FRIDAY, SEPT. 11, 1953
TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

This woman was a meticulous housewife, but she overemphasized the things and missed the great things.

But Martha was bothered about much serving—Luke 10:41.

This is Clearer Air Week, but aren't the politicians doing their best to foul it up?

The trouble with running pictures in a newspaper is that no one can ever say he was misquoted.

CORRECTION: It was an ex-Orlando fire chief, not police chief, who was charged with drunkenness, but our contact applies as well to Chief Cleveland as to Chief Williams.

The government has approved a price increase in steel, copper and aluminum amounting to $200,000, 000 a year. Another pay cut for the average man.

Of special interest to the farmers in the Sanford area should be the announcement that there is no issue between General Eisenhower and Governor Stevenson on the farm problem.

Of some local interest should be the decision of the State Road Department Tuesday in turning down the application of the Rural Electrification Administration to extend power service into Florida. We doubt if there will be any federal power in Florida for a long time.

Politics is picking up. There will be a city election, come next November, as well as a presidential election, and we hope, a hospital referendum. Commissioner Carraway, so we are told, is not planning to run again, leaving the door wide open, as it were, in some entertaining genius who knows how to raise $5,000,000 without taxing anybody anything at all.

Comptroller Gay refuses to pay an expense account of Governor Warren's press secretary who has been charged to the State of Florida. Gay said he had been purchased by him on the same day in the states of Indiana, Kentucky, and Tennessee while on a business trip to Miami for which he also collected expense money. Mr. Compton is a very ambitious person.

It was a rough day for the Democrats Tuesday what with Senator McCarthy, the most violent anti-Communist there is, winning a knockout election for re-nomination in Wisconsin, and the regular Texas Democratic convention voting overwhelmingly to not Governor Stevenson's name on the ballot but to ask the people to vote for Eisenhower. It isn't the Republicans who are demanding a change in Washington, but the people.

The need for a new hospital, which can be expanded easily so as to "grow with the town" is emphasized by the report of the Federal Security Agency which says there are now four times as many people over 65 years of age as there were 50 years ago. What is more, the rate of increase among older people is greater as they move to Florida from other states when they retire. Older people are more prone to sickness and various physical ailments than younger people, hence warrants more hospital facilities.

A nationwide poll conducted by the National Research Service reveals that Governor Stevenson holds a large margin of support among a vast block of people in the United States known as "marginal voters." In this group 57 percent of the Democrats, only 40 percent of the Republicans. That is because it shows how insecure the country is becoming. The poll also shows that work is being done to help the marginal voters.

Youth And Security

Federal Judge Harold R. Medina pointed out in a recent speech that more and more young people are seeking security in jobs instead of looking for what work can offer them in the way of a stimulant to their abilities. He said that the first consideration of too many prospective young employees is retirement and pension plans.

It is easy to understand what has unsettled some young people and made them willing to sacrifice chance of advancement for security. Many of them grew up during the depression and since the end of the depression they have known nothing except war and preparation for war.

But the best preparation for the future has always been a dedication to the job at hand. It is well to make provision for one's old age and retirement. Pension plans help to ensure a worker against falling on bad times when his working days are over. But the young man or woman who tackles the job which offers a challenge, who meets the challenge with industry and intelligence is all the more likely to enjoy the most security when his career has run its course.

Last Curtain

There have been many great and talented leading ladies in the history of the American theater. Few have been more versatile or had the acting range of Gertrude Lawrence. British born actress who died on Sept. 6 in a New York hospital.

Since her first appearance on an American stage nearly 30 years ago Miss Lawrence won the admiration and affection of audiences in a variety of roles. In one play she would sing and dance, in another she demonstrated her talent for comedy, again she would appear convincingly in a heavy drama. Whatever her role she was bound to attract critical acclaim and to attract customers to the box office.

At the time of her death Miss Lawrence was billed as the star of the Rogers and Hammerstein hit "The King and I." Among her most successful plays were "Susan and God," and "Lady in the Dark." She had been ill for some time but insisted on remaining in the cast of the show until Aug. 16, when she became impossible for her to continue.

Miss Lawrence was only about 50 years old at the time of her death. Had she lived she might have gained further honors for good actresses are apt not to attain their true stature until they are past middle age. But when the theatrical history of our time is written it is safe to say that there will be a prominent page reserved for the accomplishments of Gertrude Lawrence.

Tennis Hall Of Fame

Following baseball and football, tennis is to have its Hall of Fame. The location will be Newport, R. I., scene of many historic matches, notably the first national tennis championship contest in 1881. Photographs of noted players, their racquets and tennis costumes will be displayed.

Tennis has some great names. At the beginning of the century Malcolm D. Whitman and William A. Larned were at the top of the heap. Strive like Maurice McLaughlin, Vic Braden and many others are still remembered. But the great old man of tennis, if his late 60's are considered old, is William T. Tilden, still playing professionally. He was to tennis in the '20's what his contemporary, Bobby Jones, was to golf and Babe Ruth to baseball.

Power Company Pay Increase Is OK'd

ATLANTA (AP)—A power company's pay increase was approved by the Federal Wage Stabilization Board today. The 14,000 employees of 11 major electric power companies in four South-eastern states.

The companies are in Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Mississippi. The increase will total $2,000,000 annually and will add $300 per year to the paycheck of each employee.

Over protests from members representing industry, the board voted to make the higher wages retroactive to the anniversary dates of the various union contracts involved, ranging between March and July of this year.

School Board

JACKSONVILLE (AP)—The school board, suggested that in order to relieve the parking congestion at the South Side Primary School, a 60-foot wide strip of the playground situated on Thirteenth Street be used for two lanes for the buses.

Mr. Peinberg replied that the bus pupils are supervised and protected in getting off and on buses, but that boys on bicycles, such as her own, had to weave in and out of traffic in leaving the school.

Mr. Patrick pointed out that conditions are similar at Seminole High School. Board member John Brumley assured the mothers that the board will do everything possible to insure the safety of children at the schools.

HEAVY ELECTORAL COLLEGE FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Revenue Post In State Narrowed To 2 Candidates

JACKSONVILLE, Miami applicants certified as eligible.

ATLANTA (AP)—Walter A. Sahl, Miami, and Harley Howard, Jacksonville, have been certified as eligible for the new civil service post of director of internal revenue for Florida.

Selection of one of the two to fill the $12,000 a year job will be made in Washington at an early date, regional headquarters of the Civil Service Commission here announced.

Congress recently voted to abolish the position of collector of internal revenue, an appointive post and put the Internal Revenue Bureau field staff entirely under civil service.

The new director of internal revenue will have far greater responsibility than the former collector, since he will have jurisdiction over all internal revenue activities in his district, not merely tax collection alone.

O. E. Myers, regional director of Civil Service, said three eligible candidates usually are certified for positions of this nature. He added, however, that only two of the 48 candidates in Florida met the exacting specifications drawn for the job.

To be eligible, a candidate had to be a Florida resident with at least six years experience in high level administrative capacity, pass an oral examination given by commission rating specialists; was subject to intensive investigation both by commission representatives and by the FBI, which conducted the customary government loyalty check. All applicable civil service rules, such as veterans' preference, were applied to each applicant.

Sahl is Florida district enforcement officer for the Department of Justice, Immigration and Naturalization Service in Miami. Howard is the agent in charge of the Bureau of Internal Revenue in Jacksonville.

Claim Of Finding Bill Shakespeare Painting Doubtful

STAFFORD-ON-AVON, Eng (AP)—British authorities were cautious today in their reaction to Prof. G. Wilson Knight's claim to have found in South Africa a contemporary portrait of William Shakespeare.

There at Stafford, Shakespeare's birthplace, officials at the National Gallery said it is "not impossible" that the painting, found in the collection of Capt. D. M. S. Macdonald, is genuine.

But it has yet to be proved that any of the existing portraits were painted during Shakespeare's lifetime, they explained.

"If it proved to have been painted then, it would be big news," the National Gallery officials said.

The painting, which is said to have been painted in the 16th century, is a portrait of a man with a beard and a ruff collar.

The painting is said to have been found in a collection of paintings in South Africa.

FBI Investigates Fez-Wearing Group Opposed To Draft

CLEVELAND (AP)—FBI agents were looking into a report today that a group of red-fez-wearing Cleveland Negroes have formed a club that tells its members to refuse military service.

The report was given them by U. S. Attorney John J. Kane Jr. following testimony by a man identifying himself as a member of the union society of 48 states.

This man, William Henry Spearman, 29, testified he had a right to refuse a draft call because he is a member of the "Moorish nation of North America." Spearman is charged with sedition.

Members of this organization wear red fezzes, said Spearman after removing his own to testify. He referred to S. Commissioner U. A. Horn to a clause in the club's constitution, which read:

"The Moors, referred to as Negroes, definitely can never become members and citizens of the union society of 48 states.

"Therefore, they cannot be forced or drafted into the union, U. S. Army or military service of the United States of America. Members of the Magna Charta code of white supremacy, who are not members of this organization, are not to be admitted into the club. Instruction courses for $50.

$20,000 Is Earmarked To Push Tangerines

LAKELAND (AP)—The Florida Citrus Commission has earmarked $20,000 to push sale of tangerines west of the Mississippi.

It. V. Phillips, Haines City, had told the commission "we're going to have some trouble" disposing of the 1952-53 tangerine crop unless substantial quantities are diverted from the old established Eastern markets.

Steve Roberts of the Florida Tangerine Co-operative said shipments west of the Mississippi increased 10 per cent during a three-month period last season when the co-operative spent $1,000 for advertising the zipper-skinned fruit there.

Another promotional project approved last year was to help citrus consumption of citrus in Florida schools.

The commission will pay Mrs. Helen Stewart, Jacksonville, $500 a month to visit schools, present the value of citrus fruit and juice, furnish tasty recipes and try to get more of the fruit in school lunches. Mrs. Stewart has spent 14 years in organizing work for the PTA, which operates the lunch-

Clein Fails To Win Clemency But Gets His Tenth Reprieve

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—M. Reubin Klein, Miami weekly newspaper publisher, who has been under a 30-day contempt of court sentence for 31 months, failed to win clemency from the Pardon Board Wednesday but Gov. Warren kept him out of jail with a tenth reprieve.

The Pardon Board, of which the governor is chairman, took no action during a closed session on Klein's plea for pardon or commutation of the jail sentence to a fine.

He was sentenced in February, 1949, to serve 30 days for refusing to tell the Dade County Grand Jury the source of information he published on its secret proceedings. He published a story that a man was to be indicted for alleged bribery. The man subsequently was indicted.

The Supreme Court upheld Klein's conviction for contempt, but Gov. Warren has issued one reprieve after another to keep him from going to jail.

His latest was Wednesday after the Pardon Board failed to grant clemency and left the court's sentence in effect. Like most of the other reprieves, the new one was for the maximum 60-day period allowed by the constitution.

Klein's paper has been a consistent supporter of the Warren administration. The Pardon Board referred to the Problem Of School Buildings Reviewed

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) The only way to solve the school building problem is to pull up the money and be done with it, officials who wrestle the shortage daily in 15 southern states agreed Wednesday.

One school building administrator after another reported to the Interstate School Building center on its daily efforts to cut costs. The consensus was that they can't much that can be done that hasn't already been put into effect.

Most successful building cost cutting, the reports indicated, result from taking advantage of local conditions.

For example, James I. Graham, director of the Florida Education Department's division of administration and finance, reported on a plan which has saved his state up to $500,000 per class room.

The savings came on heating and lighting, but the plan could be used to full effect only in the southern part of Florida where tropical sunshine gives the architect a running start.

Graham also reported an savings gained by use of local building materials and on the successful

DeBary Doings

By KAY HENNINGER

Several families returned just in time for the opening of school. The family of Mr. and Mrs. William Feece had a six weeks' trip which included a number of the most scenic spots in the United States former home in Indiana. Parents and children enjoyed their first visit to the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Coffin and their daughter Beryl, also got back from a vacation in the North.

Miss Charlotte Bergmann, a student of Western College, Oxford, Ohio, spent ten days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wagner, before returning to school.

One new arrival in DeBary, who is too young to be introduced in school, arrived recently in the Sanford hospital. Her parents, L. and Mrs. Gooding have been living in DeBary for about a year and a half and are very happy to add Anita Louise to their household.

The first teacher of the DeBary Nursery School, Mrs. Eric Simons, is now in charge of the Bonnie Day Nursery in DeLand. After spending two months in the North, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill have returned to DeBary.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schmidt arrived this week. Mrs. Schmidt's illness during the summer delayed their return.

Dr. and Mrs. William Vidler are back home after having spent a month visiting their children and grandchildren.

We always dislike reporting illnesses. We especially feel that way in regard to Erling Thompson, who suffered a fractured heel and is hospitalized in Meadowbrook, Long Island.

Mrs. Henrietta Maguire, who made two visits to DeBary recently, during which she arranged to purchase the Germain house, is seriously ill. Her doctor has ordered her to bed and she will not be able to come to Florida at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. White, who left here on Sept. 1, are visit with their children in Livingston.

Talking Politics On National Lines Is Now Dangerous

By HAL BOYLE
 NEW YORK (AP)—As the national political race nears its mid-campaign peak, more and more thoughtful people are turning to ask the man in the street today: "Who do you think'll win?" Chances are he won't say Adlai or Ike. He'll reply: "The Dodgers" or "The Giants."

And in more and more homes, it seems, they are tuning out the political broadcasts and tuning in the baseball game. It's quieter that way.

The tensest situation of our times is the meeting between a Dodger fan who likes Stevenson and a Giant fan who favors Eisenhower under circumstances in which politeness forces them at least to say "Hello."

At the start of the political campaign some hostesses thought it safe to poll the guests on whether they thought the Republicans or the Democrats would win. No less would do that today unless she wanted (A) to break her apartment lease, or (B) collect accident insurance on her furniture.

Some bartenders are now enforcing a new rule: "Politely no dry Martinis served to customers talking politics. If you insist on doing so, you'll have to take a wet Martini." As nobility in the history of Martini drinking ever known, he drank a wet one this lion threat has kept peace at the bar or at least a truce.

But this is still the year of the great divide and what it is dividing is many a home and beautiful friendship. A fellow who wants to keep his same circle of friends must now avoid his usual Saturday night poker game with the boys and plays solitaire.

The theory that every man has a right to his own opinion is a trite one only if he keeps it to himself. The candidates will talk on for weeks yet but for most voters the battle lines are already irrevocably drawn. As late as two weeks ago it was still possible to get agreement by saying, "Well at least the country is lucky in one way—they're both good men."

Anyone who makes that remark today is likely to be regarded as a fence-sitting coward or an insurmountable agent.

Politics is particularly dangerous as a topic among women, and more women have political opinions this year than ever. No husband can shut them up in public either unless he wants his wife to give him an ear cellophane when she gets him alone.

As a matter of fact most political talk at what are supposed to be social gatherings now is between women, not men. Men talk pretty well if it is too late to argue. Women never realize a thing like that, if they are really partisan. And do the ladies have claws in their vocal chords? They do, indeed! Strong men blanch at the sight of their wives venturing against Adlai. A barb in every breath.

Their only consolation is the pleasure of seeing women criticize each other for a change, instead of attacking men—the beasts.

Politics now is even separating the boys from the girls. His small daughter told a suburban father this week:

"Well, I lost my new boy friend at school already, and I only had him two days."
 "What happened?" asked her father.

"I found out he's a Republican," she said glumly. "Then she looked up at him craftily and added: "Of course, I could get him back easy, Daddy, if you just liked Ike."

Mother Beats Child To Death With Stick
 CHICAGO (AP)—A 2½-year old boy died in the Cook County Hospital Wednesday night a few minutes after being brought there by his mother who, police said, told them she beat the child with a broomstick and a belt.

"I didn't want him any more," police quoted Mrs. Juanita Luna. "I never had any love for him."
 In a dictated statement, the mother of two other children, a girl, 4, and a boy, 3 months, said she became angry with her older boy, Ralph, when he soiled his body and clothing.

The sobbing woman related she first beat him with a broomstick, police said, and then used a belt when the child continued screaming.

Mrs. Luna and her children live in a Jane Addams housing project on the near southwest side. Police said she told a soldier, now in Korea, was Ralph's father.

Mrs. Luna was held pending an inquest.
 Juvenile Officer Arthur Dixon said Mrs. Luna had separated from her husband, Hector, five months after the birth of the four year old girl. He said she told him Luna was not the father of the two younger children.

About 80 million people live on the approximately 8,000 islands of the Republic of Indonesia.

In this scene from "Island of Drums," Linda Darnell and the new lobby-seater's delight, Tab Hunter, prove that life on a desert island is just what the doctor ordered, until the unexpected appearance of Howard Crosby, forming the eternal triangle. The picture, a United Artists release, showing today and Friday on the Ritz Theater screen.

Grocery Company Gives Pay Increase

A "Cost of Living Pay Increase" for employees of the Winn and Lovett Grocery Company and Lovett's Stores, which went into effect Sept. 8 has resulted in pay increases for a large number of people. H. L. Avery, Jacksonville Division Manager states:

This is the increase number 8 since Winn and Lovett adopted the "Cost of Living Pay Adjustment Plan" and will amount to between 10 and 25 per cent, depending on the employee's length of service.

The plan is a 2½ per cent hourly pay increase for hourly paid employees. Mr. Avery stated, "The Winn and Lovett plan is based upon the 'Consumer's Price Index for Moderate Income

Work Progresses On Lake Wales Theatre

LAKE WALES.—Work on the amphitheater where Florida's first Passion Play will be presented this winter is progressing steadily. The site, two miles south of here, is a natural amphitheatre which just needed to be deepened a little. All the grading has been finished.

The 350-foot long stage will be work will begin on installation of the 3,000 seats.

Frank M. O'Dyne, Lake Wales citizen who heads the group of citizens bringing the project here, said plans are complete for the premier, Jan. 9. Among the celebrities invited will be the governor, Cabinet members, legislators and other state and local officials.

The regular season will run from Jan. 11 to March 5, with performances every Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday. There will be special performances for school children.

The actors, directed by Jinet Meler, are refugees from Hitler who formerly presented the Passion Play in their native Germany.

Feminine Florida

Here in Florida, September attempted to come "in with a roar" on the crest of a hurricane. But luckily the storm turned away and everyone breathed a little easier.

Although most hurricanes are not serious, they should be treated with respect and prepared for with great care. Every year patient weather Bureau observers keep trying to make this point: Hurricanes are not dangerous if proper precautions are taken.

The most savage and destructive hurricane in the history of Florida, which occurred in 1928, took an estimated 2,000 lives. Most of these lives could have been spared if proper notification had been given. Those affected lived in the lowlands between Palm Beach and Okeechobee and were itinerant field laborers without telephones and radios.

As a result, lives were lost needlessly when storm winds literally blew shallow Lake Okeechobee from its bottom, hurling huge crests of water over trapped workers.

Delayed communications and a tardy evacuation train were responsible for the tragedy on the Keys when hundreds of veterans in a CCC camp died. These two incidents are Florida's greatest hurricane tragedies.

When hurricane warnings are hoisted every family should be completely prepared for the oncoming storm, even though it seems unlikely that the storm from its particular party of the state.

All movable objects should be taken indoors or tied securely. Garbage cans, lawn furniture, bird houses and other objects should not be left out of doors. Large windows should be boarded up or securely braced. Trees and shrubs will be safer if they, too, are properly braced.

Every Florida home should stock a special hurricane kit complete with candles, matches, Scotch tape, first-aid equipment and tools for repairing damages. Be sure you have a supply of band-aid bandages handy. Easy-to-prepare foods and canned goods not requiring heating or cooking are best for emergency use. One of the best investments a Florida family can make is a small alcohol stove. They are grand for picnics and outdoor parties and serve as an auxiliary stove during hurricanes. Fill several bottles full of water and be sure that the medicine chest is equipped to take care of any emergency.

Most Florida homes are built to withstand any kind of storm. But do not hesitate to evacuate should the Red Cross so order. The one rule we should all remember is never trust the weather Nature when a hurricane is raging. If your area is hit by a storm it is not necessary to evacuate, but be sure you are fully equipped to do it. Keep the "hatches" closed down—relax and "let it blow."

Florida's first hurricane season is under way. It is the time to get ready for the worst. The Red Cross is now accepting donations for the hurricane relief fund. The fund is for the relief of the victims of the hurricane. The fund is for the relief of the victims of the hurricane. The fund is for the relief of the victims of the hurricane.

Easter's Bat Keeps Indians 1 Game Behind Yankees

Brooklyn Increases Lead To 4 1/2 Games Over Giants With 2 Wins Over Cubs

AP Sports Writer
 Luke Easter, former target for Cleveland's "boo birds," is top man on the hit parade of Indian fans today.

Easter's blazing bat is spearheading the Indians' bid for the American League pennant, a drive that finds them only one game behind the New York Yankees. Both combatants have 14 games to play including a face-to-face meeting in Cleveland on Sunday.

Easter drove home two runs last night on a single and his 29th home run to lead the Indians to a 5-3 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics. But the Yanks protected their slim lead as Al Reynolds pitched the Yankees to a 6-1 victory over the St. Louis Browns.

Meanwhile, the Brooklyn Dodgers moved 4 1/2 games ahead of the New York Giants in the National League race. The Dodgers' Ruthless first win bill from Chicago, 4-1 and 6-2, after the Giants had won a 13-inning battle from Pittsburgh, 3-2, on Don Mueller's home run.

Easter, who failed to hit his weight during the first half of the campaign, has been making up for lost time since he got back into the lineup on July 15, following a sojourn with Indianapolis of the American Association.

The 240-pound first baseman departed unannounced with a 208 average. Since his recall, he has been hitting away at a .310 clip and has driven in 55 runs in 52 games.

The Indians were playing .568 ball and trailed the Yanks by 3 1/2 games when Easter left. Since his return they have won 36 and lost 22, a .610 pace.

Easter, who has hit safely in 13 straight games, singled home the Indians' first run in the opening inning. Bob Lemon blanked the Athletics on three hits until the fifth, when he suddenly wilted. The A's loaded the bases with one out and Lemon issued two walks to force home two runs. Ted Wilks, the old National League fireman, came on and saved Lemon's 10th victory.

Sanford All-Stars Are Edged, 4-3, In 7th By Orange Buick

Sanford's high flying, recreational All-Star softball team received their first jolt in the Orlando Invitational tournament last night as Orange Buick came from behind in the late innings to defeat Sanford, 4-3, in the bottom of the seventh at Exposition Park in Orlando.

Sanford led most of the game before they fell victim to several scratch infield hits and fluke bunts. Iron-Man Hires went the entire route for the losing side, but two walks, four runs on eight hits.

With the score knotted up in the bottom of the seventh and Orange Buick at bat, Malley looped a Texas League single over second, which glanced off the edge of John Keeling's outstretched mitt.

Keeling laid down a perfect bunt which Frankie Stenstrom raced in on an overcast to Keeling at first. The runner beat the peg but Stenstrom's throw smashed off Keeling's glove and rolled into right field. Right fielder Mason sped in to relay the ball to the plate but his throw hit the ground as Malley streaked across the plate, beating catcher Coleman Yates with the game winning tally.

The loss ended the All-Stars' two-game winning streak and dropped them into the losers' bracket with still no more chance to make the finals. However, they must win all their remaining games to take the Orlando crown.

The locals talked once in the first when Stenstrom led off with a single. Flanaders walked and Bill Crabtree singled Stenstrom across. Hancock maintained their 1-0 lead until the fifth when they added two more on Keeling's walk, Flanaders' bing and a pair of fielders' errors.

Orange Buick parlayed a hit and two bunts into their first two runs in the bottom of the fifth to make the scoreboard read 3-2. Sanford, The Buickmen added the tying run in the sixth on Anderson's triple and a fly ball to Flanaders by first baseman Baird.

Sanford plays again Friday night at Exposition Park in Orlando at 7:30 p.m. The All-Stars will hold a practice at the Lakewood Diamond tonight at 7:30 p.m.

Giants Can Thank One Monte Irvin If They Win Flag

By JACK HAND
 NEW YORK (AP)—If the New York Giants pull another "miracle" this fall, a fellow named Monte Irvin will deserve much of the credit.

Just as Giant hopes crumpled Irvin's broken ankle in spring training so they have risen with his return to regular action.

The strong slugger from Orange, N. J., stretched his consecutive game hitting streak to 11 yesterday with a home run in the 10th inning to win over Pittsburgh in 13 innings.

This was a miserable summer for big Monte, sifting home while playing in the minors and fuming in their uphill climb to Brooklyn. He was anxious to return to action but he just couldn't afford to take chances until the doctor gave his okay.

A little walking exercise in his back yard, then some batting practice. More hitting and light exercise while he made a Western swing with the giants. Then a return to the active list for pinch-hitting duties.

Finally he got back in there on an every day basis when the Giants were being read out of the race some 10 1/2 games behind the Dodgers.

"Irvin is the difference," you hear on all sides in the Giant clubhouse and dugout. "Since he came back, we started to win."

Batting .325 and lashing vicious line drives as the cleanup hitter, Monte is doing his best to lift the Giants toward another flag.

His figure, a car run about 75 per cent as good as normal," he said. "I can run straight ahead all right but it's tough to stop and go back."

Gators Close Grid Drills From Public

GAINESVILLE (AP)—Florida's Gators went behind closed gates today while Coach Bob Woodruff began specific preparations for the opener with Stetson here Sept. 20.

Rock-ribbed defensive play by the tentative and triple in the 2nd was a highlight of Wednesday's surprise scrimmage. Tackle Charlie LaPrade and Guards Joe D'Agostino and Art Wright formed the backbone of a group that held a freshman offensive team in check.

A pair of former regular defensive backs, Buford Long and J. (Papa) Hall, turned in sparkling running performances, with some effective ball-carrying help from sophomore fullbacks Billy Bass and Dick Watson, and veterans Sam Oosterhout and Reed Quinn.

The Gators worked on kickoffs Wednesday and again this morning with Rick Casares, Hubert Brooks and sophomore Bob Hunt sending the ball downfield. For winning drills the kickers were

Sports Roundup

By ED CORRIGAN
 (For Gayle Talbot)

NEW YORK It seems like only yesterday that the major league pitchers, who are the most famous men in the business, were being accused of a conspiracy to rig the game. Much too lively they cried. Someone has been tampering with the content. They hinted darkly that there very probably might have been a conspiracy to take the game away from the pitcher.

So loud was the cry, in fact, that the manufacturers were forced to deny all. Same ball, same content, they maintained.

Now all is silence and a look at the records will explain why. The other day we glanced at the leading batters in the majors: Would you believe that the National League pennant winner may not have a better batting average than the stars are in?

In fact, the last three in the top 10 in the National League were hitting under .300. Jackie Robinson was the Brooklyn operative with a .298 mark and Whitey Lockman was banging away at .301 for the New York Giants.

The American League wasn't much better. It, too, had the last three in the top 10 under .300. Gene Woodling of the New York Yankees and Dale Mitchell of the Cleveland Indians both were well up but where were the others? Only Mickey Mantle was managing to stay above .300.

We don't want to be one to paint a gloomy picture, but we would like to urge Stan Musial to start socking with more vigor or he's going to have the lowest average of a National League batting king since 1919.

The last time we looked his mark showed .335 and barring a slump of catastrophic proportions, he would win the championship in 1943 and in 1948 it was a mighty 376.

In 1919 Ed Roush of Cincinnati won with a .321. This, of course, was an outbreak of world War I and Roush was trying to stay on his feet. Nothing even approached Roush's somewhat anemic figure was posted until the next war.

In 1942, Ernie Lombardi won it with a .330.

In the American League, Ferris Fain, who is trying for his second straight year, has been marked with a .245 last year and currently is hovering around the .330 mark.

Federal Wildlife Changes Only Few Laws For Season

TALLAHASSEE — (Special)—The tightening of one regulation and the loosening of another featured the revisions of the Federal regulations for the taking of migratory game birds in Florida this year, according to the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

A revision in the 1952-53 regulations states that the daily bag limit of ducks this year in four, possession, eight, only one of which may be a wood duck. Last year, the possession limit on ducks was two day's bag, which included two wood ducks.

The other regulation permits the shooting of migratory game birds from a boat or other craft having a motor attached if such craft is fastened within or immediately alongside of any type of stationary hunting blind.

In previous years, it has been illegal to hunt with the motor on the boat, and before shooting was permitted the sportsman had to undo the motor and place it in the floor of the boat.

For years, sportsmen have contended that the regulation prohibiting shooting of migratory birds while in a boat with a motor attached was unfair for "it's worth your own life to try and take off a motor while you're in the boat on the water."

Miami Evens Set With Tampa White St. Pete Triumphs

By The Associated Press
 Miami goes U-Tampa tonight to win up their Florida International League Shaughnessy playoffs while Miami Beach entertains St. Petersburg in the East Coast resort city.

Miami and Tampa ended their two-game set in Miami Stadium Wednesday night with the pennant-winning Sun Sox taking the second game, 5-1, to even the series at 1.

At the same time, St. Petersburg whipped the Flamingos at Miami Beach, 7-6, to forge ahead in their best three-of-five series, 2.

Miami's veteran Gil Torres allowed Tampa only five hits and held the Smokers scoreless after the first inning. In that frame Len Pascoe went to second on an error and Benny Fernandez doubled him in.

Miami struck back for three in the bottom half on an error, two hits and a pair of singles. Paul Armstrong doubled home two more Miami runs in the seventh. Dale Matthews went the route for Tampa and gave up eight hits before a turnout of 1,040.

St. Petersburg picked up a run in the third inning at Miami Beach on two hits sandwiched around an error. Miami Beach came right back with four on a single, a double, an error and Jesse Levan's home run.

Two more Miami Beach runs came in the fourth on an error, an infield hit, a force out and George Handy's triple.

St. Petersburg got four in the fifth on four singles and a double. A home run by Webb Wilson in the seventh tied the score at 6-6 and the Saints won it in the eighth on a walk, a balk, a ground out and Gil Valdivia's single. About 800 and the game.

In tonight's games, Miami's Labe Dean is slated to face Tampa's Red Barrett while Miami Beach will send Andy Eiko against the Saints' George Greese.

SEC Teams Begin Scrimmages And Harder Practice

By The Associated Press
 This is the scrimmage season for Southeastern Conference football teams—the annual mid-September period when teams get in some of their heaviest knocks as they prep for opening games nine days ahead.

Almost every SEC team scrimmaged Wednesday and most of them either got back to simulated game conditions today or Friday. From these rough, long sessions usually come injuries and Wednesday was no exception.

Broken hand and wrist bones resulted at Tulane and Georgia Tech. East Brunswick, first string offensive center for Tulane, broke a bone in his left wrist and probably will have to put the wrist in a cast. He should be ready for Tulane's opener Sept. 27. The opponent is Georgia and the opener is a week later than most SEC teams get started.

Ben Daugherty, Georgia Tech's fine defensive tackle, broke a bone in his left hand. He'll miss both the Citadel and Florida games.

Field work at Tennessee and Georgia was far from impressive if you listen to two of the best moaners in football—Coach Bob Neyland of the Vols and Wally Butts of Georgia.

Tennessee worked through both offensive and defensive scrimmages and results were disappointing to Neyland. Jim Haslam, tackle, and John Michels, guard, were the best operators on the field. Bill Barbach was released from the hospital after breaking a nose bone.

"Distressing" was Butts' word for Georgia's drill. But that word didn't cover the performance of Conrad Maniera, Maniera, a New Jersey product, put on one of the fastest exhibitions of football seen in Athens in years. He scored three touchdowns. Zeke Bratkowski and Jimmy Harper, both quarterbacks, passed well.

The swing to the split T in the Southeastern has been marked Wednesday, Coach Bill Edwards of Vanderbilt took his first look at his new split T offense. Freshman Quarterback Bill Kriemeyer looked good running and passing. Vandy scrimmaged at length.

Bear Bryant mixed in practice on fundamental football between scrimmage sessions at Kentucky. The team looked slow after a long session of two-day workouts.

Two-day workouts have ended for Auburn. Meanwhile, first string players at work after injuries. He won't work through the rough phases again until Saturday when a game scrimmage will be held.

Clemson And Maryland Cannot Take Titles Even If They Win.

By ROBERT MOORE
 RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—The Eastern Conference finds itself making football history this season before a single game has been played.

For two of its members — Maryland and Clemson — are expected to have teams which will rank among the best in the nation. Yet, neither can win the conference championship.

Both Maryland and Clemson are on the conference blacklist. They placed there for playing in New Year's Day bowl games and were given one-year football suspensions.

Virginia, another top-flight area outfit, can't win, either, for the Cavaliers aren't conference members.

Maryland has its eyes set on becoming the nation's No. 1 team. And the Terps have every reason to believe that's where they'll wind up.

They thrashed Tennessee, last year's top-ranked team, in the Sugar Bowl Jan. 1. And Coach Jim Tatum flatly admits the Terps will have their best running attack in Maryland history and a defensive unit which will compare favorably to the 1951 defense which limited its foes to an average of 75.3 yards per game.

Tatum has Jack Scarbath, a great quarterback, around to direct his tricky split-T version. He has an abundance of other speedy backs in Chester Hamrick, Ralph Felton, Ronnie Waller, Frey Layman, Joe Horning, Dick Nolan, Ed Fullerton, Ed Barritt, Bernie Paloney, Charley Boxold and Lynn Wright.

Leading the Maryland line is Dick (Little Mo) Modzelewski, who along with Scarbath is being boomed for all America honors. Fifteen other lettermen are sprinkled among the line candidates.

Clemson has a terrific triple-threat back in Billy Hair. Hair was sixth in the nation last year in total yards gained with a total of 1,579.

Virginia has a small squad of 15, but all of them have a lot of football savvy and were on last year's squad.

Duke's Blue Devils have become odds-on favorites to cop the conference crown with Maryland and Clemson safely out of the way for a year.

Virtually all of Duke's 1951 team is back. Their big problem is to develop a defensive backfield.

Wake Forest, William and Mary, North Carolina and possibly South Carolina could cause the Dukes trouble. Wake Forest, particularly, should come up with a hard-to-beat team since many experienced hands are back.

North Carolina has turned to the Formation. How well the Tar Heels do will depend on how quickly Coach Carl Snavely can bring them around to their new formation.

A multiple belt conveyor system in use at Newport News, Va., now is equipped to load coal into four ships at a time.

Move For New Parleys With Britain Made

Churchill May Come To Talk With President Over Anticipated Money Crisis

By JOHN A. SCALI
WASHINGTON (AP)—A new "dollar crisis" conference between Britain and the United States appears to be shaping up for early next spring.

Prime Minister Churchill himself may fly to the United States this fall to discuss with President Eisenhower the United States' proposals for new moves to strengthen the Western world's finances.

Nothing definite about the dates for any such high level meeting has been decided upon. But American and British financial and trade experts are already busy behind the scenes exploring possible proposals for action.

The present plan calls for government agencies to draft a comprehensive report summing up the West's economic problems. This is to be laid on the desk of the new president after he assumes office Jan. 20 along with alternative proposals for United States action to meet the situation.

Officials here believe it likely that Churchill will want to discuss these problems personally with the new president. If he doesn't come himself, it is believed virtually certain he will send Foreign Minister Anthony Eden and Britain's ambassador to the exchequer, H. A. Butler, to talk with the next American secretary of state and treasury.

President Truman, questioned about this at his news conference yesterday, said any such discussion would necessarily be with the new administration and that he knew nothing about it.

The backstage study now going on in American government agencies seems to stem from a growing belief that America's allies may have to halt their rearmament drive unless new financial programs are found for their shaky economies.

Britain and France already have cut back their rearmament schedules and American defense experts fear any further cuts in armament production may seriously hurt the Western world's plan for defense against communism.

What new steps can be adopted to bolster Western finances is not clear. Congress appropriated a total of $6,447,730,750 for military, economic and technical aid to nearly 40 countries during the 12 months (Continued on Page Two)

County Zoning Referendum To Be On Ballot In November Election

A referendum that would empower the County Commission to adopt zoning regulations and a building code covering the use of property not included in any municipality and adjacent to state and county roads, will be presented to voters of Seminole County for approval in the November election, O. P. Herndon, county clerk, stated yesterday.

The County Commission recently decided to include the referendum, which was passed by the State Legislature as Senate Bill No. 902, on the November ballot. It carries with it a stipulation that it is not effective until it is ratified by a majority of the qualified electors of Seminole County.

Zoning control outside of municipalities will be limited to areas within 500 feet of the center line of any state or county road. This will include regulations and restrictions in the use of the property and the enforcement of a building code.

Section 2 of the bill provides that the County Commission may divide the territory under control into districts and "may regulate and restrict the erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair or use of buildings and structures on land and water."

All such regulations shall be uniform for each class or kind of building throughout each district, but the regulations in one district may differ from those of another district.

Section 3 of the bill, defines its objectives and states it is intended to "secure safety from fire, promote health, provide adequate light and air, prevent overcrowding, and provide for the adequate provision of transportation, water, sewerage, schools, parks and other requirements."

"Such regulations shall be made with reasonable consideration, among other things, of the character of each district and its particular uses and with a view of conserving the value of buildings and encouraging the most appropriate use of the land and water throughout the county."

The bill also provides that the board shall provide for the manner in which such rights, restrictions and boundaries of such districts shall be determined, established and enforced and from time to time, supplemented and amended.

Senator L. F. Boyle, sponsor in drawing up the bill, included provision for complaints by citizens in the bill states, "However, no such regulation, restriction or boundary shall be come effective until after a public hearing in which citizens and parties interested shall have the opportunity to be heard."

"At least 15 days notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be published in a paper of general circulation in the county."

Changes in the regulations shall require a favorable vote by three-fifths of the County Commission. In order to carry out the provisions of the bill, it will be necessary for the County Commission to appoint a Zoning Commission of not less than 3 or more than 7 qualified electors.

The duties of the zoning commission shall be to "recommend the boundaries of the various districts, and regulations to be enforced. They shall make preliminary reports and hold a public hearing before submitting a final report to the Board of County Commissioners. They shall not hold public hearings or take action until it has received a final report of such commission. Zoning commission members will receive no compensation."

In putting the act into effect, the County Commission will employ the clerk as an employee of the board to enforce the provisions (Continued on Page Two)

Acheson Hits At Critics Of Foreign Policy

Calls Plan Of Using Force To Wean Red Satellites As Disaster Prescription

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson has slapped a "disaster prescription" label on critics of his foreign policy who urge the use of force as a means of aiding countries under Russia's domination.

Assailing critics of the administration's foreign policy as men who "stand on the horns and horns of their own horns," Acheson declared last night.

"Our position in the world calls for responsibility, not only by force, but by all of us. We cannot dictate, we cannot be irresponsible if we are to fulfill the mission of leadership among free peoples."

He spoke at the convention of the AFL International Association of Machinists.

In New York John Foster Dulles, Republican foreign policy adviser, said neither he nor Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower contemplated a "war of liberation" when they recommended different foreign policy in Eastern Europe.

The republicans presidential nominee recently and the United States should not rest until the Communist dominated countries of Eastern Europe are liberated. He told the American Legion Convention in New York he was advocating only peaceful measures.

Dulles, in a radio interview, blamed "President Truman's misinterpretation" for any alarm Eisenhower's Legion speech might have caused in Europe. The speech had been interpreted by the president as increasing the possibility of war.

Dulles cited Yugoslavia's withdrawal from the Communist bloc as the type of "unilateral" the U. S. should work for. He also mentioned economic measures, internal discussion in Communist enclaves, and the need for a strong, unified front against present foreign policy planning as inadequate.

Acheson told the machinists convention:

"I believe, as anyone must who shares the democratic faith that free societies can and will be more durable, and that ultimately they must exercise a strong, unified front that will shift the balance in our favor."

"But if through impatience or imprudence we are urged to seek the 'liberation' of territories by peoples by force this advice would be neither realistic nor responsible."

"If this is what is meant by being more 'positive' then it is in fact a positive prescription for disaster."

Taft Avers He And Ike Agree Substantially On All Issues; Adlai Diagnoses Corruption

In Regard To Graft, Stevenson Says We Have What We Deserve In Capital

Stevenson Tours The Northwest

BY HELMAN MORIN
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson went on the offensive today with a denial, framed in his strongest language, that Democrats alone are responsible for corruption and misconduct in the federal government.

"Whose fault is it," he asked "that we get what we deserve in government?"

And his answer was: "It is the fault of you the people. Your public servants serve you right, in that they give you exactly what you deserve through your apathy and indifference."

This was the core of Stevenson's answer to one of the central issues in the battle for the presidency. He quoted his Republican opponent as saying it is "the only issue."

Stevenson devoted a whole speech to it in Los Angeles yesterday in a speech here he painted a picture of the United States 20 years from now, promised a golden future, and said of the Republicans:

"They have always been afraid of tomorrow. Seligson has been a bold idea for building America bigger and stronger for the future, but that Republican voters are raised saying, 'You can't do that.'"

Stevenson carried his campaign today into the Southwest, heading for Arizona and New Mexico. He plans to be in his Springfield headquarters late Saturday.

His two Los Angeles speeches were foundation stones in the campaign he is building.

In the first, his effort was to destroy the Republican argument that the Democrats alone are to blame for corruption in Washington.

In the second, he sought to identify his party with progress, and to prove that the Republicans are "the party of the past."

Analyzing the question of corruption in public office he made these points:

1. The American people have a moral responsibility.

"You are not going to clean up crime and corruption until you clean up American civic and political life. Government is like a ship, and what it pumps up is just what we are, a fair sample of the intellect, the ethics and the morals of the people, no better, no worse."

2. He himself, he fought for clean government.

"I do not, I have not, nor will I condone, excuse or explain away the 'liberation' of territories in public office whoever the guilty or wherever they are stationed. I have had the satisfaction of filing and prosecuting a good many, and I mean from both parties."

3. Bureaucracy is not confined to government.

"When you realize that American private business is swindled for more than a billion dollars each year by its employees, from clerks to executives, it is not too remarkable, however deplorable, that I mean from both parties."

4. Grant and bribery are not the only forms of corruption.

"Perhaps the proper description is 'misleading the public.' The legislator who will vote for all kinds of special interest bills to catch or hold some votes. Call that what you will, but it is you who are the guilty party."

5. He said, too, that there are "tens of thousands" of honest, efficient public officers. The "criticism, abuse and intraldrage" Stevenson added, is making it more difficult to bring good people into government.

GOVERNOR Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic Presidential nominee, checked in today at the Hilton's Chief Executive Club called for a "reorganized and tight-knit" Federal policy on the development of natural resources and public power, with new programs mounted against the vast stock of national goods rather than local interests. NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft said today that he and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower are in substantial agreement on all issues but that he will speak anywhere in the next few days to urge further the Republican presidential nominee's program.

"I am convinced that Eisenhower will carry out the policies of the Republican platform," he said.

He said he was "completely satisfied" that Eisenhower would give the United States a good administration.

Taft also said he is convinced Eisenhower believes in the principle of a Republican "strict construction" in Congress.

He called a new conference "I cannot say I agree with all of them. Eisenhower's views on foreign policy, but our differences are merely differences of degree."

Later in answer to a question, he said the degree was largely a matter of emphasis. He declined to change, saying he would discuss his views of foreign policy in his own speeches.

Today's broadcast conference at Los Angeles, a Southern University home was the first since Eisenhower defeated Taft for the nomination in a large city last July.

Saying that he himself would speak on a national broadcast and speak anywhere to the extent of his ability, Taft urged all Americans "to have confidence in my judgment" to support the Republican ticket.

He said he and Gen. Eisenhower (Continued on Page Two)

Former Brewer Is Indicted For Evasion Of Tax

Indianian Is Charged With Being Shy By Nearly 200 Thousand

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lawrence P. Bardin, former Indiana brewer whose name has been brought into congressional complaints of government tax irregularities, was indicted today on charges of trying to evade his 1948 income taxes.

The two-count indictment, at Indianapolis, was announced by Atty. Gen. McGranery.

Bardin's name figured prominently in charges by Sen. William H. Cramer in Williams' revelation of alleged irregularities in the Internal Revenue Bureau.

McGranery's announcement described Bardin as former manager of the Indianapolis Brewing Company.

The two counts charged that Bardin reported an income of $29,824 and a tax thereon of $26,382 for 1948, but should have reported $759,827 and tax of $639,841.

Williams told the Senate Feb. 11 that Bardin settled a big tax claim for a small amount in 1946, but should have reported $759,827 and tax of $639,841.

Williams said the Senate Feb. 11 that Bardin settled a big tax claim for a small amount in 1946, but should have reported $759,827 and tax of $639,841.

Nunan said, however, that he never represented the brewing company, never spoke to anyone in its behalf and never received a fee from the company.

Williams contended, nevertheless, that he had a photograph of a waiver Nunan obtained from the Treasury to represent the firm. Such a waiver would be required because of Nunan's recent connection with the Internal Revenue Bureau.

The first count against Bardin charges that he "willfully attempted to defeat and evade his tax by not reporting his correct income." The second count charges a willful attempt to defeat and evade the payment of the tax of $639,841 by allegedly concealing his assets from the government.

Lake Mary Road Issue Referred To Attorney General

The "technical closing" by William Todd of Palmtoe Avenue, which for years has provided access by fathers to the north shore of Lake Mary, will be referred to the State Attorney General for a final opinion, it was decided last night by a committee of the property owners of the unincorporated town of Lake Mary at a meeting in the Community Center.

The property owners seek to re-open the road.

Following motion by Roy Howell, Jr., and second by Roy Howell, Jr., the vote was unanimous, according to Frank Evans, committee chairman. Action to file the committee was made at a recent meeting of citizens.

It was decided to secure the opinion in the form of a letter written and signed by a large number of property owners in the town.

Mr. Hall moved and William Leffer seconded a motion that a committee be appointed by the chair to secure pledges to hire a competent attorney, and the committee voted to employ G. W. Spencer, if necessary, to bring suit to open Palmtoe Avenue.

This morning, said Mr. Evans, the letter to the Attorney General was being written, and plans of the area affected will be enclosed.

The committee, he said, will wait to hear from the Attorney General before seeking the advice of Mr. Spencer on further proceedings.

Property owners on the committee include Edward Zimmerman, James Yates, William Leffer, W. P. Burke, Homer Givson, Roy Howell, Jr., Raymond Bell, Jr., John Peckham, K. E. True and Mr. Evans.

Head Of Justice Department Tax Policy Group As Division Is Fired Deadline Nears

Step Follows Recent Contract Negotiation Involvement In St. Louis Investigation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. McGranery today relieved Ellis N. Slack as head of the Justice Department's tax division and replaced him with Charles L. Lyon who has been chief counsel of the House committee investigating tax scandals.

Slack has been acting chief of the tax division since Nov. 1, 1949, when President Truman fired T. Lamar Childs for "outside activity."

Slack has been under fire of a congressional committee recently in connection with a St. Louis grand jury investigation last year of the handling of tax cases in that house.

Slack was elected today with Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern Coal Producers' Association, at noon headquarters. The two have been reported discussing a share the work plan with the Division's chief.

That the plan Lyons want time and a half premium pay for work done on a fourth working day in any week and double time for a fifth day's work.

The idea is to level out employment in the industry. Some times, most of them in the South, work as few as two days a week while the "grape" miners of the North, owned by steel and utility companies, work as many as five and six days a week.

The Lyons contract with the Southern Coal Producers' Association is to expire Sept. 30.

Lewis is reported to be seeking higher wages and greater welfare benefits from Southern mine owners, whose spokesman is Harry Moses, president of the Bituminous Coal Operators' Association.

The miners now have a $10.35 (Continued on Page Two)

Methodist Church To Operate Its New Air Conditioning

Plans are under way to use for the first time Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock, the new air conditioning system installed in the First Methodist Church, the Rev. J. E. McKinley announced today.

It is planned to keep the temperature between 70 and 75 degrees, he declared, and much of the humidity that causes discomfort will be taken out of the air.

This, it is believed, will be the first church in this part of Central Florida to be fully conditioned for the comfort and health of the worshippers. At Winter Haven, a Christian Science church is similarly air conditioned.

Work has also been progressing on other improvements in the Methodist Church auditorium including the installation of an automatic lighting system. The lighting fixtures of the flush type are recessed. Three spot lights, independent of the other lighting, can be directed from the ceiling.

The next step in an improvement program estimated in cost at more than $50,000 will include the enlargement of the chancel, and complete redecoration of the church, inside and out.

Youth week activities are continuing every night through the week at the church and are being enjoyed by approximately 70 young people of Junior High School age and up at McKinley Hall.

This, said the Rev. McKinley, is a week of training by carefully selected leadership. The "interest areas" include worship, evangelism, leadership and recreation.

The Rev. Al Brock is leading the group in worship; the Rev. Fred Stinson, Orlando, the Federation; Mrs. J. L. Leonard in leadership training; Rev. McKinley in evangelism; and the Rev. Long, director of religious education of the church, is working with intermediates in program planning.

FARM BUREAU Members of the Seminole County Farm Bureau will meet Tuesday night at the Future Farmer meeting at Seminole High School.

The group in worship; the Rev. Fred Stinson, Orlando, the Federation; Mrs. J. L. Leonard in leadership training; Rev. McKinley in evangelism; and the Rev. Long, director of religious education of the church, is working with intermediates in program planning.

LEGION MEETING All members of the Sanford Post 52, the American Legion and Auxiliary, are requested to be present at the joint installation of officers Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Legion Hut.
