Government Closes First Testimony In Case Against Forbes

A letter from Pratt to Black was introduced, dated Oct. 19, 1922, it read:

"My dear Black: I have been waiting for some word for a long while from either you or Mort (Mortimer), but it seems that the government construction work is being delayed and I presume our prospects of getting anything are very slight."

"Under the circumstances, can not you arrange to have the advances to your friends taken up and oblige."

"WILLIAM D. PRATT." "Told to Forget It"

Mortimer testified Black gave him this letter in New York, a few days after its receipt, and told him to forget it. At the same conference, Black told Mortimer, the latter testified, that he was "through with Forbes" and in future would go after the government contracts "without paying any graft."

At that time, Mortimer said, Forbes had accused him of "double crossing" because Forbes got only $5,000 of the $15,000 "advance." Mortimer said Black told him that Thompson had given Forbes about $30,000.
