Begins Withdrawal Of Troops To Fullest Extent Without Any Menace To Safety

GENEVA, Sept. 25.—(A.P.)—Japanese forces in Manchuria are being withdrawn to the fullest extent permitted by requirements of safety of Japanese residents and their property, the League of Nations council was informed today in an official note from the Japanese government.

The greater part of the Japanese troops in Manchuria have already been withdrawn to the rail lines concentrated there. Thus the Japanese government has accepted in a large measure the recommendations of the League council for withdrawal of troops. It is believed, however, Japan will resist any suggestion for the appointment of a neutral military commission to make an inquiry into Manchuria.

Identical notes urging cessation of hostilities in Manchuria were sent last night by Secretary Stimson to the Chinese and Japanese governments.

Both countries also were implored to withdraw their forces and avoid acts which might interfere with attempts to settle disputes peacefully.

The notes said this government considers it an intervention in a matter.

Reed Says Jump In Freight Rate Will Be Economic Crime

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—(A.P.)—Former Gov. Clyde M. Reed of Kansas told the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday that an increase in freight rates on farm products would be "nothing short of an economic crime."

Testifying for 27 farm organizations, the Kansas said agricultural products were being conducted on a loss basis.

Shippers representing several western railroad commissions presented similar arguments and asked the commission to divide the mileage plan for 13 percent horizontal increase.

After quoting two economists to show that the railroad problem is one of reducing expenses, Reed said "the national transportation system is not threatened."

"It is the business of the country and especially the continued functioning of agriculture that is in danger," he said.

It is to be remembered that under the circumstances the outcome of the proceeding should be the laying of an additional and an unjustified burden upon business in general and agriculture in particular, the repeal or modification of any legislation used as a pretext to this end would be clearly wise.

POLICE ABUSES ARE RECITED AT NEW YORK QUIZ

Dens Operated By City
Officials Under Protection Described

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—(A.P.)—Gambling in which criminals, but the proceeds of hotspots, liquor selling and a double killing were described yesterday by the Hofstadter legislative committee as incidents in the night life being the heavily barred doors of Tammany district clubhouses.

A city detective, discussing two playings in 1926 which he said occurred in a club headed by Harry C. Perry, chief clerk of the city court, testified police had known for five years the identity of the "actual perpetrator" of the killing.

To back up his contention before the committee investigating the municipal government he presented a police "rank" card bearing a picture of the suspect.

"Is there an indictment pending on this man?" asked State Senator John J. Manahan, Democrat.

"No," replied the witness, Detective John O'Neill.

"I want to know why the man has never been indicted," asked Assemblyman Louis A. Cuvillier, another Democratic member of the committee.

"The point is well taken," Chairman Samuel Hofstadter interrupted. "It may become a subject of our investigation."

A telephone message was received about that time from Chief Assistant District Attorney AlvingBlogg Unger, asking that the name of the suspect not be made public.

The assistant prosecutor, asked to appear and explain why, said it would be contrary to the "public interest" and would "make the police job harder."

BABSON SEES BRITISH MOVE AS GOOD OMEN

Says Abandonment Of Gold Standard Will Do Much To Clear Economic Troubles

By ROGER BABSON, BABSON PARK, Mass., Sept. 25.—The financial thunderbolt that has just broken in Great Britain will, in the end, do much to clear the business atmosphere throughout the world. We shall feel its reverberations for a while, but ultimately both England and the world at large will be better off because it happened. Anyone who knows British pride realizes that only a great national and international emergency could have forced her to suspend the gold standard. The pound sterling means more than just British money. It has for centuries been the proud standard of value throughout the world.

Therefore the financial action of England in finally letting it "drift where it will" is striking proof to every body that we have come to grips with fundamentals and must work out our own salvation. No power or short-cut will do. Moreover, human nature always fights back with its back to the wall.

England's financial troubles are due: First, to stabilizing the pound at par in 1925 in order to uphold traditional British honor, whereas France, Italy and other countries stabilized their currencies at a tremendous discount from par. France is now being (Continued On Page Five)

Reed Re-Advocates Sales Tax Proposal

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—(A.P.)—Senator Reed of Pennsylvania, after re-advocating to President Hoover today his proposal for a sales tax, said he believed the United States should follow Great Britain's example and "face the music."

"I believe that unless additional money is raised by taxing the treasury's deficit would reach beyond one and a half billion dollars," he said.

The Republican senator also said he called upon the President primarily to congratulate him upon his address to the American Legion which, Reed said, "apparently has killed the bonus money."

Reed said he opposed raising money by decreasing salaries of congressmen and other federal workers.

CAPITAL REMAINS SILENT ON SLASH IN LABOR WAGES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—(A.P.)—The steady silence in official Washington in wage cuts failed to check the disagreement as to the wisdom or propriety of the move initiated by some corporations.

Whatever the view held, however, there is a uniform watch in both federal and private organizations to check the developments on the shipping pay scale.

The latest news of importance goes in the latter, directly interested.

Items having a bearing yesterday included: The Pittsburgh Steel company, among the largest titimium producers of that district, slashed salaries 10 percent; nothing said of wages.

Prospect of trouble apparent in Milwaukee, where members of a highway workers union threatened a walkout unless a 5 percent wage reduction of between 4 and 10 percent by the Phoenix and Holoprop companies are rescinded.

In New York, the American Copper company revealed substance had been cut up to 10 percent as of July 1 and "wage adjustments" also have been made.

It is a quiet war in here, particularly since the big steel and iron nations of the world are at the American Federation of Labor.

Byng Resigns Post As Commissioner Of London Police

LONDON, Sept. 25.—(A.P.)—Viccount Byng of Vimy, commissioner of the metropolitan police, announced yesterday he is retiring from his post at the end of the month.

The famous war-time general and former governor-general of Canada became London's police chief in 1926 when he answered what the home secretary described as "a stern call to duty."

This call was to clean up London's police, as there was much popular agitation at the time because of the discovery that several constables had been receiving bribes from night-club hostesses and other visitors of the leisure restriction laws, and some others were suspected of turning blind eyes to illegal street betting.

LEGION MEN AT MEET CALLED DRUNKEN BODY

Methodist Dry Chief Attacks Action Of Group In Asking For Liquor Referendum

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 25.—(A.P.)—Dr. Clarence True Wilson, Methodist dry leader in a statement last night attacked the action of the American Legion in voting for a prohibition referendum.

Wilson said that at the district convention "members of a large number of members of the legion broke down and begged for liquor."

The statement of the general secretary of the board of temperance prohibition and public morals of the Methodist Episcopal church was in a statement issued for a church conference following.

The legion has again taken the wrong side, I am not surprised. If you have seen the outfit that gathered in Denver as I did, you would be surprised that 394 men voted against the referendum resolution could be found who would stand up for the Constitution and decency and sobriety.

"Where did they get them?" Wilson asked.

"When these men were being trained for overseas it was as a sober soldiers in dry cantonments. America tried to make total abstinence of every one. They went across in France the cleanest army that ever assembled on any field."

A million maintained that American ideals even in French cities.

But some dropped down to an even level. This is the crowd that seeks to dominate the legion and organization for which the legion has been used has so alienated that he says that they no longer attend the conventions.

There were a marked absence of the usual well behaved typical American. The other crowd is in power. That is why the head (Continued On Page Four) Curran, Campbell county, said Mr. Curran told him Jones accompanied him on an automobile ride about the same date on which Curran's body was found.

Sanford Junior High School Is To Open Monday With Chapel Program

Only two more days remain for students of Sanford and Seminole County grade schools to enjoy their summer vacation and by Monday morning all who have not already begun their studies will trot back to class rooms which they left last Spring.

The local high school and many of the rural schools closed some during the past three weeks, but the remainder of the Sanford schools are to begin classes Monday morning. The last of the opening announcements came this morning when J. Tilden Jacobs, principal of the Junior High School, informed students who will attend classes at that institution that they must report Monday morning at 8:00 o'clock.

First National To Pay 4th Dividend Of About $100,000

Harwell Says Checks Are On Way To Capital For Signatures Before Distribution

Another dividend is in store for the depositors of the First National Bank! Thoroughly establishing the diligence of the receiver and coming as a happy surprise to this community was the announcement this morning by J. W. Harwell, receiver, that checks have been prepared and mailed to Washington for verification and the Comptroller of the Currency's signature for a seven percent dividend, which it is estimated, will aggregate approximately $100,000.

No statement could be obtained from the receiver as to how long this procedure would take, or exactly when the checks would become available, other than the verifying of the amounts due each depositor in a trust the size of the First National Bank is a big job in itself.

In former payments of dividends by the First National, approximately 30 days elapsed between the time the checks were sent to Washington and their return.

This is the fourth dividend which the First National has paid. The first three amounted to 15 percent, together with the seven percent dividend, brings the total to 32 percent. Mr. Harwell declined to make any prediction as to any further dividends, but admitted that this is not the final payment. He stated that the Receiver's Certificate which must be surrendered upon payment of final dividend, would not be demanded for surrender at this time although the certificate must be presented for proper entries when the checks are delivered.

The payment of the additional dividend of seven percent, bringing the total dividend paid by the bank up to this time to 32 percent, was hailed by leading business and professional men as a striking achievement in view of the unfavorable conditions which have existed since the failure of the bank. It was also expected that the release of approximately $100,000 in Sanford in the near future would prove an advantageous stimulus to local business.

Mr. Harwell wished to make it clear that the checks will not be ready until depositors receive notice of their return.

George W. McRoy, following a request by President Papworth to speak regarding construction on the Monroe bridge and the lake shore boulevard, explained the reasons for the delay in construction and said that he agreed with Mr. Mitchel and Mr. Papworth and a number of others "at this county should keep behind the present." He said he believed that December of January will see dredging operations begun and that construction on the bridge and road will undoubtedly follow soon after.

Mr. Linton E. Allen called attention to the fact that if Prof. Larkin was not so modest, he could inform us that Seminole County is one of the few counties in the State of Florida that is able to pay its school teachers right on the spot, and probably will be able to pay them all through the year.

George Weinstein suggested that some kind of a celebration be held at the school.

Case To Test 1931 Law On Bus, Truck Drivers Dismissed

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 25.—(A.P.)—Circuit Judge Dewitt T. Gray, in formal order entered today, dismissed the suit brought by C. U. Smith, Jacksonville, seeking to test the 1931 law governing bus truck operators.

The court held that Smith was a common carrier and not a private carrier as contended and therefore was under jurisdiction of the railroad commission which had the right to levy certain fees and assessments for mileage and loads.

Smith's counsel contended he operated trucks under contract for several concerns and therefore is a private carrier. The court ruled, however, that since he is under several contracts and open for others he is a common carrier. Therefore in this particular case the constitutionality of the act was not involved and that the issue presented was an immaterial one.

Judge Gray said a further suit might be brought to test the constitutionality of the 1931 law when a private carrier is involved.

GATORS PRACTICE OFFENSIVE PLAY AS SEASON NEARS

Mentorial Board Tries To Pick Best Prospects For 1st Team

GAINESVILLE, Sept. 24.—Offensive football held the spotlight yesterday as the Gator gridgers, under the tutelage of Coach Charles Buchanan and his staff of assistants, put in a hard afternoon of scrimmage which featured varied methods of attack.

For the greater part of the afternoon two teams, augmented by a continual stream of substitutes, battled up and down Fleming field as the Florida mental board sought to locate an eleven which showed the greatest possibilities in the way of a scoring push.

Big Link Silby, Florida's piling-diving fullback, and Paine Kelly, a most promising soph back, received slight knee injuries in the course of the hostilities. Although neither player was seriously hurt, both may have to resort to light workouts for the next day or so.

In yesterday's scrimmage, Al Rogers, junior backfield ace, and Sam Davis, who is making his first big varsity honors, stood out as two of the most promising ball jugglers. In the line Al Good, a converted fullback who is playing guard, and Bill Ferraris, a soph center, looked good. Joe Hall, Ed Parsell and Herguson Cherry, all veteran flankmen, were working well throughout the day's activities.

In a brief punting session Al Rogers and Shaw Buck, who is being suited as a second Clyde Crabtree, continued to be the pick of the lot in this phase. Buck, especially, looked promising. The Palatka boy weighs in at 150 pounds and runs, kicks and passes in a style reminiscent of "Cannonball Clyde" who thrilled Gator football fans for three years with his ambidextrous prowess.

Morgan Blake of Atlanta, one of the outstanding sports scribes in the country, was an interested spectator at the Gator drill yesterday. Blake came down to give Buchanan's charges a "once over" and took several pictures of the Florida aggregation.

However, the team selected for tonight's game should be able to hold its own, and a hotly contested game is promised. The game is scheduled to start at 7:30.

BOBBY JONES AND SUCCESSOR LOSE EXHIBITION GAME

Von Elm, Burke Defeat Golf King And New Champ, Ouimet

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Sept. 24.—(A.P.)—Bobby Jones and his amateur championship successor, Francis Ouimet, were defeated yesterday in a 36-hole exhibition golf match with Billy Burke, national open champion, and George Von Elm, business man golfer. Proceeds from the match will go to charity.

Burke and Von Elm played brilliant golf to whip the Jones-Ouimet combination, 8 up, over the first 18 holes then double their margin in the second round. Burke was the star of the day as he and his sharpshooting partner accumulated their aggregate margin of 10 up over the course of the Essex Country Club.

If it had been anything but an exhibition for charity, it would have terminated with Burke and Von Elm the winners by a margin of 8 and 7 in the afternoon. But with a gallery of 6000 sweeping the course, the foursome went on to finish the full final round.

It was the first time Jones, since his retirement as the undisputed king of all the golfing worlds, had played with two of his successors, Burke and Ouimet, in the same match.

Jones shot a 74 in the morning while Burke went around in 72, one over par, and Von Elm took a 73. Ouimet was high man with a 79.

In the afternoon Burke again showed the way, picking off four birdies along the way to get his par 71 while Von Elm shot a 71. Jones took 78 and Ouimet again trailed with 78.

Bobby had trouble with his woods on several holes and his putter would do nothing out of the ordinary. Several times he made splendid recoveries out of the rough to keep his score down. All day, however, he had trouble hitting the green with his second shot. Burke was rarely in trouble and twice he got down putt of 10 and 12 feet to bring home birdie deuces in the short holes.

Jones accounted for both the holes his side won during the day. Both times he had to shoot birdies to do it, bagging a three on the far fourth in the morning round and a four on the long par five eighth in the afternoon. Ouimet was woefully erratic, getting into trouble frequently with his second shot while his long putts refused to go down.

ORLANDO, Sept. 24.—Candidates for the office of the mayor of Orlando were speakers at the Chamber of Commerce weekly luncheon recently. Each was allotted 10 minutes in which to discuss issues of the campaign and the planks of his respective platform.

Mayor James L. Giles, vice president of the chamber, presided, introducing the speakers alphabetically and without partiality.

In the matter of refinancing the $2,700,000 bonds now outstanding for sewer and paving special assessments, he pointed out that these bonds could not be extended but could be refunded over a period of 25 to 30 years and thereby give the benefit of such extension to the taxpayers.

Frank I. Ferguson, ex-chairman of the Taxpayers League, told of the many really developments that he had promoted in Massachusetts and New York and of his work in the South-side Improvement League in Orlando and his recent work in the Taxpayers League, opposing the issues at the recent referendum on the utilities.

THE WHITE SWAN
Could you but see her
—She would seem
Like some bright star
That is seen in dream:
Like a sun-burst
Seen on a wintry day
When all but that one spot
Is gray
Could you but see her
—It would be
As when one sees
On a flooding sea
The white foam sides
Of a proud swan
Doubtfully
Breasting a tide:
—James Stephens.

Now that so many of us are living from hand to mouth, we are apt to be a lot more sympathetic for the one-arm man.

These Empress Eugenia hats are all right, all right, but why in the world can't the girls ever get
'em on straight?

The people of Florida have a distinct advantage over the rest of the world. We went into training for this depression.

Florida already has over $202, 000,000 invested in highways, and there were some who said we should keep on building them.

The average young man hopes that his sweetheart will be well preserved when she gets old.—Times Union. Possibly that's why he gets her pickled while she's young.

When President Hoover urged the Legion members not to ask for more bonus, they all cried in unison,
"We want beer." Beer would be a mighty good substitute for a bonus with most of them.

Senator Fletcher has definitely announced his candidacy for re-election to the United States Senate next year. So has Ruth Bryan Owen. There are two offices where speculation as to successful candidates is uncalled for.

Prohibition is bringing forth a lot of new words for our English language in which we find this from O. O. McIntyre: "Overheard between two luncheon flappers in the Colony reception room. First:
'I didn't think you'd show up after that glass of yours last night.' Second: 'I wasn't the only one glazed. You were swacked to the bangs yourself.'"

The Glean has never been able to learn itself, why the moon is sometimes far south and a few nights later well north.—Phil Barney. Have you ever been able to learn anything about the moon?
Why it makes silly asses out of old men, desperadoes out of young bucks, and Helens out of young jinks; why it scares girls. Why its soft mellow rays will turn a heart of stone into a disgusting piece of putty?

Labor leaders, as might have been expected, are not much pleased with the action of U. S.
Steel and other large corporations in cutting wages. William Green insists that if large dividends and million dollar bonuses were paid less frequently during periods of prosperity, reduction in wages wouldn't be necessary when hard times set in. There is doubtless much truth in that. Corporations might be compelled by law to set up "wage reserves," when business is good, instead of giving all profits to stockholders, in order to take care of wages and unemployment when business is bad.

Brisbane talks of the discovery of a new use for insulin, destined perhaps to be of great service in combating unemployment. Injections of insulin, formerly given principally for diabetes, enable individuals, scientists say, to liberate all winter, to curl up and sleep without eating, yet without body deterioration. Has a bear or something that would be all right in a way, perhaps, but what would it do about his golf game or his Saturday night date?
And suppose he should find, when he was in the woods, that the tree was the wrong tree and the nest was empty?

"Radio City"

It is something to know how to make money; it is a whole lot more to know how to spend it wisely. Such knowledge John D. Rockefeller, Jr. has. Inheriting a vast fortune from his father, he has devoted most of his life to spending it in the best interest of humanity. Aside from his innumerable philanthropic activities, his construction of "Radio City" in the heart of New York City comes at a most opportune time for the people of this country.

A recent announcement by the Metropolitan Square Corporation, holding company for John D. Rockefeller, Jr.'s $250,000,000 mid-town building project in New York, says the Manufacturers Record, "gives some striking facts as to the meaning of this great development in a time of business depression and uncertainty. It is computed that 10,000,000 days of eight hours each will be consumed by the workers who produce, transport and erect the material and equipment that will go into the ten great building units.

The total number of people employed directly or indirectly will be over 56,000. A small army of workers are wrecking and removing most of the 229 old buildings covering three city blocks. Following the wrecking crews come the excavators, steam shovel operators, rock drillers, powder men, truckmen and laborers. In the meantime, the 'army of supply,' which includes at various stages of the work approximately 46,000 men representing practically all trades, has been mobilized for action.

To supply the material for this gigantic undertaking will require the services of producers and laborers in many of the basic industries in several states. Among them will be miners of iron ore in Alabama and Michigan; copper from Arizona; coal from Pennsylvania and West Virginia.
There will be lumberjacks and mill men at work in the great timber areas of the Southern States and the Northwest; workers in the marble quarries of Tennessee, and labor employed in blast furnaces, rolling mills and other manufacturing plants.

Included in the development are: The world's largest office building in floor area; two 45-story office buildings and one of 31 stories; the International Music Hall, biggest theater ever to be erected; a spacious sound motion picture theater; two 6-story buildings fronting on Fifth Avenue, and two other buildings, the size and use of which has not yet been announced.

A Country Gentleman?

Down in St. Petersburg, an Associated Press writer reveals, lives a quiet prosperous man with extensive real estate holdings who is famed locally for his generous contributions to charity whose most noteworthy humanitarian enterprise is his support of the St. Petersburg Crippled Children's Home. The man is a retiring sort of fellow who seldom goes out at night and spends his evenings smoking and reading with his family in his expensive mansion.

His name is Johnny Torrio. In Chicago where he lived until a few years ago, he was known as "Torrio, the Immune". He acquired this title after his repeated emergence unharmful from various gun battles in the midst of Chic-ago's busy streets. Time after time he was sprayed with machine gun bullets from passing automobiles. Scars on his neck and chin attest the accuracy of his competitors, but his perseverance in living despite these attacks proves his
"immunity".

Torrio came to this country from Italy when he was about twenty years old. He first gained notoriety when his chief, "Big Jim" Colosimo, the Al Capone of ten years ago, was killed and Torrio stepped into his shoes. For a while Torrio himself was the big boss of the underworld. His word was law to most of the murderers, bootleggers, broth-el-house keepers of Chicago, and Al Capone, most notorious criminal at present, was his right hand man.

Finally Chicago made it too hot for Torrio just as it is making it too hot for Capone now. Torrio decided to retire while the retiring was good. He skipped town leaving his extensive enterprises in the hands of his chief lieutenant, Al Capone. For a while Torrio was lost to the world.
So quietly did he slip into St. Petersburg that nobody knew who he was or anything about his record until he had acquired extensive property holdings aggregating in value a million dollars and had identified himself as a most law-abiding citizen.

Apparently he has completely reformed. Income tax investigators can find nothing wrong with his returns.
Local authorities are completely satisfied with his observance of city statutes and Florida laws. He is said to be a model citizen. But we wonder if he does not suffer a twinge of conscience when he makes his generous contributions to charity as he thinks of the origin of his great wealth.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Marked progress is being made toward construction of a railroad which it is expected eventually will connect Miami and Clewiston, according to W. C. Wolfe, of Miami, who was in Arcadia recently in connection with the Tatum interests of that city. Mr. Wolfe stated that the Tatum had purchased large areas of land bordering the Miami canal and that they were pushing construction of the roadbed for which they have a franchise, using the spoils of the west side of the canal for the purpose.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Brady announced the marriage of their daughter, Virginia, to Mr. Daniel U. Wilder, yesterday, at Riverside Presbyterian Church in Jacksonville. Rev. Joseph G. Venable, pastor of the church, performed the impressive ceremony, which was witnessed only by relatives and a few intimate friends of the popular young couple.

V. C. Collier left last night for New York where he will spend two weeks with relatives. His wife, who spent the summer with her sister, will accompany him home.

Mrs. W. J. Thigpen and little daughter, Katherine, will return sought from New York where they were the guests of the former's sister, Miss Katherine Wilbey.

Dr. J. N. Robson, Alfred Robson, Henry McLaughlin, Jr., and Max Bradbury were in a congenial party motoring to Tampa today.
They were accompanied by Emilio Fong, of Tampa, who will spend several days here the guest of Alfred Robson.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Baker,
Albany, spent the week-end here.

Various Cuts Have Reduced Orlando's
Operating Expense

ORLANDO, Sept. 25.—Repealed cuts, sales, debts and reductions in the city operating budget have reduced the amount to be expended in 1932 down to $483,000 comparatively. However, the figure will not be definitely set until further investigation shows whether to cut any deeper would seriously impair the city's efficiency. The figure was unofficially discussed today in a routine meeting of the city commission.

Should the proposed cut be effective when the budget is finally set up by City Commissioner R. G.
Higgins, it will mean a reduction in the city's living expenses of $104,600 under the present year's estimated expenses and a reduction of the fourth year of severe drought in the Northwest, visited the mountain states with a drought severe enough to injure pastures and small grains, and gave even the drought region of 1930 less rain than normal. Only the Atlantic seaboard and the Mississippi and Ohio valleys received all the rain they needed.

A cold winter this year will be best from the farmer's standpoint, the weather bureau said, for cold weather brings more precipitation. Winter rains and snows are not used by plants and are not evaporated so readily by the sun, but soak into the ground where the subsoil absorbs them to future use.

The summer just ended was several degrees warmer than normal.

Country Looks To Winter For Relief From Long Dry Era

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.— (A.P.)—The nation looked its back on another dry summer yesterday as planned its hopes for the coming winter for relief from the underground drought that has exhausted moisture reserves for more than a year.

Water in the subsoil, which sustains crops when rains fail, never has been replenished since the beginning of the 1930 drought, J. B.
Kincer, agriculture meteorologist of the weather bureau said today.
Hand-to-mouth rains during the growing season were all that pulled the crops through this year.
Taproots, pushing deep underground, found little or no water there.

The summer of 1931, just ended, of $170,000 under the previous year. This sum has not been reached without minute examination into details of every department, and every department has suffered its cut in fairly close proportion, city employees and officials declare. The exact amount of each department reduction will become available to the public only when it is definitely decided.

STARBLIGHT

Starlight through the curve of space
Falls an age and does not tire,
Falls and knows not where it falls,
A curve of undiminished fire,
No interstellar cold may stay
These atoms in their arc of flight,
Their radiant geometry—
The mathematics of the night.

They see far off the burning sun,
The furious wash of tides that shake
The whirling nebulae, that wait
A moon's orbit till it break.

And, while it plunges, there is born
The eye wherein, as in a well,
This light will dive and cleave
its way
To the dark brain where it must dwell.

And beat against the ivory walls—
A fragment of a universe,
A shining prisoner whose name
The jailer cannot even rehearse.

This is a stranger house than ever
A thousand million years away
Opened to release the light
That ends inecrebrate in clay.

Here in matrix bedded lie
Quintessential suns; the bold Enormous mountains; snows and seas
Housed in a skull a hand may hold.

As fruit sleeps in the seed they sleep,
Till memory, like a wind of spring,
Breathes but a moment; then they burst
Their husk of bone and rise and sing.

And bloom, each in the needful
place,
Till the wind over, they are led Back to the granaries whence they came,
Hid in the storehouse of the head.

There in their sleep they dream and hulla
For man such towers as look upon
The wheel of heaven turning from Oblivion to oblivion.

Possessing the basic goodness of sound design and fine manufacture

From the selection of raw materials to the completion of the finished product, each process of building, assembling and checking the Chevrolet Six is marked by extreme care and precision. An exhaustive system of test and inspection makes certain that every part meets specified dimensions exactly. Many of these parts are held to limits of one ten-thousandth of an inch. No manufacturer in the industry uses more care or precision in building and testing than Chevrolet.

Twenty beautiful models, at prices ranging from '475 to '675

Just as every part of the car is soundly built,
every feature is soundly designed. In planning the motor, Chevrolet engineers were not content to offer the public anything less than tried and proved design. They knew that the only satisfactory way to get smooth, flexible power in a car is to use at least six cylinders.

So they adopted the six-cylinder engine without compromise. And this is what you get in today's Chevrolet Six.

As a result of this sound designing and sound manufacturing, you can buy a Chevrolet and know you are getting a genuinely good automobile—soundly designed,
soundly built, basically
and technically right.

Federal Experts Seek To Arrive At Tax Requirement

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25. — (A.P.)—The American taxpayer probably will know in a month or six weeks whether Congress will be asked to dig deeper into his pocketbook.

Treasury experts are trying to solve the problem presented by declining tax receipts and mounting expenditures.

Whether the decision is for tax revision or continuation of the present borrowing policy with continued increases in the public debt, President Hoover must pass on it before it goes to Congress in December.

The President has been represented as opposed to higher taxes during the depression if it is at all possible to avoid them. He has urged drastic economy all along the line, but whether this will be enough without more taxes remains for the treasury to find out.

Senators and representatives in Washington in both parties are widely divided on the question of a tax boost.

Senators Watson (R. Ind.); Harlow (D. Miss.), and Representative Tilson (R. Conn.), have expressed opposition to higher taxes. Others in both parties have come out for them.

Treasury experts for some time have been trying to find new sources of revenue.

The work was intensified late in the last fiscal year when income tax receipts declined approximately $200,000,000 as compared with the previous year. It continued since the start of the fiscal year in the fall in 1931.

NEW STUDY PLAN AWAITS STUDENT BODY OF CHICAGO

Youthful President Abolishes Compulsory Attendance

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—(A.P.)—It is no longer "reading, writing and arithmetic, all at the end of a highway stick," at the University of Chicago.

The "three R's"—as their high-school equivalents—remain in the curriculum. But the figurative highway stick—compulsory class attendance—has been abolished.

The new plan is higher education instituted by the university in the 17th freshmen by the youthful university president, Dr. Robert Maynard Hutchins.

A student can cut classes when he wishes without fear of receiving a slip from the dean. He will not be called "on the carpet" when he fails to make the same progress in his course as other students.

The classes, the teachers, the libraries and many other resources of the university will be there for his use if he wants to use them. The education will be there and the student can "take it or leave it."

"At the end of each course the instructor will make one of two comments on the students. Those who have made satisfactory progress will be so designated. Of others the instructor will simply note: "We don't know enough about you to comment." Students who fail to pass the latter classification will be barred from intercollegiate competition but can go right along doing as he likes academically for at least two years.

"At the end of two-year period he takes a comprehensive examination. If he passes he goes on into the university. If he fails he will probably be advised to quit. Meanwhile the exceptional student has gone on probably long before the two-year period is up. He passed his comprehensive examinations and is in the upper division of the university. A genius might finish the first two years course in three months. Then after taking a two-year course in one of the upper divisions he would receive his degree.

"The object has not been to speed-up educational process for all students," President Hutchins explained. "It is to adjust the educational processes and the speed thereof to the needs and equipment of each individual."

"The college (the first two years) is to be a place for an exploration of the realms of knowledge.

"It is to smelt their minds, widen their horizons and influence their intellects. It exists to teach the student to think—to think straight if possible but think always for themselves."

police "to admit into its records the 'wanted card' and photograph which gave the suspect's name as Lawrence Fazio, alias Larry Young Gilmer, 28.

Police witnesses said the photograph had been obtained by breaking into a room where the suspect had lived.

When Senator Nease voiced a protest, Mr. Seabury said: "I am not trying to prove who murdered these men, but I am trying to show that gangsters, gunmen and other notorious characters congregated in Democratic clubs."

Assemblyman Cavalier asked whether Mr. Seabury didn't mean Republican as well as Democratic clubs, to which Mr. Seabury replied:

"They found two guns in a Republican club and two dead bodies in Perry's."

"Well, they might find bodies in Republican clubs yet," Assemblyman Cavalier retorted.

Earlier in the day, Captain Lewis J. Valentine, who served as a police investigator under two commissioners, told of what he called unsuccessful attempts to persuade Perry and John E. McConey, Democratic chief in Brooklyn, to suppress gambling in Democratic clubs.

He also testified liquor had been on sale in the gambling room of Sheriff Thomas M. Parley's club and that a loaded revolver was found when police raided the place.

The story of all raids on the club was told the same day when five were indicted on the gambling charges.

As an example, the captain told how, when 22 men arrested in the Perry club were held into court, all were discharged after it had been pointed out that no complaint had been made by the landlord (Perry) or by the tenants (members of the club).

CHURCH PARLEY BEGINS STUDY OF MARRIAGE TOPIC

Difference Of Opinion Exists Over Re-Marriage Subject

DENVER, Sept. 25.—(A.P.)—Three conservative proposals were stacked against one liberal resolution yesterday as the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church plunged into the marriage and divorce problem.

All elements appeared agreed, except on minor details, on the advisability of pre-marriage instruction and the establishment of an ecclesiastical court in each diocese to consider marital cases. The differences hinge on the remarriage of divorced persons.

Three bishops were placed in nomination yesterday for office of presiding bishop. The election will be held today. The nominees: James de Wolf Perry, Rhode Island, incumbent; James H. Freeman, Washington, D. C., and Edward L. Parsons, California.

The report of the joint commission on marriage and divorce submitted to the house of bishops yesterday proposed that any person whose former marriage has been dissolved for any cause by a civil court may, after the expiration of one year from the granting of divorce, apply to the ecclesiastical court for permission to marry another person. Upon recommendation of the court a minister of the church would be allowed to solemnize the marriage.

Under present canons, only the innocent party to a divorce granted on grounds of adultery may be married by a minister of the church.

Bishop Paul Mathews of New Jersey, presented a minority report of the commission. Recommending that any person whose former marriage has been dissolved for any cause by a civil court and who has been re-married by civil authority, may apply to an ecclesiastical court for recog-

"DETROIT, Sept. 25.—(A.P.)—Henry L. Stevens, Jr., of Warsaw, N. C., new national commander of the American Legion, last night answered Dr. Clarence Tyne Wilson's comment on the legion's action in calling for a national referendum on prohibition with a denial that the legion had gone over to the "wet" side. He said the legion has and always will support the constitution.

"I certainly do not take the view that the legion has taken the wet side," Stevens said. "The legion did not take the wet side by calling for a referendum, but simply called for full expression of the opinion of the citizenry of the country."

"I have seen fewer drunks at this convention than ever at any convention."

"A million of us have stood up for the constitution and still do stand for it."

Col. Frederick M. Alger of Detroit, chairman of the legion convention cooperation, replied to Dr. Wilson as follows:

"Tell the gentleman, if he is such, that had he been here in Detroit he would have seen 92,000 men entirely sober, march down the street."

"I would recommend that Dr. Wilson find out what he is talking about. When a man stays far away from the front and tries to criticize from the rear his criticism is of no weight."

GLASGOW, Sept. 25.—(A.P.)—The Tirar factory in the United Kingdom for manufacturing "glass all"—also known as "glass wool" and "spun glass"—has begun production here.
