

Three Games Here This Week

Sanford will have three games here this week, commencing today with Orlando. Tomorrow with Kissimmee and Friday with Orlando again. The boys are getting warmed up to their work now and some gilt edge playing will result. Sam Edwards, the Georgia Cotton Blossom has arrived in the city and will do some of the heaving for the Collegians. His old side kick, Red Barber, is doing the receiving for Orlando and both teams are strengthening the teams and preparing for a battle royal. There are few teams in the state playing as good an article of ball as the Sanford and Orlando teams and the two cities are receiving notice in the state papers and special write ups of the Sandspur League appear each day. There is no advertisement in the summer time like a good ball team.

Sanford 2, Orlando 0

We did it again
And in their own town.
The rain tried to be good to Orlando again but it held up just long enough to play the game and the game went to Sanford, by the score of 2 to 0.

The sporting editor of The Herald was not at the game, being too busy figuring up the batting averages of the Orlando players who failed to hit the ball on Thursday.

Modesty forbids a detailed account of the game. We could ask the Orlando papers for information on the subject but they have lost interest in the game since Tuesday and claim now that there is more fun in going fishing than in playing ball. However the score tells the tale better than tongue or pen:

From Orlando's Viewpoint

A listless game, full of errors and weak play—that's the one-line story of yesterday's game between Orlando and Sanford. The score was nine to two in favor of Celery Town.

The Orlando boys started out as though they were going to take the heights, making two runs in the first inning, but after that they apparently decided that the day was too hot, and Sanford too easy, to do much real work.

It was Orlando's bad day and Sanford's good one, that fetched the runs.

A number of local rooters went up the country to hoot themselves hoarse when the home runs and the two-baggers should come. Their gladness turned to mourning, however, and they came home sobbing.

Our say-so to the boys is, that they ought not only to be written up, but jacked up, when they allow Sanford to beat 'em.

Wilson pitched for Orlando, with Barber behind the bat. Wallace put 'em over for Sanford, with Lowe doing the signalling.

Wallace distinguished himself in the first inning by finding Wilson for a home run. And oh, how the Celery Tops did wave and rustle with animation.—Reporter-Satar.

NEWS OF THE WORLD

Items of Interest Gleaned From Various Sources

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurred Readers

Interest is keen in the fifth annual convention of the National Association of Real Estate Exchanges, which opened in Louisville Wednesday and the occasion is expected to prove the most successful in the history of the organization.

The President vetoed the army appropriation bill. He returned the bill to Congress with a message indicating his disapproval of the legislative provision, which would oust Major Gen. Leonard Wood, of the office of Chief of Staff on March 4 next. In his message the President said:

Attorney General Wickersham was advised today that the National Packing Company would be voluntarily dissolved by the beef packers by August 1. In view of this action Mr. Wickersham announced that the government would hold in abeyance the civil suit which it proposed to bring against the company to compel its disintegration.

"The army of the United States is far too vital an institution to the people of this country to be made the victim of hasty or imperfect theories of legislation. As was pointed out by the chairman of the senate monetary committee it is well known that the war college and the general staff have been for many months reorganizing. At the present time, therefore, it is especially inappropriate in my opinion to force upon the statute books legislation enacted without the usual deliberation and care."

Decisions said to control 116 suits involving 200 plantations, worth several million dollars, in the flood section of the Mississippi river valley between New Orleans and Cairo, Ill., were announced today by the court of claims mainly in favor of the land owners on the question of government liability for damages accruing from levee construction work. For seventeen years the controversy has been waged before this court, involving the legal liability of the federal government for having constructed and completed the levee system along both sides of the Mississippi river by confining the flood waters in a narrower channel and placing plantation lands between the improved levee system and the low water banks of the river, now in the adopted artificial channel and thus destroying these lands.

Leesburg's New Booklet

At the meeting of the Leesburg Board of Trade advertising committee held this week, it was decided to publish an entirely new booklet, showing by pen and picture the advantages and natural resources of the city and surroundings.

It was the opinion of the committee that better results would be obtained if the preparation and publishing of the book were placed in the hands of a professional commercial journalist, consequently the contract was placed with Percy P. Vyle, Florida's well known booklet writer, who spent a few hours in Sanford on Wednesday, looking after the interests of his business in this city.

Keep the Children Employed

That sounds like a good suggestion, coming from Superintendent Wirt of Gary, Ind., to keep the children busy from the time of rising in the morning until the time of retiring at night—provided of course the occupation is beneficial, and, naturally, no other kind would be suggested. It is a good thing to keep children employed, especially when the employment can be made to interest them, an nothing could have better effect toward keeping them out of mischief, and, when the employment is turned to good account they must be a valuable return. It is certainly a good recommendation for any school, when, like the one held up as a sample, the children will "climb fences to get to it." Would that we had more of such schools—had them everywhere.

Nolly Tolar and Paul Biggers are trying to make the boys comfortable these warm days at Paul's Place.

MONEY IN SPRING CROPS

Sanford Growers Received Good Prices For Vegetables

The belief that there was no money made in Sanford on the spring crops this year sounds peculiar to a man who has followed the game straight through both in raising the stuff and shipping it. There is more chance for the grower to make money from the spring crops than any other kind and the man who lets celery alone and pays more attention to potatoes, tomatoes, egg plants, peppers, etc., will always make good at the end of the season and the expense of raising them is very light. The following figures on stuff being shipped will bear out this statement:

Over 3,500 packages—peppers and egg plants—were shipped from Sanford section in the past two weeks. Some of the growers had peppers and egg plants to net them upwards $2.50 per crate f. o. b. car Sanford. Cincinnati, Chicago, New York, Boston and Baltimore have been getting the bulk of shipments. Egg plants sold as high as $6.00 in Chicago and peppers in Cincinnati sold as high as $4.00. Western markets are lower this week, but Boston quoting egg plants, peppers from $3.50 crate, while same prices prevailed in Baltimore and New York.

One Lady Officer Dies

Richmond, Va., June 19. Capt. Sallie M. Tompkins, said to be the only woman who ever received a military commission from President Davis of the Confederate states, is in a dying condition at the Confederate Home of Needy Women here, suffering with acute indigestion. She was one of the ministering angels of the Lost Cause and in recognition of her unselfish labors and unquestioned executive ability, President Davis bestowed on her the rank of captain of cavalry.

Next Sunday Afternoon

That long delayed Associated Churches meeting is to be held at the Star Theatre at four o'clock next Sunday afternoon. It is important that every one who believes in this movement should be there and help to get it started right. The constitution is to be adopted and directors and officers elected to carry on the work. Let every citizen of Sanford be there.

Those Tent Meetings

Mr. Waldron will tell what he thinks about the Bass and Stapleton tent meetings at the Congregational church next Sunday night, at 7:30. Come and hear what he has to say.

In the morning will be given the second of the sermons to children. There were twenty-eight children that stayed to hear the children's sermon preached last Sunday. Let more stay next Sunday and let the parents come too. The subject will be "What the Clock Tells Me." This is another object sermon.

Weather Report

Overcast weather. Probably showers south and central portions of state to night or Saturday.

Will Improve Farm

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Tracey of Argonia, Kans., arrived in Sanford yesterday and will begin improvements on their farm at once. Mr. Tracey spent the winter in Sanford and after watching carefully the progress and marketing of Sanford's last winter crop purchased a farm near Beardall and Celery avenues. He will begin improvements at once and hopes to get the place in cultivation at an early date.

Will Buy A Machine

The Kissimmee Valley Gazette has placed an order for a linotype machine to be installed in their office not later than the first of September. It is understood that this added equipment has been made absolutely necessary by the growing business of the Valley Gazette.

FOUR MINUTE SESSION

The Republican Convention Is Moving Very Slowly

BRYAN PRESENT AS REPORTER

Roosevelt Men Come Back Again In The Credential Committee Meetings

Chicago, June 20.—Exactly four minutes 12:02 to 12:06 p. m. was the duration of the opening session of the third day of the Republican national convention. The immense crowd—nearly 14,000 people—who had fought their way into the hall after an hour or more in line had to go out again.

The only business done was the prayer, and the motion of Watson of Indiana to be in recess until 4 p. m.

The ostensible reason for the recess was the fact that the credentials committee, at work upon the contests affecting the personnel of the convention had only fairly begun its work.

The various delegations had begun straggling in about 11:30; the crowds at the doors outside forcing them to enter singly. The band began playing popular airs at 11 o'clock, and continued up until the gavel fell.

The only welcoming applause this morning was for William Jennings Bryan, who is reporting the convention for a number of newspapers.

Roosevelt members of the credentials committee, acting under the suggestion of Colonel Roosevelt, returned to the meeting of that body today.

Their statement last night that they had left the committee for good was followed by a decision to go back and participate in the meeting of that committee today.

Under the revised rules, the Roosevelt men claimed that they had won their chief points, namely to secure the introduction of new evidence and greater time for debate.

More than an hour and a quarter was occupied by the Roosevelt attorneys in presenting the Roosevelt side of the case that of the Ninth Alabama District.

Members of the committee express doubt as to the possibility of concluding the 72 contest hearings in time to make a report to the national convention today.

Roosevelt members of the credential committee agreed in a conference at noon to push only the Arizona, California, Texas and Washington contest cases, 18 delegates in all.

They declared these were the most important cases. The agreement was made in the hope of shortening the committee's sessions.

The total number of contests involved in the Hadley resolution was 72 and included also 22 delegates from Arkansas, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan and Tennessee.

The prospect of holding the national convention idle for several days while these were considered, induced Roosevelt men to agree to abandon the last group and center their fight on Mr. Halbert stated that "seven or eight Roosevelt men had agreed to the plan" and that it would be formally presented to the convention.

The Ninth Alabama contest involved the control of the district committee. Roosevelt men claimed the Taft forces had bolted while the latter claimed they had actual control of the committee and that the Roosevelt men had used an unauthorized resignation of a Taft member in order to fill his place.

Under the rule admitting new evidence the Roosevelt attorneys succeeded in introducing an affidavit from the Taft secretary of the district committee to show the Taft men had been "bolted."

Ain't It The Truth?

When things do not suit a citizen he generally drops into the printing office and says to the editor: "It's an infernal outrage! It is your duty to denounce it as such through your paper. Burn 'em up!" If the editor acts upon this advice and the persons who are "burned up" resent the burning, does the citizen stand back of the editor? Not on your life. He has business around the corner. People are mighty tickled to have a newspaper "jump on" somebody, but when the newspaper has a little item that rubs their fur the wrong way, they are up and coming. Think of these things the next time you want a newspaper to "burn 'em up," and go and burn 'em up yourself.—Lakeland Telegram.

TURNED BILLY LOOSE

Ball Player Was Not Even Fined For Disorderly Conduct

In Mayor's Court Wednesday morning the participants in the afternoon's unpleasantness were present and after the facts in the case had been gleaned the Mayor decided to allow Billy Beardall the freedom of the county, upon his promise to be good in the future. Billy said he lost his temper and the affair is patched up as far as the legal aspect goes. But the decision does not suit the people of this city who want good order enforced at the ball grounds and this decision of Mayor Spencer's establishes a precedent and the uniform of a ball player seems to be a protection from the law. The fight at the grounds last Tuesday was a fight and should have been punished, no matter who was the aggressor or who the participants. The matter is not a base ball matter but a municipal affair, and governed by the laws and ordinances of the city of Sanford, which distinctly states the penalty attached for assault and battery, and if Tuesday's affair was not plain assault and battery, in the police category, then the people who witnessed the affair are prevaricators. The Herald has no wish to air the affair. We are glad it has been amicably settled, but the man or men who fight on the ball diamond are common offenders against the common law and as such should be punished and such an act will have a salutary effect upon future trouble makers.

Bryan Enjoys Convention

Chicago, Ill., June 21. Col. William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska, the Democratic candidate of the Democratic party for President and attending the convention here as a working newspaper man, says he is enjoying the gathering more than any other Republican gathering he ever attended. He says this is so, because he has been bested by both of the leading candidates for the Republican nomination for the presidency and is in position to go to the loser and assure him that defeat is not fatal, that he, having had it for his portion three times is still alive and enjoying himself and is, therefore, an authority on the subject.

As to the winner, he says whatever mistakes are made this week, the Democrats will have full opportunity and power to correct at Baltimore.

"Not a single worry for me," said the colonel. "You see I am having the time of my life."

At The Presbyterian Church

Rev. J. F. McKinnon will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening. All are cordially invited.

C. Green and B. Jolly, the popular comedians who have made hundreds laugh at the Star Theater will close their engagement at the Star Saturday night, Friday night they will present the "Dutchman and the Girl, a fine comedy act and Saturday night "Willie's Finish," the act which was such a big hit in Jacksonville. The pictures have been unusually pleasing this week, and features of the "Star" brand are billed for Friday and Saturday nights. The same low prices prevail and a show that will please the most fastidious will be seen at the Star both nights. Your last chance to C. Green and B. Jolly.

Writing About Brick Roads

The Herald is in receipt of many letters from foreign residents wanting information regarding the bond issue for brick roads and all of the non-residents who own property here are heartily in favor of the new road district and the brick roads. Most of them live in communities where the roads are made permanent and naturally they favor the same treatment in Florida, where the need of good roads is so manifest. Several of these tax payers cannot vote here but they are instructing their friends who can vote to support the bond issue for the increase in value to the property will more than pay for the improvements.

Cooked Food Sale

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will have a cooked food sale at the store of L. P. McCuller tomorrow afternoon. Pies, cakes, salads, etc.

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

The Seaside Inn at Daytona Beach opened for the season last Wednesday. It is understood that over 100 partook of the opening dinner. After the dinner a big reception and dance was enjoyed.

Crystal Springs is the name of a new town which is being established at the southern edge of Pasco county, on the Seaboard Air Line railway, about midway between Plant City and Dade City.

Lakeland is soon to have an up-to-date hospital, citizens having subscribed stock sufficient to show that the venture will prove a certainty. The hospital will cost in the neighborhood of $15,000 and will be erected in the Drane addition.

Jacksonville, through the efforts of J. D. Rooney, assistant industrial agent of the Seaboard Air Line railway, is to be made the headquarters of the Womanada Land Association, a concern having a capital of $300,000, which will have for its chief purpose the development of 18,000 acres of land in Duval and Nassau counties.

Buoyant with the anticipation of a fine day's outing with a number of his young friends at Worthington Springs, when he left Gainesville Sunday morning Homer H. Hankin, 14 years of age, son of H. H. Hankin, secretary of the American Pecan Company, was returned to his home a corpse Sunday night, followed by the grief-stricken father, who was almost frantic from the effects of his experience. The lad had been drowned in a bayou of the Santa Fe river, within sight of a dozen of his companions, who were out enjoying a swim, and for three hours or more the body was under the water, finally being discovered in about twelve feet of water, but lodged under a brush only about two feet below the surface.

For some time there has been considerable talk of another election to determine whether Miami should issue another series of bonds, for improvements which are very necessary. It is generally acknowledged the necessity of this step. The city council has ordered an election to take place on August 27th to determine whether said bonds shall be issued. The bonds are to be issued for the following purposes and none of the funds are to be diverted for other purposes. For sewerage the sum of $15,000, for the purpose of widening, opening and paving streets, $20,000; for acquiring property for docks, parks, etc., $60,000, for the purpose of acquiring and equipping a fire sub-station, $5,000; for payment of existing indebtedness, $20,000, for the purpose of constructing furniture for destroying garbage, $5,000.

Cut In Price Of Ice

With the price of ice cut in half, practically speaking, consumers can now have this essential commodity at 20 cents per hundred pounds and in households ice will be delivered at the same rate, in small quantities, as it has been to the wholesale consumers.

Beginning with today, this new rate goes into effect and Jacksonville will have manufactured ice as cheap as it is possible to sell and deliver it and perhaps it will be the lowest rate anywhere in the United States. There is no telling how long the cut in rates will be in effect, but with a competition started the local concerns will maintain the new prices for a considerable time.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

Heavy Frost In Orlando

Reports from Orlando indicate that a heavy frost hit that city last Tuesday. It occurred shortly after the ball game here and was noticeable as soon as the players and their friends arrived back home. Manager Cheney has ordered a new player from the South Atlantic League to prevent a repetition of these killing frosts in the future and Orlando hopes to warm the atmosphere to such an extent that the home team will not have their fingers touched by the cold again this winter.

WOODLAND PARK NOTES

Sunday, the brightness of the day, following a season of continued rain, was welcomed by every one as shown by the many out walking, driving or motoring.

At Woodland the sunbeams drifted down through the trees to the water and added to the pleasant liveliness of the bathers in the pool. Many visitors came and went throughout the afternoon. A private laugh party, also the occupants of a yacht anchored near, were among the Woodlanders.

Some of the boys walked. Others had to, owing to an accident to the auto in which they had started. All said that it was hot, and straightway prepared for a plunge into the cool water and a shower bath. Several members of the base ball team "took the treatment" also which presupposes that Sanford will win the next game.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brady and their little daughter, with Mr. and Mrs. Parish and little boy drove out in the afternoon; also Mr. and Mrs. Carter and son in their auto. All agreed that Woodland is the place to keep cool.

FROM THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Washington, D. C., June 21, (Special).—The conference on the River and Harbor appropriation bill are slow getting together, but there is still a vast amount to do before a final agreement is settled.

One of the diversions foresting the official congressional vacation was a base ball game between the Democrats and Republicans of the House held last Saturday.

Opposing them for the Democrats was Rouse of Kentucky as catcher, and Webb of North Carolina, as pitcher, known for one day as the "Carolina duckling."

It is predicted that Congress may remain in session until late in August, or even early in September.

It will cause great grief among the Departments, for it interferes with their system of book-keeping.

MERE CHILD'S PLAY

The spectacle of ball players mixing it up on the grounds in the presence of ladies is enough to disgust the ordinary audience and lower the standard of the great American game in the estimation of a majority of the people. Regardless of the facts in the case The Herald believes that the time has come for the association in both cities to get together on the subject and forever preclude the possibility of such a scene being enacted again in either city. Both teams are composed of gentlemen and they should act the part, no matter how painful. The people of Orlando and Sanford will not countenance such actions in the future.

FOR BRICK ROADS

There has never been such uniformity of action and opinion on any subject in this section as the present unity on the subject of bonding for brick roads and voting bonds for the same. Our people have put up with miserable roads so long that they are heartily in favor of the district plan and the brick roads. All they require is information on the subject and every man who looks into the matter becomes an instant convert. The editor of the Herald has discussed the subject with many of the men who voted against the proposition last year and their main reason for doing so seems to have been the idea that Sanford would have to pay for something they would not get. Under this new plan of a Sanford district these same voters are perfectly willing to vote for the modest sum now required to build brick roads all over this section and make good roads also where there have never been any roads before. From the many expressions heard in every precinct the bond issue will carry overwhelmingly and the tax payers can be assured that they will never regret this forward step.

A SILVER LINING

Rain! rain! rain!

The above exclamation has been resounded in our ears for weeks past, and the weather bureau holds out no relief.

The season has been the most disastrous one that we have known for years. The trucking interest has been almost a total failure, and now the field crops are threatened.

But hope springs eternal in the human breast.

The "darkest hour" is said to be "just before day," and the "blackest cloud" is not without a "silver lining."

The rain seems pitiless, but we are buoyed with the hope that they will drown the "white fly" completely, and if they do they will be worth all the damage they have inflicted on our farmers and truckers, for with this disastrous pest obliterated, Florida will become the best state in the Union.

Dr. James B. Carlisle says that when the orange groves were first planted out for profit in Florida it was just after seven wet years.

The conditions were favorable for their growth, and they reached a high state of perfection.

The ponds have been filled up, the soil was wet, and the orange pests have been obliterated by the continuous rains.

Then followed a double portion of "dry" years as many "dry" years, indeed, as Jacob had to serve for Rachael, and during these years the abominable "white fly" as if one of the plagues of Egypt had been rehabilitated and sent on us as a curse.

The tears continued to get dryer and dryer, and these pestiferous flies became the more numerous.

Now, Dr. Carlisle says that we are promised a season of wet years, and we shall see the destruction of these pests.

If this prediction comes true, we do not believe that they will be allowed to obtain such a foothold again, and with them eliminated, orange growing will be like it was in the 70's, and there will be some pleasure as well as profit in planting groves.

The drowning of the "white fly" will be worth many millions of dollars to the state of Florida, and if the rains will accomplish this purpose we can stand a second flood.—Ocala Banner.

MORE ABOUT THE INSURANCE GRAFT

No reasonable man wants a railroad company to haul freight or passenger service except at a reasonable profit. No reasonable man wants an insurance company to insure his property unless the company is in a prosperous condition and thus able to pay any loss that may occur. Every reasonable man knows that only a prosperous insurance company is a safe company in which to place a risk. Florida is inhabited by a people of whom there are none better read, or more traveled, or more wide awake to the interests of themselves and of the state. The people of Florida are from every state in the Union; they are from every foreign country.

For some unknown reason, our people have been more or less careless in their selection of law makers, and the best interests of the state have not at all times been served. Telegraph and express lobbyists, railroad and school book lawyers, and insurance lawyers and lobbyists have been allowed to gather at Tallahassee at every session of the Legislature, and by methods most questionable have prevented the passage of many laws for the benefit of the people.

Through the influence of such men as Broward and L'Engle and Massey, and Crane and McMullen and Hudson, and Solfe and a few others, much good legislation has been enforced—the Railroad Commission has been created against the concerted efforts of the "conservative" element; the school book trust has been put to route, express companies have been placed under the care of the Railroad Commission; the primary plan has been adopted and at each session improved upon. All these measures had to be fought through the House and the Senate; they were opposed by the so-called conservative element. Thousands upon thousands of dollars were at hand each session to defeat the will of the people.

At the last session an effort was made to outlaw the Insurance Trust and to place Florida upon the same standing as Texas, and Alabama and several other southern states whose Legislatures have been true to the people. The bill was defeated by the Insurance Trust.

In 1911 the Hartford Fire Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., collected $154,036.52 from the people of Florida in premiums. The company's total losses in Florida were $78,366.93. In other words this company collected about $2.00 for every $1.00 returned to the state. In other words, every man or woman in Florida who carried insurance in the Hartford Company paid 200 per cent for his or her insurance in 1911.

In 1911 the Northern Assurance Company of New York received in premiums from policy holders $52,113.39, and paid out for losses $20,701.16. Every man or woman in Florida who carried a policy in the Northern Assurance Company, paid about 252 per cent for his insurance in 1911. But as very good prices were obtained for citrus fruits last season, of course the people didn't mind this little expenditure. And of course our own people all make over 252 per cent on their investments.

In 1911 The North River Fire Insurance Company of New York took $12,555.20 from Florida as premiums. This company reported no losses in Florida last year—and every man or woman who held a policy in this company paid one million two hundred fifty-five thousand five hundred twenty per cent for his insurance in 1911. But then that ain't so bad. Think of what you charged for rooms last year, or what you charged for board. Perhaps you made as high as one million per cent on the cost of your house and lot and grub you furnished. Did you?

In 1911, the American Union of Philadelphia, received $10,696.92 in premiums and paid back to Florida policy holders $1,829.64 for losses. This is only about 600 per cent, and is a real modest amount for a member of the Insurance Trust. Anybody can make 600 per cent in his line of business! Eh? Do you know a merchant, or a lawyer, or a doctor, or a school teacher, or a farmer, or a trucker, who is not making 600 per cent on the business he does every year? If you do, go to him and show him this article and ask him if he is being treated as nicely by the Florida Legislature as this Philadelphia company is being treated. Ask the merchant you deal with if he is making 600 per cent off the groceries or shoes or clothes he sells you.

The high cost of living. Bahl! We stand up like a lot of yaps and let foreign companies come into our state and take all we make by working hard 365 days—366 days this year. We welcome them and turn our pockets inside out for them. We do each other and let the New York and Philadelphia and Hartford and English and German corporations take it away from us.

Let's cease yelling and see that our members of the Legislature insist that Floridians be treated equally as well as Texans or Alabamians, or the people of other wide-awake States.—DeLand News.

Resolutions

At the first official board meeting of the stewards of the Methodist church since the gospel meetings at the tent, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas we have had a great religious awakening in our city through the medium of the revival meetings just closed, and the result of which no man can yet approximate, and

Whereas we believe our city has been brought a step nearer to God through their influence,

Therefore, be it resolved that we, as the official board of the Methodist church hereby tender our thanks to all who have contributed by their presence, their personal work or their subscriptions, to make the meeting the success that it has been, and further,

That particular mention be made of the action of the Sanford Herald in assisting us through its columns to a wider publicity for the meetings, and to Bro. E. H. Herndon for the use of the Theater as a meeting place at such times as the weather did not permit of the meetings being held at the tent. Also for the members of the other denominations of the city for their hearty cooperation in our choral work.

Writes About Sanford
Editor Sanford Herald:

'Tis my pleasure to be in the hustling and everlasting thriving city of Sanford once more. It has been a year since I was here, and when I got off the train the other day and came up town I was amazed at the changes that have taken place for the better during my absence. I am glad to know that the city will soon have a very handsome and commodious new railroad terminal and when the railroads invest lots of money in a city 'tis a very good sign that Sanford has a big future before it.

Sanford Heights has certainly improved, and Dr. Robson seems to be a regular Burpee when it comes to growing flowers, etc., and it wouldn't surprise the writer if he didn't still keep the honors of having the best yard in Sanford on the Heights. There is keen competition in this race though I have been told. I was talking with Dr. Robson and I asked him what he attributed his phenomenal success to in growing such fine flowers and such a magnificent lawn. He asked me up to his house, and I immediately saw why when I arrived. He has such fine watering facilities. He has thirty-two sprinklers scattered over his yard and he has an artesian well whose depth is nearly 400 feet, which supplies the water. 'Tis a sight well worth seeing to see these sprinklers in operation.

Hoping that Sanford will still continue to prosper and trusting the place will be so large when I come again I will be unable to know it, I am,
 A WELL WISHER.

Hazing the Bridal Couple

The June bride occupies a pedestal of stately eminence—up to the time when the ices have been served. Then she, with that minor issue, the bridegroom, become the under dogs. It is then up them to escape by the underground passage or undisguised as servants, or in some other way to avoid the desire of their friends to commit assault and battery.

Getting mad because your guests stuff your umbrella with rice, or pelt you with confetti on your lawn, is silly. Pursuing you 30 miles by automobile and tracking you down to your lair in the seclusion of the bridal chambers throwing confetti over the transom and tying ribbons to the door knob, are another thing.

There are circles in which it is considered also a very humorous act, indicative of great originality and broad mental caliber, where the bridegroom is kidnapped and held captive for 24 hours, while the bride is crying her eyes out because a mass of dish water has been thrown over her honeymoon path strewn with flowers.

Marriage festivities will always be a time for the tricky young folks to play their pranks. But it is a time when they display pretty clearly whether they were brought up in a real home or in a bear garden.

Many brides and grooms have started out for the time of their lives with grains of rice lodged in the eye balls, so that a visit to the oculist or the hospital was the first item of their pleasures, which shows that some people have a queer idea of suitable wedding presents.

The all the white ribbons you want to their trunks. The couple are secretly pleased at anything that happens in their own home town where they are known. But, for heaven's sake, have mercy on their desire for shade, darkness and seclusion as soon as they are among strangers, and don't turn their railroad car into a rice mill.

True Measure of Man

The following from W. C. Brann has often appeared in print, but it contains so much truth that it is well worth repeating.

The place to take the true measure of a man is not in the market place or amon corner, the forum or the field but by his own bedside. There he lays aside his mask and you may learn whether he is an imp or an angel, king or cur, hero or humbug. I care not what the world may say of him, whether it crowns him with bays or pelts him with bad eggs. I care not a copper what his religion or reputation may be, if his babies dread his homecoming and his better half swallows her heart every time she has to ask him for a five-dollar bill, he is a fraud of the first water, even though he prays night and morning until he is black in the face and howls hallelujah until he shakes the eternal hills. But if his children rush to the front gate to meet him and love's sunshine illumines the face of his wife when she hears his footfall, you can take it for granted that he is pure gold, his home is a heaven, and the humbug never gets that near the white throne of God. He may be a rank atheist and a red flag anarchist, a Mormon and a mugwump, he may buy votes in blocks of five and bet on the election, he may deal them from the bottom of the deck and drink beer until he can't tell a silver dollar from a circular saw, and still be an infinitely better man than the cowardly little man who is all suavity in society but who makes his home a hell, who vents upon the heads of his helpless wife and children an ill nature he would like to inflict upon his fellow man but dares not. I can forgive much in that fellow mortal who would rather have the hate of the world than the contempt of his wife, who would rather call anger to the eyes of the world than fear to the face of a child.

Slaps Sanford Umpire

Three home runs by Orlando and a fight were the features of yesterday's game in Sanford.

As to which club can gain the victory will be decided by the board of managers of both teams in a meeting to be had as soon as possible. The game was claimed by Sanford on an unfair decision but Manager Cheney will contest the game on the grounds of a broken rule in regard to passed balls at home plate.

Mr. Crittenden, the Sanford umpire, allowed a Sanford man to score from second on a passed ball and even at that the man was tagged out before he crossed the rubber. This caused a fight between the Orlando catcher and the umpire and the game broke up, with the score standing 3 to 3.

Billy Beardall and Umpire Chittenden were arrested and put under $10 bond, by Mayor Genser, to appear in Sanford this morning. The arrest was the outcome of the dispute at home base in the ninth inning, in which several blows were struck.

Billy went up on the 10:00 train this morning to face his honor, and it is believed that Sanford's mayor will discharge him on the grounds of justification in the act.—Reporter-Star.

My Worst Blunder

FAMOUS "BONEHEAD" PLAYS ON MAJOR LEAGUE DIAMONDS

Explained by Leading Baseball Players to

HUGH S. FULLERTON

By LARRY DOYLE.

Captain and Second Baseman New York Giants, Who is McGraw's Ablest Lieutenant and One of the Greatest Players.

There is one thing that makes a ball player wiser than anything else, and that is when he pulls off a play that he thinks is about the wisest and smartest he ever made, and then have some fellow cross him and make him look as if he was the worst bonehead in the business. You know there is a saying among the players that you can't catch a bad base runner on the bases, and there is a lot of truth in it. In fact it is the smart ball player who makes the worst blunders, and I know several really clever men who have become known as boneheads simply because of the way things turned out.

There is one play that I always will remember. I don't mind telling it now, since we had rather sweet revenge on the team that pulled it on me, but for a couple of years I used to boll over every time I thought of it. I made the play in a game against the Chicago Cubs back in 1908, when they nosed us out and won the championship, which we all thought should have belonged to us. I made the play just at the time it hurt us worst, and when I made it I thought I was pulling off a nice little bit of work. I was on second base, no one was out, and another runner was on third; so, as we were only two runs to the bad it looked as if we would tie it up and probably win out right there. Naturally we were hustling and fighting for those two runs, because we felt that if we tied the Cubs Mathewson, who was pitching, could beat them. The batter hit a medium short fly to Sheckard, who went over right alongside the foul line to catch it. The crowd was along the base lines and out in left, and I went back, touched second, and stood there watching to see whether he could make the catch. He made it all right, just at the edge of the crowd. The runner ahead of me was standing ready to start for home the instant the ball hit Sheckard's hands, and it looked as if there was a chance to throw him out at the plate, although he was fast. Sheckard was handicapped by the fact that the crowd was so close to him, and the moment he caught the ball the runner started home at top speed. I decided if Sheckard threw to the plate I would go to third on the throw, and I watched him closely. He jumped clear of the crowd, swung his arm and made a fast throw. I came up the line as fast as I could scot, half watching toward the plate as I ran to see if the ball went wild so I could make a turn and score on it. Fifteen feet from third I heard the coacher yell, and looked. There was Steinfeldt with the ball in his hands, and before

I could check myself he touched me, never even giving me a chance to slide. One run scored, but we never got any closer and they beat us out as the score stood. I went to the bench boiling mad, thinking Sheckard had thrown wild to the plate, and Steinfeldt had pulled down the ball. As a matter of fact, he swung as if throwing to the plate, changed the direction of the throw while his arm was swinging and trapped me. I never forgave him until we beat the Cubs out last fall.

Seventeen Years of Good Road Building in Orange County

The area which is proposed to the voters of Precincts 3, 4, 20 and 25 to be established as a special road and bridge district is now paying into the general road fund of Orange county the sum of $13,000 per annum on an assessed valuation of $1,640,000. The campaign for good roads began seventeen years ago and has been aggressively carried on up to the present time. As a result of all this tax paying the proposed district now has a hard road west to Rabuns, a distance of three miles, east to the Osteen ferry, a distance of three miles and south to Robinson Springs, a distance of eight miles, making a total of fourteen miles of alleged hard surfaced road in the proposed district. These roads were made of sand clay and marl. The one on the west of Sanford was built two years ago and is now a total wreck, as well as a complete failure. The Celery avenue road would never pass muster as a hard surfaced road. The streak of ruts leading to Robinson's Springs (Sanford road) is impassable in places and is now in such condition that it, along with Celery avenue will have to be resurfaced from start to finish, if they are to be considered any further as items of utility in the traffic of the county.

It is stated in Bulletin No. 2, issued by the State Geological Department, which deals with hard surfaced roads and road building materials, that marl or sand clay roads will cost from $500 to $1,500 per mile, according to the distance the materials have to be carried. This would make our present quota of hard surfaced roads cost the tax payers of this district the sum of $21,000. But instead of paying this amount for these roads we have paid in taxes a sum amounting to near $200,000, which makes the cost of these roads reach the enormous total of $14,000 per mile. It is true that in the meantime some work of a desultory nature has been done on the ordinary roads in various portions of the district, but it would be hard to prove that this work would equalize on the difference of the maximum cost of $1,500 per mile as related to the actual outlay of $14,000 per mile.

Now that precincts 3, 4, 20 and 25 are in a fair way to sever their connection with the other portions of the county and use the road funds to construct roads within their bounds and build said roads of substantial materials that will not have to be replaced every two years, a great activity is being manifested in and about the county seat in favor of brick roads and various plans and propositions are being worked out and exploited. The last one is to bond the county for $600,000 with which (it is shown on paper) 107 miles of brick roads nine feet in width will be started. The plan proposes that the county pay seventy per cent of this amount and the abutting property pay fifteen per cent, on either side of proposed roads, which would amount to about $2,400 per mile for all lands passed on both sides of the road, regardless of their worth or valuation.

However, none of these plans or suggestions will in any way effect our proposed road district as the election has been ordered for the 13th of July, unless the voters pass in the negative on the proposition. It will be remembered that when the bond election for the entire county was held for the purpose of building brick roads that Sanford voted in the affirmative on the proposition while delegations of speakers came here from Orlando to show us what we should do in the premises. Orlando voted against the bonds. Now that we have again assumed the initiative we are again the recipients of some "sound ad-

SANFORD 4, ORLANDO 3

Tuesday's Base Ball Game Ended in Unpleasant Manner

The game Tuesday between Sanford and Orlando ended in a most disgraceful manner, and if the Orlando management does not take drastic measures to stop such conduct the game will receive a black eye from which it will never recover.

After a comedy of errors on the part of the Orlando team that allowed Sanford to score three runs and after Orlando had made three home runs the winning run for Sanford was made on a very close decision.

With men on bases and one out, Chittendon came in on a wild throw to the catcher and Umpire Chittendon called the runner safe. Beardall, catcher for Orlando, became enraged at the decision and accused the umpire of stealing the game. From then on the accounts vary as to the blows struck, but it is certain that Beardall struck the umpire with his mask, cutting his scalp. The fight was stopped at once and Beardall was placed under arrest, afterward being released on a cash bond. There will never be any more games played if the umpire can be jumped on at the pleasure of every player, and the fact that the umpires of the Sandspur League are doing their work from the laudable desire to have good ball is good and sufficient reason for every lover of clean ball to help protect them. The decisions of the umpire go regardless of whether the individual players like it or not, and the captain and manager of the team can settle any difficulty that may occur in regard to adverse decisions. Both Orlando and Sanford teams have a hard struggle each year to get donations from people who are sore on the quarrelsome disposition of some of the players and do not want the spirit of animus to prevail between the two cities. If we can't play a friendly series of games without having such disgraceful scenes enacted then it would be better to call the series off at once and forever taboo the subject of base ball. The feeling about ball is none too secure at the present and many people who desire a peaceful summer season are forced to stay away from the park because they do not care to attend a ball game and be compelled to witness a common street brawl. The management of both teams and the good people of both cities deplore the trouble of Tuesday and there is no doubt but what some strenuous measure will be adopted to prevent a recurrence of such child's play in the future.

Let us have good clean ball or else close up the ball park for all time. We are all friends and neighbors and the absurdity of these petty quarrels make us look very small in the eyes of visitors to the ball games who cannot understand how grown men can indulge in such horse play and so far forget their manhood as to imitate little boys on the back lot.

The Herald is glad to note that the other players did not take any part in the affair, and Beardall's own team mates condemn him hasty action in assaulting the umpire.

Later.—As we go to press we are informed by Manager Stevens that the game on Tuesday, which was contested on account of the decision of Umpire Chittendon, was, at a meeting of the directors in Orlando yesterday, allowed to stand. Orlando players will have to try some other method. Thus as it stands now, Orlando has won two games while Sanford has four, and still going.

The Same Sad Story

Considering the inclemency of the weather, a fairly representative crowd of Sanfordites journeyed to Orlando yesterday, in various ways, to witness the killing. The game, accompanied by a steady drizzle, was slow, although there were several brilliant plays. Pounds and Lee starring for Orlando. Sanford had no chance to star, as Lee had things his way from first to last, fanning nine men in seven innings. It is wonderful how much fuss Orlando can make when they have one or two runs to the good, and how quiet they can get when they get one or two to the bad, but then, well, that's human nature. Wallace went in in the sixth to bat for Chittendon, and, with a man on second, got a two-bagger which was just the proper caper. That boy Farmer was all to the good yesterday getting two 2-baggers and a single out of four times up. All right boys, keep it up and anything in Sanford is yours—even money.

Billy Beardall's Story

Billy Beardall was up Wednesday and said that the people who said he cursed the umpire certainly had him in wrong, as the only remark he made was that the umpire had robbed them of the game and that afterward the umpire came back at him and struck at him. That he only defended himself and struck Mr. Chittendon with his mask. Billy also stated that no one deplored the affair any more than he did as he considered Sanford his old home and he was genuinely sorry that he had allowed his anger to get the better of him. There is no doubt but what all parties concerned are sorry about the affair, but that does not change the act and the one at fault should be made to suffer.

vice—as to the disposition of such funds that we deem we are able to pay toward building permanent brick roads. Just why this sense of paternalism is manifested in our behalf is unknown to the residents of this section.

From the canvass we have so far made, we find that not one man in fifty is adverse to the proposition of the road and bridge district, and it is believed that when the votes are counted the result will be as near unanimous in favor of, than any proposition that has ever been placed before our residents.

This proposition has evolved in Sanford for the purpose of giving the tax payers of the four precincts (which are virtually integral parts of Sanford) the full right to spend their road money in just the way they care to spend it. These precincts will show conclusively that they want good roads and when we have established the precedent then the other sections of the county will in all probability organize in a similar manner and begin to devise ways and means to relegate the sink holes, depressions and soft places in their roads to the bowwows and follow the example of the Special Road and Bridge District and construct roads of a permanent nature.

This is the second of a series of articles which will appear in this paper each issue until the day of election. Information relating to the proposition may be had of the official committee by application to its secretary.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

President Samuel Gompers, Secretary Frank Morrison and Vice-President John Mitchell of the American Federation of Labor were today held to be guilty of contempt of court by the District of Columbia supreme court in connection with the court's injunction in the Buck's Stove and Range company case.

At noon today sixteen bodies had been recovered from the Niagara River Eagle Park, the scene of last night's drowning tragedy, and the official list of identified dead and missing reached a total of thirty. More than a score of persons were hurled to their death in the swift waters of Niagara River late yesterday when the dock at Eagle Park, a pleasure resort, crumbled under the weight of a throng of excursionists bound back to their homes in this city.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was again today the chief witness against her husband, Harry K. Thaw, who is trying to prove his sanity and thereby obtain a release from Mattewan asylum. She was called to the stand yesterday morning, the first day of the second week of the hearing. She admitted under questioning by Thaw's counsel that she testified he was sane. She denied she had said Thaw would never get out of Mattewan until he "settled with her."

Not only will Clarence S. Darrow take the stand in his trial for alleged jury bribery, but Mrs. Darrow will also be a witness for the defense. Although no statement was made by District Attorney Fredericks as to the time he expected to complete the State's case, attorneys for the defense announced that they would be ready to begin the presentation of their side of the case the latter part of this week. They expect the prosecution to rest about Friday and possibly sooner.

In Lambeth Palace, the historic home of the Archbishop of Canterbury, a small group of English and American churchmen assembled today to confer on plans whereby unity of Christendom may be accomplished. In attendance on the conference were the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Archbishop of York and several other eminent prelates of the Church of England and a commission representing the Episcopal church in America. The American commissioners present were Bishop Anderson, of Chicago, Bishop Vincene of Ohio, Bishop Hall of Vermont and the Rev. Dr. William T. Hanning, rector of Trinity church, New York city.

Preparations are being made to secure a very general participation by the health authorities of the cities and towns of Florida in the fifteenth international congress on Hygiene and demography which meets in September. The state already has accepted the invitation extended by President Taft, and an effort now is being made to have official delegates appointed by the mayors of Florida municipalities. Letters from the officers of the congress in Washington have just been sent to each mayor and each health officer in the following cities if the state: Daytona, DeLand, Fernandina, Jacksonville, Lakeland, Miami, Ocala, Punta Gorda, St. Augustine, Sanford, Tampa, and Tallahassee.

Sunday Evening of Song

On Sunday evening, June 30, next Sunday, the choir of the Congregational church will give an evening of song worship. There will be several fine anthems, a ladies' quartette, a gentlemen's quartette, sparkling duets, part songs and solos. All substantial and pleasing church music, together with a brief address by the pastor. There will be no attack on your pocketbook other than the usual voluntary contribution, so come and enjoy it. Tell your neighbors and friends and bring them with you. All is free, the invitation cordial, and a helpful, uplifting and entertaining evening of divine praise is assured.

FLETCHER TALKS TO LADIES

Senior Senator Addresses Lovely Young Graduates

Washington, D. C., June 24th. (Special to The Herald). United States Senator Duncan U. Fletcher, of Florida, addressed the graduating class of Washington Normal School No. 1, Wednesday afternoon, June 10th at 4:30 p. m. at Continental Hall near the Corcoran Art Gallery.

He delivered an inspiring message to the class of eighty-five young women graduates who are to take up the profession of teaching in and near Washington. Seventy-two will apply themselves to kindergarten work.

The Senior Senator from Florida was invited to deliver this address by the Superintendent of Public Schools for the District of Columbia and also by Miss Goding, Principal of the Normal School. Last year the graduating class of the school was addressed by Senator W. E. Borah, of Idaho.

The commencement exercises brought together an audience of 2,000 representative people and proved thoroughly successful in every respect. Senator Fletcher has always taken a deep interest in educational matters. From 1900 to 1906 he was Chairman of the Board of Public Instruction in Duval county, Florida. He never loses an opportunity to put in a good word for Florida in any of his addresses and he has been much in demand as a speaker at notable functions during the present session of Congress.

He was the orator of the day February 22nd when he addressed the 4,000 Government Printing Office employees on "Washington," and one of the four principal speakers at the big Southern Society of Washington banquet the same night when he spoke on "Patrick Henry" and recently was one of the principal speakers before the California State Society at its banquet. The Senator has made many friends and a splendid impression each time.

Beacham On Brick Roads

Mr. Beacham was asked what he thought of the proposition to put down clay roads instead of brick, the clay to contain such an admixture of sand as to be porous, a plan which is being talked of here. He said:

"It is child's play to put down clay roads. What has been the result of clay roads building in this country? During the past two years the county has expended in the neighborhood of $100,000 for the upkeep of these roads, and they are actually in worse condition than they were two years ago. And consider for a moment that in twenty years a million dollars of brick roads could be built and paid for, and all for the present cost of the so-called maintenance of these clay highways.

"Roads must be estimated from the standpoint of tonnage. Heavy tonnage cannot be hauled over clay roads, especially in winter without the road going to pieces. That fact has been amply demonstrated. Reporter Star.

Will Have Weather Bureau

Hon. J. N. Whitner, Sanford, Fla.

My Dear Joe—Yours of the 12th inst. enclosing petition asking for the establishment of a weather bureau station at Sanford received. You can rest assured that I will do everything in my power to have this station established. I will take it up with the Department at once and "no stone will be left unturned" to accomplish it. You can advise the people of this fact. In this connection I desire to say that since my return, our sub-committee of the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds have been at work preparing a public building bill. This bill will not be presented to the House until next December, but we are preparing it now, and I can say to you and you are at liberty to make it public, that Sanford will have a provision for a site and a building in the forthcoming bill. I don't forget my friends.

Yours most truly,
FRANK CLARK.

BRYAN LOST FIRST PIN

Judge Parker Chosen As Temporary Chairman

BRYAN EXPECTS TO GO FARTHER

No Doubt About Commoner Butting Into Affairs Of The National Convention

Former Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, was selected by the Democratic National Committee tonight for temporary chairman of the National Convention which will open here tomorrow at noon. His election came over the protests of twenty-two members of the convention styling themselves the progressives in the party under the leadership of W. J. Bryan. Senator Elect Ollie James got twenty of these votes and Senator O'Gorman, of New York, two.

That Mr. Bryan will carry the fight for temporary chairman to the floor of the convention now seems assured. Efforts to come to an amicable agreement on this question failed today when a committee appointed at the opening session of the national committee conferred with Mr. Bryan and others in an endeavor to prevent a fight at the beginning. This committee, composed of Chairman Norman E. Mack and Dr. P. L. Hall, member of the Nebraska Delegation, reported to the meeting tonight that its efforts have been unavailable and almost immediately the vote was taken.

The debate over the temporary chairmanship was not prolonged. The Maryland committee severely criticized Mr. Bryan and said Mr. Bryan had assumed the roll of dictator to the Democratic party.

"I for one," said Mr. Talbot, "do not propose to submit to the dictation of this man or any one man."

Senator Newlands, of Nevada, sitting in the committee with a proxy, defended Mr. Bryan. The Senator declared that he did not yield to the dictation of any one man, but that he did not regard Mr. Bryan as a dictator, but as the representative of progressive principles endorsed by the Democratic party.

When Urey Woodson, committeeman from Kentucky, voted for Parker against James, he explained that Kentucky did not wish to place James' name before the convention. He said that he had talked with Mr. James and had been assured he was not a candidate. In addition he said Kentucky delegates had instructions that James' name not be placed before the committee. Robert Ewing, committeeman from Louisiana, a Wilson supporter, placed James' name before the committee.

Edward G. Goltra, of Missouri, a Clark man, explained that he voted for James because he was supporting Clark. This was taken by many to mean that they Bryan forces in the convention would receive some assistance from the Clark supporters when the fight against Parker is taken to the floor tomorrow.

Harrold O'Berry

A quiet but pretty home wedding occurred at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Harrold, 609 East Magnolia street, Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, when their eldest daughter, Miss Alma Lucile Harrold, was united in marriage to Mr. Martin Luther O'Berry.

The ceremony, which was witnessed by only the immediate family, was performed by Dr. J. G. Anderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

The bride was gowned in a light tan pongee silk, with hat and gloves to match and presented a picture of loveliness. She has been reared in Gainesville, is attractive in personality, cultured and accomplished, and is popular with a large circle of friends.

The groom is from Kissimmee and a son of one of Osceola's best known and most extensive planters. For the past two years he has been attending the law department of the University of Florida, and possesses the prerequisites which are destined to make him successful in the practice of his chosen profession.

Following the ceremony the happy couple left over the Seaboard Air Line for Jacksonville and Atlantic Beach, where they will remain the next few days. Upon their return to Gainesville they will be at home at the residence of the bride's parents.—Gainesville Sun.

WANTS BALL NEWS

Ocala Man Says Whole State Is Taking Notice

Sporting Editor Sanford Herald:

The write up you give each game of ball is very complete and is enjoyed by every one that has the pleasure of reading them (except possibly the people in Orlando), but there is just one little thing that would help out very much, especially the people that do not have the pleasure of seeing the games or being in Orlando or Sanford, this one little thing is a complete summary of the games as won and lost by the different teams.

I think the three teams, Orlando, Kissimmee and Sanford have played enough games up to this time to make it interesting to every one to know just how each team stands.

There is a large crowd in Ocala and elsewhere that is taking a great interest in the games that are being played and every one would, I know, appreciate such an addition to the sporting section.

Hoping that you will see the advantage in the simple suggestion and wishing for the Sanford team the very best possible success, I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,
C. R. PEABODY.

Sanford's Associated Charities

Associated Charities in Sanford were formally launched at the Star Theatre last Sunday afternoon. Mr. C. R. Walker presided as temporary chairman and Mr. B. F. Whitner, Jr., was made temporary secretary.

The first business of the day was the report of Rev. George B. Waldron, chairman of the committee on organization. Mr. Waldron stated briefly some of the reasons for organized charities in Sanford, citing cases that have already come under our notice in the city. Then the constitution was offered as it has been already adopted in the meeting of May 26, and as it appeared in the Herald of the following Tuesday.

This was adopted with two changes. One of these changes places the annual meeting during the second week in January, and by the other change all resident pastors of Sanford churches are made ex-officio members of the board of directors.

It was decided to elect the officers for the seven months until next January. Upon nomination of the committee the following were unanimously chosen:

Death of an Infant

Died, June 20, 1912, Mary Caroline Ingram, 6-day old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ingram.

Sometimes in the rain and sunshine the little flower we welcome droops and dies, but its delicate breath has inspired us to hope and perfumed our life with thoughts of purity. The sunshine of love could not warm her to life nor the affection of parenthood beguile her from drooping. Her breath went out like the exhalation of a sweetly fragrant union of the woodland and in her stead was left only a holy and beautiful memory—a memory that will last and sanctify as long as parental existence.

J. G. Forrester dragged into The Leader office Monday morning a huge rattlesnake, which, if we should meet in the road, we would be willing to give the entire right of way. The rattler measured about eight feet long and ten inches around and had fifteen rattles. It was captured at a road side about five miles southeast of Meade by a farmer and brought town by Mr. Forrester.—Fort Meade Leader.

Work had begun at the assembly grounds on Anastasia below South Beach and soon all will be under way. Contractors are now busy sinking artesian wells which will supply the water necessary for the chautauqua city when it is established. The securing of the water was necessary before other work began in order that there might be a plentiful supply. It will not be long before the grading work will begin and then the St. Johns Electric Company will start preparations for the extending of the South Beach line on down to the assembly site.—St. Augustine Record.

Drowned at Ocala

Ocala, June 20. This afternoon while in swimming at Silver Springs, Herbert L. Fogg of this city, aged about 43 years, was drowned. He and a companion, B. H. Hull, were swimming across the springs and had gotten half way back again when Mr. Fogg was presumably attacked with cramps.
