Sheriff Urges 'Moving Ahead' Detention Home Plans Drag

The Seminole County juvenile detention facility was the topic of a lengthy discussion which concluded with no firm decision made. Commissioner Al Davis, who chairs the committee to work for the facility, presented a report on the meeting held with state authorities in mid-December at a meeting toward which the commission as a whole presented a tax attitude, according to repeated references by Davis. Davis said State Community Services chief William Hanson approves the plans of the facility. The County committee in chief, Juvenile Judge Wallace Hall, Rev. Jack Landry, Sheriff John Polk, John Angel, school superintendent Ed Hutch, Juvenile Court and Dr. Luis Perry.

Sanford Approves Increase To Restore Water Service

Sanford City Commission has requested information from the State Public Service Commission relative to a request by Florida Power and Light seeking an increase in rates charged for water. The Commission action came after W. Vincent Roberts failed to persuade his fellow commissioners to adopt a resolution opposing the power rate increase. City Manager W. E. Knowles said, according to information from the power company, each home's electric bill will be increased by $2.70 per month if the increase is granted by the Public Service Commission. Roberts said the electric bills are "high enough already" and South Seminole and five in North Seminole. There are five shelters stocked for a total of 1,386 spaces. National disaster shelters are being constructed in the area. These are unacceptable federal shelters. They can be used for "best available" or "expedient" shelters to provide sufficient protection to save lives. Federal buildings are available only in true emergency and spaces only, are not stockpiled due to lack of storage space. Stocking of shelters under federal funding program from 1962, '63 and '64 are exhausted.

Fastening safety belts is not a pain in the neck.

Fastening safety belts saves necks. Not to mention lives. We estimate that 8,000 to 10,000 lives could be saved every year if everyone used safety belts. As new car dealers, it's not only frustrating for us to see people ignore their safety belts—it's heartbreaking when we think of the serious injuries that could be prevented. And the lives that could be saved. Buckling your safety belts should be the first thing you do. Every time you get in your car. It takes only a second. And it's a habit that quickly becomes second nature. So please get the safety belt habit for the ride of your life.

Sheriff Polk's Lab Gets Recognition

Sheriff John Polk's "pride and joy" is featured with a front page photograph and a two-page "spread" in the current issue of the Sheriff's Star, official organ of the Florida Sheriff's Association. The featured article concerns the crime laboratory at Sanford Airport, federally funded but directed by Polk for all law enforcement agencies in seven Central Florida counties, principally, but also serving state and federal agencies. The article, by the Sheriff's Star staffer, Carl Stauffer, details the activities of Chief Chemist Peter Bagdale and Dr. W. W. McGee, a consultant from Florida Technical University. The lab has equipment valued at $50,000. Sheriff Polk is quoted in the article: "The city (of Sanford) provided $1,000 and the county (of Seminole) provided the labor" in furnishing the former Navy building. "We also saved about $6,000 by designing and building our own cabinets." The federal government's Law Enforcement Assistance Administration is financing the lab on a five-year schedule to the tune of around $600,000. The participating counties are providing "in kind" matching funds by paying some $300,000 in salaries to narcotics agents.

Judge Studies Oil Tank Farm Case

A civil, injury case between Murphy Oil Company and the City of Sanford was heard in chambers yesterday by Circuit Judge Roger Dykes. Thomas Freeman, representing Murphy Oil, and William Hutchison, representing the city, stipulated all the facts in the case, which the court took under consideration. According to Hutchison, a judgment on the matter is anticipated to be given by Judge Dykes next week. The suit was initiated in an attempt to stop the city from rezoning an oil storage tank area operated by Murphy Oil. Should the court not overturn the zoning change, the oil firm will be prohibited from operating its facility for oil storage in the event there ever is a six-month lapse in the use. City Manager W. E. Knowles contended that the city was rezoned "retail commercial" as "industrial" over the protests of the plaintiff, Murphy Oil, who filed its suit claiming the zoning change is illegal. The change became effective in June, 1970.

1972: A Silver-Lining Year

Two geologists writing in Science magazine predict that the old earth, which has been heaving and puffing and shuddering and shaking with earthquakes, volcanoes, uplifts and subsidence for the past four billion years or so, is scheduled eventually to get through with all that and enter a period of calm and tranquility—in some sense less than another billion years. One wonders if the microscopic, allegedly intelligent life, clinging to its surface, the people who viewed from the moon will ever learn the secret of living in peace with its own kind and in balance with other kinds, or whether it will destroy itself and perhaps everything else long before earth enters geologic old age. The short-lived Christmas party has vanished more quickly than usual this season. It has been eclipsed by the realization that the new year of 1972 finds men engaged in killing each other, or preparing to kill each other, on as wide a scale as ever in the past—and precisely in those areas of the world in which civilization has existed the longest—Southeast Asia, the Indian subcontinent and the eastern rim of the Mediterranean. It is also, coincidentally, in two of those areas that four of the world's great religions—Buddhism, Islam, Christianity and Jainism—had their origins. It is one of those areas to which Christians especially, and especially at this time of year, look for renewal of their faith that there is a purpose in human life and that there will someday again be glad tidings of great joy which shall be to all men—tidings of peace, lasting peace, on earth and good-will to men. Again the sad tidings drawn out the glad. Yet it is far too early in the game for despair. Viewed against the unimaginably great time scale of geology, mankind's sinners on this planet has been but an eyeblink. Even viewed against the time scale of his own species' existence, a timescale which lengthens with each new discovery, modern city-dwelling, technological man arrived only yesterday. Homo sapiens has been around for at least 20,000 or 30,000 years. Something as simple as this stage walked on two legs nearly 10 million years ago in Africa. It is only within a single human lifetime that this has become truly one world, in terms of rapid transportation and communication. It is only within the last decade that we have become aware of the threat of our own multiplying numbers, and only within the last half-decade that concern about industrial man's impact on the environment and upon other living things has become widespread. There is more to hope for than there is in despair of as we begin this new year.

Pat Nixon Off To Africa

WASHINGTON (AP) — Off to Africa Saturday, Mrs. Richard Nixon will embark on a nine-day, 10,000-mile trip that gives her a new role as an official representative and visiting emissary of the President. It's the second foreign trip she has made on her own as a first lady. The first was a relief mission to earthquake-stricken Liberia in the summer of 1970. This time, Mrs. Nixon leads a five-member official U.S. delegation to the inauguration of Liberia's new president, William Tubman, in Monrovia Sunday through Tuesday. And she will go on for official visits to neighboring black West African republics of Ghana and Ivory Coast.

Envoy To Inauguration

Her schedule includes a range of activities from attending white-belt formal banquets to touring hospitals and schools, watching tribal dances, meeting Nigerian leaders and shopping in a native market. The President's personal secretary, Andrew Air Force Base, Md., when she departs at 8 p.m. EST New Year's Day aboard a presidential jet plane. While she is abroad, Nixon will conclude meetings with Japanese Prime Minister Eisaku Sato in California. A 4,300-mile, non-stop overnight flight across the Atlantic will bring Mrs. Nixon to the Liberian capital Sunday morning. She will be greeted by Tubman and his wife as their ranking foreign guest at inaugural festivities. A vice president for 19 years, a wealthy rubber planter, succeeds the late President William Tubman as head of the black republic that was launched in 1822 by freed American slaves. Tubman, who had been president for 23 years, died in July. Mrs. Nixon will review Liberian troops, make a few brief speeches and attend the oath-taking, a colorful parade and the traditional formal inaugural ball and banquet. She will leave Monrovia Wednesday for a two-day stay in Accra, Ghana, and then spend Jan. 7-9 in Abidjan, Ivory Coast, known as the "African Riviera." A party of 40 will fly south to Liberia, including 11 members of the news media, five Secret Service men and White House physician Dr. Walter Tkach. The other members of the inaugural delegation are evangelist Billy Graham, Bernard J. Lasker former chairman of the New York Stock Exchange, who campaigned for Nixon in 1960 and Sen. Samuel Z. Wester, Jr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson, wife of the publisher of the magazines Ebony, Jet and Black Stars, who is from Selma, Ala.

IF ONLY I HAD MORE TIME

We all know the feeling of frustration that comes from not finding enough hours in a day. Time to kill is a luxury for most of us.

New Year's reminds us that time is one commodity that cannot be bought. Try as we will, we cannot crowd more than twenty-four hours into a day. Whether it's too much time on our hands or too little, we need constantly to be aware of how we spend our time.

After all, in a hundred years, we'll all be gone. This thought makes current problems look pretty small. Proper balance of work, play and worship makes happier lives. Let God speak to your heart and bring new perspective into your life. Attend church this Sunday.

THOUGHTS

The Lord is the God of hosts, the Lord is his name: "So you, by the help of your God, return, hold fast and continue to rest, and wait lovingly for your God."—Hosea 12:3, 4.

You must seek and find God in the heart. — Jean Paul Richter, German novelist.

In the presence of God and of the elect angels I charge you to keep these rules without favor, doing nothing from partiality.—1 Timothy 5:21.

Real equality is not something to be decreed by law. It cannot be given and it cannot be forced. It must be created by Raymond Moley, Journalist.

Be true, and do not sell it; by wisdom, instruction and understanding.—Proverbs 23:23.

Truthfulness is a cornerstone to character, and if it is not firmly laid in youth, there will ever be a weak spot in the foundation.—Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy.

"For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your thoughts and your thoughts than your heart."—Isaiah 55:9.

All that a man achieves and all that he fails to achieve is in the tent; who shall dwell on the holy hill? He who walks blamelessly, and does his work in peace, and speaks truth from his heart.—Psalms 15:1, 2.

Man is never helped in his suffering by what he thinks for himself, but only by revelation of a wisdom greater than his own. It is this which lifts him out of his distress.—Carl Jung, German psychologist.

For the day of the Lord is near upon all the nations. As you have done it, it shall be done to you.

'Year Of Search For Instant Salvation' American Youth Turned To Jesus In 1971

By GEORGE W. CORNELL, AP Religion Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Jesus in 1971 became the latest hero on the American youth scene. "That seemed to be the year's top development in the religious field, which has grown in steadily one with clear-cut situational structures.

It has been a year of search for instant salvation," says the Rev. Dr. Eugene Smith, U.S. executive for the World Council of Churches, who adds that America is bulging with religion in quantity, but it is of uncertain quality.

TELEVISION STAR FATALLY WOUNDED
 HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Peter Duel, co-star of the ABC television series, "Alias Smith and Jones," was found shot to death here early today at his Hollywood Hills home, police said.
 Detectives said Duel apparently died of a bullet wound in the head. Officers said they are listing the death as a possible homicide.
 Duel, a native of Rochester, N.Y., also appeared in such television series as "Combat," "The Fugitive," "The Bold Ones" and "Name of the Game."
 Before arriving in Hollywood, Duel attended St. Lawrence University and enrolled in the American Theater Wing in New York City.
 Duel portrayed the character of Hannibal Hayes in the "Alias Smith and Jones" series about two western outlaws trying to go straight. The series' costar is Ben Murphy.

WORLD READY TO BID FAREWELL TO 1971
 By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 In Rome they throw crockets into the streets. In New York the city throws a free party for thousands in Central Park. In San Francisco they are throwing party makings to six garillas.
 On such varied notes will the world bid farewell to 1971 to 1972, ending the year that was with traditional toasts, champagne celebrations and perhaps a pair of ear plugs for those who prefer to sleep through it all.
 Guy Lombardi will give the midnight dinner for Acid Lang Syne in the grand ball room of New York's Waldorf Astoria Hotel, rounding out four decades as Father Time's minister.
 In London the midnight arrival of the Royal Horse Guard and the Pipers and Drums of the Scots Guard will ensure that even the insensible know 1972 has arrived.
 Italians leave their streets tonight knowing that champagne and apartment dwellers traditionally seize the occasion to clean house by throwing out crockery, pots and furniture out the window. Authorities appealed for restraint in the practice.
 French gastronomes will feast on oysters and champagne. The traditional dinner for Danish families is boiled cod. In Spain the custom is to eat 12 grapes at midnight—the event is televised live.
 One of the biggest parties in the world is in New York's Central Park where a parade, fireworks and dancing are expected.

SMOOTH SAILING
 "Smooth sailing is ahead in law enforcement," he said. Blow predicted the city will do more with Secret Lake Park during 1972 than ever before. The Summer Swim Club, scheduled to be reconstituted in the city's game this week, will provide a well rounded recreation program whether it is leased to a civic organization or stays under the direct control of the city, the mayor said.
 Blow looks for the paving of Melody Lane, followed possibly by paving of Flamingo and Lake Ellen Drives to mark the beginning of an intense 10-year paving program.
 The chief executive says some help is in the offing to the community with the problems of the intersection of U.S. 17-82 and SR 436 although he is not sure if the assistance will be "too little or too late."
 In addition, although the CALNO Council of Local Governments has got off to a slow start Blow foresees an escalation of activities among the sister cities.

CONSTRUCTION PLANNED
 The 1972 year will bring Altamonte Springs a new city hall and civic center expansion of the water and sewer system, continuation of annexation on petition of landowners, 500 to 800 new homes and 500 to 1,000 new apartment units, according to Mayor Lawrence Swoford.
 The mayor anticipates a population of 10,000 persons in Altamonte by end of the year and probably a more departmentalized operation in city hall with separate building and engineering departments and an additional building inspector on the city property acquired for the purpose of Douglas Avenue. Swoford looks for new city regulations to require commercial and apartment developments to install permanent garbage-trash containers. All the advances will be made in the city without an increase in taxes, the mayor said, and the city's financial situation remains strong.

MALL IN OFFING
 As for other new construction, Swoford predicts building will get underway on possibly three motels, two within current city territory and one in an area which will petition for annexation. Construction will begin on the multi-million dollar Altamonte Mall Shopping Center. Swoford anticipates a new three-tiered parking facility will be built, in conjunction with the shopping center, to hold 8,000 cars. The parking facility will use a ground floor, but in the near future, Swoford sees a six-lane highway with no parking permitted. He predicts a fully operational traffic signal will be installed at the 426-Palms Springs Road intersection in the new year and in time, with the new shopping center, Palm Springs Road will be made in the city in 1972 that a "couple" smaller shopping centers will be built.
 It is likely the southern extension of Longwood Avenue into the city recreation property as well as Ballard Street will be paved in the new year and Hermita Trail rebuilt. The city will probably develop another park in the western section of the city most likely on portions of the 30 acres of land recently donated to the city by developers.

NORTH ORLANDO GROWING
 Orderly and steady growth is predicted for North Orlando in the new year by Mayor Granville Brown with 1,000 to 1,100 homes, more than twice the present number, occupied in the old section of the village by year end. He is also optimistic about the planned new charter, expecting it to be passed both by the Legislature and a referendum of the people.
 If Florida Land Company's plans are according to schedule an additional new sewer treatment plant will be built and two additional water plants constructed to serve the people of the community.
 SHEOAH will be completed at June and ready to open Nov. 1, Mayor Brown said, and some of the apartments around the golf course should also be open. Winter Springs II will be completed in the year with 70 more homes.
 Hopefully two additional patrol policemen will be hired to join the chief, one full time man and several part time ones to give round the clock police protection.

NO TRIAL BUT JAILED 14 YEARS
 TAVARES, Fla. (AP) — The attorney for James Daniels says he will ask the Florida Legislature to authorize Daniels' compensation for the 14 years he was confined in the state mental hospital at Chattahoochee in an unresolved rape case.
 Lake County authorities dropped the long-pending charge against Daniels Thursday.
 Attorney Richard Graham said in Daytona Beach he had prepared a relief bill for introduction at the next legislative session. He said the bill would seek compensation for Daniels, but does not specify any amount.
 State Atty. Gordon Oldham said the charge was dismissed because of the way Daniels' confession was obtained and because if he was found guilty by a court of the next legislative session. He said the bill would seek compensation for Daniels, but does not specify any amount.
 Daniels now is employed as a kitchen helper at the same Daytona Beach hotel where his mother works as a maid.

NO-FAULT 'IN GOOD SHAPE'
 TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Insurance Commissioner Tom O'Malley says Florida will not be affected by the nation's court ruling that invalidated a no-fault auto insurance plan because it discriminated against poor people.
 The Illinois plan was said to discriminate against poor people, "the provision that was attacked in that plan is not contained in our law."
 "On the basis of that ruling, we feel we're in pretty good shape," he said.
 Earlier this week, Circuit Judge Daniel Covell of Chicago struck down Illinois' no-fault plan because of a provision that limited claims for pain and suffering benefits to 50 per cent of medical expenses up to $500.
 A rich person's medical expenses, Covell ruled, might be higher than a less wealthy person if he went to a more expensive hospital.
 Therefore, he ruled, a poor person would be effectively discriminated against in what he could receive for pain and suffering.
 "There is no such formula written into our law," O'Malley said.

REMINDER OF PREDICTIONS PREVIOUSLY MADE BY DELIBERATIONS — Councilman Eugene Jacques will be elected Council Chairman of Longwood. New councilman-elect Richard (Dick) Crenshaw will be named vice-chairman of the city council there. In Casselberry, watch for Councilman Harry Samlovsk to be named Council Chairman for the new year.

DONNA'S DELIBERATIONS

By: Donna Estes

The New Year of 1972 promises to be a prosperous and successful year for the municipalities of South Seminole County in the view of the various chief executives of the cities.
 Casselberry Mayor Curtis Blow predicts a "spirit of close cooperation and coordination between his office and the City Council. I believe we have a very level-headed fiscally conservative yet progressive City Council," Blow said.
 Elected earlier this month to his third consecutive term as mayor, Blow expects the new year to see the successful acquisition of the privately-owned water and sewer utility by the city, increased annexation, acquisition of the golf course at Land O Lakes Country Club and possibly state and federal assistance on funding the golf course once it is acquired by the city.
 The mayor also expects funding from the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development to update the sewer system when it is required.

Smooth Sailing

"Smooth sailing is ahead in law enforcement," he said. Blow predicted the city will do more with Secret Lake Park during 1972 than ever before. The Summer Swim Club, scheduled to be reconstituted in the city's game this week, will provide a well rounded recreation program whether it is leased to a civic organization or stays under the direct control of the city, the mayor said.
 Blow looks for the paving of Melody Lane, followed possibly by paving of Flamingo and Lake Ellen Drives to mark the beginning of an intense 10-year paving program.
 The chief executive says some help is in the offing to the community with the problems of the intersection of U.S. 17-82 and SR 436 although he is not sure if the assistance will be "too little or too late."
 In addition, although the CALNO Council of Local Governments has got off to a slow start Blow foresees an escalation of activities among the sister cities.

Pet Projects Told

Mayor Kenneth Brown of Longwood has four separate pet projects he hopes to see accomplished during the next 12 months and if "just these things are done the city government has its work cut out for it."
 Brown said his few weeks in office and attendance at County meetings it is very evident concerted effort should be given to expediting obtaining federal funds for construction of the planned sewer system. "This is a must," Brown declared.
 "Presently an adoption of a new charter to replace the 1920's vintage one now in use by the city carries another high priority with Brown. The mayor hopes to see creation of a charter study commission and a new charter ready for referendum of the people within 90 days. This was one of the planks in Brown's successful election campaign.
 Noting the large numbers of city children playing in the streets of the city because there is little or no organized play in the community, Brown said he is doubling his efforts to find a suitable area to locate within the city's bounds.
 "There must be some outlet for the kids especially with the summer months not too far off," he said.

Construction Planned

The 1972 year will bring Altamonte Springs a new city hall and civic center expansion of the water and sewer system, continuation of annexation on petition of landowners, 500 to 800 new homes and 500 to 1,000 new apartment units, according to Mayor Lawrence Swoford.

Seeks $1 Million For Slander Ex-Governor Suing Citrus Mutual

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — A slander and libel suit has been filed against Florida Citrus Mutual by former Gov. Fuller Warren and partners in an Orlando law firm who want damages in excess of $1 million.
 Warren and the partners in the firm of Fishback, Davis, Dominick and Simmons claim Citrus Mutual has caused "their good names, professional standing and reputation and future business opportunities to be degraded and diminished."
 The litigation grows out of a suit filed against the Florida Citrus Commission in 1969 by Citrus grower C. V. Griffin Jr. of Howie-in-the-Hills.
 Griffin filed suit to overturn the state's 1967 Orange Stabilization Act which the commission collects a 3-cent per box tax on each box of citrus grown. The money now amounts to some $15 million, it is used to promote the sale of citrus products in national school lunch programs.
 Griffin's suit, filed in Lake County, claimed the act was unconstitutional and challenged the commission's right to spend the money.
 Charles E. Davis of the Orlando law firm has been Griffin's chief counsel, and Warren — governor from 1965 to 1969 — and the other attorneys have assisted in the suit.
 Griffin's suit was accepted as a class action on behalf of all growers after 500 of them voted against the act in a referendum. Citrus Court claims Mutual paid the 15,000 grower Mutual claims the support of the majority of the growers.

 Mutual circulated an affidavit among growers seeking support for the act and in the 16th issue of its newsletter, "The Angle," claimed that grower support was "overwhelming."
 The suit filed by Warren and the others in Orange County Circuit Court claims Mutual agents contacted growers throughout the state to "misleadly inform them about the nature and status" of Griffin's suit. The plaintiffs claim Mutual having no merit and told growers the attorneys involved were seeking "exorbitant and unjustified fees."
 The plaintiffs said Mutual statements constituted slander and libel, and they asked for $1 million in compensatory damages, plus punitive damages to be set by a jury.
 Tom Osborne, Mutual's general manager, said at the time of the suit that the Orange Stabilization Act was legal and sent Griffin's suit back to the County Circuit Court for a decision on the commission's right to spend the money it has collected.
 "Furthermore," he added, "I do not understand even the procedure I hear, and until such time as I receive the exact legal documents I won't have anything further to say."
 The Florida Supreme Court ruled in 1970 that the Orange Stabilization Act was legal and sent Griffin's suit back to the County Circuit Court for a decision on the commission's right to spend the money it has collected.
