

Florida Student Honor Court Rescinds Its Mass Resignation

GAINESVILLE, Fla.—The University of Florida's Student Honor Court today rescinded its mass resignation and came to an agreement with President J. Willis Miller.

The surprise action came at the end of a 3-hour meeting of court members, Student Government officers, faculty leaders and Miller. The meeting was called by Student Body President Woodie Liles, Plant City.

The conference, which ended at 1 a. m., was closed to the press.

The 11-member court had resigned Sunday in a dispute over the handling of certain cheating cases by the university administration. It charged that the Faculty Committee on Discipline and Miller had destroyed the effectiveness of the court by reducing penalties handed out in the cheating cases.

Miller had said that the "extraordinary" nature of the cases had dictated the modification of penalties in 22 cases. He said the fact that a university employee was involved in the selling of exam keys placed a greater responsibility on the school to see that the guilty students were "rehabilitated."

John Trinkle, chancellor of the court, and Miller announced in a joint statement today that a compromise had been made in the dispute.

They said that a joint committee of the Honor Court and the Faculty Committee on Discipline would be set up to review "certain pending cases" which have reached the president.

The new committee will be the first step of appeal which a convicted student can take from judgment by the Honor Court. It will hear and consider all evidence in respect to the justice of penalties of suspension or expulsion from the university. The committee will present its findings to Miller for confirmation.

The court announced the withdrawal of its resignation in a joint statement by Trinkle and C. Fred Jones, Abundant, clerk of the court.

Trinkle and Jones said, "After meeting with University President J. Willis Miller during which a proposal was agreed upon to return certain cases to a Faculty-Student Honor Court Committee for reconsideration, the court has agreed to accept the president's statements in good faith and has voted unanimously to withdraw the resignations."

The statement by Trinkle and Jones said:

"Recognizing that honest differences of opinion exist with respect to the proper application of the penalties of suspension and expulsion for certain students recently found guilty by the Student Honor Court of the University of Florida, we have devised the following plan for the exercise of the final power of review over penalties appealed from the Honor Court."

"The president of the university will refer certain pending cases which have reached him for review to a joint body composed of the Student Honor Court and the Faculty Committee on Discipline, the latter being the committee to which an initial appeal may be taken from the judgment of the Student Honor Court."

"This joint body will consider all information respecting the propriety of the application of the penalties of suspension and expulsion in the cases referred to it, and will present its findings to the president for confirmation."

"We feel that this plan will fully resolve the differences of opinion which have existed with respect to these important matters, and take this opportunity to reaffirm our faith in the established and traditional procedures of the University of Florida honor system."

Liles said a program of action had been evolved "whereby the Honor Court and the president together, can in good conscience work toward the solution of our present difficulties and for the best interests of the university."

"It is our feeling," Liles said, "that by following this program the Honor Court will in no way be deterred from carrying on in an atmosphere of good faith and that their duties will be concluded in an equitable and just manner."

$8,670 Worth Of Food Is Furnished School Children

Food of a wholesale value of $8,670.50 was provided children in the schools of Seminole County during 1935 without any direct cost to the county's school system, T. W. Lawton, superintendent of schools, said today.

The commodities are sent to the school system by the State Department of Public Welfare which is responsible for the distribution of surplus commodities made available through the Department of Agriculture's price support program. That is one of the services of the Welfare Department offered in addition to its public assistance and child welfare programs.

Mr. Lawton said that the shipments to Seminole County cover a wide variety of foods, and that all had a high nutritional value for the children. They ranged all the way from cheese and eggs to dried prunes and fresh fruits. Florida-produced honey and orange juice consisted in addition to its public assistance and child welfare programs.

returned to their private owners as soon as possible."

Mr. Truman declared that the only way he could have avoided government operation was "to grant the demands of the steel industry for a large price increase" which might have done "incalculable damage" to the country. He said:

"It may be that the Congress will feel we should give in to the demands of the steel industry for an exorbitant price increase and take the consequences so far as resulting inflation is concerned. On this same note, he continued:

"It may be that the Congress will feel the government should try to force the steel workers to continue to work for the steel companies for another long period, without a contract, even though the steel workers have already voluntarily remained at work without a contract for 100 days in an effort to reach an orderly settlement of their differences with management."

"It may even be that the Congress will be given to all those put aside for the time being, consideration of legislation to extend wage, price and other economic controls. The present law ends July 1."

At the Capitol, meantime, the Senate Banking Committee decided to put aside for the time being consideration of legislation to extend wage, price and other economic controls. The present law ends July 1.

Chairman Maybank (D-S. C.) said the committee members felt it would be "a dreadful mistake" to consider the legislation against the background of the steel dispute. He announced the committee would meet again April 17 and see what the situation was then.

The steel industry's challenge of the seizure order was brought in U. S. District Court here.

The protesting companies asked an injunction—or court order—against seizure.

Judge Alexander Holtzoff began hearing at 11:30 a. m. the arguments in the matter. These could go on for days and any decision by Holtzoff would be only the first round in a long court fight if the issue was settled to a conclusion.

The basic argument of the steel companies is that seizure violates their rights under the Fourth and Fifth Amendments to the Constitution. These amendments, provide guarantees against illegal search and seizure and against depriving of property without due process of law.

Many big companies had made no announcement at all.

In this situation, the immediate outlook for continued production of steel vital to defense industries and thousands of consumer products was confused and uncertain.

It was plain, however, that steel executives had their backs up. They were smarting under the tongue-lashing the President gave them in a radio broadcast Tuesday night and were disposed to fight for what they consider their rights.

At 11 a. m. Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer, designated to take over and operate the mills for the government, told reporters he had not received any acknowledgment from any of the presidents of 21 steel companies.

Sawyer sent each president a telegram Tuesday night, advising of the seizure order. Mr. Truman had issued because of the deadlock in the wage dispute between the industry and the CIO United Steel workers. The union had called a strike for Tuesday midnight. Mr. Truman chose the seizure procedure as a move to head it off.

Sawyer asked that the company officials acknowledge "by return mail" receipt of their appointment as operating managers of their companies on behalf of the government.

Sawyer also said he has received no word that any steel companies had taken steps to resume operations.

Philip Murray, union president, announced Tuesday night the CIO Steelworkers would work for the government.

Sawyer, after telling reporters the silent treatment he was getting from the steel companies, got out a statement appealing for the steel companies to "continue to operate in accordance with current law, Brannan farm subsidy plan, taxation, government spending, social security benefits and 'socialized medicine'."

Dirksen, in a copy of the cable handed the press, said Taft had made clear his stand on these issues and Republican voters "have a right to know" how Eisenhower feels.

how is concerned."

"We made no effort there," Lodge declared to reporters upon his arrival by plane from a visit with Gen. Eisenhower in Paris. In Los Angeles, where he is campaigning, Kefauver said in a statement:

"I am gratified by the result but I do not feel that it really represents a true comparison of Governor Stevenson's strength and mine. He did not give his sanction to the write-in campaign in his behalf."

Later Kefauver added:

"I'm sure that if an effort had been made in Gov. Stevenson's behalf, he would have gotten more votes than I."

All signs pointed toward confirmation of a report that Eisenhower is coming home soon to campaign for the GOP nomination. Biggest indication was the lack of denials from any quarter that he has mailed a letter to Washington asking to be relieved as commander of Allied forces in Europe.

Sen. Lodge would "neither confirm nor deny" the report.

Lodge apparently left Paris before receiving a cable from Sen. Dirksen of Illinois asking him to get Eisenhower's "unequivocal statements" as to how he stands on eight major issues.

The eight issues: Taft-Hartley Law, Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC), foreign policy, Federal Court by the Sun's publisher, H. M. Greenspan, says the senator caused the boycott "to compel the editors to refrain from publishing detrimental statements about him."

Last March 22 the suit says, McCarran induced Marion B. Hicks manager of the Thunderbird Hotel, to persuade the owners of 11 other hotels and gambling casinos to boycott the Sun.

or any other member of the club. A percentage of the sales will be given to the club for its "Milk Bank."

Mrs. Nancy Brock reported that $78.85 had been realized from the benefit bridge party held at the Woman's Club on Mar. 21. A total of 294 quarts of fresh milk was given to underprivileged families during March, she revealed by Mrs. W. E. Holleyhead, chairman of the "Milk Bank."

Mrs. Messenger announced that the name of Mrs. Joel Field has been placed on the ballot for treasurer of District 4, Pilot International. Voting will take place at the spring district meeting Apr. 25-27 in Jacksonville, with headquarters in the Mayflower Hotel.

Miss Beverly Gray was chosen to represent the Pilot Club as a delegate to Girls State in Tallahassee in June. Miss Linda Leonard will serve as alternate.

Miss Lila Woodard and Mrs. Field reported on the favora- bly collected for all those attending the district convention in Jacksonville. Jars of celery relish, given last year at the Orlando convention, made such a hit it was decided to give it again this year. Labels in the Pilot colors, green and gold, will carry the wording "Celery Relish from Sanford, the Celery City—completing the program of the Pilot Club of Sanford."

Mrs. M. H. Smith was welcomed back into the club after an absence of several years. A leave of absence was granted Mrs. Harvey Swanson, who will spend the summer in Vermont.

Members who volunteered to assist with the Cancer Crusade were urged by Mrs. Messenger to make their contacts as soon as possible. An total of $50 was reported collected thus far in the house-to-house canvass.

There were 22 members present at the meeting.

Mass Meetings Are Held By Telephone Workers In South

WASHINGTON (AP)—The CIO's Communications Workers Union today ordered a nation-wide strike against the Bell Telephone system. Union leaders ordered picket lines drawn up around Bell installations all over the country. A spokesman said he expects 30,000 workers to be affected by the action.

ATLANTA (AP)—Special mass meetings of Southern Bell Telephone Co. workers will be held throughout the South today to discuss bargaining negotiations.

Southern Bell officials said the company expected to maintain telephone service during the meetings, scheduled to begin at 1 p. m. Notices distributed to Atlanta workers of Southern Bell said the meetings were for the purpose of "discussing the Western Electric local bargaining status as it applies to them and as it applies to you and your bargaining sessions to come soon."

Western Electric Co. workers have been on strike several days. They handle installation and maintenance of telephone company equipment.

Southern Bell offices here reported picketing of telephone exchanges today in only four Southern cities by W. E. workers. There were Shreveport, Baton Rouge and Lafayette, La., and Jackson, Miss. Southern Bell officials received a letter today from Joseph Beirne, president of the Communication Workers of America (CWA), asking the union to accept a new contract. The union is proposing wage increases, improved progression schedules and a wide variety of miscellaneous items.

The Southern Bell contract with the union expires June 3. Some 48,000 Southern Bell workers are members of the CWA.

House Cut

tioning of existing groups.

The bill, sponsored by Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.), was Senate passage by 55 to 8, Tuesday, with 26 Democrats and 29 Republicans approving.

It would create a 14-member Senate-House budget committee consisting of seven members each from the Appropriations Committees of the two congressional chambers.

The committee would have a trained, professional staff to make a year-round continuing study of general expenditures.

It would recommend cuts wherever possible. Sponsors said the staff would give the two Appropriations Committees the kind of information they need and do not now have for guidance on big money bills under the President's budget.

The representatives also cited Henry W. (The Dutchman) Grunwald for contempt of Congress for refusing to testify in the contempt case. Grunwald was arrested last week from Thursday to consider whether to hold hearings. He declined to speculate on what form the hearings might take.

The controls law, on which the government's anti-inflation efforts are based, seemed headed toward a major test for survival.

Truman Ducks Issue On Ike's Resignation

President Also Dodges Question Over Pay-Off Charge On Steel Mill Seizure

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman today declined to say whether Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has retained his European command, he declined to reply to a steel industry accusation that he seized the steel mills as a political pay-off of the CIO.

He dropped a hint, too, that he might express a preference for one of the various Democratic candidates before the National Convention opens in July. The President added without elaboration that he hopes this will not be necessary.

Mr. Truman had said only a week ago that so far as he is concerned the convention is free to nominate any candidate it likes. The President said today he hopes and believes a settlement will be reached in the steel dispute through collective bargaining in the near future. He said he himself does not propose to intervene in the bargaining.

Asked whether he would order the wage increase and other recommendations of the Wage Stabilization Board put into effect while the steel mills are under government seizure, he said he'd cross that bridge when he came to it.

On the world scene, a foreign newspaperman asked Mr. Truman if he expects the nations of the world would be able to achieve peace before 1953. The President replied that he does not regard himself as a good prophet but that he hopes they will.

Eisenhower, who is reported widely as about ready to come back today, said the general's resignation from command of the North Atlantic forces in Europe was at the White House.

Mr. Truman told questioners he is not going to say on that subject now.

He added that the resignation—when and if it comes—will be announced by him whenever Eisenhower wants it announced.

Mr. Truman said Eisenhower was a perfect right to step out of his military command if he wants to. If he does resign, the President went on, his resignation will be (Continued on page 5)

NEW YORK (AP)—Booming Canada is showing the United States another trick. It's cutting taxes and still budgeting a Treasury surplus.

Mr. Truman told questioners he is not going to say on that subject now.

Some Better Solution

Management and labor must discover some way to reach settlement of difficulties before strikes are set in motion. The present steel situation is an example of a problem which was allowed to get so far out of hand that even a peaceful solution could have disastrous results.

If management should decide to grant the union's demands without further struggle a rise in the price of steel would be felt immediately in a general price rise which would invalidate all efforts at curbing inflation made in the last year.

If a long strike had been permitted by the government, serious production losses and our defense efforts, millions of dollars of losses in sales and profits to the corporations and great hardships to the workers who are out on strike, might have resulted.

Perhaps if both sides were to lay all their cards on the table, some better solution might be reached. Somewhere between the offer made by management to the unions and the demands that the unions have made on management there must be a point on which both sides would agree. If a settlement is to be made after a long period of wrangling, why can it not be reached without the wrangling?

Man has progressed beyond the point where flexing muscles and shaking fists is regarded as a way of meeting differences. But sometimes leaders of labor and industry tend to forget this.

Presidents As Writers

"Mr. President", the recent book of selections from President Truman's letters and papers, is not the first publication in which a president tells his own story. Autobiographies were left by Theodore Roosevelt, Calvin Coolidge and Martin Van Buren. The last-named, in manuscript form, was given to the Library of Congress in 1905 and first published 15 years later. James Buchanan, whose timidity almost ruined the country in the days before the war of 1861, wrote in his retirement a long and unconvincing defence of his administration.

Diaries were written by James K. Polk and John Quincy Adams. Polk's diary was unknown till its publication in 1910. It leaves a new impression of this hard-working and colorful president, who ranks as one of our ablest chief executives.

The greatest self-portrayal of presidential achievement is undoubtedly John Quincy Adams' diary, running from 1795 to his death in 1848. He is severe on his associates, who do not come up to his high standards, but equally severe on himself, paying perhaps too much attention to his own deficiencies. It is, however, a matchless source for the history of the times, which no president's autobiographical material since then has equalled.

Aid To Criminals

Rudolph Halley, former counsel to the Senate Crime Investigating Committee, lays a great deal of the blame for the inroads crime has made in America on "decent people." Halley, who is now New York City Council President, believes that some citizens who would not commit crimes themselves often give unspoken consent to criminals and racketeers. He points out that bookies, gamblers and bootleggers are patronized by many of these otherwise honest citizens.

By allowing officials of questionable honesty to remain in office, by general civic apathy, voters have allowed the control of many communities to pass into the hands of those who find crime profitable. All the investigations and laws that can be passed are not effective in quelling crime every citizen decides that these evils must be stamped out. Truly decent and honest people will not give unspoken consent or encouragement to racketeer parasites.

Boyle Tells Right Way To Behave To Get Hotel Room

By HAL BOYLE

CINCINNATI — When you register at a hotel, the desk clerk hangs a bell importantly and calls out: "Boy! Show this gentleman to his room!"

The next few seconds are always full of tremendous suspense. Getting into a hotel room is one of the great dramas of everyday American life. Each person must play his role exactly right or the whole thing is ruined.

The desk clerk has acted his part perfectly. He looked at you with icy suspicion when you first stepped meekly up to him, like a prisoner at the bar of justice. Then a slow smile spread over his stern countenance like a frozen river breaking up in spring. "Yes, sir! Prefer a tub or shower? As you sign your name a small sensation of self-respect creeps back into you.

"Boy! Show this gentleman to his room!" Who will step forward? Whoever he is, he will make or break the whole performance. There are some bellhops who pick up your bags, stare at them disdainfully and make you feel like a dime store thief as you trail them through the lobby to the elevator.

Others can do it with pomp and ceremony, as if they were Cleopatra's servants unrolling the welcome rug for the great Caesar. Other guests look up impressed, and you secretly hope they think you are a mighty elephant hunter just in from Africa.

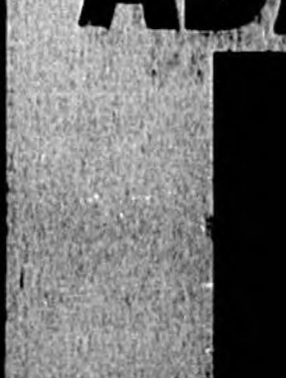

Some day a perfect hotel will be built. One of the first things they will do is hire midwits to strew rose petals in your path. They will have always a bouquet that would make an impressive entrance.

There are all sorts of bellhops. Veterans travelers will recall at least some of these types:

1. The dobe bellhop—He is white-faced and blue-eyed and has been with the hotel ever since it was in its first blossom.

Canada Taxpayers Get 10 Percent Cut

OTTAWA — Canadian taxpayers—smokers, housewives and auto buyers especially—got cuts of 10 to 15 per cent in taxes on major items today.

Finance Minister Douglas Abbott's 1952-53 budget also set up a new income tax rate which he said would cut these payments an average 6 per cent, but he added that a new social security levy would keep the government's bite from most paychecks as high as ever.

The record balanced budget, read to the House of Commons Tuesday night, promised a nine million dollar surplus—revenues of $4,270,000,000 and expenditures of $4,270,000,000.

Abbott warned Canadians not to look for much in the way of lower taxes next year "unless conditions at home exceed even my glibest expectations and unless the clouds that overhang the international scene lift more rapidly."

Adams Charges East Coast Road A Political Deal

Governor Says Adams Made Proposition For His Support

By The Associated Press
Gov. Fuller Warren, who can't succeed himself and says he isn't supporting any candidate, is getting into the Florida governorship campaign up to his boot-tops.

Candidate Alto Adams had made the Warren administration the prime target of his campaign, and Warren—in keeping with his political creed that no critic should go unanswered—is firing right back.

Wednesday, Adams exhibited photostatic copies of documents he said showed men high in the Warren administration two years ago were cooking up a deal to build the 124 million dollar Jacksonville-Miami toll turnpike without competitive bids.

Warren couldn't be reached to answer that charge. But while Adams was making it in Miami, the governor's press secretary in Tallahassee was distributing a statement in which Warren said Adams had paid him "near midnight" visit last November to seek his support.

He named a St. Petersburg hotel, a room number, and offered to produce documents which would show Adams enter and leave the room if Adams continues to deny he sought campaign help from the governor.

Warren and Adams slugged it out from opposite ends of the state, the other two major candidates—Dan McCarty and Brail Odham—launched the Tampa Bay area in search of votes with speeches that took each other and Adams to task on a personal plane but added little new fuel to the flames.

One of the documents Adams showed to Miami news reporters and a couple of dozen of his key State County campaign workers was a picture of a carbon copy of a letter memorandum dated March 24, 1950, on the question of whether the State Improvement Commission could build the turnpike without competitive bids and without consent of the counties.

It was on the letterhead of Ell Fink, Jacksonville lawyer and Warren appointee to the State Board of Control. It also carried the name of William Fox Sears, State Beverage Department attorney and associated with the Jaxon Construction Co., a road-building firm.

The copy was not signed. Adams said he had cut out the name of the man to whom it was addressed to protect him from reprisal, but it was to a man very high in the Warren administration, he said.

It said the Improvement Commission apparently had authority to build the big highway without competitive bids, but to be sure a test case should be brought (with some other project as guinea pig) to determine the question in the Supreme Court.

Adams called it "one of the most sordid, loathsome deals I have ever seen to steal this state blind."

He also produced a copy of an engineering report by the Jacksonville firm of Reynolds, Smith and Hays, which declared the turnpike feasible and estimating costs at 124 million dollars plus interest. It was dated Feb. 27, 1950.

That was nearly a year and a half before Chairman Alfred McKethan of the Road Department first publicly endorsed the turnpike proposal. McKethan has said no cost estimate of the project was available and no work now is being made of the proposal.

Adams suggested the project was delayed until after the 1951 Legislature met, and now is being held up until after the "birelings" and will be undertaken if McCarty wins.

He recalled that McCarty's reply to a stand on the turnpike issue several months ago was that it wouldn't be a factor in the governorship campaign because the Warren administration would build it. He also said McCarty had agreed to honor the contracts of the present administration.

McCarty, who was beaten for governor in a bitter campaign by Warren four years ago, has repeatedly denied Adams' assertion that he has administrative support this time.

Warren repeated his claim that Adams promised to reappoint McKethan to the State Road Board if the administration would support him. When the governor first made the statement Sunday, Adams denied he ever had support from Warren or any of his "birelings" and henchmen. He countered that

HOLLYWOOD

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Carpenter Rod Cameron came back from India minus 20 pounds from his lean frame and filled with tales of movie making in that nation.

Cameron dropped the poundage because of his diet, which largely consisted of canned tuna and cheese. No curry fan is Rod. But despite the limited cuisine, he was fascinated with India and particularly Indian movie making.

"Did you know that India has the second biggest film industry in the world, second only to ours?" he asked over a plate of corned beef hash. (He passed up the tuna casserole.)

I admitted my ignorance.

"Well, it's true," he continued. "But unlike our industry, which is centered in Hollywood, theirs is spread out all over the country. And their methods are a great deal different from ours."

"For instance, time means nothing to them. They might take a year to make a picture. Language has a lot to do with this. There are 15 different languages and 300 dialects in India. The scenes are shot over and over again in all the principal languages. But aside from the language difficulty, they are in no hurry anyway."

"There are far fewer stars than

McKethan Blast

McKethan said he had not been approached by Adams or any of his emissaries recently.

The road chairman emphasized he is not taking an active part in the campaign for governor and declined to say for whom he will cast his vote in the Democratic primary May 6.

McKethan said: "I don't feel a public official should actively lend his support to the candidacy of anyone and my letter to Road Department employees at the start of the campaign pointing out they are prohibited by state law from participating actively in political campaigns still stands. I do not expect any Road Department employee to take part, either affirmatively or negatively, in the campaign."

Did that mean Road Department employees were not to oppose Adams actively? McKethan was asked in an interview.

"I want every Road Department employee to vote and to vote as his conscience dictates. But the law prohibits political activity of any sort by state employees," he answered.

Would he personally oppose Adams actively in view of the candidate's attack on the Road Department?

McKethan said: "When I announced I would not be a candidate for governor I issued a statement that I didn't expect to take an active part in the campaign. But I should like to make it clear that I in no way expect to sit idly by and see the confused ex-judge of the Supreme Court cast aspersions and reflections on my integrity and the integrity of my associates in the Road Department."

"I reserve the right to answer, and will do so, all untruths."

"Should the other two major candidates make any statements that reflect on me or my associates they will be dealt with properly, too."

Gen. Hutchison

Gen. Hutchison stated that he was very grateful for the honors bestowed upon him, including the surprise gift by the City. He expressed both his liking for Sanford and Seminole County.

Referring to his World War II experiences, he told the men of Company I of the brilliant record of the 124th Infantry in the Pacific campaign and at Aitape on the northern coast of New Guinea where he was in command of a task force that included both the 124th Infantry and 140th Field Artillery, both Florida units.

He quoted General MacArthur as stating in a summary of Aug. 9, 1945, that the 124th Infantry's counter envelopment was probably unparalleled in the history of military maneuver over this type of terrain, and resulted within 29 days in the virtual elimination of seven Japanese regiments, depriving them of future operational capabilities.

General Hutchison pointed out that during this 29 day period the regiment was in combat night and day, and as a result the Third Battalion of the 124th Infantry received a presidential unit citation.

He also quoted Lieut. General Hall, who was the commander at Aitape during the campaign, that the action of the Third Battalion was the best that he had seen during the campaign.

In Sept., 1944 the Division invaded Morotai and by January, 1945 had wrecked the Jan installations. Later in April, the Division participated in the invasion of Mindanao in the Philippines, continuing the operation

Dunlap said the entire federal tax system is "balancing precariously on the brink" of collapse through lack of funds to enforce the new gambling levy.

The commissioner specifically asked the Senate to put back the $5 million House cut. There has been "no appreciable enforcement" of the gambling tax because Congress failed to provide the money to enforce the law.

The House Appropriations Committee, explaining its slash in the bureau's budget, said the work load in connection with the new tax had been much less than expected.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House foreign affairs subcommittee today called for a review of British influence on American foreign policy to determine if it "has caused the loss of valuable allies in Europe and the Far East."

Members of the group told newsmen they knew of no specific cases but mentioned the Iran crisis in the Middle East and "anti-Americanism" in Malaya.

This demand was part of a new "get tough" program for foreign aid which the 3-member subcommittee outlined in a special report on several European countries and discussed in a news conference. Members are Reps. Zablocki (D-Wis.), chairman, Kelly (D-N.Y.) and Morrow (R-N.H.).

The subcommittee report proposed that further aid be given only under "clear and precise conditions." These ranged from a demand for greater progress toward European unity to internal tax reforms.

The group also strongly recommended developing Spain's military power. Members said they NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Adm. Lynde D. McCormick said today the present level of forces of the Allied Atlantic Command "introduces risks which are unacceptable."

McCormick and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower are co-equal commanders under the 14-nation North Atlantic Treaty Organization High-ranking officers of most of these countries attended ceremonies today as McCormick took over officially as supreme Allied Atlantic commander.

"Even the increased maritime forces which have appeared in NATO planning will fall short of those necessary to give Europe and the Allied European Command the direct and indirect support which we envisage they will require from us," McCormick said in his prepared address.

Greater effort by NATO nations is necessary, he said, to build up the forces needed to "maintain control of the high seas and coastal waters which concern us."

His own decision not to seek reelection, Mr. Truman said there was only one reason for it—the fact that he didn't want to run. He said he had made up his mind a year or two ago and that he picked the recent Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner as the occasion of his announcement because it provided the biggest audience he ever expected to have.

Asked whether he would support Sen. Keafauer of Tennessee for the presidency if nominated by the Democrats, Mr. Truman said he would campaign hard for whatever candidate the convention picked. But he said he is expressing no preference for any candidate now.

This was his reply to a question about his reputed personal preference for Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois.

Mr. Truman said he doesn't expect to attend the July convention himself.

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP)—A correspondent with the Chinese Reds in Korea reported five Nationalist Chinese were executed by the Communists Wednesday as Allied agents behind Red lines.

Allied officers have consistently denied that Chinese Nationalists have been or are being used to spy on the Reds.

Wilfred Burchett, correspondent of the Paris left-wing newspaper Ce Solr, said the five were shot in a public square at Kaesong after a mass "interrogation." Kaesong was the site of armistice negotiations last summer.

UNIFIED GERMANY

MOSCOW (AP)—Russia gave the Western Big Three more details Wednesday night on what the Soviets say should be done about uniting Germany and writing a peace treaty with her.

Details of notes handed by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky to the U. S., British and French envoys were not immediately revealed. The notes, however, to Washington demanded for clarification of Russia's March 10 proposal for a peace treaty with a unified Germany.

In a conference with the Executive Board of the Progressive Voters League of Florida, Odham reaffirmed his stand for segregation and said he would provide "equal but separate" facilities for the Negro race as provided by Florida law. He also agreed to appoint Negroes to state jobs where they would serve members of the contest except Adams.

Odham told the Democratic Women's Club in St. Petersburg that Dan McCarty in 1937 "tried to saddle the state with a county unit voting system similar to that used in Georgia. He said McCarty was co-introducer of the bill and voted to bring it out of committee. Odham charged that former Gov. Millard Caldwell supported McCarty in 1948 and now is backing Adams, while supporters of Warren, who defeated McCarty in that campaign, are now backing McCarty. He called this "the great switcheroo."

Speaking in Manatee, Pasco and Hernando Counties Wednesday, McCarty called on his opponents to "run on their records" and not stoop to "character assassination."

McCarty is speaking today in Fort Meade, Bowling Green, Wausatchula, Avon Park, Sebring, Frostproof, Babson Park and Lake Wales and broadcasting from Lakeland tonight.

Adams is spending another day campaigning in Dade County and Odham speaks in Palmetto, Bradenton, Manatee, Sarasota, Venice, Punta Gorda, Arcadia and Fort Myers.

Bill Hendrix, another candidate, speaks in Tallahassee tonight.

Senator Taft Is Seen As Underdog In Kansas And New Jersey Contests

By The Associated Press
Sen. Robert A. Taft found himself the underdog today in the New Jersey contest against Gov. Dwight D. Eisenhower, which pits the Republican underdog against the Ohioan's backers who are not unhappy about it. This situation grew out of Taft's unsuccessful attempt to have his name taken off the ballot in next Tuesday's presidential preference primary. The New Jersey court said "No."

But Taft, feuding with New Jersey Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll over the governor's support of Eisenhower, refused to campaign. So there are no delegate candidates for him officially on the ballot, although 11 people supporting him are candidates for seats.

Eisenhower also is the overwhelming favorite to pick up all 11 delegates in today's convention of Kansas Republicans in Topeka. None of his supporters will be chosen without a fight, however, Taft's forces will have to battle a Kansas district convention already have chosen 29 delegates, 16 for Eisenhower, two for Taft. Taft, however, seemed to hold the upper hand in a series of district Republican conventions opening in Kentucky today to select 20 delegates. Eisenhower supporters planned to fight to send unopposed delegates to Chicago.

Four district conventions are being held today, three Friday and one Saturday to choose two delegates each. The state convention opening Saturday will choose the other four.

This is how Helman Morin, Associated Press roving political reporter, found Taft leaders reporting in the New Jersey fight: "Taft has very little to lose in this situation and should be unexpected, happened everything. Even a sizable total of popular votes in New Jersey for Taft would permit his backers to claim a moral victory."

Harold E. Stassen also is on the New Jersey ballot. Taft's charge that Driscoll had promised to remain neutral in the election was supported Wednesday night by Charles Edison, former Democratic governor, and Albert W. Hawkes, former Republican U. S. senator. Driscoll later broadcast a denial of his statements.

Battle Continues In Bolivia Clash With Government

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — The Bolivian embassy here said today it has received a cable from La Paz announcing defeat of the revolution in Bolivia.

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — Bolivia's army-officer government rushed troops from 155 miles away as fighting continued through the night in revolt trying to overthrow the junta regime which seized power 11 months ago.

The rebels are backers of Victor Paz Estenssoro, exiled leader of the National Revolutionary Party (MNR) who won the most votes among the six candidates in last year's presidential elections but never gained office.

Brig. Gen. Antonio Seleno, interior minister in the military junta, turned against his fellow officers and helped lead the revolt which began at dawn Wednesday. At least 18 persons were killed and 60 injured during the first day's fighting.

Most of the army reportedly remained loyal to the military regime. Its forces gathered strength at the El Alto Airport Garrison, on a plateau 2,000 feet above La Paz, and launched a night attack by bright moonlight on the rebels in the capital city.

Gen. Hugo Ballivian, head of the government, reportedly took refuge with his garrison at the airport. The army also held Miraflores Garrison in La Paz, denying the rebels stocks of guns and ammunition there.

Phone Strike

distance calls today but local service is normal where dial systems are in operation, telephone company officials said.

Southern Bell's Florida manager, said on the basis of early reports from where there were pickets, about 50 per cent of the telephone workers reporting for work crossed the lines and took up their jobs.

Florida telephone workers, into those across the nation, were under orders from the union not to cross the lines.

Roy Armstrong, state director of the CIO Communications Workers of America, said picket lines were set up at Western Electric Co. sales buildings and telephone company buildings where WE installers were at work when the strike started.

They have been established in at least five Florida cities, he said, and "four people are observing them." Telephone workers have pledged 100 per cent support of WE employees, Armstrong said, and will continue to observe picket lines.

Dooley said the telephone company was using management personnel to help employees who did report for work.

"Service isn't normal but we're doing the best we can," he said. "We hope as time goes on, the experience of management people will improve with a corresponding improvement in service."

At Pittsburgh, police swung nightsticks to subdue the fighting. One man, a unionist, was hospitalized. Four others were jailed on charges of inciting to riot.

The 16,000 Western Electric workers in 43 states and 61,000 phone operators and other employees in Michigan, Ohio, New Jersey and Northern California struck Monday.

The strikes have not seriously disrupted telephone service. But an estimated 300,000 telephone workers reportedly are pledged to honor the Western Electric picket lines. That might result in badly snarled long distance phone service. However, supervisory personnel and non-union employees were drafted into temporary service in keeping long distance calls moving.

Negotiations in the dispute, with wages the chief issue, were to be resumed today in Detroit between the union and Michigan Bell. Federal mediators also scheduled a new attempt to reach an agreement in the Western Electric Co. dispute.

Wages also are the chief issues in the week-old strike of 30,000 A.T. Commercial Telegraphers Union employees of the Western Union Co. There appeared little progress toward a settlement of the dispute.

U. S. District Judge Alexander Holtzoff dismissed Wednesday the steel industry's initial legal challenge of the seizure. Further court moves were in the offing, however.

The 65-year-old federal judge denied the steelmakers a temporary injunction against the seizure but he emphasized he was not ruling on its legality. He said the companies had not proved the seizure caused them "irreparable damage."

The President's seizure order set off an angry dispute on Capitol Hill that brought various proposals to meet the situation. They ranged from a demand that Congress declare the seizure action illegal to a bill that would give the President specific power to seize industrial plants.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Attorneys for Ingrid Bergman have asked Superior Court for permission for her daughter, Jenny Ann (Pia) Lindstrom, 13, to visit the actress in Italy this summer.

An agreement between Miss Bergman and her former husband, Dr. S. Peter Lindstrom, provides that the child can spend her vacation with her mother. But Dr. Lindstrom has refused to allow the visit to take place in Italy where Jenny Ann would be near the actress' present husband, Film Director Roberto Rossellini.

Under an agreement made at the time of Dr. Lindstrom's divorce from the actress in November, 1950, Jenny Ann cannot be taken out of the United States without court permission.

If all the passenger cars in the United States were placed bumper to bumper, it is estimated the line would be 125 miles long.

returns from World War II. The Mayor stated clearly that he would like to get out of the grocery business for various reasons and devote full time to the job of County Clerk. He said he would no longer be the mayor of Safford when the office of County Clerk becomes available to him and also stated that he would resign his position as City Commissioner if the people wanted him to.

"I know of many men who are more capable than I to serve on the Commission and I would like to give them a chance," he stated.

Mr. Stemper lashed out against the present County Clerk as being "virtually the boss of Seminole County." He continued by saying, "It is no joking matter. It is your conditions and your problems that are slighted or neglected. It is certainly not right for one person to exert so much influence."

Mayor Stemper charged Mr. Herndon with being a shrewd politician, who passed out political favors and special privileges so it is impossible to beat him.

Mr. Herndon, speaking last, asserted he would not even comment on the charges and remarks of his opponent about his conduct in the job of County Clerk because they were absolutely false.

"If these things were true, why didn't he file you specific instances?" Mr. Herndon stated. He pointed out that, like his government just as every citizen opponent, he favors good honest government.

"I am given $6,000 to run this office and other jobs by the County and one year I returned to the County $6,288.01. I am pleased to make as much as $7,500, no more, but many years I have made half that," he pointed out.

An incumbent went on to describe how he has and does serve the most humble taxpayer with the same zeal as the most important. "My office has no bars in front of it and it is a virtual 'fish bowl'. Any one may examine by records and if anyone says I am not doing my job honestly, then they are welcome to prove it," he stated flatly.

He continued by saying I will stand on my record and operate the office as I have always in the past, if elected again. He cited his achievement in instituting a simple well organized filing system which has been adopted in many other counties in the state.

"If you are satisfied with my job as County Clerk, I would humbly appreciate your vote of confidence on May 6," he concluded.

President Tim Crawford opened the program and chairman of the Jaycee "get-out-the-vote" committee, Clarence Knight, took charge of the introduction of the candidates.

Rent Registration Statements Due

All landlords should have filed registration statements by now, the Area Rent Office announced Wednesday.

Any tenant who has not seen a copy of the registration form covering the unit where he is living should request his landlord to show him his registration statement. W. R. Williams, area rent director, reported yesterday.

If the landlord does not have a registration statement showing the maximum rent to pay, accommodation he may have failed to register or it may be misplaced and the tenant should contact the Area Rent Office, 222 Melach Building.

Virtually all rental accommodations in Seminole County were brought under federal rent stabilization on Jan. 24, 1952. In most cases, rents were rolled back to the May 1, 1951 level. Landlords were given 45 days (to Mar. 7, 1952) to register their units in the rent office.

The rent office sent a copy of these regulations to the appropriate tenant, who had an opportunity to comment in writing.

Mr. Williams cautioned generally against "hasty" conclusions and condemn any landlord who made a thorough check of records.

"There's always a possibility of a mistake at the rent office," he pointed out, "and there's always a chance a tenant has been given a form and forgotten about it."

Hints to Housewives
 By CLEO M. ARNETT

It's the protein foods in family meals that often pinch the purse. But this spring eggs are coming to the rescue—in a big way. The U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that there are enough eggs for everyone to have two a day. Two large eggs per person provide enough protein for the main dish of a meal. As prices are running low, you can buy two large or extra large eggs for from 5 to 10 cents. What's more, those eggs can be top quality with a rating of AA or A. So this spring when you choose eggs, you have abundance, quality, size and price in your favor.

- 1. Two poached eggs topped on hot Croissants or Spanish rice—that is, rice cooked with tomato, onion, green pepper and seasonings to your taste.
- 2. Creamed eggs—halves or hard-cooked eggs in white sauce.
- 3. Two eggs baked in cheese sauce in individual casseroles.
- 4. Eggs benedict—two poached eggs on thinly sliced ham or toast or English muffins with Hollandaise sauce topping.
- 5. Hot deviled or stuffed eggs surrounded by hot tomato sauce, Spanish sauce or cheese sauce.

FOOTBALL SKILL
 LOS ANGELES—Football skills can save lives, says Educator Floyd H. Eastwood.

Lessons in blocking and side-stepping learned in football are never forgotten, the dean of the Los Angeles State College told the convention of the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation Tuesday.

"They provide insurance against civilian injury and death from traffic and home accidents," he said.

A cubic foot of coal can produce enough electricity to operate the average home refrigerator about 62 days.

My New York
 By MEL HEIMER

Tab Hunter

NEW YORK—One of the pleasant chases entrusted to me last autumn was a proposed visit to Jamaica (that's the other Jamaica, where horses pull only carriages and not your heart and purse strings) to keep Linda Darnell from being too lonely in the West Indies. Unfortunately a hurricane reared its infernal head and the trip was called off, so Miss Darnell was left down there in Jamaica in the care of a blond Adonis named Tab Hunter, who I guess you could call the road company Heimer. Well, a woman can't always have everything. It was Linda's cross to bear.

I caught up with the big, easy-going, good-looking Mr. Hunter today over orange juice at the Plaza, and after I finally got him to stop talking about Linda reverently—all right, after we both stopped—he got something else off his chest. He was in the middle of composing a list of women with whom he'd hate to be stranded on a desert island.

Tab knew a little something about the subject; in the movie he made with Linda in Jamaica—Island of Desire—he played a young man who was stranded on a desert island with a woman. With Linda it was fun.

However, Mr. Hunter had a few other types in mind. He was stagglingly bitter for a guy who is only 21 and has been keeping company (as people still say that?) for a good while now with a professional figure skater named Joyce Lockwood.

"The one that would drive me crazy," he said, reflecting bitterly, "would be the girl who wanted to boss me. I can't stand bossy women. Gee, you'd think smart women would know how that irritates a man. Yet, just the other day I tested for a picture and the little starlet opposite me said, halfway through, 'No, no, you're not, playing it right. It should be done this way.' 'Look, I told her, 'suppose you play your part and I'll play mine.'"

TAB ALSO WOULD BE DIMLY UNHAPPY with a girl who talks too much. "That would be a nightmare," he said. "And you know—we wouldn't run out of conversation. Or she wouldn't. She'd go on and on and all I'd have to do would be to say 'Yes, dear, occasionally . . . and go out of my mind. Goah, there are an awful lot of girls in the world who can't stop talking, aren't there?'"

The affected woman is another on his list. "The one with the artificial pout and the shony atmosphere. I must report that Mr. Hunter named a couple of Hollywood names, in this classification, but I will not mention them because I do not want to help compound a slander. Life on a desert island with one of these would drive Tab nutsy.

"You'd never really know who she was," he complained, "she'd always be acting, acting, acting. She'd probably wear her grass skirt with an affected air, too."

A pet hate of the boys is the girl who isn't a good sport. "The one who'd call an opponent's line shot out, in tennis, because she couldn't bear to lose. Tab has met a lot of these, because he's an athletic guy, who figure-skated, rode show horses and played tennis and thus came across many athletic females. Mind you, he's all for the sports-minded girl—but the kind who would cut their mothers' hearts out to win a golf match leave him cold.

"I SUPPOSE IF YOU SUM IT UP," Tab said, "the kind of girl a man would be happiest with on a desert island—aside from the usual requirements of beauty, figure and allure—is the girl who's ready, within reason, to do what the man feels like doing."

"You know—you want to go for a swim, she says sure; if you feel like roasting popcorn, she says okay to that, too. Linda's that kind of a girl, and there are a few others in Hollywood, like Ann Blyth."

Mr. Hunter refused to be put on a spot when I asked him whether he'd rather be stranded with Linda or with Joyce, his girl (with whom, incidentally, he won several West Coast skating championships). "Just say," he commented sagely, "that I could adjust myself to either one of them. If they could, to me."

Catholics Warned Vs. Psychoanalysis

ROME—Catholics who submit themselves to psychoanalysis expose themselves to mortal sin, warns the current issue of the official monthly bulletin for Rome's Catholic clergy.

An article by Msgr. Ferlic Felici, member of a special commission of the Congregation for the Discipline of the Sacraments, took exception particularly to the doctrine of Sigmund Freud, chief developer of psychoanalysis, that religious sentiments are a form of sexual sublimation—a sublimation with which one wants to explain all the moral activity of man.

Therefore, he concluded, "religious sentiment would be a shameful instinct; charity would be instinctive."

It is difficult to excuse from mortal sin anyone who, knowing all this, accepts this method of cure and voluntarily submits to it.

Mortal sin in the tenets of the Catholic Church is a grievous sin committed after full reflection and full consent of the will. It exposes Catholics who fall into it to damnation, unless forgiveness for it is obtained before death.

All are welcome to attend our services and to use our Reading Room.

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Dead?" is the subject for services in all Christian Science churches next Sunday. The power of Mind, and to dissolve human belief in all disorders and bring healing will be stressed.

A verse from Romans (8:2) provides the Golden Text: "The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death."
Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "The cause of all so-called disease is mental, a mortal fear, a mistaken belief or conviction of the necessity and power of ill-death; also a fear that Mind is incapable to defend the life of man and incompetent to control it" (p.
277).

Included in Bible passages in the following from Psalms (103:
1-3): "Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits:
Who forgiveth all thine iniquities;
who healeth all thy diseases."

Ours."
"It is not in man's power to banish sin and death from the earth, to build the Holy Church, to conquer the hosts of Satan. It is within the power of God. And He has given us at Easter the certainty that His purpose will be accomplished. But we can on earth set up signs, humble yet great, which point to the coming day. Till the day of that victory our lives are hid with Christ in God, and no earthly disillusionment or distress or power of hell can separate us from Him."

The Birthday OF HOPE

This thing we call hope—it is a strange thing. It springs eternal in the human breast
... and yet so often it has been mocked by time and tragedy.

Why, indeed, does every man cling to his hope, even when the self-styled realists cry "hopeless."

The answer is written in the beautiful history of the first Easter Day. Faithful friends of the Master came to anoint His body. Came sorrowing ... without hope.

And they returned rejoicing: "Christ is risen ..."

That was the birthday of Hope ... the certainty of Christians that even death cannot destroy the believing soul!

And every Easter Day countless men and women discover or rediscover that Hope. It brings a new joy to their lives. It will, to yours ...

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship.
It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Seminole Blues Sign Two Rookie Pitchers And Outfielder

Carnett May Start Tuesday Night's Sanford Opening Tilt With DeLand

By KENT CHETLAIN

The Seminole Blues baseball machine roared into high gear with the announcement of the signing of three more players, two pitchers and an outfielder this morning in face of the rapidly approaching Florida State League opening on Monday night.

Carnett, no relation to Eddie Carnett former Chicago White Sox outfielder, has impressed Aleno on the hill during the last few days and may get the starting assignment for the Sanford FSL opener against the DeLand Sea Hats next Tuesday night.

Carnett may be the answer to manager Aleno's pitching woes. Murray Byrd, a 5-foot-11 inch slender 163 pound finger joins the Blues with Carnett to compose a four-man pitching corps.

The third player to sign today was Alfredo "Fred" Cavallaro a Brooklyn-born fly chaser. The giant Cavallaro stands 6-foot-2 and weighs in the neighborhood of 195.

Brooklyn hit .377 for Cocoa last year and is now working in Sanford. He contends that being 20-years-old married with one child makes it necessary that he continue his present job.

The first United States league to sign Stanley Cuck emblematic of the National Hockey League was Seattle. That was back in 1917.

Blues To Play Patrick AFB Here Tonight In First Night Contest

Page 6 Feb. Apr. 11, 1952 THE SAFFORD HERALD

The Seminole Blues will take to the field tonight in the first night contest held in the new Memorial Stadium at 8:00 p.m. against the Patrick Air Force Base nine.

After toying with the idea of putting Petrosino in the outfield for tonight's encounter, Aleno has finally decided to put the chunky little left hander back of the plate for a test of the first five innings.

Manager Aleno said today that he probably will start Sanford's Lloyd Swain on the rubber for Monday night's Florida State League opener in Orlando.

Mr. Field said that a brief opening ceremony would precede the opening FSL tilt with the Red Hats next Tuesday night.

The Sports Register

By KENT CHETLAIN Sports Editor

That wonderful feeling is back again and I don't mean love. Yes, the official opening of the Florida State League baseball season is just three nights away.

On Monday the women will tee-off in the most qualifying round. Favorite to lead the local contingent of the women are Miss Betty Bette Bette and Miss Betty Bette Bette.

Other Seminole County entries are Dot Powell, Mrs. Smith, Cecile Howard, Mrs. John Ivey, Mrs. Price Heard, Mrs. Andrew Carraway, Mrs. Ross Adams, Mrs. Hugh Wheeler, Mrs. E. C. Hayman, Mrs. Roy Symes, Jr., and Mrs. Steve Roberts, who will be representing Seminole County Club.

ROLLINS WINS WINTER PARK — Rollins College's tennis team won its fifth straight match of the season Thursday, defeating the University of Michigan, 6-0.

PREP CINDERMEN JACKSONVILLE — Jacksonville's Lee High School won the 14th annual Lee Invitational Track Meet here Thursday with 105 1/2 points.

BASEBALL TAMPA — The MacDill Air Force Base baseball team defeated Robins AFB, Macon, Ga., 8-4 Thursday.

WINTER PARK — The Tampa crew covered a mile course in five minutes, 40 seconds Thursday to defeat Dartmouth.

ROLLINS WINTER PARK — The Rollins College crew rowed a mile and three-sixteenths course in six minutes flat Thursday to defeat Philadelphia's LaSalle.

RSU WINS LAKELAND — Florida Southern College rowed to victory over American International College, Birmingham, Mass., in a crew race Thursday. Winning time was four minutes, 34 seconds.

DAYTONA BEACH — Four championship events were scheduled today in the National AAU Senior Women's Indoor Swimming Meet with the Los Angeles Athletic Club leading the team stand after opening day competition.

Dan Dalley and Joanne Dru acknowledge applause of the crowd in this scene from 20th Century-Fox's "The Pride of St. Louis," showing Sunday and Monday on the Blitz Theater screen.

WINTER PARK — Bob MacHardy, picking up five hits and batting in seven runs, led Rollins to a 13-1 victory over the Florida Southern baseball team Thursday.

The first Masters golf tournament was held in 1934 at the Augusta (Ga.) National Golf Club.

I have seen enough of the Seminoles to know one thing, Sanford is going to prove to everyone it has the best infield in the loop. I think perhaps it is the best balanced, in that the club's power and hitting plus fielding strength will be in the Blues' inner defense line up of Aleno, Ed Levy, Howard Miller, John Imbra, Ed and Joe Parise.

Aleno will bring to Sanford the greatest long gait hitter since Ed Levy left the scene. Miller will contribute some of the finest fielding as will his keystone partner John Imbra.

Parise did gain some consolation by leading the Giants homers with 11 and the important department of run-inning with 97. One record which few better realized Joe set was the lead for leading leadership in home runs.

Ahead - the Nicest Miles in the World!

Well, the day has come! You have your beautiful Golden Anniversary Cadillac—and are off on that cross-country journey you've so eagerly awaited.

You're full of hope and anticipation—but almost afraid it's too good to be true. Can any car perform and handle the way people say this one does?

You come to the end of the street that opens into the cross-town thoroughfare—and the big, easy-acting brakes settle you down to the softest, smoothest stop you ever experienced in all your life.

You touch the throttle, and the great engine starts you out like the flight of an arrow—smoothly and swiftly and quietly.

Almost before you know it, a light turns red—and, once again, that easy, velvety stop. And then the green—and again that swift, eager move into action.

Stop and go—red and green... and pretty soon it dawns upon you that you never dreamed of driving a car that handled and performed like this.

Wonderful in city traffic—no doubt about it!

And then the cars thin out about you—the traffic lights stretch farther and farther apart—and you find yourself on the open road.

Instinctively, your foot goes down on the throttle; but, quickly, it eases up again. For you find yourself really rolling in a couple of hundred feet! So you do a little experimenting until you find the spot where the accelerator belongs for sane and sensible driving—and then you settle back and relax.

You scarcely seem to be moving at all. You handle the wheel with the weight of your hand. You're comfortable—resting—at peace with the highway! The sun rises higher and the road beckons on.

"Where did we plan on stopping tonight?" "Better take a look at the map and see what's on down the line. We're going to get a lot farther than I ever dreamed we could!"

Yes, it's true what they say about Cadillac. Better come in and see it—and drive it—while you're in the mood!

It's the Easter season and we wish our news were all in keeping with the gayety attendant upon it, but since such is not the case, we will bring you the bad news first and then go on to brighter things. Harry Unkela is hospitalized in Deland where, the report says, he is improving daily. The silver lining to this cloud is that "Uncle" brother, Carl Keuffel, flew down immediately upon receiving the news to be with her.

William Sanders is also on the tick list again. He and Mrs. Sanders had rented their house and were preparing to go North to be with their children, when he was stricken. They are living in one of Scott's cabins. We sincerely hope the patient will soon be out of the oxygen tent and able to carry out his plans.

To the Rev. Mr. Edward Kircher, preacher in the Barnett Memorial Church of Enterprise, go our very best wishes for a speedy recovery from his mishap of last week. A fall caused him to break his kneecap. Not only his parishioners but also his many friends in DeBary say, "Get well soon and we hope there won't be too much pain in the process."

Dr. William L. Fidler had to have some minor surgery done and went to a hospital in Philadelphia, Pa. We are glad to report that it was successful and that he is back home and fully recovered. Mrs. Fidler visited with some of the family in Dover, Del. during the time her husband was in the hospital.

Last Saturday was a particularly happy day for Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Dungan. They received word that their daughter, Mrs. Joseph J. Bagler of Norfolk, Va. had given birth to a six pound, ten ounce baby girl.

We hear that Mrs. Charles Youman is galavanting in New

Mr. and Mrs. David MacFarlane attended a meeting last Sunday near Tampa of the Florida Club of the Retired Detroit Police. Their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Harris of Detroit, Mich., have returned after touring Florida, and spent a day with them at Daytona Beach.

At Rainbow Springs last Sunday about 160 realtors from all over the State gathered for a convention. Ray E. Peck, DeBary Realtor, was there and reports that it was a most stimulating experience. The place is most beautiful and the arrangements for the convention were perfect. A delicious barbecue was served before the general business meeting.

The Elks Barbecue in Sanford last Saturday was enjoyed by a number of DeBaryites among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Savage, Mr. and Mrs. John Wiley,

Missouri Hits Flood Crest At Sioux City

Dangerous 31.5 Foot Level Is Predicted For Omaha, Neb., On Thursday Morning

OMAHA, Neb., (AP)—The flood-torn Missouri River threw its record-breaking flood crest at the Sioux City, Ia., area today while forecasters heaped new discouragement on the downstream Omaha-Council Bluffs, Ia., area by raising the predicted flood crest another foot and a half.

The new schedule calls for the arrival early Thursday of a monstrous 31.5 foot crest at Omaha, compared with flood stage of 19 feet.

With other rivers rampaging, too, the Red Cross reported 19,349 families in eight or nine Midwest states are homeless or about to be displaced by floods. This was estimated to represent about 74,000 persons.

Army Engineers estimated a total of 1,249,000 acres of land are under water along the Missouri and its tributaries from North Dakota to Southern Nebraska.

For Sioux City, with 44,000 persons, and neighboring South Sioux City, Neb., with 5,500, the crest's arrival was only minor injury. Surrendering to the water, the city and its surrounding area were inundated and had been a creeping, progressive thing.

Adams Attacks Warren, McCarty In Sanford Talk

McCarty Accused Of Getting Into Bed With '48 Opponents

Alto Adams, bringing his campaign for governor to Seminole County for the first time in this race, lashed out at his leading opponents, attacked the Warren administration as the most corrupt and incompetent in the history of the state.

He did not mention his Sanford opponent by name, but he referred repeatedly to "the candidate from Ft. Pierce who is opposing me," whom he called, "Daddy Boy."

Adams said that while he had not been a part of the State government, though he had served on the Supreme Court, where he dispensed justice between men, he had nevertheless been in an enviable position to know what was going on in Tallahassee, and that while he had been convinced of the rottenness of the administration when he resigned to enter this race, subsequent developments had shown him that it was even worse than he had thought.

He resigned, he said, for the expressed purpose of cleaning up. (Continued on Page Eight)

Office Is Re-opened By Western Union

The Western Union today announced that its recently re-opened local office may now accept telegrams and money orders at all cities where service has been restored.

Hours of service for the present will be from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., except at some of the smaller points where previous regular hours will be observed.

In addition, messages to all points in Canada, Alaska and Mexico and international messages to all parts of the world are being accepted since Western Union cable operations are not involved in the current labor dispute.

Telegraph service here was temporarily suspended on Apr. 3 when the Western Union employees were ordered to strike by the Commercial Telegraphers' Union (AFL). The strike was called by the union in an effort to force the telegraph company to grant a 50-cent raise in the basic pay of 50,000 employees.

Refrigeration Of Celery Is Tried By New Process

On Thursday, about midnight a long line of refrigerated freight cars loaded with crates of celery left the Chicago and the packing house on Beaufort Avenue. The car was packed in ice in the usual manner with the exception of the last car, which was bigger than the rest and which provided an innovation, mechanical refrigeration.

As Charles Reavis, mechanical engineer of the Fruit Growers Express Co., explained it, this was an initial experimental run on celery to New York, and if successful, may be followed by test runs of other vegetables such as peppers.

Already test runs have been made successfully with citrus concentrate from Plymouth in Lake County to New York and Atlanta.

J. L. Gould, designer of the new car, was here from the Frigidaire Co., Dayton, Ohio, to supervise the shipment, which was made at a temperature averaging 36 degrees.

The Diesel-powered electric cooling unit provides temperatures varying from five degrees below zero to 60 degrees above.

Other carloads of celery in the train required five tons of ice for initial cooling, and it would require about three tons enroute to New York for re-icing.

About 550 crates of celery can be shipped in one of these big cars. One of the advantages claimed by the engineers over the usual type of ice refrigerator car is the more even temperature control, simplicity, frozen or fresh and provides more loading space.

Automatic temperature control is maintained at all times, with current turning off and on automatically to maintain an even temperature.

Another advantage is that the Diesel power for cooling need not be used at sidings where there are facilities for plugging in an external power source.

Of sturdy all steel construction, the car measures 50 feet in exterior and 43 feet eight inches in interior length. Interior width is 8 feet nine inches and interior height, 7 feet, 11 inches.

ICC Grants Rate Hike On Freight Carried By Rails

Increase Is For 6 Percent In East

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission today gave the railroads a further freight rate increase, estimated to hike charges by about 6 1/2 percent in the South and West and six percent in the East.

The order, which took effect today, raised the rate on freight cars by 12 percent and on freight cars by 10 percent. The rate on freight cars by 10 percent and on freight cars by 10 percent.

The railroad industry had asked for a 12 percent rate increase. The ICC last August ruled that a rate of a straight 10 percent increase should be applied to all freight in the East and West.

The ICC's order is a first step in consideration of a 12 percent rate increase across the country.

This means the rate increase will be raised nine percent in the South and West and six percent in the East.

This is the 17th general rate increase allowed since the end of World War II.

The increase may be offset by a 10 percent rate cut in the East.
