CONDUCTOR IS KILLED BY NEGRO

RAY BUTTS OF THIS CITY KILLED BY NEGRO DESPERADO SUNDAY MORNING

Conductor Ray Butts who was shot by a negro desperado Sunday morning in the Palatka yards died in the hospital at Jacksonville at noon Monday. His death has cast a gloom over the community where he was well known and where he has made his home for many years. On Saturday night a white man a stranger in this city was held up by two negroes on Ninth street shortly after he arrived on Train 85. They hit him over the head when he resisted and went through his pockets securing about twelve dollars in money but overlooked other money and checks in his inside pocket. The police and the sheriff's office being notified the officers arrived on the scene and searched for the negroes and also searched all the trains going out afterward. They were thought to be on the freight train of Conductor Butts and he wired the police of Palatka to be ready for them when the train arrived and while in the Palatka yards and before the officers could reach the train Conductor Butts saw one of them slipping off the back end of the train and called upon him to stop. The negro replied by starting shooting and shot Conductor Butts twice in the body. After he had fallen the negro fired another bullet into his back but the brave conductor pulled his own pistol and fired at the negro and shot him several times. When the officers and other trainmen rushed up the negro had escaped into the scrub but was afterward apprehended and his companion was afterward killed in the pursuit by the officers on the railroad track going toward Jacksonville.

Conductor Butts was taken to Jacksonville on his train and rushed to the hospital where everything was done for him in the effort to save his life but the bullet in his back had penetrated his bladder and he died Monday after a brave fight for life. Mrs. Butts was with him when he died having been wired to go to Jacksonville shortly after the shooting occurred.

Ray Butts was an exemplary young man who had the respect and esteem of all who knew him and of the Atlantic Coast Line for whom he had been employed for many years. He made his home in this city for the past six years and part of that time resided in DeLand coming back to this city about two years ago. His untimely end is regretted by his many friends in this and other cities in Florida and the sympathy of all is extended to the bereaved wife in her deep affliction.

Following is from Jacksonville Metropolitan:

Funeral services of Raymond J. Butts, the Atlantic Coast Line railroad conductor who died Monday as a result of pistol wounds inflicted by a negro at Palatka, were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the undertaking establishment of Burns & Campbell, 45 West Church street. Rev. J. F. Bell, pastor of the Springfield Methodist church, officiated.

Pallbearers were Charles T. Paxton, J. D. Shawler, A. E. Foster, E. W. Gray, H. M. B. Woodruff and W. J. Forney. Interment was in the family lot in West Evergreen cemetery.

Mr. Butts leaves a widow, father, J. E. Butts of Ortega, two brothers, James E. and Van A. Butts, of the same place, and one sister, Mrs. G. P. Stringfellow, of Pablo Beach.

Mr. Butts was a member of Sanford Lodge, No. 62, F. & A. M., and Order of Railway Conductors, No. 196, Jacksonville Division. Members of these orders attended the funeral.

APPLICANTS FOR CENSUS ARE WANTED

SUPERVISOR OF CENSUS OF FOURTH DISTRICT WANTS APPLICANTS FROM SEMINOLE COUNTY

According to the supervisor of the census of the Fourth District patriots that want to act as enumerators in Seminole county have not as yet made themselves known and the following letter from Joseph Emory, the supervisor, speaks for itself. If there are any men in Seminole county who would like to act as enumerators the letter will give you the advance information and a letter to Mr. Emory will give you further information:

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 30, 1910
Mr. R. J. Holly,

Dear Sir:—Applications for places as enumerator of census in Seminole county are unaccountably lacking thus far, and I think it is quite necessary to enlist the influence of The Herald and yourself in order to change such situation, and make sure that the census in Seminole is fully and properly taken.

Just how many enumerators are needed in your new county, I cannot state at the moment, as the geographers are not yet through with the mapping of the district—but would ask that you have at least six or eight persons who you consider competent for the work, write this office as to their intention of applying, and application blanks and full information will be sent to you.

The formal applications, endorsements, etc., must all be in by October 15, and the tests of applicants (filling out of agricultural and population schedules), will be made last week in October. We need, therefore, to know just as soon as possible, who these applicants are.

Unnecessary to state to you the importance, from every viewpoint, of securing force of enumerators who will correctly report our changing agricultural conditions and population. Now is the time at which they must be selected.

Appreciating fully such interest and cooperation from yourself and from the Herald as above suggested, I am,

Very truly yours,
JOS. J. EMERY,
Supervisor 4th. Fla. District.

WOMANS CLUB CITY SCHOOLS FIRST MEETING OPEN TERM WEDNESDAY BIG NUMBER

BEGINS SEASON WITH A GENERAL BUSINESS MEETING AT CLUB HOUSE

The Woman's Club began its season of activity with the general business meeting of the club on Wednesday afternoon. There was a good attendance and much interest manifested in the plans of the various departments for the coming year.

Mrs. W. L. Morgan, the newly elected president, to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. J. W. Dickens, presided with gracious dignity, and in a few well chosen words requested the co-operation of the members in all plans pertaining to the club.

The new president possesses a pleasing personality and in a tactful and well posted on club matters and an experience gained through a long and useful service on public work, the home club will undoubtedly progress under her efficient leadership.

Reports from the officers and chairmen of the departments were most encouraging.

Mrs. W. E. Watson, chairman of finance, reported that the last payment on the piano had been made and that only fifty-one dollars was due on the club house. She stated that R. C. Bower had generously donated a hundred dollar Liberty Bond to the building fund on the new club house, and that four others had promised the same amount each. Mrs. Watson was quite enthusiastic over the Alkahest Lyceum of four entertainments that will be given under the auspices of the club for the benefit of the building fund. Twenty-three new members and eleven re-instatements were included in the interesting report made by Mrs. E. M. Gallo-way, chairman of the membership committee. It is safe to predict that the club will double its membership under this efficient committee.

In the absence of Mrs. B. W. Herndon, the chairman of the welfare department, Mrs. S. Puleston gave a brief outline of the program planned, of a wide diversity and interesting. Included will be a health crusade in the public schools, better moving pictures and a civic program that means civic righteousness in every sense of the word. On the last Friday in October an evening reception will be given in honor of the public school teachers.

An unusually interesting course of study has been planned for the Literature department and the music department will contribute charming and attractive programs of a high standard.

The social department, of which Mrs. R. A. Newman was elected chairman on Wednesday, will begin its pleasures on Tuesday, Oct. 14, with a bridge party and will continue throughout the season diversifying with bridge, dances, luncheons and sewing parties.

Delegates elected to the Federation meeting at St. Petersburg in November were Mrs. R. J. Holly and Mrs. Roy C. Bower. Alternatives, Mrs. H. B. Lewis and Mrs. A. M. Phillips.

The Literature department of the Woman's Club will meet next Wednesday, Oct. 8th, at 4 o'clock. An interesting program has been arranged and "Echoes from the Summer Vacation" will be given by Mrs. R. C. Maxwell and Mrs. Geo. L. Maris. Members are urged to attend and help to make this the banner year in attendance at the literature meetings.

The county commissioners of Baker county state that the cattle tick is costing the cattle men of that county $8 a head. This assertion is based on the fact that tick quarantined cattle do not bring as great a price in the open market as those that are free of ticks. Cattle men there are paying taxes on 12,000 head of cattle, which at the loss stated makes $90,000 the cattle men are losers. The cattle are being dipped to eradicate the evil, but there are not enough vats

EIGHT HUNDRED AND SEVENTEEN ENROLLED OPENING DAY WHICH IS THE RECORD

Sanford city schools opened Monday morning with a record attendance and all the departments are working smoothly at the end of the first week. The total attendance is 817. The High School has 150, the Grammar School, 370, East Side Primary 116, West Side Primary 131, the largest number ever enrolled at opening of school. There will be other pupils in the next few weeks especially those families who are coming here for the winter and many from nearby sections that have not yet enrolled, but the figures are most satisfactory to the principal and teachers.

The various schools opened Monday with appropriate exercises and in many instances the parents were with the children at the opening and getting acquainted with the teachers.

At the High School auditorium members of the school board and the ministers of the city and patrons of the schools were present to welcome Principal Ogilvie and the teachers and to give the pupils words of advice and while there was no regular opening program the getting together of the board and the patrons and the teachers was a very pleasing occasion. The corps of teachers as outlined in the Herald will have a few changes probably but the teaching staff can be said to be one of the strongest that the schools have had in many years and the schools make their start this year with the idea that the teachers and pupils are to strive to do their very best.

Sanford schools, with their two primary schools, one on the east side and one on the west side, with their fine Grammar School in the heart of the city and one of the best High Schools in this part of the state, the people of Sanford should take a just pride in their splendid school system.

With the idea that the boys need good athletics to keep them in trim Prof. Ogilvie had the football team out each afternoon for practice and the boys who make good in their lessons and make good on the team will have a chance to travel to other cities and play football for the joy of playing and the honor of Sanford High.

Legislative Timber

Attorney John Murrell formerly of this city but now a resident of Okeechobee City was here on Tuesday and reports everything on the big lake as being in a most flourishing condition. John is making good in his new location and says that he is being importuned by his friends in Okeechobee to make the race for the legislature and while he is a very busy man may find time to shake the political plum tree in the spring and serve his country if possible. John is a young man of great promise and he would make a good legislator not only for his own county but for the state. He has our best wishes for success.

Will Practice Here.

Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Langley, of Camp Hill, Ala., spent several days in Sanford during the past week, the guests of Dr. Langley's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Langley, at their home on Park avenue.

Dr. Langley has just returned from overseas, having been in the service of Uncle Sam for two years, and for the past eight or nine months stationed at Coblenz, Germany, with the army of occupation, as brain surgeon.

He has decided to locate in Sanford and upon his return, about the 15th, will open offices here.

Donates White Way to Baptist Temple

A visitor to the city attending the Baptist Church last Sunday night liked Dr. Hyman's sermon so well that he met the Doctor after the services and wanted to do something for the church. As lights were needed on the outside of the church the gentleman has promised to pay for eleven lights around the portico and install four white way posts in front of the church. At a later date he will also pay for lights on the top of the Temple and Dr. Hyman and the congregation are very grateful indeed for this fine donation. This is an instance of what visitors to the city will do when this city becomes a tourist resort.

Recruiting for Navy

In a drive for 150,000 men for the Navy many new and attractive inducements are being offered.

Men enlisting as apprentice seamen may have the privilege of choosing any of the following places for their training: San Francisco, Calif., Chicago, Ill., Newport, R. I., or Norfolk, Va.

Men existing may be sent to any ship whose home port is on the Atlantic or Gulf coasts.

In order to train men for the Aviation Corps nine schools are being maintained by the Navy.

Full particulars may be had by addressing the Navy Recruiting Station, Ocala, Fla.

Fort Lauderdale voted bonds for golf links for that town. The citizens were desirous of starting the work at once in order that the links would be in condition to be used by the visitors this winter.

Stetson University, of DeLand, had a great record last year. It will have a greater record this year. Last year it had the largest enrollment in its history. This year promises to go far beyond last year's registration.

STATE BOARD WILL GUARD OUR HEALTH

ESPECIALLY WELL EQUIPPED TO COMBAT INFLUENZA SHOULD IT APPEAR

Jacksonville, October 3—Should influenza return this year, as many authorities believe it will, the State Board of Health will be prepared to fight another epidemic with what is probably the strongest working organization of its kind ever assembled.

The machinery as built up by Dr. Ralph N. Greene, state health officer, in cooperation with the American Public Health Association, can be thrown into the field upon twenty-four hours notice and as of such proportions that it can battle with the disease from every angle. This means that the State Board of Health is not only prepared to fight influenza should it assume the character of an epidemic but has made available every method of safeguarding a community from the disease and of curing it wherever it makes its appearance.

The working program as mapped out by Dr. Greene embodies on a widely comprehensive scale the methods found most successful by internationally famous authorities in fighting influenza last year. An important part of the machinery is the listing and distribution of resources, including physicians, nurses, social workers, nurses' aids, clerks, domestics, laundresses, automobiles, chauffeurs, mask makers, and relief organizations.

Through the United States Public Health Service arrangements have been made for the services of 100 of the state's leading physicians who will receive compensation from the public Health Service but will work under direction of Dr. Greene. The State Board of Health force of district health officers will be ready for any emergency.

Full information regarding hospital facilities will be obtained and put on file in the central office and a canvass of ambulance facilities in each district will be made.

Should an epidemic appear Dr. Greene will set in motion machinery that will keep a close check on the spread in every community in the state, and throw the fighting forces of the State Board of Health in any locality where needed.

RALLY DAY METHODIST NEXT SUNDAY

METHODISTS WILL ENDEAVOR TO HAVE EVERYBODY IN SUNDAY SCHOOL ON THAT DAY.

Sunday will be the ONE BIG DAY in the Methodist Sunday School. The occasion is the annual Rally Day held on the first Sunday in October of each year and the object is to put everybody in the city who are not regular attendants at some school in the Methodist Sunday School on that day.

Committees have been hard at work all week making a thorough canvass of the city and surrounding country and everybody is being given a special personal invitation to attend Sunday.

Arrangements are being made to transport by auto any who live too far out to walk and have no means of transportation and for older people who cannot walk on account of infirmities. In this way no one will be denied the privilege of attending for want of "a way to get there."

A fine special program of music etc. has been arranged which will be rendered after the regular Sunday School hour and will take the place of the regular preaching service.

The Herald is requested to announce that everyone is especially invited to this Sunday School at 10:30 next Sunday morning. It may be that the canvassers will miss a few who are not home when they call.

MOONSHINERS GET THEIR

Sheriff's Office Keeps on Trail of Illicit Still in Seminole

The moonshiners are working overtime these days, and with the thought that they are bound to get caught the shiners jeep busy and think that even if they are caught out at the present high price for bug juice. In fact the law seems lax on this subject of paying fines and if the fine was made big enough or the fines eliminated and the offenders forced to spend a year in the camps the making of moonshine would soon be abolished. In other words if the shiners knew that if caught they would serve a year or more and would not be allowed to pay a fine they would stop making liquor. A good still can run enough liquor to pay a fine in a few weeks and if caught the moonshiner simply pays the fine and goes back to making liquor. However at least two of them caught last week and the first of this week will go on the road as they did not have sufficient funds to pay out.

Deputies Whitten and Tillis had occasion to believe that liquor was being made near Altamonte and going down there Saturday night run on to Charlie Richards and Jules Watson, two negroes who had stills on their premises and the evidence was so plain they were brought to this city to stand trial Monday. Richards thought he could beat the game and had Attorney DeCotte to defend him, but the evidence was so plain that he lost the case and Judge Housholder gave him a fine of $250 and costs or six months. Richards took the six months' vacation. Watson plead guilty saving the county the expense of a trial and drew a prize of $150 and costs or five months and Jules will also work for the county on the open shop plan.

Frank Blair, a Sanford negro and an old offender was also up at the same time, being caught by Deputies Roy Tillis and McCulley of Oviedo and Frank drew down $150 and costs but having money paid the fee.

Our Society Page

In keeping with the policy of the Herald to give the people a real daily paper the services of Mrs. R. A. Terheun have been secured as society editor and as Mrs. Terheun needs no introduction to the people of Sanford and Seminole county it is certain that the Daily Herald will have a society page second to none in the state. Many people have a wrong conception of a society page. Most of them think the society editor only chronicles the happenings of the society as relates to parties, dances, etc. Our society editor will not only chronicle these events but will also keep up with the going and coming of the ladies of the city and county, their various doings and will be a complete compendium of the feminine part of our city.

Mrs. Terheun will be found at her home at all times and if there is to be a society event in the city her presence should be desired at the function before or after it occurs or better still at the function itself and she will be ready and willing at all times to get this news regardless of where it may happen. The public may assist in this news gathering by seeing that our society editor gets to these functions or learns of them by word of mouth or by telephone or by writing.

Our society editor is not ubiquitous and cannot be in many different places the same night but you can tell her about these affairs and she will take especial pains to get them all, leaving out nothing and slighting no one. Everything is news for a daily paper and we want all the news all the time. We make this announcement regarding Mrs. Terheun for the ladies have been enquiring about the society page and we want them to know that they will occupy a large part in the new Daily Herald.

Lawton, Supt. of Public Instruction at the Court House. Information and assistance will be freely and gladly given.

Birthday Party

Friday being his third birthday little Frederick Stine Daiger, 3rd, invited a few of his friends to help him celebrate the occasion.

The living room and porch were tastefully decorated with garlands and vases of pink flowers and ferns. In the dining room garlands of pink and white were fastened from the corners of the room to the chandelier, these extended to four sides of the table where they were caught with sprays of pink flowers and fern. A beautiful birthday cake, in pink and white with its three tiny pink candles formed the centerpiece.

All sorts of games were played and the children were assisted in these by Mrs. Robert Herndon and Miss Muriel Harrold. Later they enjoyed a "Fish Pond," where they fished for souvenirs.

Late in the afternoon ice cream in pink rose cups and cake with pink and white icing were served, after which the little guests reluctantly departed for their home after wish-little Frederick many happy returns of the day.

Among those present were Dorothea Lawson, Marguerite Garner, Eugenia Keene, Louise Thrasher, Junaita Smith, Melvin Taylor, Billie Thigpen, Braxton Perkins, Jr., Chas. Betts, James and Walter Fox, Mary Elizabeth and Virginia Neely, Wilson Smith and Harry Crowder. The grown ups were Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Archie Betts, Mrs. Braxton Perkins, Mrs. W. M. Thigpen, Mrs. Gwynn Fox, Mrs. J. B. Lawson, Mrs. N. O. Garner, Mrs. N. H. Garner, Mrs. R. E. Herndon, Miss Muriel Harrold and Mrs. Fred S. Daiger, Jr.

Howard Brings Suit

A suit involving the greatest amount of money ever instituted in Okeechobee was filed recently by Mr. B. A. Howard against the Standard Growers Exchange, a corporation with headquarters at Orlando, and the case is scheduled to be tried at the next term of the circuit court to be held here.

The case is the outcome of an agreement entered into between Mr. Howard and the Exchange last spring wherein Mr. Howard was to ship to the order of the Exchange a certain number of car loads of tomatoes. In the bill of complaint Mr. Howard claims he complied in every particular with the agreement but that the Exchange violated its part, causing Mr. Howard to lose something like $50,000.

Mr. John M. Murrell, who moved here recently from Sanford and who is one of the most successful lawyers in Florida, never having lost a case since beginning the practice of law, represents Mr. Howard, and it is safe to say that his client will receive every service at his command.

The case is attracting considerable attention by the prominence of the parties and the large amount involved, and our people anxiously await the outcome.—Okeechobee News.

Birthday Party

A charming event in children's circles on Tuesday afternoon was the lovely party with which Mrs. R. A. Newman entertained in honor of the twelfth birthday of her little daughter, Olive. A decorative scheme of pink and white was effectively carried out with quantities of pink crepe myrtle. The living room and dining room were very attractive with bowls and vases filled with masses of the pretty little flowers and asparagus fern. The dining table was centered by the beautiful white cake with its six white and six pink candles. The cake was embedded in a nest of ferns and crepe myrtle and was of especial interest for it had hidden within a ring, a dime and a thimble and could you imagine such a travesty of fate? The ring and the thimble were "cut" by two boys, Pierce Griffin and Briggs Arrington, respectively. Katherine Symes was the lucky winner of the dime. Forty eager, happy youngsters gathered about the table with intense interest to cut for the prizes.

Games and refreshments were enjoyed on the lawn, the pink and white color scheme being repeatedly in the dainty refreshments.

It was with reluctance that the youthful guests bade the gracious young hostess good-bye, wishing her many happy returns of the joyous occasion.

The trotting horse of E. E. Brady known on the track as Bill Brady and in Sanford as "Doug" died Saturday much to the sorrow of his owner and many friends who have taken pleasure in driving him in the days of long ago before autos became popular. "Doug" was a great favorite of the ladies and the children and they had no fear when driving him and he was also very fast on the track when he was in his palmy days. He was about twenty-three years old when he died.

City Clerk.

Adding New Equipment

The Sanford Shoe & Clothing Co. received Wednesday a car load of new equipment consisting of the latest improved hat case in which hundreds of hats can be displayed and sold, the stock being under glass cover and obviating climbing up to the ceiling and lifting down hat boxes in the old time way. They also received new equipment for the Boys' Department in which they are inaugurating many new reforms. Recently the store room of the Sanford Shoe & Clothing Co. was enlarged by adding twenty-five feet in the rear and all the new space will be occupied by the Boys' Department, this enterprising firm being convinced that the boys should receive due recognition and have an up to date and complete line of clothing, shirts, hats and shoes.

Growers have certainly had a time of it to get lettuce plants with poor seed, bad weather and the latest trouble were great flocks of migrating birds who hunted the seed as a last resort celery seed bed covers have been used. Many growers have used scarecrows, both human and effigies.

A great deal of celery is now set in the fields and some lettuce, strawberry beds being set out and gardens made all kinds of work going on. The introduction of tractors hasten the preparing of ground. Quite a number are owned out here. Messrs. Brumley and Hawkins have an International which they have owned three years. The Dorners have a Moline, a very large tractor, equipped with electric lights that it may be used at night if need be.

Two Ford tractors are owned on the Russell Son farms. Joe Cameron and G. C. Chamberlain have recently bought Fords and there may be others.

We learned from L. A. Brumley that there will be less than 300 bales of cotton ginned at his mill, grown in Seminole county and in the surrounding nearby places this season. Last season there were more than 900 bales, the shrinkage this season all owing to the boll weevil. Data extremely we summer.

proper and the larger ones ride in the trailer. All care will be taken that no trouble occurs.

LAKE MONROE

Golden October is with us once again! Already the air has a snap and a tingle and we gradually feel the pep oozing up in our systems. Nature is donning her fall fashions of scarlet, brown and gold, and her old lap is just running over with autumn beauties as she passes, scattering them here and there and anywhere.

In the forest the deciduous trees are assuming their various hues while the evergreens have dressed themselves in a somber color as a perfect background. In the brighter and more gorgeous surroundings of Nature in her voluptuous moods.

Along the roadside we catch a glimpse of the bright-topped golden-rod peeping through the fence, and the yellow daisies just opening their pretty eyes. Nearby, reared so straight and tall and proud is the iron-weed with its great purple head. Only a weed it is true, but it has tried so hard to please with its gorgeous coloring that we love it too, also its more lowly neighbors, the lavender Canadian aster. Wonder why it has strayed so far away from home.

Upon our lawns, the bright flame-colored hibiscus is blooming in profusion, and the tall and graceful poinsettias give just a promise of beauty yet to come. The golden alamanadas, the scarlet abutilon and all the gamut of roses, Mareschal Niel, American Beauty, down to the old-fashioned kinds, "O" the ones that used to grow and peek in thro' the chinkin' O' the cabin, don't you know!"

Flitting in and out among the flowers, warbling as he wings, or tilting lightly upon twig, orange hough or limb of oak, the speckled mocking bird bursts forth on an exultant melody rich in volume, various in tone, and fraught full of the very joy of living. Clear throated and sweet in music his splendid notes swell out victoriously all the day long as he basks in the golden sun, and deep into the evening-tide beneath the silvery flood of the low-sung harvest moon.

Mr. Martin Kelley, First Mate upon the United States steamer, the S. S. Ogletorp, that sails from Jacksonville to Liverpool, England, visited his sister, Mrs. Ben Lake, a few days last week. Mr. Kelley says the last trip over took only nine days and the cargo consisted of thousands of bales of cotton. Upon the return trip cotton-seed meal and other fertilizers were brought to the United States. Mr. Kelley says conditions are even worse in England than in America. A million people are idle, rails are tied up, factories closed and food supply short. Mr. Kelley left Saturday for Jacksonville upon a return trip.

The many friends of Mrs. R. T. Wynne are sorry to learn that it was necessary for her to undergo another serious operation at Jacksonville Friday. Mrs. Wynne is at Dr. Rogers' private sanitarium and though the operation was a success the patient is very low.

While on a visit to Tampa, Mr. J. H. Hittell, of Akron, Ohio, who has been visiting here, suffered a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. B. H. Smith, a daughter at this place, was notified, and Mr. Hittell was brought to her home. His family are very much concerned on account of his advanced age.

Mr. Tom Bell and family spent Sunday at New Smyrna with Mr. Bell's mother-in-law, Mrs. Driggers.

Miss Mayme Osteen, of Jacksonville, visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. Wheeler Marsh, of DeLand, was a pleasant guest of friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jacobs spent the week-end at their home in Chuliotia.

Mr. Albert McGuire, of Palatka, spent a few days among the home folks lately.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Osteen have as their guest, Mrs. A. C. Osteen, of Osteen, Fla.

All messages over the Western Union Telegraph Company may be taken and given over the telephone of Mr. J. W. Bell, he having made arrangements with the company for such service. Communications are open to the public at his office.

Mr. T. E. Wainwright has removed his sawmill from Aster, Florida, and will probably locate his business around Monroe where there is much good timber to be handled.

Little Dorothy Oglesby, daughter of Mr. J. L. Oglesby, has been quite sick.

In Memory of a Beloved Comrade Who Was Killed in Action in France

No more to hear the cannons boom, Though battles rage around thy tomb;

And so at night when camp-fires burn, We miss thy merry jests in turn.

And, when on homeward ship they cross, Thy sorrowing comrades speak thy loss;

No father's smile again you'll greet Which was your joy when e'er you'd meet.

No more a mother's fond embrace Shall clasp her boy, by God's good grace;

No more your sweetheart's lips you'll press, While her soft hands your face caress.

Your empty chair no more is placed, Which in the past, thou hadst so graced;

No more our league-game we will play, When you, our country's war-game played,

No higher score than thine was made: A sacrifice supreme was given; As rose thy soul from earth to heaven.

Though these and all earth's joys you miss, You've reached instead, eternal bliss.

J. C. TODD, McIntyre, Georgia.

The Old Fashioned Dollar That Hung On So Well

How dear to my heart are the scenes of my childhood.

When fond recollections presents them to view!

When into myarder the grocer would pile food

That sold by the pound for a nickle or two;

When bread cost a jiney, and pies were a dime sir,

And milk by the pail for a few cents would sell;

When fresh country eggs were for sale any time, sir,

At ten cents a dozen unless the price fell!

The old-fashioned dollar, the value bound dollar,

The old silver dollar that hung on so well!

That old-fashioned dollar I hailed as a treasure.

For often at night when returned from the field

I found it the source of exultant pleasure

To see all the food that a dollar would buy!

How ardent I served it with hands that were piping!

And summoned out grocer with one eager yell!

He'd rush me the crop from the wide spring-time sowing

And bring the old homestead with its homely world of things!

The old-fashioned dollar, the good old-time dollar,

railroad fare and expenses cost more than the operation all of which makes him an advocate for a hospital in Sanford and is only one of many such cases.

Press despatch says a West Virginia barber died from drinking hair tonic. Can't believe it. No barber or any other man could afford to drink hair tonic.

He broke forth into song in the bank the other day and all the employees had to quit the job and come up for air.

From all that I can glean about the new charter and the commission manager form of government the average voter has not seen the charter and is ignorant of what it contains and thereby hangs the tale of the opposition.

The opponents to the charter say the old charter is good enough and commission form could be added but no one wants to wait two years and this new form can be put over now.

Either the voters will reject or will accept the new charter at the polls next Tuesday and we will all be able to live no matter which way it goes.

The greatest need in Sanford today is municipal ownership of all the public utilities and a better administration of affairs. It is all right for the Southern Utilities to cut off the current and the water and the gas if people do not pay and on the other hand it should be all right for the merchants and the city and the consumer to sue the Southern Utilities when the lights go out every night and the power is shut off in various factories over the city and the employees stand idly by until the juice comes on again.

What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander and the Utility Co., should be made to walk Spanish on this question of service.

Well, our splendid system of public schools have opened again and I hope that the principal and teachers have the hearty co-operation of the parents.

We have been too prone to lay all the blame on the teachers in days gone by and let the children pass the buck.

What we should do is to let the teachers use a little more strap oil on the children and not so much suspension. Bring back the good old days when the birch rod was part of the curriculum and when the children are punished justly let them accept it without any parental objections or lamentations.

The Montezuma Hotel

K. R. Murrell has decided to call his new hotel the Montezuma and from all indications the Montezuma will be one of the finest small hotels in this part of the state.

The carpenters are now busy putting on the third story and the roof and the immense porches and the Montezuma will be ready for occupancy by the first of December if the work can proceed without any more delays. The Montezuma occupies a fine location at the corner of Magnolia avenue and is the most attractive and comfortable.

In Memoriam

Alice Hanks Cameron

in Athens, O., Jan. 31, 1865, second daughter of Norval Cameron and his wife, Mary Carpenter, of Athens.

The following November the family moved to Saginaw, Mich., where Alice grew to womanhood.

In early childhood she was baptized by Dr. Geo. Duffield, author of the hymn, "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus." Later she united with the Presbyterian church.

In 1899, following the death of the wife and mother, the family moved to Detroit; it was from there that Alice Cameron went to Chicago to take up her chosen work of nursing.

Entering the Cook County Hospital of Chicago and the Presbyterian Hospital, she studied for two years, graduating third in a class of 187.

After graduation she was surgical assistant in many important cases under the leading surgeons of Chicago and Dayton, Cincinnati and Duluth.

Feb. 5, 1900, she was married to Mr. W. D. McCracken and went to live on her husband's orange groves a few miles south of Sanford, in Florida.

Mr. McCracken died, very suddenly, just nine months later and her brother Frank M. Cameron, who died early in July, went South to carry on the grove work.

For the last nineteen years her life was spent between her home in the South and visiting with near relatives in the North, with an occasional return to her profession of nursing.

Since March of 1918, she underwent a serious operation at Grand Hospital, Columbus, in September, a year ago. After nine weeks she was taken to the home of her aunt, Mrs. Thomas Blackstone, of Circleville, where the winter was passed.

Although she suffered greatly the thoughtful kindness of her friends gave her much pleasure. In April of this year she was brought to Athens to the home of her sister. Despite her suffering she was always glad to see friends, and interested in everything about her.

She especially appreciated the kindness shown in sending her delicacies and flowers. Her friends were so generous that seldom a day passed without something being brought to her. She often said that she would like to see and personally thank all those who were so kind and thoughtful.

Her uncomplaining patience, optimistic spirit and thoughtfulness for those about her made the long months of her illness a revelation of bravery and hope to all those who saw her.

Her death occurred early in the morning of Sept. 21, 1919—a blessed relief after the long months of intense illness. The burial was at Athens, O.

Methodists vs. Baptists

The M. E. Sunday School baseball team defeated the Baptist team at Holden Park on last Monday afternoon by a score of eight to six.

This is the third of the series of games by the two teams, the Methodists taking the first, the Baptists the second and the Methodists the third, leaving the Methodists winners of two out of three games.

On account of the rain which fell during the most of the game it was impossible for the boys to do as well as they ordinarily are capable of doing, although the game was good and the plying snappy throughout.

On account of the absence of the official score-keeper an accurate box score is missing but the lineup of the players was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Position and Player Name. Includes players like Laing, Smith, Moyer, Hutchinson, Cobb, McLucas, R. Cobb, W. Moyer, Bailey.

Kendall caught for the Baptists after the 7th and A. Kelly went to left field.

O. Cobb relieved W. Moyer and Barber relieved Bailey in the 8th for the Methodists.

Score by innings: Baptists 201 002 001-6; Methodists 006 002 000-8

A game scheduled for Wednesday afternoon between the Presbyterians and Methodists was postponed on account of work on the grounds for the championship series of the Florida State League...

Red Davis Speaks

Charleston, S. C., Sept. 29, 19. My Dear Mr. Holly:

After spending two years and a half in the United States Transport Service I am now leaving the service and it is with the greatest pleasure that I write these lines to you and the baseball fans of Sanford.

First I want to send my congratulations to the fans on their well-earned victory during the past baseball season. I know that they surely must have had a splendid array of baseball talent if they would never won the laurels. Now on the eve of the greatest classic which is to be staged between your city and Orlando I the owners will not yield to the protests coming from Orlando in regards to those players which

As you know as well as I do that Orlando is getting the yellow clean up in their necks and they are commencing to yelp about this and that and realizing that they are beaten before they start they are trying their best to protest the series before it is ever started.

In the year of nineteen and seventeen I remember very distinctly that in the course of fifty games which I covered for Sanford not once did I see where the famous Sentinel of that city gave Sanford any credit for their victories, and what more they never will.

I would not under any circumstances yield to them. It is their old game and if Sanford directors don't watch out they are going to play right into Orlando's hands just as the Kaiser did into the allies. Play what players you want and if they wish to protest let them do it; they will come pretty near getting anything they wish and the only way for them to do it at you will be by the protest route.

I must admit that the day when Orlando claims that Sanford won a championship and won it fair that a severe earthquake is going to visit the world and badly damage up things. But why worry, the earthquake is never coming.

Give Him a Goatskin. The professor is the goat. "If it were not for one trivial thing," mused Professor Cranium, the famous memory expert, as he stroked his chin in pique, "I could give young Stewpidd his diploma. His record as a student of my course is almost perfect."

"What is his little trouble?" asked Dr. Hicken-Upple. "He forgets to pay for his lessons."

THOMAS D. BAKER, Ph. D. Analytical and Consulting Chemist - Professional of Natural Science Emeritus, Rollins College, Florida

Dear Sir: I have completed careful chemical analysis of the sample of water that you brought me early last week, and have obtained the following results:

Table with 2 columns: Component and Value. Includes Color, Reaction, Free Ammonia, Albuminoid Ammonia, Chlorine, Neutral Total Solids, Hardness, Nitrates.

The absence practically of free and albuminoid ammonia in this water and its very small amount of chlorine indicates its excellent quality for household purposes.

The bacteriological analysis, resulting in an average total count, in four samples of the water, of 3 bacteria per cent, and in finding no color, or other harmful bacteria, fully confirm its good quality indicated by the CHEMICAL analysis.

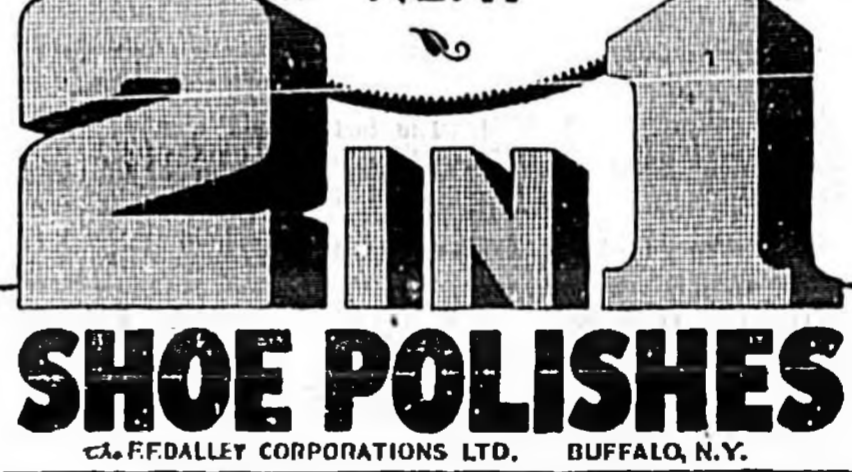

Of the many waters of this and other regions that I have analyzed, I have found none superior in all good qualities to that of the "Elder Water."

Well, this month has an R in it and oysters will soon be in the soup.

Sanford Celery growers are planning to double their acreage for the next crop and this is good news for everybody. There is no finer vegetable grown.—Times-Union.

The opening of the city schools has made a difference in the life of the city and the happy youngsters are seen everywhere with their books and supplies.

The Herald is waiting patiently for supplies for the typesetting machine for the Daily Herald and as soon as it is received the daily will make its appearance. We cannot announce the date this week.

Those new hot being built in Sanford look good to the home people and look good to the visitors of the city. Now if we can get some more houses built we will be ready for the big rush.

As Ring Lardner says, what is the World's Serious compared with the serious that is being played between Sanford and Orlando just
now. The big show is being overshadowed by a little show of our own.

Eight Hundred and Seventeen pupils enrolled at the Sanford schools speaks well for the schools.
It also shows that we will have a most successful year and that people are taking more interest in the schools than ever before.

In recognition of the aid and cooperation extended by the newspapers to the government in carrying after-the-war publicity to various matters of vital interest, the United States Shipping Board has christened its last ship "The Editor."

Mr. Guy Oyster, secretary to President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, is out with a statement in which he commends the Boston policemen for their "manhood and courage" as displayed in striking "for their human rights and constitutional guarantees."

The many Orlando friends of the editor of The Herald have requested that The Daily Herald carry an Orlando section and we will consider it. There are many items of news about our sister city that the Sanford people would like to see and there are other items that happen in Orlando that Orlando people would like to see and we rather opine that we could give them something to think about.

WILLIE'S NEW TEACHER
As the public schools plan to open, Willie is wondering if he is going to like his new teacher. It should be more important to Willie whether his new teacher will like him or not. We have heard parents talk like this: "I hope Willie will like Miss 'A,' his new teacher. He never did like Miss 'B' and never got along well in her grade. He liked Miss 'C,' though, two years ago. I hope his teacher this year is as good as Miss 'C' was and that he likes her as well." And we have heard that kind of talk going on right in front of Willie and the other children. In other words, if Willie comes home from the first day of school and declares that he doesn't like his new teacher, then it's all settled—she never will do, and "it does seem that the school board and the county superintendent could find a new teacher for Willie that Willie would like." It never occurs to the parents who permit Willie to pass upon his teacher that there might be something the matter with Willie.

The best speech we ever heard
Rev. William A. Sunday, the evangelist, make was at the public school here last winter. Among other things he said, "You don't like your teacher, eh? Well, maybe she don't like you! had not thought about that, had you? Maybe she don't like you, either? What?"
And that's the message of our editorial boiled down to a few words.—St. Augustine Record.

THE AMERICAN LEGION

Never before in the history of this country since the early days of our constitutional government have we needed real Americans and real Americanism as right now.
With the hideous head of Bolshevism and anarchy being raised in political strife and industrial unrest

more to the true American ideals and strive to organize and perpetuate the real American institutions.
Our boys who in the world war fought for true American ideals and principles are home again and they are organizing everywhere
the American Legion. Seminole county has not been organized and seems to be waiting for a leader to take this important question in hand and organize our returned soldiers and sailors into a chapter of the American Legion. Not only should the boys be active in this organization but every American institution, every club, every fraternal society should be active in seeing that the soldiers and sailors organize a chapter here. Read the preamble of the American Legion:

"To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order;
to foster and perpetuate a one hundred per cent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of the might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and devotion to mutual helpfulness."

CITIZENS "FOR REVENUE ONLY"

Some people live in a community and what they can get out of it without giving up anything in return. Other people believe that by helping the community as a whole conditions will be made better for themselves and they can be depended upon to assist in every public movement that has merit and a fair chance of bringing value to the community as a whole.
Still others we have known are always willing to do something for anybody and everybody else, neglecting their own business to do it.

The first named we would class as citizens for "revenue only." They are the people who bear the same relation to the community in which they live that the slacker, the draft dodger and the profiteer in supplies and materials bore to the nation when it was at war.

The last named class is few in number and is not to be commended too greatly because as a rule the individuals who make up this class are not able to accomplish much, either for themselves or for the community as a whole. You have to admire their helping spirit if you do not admire the results that are attained.

The second class, to which the great bulk of the citizens of our community belong—these are the "salt of the earth." They are the people upon whom the prosperity of the community depend.
They are the people who save the community from the dry rot and dieback that would set in if it were made up of the first class named, and from the bankruptcy that would inevitably result if the community were made up entirely of the last class.
There is only one reason for the existence of the first class. They merely do not realize the shortcomings of their attitude. A little education, a little concrete example, a little more pep put into the public work of the great majority, a little more definite assertion of the benefits and results accomplished by community work, and the most of them would be converted and would become a part of the majority. As for the remainder, the hardshell citizen, "for revenue only," there is just one thing to do about him.
He must be endured just like chronic rheumatism must be endured.—Leesburg Commercial.

The Town Grouch

Do you know of a man in your neighborhood who seldom approves of anything not instigated or put into effect by himself? Such men are found in limited numbers in most communities and in some cases they pose as the leaders of thought and action.

They don't last long at the head of the procession, however, because one by one their neighbors find them out. Invariably such men are mere pretenders. The good ideas they advance from time to time, as a general thing, come from the brains of others. This feature, however, is not their greatest drawback, as

some people have the ability to construct good ideas without the initiative to put them into effect, therefore they need just such co-operations as may be afforded by this individual we are discussing.

The greatest fault with such men is their disposition to "crab" they think that the only way to get the lion's share of glory, or when their systems become permeated with the thought that some other individual will benefit through their activity.

Harmony is a great thing and it will do wonders if not disturbed.
But it is mighty difficult to preserve harmony in the presence of the fellow who is constantly criticizing this and that enterprise or undertaking because he did not originate it or cannot control it. Such an individual is utterly lacking in charity for his associates. He magnifies and exaggerates their mistakes and misfortunes, until in his eyes they assume gigantic proportions.
Friendly criticism from a fair mind is a good thing for anyone, but the carping variety from the disgruntled grouch is both discouraging and destructive to the initiative and efforts of the man who is really accomplishing something, even though he may not be developing one hundred per cent efficiency in his undertaking.—Jacksonville Farmer and Stockman.

SCHOOL DAYS

What a wonderful age our children are enjoying in which they can receive a good education with everything provided for them. What a golden opportunity they have
of learning not only the history of ancient times but of present times beside the three R's as in olden times, the languages, domestic science, chemistry, mathematics and all the higher branches that the young men and young women formerly strove for years and at great cost to learn. What fine and well equipped school buildings, the latest thing in comfort and architecture, the new and up to date methods of teaching and all the wonderful ideas of modern school systems that the children now enjoy. And what a pride the Sanford people take in their own fine system of schools that is as good if not better than any in the state.
Our city schools opened Monday morning and every parent and every patron and every tax payer should take more interest in the schools this year than ever before because education means so much to our coming generations. There is so much transpiring in the world today, the world that is agog with the many isms and theories and doctrines and nostrums for government and our children need to be equipped and armed cap-a-pie with the armor of intelligence and knowledge in order to become the future citizens of the world that is changing from day to day. There never was a time when we should take a greater interest in our schools than right now. Sanford schools start this week with a golden opportunity for service, for work and for play and the latter is needed as well as work. Our schools will have plenty of athletics as well as plenty of study and The Herald expects to see one of the best school years in the history of our institutions. Let us assist the teachers in this great work by pledging them our support in every way.

THE GOLDEN RULE

Dr. Bronlee, of the Presbyterian Church, delivered a sermon last Sunday morning on The Golden Rule that should be printed and sent broadcast over the country.
It was timely and full of good solid advice to the people in every walk of life and was especially good coming at this time when the world seems to rest on the edge of a seething volcano of trouble and revolution. The Golden Rule applied to every line of business and kept inviolate by every individual in every walk of life could and should govern all our actions, now as never before, and we will never get down to a solid working basis again unless we adopt this rule in all our dealings with mankind in general.

Speaking of the various labor troubles, Dr. Bronlee said that if the laborer could put himself in the place of the employer he would look at things in a different light and if the employer could put himself in the laborer's place, he would have a different view of the labor situation. That if every man and every woman in the world would stop to adjust their position before expressing an opinion, many words would never be spoken that are wont to cause trouble and sorrow in the world. "The Golden Rule" and "put yourself in his place" would be the finest rule under which to live the remainder of our days if everyone would adopt this slogan and so live their lives that the causes of strife would never happen and there would be no misunderstanding in this world.

The average man will say that this means the millennium and no doubt that is where all the strife and trouble and man's inhumanity to man is leading us, and there is no doubt but what Christianity will either prevail in the civilized world in the next few years or the world will be a chaos and then the millennium.
And regardless of statesmen, wise men, prophets and many doctrines we shall be compelled to look to the church as our only refuge and prayer as our only hope of salvation in these days of trouble and woe, not only spiritually, but in a material sense, before we can hope for relief from the ills of the flesh and devil that seems to beset us on every hand and are gradually engulfing the civilized nations.

America has just escaped a gigantic railroad strike and is now facing the steel strike. There are lesser strikes and a feeling of unrest in every quarter. England is now facing the crisis of her life and the crisis that may undermine the very foundations of her existence. With the entire country tied up in a strike of all the railroads of England and Scotland, with food scarce and people starving, with no methods of transportation, with even the shipping interests stopped for lack of fuel and supplies, the British Empire is struggling for relief and no man can predict the outcome when her millions of people are made mad by the pangs of hunger and red riot takes control of organized society.

In America there is a spirit of unrest and an undercurrent of feeling that belies our vaunted freedom and the stability of our republic and only the wisdom of our president and congress and our officials can weld together and hold the parts that seem about to disintegrate by the sapping of the troubled waters of political and social unrest.

It is the time for sober thought,
it is the time for cool judgment,
it is the time for prayer and a closer following in the steps of our Savior.

The time for the application of the Golden Rule, indeed.

THE COMMISSION MANAGER GOVERNMENT

Sanford people just now are pondering over the subject of a change in the form of city government and they will decide at the polls on Tuesday Oct. 7th., whether they want to live under the old charter with the aldermanic form or take the new commission manager form with three commissioners and a city manager. There is only one city in Florida at this time which has the commission manager form and that city is St. Augustine and it has proven a wise investment for that city but as pointed out at the public meeting Monday night St. Augustine and Sanford are different in many ways and the principal reason for objection of the aldermanic advocates is that Sanford does not own her public utilities and there is nothing to manage. This does not mean that Sanford will never own her utilities and the commission manager advocates say emphatically that unless the change is made now Sanford will not own her utilities in many years to come and the time to change is now. There were other objections brought up Monday night but they were met by the commission manager advocates and it has resolved itself into the old time question of taking your choice and voting as you see fit. The man who knows nothing of the workings of the commission manager form can only draw his conclusions from those cities that have changed the form. Orlando has three commissioners that are paid a salary to look after the business of the city and the people are well satisfied with the result. Lakeland has three commissioners. Palm Beach has just voted for the commission manager form of government, other cities have the commission form without the manager and as The Herald has stated many times the idea of three men taking upon their shoulders the management of the city and giving it the time it should have or with a manager is the only sensible and business like manner in which to operate a city government. All big business has such plans of management and the business of the city is the same as the business of any other line. Aldermanic government is a part and their administration and the giving of their time two nights in a month is the city's business is to be commended.

And yet they cannot give enough time and no one expects them to give enough of their time to really administer the affairs of a city as they should be administered. The majority of the people admit that the commission plan is the best and that the commissioners should be paid for their time. The only disputes among the thinking men of the city today is whether the new charter fits our needs and whether this city has enough business and property values to have a manager. The Herald believes that the men who are on the charter committee spent their time preparing a charter that would be all right. A charter for a city that is growing as fast as Sanford must be all right in every particular and if anyone is in doubt about the charter they can receive all the information they desire from the charter commission who stand back of the charter and are sponsors for it. They are business men and tax payers and this same commission has been working on this plan for the past two years. They are
S. O. Chase, Chairman, F. W.
Mahoney, C. E. Henry, C. H.
Smith, D. C. Marlowe, A. E. Yowell and H. C. Dubose. Sanford is in a most prosperous condition today and is growing by leaps and bounds and there is no reason why the city affairs should not be in a prosperous condition. The only excuse to be made for the present condition is that aldermen cannot administer the affairs of the city within their limited time and the censure is not for the voters on the board of aldermen but for the system and the men who have given this subject any time and thought will be governed accordingly.

The Fool Streak.

"The fool streak is as much an ordained organ of the human body as is the conscience or the appendix," asserted old Festus Pester. "It is that attribute which prompts us to over-estimate our own importance, to fancy that we can beat the other fellow at his own game, to believe that the average Hon. is infested with a herd of friends who devote their lives to earnestly soliciting him to run for office, to accept pompously for ability, to dash after dashing widows, to expect a man with a horse laugh to have horse sense, to plant congressional garden seeds, to call chance acquaintances 'Brother,' to buy nonessentials on the installment plan, and so forth.
The conscience can be reduced or en-dented by moral suasion. The appendix is removable by an operation. But the only efficacious method of getting rid of the fool streak is for the victim to sent himself and carefully and prayerfully pluck it out a little at a time, as one picks the basting threads out of a new garment or the bones from a sunfish."—Kansas City Star.

Building in Denmark.

There are at present three phases of Denmark's building difficulties—land, materials and money. The land question can probably be settled and so that of materials, but a general arrangement of the financial question must first be made. The cost of building has increased from 310 crowns per square meter ($7.72 per square foot) to 720 crowns per square meter ($17.93 per square foot). This is discouraging private initiative and corporations are now conducting one-third of the building enterprises in Copenhagen and the provincial cities. To help these building corporations during the war, the government voted $1,000,000. This was not sufficient, and by a law passed February 3, 1918, provision was made to finance these corporations and compensate them for some of the extra expenses of building.
All in all the state and municipalities subsidize the building corporations to the extent of 60 per cent of the increased costs, which are 100 per cent, so that the houses cost the corporation 40 per cent more than before.

Still Upset.

"Wife finished house cleaning yet?"
"Guess not. I had to go to the cellar this morning for a clean shirt and I found the garden spade in the parlor."

What is Wise Spending?
Saving may have seemed to you the opposite of spending, and so it is—of foolish spending.
But really wise spending goes hand-in-hand with intelligent saving.
Saving in itself—as the miser understands it—the mere hoarding of money for money's sake—is of no special advantage to anyone.
On the other hand, when people save intelligently, what they really do is to save for a chance to spend for something more worth while later. In final analysis, everything is spent but the saver thinks before he spends and so spends wisely. He gets more for his money and a bigger return for his work. He has more money left for thoughtful spending in the future.
Now, what is really more worth while later? It may be that, by accumulating hitherto foolishly-spent dimes and quarters, which give no real satisfaction, you will be able to buy later a home, or have a wife, or provide for old age or for education, or a start in life for your children.
All of these things and many others are "worth more" to the individual.
War Savings Stamps help you to convert foolish money into future wise spending power.

Reds Win First Game

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 1.—With Roy Coker pitching wonderful ball and leading the offensive with two triples and a single, the Cincinnati Reds won the first game of the world's series here today by the score 9 to 1 before a crowd of 35,000 frenzied fans. Cioetta, the star of the White Sox pitching staff, was knocked off the mound in the first inning, giving way to Wilkerson, who in turn was succeeded by Lowdermilk. The heavy hitting and powerful slugging Reds tied up the initial game of the world's baseball classic in the fourth frame when Cioetta was mauled for six hits. Roush was a sensation in center field.

The returns are being shown at the Star Theater in the city and large crowds are present each day.

Rotten Egged Reed

Admore, Okla., Oct. 1.—Senator Reed was rotten egged from the stage of the convention hall tonight as he was being introduced by the mayor in preparation for his speech against the treaty and league of nations.

The Sugar Shortage
Washington, Oct. 2—Apparently

nobody in the government can explain the great sugar mystery.

With more sugar actually produced than last year, widespread complaint comes here from consumers everywhere that they cannot

The department of agriculture says the figures on sugar production don't furnish any reasons for shortage. The department of justice says it has found no evidence of hoarding.

The United States sugar equalization board, which controls all the raw sugar in the country and Cuba, comes nearest giving a reason. It says, early in the year people were warned to buy sugar but did not. The result was much was shipped abroad. At the height of the canning season raw sugar could not be shipped from Cuba for three weeks because of the shipping strike. Furthermore the English royal committee enforced its right to get one-third of the Cuban crop.

Also the people of this country, since hooge went out have increased the consumption of sugar from 88 to 92 pounds per capita per year.

The meeting of the State Dairy Association which was held in Tallahassee is said to have been one of the most enthusiastic and largest in point of attendance ever held by the association, and it is believed that splendid results will follow from its deliberations. The visitors were heartily pleased with the hospitality extended them and with the good results obtained from attending the meetings.

The Volusia County Bank, of DeLand, has purchased the $200,000 issue of 6 per cent 25-year serial bonds of Volusia County at a premium of $2,400. This in conjunction with $200,000 state funds is to complete the St. Johns scenic highway in Volusia county south of the Putnam county line.

The Mt. Dora Summer Club has received 1,000 etched road markers which will be placed as guide boards over all the routes leading to Mt. Dora, as well as strung along the highway from Chicago to New York to the state line, approaching Jacksonville and Madison.

Reviving Picture Frames.

Often the gilding on picture frames that are otherwise good has become cracked or soiled. Buy a bottle of liquid gold and apply it to the frame. If large bits have chipped off, remove all before retouching, otherwise the renewed surface will be uneven.

Called for Rest.

My brother was telling his little daughter a story and at the same time was trying to get her to sleep, which was a hard thing to do. He was telling the story of Rip Van Winkle. He was saying, "And he walked and walked and walked—" "O, don't walk so much," chimed in the little girl.—Chicago Tribune.

Pretty, isn't it?

There is no altar on earth which rises in marble majesty with the altar of heaven—Tien T'ian—in the south of the Chinese city of Peking, which Emperor Lung-lo of the Ming dynasty reared in A. D. 1420, with its triple balustrades, stairs and platforms of pure white marble carved miraculously by its great circle covering a wide area in the midst of a vast inclosure. There the emperor knelt once a year.

New Idea in Handling Coal.
New York inventors have patented machinery to cut coal in a mine, pulverize it and mix it with water and pump it to any desired destination, where it would be dried, the idea being to save costs of handling and transportation.

Ancients Made Bricks to Last.
In the British museum are bricks taken from the buildings in Nineveh and Babylon, which show no signs of decay or disintegration, although the ancients did not burn or bake them, but dried them in the sun.

Staterooms.
There was an old fellow named Shreve who ran steamboats before Jackson fought the redcoats at New Orleans. In Shreve's time the cabins were curtained off just like these new-fangled sleeping-car berths. The old man built wooden rooms, and he named them after the different states, Kentucky, and Illinois and Pennsylvania. So that when a fellow came aboard he'd say: "What state am I in, Cap?" And from this remark the name stateroom has spread all over the world.

COMMISSION GOVERNMENT DISCUSSED

MASS MEETING OF CITIZENS TALK ABOUT CHANGE IN THE CITY GOVERNMENT

The citizens of Sanford were called to meet in the court house on Monday night to discuss the commission manager form of government and the new city charter. The city council called the meeting at the request of several citizens who wished to be enlightened on the subject. Frank L. Miller, president of the city council called the meeting to order and explained the object and then asked all present to express themselves on the subject. Attorney George DeCottes had prepared some facts and figures on the cost of the present system of government and the approximate cost of the new government under the commission manager form and also took up the question of the Clerk of the Circuit Court collecting the city taxes as will be his duty if the new form of government is carried at the polls on Oct. 7th. Clerk E. A. Douglass replied with some more figures showing that under the new system the taxes would all be collected and the expense to the taxpayer would not entail any more money or not as much as under the present form. Attorneys DeCottes and J. J. Dickinson gave as their opinion that under the new form the collection of city taxes would not be legal and quite a battle of words was waged pro and con. F. L. Woodruff took the stand that the question seemed to have resolved itself into a question of whether Mr. Douglass would receive more or less under the two forms of government and what he wanted to know was more upon the subject of the commission form as against the present form. Attorney Maines who drafted the new charter was questioned by Attorney DeCottes about different paragraphs of the charter and Messrs. A. P. Connelly, H. R. Stevens, A. E. Yowell, R. C. Bowers and others had their opinions to express for and against the forms of government.

The meeting brought out much of interest in the new charter but it is doubtful if there were any votes changed by the discussion and as the charter is a voluminous affair and few have had the opportunity or the inclination to read it no one can foretell just how the people generally will vote.

HERE'S PROOF

A Sanford Citizen Tells of His Experience
You have a right to doubt statement of people living far away but can you doubt Sanford endorsement?
Read it:
W. A. Stafford, Prop. plumbing establishment, 408 Holly Ave., says: "Kidney complaint had annoyed me for some little while. I had backache so bad I couldn't stoop to pick up anything when working. I was pretty well handicapped. I was also afflicted with a kind of dizzy feeling and there were times when I could see dark specks in front of me. I felt generally run down. I doctored, but didn't get much benefit, so I sent for a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Aldridge's Drug Store. I wasn't long in finding out the merit of this remedy, for it soon cured me and I have remained free from kidney trouble for some years now."
Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Stafford had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mrs. Buffalo, N. Y.

FOR GOVERNOR

Lincoln Hulley

Democratic Primary, June 8, 1920

at the election on October 7th. Those present at the meeting Monday night who favored the commission form were divided on the question of whether the commission form or the commission manager form was the best. Others were willing to vote for a change with the new charter and some charter or making any change at this time in the city government.

One thing was brought out at the meeting and that was the undivided opinion of those present that Sanford should own their own public utilities at the earliest possible moment and that a reduction of the city taxes could not be made under any form of government unless there was some utilities from which the city could derive a revenue. Also that under the present plan the city could not bond for sufficient money to build these plants.

The meeting was most harmonious throughout and brought the tax payers together to discuss these vital questions and regardless of the result of the election there is a feeling in this city that Sanford must make many improvements and keep up with the progress of the times.

Attractive Party
In honor of Mary Elizabeth and Camilla Puleston, who will soon be leaving Sanford for their new home in Miami, LeClaire Jones and Thomas Wright entertained with a delightful and rather unique party at their homes on Park avenue this afternoon. The homes of Mrs. Henry Wright and Mrs. Allan Jones are side by side with beautiful lawns and flower borders separating the two houses and the arrangements in the party included the two, LeClaire received the little lady-folks at her mother's home while Thomas was the manly little host to the boys. When all the young guests were assembled, rhymes, which had been cut in half, were distributed, and Thomas and LeClaire, standing upon the porches of their respective homes, read and matched the rhymes, the holder of the boys' half, joining the girl whose half completed the rhyme. The reading and matching of the cute little jingles created much fun and merriment which continued throughout the afternoon.

After the rhyme episode, the young host and hostess led the grand march through both houses and upon the lawns, ending with a dance at the home of Mrs. Wright.

A program of real fun and pleasure, including all kinds of old fashioned games, dancing and ruck were enjoyed by the fifty-three happy little guests.

A profusion of cut flowers and ferns, in charming arrangements decorated the rooms and porches. The punch bowls were wreathed with ferns and pink vine.

The older guests enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Jones were Dr. and Mrs. Brower, Mrs. Ed. Betts, Mrs. E. C. Brady, Mrs. Claude Herndon, Mrs. H. L. Gibson, Mrs. L. P. McCuller, Mrs. S. Puleston and Mrs. Frank Stewart, Mrs. Steve Shinholser and Miss Emma Owens.

The young honorees, who are very popular, are receiving many delightful social attentions from their many friends.

ALL FEARED MOON

Soldiers Regarded Orb of Night as Their Enemy.

Moving, and Thus Gave Enemy Gunners a Chance to Deal Out Death.

"The war is ended; the battlefields are being cleared of their debris; the rusty wire is being rolled up. The nights can be spent in beds, yet the men of the One Hundred and Nineteenth field artillery even now look at the sky with dread," says L. L. Stevenson in the Detroit News.

"The battlefields are not distant. Nor are the days distant when the moonlight was a menace to the One Hundred and Nineteenth.

"We were riding back from Toul, a little company of Detroit men, who had celebrated a birthday anniversary in that old, walled city. We had been discussing many things, principal of which was the homecoming, plans for the future and those whom we wished were with us. Then the moon swung over those forts on the hill, concealed no longer, and fell a silence over the veterans.

"They seemed to draw into themselves. Came a loud report and the artillerymen half rose in their seats. It was only a rear fire, yet the effect on keyed-up nerves was the same as though the blowout had been the detonation of that which had dropped from the sky.

"And simultaneously all damned the moon, as though that inoffensive orb had been the cause.

"Then they told me of those nights—marching along the highways helplessly; Jerry sweeping low and spraying lead at them from the machine guns, of bombs that were silent until they spoke in screams of death. They spoke also of the night when Buck was killed, when Chaplain William A. Atkinson, now quite recovered, lay in a pool of blood; when others with whom I had eaten and slept and camped up at Grayling, had fathomed the great mystery.

"It seemed to be a relief to them, a lifting of the weight, and I said nothing though all the beauty of the night had departed. Strange scenes danced about my eyes; the gaunt, unfinished military hospital on the left was a gray ghost; those winking lights—gleaming now, but not long ago had they shone they would have been an invitation to death—were far away flares, the deserted ammunition dump was animated with sweating figures.

"It was as though a weight had been lifted when we entered Mauvages. Clear and distinct in the bright light stood a sentry, a stalwart fellow, his naturally large build magnified in the silver beams until he was a giant. The way he carried himself, the fit of his uniform, told that he was a veteran.

"And he was shaking his fist at the moon!"

Reims Cathedral.
Reims cathedral is to be rebuilt, or rather restored, for France has taken second thought and decided that such restoration is far more desirable for the future than a splendid structure, wrecked by war and left to stand in melancholy reminder of its own destruction. It is even said that "the cold gray of its masonry has turned under fire and flame to delicate rose and other tints that will only add to the beauty of the rebullded church." The plans for the restoration are being made under the direction of Mr. Deneux, architect of the French historical monuments, and the first practical steps have been taken toward erecting temporary roofs over the nave, aisles, crossing, and chancel. Fortunately, more than three-quarters of the wonderful stained glass of the cathedral was preserved intact, and can now be put back. A few years hence, when the high-pitched slate roof has been added, it is predicted that the cathedral will have recovered not a little of its old-time beauty.

The High Cost of Economy.
Economy is something practiced by people who don't have to economize. Mrs. Wealthy buys eggs by the dozens and puts them down in water glass. Mrs. Poor never could afford more than one dozen eggs at one time regardless of price.

Mrs. Wealthy buys flour and sugar by the barrel—at a great saving. Mrs. Poor buys hers by the pound—and it is expensive.

Mrs. Wealthy takes advantage of the sales and gets real bargains in furniture, shoes and clothes. Mrs. Poor can only look in the display windows longingly.

In short, Mrs. Wealthy uses her head where Mrs. Poor must use her husband's salary.

It is a pathetic fact that it takes money to economize.—G. W. Gabriel in the New York Sun.

Where He Would Have Been.
In the pouring rain the other day, James G. Balfour, the banker, was standing in front of the Quaker City bank, of which he is a director, when an Irishman darted across the street.

Mr. Balfour, with that kindly and consoling manner which is habitual with him, offered a pleasantry. "If this was good liquor," he said, "you wouldn't be coming so quick."

"If this was good liquor," the Irishman flashed back, "I'd be jumping down the sewer hole."—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE LUCKY STONE

By ELIZABETH R. GREENE.

Jerry was coming home. Anne's heart beat like a drum for a minute, and signed them despairingly the next—for what would Uncle Nate say when Jerry told him of their love and future plans?

The troublesome question lay like a cloud upon Anne's happiness, as one by one her busy fingers tucked away exquisitely embroidered linens into the little hope chest in her room.

It was ridiculous to think that the petty quarrel over the loss of a "lucky" stone should wreck her happiness, but Anne knew that her uncle had a reputation for being "set," which, alas, he managed to live fairly well up to.

"But he won't spoil my life, just for an old 'lucky' stone!" argued Anne, one day to Aunt Jane; as they sat at their sewing.

Twelve years ago Uncle Nate had purchased at a fair in Buxton a glittering red bauble called a "lucky" stone.

Then one fateful day—Anne had never forgotten it—the magic stone had mysteriously disappeared out of Uncle Nate's pocket.

It had happened the day that he and Jerry's Uncle Cyrus had mowed the south field together. Anne remembered that her uncle had been overcome by the heat and helped to the house by his old pal, Cyrus. Lying on the lounge in the cool living room, Uncle Nate had lapsed into brief unconsciousness. Later that same day he had startled them all by announcing the loss of the "lucky" stone.

Then one dreadful day Uncle Nate, trembling with anger, had stamped his feet and wrathfully declared to Anne and Aunt Jane that "Cyrus had stolen the 'lucky' stone!"

This matter stood when one May afternoon Anne walked slowly along the dusty road, from a trip in town.

That her uncle would never consent to her marrying Jerry, the nephew of his old enemy, Anne knew only too well; but Jerry, joyous, undaunted Jerry, still confidently believed that Uncle Nate could be "won over."

Absorbed in her thoughts, Anne took the narrow footpath leading across lots to Aunt Jane's, quite unconscious that a tall, khaki-clad figure was hurrying joyously after her.

The third time that Jerry whistled, Anne turned and looked behind her.

"Jerry—where on earth did you come from?" she cried joyously, as her lover hung an arm, wearing two gold service stripes, quickly about her.

"Glad to see me, little girl?" he asked eagerly.

"Yes," breathed Anne, "but—" She turned away her eyes. How could she make him understand the hopelessness of their love?

Jerry, seeing her unhappy face, quickly divined its meaning.

"Don't worry about Uncle Nate, sweetheart," he said cheerily. "I'm going right now to board the lion—"

So together they crossed the pasture to the field where Uncle Nate was planting. Here Anne left Jerry to make his way alone to her uncle.

Anne was in the garden when Jerry, white and determined, strode up to her. "You were right, Anne," he said bitterly, "about Uncle Nate—"

"Oh, Jerry, I told you so!" faltered Anne, wounding like. "What did he say?"

"That 'no niece of his should marry the nephew of a thief!'"

Anne nodded. "You see, it's as I told you," she said. "Our only hope is to find the 'lucky' stone—"

"I'll find it for you, Anne. I'll find it for you in a dozen Uncle Nate's. When will you marry me?"

"The day I'm twenty-one," she flashed, catching his spirit.

"But that's a whole year away!" Jerry looked disappointed.

"Yes; but perhaps we'll find the stone before—"

After Jerry had gone, Anne returned to the house. Despite her lover's assuring words, she felt depressed.

Presently soft footsteps sounded outside her door.

"Anne, dear."

Anne's answer was a sob. Then quietly Aunt Jane opened the door and came in. Tenderly she smoothed in silent sympathy Anne's silken hair that had escaped from its pins. There was no need of words between them.

But after Anne had had her "cry" she felt better.

Left alone, Anne proceeded to rearrange her disordered locks. Finding one of the pins missing, and thinking that perhaps it had slipped into the crevice in the back of the lounge she ran her fingers into the opening. Something hard touched her hand. Drawing it forth, a familiar red stone met her astonished gaze.

"The 'lucky' stone!" cried Anne incredulously; remembering suddenly that this was the lounge upon which her uncle had lain the day he had suffered from sunstroke, so long ago. The stone must have fallen from his pocket then and lodged in the lounge, where it had remained hidden all these years.

"You've kept your secret pretty well, old Anne," said Anne aloud. "But I've found you out at last."

Then with joyous steps she ran in search of Uncle Nate, who soon straightened matters with Cyrus, much to the comfort of Anne and Jerry, who together with Aunt Jane, Cyrus and Uncle Nate, celebrated the reunion which had brought boundless joy to all, especially Anne and Jerry.

Crab in Oyster Shell.
A perfectly formed hardshell crab about the size of the end of a person's thumb was once found in an oyster shell. The crab had evidently been swallowed by the oyster, but presumably the crab proved too much for the oyster, as there was no oyster in the shell when it was opened.

BALL GAMES FOR THE WEEK

BOX SCORES OF ALL GAMES PLAYED BY SANFORD TEAM

The World's series is on between Cincinnati and Chicago but that is only a ripple on the water to the big "serious" we are playing down here in Florida between Sanford and Orlando teams for the championship of the Florida League. The first game was played yesterday at Orlando and resulted in a victory for Orlando with the score 1 to 2. None of the fans who were there seem to know just why Sanford did not win, but they all ascribe it to Orlando's luck with the bases full when they land on the pill. But nevertheless, we soaked their idol, Mr. Humphries, good and strong and the next time he comes to the mound we will slay him proper. The two teams will play at Sanford and Orlando, alternate days playing here today and Orlando Saturday and so on until the first team wins five out of nine. The same men will play that have been playing and there will be some good games in this little league for the next week. The first game yesterday at Orlando brought out a record breaking crowd and the same will hold true of the games to be played in each city. The people from other towns are full of interest in these games and Sanford and Orlando should go a long ways toward paying part of the expenses of the teams out of the post season series. Come out and help the boys in the final go round.

The batteries yesterday were Humphries and Quinn for Orlando and Watts and Chapman for Sanford.

Gainesville Plays Orlando.

Saturday will mark the opening of the scholastic foot ball season in Orlando for it is then the Orlando High School squad (Panthers) will meet the fast eleven from the Gainesville High School and all lovers of the great pigskin game are promised a battle royal. The game Saturday will have to be played on the Rollins College Athletic Field at Winter Park on account of the Orlando baseball team playing the post season series games with Sanford on the Fair Grounds field.

The Rollins field is being put in first class shape for Saturday's game and it is hoped a large crowd will be on there and help support the local team. The Gainesville squad will reach town Friday night with one of the strongest teams they have had in several seasons but this does not worry the local team at all, who are working hard every afternoon under the coaching of Geo. C. Rainey, and when Referee Chauncey Boyer blows his whistle for the game to begin Saturday they will be there in the very best condition.

The game will begin promptly at 4 o'clock.—Reporter Star.

Letter From Mrs. Farley

New Orleans, La., Sept. 26, 1919.
 Friends:—I take this means of showing my many personal friends and also those who have proven friends of humanity. My appreciation for what they have done for me and mine.

I thank each one who has helped to make it possible for the suffering boy to be taken here, where something may be done for him. The child is in a very bad condition, but if anything can be done it surely should be done here. He is in the hands of the very best surgical doctors but should he pull out of this, those who have done a noble part surely deserve the praise and honor.

Again assuring each one of my deep gratitude, I remain a very thankful mother.

Meeting at Orlando

Dr. Lee R. Scarborough, Ft. Worth, Texas, Director General of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, will be in Orlando, Friday, October 10, and will address two great meetings at the Baptist church that day. One of the addresses will be given in the afternoon and the other at night.

This eminent speaker is recognized as one of the most eloquent orators in the South and, being at the head of this campaign, his address will be of special interest. With Dr. Scarborough will be Miss Kathleen Mahony, of Baltimore, Secretary of the Woman's Baptist Missionary Union of the South, and she will also speak.

But few addresses will be given in Florida by Dr. Scarborough and the people of Volusia, Seminole, Orange and Lake counties are being invited to attend the Orlando meetings. No charge for admission will be made and no funds will be solicited at the meetings.

Optimistic Thought.

The feeling of shame at what is going on is the commencement of virtue.

Set Clocks Back

Sanford clocks will swing back one hour with the nation's time process at 2 a. m. on October 26th, the daylight saving law provisions, that the clocks shall be moved forward one hour on the last Sunday in March and set back one hour the last Sunday in October.

Washington, Oct. 1.—General uncertainty as to when the clocks of the nation may be turned back and daylight saving abolished seems to have resulted from the recent action of congress in repealing the daylight saving act. In answer to numerous inquiries officials have pointed out that clocks may not be turned back until the last Sunday of October—or October 26th, at 2 a. m.

Farming Census

Washington, Oct. 1.—The census schedules to be filled out by the Florida farmers are now being printed by the bureau of the census. There are 15,000,000 farm schedules being printed for use in gathering the agricultural statistics of the nation for the fourteenth decennial census. To facilitate the work of taking the census, promote accuracy, large numbers of schedules will be distributed in advance of the enumerator's visit in order that the farmer may become familiar with the questions and be prepared to furnish promptly the required data regarding acreage, tenure, values, live stock and crops.

The bureau anticipates that the coming census will show an increase of approximately 1,000,000 farms since 1910 when the number enumerated was 6,361,502, valued at more than forty billion dollars.

The enumeration will begin on January 2, 1920, and it is planned to complete the gathering of both population and agricultural figures by February 1.

Interesting Wedding Announcement

Sanford friends will be greatly interested in the marriage of Mr. Sam Younts to Miss Charlotte Hassett, which took place at the home of the bride, in Chicago, September 24th. The bride is a charming girl, possessing a pleasing personality and gifted with many intellectual attainments.

Mr. Younts has for many years, been associated with the business interests of Sanford, DeLand and other Florida towns and is popular with a host of friends throughout the state where he is well known socially as well as in business circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Younts will reside in Sanford, where they will be received with a warm welcome. The marriage of this popular couple is the outcome of a charming romance.

Business Change

I. D. Martin has purchased a half interest in the meat and grocery business of W. E. Walthall on First street and this firm will put in a first class line of groceries making a specialty of coffee and the roasting of coffee. Aside from the grocery line they will continue to handle a complete line of Florida and Western meats and will make special drives on groceries and meats taking space in the Daily Herald to exploit the same. The gentlemen composing the new firm are no strangers to Sanford as Mr. Walthall has been a resident for several years and been in the business at this stand for the past two years. Mr. Martin has been living south of the city for two years or more and before coming to Florida was engaged in the grocery business at his old home in Maine.

"QUITTER"---SAYS WILSON OF FOES PRESIDENT-FIGHTING HARD FOR LEAGUE---REVEALS A NEW SELF. PACT OF A WORSE WAR

Thousands Acclaim Mr. Wilson In Mid-Atlantic West On Most Important Trip Of His Public Career.

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—It is a new kind of Woodrow Wilson that this morning's western country is observing as he proceeds on what he frankly calls the greatest journey of his life. No longer is he simply an eloquent orator or a profound thinker with high ideals. The president has become a real fighter, and in his crusade for the adoption of the peace treaty with the league of nations included, the only preventive, he asserts, of an early and more terrible war that the world has ever known, he has been delivering the strongest speeches of his career, putting into them his most powerful words and gestures, and, indeed, throwing into them a personality more virile than even his friends believed he possessed. And this has won more friends for him and the league, even among his political opponents.

A Republican crowd of 1,800 in St. Louis Friday rose and cheered for more than a minute when Mr. Wilson designated as "quitters" these enemies of the league who have been holding up its adoption. A mixed assemblage of more than 12,000 in Indianapolis on the preceding night roared approval when the president, referring to these same obstructionists of the league, defied them to "put up or shut up."

The president challenged them to produce something as good or better. If they want to accept this plan of preventing future wars. Before the St. Louis chambers of commerce, the president, explaining the purposes of the league, described it as a "charter and constitution for a new system for the world"—a system designed to prevent wars by protecting the weak, who have always been the cause of wars, a system entirely contradictory to the old political system of the world. It was for the purpose of ending war that America entered the world conflict Mr. Wilson reminded his hearers, he demanded to know of his opponents how they would keep out of war if they failed to take part in the great pact to protect the weak. He recalled the pledges that all America made, that we should have a share in this great pact. Then, referring to those who now oppose the league, he said: "They are absolute, contemptible quitters if they don't see the game through." America will be despised, suspected and distrusted unless she goes forward with her bargain, the president added in the St. Louis speech.

To all of the objections to the league Mr. Wilson offered explanations that satisfied his audience. The much-discussed article ten did not mean, he said, that Americans would ever have to send troops across the seas to fight other nations' battles. Indeed, with a league, there would be no more battles, he explained, at least the possibility was very remote. Each nation agrees, first, he explained, either to submit differences to arbitration and accept the decision of the arbitrator, or submit the differences to discussion by the council
