Dies Group Accused Of "Most Damnable" Action By Member

Charge Is Made When Committee Publishes Membership List Of "League For Peace"

League Said To Favor Communists

Officials Consistently Have Denied Charge Of Ties With Reds

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—(AP)—The Dies Committee investigating un-American activities today published the Washington "membership and mailing list" of the American League for Peace and Democracy, and one of its own members promptly accused it of taking the "most damnable" and "most un-American" action.

The accusations were made by Representative Dempsey New Mexico Democrat, who was absent when the list of 863 names was given out soon after the Committee's morning session yesterday.

The list made no distinction between those government employees named on it who might be members of the Washington branch of the League and those who might merely be on the mailing list here.

Previously the Committee had charged the League with being dominated by communists. League officials have consistently denied this charge.

Meanwhile, in New York Committee Leader Rep. John Dingfelder has been released from a Federal detention cell under $7,500 bail supplied by a wealthy matron. He shrugged off questions as to whether a man in a similar position in Soviet Russia might expect similar treatment.

To this and other inquiries touching upon his ideology, such as whether "anyone was ever acquitted" in a comparable case in Russia—he had for reply only a thin smile and the remark:

"I won't enter into any political discussions right here."

As to his experiences as an average prisoner—he was indicted Monday of obtaining a passport through false representations—but not much more communicative.

"I can't qualify as an expert on prisons—yet," he said. "At any rate I have no criticism or anything whatever to say adversely about underlings. It is the big men who bear the job whose methods we are after."

Two men who put up bond for him—Mr. Lester T. Huntington, who is listed in the social register—was taken before the same grand jury that indicted Dobson and remained there for more than an hour.

Nazis Fight In Armor Weighing 30 Pounds

PARIS, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Proceedings of the German infantry in recent days series on the western front were machine gunners wearing armored steel jackets and visors.

Each gunner's armor consisted of a steel breastplate, covering him from neck to crotch, and a thinner aluminum helmet. The front plate, one-eighth of an inch thick, could deflect revolver or long-range rifle fire, but was vulnerable to grenades, machine-guns five or six-millimeter rifle fire. Each soldier's armor weighed thirty pounds. The gunners were transported to the attack tanks in motor trucks.

CAUTION
(From The New Yorker)

Hide the snail
In delicate armor of silver mail;

"Before too late,
I must know my fate.

I must crawl
Along the wall,
Succed of fall."

Timid, cautious, one fine morn
She put forth one quivering horn.

Her mother bit her—
She expired—
No—refined—

Two ants
Carrying a grain of chaff
Stopped to laugh.
"Come out. Come out.
That hit on the snout
Was only a seed
Blown by some weed.
You haven't begun
To have any fun."
"But I've had my fright.
That's life enough—quite!"

Said the snail.—

No Cause For War

There could be no possible excuse for a war between the United States and Germany, said German Foreign Minister Von Ribbentrop in a speech at Danzig yesterday. Germany respects the Monroe Doctrine of the United States, has no territorial ambitions in the United States, and therefore no possible cause of war could exist.

However, Germany does want to increase her trade with American nations, he admitted, thus unintentionally dropping a fly in the ointment. "Germany has no interests in the entire American continent (singular) except in commerce; Germany wants the largest possible trade with all states of this continent."

There are two continents in the Western Hemisphere, it should be remembered. One of them is North America, to which Von Ribbentrop evidently referred. The other one is South America about which he was discreetly silent. But even if Germany wanted nothing more than trade with South America, there still might be every conceivable cause for war before long.

Germany's way of doing business is not our way. She takes what she wants and pays for it, if she pays for it at all, with blocked marks. That is, she gives the seller paper marks, absolutely worthless in themselves, and acceptable in trade only in Germany. Her idea is that if she buys anything from you, you must buy something in return from her in the same amount.

Now that sounds as if "a fair exchange is no robbery." But there is nothing fair about German exchange methods. In her trade relations with other nations, she fixes the price of the things she buys from you, as well as the price of the things which you are forced to buy from her. Thus she makes the profit both ways, going and coming.

And if you don't like it, Germany is being provoked, encircled, and strangled. Hitler loses his patience, and the German air force is compelled to resist the attack. After all, you can't expect a great nation like Germany to submit to indignities from inferior people like the Czechs, the Poles and the Latins.

If they haven't got sense enough to trade on Germany's terms, they will have to be enlightened.

"Snow Birds"

The "snow birds" are already on their way to Florida, according to Chief of Police Roy Williams, who announced yesterday that three Sanford homes were broken into on Monday and robbed in broad daylight. He attributes these robberies to tramps, or worse, on their way through Sanford to the more popular resorts in the southern part of the state.

Annually for some time at about this season of the year, these petty robberies increase, and again in the Spring after the close of the tourist season, they take another sudden spurt upward. Frequently such burglars are apprehended here where it is found they are often hitch-hikers from northern cities or crooks of various varieties who follow the tourist traffic.

For the introduction of police cars and two-way radio nets in this city, Sanford people may well be thankful. These autos are cruising the city constantly and a telephone call to police headquarters will place a car at your door almost instantly. The task of the robber is thus made even increasingly difficult.

However, as was the case Monday most successful robberies take place in homes which have been left unguarded with doors and windows unlocked. This is a practice which can never be safely tried. A locked door or window can of course be forced, but it takes time, is apt to make more noise, and is usually avoided by all except the more desperate class of criminals.

Co-operate with the police by reporting immediately suspicious acting strangers. Lock your doors and windows and keep your powder dry. Certain towns quickly acquire the reputation among the underworld of being dangerous and unprofitable.

Garner Pushes For Vote On Neutral
Act By Saturday

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Under a self-imposed "gas" and the whiplash of Vice-President John N. Garner, who demanded an end to "horse-and-buggy" tactics, the Senate yesterday speeded the neutrality revision bill toward a final vote by further relaxing shipping restrictions, approving a modified "cash-and-carry" policy, and banning credits to European belligerents.

Voting on amendments began shortly after isolationist bloc members agreed to limit the debate which began 15 days ago. Until the measure is disposed of, members will speak only 40 minutes on each amendment.

Leaders expect a vote before Saturday and the House is expected to take up the legislation Monday.

Galleries, who came to see the historic battle enter its final stages, saw Garner setting a new high in hurry-up maneuvers and joined in the demonstration that followed when he was criticized from the floor by Senator Bennett C. Clark, a leader of the isolationist group.

The farce came when Senator John A. Dinkin, a foe of the bill, offered an amendment to prevent shipment of aircraft or parts manufactured in the United States to belligerents under this country's own 3,000-plane program for the army and navy had been filed.

Gardner put the question while the Opposition Senator was on his feet seeking recognition and was about to announce the vote when Clark jumped up.

"Mr. President, the Senator from Connecticut was on his feet seeking recognition," Clark protested. "He has a right to be heard."

When Garner replied he was looking "somewhat at the Senator and his friends" anything.

Clark glared at the Vice-President and insisted that Daniels had earned the recognition.

"I am sorry, Mr. President, but this has to be expedited by me."

Only 33 Girls Are Listed At University

GAINESVILLE, Oct. 25.—Analysis of the University of Florida's 1939-40 enrollment shows that 33, or slightly less than one percent of the 3,323 students, are girls. Or, to state the other side of the case, 99.667 percent are boys.

However, since the university is supposed to be a male institution, high preponderance of men is not startling.

Further investigation shows that almost half of the feminine students are enrolled in graduate courses. Nine of them are registered in the Graduate School itself, while six others are enrolled in the Law College, three as seniors, two as junior law students, and one as freshman law pupil.

Of the other 16 girls, one is registered as a senior agriculture student, one in Junior architecture, two as special architecture

students, two in Junior pharmacy, four as senior pharmacy students, and eight as sophomores in the General College.

Lemmond Defeats Florida Powermen By 8 To 5 Score

Osceola Walllops Kilgore Outfit By Score Of 12-8

Lemmond's fast moving softball team continued their winning war last night by trouncing the Florida Power and Light team 8 to 5 and Osceola continued their fine play by defeating Kilgore 12 to 8.

Carlisle Swofford pitched the Lemmond outfit to victory, permitting eight scattered hits. Lemmond scored once in the first, once in the fourth, once in the fifth, once in the sixth and in the seventh clinched the fray by pushing across four more runs.

Florida Power also scored in the first, once in the fourth, once in the fifth, once in the sixth and in the seventh clinched the fray by pushing across four more runs.

Expected to be completed in about a year, the new highway will save 22 miles between Miami and Stuart and will enable motorists to avoid stops at 22 traffic lights between their city limits.

Expected to be completed in about a year, the new highway will save 22 miles between Miami and Stuart and will enable motorists to avoid stops at 22 traffic lights between their city limits.

The existing highway meanders down the coastline, taking a more or less circuitous all commercial route. Most of these will be skirted by the new route.

It begins in Miami's northwest section and is designed to relieve the traffic burden on U. S. Highway Number 1 and to provide a new outlet for farmers along the route.

The highway follows N. W. Seventh Avenue east of Miami cutting northward near West Palm Beach to the east bank of the range canal, then follows a baseline into Stuart where it joins the Federal Highway.

Brooks Bateman, Fourth Congressional District member of the State Road Department, believes the highway will be a distinct asset to farmers in giving them easy access to East Coast seaports and city markets.

Kilgore wilted under the pressure of the rejuvenated Osceola club and after scoring four runs in the first inning failed to regain the lead with the result that they could score but four more runs during the remainder of the contest which left them four short of the Osceola margin of victory.

Scoring four runs in the first, Kilgore added two in the third, one in the sixth and one in the seventh. Osceola began their offensive in the second by pushing across five runs, coasted an inning and added three in the fourth tallied five more in the fifth for their final total.

W. L. Swofford, tossing for Kilgore, gave up but five hits but was unusually wild as he issued 18 walks. Blyma, pitching for Osceola, permitted eight hits.

Tuchton led Kilgore with two hits out of two times up while for Osceola Blyma had a perfect day at the plate with one hit out of one time at bat.

Students Choose Serious Topics For Conference

GAINESVILLE, Oct. 25.—The oft-accepted notion that the college student's mind seldom leaves fraternities, football and frolic is disproved in a recent survey taken at the University of Florida.

Of the 56 topics proposed for discussion at the Religion and Life Conference to be held Oct. 28 to Nov. 3 on the campus, "Making Marriage Successful" was named by nearly fifty percent of the voting students as one of the topics in which they were most interested.

Others receiving widespread support were "After College What?", "Are Science and Religion in Conflict?", and "Is Marriage Socially Sound?"

Showing their concern in world affairs, students exhibited more major interest in "Christianity versus Communism, Fascism, and Nazism" and "What is a Man's Life Worth?"

In the entire poll more general support was given to those dealing with idealistic and theoretical ideas.

U. S. DEMANDS CITY OF FLINT RETURN

Senate Seeks To Prevent British Use Of U.S. Flag

Body Is Told That English Used Device During World War To Escape Attacks

Matter Broached By Senator Tobey

Hull Says Wrong Use Of Flag By Foreign Ships Not Reported

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—(AP)—The Senate inserted in the neutrality bill today a provision designed to prevent ships of foreign nations from sailing under the American flag after it was told that British vessels used that device during the World War to escape German submarine attacks.

The argument was advanced by Senator Tobey, New Hampshire Republican, who disclosed that he had taken the matter up with Secretary Hull.

The secretary, he said, advised him that there had been no indications that the British were making similar use of the flag in the present European war.

The Senate adopted a provision making penalties less severe than those imposed by Tobey.

The flag issue came up as the Senate sped along toward the final vote on the neutrality act tomorrow.

The provision would bar a foreign vessel flying an American flag from entering American waters for three months.

The Senate yesterday refused to bar itself President Roosevelt to fixed war policies, but also overwhelmingly rejected a motion that would have made him able to declare foreign conflicts require invocation of safeguards under the pending neutrality revision bill.

Both proposals, ironically, were offered by Senator Edwin Johnson. Under the neutrality measure the Chief Executive is not required to set the safeguarding machinery in motion unless he finds it necessary to promote the security of the United States or protect the lives of its citizens.

Johnson contended that this was "blank check" surrender by Congress to the President over legislative influence in the nation's foreign policies. He complained that the Chief Executive places "absolute confidence" in the principle of international law in which he said the people have no faith as a result of America's involvement in the world war.

"The popular bill is a return to international law and all of its hazards," he declared.

Pepper Doubts Judge Will Be Appointed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Senate Chairman Pittman said last night that he doubted President Roosevelt would appoint a new United States District Judge for Southern Florida until after the special session of Congress adjourns.

He pointed out that Mr. Roosevelt has made it clear he wants to restrict special session action to revising the neutrality law. Pittman added that he would not expect any new officials yesterday that the Federal Bureau of Investigation had not completed its investigation of the persons under consideration for the post.

Senator Charles G. Andrews, Pepper's colleague, is reported to be a leading contender for the post, nominated by Judge Alexander C. Moseley of Orlando, who recommended him to the Department of Justice and the president. These names are said to be the greatest advance in the selection of this post since the introduction of the District Court.

Pepper indicated that appointment of Andrews would be most welcome to the public.

Finns Object To Modified Red Demands

Negotiation Expected To Continue As Envoy Prepare To Return To Moscow

HELSINKI, Oct. 26.—(AP)—An authoritative source declared today that Soviet Russia's new modified demands on Finland still contained points on which Finland refused to yield.

After Dr. Juha Kusti Paasikivi had spoken for an hour today with President Kyosti Kallio and other officials, a foreign office spokesman said there was no doubt negotiations with Russia would continue and a Finnish delegation would go to Moscow for the third time.

Diplomats familiar with the Balkans last night expressed the opinion that much Soviet Russia will be fit to extend her influence by moving into the Romanian province of Bessarabia she would meet with little or no resistance from King Carol's government.

These sources who said they expected Russian action in the near future if she does intend to push her influence into southeastern Europe, advanced the belief that Rumania probably would be compelled to fight alone if she should insist on defending Bessarabia.

In such event, they said, Hungary probably would be forced to move immediately into Transylvania, which she lost to Rumania after the World War as a "self-defense" measure to secure the Carpathian mountains as a barrier against any further Communist expansion into Central Europe.

Merchant Group Makes Plans For Winter Season

Hundred percent co-operation with the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce in its efforts to stage a big Armistice Day celebration in Sanford was pledged by the officers and directors of the Business and Professional Men's Association at a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce building last night.

During the meeting which was presided over by President Walter Haynes, the group recommended that Sanford stores remain open all day on Saturday with the exception from 10:00 A. M. until 2:00 P. M. in order that everyone, including the service clubs, will have ample time to take part in the celebration. It was pointed out that it has been customary to close on Armistice Day but because of the Saturday "trade" the group made its recommendation at the suggestion of the American Legion post.

In order to take full advantage of the day, the merchant group advocated a city-wide general strike and a general observance of the day to insure a shop on that day.

Nov. 16 was set as the date for a general dinner meeting of the association. Further arrangements for the affair will be announced later. Z. B. Ratliff and E. C. Harper were placed on a committee to make arrangements for the affair. Reservations for the dinner must be made directly with the Chamber of Commerce Legion post.

The active pallbearers will be J. E. Courier, Byron Walker of Tampa, L. M. Tyre, M. Minarik, R. L. Lyles and F. E. Smith.

The honorary pallbearers will be Mrs. McCallum, Hugh H. G. Plaisted, Orlando; James E. Ellis, St. Cloud; H. W. McCord, Winter Park; James A. Parke, Orlando; and Russell Harpell, Daytona Beach.
