German Nurse Released
Hanoi Frees 34 More POWs

By FRANK N. HAWKINS Jr. CLARK AIR BASE, Philippines (AP) — The Viet Cong released 34 more prisoners of war in Hanoi today, including the only foreign woman held by the Communists, and a U.S. Air Force hospital plane brought them to Clark Air Base for a presidential welcome.

President Ferdinand E. Marcos was on hand because two Filipino employees of the Voice of America were among those freed, along with 27 American military men, three American civilians and two West German medical workers.

One of the Germans was nurse Monika Schwinm, 20, who was captured near Da Nang April 27, 1969.

It was the second prisoner release in two days. On Sunday, the North Vietnamese freed 106 Americans and two Thais in Hanoi.

First off the plane today was the ranking American military member of the group, Army Capt. Stephen R. Leopold, 28, of Milwaukee, Wis. "My God, you don't know how good it is to be free, how good it is to be home," he said in a brief speech.

The POWs were dressed in the same gray shirts and dark slacks that other prisoners who have returned from Hanoi have worn.

All but one of the American military men solemnly saluted the American flag before stepping down the ramp to be greeted by Marcos, Adm. Noel Gayler, commander in chief of U.S. forces in the Pacific; U.S. Ambassador Henry A. Byroade, and the commander of the 13th Air Force, Lt. Gen. William G. Moore Jr.

Marine Sgt. Frank E. Cius Jr., 36, who was captured June 3, 1967, saluted Gayler as he stepped down but not the colors. He was the only POW to be released so far for whom the military has not announced a home town. They said this was done at the request of his family.

Also on the flight were five members of the armed forces radio television network captured in Hue during the Tet offensive on Feb. 3, 1968.

They were Marine Capt. James V. Dibernardo, 38, of Mission Viejo, Calif., commander of the unit, Army Spec. 5 Jose M. Astorga, 22, of San Diego, Calif.; Army S.Sgt. John A. Deering, 30, of Durham, N.C.; Army S.Sgt. Harry L. Etzmuller, 23, of Pleasantville, N.J.; and M.Sgt. Donald Joseph Gouin, 44, of Lima, Ohio.

'Typhoid' Camp Quarantined By Health Officials

By John A. Spolski

HOMESTEAD, Fla. (AP) — Dade County's public health director said today 30 cases of typhoid had been confirmed at a migrant camp and he "wouldn't be surprised" if the total reaches more than 100.

"As of late yesterday afternoon, there were 30 confirmed cases and approximately 70 more under partial suspicion, Dr. Milton Saslaw said of the epidemic which hospitalized 107 of the camp's 2,000 migrant farm workers.

"Certainly, this is a major outbreak," Saslaw said. "We probably will have additional cases confirmed."

"Asked if he believed all 70 suspected cases would be confirmed, he answered, "possibly—maybe even more."

Saslaw said a loose quarantine has been imposed on the camp to protect camp residents and insure the disease is not spread.

"I don't know how we'd handle the people who live there if we close the camp down," he said. "If we have them all in one place, we can do our best job."

Saslaw said camp residents were allowed to leave the camp to buy food and work, "but that's about all. They've been ordered to stay in the camp."

And if that's not enough to make your blood boil, tomorrow I'll tell you why I'm opposed to the continuation of the four mills coming up on the special school referendum.

There are two excellent "letters to the Editor" appearing in the current issue of NEWSWEEK, and I believe that they summarize my feelings better than I could probably get the point across to you.

And both of these are written by Vietnam veterans... (for crying out loud, at least take the time to read 'em will you?)

...served two years of active duty. But what we would like the public to be aware of is that we were not motivated by any strong feelings of patriotism in doing this. Indeed it was a lack of motivation that led us to accept the lot forced upon us by the government. It's not easy to leave your home country with little chance of seeing it again for the reasons that the draft resisters did. Surely they believed in their cause more than those of us who went believed in ours.

It was signed by James C. Becker of Chicago.

However, the one which really gets right to the crux of the problem is Sybil Sticht of Walnut Creek, Calif.

"One of the most bewildering things about the controversy over amnesty for the American war resisters is the apparent acquiescence of their families and friends in the Administration's determination to exact the last bitter ounce of penalty from those who placed right before wrong, conscience before expediency, and did exactly what the American prosecution at the Nuremberg trial of war criminals declared they should have done — refused to obey unjust laws and evil commands."

Slain Diplomats Leave Khartoum

By HOLGER JENSEN Associated Press Writer KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP) — Diplomats, Sudanese officials and newsmen went openly today as a U.S. presidential plane left Khartoum to take home the bodies and families of two U.S. diplomats murdered by Palestinian guerrillas.

The burial-wrapped bodies of U.S. Ambassador Theo A. Noel Jr. and Charge d'Affaires Curtis Moore were carried from the blood-spattered Saudi Arabian Embassy on Sunday. The eight guerrillas surrendered to Sudanese authorities after holding out for 60 hours.

The terrorists also killed the Belgian charge d'affaires, Guy Eid, but freed Jordanian Charge d'Affaires Charles Adley el Nasser, Saudi Ambassador Abdullah Malhouk and his wife unharmed.

A band softly played Auld Lang Syne as the flag-draped coffins were lifted into the Boeing jet shortly after dawn, and the grieving families said goodbye to the long line of well wishers.

Two U.S. Marines in dress blues flanked each casket, but otherwise there was no ceremony.

President Jaafar al Numairi assigned Minister of Reform Abdul Rahman Abdul Iah to accompany the bodies of Noel and Moore and to present Sudan's condolences to President Nixon.

In Washington, the State Department said the plane would arrive at Andrews Air Force Base about 4 p.m. EST. The two diplomats will be buried in Arlington National Cemetery.

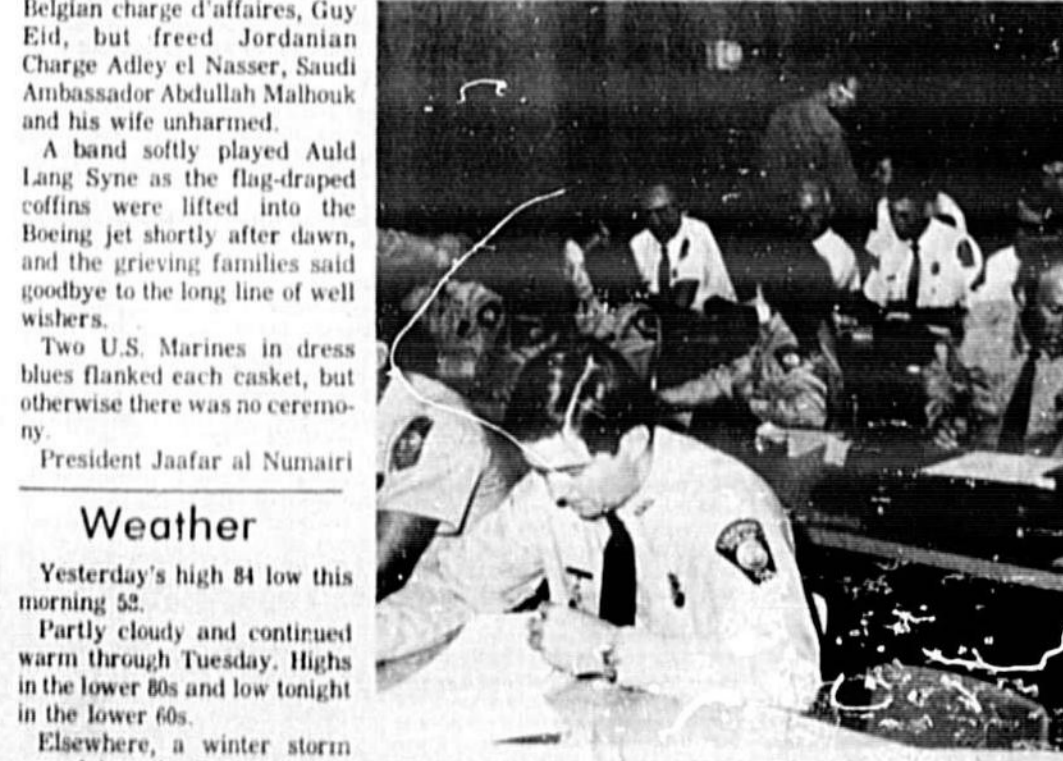

The eight guerrillas, members of the Black September faction of the Palestine liberation movement, were held at a Khartoum army headquarters.

President Numairi cabled President Nixon that he would deal firmly with them. "We find the killing of these men outrageous," he said.

A high-ranking member of the Sudanese government told diplomats privately: "The guerrillas are already dead men."

More than 100 paratroopers surrounded the embassy Sunday as the eight Palestinians, described as between 18 and 23 years old, emerged from the building, flashing victory signs.

In a statement issued in Beirut, Black September said the guerrillas surrendered "because of the high esteem we hold" for Numairi.

Take Heart, Micro-Minis In Now

By JOHN BREWER Associated Press Writer CLARK AIR BASE, Philippines (AP) — A freed prisoner of war on the flight from Hanoi whispered to a nurse, "Is the mini still in?"

"No, it's out," the nurse replied.

"Stinks. I was hoping..."

"The micro-mini is in now. So is the braless look. See through blouses with no bras..."

"Oh, you don't say..."

"And there's hot pants. They're short-shorts."

"Oh, boy, eh, my goodness..."

A cluster of men huddled round a Playboy magazine.

"They, find some nudes. I understand they have some real, real nudes now..."

The centerfold spilled out.

"Hey, there's one. Ohhhhh, boy. I can't stand it. I really can't stand it!"

Others read Sears' catalog.

"It was like we heard. Flare pants and long hair," said a 45-year-old Navy pilot. He said the POWs had received Western magazines recently after their release was set.

One man sought out an escort officer. "Have you heard if President Nixon is going to see us? That man is a saint. You don't have any idea of how we supported him in this war. We cheered as the berets fell!"

High Costs May Force Site Switch

By BOB LLOYD
Sanford city commissioners, faced with site preparation bids up to triple expected costs, may decide today to move the location of the new Police Headquarters-Security Complex.

Demucking of four acres of the designated seven-acre site at Marshall Avenue and West 25th Street had been estimated to cost $28,000 to $30,000. But when bids from three excavation contractors were opened at City Hall Friday they were for $84,700, $106,363 and $113,800.

City Manager Warren Knowles said at today's 4 p.m. City Commission work session he will recommend the bids be tabled or rejected.

Meany Hits President's Phase 3

WASHINGTON (AP) — AFL-CIO President George Meany says President Nixon's Phase 3 program is shaping up to mean unrestrained increases in food and rent with tight clamps on higher wages.

In a television appearance Sunday, Meany also said the administration is managing the news by giving only its interpretation of the Cost of Living Council Advisory Board's proposed economic policies.

With no controls on food prices, rents or interest rates, Meany said, "the only thing we've got controlled are the workers' wages."

"Maybe we've been had; I don't know," he said.

In a White House press conference, administration officials interpreted the advisory group's report for reporters, but left out the council's recommendation that "no single standard should apply" to wage increases under President Nixon's Phase 3 controls, Meany said.

A Durable Institution
Latin American Payoffs Common

By PENNY LERNOUX
Copy News Service
BOGOTA—Whether it's a "handshake," a "bribe," a "tip" or a "commission," the payoff in Latin America is an ancient institution.

According to a National Selective Service Headquarters official, the pay ranges from board and room—"three hots and a cot"—to salaries of $12,000 a year.

It is used by the police that a CO should be paid no more than a grunt (foot soldier), but that's no longer the case," he said.

"We require that the CO be employed in a full-time job of 40 hours a week. That's a somewhat better deal than the GI gets. If he works overtime, he gets paid overtime. He gets whatever vacation and sick leave his fellow employees with the same seniority get."

So What's Tougher?

It is predicted that food will some day come in edible containers. This is nothing new. Many of us have eaten the picnic apple pie where the paper plate was the best part.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My 11 year old son, "Hunter's" wife, concerning a husband who loves to hunt. A minister I knew in the Army more than a quarter of a century ago told me that far too many deer were only wounded, and went off into the woods to die in agony.

DEAR C. H.: I am appalled. I hope that minister didn't preach what he practiced.

DEAR ABBY: I am 24, and my husband is 26. We both work and don't have any children, which is a good thing, because my husband is getting on my nerves.

DEAR ABBY: I am 24, and my husband is 26. We both work and don't have any children, which is a good thing, because my husband is getting on my nerves.

DEAR C. H. S.: Consider it passed. But why wait until Christmas?

FORECAST FOR TUESDAY, MARCH 6, 1973

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day when you wish to put some new ventures into execution, but it would be a most unwise course if suggested you study your activities and be more prepared to put them in motion on another day.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): You are irritated and want to blast a steer, but silence would be your best weapon now. You know you have to do. Do not commit yourself to anything you cannot follow through on.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): You are trying to run away from pressures to do something else but this only leads to more trouble, so take time to relax and think. Then you will be able to handle everything in stride.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Not a good day to ask a friend for a favor, since this person is busy now. Wait until next week. Do more work and forget social skill which would be disappointing, anyway. Gain more ambition.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Remain busy at your work and have little or no discussion with co-workers, otherwise arguments could arise. Take the health treatments you need and build up your energy for the days ahead.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Keep personal matters to yourself if you want to avoid a big argument at home, but quickly get rid of whatever is causing the trouble. A new plan you have needs more study.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Travel with utmost care so that you avoid a possible accident. Formulate a new plan you have to see you can discuss it later with good friends. Avoid one who has an eye on your assets.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Use extreme care with your money, either in spending or investing, and listen to what a monetary expert has to suggest. Don't rely on your intuition, which could be off base right now.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): You feel discontented and could take your ire out on your friends from doing this. You can retain an important social event tonight provided you remain calm and poised.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY, he or she will be one of those cheerful young people who loves to solve problems, so be sure to give an opportunity to do just that with whatever will arise at home during early youth. Teach to have a positive attitude toward life and then this becomes a very successful chart. Give the finest ethical and religious training possible. Sports are a natural here.

The Stars impel, they do not compel. "What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!"

Highlights TV Time Previews

8:30 CBS GUNSMOKE: "This Week's Preview: Rex's Last Case." Richard Widmark is sticking with the law. Stepping away from "Magnum" for this TV movie, he plays a retired cop who is trying to settle on a run-down farm out West. When his former partner, an Indian played by Henry Farrow, is accused of a number of murders, Widmark is forced to come out of retirement and investigate.

9:30 ABC THE BROTHERS: "Fuzz Brothers." "Doc Elliot" ABC has put a pair of one-hour pilots together for this doubleheader, hoping at least one or even both of them will catch the public's fancy. Lee Costello and Felton Perry are costarring in "Fuzz Brothers," playing a black detective team on the Los Angeles Police Department, played with humorous ventilation. An encounter with a small-time hood leads them to information about a planned $10 million jewelry heist, which they decide to investigate themselves.

"Wouldn't electricity cost less if there were two companies competing instead of a monopoly?"

Not by a long shot. In fact, your rates would be much higher, since each company would need its own power plants, transmission lines, sub stations, and personnel. All at a higher cost to you—because each utility would have fewer customers to share the cost of the expensive facilities required to bring you service.

So, who does control your utility rates? In Florida it's the Public Service Commission, a publicly elected body whose rules and regulations make wasteful duplication unnecessary.

You ask. FPL answers.

Must Control Game's Tempo Says Losing Stanford Boss

By KEN RAPPOPORT Associated Press Sports Writer
Want to know how to beat UCLA in basketball? Coach Howie Dallmar of Stanford has an easier solution than locking the Bruins in their dressing room.

"In order to beat UCLA, you must control the tempo of the game," says Dallmar. "You cannot take bad shots. You cannot let control of the ball go for 20 to 30 minutes and then have to spend all your time defending the Bruins."

Aspirants for a national basketball championship, please take note. You'd be listening to a man whose team had almost beaten mighty UCLA.

The Bruins, who have won the NCAA title six straight years and will be making another appearance as a result of winning the Pacific-8 title, had their attack untracked behind Bill Walton in the second half. The lanky redhead scored 15 of his 23 points in the last half, helping the amazing Bruins add their record winning streak.

Stanford Saturday night, Stanford had a 25-18 lead at the half by controlling the tempo of the game with Walton.

Eight teams won titles in the NCAA playoffs. The national championship will be settled in St. Louis on March 26 after two weeks of regional competition.

Along with UCLA, the latest title-winners were Penn in the Ivy League, Kansas State in the Big Eight, Furman in the Southern Conference, St. Joseph's, Pa., in the Middle Atlantic Conference, Austin Peay in the Ohio Valley Conference, Arizona State in the Western Athletic Conference and the University of San Francisco in the West Coast Athletic Conference.

Penn won its fourth straight Ivy crown with a 74-46 victory over Dartmouth. Kansas State topped Nebraska 67-70, grabbing the Big Eight for the second year in a row. Furman nailed down the Southern Conference title, beating 1972 champion 95-61 in the league playoffs. St. Joseph's stopped Temple 76-60 for the MAC crown. Austin Peay took the OVC with a 75-73 decision over Murray. Arizona State won the WAC with an 85-67 decision over Colorado State, and San Francisco won the WCCAC with a 96-71 breeze over Pepperdine.

STATE ROUND—Rebound ace, Henry Brown, who helped put his Ocala Forest Class AAA team in the state high school playoffs, rebounded against Starke in the Region II finals in Oviedo Saturday. Brown's 16 markers helped Ocala on top of Starke, 64-44.

Orioles Out To Reestablish Their Junior Loop Supremacy

By GORDON BEARD Associated Press Sports Writer
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles, brought back to earth with a thud last year, will be out to reestablish their supremacy this season in the American League's Eastern Division. It may not be easy.

Following a pattern which helped produce four pennants in six seasons prior to 1972, the Orioles went to Atlanta for the players and a minor league infielder included Dobson, who won 36 games during the past two seasons, young pitcher prospect Tori Harrison, veteran infielder Dave Johnson, and catcher Johnny Oats.

Manager Earl Weaver, who managed pennant winners in his first three full seasons, was related to obtain Williams and acknowledged the possible pitfall.

"You never know about pitching from year to year," he said. "But right now, I think there should be good." "As far as the front line is concerned, our infield should be as good, if not better, than last year. But we'll have to sweat out injuries, because we won't have as much protection."

The pitching could be suspect. The Orioles batted .228 as a team, a drop of 22 points, but 56 fewer runs scored and scored 22 fewer runs. Their record in one-run decisions was 25-31.

The Orioles were in the playoffs last year, but they were eliminated by the Philadelphia 76ers Sunday.

"This was some shooting going on out there today," said Atlanta coach Cotton Fitzsimmons.

"They ran and shoot the ball just super," he said.

Maravich, who scored 36 points over the Hawks, helped Atlanta run up 48 points in the third quarter, just four below the NBA record for a period.

Atlanta 'Super' Pistols

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
They don't call Pete Maravich "Pistol" for nothing, Lou Hudson packs a pretty good wallop, too.

Together, Atlanta's top shooters scored 71 points to lead the Hawks to a 136-130 National Basketball Association victory over the Philadelphia 76ers Sunday.

"This was some shooting going on out there today," said Atlanta coach Cotton Fitzsimmons.

Maravich, who scored 36 points over the Hawks, helped Atlanta run up 48 points in the third quarter, just four below the NBA record for a period.

Loughery was duly impressed with their high-powered performance.

"Atlanta is playing as good as anyone I've ever seen all year," said Loughery. "They could go a long way in the playoffs if they keep up that running game like they had today."

The Hawks, running in the Central Division behind Baltimore, clinched a playoff berth with the victory as third-place Houston lost to Milwaukee 116-101.

Baltimore, meanwhile, remained solidly in the top spot with a 160-147 victory over New York.

200 Offered Amnesty Wounded Knee Talks In Teepee

By F. RICHARD CICCONE Associated Press Writer
WOUNDED KNEE, S.D. (AP) — Peace talks in a teepee were scheduled today at Wounded Knee, a hamlet held since Tuesday by militant Indians who have burned a government proposal to end the armed stand-off.
The Justice Department proposed late Sunday that the 200 Indians who invaded Wounded Knee could depart with no threat of arrest beginning at 10 a.m. EST today.
The federal offer stipulated the Indians must depart without their weapons and that only males must identify themselves as they pass through federal lines.

Federal officials said a grand jury investigation at a later date would determine if charges were warranted.
The Indians, led by officials of the American Indian Movement, jeered at the proposal in their camp Sunday night. They burned the paper on which the offer was written.
"We decided the Indian people are more important to us than jail terms," said Carter

Camp, an AIM leader. "We've come to force the government to come to terms with us."
The Indians' announcement Sunday of their determination to stay here came after a meeting with New York attorney William Kunstler, who arrived earlier in the day.
Late Sunday, a Justice Department spokesman declined comment on the AIM proposal and announced that peace talks started Sunday would resume at noon EST today in a teepee. The tepee is on no-man's land between the Indian outposts and the perimeter of 130 federal and 31 U.S. soldiers died in an 1890 showdown.
The Indians also proposed negotiations for supplies and said that any federal arraignment or legal actions should be held here. They asked all civil rights and peace movement volunteers to gather here.

The 200 Indians took over Wounded Knee, ransacked a trading post, confiscated about 20 weapons and held 11 residents of the village hostage until noon Thursday.
Russell Means and Dennis Banks refused to attend Sunday's session after they learned the senior U.S. official, Ralph Erickson, special assistant to the U.S. attorney general, was not present. U.S. attorneys for North and South Dakota represented the government.
Means said: "We don't want to deal with the lower echelon flunkies of the federal government any longer. They don't show up for meetings. They are not dependable. American Indian Movement negotiations will have to be with the Secretary of the Interior and also with the White House, with congressmen and senators in attendance."

Forest Lake Academy Students Teach Selves

BY GRACE E. SPINKS

FOREST CITY — Students at Forest Lake Academy learn by doing. Science instructor Marlin Wittenberg believes "The best way to learn is for young people to teach young people."
He explained that in the Academy's Junior High program this idea is used to reward achievement. Students that excel in their work and wish to earn extra credits, are allowed to choose special projects and demonstrate their knowledge in the lower elementary grades.
It is interesting to observe the work that goes on in the Science Department. All kinds of animal and pet studies are conducted daily to watch and observe and to anticipate their needs and reactions. Through the courtesy of Pet World in Northgate shopping center there are 25 small animals available to stress living science.

Thursday Feb. 22, Carson Stanford, a 12-year-old seventh grader presented a demonstration pertaining to blood types in Mrs. Ann Wyatt's third grade. Carson, carrying all his equipment including a large overhead microscope entered the third grade to the hum of excitement in anticipation of his experiment. He set the microscope up directly in front of a screen on which he would show the facts about the various blood types. Next he asked for volunteers to donate a blood sample for the test. Scott

Green, a third grader, volunteered to help Carson with his project. Both the young scientist and his subject were very serious as Carson set out to take Scott's blood from his finger with a special needle. Scott shut his eyes for a second and it was all over.
The second volunteer was a pretty little Marilyn Severs, who wasn't quite as brave as Scott, but did just fine. The children were all anxious to participate and asked some interesting questions.
When this part of the experiment was accomplished Carson put the slides with the blood samples under the microscope and projected them on the screen and explained the different types of blood. He described the various types and the information about the red and the white cells and the function they performed.

Upon the conclusion of the experiment he gathered up his equipment and thanked everybody for their cooperation and left.
Mrs. Jean Duke, 2nd grade teacher is enthusiastic about the science demonstrations for the lower grades. She said, "The children bring all sorts of small animals and pets in to study. Just recently one of the pets was a small baby rabbit. While they watched the baby everyone was learning about its habits, food, its enemies and the way it lived. Nature is a wonderful thing for small people."

Hospital Bill Hikes Face Stiff Opposition

WASHINGTON (AP) — Proposed increases in hospitalization costs for Medicare patients today faced the opposition of health Democratic members of a Senate health subcommittee.
Casper W. Weinberger, secretary of health, education and welfare, was the first scheduled witness at a new series of hearings on health care before a Senate health subcommittee.
He announced that the planned reductions will never be approved by Congress. He noted opposition last week from senior Senate Democrats, including 12 committee chairmen.
Under present law, a Medicare patient pays $72 for the first day of hospitalization and nothing for the next 60 days. A quarter of the first day's cost is deductible for the 6.6% through the 90th day, and a half is deductible for the 91st through 190th day.

The administration plan would require a patient to pay 10 per cent of daily hospital charges after the $72 for the first day. Deductibles also would be increased for covered physicians' services.
WASHINGTON CAMPED THERE NEW YORK (AP) — The American elm beneath which George Washington camped during the battle of Long Island was 27 years old when it went down in a storm last fall.
The figure was determined by scientists who examined cross sections of the 102-foot giant's trunk. Inside its hollow heart was a bees' nest some 30 years old.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The foreign exchange markets of the nine Common Market members will be closed all this week as the world's richest countries prepare for more talks later this week, seeking a solution to the dollar crisis.
The Common Market's finance ministers met Sunday at their headquarters in Brussels and decided to extend the market closing they had ordered last Thursday night. But they failed to agree on a joint program to protect their currencies.
The ministers said they would meet again Thursday in Brussels. They announced another conference for Paris on Friday to which the United States, Japan and other major trading nations would be invited. And the nine said they would meet again in Brussels next Sunday.
The U.S. Treasury said that it would cooperate with the other major trading nations in solving the monetary crisis. But it stopped short of promising to participate in the conference Friday.
Japan joined the European countries in closing its foreign exchange market for the week. The halt to official trading takes the pressure off the state banks, which last week spent billions to keep the U.S. dollar from falling below its floor.
The dollar was devalued 10 per cent on Feb. 12. Closing the exchanges means there will not be any agency enforcing a fixed rate of exchange during the week's trading on private money markets.
The Common Market finance ministers said the annual dollar "was due to a distrust of speculative origin" and was not justified by the official exchange rates.

French Air Strike Causes Near Tragedy

The military air controllers replacing the strikers had not informed him of any other plane.

By JOHN VINOCUR Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — France nearly had a second air-ship collision Monday, the Swedish news agency reported today as a number of airlines boycotted French skies because two Spanish jetliners collided during a strike by civilian air controllers.
The report from Stockholm said SAS pilot Roll Bandell reported a big plane suddenly crossed his course at the same altitude Monday near Abbeville, in northern France. The jets hit in clear weather over western France as both report said Bandell was flying a Boeing 720 jet with 178 persons aboard, bound for the Canary Islands.

The military air controllers replacing the strikers at French airports had not informed him of any other plane in the vicinity, Bandell said. When he reported the near-collision, he said he was answered: "Understood, understood."
The two Spanish airliners collided about 200 miles southwest of Abbeville, near the coast between Nantes One of the planes, an Iberia Airlines DC8, broke up in the air and all 68 persons aboard were killed. The other, a Conair Coronado flown by the Spanish charter line, landed safely although part of a wing was knocked off. It had 108 persons aboard.
The jets hit in clear weather over western France as both were heading for London. Iberia said the dead included 47 Britons, 11 Spaniards, 2 Japanese, 1 Irish passenger and the 7 Spanish crew.

Another 30 Britons missed the plane in Mincora and took an other flight.
Most of the 99 passengers on the charter plane also were British.
Robert Galley, the French minister of transport, said the Iberia plane was about two minutes behind schedule and the Spanish was about to schedule despite instructions from the ground to slow down.
He said that, as the charter plane was turning at a check point near Nantes, the two planes brushed wingtips.
Galley blamed the crash on "pilot error" and said: "I've found nothing at the present time which could question the responsibility of the military controllers who, in my opinion, functioned very correctly."
However, the striking air controllers said the defense ministry, which is supervising air traffic control, bears "full and total responsibility" for all consequences of the strike. The government has refused to negotiate with the strikers, saying their walkout is illegal.
The French pilots' association claimed a dangerous situation existed and grounded its members Monday night, halting most flights by the three French airlines: British European Airways,

British Caledonian, Lufthansa and Iberia joined the boycott of the French skies. BOAC has bypassed France since the controllers' strike started two weeks ago. SAS, the Scandinavian line, said it would maintain its scheduled flights to French airports but other flights would not fly over the country.
The U.S. Pilots' Association said there was "a very high risk situation" over France, but there was no immediate word of curtailment by Pan American, TWA or any of the American charter lines.

Typhoid Victims Feeling 'Squeeze' Of Quarantine

HOMESTEAD, Fla. (AP) — Residents of a migrant labor camp, hit by the nation's worst typhoid epidemic in 17 years, have started feeling economic effects of hospitalization and quarantine.
There were 34 confirmed cases and another 80 possible cases Monday, health officials said.
No cases have been reported outside the Homestead migrant farm workers' camp, which has 2,000 residents.
"Most of the people here are unable to pick up food stamps," said Rudy Juarez, leader of Organized Migrants in Community Action. "Because they miss work, they don't have money to buy them."
"Some people don't have money for rent. In some houses, both the mother and father are in the hospital and there's no one to take care of the children."

Migrant Christian Association, the camp is setting up a 24-hour nursery and day care center, Diaz said.
Saslaw said he "wouldn't be surprised" if the total number of typhoid cases reaches 100 before the epidemic runs its course. He said a "good number" of those who are hospitalized now are expected to have the disease.
Healthy persons have been allowed to leave the camp 25 miles south of Miami to work and buy food, he said, but otherwise the camp had been sealed off.

Tax Breaks Asked By Manufacturers

By EDMOND LEBRETON Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Association of Manufacturers today called for retaining tax provisions important to business and, in some cases, liberalizing them.
"We do note that much of the hysteria that arose over the tax-reform issue last year appears to have disappeared," E. A. Vaughn said in testimony prepared for tax-reform hearings before the House Ways and Means Committee.
Vaughn is vice president of the Aluminum Co. of America and chairman of the NAM committee on taxation.

Ken Brown Vote Trial March 26

By MARION BETHA
Trial has been set for March 26 for former Longwood Mayor Kenneth Brown Jr., charged on a two-count grand jury indictment with violating Florida's election laws.
Brown pleaded innocent to the felony charges in which he allegedly threw out eight absentee ballots in the last Longwood municipal election.
Brown instructed City Clerk Orlie Sbonate to destroy the ballots, then ordered the ballots still in sealed envelopes be retrieved from the trash and placed in her desk drawer.
At the time, Brown said the office of State Secretary Richard Stone assured him the city clerk's actions toward the ballots was legal and the city's canvassing board's actions also were legal.
The absentee ballots, he said, were being kept in a file and could be counted by court order.
The eight ballots did not affect the outcome of the election.

Decision May Come Monday Police Site Move Mullied

By BOB LLOYD
Sanford city commissioners will wait until construction bids are opened Monday on the new police headquarters-security complex as designed can be put on another site by the city losing only $8,900 in money paid out on the total project.
"Our preliminary cost estimate was based on preliminary engineering," he said, that called for removing four feet of muck at the building location only. Dragash said final reports recommended removal of an average of two and a half feet of muck but also for a roadway and parking areas, filling the denuded area and installing a drainage system.
Dragash said the apparent low bidder broke down his bid figure on request showing removing "less muck but over a larger area" than first estimated.
