AMELIA EARHART IN ANOTHER TRAIL-BLAZING FLIGHT

First in many aviation accomplishments, Amelia Earhart grasped at another feather for her flying cap when she hopped off at Mexico, D. F., for a 2,100-mile non-stop flight to New York. Her dangerous course took her over the towering mountains to the east of the Mexican capital, hazardous because of their 10,000 foot altitude, across the Gulf of Mexico, and then straight up the air-mail route to New York. Above is a pictorial review of her feats that made her America's premier woman flier. She was the first woman to make a solo flight across the Atlantic, first to cross the United States in an autogiro, first trans-Pacific solo flier and the first woman to be awarded two medals of distinction. She is shown receiving the Distinguished Flying Cross from former President Hoover and the National Geographic Society's medal from former Vice President Curtis. (Associated Press Photos)

HITLESS WONDERS' BECOME 'MURDERERS' ROW'

There was a time when the Chicago White Sox were known as baseball's "hitless wonders," but this year's squad has proved the surprise of the American League with its heavy hitting and better than-average pitching. Here are the Sox players who have batted .300 or over. Left to right in their batting order: Jack Hayes, Al Simmons, Luke Appling, Veeck, Washington, Luke Appling, (Associated Press Photo).

Eleven determined mothers and one brave but equally determined father competed excitedly in a diaper-changing contest at a better homes exhibit in Chicago. Mrs. Joseph Pieprznik (left) won with an elapsed time of 29 seconds for the chance, and the lone man contestant, Herbert Beck (right), former mathematics teacher, was "out of the money," but bested some of the women and won a big cheer. ## French Line Crews Go Out On Strike LE HAVRE, France, May 16.—The crews of the new French super liner Normandie and the steamer Champlain went on strike yesterday. Both ships were tied up here. Two thousand seamen were involved.

The striking sailors demanded yearly salaries instead of being paid on a trip-by-trip basis.

They called a mass meeting and sent a delegation to Paris to lay their grievances before the ministry of marine.

Press Advertising In April Shows Gain

NEW YORK, May 16.—(AP)—Newspaper advertising in April recorded the most substantial gain made in any month so far this year, according to "Printer's Ink."

The publication's index of newspaper advertising stood at 28.7 at the end of the month compared with 27.0 at the end of March, a gain of 3.2 percent after adjustments for seasonal variation.

The April index shows an increase of 7.1 percent over the same month last year. The largest gain recorded in any month this year over the comparable period of the preceding year.

Waynesville Bankers Indicted By Jury

ASHEVILLE, N. C., May 16.—

(AP)—James E. Boyd, president of the First National Bank of Waynesville; his son, James R. Boyd, Jr., and D. R. Noland, Waynesville business man and farmer, were indicted here yesterday by a federal grand jury on charges of violating the banking laws.

Boyd, a former member of the state legislature, was charged in two counts of borrowing $40,000

on Jan. 16 and $25,000 on Dec. 21

from the Chase National Bank of New York without making a written report to the directors of the Waynesville bank as required by law.

Patman of Texas are shown swapping congratulations after Thomas directed the Patman $2,200,000 soldier bonus bill through the Senate to final Congressional action in defiance of Whittaker Smith's wishes. ## SOX ROOKIE IS LEAGUE SENSATION

President Roosevelt was accused of violating the principles of the Democratic party and the $1,800,000,000 work-relief fund was described as "the darkest blot on the pages of history" in a radio address delivered in Washington by Gov. Eugene Talmadge of Georgia. The governor is shown as he broadcast the speech, regarded by many as a vigorous bid for leadership of the "old line Democrats" in the 1936 Presidential campaign. ## Germany Said To Have 10,000 Bombing Ships

LONDON, May 16.—(AP)—Lord

Rothermere, branding the British government's plan to expand the royal air force by 300 planes as "childish and useless for defense," told the house of lords yesterday.

"Germany has claimed repeatedly that Germany at the present moment has 10,000 bombing planes."

The Reich's bombers, the newspaper publisher said, are "of long range and high speed, capable of carrying a ton of high explosives."

His statement created a sensation in the upper house, even though Lord Rothermere's Daily Mail has been pounding away at Britain's lack of air defense and has claimed repeatedly that Germany has a secret air force ranking into five figures.

A big fellow with a drawl in his speech but a powerful arm in his pitching arm is John Whitehead, Chicago White Sox star who has won his first five starts as a major leaguer. A left-handed hurler, Whitehead is considered one of the prime rookies in the American League. (Associated Press Photo)

Fatman Bill Finally Goes To Roosevelt

President Sets Aside
His Afternoon To Write His Veto Message
To Congress

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(AP)—The Fatman income bonus bill was sent to the White House today for a certain veto. Last Congressional voting was completed when President Garner signed a $200,000,000 measure. President Roosevelt made this afternoon to start his veto message which will be sent to Congress Monday.

Veiled threat of a legal deadlock threatening existence was flung by Mr. Bush yesterday at a White House agreement to a two-year extension of every law.

Old-Time Fire Works Board Rekindled In Okeys Sheaf Wall Street Of Projects

Stock Market Hoisted To Best Levels Since Last July; Gains Numerous

NEW YORK, May 17.—(AP)—The lean bulls of Wall Street stamped, throwing off sparks of their old-time fire yesterday.

The stock market, as measured by price averages, was hoisted to the best level since last July, while tickers hummed to the largest volume of trading since the twenty-sixth of that month.

Gains of $1 to more than $3 a share were sprinkled throughout the list, and scores of issues registered new highs for 1935 or longer. The turnover aggregated 24,100,100 shares, and commissions fell upon the hungry brokerage community like manna, after the long months of average daily business of well under a million shares.

The buying enthusiasm spread to the bond market, where many of the lower priced rail issues rose $1 to $2 per $100 par value. United States government and other low-yield issues held about unchanged.

Commodities joined the move under leadership of grain. Wheat futures at Chicago scored net gains of 1 1/2 to 1 7/8 cents a bushel and corn 1 7/8 to 2 1/2 cents. In the New York markets cattle futures gave an indifferent performance, closing 10 cents a bushel lower to 25 cents higher, but copper, lead, tin, hides, silk and wool futures all advanced moderately. The Associated Press price index of 20 basic commodities (based on 1926 as 100) rose .54 to 73.11.

Brokers thought that revived inflationary psychology had a good deal to do with touching off the buying movement. They said there were other factors in the rise, such as better than expected corporate earnings statements from some companies as late, especially in the automobile and the textile industries. The inflation in industry would be short-lived and that the $4,000,000 work-relief expenditure would stimulate the seasonal acceleration in autumn, hopes that the President's forthcoming message on transportation would make good news for the railroads and the continued pressure of idle investment funds seeking employment.

Virtually all major groups in the industries participated in the advance in shares. Copper, steel, motors, farm implements and chemicals were prominent.

What worries the Germans is that behind Lithuania, according to a firm German socialist, stands the Soviet Union, and behind Austria, at least Italy.

Soviet Russia has ever been antagonistic to the Hitler regime.

While the governments preceding Hitler had little love for the neighbor to the East, at least official relations were correct, and commercial relations, even because close.

It was logical relations with the Soviets should cool when a political party, the National Socialists, which had as one of its most powerful slogans, "Down with bolshevism," took charge of the Reich.

"Fear Russia as an ally more than I fear France as an enemy," Hitler is reported to have said to Sir John Simon when the English foreign minister was in Berlin.

Richberg Nearing End Of Career As Tinder - Boxes Of Government Aide

German Eyes Turn In Those Directions As War Is Talked

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(AP)—

One of the most meteoric of New Deal careers was declared today to be nearing a close.

Informed sources said that under an understanding reached some time ago, Donald R. Richberg is to step out of the government and return to private business when the present NRA act expires June 16.

The informant, declining to be quoted by name, said that Richberg, who has expressed a desire to return to private life, would remain in his post as chairman of the Blue Eagle recovery board only during the legislative reorganization of the NRA, now being studied in Congress.

If there is a new NRA set up by June 16 it was said that Richberg will not head it.

If a new law should not be passed by that date, expiration of the present act would put Richberg's post and the whole NRA set-up out of its legal existence.

Smith Convenes Court To Sentence Young Cow Thieves

Circuit Court Judge Millard B. Smith convened his court at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of passing sentence on five young local men who were charged separately with the larceny of a cow.

According to Chief Deputy Sheriff O. R. Estridge, the men—Wesley Flowers, Floyd Lester, J. C. Carroll, Hollie Ferguson, and Babe Turner—had admitted this morning that they were ready to plead guilty to the charges.

Minimum sentence is a two-year prison term at Rialton penitentiary, with the maximum sentence being five years at the prison.

For an indefinite period the Treasury every week will ask the money markets for $100,000,000-$25,000,000 of new money and $75,000,000 for refunding maturing.

This step-up just doubles weekly borrowings through bill sales since March which have been used for refunding purposes only and not for additional cash.

Treasury Will Seek Cash In Markets

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(AP)—A diminishing cash box yesterday prompted a sharp boost in the Treasury's borrowing program.

For an indefinite period the Treasury every week will ask the money markets for $100,000,000-$25,000,000 of new money and $75,000,000 for refunding maturing.

This step-up just doubles weekly borrowings through bill sales since March which have been used for refunding purposes only and not for additional cash.

Feds Lose To Cocoa By 2-1 While Reds Beat Leesburg; 3-Game-Per-Week Idea Okey

Although Bill Cobb turned in a masterful pitching performance against the Cocoa Indians in Cocoa yesterday afternoon, his mates did not win the ball, and as a result, the Indians defeated the Feds by 2 to 1.

It was the Feds' seventh defeat in nine starts, and it was Cobb's fifth loss of the season, against one victory.

Jake Baker held the Feds to four hits, two of which were gathered by Bill Gates. Baker had previously voted against the plan which he said had not proven itself.

The Indians moved into second place in standings through their victory, which came with one in the ninth.

Sanford and Leesburg officials have agreed to continue the plan for the first few days, with Cocoa willing to abide by the majority opinion.

As a result of the Indians' victory, the team which was scheduled to play next Tuesday afternoon between Sanford and Leesburg is to be played next Friday afternoon.

This was decided in Deland yesterday afternoon, and the men of the Deland Reds agreed to the plan if it will help Sanford, Leesburg and Cocoa. It had previously voted against the plan which he said had not proven itself.

The Indians moved into second place in standings through their victory, which came with one in the ninth.

Sanford scored first, in the third inning when Baker singled as the first man up. He was sacrificed and then he and Gates had to hold on to the ball, but he scored on Baker's wild pitch.

The Indians evened the score in the fifth when with two out, Baker singled home the winning run.

In the ninth, Sanibel scored.
