discussing the possibility of inviting maritime union and management representatives to a conference in Washington well ahead of any showdown on new wage demands...

Utility industry and labor representatives were called in recently to consider ways and means of maintaining industrial harmony in their field and the maritime industry may be given the same treatment...

THE SENATE HEARINGS on Senator Theodore G. Bilbo (D) of Mississippi are way out in front as far as laughs are concerned...

Meanwhile, Bilbo sits quietly during the hearings, listening intently and smoking a big, thick cigar...

Today, January 2nd, Marks Our Nineteenth Anniversary. It may be a little old-fashioned — our idea of banking, for it has changed very little in the nineteen years we have been serving Sanford and Seminole County. Before everything else, of course, we place the duty of safeguarding deposits, investing them with caution and lending them constructively. Our banking facilities are modern and for your use. We welcome as depositors and borrowers those who share with us that this conception of banking is sound. It is our purpose to be accommodating in every relation with customers. These Women

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor.

Evening slippers are back, and Miss America has them. For the first time since the war, most shoe shops are supplied with a glamorous assortment of formal footwear this season, and U. S. women are making up for lost time by snapping up the most frivolous and elaborate ones they can find.

Presently any kind of evening shoe you can imagine is being turned out by members of the Guild of Better Shoe Manufacturers, designed to go with fuller skirts, up-front and down-in-back hemlines, slit skirts and all the new silhouettes of the gala evening fashion scene among the most important styles shown are: sandals, with or without ankle straps; sling pumps; high-front types in which the instep is covered with intricate jeweled network; high, elaborate platforms; wedges, and clogs.

Styles are even more elaborate than before the war, and there is a new look to the silhouette and construction of the post-war evening shoe. Platforms of all heights are much in demand, many with decoration concentrated on the platform. Gold and silver imported brocades are back, though very scarce. Gold and silver kid are with us once more, as are all colors of satin and moire.

Highlights of the season's collection include an all-over shoe of gold sequins, a high-throated pump of silver kid with jeweled network across the instep, a Circian thong-like sandal, bronze kid slippers, and pumps trimmed with antique jewelry.

Fendley Collins, Michigan State's wrestling coach, in 1927 won the National AAU championships in the 127 pound class.

Large Budget Cut Would Change Our Federal Policies

By CLARKE BEACH
 WASHINGTON—A large cut in the Federal budget such as Senator Taft has proposed would not be a mere fiscal operation, according to government bureaucrats.

It would necessitate major changes in national policy regarding such vast programs as federal aid to agriculture, reclamation and development of public power. Congress itself would have to shoulder the responsibility.

The Ohio Republican leader advocates a federal budget between 25 and 30 billion—at least seven billion less than the budget which it is reported President Truman will recommend for the coming fiscal year. Taft has not detailed how he would bring expenses down to his figure.

Why It's Difficult

Purely administrative expenses of the government amount to only $1.9 billion in the current fiscal year. This covers the payroll, office supplies, building rentals and upkeep, travel expenses, etc. A 20 percent cut here would reduce the bill by only 380 million.

Obviously enormous reductions must be made in other categories. If seven billion is to be saved, the choice must be among these items, which comprise the Budget Bureau's breakdown of federal expenditures in the current year:

Veteran's Program	$6,200,000,000
Refunds on Taxes	1,800,000,000
Public Debt Interest	5,000,000,000
National Defense	18,500,000,000
Agriculture Aids	1,200,000,000
Social Security	1,200,000,000
Public Works	1,000,000,000
General Expenses	1,000,000,000
International Finance	1,24,000,000
Total	$41,690,000,000

Included in "national defense" is the cost of terminal leave pay for enlisted men amounting to $2,000,000,000. "International finance" includes foreign loans. These items are not continuing expenses.

What Can't Be Cut

The veterans' program, tax refunds and interest are considered by fiscal authorities as "untouchable," not subject to reduction. Nor could most of the expenditures under social security, such as unemployment relief and retirement allowances, be altered, therefore, to one or another of the programs administered by the various departments if substantial savings are to be made.

Since all of the department's work is done by specific authorization of Congress, it is Congress which must decide which program is to be eliminated.

A glance at the Interior Department budget shows that about half the total consists of construction projects such as extension of Bonneville power transmission lines and the billion-dollar reclamation program in California.

Further Complications

In the Agriculture Department budget the chief items are agricultural research and the various crop adjustment activities, designed to aid the farmer to increase his income. The largest expense in the latter category already has been eliminated—crop subsidies.

Congress could whittle on such activities as the forest service, which controls forest fires, maintains roads, etc.

In the Commerce Department,

Congress would have to decide to curtail or eliminate such agencies as the Weather Bureau, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Bureau of Standards, the Census Bureau or the Civil Aeronautics Authority. The department's statistical and informational services for business are minor items.

Some of the government's top administrators definitely oppose a blanket cut, reducing the budgets of all agencies on a flat percentage basis. This would have the effect of spreading their funds thin, they say, and reducing efficiency. They would prefer to see some of the agencies eliminated entirely.

As for the largest single item in the federal budget, national defense, a sharp reduction there would necessitate a complete reversal in our military and international policy.

Some high ranking officers say we need no less than we have if we are to retain our present status in world affairs.

Bob Paugh, Cleveland star in the Basketball Association of America, was a ranking tennis player before turning to the sport.

80th Congress Has Dramatic Opening; Bilbo Not Sworn In

Joe Martin Elected As House Speaker, Asks Cooperation Between 2 Parties

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—Rep. Joe Martin of Massachusetts took over today as the first Republican Speaker of the House since Nicholas Longworth stepped down in 1931.

Martin called on the House members to work side by side. He asked for cooperation "unprecedented in the history of our nation" to deal with labor laws, taxation and government economy.

The 62-year-old newspaper publisher from Massachusetts said there are many "musts" for the 80th Congress.

He declared the solution of the labor-management problems must receive "immediate attention." He said the nation must return to what he termed "sound philosophy" that the government does not support the people; the people must support the government.

There must be quick cuts in taxes, in the budget and in the public debt, Martin added.

The new Speaker of the House explained the Republicans do not "gladly" over their November election victory. The Republicans, he declared, are "prayerfully conscious" of their responsibilities.

The House got down to business in a much calmer atmosphere than the Senate. The first bill to be offered was a GOP tax cutting measure which would effect a 20 percent slice in taxes paid on incomes over $100,000.

It and what Congress is in charge of Monday, President Truman will put in a personal appearance before a joint session to deliver his state of the union message. But if the Senate falls into a filibuster over the Bilbo case, Mr. Truman may have to delay his address.

Congressmen To Push Tri-State Waterway

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—Efforts are under way to begin work on the Chattahoochee-Florida-Appalachian waterway this year it was announced today.

Representatives Andrews of Alabama, Pace of Georgia and Stokes of Florida are pooling their efforts to get an appropriation of "at least $30,000,000" to begin construction on the tri-state waterway.

Andrews, who is a member of the House Appropriations Committee, said the money would cover costs of the first of four proposed dams.

The first dam is planned as Chattahoochee, Fla. where the Chattahoochee and the Flint join to form the Apalachicola. Similar dams planned at Columbia, Ala. and Buford, Ga. would produce hydro-electric power as well as a nine-foot navigation channel.

The fourth dam, strictly to aid navigation, is planned at Port Bennett, Ga. near Columbus.

Big Fruit Shipment Worries Growers

LAKELAND, Jan. 3 (AP)—A flurry of shipments following the nine-day citrus shipping holiday gave industry leaders a slight case of the jitters today.

Some 250,000 boxes of fruit was sent to northern markets in the first 24 hours after the shipping holiday ended and citrus growers are apprehensive over the prospect that shipments will be just as heavy the rest of the week.

"Prices, however, rallied to some extent while the growers withheld fresh fruit and cleared out surplus stocks.

The first day's shipments included approximately 175,000 boxes of oranges, 51,000 boxes of tangerines and 35,000 boxes of grapefruit.

Despite the market holiday, December citrus shipments were just 300 cars short of the December, 1946 total.

Snipers In Hanoi Fire On Colonial Minister

HANOI, Indochina, Jan. 3 (AP)—Snipers fired on French Colonial Minister Marius Moutet Thursday shortly after he arrived in the Indo-China capital of Hanoi. French authorities said Moutet and his official party were visiting a hospital when the shots were fired. The fire apparently was directed from an American home near the hospital. None of the French party was hit.

Moutet was sent to Indo-China by the French government to investigate conditions in connection with the current uprising of Viet Nam Nationalists. The shooting occurred shortly after Moutet arrived in Hanoi from Saigon on an on-the-spot investigation.

Murderer Tries To Escape Just Before Execution

Surrenders Quietly To Guards At Door; Felon Still Loose

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 3 (AP)—A convicted murderer made a desperate effort to escape today before execution. He was shot and killed before he could be electrocuted. Three hours blocked his path to freedom, but the man (negro) Cleveland Cannington, got through the first one. He wrenched a stout iron bar from his cell. He rushed on and battered down the inner door of the prison and fled. He was shot and killed before he could get to the gate. He was shot and killed before he could get to the gate.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3 (AP)—The greatest manhunt in the history of New York City is underway as 17,000 police search for one felon who escaped from the ancient Raymond Street Jail in Brooklyn. The police have orders to shoot to kill. Authorities believe the killer, including a convict named Alcatraz, may have outside accomplices. No trace has been found of the felon since he escaped yesterday by sawing out the bars of a cell window.

Box For Magician Is Discussed At Meeting Of Lions

Lions are optimistic about securing a box in which to nail Birch, the magician, on Jan. 18 in order that he may get released in about 30 seconds after the manner of Houdini; but they are wondering in view of the current shortage, if they can secure the job which is to be staged on First Street.

This problem was discussed at the meeting of the Sanford Lions Club today at the tourist center.

Porter Lansing, president of the Seminole Sportsman Association, told the Lions that he would be glad to accept the gift of a box on highways to be transferred to Mullet Lake Park on the St. Johns River, and will assume responsibility for the hauling.

Guests were Jack Ratigan, president of the Jaycees, and W. J. Lassiter, Jr. Mr. Ratigan urged more interest in matters of aviation at the Municipal Airport.

Eisenhower Refuses To Become Nominee

MIAMI, Jan. 3 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower ruled himself out as a presidential candidate today.

Democrat Senator Of Idaho Opens Fight To Keep Bilbo Out; Says Bilbo Tainted

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—The Senate voted today to delay the seating of Theodore Bilbo for a third term today. Five minutes later, Bilbo returned to his seat without receiving the oath. The swearing-in was blocked by Senator Glen Taylor of Idaho, who opened the fight to oust Bilbo. Taylor is a Democrat. He moved that the Bilbo case be referred to the new Rules Committee.

With Senator John C. Breckinridge of Louisiana at his side, Bilbo listened without a word as the secretary of the Senate ruled that Taylor's motion had the right of way over any move to administer the oath Secretary Leslie Biffle, who was presiding, made the ruling.

Senator Homer Ferguson of Michigan offered a resolution to bar Bilbo now and take up his case in the Senate on Jan 6.

Ferguson's motion was not in the shuffle when Taylor jumped to his feet and offered a resolution to bar Bilbo. Taylor charged that Bilbo's actions are "tainted with fraud" and he asked that the entire matter be referred to the Rules Committee.

New Violence In Palestine Leads To Fresh Demands

PALESTINE, Jan. 3 (AP)—A new wave of violence brought predictions in London today that the High Commissioner, Lt. Gen. Sir Alan Cunningham, will ask the Cabinet for authority to launch an offensive to restore order.

Both British government and Jewish agency sources expressed a belief that Sir Alan would appeal for permission to launch an offensive to smash Jewish resistance in the Holy Land. An official announcement in Jerusalem disclosed that all tanks in the British Army had been ordered to carry arms at all times to insure their personal safety. They also were told to leave their barracks only in pairs.

Early today three British soldiers were killed near a coastal village when their jeep was blown up, apparently by an electric mine. Twelve separate attacks were carried out against the British military in Palestine last night. The underground workers used knives, hand grenades, automatic weapons and home-made flame throwers. One British officer was killed and 20 persons were wounded.

Dispute Over Committees In Alabama

Governor-Elect Folson Wants Legislature To Set Up Groups Before May

MONTGOMERY, Jan. 3 (AP)—Alabama's attorney general said today the state's legislature cannot set up interim committees when it meets in an organization session this month.

Governor-elect James E. Folson had said he wished to have interim committees at work before the regular legislative session starts in May. The attorney general declared he would call a special session if the house and senate could not name the interim committees during the 10-day organization session.

But an advisory opinion by Attorney General William N. McQueen declared that the committees cannot be set up during the organization session and added that the governor has no authority for calling a special session to name interim committees.

The opinion, purely advisory, was issued at the request of Folson's attorney, J. Clarence Baker of Tallahassee, and state Senator Homer Brummett of Wilcox.

Under the constitution, Folson could not call a special session on the 10-day organization session, but he could call a special session if the legislature had been called.
