Sanford drops citizen survey

SANFORD — A proposed community survey of area residents has gone down to defeat. The Sanford City Commission let the matter die Monday night, without any action.

The survey would have asked questions regarding the operation of certain City projects and departments, how they felt the adequacy of funding stood, and the recommended source of funding. Concerns to be responded to in the survey involved drug deterrence, crime prevention, firefighting, street maintenance, street lighting, refuse collection, mosquito control, parks and recreation, and 22 additional areas.

Primary questions brought up during discussion in the City Commission workshop Monday afternoon dealt with the amount of surveys to be distributed, and what if any adequate response might be received.

At the conclusion of the workshop discussion, Mayor Smith asked for the Commissioners' directions when it was to be brought up for a vote during the regular Commission meeting. As no one voiced any intentions to move on the matter, it was dropped.

During the regular City Commission meeting that followed, the matter was dropped with no further discussion or action taken.

Correction

In a story regarding the Mayor's Souper Supper, on page 5A of Tuesday's Sanford Herald, the organizations that would benefit from money raised at the function were incorrectly identified. The proceeds will be equally split between the Sanford Christian Sharing Center and the Rescue Outreach Mission, both of Sanford.

The error, which identified the Good Samaritan Home as a beneficiary, appeared in a City of Sanford memo regarding the fees to be paid for use of the Sanford Civic Center.

Closed for the holidays

By NICK PFEIFAU

While most businesses and offices will be closed for Thanksgiving tomorrow, almost all government buildings and those with employees who receive pay from the various governments, will be closed on Friday of this week as well.

In a large majority of county and municipal governments, not just in Florida but nationwide, employees receive what is called a "floating holiday". In addition to time off for the regular holidays each year, employees are given one additional day which they are allowed to select as a group. Most select the Friday following Thanksgiving, to allow for a four day weekend.

In the past, the day following Thanksgiving has traditionally been the start of Christmas shopping season, and has often been referred to as "the busiest shopping day of the year." Most businesses and all local banks will be open for business as usual on Friday, with a few planning to begin longer hours of operation.

Residents rank water as top priority

By J. MARK BARFIELD
Herald Staff Writer

SANFORD — A pledge by Seminole County commissioners to reallocate $650,000 in community development block grants from Midway drainage projects to repair the community's aging water system brought mixed reactions from a community leader.

In other actions Tuesday, commissioners refused to consider an appeal over a Geneva borrow pit and elected a new chairman.

Johnell Jackson, a board member of the association that owns Midway's water system, said residents rank the leaking water system as their top priority but they had not realized the cost could be double what they expected.

"I'm past grateful," Jackson said Tuesday. "But I know the residents will be upset. They knew the county would have to delay the drainage work for a

Grievances filed result in new promotion procedure

By J. MARK BARFIELD
Herald Staff Writer

SANFORD — Sanford city officials are tightening their job application and promotion procedures as a result of grievances filed last week by two police corporals passed over for promotion to sergeant.

City Personnel Director Tim McCauley has directed that no applications for promotion will be accepted after deadlines and tests cannot be issued to applicants unless approved by himself. Also, applications for promotion received in the city civil service office will be stamped with the date by that office, McCauley said.

McCauley said the actions were taken as a result of the Nov. 20 grievance filed by police corporal Darrell L. Brewer and a second grievance filed by corporal Aaron D. Keith the same week. Brewer's grievance was formally submitted to the city's Civil Service Board Monday, McCauley said. No hearing date has been set, he said.

Keith's grievance is still under review by city officials.

According to Brewer's grievance, two fellow corporals were considered for promotion to sergeant — and one of them was promoted — even though their applications were not received by the civil service office until Nov. 8, 14 days after the Oct. 25 deadline. Of the five applicants, Brewer was ranked third based on test scores and experience.

Although Harriet would not discuss the details of Keith's grievance, McCauley said it also protests the acceptance of delinquent applications. McCauley said Keith's grievance also questions discrepancies in applicant testing.

The two promoted corporals were Darrel Lee Presley, a 12-year veteran of the Sanford Police Department, and Agostino Gary Fontana, a 10-year veteran. According to city personnel records, Fontana's application was received on Nov. 8. Presley's application was received Oct. 24.

Both men had been subject to city disciplinary measures several years ago. None of the other three applicants had been disciplined, according to their records. Presley had been suspended without pay for 30 days in 1988 for threatening a Sanford man while on duty. Fontana received a pay cut in 1986 for failing to follow orders.

Personnel records show their supervisors gave both officers high ratings since the discipline.

"I don't think one item of discipline should deter someone from consideration for promotion," said Sanford police chief Steven Harriet. "Both of them returned to their normal duties better police officers than before."

Personnel records show Fontana received a city commission commendation July 23, 1986 for saving a three-year-old girl from a burning house while he was still under review for discipline.

According to the city's civil service manual, all city employee applications for vacant positions must be received in the civil service office no later than 4:30 p.m. on the final day of the application period. The manual does not state how late applications will be treated.

Astronauts snap photos of Pearl Harbor and Midway for military

By LANA VOLLEY
Associated Press
SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — An Atlantis crewman photographed military installations on Pearl Harbor and the Midway Islands in a Pentagon experiment designed to test astronauts' powers of observation from space.
Using special cameras, Mario Runco Jr. spotted runways, buildings and storage tanks as the shuttle zoomed 224 miles above the Pacific on Tuesday night.
The experiment and a similar one also being conducted aboard Atlantis are part of an effort to learn if astronauts can be used in wartime.
Runco's first target Tuesday night was Pearl Harbor, code-named "Long Shot." The next one was the Midway Islands, or "Driftwood." As the shuttle approached the Midway Islands, ground commanders asked him to look for two runways, buildings, storage tanks and aircraft.

When the Navy lieutenant commander said that he couldn't find any aircraft, ground commanders radioed back that there weren't any at that time.
"Nice job," ground commanders on Midway said.
The crew blasted into space Sunday night, accomplishing the mission's main goal early Monday with the release of a $300 million spy satellite.
After undergoing a series of tests, the satellite with work with other satellites in alerting the Pentagon to missile launches and nuclear explosions.
Astronaut Thomas Hennen also has been working on a surveillance experiment and has had to share window space with Runco. Both tests will continue through the 10-day mission, which ends Dec. 4 with a landing in Florida.

Hennen was assigned to the flight because of his expertise in Army imagery analysis. The five other crew members are full-time astronauts.
The Pentagon has conducted the mission without the usual secrecy imposed when spy satellites are put in orbit.
But Hennen's conversations during his experiment were often blacked out, and his satellite maps and charts could not be shown on NASA television.
Although Hennen has focused on several targets with a telescope, he could not see Cape Canaveral, Fla., Maputo City, Mozambique, or the U.S. Embassy in the Philippines because of clouds and haze Tuesday. Haze also obscured his view early today of Bulawayo, Zimbabwe.
"I sure hope the weather starts getting better," he said.

Show lands man in jail

A Longwood man was arrested Monday after a 8½-month pregnant woman told Longwood police he shoved her stomach-first into a doorknob.
Edward Gahagan, 28, 809 Maine Court, was arrested at his home Monday night, charged with aggravated battery. He was held in the Seminole County jail on $5,000 bond. According to arrest reports, Gahagan allowed a woman to enter his home to retrieve her belongings.
Once inside, the woman reported Gahagan grabbed both her arms and shoved her into the front door knob. She was treated at the scene by paramedics and transported to South Seminole Community Hospital. Gahagan admitted to committing the act and knowing the woman was pregnant, reports state.

Man charged for carrying firearm

Bruce Antonio Franklin, 25, 1007 Mulberry Ave., Sanford, was charged with carrying a concealed firearm by Seminole County deputies early Tuesday morning.
Deputies report finding a loaded and cocked .25-caliber semi-automatic handgun partially concealed under a floormat in his car when he arrived a Brisson Avenue residence.

Firearm possession leads to arrest

Terry Leroy Tillman, 24, 3031 W. 23rd St., Sanford, was arrested by Seminole County sheriff's investigators Monday, charged with possession of a firearm by a convicted felon.
According to the arrest affidavit, Tillman had been convicted of grand theft on June 23, 1988. His rights were not restored when he pawned firearms at a Sanford pawn shop on Oct. 30, 1989 and Jan. 31, 1991, the affidavit states. The firearm possession investigation resulted from an unrelated armed robbery investigation, reports state.

$3,000 burglary reported

Larry Richard Poole, 40, 8296 Sandy Lane, Sanford, was charged with burglary and grand theft by Seminole County deputies Monday.
According to witnesses, Poole removed a sofa from a neighbor's garage. The property owner reported finding a total of $3,000 in items missing from the garage. The sofa was found beside the garage.

Man charged with DUI

Robert Edward Smith, 38, 424 Fairy Lake Lane, Longwood, was charged with driving with a suspended license by Longwood police Monday after he was stopped on U.S. Highway 17-92, reports state.

Warrant arrests

The following wanted persons have been arrested:
• Daniel Robert Beck, 18, 1081 Reams St., Longwood, was arrested near Marker and Blake Streets near Altamonte Springs early Tuesday morning. Beck was wanted for driving with a suspended license.
• Allen Silva, 34, 1508 W. 16th St., Sanford, was arrested at the Seminole County jail Monday. Silva was wanted for violating probationary terms for two convictions, burglary and battery on a law enforcement officer.

Smith's attorneys suggest motive

By DAN DEWELL
Associated Press

WEST PALM BEACH — William Kennedy Smith's attorneys suggested Tuesday the rape claim against him was motivated by his alleged victim's need for attention, and a judge ruled they may again question the woman before next week's trial.
The woman's desire for attention from her family and former boyfriend and her politically active stepfather's dislike for the Kennedys have played roles in the rape case that goes to trial Dec. 2, attorney Mark Schnapp told Circuit Judge Mary Lupo.
"What this woman was suffering from was a lack of attention ... (causing) a propensity to make a false claim and do something to get attention for herself," Schnapp said.

minent Baltimore-based forensic psychiatrist, supports defense claims that the woman's reactions the night of the alleged rape may have been affected by childhood trauma she has discussed with a polygraph examiner, Schnapp told Ms. Lupo.
Under Florida's pretrial discovery rules, defense attorneys often can ask wide-ranging questions in pretrial sworn statements. But Smith's attorneys will have to show the topics' relevance before they can be introduced in trial over prosecution objections.
The judge said Smith's attorneys have leeway to question the woman about what she said in five statements taken by police, prosecutors and a polygraph examiner.
"I have heard all along the position ... that no alleged victim of a crime such as this should be put through the hoops of exposing her entire past," Ms. Lupo said, but added that the woman, by answering the questions earlier, yielded her ability to refuse the questions of Smith's attorneys.

stepfather, he said — helps explain her accusation as an "attention-getting device."
Schnapp said she rushed to her former boyfriend — the father of her preschool daughter — the day of the alleged rape and that she also knew her stepfather's dislike of the Kennedys would spur her to support her.
Stephen Cohen, attorney for the stepfather, told Ms. Lupo that the defense seemed to be raising a mistaken argument that the stepfather had a feud with the Kennedys. The stepfather is a self-described conservative Republican whose complaints with the Kennedys stem only from their liberal politics, Cohen said.

"It's not a personal attack on any member of the Kennedy family," Cohen said.
Smith's attorneys have said the women's claims fall short of strict requirements for admitting "similar-crimes" evidence under the state Williams Rule.
The judge plans to seat a six-person jury Monday morning, then bring jurors back into the courtroom to begin the trial after the Williams Rule hearing.

MADD launches drive against drunk drivers

By NICK Pfenpauf

SANFORD — The local chapter of MADD is joining with organizations all across the nation in a red ribbon campaign. The drive runs from now through New Year's day.
The focal point will be CF Motor Freight, one of the nation's largest long-haul trucking companies, which will be joining with other firms in the State as well as across the nation.
The drive is not strictly for truckers however. The local chapter of MADD is asking all motorists in the Sanford and Seminole County area to "Tie one on for safety," by displaying red ribbons on their vehicles. The ribbons are a reminder to others on the road to drive safely and soberly during the holiday season and throughout the new year. Nationwide, MADD expects to distribute more than 100 million ribbons to motorists.

Public relations pros to Bush: Try to fix economy

By Brent Stevenson
AF Business Writer

NEW YORK — The White House has characterized President Bush's perceived unwillingness to address the nation's economic ills as a public relations problem.

But as Bush's popularity plunges, public relations professionals have this advice: Get to work on the economy.

Unless the president starts taking action, the PR pros say, there is no easy way to polish his fading image. They particularly found fault with Bush's decision to wait until the State of the Union message in January to unveil a recession-fighting plan.

Several public relations executives and consultants, in telephone interviews, offered a few pointers to the president. Here is their advice, in their words.

Daniel J. Edelman, Chicago, chairman, Edelman Public Relations Worldwide

The definition of public relations is doing the right thing and then telling people about it. It isn't a matter of cosmetizing it and explaining it better.

It's a matter of getting some policies on board and responding to the crisis we have. We're not getting out of this recession.

It needs leadership. The public relations will take care of itself. You can't, just with PR, just wave a magic wand and make everything great. The public sees what's happening.

I think the president has to demonstrate the same kind of aggressiveness and leadership he's shown in foreign affairs. When all's said and done, unless you're attacked at Pearl Harbor, the public's more interested in what's happening here.

Bob Feldman, New York, executive vice president, Ketchum Public Relations

The first rule of managing this from a communications point of view is to make sure you've identified the real problem. I don't think the White House has done that.

From what I can tell, they've identified this as a public relations problem. They're still in a period of denial.

No. 2 is to make a decision on all this input he is getting. Then take some actionable steps, package it so it becomes easy to understand to the public and then sell it aggressively to the American people.

Ensure there is message consistency, at least coming out of the executive branch. There's going to be enough dissent and criticism, but at least the executive branch needs to get behind the program.

Howard Rubenstein, New York, Howard J. Rubenstein Associates Inc.

I'm a Mario Cuomo Democrat. Tongue in cheek, I say, "Step aside and let Mario run the country."

Seriously, I think he has to recognize the very deep recession our country is in and not try to create a mirage that when you look at it, it disappears.

The banks are in trouble. The real estate industry is in collapse. Unemployment is zooming. Insurance companies and others are getting hammered.

He should acknowledge that to the country and make a bipartisan effort to solve that.

He should shoulder some of the blame for what's happening — it's not all his fault — then push very hard for a realistic program of things like pump-priming through construction of government works.

CBS says it will win ratings sweepstakes

NEW YORK — CBS, the No. 3 network in prime time for three years in a row, came out on top in the latest weekly ratings and predicted it will win its first season since 1984-85.

CBS, the season's current leader, had nine shows in the Top 20 last week, starting with the No. 1-ranked second part of the TV movie "In a Child's Name." "60 Minutes" and "Murphy Brown" were second and third respectively.

The network averaged a 14.1 rating for the week, while NBC had a 13.0 and ABC a 12.4, the A.C. Nielsen Co. said Tuesday. In the evening news ratings, ABC and Peter Jennings remained No. 1 with an 11.4. CBS had a 9.8 and NBC a 9.5.

Each ratings point represents 921,000 homes.

"We are more confident than ever that we will end up winning the season," David Poltrack, CBS senior vice president for research, said Wednesday.

Poltrack and his NBC counterpart, Robert Niles, disagreed over what would be the outcome of the November sweeps, one of four key ratings periods each year. Local stations use the results to set ad rates. The sweeps end today. Niles predicted NBC would win 13.1 to 12.8. Poltrack predicted a tie at 13.0.

A final figure won't be available until Monday because of the Thanksgiving holiday. Here are last week's top 10 shows, their network and rating:

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA ORLANDO DIVISION

CASE NO. 90-878

RHONDA FLAGLER, et al.,
on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

vs.
CIV-ORL-19

THE HOUSING AUTHORITY OF THE CITY OF SANFORD, et al.,

Defendants.

NOTICE TO CLASS MEMBERS OF PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

I. The Lawsuit
This document is being sent to tell you about an important development in the lawsuit filed in November of 1990 against THE HOUSING AUTHORITY OF THE CITY OF SANFORD, FLORIDA, a municipal corporation; JUDY WEEKLEY, individually and in her official capacity as Interim Executive Director of the Housing Authority of the City of Sanford, Florida; and STEVEN SAMUELS d/b/a SAMUELS TOWING SERVICE ("the Defendants"). The suit alleges automobiles owned by SHA tenants and their guests were towed and impounded by Defendants without provision of notice to the owners and opportunity for a hearing prior to the towing of the vehicle. The denial of notice and an opportunity for a hearing was alleged to be a deprivation of Plaintiffs' property interests in violation of the Due Process Clause of the fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

Judge Fawcett entered a Preliminary Injunction on January 14, 1991 enjoining Defendant SHA from causing the seizure, towing or impounding of automobiles on the SHA premises without first providing notice and a hearing unless the automobile jeopardizes public safety and ordering the return of the named Plaintiffs' automobiles.

The "Plaintiffs" who brought the lawsuit include four individuals and a "class" or group of people as follows: all persons who are tenants or guests of tenants of the HOUSING AUTHORITY OF THE CITY OF SANFORD, Florida (SHA) whose automobiles are parked at the parking lots of the SHA and are subject to seizure and impoundment by the SHA and its agents.

IT APPEARS THAT YOU ARE ONE OF THOSE PLAINTIFFS.

The lawyers for the Plaintiffs have been talking to the lawyers for the SHA about ending the suit without a trial by agreeing on a settlement. This settlement would provide Plaintiffs certain rights and benefits in return for the dropping of the suit.

II. The Settlement
The most basic provision of the settlement are summarized below. You may obtain a full copy of the settlement papers from either of the following:

The Housing Authority of the City of Sanford
94 Castle Brewer Court
Post Office Box 2359

-or-

Central Florida Legal Services, Inc.

Sanford, Florida 32771
(407) 322-8983

In brief, the settlement provides for the adoption and implementation of a SHA Towing Policy with the following procedures:

1. each tenant will register and affix a decal on their vehicles parked on SHA premises;
2. SHA shall give written individual Notice of Violation to the registered owner of a vehicle claimed to be inoperative, without license plate or current registration, etc. which shall inform the owner of their right to request a hearing within 5 business days;
3. when vehicle poses clear safety or health hazard, SHA shall cause the immediate removal by towing of the vehicle and provide post-towing notice to registered owner informing owner of opportunity for hearing; and

4. tenants shall be educated on the provisions to the SHA Towing Policy

The settlement also provides that Plaintiffs' counsel will be notified if there are any proposed modifications to the SHA Towing Policy.

Further, a settlement with regard to attorneys' fees and costs has been reached.

III. Settlement Fairness Hearing

The Judge has scheduled a hearing for 11:45 a.m., on the 16th day of January, 1992, at the United States Courthouse, Room 2, 80 North Hughey Avenue, Orlando, Florida. The purpose of the hearing will be to determine whether or not this settlement is fair, adequate and proper and whether the Court should enter a Final Order approving the settlement.

IV. Attendance at the Hearing and Your Right to be Heard

If you are satisfied with the proposed settlement set forth in this notice, or in the full proposed settlement papers available from the SHA or Central Florida Legal Services, Inc.; it is not necessary for you to attend the hearing or to notify the Clerk or the lawyers of your intentions. You need not take any further action. In other words, by doing nothing, the Court will assume that you wish to receive the benefits described in the notice. Any class member who wishes to do so may appear at the fairness hearing, in person or by counsel, and show cause, if any, why the proposed settlement should not be approved as fair, adequate, and proper. Any class member who wishes to object to any part of the settlement may also submit an objection in writing to the Clerk of the Court by January 2, 1992. Do not telephone the Clerk's office. The address of the clerk is:

Tribe booters get first win

SANFORD — Dawn Burks scored three goals and assisted on another to lead Seminole High School to a 4-0 girls' soccer victory over the St. Cloud Bulldogs in a 3A-District 5 match played Tuesday at Thomas E. Whigham Stadium.

Burks scored all three of her goals in the first half. The first came nine minutes into the game when she converted a nice feed from Chelle Hathaway. In the 25th minute, Burks headed home a throw-in from Melissa Robinson.

Three minutes later, Burks got the hat trick when she took a right-to-left cross from Shirley Pinto and knocked it by the St. Cloud 'keeper.

Robinson scored Seminole's fourth goal on an assist from Burks with 26:00 left in the game.

Seminole out-shot St. Cloud 24-2 and had a 4-1 advantage in corner kicks. Tribe goaler Christy Oliver only had to make a pair of saves in posting the shutout. The St. Cloud goalie made 14 saves.

Seminole, now 1-3, will play again tonight at home against Kissimmee-Osceola at 7 p.m.

Luther girls win second game

ORLANDO — Seminole county residents Cathy Duda and Shana Lacy scored seven points each as all eight Orlando-Luther High School players scored in a 46-39 triumph over Pinecastle Christian Academy Tuesday night.

Luther improved to 2-0 with the win. The Luther girls will play a pair of county schools next week as they travel to Lake Brantley Tuesday and host Lake Mary next Friday.

Thanksgiving pigskin feast

Tribe, Rams, Hawks, Pats all in action this weekend

By TONY DeSORMIER
Herald Sports Editor

SANFORD — While there's no documented proof that the Patriots and Redskins kicked around a pumpkin at the first Thanksgiving feast centuries ago, football and turkey seem to go together like baseball and hotdogs.

Seminole County football fans will have no problem satisfying their pigskin cravings this holiday season as four of the six county schools will be in action over the next three days.

Tonight, the Seminole Fighting Seminoles will wrap up their 1991 campaign when they visit DeLand in a game postponed from Sept. 20. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at Spec Martin Stadium.

Also this evening, the Lake Howell Silver Hawks will battle the Dr. Phillips Panthers (tied for sixth in this week's Florida Sports Writers Association's Class 5A state poll) in the Kumquat Bowl. That game is scheduled to start at 7 p.m. at the Dr. Phillips field.

On Thanksgiving morning, the Lake Mary Rams will make their second consecutive appearance in the Rotary Bowl, taking on the Bethlehem (Penn.) Catholic Golden Hawks in a 10 a.m. game at Lyman High School field.

Finally, on Friday night in Jacksonville Beach, the Lake Brantley Patriots will battle the Fletcher Senators for the 5A Region II championship.

Tonight's Seminole-DeLand contest is the renewal of one of the oldest rivalries in the state. And the rivalry hasn't lost any of its heat over the years. In fact, the two schools always seem to find something to disagree about every time they meet.

This year, for example, DeLand decided it didn't want to play in threatening weather, and postponed the game. While Seminole disagreed with the decision, there wasn't much the Tribe could do but go along with it. It took over a half an hour of debate before the two schools could agree on Nov. 27 as a makeup date.

On top of that, neither team will be in the best of humor. The Seminoles suffered what they felt was a controversial defeat in Monday night's Kansas tiebreaker in the 4A-District 7 championship while the Bulldogs were whipped by Deltona last Friday night.

Lake Howell, which is probably playing the best football of any school in the county right now, wants to cap an impressive second half of the season with a win over Dr. Phillips tonight.

Four games into the season, the Silver Hawks were 1-3 and suffering through a three-game losing streak.

But key injured players started to heal, the offense began to gel and Lake Howell finished the regular season with a six-game winning streak.

Thursday morning's Rotary Bowl promises to be an intriguing contest. The 6-4 Lake Mary Rams, who thought they had won the 5A-District 4 championship two weeks ago, lost the district title last Friday when a circuit court judge granted Lake Brantley a temporary injunction against the Florida High School Activities Association. That night, the Rams were whipped by Seminole, 17-0.

The 8-3 Bechtel Golden Hawks, who are described as Pennsylvania's winningest team during the 1980s, were Pennsylvania Class 3A state champions last year. On Tuesday, they arrived in Sanford on a charter flight that carried an entourage of 218 players, coaches, fans and family. Another estimated 100 Bechtel boosters are supposedly making their way south for the game.

Bethlehem (Penn.) Catholic's Golden Hawks flew into Central Florida Regional Airport Tuesday morning aboard a charter flight that carried 218 Bechtel supporters. The Hawks, 8-3, will face the Lake Mary Rams in the 18th annual Rotary Bowl at 10 a.m. Thanksgiving morning at Lyman Field.

Prep cagers unveiled at jamboree

By DEAN SMITH
Herald Sports Writer

OVIDO — The 1991 high school boys basketball season got underway Tuesday night with the Seminole County Jamboree at Oviedo High School.

And after the first night's action, it's apparent that this year will feature youth, talent and size.

Of the eight schools that competed in the jamboree, Oviedo and jet quick DeLand appeared to have the best teams with Seminole, Lake Howell and Lake Brantley not far behind. Lyman has a lot of size and could be a factor before the year is out, while Lake Mary and Bishop Moore are both rebuilding.

Seminole, Oviedo and Lake Brantley all won 10th of their quarters with the Tribe edging Lake Mary 16-14 and Lyman 20-18. The Lions nipped DeLand 15-12 and mashed Bishop Moore 20-9 while the Patriots topped the Greyhounds 15-13 and the Rams 12-9.

In the other quarters, Lake Howell beat Bishop Moore 12-9 and DeLand outscored Lake Howell 22-18.

New Seminole High School coach Bill Klein was both pleased and concerned with his team's play.

"We played terrible on defense and did a bad job of running our man-to-man offense," said Klein, who is in his second term as head man for the Tribe. "But we ran pretty well and rebounded better than I thought we would. Even though we rebounded well, we were still not as aggressive on the boards as I thought we should have been."

"I was pleased overall because the guys had good attitudes and played hard. Now we just need to work harder on our defense, especially getting back after made baskets, and man offense."

Oviedo inverted the Green brothers, 6-foot 2-inch senior Bernard and 6-foot 3-inch junior Devon, and along with returning stars Simon Harper (6-foot 7-inch), Leon Lowman (6-foot 2-inch) and Randy Wright (6-foot 5-inch) it looks as if the Lions will have a very formidable team. The Greens are the nephews of ex-Orlando Magic forward Sidney Green.

Seminole coach Bill Klein was pleased with the way Larry Lawrence (No. 30) and the rest of the Tribe rebounded against Turko Kurbaso (No. 40, left). Donald Bazler (No. 42, right) and the Lyman Greyhounds in Tuesday's preseason jamboree at Oviedo. Seminole won both its quarters, beating Lake Mary and Lyman.

Lake Brantley, the defending 4A District 9 champions, could take another shot at the district title behind veterans Jason Vallery and Anthony Washington.

Lake Howell should win its share of games behind talented players like Josh Kohn and Malik Evans. The Silver Hawks also have size in 6-foot 6-inch Roger Johnson, 6-foot 6-inch Cedric Robinson and 6-foot 5-inch Timmy Prep transfer Chris Goukas, the son of Magic coach Matt Goukas.

Lyman may have the tallest overall starting team in the county with 6-foot 2-inch Solomon Berk and 6-foot 4-inch Aaron Merrill at guards, 6-foot 4-inch Donald Barber and 6-foot 6-inch Tim Ruckeschell at forwards, and 6-foot 6-inch Turko Kurbaso at center. Lake Mary will need big seasons out of returning lettermen Colby Arrow and Alonzo Brundidge and newcomer Jimmy Newberry if it is going to compete for the district crown.

In the first quarter, Lake Brantley rallied from a 10-5 deficit to beat Lyman 15-13 as Eric Skelton scored the game winner on a 12-foot leaper in the lane with 0:05 left. Skelton led Lake Brantley with four points. Ruckeschell had four for Lyman.

Larry Lawrence dominated the backboards and Jonathan Montgomery and Demetrius Lomax hit 3-pointers to maintain the lead as Seminoles held off Lake Mary 16-14 in the second quarter. Red ding led the Tribe with four points, while Newberry had a game-high eight for the Rams.

Seminole moved the ball well on offense and the defense blocked several shots in a 20-18 win over Lyman in the third quarter. Shawn Washington had six points while J.J. Wiggins added four for Seminole. Hawk was 4 for 4 from the free throw line en route to a six-point effort. Merrill had four points.

In the fourth quarter, Lake Brantley races out to an 8-0 lead and hangs on to beat Lake Mary 12-9. Brundidge finished with a game-high six points for Lake Mary. Vallery and Anthony Washington scored four points each for the

Try some easy recipes with Thanksgiving meal

You're probably very busy preparing for Thanksgiving dinner or at least some of the dishes for this, our most important holiday. The recipes in today's column are ones that you might possibly use even at this late date. They'll all have either pumpkin or cranberries and can be made with the help of your microwave oven.

MICROWAVE MIDGE

Midge Mycoff

Let's start with homemade cranberry sauce. It takes very little time and effort to make the sauce in the microwave.

CRANBERRY SAUCE

2 cups sugar
1/2 cup water
1 lb. fresh or frozen cranberries

Combine ingredients in a large glass bowl (a batter bowl works well). Stir until sugar is mixed well with the berries. Microwave, covered, on 100 percent power for 10 minutes. Stir once or twice during the cooking. The berries should pop and be soft. The juice of an orange may be added or dust the sauce with cinnamon. The sauce will set as it cools.

For those who may not be able to enjoy pie pastry, have the ever popular custard, flavored with pumpkin.

PUMPKIN CUSTARD

1/4 cup milk
4 eggs
1 cup mashed cooked pumpkin
1/2 cup sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
1/4 tsp. salt
Nutmeg

Whipped cream or topping, if desired

Microwave milk on 100 percent power in uncovered 2-cup glass measure 2 1/2-3 minutes or until steaming hot.

Beat eggs lightly in 1 1/2 qt. microwave-safe casserole; blend in pumpkin, sugar, vanilla and salt. Stir milk into pumpkin mixture until smooth. Sprinkle with nutmeg.

Microwave on 50 percent power, uncovered, 18-20 minutes or until knife inserted near center comes out clean. Cool and refrigerate. Top with whipped cream. About six servings of 135 calories each.

PUMPKIN CHEESECAKE Crust:

2 Tbsp. butter or margarine
1 pkg. (9 oz.) yellow cake mix (one layer size)

1 egg
1 pkg. (8 oz.) cream cheese
2 eggs
1/2 cup sweetened condensed milk (1/2 of a 14 oz. can)

1 cup mashed cooked pumpkin
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. ginger
1/2 tsp. cloves

Whipped cream or topping
Microwave butter on 100 percent power in uncovered bowl 30-60 seconds or until melted. Add cake mix and egg; mix with fork until crumbly. Press evenly in 12x8 microsafe baking dish.

Microwave on 100 percent power, uncovered, 3-4 minutes or until puffed. Set aside. Place cream cheese in 2-qt. glass batter bowl. Microwave on 100 percent power, uncovered, 30-45 seconds or until softened. Beat in eggs, one at a time, until smooth. Blend in condensed milk, pumpkin, cinnamon, salt, ginger and cloves. Pour over crust. Microwave on 100 percent power, uncovered, 8-10 minutes or until center is just about set. Cool and refrigerate until served. Top with whipped cream dusted with nutmeg.

Heritage adds flavor to dishes

By JOAN KERS
Herald Correspondent

DELTONA — Gordon Manderbach, our Cook of the Week, is a fun-loving, spiky kind of guy who loves life, music, cooking and people.

He hails from Lebanon, Pa. and first set eyes on Florida as a fighter pilot in 1945 while stationed with the Army Air Force at Punta Gorda. Later, he stayed on as an instrument instructor.

His life and cooking experiences began as a 12-year-old youth.

Manderbach was raised by his grandparents in Pennsylvania until he was 12. When his grandmother contracted tuberculosis, he was sent to live with his mother and stepfather. It was the Depression years when all edible items were precious at his grandparents' home. One thing he couldn't tolerate was chicken livers. However, years later in Ybor City as he fondly recalls, a delectable entree of chicken livers was prepared in a way that he has not been able to capture to his satisfaction.

"It was different at my mother's house. All the food was imported." While at his grandparents, they arose at 5 a.m. and breakfast was ready in a short time. At his mother's home, she and her husband didn't rise until 8 a.m. This caused a conflict and a growing stomach for him. Rather than waiting for his breakfast, young master Gordon decided that he could prepare his own breakfast. His morning fare consisted of 12 eggs and bacon (for a growing boy).

Being a self-taught cook took its toll on young Manderbach as his stepfather discovered his 12 burned mistakes in the garbage bin. The young man learned quickly to cook what you eat and eat what you cook.

While growing up in Pennsylvania, Manderbach had an unusual educational experience. "I went to high school in the morning and attended college in the afternoon. I loved music and was impressed that my college professor was an oboe musician with the N.Y. Philharmonic, and my high school band instructor, Les Saunders, had played with Tommy Dorsey and his band.

Manderbach and his wife, Ike, have been married for 28 years. Both are retired florists.

Manderbach offers several recipes from his native Pennsylvania Dutch heritage. His parting thought on cooking is, "Always have a glass of wine while cooking."

PENNSYLVANIA DUTCH POT PIE

3 qt. chicken stock
Note: Use leftover turkey carcass for stock.

Vegetables:
3 medium potatoes, pared and quartered
3 stalks celery, chopped
1 small onion, chopped
Bring stock to rolling boil, add all vegetables and dough squares. Lower heat to slow boil, stirring occasionally so the pie dough does not stick. Cook 35 minutes or until dough and vegetables are done. Serves 6.

Pepper Cabbage Slaw:
1 medium head cabbage (diced fine)
1 sweet green pepper (diced fine)
2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup sugar

In these troubled times, we can still give thanks

DEAR READERS: Tomorrow is Thanksgiving. So let us pause for a moment today and make a mental note of all those blessings for which we can be thankful.

How is your health? You have a few minor complaints? Well, thank God they're not major. If you're reading this — you're still here. You can probably think of at least one person who isn't around this year. (I know I can.)

If you awakened this morning and were able to hear the birds sing, use your vocal cords to utter human sounds, read the newspaper with two good eyes (or even one) — praise the Lord! A lot of people couldn't. (Say a prayer for those who have perished — from natural causes, fire, flood, earthquake or war.)

How's your pocketbook? Thin? You're not alone. But many people in much of the world are a lot poorer and have far less hope than we have in America.

Are you lonely? Well, the way to have a friend is to reach out to someone and try to be a friend. If nobody calls you, call someone. Go out of your way today to do something nice for another person. It's a sure cure for the blues.

Are you concerned about your country's future? Hooray! Our system has been saved by such concern — concern for fair treatment under the law.

Freedom rings! Look and listen. You can worship in the church of your choice (or not worship at all if that's your choice), cast a secret ballot and even criticize our government without fear of retribution. And for the first time, we are living in a unipolar world free from the threat of impending nuclear disaster.

ADVICE

— Love Abby

P.S. Why not invite a friend who lives alone to share a Thanksgiving meal — or better yet, call and say, "I'm coming to get you, and I'll see that you get home." Try it, and let me know how your day was.
