

This Time The Anti-Trust Lawyers Won A Case Against A&P

As almost everyone now knows, the anti-trust lawyers in Washington have brought a civil suit to destroy A&P. They ask the courts to order the dissolution of this company.

They say that this suit is based on the fact that they won a suit against us at Danville, Illinois, in 1948.

They did. In that case, Federal Judge Walter C. Lindley made a decision against A&P.

Immediately thereafter, in a letter explaining his decision, Judge Lindley wrote:

"I have not condemned the A&P system.
I have not made a finding which could be the basis for a suit of dissolution."

So, now we have the anti-trust lawyers saying that their suit to dissolve A&P is based on Judge Lindley's decision; while Judge Lindley himself says his decision could not be the basis for a suit of dissolution.

In previous ads we told you about the cases against A&P which the anti-trust lawyers lost. We promised to tell you about this case they won. Here is the story of the Danville case.

What Judge Lindley Objected To

At Danville, the anti-trust lawyers made all of the charges which they are again making against A&P today. They were substantially the same charges they had made and dropped at Dallas, Texas, after four federal judges had objected to some of them as "inflammatory." In his decision, Judge Lindley was critical of some of our activities. He threw some of the charges out of court. He did not make any decision on others.

He even took occasion to praise A&P for the efficient job of food distribution it had done.

Judge Lindley said:

"To buy, sell and distribute to a substantial portion of 130,000,000 people, one and three-quarter billion dollars worth of food annually at a profit of 1 1/2 cents on each dollar, is an achievement one may well be proud of."

"No place in the world I take it are people so well fed as in the United States. Nowhere else, I suppose, do food distributors accomplish efficient distribution at so low a margin of profit. In contrast, we are told in other nations the problem is not one of an adequate diet but one of no diet at all."

But Judge Lindley did find us in violation of the Sherman Act. He based his ruling on the dual role played by our fresh fruit and vegetable buying subsidiary, the Atlantic Commission Company, whereby that organization acted both as buying agent for A&P and as selling agent for growers.

Judge Lindley said:

"If I assume for the purpose of disposition of this case that in general the policy of A&P was to operate within the law and attribute to defendants a desire to comply with the law, there still remains the conscious, knowing adoption by all defendants of a plan of action by the Atlantic Commission Company affecting every department of A&P and every retail store which cannot be squared with the intent and purpose of the act."

In his letter explaining the decision, Judge Lindley wrote: "I have condemned their practices through the Atlantic Commission Company."

Judge Lindley imposed fines totaling $175,000. When his decision was upheld by the Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago, we paid the fines. This ended the case—but we did not stop there.

What We Did To Correct This

In the light of the decision, we immediately set about reviewing our activities to be sure that there could never again be any criticism of our operations.

First, the Atlantic Commission Company abandoned the dual role to which Judge Lindley objected and which he said was the basis of his decision against us.

We did this even though the Atlantic Commission Company had been licensed for many years by the United States Department of Agriculture to act as both a buyer and seller of fresh fruits and vegetables.

The Atlantic Commission Company now only buys for A&P. In other words, we stopped doing the thing which Judge Lindley said put us in violation of the Sherman Act.

We made additional changes in other methods of operation which Judge Lindley had questioned at Danville, even though he did not base his decision on them.

We did even more than this!

We went down to Washington and asked the anti-trust lawyers what else they thought we should do to conform to their new interpretation of the vague anti-trust laws.

The only answer we ever got was that we should break up this company!

Despite their claim that they were not opposed to A&P's size, they insisted that we destroy this size.

Despite their claim that they were not opposed to our manufacturing operations, they insisted that we get rid of our factories which produce many of the fine foods you buy at A&P.

Despite their claim that they were not opposed to our low prices, they insisted that we destroy many of the efficiencies that make these low prices possible.

In other words, they insisted upon the dissolution of A&P.

We were still trying to find out from the anti-trust lawyers what else they thought we should do to conform to the law when they filed the current suit to destroy A&P.

Why, Then, Do They Want To Put A&P Out Of Business?

Ever since this suit was filed, the anti-trust lawyers have been making damaging statements that could seriously hurt our business if they were believed by the public.

They say that we were found guilty at Danville of all the charges they are making today. This is not true. Judge Lindley did not sustain all of the charges of the anti-trust lawyers.

They say this suit is designed to enforce the law.

But A&P has clearly demonstrated its sincere desire to abide by the spirit, as well as the letter, of the law.

They say they are seeking to "enjoin" A&P from engaging in certain "alleged" practices. Actually, the whole purpose of this suit is not to "enjoin" us, but to put us out of business.

They say that this suit for dissolution is based on the decision handed down by Judge Lindley in Danville.

But Judge Lindley has said of his decision: "I have not made a finding which could be the basis for a suit of dissolution."

What, then, is the real reason why the anti-trust lawyers want to destroy this company, which for 80 years has pioneered the methods of distribution which have given the American people more good food for their money?

President Says He Will Continue To Battle Labor Law

Truman Declares T-H Act Threatens To Eradicate Labor Gains Of 15 Years

BUTTE, Mont., May 12—(AP)—President Truman said today he will not "cease to fight" for the repeal of the Taft-Hartley labor law.

"The Taft-Hartley law hangs over the head of labor, threatening to destroy the gains of 15 years," he said.

"There it will hang until we are able to replace it with a law that is fair to management and labor alike."

The President, in one of a series of major talks on his cross-country crusade for the fair deal, said:

"That is something we must do, not only for the sake of labor, but for the sake of the whole country."

"I believe profoundly that the Taft-Hartley act is a substantial infringement of the basic freedom to bargain collectively."

Mr. Truman's address, arranged for the rear platform of his cross-country special train, was one of a series in which he has been trying to whip up sentiment for the Fair Deal.

The President said that the "avowed intention" of the sponsors of the Taft-Hartley law "was to strengthen the hand of management."

"To do this," Mr. Truman said, "they devised a clever law which in effect would remove the strength of labor unions."

Mr. Truman struck back against critics of his "Fair Deal" program.

"All of you, I am sure," the President said, "have heard many times about government interference with business."

Music was furnished by a chorus of girls from the Florida Industrial School convention at the woman doctor, a former native of Turkey, Dr. P. Campbell, now an associate professor of cancer research at the University of Florida, told of the emancipation of the women of Turkey since 1911 when they discarded the veil and many old traditions. Many women are now serving in the Turkish National Assembly, she stated.

During the morning session, Mrs. Alice McPherson, superintendent of the Ocala Industrial School, told of the life and work of the 85 girls in the school.

THOMPSONVILLE, Conn., May 12—(AP)—Four gunmen, their faces hidden behind gas masks, today slugged and robbed three Brinks' guards of $15,000 in the pay room of the Bigelow-Sanford carpet factory.

The four men, all believed armed with shotguns, apparently escaped in an automobile after they fled the scene.

The guards were badly beaten on the head and face they had to be taken to the Mercy Hospital in nearby Springfield, Mass., for treatment.

The holdup men were at first believed to be trapped in the plant.

Hairy Indigo Is Being Planted By Seminole Farmers

Hairy indigo is being planted this summer on 3500 acres, rancher and grower cooperators of the Seminole Soil Conservation District, Lee Jacobson, soil conservationist, announced today.

Last summer 200 acres of indigo were planted by district cooperators. The excellent results obtained from last summer's plantings, coupled with the publicity given this crop, by farmers and agricultural workers, is largely responsible for the increasing use of this valuable legume.

The American Fruit Growers Association is sponsoring the project.

Message To Our Citizens

On Monday, May 15, the U. S. Savings Bonds Independence Drive opens throughout the nation, continuing through the Fourth of July. Its symbol is the Liberty Bell, inscribed by the campaign theme: Save for Your Independence—Buy U. S. Savings Bonds.

The year-round Savings Bonds program, of which this annual campaign is an important part, fosters the spirit of self-reliance and the urge for self-sufficiency that, along with individual enterprise, inventiveness, productivity and thrift have carried us steadily forward since the days of our independence.

Through regular savings we build up reserves against misfortune and provide income for our later years, thus lessening the burden upon others. We accumulate funds for worthwhile purchases and investment. The buying power we save up (individual savings in U. S. Bonds alone topped $24,000,000,000 in cash value to date) helps us maintain business and employment through the years.

As your neighbor, I urge all who are able to help the voluntary Savings Bonds Campaign of this year, to do every possible thing to help during the campaign. The more we save our independence Drive goes and the more we spend the habit of regular saving, through the Payroll Savings Plan or purchase of Bonds at home and on vacation, the more we shall have done for ourselves, and consequently for our nation.

In honor of the Savings Bonds allowed symbol of the American spirit, by which we live and grow and prosper, I call upon our citizens to signal the opening of the Independence Drive by the ringing of bells throughout the state on Monday, May 15.

7 Oil Firms Slammed With Trust Suits

Justice Department Charges Companies Are Monopolizing West Oil Industry

WASHINGTON, May 12—(AP)—The Justice Department today announced a major anti-trust action against seven large oil companies in connection with their operations in the Far West.

Attorney General McGrath said he had filed a civil action in the federal district court at Los Angeles charging the seven with anti-trust law violations in the production, transportation, refining, and marketing of crude oil and refined petroleum products in the Pacific states area.

He said this area included California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, and Arizona.

The Department named these firms as defendants: Standard Oil Co. of California, San Francisco; the Texas Company, of New York; Shell Oil Co., Inc. of New York; Tide Water, Associated Oil Co., of New York; Richfield Oil Corp., of Los Angeles; General Petroleum Corp. of Los Angeles; and Union Oil Company of California, Los Angeles.

First suit came from President Robert L. Minkler of General Petroleum, who said: "General Petroleum is not part of any monopoly group or conspiracy with all our strength, since that time, they said, it has conducted our business in a lawful and honorable manner. We will resist these untruthful charges against us with all our strength."

A suit filed some years ago against the American Petroleum Institute naming the entire oil industry may now be dismissed, government sources indicated.

Since that time, they said, it has been decided to move regionally.

The western region named today includes states of California, Oregon, Washington, Arizona and Nevada. The suit is centered, however, in the San Joaquin valley and the Los Angeles Basin, with 28,000 producing wells.

The Justice Department action demands:

1. Dissolution of the conservation committee and an injunction preventing establishment of other voluntary conservation practices not authorized by state law. California is the only big oil producing state where conservation is practiced voluntarily by the companies in other states (in order to state government request).
2. Divorcement of retail service stations and wholesale outlets of any refined petroleum products, except oil refineries and marine terminals.
3. Requirement that oil trunk pipelines and feeding pipelines, owned or operated by any defendant company, be made available for use by any independent producer or refiner, on the same condition as made available to any co-defendant.
4. Outlawing stabilization of prices through any company pooling a price list as an alleged guide to other companies.
5. Making any agreement between the defendants for exchange of information.

Recent Warm Weather In Florida Helps To Counteract Late Spring

ORLANDO, May 12—(AP)—Recent warm weather in Florida has done much to counteract the late spring, but all general field crops in north Florida are going to be late.

The Florida Agricultural Experiment Station and U. S. Department of Agriculture predict production of spring vegetables will be expected to be about the same as last year over the United States, but one-sixth more than average.

Mid-month reports said Florida cotton has been retailed, some sections have fair stands of cotton. Planting is later, and cold weather creates a shortage of the cured tobacco plants with the possibility that acreage will be less than intended.

Freeze heavily damaged the tung nut crop with heavy annual Gainesville 95 to 100 per cent in the Tallahassee-Monticello area.

B. Odham Thanks Jaycee Members For Their Support

Mr. Odham appointed Gordon Bradley as state secretary and said that he would appoint a state treasurer at a later date.

The president concluded his talk by asking all of the members present to make certain that the coming membership drive is a success. "I'd like to see another 200 or 300 members added to our ranks."

Cattlemen Ask S.R.D. For New Underpasses

KISHIMMEE, May 12—(AP)—Cattlemen have sent a resolution to the State Road Department suggesting strategic underpasses on new highways for stock.

Secretary Elmo Griffin of the Florida State Cattlemen's Association said the board of directors adopted the resolution on the theory highway passes under present highways might be too expensive, but that they probably could be included in new work at low cost.

The resolution asked that the committee consider the question, also.

Members of the board were two fresh outbreaks of violence and two of the four struck key rail systems attempt to expand their territory.

Chicago headquarters of the truck, New York Central system said a bullet was reported fired into the cab of a Diesel freight train today as it pulled out of Elkhardt, Ind. The bullet barely grazed the engineer, the railroad spokesman said.

Supreme Court Declares Tom Watson Should Be In Runoffs

TALLAHASSEE, May 12—(AP)—The Supreme Court today ruled in effect that Tom Watson should be in the runoff for Congress in the First Florida District.

Although it left the door open for further litigation, Watson's attorney, Frank Redd, said the order "makes it certain" that the former attorney general will be in the second primary against Chester McMillen, who was high man on May 2.

In a five-line order, the Supreme Court ruled Jerry Collins had not complied with the law in obtaining a Sarasota County voting machine check by which he picked up 100 votes and moved ahead of Watson by 50 votes in the nine-county district.

The court issued an alternative writ of mandamus directing the Sarasota County Canvassing Board to certify its returns without the 100 disputed Collins votes or to immediately show why it shouldn't be compelled to do it.

The writ will be served on the County Canvassing Board tomorrow morning.

The Supreme Court also ordered the State Canvassing Board to hold up its final check of returns to the contest until the matter is settled in the court.

The court majority upheld Watson's contention that Collins' protest which resulted in giving him

Mediation Board Attempts To End U.S. Rail Strike

Eugene Dennis Is Ordered To Jail By Court

Federal Judge Says Red Leader Must Start Term Now

WASHINGTON, May 12—(AP)—Communist leader Eugene Dennis today was ordered to jail in the contempt of Congress in 1947.

Federal Judge David A. Pine directed that Dennis, secretary general of the American Communist Party, start at once to serve a one-year prison sentence.

Dennis had asked the court to delay the commitment until June 23. On that date the court is expected to hear an appeal by Dennis and 10 other Communist convicted on conspiracy to obstruct the war effort of the government.

In 1947, Dennis was convicted by a federal court here on charges of contempt of Congress in his refusal to testify before the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Dennis appealed the conviction. The Supreme Court upheld it last May 1.

While the appeal is in the court case was pending, the government had brought the case against Dennis and 10 other Communist leaders in New York. Dennis was given a five-year sentence on his conviction in New York. He is free under bond pending hearing of the appeal.

Dennis is now in New York City. His attorney in the contempt case, argued Judge Pine to postpone his appeal to the New York case and for that reason should not go to jail now.

Ford said it would be "unfair" to commit Dennis now because of the fact that he will represent

YOU'LL REALLY SHINE HERE—because this is the de luxe version of the popular four-door 4 door SPECIAL Buick, made with silver fender trim and window moldings. Many extra luxury touches inside too. Why just listen to reasons? COME SEE FOR YOURSELF! THIS TIME we'd like to tell you about something that you cannot see in this picture—something, in fact, you cannot know about from looking at someone else in a passing Buick—or from viewing a Buick on our showroom floor. It's the feel you get from a Buick in motion. You are going to find out that it is something like traveling on your own private, jet-propelled cloud—only firmer. Maybe you know a stretch of wash-board road, where you have to slow down, or bounce and jitter. Try that in a Buick and see how you keep a level, comfortable boulevard smoothness. Maybe you're always on edge to dodge dips and chuckholes. Those also lose most of their jolt when you're at the wheel of a Buick—or in the rear seat. In a few simple words—the ride of any Buick—SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER—is out of this world. We could give you a lot of reasons. Soft coil springs on all four wheels, for example—the firm linkage of the torque-tube drive—the distribution of weight—big soft tires on wide rims—the way Buick engines are mounted. Even Dynaflo Drive*—always silk-smooth and free of geared-drive harshness—plays its part in the marvelous Buick ride. But why simply listen to reasons? Experience is still the best teacher. Come see for yourself why the Buick ride is called "matchless"—and how little it costs to replace a jitterbuggy with one of these level-striding honeyeys. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Mary Louise LeFils Weds Irving Vieno Jr.

The All Souls Church was the scene of the wedding Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock when Miss Mary Louise LeFils, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. LeFils of Geneva, became the bride of Irving Vieno, Jr., of Osteen, with Father William Machtrab officiating.

The sanctuary was decorated with white gladioluses against a background of palms and fern. Lighted tapers also added to the setting.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Robert H. Stansland, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a white organza street length frock. The dress featured a fitted bodice with a sweetheart neckline and short puffed sleeves with a full skirt. She wore a small white straw hat and short white nylon gloves and her only jewelry was a string of pearls. She carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Miss Isabel LeFils, sister of the bride, and only attendant wore a pink organza dress identical to that of the bride's with white accessories and carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Home Economics Tea Honors Seniors

The Home Economics room of Seminole High School was the scene of a lovely tea Wednesday afternoon at 2 P.M., given by the Senior Home-making Educational Department in honor of the senior girls and their mothers.

The tea table covered with a beautiful lace tablecloth was decorated with magnolias in crystal appointments. Each Senior Home Economics girl displayed a nice setting of her china, silver and crystal. Individual tables were set with these place settings. Refreshments were served to between 75 and 100 guests who called during the afternoon.

It was called to my attention that the Junior Class of this school was asked to vote on members of their class to represent their class at Girls' State and Boy's State, which is held every year at the State Capital. Different civic organizations of this city will sponsor the ones that are chosen to attend by the students of these classes.

This is about it for now, but just a closing word before saying so long. "The secret of patience is doing something else in the meanwhile." (The Sun Dial)

So long for now.

According to the dossier and color of ink used, protection is supposed to be given against wild animals and knife and bullet wounds. The custom is widely adopted by bandits.

Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

Does winning an Oscar help a star? "Not much," answers two-time winner Frederic March, back in Hollywood after a two-year absence. He is here to act in a six-day role that another actor turned down. Please shed no tears for Mr. March. He is still one of Hollywood's most sought and highly paid actors. He is here to act in one of the sequences in the all-star "It's A Big Country." The part was vacated by Edward G. Robinson who reportedly didn't like his billing. (It will be alphabetical.)

Answering the question about the advantages of winning an Academy Award, March said: "The first one I got (Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde in 1932) didn't have much effect. That was when Oscar was young and the awards didn't get much publicity. "The latest one (for 'Best Years Of Our Lives' in 1946) didn't make much difference, either. It might help someone who is new to picture, but it wouldn't bring any change to someone who has been in the business as long as I have. The actor said Oscar didn't increase his salary. In fact, his returns since 'Best Years' have been unfortunate. He followed the award winner with two films for which he deferred part of his salary in lieu of a percentage of the profits. The first was the bitter family tale, 'Another Part Of The Forest,' which produced no profits for March to take a percentage of. The second was 'Act Of Murder,' which is just now crawling out of the red. "Fortunately I took more salary on that one," he said.

After leaving here, Mr. and Mrs. March devoted 19 strenuous weeks to making "Christopher Columbus" for the British. He agreed with the press and public who discovered the picture unsuccessful. Nor has the actor's stage career flourished of late. He recently closed on Broadway in "Now I Lay Me Down To Sleep," which suffered a grave deficit. But his biggest laugh — he's in the happy position of being able to view such things humorously — was turning down "Death Of A Salesman." Director Elia Kazan and playwright Arthur Miller, who are March's friends and neighbors, wanted him to do the role. "They sent me the script when I was on about the seventeenth week of 'Columbus,'" he related. "I was tired and I hardly had time to skim through two acts. The part looked awfully long and the whole thing seemed confused. So I sent the script back and said, 'No thanks.'"

President Says

"I should like to remind the gentlemen who make these complaints that if events had been allowed to continue as they were going prior to Mar. 4, 1933, most of them would have no business left for the government or anyone else to interfere with — and almost sure we would have Socialism in this country—real Socialism. "The truth is that government action during the last 17 years has been the salvation of private business in the country and has strengthened the private enterprise system against Socialism, Communism and all other 'isms.' "Don't let anyone tell you that the government should retire to the sidelines while the national economy goes back to the days of 'boom and bust.' The power of the government exists for the people to use. It would be folly for the people to be afraid to use their collective strength through the government."

Truman told the Butte audience that the government's most important single economic goal "is to see that there are enough jobs for those who need them. "You sometimes hear it said—and I think this comes mostly from the lunatic fringe among the reactionaries — that the government promises to make it possible for people to live without working. They say our government programs would make us a nation of dead-beats and loafers. That, of course, is absurd. The President, in two addresses yesterday, fired back at critics who describe his "Fair Deal" program as heading down "the last bolt" toward Socialism. In speech at Gonzaga University in Spokane, Wash., Mr. Truman appealed to Congress to pass a pending Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC) bill. In his call for enactment of the civil rights bill, the President said "we can advance the common welfare without harming the dissenting minority." He obviously was referring to the Senate's filibustering southern Democrats.

Earlier, Mr. Truman dedicated Grand Coulee Dam, in Washington State, with a ringing denunciation of the " timid or short-sighted or selfish" people who oppose such public power projects. Striking back against critics, including former president Herbert Hoover, Mr. Truman said "I will not be stopped by distorted claims or by tall tales. I will not let those who imagine that they are progressive, action in a step down that last mile to Socialism, the President said."

High Court Sides With NLRB Orders

Tribunal Says Fifth Circuit Court Had Improperly Failed To Back Up Board

WASHINGTON, May 15—(AP)—The Supreme Court sided 7 to 2 with the Administration today in its complaint that the Fifth Circuit Court had improperly failed to back up National Labor Relations Board orders against two Texas companies.

The cases decided today were among five cited by solicitor general Philip B. Perlman in an appeal to the high tribunal last fall.

At that time Perlman said the New Orleans Circuit Court had been following a pattern of reversing NLRB orders which was "plainly unwarranted as a matter of law." He added that the court's record "bores ill for the large number of (NLRB) cases now pending in the area over which it has jurisdiction."

That area embraces the states of Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas as well as the Canal Zone. The court is headed by Judge Joseph C. Hutcheson, Jr., of Houston.

The NLRB has to go to circuit courts for enforcement of its orders against alleged unfair labor practices.

The Supreme Court today ordered a review of the other two. They applied to the Meza Textile Mills, Inc., of Mexico, Texas, and (Continued on Page 3)

Woman Rescued From Niagara By Helicopter

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., May 15—(AP)—Two men in a helicopter rescued their lives today to save a woman clinging to a rock above the Horseshoe Falls of the Niagara River.

A dramatic rescue was effected with a second helicopter after the first had patched the woman onto into its water and exploded.

The woman, Mrs. Jeannette Bay 25, of Niagara Falls, suffered from shock and exposure and was hospitalized.

Her husband Sigmond, a taxi cab driver, said he had suffered a nervous breakdown and had been ill for some time.

Two park employes, Herbert Sedita and John Paonessa, heard her screaming as she clung to a rock 75 feet from an island about 300 feet above the Horseshoe or Canadian Falls.

Sedita fastened a rope around his waist and waded into the swift current. He was helped by his feet. Paonessa hauled him back.

The Bell Aircraft Corporation then dispatched Owen Q. Hehaus, 28, and Joseph A. Cannon, 30, in a helicopter.

The pontoon-equipped craft landed on the water near the woman but could not approach. The engine failed to check the tilt of the theater.

Lightning Bolt Destroys Oviedo High-Power Unit

Lightning struck and destroyed a high-power transformer outside of the Oviedo power plant in Oviedo shortly after 11:00 a'clock this morning causing damage estimated at more than $2,000. The plant is owned by the Florida Power Corp. of Sanford, Oviedo and Zellwood.

During the heavy shower lightning struck a telephone wire causing a short-circuit and a lot of smoke in the attic of the home of George Means in Oviedo but resulting in no damage. Mr. Means is employed by the Wheeler Power Co.

Considerable damage to the collection room of the Star Theatre, Thirteenth Street and Sheppard Avenue, was caused Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock by the quick blaze that resulted from a reel of film becoming ignited. Bill Harvey, operator of the booth, used several fire extinguishers to quench the blaze somewhat.

No one was hurt at the theatre and patrons fled out in an orderly manner. Said Fire Chief M. N. Cleveland. Firemen mastered the blaze, and used the extension ladder to check the attic of the theater.

Lawmakers Agree To $35 Million Program

WASHINGTON, May 15—(AP)—Senate majority (D-Tex) today approved a $35 million program of technical aid to the backward areas of the world.

The House voted $22,000,000 for the program and the Senate approved $46,000,000 as part of the Foreign Aid Bill.

President Truman announced last week that the full $45,000,000. The House voted $22,000,000. Mr. Anderson said House conferees were "willing to come up to $25,000,000."

Connally, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and leader of the conferees, said the conferees may reach final agreement later in the day on the three-billion-plus foreign aid measure.

The one remaining major dispute, Connally said, is over the House proposal to offer American overseas investors limited guarantees against losses from revolution, riot, seizure and other such risks. The Senate conferees are opposing this proposal.

Highway Meet

W. M. Horne, supervisor of the work to open the highway to the Department, attended the conferees Thursday and Friday of Florida highway supervisors in Gainesville. The program was given under the direction of the University of Florida Department of Civil Engineering.

Among the talks given were those on the construction of the new highway system in Florida. The conference was held at the University of Florida, Gainesville.

PRR Steps Up Movement Of Rail Service

Strikers Form Picket Lines To Protest Running Of Freight Trains

ATLANTA, May 15—(AP)—Four Southern railway passenger trains were halted in Birmingham today when crews refused to pass picket lines at the terminal station.

The strikers, members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, set up picket lines to protest the operation of trains to the west and north from the rail crossroads and to try to halt the railroad's operations to the east and south.

But the road continued to move out freights to the west and kept its eastern freight and passenger lines operating on schedule. It declined to say who was operating the trains.

A PRR spokesman said he could not estimate how many trains the railroad would send today, but he said the number will be greater than previously sent during the strike.

He emphasized that the road is not accepting any new shipments, but is moving perishables and other goods "stranded" when the strike became effective last Wednesday morning.

The PRR freights were running to Chicago and St. Louis, on the north by Buffalo and by Baltimore on the east. The Baltimore and Annapolis line, in support of a demand that a third man be employed on all diesel locomotives, PRR President Albert H. Allen has argued that a third man would have been released from the strike.

The road already has laid off 40,000 of its 125,000 workers. Most of the strike-affected areas lie to the east and south and west and north of here. The PRR is electrified and thus were not affected by the original strike order.

Meanwhile all trains to the east and south moved out by schedule. A big relief operation was underway Saturday at Harrisburg's big rail crossroads. Special strike crews manned some trains from Harrisburg south to Baltimore and Washington and west to Philadelphia and New York. Some regular crewmen remained on the job. These avoided crossing picket lines by moving inside the yards from arriving to departing trains. The pickets were outside company property.

On Friday the PRR, which operated all operations west and north halted at the beginning of the strike, began to push freights out to those directions. A PRR spokesman said 10 freights moved west today, 22 Saturday and 42 Sunday. He predicted a further increase for today as the PRR. In Atlanta, railroad firemen and enginemen refused to man locomotives in 14 strategic divisions of southern railway's 8,900. (Continued on Page 3)

Florida Supreme Court Gets New Suit In Collins-Watson Scramble

TALLAHASSEE, May 15—(AP)—The Supreme Court got a new suit in the Jerry Collins-Lou Watson contest for a congressional election runoff position today before it could dispose of the first.

While it was hearing the Sarasota County Attorney Board's attorney defend a voting machine recheck that would put Watson out of the runoff, Collins filed a suit challenging votes of both candidates in Hillsborough County.

If the court should grant Collins' petition and throw out the returns from Hillsborough, Watson's home county, it would not be in the runoff with Chester McMullen regardless of the outcome of the first suit brought by Watson.

The court took Watson's suit under advisement and announced it will hear arguments in Collins' suit at 3 P.M. today.

Collins' new suit repeated allegations made in Collins' and Watson's suits in Hillsborough County.

He charged that some of the ballots weren't handled with the required secrecy, and that more ballots were returned than had been cast.

Nearly 75,000 People Have Fled Flood-Menaced Prairie Town

WINNIPEG, May 15—(AP)—The number of refugees fleeing from this flood-menaced prairie metropolis rose today to nearly 75,000—about one-fifth the population of greater Winnipeg.

Canadian officials said the evacuation, mainly of women and children, would be speeded up to ease the problem of supplying food and utility services to weary flood-fighters in the water-logged city.

The swollen Red River— which already has inundated six square miles of Winnipeg and its suburban areas — held fairly steady all day yesterday at 90.2 feet, depth 12 feet above flood level. The flood crest surging northward from the Minnesota and North Dakota borders was expected here tomorrow.

Latest section to be evacuated was the French-speaking sister city of St. Boniface, directly across the Red River from Winnipeg. About 5,000 women and children left the city of 20,000 late yesterday afternoon and last night in response to a precautionary evacuation order.

Flood control officials felt concern about holding the giant seven-mile dike around St. Boniface and the Norwood suburb. Officials said thousands of homes in the area would be flooded — some to the roof — in a matter of hours if the dike were to give way. Canadian army engineers were working to repair the dike.
