64th Year, No. 78 Price 10 Cents

By JOHN A. SPOLSKI

For the record . . . this being the "second day" for Auto Train in Sanford, everything went smoothly. All of the few bugs which were there yesterday were eliminated . . . our northern tourists got into their cars in short order, and before you could really take note of the time, their license plates were very much in evidence on the streets of Sanford.

Pardon me while I chew on "222" a little bit. Glad you're making me swallow it, cause in yesterday's column that reference was made relative to the number which I thought would take the time to vote in Sanford's election.

By now you know that it was the biggest turnout (in an off year) in Sanford's history.

I was basing my low prediction on the absolute few who attended the rally at the civic center on election eve.

"This is one time I'm enjoying 'eating' my words. (Sorta brings back memories of a couple years ago when Nebraska met Alabama and I picked Nebraska . . . only to have them get beat by 50 points or so . . . No chance on any similar predictions this year, folks (even though I just know it's going to be an upset . . .))"

Getting back to that inaugural "flight" of Auto Train . . . had an angel along my side . . . in the form of Rev. William Norris of the Sanford Church of Nazarene.

While hugging some special Herald out to help greet the visitors (about a hundred and fifty of the editors), the good Reverend asked if we could use some help . . .

It was greatly appreciated.

The flicker will be called "The Gang That Couldn't Shoot Straight" . . . and having seen some of the dance "acts" on this comedy . . . well, my side is splitting just thinking about it.

Certainly I was concerned with all of those talented men who were leaving the Seminole Sheriff's Department . . . worried for Sheriff Polk's benefit and those of us who are greatly concerned with the crime rate here in Seminole County.

Should have known better . . . Big John has the situation well in control.

Look for about four or five "trans officers" to be appointed to the force long about the beginning of the year. One of the reasons for getting these men will be better hours, introduction of the civil service system to members of the force . . . and not to be overlooked — pay raises!

Bob Kettles struck my funny bone with his Stone Island "Pebbles" news sheet . . . those folks are going to have their New Year's Eve party on January 22nd.

I guess that if you should have so much fun on the one which you attend on Dec. 31st . . . and can't remember what went on . . . you'll have a chance for a repeat performance at this one.

Two Run-Off Races Set Dec. 21

Voters Kill Bond Issue

By BILL SCOTT

Defeat of the $1 million drainage bond proposal and run-offs in both Sanford City Commission, sitting as the canvassing board, early this afternoon reported these official results, including absentee ballots:

Morris, 928; Connelly, 682, and Higginbotham, 672, for the group I seat.

Official count for the group II seat, including absentee ballots was:

A. R. McClanahan, 845; incumbent W. Vincent Roberts, 804, and Caren Gager, 471.

Veteran politician Earl Higginbotham lost this third election in a row) to political newcomers John Morris and Rev. J. Edgar Connelly.

A smiling McClanahan told The Herald after the vote count, "I am very humble and hoped to be in the run-off with Roberts." Roberts declined comment to The Herald's query concerning his earlier decision not to engage in a high-keyed advertising campaign. The incumbent said there were many factors to consider in the voting but did not elaborate. He did stress the necessity of getting more people out to vote.

Gager commented, "It was a clean race," but stressed the bond issue was the turning point in the number of people casting ballots.

Group II leader Morris said he anticipated a run-off and for the next 14 days would emphasize points that were successful. Rev. Connelly, anticipating his run-off against Morris, said he would re-evaluate to determine what steps to take in a re-organization of his group. He indicated he would deal more with the issues.

Today Rev. Connelly advised that many of his supporters had gone to the West Side Recreation Center in Goldsmiths by mistake to cast ballots and he stressed the necessity of advertising the downtown Civic Center as the only polling place in city elections.

Vote Record Set At Casselberry

By DONNA ESTES

CASSELBERRY — Voters went to the polls in record numbers in this city Tuesday to give a resounding vote of confidence to its mayor and council chairman, and to elect a new face to its five-member council.

For the first time in its 30-year history, the electorate of the city gave a third term to a chief executive by returning Curtis Blaw to the office of mayor while Dr. Edith Duerr was chosen for a fourth consecutive term on the Council and Orlando optometrist, Dr. John Zacco, was given the nod by the voters for a council seat in his first venture into the political arena.

All three candidates received well over 50 per cent of the vote, cast with Blaw garnering more ballots than his two opponents combined. High vote getter again was Dr. Zacco receiving 594 tallies with Dr. Zacco receiving 533, incumbent Bill Grier with 494 and Owen Sheppard, in his second try for a seat on the board, low man with 405.

In the mayor's race, Blaw was given 535 ballots to 72 for David McCoy and 449 to Richard Wirtz.

The turnout was estimated immediately following close of the polls at the fire house and results announced at about 7:45 p.m. are official.

All three winners, according to their financial returns filed Monday, refused contributions to their campaigns. While Dr. Duerr posted no signs in the community during the campaign, Blaw and Dr. Zacco had only a handful of posters in strategic spots.

The turnout at 1,915 represented only a slightly better than 37 per cent turnout of the 5,081 qualified voters but was the largest turnout in numbers in the city's history.

The three winners in statements to The Herald Tuesday night thanked the voters for their confidence.

SMILES ALL-AROUND

The order of the day for Mayor Curtis Blaw, Councilman Edith Duerr and Councilman-elect John Zacco, following their election in Casselberry Tuesday night was to look happy. Dr. Duerr has been elected to her fourth consecutive term, Blaw to his third consecutive one and Dr. Zacco in his initial foray into politics to his first term. (Donna Estes Photo)

'Education' For Boy, Prison For Mother

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — The Florida Supreme Court today upheld the conviction of a mother who admitted showing her eight-year-old son "how boys are made."

One justice said he felt the mother, Rebecca M. Chesbrough, of St. Petersburg, should have been given "the benefit of the doubt" because what she did was "all in the family."

Mrs. Chesbrough was convicted of performing a lewd and lascivious act and sentenced to six to 18 months in jail by Pinellas County Circuit Judge Ben F. Overton. The high court upheld the conviction 5-1.

The court majority said, "We hold that sexual intercourse between a husband and wife in the presence of a child under 14 years of age for the purpose of demonstrating to such child the method of procreation of the human race is a lewd and lascivious act."

Mrs. Chesbrough said her son, Starr Donald, returned from school one day "and asked how babies are made. So my husband (Thomas) explained this and we showed Starr in the bedroom."

Chesbrough was ruled mentally incompetent and ordered institutionalized.

The woman also testified she watched her son and his stepfather have sexual contacts, and showed the boy photographs "of herself and others in the nude and in sexual activities," the court observed.

"The evidence 'as to character' was properly considered by Overton in sentencing the woman, who had pleaded 'no contest' to the charge, said the court.

It rejected defense arguments that the term "lewd and lascivious" was void for vagueness. It offered its own definition.

"Lewdness may be defined as the unlawful indulgence of lust, signifying that form of immorality which has a relation to actual impurity. It is generally used to indicate gross indecency with respect to the sexual relations."

In his dissent, Ervin said he didn't believe the statute was intended to invade the privacy of a family and a private home, as here, "and criminalize the act of the mother and father."

"True," he said, "what they did is shockingly disgusting and reprehensible to most of us under current social conventions, but I am willing to give them the benefit of the doubt that they believed — although perhaps mistakenly — that they were giving their own son mature understanding in the biological facts of procreation."

SEMINOLE POPULATION 102,000

Commissioner John Kimbrough reported to the County Commission Tuesday that efforts are being made to have Seminole County designated a catchment area for purposes of handling mental health problems.

Currently, Seminole is included in an area which extends down to Florida Highway 50. The total population in that area from the County line to Highway 50 is approximately 150,000.

The estimated population of Seminole County, according to the zoning and planners figures, are 102,000 plus, a 6,000 increase over projected figures a year ago.

In order to qualify as a catchment area, the population must be between 85,000 to 200,000. The latest Seminole figures qualifies it to become a catchment area without regard to the area set to SR 50.

Once the designation is achieved for Seminole, the five available services required by the State Mental Health Division. In-patient care, out-patient care (now being given at the Mental Health Center), day care, consultation and education services—will be available.

California Leads In Cutting Welfare Load, Prison Population

By JOE BROOKS
Copy News Service
SACRAMENTO — Most of the populous states of America are suffering from rising welfare rolls, increasing prison populations and larger numbers of admissions to state mental institutions.

California is an exception. In the Golden State, welfare rolls have declined for seven months in succession for a total reduction of 137,000 cases and a savings in federal, state and local taxes of $80 million.

In an era of rising crime rates, California's state prison population has decreased from 28,600 in January of 1969 to 20,600 at the present. The state Corrections Department's budget would have been $4 million higher if the number of prisoners in this fiscal year were that of 1969.

The California Youth Authority, which handles juvenile criminal offenders, had 5,880 youths in institutions last Dec. 31, compared with 6,542 on Dec. 31, 1967.

There has been an even more dramatic decline in the number of patients in California's mental hospitals. The total declined from 26,500 patients in July of 1966 to 9,890 as of now.

These statistics would seem to indicate that California's government is meeting its problems head-on.

Yet it is doing so with 1,808 less Civil Service employees on the state payroll than it did in December of 1966. Had the number of employees increased during the administration of Gov. Ronald Reagan at the same rate as it did during the previous administration, there would be an additional 20,000 state workers on the job at an additional cost of about $1.7 million a year, a Reagan aide said in an interview.

Indians Pushed Back In Kashmir

Foe Near Pak Capital

By LYNN C. NEWLAND
NEW DELHI (AP) — India claimed today that its forces were only 28 miles from Dacca, East Pakistan's capital, but said Pakistan's army was holding on to a large section of the vital Chhamb sector in Kashmir.

A government spokesman said fighting was still going on in the Chhamb region, where Indian troops were pushed back to defensive positions Tuesday.

"This is a pretty big attack," he said. "The Pakistanis have thrown more than an infantry division and three armored brigades into the attack."

The Pakistanis appeared to be trying to cut New Delhi's only road link with Srinagar, the capital of Kashmir. The highway is west of Chhamb. In East Pakistan, the drive toward Dacca is headed by three infantry columns moving from the east, south and west, a spokesman for the Eastern Military Command said in Calcutta.

He said Indian troops had advanced to the banks of the Meghna River at Daudkandi, 28 miles southeast of Dacca, while the other units were moving toward the capital from Jessore.

The army headquarters town which the Indians say they captured on Tuesday.

Jessore is 80 miles southwest of Dacca.

The spokesman in Calcutta said Indian troops also had isolated Pakistani troops at Comilla, 50 miles southeast of Dacca.

Newsmen were still barred from the battlefronts, and there was no way to confirm or disprove the official reports.

A government spokesman in New Delhi described Pakistani resistance throughout East Pakistan as "moderate to stiff, but when we lean on them, they just seem to give up."

The advancing Indians have not met any major resistance in the southeastern section of the province around Comilla, he said, but heavy fighting is going on to clear the Pakistani army cantonment at Comilla.

In the southeastern delta region, he added, the Indians have reached the port of Chittagong, on the water route to Dacca.

The spokesman said Indian Navy planes were putting heavy pressure on the ports of Chittagong and Cox's Bazar, and were reported destroying three gunboats at Chalna in the delta.

He said the navy planes also bombed the army barracks at Chittagong during the night.

The spokesman also reported hard fighting in the Hilli region in the northeastern part of East Pakistan, 200 miles north of Calcutta.

HEARING first lady of Longwood, Betty Brown, watches proudly as her husband, Kenneth Brown, after receiving oath of office today, is congratulated by City Attorney S. Joseph Davis Jr. Brown will serve the remaining 13 months of the unexpired term of Robert Kalinoski, resigned. (Donna Estes Photo)

Brown Is Elected Longwood Mayor

By DONNA ESTES
LONGWOOD — The city's "grand old man" of politics, E. E. Williamson, was returned to his City Council seat by the electorate with votes to spare in Tuesday's municipal election.

A new mayor was chosen and two political newcomers were also given the nod by the voters for the two council seats.

Kenneth H. Brown with a margin of only 27 votes won the post of the city's chief executive, which he held from the summer of 1968 until January of this year.

In addition to Williamson, Richard Crenshaw, president of the South Seminole Jaycees, and William Kiosky, retired military man, were elected to the City Council.

Brown will serve the 13 months remaining in the unexpired term of Mayor Robert Kalinoski, while Crenshaw and Kiosky's terms are two years each.

Ironically enough Brown was first elected in 1968 to fill the final five months of the term of the late Mayor A. R. Lormann. On Tuesday, Brown won the election over June Lormann, widow of the former mayor.

Oath of office was administered to Brown this morning by City Attorney S. Joseph Davis Jr. and the new mayor immediately assumed the duties of his office.

Witnessing the proceedings were the city's first lady, Betty Brown, and Councilmen-elect Crenshaw and Kiosky. Council Chairman E. E. Williamson, Vice Chairman Eugene Jacques, City Clerk Onnie R. Shomale and members of the election board.

The election returns certified by the canvassing board this morning showed Brown with 306 votes to 273 for Mrs. Lormann. Official returns for winning Council candidates are Williamson, 296; Crenshaw, 263 and Kiosky, 231.

Losing Council candidates and their totals are: James Brown, 208; B. H. Ferrall, 192; H. H. Haynie, 111; Donald Schreiner, 107 and H. A. Scott 215.

With 1,134 qualified voters in the city, some 607 turned out at the polls to cast ballots for Brown on the election over June Lormann, a 54 per cent show.

Flare-Up In Air War Reported

By GEORGE ESNER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — American fighter-bombers dodged surface-to-air missiles, exchanged fire with an anti-aircraft battery and attacked a radar station in the Ho Chi Minh trail on the Laotian side of the border between North Vietnam and Laos, military spokesman reported today.

The U.S. Command said there were three incidents:

1. Three Navy A7 jets were bombing the Ho Chi Minh trail on the Laotian side of the border 10 miles southwest of the Ban Karai pass when two 37-foot SAMs were fired at them from across the border. The pilots spotted the missiles and evaded them.

2. An Air Force RF4 photo plane checking on the supply buildup on the North Vietnamese side of the border 19 miles northeast of the Mu Gia pass was fired on by an anti-aircraft gun. Two F4 fighter-bombers escorting the photo plane bombed the AA battery, but it was not known what damage they did.

3. Another Navy A7 bomber pilot on the Laotian side of the border seven miles southeast of the Mu Gia pass detected from his electronic equipment that a radar site nine miles north of the pass, on the North Vietnamese side of the border was tracking him preparatory to firing the AA battery, but it was not known what damage they did.

It was the second time in four days that SAMs were fired on U.S. jets. As the United States steps up its air attacks on the Ho Chi Minh trail in an attempt to slow the North Vietnamese supply push south during the current dry season, the North Vietnamese are increasing their attacks to defend the trail.

Meanwhile, official sources disclosed that the South Vietnamese government is planning another big prisoner release in an effort to get Hanoi to free American prisoners.

Orlando Woman Ends Life

An Orlando woman, Doris Berger Keen, 28, found dead from a gunshot wound in the head, on the east side of Little Bear Lake in Forest City Tuesday morning, was an apparent suicide.

This was the opinion of County Lt. L. J. Kriz, who was called to the scene shortly after the body was discovered by Florida Highway Patrol Trooper Tommy Tomlinson.

A Spanish 32 caliber pistol was found in the water near the body, Lt. Kriz reported.

An autopsy was performed by Semhol Memorial Hospital pathologist Dr. G. V. Garay, with the official finding being death by gunshot.

The investigator described the woman as a divorcee, living with her parents in Orlando. She reportedly had been dependent upon the absence of her five-year-old son, Allen, who is with his father in the Canary Islands.

The victim's car, a 1968 Dodge was parked near the death scene. Kriz reported the woman had purchased the gun from a pawn shop the day before her death.

No. Orlando Builder Cited For Violations

By MARION BETHEA
NORTH ORLANDO — Village Council has authorized its attorney, Thomas Freeman, to take whatever legal action necessary to correct a matter of violation of a municipal ordinance by Al Clark.

Councilman Charles Kelley told council that Clark, who is associated with Calbert Construction Company has not fenced a drainage ditch within 100 feet of homes in a development located east of north Third Street. Kelley also cited the fact the development has inferior construction and poor drainage.

Taking the building inspector, James Palmer, to task, Kelley said he is "too lenient." The councilman contended there are rotten timbers in the homes and the city is not protecting its citizens by allowing "this type of inspection."

Kelley suggested that the village take legal means to prohibit the sale of homes until the city's standards are met in the subdivision ordinance.

Mayor Granville Brown pointed out Clark is not a developer, since he built the homes in an area already platted, fenced and concurred, stating to be classified as a developer he must subdivide the land; that if he purchased lots and built, he is a builder, and cannot be classified by law as a subdivider.

Palmer, defending his position, said he would not approve final inspection of the homes until they meet the city's standards, and that he had pointed out indicated work on the last four houses.

In a related matter, Councilman Charles Rowell expressed the contention that council should consider hiring an assistant to the building inspector. He said he had been approached by Harry Byers, who indicated interest in the position.

Kelley admitted that Palmer is "pushed" by mushrooming new construction in the area, and is averaging 14 1/2 inspections per day. Since there are seven check-points in each inspection, a considerable amount of time is involved. Palmer, however, said that he will not need assistance until the PUD (planned unit development) area is developed.

Council voted to advertise for part-time assistant building inspector and to interview Byers or any interested party.

"V" FOR VICTORY is the word from Longwood's newly elected Councilmen (left to right) William Kiosky, E. E. Williamson and Richard Crenshaw. Williamson will reassume his duties as council chairman now that he no longer has to serve as acting mayor and the trio will receive oaths of office for new terms in January. (Donna Estes Photo)

Mobile Home Park To Have 509 Units

By BILL SCOTT
Hacienda Village Mobile Home Park, a 100-acre development to be located between Hays and Moss Roads, south of SR 431, in North Orlando, was unveiled Tuesday night at a Holiday Inn gathering of officials from Western Land Planning Company, Chicago, North Orlando and county.

Kenneth Ringbloom, Western Land president, said the development, to include mobile home pads, recreational facilities, nature trails and club house, already is under construction with land clearing and he envisioned the first rental by March 1.

Ringbloom said the first phase would consist of 300 units, with 300 additional in the second phase soon to follow. Some 85 acres will be utilized in mobile homes with an additional 15 acres to be commercial, the president added.

Plans are to lease the pad for owners to place their homes at a $50 monthly charge, Ringbloom said.

This is the initial project undertaken by Western Land in Florida, but, according to Ringbloom, plans already are underway for a planned unit development (PUD) south of the mobile home site on an adjacent 165 acres.

The mobile home park will be a scenic area backed by a stream with palm walkways.

The Sanford Jaycees are having their annual Christmas Tree Sale which will help fund their civic projects, such as Drug Awareness, Law Enforcement and programs for general community development.

They will be open every evening until Christmas, selling their trees at the Jaycee Tourist Information Building at Fourth and French Avenue in Sanford.

By North Orlando Council Zone Change Wins Approval

NORTH ORLANDO — Village Council has approved a zoning change from R-1 to PUD (planned unit development) upon property owned by HAW Refuse Service.

Road and Bridge Commissioner W. R. Hurt was authorized to purchase needed signs for the city limits and speed limit. A city limits sign will be posted on Fisher Road and a speed limit sign on Tusawilla Road. The city limit signs are needed due to recent annexations along SR 434.

Council voted to accept the recommendations of the Zoning Board for lighting in Winter Springs, Unit 2. Two plans were submitted, that of Florida Power Corporation for 22 lights and the developer, William Goodman, for 17 lights. Mayor Granville Brown noted that the concept of the development was a rustic area which did not need to be "lit up like a Christmas tree." Therefore, council accepted the plans for the 17 lights. Cost to the city will be $82.50 monthly.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: We've been married 14 years and have four sweet kids. Over the years my husband has done some pretty mean things. Here is an example: My youngest son, who is now 10, cried when I told her I couldn't attend the first PTA meeting as to what my night to do the weekly grocery shopping. When I realized how much it meant to her to have me meet her teacher and view her work, I knew I had to go. So when my husband came home from work, I told him his dinner was on the table, and I was rushing out to do the marketing early. So I could attend the PTA meeting.

North Orlando Park Plan Unveiled

By MARION BETHEA

NORTH ORLANDO — The municipality's new recreational park was unveiled before Village Council as Councilman Troy Piland presented preliminary plans for the area.

The plans, prepared by Schweizer Associates, provide a multi-field concept in which areas are designated for two picnic spots, a pool, bathhouse, tennis, valley ball, basketball, tennis court, shuffle board, open play areas, two Little League diamonds, football field, and horseshoes.

Piland also disclosed that the city's new fiscal agent, Logan Browning, is looking into the possibilities of the federal funding for the recreation area and needs the overall plan of sequence for construction.

Piland told Council, the play areas, grouped in a cluster-type concept, will afford room for ample parking.

In another matter involving the youth of the village, announcement was made that the Christmas parade will be held on Dec. 19 at 2 p. m. under the auspices of the fire department.

This little can will keep mosquitos out, decorate your car grill, protect you on the road, take you fishing and help roast your turkey.

Remember all those cans you've tossed away? Well, electricity is giving them a new life. A life that begins at aluminum recycling centers all over the country. Like the three here in Florida.

For instance, with the help of Floridians who care about their environment, the Reynolds Aluminum Reclamation Center in Coral Gables, Florida, receives thousands of cans daily.

The cans enter the complex electric process of being sorted and shredded. Then made ready for melting and re-use. Like window screens, highway guard-rails, boat hulls and, of course, aluminum foil.

So, the next time you look at a clean, beautiful park, or picnic in a place that looks the way nature intended it to look, remember electricity.

It's not only part of the solution to cleaning up the environment, but is ingeniously giving old cans a new life.

FPL Electricity. Part of the solution.

Austrian Linzer Torte

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Linzer Torte is a famous dessert specialty that is said to have originated in the Austrian city of Linz. But apparently it's been adopted by Viennese cooks because I have found recipes for it in several of my cookbooks devoted to Viennese cuisine.

If you want to make this delicious torte with its interesting almond-flavored short crust and filling of raspberry jam, here is a detailed recipe.

LINZER TORTE

1 cup unbleached whole all-purpose flour
1/2 cup (1 1/4 quarter-pound) butter
1/4 cup sugar
2 egg yolks
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon cloves
1 1/2 cups unsifted flour, stir to aerate before measuring
1 cup red raspberry jam

Finely grate almonds, about 1/3rd at a time. In an electric blender, or use rotary hand grater, set aside.

In large bowl of electric mixer, cream butter and sugar; beat in egg yolks, then lemon rind, vanilla, cinnamon and cloves. Stir in grated almonds and flour until well mixed. Measure 1/2 cup of dough for topping; wrap in wax paper and refrigerate.

With fingers press remaining dough into a round cake pan (8 by 1 1/2 inches) with a removable bottom so that dough covers bottom and sides of pan making a shell about 1/2-inch thick. Sprinkle raspberries over bottom of shell, spreading evenly. Chill.

Remove reserved 1/2 cup of dough from refrigerator and roll between 2 pieces of wax paper to form an 8 by 2 inch rectangle. Remove top piece of wax paper and with a knife, cut rectangle into 6 strips, each 1/2 inch long and 1/2-inch wide. If dough is too soft to handle for next step, refrigerate on wax paper until firmer—10 to 15 minutes. Use a spatula to lift strips. Place 3 strips across center of torte. Place another strip across the first to form an X. Form an X on either side of the first X, overlapping end strips to fit pan.

Run a knife around the top of the pan to loosen the part of the bottom dough that extends above strips. With your fingers, press this down into a border.

Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven until browned—40 to 50 minutes. Cool on rack about 10 minutes, then place on a can so that rim drops off torte. Cool completely. Slice in a tightly covered tin box. Cut into wedges to serve.

MORNING COFFEE

Walnut Coffeecake Bars

Walnut COFFEECAKE BARS
This delicious bar not too sweet, has a streusel topping.
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 cup (1/2-pound stick) butter
1 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1 large egg
1/2 cup milk
1 1/2 cups walnuts, coarsely chopped

Streusel, see below
Grease a jelly roll pan (11 by 10 by 1 inch). On wax paper sift together the flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt, and spices. In a medium mixing bowl cream butter and sugar; thoroughly beat in egg. Blend dry ingredients into creamed mixture alternately with milk. Stir in 1 cup of the walnuts. Spread dough in prepared pan. Sprinkle with Streusel and remaining 1/2 cup walnuts. Bake in a preheated 375-degree oven until a cake tester inserted in center comes out clean—25 minutes. Cool in pan and cut into 20 large bars. Best served cool the day it is made or reheated and served warm.

STREUSEL: Blend together until crumbly 2/3-cup sifted flour, 1/2-cup granulated sugar and 1/4 cup (1/4 of a 1/2-pound stick) soft butter.

Old Taboos On Wine Demolished

By TOM ROGE
Associated Press Writer

A gentle little man with a sparkling smile sat next to me the other day and proceeded to puncture some myths about wine with the zest of a young star propping toy balloons.

My companion was none other than Henri Martin, venerable president of the prestigious Bordeaux Wines Association. He is also mayor of the town of St. Julien in the heart of the Medoc region, an owner of the renowned Chateau Gloria vineyards.

Martin led off by drawing a bead on an ancient taboo against chilling red wine under any circumstances. "There's no reason," he said, "why you should not put a bottle of light young red wine into the icebox half an hour before consuming it. Use the your drinks on the cool side."

Martin's next target was the old adage that red wine should be drunk only with red meats and white wine with fish or fowl. "Take any wine you prefer with whatever dish you are eating," he declared. "And incidentally red wine is good with fish, despite all the 'don'ts' you hear."

He added, however, that one should use some common sense, such as saving a robust wine for the roast, if one is serving several wines with the meal.

Martin had a word of caution for the neophyte in the wine field. Start out modestly, he counseled, until you cultivate an educated taste for wine. A good beginner is a light young white wine such as Graves. Time enough later to spend your hard-earned dollars on the finer vintage varieties.

Contrary to another myth—that wine devotees drink their brew in a vacuum—many, like Martin, have a deep interest in food. He was somewhat stocky in fact at the American custom of gulping down a bite at lunch.

Busy or not, Martin asserted, the American businessman should save some time for his midday meal. In fact, he insisted, the omission of a glass of wine even with a hot dog or hamburger was "bad for the stomach, bad for the hours and bad for the soul."

While dwelling on the merits of a good meal properly enjoyed, Martin gave me the recipe for a sauce from his native Bordeaux that is said to do wonders for a steak or most any red meat. Here it is:

SAUCE BORDELAISE
3 tablespoons diced carrots, onions, celery, boiled ham
4 tablespoons butter
Cook slowly for 10 minutes.
Blend in and cook 8 minutes more.
3 cups beef bouillon boiling
2 cups red Bordeaux boiling
2 tablespoons tomato paste
Herb bouquet of parsley, bay leaf, thyme in cheesecloth
Remove from heat, whip in liquids, add paste and herbs. Simmer slowly 2 hours, add salt and pepper. Skim grease. Strain 3 parts. Good with beefsteak and other red meat dishes.

Teachers Seeking More $$ Benefits

By HILL SCOTT

Seminole Education Association (SEA) will present a salary committee proposal seeking an increase in county teachers' base pay and more fringe benefits at the School Board meeting at 3 p.m. Tuesday. This was disclosed today by SEA president C. M. Harp, Casselberry Elementary School principal.

Harp said the SEA proposal will be made by Carl McMurray, chairman of the salary and professional negotiations committee. He said the teacher group is not asking for specific raise but is making general proposals to increase the present $8,400 base pay for starting teachers, formula on which all teacher salaries are figured. "We want our teachers to be on a par with regular college graduates in other lines of work," Harp added.

Another salary committee proposal will be supplementary pay for teachers doing special non-teaching jobs such as selling tickets to sporting events, etc. he continued.

Other SEA requests will consist of increasing fringe benefits such as increased insurance coverages, etc., Harp added.

The teacher group president said after all salary committee ideas are presented to the board, the salary group will go to work on more specific requests.

Seminole County teachers received three pay raises in the last year, including a four per cent raise to all continuing contract personnel in March 1971; another four per cent increase "just for showing up" in September and a $100 increase in the teacher base pay to $8,400.

If the School Board approves the SEA committee's proposals, a fourth salary increase will become effective in July 1972, at the start of the new budget year.

Take a firm stand and you shall be counted... and recognized, as the case may be.

The one I'm thinking of is our own Circuit Judge Domnick Salfi.

Judge Salfi was quoted extensively on his opinion and subsequent sentencing of Zane Edward Clark (drug pusher) who was sentenced to 15 years and a $10,000 fine.

His statement that he could find it "without any difficulty in sentencing you to the electric chair" has brought in him stacks of letters... all agreeing with his stand... from all parts of the country.

This Friday Judge Salfi will be interviewed over WCAU Radio on a talk show with Fred Williams. People will be able to call him and offer personal opinions on the matter.

Sanford Rotarians Will Hear Jurist

Circuit Judge Richard H. Cooper, Orlando, will be guest speaker at the noon meeting of the Rotary Club at the Civic Center Monday.

The jurist has addressed the local Rotarians before and he is popular here, President Howard McNulty said.

While Judge Cooper has earned an enviable reputation for clearance of his docket, he also is just as favorably known for his active work with the U. S. Army Reserve. He holds the rank of colonel and is rumored to be being considered for promotion.

His talk to the civic club will be from the viewpoint of a barrister rather than that of a military man.

Local Legislators Will Ponder Proposed Judiciary Revisions

By MARION BETHA

The Orange-Seminole legislative delegation will hold a joint hearing for Orange and Seminole Counties on Dec. 16 at 7 p. m. at Casselberry City Hall. The hearing was originally scheduled for Dec. 2 but was postponed due to the special session of the Legislature.

Right items are listed on the agenda for Seminole County, three of which deal with the judiciary. Included is consideration of a proposal to place the county prosecutor on a budget system and salary as opposed to the present fee system. It was stated at a previous hearing that the prosecutor's office is becoming a full-time position and, as such, should be salaried.

Also proposed is the creation of a magistrate judge, which would increase the trial jurisdiction of justices of the peace over the present limit, which is a misdemeanor carrying a maximum fine of $100.

Further dealing with the judiciary is a bill which would permit the participation of resident Circuit Court judges in insurance benefits on the same basis as other county employees. Along the same line is a proposed bill revising the Sanford police pension plan.

Also under discussion will be an amendment to the Seminole County Part Authority's enabling legislation which would curtail control by the County Commission of the Port Authority's budget. If passed, it would limit the extent which the County Commission could control the Port Authority's budget by either approval or rejection of the total figure as opposed to consideration of each line item.

County Commission Chairman Greg Drummond will make a presentation relative to creation of a new hospital district. Proposal is for the creation of two separate districts with the limitation that only five per cent of the population of South Seminole utilize the present hospital.

Drummond has suggested that the matter be brought to a referendum of the populace. However, Charles Lansing, chairman of the board of trustees, Seminole Memorial Hospital, has termed the proposal "ridiculous... we need to be consolidated."

Drummond again will discuss the bill for deed restrictions which would clarify to purchasers that the county will not assist them in enforcing deed restrictions.

A presentation will be made regarding term life insurance for the faculty and staff of Seminole Junior College.

3 Men Cited For Heroism

By LARRY NEELY

Three Oviedo men, Ray Hunter, Landon Jackson and Frank Finney, have been nominated for Dale Carnegie awards for bravery as a result of their rescuing a truck driver from his burning truck after it collided with a train near Oviedo. The trio will be cited at the Dec. 20 meeting of the Oviedo City Council for their heroic acts.

The three men were standing nearby when a semi-truck driven by Joseph F. Allen, of Jacksonville, collided with an Oviedo-bound Seaboard Coast Line train in Oviedo. The train and truck broke out in flames. Jackson, Hunter and Finney ran to the cab and pulled Allen from the smoldering wreckage just before a series of four explosions created a fire with heat so intense the asphalt paving ignited.

Wesley T. Place, assistant police chief, who handled the investigation of the accident, said he arrived at the scene within minutes of the accident. Place said on his arrival the three men already had pulled the driver from the truck and, according to witnesses, carried the unconscious driver in a running gait from the fire. Place said the fire was so intense when he arrived the driver could not have survived it.

City Annexation Acts Defended By Council

Sanford City Manager W. E. Knowles, at a Wednesday City Commission session, explained the recent city annexation procedures regarding property along U. S. 17-92, across from the Sanford Plaza, which has produced the threat of a lawsuit from an Orlando attorney on behalf of two property owners in the area.

Knowles said the city started annexing from the south, near the drive-in theater, going north to include the Hidden Lake properties and finally to include Super Trading Post, operated by J. B. Cain and Phelps Restaurant, owned by Albert Phelps.

Knowles said this explained how "some property, closer to the city limits, was not taken into the city."

Cain and Phelps have appeared at previous Commission meetings to complain about the manner in which their properties were taken into the city without prior notification to them.

Robert G. Petree has been retained as counsel for Cain and Phelps. He is expected to appear at Monday night's regular City Commission meeting to ask the Commission to reverse the two properties.

In an earlier Herald interview, Petree warned legal action will be sought against the city in either state or federal courts to correct the situation.

A majority of the Commission already has indicated to the Herald they will not allow the Cain and Phelps properties to be removed from the city.

Lil Engine Will Try Once More

The Sanford Christmas Parade was missing one newly painted red, white, and blue locomotive. The American Legion 40 & 8 Vulture 478, Sanford, had the locomotive all lined up for the parade ready to ring the bell for all to enjoy and to show off its new paint job.

Well, the parade started and even though the engineer Wendell M. Jepson of Chulavita kept thinking "I think I can, I think I can" but he didn't. The little locomotive did not even huff and puff because it had a dead battery and so the parade went on leaving the locomotive and Jepson to sit that one out.

Disappointed but not giving up hope, the little locomotive will be in the Casselberry parade Saturday barring any more unforeseen difficulties. The parade will begin at Seminole Plaza at 10 a.m. moving courts to correct the situation.

A majority of the Commission already has indicated to the Herald they will not allow the Cain and Phelps properties to be removed from the city.

Councilman Sets 'Record Straight'

ALTA MONTE SPRINGS — Councilman Thomas Radloff, who has been pressing for a revision in the fees charged by the city for occupational licenses, has taken up the cudgel again. Radloff told City Council that "I'm not done on the occupational license yet."

Radloff has taken exception to some adverse criticism of his remarks on the matter and has issued a statement to the citizens of the municipality "to set the record straight."

Radloff contends that the "occupational license fees are supposed to be for regulating the professional people allowed to do business in the city, not as a revenue producing tax."

The further he maintains that "with fees too high, five times as much as before in many cases, your plumber, electrician, TV repairman, etc., must charge more for his services. For example, our much needed new hospital will be forced to pay $500 per year for an occupational license alone. Therefore," he says, "aren't we imposing more taxes on the taxpayers?"

Radloff concludes, "If representing all the people in the City of Altamonte Springs, including the small businessmen, in an effort to keep the taxes
