Sidewalk project receives city's go-ahead

By Michelle Jerla
Managing Editor

LAKE MARY — The wait is finally over for residents in the Evansdale area.

Commission Thursday gave its approval for city staff and the engineering firm of Dyer, Riddle, Mills and Precourt Inc., to move forward with the Evansdale Road/Pine Tree Road sidewalk project. The decision follows months of public input gathering and engineering studies to determine the best funding and design alternative for the project.

Fund availability will determine if Evansdale gets one or two walkways

Thursday's motion included addressing drainage problems and the construction of traffic calming devices and a sidewalk on the south side of Evansdale and Pine Tree roads. If enough funds are available following the first phase of the project, a sidewalk will also be constructed along the north side of the roads.

"What we are proposing won't solve every problem out there," Commissioner Gary Brender said. "But, we will not make it worse. We will make it better. But, it won't be perfect."

When the Evansdale development was built in the early 1980s, there were no city requirements to build sidewalks in the neighborhood. However, as more residents moved into the area, people became increasingly concerned with pedestrian safety, especially for children walking to and from school.

"Sidewalk codes have changed since the development went in," Lake Mary Mayor Thom Greene said. "Back then, many people didn't want sidewalks. They liked the country-like atmosphere of the area."

The engineering firm presented Commission Thursday with four alternatives for the sidewalk project, including the construction of a 5-foot sidewalk on the

Devoted educator dies at age 73

By Marva Hawkins
Herald Correspondent

A devoted and dedicated educator, Theodore "Ted" Levett Johnson of Flagstaff, Ariz. died early Tuesday, Sept. 17, 2002. He was 73.

Born in Sanford on May 27, 1929, to Ezekiel Benjamin Johnson and Carrie T. Wilson Johnson, he was a 1947 graduate of Crooms Academy where he was an honor student.

After high school Johnson attended Florida A & M College and because of his health he transferred to Northern Arizona University (NAU) where he received his degree in history. After graduation in 1956, he returned to Sanford where he taught history at his alma mater, Crooms Academy for ten years.

In 1966 Johnson returned to Arizona and received his masters degree in English from NAU in 1967. Joining the faculty at NAU in 1969, he taught composition literature and minority literature. Being the dedicated professor that he was, Johnson became involved as an advisor to four campus organizations, and served on a wide range of university committees. He was a great trailblazer in the service of diversity and minority student needs at NAU for more than 30 years and was active in civil and political affairs in Flagstaff.

Johnson was recognized with an Alumni Service Award, and most recently the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Achievement Award by the Black Student Union. Students always saw him as someone that they could talk to, someone who would listen and understand their needs. His greatest contribution to NAU has been his quietest one - his influence on students of all backgrounds and his willingness to guide, support, and educate students throughout his career at NAU.

Glassy goodbye after 28 years

This weekend's Sanlando Depression Era Glass show and sale is one of the last glass shows that will be held at the Sanford Civic Center before it is torn down to make room for the Conference Center.

Sanlando show leaving Sanford after January

By Michelle Jerla
Managing Editor

The Sanlando Depression Era Glass show and sale has become the next victim of progress.

After this weekend's event, only one more show will be held in Sanford before it moves to its new home at the DeLand fairgrounds. The January show will be the last glass show held in the Sanford Civic Center before it scheduled to be torn down to make room for the proposed Convention Center.

"We've held the show in the Civic Center, twice a year, since 1973," said show coordinator Millie Downey. "And, I'm definitely sad about leaving Sanford."

Sanford considers car lot alternatives

By Dan Ping

SANFORD — City Commissioners will take public comment on the revision of Schedule E of the Land Development Regulations.

Key among the revisions are stiffer regulations for used automobile dealerships wanting to relocate to Sanford. The regulations do not affect existing dealerships, but several owners have expressed concern about the changes.

When the ordinance was originally presented to commissioners, the regulations called for a minimum one acre lot for any new used-car dealership. Jim Dunn, owner of CMC Automotive Group, called the move a "poison pill" that would force dealerships out of the city.

City planners reduced the minimum lot size to one-half acre. The street frontage requirement has also been reduced to 125 feet, the minimum allowed by the Florida Department of Transportation for roads with speed limits less than 45 miles per hour.

Monday's public hearing on the changes is the first of two opportunities citizens will have to comment on the issue.

Also on Monday's agenda, commissioners will discuss during their 4 p.m. work session a proposed condominium development along Lake Monroe.

A private firm, QG Investments Inc., has proposed building five 10-story structures along U.S. Highway 17/92 on property north of The Seminole Herald building. The company has already purchased 8.5 acres and wants to buy about 8 acres of city land adjacent to its property. The city's property includes the Public Works complex and the Police Benevolent Association (PBA) building.

In a letter to the city, Sid Vihlen Jr., who represents Mehbub Manji of QG Investments, asked commissioners to consider entering an "exclusive option purchase agreement" to begin negotiations in exchange for a non-refundable option payment of $200,000.

Vihlen states in his letter that QG Investments needs the all of the city's property in order for the project to "make sense from a development and a financial

'Great Fire' changed Sanford's future

By Dan Ping
Editor

SANFORD — As the city prepares to celebrate its 125th anniversary of incorporation, it's worth remembering an event that change the face of downtown Sanford.

Shortly after 9 a.m. on Thursday, Sept. 22, 1887, a week shy of Sanford's 10-year anniversary, bells tolled throughout the city, alerting residents of a fire at Altree's Bakery. Crews responded, but the blaze quickly raged out of control, with nearby wood-frame buildings serving as a ready source of fuel.

When the fire was finally extinguished the following day, several blocks of the densely populated downtown had been destroyed and losses were estimated at more than $250,000.

The fire wasn't unexpected. By the late 1880s several Florida towns had already experienced similar disasters, and the Great Chicago Fire had decimated that midwestern city 16 years earlier. Alicia Clarke, curator of the Sanford Museum, said records indicate that warnings had been issued about Altree's Bakery.

"The city was already doing fire inspections at that time," Clarke said, noting that the Sanford Fire Department was created in 1883. "There were concerns about the bakery, and it appears that the fire started in the chimney."

Though the fire destroyed many businesses and personal fortunes, Clarke said the city's business and government leaders took a "glass-half-full" attitude. A building boom began almost immediately. Wood-frame shacks were replaced with large brick structures, many of which not only remain 115 years

Winter Springs man prepares nation in Millennium Challenge

While many U.S. service members throughout the world continue to work in support of the war on terror, the son of a Winter Springs couple is stateside, playing a vital role in the largest and most complex military experiment in history - an experiment that foreshadows how the nation will fight in future wars.

Air Force Tech. Sgt. Pat Buckroth, son of Arnold and Dieu Buckroth of Winter Springs, is taking part in what the Department of Defense calls Millennium Challenge, an experiment that combines live forces with simulations to test the theories, equipment and doctrine U.S. forces will use on future battlefields.

More than 13,500 U.S. military and civilian personnel participated in the experiment from locations through the U.S. Buckroth was deployed from his home station of Robins Air Force Base, Ga., to Nellis Air Force Base in Nevada to take part in the experiment.

In the joint forces experiment, all four services worked together to fight a simulated battle where the goal was to defeat a smaller, extremely mobile enemy that potentially possessed weapons of mass destruction.

Buckroth is a communications and navigation systems technician on the E-8C Joint Surveillance Target Attack Radar System aircraft. The JSTARS is a modified Boeing 707 aircraft used by the military for surveillance purposes and has seen action in Operation Enduring Freedom.

"As an aircraft maintenance technician, I inspect, maintain and repair the communications and navigation systems on the aircraft," he said. "It's my responsibility to ensure the aircrew has a safe, reliable and effective aircraft to do their jobs in."

"The exercise is unique because it's considered to be the first joint exercise that combines not only all of the services, but also the active force and the National Guard," he continued. "It's great to know I'm helping the nation's leaders decide how the military will fight in its future wars."

As the military continues to transform itself in order to meet the world's emerging threats, Buckroth and his fellow airmen will continue to play a vital role in keeping the Air Force on the cutting edge.

False 911 Call

Charles Anthony Jones, of South Sanford Avenue, was arrested by sheriff's deputies Thursday. Deputies and Sanford Police were called regarding a burglary in progress in the Midway area and had a perimeter set up around the area. When a deputy reported receiving a 911 call regarding shots fired and a man on the roadway, the perimeter was called off and officers searched for the downed man. Nothing was found and no shots were reported by area people. A vehicle was stopped and three men were in the vehicle. When the driver exited the vehicle, he reportedly told police that Jones, a passenger in the car, had made the call on a cell phone.

A check with the 911 office reportedly identified the phone number on the cell phone as having made the call. Later, Jones is said to have told officers it was a joke. Jones was arrested on charges of crimes against a person, making a false report of the commission of a crime, and misuse of the 911 system. The driver of the vehicle and another passenger were not arrested.

Traffic Stop

Kenneth Eugene Meadows, 20 of Valencia Street, Sanford, was stopped by deputies on Lake Como Road Wednesday. Officers discovered several bags of marijuana and a handgun in the vehicle. Meadows was arrested on charges of possession of marijuana with intent to sell/deliver, possession of narcotics equipment and carrying a concealed firearm. The arrest report indicated an 18-year old man in the vehicle with Meadows was also taken to the jail, but no report was immediately available.

Shoplifting

John Paul Melendez, 18, of Edgewater Circle, Sanford, was arrested by Sanford police Wednesday. A security guard at a major store at the Seminole Towne Center mall reported seeing Melendez on closed circuit television, removing jewelry from cases in the store, and apprehended him outside the store. When Sanford police arrived they charged him with petty shoplifting from a merchant.

Warrant Served

Brandon Lebron Hughes, 20, of Cowan Moughton Terrace, Sanford, was located by Sanford police Wednesday at 3rd Street and Olive Avenue. He was wanted on a warrant for violation of probation on a conviction of battery to a law enforcement officer. When police approached him, an altercation took place. In addition to the warrant, Hughes has now been charged with an additional count of battery on a law enforcement officer, resisting an officer with violence, and resisting an officer without violence.

Domestic Case

Jimmie Hampton, 41, of Hidden Lake Drive, was arrested by Sanford police Wednesday. He reportedly had an altercation with a female at the Post Office in downtown Sanford. He was charged with battery/domestic violence, and assault/domestic violence.

Battery

Carl Rayson Nelson, 24, of Ridgewood Apartments, Sanford, was arrested by Sanford police Thursday. Officers said he had been involved in an altercation with a female, who was holding a 4-month old child. The report said Nelson striking her cause her to drop the child on the floor. The child was not injured. When officers arrived at the residence, they said Nelson was found hiding in a closet. He was arrested on charges of cruelty toward a child, battery/domestic violence, and resisting an officer without violence.

Gov. Bush declares Sept. 23 'Family Day'

Gov. Jeb Bush and First Lady Columba Bush have proclaimed Monday, Sept. 23, "Family Day" in Florida.

"Family Day — A Day to Eat Dinner With Your Children," is a broad, national effort to encourage family dinners as a way to help children and teens remain drug-free. The National Center on Addiction and Substance Abuse (CASA) has encouraged states to declare "Family Day" as part of their efforts to recognize the central role played by families in providing children with the necessary moral strength to avoid the dangers of substance abuse and underage drinking and smoking.

Studies have shown that the simple act of having dinner as a family can significantly impact a child's decisions concerning substance abuse.

State agencies, community organizations and coalitions have joined with Gov. Bush and the first lady to further promote the Family Day message by generating increased awareness through a brochure, website and a variety of newsletters. The Florida Restaurant Association has invited all Florida restaurants to participate in this event by asking them to offer dinner discounts to families on Monday. For a list of participating restaurants, go to www.myfloridaeducation.com/familyday

Family watchdogs and the new fall lineup

This coming week will begin the new fall season on television. We will be seeing continuations of old shows with new plot lines, as well as over 36 prime time new shows on the three major networks alone. Everyone is hoping you will watch THEIR shows, because the first "sweeps" come up in November and that will tell the tale of what stays and what is dumped.

Nick Pfeifauf

In consideration of this, I looked up past TV shows, and what I found in just a five day period, may bring back some nostalgia in recalling other shows.

On September 19 - ER premiered in 1994; Flipper premiered in 1964, and People are Funny premiered in 1954.

On September 20 - The Loretta Young Show premiered in 1953, Lou Grant premiered in 1977 as a spin-off from the Mary Tyler Moore show; M-Squad premiered in 1957, the Phil Silvers Show first hit the air in 1955, and The Thin Man started in 1957.

On September 21 - NYPD Blue premiered in 1993, Perry Mason with Raymond Burr started in 1957, and the Milton Berle Show, also known as the Texaco Star Theater opened in 1948.

September 22 - Family Ties started in 1982; Friends started in 1994.

September 23 - The only new show on that date was the Jetsons, premiering in 1962.

September 24 - Daniel Boone started in 1964; A Different World, a spin-off from the Cosby Show, started in 1987, the Love Boat started floating around in 1977, Love of Life premiered in 1951; The Munsters started in 1964 and 60 Minutes opened in 1968.

Boy, don't these bring back memories? Many of them are still being shown as reruns, especially on cable and satellite, while a few are still with us, such as ER and 60 Minutes.

It is my hope that new shows will stress such things as honesty and family values. Many will show occupations such as the medical field and courts and law enforcement. I hope these will also express plots that will inspire viewers to be better individuals.

But after over 25 years in the television industry, I know full well these hopes will not come to fruition in most cases.

It's the new season. Watch what you want, but watch what your children are watching as well. You may find yourself being a family watchdog and sensor, but for the sake of your children's viewing, I see nothing wrong with that.

Skat: no small businesses are being zoned out

To the editor:
I felt a need to respond to the letter published September 15, 2002 from Mr. Dunn as it related to the City's zoning regulations driving small businesses out and denying our residents some sort of service. The item Mr. Dunn is referring to is the proposed changes in Schedule E of the City of Sanford Land Development Regulations (LDR). While his letter made it sound as though Sanford is zoning out all small businesses, the issue that Mr. Dunn is concerned about is the proposed change to the automotive sales requirements.

First, let me say that no existing business is being zoned out. All established auto sales uses, at their current locations, would be grandfathered in under the new ordinance. No one would be forced out as Mr. Dunn would have you think. What would happen is that anyone wishing to establish a new automotive sales location, of any kind, in the city of Sanford would need to comply with the higher standards proposed in the revised Schedule E.

These changes to the LDR have been contemplated for approximately four years beginning when the Planning and Zoning Commission started to see a tremendous influx of automotive sales locations. Additionally, input from residents and business owners was taken into account as many questioned why there were so many used automotive sales locations springing up on 17-92, Sanford Avenue, 13th Street and State Road 46. Many were concerned with the size and the appearance of these establishments. The City staff undertook the job of reviewing the existing regulations, taking stock of what Sanford already had in terms of existing automotive sales uses and speaking with other municipalities. The results of this review are the proposed changes to Schedule E.

These changes include, among other things: requiring the site to be a minimum of one acre, enhanced landscape buffers and set-backs, a sunset provision to allow review of the establishment's impact and compliance, a minimum number of service bays and a maximum number of vehicles allowed on the site. Locations that did not fit the new criteria would still have the option to request a variance to operate under lesser requirements. The enhanced regulations will not necessarily drive businesses away, rather the businesses that do develop under Schedule E will become more established due to the commitment made to the site by the business owner and/or landlord.

I have a hard time understanding how improving the quality of a certain land use will negatively effect the long-term viability of the city or how fast food establishments and discount stores would be effected by the ordinance as Mr. Dunn suggests. Additionally, I cannot see the trickle down effect that Mr. Dunn refers to in his letter. If a certain site is not compatible with the automotive sales use, it is compatible with another use. This new use drives economic stimulus, the same as an automotive sales use does, for the landlord, the grocer, the clothier, etc. Let us hope that automotive sales is not the only use that our commercial properties are able to attract.

On Monday night, the City Commission will be considering the ordinance to adopt Schedule E. I would encourage all those who feel that this is an important issue to come and speak. I know that the used automotive sales industry has suggested it will have tremendous support. I hope that all those residents and business people who have previously spoken in concern will also show up.

DBA has never received money from city coffers

To the editor:
Please set the record straight regarding your misstatements in the September 8th paper. The Downtown Business Association (DBA) has never received money from the City of Sanford. The DBA produced the Christmas Extravaganza and asked the City to help, but the City Commission refused. The Christmas Extravaganza was, by the way, one of the most outstanding events Sanford has ever seen. It brought pleasure to and benefited the entire City. The City, to its credit, provided in-kind services (police, fire/rescue, clean up, etc.) They do that for almost all large events.

The City has put a lot of money into Sanford Mainstreet over the past ten years. Your comment, "...and has received little bang for its buck" seems to be a true statement. The Chamber of Commerce is the other organization the City has helped fund over the years.

The DBA has no desire to take the lead role in revitalizing downtown Sanford. The CRA (through a document from John Mercer, Chairman), asked the DBA and the Sanford Mainstreet organization to merge into one organization that would serve as one unified group to represent the downtown business community. I attended a meeting of this new organization where four dozen people voted to do just that.

Someone named Lon Howell has criticized the City for considering giving money to the CRA to further downtown redevelopment. They want to hire an Executive Director to guide those efforts he says. Howell suggests the money should go to "...all the other businesses in the community". He is ill informed. The CRA was created by State Statute to receive tax dollars generated by Downtown Taxpayers to be used specifically, and by law, for Downtown Redevelopment. The City is not providing this money out of its general fund...and it can only be used in the Downtown Redevelopment area.

Sanford's unique downtown belongs to everyone - it is the heart of the City. Without it Sanford would be just another blip on the highway to Orlando. The downtown business and property owners make the greatest investment downtown and have the most at risk. They should play a prominent role in what is done. Of course it is the City's responsibility to help finance downtown redevelopment. It is time they begin doing this responsibly, however. The City must get involved, not simply provide the dollars. The City has allowed its investments into the other organizations to go astray through lack of their own involvement.

Board needs to make decision regarding choir

To the editor:
I was aghast at the article in last weekend's Seminole Herald concerning the Seminole High School Gospel Choir. The American Heritage dictionary defines "gospel" as "the teaching of Jesus" and "the teaching or doctrine of a religious teacher." The word comes from the Old English godspell, meaning good news. Based on the choir's name, I would assume that many of its songs are religious in nature. I find it ludicrous to forbid a gospel choir from performing in a church because there might be some religious content.

I would not want students to be required to attend a church service. Nor would I want students' grades to be influenced by their participation. But what if the memorial service had been held in a football stadium or the Civic Center? Would the choir have been forbidden to participate, or would they have been allowed to participate because the service was not in a structure which is called a church?

The first amendment of the U.S. Constitution says "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion..." First, Congress had nothing to do with this situation. Second, this situation had nothing to do with a law. Third, the amendment relates to establishing religion, and no religion is being established by a governmental body or anyone else. This amendment has been misinterpreted to suit individual wishes far too often. Nowhere does the Constitution say that religious events (church) and governmental bodies (state) must be kept separate from each other. This church/state Publix Super Markets Inc., announced recently it will begin selling irradiated beef and chicken next year. Other grocery stores are already selling it. Some health professionals support irradiation as a way to stop a rise in food-borne illnesses and deaths. Critics say the process can cause cancer. We asked people what they think.

controversy grew out of a law suit challenging the requirement by some states that public school children memorize and recite a prayer that had been written by the state. That certainly was a case of state establishing religion. Not true in this situation.

It seems to me that Mr. Hagerty and Mr. Julian are making policy decisions which are far-reaching. According to the paper, Hagerty and Julian had made the decision to "permanently ban the choir from singing at any event conducted at a church." These two men have made a giant leap from the decision of Hogan and Hartson that participation should not be required to permanently banning the choir. Where is the School Board in this? That is the body which should make policy decisions, not the superintendent and attorney who are employees of the Board. We need a school board which makes policy decisions, instead of allowing employees to make decisions for them.

No harm will come to students singing at church

To the Editor

The headlines in the Seminole Herald on Sept. 15 is a wake up call. To ban the Gospel Choir of our Public Schools from singing at a special event of a memorial service was enough to get my attention.

I have heard the Gospel Choir of Seminole High School at events at the school, and they lifted my spirits and gave me hope for the next generation.

We are taught in our churches to honor those in authority. Our first authority were our parents who told us about God's love and God's authority tells us not to repay anyone evil for evil. Rom. 12:17.

We are to submit to the governing authorities for there is no authority except that which God has established. Rom. 13:1 & 2.

What harm can come to a child when they learn these principals? None.

Do not allow what you consider good to be spoken of as evil.

Schmidt looks up meaning for the word 'gospel'

To the editor:

As I read the article about Seminole High School's gospel choir being banned from the church event, I could barely contain my disbelief. The very notion of a "Gospel" choir denotes religious singing. Obviously the students have joined the choir knowing that they will be singing songs of a religious nature and such might perform in a church.

The article stated that the students were disappointed at the decision! As well as I can imagine they were. I am sure they were proud that they had been invited to such a special event.

I decided that I should look up the meaning of the word "gospel" in my dictionary, lest I was of the wrong opinion of the word. As to the Thordike/Barnhart Comprehensive Desk Dictionary, the meaning of the word "gospel" is as follows: "1. the teachings of Jesus and the Apostles. 2. Usually, any one of the first four books of the New Testament, by Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. 3. Often, part of one of these books read during a religious service." I guess I wasn't wrong in interpreting that the word "gospel" has a religious meaning and therefore, anyone associated with that word would hardly be offended by singing in a church.

Exactly who is the Seminole County School Board worried about offending? Let there be a next time, when the fantastic Gospel Choir of Seminole High School, can pay tribute with their voices raised high! I, as well as many others, will be sure to be there in support! I'm a mother of five children in the Seminole County school system.

Sanford resident 'disgusted' by recent decision

To the editor:

I was extremely disgusted to discover via the Seminole Herald that our illustrious, if spineless, Superintendent of Schools felt it necessary to prohibit the Gospel Choir from performing in the 9/11 memorial at Central Baptist Church merely because the memorial was being held in a church. In addition, he and School District Attorney Ned Julian have permanently banned the Gospel Choir from performing in any event that might happen to occur in any church.

It appears that this Superintendent and School District Attorney are willing to cherry pick those judicial decisions which support their particular agenda. Court decisions which defend the choir's right to perform in programs which happen to be held in a church also exist in ample quantity. These court decisions Paul Hagerty and Ned Julian prefer to cast aside.

On the anniversary of 9/11, I attended a memorial at First Baptist of Sanford. Active participants included Sanford Mayor Brady Lessard, Sanford Police Chief Brian Tooley, Seminole County Deputy Sheriff Steven D. Harriett, Sanford Police and Seminole Sheriff's Honor Guards, Florida Army National Guard Honor Guard and a member of the United States Marine Corps. Should Paul Hagerty and Ned Julian be in dire need of education (and their actions indicate that is exactly the case), all the aforementioned are representatives of federal, state and local governments. Nothing prohibits groups or individuals representing the government (or going to school) from participating in an event merely because the event happens to be conducted inside a church.

Ned Julian stated as part of his case that "No student should be required to attend and perform at an event in a church in order to receive course credit." Some accusation, if he can make it stick. Did Choir Director Bob Maguire make attendance and performance at Central Baptist Church a requirement for course credit? Did choir members have the option not to participate in this particular event without losing credit? Did Paul Hagerty bother to ask these questions himself?

Two necessary questions here, I would call them the common sense test. Are those students who deliberately join a "Gospel Choir" offended by going into a church? Does Paul Hagerty know the meaning of the word gospel?

One last question: Isn't it time to tell Paul Hagerty and Ned Julian to find new jobs?

Further Info on the Sanford Lakefront Picture

M.L. "Sonny" Raborn brought me the following information a few days after the picture of the west lakefront was published on Sept. 4. He knew a lot more than I did about the places shown and is always willing to share information which is appreciated.

The Motors Inn Restaurant shown in the foreground was owned and operated by Evelyn Biggers. Sonny claimed it was a great place for a meal or a quick cup of coffee.

Sonny called the oil storage tanks "tank farms". Barges from the Jacksonville area traveled south on the St. Johns to offload fuel into these tank farms. Gulf, Standard Oil, Citgo and others were represented. They then traveled to Central Florida distributors.

When the tank farm operation ceased, Jim Ryan, director of the Port of Sanford devised a scheme to utilize the tanks to provide a fuel storage facility at the port. Cranes lifted the tanks into Lake Monroe. They were so water tight they floated. They were lashed together with steel cables and gently nudged by barges to their new home at the Port of Sanford.

The bandshell, built in 1924, provided a very useful purpose until it was demolished in 1962. There were concerts, Easter sunrise services, school group presentations and patriotic holiday observances. The bandshell is on the cover of the 2003 Historic Sanford calendars sponsored by the Sanford Historical Society. These can be purchased at the Sanford Museum, Knights Shoe Store and the Seminole Herald.

At the very top of the picture, jutting out into Lake Monroe, is the early beginnings of the Sanford Marina. City trucks and possibly private contractors would back up onto the narrow slip and dump broken concrete slabs, blocks and the like to form a breakwater. Cal Conklin was the designer and engineer for the marina project in 1966. Dredging and filling then took place to complete the foundation.

Bleachers were placed on the river bank by the city for the "seawall superintendents" to observe the activity.

purest sense, he often fought for the rights of those who had few, never caring for the glory or reward of high elected office said co-worker Roger Bacon, a professor of English. Johnson and Bacon forged a friendship when conditions made such relationships difficult. Bacon said Johnson responded to others needs and injustice.

"He blazed trails and forged ahead, sowing they way like a true pioneer," Bacon said.

Deborah Harris, associate dean of students, said professor Johnson was "the wise old man" in her life, always available with a listening ear and heart.

Bill Burke, professor emeritus of English remembers him as the first African-American Professor at NAU in 1969 but said Johnson's biggest contribution was as a counselor, mentor and role model for African-American students.

Professor Johnson was a well-liked member of the university faculty and the community, and many expressed their gratitude to Ted for his service of 33 years.

Johnson retired from NAU and remained as a teacher of a course in African-American experience for the Ethnic Studies Program.

Johnson and his wife of 42 years, Gwendolyn, were home in July to visit with their family and friends in Sanford and Central Florida.

Johnson is survived by his wife, Gwendolyn; a son, Jawando Johnson and his wife Danice; a

Glass

The event originated almost 29 years ago when Sanford residents Sara and Edison Myers decided to organize a Depression Era Glass show and sale — the first of its kind in Florida. In 1986, glass dealers Downey and her husband, Bill, became the show's coordinators, continuing the tradition started by the Myers.

Today, the show boasts more than 25 top-quality dealers from throughout the United States, who display and sell thousands of glassware pieces produced during the Great Depression of the 1930s. Many of the vendors have become regulars at the Sanford show, traveling to the city twice a year from places as far away as Missouri.

Donald Mousseau, a dealer from Daytona, has participated in the Sanford show for 18 years. He plans to move with the show when it moves to its new location in DeLand.

"I feel negatively about leaving Sanford," Mousseau said. "Although I'm just from Daytona, I always stay here during the show. When the show leaves, I think it is really going to hurt the Sanford businesses."

According to Downey, each glass show attracts more than 3,000 people to the Sanford area. Many visit the downtown shops and stay in local motels during the weekends surrounding the biannual show.

"I've had a lot of the business owners tell me they do their best business when the show is in town," Downey said. "I hear many of the shops in downtown are crying the blues."

Libby Ferrell, co-owner of Sanford's Arts and Ends, said her business will suffer once the glass show leaves the city.

"I'm worse than sad, I'm alarmed about the show leaving Sanford," Ferrell said. "The glass show produces the two best weekends of the year for us."

Although city officials have encouraged Downey to return to Sanford after the convention center is constructed, she said the show will remain in its new location.

"I will have to honestly say, Sanford has been super good to us," Downey said. "But, the show will not come back after they rebuild. If I pull out now, I am out for good."

Residents, however, have two more weekends to visit the glass show before it leaves town. The event will continue this weekend and also be held in January.

This weekend's show started Friday and will continue Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., with a $3 admission fee for each day.

Gene Florence, author of numerous glassware books, will be the special guest speaker during the show. He will be available to answer questions, and several of his books will be available for purchase.

Door prizes, many donated by the dealers, will be drawn every hour during the glass show. The Colonial Room Restaurant will provide a snack bar.

Sanford's last Sanlando Depression Era glass show will be held the weekend of Friday, Jan. 24. For more information, call Downey at 407-298-3355 or 407-855-5502.

standpoint." Vihlen's letter to purchase city property comes after Sanford Mayor Brady Lessard suggested profits from the sale of the Police Benevolent Building could fund shortfalls in the Riverwalk project. Lessard said the sale could generate $200,000 to $300,000.

south side of the roadway or the construction of 5-foot sidewalks on both sides of the road. Cost estimates for the two projects are $257,469 and $417,438, respectively.

Other alternatives included the construction of a 6-foot, one-directional shared use path on both sides of the road, and the construction of an 8-foot sidewalk/bike path on just one side of the roadway. Each option includes the construction of median islands and speed tables to slow traffic traveling along the roadways.

More than 20 residents attended Thursday's meeting and voiced their opinions concerning the various sidewalk alternatives. A petition containing more than 200 names was given to the commissioners indicating a majority of the residents want sidewalks on both sides of the roads.

However, there were several residents who voiced their disagreement with the two-sidewalk option.

"A sidewalk is a need," said Henry Fitzpatrick, who lives on Pine Tree Road. "My wife walks every morning. She needs a sidewalk. She doesn't need two sidewalks. We don't need anything beyond what we need."

Funding for the Evansdale sidewalk project is now available as a result of the county's 10-year extension to the one-cent local option sales tax. The city will receive $4.7 million over the 10-year life of the tax revenue, with $622,000 allocated to the sidewalk and drainage improvements in Evansdale. The remaining $4 million will be used for the Sand Pond Road/Skyline Drive urban road improvements.

Mayor Greene said, now that

Commission has approved the continuation of the project, construction on the sidewalks should start as soon as possible.

"We want to begin immediately with the design," Greene said. "We also want to gather public input on the final design, which may slow down the process a little bit. But, it's important to make sure homeowners are aware of what is going to happen in their own front yards."

Local Funeral Home To Receive National Award

National Funeral Directors Association Announces Pursuit of Excellence Winners

Brookfield, Wis. — Gramkow Funeral Home, Sanford, Fla., will receive the 2002 National Funeral Directors Association (NFDA) Pursuit of Excellence Achievement award. This mark of excellence honors firms for their outstanding community service, professional integrity and dynamic public relations programs. Gramkow Funeral home is one of 41 funeral homes receiving the Achievement award that will be presented during NFDA's 121st Annual Convention & Expo in San Antonio, Texas, October 20-23, 2002.

"The Pursuit of Excellence program is the premier standard for funeral service excellence. First-time recipients of this award receive a prestigious plaque to display in their funeral home," said NFDA Chief Executive Officer Christine Pepper.

To achieve recognition in the Pursuit of Excellence program, a funeral home must meet quality service criteria in nine categories of achievement. The categories include: education, compassionate service, technical skills, community and professional service, library or media resources, professional development, in-house staff training, and public and community relations.

Monday, October 21st, has been declared Pursuit of Excellence Day at the NFDA Convention. The day will include workshops as well as the award ceremony. A total of 278 firms across the United States and the West Indies will be honored.

"I'm very proud to be a part of a team who has made a strong commitment not only to the families we serve but to the community we live in", says Christopher Neal, General Manager, Gramkow Funeral Home.

Gramkow Funeral Home Staff: Alan Trueba L.F.D., Mike Browning, Family Counselor, Dale Mills, Assoc. and Richard Wagoner, Aftercare Specialist.

Busy volunteer has forgotten that charity begins at home

DEAR ABBY: My husband, "Brian," volunteers for a wide variety of extracurricular activities outside our home. Consequently, he never has time to do things around the house that I need him to do — and believe me, I don't ask for much.

Last year, Brian elected to take charge of all social functions at his workplace. During the Christmas holidays, he became so immersed in his duties, we didn't even put up a Christmas tree at home. (I was laid up with a sprained ankle and couldn't do it.)

He has also volunteered to make monthly group lunches for his co-workers, yet he never lifts a finger in the kitchen at home. I feel like a broken record begging him to pitch in around the house, but what else can I do?

WIFE OF VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR IN MARYLAND

DEAR WIFE: Your husband appears to be using outside activities as a substitute for something that's missing at home. It's time you stopped "nudging" him and found out exactly what that is.

You can accomplish it faster through marriage counseling than beating around the bush, so stop nagging and ask your doctor for a referral. If Brian refuses to go, please go without him. You'll learn a great deal — and that's a promise.

DEAR ABBY: Six months ago, my brother, "Don," and husband, "Bill," worked at the same company. Bill found out that Don was stealing merchandise and reported it to the police, and my brother was charged with a misdemeanor and sentenced to some community service.

Dear Abby

Don and my parents discovered that Bill was the one who snitched on him, and they haven't spoken to us since. Abby, this is tearing me apart. I want Bill to be a part of my family. He feels he did what he had to do. My family thinks Bill should have kept his mouth shut. What do you think?

STUCK IN THE MIDDLE

DEAR STUCK: Had your husband kept quiet about the fact your brother was looting the company, he would have been an accessory to the crime. It could have cost him his job — or even jail time.

If your family persists in labeling your husband the villain, you and Bill should think twice about rejoining "the gang."

DEAR ABBY: I am a teenager who recently found out my father had a child through adultery. I feel awful. Not because I found the paternity suit papers while "snooping" through my father's dresser drawers while he and my family were out of town, but because how this must affect my mother, his wife of more than 20 years.

Abby, I can't stand to even look at my father anymore.

I've lost all respect for him. We visit the small town where my parents grew up, and I'm sure everyone knows about my father's "secret child."

I haven't confronted my father, mother or sister. I am hurt, confused and angry. They know something is wrong. I feel like I'm having an emotional breakdown. Should I ignore the situation because I have nothing to do with it? Is this even any of my business?

DISTURBED TEEN IN ARIZONA

DEAR DISTURBED TEEN: It wasn't your business until you made it so. Since you are feeling awful — and acting out — it's time to tell your parents what you discovered. Look at it this way: You and your father may both find confession is good for the soul.

Dear Abby is written by Abigail Van Buren, also known as Jeanne Phillips, and was founded by her mother, Pauline Phillips. Write Dear Abby at www.DearAbby.com or P.O. Box 69440, Los Angeles, CA 90069.

Abby shares more than 100 of her favorite recipes in two booklets: "Abby's Favorite Recipes" and "More Favorite Recipes by Dear Abby." Send a business-size, self-addressed envelope, plus check or money order for $10 (U.S. funds) to: Dear Abby — Cookbooklet Set, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, IL 61054-0447. (Postage is included in price.)

Society, museum celebrate Sanford's birthday

By Grace M. Blinnepher Herald Correspondent

The Sanford Historical Society and the Sanford Museum will participate in the upcoming weekend's observance of Sanford's 125th Birthday.

The Sanford Historical Society will hold its regular meeting on Thursday, Sept. 26 at the Museum, but it will have a little different twist. Instead of a speaker, there will be a "Visual History of Sanford."

During an extended social time, members and guests will be able to view various video stations and special exhibits on the city's history. Special refreshments including a birthday cake, will be served beginning at 4:45 p.m. The business meeting will begin at 5:30 p.m.

The Sanford Museum will be open from 1 until 4 p.m. on both days of the Heritage Festival, Sept. 28 and 29.

The same visual presentations will be available for view and there will be lots of activities in front of the Museum.

It is possible that General Henry Sanford himself will make an appearance. The Cabin Companions, a bluegrass band, will perform on the museum porch. Members are Sandy Meloon, Chuck Bose, Jay Bradbury and Dave Weyh.

There will be celery, reminiscent of Sanford as the Celery City; posters depicting Sanford landmarks; and Seminole High School memories such as Angels Eat Shack, McReynolds, and the Salmagundi, plus lots of surprises.

The Sanford Historical Society's 2003 Historic Sanford Calendars will be on sale as well as 125th Birthday pens, and all of the society's publications on various aspects of the city's history.

Be sure to visit the Sanford Museum Sept. 28 and 29.

Celebrating Sanford's 125th Anniversary

The Way We Were: Celery

Feds celebrate in Daytona Beach

After three consecutive years of bad weather, the sun finally shined during the annual Daytona Beach Celery Festival on Sept. 15, at the Holiday Inn Shores in Daytona Beach. During the past three years we had Hurricane Floyd, a rainy weekend and Hurricane Lili. This year there was only one rain shower on Friday at which time we took cover in the laundry room and it passed over. The rest of the weekend was sunny and windy; a typical, wonderful Florida summer weekend which we enjoyed immensely. I drove over on Thursday afternoon and found four of my 1954 classmates already there. Eleven of us went out to eat at Paris Restaurant although one carload got lost and joined us a half hour late. Friday morning we were surprised to receive a complimentary continental breakfast in the hotel. We were also given free Daytona Beach News Journals at our door each morning. Following breakfast, we gathered on the pool deck where the majority of us stayed most of the day. Other former Celery Feds kept coming so there were always other old friends with whom to visit. After a few wrong turns, three carloads of us made it to Inlet Harbor Restaurant for dinner Friday night, while others scattered at various restaurants all over the area. I heard that one group went to New Smyrna Beach for their meal. To the pool deck we went again afterwards, to visit some more until late in the evening. Saturday morning, our regular spot on the pool deck was taken over by some families with children, so we moved to the other end and continued to visit with our friends from the 1940s and 1950s classes all day with several classmates bringing out snacks for our lunch. I know there were representatives from the 1941-59 and 61 classes, but I could have missed some from earlier or later classes. I really don't know everyone.

My 1954 class was well represented with 12 classmates; Freeda Colvin Koopmans, from California; Jimmy Butler from Edgewater; Dicky Moss from Key Largo; Sonny Haskins of Titusville; Carol Loehelt DeBrine from Cocoa; Sandra Dunn Parker from Orlando. From Sanford came Patty Walker Speer, Paulette Cason White, Edward McCall, Jay Jacobs, Jim Houk, and me. Several people with severe illnesses, walkers, wheel chair and canes were there partaking in most of the activities, but resting a lot. We Celery Feds have school spirits that can't be dampened by such inconveniences. I believe there were approximately 170 people at the banquet Saturday night, the largest ever. Others came at various times during the weekend so there were probably about 200 people at the reunion. Our hats go off to Tommye Methvyn Johnson and Joan Dampier Anderson of the class of 1950 who have organized these reunions for the past 23 years. I have been to the last 17 and it is always a wonderful experience. They are now both having health problems, but hopefully will gather again in 2003.

Fire

later but serve as key elements in the city's current efforts to revitalize downtown.

"It was a major event, no doubt, but people didn't sit around and wring their hands about the tragedy," Clarke said. "They quickly made plans to rebuild the city."

Clarke said that attitude was prevalent in many cities that experienced large fires.

"Most of the buildings were made of wood," Clarke said. "Even the sidewalks were made of wood. There were some who had begun constructing brick buildings, and many people saw The Great Fire of Sanford as an opportunity to rebuild the city better than it was before."

A letter from T.F. Huggins to General Henry Sanford, the city's founder, backs up Clarke's claim. Sanford was in Brussels at the time of the fire, and Huggins wrote him a letter on Sept. 23, 1887, describing the disaster.

"I suppose this will cripple many of the merchants but think most of the places will be built up again," Huggins wrote, "and when done, will be of a better class of buildings."

Huggins went on to write: "Hotchkiss telegraphed today that he would rebuild at once, and I am glad to hear the news. We shall now have a beautiful town. The parties who bought the DeForest block say they will build at once, also. Hester Bishop and DeForest will put up another block. The R.R. (railroad) Co.'s say that they will ship all goods and building material at half rates. They are going to put up their depot and everything is going to move in the right way."

Thanks to the efforts of Clark and Karen Jacobs, curator at the Seminole County Museum, many records and accounts of the Great Fire of Sanford remain. Jacobs efforts have been particularly noteworthy. She uncovered newspaper accounts that detail the fire, the losses and the rebuilding efforts. What follows are her discoveries from The Florida Times Union.

FLAME SWEPT SANFORD SUFFERS A DISASTROUS VISITATION
The Business Portion of the City Devastated by a Conflagration THE LOSS AMOUNTS TO OVER A QUARTER OF A MILLION OF DOLLARS

Sanford, Fla. September 22, 1887 9:40 a.m. — Four business blocks in Sanford were burned this morning. The loss is estimated at $300,000.

The fire originated about two blocks in the rear of the Muller building, consuming the buildings on that block, which include Cohen's dry goods establishment, Z. Adams' grocery store, Wheeler's saloon, Stell's building material establishment, and Buckholt's Hotel.

It then crossed the street to the north, burning Parkhurst's dry goods store, and the DeForest building, Adler's shoe store, Vanda

Brother's grocery store, and all buildings and stores in that block.

It then went west, burning the new brick block of Mr. Hotchkiss, Lord's jewelry store, Tomlinson's store, McRae's drug store, Brown's clothing and shoe establishment, Brunley & Harrison's hardware shop, the Everglade Hotel, Doyle's store and all the buildings on that block. The insurance is very light.

The Orlando Fire Department was brought here by a special train on the South Florida Railway. No serious casualties have as yet been reported. The fire is now under control. The Sanford House is saved.

A disastrous fire started here at 2 o'clock this morning in Altrees' bakery, and at this point was in the centre of the business portion of the city. All the buildings being frame, the fire soon spread with lightning rapidity, and took in the DeForest frame building, occupied by E.C. Parkhurst & Co., H.L. DeForest's furniture store, E. Barrett's gun store, E.B. Vanderbor's grocery store. Then it attacked the Bishop block, occupied by Chairs & Co., O Cohen and others. The Leffler block fell next.

Thence it went to the Dodd building, known as the Teahren House. It also attacked the Buckheit House and E. Simon's grocery.

The Hotchkiss block, which was new and handsome brick one, came next. Notwithstanding hard work, on account of lack of water, it had to be given up to the flames. Then it attacked the Everglade Hotel, owned by M.J. Doyle. This being close to the Sanford House, all efforts were ? to saving it and by superhuman exertions it was saved. The DeForest new brick block was saved by a miracle with a small loss.

The Orlando Fire Company was telegraphed for and came to our assistance too late to help much, still it gave great encouragement by its manly help. It is almost impossible to estimate the loss, but it will be somewhere about $300,000 with but little insurance.

Details on the Conflagration:
 The fire originated in lot 7 block 3, tier, 1 in the rear of the buildings owned by A. Muller and occupied by a saloon, kept by R.A. Wheeler, at about 2:50 a.m. The next building east was owned by C. Cohen and was occupied as a bakery by George Altrea. The wind was light and from the northeast. The flames crossed the alley westward, consuming the Bishop block, in which were stores in the following order, westward:

C. Cohen, dry goods, clothing and gen'l's furnishing goods; loss $6,000 or $7,000.
 Arthur Chairs, drug store on the corner; loss from $4,000 to $5,000.

Next to Chair to the south was a millinery store, stock in the hands of an assignee loss about $500.

The upper stories of the Bishop block were occupied by a dentist's office and a cigar factory.
 Next south was a building owned by Hester & Sheppard with a stock of liquors, cigars, etc., loss $2,500.

Then came the Buckheit House, restaurant and hotel.

Next south was the store building owned by D.K. Hall with stock of groceries and crockery, in the hands of William Serrine, assigned; loss $600

Next south was the dwelling owned by M. K. Hoster, not occupied; loss $1,500

In the meantime the fire was creeping to the windward or eastward, consuming next east of Cohen's the building owned by C. Demont, a bakery; loss $1,500.

Next east was the building owned by J. E. Wilson and occupied by Earl Adams & Co. wholesale and retail groceries. Loss on the building $3,600 on the stock

This picture was taken shortly after the fire looking north to Lake Monroe from the intersection of 1st Street and Sanford Avenue.

$4,000.
Crossing the Street:

The fire now jumped the street north and consumed the DeForest building owned by Simons & Gove; loss on building $15,000.

The building occupied on the northwest by E.C. Parkhurst, dry goods and general merchandise loss $20,000.

Next east, the house of C.D. Barrett guns and sporting goods, was destroyed; loss $3,000.

Next east was G.S. Van DeBoe, groceries, loss $3,500.

Next east, S. Adler & Co. shoe dealers; loss $5,000

Next came the building owned by S.T. Drawdy, occupied by R.W. Sims, wines, liquors, and cigars; loss on stock $5,000, building $4,000

Next east, Gumpert block owned by S. Gumpert, loss $8,000; occupied C.S.

Deutch, dry goods and notions; loss $2,000.

Next "Rabbit Foot" saloon, on the east corner, owned by Sims, loss $2,000.

Over Sanford Avenue:
 It then came across Sanford Avenue, east, and consumed the Leffler block, loss $15,000; occupied on the north Max Myerson, dry goods, groceries, etc. loss $5,000

Next south, G.D. Rice, pictures, etc.; loss $500

Next south, H. Barney & Co, groceries; loss $1,500

Next Drs. Wyley & Caldwell's offices; instruments and library saved.

The fire consumed some smaller buildings adjacent to the above.

THE POST OFFICE GOES
 In the meantime the wind and sparks has communicated with the Way Building, in which the new post office fixtures had just been placed with the view of moving the post office thereto. Loss on building $1,500; on fixtures owned by Dr. J. J. Harris $1,500; no insurance.

The next south, building occupied by C. Jones as a restaurant and saloon; loss $1,500.

Next south, "Teahren House," owned by John Dodd, the lower south corner being occupied by W.N. Leffler as a grocery store; loss on building and furniture $4,500.

This house has been recently refurbished, preparatory to opening by the owner.

The fire crept in south of Hotchkiss' block west, into the kitchen and dining room of the Everglade Hotel building owned by M.J. Doyle; loss on building $8,000. M.J. Doyle, merchant, occupied a larger portion of the first floor, with a large stock of general merchandise; loss $18,000.

BURNING A FIRE-PROOF
 The intense heat which now surrounded the new brick said to be fire-proof, building of Fred Hotchkiss, caused it ignite, and it was occupied on the northeast corner by T.M. McRae, druggist; loss $3,000.

Next west, by H.B. Lord, jewelry, watches, etc. The loss cannot at present be estimated much of the most valuable stock being saved.

Next west, Tomlinson & Co., groceries, loss $3,500.

Times-Union editorial September 24, 1887 Page 4

Sanford, is about the last of the Florida cities to be laid waste the fire fiend. Within a comparatively short time Jacksonville, Pensacola, Palatka, Gainesville, Key West, Orlando, Ocala, St. Augustine, Fernandina, Tampa and other smaller places have been visited by disastrous fires. Some of these fires have been so extensive as to amount to public calamities. The origin of most of them has been involved in mystery. Incendiarism of the most villainous kind has been more than suspected in some cases.

It is astonishing how many inflammable business ranges are in use and occupancy. Frame ranges have been the rare, necessitating enormously high rates of insurance, and risks will not be taken even at these rates by the best companies. Five percent, is not an uncommon rate of premium on some of our smaller towns and cities. Such a rate is, of course, ruinous, and it is not wondered at that parties of unsavory reputation have been frequently suspected of "playing for even" against the companies. Few places in Florida have been sufficiently progressive to establish fire limits and require all houses in such limits to be built of brick, stone or concrete, and to be provide for a good water supply. These are important matters and should be impressed deeply on the minds of urban property owners by the lessons of the recent fires. With good substantial building and water protection, insurance in first-class companies can be had at quite reasonable rates.

Sanford was supplied with several small chemical fire apparatus. So far as results were concerned, they seemed to be worthless. The Orlando steam fire engine did good service, but it arrived after the fire had done its worst. A dozen steamers would not have been effective against four blazing frame ranges. Steamers, however, in good hands, afford the best protection to property of any apparatus or machines yet devised. Chemical apparatus are only good when a fire first breaks out, and should be used promptly.

The saloons in the smaller cities and suburban towns have become notorious in insurance circles as the places of origin of extensive fires. They are often boycotted by the better insurance companies, not from principle, fanaticism or prejudice, but from interest.

It is to be hoped that this is the last extensive fire of the kind in Florida that will have to record for a long time. Such conflagrations may be looked for, however, almost at any time until frame ranges are abandoned, good houses built, and adequate fire protection provided wherever there is any considerable amount of property or lives at stake.

Next west, M.S. Brown, clothing, gen'l's furnishing, goods, etc. greater portion of stock saved.

The heat of these burning buildings, although across a street 80 feet wide, ignited a building on the southeast corner of the Sanford House grounds building owned by M.J. Doyle and occupied by Marks & Tomlinson, real estate; loss unknown.

THE SANFORD HOUSE SAVED

The kitchen and rear of the Sanford House were considerably scorched and continually in great danger of being fired, in which event the whole of the wooden blocks from the Sanford House to Park Avenue, west would have been consumed but for the heroic work on the part of a few and the liberal use of wet blankets. The Sanford House was saved and the fire checked in that direction.

The DeForest block, a new brick structure just west of the Everglade Hotel, was also in imminent danger, but escaped with light damage to the cornice, the plate glass windows and to the stock of McRae & Whitner, grocers. Occupying the northeast corner.

The upper stories were occupied as offices. Among them the W.U. and L.T.O. telegraph office, the instruments having been removed, which accounts for the very slight delays in transmitting the news this morning. There was some trouble in working the wires they were cut, but a circuit was finally established.

ORLANDO TO THE RESCUE

The fire department of Orlando, notified of Sanford's distress, promptly loaded its engine and hose on flat cars of an extra furnished by the South Florida Railroad, and the brave firemen soon came whirling to the rescue.

As the fire boys came rushing down First Street and wheeled their engine into the Sanford House yard, a shout of joy and welcome rang out from Sanford's citizens and it rose like a grand tempest above the roar of the flames. The firemen were quickly at work with a stream upon the Hotchkiss block, and the ruins of the Everglade Hotel, which was still seriously threatening the Sanford House.

By 10 a.m. they had subdued the flames, and the remnant of Sanford was safe. The Orlando brigade returned home, carrying the good wishes and grateful remembrances of Sanford for a noble and heroically executed deed.

NOTES OF THE FIRE

There was the usual confusion among the citizens at the fire, rescuing goods to be placed in the street and afterwards consumed, numerous prostrations from heat and over-exertion, but as yet there have been no serious casualties.

The origin of the fire is as yet unknown. There are conflicting rumors afloat, not prudent to repeat, as the citizens are under intense excitement on the question of the sale of intoxicating liquors. The election for "wet" or "dry" is now progressing.

Following the Fire

Wednesday, September 28, 1887

Most of the safes that were in the Sanford fire have been opened. The contents of all but one have been found in good condition.

October 5, 1887

R. & R. R. Phillips have returned from Poughkeepsie, N.Y. where they have been taking business courses.

F. Hotchkiss will rebuild as soon as his insurance can be adjusted. Many who has insurance in the late fire came to grief, word coming that the company had busted, the best companies are always the best—One cheapest in the end.

All fortunate ones seem satisfied with their adjustments. Sanford is now on the eve of an immense boom, and there is no doubt but that we will need it.

October 6, 1887

Some of the insurance companies have made prompt settlements of claims held by the burnt-out merchandise of Sanford.

October 12, 1887

Sanford is not only rising Phoenix like from her ashes, but is considering the opening of new streets and the extension of old ones.

October 14, 1887

The yellow fever scare at this place has about died out and people are going along as though nothing had happened.

Mr. W.H. Stoddard and wife have returned from Cincinnati, where they have spent the summer.

Building is now going on again. Mr. H. L. DeForest will erect a brick store on First Street, near the post office. Mr. A.M. Thrasher's brick store is well under way. C. Demont, the baker, has a new brick store close to completion. Mr. Hotchkiss has let the contract for his block. Messrs. Stone & Gove will put up their block as fast as the work can be pushed. Sanford will be a handsome city within six months time. All that is necessary now is a good hotel as we have plenty of room for such. The union depot work has begun and will be completed by January 1st. The South Florida Railroad Company has a very progressive spirit. It is now preparing grounds at all the depots along its line, and will plant flowers, trees, and vegetables, which will be a pleasing sight to our Northern travelers.

Mr. W.T. Cotter is adding to his new broom mill, in which he intends putting more machinery next fall.

Estimated Losses, Together With a Statement of the Insurance—Loss Almost Entirely on Business Establishments, etc.

The flames were stopped at 10:30 yesterday forenoon, for want of material to work upon, and now can be seen the vast destruction, which leaves our busy and prosperous town in ruins. The call from Orlando brought their steam engine and brave fire boys, which was a great help, although late on the scene. There being no protection by water or steam, we were left to our fate. The Sanford House was saved by superhuman efforts, which saved the balance of the town. If this hotel had gone all the town would have been consigned to ashes.

- C. Demont, bakery, loss $1,500, no insurance
- A. Altrea, baker loss $1,000; no insurance
- M.H. Tomlinson grocery, in Hotchkiss building, loss about $3,500.
- Prof. Whitmore lost his entire stock of musical merchandise, valued at $600.
- S.H. Dutach, loss on stock $3,000 no insurance and few goods saved.

Many more losses will be reported which at this writing cannot be known. The scene was one which can't be described. The streets were blocked with merchandise of all kinds which could not be carried away and was burned where left. The origin of the fire is said to be in the rear of C. Demont's bakery, and at the time, it was discovered could have been put out if a supply of water could have been used, the town not having any protection for fire.

A great many will lose all they have. The owners if the most valuable buildings lots will doubtless rebuild.

The town has been left in the wildest confusion. No reports of loss of lives have been made, but a few persons were more or less injured.

Marshall holds off UCF, 26-21

Special to the Herald

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. — Marshall University's Byron Leftwich had 340 yards passing and two touchdowns to lead the Thundering Herd (2-1, 1-0) to a 26-21 victory over the UCF Golden Knights (0-3, 0-1) on Friday at Marshall Stadium. Leftwich, who was 28-49 and had two interceptions, had two touchdown receptions from sophomore wide receiver Josh Davis.

UCF's Alex Haynes also recorded two touchdowns in the game, finishing with a season-high 131 yards on 26 carries. Ryan Schneider finished the game 17-34 with 260 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions.

After fumbling on its opening drive, UCF's Carlos Thompson recorded the first interception of the season and stopped Marshall at the goal line. Four plays later, Ryan Schneider connected with Tavaris Capers for a 65-yard touchdown pass, putting the Golden Knights on the board first.

UCF's defense held Marshall to only three points in the first quarter. The Herd took a 10-7 lead in the second quarter when Josh Davis caught an 18-yard strike from Byron Leftwich.

The two teams traded touchdowns for most of the second half with Marshall getting its first touchdown on the board at the 12:33 mark. Byron Leftwich's strike to Josh Davis capped a seven-play, 80-yard drive for the Thundering Herd and giving MU a 10-7 lead.

The Golden Knights bounced back with a career-long run by sophomore tailback Alex Haynes. Haynes, who surpassed his previous long of 36 yards, gave UCF a 14-10 lead with a 58-yard run.

Marshall took the lead again before the half on a one-yard run by Brandon Carey. Carey's run finished off a four-play, 64-yard drive. Moments before the half ended Marshall put three more points on the board with a 22-yard field goal by Curtis Head.

Marshall's 11-play, 80-yard drive gave the Thundering Herd the first and only SANFORD — Lyman finally showed the offense that most people were expecting all season Friday night.

Victor Johnson, J.J. Bass and Travo Woods led the way as the Greyhounds jumped out to a big early lead and held off host Seminole, 35-22, in a Seminole Athletic Conference football game at Thomas E. Whigham Stadium.

Lyman (1-2) scored on its first three possessions and five of the first six times it had the ball as the Greyhounds built an insurmountable 35-7 lead with 6:46 to go in the third period.

In fact, Lyman did not attempt a punt until there was 4:57 left in the game, and that attempt was blocked.

The Fighting Seminoles, also 1-2, dominated the last quarter and a half of the game, but it proved to be too little, too late.

The Greyhounds took the opening kickoff and got excellent starting position at their own 37.

The eventual scoring drive did not start well, however, as Lyman was flagged for 15 yards of penalties on its first two plays.

Seminole's Jeff Bowers (No. 10, above) gets ahold of Lyman's Victor Johnson as he tries to bring down the senior signal-caller. Johnson and Bowers both had big games, but as the Greyhounds' Cormat Franklin (No. 5, right) shows, Lyman was the best on this night, taking a 35-7 lead in the third quarter and holding off a Fighting Seminole rally to win its first game of the season, 35-22, at Thomas E. Whigham Stadium. The Tribe and Greyhounds were the only SAC teams to not open district play on Friday. They will begin next Friday on the road with Seminole going to Sandalwood and Lyman going to Winter Springs.

Tribe tripped by potent duo

SANFORD — This past week did not prove to be very kind for the Seminole High School girls volleyball team as it fell to a pair of powerful squads in straight games.

On Tuesday, the Fighting Seminoles traveled to Oviedo and never could get anything going against the two-time state semifinalists, being humbled, 15-4 and 15-15, by the Class 6A No. 10 state ranked Lions (11-2).

Katie McCosh had 15 assists, four service aces and four kills and Julie Darty eight kills for Oviedo.

"We did not play well at all," said Seminole head coach Beth Corso. "We could not make anything happen. Our attack left on the bus that never came back to take us home. It was a big disappointment. Hope we learned something this night!"

The Tribe then returned home to Bill Fleming Memorial Gymnasium on Wednesday and played much better against Class 5A No. 6 state ranked Pine Ridge (6-0).

The team had two goals going in, to attack (pound the ball) and execute, and did so for the most part with eight assists, 14 digs, four service aces, 10 kills and only six service receiving errors. But the hosts still could not overcome the veteran

Panthers in falling, 15-7 and 15-10.

"We played much better tonight," said Corso. "However, we came up short in game two because of a few misgoes. Our attack and defense was good in the second game. We have three matches next week and five days to get ready. We have to focus on smart aggressive play and executing!"

Sara Pegram had three kills and two solo blocks, while Hollie Cowan had five digs and one kill, Amanda Howard and sophomore Shannon Proulx had one block assist and two kills each, Andrea Poloche had one kill and three digs, and Sara Suddes had one kill.

Seminole (3-6) will play on the road at Lake Brantley on Tuesday and DeLand on Thursday and host Class 5A No. 2 state ranked Winter Springs on Wednesday at Bill Fleming Memorial Gymnasium. All three varsity contests are set for a 7 p.m. start.

On Tuesday, Lake Mary and Lake Brantley hooked up in a monster contest with the Rams surviving, 16-14 and 15-12.

Angie Pressey had 22 kills and Hannah Biederman 10 kills, while Jamie Todd dished out 27 assists for the Rams. For the Patriots, Kristin Broda had 13 assists and Wade had six kills.

Pressey continued her strong play on Wednesday with seven kills as Lake Mary (8-2) See Preps, Page 2B

Bears bounced by Bucs

DAYTONA BEACH — The beginning of the season has not been kind to the young Winter Springs football team.

And while it is a little disappointing to see the defending district runners-up at 0-3, it was not totally unexpected when you look at the schedule.

The Bears have played a brutal schedule playing 2001 play-off teams Lake Brantley, Oviedo (both Class 6A teams) and two-time defending district champion and current No. 6 Class 5A state ranked Mainland.

And to make matters worse, all three games have been on the road.

The final game of the trilogy came Thursday night when Winter Springs fell to the Buccaneers, 38-6, at Daytona Beach Municipal Stadium.

While not much went right for the Bears in the district opener, they can take solace in the fact that they are the first team to score off Mainland this season. The Buccaneers had blanked their first two opponents, New Smyrna Beach and DeLand, 21-0 and 39-0, respectively.

Mainland took control right from the start, scoring 22 points in the first nine minutes of the game and leading 36-0 at half-time.

The Winter Springs defense did come to life in the second half, holding the Buccaneers to only 19 total yards.

In fact, statistically the Bears' defense was strong holding the potent Mainland attack to only 184 yards and star sophomore quarterback Jonathan Garner to a 4-for-11 night through the air. Unfortunately, two of the completions were for touchdowns.

Winter Springs could get nothing going with its ground game, being held to a minus-22 yards and being tackled 20 times for losses.

The visitors also gave away 18 points on mistakes, having one fumble returned for a touchdown and another being returned to the 1-yard line to set up another touchdown and twice snapped the ball out of the end zone for two safeties.

Senior wide receiver Kyle Hill did have a good night statistically for the Bears, scoring the team's only touchdown on an 11-yard pass from Jacob Garcia. For the night Hill caught three passes for 28 yards and carried the ball once for 44 yards on a reverse.

Winter Springs will finally get to play on its own A.W. Epps Sports Complex turf next Friday night, hosting Lyman in a Class 5A-District 3 game starting at 7:30 p.m. topped Lake Howell, 15-5 and 15-10. Kelly Sullivan also had seven kills for the Rams, while Kristen Patton dished out 13 assists.

On Thursday, Oviedo opened play in a tournament at the Disney Wide World of Sports Complex with a 15-5 and 15-1 thrashing of Tampa Jefferson.

McCosh had another strong all-around match with 14 assists, four aces and four digs. Nellie Liljenquist added eight kills for the Lions.

Undeclared Winter Springs tuned up for this weekend's big tournament at Bishop Moore with a straight games victory over Lyman.

Ally Hock and Lorin Lukas led the way with seven and six kills, respectively, while Erin Franz had four service aces and Kelsey Combes set up 21 assists as the Bears won 15-6 and 15-9.

Lake Brantley fell to 2-4 in a straight games loss at DeLand (4-3), 15-8 and 15-5. The victory was vengeance for the homesteading Bulldogs, who lost to the Patriots early in the season.

In Seminole Athletic Conference Bowling action from Wednesday, Lake Mary and Oviedo won in both the boys and girls, while Seminole's boys won and the girls tied their match.

The Rams topped Lyman, 13-5 in girls and 10-8 in boys; the Lions topped Lake Brantley, 18-0 in girls and 10-8 in boys; while Seminole got the better of Lake Howell in the boys, 13.5-to-4.5, and the Fighting Seminoles and Silver Hawks girls split 18 games.

In girls slow pitch softball action on Wednesday, Seminole improved to 5-1 with an exciting 5-4 victory over Lake Brantley at the Seminole High School Softball Complex.

Megan Pickren lined a game-winning single in the bottom of the seventh inning to give the Tribe the win over the Patriots. Pickren had two hits in the game, while Kara Lively blasted her third home run of the season to back the hurling of winning pitcher Mindy Duvall.

Lake Brantley (4-3) bounced back against Winter Springs, stopping the Bears (0-7), 6-1. Richard went 2-for-3 with two RBI for the Patriots with Val Dixon getting the pitching victory.

The late game between Seminole and Winter Springs had to be postponed because of lighting problems.

In games at Oviedo, Lyman won a pair of games, routing Lake Howell, 11-0, and edging the host Lions (3-3), 2-1, on Katie Pickelsimer's single in the eighth inning.

Lake Howell (2-2) and Oviedo both gained splits on the night, however, as both teams beat Lake Mary (0-4), the Silver Hawks outscoring the Rams, 5-3, and the Lions doubling the score on the visitors, 10-5, behind the hitting of Dunn (2-for-3 with a double) and the pitching of Labrador.

But the penalties only proved to be slight distraction as Johnson led a ground attack that covered 35 yards on seven plays before the 6-foot-4 senior quarterback found Woods alone behind the Seminole defense for a 44-yard touchdown pass. New kicker Chance Morray added the extra point and the Greyhounds led 7-0 with 7:40 to go in the first quarter. As it has in every game so far, the Tribe offense got off to a slow start, going three plays and out. This time it was better fingers as the first two plays saw Seminole receivers drop wide open passes from Mike McKenzie. Lyman took over at its own 47 and went on another sustained ground attack, marching 40 yards on nine plays before Johnson again went to the air and hit Cormart Franklin for a 13-yard touchdown pass. Kevin McGrew made the big play on the drive for the Greyhounds, pouncing on a Johnson fumble one play before the touchdown when a Seminole player lost track of where the ball was. The Tribe then got back into the game by driving 70 yards on eight plays that covered the end of the first quarter and the start of the second quarter. McKenzie's passing did most of the damage as the junior hit Denzel Lingard for passes of 15 and 10 yards before connecting with Chris Moring for a 25-yard touchdown pass. Kevin Harris added the extra point and the score was 14-7 with 9:23 left in the half. But Lyman was not ready to roll over and ate up almost seven minutes in going 81 yards. Johnson did most of the damage hitting Franklin for 11 yards and Woods for 39 and gaining 34 yards, including a 31-yard gallop, on four carries before scoring himself from the three-yard line. The Greyhound defense then settled the game for all intents and purposes in the third quarter. On the Tribe's first possession, Adam Irvin hit McKenzie on a blind blitz just as he released the ball and Jimmy Rodriguez was able to come up with an interception. Two plays later Johnson went deep again, finding Sean Glester for a 24-yard touchdown pass. Seminole was mounting a nice drive on the next possession, but Rodriguez just got a finger on a pass on fourth and eight at the Lyman 39. On the next play, Bass took off on a 61-yard scoring run and when Morray added the extra point it was 35-7 with 6:46 left in the third quarter. The Tribe never quit and came back with nine quick points before the quarter ended. Deon Casey capped a eight-play, 80-yard drive with an impressive 36-yard touchdown run and on the first play after the kick, a bad pitch ended up being a safety when Travis Knight tackled Woods in the end zone. With the ball back, Seminole was on another drive, but a pass was dropped on third and six and the Tribe decided to go for a field goal as there was still time left. But Irvin came up big again, just getting a piece of the 27-yard try. Seminole held on the Greyhounds' next possession and forced the first punt attempt of the night. Jeff Bowers, who teamed with his brother Tommy and Knight to lead the Seminole defense all night, broke through and blocked the kick and the Tribe took over on the 17. Five plays later, McKenzie found Mike Harlow for a 1-yard touchdown, but there was only 3:02 left in the game and the hosts had no time outs remaining. Both teams will open district play next Friday on the road. Seminole will be in Jacksonville to face Sandalwood and Lyman will be at Winter Springs. Both games are set for a 7:30 p.m. kickoff. Look in Wednesday's Herald for a box of this game.

points of the third quarter at the 8:06 mark. Leftwich connected on a 36-yard pass to Davis, who recorded his second touchdown reception of the game. A failed two-point conversion resulted in a Marshall 26-14 lead that lasted for the rest of the quarter. Haynes answered for the Golden Knights in the fourth quarter, scoring his first touchdown reception on a 19-yard shovel pass from Schneider. UCF's drive with 4:39 left in the game looked to be the last chance for the Golden Knights. A third down play that nearly resulted in disaster — Schneider fumbled the ball and had it bounce directly back to him — ended up being a 28-yard gain for Doug Gabriel and a first down for UCF. On the next play Schneider threw his first interception of the game to JT Rembert, who recorded his first interception of the season. However, the Golden Knights bounced right back from the Schneider interception and had another chance to take the lead. Asante Samuel picked off Leftwich with 2:10 remaining in the game. With 1:54 remaining and a fourth and three, Schneider's attempt to Jimmy Fryzel was picked off by Terence Tarpley. Marshall opted to run out the clock by keeping the ball on the ground the rest of the game. UCF will play its first home game of the 2002 season next Saturday against Liberty.

LIONS, RAMS STILL UNBEATEN

Oviedo continued its amazing run on Friday, posting its fourth straight shutout overall and third in the regular season with a 27-0 victory over district foe Jacksonville Sandalwood Friday night at John Courier Field. Lake Mary also remained unbeaten, rolling over Spruce Creek, 17-7, in the opening district game for those two clubs. No score was received on the Lake Howell-Bayside or Lake Brantley-Jacksonville White games. A full recap of these four game will appear in Wednesday's Herald.

Making Spirits Bright

Ixora Garden Club prepares for 'the social event' of the season

By Michelle Jerla
Managing Editor

It may be a few weeks before the beginning of the holiday season, but Gerry Weldon's house already looks like Christmas has arrived.

Holiday wreaths, miniature Christmas trees and colorful dried flower arrangements are carefully placed in different rooms throughout the house. The aroma from the kitchen smells like homemade cookies.

Weldon, however, isn't trying to get a jump on her holiday decorating and baking. The Seminole resident, along with her fellow Ixora Garden Club members, is preparing for the club's biennial "Making Spirits Bright."

"We've been doing this for years and years," club President Sally Green said. "We can't do it every year, because there is so much to do to prepare for it."

Preparations began in May when club members started meeting monthly at each other's homes to make crafts and other items for the event. Outside of the regular meetings, many members spent hours at their own homes making wreaths, cornucopias and other seasonal paraphernalia for holiday shoppers.

"We'll have items that will make great gifts, but we'll also have items to decorate your own house for the upcoming holidays," said Barbara Chapman, the club's public relations coordinator. "Our theme is fall this year, so we'll have dozens of items to help people get ready for the season."

The reason the women work so hard preparing for the event is simple — they support their community. Money raised from the biennial event is used for civic beautification in the greater Sanford area. Some of Ixora's past projects include sponsoring the Student Museum's Earth Day event; landscaping at the Sanford Historic Museum; providing the original hanging baskets on 1st Street; and landscaping at all Habitat Houses built in Seminole County.

Recently, the club donated $3,500 for landscaping at the Naval Air Station Memorial Park, where the historical Vigilante plane will be displayed. Ixora has also helped with landscaping at various schools, including Sanford Middle, Seminole High, the Hopper School, and Idyllwilde, Heathrow and Wilson elementary schools.

The Ixora Garden Club of Sanford was founded in 1965 by a group of women that shared a common interest. Although they gathered to learn about various gardening techniques and ecology issues, their main focus was civic duty.

Today, the group has 39 members, and they continuously find ways to beautify and help the community.

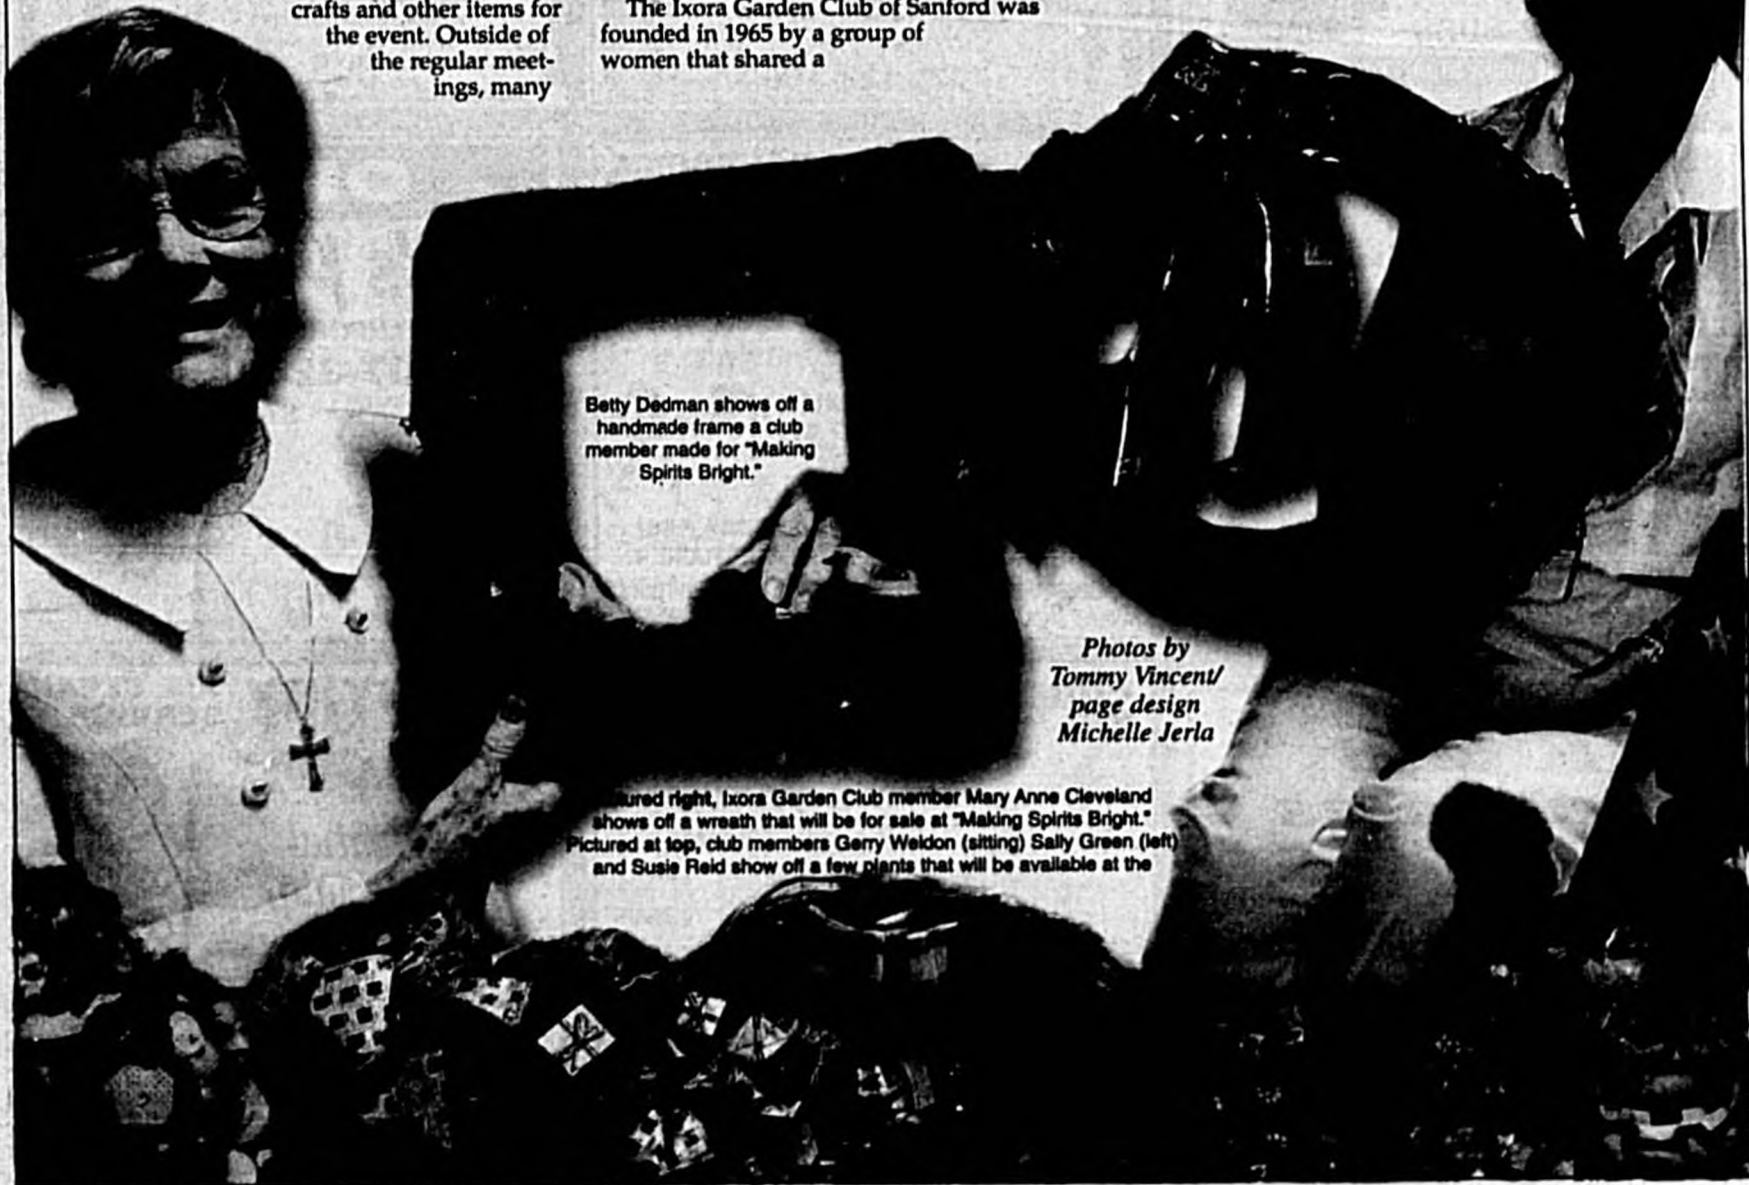

Ixora's "Making Spirits Bright" luncheon will be held Saturday, Oct. 12, in the Sanford Civic Center. Doors open at 10 a.m. and close at 2:30 p.m. Cost is $8 per person and includes admission and luncheon. Tickets can be purchased from any member or by calling 407-829-2639.

Along with seasonal decorations, club members will have plants and baked goods for sale.

"We'll have something for everyone and for any budget," Chapman said.

Chapman emphasized next month's luncheon should not be missed.

"In my opinion, this is the social event of the season," Chapman said. "People really look forward to it. The attendance is usually more than 350 people."

DAR honors Constitution as season opens

Members of Sallie Harrison Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, opened the season on Sept. 13 with a luncheon meeting at the Sanford Garden Club. Regent Virginia Powell welcomed

..... members and guests.
The following report was submitted by the chapter: The program, presented by the Executive Board members, featured nine patriots who were among those gathered in Philadelphia from May to September, 1787, and who are remembered for their dedication in creating a Constitution which established the rights, privileges and responsibilities of American citizenship. The nine signers featured in the program were: William Blount, Richard Dobbs Spaight and Hugh Williamson from North Carolina; John Rutledge, Charles Cotesworth Pinckney, Charles Pinckney and Pierce Butler from South Carolina; and William Few and Abraham Baldwin, from Georgia. A quiz followed with spirited response among members.

Pat Fox led the Pledge of Allegiance; Libby Boyd led the American's Creed and Sandra Thomas led The National Anthem. A special 9-11 tribute served as the National Defense report and was read by Mary Williams. In part, she read a poem entitled "The Lady."

Lois Somerville read the President General's message, after which the Regent thanked Mildred Lind and Fran Morton for donating a beautiful American flag and stand. Members also expressed appreciation for the new Chapter flag, donated by Virginia Powell.

The Regent presented new members: Barbara Stanley, Sandra Hux and Sandra Ann Thomas, by transfer, and Mardi Snider by application. Registrar Nancy Williams welcomed them and presented them with memberships packets.

Vanra Decker, senior president of Fort Mellon Society, Children of the American Revolution, reported to the Chapter that the CAR Society held its organizational meeting recently. The National C.A.R. Society sponsored a Signature Project to commemorate the 9-11 tragedy. First Lady Laura Bush commended the C.A.R. for its project. The three area Page Private Schools included all of National's recommendations in their observance of the 9-11 tragedy.

Sallie Harrison Chapter has been designated a "Commemorative Community," sponsored by the Defense Department to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Korean War.

Members voted to donate a flag stand and pole topped with an eagle to the Vigilante Conference Room at the Orlando Sanford Airport. Member Nancy Williams will donate a flag, in memory of her father. The Vigilante Navy Jet Reconnaissance aircraft flew out of what was then the Sanford Naval Air Station in the 1960s. The Vigilante will be located to the right of the entrance to the Airport and will be in a park. A memorial dedication is planned for Memorial Day in 2003. One thousand or more Navy veterans are expected to attend.

The Regent presented a 40-year membership certificate to Vanra Decker. She also announced that the October meeting will be on a Saturday. Chaplain Mary Williams opened and closed the meeting with prayer.

Cruising the "Med"

Mary and Barry Hilliman have returned from an "awesome" Mediterranean cruise aboard Royal Caribbean's "Splendour of the Sea."

They were joined in Barcelona, Spain by their daughter, Laurie, and her husband, Lt. Mike Hartson who is stationed in Germany. The Hartsons spent a week exploring the Barcelona beaches prior to meeting her parents.

The foursome reveled in the gracious hospitality extended them at their hotel in Barcelona before boarding ship. "We were treated like celebs," Mary said. Aboard ship, the two couples had adjoining staterooms and verandas which offered them a spectacular view of the panoramic harbors along the ship's route.

Their first stop was the French Riviera where they visited Nice and Villefrance. A born racing aficionado, Barry was in hog's heaven over taking a spin on the Grand Prix Motor Race Circuit at Monaco, which they all enjoyed.

Also at the overly-crowded Monaco, they toured the Royal Palace and the final resting place of Princess Grace who was killed in an automobile accident. The four Americans wouldn't dare leave Monte Carlo country without testing their luck at the Grand Casino there.

The family took a private tour of Rome which Mary said was "almost perfect."

Here they visited St. Peter's Basilica, the Vatican Museum, Sistine Chapel, the Colosseum and other historical sites. They were amazed at the body of Pope John 23 entombed in glass.

At Florence, they admired renowned artist

Parents need to teach their children to do the 'write' thing

QUESTION: I've always had an interest in creative writing, primarily because I had a teacher who encouraged me to express myself and gave me the skills to do it. My kids, however, have not had that exposure. The school system just doesn't teach writing skills anymore. How did you come to be a writer, and how might I give my children a nudge in that direction?

DR. DOBSON: It is true that writing skills are seldom taught today. That was evident a while back when I was considering hiring a Ph.D. candidate from a large university. I called her major professor for a recommendation. He spoke highly of this woman and said he was sure she would do a good job for me. I then asked if she was an adequate writer. He said:

James Dobson
"Focus on Family"

"Are you kidding? None of my students have strong writing skills. Young people don't learn to put their thoughts on paper these days." He was right!

It hasn't always been that way. I remember diagramming sentences and learning parts of speech when I was in elementary school. It was a major part of the curriculum. Also, my parents encouraged and helped me to grow in this area. I wrote a letter to a friend when I was 9 years old. My mother then suggested that we read it together. I had written, "Dear Tom, how are you? I am just fine." My mom asked me if I thought that sounded a little boring. She said, "You haven't said anything. You used a few words, but they have no meaning." I never wrote that phrase again, although that is the typical way a child begins a letter.

Looking back, I can see how, even at an early age, my mother was teaching me to write. In addition, I was also fortunate to have a few English teachers who were determined to teach me the fundamentals of composition. I had one in high school and another in college who insisted that I learn grammar and composition. They nearly beat me to death but I'm glad they did. I earn a living today, at least in part, with the skills they taught me. I would especially like to say "thanks" to Dr. Ed Harwood. His classes were like Marine boot camp, but what I learned there was priceless.

It's not terribly difficult or time-consuming to encourage and teach kids some of the basics of grammar and composition. One approach is to ask a family member to correspond with your child

Golf Tournament
First Baptist Church of Sanford will hold a fund raiser golf tournament Saturday, Sept. 28 at Rolling Hills Country Club. The event will begin at 12:30 p.m. with a shotgun start. The tournament will be a four man team scramble to benefit missionary work. Individual players are $85, which includes dinner and entry into individual competitions. Sponsorship packages are still available. To enter or become a sponsor, call 407-302-7556, and leave your name and phone number. Entries should be made by Sept. 20.

Reddick Memorial
Reddick Memorial First Born Church, 3155 Kings Road in Sanford will hold the annual Family Day, Sept. 29, beginning at 11 a.m. Speaker will be Mother O.M. Dames of Hobe Sound. Also hear the Granny Boys and the Voices of Triumph. Everyone is cordially invited.

Women's Conference
House of Refuge Ministries will be holding its 12th annual Women's Conference at the Rosen Plaza Hotel in Orlando on Oct. 4 and 5. The theme is "Going Home Another Way." Speakers for the conference include Dr. Yvonne Capehart, Founder of Sister Keeper in Pensacola; and Prophetess Vernice Parkerson-Hooks of Orlando.

There is a registration fee of $55 which includes two buffet meals. For information, call 407-324-4711.

House of Refuge
The House of Refuge, 1001 Celery Avenue, Sanford, will hold its annual Men's Day Service, Oct. 20. The speaker at the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services will be Pastor Kenneth Benjamin of Jackson, Miss. This noted speaker is a member of the IMON, and has delivered an anointed word at the House of Refuge before. Everyone is invited to help celebrate this occasion. For information, call 407-324-4711.

and encourage him or her to write back. Then when the reply is written, sprinkle a few corrections, such as the one my mother offered, with a generous portion of praise. Finally, notice that youngster to engage in a little creative expression. As for what you can do to compensate for the de-emphasis on writing in school, I really don't know — except to seek instruction outside the classroom. The teaching of writing has gone out of style — much like the old "homemaking" classes for girls. But it is an incredibly valuable craft that can be used in a wide variety of settings. Don't let your children grow up without developing it.

QUESTION: If punishment is never indicated for an infant, what form of discipline is appropriate at that age?
DR. DOBSON: The answer is loving leadership. Parents should have the courage to do what is right for their babies, even if they protest vigorously. Dr. Bill Stonecker, a pediatrician and good friend, has stressed the importance of parents taking charge right from the day of birth. Too often he has seen mothers in his private practice who were afraid of their infants. They would call his office and frantically huff, "My

6-month-old baby is crying and seems very hot." The doctor would ask if the child had a fever, to which Mom would reply: "I don't know. He won't let me take his temperature." These mothers had already yielded their authority to their infants. Some would never regain it. Good parenting and loving leadership go hand in hand. And it should begin on "Day One."
Dr. Dobson is president of the nonprofit organization Focus on the Family, P.O. Box 444, Colorado Springs, CO. 80903; or www.family.org.

Passionflora's uniqueness stems from its flowers

The name of passionflower is given to any of the vines of the genus Passiflora which produce a very unique flower. The word passion does not refer to any aphrodisiac effect from chemicals produced by the plants, quite the opposite the plants produce a compound called passiflorin which is given to hyperactive children to slow down their reactions.

The name Passiflora comes from the interpretation that the floral components represent the elements of the crucifixion of Christ. Passifloras are mainly native to America with few species from Asia and Australia. They are grown mainly for their unique flowers, which bloom from spring through fall, but some others are planted for their edible fruits.

Red Passionflower

Native to southern Brazil. Woody vine with oblong leaves, 6 inches long and 2 2/3 wide. Flowers are brilliant scarlet with white-pink-and-purple corona, measuring 5 inches wide. The fruit is round, 2 inches wide, with acid pulp and many minute seeds.

Blue Passionflower

Native to southern Brazil. Somewhat hardy vine that grows best in temperate with frost-free climate. Flowers are 3 to 4 inches wide and have white to pale pink sepals and petals. The corona is deep purple at the base, white in the middle and blue at the tips. Leaves have smooth edges and five to seven lobed. Two cultivars are recognized: 'Constance' with fragrant pure white flowers and

'Grandiflora', with larger flowers.

Many hybrids are available from crosses between the blue passionflower and other passifloras. Hybrids are popular because of their larger flowers and disease resistance. Hybrids usually will not bear fruits.

Al Ferrer

Maypop

In Florida, a Passiflora known as maypop grows wild throughout the state. This cold hardy species can be found all the way to Pennsylvania and westward to southern Illinois, Missouri and Kansas. The leaves are deeply three-lobed, 3 to 6 inches long, with serrate margins.

The maypop produces blue-purple flowers and small, ovoid but edible fruits, about 2 inches long. This plant is a great ornamental vine for Central Florida and the food source for caterpillars of the zebra longwing, Julia, and Gulf fritillary butterflies.

Purple Passion Fruit

Both the purple and the closely related yellow passion fruit are the source of passion fruit juice, one of main ingredients of the world famous 'Hawaiian punch'. Both plants have trilobed leaves 4 to 7 inches long, with fine-toothed margins. The purple passion fruit bears dark-purple, rounded fruits, about 2 inches long.

The fruit of the yellow passion fruit is deep yellow in color and similar in shape but a little larger than the purple passion fruit. The fruits contain numerous small, black seeds that are individually surrounded by deep orange-colored sacs that contain the juice. In Florida, the purple passion fruit flowers in early spring and the fruits mature from 60 to 80 days later.

The yellow passion fruit flowers from spring until late fall with a break in early summer. Pollination is essential for fruit production on passion vines. Flowers of the purple passion fruit can be self-pollinated, but many yellow passion fruit flowers will not set fruit unless their flowers are dusted with pollen from a different vine that is genetically compatible. The most effective insect for pollinating passion fruit is the carpenter bee, a large solitary bee similar to the bumble bee in appearance.

Honeybees, because of their small size, are not good pollinators. Hand pollination may be the easiest way to ensure fruit production on a few vines growing in the home garden. Fruits are never picked from the vine and ripened fruits are collected when they fall to the ground.

Giant Granadilla

The plant has round-oblong leaves 4 to 8 inches long, the stem is characteristically square in cross section. The flowers droop like old-fashioned lampshades and their petals are deep maroon on the inner surface. The fruit is irregular, oblong 4 to 8 inches long, weighing 8 to 16 ounces or more, and has a thick, edible rind. The black seeds are individually surrounded by juice sacs. The fruit turns deep golden when fully ripe and may be picked for local consumption at this stage.

Al Ferrer is Seminole County Urban Horticulturist. Inquiries may be directed to him at the Cooperative Extension service, 290 W. County Home Road, Sanford, FL 32773 or phone 685-6558. All Seminole County Cooperative Extension services are open to all regardless of race, color, sex, handicap or national origin.

Michelangelo's "David." Mary said, "Pisa was awesome and Naples was crowded." Rain was heavy, but the tourists took a jet foil boat to reach the Isle of Capri and Sorrento.

Pompeii held a special attraction for the American tourists. Destroyed some 2,000 years ago, many structures from that era are still standing as well as pottery, cooking pots and utensils which were displayed.

Life aboard ship was first class. Mary said the food was "great" and the entertainment "exceptional." Thanks to modern-day technology, the Hillmans were able to keep track of their business at home via e-mail. Mary said the highlight of the cruise for her was the Sistine Chapel and that Barry enjoyed Pompeii the most.

Like most weary travelers, the real highlight of a trip is when the car pulls into the driveway of home, sweet home.

Happy Birthday
On her 90th birthday, Esther

VonAllmen fulfilled one of her dreams by going parasailing. Just recently, at age 94, she played the hostess role to a birthday bash honoring her grandson, Rick Fite, who grew up in Sanford and now lives in Orlando. Rick's wife, Corinne, and son, Austin, accompanied him to the party.

The luncheon event was held aboard the Rivership Romance and revelers had the time of their lives. A band provided music for dancing and the gracious hostess got up from her wheelchair and tripped the light fantastic.

Guests were served a delicious buffet which Pauline Snyder said was "gorgeous...wonderful."

Rick is the son of Claire Paul. Incidentally, Claire and her husband, Horace Paul, are comfortably settled in their new home in Loch Arbor. Recently they hosted a house warming and birthday party honoring Claire. Sixty guests attended the patio party complete with a huge birthday cake.

AARP members learn about high cholesterol

"Only overweight people have high cholesterol." Myth. "I eat healthy, so I don't have to worry about my cholesterol." Myth. One in five people has high cholesterol. And the only way you know it, is if you have your doctor check your cholesterol. The Lake Mary Chapter of the AARP was fortunate to have a few doctors on hand at their September meeting to explain the health consequences of high cholesterol. Dr. Zia Fatemi, Dr. Farideh Zadeh and Dr. Pothen Koruth from the SunState Medical Associates talked to the seniors about controlling high cholesterol. There are risk factors other than diet. They include a family history of high cholesterol, high blood pressure, smoking and diabetes.

One of the best ways to control high cholesterol will always be to control your diet. But many people who think they are watching the saturated fats, aren't watching closely enough. If you look on a package, the saturated fat is based on serving. So, you're starving, you buy a small package of cookies from a vending machine. You look at the saturated fat. Only 4 grams! That's not too bad, you think. Look closer. That small bag of cookies has two servings. That's why it's so important to look at the entire label when you buy processed food.

Of course, the best thing to do to improve your diet is to know what to avoid. Here's a starting point. Avoid processed meats like bacon, bologna and hot dogs; avoid whole milk and products using whole milk; avoid saturated fat. Nutritionists will also tell you to avoid chocolate, but that's obviously not a sane point of view. Choose your chocolate well. Semi-sweet and bittersweet chocolates have less saturated

Friends, family gather for celebration honoring Chandler

It was a celebration, a tribute to Mrs. Patricia Chandler, and an afternoon of honor for a Christian, wife, mother, sister, aunt, niece, best friend and co-worker. It was held Sunday, Sept. 15 at 3 p.m. at New Mount Calvary Missionary Baptist Church.

Serving as mistresses of ceremonies were Tracy Lipkins, Malcolm and Michelle Nealy. Mr. Willie Chandler escorted his lovely wife Patricia to the honor seats decorated beautifully in her honor. All stood as she ascended the throne gracefully.

The Rev. Jack Jackson, Jr. read the scripture, Proverbs 31:10, very befitting this special lady. To get all involved in the afternoon, the Rev. Ricky Scott led the altar prayer.

Cullen Ray Vinson extended a gracious Christian welcome to all, and paid tribute to his Christian friend who is a lover of people and his co-worker. "God's Angels of Praise", the graceful dynamic eloquent dancers dedicated their performance of "Long As I Got King Jesus" and "Thank you I am grateful" to their director and friend.

Deputy Chief of the Seminole County Sheriff's office paid tribute to Chandler. Deputy Chief Steve Harriett read words of honor and congratulations from Seminole County Sheriff Don Eslinger. Chandler has been employed at the Sheriff's Department for 20 years. Harriett spoke of her dedication, faithfulness, dependability, family values, and always being a credit to SCS office. She often plans celebrations for other co-workers whenever asked to make it a special occasion.

Throughout the celebration, tributes were given by family, friends, co-workers, her pastor, Christians of her church and the community she serves daily.

Judge John Scoop said she is a ram in the bush, she lives the golden rule, she walks the path that Jesus walked, she is a giant. Her family says she is obedient, she is like Ruth, noble, a Godly woman, industrious.

Mr. Chandler spoke of his wife of 29 years. She is devoted, loving, sincere, she serves the lord faithfully, is a praying woman, always doing good deeds.

Musical tributes were rendered by the Grannyz Boys and the Mighty Gospel Keys of Daytona.

Special thanks and appreciation goes to the sponsor, Mrs. Daisy Palmer, a lady whose heart is geared toward helping others whenever she can. Again, Ms. Palmer, that smile and heart of gold extended out to a very special person in the lives of many.

Thank you from the honoree Patricia Chandler who's sweet, kind, loving way has reached and touched many in her Christian work, at home, at work, at church, in the community she serves wherever needed. Thank you Patricia for being that nightmare that you are, an angel in the lives of all you know and love.

Pastor Ricky Scott gave encouraging remarks and the blessing of the dinner served to all.

Continue your spiritual walk, stay anchored in His word, we all love you Pat. May the blessings of the Lord be with you always - from your friends.

New Mount Calvary Missionary Baptist Church, 1109 West 12th Street in Sanford invites the community to attend the groundbreaking ceremonies, Sunday, Sept. 29 at 4 p.m. for their multi-purpose facility. Come to praise God for his goodness says Pastor Scott and the committee.

September has been declared Drug Awareness Month. New Life Connections, Inc. agency's president Marla J. Dann, Rev. Dr. Frank Williams, Stephanie M. Littles and staff invite you, the communities in Sanford, to a presentation designed to raise awareness of drugs and alcohol abuse and how it affects families.

"Knowledge is power". We believe that how one uses knowledge will determine whether or not it is power. A community with a heightened sense of knowledge and awareness of substance abuse can be powerful in our fight against drug and alcohol abuse.

Sunday, Sept. 28, at 4 p.m. at the Seminole African American Academy of Arts, 1017 West 134th Street (the old Star Theater). Dinner will be served afterwards for a small fee.

fat than milk chocolates. Just take them in moderation. Eat more fruits and vegetables, but avoid canned fruit in heavy syrup. Ignore vegetable prepared in butter, cream or sauce. Frozen vegetables are great and if you want something a little more than the vegetables, go for green beans with almonds in no sauce. The almonds give the green beans a little crunch and almonds are supposed to stave off Alzheimers. With nuts, like chocolate, moderation is the key. Eat nuts raw or blanched, not salted.

The most important thing you can do to avoid high cholesterol is to have regular checkups. Only a test will tell you if you have high cholesterol and only your doctor can prescribe the proper medication if you need it.

In other health related news, Florida Hospital will be offering free hearing screening tests on Sept. 23 and 25 and Oct. 15, 17, 21 and 23. To schedule a test or for more information, call 407-323-0399.

In other AARP news, the October meeting of the AARP should prove very lively! Political candidates who are up for election in November election will be available to talk about their platform and answer a few questions.

FOOD

Add some chill to any sizzling day

When the days sizzle and the nights simmer, sipping a frosty Mocha Float may be a deliciously cool way to re-energize. The combination of a traditional iced coffee and dessert has transformed the classic float into a nouveau delight.

It can be enjoyed at family gatherings, served at outdoor soirées or savored individually.

When preparing this wonderfully refreshing recipe, be sure to use an authentic, quality brew, such as Medaglia D'Oro Caffé Espresso.

- Medaglia D'Oro Mocha Float
- 4 ounces chilled Medaglia D'Oro brewed espresso, sweetened to taste
 - 3 tablespoons chocolate syrup
 - 3 ounces milk
 - 1 scoop (1/3 cup) coffee mocha chip ice cream
 - 1 scoop (1/3 cup) dark chocolate ice cream
 - Chilled seltzer or club soda
 - Whipped cream (for garnish)
 - Sweetened cocoa (for garnish)

1. Pour espresso, chocolate syrup and milk into a chilled 16 ounce glass. Stir to blend. Add coffee mocha chip and dark chocolate ice cream.

2. Fill glass with seltzer and stir. Garnish with a dollop of whipped cream and dust with cocoa. Serve with a straw and long-handled spoon.

Makes 1 serving

Awash in squash

Roasted Vegetable Stew

It's time to put sweet butternut on center stage

Full markets are awash in squash! With so many to choose from, it's easy to get confused. Michelle McAdoo, contributor to food & family magazine, has demystified the many varieties and put the sweet butternut on center stage.

Butternut Squash Tips

- Choose squash that's heavy for its size with no blemishes or moldy spots. Check the stem end for signs of rotting.
- To prepare, chop off either end of butternut squash and peel with knife. Slice in half to remove seeds and cut as desired. Squash can be prepared a day in advance and stored covered in the fridge.
- Store whole squash in a cool, dark place for up to a month.

Celebrate autumn with two different squash suppers.

Pork and Squash Dinner

- 4 pork chops
 - 1 cup shredded red cabbage
 - 1 butternut squash, cut into thin wedges
 - 3/4 cup sweet and tangy French style dressing
 - 2 apples, chopped
 - 1/2 cup orange juice
 - 2 Tbsp. fresh ginger
- Cook pork chops, cabbage and squash with 1/4 cup dressing in a large skillet for 15 min. or until squash is tender.

Add apples, remaining 1/2 cup dressing, orange juice and ginger. Simmer 5 min.

Roasted Vegetable Stew

- 6 Italian sausages, chopped
 - 1 onion, sliced
 - 4 cups cubed butternut squash
 - 1 cup creamy Caesar dressing
 - 1 cup tomato sauce
- Combine sausages, peppers, onion and squash in a large baking dish. Mix dressing and tomato sauce; pour over dish. Bake at 400 degrees for 45 minutes or until vegetables are tender.

Decorating Tips

- In addition to these great fall recipes, you can bring the harvest to your table by creating an earthy centerpiece:
 - Decorate tiered cake plates with gourds and leaves.
 - Collect fall leaves for place cards and write your guests' names on them with a metallic marker.
 - Carve out a selection of mini gourds and set a tea light inside each for gentle illumination.

Texas chili served a cool new way

Texas prides itself as a place where cowboys still roam; cattle are plentiful; people still remember the Alamo and where barbecue battles with chili as the cuisine of choice. Speaking of chili, if you know beans about Texas chili, goes the saying, you know chili has no beans.

A thoroughly Texan food, this hearty beef stew was first created by chuck wagon cooks on long cattle drives and legend has it that the first Texas chili was made without beans. Now found on menus throughout the U.S., the original ingredients in this all-American favorite dish were probably beef, chile, oregano and garlic. Modern variations have substituted every kind of meat, ranging from armadillo to venison, with other added ingredients including beans, corn, new spices and cheese.

Chili evokes more than a fiery response from the taste buds, with some fans describing themselves as "chili maniacs" who attend or compete in any number of the 15 chili cookoff events that take place each month throughout the year in Texas.

Texas chili can be had year-round at some premier chili events such as the Chili Superbowl, the Republic of Texas Chisymposium and the Tarrant International Chili Championship. Moreover, visitors to Texas can enjoy a bowl of this hearty specialty at most fine restaurants during a visit to the state where a whole world of experience awaits. From the rugged, unspoiled terrain of the mountains, to the historic pioneer settlements and areas of urban sophistication and cosmopolitan, it's easy to see how Texas is like a whole other country. For further information about chili cookoffs and other events, or to plan a trip to Texas, visit www.texas.com

In the meantime, here's a recipe for Texas-style chili, which comes straight from a reliable source, "The Best of the Best from Texas," edited by Owen McKee and Barbara Mosley.

Texas Chili

Serves 6

- 3 pounds lean beef, cubed or coarsely ground
- 1/4 cup saled oil
- 6 cups water
- 2 bay leaves
- 6 tablespoons chili powder
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 10 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 teaspoon cumin seeds
- 1 teaspoon oregano leaves, crushed
- 1/2 teaspoon red pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 3 tablespoons sweet Hungarian paprika
- 1 tablespoon dried onion flakes
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 6 tablespoons cornmeal

In a 6-quart saucepan, sear beef (cubed or coarsely ground) in saled oil until beef color is gray, not brown. Add water, bay leaves, chili powder, salt, garlic, cumin seeds, oregano, red pepper, black pepper, sugar, paprika and onion flakes. Simmer, covered, 2 hours. Cool. Refrigerate overnight so flavors will mellow. Remove top layer of solidified fat. Reheat. With a little cold water make a paste of flour and cornmeal. Add paste to chili. To obtain a smooth texture, cook and stir 5-7 minutes after thickening has been added. Remove bay leaves before serving.

Spice things up in the kitchen with buttery basil parmesan puffs

The increasing availability of fresh herbs is changing the way Americans cook. Simply adding a small amount of herbs creates a tempting fragrance and delicious flavor that turns ordinary dishes into extraordinary ones.

Jerry Traunfeld, James Beard award-winning chef and author of The Herbfarm Cookbook, has partnered with Dairy Management Inc. (DMI), on behalf of the American Butter Institute to develop a delicious, herb-inspired recipe using fresh basil and simple ingredients like butter and cheese. "This recipe is just the thing for fun, spur of the moment cooking," says Traunfeld. "Basil plays beautifully off the richness of butter, and creates an irresistible aroma that will tempt any palate."

With such a distinct and appealing texture, these Buttery Basil Parmesan Puffs are a great addition to any meal.

Following are some ideas to keep in mind when preparing this recipe:

- Keep it Fresh: Using fresh herbs can add more flavor than dried ones. Obtaining fresh basil can be as easy as picking it from your own garden, or buying some from the grocery store or local farmers' market.

- Picture Perfect: To get round, airy puffs, place some of the dough in a plastic sandwich bag, seal it, and cut 1/4 inch off the bottom corner. Then squeeze out about 1 tablespoon of dough per puff.

- Plan Ahead: To prepare now and bake later, unbaked puffs can be refrigerated for up to six hours before baking, or frozen on cookie sheets and baked directly from the freezer. Allow an extra five minutes baking time for frozen puffs.

Unparalleled flavor is achieved when all natural butter is used to create great-tasting dishes. Visit www.butterisbest.com for an array of meal ideas for any occasion. Everything from appetizers to entrées is just a click away.

Buttery Basil Parmesan Puffs

Makes: 24

- Prep time: 20 minutes
Bake time: 30 minutes
- 3/4 cup water
 - 6 tablespoons (3/4 stick) unsalted butter, cut in cubes
 - 3/4 teaspoon salt
 - 3/4 cup all-purpose flour
 - 1 1/2 cups basil leaves, gently packed
 - 4 large eggs
 - 1 cup freshly grated Parmesan

Finely chop basil leaves and set aside. Preheat the oven to 400 degrees. Bring water, butter and salt to a rolling boil in a medium-sized saucepan. When butter has melted, add flour, all at once, and whisk vigorously over medium heat until mixture forms a smooth thick dough that pulls away from sides of the pan. Transfer dough to the mixing bowl of a heavy-duty electric mixer.

Using the paddle attachment, beat mixture on medium until slightly cool. Add basil and mix until incorporated and dough is bright green. Add eggs, one at a time, to mixture and beat until smooth. Continue to mix for one minute. Add cheese and process until incorporated.

Line two cookie sheets with parchment paper. Drop dough in tablespoon sized balls on cookie sheets, allowing about 1 inch of space between each. Bake for 25 to

Buttery Basil Parmesan Puffs

30 minutes or until lightly browned and crisp. Serve while still warm. (Dough may be piped onto cookie sheet using a piping bag and plain tip, No. 8 or No. 9.)

Heritage Festival showcases impressive young artists

The caliber and the quantity of local talent that will be showcased at the Sanford Heritage Festival has grown during the past three years, a sure sign that the Sanford Heritage Festival is the event where Central Florida's rising young stars want to showcase their talents. Opening acts for Sammy Kershaw's Friday night concerts include: New Wave Cloggers, Florida's country vocalist of the year Melissa Jackson, 7-year-old "Skye" will fiddle "Cripple Creek", the captivating singer Siara Sol, and Orlando's gifted recording artist, 16-year-old "Kaley."

Siara Sol

"Phaze 3" will be one of the groups opening for classic rocker Brian Howe, former lead singer with Bad Company. Other acts include "The Ryquas" the talented Celtic quartet from Fort Pierce and the Wekiva River Players cast from "Oliver". Sunday is family day at the festival featuring two high-energy concerts by the rhythmic pop group "Triple Image." Opening for "Triple Image" are Phaze 3, local rap artist Jj, Drew Michaels, Girl Zine and Lura.

On the Sam's Club Stage, the following is a sample of what you can expect to hear, see and experience at this year's festival. - please consult the Seminole Herald's official schedule of events for times.

Inspired Jazz — This inspirational smooth jazz duet just released a new CD entitled "Selah... Think About It" featuring vocals by Derek and Sharon Hudson; Scott Jordan — a solo artist formerly with the band "4 Harmonies" and who has appeared in the ABC February episode of "Making of the Band;" The Syndicators, known for their Blues on the rocks with a twist of jazz; Florida-based trio,

Jj

Temper, who specializes in original pop rock; Folk and Blues solo artist Nash Rambler; The Chamberlain Kids; Mersey Side — where British Pop meets American Rock; recording artists Urababesque — four ambitious young women prepare you for urbanization; and Southern Winds.

Featured at the Bahamian Marketplace Bahamas Stage and will be three-days of electrifying, yet soothing island music by "The Brinkers," "Eleuthera Express Band" and "Dr. Sea Breeze."

Saturday night's fireworks show to celebrate Sanford's 125th

The Coding Edge, (TCE), president Jim McCuen and vice president Sharon Morikone are sponsoring Saturday night's spectacular fireworks show in celebration of Sanford's 125th anniversary. McCuen and Morikone recently purchased one of the tallest buildings in Sanford currently occupied by First Union. The Coding Edge is a medical coding and accounts receivable management company and specializing in emergency medicine.

O-Town Skylighters, Inc. of Paisley, Florida will light up the sky over the Heritage Festival at 9:00 p.m. Saturday night, September 28. The fireworks show is also being sponsored by 96.5 WHIQ Classic Rock. The fireworks will be launched from Memorial Park located directly behind the Bill Heard Chevrolet Stage.

Bill and Sharon Dowdy, owners of O-Town Skylighters are honored to be able to present a quality fireworks show to celebrate Sanford's 125th Anniversary. Bill Dowdy has been launching fireworks for the past 38 years. His wife commented, "He'd rather shoot fireworks than eat."

The best vantage point for the fireworks show, which is expected to attract thousands of people, will be along Park Avenue in front of the Seminole County Courthouse right in the center of festival activities.

MFW Wrestling

Sanford's own Mad Dog will appear on stage when MFW Pro Wrestling comes to the Sanford Heritage Festival 3 p.m., 3:30 p.m., 4 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 28.

The original building was built as a plumbing supply house, in 1946 and 47. Construction was done in spare time and after regular business hours by the original owner and plumbing apprentice, Mr. Bill Hawkins, who went on to form his own business, Hawkins Brothers Plumbing. All of the wood in the rafters came from an old torn down building in Holopaw, Florida. The wood was heart of pine, and hauled in by truck. It is now as hard as concrete. In the early 1950s, the front building area was added. It became a tractor sales and supply, with dirt floors.

From the early 50s to 1958, a gas station was added and local constable Slim Galloway ran a filling station, and the late A.K. Shoemaker worked as an attendant in his younger years. In 1956, "Mac" McRoberts retired to Sanford from West Virginia, leaving the tire company he had operated for 30 years. He went into business with Hunt, Strickland, Morrison Auto Sales for two years, until opening McRoberts Tire Supply in 1958.

In 1963, John Dickey, son-in-law, took over the McRoberts Tire Company. Mr. Dickey ran the company until 1990. Hatch Dickey, who, along with family members, worked at the business after high school and for many years, became the owner in 1990.

Sanford Heritage Festival

Sanford streets become a stage

Much of this year's impressive entertainment line-up for the Sanford Heritage Festival is schedule to perform on the Sam's Club, Dream Center, Bahamas, or the Bill Heard Chevrolet stages. Several entertainers, however, are scheduled to turn Park Avenue into their very own stage.

Randy Cabral's comedy juggling show is sure to amuse and impress. Whether Randy is juggling fire, flipping hats or doing two paddleballs while balancing a bowling ball on his head, he is sure to gather a crowd throughout the three-day of the festival.

Randy Cabral

with Tajari School of Performing Arts, will present three shows on Saturday.

"The Tin Man" still walker, a 21st century tin man that looks almost robotic on stilts and Jackie Manna, magician and ventriloquist, will entertain all ages Saturday and Sunday.

Sunday is Family Day at the festival, and "Willie Wink the Clown" will fascinate kids and adults with his award-winning balloon twisting expertise.
