SCRANTON, Pa., Apr. 21.—(INS)—An explosion that shook the central part of this city, injuring three persons, one seriously, wrecked the plant of "Lavoce Italiana," a weekly newspaper, early today. Police believe the blast was caused by a feud between the fascists and anti-fascists. The newspaper was said to be strongly in favor of Fascism and Premier Mussolini's policies. Fire followed the explosion but was quickly extinguished. Several suspects were arrested. The blast was believed to have been caused by dynamite and black powder.

BALKAN QUAKE BRINGS HAVOC TO WIDE AREA

Hundreds Are Believed Dead And Half Million Are Said To Be Homeless As Result Of Disastrous Tremblings

Entire Cities Have Been Wiped Off Map

Communications Are Largely Destroyed And Authentic Estimates Are Impossible

LONDON, Apr. 21.—(INS)—Hundreds are believed dead, half a million persons are homeless and a vast area of the Balkans is faced today with a nation-wide famine.

The earthquakes have completely disrupted communications throughout the country. It has been impossible to estimate the number of victims in the villages of Manjiv, Katinica, Karafolovo, Slatojevo and Sucevica, which were also completely wiped out.

The earthquakes are described as the most terrible in the history of Europe. The entire country is now a mass of ruins. The number of victims is believed to be in the millions.

Since Wednesday, the heaviest of these occurred yesterday and caused more casualties than the quakes of last Saturday and Wednesday night, when the dead totaled 51, the injured 300, and the property damage exceeded $5,000,000.

According to an eye-witness at Sofia, the capital of the country, a strange thunder, which seemed to come from the bottom of the earth, accompanied by a rattling noise, which rent the air, preceded the first serious shock.

"The sound died down," the eye-witness said, "then the buildings swayed and fell, came down on all sides, shattering bricks on men, women and children who had come to the street interior. After the second shock, the panic was indescribable. The maddened crowds ran to and fro in terror. Fires started everywhere and soon everything seemed ablaze."

Famine threatens to add to the suffering of the homeless. Food stores were destroyed in all the villages, and cities of the quake area. Those whose homes were destroyed by the previous earthquake have already begun to feel the pang of hunger.

King Boris and Premier Laphenier are heading relief forces in the triple task of feeding the homeless, preventing the outbreak of disease epidemics and clearing the ruins in search for victims.

Confirmation Of Wilkin's Flight Over North Pole Is Received By Radiogram

BURBANK, Cal., Apr. 21.—(INS)—Confirmation of the successful flight of Captain George H. Wilkins over the North Pole was received in a radiogram here today from the Arctic flyer and addressed to Allan H. Loughhead, vice president of the Loughhead Aircraft Company, builders of the Vega plane, which made the 2,200 mile flight. The message was sent from Stalburg (Spitzbergen).

SAN FRANCISCO, Apr. 21.—(INS)—Friends of Captain George Wilkins and his pilot Ben Eielson heard with joy and surprise today the news of the "successful flight" made over the "top of the world."

Wilkins, who outfitted his expedition here, was last heard from at Point Barrow, Alaska, on April 4. His portable radio set kept him in constant communication with San Francisco up until that time. He was also in constant communication with the government radio station at Seward, Alaska.

On that date, Wilkins apparently dismantled his beach sending station and placed his radio set aboard his plane. Stations were advised to watch for his signals during his flight. As days went by and no word from the plane, considerable anxiety was manifested.

On April 10, E. R. Stevens, Seattle amateur radio operator, reported he heard the signals of the Wilkins short wave set. He deduced from the manner in which the signals sounded that they were coming from a plane in motion. These signals, however, were not heard at Seward, Alaska, where a constant watch was kept on the Wilkins wave length.

Capl. Wilkins, who is an Australian, is noted as an explorer. His flight over the Arctic was sponsored by the National Geographic Society and financed in Detroit. This was the second time the Polar region has been crossed by a pilot. Commander Richard E. Byrd piloting the first plane. The pole has been crossed once by a dirigible balloon.

DETROIT PLANE HOPS OFF WITH BREMEN PARTS

 from his seat and groped about the floor of the cabin. He found the leak and quickly repaired it and we all breathed easier once more."
 Baron Von Huenefeld's narrative emphasized the violence of the storm against which the plane had to fight its way. He said the icy wind which blew out of the northwest had the violence of a hurricane. At times the machine stood nearly upright in the air. He had the highest praise for the motor which worked with wonderful precision despite the terrific strain

The plane, caught by cross currents and bounced by air pockets, rocked up and down like a cork tossed by stormy water.

The Baron said to elevate his own courage and keep up his hopes he muttered to himself: "Don't show weakness; don't get soft; don't give up."

After a dreadful night of continuous perils, when the Northern lights flickered through the Arctic sky, day dawned Friday and the sun came up a crimson ball out of the sea. Far below the airmen could see land. They knew they had reached America, but there were signs of a fresh storm.

SACRAMENT

"Lift up your hearts!" The holy dew Asperges the woodland throng; Dawn after dawn the lark renews His miracle of song.

O heart of all the world's desire, Breathe from around, above The myrtle kiss of fire to fire That Love will yield to love.

By Harold E. Goad. Mystical Verse.

"Oh, friends, they shall not pass," says at Jax. Meaning the lowest and best bidder.—Tampa Tribune.

Twenty Russians die after having Easter vodka party. That's almost as good a record as American moonshine claims.

Six thousand Miamians heard Sid Catts and Jim Carson talk it out at Miami last night. Now the next thing is for Hathaway and Carlton to stage a joint meeting.

Regardless of whom the people in this section vote for in the coming primary they are at least assured of tax reduction, if campaign promises given last night are any criterion.

If a woman insists on driving the family automobile she isn't entitled to a divorce when her husband makes love to another woman in the back seat, a judge in Los Angeles has just ruled.

At the Lake Monroe political meeting the candidates were running because they needed the jobs. At Geneva it seemed to be because of the good roads, and a great desire to reduce taxes.

Hitherto we had considered Martin and Hathaway as the two great road builders of the state it at the Geneva rally we find that they are not the only ones vying claim to that popular appellation.

Martin says he built the roads, Hathaway says he did it, Hagan says the legislature made it possible and Hand says his conviction did the work. Now lets see, who as it that built the roads?

Cheer up, we won't have to pay any more taxes if some of the candidates are able to win in the primary. It looks, before the election, as if we are in for a general ashing in expenses all over the county and state.

Next Thursday marks the opening of the baseball season in Sanford. Orlando, Sanford's old time baseball rival, plays the opening game here on that day. It isn't necessary to urge the fans to be on duty, they'll all be there.

Al Smith claims to have reform since he stormed Madison Jara Garden in 1924 with his side roughnecks, says he will ever allow the "Sidewalks of New York to hang out Houston's" version. Smith is trying to make a favorable impression on southern Democrats.

According to the Kissimmee Gazette, Joe Bears will begin his campaign for re-election to Congress a few days. And that reminds us we saw some of his campaign returns the other day with Joe's name written in the upper right corner where the stamp ought to be.

As the winter snows are melting and Spring moves well along, no one more makes the front page. The Nationalists predicted to launch a new offensive of four hundred mile front, should soon begin to hear the guns and drums of battle as the Sun Chuan-Fang and the Sun Chuan-Fang and the Sun Chuan-Fang swing into action.

New York's Welcome

Monday or Tuesday the German Junkers monoplane Bremen is due to drop down onto New York, the world's second largest city. The plane which flew through storms and fogs from Ireland to a speck of an island off the coast of Labrador will probably come to rest on that famous piece of ground, Mitchell field, from which Lindbergh soared on his flight to Europe.

What will their welcome be? Will New York go mad over them as Paris went mad over Lindbergh? Or has ocean flight after ocean flight dulled the thrill of seeing the men who were the first to span the Atlantic from east to west in an airplane?

New York would have given them a great reception if they had landed neatly and promptly a week ago. But New York will give them a greeting they'll remember when they come down next week.

Then came a message from a lighthouse keeper on an island off the coast of Labrador saying the flyers had landed. Gradually, the story of their battle against elements and faulty instruments trickled out. The story explained the fate of other trans-Atlantic planes.

So when the airmen who came so close to losing their lives in the wild depths of the Atlantic swoop down on New York, there will be a welcome for them. The world will want to catch a glimpse of them and their plane, the Bremen, and give them New York's famous greeting of paper snow as they ride through the streets.

Just A Loan

Now it appears that Sidney J. Catts, Baptist preacher and the race track's candidate for governor of the state of Florida, has learned a lesson from Fall and Sinclair and their relations in the Teapot Dome case.

Last night in Miami he met fact to face with the man who made the charge and who is the avowed opponent of Catts and the race track-gambling gangs—James M. Carson.

Last night Catts admitted he had received the money, just as Fall admitted he had received $100,000 from Sinclair. But, like Fall, Catts says it was a loan, "a personal affair" and he didn't have to discuss it publicly.

WHAT HAPPENED

TAMPA TIMES

Most Floridians have been sickened by the reports which have been carried in the news columns of the state papers in connection with the invitation extended by Sidney J. Catts at his Groveland, Fla., speaking to Rev. John Page Jones, pastor of the Clermont Baptist church, to wait on the Orlando road until he, Catts, came along to "beat hell out of him."

Upon learning that Sidney J. Catts was to speak in Groveland, Rev. John Page Jones, and a number of other Clermont people, made the 6 mile drive to hear his speech.

During the course of this speech Mr. Catts charged that the teachers of the State College for Women were teaching "free love" and "bolshavism" and some other unprintable things.

Mr. Jones quietly walked toward the truck upon which Mr. Catts was standing and asked him where he got his information. Mr. Catts replied that he had his information in pamphlet form and knew what he was talking about.

Mr. Jones made no reply to this and withdrew to the edge of the crowd. Upon turning around he saw Mr. Catts and three of of Sidney J. Catts upon the occasion more deplorable and less Christianlike than it appeared from the first reports sent out. It should be enough to stop every citizen of Florida from voting for the former governor in his present race for the governorship.

This state cannot afford to have it go out to the world that it has named as its governor a man who so demeaned himself as did Sidney J. Catts at Groveland.

There may be those in Florida who condone such conduct toward a respected minister of the gospel and a shrapnel-wounded veteran of the World War as was accorded the Rev. John Page Jones by Sidney J. Catts at Groveland, if they do not sanction it.

Based upon this incident and others in the record of the former governor, this paper can only hope that God may help Florida if Sidney J. Catts is again named her governor.

Meischs Give Second Bridge Party Series

Exquisite in every detail was the lovely bridge party Thursday afternoon, the second of a series, given by Mrs. John Meisch Sr., Mrs. Edith Meisch and Mrs. John Meisch Jr., of the handsome home of Mrs. John Meisch on Park Avenue.

The rooms where the card tables had been arranged for play were transformed into veritable Spring gardens with all sorts of cut flowers, potted plants and ferns. On the mantels and cabinets were bowls of tulips, juncos, asters, larkspurs and yellow snapdragons, while encircling the various rooms of this spacious home were wrought iron flower stands and tall wicker flower baskets holding, gladioli, lilies, snapdragons, lace flowers and candy tuft. The colors of corn and lavender were featured and accentuated in every way.

Receiving the guests at the door was Mrs. Alfred W. Lee Jr., while the novel tables of rich design carrying out the color scheme were passed by Mrs. Harry Heeren. In the receiving line were the three hostesses.

Five progressions of bridge were enjoyed during the afternoon and after the last progression series were collected and prizes awarded. The first prize, a handsome spring bag, went to Mrs. Emmett McCall, while the second prize, a lovely hand embroidered luncheon set, went to Mrs. Charles Powell Jr. For having had all luck with her cards, Mrs. Endor Curlett was consoled with a pretty hand painted card table cover. The cut prize, a quaint beautiful rose crystal flower container was won by Mrs. W. W. Potter.

At the ten hour when the bridge accessories had been cleared away and the tables over laid with diamond covers, the hostesses assisted by Mrs. John Bender, Mrs. William Ludwig, Mrs. K. B. McCracken, Mrs. J. D. Woodruff, Mrs. H. B. McCall Jr., Mrs. Calvin Teague, Mrs. Emmett McCall, Mrs. James L. Wells, and Miss Katherine Meisch served tasty refreshments of chicken salad, nut bread, olives, grape sherbet, mints, hot buns and angel food cakes iced in yellow frosting and embellished with purple violets.

There were twenty tables of players and a number of tea guests who enjoyed this exceptionally artistic as well as enjoyable affair.

U. D. C. Entertains At Subscription Bridge
The Educational Committee of the N. J. V. Howard Chapter U. D. C. entertained at one of the largest as well as most delightful subscription bridge parties, Friday afternoon at the Woman's Club.

The proceeds will be used for the scholarship fund. Members of the committee were Mrs. George A. De Cottes, chairman, Mrs. G. D. Bishop, Mrs. Robert J. Holly Sr., Mrs. Frank J. Gonzalez, Mrs. James G. Sharon and Mrs. W. J. Thigpen.

Quantities of exquisite Spring cut flowers, potted plants and ferns transformed the large auditorium into a veritable bower of beauty. The colors of the old South, red and white, were carried out in gladioli, snapdragons, asters, roses, carnations, amaryllis, lilies and calla lilies. Numerous Confederate flags were used to advantage.

The stage was most artistically arranged to represent a living room of a large Southern home. On the floor were hand made hooked rugs, while the furniture and old spinning wheel bestows the old days. Bowls of red roses and white snapdragons were placed on tables and cabinets, and on the wall were old Confederate flags and American flags.

Scores for the games were kept on tallies done in red and white, and when the games had been completed, Miss Edna Goodwin Perkins of Virginia, who held highest score, had first choice in selecting prizes, choosing a lovely white kid party bag. Mrs. F. Minarik, who made next highest score, chose a handsome china pitcher, while Mrs. Clifford Walker, who made third highest score, received a green crystal bowl and sauce dishes to match. Mrs. G. Irving Loucks held low score, and won a green crystal bowl filled with sweet peas. One of the tallies was marked with U. D. CARSON CARRIES GOVERNOR DRIVE INTO BAY COUNTY

Opponent of Race Track Gambling and Candidate For Office of Governor Delivers Speeches Along West Coast

PANAMA CITY—April 19.—Carrying his campaign for governor into Bay county, James M. Carson, Miami attorney, yesterday delivered three addresses, speaking in St. Andrews and Lynn Haven in the afternoon and in this city at night. This was the twenty-sixth county Mr. Carson has visited and his speech in the city hall here was his thirty-sixth of the campaign.

The candidate directed his principal attack against Catts and Hathaway, the former for his espousal of the race track gambling issue and the latter for his espousal of the proposition for the present road building program for the next fifteen years. In this connection Mr. Carson referred to his advocacy of gradual repayment to the counties of money spent by them on state roads.

The speaker struck a responsive chord in his message in this city when he declared that if elected he would exert his influence as governor to have legislation enacted that would divert one cent of the gasoline tax to create a sinking fund with which to pay off the indebtedness incurred in securing money to give to the state building estate highways.

"Here in this county," Mr. Carson said, "I find you people are paying twenty-five mills to retire bonds which you have sold to provide the state with funds to build its roads. Under my proposal you would obtain immediate relief in a millage reduction of that amount."

Lapsing into a humorous vein in his attack upon Catts, Mr. Carson referred to the fact that the reverend gentleman is always talking about what a "bad and dangerous" man he is, and in reply said, "I understand Catts claims to be from a bad section of Alabama. I would respectfully call his attention to the fact that although I do not claim to be a bad and dangerous man, I came from Osceola county where years ago there used to be a number of bad characters. They tell the story of one of these men, who went into Orlando riding a panther and driving a crowd of wildcats about a 'bad and dangerous' man he is, and in reply said, 'I understand Catts claims to be from a bad section of Alabama. Carson Begins His Invasion Of South Florida Districts

BROOKSVILLE, Apr. 21.—Beginning an invasion of south Florida in the interest of his candidacy for governor, James M. Carson, arrived here today for a race track campaign and Sidney J. Catts, yesterday delivered three addresses, speaking first in the morning at Dunnellon, in the afternoon at Inverness and last night in the courthouse at Brooksville.

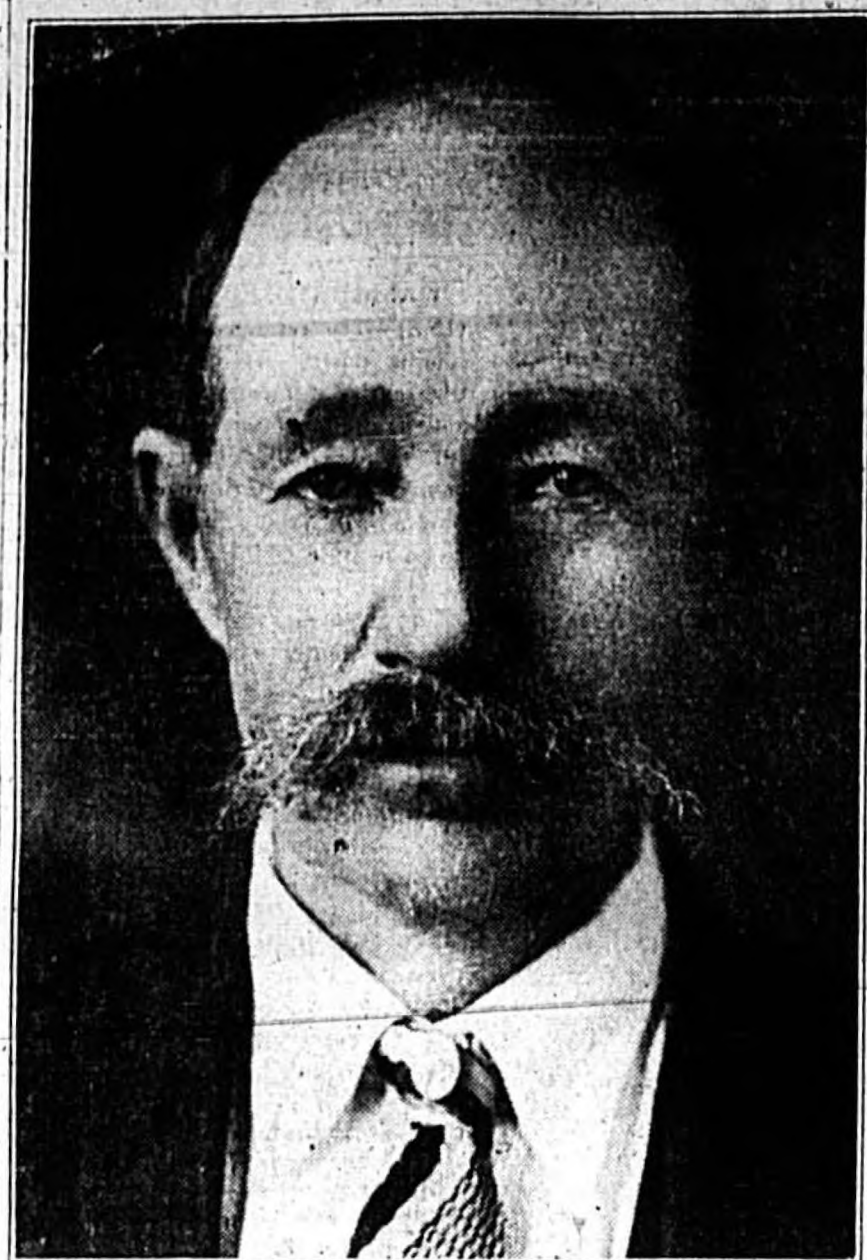

With reference to the preachings of Catts for a return to race track gambling and any other form of wholesale vice and immorality, Mr. Carson charged the minister with trying to affect this change by championing local option on amusements for tourists.

"He first called it local option, but now he has changed the name to county home rule," Mr. Carson asserted. "The reason for that is that somebody reminded him of the fact that in 1918 he called the legislature in special session to enact prohibition and do away with local option because it was a failure."

After reviewing the long legal fight, which he personally conducted, and which ultimately led to the supreme court decision that closed the race tracks, Mr. Carson compared conditions of prosperity as they existed in 1927 when the tracks were running side open with those of the past season when all were closed. He showed that Miami had nearly one hundred per cent more visitors this year than last and that school attendance increased 25 per cent.

Catts came in for a lengthy attack, the speaker being cheered repeatedly as he drove home the charges that Catts is backed by the gamblers and that he is getting financial support in a corrupt bargain in which he has agreed to sell 40,000 votes to the east coast race track outfit. Revelation of the $24,760 which Catts invested in Seminole county after being defeated for governor last time also brought cheers and thunderous applause from the crowd.

Running For Tax Assessor

E. E. Kilbee, of Geneva, who is running for the office of county tax assessor against the present incumbent, A. Vaughan, and another opponent, Joe Chittenden. Mr. Kilbee has been a resident of Seminole County for a great many years and is at present a member of the board of county commissioners.

ASPIRANTS TO PUBLIC OFFICE TALK AT RALLY

His opponent, Mr. Entzinger, told the audience he couldn't promise them much because the other 90 or 99 men in the legislature will have something to say about what that body does. He said he favored reduction of all expenses including school teachers' salaries as the only method to effect a reduction in taxes. He said the state, county and school board must all cut their expenses.

Kilbee talks again

E. E. Kilbee, of Geneva, who is running for county tax assessor, and who seems to be the favorite speaker at each meeting, had only one opponent to meet last night. A. Vaughan, the incumbent, was at the meeting earlier in the evening but by the time it came to speak he had left. Kilbee copied the candidates who preceded him on the platform for taking up so much time that it was 11 o'clock before he got to speak.

"I don't want to talk too long and make this room too hot," he said, "but I will say a few words to hear him speak. I'm asking you for this time to promote my self." He said in his opinion the school teachers were being paid too much. He said his platform was equalized taxes.

Mr. Kilbee was followed by Joe Chittenden, another candidate for tax assessor. His platform is the formation of an equalization board to insure equitable distribution of the tax burden. He charged Kilbee with stealing the platform from him after the meeting at Lake Monroe Tuesday.

Seek Commission Jobs

S. F. Long and J. T. McLane, two candidates for county commissioner from district No. 5, made short snappy speeches of about a minute apiece. McLane said he had served on the first commission in this county for three years and that he believed he would be elected again. D. C. Rayburn, who is running against John Meisch, the chairman of the present commission, said he had been a resident of Seminole County since 1878. If he fails to be elected this time he'll never run again.

Mrs. May Belle Maxwell, who is running for superintendent of public instruction against T. W. Lawton, the present holder of the job, told the audience she taught the office was a woman's place and not a man's. She said she had lived in the county for 21 years and served most of that time as a teachers' salaries. She is at present said she would advocate economy in school buildings and equipment before she would favor cutting teacher in the public schools. She serving at the Seminole County High School.

Lawton Seeks Re-election

Mr. Lawton told the voters his 11 years of experience was the best reason for returning him to office. He said he was outclassed in looks but that he had served the county faithfully and didn't think he could rightfully be displaced.

E. E. Walker was the first of the candidates for sheriff to speak. He said he had a "method of his own for catching crooks but that he never had hit a white man or a nigger in his life. He was followed by J. F. McClelland, who said his platform was the oath of office and that he was running because he needed the job. He said if the voters defeated him as they did Brady four years ago that he'd never run again.

which were of most importance to the state in general. He said it would probably be possible to have the Geneva East Coast road listed for construction at the coming session of the legislature.

Wants New Bank Law

M. M. Lord, candidate for the legislature in group 1 in which C. W. Entzinger, of Longwood, is running as his opponent, said he wanted a state guarantee for bank deposits to protect the depositors from loss in the event of a failure. He said at the time of his tax returns, telling how he himself had lived in Seminole County since before the Civil War.

C. M. Hand, the present sheriff, said he had built more roads with his convictions in his last term of office than had ever been built in the county before. He said there was more money in the time and tortoise fund than ever before.

Wilkinson and Sharon Mix

He was followed by E. J. Brady, another aspirant to the sheriff's office. Brady said, "If there was a man who served the people with honor and high class work like E. J. Brady done, I don't know it, I am the only one and tax reducing sheriff in the county. I'll take you out of the county tax at least 50 per cent." He charged Hand with costing the county money, while sheriffs in other counties were making money.

S. A. B. Wilkerson, candidate for county judge, and J. G. Sharon, the incumbent, tangled again over the reversal of Judge Sharon's cases in the higher courts. Wilkinson says they show Judge Sharon is costing the county money and is only some 25 per cent efficient. Judge Sharon says Wilkinson is distorting the issue because the reversals in the last years have only cost the county $50 and that his reversals are as few and far between as any other judge's.

D. E. Thrasher Speaks

Individual personal attention was promised by D. E. Thrasher, the first of the candidates for clerk of the circuit court to speak. Vance Douglass, the present clerk, said his experience in the office was the best reason for re-electing him. In a short talk, R. E. Deas, another candidate, said he believed he was fully competent. R. A. Cobb said his job keeping the records for a corporation doing a $1,000,000 a year business was the best training in the world for handling the clerk's office.

Municipal Judge Weyman E. White, candidate for county prosecuting attorney, and John G. Leonard, the incumbent, both spoke in behalf of their candidacies. White said he wanted the office because he was ambitious, and Leonard responded that with White as city judge and his father as county attorney, he thought there were already enough public offices in the White family.

Other speakers were P. W. Roberts, candidate for the state senate; Senator W. W. Phillips and J. O. Cassidy, candidates for the railroad commission.

JUDGE APPOINTED

WASHINGTON, Apr. 18. (INS)—President Coolidge today appointed Fenton W. Booth of Illinois, a judge of the Court of Claims, as chief justice of the court to succeed Judge E. B. Campbell, resigned.

RELIEF PLANE PILOTS DELAY HOP TO ISLAND

Public opinion was against the flight because of the numerous tragedies which had attended previous efforts to span the Atlantic from the East to West. It was this opposition—both official and private—which led the flyers to hop off at Baldonnel Airforce, Ireland, instead of Tempelhof field Berlin. The airmen left Tempelhof field secretly early in the morning when they flew to Ireland to begin the trans-oceanic jump.

"We owe much to the courage and skill of Major James E. Fitzmaurice and Capt. Herman Koehl," said the baron, "but we must pay homage also to the machine. In my opinion the Junkers' plane is the best that has been perfected to date. Also, I believe that Capt. Koehl is the best flyer and the best air navigator in existence.

Four Col. Lindbergh, a wonderful airman—cool, daring, resourceful and skillful, but he did not have the difficulties that Capt. Koehl encountered. Koehl was a former captain in the German Air Force. He is a knight of the Order of Merit, the highest war decoration in Germany.

The children of the community have found the good natured Koehl a fine "pal." Even the dogs have taken to him and he was photographed holding a puppy in each arm.

"Silk Legs" Will Be Picture Presented By Milane Theatre

Can women compete successfully with men as drummers on the road and at the same time retain their feminine charm?

This question is dealt with humorously in "Silk Legs," Fox Films' screen version of Frederica Sagor's fascinating story of Atlantic City, featuring Midge Bellamy, which comes to the Milane Theatre today.

Ruth Stevens is a very successful hoisery drummer until the advent of Phil Parker, twentieth century edition of the modern drummer, whose business methods play havoc with Ruth's orders.

Parker's methods are old but reliable. He believes in playing the female buyers, who fall for his line of snave. As for Ruth she sells her wares on their merits.

"Can she compete against such odds?"

Miss Bellamy, the clever little comedienne, answers that question in "Silk Legs" in a manner that is sure to appeal to everyone.

A particularly well-chosen cast supports Miss Bellamy, including James Hall, Joseph Cawthorn and Maude Fulton. Arthur Rosson directs.

Hathaway Friend Takes Stump For State Road Chief

LAKE WALES, Fla., Apr. 21.—Speaking this afternoon to a crowded municipal court room and tonight to a good audience at an open air meeting in this city, John Mathews, of Jacksonville appearing in behalf of Foy's A. Hathaway candidate for governor, found responsive audiences in his discussion of the candidates platform and upon his record of public service in school work and as a road builder.

This section of Polk County, the meetings today revealed, is evidencing a keen interest in the gubernatorial campaign and particularly are they interested in the question of economies in government, in a continuance of the present road building program, the elimination of drastic provisions of the fish and game laws, if applause could indicate the sentiment on these questions.

Mr. Mathews is filling Dr. Hathaway's engagements in Polk County, the Chairman of the Road Department having been called back to Tallahassee by the illness of Mrs. Hathaway. He will make several addresses Friday evening, the day campaigning with a talk at Winter Haven in the evening.

Mr. Mathews in all his meetings which began with a crowd of over 1,000 at Lakeland, is being warmly applauded in his rebuttal of Carlton's charges.

Martin Condemns Trammell's Action During Incumbency

AVON PARK, Fla., Apr. 21.—Resenting his Washington post to all real estate here for six months during the boom when he should have been defending the state from landerous attacks does not credit Florida junior Senator to return this coming election, Gov. John F. Martin declared here last night when he addressed an enthusiastic audience of nearly five hundred people.

"When Florida was assailed all rough the North and my opponent should have been speaking in defense, he was spending all his time making speeches to prospective customers here," the governor said.

Traveling to New York, Washington, Chicago, Baltimore, Maine, Michigan and even out West trying to defend my state while the man elected to represent you there got his responsibility and ought only of resales and profits. It is not the kind of national representative this state needs to give prestige in the nation.

During this afternoon Governor Martin will speak in Bowling Green and tonight at Wauchoula turning then to the capital.

London's Teaching Hospitals Ban The Entering Of Women

LONDON, April 9. (INS)—Five of London's greatest teaching hospitals have just banned the entry of women medical students. In the future, women will only be able to qualify in London at two hospitals entirely women-staffed.

The reasons given are three and these are hotly controverted by women in all ranks of life. These are:

Women do not take part in hospital athletics.

Women students disturb and embarrass men students.

Women do not make good doctors and do not follow up the profession, the time spent on training being wasted.

The controversy has reached that point of acuteness where abuse is being freely used on both sides. But now, Dr. Graham Little, Member of Parliament for the University of London and famous physician has taken up the cudgel for women doctors from another viewpoint.

Make Best Wives "They make the best wives," he says.

"Their medical education," he explains, "makes them ideal companions for the intellectual man. Husband and wife can scale the peak of knowledge hand in hand, each being an experienced climber."

"The medical woman's knowledge makes her specially fit to undertake the bearing and rearing of the child which the most typical of mid-Victorian poets said was 'woman's wisdom.'"

"It has been said that many women fail to make a living by medicine or drop out of the struggle for qualification.

"Comparison with men students will probably show that there is no disproportionate number of women who are thus affected as compared with men, of course, except in the case of the specific conditions of marriage which commonly result in the woman relinquishing her profession, and not the man.

"When medical women elect to remain unmarried, and it is for the most part an election, they have little difficulty in finding work to do.

"The emoluments which may be confidently anticipated by the women in medicine compare favorably with the rewards they may look for in any other walk of life. There are vast new fields of practice to be filled by women who are specially adapted, for example to antenatal and gynaecology work.

"Whether the men like it or not, I believe the women have come to stay and I personally bid them the warmest of welcomes."
