

Rocky Considers Self Underdog

MARSHUA, N. H. (UPI) — Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, campaigning for the Republican presidential nomination, surveyed voters today on any potential rivals that he was "in this thing to win."

The 55-year-old New York governor, who Thursday became the first announced GOP candidate for the nation's highest office, lost no time calling into President Kennedy and Republican Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, a front-runner in the polls.

Rockefeller, who considers himself the "underdog" in his bid for a victory in the New Hampshire primary first in the national presidential primary, March 10, toured industrial plants here and in Manchester today before opening a "Rockefeller for president" headquarters at Concord's Highway Hotel. He returned to New York City this afternoon.

No Road Block For Red Needs

WASHINGTON (UPI) — If and when the Russians need to buy potatoes and poultry, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie (D-Maine) says the U. S. government is ready to help them out.

Muskie said that "no government roadblocks stand in the way of U. S. sales of surplus potatoes and chickens to Russia." He said, however, that Soviet officials had not expressed any interest in buying.

Two Freighters Afire Following Collision

BUZZARDS BAY, Mass. (UPI) — A freighter and a tanker collided in Buzzards Bay today and both ships burst into flames. At least 40 men were on the freighter.

The Coast Guard said the Norwegian freighter Fernview was in imminent danger of sinking. The tanker was carrying a cargo of combustible fuel.

The 325-foot tanker was identified as the Dynafuel, built at a Jacksonville shipyard.

Organized Labor Worried Over Turn Of Events

NEW YORK (UPI) — The AFL-CIO, worried by dwindling membership, automation and the growing power of the political right, opens its fifth biennial convention here today in a mood critical of the average American's apathy.

"Labor is worried because the rest of the nation doesn't seem to be worried — about our economy, our chronic unemployment, the drift to the right," said an AFL-CIO spokesman on the eve of the convention at the Americana Hotel.

The 12.5 million member labor federation has lost 75,000 members since its last convention in 1961. Automation has replaced thousands of workers and at least 400,000 workers change jobs and even industries every month.

Cost of living increases have offset one-third of the wage gains negotiated last year and the average national increase in purchasing power is slackening.

The convention is expected to endorse the AFL-CIO executive Council's drive for a 36-hour work week without loss of pay and penalty pay of double time for overtime.

It will also back the administration's tax cut proposals, a vastly expanded public works program, and a sizeable increase in the present federal minimum wage guarantee of $1.25 an hour.

Invitations to attend the celebration are being mailed to federal, state and county officials and to all fire departments within a radius of 25 miles and it is anticipated that Seminole County will witness one of its largest gatherings in many years.

The entire event will be open to the public free of charge.

Lyman Fires Up Homecoming Rally Tonight

By Jane Casselberry

The 1963 Lyman High School Homecoming Queen will be crowned during the half-time Friday night at the game between the Lyman Greyhounds and the Florida Air Academy Falcons.

Homecoming activities will get under way tonight at 7:30 p. m. with a pep rally, bonfire and "Powder Puff" football game sponsored by the Pep Club.

Admission is free for this festive fracas between the "Gold Hounds" and the "Blue Hounds" and some of Lyman's browniest males will serve as cheerleaders.

Friday night the Greyhound players and their parents will be introduced to the fans at 7:30 p. m. followed by a parade of the homecoming queen candidates around the field at 8:40.

Kick-off time will be 8 p. m. and a special section in the bleachers will be set aside for LHS alumni, who are urged to attend all the Homecoming activities.

The Lyman Student Council is sponsoring the Homecoming and the Marching Greyhound Band will entertain with music and fancy drill.

The queen, whose identity will remain a mystery until the actual crowning, also will reign at the dance which will be sponsored by the Athletic Boosters in the cafeteria following the game.

A five-piece combo, "The Shades," will play for dancing.

Herlong To Talk To Firemen

U. S. Rep. A. S. Herlong Jr. will be the principal speaker when the first Ginderville residential directory is unveiled in ceremonies marking Seminole County Firemen's Day, Dec. 14, at Sanford Industrial Park.

Herlong will speak on "The Volunteer Firemen — America's Front Line of Civilian Defense." Earlier that day he will attend Heavy Attack Wing One's 10th annual bombing derby at Sanford Naval Air Station.

Ginderville volunteer firemen, sponsors of the directory, have planned a number of other features for the day including a band concert and lifesaving demonstrations by volunteer firemen. Janice Russell, "Miss Flame of Seminole County," will unveil the directory.

Two Uninjured In Collisions

An 85-year-old bicyclist and a 16-year-old motorist escaped injury in two accidents within a half hour this morning.

Patrolman Donald Brumley reported Robert Altan, 85, of R. R. 2, suffered a minor cut on his head and one on a finger when he rode his bicycle in front of a car driven by Thomas Parr, Milwaukee, Wis., at 9 a. m. at 25th Street and Sanford Avenue. Parr was not charged.

Ruby Carol Nesbitt, 16, of 212 Citrus Drive, escaped injury when she drove her car into the side of an ACL freight train at the Grapeville road crossing at 9:30 a. m.

Constable Bob Carroll reported her car a total loss. He charged the girl with speeding.

4 More 'CIA' Agents Shot

MIAMI (UPI)—Four more Cubans, identified as CIA agents, were executed by a Castro firing squad in Havana Wednesday night, Havana radio said today.

The four were charged with "landing on the Cuban coast from a small boat for sabotage and subversive activities," said the broadcast, monitored here.

The executions brought to 13 the number of men killed in less than a week. All were charged with being members of the CIA.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Edward R. Murrow, one of the nation's most famous chain-smokers until he lost a lung to cancer last month, apparently has given up cigarettes.

But his brother, retired Air Force Brig. Gen. Lacey V. Murrow, said Wednesday it might not make any difference anyway. Gen. Murrow said his brother, who is director of the U. S. Information Agency, "never inhaled a cigarette in his life."

Gen. Murrow, four years older than his brother at 59, said he also lost a lung after a tumor was discovered about three years ago. He said he "unwisely" has never stopped smoking and, unlike his brother, he inhales.

Navy To Show Polaris To JFK

The Weather: Just Plain, Downright Cold It Is

MIAMI (UPI) — A mass of cold air blanketed Florida today, dropping temperatures 15 to 20 degrees below normal and bringing frost into the central citrus belt.

Pre-dawn temperatures today ranged from a wintry 31 degrees at Crestview to 63 at Key West. At Miami, the mercury fell to a snappy 51.

Weathermen said the cold snap was caused by a weak cold front that moved through the state earlier this week, draining cold air down from the North.

The cold snap, however, was not expected to be harsh enough to cause any damage to Florida's million dollar citrus and vegetable crops.

Miami weather forecaster Arnold Sugg said the cold weather should last for at least two days.

"The longer the northerly winds continue, the colder it will get," he said.

The State-Federal Frost Warning Service at Lakeland predicted scattered light frost as far south as the Indian River citrus area and the low-lying areas of the Everglades farming area.

'CHRISTMAS in the Sun' is the prize winning theme by 11-year-old Barbara Berry for the annual Christmas parade Dec. 4. Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Berry, of Lake Howell, and a student at South Seminole Elementary School, will ride in the parade. She is displaying her $25 bond for the prize-winning theme. ## U.S. Relations With Russia Hit New Low

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Soviet-American relations hit their lowest point since the nuclear test ban treaty today with the United States prepared to increase pressure for the release of a Yale professor arrested by the Russians on spy charges.

An intensified Soviet smear campaign against West Germany and new Communist attacks along the truce line in Korea spurred apprehension there that further deterioration in the international climate was in the offing.

The United States was ready to call off Moscow negotiations, scheduled to begin Tuesday, on a cultural exchange agreement unless the Kremlin quickly released Prof. Frederick C. Barghorn, and the State Department put the chill on a group of visiting Russian tourists and officials, warning Americans not to get too deeply involved with them.

The United States has protested bitterly the arrest of Barghorn on what the State Department calls "groundless" charges. Officials made it clear they felt the case had broad ramifications going far beyond question of the individual concerned.

There was speculation the Russians were planning to seize more American hostages in retaliation for the recent ousting of Soviet UN officials caught spying in this country.

The State Department is warning American organizations not to become involved in any "commitments" with a group of 17 Soviet tourists which arrived in the United States Wednesday for a three-week tour.

Among the tourists are a number of officials of Russia's "Institute of Soviet-American Relations," which the State Department describes as a "vehicle for Soviet propaganda."

Deaths From Smoking Put Above Traffic

TORONTO (UPI)—An American cancer research specialist said Wednesday cigarette smoking is responsible for more deaths than automobile accidents or any of the viruses or bacteria known to man.

Dr. Frederick G. Brok, associate cancer research scientist at Roswell Park Memorial Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., addressed the second session of a three-part seminar on smoking at Fairlane United Church.

The rise in lung cancer among men—a ninefold increase in incidence from 1931 to 1960—has taken on "epidemic proportions," Brok said. Of 16 patients who report to their physicians with lung cancer, on the average only one is cured, he said.

Brok said between 2,000 and 3,000 died of lung cancer during 1962.

"This figure, coupled with the number of heart and bronchial diseases bred by smoking, puts cigarettes well ahead of traffic accidents and infectious illnesses as a killer," he said.

Store Robbed Of $100,000 In Jewelry

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI) — An exclusive jewelry store was robbed of "well over $100,000 worth" of diamonds Wednesday night by three masked gunmen.

A spokesman for Raymond's Inc., located just off Wilshire Boulevard, said the loss might run as high as $225,000 on the basis of retail prices, but that the exact amount would not be known until an inventory is taken.

Police said the three gunmen, wearing Halloween masks, kicked in the glass front door which had been locked as eight employees prepared to place trays of jewels in a vault.

They apparently had timed the holdup so that valuables were out of the display cases, officers said.

One handist reached through the broken glass and opened the door to the store. They dumped jewels into a cardboard box and fled within three minutes.

His older brother, George Harriett Jr., is remaining in Cincinnati.

Interservice Rivalry At Cape Keen

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — A sporty bit of interservice rivalry may spice up the planned visit by President Kennedy to this giant Moonport Saturday.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), hopes the President will step forth Saturday with a new pitch for keeping America in the race to the moon.

But the U. S. Navy may steal the whole show.

The space agency will escort Kennedy to some launching pads and to two of its mightiest rockets, and then take him for a helicopter swing over the Merritt Island Launch Area (MILA), adjacent to the Cape, where a launching site for manned flights to the moon is under construction.

But the President has seen rockets and launching pads before, on two previous visits to Cape Canaveral. And construction in the early stage all tends to look alike—especially from a helicopter.

The Navy, on the other hand, is going first-class to show Kennedy something he has never seen before. It "laid out" a special launching of the Polaris missile from a submerged nuclear submarine, the USS Andrew Jackson, and invited the President out to see it.

The President will make the space agency rounds first—and quickly. He will get hasty briefings on the Saturn-5, the behemoth rocket that is expected to blast off from the MILA area late this decade on a trip taking three U. S. astronauts to the moon.

He will see two huge rockets — the Saturn-1 "super booster" and the Titan-2 rocket for the first unmanned launching in the Gemini program that eventually will send two-man teams of astronauts into orbit for periods of up to two weeks.

By Emma Estes
Miss Carol Ann Schimming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Schimming of Longwood, became the bride of LeRoy E. Belschner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Belschner of Monte Rio, Calif. Nov. 8 at 8 p. m.

The Rev. George M. Jarvis IV, rector of St. Patrick's Episcopal Church of Ocala, officiated at the candlelight, double-ring ceremony held at Holy Cross Episcopal Church, Sanford.

Assisting Father Jarvis was the Rev. Charles W. Stewart Jr., Vicar of Christ Episcopal Church of Longwood. Immediately following the ceremony, Father Jarvis celebrated a Nuptial Mass.

The church was decorated with candles down the center aisle. A crystal vase containing white carnations, gladioli, and greenery was placed on the center of the altar and to either side of the altar were baskets of similar flowers.

Mrs. Charles Petherbridge served as organist for the occasion and played traditional wedding selections.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a formal gown of re-embroidered, imported chantilly lace with a fitted basque bodice, full-length sleeves, featuring a sabrina neckline sprinkled with white seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The flowing chapel train was gracefully held by eight rosettes fashioned of self-lace.

Her elbow-length French illusion veil fell from a Queen's crown of sequins and pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of feathered white carnations, blue carnations, and pearl leaves centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Frank Purcell, matron of honor, wore a royal blue street-length satin brocade dress featuring a bell skirt with matching accessories.

Bridesmaids, Miss Margaret

Stevens and Miss Joyce Aquilar wore dresses similar to that of the matron of honor. All carried cascade bouquets of pale yellow chrysanthemums.

Best man was Robert Averett of Sanford and serving as usher was Larry Barnett of Orlando. Flower girl was Leida Holm and Carl Holm was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a pink silk sheath with embroidered bodice, deep pink feathered hat, matching accessories and a white lavender threaded orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony and mass, a reception was held in the parish house of the church with Mrs. Raymond Ball in charge. Mrs. Bobby Moran was in charge of the memory candle.

The couple left for a wedding trip through the south after which they will make their home at 764 E. Church Street, Longwood.

For traveling, Mrs. Belschner chose a navy blue Irish wool suit with gold buttons and silk blouse and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

More than 100 friends and relatives were present for the wedding and reception including Mrs. Belschner's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey House of Tampa.

Garden Gate

By Mrs. Don Reynolds ROSE GARDENING
If you, like most gardeners, like roses in your garden, don't let the fact that you live in Florida discourage you. The necessary requirements for healthy roses in Florida are choice of varieties adapted to Florida conditions and proper soil preparation.
Be sure that you choose healthy plants from a reliable dealer. Roses need sunshine for half the day (morning is better), moderately fertile soil that is well drained and free from too many other trees or shrub roots.
The best time for planting roses is in November through January. Plant your bushes three to four feet apart, and dig the hole large enough so that the roots can spread out. Roses like plenty of water, but you must have good drainage. Add organic matter such as peat and well-rotted manure and add No. 4 steamed bone meal to each 100 feet of bed.
After the bush is planted, mulch the surface of the bed two inches deep with leaves or grass. When the growth begins start feeding your roses and they should have monthly applications of fertilizer except in summer. Spray plants regularly to protect them. By using a regular program of spraying you can be assured of healthy foliage and fine roses.
Cutting roses must have ample soil moisture. The soil should be well soaked at least once a week. They should be cut before the bud opens widely, therefore it is best to cut roses early in the morning. They should be cut with a sharp knife to avoid crushing the water-conducting tubes of the stem. Immediately the stems should be plunged in cold water and left in a cool place for several hours before making an arrangement.

More about the country and you find great interest in improving and expanding education. Governors in many states have this effort high among their programs.

Southern governors especially are eager to broaden their states' educational base as a means of adding much more to the impressive economic gains they have made in recent years.

Some northern states, hurt by the shift from the older basic industries to the newer, science-oriented fields, are trying just as hard to prepare for schooling a better-trained labor force.

Amid all this stir, general attempts to toughen up the American schooling process go forward.

But in the view of Vice Admiral Hyman G. Rickover, regular critic of the U. S. school system, what has been done up to now barely roughs up the surface.

He believes that the stress too often, and in too many places, still is on teaching young Americans "how to adjust to life," rather than how to conquer the fields of knowledge.

As proof that we still are not doing the job we should, Rickover says we have on our hands a "mass of young people so deficient in mental and manual skills that no advanced society could provide them all with jobs, except on a charity basis."

By contrast, he notes, Europe has so many well-trained people filling skilled jobs that there is actually a shortage of unskilled labor and it has to be imported.

Rickover feels at least part of the blame must fall on what he calls the "incredible stretchout in American education." European young folk, he says, get at least a third more schooling in a year than ours do.

"Our children sit in class more years," he adds, "because they learn less each year."

To some extent these are matters in dispute, and Rickover has his severe challengers. But few question that, overall, America's is a relatively "soft" educational system.

Worse, perhaps, is the fact that both students and parents have for the most part a "soft" attitude toward schooling. There is not enough deep concern for knowing, for real mastery of knowledge.

It may be somewhat symptomatic that acid ridicule of a great American university can bring thunderous cheers at a political rally. Smirking at those who quest after knowledge has always been, in some measure or other, a lively American sport.

The question is whether we can afford the game any more. In the world of 1963, no prizes are going to those whose only specialties are keeping themselves ignorant and scorning those who are not. A nation thus populated will be neither secure nor well off.

Peter Edson

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Plans are now shaping up for the world's largest and most important international conference.

This is the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, scheduled for Geneva, Switzerland, March 23 to June 16, 1964.

From 1,500 to 2,000 delegates and trade experts will attend.

They will come from 120 countries—all the UN members including the Communist bloc countries as well as West Germany, Switzerland, Korea and others not yet members, but co-operating with UN specialized agencies. But not Red China.

While the United States, with one vote, could be overwhelmed at such a conference, it is obvious that nothing will be agreed to that the western nations controlling 70 per cent of world trade, do not approve.

The U. S. delegation of about 50, including clerical help, will have Undersecretary of State George Ball as its senior official, with G. Griffith Johnson, assistant secretary of state for economic affairs, as its active head.

The delegation will include two senators, two congressmen and four representatives of private business interests yet to be selected.

At a December meeting in New York, American business leaders will be given a briefing and a chance to express their views on U.S. government trade policy papers now in preparation.

Nobody knows for sure what may come out of the Geneva conference. It is not expected to produce another International Trade Organisation Charter like the one drafted at Havana in 1947-48, which the U.S. Congress refused to ratify.

A new United Nations specialized agency on trade has been suggested, separate or under the UN Economic and Social Council.

Another idea is to let special sessions of the General Assembly, held every two years, review existing world trade patterns and recommend actions to improve them.

The six working committees into which the conference will be divided to cover its agenda after about two weeks of general debate include: International organizations, commodity problems, and price levels, state trading, expanded manufacturing for developing countries, foreign aid for trade development, and development of "invisible exports"—services to the new nations.

The Geneva Conference will have nothing to do with liberalizing East-West trade as a result of the opening provided by Communist bloc purchases of free world surplus wheat.

It is not expected there will be any immediate reorganization of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade — GATT — in which rates are agreed to by free world countries.

The preferential trade relations now being given by the European Common Market countries to their former colonies present a special problem. This has bothered other Asian, African and Latin American countries.

The United States also has its chickens to fry with the Common Market. An American position in opposition to dividing up the world into regional areas behind trade barriers may therefore be expected.

From the American point of view, the principal work of the Geneva conference should be to improve the trade, economic and balance of payments positions of the new nations.

Their most frequent wall is that all their troubles are the fault of the developed nations, which import raw materials—now in oversupply—at reduced prices while charging more and more for the industrial equipment they export.

The other side of this argument is that the developing countries don't do as much for themselves as they should. They don't use private enterprise enough and their state-controlled economies don't have adequate planning. They don't develop export industries, don't diversify their economies, don't control inflation or fiscal affairs.

Soviet Russia and the Communist satellites which strongly supported calling of this conference, apparently want to use it to set up a new International Trade Organization.

"Mind If I Read Over Your Shoulder?"

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

CASE B-404: Eileen J., aged 27, is an English teacher.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "I understand you minored in English at Northwestern University when you obtained your Ph. D. degree.

"So you must have taken all the undergraduate and graduate courses in English, didn't you?"

"As a result, how would you rate various authors in their understanding of human nature?"

In the introduction to my college textbook "Psychology Applied," I have listed Aristotle, Christ and Shakespeare as the three greatest psychologists of all time.

Jesus is tops, of course, with Aristotle for a most in the years before Christ, and Shakespeare the most skillful psychologist since Jesus.

Many poets and other supposedly great geniuses among the literary classics, have been oversold to the modern public.

For example, many of the writers whom I studied in undergraduate and graduate English courses are still included in the curriculum chiefly because of parroting.

For one generation of English profs just parroted what he heard from his own teachers many years earlier.

And this parroting finally partakes of the "halo" that attaches to antiquity.

It is high time a few courageous English professors challenged the curriculum.

They should imitate the professors in the science courses, where mere antiquity is no longer allowed to stifle new ideas and cosmic exploration.

The usual English curriculum at colleges is just as moribund!

But to challenge the stick-in-the-mud who have cheris-ed their phony illusions about English literature, is like criticizing church dogma.

They rise in righteous fury to defend the duty past, just because it has the halo that comes from generations of parroting!

For example, the greatest poet of all history is Edgar Guest, for literally hundreds of millions of people read, were inspired by and cherished his poems.

No other poet ever has had such a wide readership!

Keats and Shelley are juvenile teenagers compared with Edgar Guest's deep insight into human nature.

"Dr. Crane, how can you say such a thing" many a parrot of the past will protest.

"Didn't you ever read the 'Ode to a Grecian Urn'?"

Yes, I read it many times. It is a smooth sounding bit of rhythm to a plisher, or modernized osh tray.

But read Edgar Guest's poem "It Takes a Heap o' Livin' to Make a House a Home" or his inspiring poem "To All Parents," where a son or daughter is unexpectedly caught by the Grim Reaper!

Then you'll see the difference between an amateur and an old pro.

Keats and Shelley are amateurs, who have been carried along from one generation of English profs to another by parroting.

Send for my booklet "How to Write Salable Copy," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Dick West Says It's 'Instant Beer'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Perhaps you have been dreaming of a brave new world where you can go to the kitchen sink, turn on a water spigot, open a box of capsules and mix yourself a glass of "instant beer."

If so, you are in for a rude awakening.

It is my sad duty to report that this type of home brewing, while theoretically possible, is not likely to come about any time soon.

For one thing, the Internal Revenue Service is against it on grounds that it would enormously complicate the collection of beer taxes.

For another, there are fears that turning the United States into a nation of do-it-yourself brewers would create a further turmoil in the beer industry, which has enough troubles already.

It appears, therefore, that in the foreseeable future beer drinkers will have to be content to buy the stuff in bottles and cans.

The pros and cons of instant beer came up for discussion this week at a hearing by the House Ways & Means Committee on the taxation of beer concentrates.

Beginning next month, the revenue service will, for the first time, permit beer companies to ship beer in concentrated form from one place to another.

Under the new regulations, a brewer can whip up a batch of beer, remove a portion of the water by a freezing process, and send what is left to a bottling plant.

At that point the water would be put back again and the reconstituted beer would then be bottled and sold.

Like most innovations, the concept of instant beer has become hotly controversial. Even the use of the term "instant" is an issue in the dispute.

At the committee hearing, spokesmen for the Union Carbide Corp., which developed the quick freeze process, and the brewing company, which intends to use it, pictured instant beer as the greatest thing since sarsaparilla.

The committee was assured that reconstituted beer would be as tasty as ever. If not more so, and that the flavor would last even longer.

The way it looks now, the debate could go on for years. So I think I'll go out for a short beer.

At least 28 per cent of the world's land area was covered by ice at height of the glacial age, according to Encyclopedia Britannica.

Blood Bank Unit To Visit In Oviedo

By Bernice Kealey
Completed arrangements for the Red Cross Blood Bank mobile unit to be at the Oviedo Women's Club on Monday, Nov. 25, from 4:30 p. m. until 7 p. m. were announced today by Mrs. Ray Bessley, civic chairman of the club. Donors will be accepted from Oviedo and Slavia with credit going to the respective communities. Registration by those wishing to donate blood must be made no later than next Wednesday with Mrs. Bessley in order that sufficient staff and equipment will be sent with the unit if there are more than 35 donors.

Persons between the ages of 18 and 21 may donate blood if they are married or have their parents' permission. Regulation age requirement is from 21 to 60 years. Posters containing more specific information as to rules and regulations for the donor will be on display in both Oviedo and Slavia.

Weighty Problem For Policemen

NEW YORK (UPI) — Arresting suspected forger Falco Barone, 30, was no trouble for police but getting him to the station house was a weighty problem. Barone, who weighs 411 pounds, and has a 60-inch waist couldn't fit through the back door of a patrol car. Two policemen, shoving and pulling finally managed to squeeze him into the front seat.

Necktie Traps Bank Depositor

HIGH WYCOMBE, England (UPI) — Insurance manager Philip Whiffin was depositing his day's takings in a bank night safe when his cruet necktie became caught in the door. When he shouted for help, a bus driver cried, "There's been a hold-up!" and a conveyer of policemen raced to the scene. Whiffin explained what was going on and the policemen produced scissors, snipped him free and sent him home.

Lake Monroe Jottings

Mrs. H. E. Johnson
Well, the Seminole County Fair is gone for another year. But it was nice this year. Several young people out this way came away with ribbons and honors. Chris Akers was the boy who really got the honors. Chris is a member of the Future Farmers of Seminole High School. Joy Wilson, Betty and Charlene Baker and Ruth Bullard of the 4-H Handy Helpers Club received blue and red ribbons along with some money for their bake goods entry. So very glad they won it. • • • Also several adults won ribbons for various entries. • • • What a thrilling football game here last week. And how grand the high school band was. This is the best performance I have ever seen them give. And for the National Anthem, when Norman Leach, John Horner and Scott Malbin do the trumpet trio, it was just perfect. They are to be congratulated on this wonderful performance. • • • The Choralists will give a performance tonight in the Community Building in DeBary. According to Dianne Clause and Butch Mills, they have a nice program worked up. Am glad that I will get to hear them. Their director is Miss Ollie Reiss Whittle. • • • Frances (Mrs. Doc) Warren and daughter Elizabeth spent the weekend in Wauchula with Frances' mother. • • • Don't forget the big fashion show tonight at the Home Demonstration Center. It will be a show of outfits made by local ladies and modeled by them. There also will be a showing on the new spring style Bates materials. This will come from the Midlady's Shoppe of Fine Fabrics. This show is open to the public at no charge and is sponsored by the Monroe Home Demonstration Club. So plan to be there at 7:30 p. m. when it starts. You will be glad you did. • • • The J. C. Sapps have just returned from Sumter, S. C., where they went for a short visit with son J. C. Jr. and family. Naomi said that it was sure cool there. • • • The John Barfield's and daughter Dale came up from Tampa last weekend to attend the football game here in which son Lloyd Freeman was a player. And I might add, that boy can sure kick that football. It goes sailing when he kicks it. • • • Mrs. Clara Wyatt was slightly injured in an automobile accident in South Carolina last week where she and several other ladies were on a short trip. But you can't keep a good nurse down because she is already back on the job at Seminole Memorial where she is a supervisor. • • • Well Saturday is the big day for the hunters for that is the opening day for the hunting season. Bet Gus Schmah has that camping gear packed, that gun oiled and those dogs howling to go. I know that my better-half is ready, so is Claude Hawkins and son Sid, Willie and Gerald Leathers and several high school boys are going. We wish em luck and, for goodness sake, do be careful. It is so easy to get "shot" accidentally. • • • Tonight is USO birthday night and the Monroe Home Demonstration Club will furnish the cakes for it. We will miss seeing Carolyn Higgins there but have been told Mary Washburn is doing a good job. • • • Our thought this week is by Thoreau, "Say what you have to say, not what you ought. Any truth is better than make-believe."

Good competition, technique and appeal were listed as the three most important points in photography in a talk by Tinsley Miller, commercial photographer, for members of the DeBary Arts and Crafts Club at last week's meeting of the group. Reminding that nature is the best artist, Miller stressed that both pictures and paintings must tell the viewer something. He showed photographs that won him state and field awards and pointed out that harmony comes first in a photograph. In addition, he said, the imagination must be captured which oftentimes can be accomplished with the simplest subjects. During the business meeting it was announced that the DeBary Club will be represented at the Hollywood meeting by President and Mrs. Chester Eldridge, Mrs. Viola Howard, Mrs. George Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Archie MacNaughton. ### Troopers Halt Speed Trap

LUDOWIC, Ga. (UPI) — State troopers, in unprecedented action, took over traffic duties today in this south Georgia town accused of operating a speed trap. The highway patrolmen, on orders of Gov. Carl E. Sanders, relieved local law enforcement authorities at midnight and will remain here 90 days. Sanders issued his order under a 1953 law designed to wipe out speed traps that have hurt Georgia's image nationally and hampered its tourist trade.

Seminole 'Parents Night' Friday

By Julian Steinman
Seminole Sports Editor

When the Seminole High football griders take to the field Friday night against the visiting Hornets of Orlando's Bishop Moore High School the parents of the Warriors will be honored.

It will be the sixth annual presentation of this special event — honoring the parents of Seminole youngsters who have shown into August and early September been working to provide this area with the type of football presented thus far this season.

Seminole High's athletic director, Fred Ganas, announced that Friday's affair would be Parents' Night for this season. "We feel," said Ganas, "that many sacrifices have to be made on the part of parents to enable their sons to participate in our football program. This is one way in which Seminole High School can show its appreciation to them."

"We know these youngsters are among the finest who have ever played for Seminole High. We are extremely proud of them for their conduct both on and off the field, and we know their parents are proud of them, too," Ganas declared.

The parents of the Seminoles will gather near the Seminoles' dressing rooms at Sanford's Memorial Stadium Friday night about 30 minutes prior to game time. When the Tribe takes the field each player's parents will walk up the field with their son to the player's bench. The parents will then occupy a special reserved section on the sidelines.

Meanwhile, back at the wigwam the Seminoles went through another workout yesterday in preparation for the Hornets. The Warriors will go into Friday night's contest no less than a two-touchdown favorite to do away with the Hornets.

In winning six games in seven tries this year the Tribe has rolled for 173 points while permitting their opposition only 50.

The outcome of Friday night's engagement will not affect the Orange-Belt Conference standings since Bishop Moore is a member of the Metro Conference.

Next season the Seminole-Bishop Moore tangle will count since the Warriors will be a member of the Metro loop. This is Seminole's final season as a member of the Orange-Belt circuit.

Fighting Seminoles

BILLY BROWN

CHUCK SCOTT

MIKE GRAY

Although a senior, Billy Brown is a first-year varsity athlete for the Seminole High football machine this season. Brown, a linebacker on the defensive Headhunter unit, weighs in at 150 pounds and wears jersey No. 21. Billy is another "hard nosed" SIS athlete, a highly regarded defensive ball player, and is one man on the 1963 Seminole squad who constantly is proving the old adage that "The bigger they come the harder they fall" when tackled. Brown is quick and one of the most aggressive Seminole griders. On defense no youngster can cover his territory any better. Billy is a member of the SIS track team and usually runs in the sprint events.

SIS sophomore Chuck Scott is another first year varsity athlete for the Seminoles. Chuck, a halfback on the offensive Phantom unit, weighs 140 and wears jersey No. 20. In pigskin jargon, Chuck is the type of grider referred to as a "hard nose". He is a constant threat as a break-away runner and this ability has won for him a berth on both the Seminole kickoff and punt return teams. Scott is fast, quick, shifty and considered an unusually tough ball player. Chuck is a track prospect for SIS and is considered a fine basketball player.

Seminole High sophomore Mike Gray is a first-year varsity man for Head Coach Jim Pigott's "Fighting Seminoles" and performs as an end on the Phantom offensive unit as well as a safety man on the Headhunter's defensive unit. Mike, who wears "lucky" No. 13 on his jersey, hits the scales at 161. Mike began the season as an offensive center but his height, speed and football instinct allowed Seminole coaches to shift him to the defensive end and backfield positions. Against Apopka, Mike intercepted an Apopka aerial and returned it for a touchdown, a feat few sophomores accomplish. Gray is considered to have a great deal of potential. A good all-around athlete, he will be out for basketball at SIS and is a track prospect.

Eli Over Princeton Is Hoople's Upset

By Major Ames B. Hoople
Upset Champion

Greetings, my dear friends! I call you my dear friends although it is obvious some of you are not.

For instance, read what Clancy DeLancy, the hard of Brooklyn, has to say.

"Dear Major: Why don't you run for Congress? Anyone who can make as many bum guesses as you would be a sensation in Washington. Your dear friends, Clancy DeLancy."

Early in the season I gave you the Air Force over Washington, then Oklahoma to humble the 1962 national champions, Southern California.

And after that I correctly forecast Georgia's startling 31-14 conquest of Miami, the Syracuse 9-0 blanking of favored Penn State, North Carolina State's amazing 21-7 victory over the undefeated Duke Blue Devils.

And how about the Louisiana State 14-0 triumph over the rugged Florida Gators and the 30-13 rout of Wisconsin by Michigan State!

What other forecaster has scored with as many big upsets? None, I'll wager—harumph!

Never one to rest on his laurels I have several colossal reversals included in this week's card.

My three-star special for Saturday is Yale to thrash Ivy League leader Princeton, 27-8—hak-kaff!

Now go on with the forecast.

Gators Given Rough Work

GAINESVILLE (UPI)—University of Florida Coach Ray Graves held a rough practice session for the Gators today to ready the team for its Nov. 23 game with Miami.

The Gators took Monday and Tuesday off and returned to pads Wednesday. Florida has a free weekend coming up, but Graves said the team will go through a full scrimmage Saturday.

No Ban On Twin Double

NEW YORK (UPI) — The twin double will not be banned at New York harness racing tracks because of the riot at Roosevelt Raceway last Friday night.

The state Harness Racing Commission announced Wednesday that this new form of wagering "will be permitted to continue until the commission has had a further opportunity to study its desirability."

Ecuador has an area of 104,506 square miles.

Team Drops 12 Players From Squad

PROVO, Utah (UPI)—Brigham Young University's talent thin football squad was hit with another major manpower and morale loss today when 12 players, including four regulars, were dropped from the squad for disciplinary reasons.

The dismissals, announced Wednesday night by Coach Hal Mitchell, came while the beleaguered Brigham was preparing for Saturday's contest with winless University of Pacific at Stockton, Calif.

The manpower loss was certain to weaken the once-victorious BYU team which was rated an even choice against the West Coast club.

An announcement by the school simply said the players were dropped from the squad for "training infractions and inappropriate conduct off the field."

Mitchell and other school officials declined to comment on what the infractions or inappropriate conduct entailed.

Bear Fans Will Leave Chi To See Big Game On TV

CHICAGO (UPI) — There won't be any turnstile count, but a considerable number of Chicago Bears and Green Bay Packers fans will be taking in their Sunday struggle without a ticket for a football game.

Instead they'll be buying railroad tickets, tollroad tickets, motel and hotel receipts and bar bills.

The almost 50,000 tickets for the game, between the two teams leading the National Football League's Western Division, were sold out in July, and even the scalpers, with prices approaching the astronomical, aren't overly supplied.

Hence fans of all types are making their own plans to take in the spectacle via television, involving the problem of getting there, finding a video screen, and getting back.

Two railroads, the Santa Fe and the Milwaukee, are running special trains to TV territory, and there's no way to count the people who'll ride a tollway to find a TV set.

The Santa Fe will haul its passengers to Galesburg, Ill., where they will be able to get the game from a Peoria TV station in a hotel. The Milwaukee will run to Lake Geneva, Wis., where they can watch video from Milwaukee or Madison, Wis., in a hotel.

The northwest tollway runs from Chicago to Rockford, Ill., where numerous motels and hotels offer video facilities, and a Rockford station to put the game on the TV screen.

The Indiana tollroad runs to South Bend, where one motel is offering 175 rooms, equipped with TV, on a first come-first serve basis to anyone who shows up. A South Bend TV station handles the game.

Lyman Prepares For Gala Homecoming Friday Night

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

The Seminole - Wildwood contest is now history. But nearly 6,000 Florida gridiron fans who watched the homecoming spectacle last Friday night won't forget it for a long time.

In the cool, crisp and clear autumn atmosphere—so conducive to good football—the fans were treated to numerous feats.

The highlight, of course, was the game itself, and what a contest it was! Undeclared when they took the field, the Wildcats were 14 to 14 at the half. This attested to the spine-tingling display of pigskin fireworks that took place on the Memorial Stadium's "infield and left field area."

And the big crowd—a record—was limp at the final gun when the Seminoles triumphed 34 to 14.

But let's not forget the parade of beauties and the naming of the most attractive Marilyn Hunt as the 1963 Homecoming Queen. What a thrill that was. The beautiful convertibles were topped only by the beauty of the young ladies themselves. Even though Marilyn took the queenship, she had plenty of competition from Brenda Brown, Susan Brown, Sandy Slayton and Shirley Steed—all charmers in their own right.

The halftime show was almost a college-type production. After the Wildwood musicians entertained the huge crowd, the "Marching Seminoles" took over and outdid themselves in a presentation that topped a long list of fine feats they had accomplished in earlier games.

Now the Wildcats and the Seminoles find themselves atop the Orange-Belt conference standings. Each has three more games to play. The Wildcats take on De-

Land (at Wildwood) Friday night; they meet Lake Weir Nov. 22, and close out the season Nov. 27 at Kissimmee. The middle game in that bracket is with a club that participates in the Mid-Lakes Conference and the contest will not affect the Orange-Belt status of Coach Byrd Whigham's boys.

Meanwhile, the Seminoles wind up their season with Bishop Moore Friday night; at Lakeview (Winter Garden) Nov. 22, and tangle with the DeLand Bulldogs in the finale at DeLand Nov. 27.

So it all adds up to the fact that the two leaders in the Orange-Belt must win their last two conference tussles.

Most fans—especially those who have not played the game—generally keep their eyes on the ball and the ball carrier in a football game.

But those who know and who can do it have a long look at the line play. That's where the key action really takes place. The line play determines whether or not the ball is going to move. The defensive linemen at Seminole get into the picture because they, too, follow the ball. And the Seminole's defensive Headhunter line has been in the opponents' backfield just about as much as the opposition's halfbacks.

The Black Ham's offensive forward wall rarely is seen. They're on the bottom of the heap that make the plays for the Warrior backfield. They open the holes for the plungers, crash the adversaries in the line and with downhill blocking help the end sweeps get into open territory.

Ask the Seminole backs about it. They're quick to shout a huzzrah or two for Henry Finch, Jim Touhy, Joe Purdy, Joe Farless, Dan McCall, David Noell, Frank Noell and Barry Barks. These offensive linemen deserve more than what they get.

Wallace Raps Telecast Ban On Grid Game

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI)—The decision of a broadcasting network and former sponsors to drop the annual telecast of the Blue-Gray football game because Negro players were barred was termed "tragic and irresponsible" by Gov. George Wallace Wednesday.

Wallace said the persons "who pressured and intimidated" the National Broadcasting Company (NBC) and the game's sponsors into dropping the bowl game "hurt all races, especially the Negro race."

During the 26 year history of the bowl classic, proceeds of the game between North and South All-Stars have gone to a program of the local Lions Club set up to help blind and needy children.

Lions Club President Harris Dawson said the funds are distributed "without regard to race, color or creed."

Bowl officials were notified last week by the network the game would not be televised this year because Negro players were not invited to participate. The network had carried the game annually since 1934.

Wallace said in a prepared statement, "those who pressured and intimidated the sponsors and the network have, as they always do, hurt all races, especially the Negro race with this petty attempt to satisfy their own selfish motives."

Win Match

VIENNA (UPI)—Real Madrid took the first leg of their second round matches in the European Cup of league soccer champions Wednesday by defeating Dinamo of Bucharest 3-1.

Polo is played, on the same principle as hockey or association football, with four players on each side, according to Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Powder Puff Game, Bonfire To Highlight Activities Tonight

By Dick Grant
Herald Sports Writer

The Lyman Greyhounds will meet the Florida Air Academy of Melbourne Friday night in their homecoming game. The 'Hounds beat the Falcons on their last outing 20-0 and hope they can repeat this performance Friday.

The crowning of one of the six finalists as Homecoming Queen will take place at half time. The six are Ann Miller, Dallas Caswell, Dana Hall, Maria Jones, Kay Clarke, and Sandy Tennant. They were chosen out of 27 nominated by the students. Elections were held Tuesday. The queen will be announced and crowned by the present queen, Betty Fields.

Fight Results

UNION CITY, N. J. (UPI)—Bob Avena, 173, New York, outpointed Frank DePaulis, 173, Jersey City (8).

STOCKTON, Calif. (UPI)—Ray Asis, 118½, Stockton, defeated Luis Leija, 118½, Mexico (10).

The Greyhounds have been working all week, mainly on pass defense, for this game. The Falcons who are undefeated and hope to keep it that way by going past the 'Hounds in the air, which is their strong point.

The first of the week was spent working on new offensive plays. Mount Dora, Friday, stopped the line thrusts of Lyle and the big fullback could not gain much ground.

"Foil the Falcons" is the battle cry heard around the school grounds this week by Lyman students.

Tonight there will be a bonfire and a powder puff football game. The game is sponsored by the members of the Lyman Pep Club and will feature a Blue, Gold team.

The three classes at Lyman have been stock piling wood for the fire. The class with the biggest pile of wood then will be the winner. Then all the wood will be put in one big pile and burned.

The events will begin at 7 o'clock at the Lyman field.

Daytona Sets Big Race Event

DAYTONA BEACH—Daytona International Speedway will be the site of the world's richest, fastest weekend of racing for GT, sports, and prototype cars during the annual "Speed Weeks" in February.

A total of $50,000 in prize money has been posted for the Feb. 15 running of the American Challenge Cup race for sports and prototype cars, and the February 16 battle for Grand Touring machines in the "Daytona Continental."

The Challenge Cup is at 250 miles, and the Continental is at 2000 kilometers (1243 miles), making it the longest race scheduled for America in 1964, both in distance and hours needed to run. Like the celebrated LeMans 24 hours of endurance, the "Continental" carries many points toward the manufacturers' world title.

Both of these races, which are expected to draw the best drivers and cars from both America and Europe, will be contested over the Speedway's 3.81-mile track and road course. This exciting layout combines high-banked turns, strutting straights, and twisting infield roads.

The winner of the American Challenge Cup will earn $4,000, plus accessory money, and the first man home in the Continental's long test of speed and endurance will earn $6,000, accessory cash, and the valuable Prestalite International Challenge Trophy.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am 20 years old and was born and raised in Mexico. I am a member of a very large and proud Spanish-Mexican family. I met a very nice Irish man about a year ago and we want to get married. My family is against him for what I consider a foolish reason. They tell me if I marry this Irishman, our children will look like peeled potatoes. And when they go out into the sun they will get red like lobsters. They want me to look for an Italian, or somebody who has a brunette skin like my own. I love this Irishman and he loves me. What should I do?

A STUDENT HERE

DEAR STUDENT: If you love each other, go ahead and marry. Not ALL Irish have fair complexions. Neither are all Mexicans or Spaniards brunettes.

DEAR ABBY: I like this certain couple so much and so does my husband, but here is the problem: When they invite us over for a Saturday evening they let their four children, ages 10, 8, 6 and 2, stay up as late as they want to. When we leave at midnight, their kids are hanging on us to say goodnight. I can't understand why parents allow little ones to hang around all evening, listening to every word. We have children, too, but when we entertain, our youngsters say "hello," and then they go to their rooms. I told my husband this was the last time I would let myself in for an evening like that. How can this be solved?

MRS. X

DEAR MRS. X: If you enjoy the company of this couple, invite them to YOUR house, and slap a mental quarantine on theirs.

DEAR ABBY: My daughter is 15 and so is her boyfriend. Every evening after supper, the boyfriend comes over with all his books. They "study" together, but I often wonder if this is a good way to study. I'd like your opinion.

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: Send me their report cards and I'll send you my opinion.

CONFIDENTIAL TO FLUNKING OUT IN SYRACUSE: When the going gets tough, the tough get going. So, get going!

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

North didn't have much of an opening bid, and after West took him off the hook with his one spade overall, North shouldn't have raised to two hearts.

South moved right to the heights. North had to respond to Blackwood and then hope for the best at six hearts.

South won the opening club lead and started to play trumps. East showed out on the first lead, and South stopped for a moment to determine the significance of West's overall and of East's failure to raise. His conclusion was that West must have the ace of diamonds in addition to the king-queen of clubs and most of the spades. South ran off five trumps.

East just discarded clubs. West let a spade and a diamond go. Now South was sure that West had discarded down to ace and a small diamond. He cashed dummy's two spades to discard his ten of clubs, ruffed a club, led a low diamond to dummy's queen, returned a diamond and played low. West had to play his ace and South's king of diamonds and last trump accounted for the remaining two tricks. East thought that West could have discarded more intelligently, but actually South could make the hand against any defense, once the club was opened.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

It's incredible to me that there are still secretaries around who fall for the oldest line in the world from the boss—"My wife doesn't understand me."

Yet, one writes me that she works for a wonderful man who is constantly placed in the wrong by his wife.

Well, my friend, don't you bother your little head about your boss' relationship with his wife. That is his and her department—and strictly private.

And if it isn't too impertinent, may I ask you a few questions? What makes you think that you are working for a misunderstood man? Did he tell you so himself? Or did you just sit down and figure out that you are the only woman in the world who has his best interest at heart?

Either way you're on dangerous ground. If he told you, then you can be pretty sure he is up to no good.

And if you've figured it out for yourself that is a pretty good indication that you are taking too personal an interest in your boss.

You aren't the first woman to think that some perfectly wonderful boss has a wife who doesn't appreciate or understand him.

And in every case I'm skeptical for several reasons. One is that just because a woman knows how a man acts around an office doesn't mean she has any idea of what he is like at home.

And the other reason is that the working girl who claims her employer's wife doesn't understand him always implies that she does. And that, Miss Secretary, is how triangles get started—and they end with the third member of the triangle left out in the cold. That's you!

So my advice to you is to stop worrying about your boss' private life. That really isn't part of a secretary's job.
