Chinese Communists Nationalist Forces Moving Into Mukden

Bitter Fighting In City Suddenly Evacuated By Soviet Forces

CHUNGKING, Mar. 11.—(AP)— Chinese Communist and Nationalist forces are said to be moving reinforcements into the area of embattled Mukden, the big industrial center from which Russian troops have been withdrawn suddenly.

The China Central News Agency says that bitter fighting is raging in Mukden between the opposing Chinese factions. Press dispatches received in Chungking say the Chinese Communists heavily outweigh the Nationalists. The Communists are said to have seized control of the power plant and northern district of Mukden—a city of 2,000,000.

Other dispatches say the Chinese Central Government has proclaimed martial law in the once-great Manchurian capital whose plants have been picked clean by the Russians.

The suddenness of the Soviet withdrawal has been blamed for the street fighting in Mukden. Dispatches received by Chungking government officials say the Nationalists did not have enough forces to cope with the situation.

Ma and K. C. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and other high Central Government officials have discussed the Manchurian situation at a series of meetings in Chungking. Chinese Information Minister K. C. Wu has denied an assertion that the Soviet navy paper—Red Fleet—had requested the Russians on Feb. 26 to postpone their departure from Manchuria. Wu said that on Dec. 30 it was agreed the Russians would complete their withdrawal from Manchuria by Feb. 1. Wu asserts that since that time, there has been no Chinese request to the Russians to postpone their departure.

Plans Made To Insert Subsidy In Housing Bill

Administration Heads Meet This Morning With President Truman At White House

WASHINGTON, Mar. 11.—(AP)— Democratic Senator Alben Barkley declared today that the Administration expects to restore a subsidy fund to housing legislation when it reaches the Senate. Senator Barkley made the announcement following a conference of congressional leaders this morning with President Truman at the White House.

President Truman has asked for $5,000,000 in subsidies on building materials as a means of keeping the cost of new homes from going too high. The House of Representatives struck the subsidies provision from the housing bill and also killed a provision that would have put ceiling prices on existing dwellings.

Senator Barkley said that Administration supporters will try to revive all features of the original housing program asked by President Truman. But he declared that the main effort will be thrown behind the subsidy payments, which the President says would enable returning veterans to obtain homes at reasonable prices.

The government is putting final touch on a new order designed to channel construction activities into the building of new homes. The order, which has not yet been issued, is understood to call for reduction in commercial and industrial construction, particularly of such buildings as night clubs and theaters. Persons who have seen a draft of the order declare that it is drastic and far-reaching.

Union Leaders Say Policy Same In GM Walkout

GE And CIO Resume First Negotiations Today In 2 Months

Top leaders of the CIO United Auto Workers have issued a statement declaring that what ever personal differences there may be between them, they are united insofar as their policy in the General Motors strike is concerned. Rumors of a struggle for power within the union between President R. J. Thomas and Vice President Walter Reuther have been circulating. The three men in the organization, Thomas, Reuther, and Secretary Treasurer George Addes, declare that they are in unanimous agreement on the strike, and hold that the corporation alone is responsible for the continuation of the walkout.

They assert that General Motors is responsible because of its failure to accept the recommendations of President Truman, and its refusal to arbitrate the issues that remain unsettled.

The statement was given out as the union's strike negotiating committee met in a closed session preparatory to resuming wage talks with General Motors officials this afternoon.

Meanwhile in New York, the General Electric Company and the CIO United Electrical Workers Union are to resume wage negotiations today for the first time in almost two months. The wage talks were broken off Jan. 15 when 100,000 union members struck in GE plants in 16 states.

Company President C. E. Wilson says that the only important issue still not agreed upon is wages. Wilson says he has no idea how long it will take before an agreement is reached on that score.

In Philadelphia, AF of L leaders indicate a strike at a Philadelphia hotel by 275 workers seeking pay increases may spread to five other downtown hotels. If it does, some 2,500 hotel workers would walk out in sympathy with the demands of the 275 workers who are striking for a pay hike of six cents an hour. Five AF of L unions are involved in the hotel dispute.

Of the total shipments from Seminole County, 365 cars, presented nearly half with 365 cars shipped during the week of this total. Sanford shipped 254 and Ovelto, 111 cars.

New plantings are reported to be in good shape, according to Charles Sherman of Federal-State Market News Service. There are in Zellwood, Ovelto and Wierdale.

There is a fine demand reported for cabbage, especially at the Sanford State Market. Prices have been rising and this morning were listed at $1.75 to $2.00 for locally grown cabbage. Charge Is Initial Reply To Former British Leader's Missouri Address

LONDON, Mar. 11. (AP)— The official communist newspaper Pravda turned its editorial guns on former British Prime Minister Winston Churchill today. It was Moscow's first direct reply to the speech which Churchill made at Fulton, last week.

Pravda accused Churchill of trying to incite war against the Soviet Union. The Soviet newspaper asserted that if the former Prime Minister's ideas were put into effect for a British-American military alliance it would mean the death of the United Nations Organization.

The Moscow editorial said that Churchill had attempted to intimidate the whole world with the horrors of Soviet expansion and its alleged menace to true democracy in the west.

Moscow quoted the Pravda article as declaring that Churchill had tried to impress the idea that a new war is inevitable. Continuing the Communist Party newspaper accused Churchill of inciting people to this war and, namely to war against the Soviet Union.

According to Pravda, Churchill declared the Soviet Union by saying that Russia wants the fruits of war and unlimited expansion of her strength and doctrine.

After referring to Churchill's anti-soviet attitude between the first and second world wars, the editorial cited British policies in Greece as Churchill's conception of the prototype "liberated Europe." Pravda general Russian charges that British troops in Greece were supporting what the newspaper called fascist monarchist reaction.

Wilson Says State Should And Can Help Feed Europe

need not curtail production of the luxury-type products for which the State has built such a tremendous trade, since the bulk of our staple crops come from areas which do not concentrate on vegetables, and since the cultivation of the staples is to a large extent, carried on in months when lettuce, celery, beans and other major truck crops are not being harvested.

Conditions on markets operated by the organization which he heads, were summarized by Director Wilson, as follows:

Sanford.—Growing conditions at present are excellent. More than 2,000 cars of celery have been shipped from Seminole County this season. There is a shortage of cabbage and demand exceeds supply on many vegetables.

Wauchula.—Crops are coming along in fine shape, and a big Spring season is expected.

Plant City.—Strawberries are making a slow come-back from the preceding week's disastrous rains. Spring vegetables are being sold—yellow squash bringing $3.50 per hamper, pepper $4.05.

Palmetto.—Tomatoes severely damaged by recent rains.

Pacee.—Cabbage selling at $1 to $1.75 in 50 pound sacks. Early beans moving.

Fort Pierce.—Bumper crop of tomatoes this spring indicates harvest to increase in volume after mid-March.

Florida City.—Produce volume running heavy, with tomatoes selling from $3 to $8.50, beans, $2.85 to $3.20 and squash $2.50 to $3. Quality fair and demand good on all vegetables.

Celery Shipments From Florida Jump To 771 Cars In Week

The following other vegetable ceilings for March were listed by the FVC as of March 8: Snap beans, bushel, $3.25; carrots, bushel, $3.30; lettuce, crate, $3.25; green onions, 50 pounds, $2.95; green peas, bushel, $3.50; white potatoes, (100 pounds) $3.95; sweet potatoes, to Apr. 3, $3.00; strawberries, pint, 26 cents (16th to 20th, 27 cents).

A recent unanimous request of the board of directors of FVC that price controls be removed from fresh vegetables will be transmitted to UFA and to Congress by Manager L. Graw in person during the week of March 10 when hearings of the House and Senate Committees on renewal of OEA legislation are being held. The Committee in its recent bulletin also predicted that the present farm labor shortage may become worse than better.

According to Seminole County Agent C. R. Dawson, Jamaican laborers brought here at government expense have performed a valuable service. At present there are about 150 of them at the Farm Labor Camp. About 35 of the original number that were sent here have been sent back to Jamaica for various reasons, including those that are in ill health.

Recently one of the Jamaicans inquired if he could obtain U. S. citizenship. He was informed by the Immigration Office that it was impossible. Part of the savings of the workers here is retained and sent to the home government so that the worker will be assured of having funds when returned home. Mr. Dawson said.

Automobile Is His Just For The Fixing

HARRISBURG, Ill. (AP)—Wendell Baker wanted an automobile, but he had to turn woodsman to get it.

Matt J. Fiala sold Baker his 1931 car, which Fiala stored in his garage when he stopped driving in 1935. Baker found a tree taller than the garage handy to block the garage door. Baker chopped down the tree to get at the car.

No Complaints Are Heard From Students

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—You probably won't hear many students complaining about this, but publishers of school books are so far behind "it will take years" to catch up with the demand.

William W. Livingston of Hillsdale, editor-in-chief of a large textbook publishing firm, says the reasons are: shortage of paper, an increased demand and catching up with the retrenchment years during the depression when schools got along with what books they had.

1945 Clipper Traffic Breaks All Previous PAA Flight Records

MIAMI, Mar. 11. (Special)—The Clippers of Pan American World Airways flew the equivalent of nearly 1,000 times around the world in Latin American skies during 1945, surpassing all records in the airline's 15-year history.

In a year that saw the transition from war to peacetime operations, PAA's Latin American Division carried from 15 to 25 percent more passengers, mail and express than during the previous twelve months while the number of scheduled flights increased by more than 50 percent.

The year-end report, just released by PAA, shows a total of 348,330 passengers—almost 1,000 a day—carried over all routes of the Latin American Division, compared to the previous year's total of 302,555. To carry this record number of inter-American travelers, the Clippers flew 23,752,081 miles, almost five million more than the 19,082,000 flown in 1944.

While terminating its contract operations for the army in the fall, PAA put into service extra planes and equipment released by the armed forces and moved its scheduled flights to 70,800, a 50 per cent increase over the previous year's 49,917. With a fleet of Clippers that averaged 31 during the year, man-

A Threat To The Country

However one may feel about the rights of labor and the need for improving the standard of living of the average man, it is becoming increasingly evident that strikes in themselves are a relic of barbarism...

Ever since the war ended, and to a lesser extent even while it was being waged, the whole country has been in the throes of one strike after another.

There is scarcely a person in the country who does not think this is a sorry state of affairs. It is costing workingmen and labor unions millions of dollars every day which they can never hope to recover.

But if the people of America think a strike-bound country in this day and time is a sorry state of affairs, in how much worse light must we appear in the eyes of the people of the rest of the world who are looking to us for leadership in social and political thought...

No one disputes the right of any working man, or any combination of them, to strive for higher pay, and no doubt in many cases today they deserve it; but it would seem to us in this day and time, some better method might be found for resolving the differences which inevitably arise between management and labor than by wrecking the economy of the whole country.

In our opinion the Wagner Labor Relations Act, which is at the root of all this trouble, should be repealed at once, and in its place should be substituted a bill providing for the compulsory arbitration of industrial disputes with regional boards of arbitration established, much after the manner of our federal courts, whose decision would be final, except for appeal to some higher board.

In the absence of some such legislation, or a complete change in the present attitude of both management and labor, it seems quite possible that these strikes will continue until the shelves of all our department stores are completely bare, until millions of men are unemployed, threatened with starvation, and the WPA or worse will have to be restored, and we will find ourselves in the midst of another depression which will make the panic of 1933 seem like a picnic.

Poor Boston

The proud old city of Boston is in trouble. Its 71-year-old mayor, James M. Curley, who also manages to hold the office of United States representative from the district, has been sentenced to a term of from six to 18 months for mail fraud.

The city's traffic problem is considered one of the country's worst; its tax rate the highest of any large American city. The municipal departmental organization is reported by experts to be full of red tape and duplication; schools with decreased enrollment have increased in cost, and a suggested reorganization that might have saved more than a million dollars was rejected.

The trouble in the main seems to be the movement of citizens to the suburbs, people who earn their living in Boston, but live and vote elsewhere. It is the common fate of many large cities, with population shifts tending away from city limits to outlying areas.

The Use Of Power

In connection with Winston Churchill's notable address at Fulton, Mo., President Truman well said that "the world is either headed for destruction or for the greatest age-of-progress in human history."

Perhaps to many people in this and other countries it seems "a toss-up" whether it shall be glory or destruction. There is in existence now the means of destroying the civilized world, with all its marvelous accumulations developed throughout the ages.

There is no doubt of how the American people will choose, if the choice remains free and is not dictated by excessive need of resisting foreign aggression. Our way is the way of culture, progress and humanity, of tolerance and friendship with all nations, of the use of forces only under compulsion and in self-defense.

It is the American aim to persuade all doubtful human groups to the same humane purpose, rather than to follow the ancient rule that "they should take who have the power, and they should keep who can."

Sunshine Stable's Buzfus is being rested in preparation for a heavy summer campaign of stake races.

TERRACE TALK
It looks as if Grandmother is going to have the last laugh after all. For her ultra-modern granddaughters, the of the streamlined silhouette and spheric ambitions, are going back to hoop skirts.
Newest conversation piece on the summer fashion horizon is the good old-fashioned hoop skirt, built on the same principle as those worn by Civil War soldiers. The designer who launched this startling, pendulum fashion is Adele Simpson, who decided if hips were in style again she would put hoops around them, huppa-hoop!
The summer evening gowns she shows have a diaphanous charm all their own, and conservative souls can wear them without the hoops, if they like. In that case they become merely slim-waisted, full-skirted dresses.

HARRY GRIMBALL is home for two weeks visiting his family on Magnolia.
JOAN CRAWFORD and RAY MILLAND won Oscars for their performances in "Mildred Pierce" and "Lost Weekend" as the best of the year 1945... the highest honors for motion picture acting. Supporting honors went to ANNE REVERE and JAMES DUNN for their performances in "NATIONAL VELVET" and "A TREE GROWS IN BROOKLYN".
Little PEGGY ANN GARDNER received the special award as the most promising child actress... The song "It Might As Well Be Spring" was selected as the best original song.
Word has been received that the National Bridge League tournament will be held at the Mayfair Hotel some time in May... Approximately 120 players will participate in the contest for a duration of three days.
In the Spring a young man's fancy may turn to thoughts of love, but there isn't a woman who isn't already thinking of how her flume is going to look when she shed her coat come warm weather. Certainly every woman has been watching the advance Spring styles and noting the wavy waistlines and trim, tucked and draped skirts, the necklines ranging from the bare-shoulder look to the high throat hug, and wondered how he was going to look in them... Stamp Tax Law

Harold Colee States
Law Has Poor Man
Backed Into Corner

JACKSONVILLE, March 11.—Florida State Chamber of Commerce guns are being oiled to take more than a pot shot at the state's documentary stamp tax law, Harold Colee, executive vice president of the organization, declared here today in conformity with board action taken at Tampa in 1944. He said that the citizens' tax committee, set up by the governor and now about to go into action, will be furnished, he believed, with enough ammunition against the stamp law to annoy the committee's digestive tract.

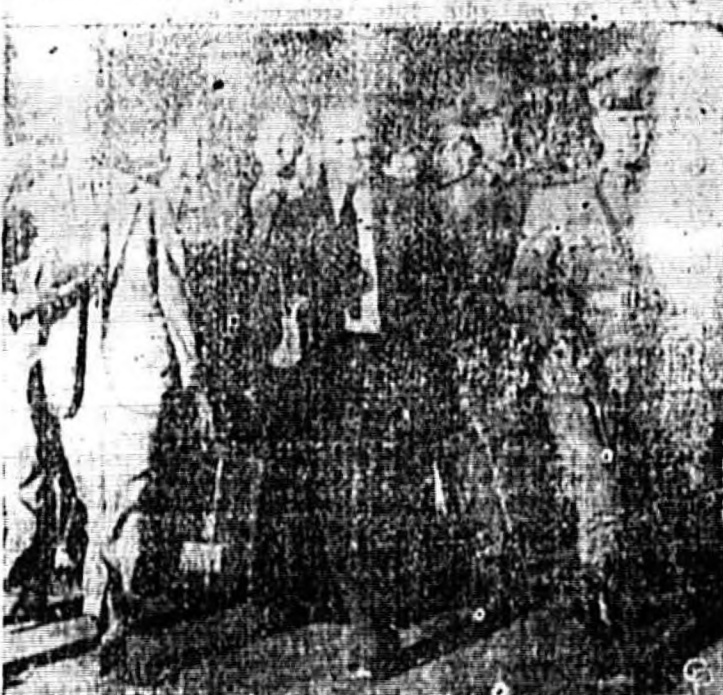

"This stamp law," Colee declared, "has the poor man backed into a corner, and since its enactment in 1931 has siphoned $3,000,000 from his pockets, while others may escape its impositions, and often do, merely by transacting their business in other states."

"The tax," he continued, "was regarded as undemocratic even by the legislature passing it, though necessary at the time because of the depression. Governor Caldwell has dubbed it a 'nuisance' tax, and is understood to be in favor of its repeal."

"This tax," Colee asserted, "runs almost parallel with that of a federal documentary stamp tax, so close to it, in fact, that in many instances the same documents are taxed by both the federal and state governments. But that is not all the story. This state sometimes taxes identical transactions as many as three times, namely, when real estate sales agreement is made, when deeds are executed, and again when note installments are paid. Colee declared that the stamp tax is discriminatory since it angles out but a very few of the documents essential to the carrying on of the state's commerce, and ignores all the rest. "It strikes chiefly," he continued, "at real estate sales documents, and is a burden on the borrower of money. Even the man borrowing on his wages must pay this tax. Experts in the tax field declare that it is absolutely impossible to collect such taxes uniformly and fairly, that the

NON-STRIKING SUPERVISORY WORKERS and pickets are pictured as they tangled at the strike-bound plant of the Western Electric Company in Kearny, N. J. Non-strikers tried to buck the picket line and the battle was on. Here police are shown trying to break up the scuffle. police forces at the state's disposal are, and can never be, adequate enough to deal with such a "nightmarish" law. The tax is a consumers' tax, and where paid is nearly always an imposition on the poor man.

In stressing the fact that Florida's law in some respects duplicates that of the federal government, Colee said that Floridians had paid the United States treasury approximately $2,879,743 in stamp tax, both governments having collected from practically the same source more than 11 billions of dollars since 1931.

Get Your Season Pass Now!
A special committee representing the Sanford Baseball Association today began canvassing baseball fans in the city who have yet to purchase their 1916 Florida State League season passes.

The baseball association needs your support at this critical hour. Help them all you can, and you'll benefit from their efforts this summer when you can walk into the Municipal Park and enjoy an evening of baseball. The association has come forth with everything within its power to bring baseball to Sanford. They have been working since December and now it's your turn to assist them.

Claude Whiddon, general manager, said today that all persons having season passes for the purpose of selling them have not yet reported to the baseball office. He pointed an appeal for all these people to telephone and make an oral report so that an accurate number of sold passes can be reported.

Racley and Wanner
Yesterday afternoon, we had our first opportunity to see Max Racley, the Montreal outfielder who Leo Durocher and Fresno Thompson of the Dodgers claim to be the new Paul Waner. Red Smith of the New York Herald-Tribune says he can't see Racley in the shoes of Wanner. Racley does stand well at the plate and swings well. His fielding ability cannot be judged by this corner for he only handled one play yesterday, but just the same, Racley bids the confidence of Durocher that he's a major league material.

Another Royal who has been watched carefully by the Dodgers is outfielder Jack Rancho. However, in his appearance here yesterday, he played five innings. On three trips to the platter, he fanned twice and grounded out third to first on the other occasion.

Rancho is a good looking youth at the plate but his hitting didn't come up to par with Carl Furillo, another Royal outfielder who started the game in leftfield. Furillo blasted out two sharp singles to right and a long home to center in three trips to the plate.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Mar. 11. (Special)—Cadet James E. Carter, of Sanford, became champion of the 145 pound class of the Corps of Cadets by winning the Brigade Boxing Tourney which has just been completed at West Point.

Carter, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Carter of 1000 Oak Avenue, received his appointment to the United States Military Academy from Congressman A. L. Greene of Florida. Cadet Carter was in the First Class at West Point, previously attended North Georgia College and Army.

Montreal Royals Whitewash Saints 12 To 0

Royals Blast Out 19 Safeties Against Two Saint Hurlers; In Daytona Today

By JULIAN STENSTROM
The Montreal Royals, who've been giving even the Dodgers plenty of trouble during their exhibition tilt in Daytona Beach, indicated yesterday that they still retain the power of last year's International League champions when they blasted out 19 safeties off Jack Banta and Dick Lalady to whitewash the St. Paul Saints by a score of 12 to 0.

Henry Behrman went to the mound for the Royals and certainly did his share in the Royal victory. He limited the Saints to seven well-scattered hits during his six inning tenure on the hill before being relieved by Lloyd Fisher, who likewise held a line on the Saints. He held Ray Blades' aggregation of a pair of safeties, both coming in the eighth frame.

John Jorgenson, Royal third sacker, was the hitter of the day. The stacky infielder hit safely in six trips to the platter, a double and five singles.

Hostilities began in the opening stanza. The Royals shoved a double pair of markers on a double by Jorgenson and singles by Whitman, Furillo and Bread. In the second, they recorded three more on singles by Jorgenson, Whitman, Furillo, a walk to Carl Neumann.

The Royals continued to pound Malady in the third and accounted for four more runs. Basgall, Anderson and Racley worked Malady for free passes. Jorgenson, Whitman and Furillo singled, combined with error by centerfielder Dave Bride and second baseman Joe Vitter, Beard, Ferrell Anderson, Racley and Jorgenson crossed the plate.

In the fourth, Basgall singled, sent to second on Bread's walk and scored on a sharp double by Anderson. Another was added in the seventh on singles by Racley and Jorgenson. Basgall crossed the platter in the eighth for the final marker on a single Fisher.

The Saints threatened in the ninth on a single by Furillo, but were grounded out to center in three trips to the plate.

Bill Heerde Cage Star Today At 32
GALESBURG, Ill., Mar. 11. (AP)—Bill Heerde, the "old man of knock" who came back from the wars to become the nation's oldest collegiate griddle at the age of 32, is now cavorting on the hardwood for Old Siwash like a 17-year-old freshman.

Heerde, a receptive southpaw, is holding down his old guard post from which he captained Knox in 1910-11, his last year of play before enlisting in the marines.

A veteran of Guadalcanal, Iwo Jima and Saipan, Heerde entered Knox for his senior year last fall and attracted nationwide attention as the oldest football player.

Heerde's athletic career stretches across 17 years since he first starred as a prep at Maine, Ill., in 1922. He enrolled at Knox at the age of 26.

Calumet Farm Stable Topped Owners In Purses At Hialeah

MIAMI, March 11. (AP)—Wright's fabulous Calumet Farm stable—winner of a million dollars in purses—topped the owners in purses at Hialeah today. The greater proportion of the total was accounted for by Arved in winning the Widener. The victory was worth $46,000 for the Chicago-owned Calumet Farm.

H. A. Murphy of Philadelphia, owner of Concordian, the McLennan winner—second in the standings with $51,000. All of the money was earned by the rheumatic galloper with four firsts and one second in his five starts.

The stable of Mrs. R. H. Heighe of Hialeah, Md. won third on the list with $37,000 in purses. Adroit, winner of the Black Helen Handicap, was the bread-winner for the barn.

Sanford Stud Farm of Amsterdam, N. Y., amassed $36,700, mainly through the efforts of Round View, winner of the Flamingo Stakes.

Hirsch Jacobs, who has had a hammer-lock on first place in the trainers division until displaced in 1915 by Stanley Lipiec, was top conditioner with 10 winners saddled. C. M. Felner, trainer for Gustav Ring, and J. Leyland of Paradise Farm were deadlocked with nine winners to their credit.

Sees Less Pressure At St. Bonaventure

NEWARK, N. J., Mar. 11. (AP)—Coaching St. Bonaventure College in upstate New York is a far cry from mastering the mighty Irish of Notre Dame, but Hughie Devore, grid mentor at South Bend, is not at all fazed by the change.

Devore, who hails from the nearby Oranges, puts it this way: "I like to coach football and I don't see why I shouldn't enjoy it just as much at St. Bonaventure as I have everywhere else."

Reds Continue Occupation Of Danish Island

Position Gives Soviet Union Command Of Sea Routes Through Lower Baltic Area

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) In this day, when Moscow, London and Washington are engaging in making fierce faces at one another, it has become popular to view Soviet Russia's foreign tactics through two sets of glasses. One is, that every Russian move is calculated as part of an imperialistic chess game for world dominion. The other is that the Russian maneuvers only are part of a defense to secure all of the Soviet Union's frontiers.

Moscow regards the first viewpoint as just so much strange nonsense. It looks upon the second—that of security—as a legitimate and necessary aim. In this, Russian spokesmen have said that the Soviet Union will continue on her way, not turning aside, but not making attempts on foreign interests nor at the same time yielding its own.

The preponderance of world interests in balancing these views against what is taking place, has been in Iran, the Balkans, the Mediterranean, and Manchuria. Virtually neglected by the outside world is a situation in the Baltic, whereby the Russian command of all the sea routes through the lower Baltic.

It was on May 10, 1945, that the Russian forces stormed the Danish island of Bornholm, and liberated it from the Germans. There was one day after the British warships, racing in from the west, had caught remnants of the German fleet in Copenhagen Harbor. Red Army units quickly rounded up the Nazi occupation forces on this northern outpost of Denmark, and sent a delegation to the Danish capital in June to announce that the Russians would stay as long as Stalin, Truman and Churchill found it necessary. At the time, the big three were preparing for the Potsdam conference.

It has been a full ten months.

Spaatz Streamlines Army Air Forces

WASHINGTON, Mar. 12. (AP)—In a move to meet the requirements of the atomic age, General Carl Spaatz today streamlined the Army Air Forces into three major commands. At the same time, the chief of the nation's air arm declared that the atom bomb makes it almost certain that any future war will be fought with air action.

The three major commands are: the Strategic Air Command, composed of long range striking forces; the Air Defense Command, responsible for aerial protection of the continental United States; and the Tactical Air Command, to cooperate with surface forces.

Senator Urges New Meeting Of Big Three

Connally Calls For Heads To Discuss Issues That May Blaze Into Friction

WASHINGTON, March 12. — (AP)—Democratic Senator Tom Connally of Texas called today for a new meeting of President Truman, Prime Minister Attlee and Soviet Premier Stalin.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee chairman issued his call for a new Big Three meeting from the floor of the Senate. Connally called upon the Big Three to discuss, in language he described as "clear and plain and if need be, blunt," issues Connally feared may blaze into world friction.

Connally told his Senate colleagues he was optimistic about the future of this nation's relations with Russia—provided those relations are based on such plain speaking.

However, Connally declared that while Russia has the unchallenged right to maintain any form of government she wants, these rights, as he put it, "do not extend beyond her boundaries."

Connally called also for the maintenance by the United States of a superlative air force, a superior Navy and an adequate Army. These forces, the Texas declared, not only would back up American determination to resist aggression but also to oppose aggression by economic or political pressure or maneuver.

Connally asserted his belief that so long as Russia, Britain and the United States remained loyal to the United Nations charter and adjust differences as they arise, there will be peace. But, warned Connally: "Those who want peace must not commit acts to provoke war. Russia can have peace by supporting and cooperating with the United Nations. Her responsibility is great because her power is great."

Connally's speech carried on the newly instituted policy of plain speaking about Russian and American relations started recently by Michigan's Republican Senator Arthur Vandenberg and followed up by Secretary of State James Byrnes. Connally said he had discussed his speech in advance with Secretary Byrnes.

R. T. Cowan, City Reach Agreement On Lots For Vets

An agreement between R. T. Cowan and the City Commission was reached at a special meeting yesterday afternoon whereby 25 city owned lots in Magnolia Heights may be used by Mr. Cowan to build homes for veterans.

The City had reserved the 25 lots to be an asset to the building of a bigger and better Sanford.

"I would appreciate you advising the City Commission that I am releasing them of their offer to use the City Park for the radio station site, and I would do this even if I had a signed contract in my possession. I will never forget the kindness shown me by your City Officials, Mr. Higgins and yourself," Mayor Gut also announced that further steps would be taken immediately to secure another more suitable site for the radio station.

City Refuses Financial Aid To Ball Club

Mayor Explains Rising Costs Are Over-taxing City Budget

A request for financial assistance made by the Sanford Baseball Association in order to help support a Sanford team in the Florida State League, was turned down by the City Commission last evening due to the City's financial condition, Mayor James Gut said today.

All the commissioners expressed themselves as being heartily in favor of having a team here, and regretted the inability of the City to help in this matter, said Mayor Gut. He declared that it was the City's first duty to maintain necessary functions and that the City budget for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30 already had been over-expended due to increased labor and costs. He pointed out that the budget had been set during war time conditions and that it had to be set a year ahead.

During an afternoon session of the City Commission at which Commissioner George Bishop was not present, the matter of securing City aid for the ball club was presented by Claude Whiddon, manager Joel Field, president and by E. G. Kilpatrick, vice president of the Association. Mr. Whiddon pointed out that there was very little money left to raise necessary baseball funds by means of selling season tickets, and that the drive was only two weeks old and asked for the City's financial assistance. He also asked that the City furnish lights and maintain the grounds at Municipal Baseball Park.

Mr. Kilpatrick said that he would like to see Sanford have a baseball team, which he had hoped could be financed without asking for outside help. He added that if the City had the money to aid in the project, they would be well pleased.

Mr. Field told how Deland had supported its club through sale of tickets for the season totaling 354, and told of how heavily patronized baseball games already have been in Florida this season.

At the meeting a colored committee requested the City to aid in establishing recreational facilities and a baseball park and were assured that when the city was able to do so, they would be considered.

Approval was given for the purchase of 20 Series A City refunding bonds. This will make a total of $60,000 bonds retired in the next 60 days, according to H. N. Sayer, city clerk.

Application of Roy A. Redding to operate a colored dance hall now under construction at 1615 West Thirteenth Street was approved. O. C. Rowan was granted a permit to operate a taxi in view of the fact that he has secured two permits were approved for colored taxi drivers operating from Midway and out of town points. One of these was to John Reddick negro. It was reported that there are more than a dozen more applications for taxi for colored drivers to operate taxis.

Approval was given for a contract with the Federal Works Agency to deliver to the City detailed plans and specifications for a sewerage treatment plant. The cost of the plans, which amount may be repaid by the City if or when such a plant is built, said Mayor Gut.

Goering Is Described As Friend To Jews In Testimony At Trial

International Tribunal Grants Defendant Franz Von Papen Authority To Submit Interrogatory To Swedish Monarch

NUERNBERG, Mar. 12. (AP)—A former defendant in the trial of Hermann Goering, who has testified before the International Tribunal at Nuremberg, today testified that Goering had been a friend to Jews in his youth.

Goering testified before the tribunal that the purge in 1934 was stopped after Goering made a protest to Hitler that innocent people were being killed. Goering declared that Goering (sound-bitten) had been in the concentration camps in Germany—but only to "re-educate" enemies of the state. Goering means to compel any person under the camps over to Heinrich Himmler in 1934 on Hitler's orders, said Goering in testimony. He believed in attempted to stop a Jewish pogrom.

Graw To Present FVC Appeal To OPA To Remove Price Controls

LAKELAND, Mar. 12. (Special)—LaMonte Graw, manager of the Florida Vegetable Commission, will go to Washington next week to present an appeal to the Office of Price Administration for the removal of price regulations from perishable vegetables. Graw will arrive in the nation's capital on Monday and will join representatives of the industry from Texas and California in presenting the plea.

Contending there is sufficient evidence of ample supply in all varieties important to Florida and nation-wide production except for peas, these representatives will ask OPA to follow the government directive, made after the war's end, to de-control prices on any commodity in ample supply.

"Orderly reconversion of the fresh vegetable industry to a peacetime basis is next to impossible as long as food pricing regulations remain in effect," Graw said, as he outlined the appeal from action taken a few days ago in a resolution of the FVC. "The reconversion problem of the vegetable grower differs from that of the manufacturer," he continued. "In that the farmer has increased his production to meet the wartime needs of the nation. Now he must adjust downward to the decreased demand. This means that the wide spread between price paid the producer and cost to the consumer must be reduced, along with elimination of delays in marketing."

"Consumers unquestionably would be surprised to know that the vegetables for which they are paying high prices, often net the farmer less than the cost. Under OPA regulations, maximum prices are set for many vegetables." (Continued on Page Four)

Labor Czar Expected To Ask For Higher Pay, Shorter Week, Royalty Payment

WASHINGTON, Mar. 12. (AP)—The conference opened in Washington today between bituminous coal operators and John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers. The chairman of the operators negotiating committee, Ezra Van Horn of Cleveland, was nominated by Lewis to serve as permanent conference chairman. The demands of the AF of L miners have not yet been presented.

Lewis and other top UMW officials met with the mine owners at 11:00 o'clock, Eastern Standard Time, this morning. So far, the busy-hour mine labor chief has kept secret the age and other demands he will serve upon the mine owners. In fact, Lewis scheduled an 11th-hour meeting with his 250-man executive committee for a final review of these disclosed demands just a few minutes before he set about discussions with the operators. Lewis is negotiating a new contract for some 100,000 bituminous miners.

The operators, meanwhile, are certain that whatever other demands Lewis may have, it can be taken for granted that he will make these demands.

First—A shorter work week. Second—More pay to make up the loss in take-home war earnings. Third—The unionization of 39,000 to 50,000 supervisory workers and.

Fourth—A royalty payment to the UMW for each ton of coal mined to aid a union welfare and hospitalization fund. Last year Lewis demanded a ten-cent-a-ton royalty but passed the demand temporarily in favor of a wage increase.

On the outcome of these negotiations may depend whether the nation will have a soft coal strike on its hands April 1 to add to its other conversion headaches. Lewis' contract with the bituminous operators expires on that date and the UMW chief already has notified the mine owners of his intent to cancel the contract.

Quota For County In Red Cross Fund Appeal Is $9,600

H. B. Crumley, chairman of the American Red Cross fund appeal, announced today that the quota for Seminole County during the current drive has been set at $9,600. "Due to the generosity of the American public this year the quota is a record for Florida," the campaign resulted in a surplus which had helped the amount asked for the drive," Mr. Crumley added.

The quota is based on the 1945 quota of $10,000. It has been reported that $100 has been received by the local chapter. "He expressed his confidence that Seminole County will again meet or exceed the quota assigned to them."

Mr. Crumley also urged those who are working on the committee to complete their campaign as soon as possible and report to the chapter office the amount of their contribution. "It will enable us," he said, "to ascertain the progress of the drive and add whatever efforts may be necessary to reach the quota."
