LOCAL ELEVEN NOW A MONEY CHASER IS ALL PRIMED FOR ST. CLOUD

Signal Drill Reveals Squad In Excellent Condition For Game

Stomach Not To Play

Star Back Undergoes A Slight Operation

By Peter Schaaf

Another week of constructive training ends this afternoon and Coach Whelchill is ready to lead his fighting griders against the St. Cloud team tomorrow afternoon. The men have come out of this week's practice sessions, with flying colors, and seem ready for the final drive for the championship. The fact that the mentor has set for this season.

Signal drill was again the main event on the practice field and the boys went into it with plenty of vigor and a determination to master the plays that have been looking for some time. Some of the boys are realizing that before the week can safely turn its attention to one or two other important details he must first feel that the men have the execution of all plays firmly implanted in their minds and so these few hours are leading the rest in an effort to do it. The coach is getting the signal practice matter out of the way.

Probably this week may be the last week that the coach will give the rest in an effort to do it. The coach is getting the signal practice matter out of the way.

Since the season has opened, nearly every team on the local schedule have appeared on the field in an effort to locate the weak spots in play in order that they may have time to prepare their offense and defense accordingly. The DeLand team has been one of the best in action twice and is being improved with the power of an 180 pound line, the they are boasting that they are going to "knock it up" when we meet.

A number of the Orlando players have witnessed each of the games and they too are deeply interested in this 180 pound line. However, they boast a collection of 180 pound backs, the they are boasting that they are going to "knock it up" when we meet.

The fact for crystal jewelry may have its ups and downs, but at the present moment it certainly seems to be very much "up" by the number of necklaces, brooches and bracelets appearing in the smart specialty shops in Paris.

Large rings of sanded crystal in clear or in colors, are a specialty of one of the smart dressmakers. For, by the way, it is they who are putting the chic into jewelry.

will find Captain Edinfield and Pat Miller at center, Bob Marx and Roy Sykes at tackle, Bob Yancy and "Bible" Hall at guard, and "Huber" Kasser at center. The backfield will probably be composed of the Paris brothers, Tip and Pat, Jack Peters and Tai Tetterton.

The usual football spirit of the team will insure a large attendance of local football fans at the game at St. Cloud tomorrow, and the boys promise all who attend plenty of action. The game starts at 2:30 P. M.

CLEMSON DEFEAT OF GAMECOCK IS AMAZING UPSET

Agricultural Eleven Runs Wild In Beating Carolina, 32-0

ATLANTA, Oct. 26 (INS)—Clemson College, the famous seat of agricultural learning in a the South Carolina hills, stood at the head of the Southern Conference today after wrecking the undefeated South Carolina eleven 32-0.

It had been admitted by most observers that Clemson might get a victory over the competitors of Chicago, Virginia and Maryland for no easy feat had yet stepped across the Clemson goal line. But the fury of the Tiger attack smashed every most radical prediction.

Head Coach Josh Cody, former Vandy star and assistant to Don McGiffin, has in two years jangled Clemson out of "the cellar" of conference football into a commanding position.

And from this point on the Clemson Tiger must be favored in most of its conference games. The Tiger now looms far stronger than Ole Miss or V. M. I. their next two foes. A battle royal certainly will develop later on at Tampa when Clemson meets the vigorous scoring machine from University of Florida November 17. Ole Miss, it is said, unless Florida can halt them, the Tigers are just about due to finish with a perfect conference record.

Clemson leads Southern Conference teams now in point of season record with six victories and no defeats. Vanderbilt, Tennessee, Georgia Tech, Florida and L. S. U. have not tested their strength in any of out of the conference. On a rating strictly with conference teams, Tech, Clemson, Tennessee, Kentucky, Florida, Vanderbilt, V. M. I. and L. S. U. have a perfect record. Georgia plays its first conference game Saturday against Tulane.

Tech plays North Carolina Saturday at Chapel Hill and Tech cannot afford to lose this game. If it is a rating strictly with conference teams, Tech, Clemson, Tennessee, Kentucky, Florida, Vanderbilt, V. M. I. and L. S. U. have a perfect record. Georgia plays its first conference game Saturday against Tulane.

Tech has a clean slate in two conference games—V. M. I. and Tulane—and entertains a not unreasonable hope of making the Tar Heels the third victim.

The Tar Heels have one conference victory over Maryland to their credit and it is understood were relying on exactly the Tech a week ago that the Virginia victory slipped up on the blind side and flapped the head before the tar heels.

Demprey's sister, Mrs. Maryann, was in the crowd at the game. She was seen to be very much interested in the game. She was seen to be very much interested in the game.

WARM MEETINGS MARK SCHEDULES OF MAIN ELEVEN

Georgia Tulane Promises Interesting Afternoon For Crowds

NEW YORK, Oct. 26—Intercollegiate football, the championship cocktail of the sport racket, will be strangely quiet tomorrow in two of the major sections, the Pacific coast and the South and that, of course, isn't a nice way to get, as the men who was run over by a team ruler will testify. They say he became terribly overcast almost immediately. Anyhow if the day is to be something of a beer festival in the South and on the coast, it will be fresh and fat and bubbly so lastly at New Haven, Iowa City and Lincoln, Neb. (not to say will be more on the slightest discrepancy. I was right the first time. No one will be conscious.

Minnesota and Iowa will look hangnails at Iowa City and the championship of the Big Ten very easily might ride with the outcome. At Lincoln, they are matching the arch rivals, Nebraska and Missouri, and the 1925 champion of the Big Six is almost certain to emerge from this one. At New Haven, the Army and Yale will have at it on the off chance that one or the other may become the Big Ten's reigning one in one country. Pennsylvania, Dartmouth, New York University, Princeton, Cornell, Carnegie Tech, Georgetown, Lafayette and Bucknell still are clamoring for the right to be bailed the big one of the East but may seem to think that the distinction, ultimately will fall to either Yale or the Army.

The particular fight, as a matter of fact, should be considered deleted tomorrow, as another early elimination will be put on in the Princeton-Cornell game while N. Y. U., Carnegie Tech and Pennsylvania are taking on a lot of competitive dynamite. Pennsylvania naturally thought it was scheduling a bye week in the Navy and, at that, it would do well to have a care lest it guess wrong twice on this thing. The Navy might lose all self-confidence and score another touchdown. Anyhow even a sub-normal Navy team is defeated only after you put the final score N. Y. U. also embarks, gets its first 1925 test from Carnegie and, of course, Pittsburgh will fight Carnegie Tech and vice versa until something drops and this might be both of them.

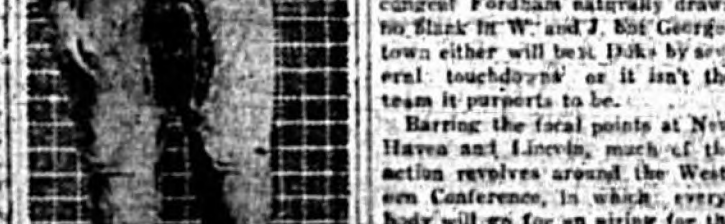

Other undefeated Easterners who will know they have been playing football will be heartbroken against Harvard and Lafayette against West Virginia. The Penn State-Syracuse affair, once was very hot but has been allowed to congeal. Fordham naturally draws its flunk in W. and J. But Georgetown either will beat Duke by several touchdowns or it isn't the team it purports to be.

Barring the fiscal points at New Haven and Lincoln, much of the action revolves around the Western Conference, in which everybody will go for an airing for the first time this year. The big moment will be furnished by the power houses, Minnesota and Iowa, with which depending upon the former's physical condition. Neither team has blown out yet and, in a man or a fish; the thing looks like a stand-off, although the Gophers seem to think the Chicago game took something out of them. What they took out of Chicago will be demonstrated in the latter's meeting with Purdue. The other conference leaders, Ohio State and Illinois, also will take on quite a bill of goods in Indiana and Northwestern respectively. While a third pacemaker, Wisconsin, draws Michigan and makes its debut. And maybe not. It is difficult to

Error Reported In Grid Contest List

Vanderbilt is listed as playing Washington & Lee, when it should be Virginia. Those who read in their list of winners between now and tomorrow need are asked to leave out the Vanderbilt contest.

LONDON, Oct. 26 (INS)—Reports that Great Britain intends to scrap her plans for the construction of a Naval Base at Singapore were denied today by the Admiralty.

THINGS

The things I've dreamed are these

Beneath a lurid sky; Italian Alps

The ships of England, half forgotten runes

Of Norway; far Hawaii's midnight moans

The flash of Spanish garden butterflies

Long hazy hills where Scottish heather lies

The pines of Norway; Gama's deathless tones

The things I've lived are these

In a wooden trail

That winds up to the summit of a hill

Where tall sword fern and tiger-lilies blow

A singing fir tree, winter winds that wait

A shadowy lake, a valley green, and hills

A bobolink, a fence weighed down by snow

Congressman Aswell introduced a very serious subject to Sanford

people when he mentioned the vacancy in the White House, and from his remarks about the silent philosopher, we judge he thinks there's also a vacancy in the presidential dome

Frank Miller gives it as his firm belief that the city tax millage will be lowered to twenty in the next budget while the assessed valuation will also be reduced

Mr. Miller is a smart man and probably figures better than some of us do, but we hope he is right

The primary object of most of the political speakers we have heard seems to be to tell as many lies about the other candidate as possible

Both Smith and Hoover seem to be presidential timber, and they would not have been nominated, and it is hard to believe that either of them could be an low-down, cunning, mean and treacherous as everyone says they are

There seems to be an epidemic of hydrophobia going the rounds of Gaines and Volusia counties

Sanfordville, Tampa, and Miami were all had their mad dog scares within the past ten days

Our Reputation At Stake

Among all the states of the Solid South, the two which are attracting most attention as likely to go for Hoover are North Carolina and Florida

Florida normally is at least two to one Democratic

If there are not, as in Florida will know there are several reasons, or a combination of circumstances, which deflected many Democrats from their custom of voting the straight Democratic ticket

Winter visitors to this state, northern capitalists, political writers, and Republican leaders will not know this at least, they will not admit it

We can think of no black eye, which, the comeliness of her beautiful but battle-scarred visage might receive, that would react more strongly against her

It would be as if Florida, progressive Florida, ahead of the rest of the country in most things, had suddenly gone back three hundred years to New England's intolerant days of witchcraft trials

They may say they will now, but when they go into the booth to mark their ballots, we do not believe they will allow Al Smith's religion to stand between them and their party

Navy Day

Today is Navy Day and while no local celebration will commemorate the date, many of the larger cities throughout the country will join in observance

Since so many of us have only a small conception of the historical facts forming the colorful background of our navy, perhaps it would not be amiss at this time, when we should be giving some thought to the subject, to recall a few of its triumphs

The United States Navy has had only four fleet actions, and in each has captured and destroyed every enemy ship

No United States naval ship has ever been in the hands of mutineers, while in other navies whole squadrons and fleets have been thus commandeered

Navy Day commemorates the passage of the first appropriation of $100,000 for the American sea forces by the Continental Congress in 1776
