

Beirut Bomb Toll 23

Moslem Extremists Threaten Troops

By Daniela Iacono

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — The Moslem extremist group Islamic Jihad claimed responsibility today for the truck bombing near a French base that killed 23 people and wounded 144 others. It threatened more attacks unless U.S. and French peacekeepers leave Lebanon in 10 days.

"We adopt responsibility for the attack against the French base, and we warn that if the French and American forces do not leave Lebanon in 10 days, they will face a real earthquake," a caller to the French news service Agence France Presse said.

The caller said the truck bombing was carried out by the Islamic Jihad (Holy War), the same extremist group that claimed responsibility for attacks on the U.S. Marine headquarters and a French peacekeeping base in Beirut Oct. 23 that killed 240 U.S. servicemen and 58 French paratroopers.

Western intelligence sources link the group to Iran.

Police questioned two people today in connection with the attack that "lit up the whole of Beirut" as an almost simultaneous blast rocked a hotel bar. One person was killed and four were wounded in the hotel explosion.

A previously unknown group calling itself the "Black Palm" telephoned the rightist Voice of Lebanon radio Wednesday and claimed responsibility for both blasts.

Judicial sources said the two men, who were not identified, were detained hours after the twin attacks as darkness fell over the war-torn capital.

Rescuers used torches and bulldozers to search through tons of rubble near the French base on the line dividing the Christian and Moslem halves of Beirut.

After the all-night search police reported 23 were killed, including a French soldier, and 144 wounded, including 16 soldiers, when the truck filled with more than a ton of explosives blew up seconds after its driver jumped into a Volvo car and sped away.

Police said most of the casualties were residents of apartment houses near the base. They said 15 of the dead were mutilated beyond identification. The blast razed a three-story building and damaged two others.

The wounded were mainly local residents and motorists. Many were treated for cuts and bruises and were not hospitalized.

It was the second truck bombing in the Middle East in 10 days. A suicide truck bomber hit the U.S. Embassy in Kuwait during a spate of bombings that killed at least five people and wounded 66 others.

An Ethiopian nationalist was killed and four other Ethiopians were wounded in the blast that occurred at about the same time at the Pickwick bar, a popular place for foreigners in the downtown Tower hotel.

In addition to the two men undergoing questioning today, police said they also were looking for the grey Volvo, believed to have been used by the person who abandoned the explosives-packed truck.

"The explosion lit up the whole of Beirut," said a Lebanese soldier on duty near the French base.

The twin bombings capped a day of fierce violence in Lebanon. A sniper wounded a U.S. Air Force enlisted man, the Israeli air force bombarded eastern Lebanon and government forces and Syrian-backed Druze militiamen clashed in the Shouf mountains.

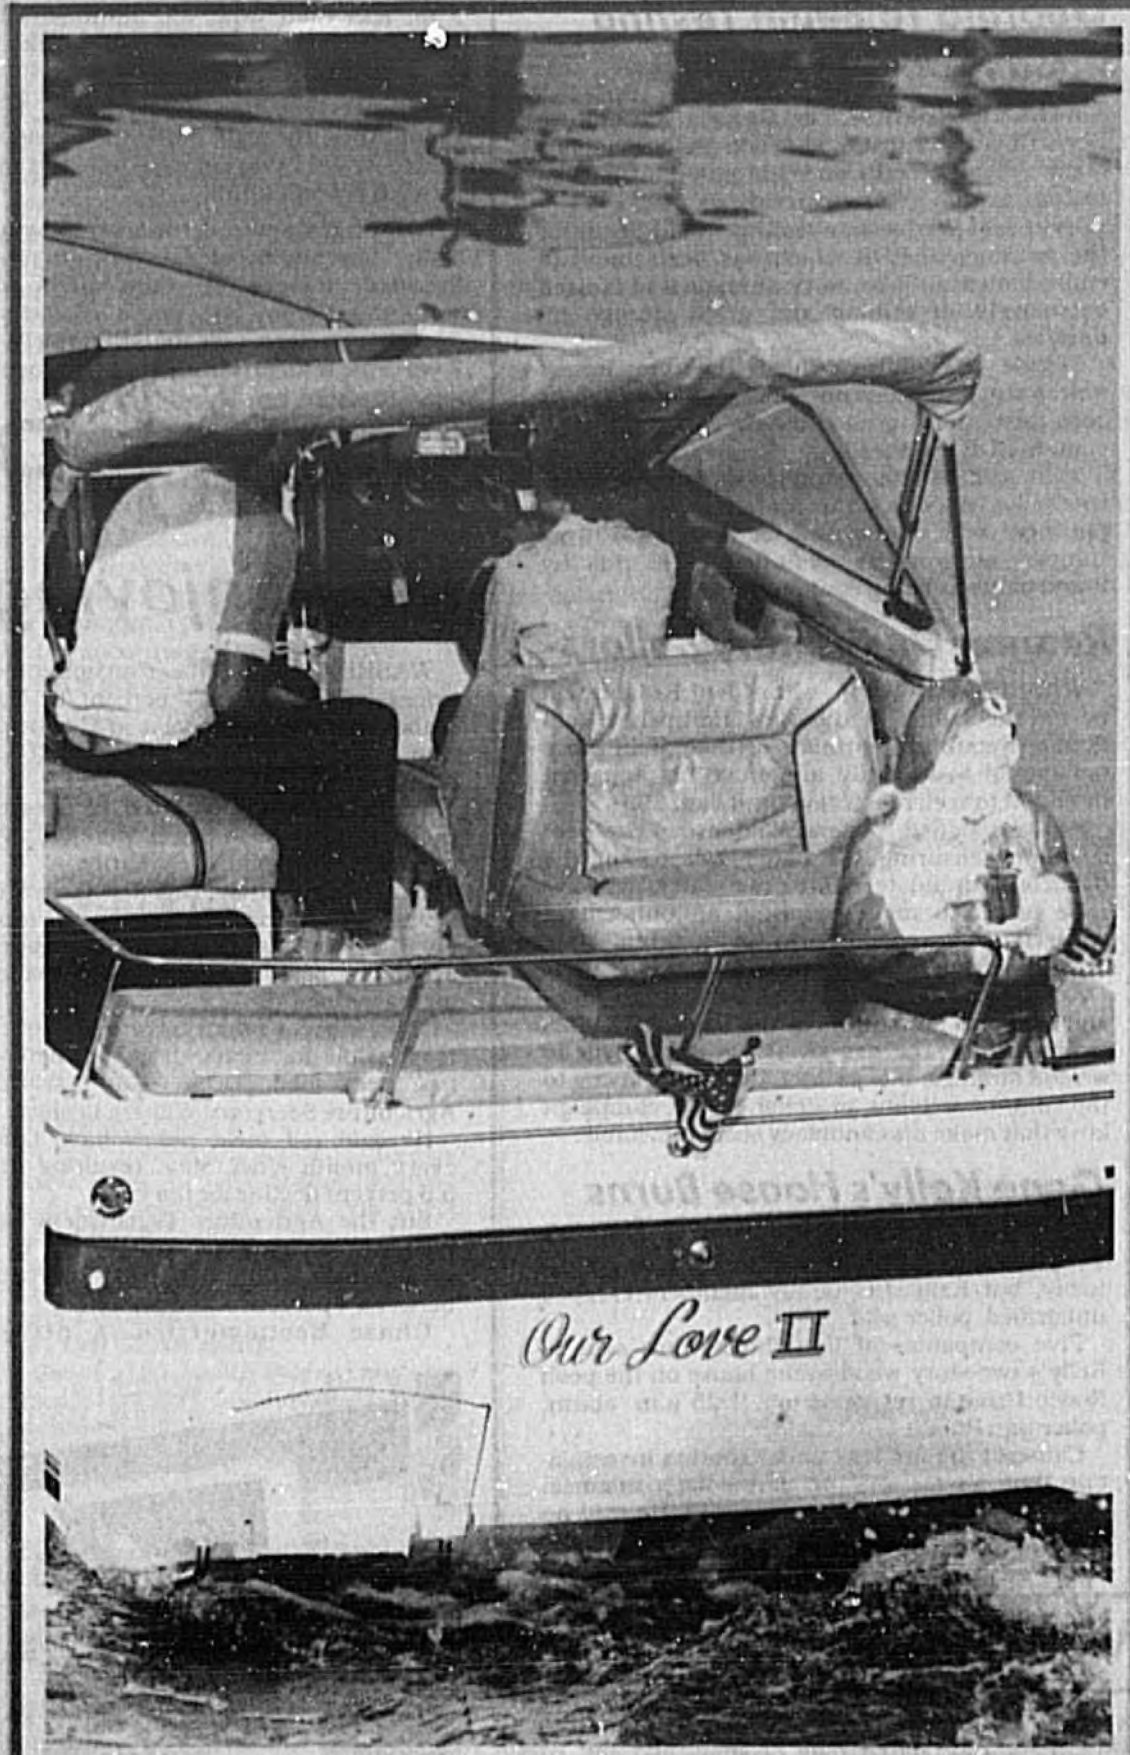

Witnesses said they saw a man driving a truck stop the vehicle near the Museum crossing, on the green line dividing Christian east Beirut and Moslem west Beirut, then get out and hail a passing Volvo.

Seconds after the attacker stepped into the Volvo, the booby-trapped truck exploded, digging a crater 15 feet deep and 30 feet wide in the street. The explosion was heard for miles.

A military bomb disposal expert estimated the truck was packed with more than a ton of explosives, Beirut radio said.

In Paris, the defense ministry said the truck had been diverted from driving into the French compound by barricades set up around its posts after the Oct. 23 suicide bombings.

In Beirut's fashionable Hamra district, the owner of the Pickwick bar said his establishment was doing a brisk business during cocktail hour when the bomb exploded. The force of the blast blew out the ground floor of the bar.

Nautical And Nice

Santa even visits the 'nauti-cal' boys and girls. With a scarcity of snow hereabouts Santa came by sea instead of sleigh, hitching a ride with Jim and Martha Tilley aboard "Our Love II" recently as they left Sanford Marina for Honoon Island in the St. Johns River near DeLand. Subjects Of Experiment

$1,000 Reward Offered For Return Of Pigeons

By Susan Loden
Herald Staff Writer

A $1,000 reward is being offered for the safe return of 15 pigeons that were part of an agricultural chemical experiment. The birds were stolen from a Casselberry laboratory, and police say they might be a danger if eaten. But their owner, Dr. Jakob Harich, said he feels the pigeons are not a serious threat to humans.

If they're not returned, however, Harich, 63, said it could cost his lab $150,000. It was to be paid for the research.

The gray and white homing pigeons had been injected with BC-1000, a fungicide and antibacterial agent used on citrus crops. He said the loss of the birds means a loss of one year's labor for his Chemie Research Corp. Unless the birds are returned the governments of Brazil and Columbia, who were sponsoring the research, will not pay the research bill.

The birds were discovered missing at 8 a.m. Wednesday and Harich said 12 baby birds left behind have already died, because their parents weren't there to care for them.

"The birds may have been taken by someone who wanted them as pets," Harich said. "I will give $1,000 to anyone who returns them safely. Or if someone wants to return them anonymously they should just set the birds free and they will fly back to my lab."

Harich said the pigeons had been released to make test flights during the past three weeks and someone may have spotted them in flight and traced them back to his lab. He had been evaluating the chemical's effects on the birds flying and reproduction abilities, as well as the effects on their internal organs. His work cannot be finished unless the birds are returned. Harich had expected to complete his research in February.

Just before Thanksgiving Harich reported that about one dozen chickens, that had not been treated with chemicals, had been stolen from his lab.

He said he believes the chickens were stolen to be eaten.

"The pigeons, even if eaten, are not a serious threat to humans, but I would advise people not to eat them."

He said the birds wouldn't be deadly if eaten, but wouldn't speak to any physical problems they might cause if their meat is ingested.

He added he hopes the birds won't face that fate.

He said the birds, which all have numbered bands on one leg, are safe for humans to handle.

Casselberry's assistant police chief Win Gates said officer's found small footprints near the fence that the thief climbed over in order to remove the birds from their coop. He said a child may have taken the pigeons and he hopes that someone will respond to Harich's plea to return the birds.

Gates said he wouldn't want to underestimate the potential danger of these birds, especially if they are eaten.

Switchboard Snafu

If you tried to call Sanford Hall this morning and no one answered, it wasn't because the staff had started their Christmas holiday early.

A problem with the switchboard, which was thought to have been repaired Wednesday, popped up again today preventing incoming calls from getting through from 8:30-10:30 a.m.

Masked Bandits Rob Sanford Gas Station

A masked gunman and accomplice robbed a Sanford gas station last night after pointing a .38 caliber handgun at the station attendant's face and demanding money.

Stephen Joseph McCue, of 2104 Cordova Drive, Sanford, said when the gunman, entered the Phillips 66 service station at 120 Airport Blvd., at about 10:40 p.m. and pointed the gun in his face, it was a case of giving the pair what they wanted.

"I just started backing up, put my hands in the air, and said 'it's all right, it's all right,'" McCue said.

Most people just want the money and not to kill you, he said.

Police reports say the gunman wore a stocking cap over his face and a green army-type raincoat. His accomplice wore a blue smock and a ski mask.

According to McCue, the gunman holding the chrome weapon said only two words "open it" referring to the cash register. After getting an undisclosed amount of money, the robbers fled on foot in an unknown direction.

McCue, 26, who has been working at the gas station three weeks, said if robberies continue he'll find a different kind of work.

Scouting For Fish

The rainy weather we've been experiencing this week didn't deter Troy Rollins, 13, who was participating in a fishing contest for Sanford Boy Scouts. Catching this good sized bass from Lake Monroe made getting wet worthwhile. Most of the scouts and leaders (like photographer Jacques) stayed in their cars and watched their poles, and only ventured out to check their lines when they saw their poles bend. The weather man at the National Weather Service is forecasting another cold front bringing cloudy skies and cooler weather for the weekend.

Grand Jury Lying Charge Undisputed

A former Seminole County reserve deputy has pleaded no contest to the charge of lying to a grand jury.

Ed Schuckman, 35, of Longwood, appeared before Circuit Court Judge C. Vernon Mize Jr. on charges of grand theft and lying to a Seminole County grand jury in March.

According to the case prosecutor, governor-appointed state attorney John Stephenson of Alachua County, Schuckman agreed to enter the no contest plea to the perjury charge if the state agreed to dropped the charge of grand theft of a television, clock and watch. A no contest plea mean the defendant will neither plead guilty or offer a defence. If judged guilty, the sentence can be the same as a defendant who was found guilty or pleaded guilty.

Stephenson said the perjury charge would have been a more difficult case to try than the grand theft count and probably would have included more than 100 witnesses. But, he said, he decided to press for a perjury plea to vindicate the Seminole County Sheriff's Department which had been implicated by Schuckman in testimony.

Schuckman told a grand jury in March that there was an organized theft ring within the Seminole County Sheriff's Department that stole and sold various items from evicted tenants, according to Stephenson.

We could not uncover or find any evidence to back up what he was saying, said Stephenson.

The Alachua attorney also said that contrary to Schuckman's testimony, there was no enforcer within the purported theft ring to pressure its members for silence nor anyone who placed orders for items wanted from evicted tenants.

At Monday's hearing, Judge Mize indicated that if the information present at the hearing was correct he would sentence Schuckman to three years probation, withhold adjudication in the case, and agree to a combination of jail time and

WORLD IN BRIEF

U.S. Forces In Europe Tighten Up Security

STUTTGART, West Germany (UPI) — U.S. military forces in Europe have parked sand-filled trucks at base entrances and taken other measures against terrorist attacks following the bombings of American installations in the Middle East.

The Stuttgart headquarters of the U.S. European Command said Wednesday the approximately 330,000 American troops in Europe have been ordered to take security measures at the discretion of their local commanders.

"In view of the recent attacks against U.S. facilities in other parts of the world, military officials have increased security measures at installations in Europe," the U.S. Army's Fifth Corps in West Germany said.

But the Fifth Corps statement said the moves were "precautionary measures" and were "not in response to any specific threat."

A spokesman for the European Command said the measures ranged from checking identities of people entering installations to barricading entrances to military compounds.

PLO And Egypt Make Up

CAIRO, Egypt (UPI) — Yasser Arafat embraced and kissed President Hosni Mubarak today, ending a six-year rift between Egypt and the Palestine Liberation Organization on his first stop after the Palestinian exodus from Lebanon.

Diplomatic sources said the meeting between Arafat and Mubarak was certain to end the Egyptian-PLO rift, which began when the late President Anwar Sadat made peace with Israel six years ago.

Mubarak, in a move affirming Egypt's recognition of Arafat as the legitimate PLO leader, sent a high-level delegation led by Prime Minister Fuad Mohieddin to Ismailia to escort Arafat by helicopter back to Cairo.

Arafat last visited Egypt in November 1977 just before Sadat visited Jerusalem. Relations between the PLO and Egypt have improved slowly since the assassination of Sadat in 1981.

Arafat said he also planned to summon the Palestinian National Council, or parliament-in-exile, into session "very soon," probably in Algiers, to chart the future course of Palestinian action.

No Computers For Soviets

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (UPI) — Sweden has refused to ship 30 tons of powerful U.S.-made computer components to the Soviet Union, saying it will not serve as a channel for "illegal traffic."

Foreign Trade Minister Mats Hellstrom said Wednesday the equipment had been classified as "war material" and would be placed under Swedish military control pending further action.

The government said the equipment, which has military applications and was allegedly about to be smuggled into the Soviet Union, would only leave Sweden if its Maynard, Mass.-based manufacturer, Digital Equipment Corp., requested its return.

Ban On IRA Wing Studied

LONDON (UPI) — British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher called a Cabinet meeting today to consider banning the legal political wing of the outlawed Irish Republican Army in retaliation for the Harrods department store bombing.

Economic Allies

Survey: U.S. Growth Will Help Europe

PARIS (UPI) — Expansion of the U.S. economy in 1984 will spur Europe to financial recovery but at a slower rate than in America, a new authoritative survey shows.

In its semi-annual outlook on the economies of the Western industrialized world, the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development predicted the U.S. economy will grow for much of next year, trailing off slightly toward the end.

The survey said U.S. inflation will remain roughly at the 3 percent level reached by the end of this year. Unemployment will keep dropping in the United States from the 10.3 percent high of 1982 to 8 percent by 1985.

The robust U.S. economy will act as "a locomotive" for the European countries of the OECD, said acting head of economics Kjell Andersen in presenting the report at the organization's Paris headquarters.

In Europe, there will be some drop in inflation over the next year but then prices will drift up again in line with an expected increase in U.S. prices by 1985.

The report concluded that any improvements in Europe over the next 18 months may be temporary spinoffs from the strong U.S. dollar and healthy U.S. economy that are creating a boom for European exporters.

"Only in the United States is there so far clear evidence of a strong intention on the part of enterprises to increase real investment," the report said.

France, with 9 percent, and Italy with 12 percent inflation by the end of 1984, will lead Europe on price rises, the OECD report said. Unemployment is also likely to rise in Europe from 10 percent to 12 percent, it said.

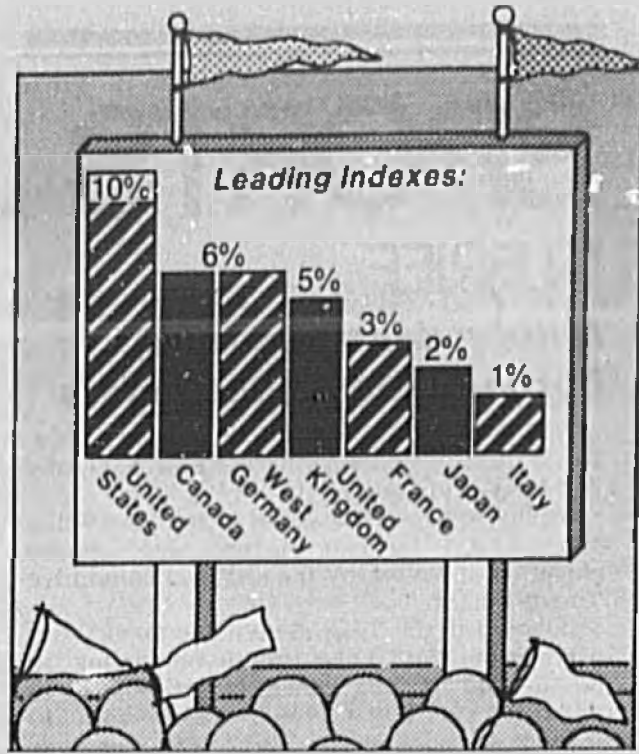

In Europe and other OECD countries, the economists recommend policies to stimulate investment or face a collapse if the dollar falls.

Japan faces a rosy outlook for the next 18 months, with 4 percent growth of Gross National Product, inflation hovering around 2 percent and steady employment.

Canada, with 5.25 percent inflation through 1985 and a 6 percent growth rate at the end of this year trailing to 2.5 percent by 1985, will closely follow the recovery path of the United States.

Unemployment, however, will remain a persistent problem, inching from 11.5 percent in the last half of 1983 to only 10.75 by the end of 1985.

The question hanging over the whole forecast is what the effect will be if the United States moves to decrease its mammoth deficit that is keeping interest rates — and therefore exchange rates on the dollar — high.

A reading of the international economic scoreboard shows recovery gaining strength in all the major industrial democracies with the U.S. in the lead. Percentages show increases for each country over previous readings of composite indexes which are based on more than 60 major indicators, including stock prices, profits, new orders, construction contracts and changes in consumer debt.

Date Of Crucifixion Set

LONDON (UPI) — The crucifixion of Jesus Christ probably took place on April 3, 33 A.D., say two British scientists who based their estimate on a lunar eclipse that Biblical and other references suggest followed his death.

Colin J. Humphrey and W.G. Waddington of Oxford University, writing in the science magazine Nature, said the only certainty about the crucifixion is it occurred between 26 and 36 A.D., the time Pontius Pilate was procurator of Judea.

Many different dates within that decade have been given by various authorities trying to unravel meanings and allusions in Biblical texts and contemporary documents.

But the authors said, no one to the best of their knowledge has used the lunar eclipse to help determine the actual date.

They said it is recorded in Acts 2: 14-21 that the apostles were accused by a crowd on the day of Pentecost of being drunk and that Peter stood up and, quoting the prophet Joel said, "I will show wonders in the heavens above ... the sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before that great and glorious day of the Lord shall come."

The researchers said they believed the quotation referred to the fulfillment of a prophecy — the darkness to the three hours of darkness at the crucifixion seven weeks before and "the moon to blood" to an eclipse also at that time.

The blood-like metaphor, they said, was commonly used to describe lunar eclipses in ancient days, notably the eclipse of Sept. 20, 331 B.C. — two days after Alexander the Great crossed the Tigris when the moon was described "as suffused with the color of blood."

Marines Stressed Diplomacy Over Security

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Marine commanders in Beirut, given only general directions about their mission, decided to stress their role as diplomats over the need for greater security, a House subcommittee concludes.

That tilt contributed to the success of a terrorist bomb attack Oct. 23 that killed 241 men at the Marine headquarters building, the House Armed Services Investigations subcommittee said.

The Marines decided to "be more diplomatic than the diplomats," making the U.S. peace-keeping force highly visible, the panel said in its full report released Wednesday.

But the panel said "only very general directions were given to the (Marine unit) about how it should go about performing its task. The entire 'mission' statement is but one paragraph long."

The full report said the emphasis on visibility was not urged by U.S. diplomatic officials in Lebanon and, in fact, surprised them.

"The origin of this attitude that visibility took precedence over security remains obscure," it said.

"It appears that the Marine commanders, recognizing correctly that their mission was primarily political and not a traditional military one, determined to be more diplomatic than the diplomats."

The House subcommittee report said the Marines stationed at Beirut airport "interpreted their mission of 'presence' to require 'visibility' — high visibility — and they felt that 'security' — their security — often conflicted with the requirement for visibility."

Jordan's Hussein In A Critical Role

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A senior State Department official says the departure of Yasser Arafat and his Palestine Liberation Organization from Lebanon puts Jordan's King Hussein into a crucial spot at a critical time in the Middle East peace process.

Egyptian foreign minister Kamal Hassan Ali said the key to a possible breakthrough in the stalemated peace process could come if Hussein, with backing from Arafat, agrees to participate on behalf of the Palestinians.

All reaffirmed Egyptian support for Reagan's long-stalled peace initiative of September 1982.

community service totally 90 days, according to Stephenson.

Schuckman could have received up to 360 in jail and a 10-year period of probation, said Stephenson.

Schuckman will be sentenced Feb. 27.

In March, when Schuckman was appearing before the grand jury, the direction of a program he administered under the auspices of the state attorney—Citizens Dispute Settlement Program—was transferred to his then-secretary Ellen Doyle, of Sanford, according chief assistant state attorney Ralph Eriksson.

The program started by State Attorney Douglas Cheshire was a method of trying to help resolve cases that were not of a criminal nature, said Eriksson.

Since March, the number of "situations" handled by the program have decreased because funding cutbacks have forced the program's two positions, administrator and secretary, into one.

Eriksson said Doyle, who now runs the program under the direction of an assistant state attorney, will soon become the program's director.

Nancy Johnson, M.K. Williams Exchange Vows

Miss Nancy Johnson and Marion Kelly Williams Jr. were married Nov. 26, at the Riverside Baptist Church, Orlando. The Rev. Roy Clark performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Higgins of Sanford. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Kelly Williams Sr. of Kilm, Mo.

Given in marriage by her brother, Ben Johnson of the U.S. Army, the bride chose for her vows a formal gown, fashioned along the Queen Anne Silhouette, with leg-o-mutton sleeves. Alencon lace appliques adorned the gown and graceful cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a tiered veil of imported illusion featuring Alencon lace motifs. She carried a bouquet of pink and white rosebuds interspersed with baby's breath.

Mrs. Lisa Baker of Gainesville, attended her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Carol Flitter, Dallas, Texas; Cindy Coker, Huntsville, Ala.; and Brenda Williams, sister of the bridegroom from Hattisburg, Miss. They wore full length dusty rose chiffon gowns and carried bouquets of dusty rose and burgundy chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's father served his son as best man. Groomsmen were Jeff Henley, Houston; John Hogan, Auburn, Ala.; and Paul Roberts of Knoxville, Tenn.

Following the wedding, the reception was held at the Sun Dance Inn.

The newlyweds are making their home in Meridian, Miss., after a honeymoon trip to Canada.

The bride is a graduate of Auburn University with a laboratory technology degree. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Auburn with a degree in civil engineering. He is serving in the U.S. Navy as an officer undergoing jet pilot training.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Kelly Williams Jr.

In And Around Longwood

It's The Season For Parties

The Longwood Tourist Club held its annual Christmas party Dec. 8 in the pavilion across from city hall. Over 92 of the club's 110 members attended the catered dinner.

An "all you could eat" dinner of chicken, roast beef, vegetables, biscuits and gravy, was served buffet style finished off with cheesecake and refreshments.

Entertainment was provided by Doug Hubbard, who, according to Ruth Layo the club's tour director, "could make his accordion do everything but walk." Dorothy Berg, the club's secretary-treasurer, provided a Christmas tree and decorations. Club members and guests worked off a filling dinner by moving aside the tables to dance. Special guests at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus. Following sing-a-longs, 13 door prizes were given out.

The Longwood Tourist Club meets twice monthly. On the second Thursday of each month they hold a covered dish luncheon. On the fourth Thursday they hold a monthly business meeting when the "touring" trips are planned. Every month the club plans special scenic or "just plain fun" trips. Recently the club visited St. Augustine, St. Petersburg and other area attractions.

The club is open to new members. According to Ruth, "we are strictly a social club," most of our members are senior citizens and we just enjoy the fellowship of each other." Ruth said that "the club has been in existence for the last 55 years, and I've been tour director for the last 12 years. I didn't show up for a business meeting 12 years ago and in my absence I was voted in as tour director. That'll teach me," she mused.

For more information on the Longwood Tourist Club, call Ruth at 327-0820, or Dorothy at 834-5315.

The Longwood Rotary Club sponsored its annual, "Rotary Run," fundraiser on Dec. 3. According to Dennis Kurir, the club's ways and means chairman, over 250 runners showed up to run the 10,000 meter cross country run. The race began at Seminole Community College, and went through a large part of Lake Mary.

Bob Hannah, a Longwood Rotarian, represented the club in the race, and finished the course in 38 minutes. The fastest time recorded during the race was 32 minutes.

According to Dennis, the club has held these "Rotary Runs" for the last several years in order to raise funds for charity. He said that over $1,500.00 was raised from this year's run. Special thanks go to the events chairman, Skip West.

Over 200 children recently attended a Christmas party held for them by the Sabal Point Woman's Club. Children waited anxiously for Santa to arrive to pass out the presents he was carrying.

After a long wait, he arrived. But it was hot in his sleigh and raindeer, as usual. This time he arrived via special helicopter.

After several passes over the playground, the helicopter landed in a grassy field adjacent to the party site. Mrs. Claus arrived shortly after in a classy red convertible to deliver the rest of the gifts.

Burger King Restaurant donated juice and 10 club members baked cookies to add the final touches to the party.

Special thanks go to club member Lygia Colton who was chairman of the event. Also to the Sabal Point Sales Office and area builders who generously donated funds to acquire the helicopter.

The Sabal Point Garden Club recently held its Christmas tree lighting and dedication ceremony in Sabal Point. A 23-foot red cedar was decorated and dedicated as a living contribution to the community.

Following the ceremony, a champagne reception was held at the award winning home, Dream Wood, of Mrs. Renee Stein-Charlan.

Fellowship of A.A. Gives Teen-Ager Reason To Live

DEAR ABBY: I don't have a problem; I am writing out of gratitude. Because of you I now belong to a beautiful fellowship that gave me back my life and a reason to live.

I am 19 and tried to commit suicide four times within a period of six months. I was sent to a counselor who gave me a 15-question test she said she got from your column. It read: "If you are of school age and into drinking, this test is for you. If you answer yes to one or more questions, consider it a warning. Abby, then you said that if you answer yes to three or more questions, alcohol has become a serious problem in your life and the best help available can be had by calling Alcoholics Anonymous.

Well, I answered yes to every question, and that's when I called A.A. I went through the treatment for the disease of alcoholism. That was very traumatic at age 18.

I have been dry for a year, and for the first time in my life I know how it feels to be really alive and respect myself.

Thank you for showing me the way.

SOBER IN OHIO

DEAR SOBER: Congratulations. The column to which you refer was published in November 1981. Because I am sure many other teen-age drinkers would like to see that column, here it is:

DEAR READERS: I have been made aware that there is a serious drinking problem among young people. Almost everyone who drinks alcohol thinks he can handle it. If you are of school age and are into drinking, the following test is for you. Answer yes or no.

1. Do you lose time from school because of drinking?
2. Do you drink to lose shyness and build self-confidence?
3. Is drinking affecting your reputation?
4. Do you drink to escape from study or home worries?
5. Does it bother you if somebody says that maybe you drink too much?
6. Do you have to take a drink to go out on a date?
7. Do you ever get into money troubles over buying alcoholic beverages?

8. Have you lost friends since you started drinking?

9. Do you hang out now with a crowd that can get liquor easily?

10. Do your friends drink less than you do?

11. Do you drink until the bottle is empty?

12. Have you ever had a loss of memory from drinking?

13. Has drunk driving ever put you into the hospital or jail?

14. Do you get annoyed with classes or lectures on drinking?

15. Do you think you have a problem with alcohol?

If you answered "yes" to one or two questions, alcohol has become a serious problem in your life.

If you are interested in learning how to deal with a drinking problem, help is available by calling Alcoholics Anonymous. It's in your telephone book. And in my book, the most effective help for an alcoholic of any age is through A.A. There are no dues; it's absolutely free. No questions will be asked.

You may remain anonymous, and no one will know you've been there — unless you tell someone. If someone you care about has a drinking problem, ask about Al-Anon. For teen-agers, it's Alateen. Good luck and God bless.

(Every teen-ager should know the truth about drugs, sex and how to be happy. For Abby's booklet, send $2 and a long, stamped (37 cents), self-addressed envelope to: Abby, Teen Booklet, P.O. Box 38923, Hollywood, Calif. 90038.)

Christmas Open House, Munich Style

Germany is known for its many contributions to the celebration of Christmas — from the Christmas tree to ornaments and traditional toys to the tempting array of holiday foods.

If you are planning an open house, here are some ideas gleaned from the annual Munich Christmas fair, with its street stands bursting with delicacies. With a mulled cranberry apple wine punch, serve chocolate-covered pineapple and skewered glazed fruits. Instead of fruitcakes or cookies.

COCOLATE-COATED PINEAPPLE SLICES

- 2 packages (8-ounces each) semi-sweet chocolate squares
- 1 large ripe pineapple
- 30 fresh or frozen

cranberries
 1/4 cup sugar
 In double boiler over hot, not boiling water, melt chocolate. Remove from heat. Discard water in bottom pan and replace with warm water. Cool temperature of chocolate down to 83 F. As chocolate cools in temp. change water to match. Meanwhile, cut top, rind and eyes off pineapple. Cut pineapple crosswise into 6 slices.

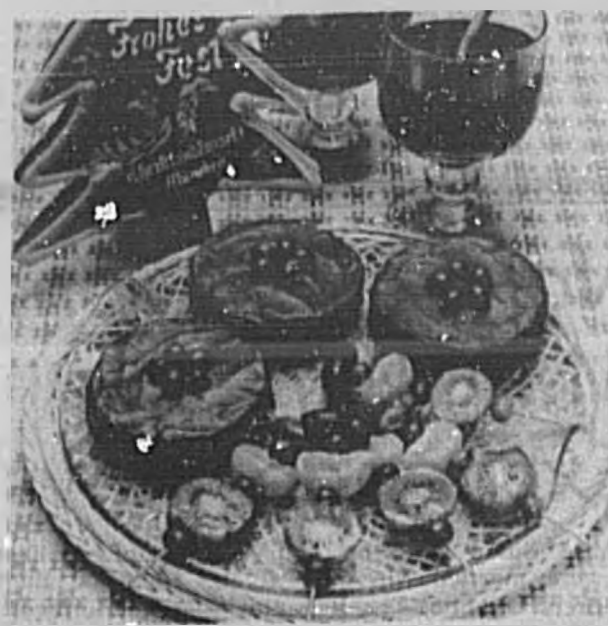

Pat slices dry with paper towels and place on wire rack over waxed paper. In saucepan, combine berries, sugar and water. Bring to boil and pat berries dry. Cool. Spread chocolate on tops and sides of pineapple slices. Place 5 cranberries in center of each. Let chocolate harden and serve as dessert with a knife and fork. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 6 servings.

HOT MULLED CRANBERRY WINE

- 2 cups

- cranberries, fresh or frozen
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup cranberry apple drink
- 1 quart bottle port wine
- 1 orange cut into slices
- 2 cinnamon sticks
- 6 whole cloves

In large saucepan, combine cranberries, sugar and cranberry-apple drink. Bring to a boil for 5 minutes. Stir in remaining ingredients. Simmer at a slow bubble for 5 minutes. Strain into glasses and serve piping hot, or make ahead of time, refrigerate and reheat. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 6 to 8 servings.

Mulled cranberry wine and glazed fruits will make a hit at Christmas open house.

Dream Mold Meal Topper

For a holiday dessert that's elegant, delicious, light enough to follow a heavy feast, and make-ahead, too, try th's Bavarian-like treat!

DREAM MOLD

- 1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
- 1/2 cup sugar, divided
- 1 1/4 cups milk
- 4 eggs, separated
- 1 cup (6 oz.) semi-sweet chocolate morsels
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar

Whipping cream, whipped, optional

In large saucepan, stir together gelatin and 1/4 cup of the sugar. Blend in milk and egg yolks. Let stand 1 minute. Add chocolate morsels. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens slightly, gelatin is completely dissolved and chocolate is melted, about 6 to 8 minutes. Remove from heat. Beat with rotary beater until chocolate is well blended into mixture. Stir in vanilla. Chill, stirring occasionally, until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from spoon, about 40 minutes.

In small mixing bowl, beat egg whites with cream of tartar at high speed until foamy. Add remaining sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time, beating constantly until sugar is dissolved* and white are glossy and stand in soft peaks. Gently, but thoroughly, fold in chilled chocolate mixture. Spoon or pour into 5-cup mold. Chill until firm, several hours or overnight. Unmold onto serving plate. Garnish with whipped cream, if desired, just before serving.

*Rub just a bit of meringue between thumb and forefinger to feel if sugar has dissolved.

GRASSHOPPER EGGNOG

- 1 1/2 quarts or 12 (1/2-cup) servings

Toast the season with an eggnog that's both spirited and holiday-hued. The recipe can be prepared in either a cooked or uncooked version and doubled for a larger group.

- 6 eggs
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 quart milk
- 1/2 cup green creme de menthe
- 1/2 cup white creme de cocoa

Uncooked

Beat together eggs and sugar. Blend in milk. Cover and refrigerate until thoroughly chilled, several hours or overnight. Pour into bowl or pitcher. Blend in liqueurs just before serving.

Cooked

In large saucepan, beat together eggs and sugar. Gradually stir in milk. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and just coats a metal spoon. Cool quickly by setting pan in bowl of ice or cold water and stirring for a few minutes. Cover and refrigerate until thoroughly chilled, several hours or overnight. Pour into bowl or pitcher. Blend in liqueurs just before serving.

Gift Ideas: Potpourri Of Treats From The Kitchen

A potpourri of holiday gifts from the kitchen will please those on your shopping list. Often, such gifts as conserves, fudge, vinegar and relishes are less expensive than buying store items.

These gifts also make quick hostess presents and add a special personal touch that show others how much you care.

COUNTRY PRUNE CONSERVE
2 cups (12 ounces) pitted prunes, halved
1 1/2 cups water

1 cup orange juice
1/2 cup golden raisins
3 tablespoons sugar
1 bay leaf
1 tablespoon lime juice
1/2 teaspoon grated lime peel
1/2 cup slivered almonds, toasted

In 2-quart saucepan, combine prunes, water, orange juice, raisins, sugar and bay leaf. Bring to boil over medium heat. Reduce heat and simmer gently, stirring occasionally, until prunes are soft and liquid is syrupy, 20 to 30 minutes. Remove from heat and remove bay leaf; stir in lime juice and peel. Cool to room temperature; stir in almonds. Cover and refrigerate up to 2 weeks or spoon into preserving jars; cover and process in boiling water bath 15 minutes. Seal jars according to manufacturer's instructions. This kitchen-tested recipe makes about 3 cups.

RUM RAISIN FUDGE
1 1/2 pounds white chocolate + a
1 (14-ounce) can sweetened condensed milk (not evaporated milk)

1/4 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 teaspoons white vinegar
1 teaspoon rum flavoring
3/4 cup raisins
1/4 cup walnuts

In large saucepan, over low heat, melt chocolate with sweetened condensed milk and salt. Remove from heat; stir in remaining ingredients. Spread mixture evenly into wax paper-lined 8- or 9-inch square pan. Chill 2 hours or until firm. Turn fudge onto cutting board; peel off paper and cut into squares. Store at room temperature in tightly covered container. This kitchen-tested recipe makes about 2 3/4 pounds.

+aWhite chocolate can be purchased in candy specialty shops.

CHOCOLATE FRUIT TRUFFLES

2 1/2 cups vanilla wafer crumbs (about 65 wafers)
1 (14-ounce) can sweetened condensed milk (not evaporated milk)

1 (6-ounce) package chopped dates
1 cup finely chopped nuts
1/2 cup chopped candied cherries

2 tablespoons unsweetened cocoa
Confectioners' sugar
Additional candied cherries, optional
1/2 dozen.

Tip: The flavor of these candies improves after 24 hours. They can be made ahead and stored in refrigerator for several weeks.

CRANBERRY VINEGAR

1 cup cranberry juice
3 cups white wine vinegar
3 cloves garlic, cut into halves
Rind of 1 lemon, cut in one long strip
6 peppercorns
2 whole cloves
1/4 teaspoon tarragon
1/4 teaspoon summer savory
1/4 teaspoon oregano
1/2 cup fresh cranberries cut in half

Combine all ingredients in a large 1-quart glass jar with tight fitting stopper or lid. Let stand at room temperature for at least 1 week before using. Strained as desired. In salad dressings or in a marinade. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 1 quart.

CHOW CHOW RELISH

2 1/2 cups sugar
1 tablespoon celery seed
1 tablespoon mustard seed
1 tablespoon salt
1/4 teaspoon turmeric
2 1/4 cups cider vinegar
1 1/4 cups water
5 cups diced zucchini
4 cups cauliflower cut in tiny florets
3 cups fresh corn kernels

In large sauce pot, combine sugar, celery seed, mustard seed, salt, turmeric, vinegar and water. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer, covered, for 15 minutes.

Add zucchini, cauliflower and corn. Simmer, covered, for 5 minutes. Immediately ladle into 6 hot pint jars leaving 1/4-inch head space. Cover as directed. Process in boiling water bath according to manufacturer's directions for 10 minutes. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 6 pints.

CONFETTI CORN RELISH

12 ears fresh corn
2 cups white vinegar
1/2 cup water
1 1/4 cups sugar
4 teaspoons salt
1 tablespoon powdered mustard
1 teaspoon turmeric
1/2 teaspoon ground red pepper
2 cups chopped green cabbage
1 cup diced green pepper
1 cup chopped onions
1 (7-ounce) can pimientos, drained and diced

Remove husks and silks from corn. Cut and scrape kernels from cobs (makes about 8 cups). In large, heavy sauce pot, combine vinegar, water, sugar, salt, mustard, turmeric and red pepper. Bring to the boiling point. Stir in cabbage, green pepper, onion and reserved corn. Return to the boiling point. Reduce heat and simmer, covered, for 15 minutes. Stir in pimientos. Simmer, covered for 5 minutes. Store in covered containers in the refrigerator.

BEER FRUITCAKE

2 12-ounce cans beer
2 cups raisins
1 8-ounce packaged pitted dates, snipped
1 cup dried apples, chopped
1 cup dried apricots, chopped
4 cups all-purpose flour
1 1/2 cups packed brown sugar
2 teaspoons pumpkin pie spice
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 1/4 cups butter
4 eggs
1 teaspoon shredded lemon peel
1 cup chopped walnuts

Four one can of the Coors into saucepan; heat to boiling. Remove from heat. Add fruit; let stand 1 hour, stirring occasionally. Stir together flour, brown sugar, pumpkin pie spice and baking soda. Cut in butter until mixture resembles small peas.

Combine eggs, the remaining can of Coors, and lemon peel; add to flour mixture, reserving marinade. Fold fruit mixture and nuts into batter.

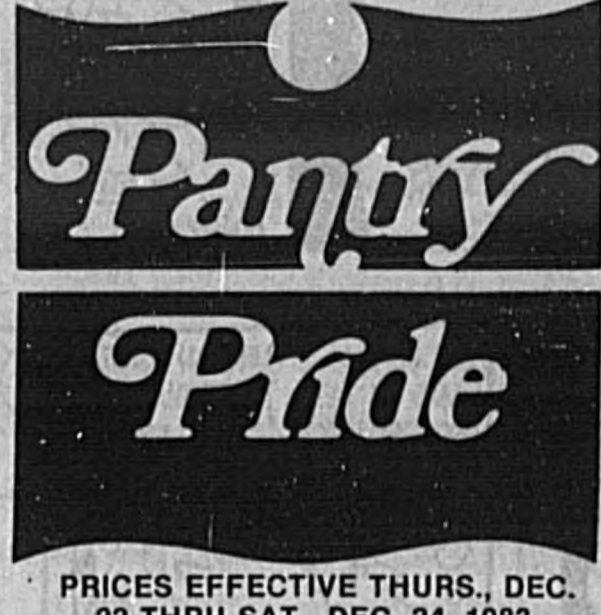

Turn into greased and floured 10-inch tube pan. Bake in 300° oven about 2 hours or until cake tests done. Cool in pan on rack 10 minutes. Remove from pan; cool completely.

Wrap in cheesecloth soaked in the reserved marinade, adding additional Coors, if necessary. Wrap tightly in foil. Store cake in cool place for up to 1 week before serving, removing cheesecloth with additional Coors as needed. Serves 24.

This coming year you will become more deeply involved in creative and imaginative endeavors...

Relieving Pressure Gets Rid Of Corns

DEAR DR. LAMB - About 15 years ago I had corns on my little toes. A lady working as a waitress where I worked went to a foot doctor for her corns and he told her to put lamb's wool between her toes.

I tried it - changed from high-heeled shoes to walking shoes - and it worked. I haven't had any corns since then. I hope this will work for others as it did for me.
DEAR READER - One of the rewarding things about writing this column is to see how many people really try to help others, as you have.

Your method evidently corrected a basic problem with your footwear. A corn is really a callous. It is caused by pressure or rubbing the skin. The little toe is a favorite location because the shoe is often too tight over this area. Any measure that gets the shoe off the top of the little toe will relieve the problem.
It really doesn't help very much to pare away the corn if you don't correct the basic problem. I suspect that when you switched from high heels to low heels you quit forcing your little toes against the surface of the shoe and the rubbing stopped.
