Denver Publisher Asserts That Sinclair Contracted To Pay Him $1,000,000 For Settlement

G. Bonilla, New Figure In Teapot Dome Oil Case, Testifies That the Settlement Was Made Out of Rights Asserted in Naval Oil Reserve.

ACADOO HEARING

Adjourned Until Next Monday on Account of New Tars in Senate Oil Investigation Making It Impossible to Conclude Inquiry of Acadoo on Saturday.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The Senate met at 10 a. m. today in an effort to reach a vote before adjournment, on the Robinson resolution requesting President Coolidge to call upon Secretary Denby for resignation.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Charges that Harry F. Sinclair, E. D. Dohney and "Standard Oil Assets Companies," conspired to assure the award of the Teapot Dome naval oil lease to Sinclair was made before the oil committee Saturday by Frederick G. Bonilla, publisher of the Denver Post. Continuing the story of his connection with group that held controlling claims in the Teapot Dome and disposed of them to Sinclair, the publisher asserted in addition to payments made by that group, the Midwest and Pioneer companies, who also had interests in that district received a $1,000,000 in oil produced by the Sinclair company from the Teapot.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—A new investigation was entered into by Frederick G. Bonilla, publisher of the Denver (Colo.) Post, that Harry F. Sinclair had entered into a contract to pay him and his associates $1,000,000 in settlement of claims growing out of the rights asserted in the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve. Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, has told the Senate that every vestige of those rights had been denied by the Federal government.

According to Mr. Bonilla's testimony, the contract was entered into in Kansas City after he had sent a reporter of this paper to the home of Albert B. Fall, in New Mexico, to investigate rumors regarding the leasing of Teapot Dome to Mr. Sinclair by Mr. Fall's secretary of the interior and after the publication of one article in the Denver Post attacking the lease by "Analysis and the Truth." "The contract was signed," he said, after two conferences between Mr. Sinclair and Mr. Bonilla, his partner, E. H. Tammons, John L. Stack, a Denver oil man, and H. L. Schwartz, their attorney.

The opening up of this unexpected line of investigation made necessary for the committee to defer until next Monday the hearing of William G. Acadoo, former secretary of the treasury, which Mr. Acadoo has requested in a letter sent to Chairman Lenroot last night and read into the committee record Friday. The committee first decided to hear him Saturday, but changed its decision when it was found that the examination of Mr. Bonilla could not be completed Friday.

The field of the oil investigation was further broadened Friday by the adoption by the Senate of a resolution by Senator LaFollette, Republican, Wisconsin, directing the oil committee to inquire into reports upon the claims of the Honorable Consolidated Oil Company to oil lands situated within naval reserve number two to California.

Senator Dill, Democrat, Washington, a member of the oil committee, proposed that the Senate go even further by inquiring into what part Mr. Fall had in efforts to obtain oil fields in Colombia, Mesopotamia, Palestine, Persia and other foreign countries.

President Coolidge signed the Walsh oil lease annulment resolution but he attacked a memorandum in which he took exception to the language in the preamble, which declares the leases were made in violation of the law and under circumstances indicating fraud and corruption.

The president also sent to the Senate the nominations of Silas H. Strawn and Atlee Pomerene as special government counsel in the oil leases cases. They were referred to the oil committee where a fight on them is forecast.

The reference of the nominations was made at the conclusion of all day debate in the Senate on the Denby resignation resolutions, in which addresses were delivered by Senators Walsh of Montana, and Heflin of Alabama, Democrats, in support of the measure, and by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, in opposition to it.

MILITARY WILL AID.
(By The Associated Press) SPRINGFIELD, Feb. 9.—Fifteen companies of the Illinois National Guard, five of which are already in Williamson county, are available for duty in case of further trouble in Herrin.

Three Negroes Held By National Guard

(By The Associated Press) JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 9.—Duval county jail Saturday was a veritable armed camp as 20 national guardsmen and two mounted machine guns stood a silent guard over three negroes. Rumor said a mob had planned to form and storm the building and forcibly remove them because of their alleged connection with the killing of a white man. All night long the guard was maintained but there was not the slightest outward incident. The streets around the jail were deserted except for the guardsmen since early evening. The negroes are held by the police in connection with the killing of Alice B. Terrell, when one of them was surprised when burglarizing the home of Terrell.

MOVIE ACTRESS IS FOUND DEAD IN APARTMENT

Robbery Theory Advanced As Motive for Strangulation of Miss Louise Lawson.

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Miss Louise Lawson, former motion picture actress, was found strangled to death in her fashionable studio apartment on West 77th Street, facing Central Park, Friday and police have divided their time in a search for two men who entered her rooms early this morning and in questioning those believed to have known details of the girl's life and her friends along Broadway.

Working on Robbery Theory. The theory has been advanced by the police that the murderers were bootleggers who had visited the apartment before and had been attracted by jewels Miss Lawson wore and others they had seen in her room. A quantity of liquor was found in the ice box of the apartment. Police cast aside all motives other than robbery, for $8,000 and other valuable jewels were gone. All jewel boxes were open and the entire apartment was in disorder, indicating that the girl had fought hard to save her life and her valuables.

Prominent Family. In their probe of Miss Lawson's life, police learned she was the daughter of a prominent merchant of Walnut Springs, Tex., that she had played small parts in motion pictures, but for two years or more had been unemployed, living in her luxurious apartment which still was filled with the fragrance of fresh cut flowers when her body was found.

They learned she had been a member of the gay party that ended in the death of Angier B. Duke, wealthy tobacco manufacturer at Greenwich, Conn., last September. Pictures of an army lieutenant and of a middle aged man were seen on her dressing table. The middle aged man, it was learned, was Gerhard M. Dahl, chairman of the executive board of the Brooklyn Manhattan Transit Company, vice-president of the Chase National Bank, and a member of the brokerage firm of Hayden Stone & Co. On the back of the photograph was inscribed "Gerry Doll."

Arranged Conference. Mr. Dahl was communicated with by telephone and he arranged a conference with the police. What happened there was told by Fred Landek, a New York lawyer, who said he had been a friend of Dahl since they were class mates at the University of Wisconsin.

"Gerry phoned me that he understood that police wanted to question him. I met him and Barron Collier, special deputy police commissioner at the apartment of Max Hering. Gerry said he had nothing to hide and wanted to get a clean slate. He knew Miss Lawson and her parents and was interested in her musical education, I think that Mrs. Dahl also knew Miss Lawson."

Warner Jones, a New York business man, and a member of the party at which Duke met his death, gave further testimony of the friendly interest that Dahl had in Miss Lawson. He said that on Wednesday evening of this week, Mrs. Dahl and a girl whose first name was Edna but whose last name he refused to divulge, he had visited the apartment of Miss Lawson.

Think Rebels Have Retaken Vera Cruz

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—All though the state department has no definite confirmation of the reports that the Huerta rebels have recaptured Vera Cruz over night, dispatches did contain information as to the rebel movements which led officials to believe the report was probably true.

Indications Are That The County's Exhibit At Madison Square Garden Will Prove To Be A Great Success

That Seminole county's exhibit at the Madison Square Garden Exposition will be put over in big fashion is the confident prediction of those who have been busily engaged for the past few weeks making arrangements for the exhibit. Exact details as to how the booth will appear when set up with the county's products on display, were given out Saturday by B. F. Whitner, Jr., county demonstration agent.

The size of the booth will be 40 by 10 feet and will have three arches in front, two with 10 foot spans and one with a 20 foot span. These arches will be decorated profusely with Spanish moss edged with 1,200 sprays of apparatus ferns. In large letters across will be "Seminole County." These letters will be inlaid with orange and lemon-colored calenulas.

The display table will be 30 feet long and will be placed in a sloping position up to 8 1/2 feet in the back. In the center of the display table will be a white background, flanking either side of this display will be vari-colored vegetables, including tomatoes, strawberries, carrots, beets, white onions, red and green cabbage, lettuce, escarole and green peppers.

On the two ends of the display table there will be placed the citrus exhibits including the best oranges, tangerines, grapefruit, kumquats and other fruits that can be found in this county. Above the display table there will be a complete line of jellies arranged in the letters spelling Seminole. This will be arranged on a white background and will be flanked on both sides by pictures painted by C. J. Rumph. One will be a picture of the golf links and the other an attractive picture of a celery field located on the shores of Lake Monroe.

Another feature of the booth will be the celery fence in front made from the finest products grown in this county. On one side of the general display table will be a table where booklets, folders

All over the country scouts gathered Friday night to observe with some kind of program, the formation of this boy's organization.

The scout oath administered by Col. George W. Knight, was taken by the boys in which they renewed their allegiance. This part was particularly impressive. Three candles representing the three parts of the oath were lighted as each part was given taking place with the lights of the church extinguished.

Near Riot in Herrin Result of Dry Raids

(By The Associated Press) HERRIN, Ill., Feb. 9.—Herrin, which was the scene of a miners' riot in 1922, was taken over by state troops Saturday as a result of a near riot last night between the "dry" and the "dry" in which the constable was killed and the deputy sheriff seriously wounded. The trouble was the result of the wholesale dry raids in Williamson county recently by reputed members of the Ku Klux Klan led by S. Glenn Young, a paid employe of the Klan. A meeting of the Knights of the Flaming Circle, an anti-Klan organization, was in session when the crowd stormed the hall. A small riot in which a great deal of shooting occurred immediately followed.

RUSH CRUISER TO HONDURAS AID AMERICANS

Americans in LaCeiba Fear For Interests As Result of Revolution Following Election

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The cruiser Rochester of the special service squadron, now at Colon, has been ordered to LaCeiba, Honduras, in response to an appeal to state departments from American residents who fear that revolutionary departments will jeopardize their interests.

No actual outbreak has been reported, but Americans in Honduras believe the prospects for an amicable adjustment of the Honduran election tangle are not good and that fighting may break out at any time. State department officials say dispatch of the cruiser does not mean there has been a decision to intervene.

The Rochester should reach her destination, on the north coast of Honduras Saturday. Official reports from Honduras have been meager, but not encouraging. It still is hoped that the de facto government may succeed in organizing a coalition cabinet under which a new election could be held and the political situation cleared up without resort to arms.

LaCeiba is a center of fruit exportation and there are large American investments there.

Fighting Breaks Out. SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, Feb. 9.—Fighting is reported in Honduras following the presidential election deadlock and the announcement that President Gutierrez would continue in office.

According to advices received by way of Anapita, Honduran government forces defeated revolutionary forces at San Pedro, in Sula, northern Honduras. The rebel leader, Jacobo Mungia, was wounded.

General Carias, one of the three unsuccessful candidates who proclaimed himself head of the government, is reported to be at the Nicaraguan frontier with his revolutionary army.

The Guatemalan government has extended de facto recognition to the government of President Cuterres.

Reports Confirmed. NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 9.—Confirmation of reports that Policarpio Bonilla and General Carid had agreed upon military cooperation to overthrow the dictatorship established in Honduras by former President Lopez Gutierrez was received in Honduras circles here today by way of San Salvador.

It was added that General Gregorio Ferrera, leader of the Intubuc Indians, in conjunction with the forces of General Vicente Tosta, was moving toward the north coast where fighting was expected to occur soon.

Accepts U. S. Offer. WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The Nicaraguan government has accepted the offer of the American government to assist in organizing of an efficient constabulary and with drawal of the 100 United States marines stationed at Managua. A legation guard is contemplated and the inauguration of the new administration there next January.

Correspondence between the two governments, made public by the state department, reveals that the Nicaraguan officials desire the presence of the marines during the electoral period, and that the services of Dr. H. W. Dods, secretary of the National Municipal League, with a limited number of technical advisers, should be accepted in the administration of the electoral law.

Real Estate Deals Involving $63,000 are Consummated in Sanford During Past Few Days

OFFICIALS WOULD FORCE BREWERTO SHOW SECURITIES

Case of Department of Justice Attorney in New Pending in D. of C. Supreme Court.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Treasury officials went into court Friday to compel Charles B. Brewer, a department of justice official, to make accessible to them the securities he holds and on which he has based charges of duplication in government bonds.

The action took the form of a motion in Brewer's case now pending in the District of Columbia supreme court in which he has asked that the treasury be restrained from interfering with his possession of the securities, loaned him by the treasury for the purposes of his investigation of alleged irregularities in the engraving bureau.

Brewer's move in court followed a request by the treasury that he return the securities to the treasury agents who were examining a report made by him upon bureau affairs. Treasury agents declared they could proceed no further with their checking on Brewer's charges of duplication without examination of the securities he held.

Aaska Court Direct Brewer Deposit United States District Attorney Gordon in filing the motion in the district court restated the treasury's difficulties in obtaining the securities and requested the court to direct Brewer to deposit them with the court. In that way treasury agents will have access to them and their investigation can proceed, Mr. Gordon said.

Under Secretary Treasurer Winston and Assistant Attorney General Holland, accompanying the motion, declared that until access was had to the securities the investigation of conditions by the treasury would be held up.

While Mr. Gordon was pressing his motion on which a decision is expected soon, word came from the White House that President Coolidge failed to understand what purposes Brewer had in refusing to permit examination of the securities by the treasury. The President and the treasury both, according to White House officials, are desirous of clearing up the charges and ascertaining, if possible, reasons for seeming discrepancies in the numbering of bonds.

Coolidge at Loss to Know Cause. Mr. Coolidge was said to be at a loss to know why Brewer, through his court action, was obstructing other branches of the government in ascertaining the truth or falsity of the accusation of irregularities in the engraving bureau.

Rumors Excited By Attorney General's Return to Capital

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Attorney General Daugherty, who left two weeks ago for some destination, is expected to return to Washington late Saturday.

His decision to come to the capital has led to many rumors, but all efforts to establish the reason for his return have been unsuccessful.

At the department of justice, where it was said when he left that he would be absent several weeks unless urgent business prevented, officials declared today that they were in complete ignorance as to his intentions.

A question at the White House as to whether Mr. Daugherty had been summoned by the President brought the reply that the attorney general was making his own plans; that he had taken a certain amount of work to Florida with him, which he now had completed, and that he apparently was returning here to bus himself with other matters.

One of the rumors current during the day was that he was on his way here to lay his resignation before Mr. Coolidge. There was no confirmation in any quarters. White House officials declared that if the resignation of any cabinet member was under consideration, the president would be informed.

Another report was that the attorney general had been asked to come here to take charge of the inquiry into the gasoline situation. On that question, also, the department of justice officials in his office at the justice department declared they had no information.

(By The Associated Press) PARIS, Feb. 9.—Brig. Gen. Charles G. Dawes has no intention of resigning as chairman of the first committee of experts examining Germany's economic and financial condition, as declared over the telephone Saturday from Berlin to the department headquarters. The disclaimer came in connection with various published rumors that he was withdrawing from the inquiry.

Prominent Business Men This City Form Committee And Purchase Cates Building On First Street

The Reported Consideration Of $40,000.

NEW SUBDIVISION

Will Be Formed From Former Tract of Land Purchased From R. B. Beck For Sum of $25,000. Deals Since Jan. 1 Total Amount $200,000.

Two real estate deals of approximately $63,000 and involving the transfer of some valuable Sanford property interests, have just been consummated, according to an announcement made Saturday by W. H. Wight, who with Joe S. Chittenden arranged the transfer.

The Cates building on First Street was purchased from the J. Cates Company for the consideration of $40,000. A group of prominent business and professional men of this city have formed themselves into a company and made this purchase.

Those who compose the company are: Fred Walzmann, W. C. Hill, Edward Higgins, R. E. Wight, C. E. Henry, A. E. Yowell, Dr. C. C. Marshall and J. O. Huff. Although the company has not been incorporated as yet, plans for applying for a charter from the state, are now being made.

Just what will be the name of the company is not known at this time but it is said that in the future that it will probably make more heavy investments in desirable properties here. The company has no plans in regard to this, its first purchase, and this deal was merely for investment, it is said. All of the present tenants of the building will remain, former leases holding good under the new ownership.

The other real estate transfer involving approximately $23,000, is for the purchase of a large tract of land just south of the city limits from R. B. Beck by Edward Higgins, R. E. Wight and W. E. Wight.

According to an announcement made by W. H. Wight, this large tract will be made into a subdivision to be called "Pleasant Hill." This will be opened to the public later than Mar. 1, it is declared.

For some time, Mr. Wight stated, Fred T. Williams has been ydraving a plan of the proposed subdivision and as soon as it is completed, work will begin on laying out the streets, building sidewalks and making other improvements.

One of the features of this property which makes it very desirable, according to Mr. Wight, is the fact that it has an elevation of 31 feet above the level of First Street.

Mr. Wight, who is an enthusiastic booster for Sanford, declares that Sanford is now on the threshold of a big boom. Since Jan. 1, he declared, he has disposed of over $70,000 worth of property and right now has several other deals pending involving large sums of money.

"Real estate transfers bespeak of the growth and prosperity of any place," said Mr. Wight, and much property has changed hands in this city of late, which goes to prove that very statement.

The acquisition of the Cates building by the recently formed company, is said to be one of the most important property transfers in the city for some time. Together with other large deals consummated here since Jan. 1, runs the total amount of property changing hands in Sanford slightly over the $200,000 mark.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN'S WEEKLY BIBLE TALK AN EXAMPLE OF FAITH AND OBEDIENCE

BY WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN

West of Today's Bible Talk by Mr. Bryan (Joshua 1:1-9; 23:1-3) Now after the death of Moses the servant of the Lord it came to pass, that the Lord spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying: Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give unto thee, even to every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses. From the wilderness and this Jordan even unto the great river, the Euphrates, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast. There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life, as I was with Moses, so shall I be with thee: I will not forsake thee, nor forsake thee. Be strong and of a good courage: for unto this people shalt thou do all that I command thee: thou shalt not be afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest. This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success. Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage: be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest. And it came to pass a long time after that the Lord had said unto Joshua and all the children of Israel, that Joshua waxed old, and stricken with years. And Joshua called for all Israel, and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said unto them, I am old and stricken in age: and ye have seen all that the Lord your God hath done unto these nations because of you: for the Lord your God is he that hath fought for you. When Moses was about to lay down his mighty task he, under the direction of the Almighty, selected Joshua as his successor. In the first chapter of Joshua we are told that the Lord spake unto Joshua, the son of Nun, and said unto him: "Go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to thee, even to the children of Israel. Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses." Joshua immediately called his brethren together, and had them separate their people to march within three days. The first miracle wrought under his leadership enabled the Children of Israel to pass over dry shod. His second victory was the capture of Jericho. The following is the plan as set forth in the sixth chapter of Joshua: A Unique Plan. "And the Lord said unto Joshua, I have given into thine hand Jericho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valor. And ye shall compass the city, and ye shall march about it seven times: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city seven times, and the priests shall blow with the trumpets. And it shall come to pass, that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout, and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall ascend up every man straight before him." Joshua did as he was commanded: the priests and the people encircled the city six times—once a day for six successive days; on the seventh day when the trumpets were sounded Joshua said unto the people: "Shout; for the Lord hath given you the city." And the people shouted with a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city." An Age-old Question. "The miracle, when analyzed, presents but three questions—first, the old, old one: Can God perform a miracle? He can, if He is God. A Creator, such as God is believed to be, all-wise, all-powerful, and all-loving, can do anything He wills to do. "With God all things are possible." It may be that miracle is the result of forces in nature not yet known to man—forces that overcome the forces that he does know, as the electric current and the radio overcome space, but not necessarily so. We cannot set bounds to God's power or put limits upon Him. To deny that God can perform a miracle is to deny that God is God. Second: Would God want to perform a miracle? That is the real question that to count their victims. What sympathy has the plague? What pity has the pestilence? And who will justify the cruel delusions of the mirage? When we have satisfied ourselves as to the why of the death-dealing visitations of inanimate forces—and not until then—will we be wise enough to call Jehovah to account for the manner in which He exterminated wicked nations and substituted the adoration of Himself for the worship of idols. If God is to be condemned for the cruelties which He commands, how shall we excuse Him for the cruelties caused by the laws that He has imposed upon Nature? Criticism of God leads logically to a denial of the very existence of God. If we have too little information to enable us to commend, surely we have too little to justify us in condemning. Joshua justified the confidence placed in him. He established Israel in the land of Promise; his strength did not fail him until his work was accomplished. His last act was to call together the elders, judges, officers and people, and to deliver unto them an eloquent exhortation. He reminded them that it was the Lord their God who had fought for them, and said: "Be ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that ye turn not aside therefrom to the right hand or to the left." Joshua has been eulogized because he simply obeyed orders. He did not originate great movements, but he had faith and was obedient. He received his instructions from Jehovah and communicated the orders received without modification or the injection of his own opinion. God commanded him to turn not to the right hand or to the left; therefore he went straight forward. He was told to meditate on God's law day and night and he did so. He was admonished to be strong and of good courage and he never wavered. In return for his obedience, God promised to be with him whithersoever he went, and the promise was kept. Joshua's Spirit of Devotion. There is another characteristic that deserves notice. The test of a leader is to be found in the impression that he makes upon his followers and in the kind of men he gathers round him. We are told that Israel not only served the Lord all the days of Joshua, but also "all the days of the elders that overtook Joshua." The men whom he chose as his collaborators were of the same kind as himself and were filled with the same spirit of devotion. His influence moulded the nation. He communicated his faith to his assistants and to the people. He accomplished the work unto which he was called. The Bible contains no criticism of Joshua; from the time he joined with Caleb in advising that they enter the Promised Land, down to the very hour when he was called to his reward, he was steadfast in his courage and in devotion. The Joshua type of man was never more needed than now, in public office as well as in private life. (Copyright 1924, by The Republic Syndicate)

PRIMARY SCHOOLS OF SANFORD A GREAT CREDIT TO COMMUNITY

Sanford's primary schools are growing rapidly year by year. The grades are all full and all available space is being used. Seven years ago the East Side primary school could no longer accommodate the children of the primary grades, so the West Side primary school was built for the convenience of the children on that side of town and to accommodate the overflow from the other school. After a few years both schools again became congested, which made it necessary to plan and build a new school for the little tots. A site was selected in the south side of town, which was thought by many to be too far out of the way. Nevertheless a beautiful brick and stucco building, with 10 classrooms, office, rest room, closets, basements, rear heating plant and other conveniences, soon made its appearance on this site. It is now surrounded by new, modern homes, and bids fair in the near future to stand in the center of the city Substantial.

Just a year ago the teachers and children moved into this new building and today the school is filled to its greatest capacity. Immediately plans were made for extension and enlargement of the capacity. Fortunately this building is constructed on the unit plan and calls for twice as many classrooms and an auditorium leaving open courts between.

A lunch room is run in connection with this building and the children are provided with wholesome milk in the forenoon and a hot lunch at noon. The Parent-Teacher's Association of each of these schools are actively engaged in beautifying the grounds and aiding the teachers in various ways to make the schools attractive both inside and out. The three schools are equipped with movable and adjustable desks, thereby making the classroom adaptable to different kinds of work and activities. The East Side primary school is in charge of Miss Emma Owen, a trained and devoted teacher, who has three efficient teachers as assistants. The West Side primary school has as principal Miss Love Turner, a teacher of training and experience who also has three efficient teachers as assistants. The South Side primary has Mrs. Selena Barber as principal, an ambitious teacher of experience and training with nine capable teachers under her charge.

Naturally their lives are lived accordingly—in confusion, sorrow and the want of things they haven't the money to buy. This false belief will disappear only after they begin to save money.  (House "A-111")
—JUST A PLAIN STUCCO HOUSE—
 A plain substantial house without "gingerbread" of any kind. A house that will, as the years go by, hold its own and require but few repairs.
 The plain stucco walls, unbroken hipped roof, with broad overhanging eaves, the recessed entrance with balcony above, all are in keeping with the design. The house sets close to the ground giving the exterior a snug substantial appearance and one of pleasing proportions. The walk leads through a smooth lawn directly to the front entrance and leaves no doubt in a visitor's mind as to where he is to go when he calls.
 The first floor plan shows a center hall with stairs in the rear, a large living room that has an open fireplace, a dining room, kitchen, pantry and numerous closets. A generous living porch opens from the living room through glazed doors on either side of the fireplace. A rear entrance under the stairs serves both the kitchen and the cellar.
 Four bed rooms and a bath are found on the second floor, also a small dressing room between the two front bed rooms. This dressing room opens onto the small balcony over the front entrance.
 Each bed room has a good size closet. The linen closet opens from the hall.
 Stairs lead from the second floor hall to the attic. A dormer on the rear and windows in each end of the house give good light and ventilation in the attic so that rooms can be finished off here if desired.
 A cellar is provided under the entire house, with laundry, heating plant, coal storage and such.
 The walls are of terra cotta block, stuccoed on outside and plastered on inside. No furring is used but the walls are coated with a damp-proof compound under the stucco to prevent any moisture penetrating the walls.

AT THE MILANE.
 "Scaramouche," a Rex Ingram production for Metro Pictures Corporation, adapted from Rafael Sabatini's novel of the same name, will come to the Milane Theatre for two days beginning Monday. This picture, a feature in ten reels, has played special engagements in the larger cities and comes to Sanford acclaimed by critics as one of the masterpieces of filmdom.
 Ingram, from all accounts, has surpassed his production of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" with this picture.
 "Scaramouche" is a story of the French Revolution. It tells the romance of Andre-Louis Moreau (Pamou Novarro) and Aline de Keradieu (Alice Terry). Andre-Louis has been brought up as the ward of Aline's uncle, the Marquis de la Tour d'Azyr (Lewis Stone), a haughty aristocrat and man of fashion, killed Andre-Louis' friend, Philippe, because of his revolutionary sentiments, and on the Marquis Andre-Louis has sworn eternal vengeance. To make matters worse the Marquis is courting Aline.

WOMAN'S CLUB OF SANFORD

A Building Built on Faith

By Mrs. R. E. Tolar.

From the time of the purchase of the "little" Presbyterian church to house our organization, the members of the Sanford Woman's Club began making plans for the remodeling.

A building fund was started, and despite the fact that this fund had not increased as rapidly as had been anticipated, and statement from bank showed a total of only $1,844.12, at the beginning of our Club year last October, definite plans were made for the remodeling and with courage and faith the contract was let the 23rd day of March, 1923, and the work completed the 27th day of July, 1923, at a cost of $11,110.64.

The building is of stucco, having a main auditorium, cloak room, stage, dressing room, sun parlor, kitchen and every requirement of the modern club house.

The auditorium with balcony has seating capacity for 400.

Thus in the completion of our beautiful new club house, valued at $15,000.00, the dream of faithful club members has been realized and while there remains a small debt of $3,000.00, with willing hearts and ready hands we know this will soon be taken care of. We can rest on the assurance that we have given to our city a thing of beauty and a community asset.

WOMAN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES

BY MRS. JOHN LEONARDI

The regular business meeting of the Woman's Club was held in the club rooms Wednesday, Feb. 6, from 3 until 6 p. m.

Following the proclamation of the mayor business was suspended until 4 o'clock when the entire club arose and stood in silent prayer as a mark of reverence and respect to the late Woodrow Wilson and the simple but effective services were closed with the Lord's prayer said in unison.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and the report of the treasurer showed that the club must raise the sum of $2,000. Each member of the Literary Department instead of earning the required $10 will give it.

The rest of the membership, under the leadership of Mrs. Scott, is divided into groups of 10 each and each member of this group is required to be responsible for the sum of $10 making a total of $100 per group.

Last week one group met the afternoon train with nicely washed celery; each stalk was attractively tied with blue ribbon and the vendors wore ribbons marked "Woman's Club." This proved to be most successful.

Another group met the train and sold oranges, this also proved to be a most successful method of making money.

The secretary, at the meeting, read a letter from the Garden Club of Halifax county asking the Sanford Woman's Club to help to abolish the sign boards from the public highways. No action was taken.

Mrs. John Meisch was appointed to represent the club at the Sectional meeting at Eustis on Friday, Feb. 8.

The club voted to have a get-together banquet on May 2 in the evening, the invitations not to be limited to club members but to any woman that would be interested in knowing more about club work and meeting the club women. Some of the state officers will be invited to give talks on matters of Federation interest.

The Charity Ball to be given by the Welfare Department was called to the attention of the members and all were urged to lend their influence to making it a success. During this day taxes will be sold for the benefit of the Fernald-Laughlin hospital and that evening the Charity Ball will be the social feature of the day; all the proceeds going to this special charity. Every year it has been the custom of the club to do something for the County hospital.

Mrs. Hepley wishes to call the attention of the Music Department to the fact that the Tea appearing in the year book for Wednesday the 13th was given during the observation of McDowell Week and that Wednesday the 13th will be a most important business meeting as the officers of the department for the ensuing year must be elected at this meeting. Also all members having music that is the property of the department will please turn it in by this meeting in order that the musical library of the department may be brought up to date before the close of the club year.

The Literature Department on Wednesday 13th will have a most important and enjoyable meeting in the Club Sun Parlor from 3 until 5 o'clock. The play by Drinkwater, "Abraham Lincoln," will be read and commented upon. Also this is the meeting for the election of officers for the ensuing year. Let every member try to be present.

Charity Ball at the Woman's Club. Good Music.

DINNER-DANCE

One of the most enjoyable affairs of this season was the dinner-dance given Friday evening at the lovely new Woman's Club, by the members of the House Committee, Mrs. Ernest McGowan Galloway, chairman, Mrs. Howard Overlin, Mrs. A. M. Phillips, Mrs. Henry McLaulin, Mrs. C. C. Woodruff, for the benefit of the building fund.

Small tables had been placed around the large lounge, each being centered with crystal baskets filled with sweet peas and pansies. Marking the places were red hearts tied with red ribbons. Bowls of calendulas, marigolds and other cut flowers were arranged on mantels, cabinets and on pedestals. On the large hearth a bright fire added a cheery note to the already pretty scene.

At 8 o'clock a delicious six-course dinner was served by Mrs. Galloway, Mrs. Howard Overlin, Mrs. A. M. Phillips, and Mrs. Turner. During the courses dancing was enjoyed, the music being furnished by Milane Theatre orchestra, and was especially good. Favors of all kinds were provided, and distributed for the various feature dances. These were in charge of Mrs. Samuel Puleston.

On the balcony, tables were placed for those who wished to play cards instead of dancing and these were in charge of Mrs. W. D. Gardier.

The dance was a decided success from every angle, and a goodly sum was realized.

BOOK LOVERS' CLUB

The members of the Book Lovers' Club were most pleasantly entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Stella Arrington at her home on Magnolia Avenue.

Baskets of fragrant roses were effectively used in the living room, while in the dining room, naturalisms were used to advantage.

SALLIE HARRISON CHAPTER N. S. D. A. R.

The Sallie Harrison Chapter N. S. D. A. R. was organized by Elizabeth Harrison Stavling (Mrs. B. J. Stavling) in Sanford, Nov. 15, 1918, and was the only Florida Chapter organized during the War.

Each member after organization immediately gave her time to work to such good advantage that the sum of $550.00 was raised for the aspirin fund for the hospitals in France and England. This work was under the direction of Miss Brenda Morrison as chairman.

The Chapter was 100 per cent in every branch of the Red Cross. Following up this patriotic work the Daughters raised the sum of $613.00 for a World War memorial. Mrs. J. N. Whitner has written the history of Mosquito County out of which several of the now existing counties surrounding were created.

The Daughters will mark the spot of old Fort Mellon, formerly Fort Fanning in the near future. The property will be ceded to the Daughters through the generosity of Mr. Bodwell.

The Daughters encourage better citizenship by the offering of prizes each year to the different schools in the city for the highest averages in American History. The Flag Code has been given to all the schools in the city, both white and colored.

The Chapter now is working for its quota toward the Ribaut Monument which is to be erected at Mayport to commemorate the first landing of Protestants on American soil in 1563.

This chapter has been represented at Continental Congress each year.

MRS. B. J. STARLING, Publicity Chairman.

On Friday afternoon the members of the Mothers' Club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. R. Deas and Mrs. Fred Daiger at the home of the former in Rose Court.

The approach of the Valentine season was suggested in the decorations and other details, quantities of red roses being lavishly used.

The first part of the afternoon was devoted to business at which time the president, Mrs. George Paxton, presided. Reports were read by both secretary and treasurer, showing what had been accomplished by the club. Reports were also given by the rummage chairman who has been conducting a series of rummage sales. It was decided to raise funds for playgrounds. Plans were also made for an Easter bazaar, time and place to be announced later.

After all business had been transacted, refreshments of salad course with coffee were served. The next meeting will be held the second Friday in March with Mrs. George Paxton and Mrs. Faircloth as hostesses.

Don't forget the Charity Ball, Feb. 15.

SALLIE HARRISON CHAPTER N. S. D. A. R.

The regular business meeting of the Sallie Harrison Chapter N. S. D. A. R. was held at the Valdez Hotel Palm Room, Friday, February 8, from 3 until 5 o'clock.

The meeting was called to order by the regent, Mrs. A. M. DeWitt. The chapter was led in the Creed, Saluto to the Flag and the Lord's prayer by the chaplain, Mrs. J. N. Whitner.

The most important subject for discussion was the project of marking Old Fort Mellon. Mr. Bodwell has very generously given to the chapter the land necessary to mark this historic spot. This project is of unusual interest to the people of Seminole county for the reason that this was formerly Ft. Fanning, and during the Seminole Indian war the name was changed to Ft. Mellon in honor of Col. Mellon who was killed by the Indians on this spot. This marks also the beginning of the old government road leading to Tampa. The marker will be of coquina rock with a bronze tablet telling the history of the spot.

Mrs. F. D. Dutton was appointed as president of the C. A. R. Chapter which is the auxiliary of the Sallie Harrison Chapter. The chapter is to celebrate the George Washington's birthday with a colonial tea with Mrs. Raymond as hostess with Mrs. B. J. Stavling and Mrs. John Leonard as assistant hostesses.

This will be an invitation affair each daughter being privileged to invite two guests and also all visiting D. A. R. are invited. This affair will be at the Woman's Club from 3 until 6 o'clock Feb. 22.

It was announced that Mrs. A. B. Peterson had been chosen as page to Mrs. James Craig for the continental congress.

A letter was read from Mrs. Theodore Strawn, the new regent-elect asking that the chapters by George Washington prayer which is being sold by the National Society be beautifully illuminated.

The meeting adjourned to the Palm Room where the daughters were the guests of Mrs. DeWitt and delicious refreshments of coffee and cakes were served.

Mrs. S. E. Johnson of Wagoner, S. C., arrived Friday and will spend some time here with her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Colclough, at her home in Rose Court.

A SATURDAY NIGHT SERMON

once the beginnings of a reformation were seen. When a young man comes to himself, what may we expect? "How many hired servants of my father's have breed enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!" gives us a very interesting insight into the young man's life. Two things he saw very clearly: he saw the pit-table plight into which he had come,

and he saw also the possibilities which were his. His eyes are now open and his conscience is at last aroused. If you open the eyes of a young man and thoroughly arouse his conscience, it is difficult to estimate what may be accomplished.

When a young man comes to himself, perhaps the first thing he does is to take stock and see what are his resources. The reckless youth of the parable discovered that he was in possession of life.
He discovered that he was in possession of some hope. He discovered that he was in possession of at least a small supply of courage, and he discovered that he still possessed at least the remnants of what was once a robust will. He possessed the hope that he would be admitted into his father's mercy. He had the courage to confess his sins, and sometimes much courage is required to confess our guilt. Presently we shall find that he had sufficient will to execute his decision. When he came to himself, we find that these were his possessions, and with these possessions he entered the one door of opportunity which he believed was open to him.

There may be those in the audience who have burned out much,
very much, strength in unmanly conquests. There are many of us present even now who have made serious and costly blunders, and we have very much to regret, but let us take stock of our present possessions. If tonight there is hope in our hearts; if our spirits are supported by courage; if we are ready now to enter the doors which opportunity is opening for us; if we are sufficiently courageous to commit ourselves fully to the mercy and the grace of God, and appropriate the strength which He is so ready to give; I say if we are ready tonight to do these things, it is difficult to even estimate what may be accomplished?

How I crave the victories which will come to America, and the world when the young men of our nation come to themselves! When the young men of our nation come to themselves, we shall place the public office and the administration of law in the hands of personal men everywhere. Thank God for the many men we have tonight who are sacredly administering justice through their offices, but many, many offices need to be wrested from the hands of professional politicians, and placed in the hands of men who will deal sacredly with the interests of the people. When the young men of this country come to themselves, we shall drive out these heinous whiskey peddlers like Christ Jesus drove the money changers from the temple. When the young men of this country come to themselves, we shall rid our institutions of learning, and especially our school athletics of the deadly poison of the gambler. When our young men everywhere fully come to themselves, they will bring all that they possess and offer it to Christ Jesus their Lord for world redemption. I believe in young men. I believe in their courage.

I believe in their sense of fairness.
I believe in their sense of loyalty.
My heart is thrilled as I think of their possibilities.

When young men come to themselves, when they think accurately, and weigh values with care, they will come to Christ, and offer themselves to Him for a place in His program of world redemption.
This is pre-eminently the most important thing in all the realm of human thought and human endeavor, and when young men are really themselves, you cannot keep them away or out of the most important things.

Some time ago a young man on a Sunday evening went with a friend of his to the friend's club, and during the evening he saw a group of men gambling and was asked to join in the game. When he modestly but firmly declined,
one of the gambler's sneeringly said, "Perhaps your mother doesn't know you are out." The young fellow's face grew red with a flush of resentment at the threat and he replied, "Yes, she knows it, sir, and she supposes I'm in the company of gentlemen. Seeing I am not, sir, I shall go home."

The young man had come to himself and was in possession of sufficient equipment to take a bad situation and through it win a mighty victory.

Young men, I am thanking God tonight for the young men of this city who have come to themselves, and are now enlisted with the Lord Jesus Christ in the work of superlative importance. With perfect confidence I again declare that when young men come to themselves, they will come to Christ and offer themselves—their very lives—to Him for a place in the conquest of this world.

During our recent war with Spain, Admiral Sampson asked for one volunteer from each ship in the squadron to be directed by Mr. Hobson in the sinking of the Merrimac in the channel leading to the harbor of Santiago de Cuba.
The matter was brought to the attention of the more than six hundred seamen of the Iowa. When one volunteer was called for, every man responded, and though the daring feat meant probable death, the man who was finally chosen was offered as much as $160.00 for his chance.

There should be many great hours in a young man's life, but one of the greatest is that hour when he comes to himself. When he comes to himself, he comes to Christ, and when he comes to Christ, he has access to the equipment necessary for all of life's endeavors, and he will be made ready to volunteer for any service to which Christ may call him.

The materials used and the way it is built insure lasting enjoyment of those unusual qualities which delight you on your first ride.

A 30 Minute Ride Will Win You

Essex closed car comforts now cost $170 less than ever before. Also with this lower price you get a more attractive Coach body and a 6-cylinder motor built on the principle of the famous Hudson Super-Six.
