

SEMINOLE CELEBRATES AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE

Herald Photos by Bill and Tom Vincent

There are lots of ways to celebrate a Bicentennial — as Seminole residents proved yesterday at Fort Mellon Park in Sanford. Jay Tilley (top left) hasn't had much past experience with July 4 celebrations but he enjoyed a candy apple at this one. Eddy Korgan (circle) got painted up by clowns Otha and Timba, while Michael Fetterhoff (top, right) wasn't too sure about the watermelon he tasted. Janet Nixon tried out the rope ladder. Bill McLaughlin (below circle) won the Jaycees' ugly man contest and Rev. Douglas and Mrs. Porter came in Bicentennial costume.

Grand, Gaudy Parties Abound

A Proud Nation Celebrates

By JULES LOH
Associated Press Writer

National self-pride became truth self-evident this weekend as Americans set aside their inhibitions and put on the grandest and gaudiest birthday party in the course of human events.

They rang the church bells, shot the cannons, paraded to a fare thee well and assembled a maritime display unmatched in history.

And as the sun set on the Glorious Fourth, from Atlantic to Pacific, the great cities and small hamlets lit the land in the summery sky with a kaleidoscope of fireworks and filled the air with a booming serenade to 200 years of independence.

New York harbor, abloom with pennant and sail the day long, by night was a garden of glittering heavenly flowers that draped America's sweetheart, the Statue of Liberty, in red, white and blue.

But beyond the super-scale, star-spangled hoopla an almost tangible sense of national unity emerged, which became a national gaily, a spontaneous moment of uplift after the long sad years of Vietnam and Watergate.

"It is history," said Josh Milton of Kansas City, one of 25,000 who journeyed to Valley Forge, "and darn if they ain't doing it right."

History it was, with Americans waiting 3 1/2 hours to get a glimpse of the Declaration of Independence, the real thing, on display in Washington; and pagantry it was, with the rockets' red glare shattering the dawn's early light over Ft. McHenry; and homespun Americana it was as well, with clambakes and ox roasts and ball games and beer.

It was a day of unabashed optimism. Said Alf Landon, the 88-year-old elder statesman of the Kansas plains, "I envy the lastborn baby today, the future he has in this land."

And a day of instinctive neighborliness. "Happy birthdays," strangers said, passing.

President Ford visited the historic seedbeds of American liberty — Valley Forge, where he reminded the throng of the soldiers who "came here in the snows of winter over a trail marked with the blood of their

(Continued On Page 2-A)

New Construction Holds Taxes Down

By ED FRICKEIT
Herald Staff Writer

New construction in Seminole County may save taxpayers $5.40 for each $1,000 worth of property on tax rolls.

In a letter to County Commission Chairman Mike Hattaway, Goemmel urged all county officers to hold the line on spending. Today, Hattaway pointed out he already sent a similar message to county officers governed by the commission.

That message, according to Hattaway, is to increase the tax rate to within 8 per cent of last year, Goemmel says in fiscal 1975-76, citizens paid $5.40 for each $1,000 worth of property on tax rolls.

In a letter to County Commission Chairman Mike Hattaway, Goemmel urged all county officers to hold the line on spending. Today, Hattaway pointed out he already sent a similar message to county officers governed by the commission.

That message, according to Hattaway, is to increase the tax rate to within 8 per cent of last year, Goemmel says

Carter Interviews Edmund Muskie

SEN. EDMUND MUSKIE

PLAINS, Ga. (AP) — Interrupting a quiet Bicentennial weekend, Jimmy Carter scheduled an interview today with Sen. Edmund Muskie of Maine, a man Carter says is among his potential running mates.

Carter, who has more than enough delegate votes to win the Democratic presidential nomination, told reporters Sunday that he already has arranged to interview Muskie and two other possible candidates for vice president, and that there are two others he had not yet contacted. Of the five, he named only Muskie.

Carter said he might add more names to the list later.

Muskie, the vice presidential candidate on Hubert Humphrey's unsuccessful ticket in 1968, was to meet with Carter at the presidential candidate's home for several hours today after flying from Bangor, Maine, Sunday night.

In Bangor, Muskie said he had not decided whether to accept the vice presidential nomination if it is offered.

Today

While most of the nation celebrated the Bicentennial on Sunday, many places preferred to wait until today to observe this country's 200th year of independence, including Longwood. A Day in the Park is the theme of Longwood's celebration, which was to go on throughout the day at Peppermint Park, ending with dancing in the streets tonight.

INDEX

- Around The Clock 4-A
- Bridge 4-B
- Calendar 2-A
- Comics 4-B
- Crossword 4-B
- Editorial 4-A
- Dear Abby 1-B
- Dr. Lamb 4-B
- Horoscope 4-B
- Hospital 2-A
- Obituaries 2-A
- Sports 5-A
- Television 2-B
- Women 1-B

WEATHER

Sunday's high 90. Today's low 71.

Mostly fair through Tuesday. Slight chance of mainly afternoon thundershowers. Lows mostly lower 70s and highs near 90.

Variable, mostly south to southwest, winds around 10 m.p.h. diminishing at night. Much stronger and gusty near thundershowers.

Rain probability 20 per cent in the afternoons.

Details on page 2-A.

PONYTAIL

BY LEE HOLLEY

TIGER

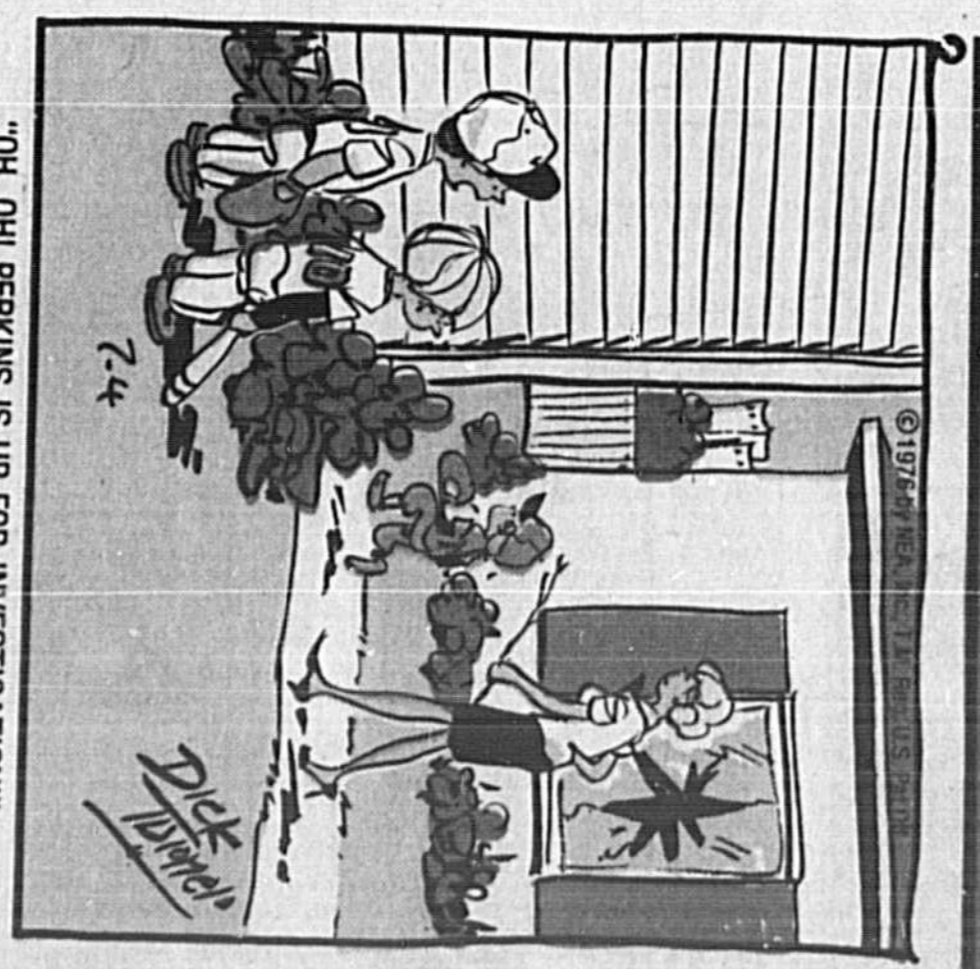

By Bud Blake

BUGS BUNNY

by Storoff & Heindahl

CARNIVAL

"OH, OH! PERKINS IS UP FOR INVESTIGATION!"

"THE SHIP MODELS ARE JUST A SIDE LINE! HIS REAL HOBBY IS EMPTYING THE BOTTLES!"

Writings from Heloise

DEAR HELOISE: I am leaving behind for my 2- and 3-year-old grandchildren a "surprise box" to help us through the two weeks I will be staying while Mom and Dad are away.

In addition to a few small toys, I am taking the following:

- 1. A small, portable, electric coffee maker.
- 2. A small, portable, electric hot plate.
- 3. A small, portable, electric toaster.
- 4. A small, portable, electric kettle.
- 5. A small, portable, electric rice cooker.
- 6. A small, portable, electric pressure cooker.
- 7. A small, portable, electric slow cooker.
- 8. A small, portable, electric crock pot.
- 9. A small, portable, electric waffle maker.
- 10. A small, portable, electric griddle.
- 11. A small, portable, electric fryer.
- 12. A small, portable, electric deep fryer.
- 13. A small, portable, electric air fryer.
- 14. A small, portable, electric toaster oven.
- 15. A small, portable, electric oven.
- 16. A small, portable, electric range.
- 17. A small, portable, electric stove.
- 18. A small, portable, electric cooktop.
- 19. A small, portable, electric burner.
- 20. A small, portable, electric flameless burner.

Hope these ideas might be of help to other visiting grandmothers.

All of these items will be packaged grab-bag style — one for each week. So, not just for the week you are here, but for the week you are not here. Kids love to feel needed, too.

Love, Momma Heloise

DEAR HELOISE: I have a question about the "surprise box" you mentioned in your letter. Will you be taking a small, portable, electric coffee maker, a small, portable, electric hot plate, a small, portable, electric toaster, a small, portable, electric kettle, a small, portable, electric rice cooker, a small, portable, electric pressure cooker, a small, portable, electric slow cooker, a small, portable, electric crock pot, a small, portable, electric waffle maker, a small, portable, electric griddle, a small, portable, electric fryer, a small, portable, electric deep fryer, a small, portable, electric air fryer, a small, portable, electric toaster oven, a small, portable, electric oven, a small, portable, electric range, a small, portable, electric cooktop, a small, portable, electric burner, and a small, portable, electric flameless burner?

Love, Momma Heloise

DEAR HELOISE: I have a question about the "surprise box" you mentioned in your letter. Will you be taking a small, portable, electric coffee maker, a small, portable, electric hot plate, a small, portable, electric toaster, a small, portable, electric kettle, a small, portable, electric rice cooker, a small, portable, electric pressure cooker, a small, portable, electric slow cooker, a small, portable, electric crock pot, a small, portable, electric waffle maker, a small, portable, electric griddle, a small, portable, electric fryer, a small, portable, electric deep fryer, a small, portable, electric air fryer, a small, portable, electric toaster oven, a small, portable, electric oven, a small, portable, electric range, a small, portable, electric cooktop, a small, portable, electric burner, and a small, portable, electric flameless burner?

Love, Momma Heloise

DEAR HELOISE: I have a question about the "surprise box" you mentioned in your letter. Will you be taking a small, portable, electric coffee maker, a small, portable, electric hot plate, a small, portable, electric toaster, a small, portable, electric kettle, a small, portable, electric rice cooker, a small, portable, electric pressure cooker, a small, portable, electric slow cooker, a small, portable, electric crock pot, a small, portable, electric waffle maker, a small, portable, electric griddle, a small, portable, electric fryer, a small, portable, electric deep fryer, a small, portable, electric air fryer, a small, portable, electric toaster oven, a small, portable, electric oven, a small, portable, electric range, a small, portable, electric cooktop, a small, portable, electric burner, and a small, portable, electric flameless burner?

Love, Momma Heloise

DEAR HELOISE: I have a question about the "surprise box" you mentioned in your letter. Will you be taking a small, portable, electric coffee maker, a small, portable, electric hot plate, a small, portable, electric toaster, a small, portable, electric kettle, a small, portable, electric rice cooker, a small, portable, electric pressure cooker, a small, portable, electric slow cooker, a small, portable, electric crock pot, a small, portable, electric waffle maker, a small, portable, electric griddle, a small, portable, electric fryer, a small, portable, electric deep fryer, a small, portable, electric air fryer, a small, portable, electric toaster oven, a small, portable, electric oven, a small, portable, electric range, a small, portable, electric cooktop, a small, portable, electric burner, and a small, portable, electric flameless burner?

Love, Momma Heloise

NATION IN BRIEF

America's Birthplace Throws A Big Party

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — America's birthplace threw a red, white and blue birthday party, a festival of patriotism that united all present in a mood of camaraderie and pride in a 200-year-old country founded on the principles of freedom and equality.

Ships Hold Open House

NEW YORK (AP) — After highlighting the greatest maritime display in the nation's history and majestically celebrating America's 200th birthday, 14 tall ships from around the world held open house at their Manhattan piers today.

Two other square-riggers, from the Soviet Union, were kept closed because a "change of plans was requested by the Soviet Embassy in Washington," a spokesman for Operation Sail said.

Republicans Are Hopeful

WASHINGTON (AP) — A spokesman for the Republican campaign committee scoffed at Democrats' claim that a private poll shows they may win another 30 seats in the House this November.

"We consider it pretty ludicrous, really," L. David LeRoy said Sunday. The Republicans expect to win back the 41 seats they lost in 1974, he added, and hope to fulfill their slogan to "Win '76 in '78."

Viking Biologist Worried

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — A biologist on the team directing the Viking spacecraft to Mars says he is worried that unless life is found there will be cut from the nation's space exploration effort.

"As far as future planetary exploration is concerned, a lot is riding on Viking," said Dr. Harold Klein. "I think the posture of the project and NASA in general is that they're putting a lot on the question of life."

Price-Fixing Charged

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Federal authorities are investigating the possibility of international price-fixing in the uranium industry at a time when the industry is rapidly expanding, the Los Angeles Times says.

Sunday's Times said the possibility of criminal antitrust violations has resulted in subpoenas from a federal grand jury in Washington.

The newspaper said the investigation by the Justice Department is focusing on the world price structure of uranium and the activities of both foreign and domestic firms.

More Than 300 Killed

By The Associated Press
Sanford: Catherine Myers Robert Perry Daisy B. Spera Mary A. Spivey Robert L. Stewart Donald A. Ewen Jr. DeBarry Stephen Friedman, Deltona Douglas E. Proctor, Deltona David R. Gernly, Osteen Charles E. Kelley, Winter Springs.

However OMAE Director Pat Gisson says he plans to present the total package to county commissioners before the end of this month.

Gombel's department is submitting a request for a 3.9 percent increase — and additional $23,363.

"I would like to go on record as urging all department heads to urge all department heads to make a sincere attempt to submit operating budgets that are equal to or less than the percentage increase which will be generated by new construction," Gombel said.

Commissioners already are gearing up for this year's budget sessions. Though all requests from department chiefs are in the Office of Management Analysis and Evaluation (OMA) has not formally accepted the request, some later this month, probably on or around August 15.

Partly cloudy with a few local, mainly afternoon, thundershowers. Highs in the upper 80s and low 90s. Lows in the mid-70s.

Partly cloudy with a few local, mainly afternoon, thundershowers. Highs in the upper 80s and low 90s. Lows in the mid-70s.

Partly cloudy with a few local, mainly afternoon, thundershowers. Highs in the upper 80s and low 90s. Lows in the mid-70s.

Partly cloudy with a few local, mainly afternoon, thundershowers. Highs in the upper 80s and low 90s. Lows in the mid-70s.

Nation Observes Bicentennial

(Continued from Page 1-A)

rag-bound feet," and Independence Hall in Philadelphia where he sounded anew the principles laid down there by Jefferson and Adams.

"The world knows we stand. The world may or may not follow, but we lead because we believe in the principles of freedom and equality."

Liberty is for all men and women as a matter of inalienable right."

The President then helicoptered to the bunting-draped deck of the USS Forrestal in New York harbor to view — along with five million shorebound viewers straining from every point of vantage — the anachronism of tall ships of following square sails and steeplemasted masts from 22 nations, there to salute the world's oldest democracy.

The flotilla of vessels small and large sailed and moved up the Hudson River and down the East River.

Two other square-riggers, from the Soviet Union, were kept closed because a "change of plans was requested by the Soviet Embassy in Washington," a spokesman for Operation Sail said.

According to a price estimate, the tall ships, 200 smaller sailing vessels and the 53 warships they escorted in review Sunday drew at least seven million people to the shores of New York and New Jersey for the five-hour event.

Associated Press Writer
Twenty-three-year-old Scott Howard sat in the grass of St. Peter's park and reflected on the Bicentennial celebrations.

"It doesn't really mean anything to me," he said. "But his girlfriend, Suzie Joplin, 24, disagreed."

"I think it does mean something. I think people are glad they're living in a free country. The celebration is here," she said, pointing to her heart, "inside."

In parks and churches, with parades and naturalization ceremonies, on beaches and in bunting-decorated buildings, Floridians celebrated their nation's 200th year of independence Sunday — inside and out.

And when darkness fell, fireworks lit the Florida sky from Pensacola to Key West. Many celebrations planned to carry the festivities over to today, a legal holiday.

Not far from the park where Howard and Miss Joplin spent the afternoon 10,000 persons gathered at dusk on St. Peter's Municipal Pier for a massive fireworks display, more than a year in preparation.

Tens of thousands lined downtown Jacksonville streets for a Fourth of July parade as 5,000 persons marched in bands and military units and rode on floats. Also stood a somber Abe Lincoln.

In Orlando, thousands converged on a downtown lakeside park for picnics, a re-enactment of the signing of the Declaration of Independence and fireworks.

In North Florida, 240 Boy Scouts laked the Revolutionary Era King's Road from the St. Marys River at the state line to St. Augustine. They retraced the path of American colonists in 1765, the year the British evacuated Florida Rangers in 1778 before meeting the Redcoats in battle.

For many it was not a day to look to the past, but one to look to the future. Thousands chose the Fourth of July to become U.S. citizens.

The largest naturalization ceremony was in Miami Beach where 1,141 immigrants stood before a 30-by-48-foot American flag sewn by a group of Home-Steal women and solemnly recited the pledge of allegiance.

Many were Cuban exiles, and they cheered when a speaker exhorted them: "Let us be the new blood of America," they prayed, our everlasting efforts and — from the bottoms of our hearts — our thanks."

Another 500 new citizens pledged their allegiance in De-replaced hymns. And at 2 p.m. Eastern time — 8 a.m. Honolulu time — President Ford rang a ceremonial bell which signaled a tubulation of bells throughout the land, from the cathedrals of Washington's great cathedrals to the chapel bells of California's adobe shrines.

And in Boston Harbor, the USS Constitution — Old Ironsides — saluted her venerable timbers with a rousing 21-gun salute, the first time her guns had been fired in 95 years.

Never had America celebrated a holiday to equal it.

Jane DiMaria, 32, mother of five, and her daughter, Mary, were killed in the Sunday blaze.

But eight other family members managed to escape from the flames or were carried out by firemen. All were being treated in local hospitals but only 6-year-old Joseph was reported in serious condition. The others were reported good or fair.

Ullimatov: Shave Or Else
TALIAHASSEE (AP) Officials say police officer John P. Walsh will be shaved Friday if he doesn't put a razor to his head Vandyke beard. But Walsh vows, "I'm not going to shave it off."

"I think it's against my rights to have to do it in a situation where there's no reasonable evidence that it's going to affect my work," Walsh said.

Walsh, 25, said his supervisors in the Department of Offender Rehabilitation (DOR) told him last week that he will be fired unless he complies with a grooming code set by DOR Secretary Louise Wainwright.

A court upheld Wainwright's departmental grooming code when it was challenged several years ago by a teacher at the Florida State Prison.

"I have no doubt he could win in the institutional setting," said Walsh's lawyer, Ben Patterson. "But what we're talking about is an office employee."

By AUDIE MURPHY
Herald Staff Writer
On Friday and Saturday night, streams of automobiles leave Sanford, climb onto I-4, and head south toward the bright lights of South Seminole and Orlando.

Chances are many of these weekend I-4-tourists are unaware that a new nightclub has opened under their very noses, and that a weekly pilgrimage may be unnecessary.

Mr. P's Supper Club, located at 119 S. Magnolia Avenue, opened for business May 31, and since then is gaining a reputation of being "where it's at" in Seminole County.

The building itself is one of the new breed of refurbished structures that are changing the face of Sanford. The building, which formerly housed Global Carpets, was an opera house back in the 19th century.

In transforming the structure into a supper club, many of its original architectural qualities have been preserved, including the wrap-around second-floor balcony.

According to Connie Zane, wife of Mr. P's manager Allan Zane, it cost a little money to renovate the building, but the investment is paying off.

Night after night customers swarm into Mr. P's, place their orders for juicy steaks or sumptuous Maine lobster, then lean back to enjoy the sounds of the Shadybrook Entertainers.

Mr. P's invariably uses words such as "posh" or "elegant" in describing the club's interior. Those terms sometimes carry a connotation of coldness or formality, and may not be accurate descriptions of Mr. P's good-time atmosphere.

True, the carpeting is deep red, the lighting is deep red, and the red and black color scheme blends well with the dark paneling to produce an atmosphere of quiet enjoyment, but the vibrations provided by Mr. P's are those of friendliness, good food and good entertainment.

And when visiting Mr. P's, it isn't necessary to break out the tuxedo — any jacket will do nicely, says Mrs. Zane. Besides, she points out, a customer decked out in his most formal attire might feel inhibited when it comes time to dig into the club's fine Maine lobster, which are flown from Miami.

That didn't matter to Donna Williams, 12, who carried a flag in opening ceremonies. She was aided by the nation's citizenship campaign was begun by a Cuban group early this year, President Ford ordered additional help for processing applications, but officials said there was still a backlog of some 12,000.

Miami officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

CALENDAR

TUESDAY, JULY 6

Sanford Lions Club, noon, Holiday Inn.
Winter Springs Jaycees, 7 p.m., VFW Building, 17-92 Longwood.

Overseers Anonymous, 7:30 p.m., Florida Power and Light, Sanford.
South Seminole Optimist Club, 7:30 a.m., Ramada Inn, Altamonte Springs.

Sanford Senior Citizens Club, 7:30 p.m., Spencer's Restaurant.
Sanford Senior Citizens Club, noon, Civic Center.

Seminole Lions Club, 7 p.m., Quality Inn, 1-4 and SR-434.
Castellberry Jaycees, 7:30 p.m., The Barony.

Sanford Optimist Club, 7 p.m. Ladies Night. Bicentennial event. Trophy Lounge, Bowl America.

Sanford Senior Citizens Club — meet at noon at the Sanford Civic Center. Bring a bag lunch, and play bingo.

OES Seminole Chapter 2, 8 p.m., Sanford Masonic Temple.
Sanford Seminole Jayceettes, 7:30 p.m., Jaycee building.

Longwood Area Serotoma, noon, Quality Inn, 1-4 and SR-434.
Parents Anonymous (for troubled parents) Community United Methodist Church, Castellberry.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 7
Sanford Kiwanis, noon, Civic Center.
Castellberry Rotary Club, 7:30 a.m., The Caboose.

Sanford Serotoma Senior Citizens Dance, 7:30 p.m., Sanford Civic Center.
Cracker Barrel Tales for children, 10:30 a.m., Seminole South Library, Seminole Plaza, Castellberry.

THURSDAY, JULY 8
Sanford AA, 8 p.m., 1201 W. First St.
Lake Mary Rotary Club, 8 a.m., Mayfair Country Club.

Serotoma Club of Sanford, 12:15 p.m., Mayfair Country Club.
South Seminole Optimist Club, 7:30 a.m., Ramada Inn, Altamonte Springs.

Sanford Senior Citizens Club, 7:30 p.m., Spencer's Restaurant.
Sanford-Seminole Jaycees, 7:30 p.m., Jaycee Building.

PEOPLE

Freed Hostage Kept Her Faith

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Jane Almog, one of the hostages freed from a hijacked airplane in a daring raid by Israeli commandos, believed throughout her ordeal that she would be rescued eventually, her mother says.

Mrs. Harvey Robey said Sunday from her home here that she had spoken by telephone to her daughter and son-in-law, Israeli Ezra Almog, when they reached Tel Aviv.

Mrs. Almog "sounded nervous and good," her mother said. "She said it never occurred to them that they would not get out. But they never dreamed they would get out the way they did."

The Almogs were among more than 100 passengers and crew on a French jetliner held hostage at Entebbe Airport in Uganda by pro-Palestinian guerrillas who said they would kill their captives unless political prisoners in five countries were freed by 7 a.m. EDT Sunday. Hours before the deadline was to expire, Israeli commandos rescued the hostages in an hour-long raid on the airport.

Francis M. DeCoursey, 48, of Perrine was fatally injured Saturday when her car went out of control and hit a tree on State Road 94 in Dade County.

Adalberto Amaya, 26, of Miami lost control of his motorcycle and hit a guardrail on State Road 85 Friday.

Carol F. Carter, Miami, and Edward Cotton, Edith R. Johnson, Gertrude Klieber, DeBarry Nelson River, DeBarry Pearl E. Zacherer, DeBarry Thelma L. Mills, Deltona BIRTHS

Mrs. and Mrs. Alphonse (Claudia) Nocco a girl, Deltona DISCHARGES

Sanford: Leola W. Bryant William O. Carpenter Al Fludd Elizabeth Fowler Henry J. Gilmann John D. Mitchell Reuel F. Robison William H. Smith Barbara G. Erickson DeBarry Benjamin F. Lusby, DeBarry Ortez Connell, Deltona Stephen Fredman, Deltona

Sanford: Earl George Key, 75, of Bram Towers, Sanford, died Sunday morning at his home. He was a retired electrical company lineman.

He is survived by his wife Caroline, a sister, Mrs. Ciprina Hollister of Sanford; and a brother A. Lincoln of Clearwater, Gramkow Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

FREE HEARING TESTS
Name Brand Hearing Aids Available
Hearing Aid Glasses Behind The Ear
All In The Ear • "Crew" Type Fittings

REPAIRS • ALL MAKES
Phone 834-8776 For Appt.
FLORIDA HEARING CENTER
320 S. Hwy. 17-92
Just North of Hwy 436

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

Woman Dies While Trying To Save 5-Year-Old

POMPA BEACH (AP) — A mother who tried to save her 5-year-old daughter from the flames died with her child as they scrambled to get to the stairs of their blazing home, fire officials say.

"It appeared that the mother was trying to get to the bottom of the stairs with her daughter," fireman George Wiggins said.

Jane DiMaria, 32, mother of five, and her daughter, Mary, were killed in the Sunday blaze.

But eight other family members managed to escape from the flames or were carried out by firemen. All were being treated in local hospitals but only 6-year-old Joseph was reported in serious condition. The others were reported good or fair.

Ultimatum: Shave Or Else

TALIAHASSEE (AP) Officials say police officer John P. Walsh will be shaved Friday if he doesn't put a razor to his head Vandyke beard. But Walsh vows, "I'm not going to shave it off."

"I think it's against my rights to have to do it in a situation where there's no reasonable evidence that it's going to affect my work," Walsh said.

Walsh, 25, said his supervisors in the Department of Offender Rehabilitation (DOR) told him last week that he will be fired unless he complies with a grooming code set by DOR Secretary Louise Wainwright.

A court upheld Wainwright's departmental grooming code when it was challenged several years ago by a teacher at the Florida State Prison.

"I have no doubt he could win in the institutional setting," said Walsh's lawyer, Ben Patterson. "But what we're talking about is an office employee."

An Act Of Kindness

POMPA BEACH (AP) — "I just don't want her to get down on people," a Davie woman said after giving a 12-year-old girl a horse to replace one that was stolen, tortured and killed.

Mrs. Constanza this weekend gave the teen-ager a 5½-year-old gelding, a registered American saddlebred.

reputation of being "where it's at" in Seminole County.

The building itself is one of the new breed of refurbished structures that are changing the face of Sanford. The building, which formerly housed Global Carpets, was an opera house back in the 19th century.

In transforming the structure into a supper club, many of its original architectural qualities have been preserved, including the wrap-around second-floor balcony.

According to Connie Zane, wife of Mr. P's manager Allan Zane, it cost a little money to renovate the building, but the investment is paying off.

Night after night customers swarm into Mr. P's, place their orders for juicy steaks or sumptuous Maine lobster, then lean back to enjoy the sounds of the Shadybrook Entertainers.

Mr. P's invariably uses words such as "posh" or "elegant" in describing the club's interior. Those terms sometimes carry a connotation of coldness or formality, and may not be accurate descriptions of Mr. P's good-time atmosphere.

True, the carpeting is deep red, the lighting is deep red, and the red and black color scheme blends well with the dark paneling to produce an atmosphere of quiet enjoyment, but the vibrations provided by Mr. P's are those of friendliness, good food and good entertainment.

And when visiting Mr. P's, it isn't necessary to break out the tuxedo — any jacket will do nicely, says Mrs. Zane. Besides, she points out, a customer decked out in his most formal attire might feel inhibited when it comes time to dig into the club's fine Maine lobster, which are flown from Miami.

That didn't matter to Donna Williams, 12, who carried a flag in opening ceremonies. She was aided by the nation's citizenship campaign was begun by a Cuban group early this year, President Ford ordered additional help for processing applications, but officials said there was still a backlog of some 12,000.

Miami officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

WORLD IN BRIEF

Israeli Commandoes Free Plane Hijacking Victims

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Israel gloried today in the dramatic rescue of more than 100 hijacking victims from the Ugandan airport where pro-Palestinian terrorists held their captive for nearly a week.

The 2,400-mile, three-plane raid into the heart of East Africa Saturday night was Israel's most proud military accomplishment since the Six Day War in 1967. It was nationwide rejoicing.

"This operation will become a legend," Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin told the Knesset, Israel's parliament. "It is Israel's contribution to the fight against terrorism."

"I'm proud of the army, and I'm proud of the nation," said Defense Minister Shimon Peres. "I am very proud and happy."

Peace Meeting Called

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Christian and Syrian representatives met all night with Palestinian chief Yasser Arafat as the Christians claimed they have conquered two-thirds of the Palestinians' Tal Zatar refugee camp.

Mahmoud Riad, the secretary-general of the Arab League, drove over from Damascus to arrange the meeting between Arafat, Syrian Foreign Minister Abdul Halim Khaldan and two leaders of the right-wing Christian Phalange party at Soufar, a mountain resort 12 miles east of Beirut.

MARCO MARCOS, 42, a plastics factory worker, had bought a blue suit with silver piping for the Bicentennial naturalization ceremonies Sunday with 7,140 other aliens. It was one of the largest awarding ceremonies ever.

"I work hard in Cuba," Marcos said halting English. "but I had nothing, I work hard here, but I have everything I want — a car, a TV, a home — everything."

The group, almost 95 per cent Cuban refugees, stood before a handsome 30-by-40 foot American flag to take the oath of citizenship, recite the pledge of allegiance and sing the national anthem.

"I've sung 'America the Beautiful' many times before,"

Virginia B. Torres said as she wiped away tears. "But today 'America the Beautiful' became my song."

Mercedes Acosta sat in a wheelchair with her daughter, Angelina, on her lap. She cried also said "because America has been so good."

"My skin was so excited I had shivers," said Consuelo Benoso, five months pregnant. "It is beautiful to be an American."

The new citizens applauded after hearing a message from President Ford. "I hope the knowledge that you are now a vital part of the nation that Abraham Lincoln once called 'the last, best hope on earth' will always be a source of pride to you," the President's message said.

Sen. Lawton Chiles, D-Fla., addressed the new citizens in English and halting Spanish, saying "your great tradition and struggle for freedom and additional help for processing applications, but officials said there was still a backlog of some 12,000.

Miami officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

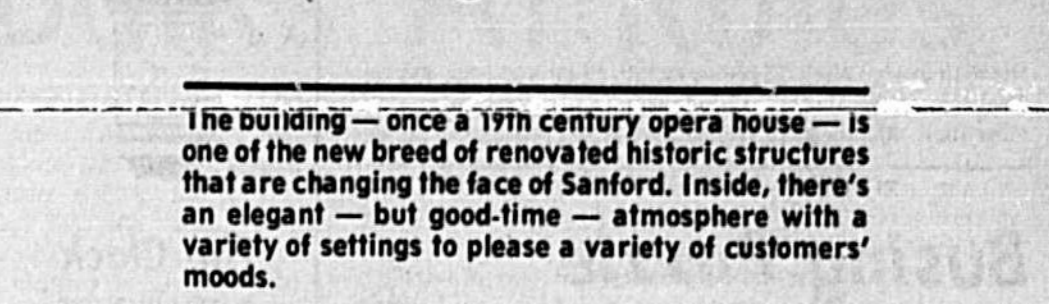

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford officials had hoped the ceremony would be the largest in history, but New York still holds that record with 7,916 in 1954.

Sanford's New Supper Club Is Growing Into Seminole's Latest 'In' Night Spot

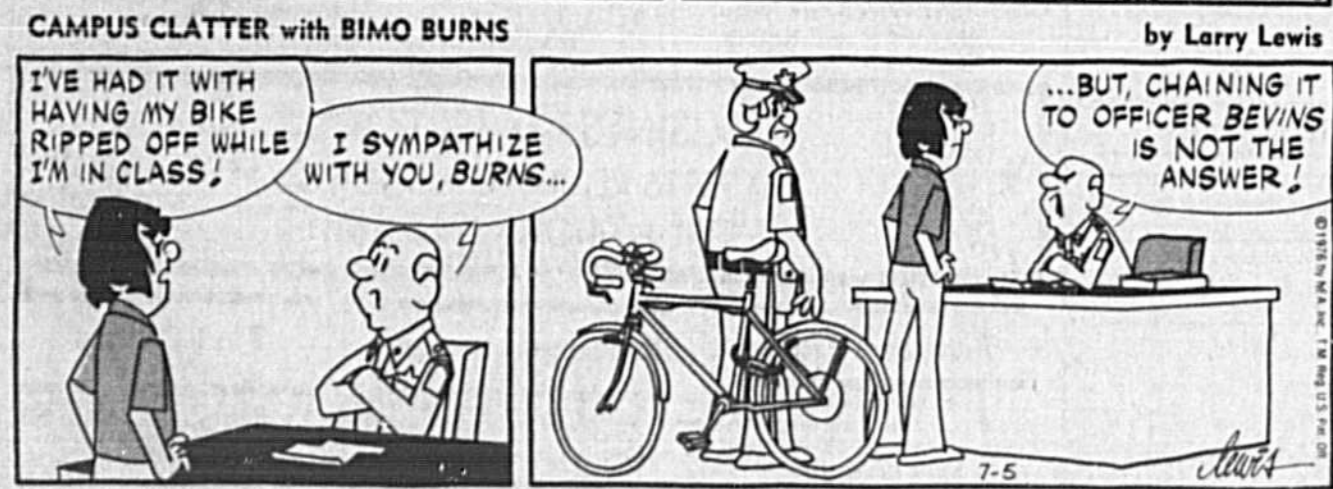

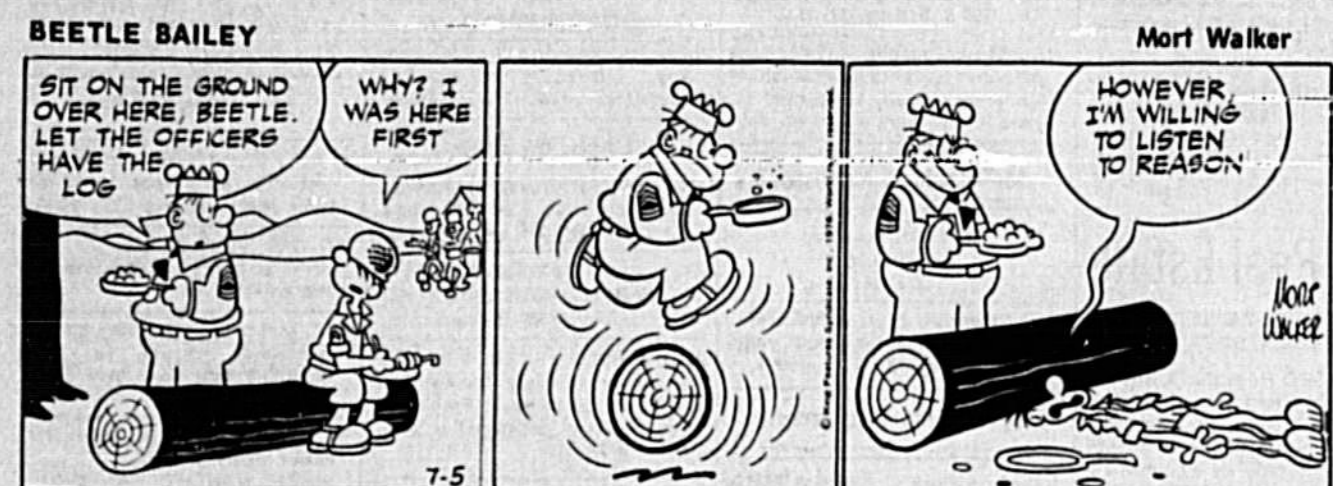

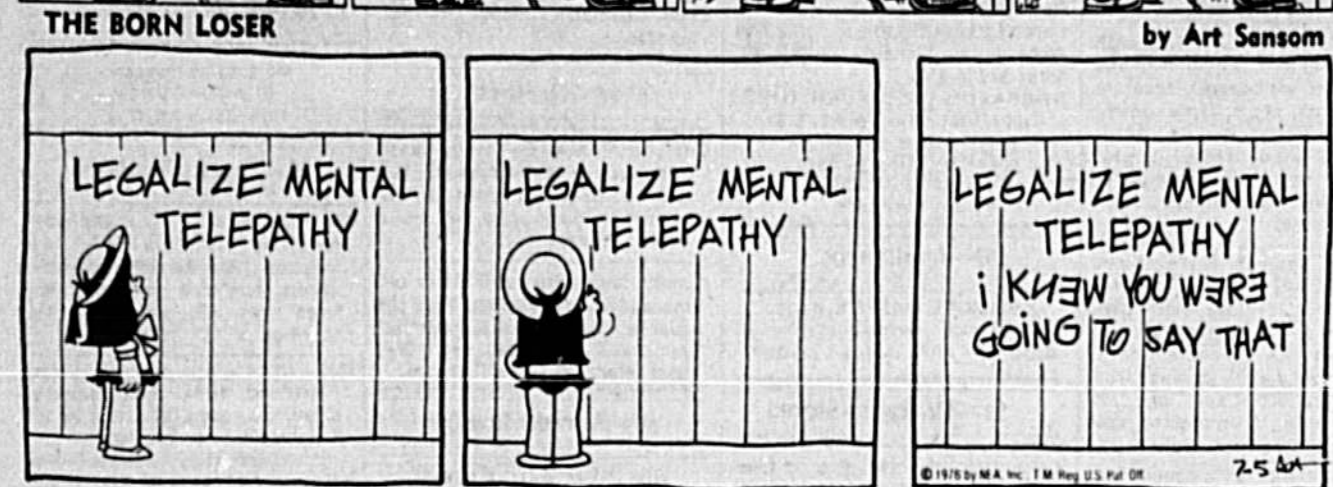

The building — once a 19th century opera house — is one of the new breed of renovated historic structures that are changing the face of Sanford. Inside, there's an elegant — but good-time — atmosphere with a variety of settings to please a variety of customers' moods.

The second floor balcony that wraps around the inside of Mr. P's Supper Club is part of the building's original architecture. Built in the 19th century as an opera house, the building at 119 S. Magnolia Ave. most recently housed a carpet store — but you'd never know it from the inside decoration. Done in black and gold, the supper club includes a stage for nightly entertainment, two dance floors, a salad bar, two lounge areas and a well-stocked bar. (Herald Photos by Bill Vincent Jr.)

Mr. P's Supper Club is part of the building's original architecture. Built in the 19th century as an opera house, the building at 119 S. Magnolia Ave. most recently housed a carpet store — but you'd never know it from the inside decoration. Done in black and gold, the supper club includes a stage for nightly entertainment, two dance floors, a salad bar,

In School crossword puzzle grid and clues.

Horoscope section with text for Aries, Scorpio, Taurus, Sagittarius, Gemini, Cancer, Leo, Virgo, Libra, and Capricorn.

Win at Bridge section with a crossword puzzle grid and clues.

Potential Help For Impotence article by Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D., discussing medical and psychological aspects.

Shoe Thief Trips Up article by Gill Fox, reporting on a shoe thief in Central Florida.

Side Glances article by Gill Fox, discussing a case of impotence.

Birth Defects Are Forever Unless You Hear A March Of Dimes article discussing the importance of the March of Dimes.

Doonesbury comic strip panels by Garry Trudeau.

Horoscope section with text for Aries, Scorpio, Taurus, Sagittarius, Gemini, Cancer, Leo, Virgo, Libra, and Capricorn.

Win at Bridge section with a crossword puzzle grid and clues.

Potential Help For Impotence article by Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D., discussing medical and psychological aspects.

Shoe Thief Trips Up article by Gill Fox, reporting on a shoe thief in Central Florida.

Side Glances article by Gill Fox, discussing a case of impotence.

Birth Defects Are Forever Unless You Hear A March Of Dimes article discussing the importance of the March of Dimes.

Doonesbury comic strip panels by Garry Trudeau.

Doonesbury comic strip panels by Garry Trudeau.

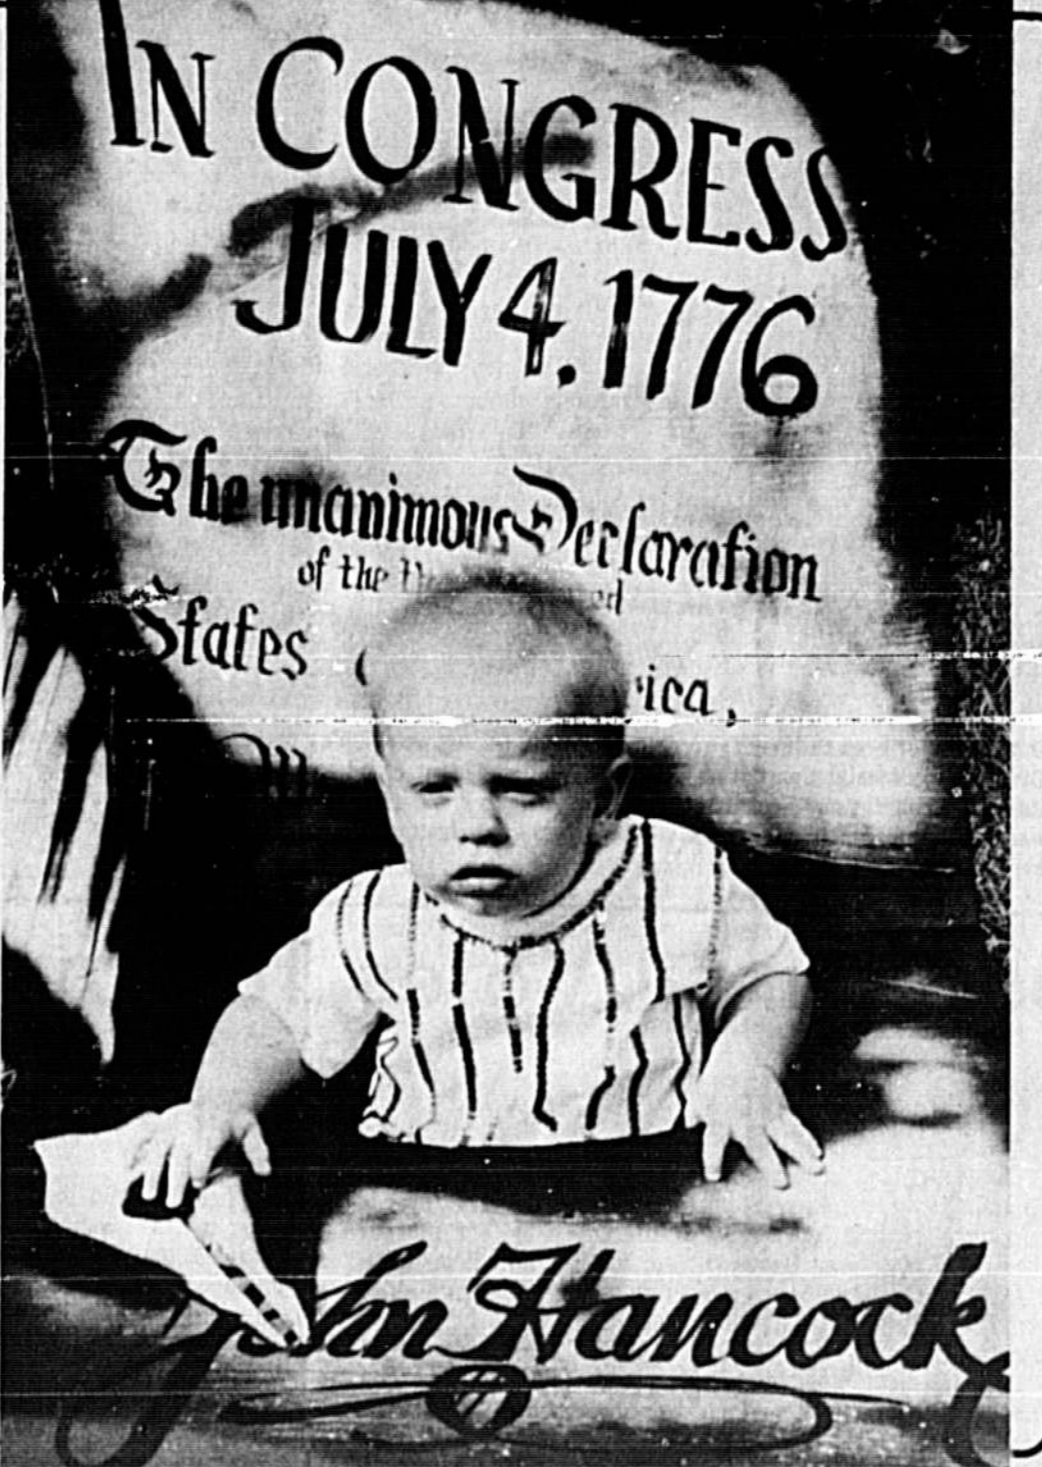

Doonesbury comic strip panels by Garry Trudeau.

Evening Herald

68th Year, No. 273—Tuesday, July 6, 1976 Sanford, Florida 32771—Price 10 Cents

What A Weekend! USA Recalls Dream

Oh, what a weekend it was. The fuse was long, too long everyone said, but when the grand Bicentennial skyrocket went off it lifted America's spirit and uncovered its pride and, at least for the moment, crowned America's good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

San Francisco

Bomb Threat, Vandals Prompt Increased Courthouse Security

By ED PRICKETT Herald Staff Writer. Harassment of courthouse secretaries, at least one bomb threat and a continuing vandalism problem have prompted courthouse officials to beef up security measures.

Agreement Reached Today On Lake Boat Ramp

County Commission Chairman Mike Hattaway said today the county will definitely take over the boat ramp on Lake Monroe near Interstate 4.

U.S. Chamber Suggests Localized Systems

By LOUISE COOK Associated Press Writer. More and more consumers are turning to small claims courts to settle their disputes with business, but critics charge that the system often is stacked against the individual.

Changes Urged For Small Claims Courts

By BOB LLOYD Herald Staff Writer. Somewhere in Central Florida today there's a disappointed shoe thief.

Carter Searches For A Running Mate . . .

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Jimmy Carter said today he will interview Sen. Walter Mondale of Minnesota as a possible vice presidential running mate Thursday.

Others Search For The Real Carter

By TOM TIEDE The Herald Services. PLAINS, Ga. — Jimmy Carter is trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent.

Shoe Thief Trips Up

Somewhere in Central Florida today there's a disappointed shoe thief. The auto burglar probably thought he'd hit the jackpot when he broke into a station wagon at the 115 Clover Lane, Longwood, residence of Michael A. Hannah.

Side Glances

The vast majority of cases of impotence are related to psychological factors. This is especially true in the younger male. Usually this is a confidence factor, and the young man fails because of "fear of failure," a direct result of some of the social concepts of our culture.

Birth Defects Are Forever Unless You Hear A March Of Dimes

The vast majority of cases of impotence are related to psychological factors. This is especially true in the younger male. Usually this is a confidence factor, and the young man fails because of "fear of failure," a direct result of some of the social concepts of our culture.

Doonesbury

Shoe Thief Trips Up

Somewhere in Central Florida today there's a disappointed shoe thief. The auto burglar probably thought he'd hit the jackpot when he broke into a station wagon at the 115 Clover Lane, Longwood, residence of Michael A. Hannah.

Side Glances

The vast majority of cases of impotence are related to psychological factors. This is especially true in the younger male. Usually this is a confidence factor, and the young man fails because of "fear of failure," a direct result of some of the social concepts of our culture.

(Continued On Page 2-A)