CHRISTMAS IN SANFORD CHURCHES

SPECIAL SERVICES HELD IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY TO CELEBRATE THE YULE-TIDE

Presbyterian White Christmas
In accordance with their annual custom the Presbyterian church had a White Gift Christmas at the church last Monday night and on the principle that it is more blessed to give than receive the church and Sunday school gave most liberally to the orphan children of Thornwell Orphanage.

The exercises were greatly enjoyed by all those present, consisting of musical numbers assisted by Miss Florence Frank at the organ and Earl Paxton on the violin. Recitations by members of the Sunday school and by Mrs. R. C. Maxwell were interspersed by selections by the choir under the direction of Mr. Whitcomb and at the close of the exercises arranged by Mrs. W. M. McKinnon the white gifts were brought to the altar and deposited by some member of the class, the need of these offerings being explained by Mrs. McKinnon. From the infant classes to the Brotherhood class the pile was heaped higher and higher, consisting of dresses and suits of clothing and sweaters and shoes and bed clothing and everything to make the orphans comfortable.

The altar decorations this year deserve special mention, being in the shape of the birthplace of the Savior with the brightly illuminated star in the center, the white cross in the foreground and the entire production being covered with electric lights that made a wonderful conception of the true Christmas origin. The cross and center pieces were frosted over with luminous paint and the sparkle of the snow and the lights was most realistic. The spirit of giving emulated in the White Gift Christmas has been cultivated in old and young in the Presbyterian church for several years and the great joy of giving to this most worthy institution brings joy to the givers and those who receive and the exercises are always enjoyed by the members and the visitors.

Baptist Church
The Christmas exercises at the Baptist church were held on Sunday morning. In the morning the Sunday school presented a beautiful program consisting of recitations and songs. The offering went to the orphanage and amounted to a very nice amount.

In the evening a musical program was rendered by the choir and other members of the congregation, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all and contained a beautiful lesson teaching that we find happiness ourselves through service to others.

Methodist Church
The Methodists will hold their annual Sunday school Christmas exercises tonight at seven o'clock. It is to be a white gift service, the offering going to the orphanage at Enterprise. Mr. Ed. Putnam has charge of that part of the service and has worked out a list of staples, contributed by classes. It is hoped that in quantity there will be sufficient to materially reduce the H. C. of L. at the orphanage for a time. A strong representation is urged from all classes to that end.

The music under the direction of Mrs. Claude Herndon promises to be very beautiful. The program includes also a number of other interesting features by the children small and great.

The church has been beautifully decorated by the Daughters of Wesley, under the supervision of Mrs. Hubbit, class president.

It is hoped that every member of the Sunday school will be present, and "all who will may come" and find a hearty welcome.

Christmas at Holy Cross
The Christmas services at Holy Cross church were held on Christmas Day. The early service was at 7:30 a. m. The choral celebration was at 10 a. m. The music was under the direction of Mrs. Fannie Stemberge Munson, organist. Stalner's setting was sung. Miss Katherine Bell and Miss Gladys Morris sang "Silent Night: Holy Night" as a duet. The reverend, rector was celebrant and preacher, the sermon being from S. Luke 2:13, "And there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, Glory to God in the Highest and on earth peace, good-will to men." The church had been trimmed with cedar, pine and holly, with the scarlet poinsettias and roses on the altar.

The children's Christmas tree will be held on Holy Innocents' Night (Saturday, Dec. 28th) at 7 p. m. The children will come to the church and later will adjourn to the parish house for the Christmas tree and party.

Congregational Church
A handsome tree and large filled a corner of the Congregational church Wednesday night. It was beautifully decorated, and two electric lights turned on when the first part of the evening's program was finished, glowed among the branches.

The program of recitations and songs closing with a part piece, "The Crowning of Love" was carried out most pleasingly. The orchestra under the direction of Mr. Manson was assisted by Clifford Walker, whose presence home on furlough was one of the additional glad things of the day. Also, Mrs. Frances Frye, home from Jacksonville gave her help with organ music. She will play for the church services this coming Sunday.

There was a large attendance and everybody was happy in sharing in the observance of the great day. As Mr. Brower said in his remarks, each part of the program was meant to do honor to the coming of the Christ Child.

The gifts were distributed, each Sunday school pupil being remembered, and there were oranges for every person present. It was a good, glad time.

First Sunday After Christmas
The services for this Sunday at Holy Cross, being the Sunday within the octave of Christmas Day will be: Early celebration, 7:30 a. m. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Morning service, 11 a. m. Evensong, 7 p. m. Cordial invitation to all.

FLEET HOME FROM PART IN BIG WAR

TEN GREAT BATTLESHIPS, VANGUARD OF AMERICA'S OVERSEAS ARMADA ANCHOR NEAR NEW YORK

New York, Dec. 26.—Ten great battleships, the vanguard of America's overseas armada, returning to home shores after eighteen months' service in European waters, dropped anchor this afternoon off Sandy Hook. They will enter the harbor tomorrow in triumphal procession and under the shadow of Liberty's statue pass in review before Secretary Daniels.

These titans of the sea, leading scores of smaller craft in the race for the homeland, reached Ambrose channel lightship at 3 o'clock this afternoon. They were headed by the superdreadnaught Pennsylvania, which, with Admiral Henry T. Mayo aboard conveyed President Wilson's ship to the coast of France.

The first word that the battle fleet was about to enter home water was received here shortly after midnight today, when the Dispatch, the yacht from whose mast now flies the flag of Vice-Admiral A. W. Grant, picked up a wireless message from the Pennsylvania. This message, signed by Admiral Mayo, the commander in chief, expressed to the officers and men of the home fleet the Christmas greetings of thousands of sailor men returning from war duty.

A few minutes later the radio apparatus on the Dispatch cracked out this message:

"The commander of battle force No. 1 and the officers and men of battle force No. 1, sincerely appreciate the seasonal greetings received from the commander in chief. In return, the commander of battle force No. 1 and the officers and men of his command wish a merry Christmas and happy New Year to the homecoming overseas forces."

RED CROSS ROLL CALL EXTENDED

MORE TIME WILL BE GIVEN IN WHICH TO ENLIST EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD IN THE COUNTRY

The big Red Cross Membership drive has been extended to January 10th and did not close on Monday, as had been expected. This extension is nation-wide and was decided upon by the Red Cross authorities on account of the general condition of the country at Christmas time, which greatly retarded the work.

Seminole county, up to yesterday had turned in 1001 memberships. While this was not up to the quota allotted this county, it is far greater than the same drive brought in a year ago. Several districts of the county have not as yet reported and it is thought that already the 1,200 mark has been reached.

With the extension of time it is believed that the teams will be able to finish the canvass and it is expected that the membership will be increased to a considerable extent by January 10th.

Death of Guy Allen
The city was shocked on Saturday of last week when the news was received of the death of Guy Allen at DeLand, Florida, where he was a student at Stetson University.

Guy Allen was well and favorably known in many parts of Florida. He has lived in Sanford a greater part of the past three years, coming here from Trilby and establishing with his father, the L. Allen Seed Company. From a small beginning the business under the careful management of father and son has now grown until it is one of the largest in the state.

A year ago Guy determined to complete his education and with his wife and baby moved to DeLand, where he entered the law department of Stetson. Possessed of a wonderful mind and an ability to quickly master the details of a knowledge of law, he worked incessantly with the expectation of completing the entire course next spring. His untiring energy probably resulted in his death for the dread disease influenza followed by pneumonia came upon him at a time when he was weakened by overwork and he succumbed to the disease after only ten days' illness.

Guy was born at Interlaken, Florida, twenty-seven years ago. He spent practically his entire life in the state and attended school and college at several different places. Possessed of an ability to form friendships quickly, he was well and favorably known by all who came in contact with him. He was a consistent member of the Methodist church and his life was a shining example of true Christian character. The deceased leaves a wife and two-year old baby boy, a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. L. Allen, Jr., one brother, Raymond, who is now in France and two sisters. Interment was made in Lake View cemetery on Sunday afternoon, Rev. C. W. White of the Methodist church officiating.

The pall bearers were members of the Wesley Brotherhood class of which he was a member and were: T. F. Adams, S. O. Shinholser, R. M. Mason, R. H. Bronson, J. E. Spurling and W. S. Thornton.

Honorary pall bearers from his class at Stetson were J. A. Carpenter, J. C. Ainsworth, E. W. Landis, R. M. Brice, Jas. C. Rogers and F. M. Miller.

Among those in attendance at the funeral from out of the city were Prof. R. A. Rasco, dean of the Law School and wife, Major Lowe, one of the faculty of the Law School; Jas. C. Rogers and wife, W. T. Ainsworth and wife and D. M. Burns, all of DeLand.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the grief-stricken relatives and friends.

Raymond Phillips and Roby Laing are home for the holidays from the University of Virginia where they have been in the reserve corps. They enjoyed the military training and are sorry that they will not have to continue in uniform.

THREE WEEKS TILL PEACE CONFERENCE

NOT KNOWN YET HOW MANY NATIONS WILL BE REPRESENTED

Paris, Dec. 26.—More than three weeks probably will elapse before the general conference assembles. It is unlikely that any official statement will be issued in the meantime concerning the number of governments to be represented or the tests to be applied to determine the right of applicants to participate.

Technical experts attached to the delegations of the principal powers already have given much study to this subject. If negotiations to reach an agreement on this point have not been undertaken already it is certain they will be immediately after President Wilson's return from London.

Notwithstanding the indisposition of the British government to inject business into Mr. Wilson's visit, it is possible that in his conference with Premier Lloyd George and Foreign Minister Balfour the foundation may be laid for settlement of the question of representation which Mr. Wilson probably has discussed with Premier Clemenceau.

Conditions which will confront the peace conference when it opens will not be unlike those marking the opening of a new congress in the United States, or a national convention. In the first the house clerk determines the tentative membership, and in the second the committee on credentials prepares a tentative list of delegates. At the peace conference, delegates must be prepared to present adequate credentials from their legislature, king, president or other executive authority.

Mrs. M. S. Wiggins of Orlando arrived Saturday to spend the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Löffler.

SAYS QUART A MONTH LAW IS EFFECTIVE

ATTORNEY GENERAL SWARINGEN STATES HIS OPINION IN LETTER TO GOVERNOR

Tallahassee, Dec. 26.—On account of the many inquiries that have come in from various officers regarding the enforcement of the liquor law; that is, Chapter 7733, Laws of Florida, approved December 7, 1918, the attorney general has written an interesting letter to Governor Catts, in which he states his opinion and view upon the subject. The letter is as follows:

"Hon. Sidney J. Catts, Governor, Capitol.

"Dear Sir—In re chapter 7733, Laws of Florida, approved December 7, 1918, which is an act regulating the transportation of intoxicating liquors into counties or precincts of this state where the sale of intoxicating liquors are prohibited and providing rules of evidence and a penalty for violations of the act.

"In view of the fact that many officers of the state are making inquiry as to their duties under this law, since the decision of Judge Sheppard of the United States District Court, wherein he granted an injunction causing the express companies to accept for transportation liquors, I feel that it is necessary for me to give you my views upon the subject.

"The beautiful memorial session room of the Presbyterian church which was furnished by friends of Mr. Whitner as a memorial to him and his long and faithful service in the session of the Presbyterian church will be dedicated Sunday night at 7 o'clock. Rev. Frank D. Hunt will preach at the service and not only the congregation of the church is invited but friends of Mr. Whitner from elsewhere. An appropriate service is planned.

"The law above mentioned has not been passed upon by either a state court of original or appellate jurisdiction; therefore, it cannot be said that Chapter 7733 is not a valid statute in so far as the courts of this state are concerned.

"I cannot accede to the proposition that this statute involves the same principle decided by our supreme court, for the reason that it does not appear that our courts passed upon the question of the right of the legislature to regulate the transportation of intoxicating liquors by common or other carriers, which the act in question solely seeks to do. Therefore, until such time as a state court of competent jurisdiction has passed upon this act, declaring it invalid, it seems to me that it should be considered a valid law.

"Yours very truly,
"Van-C. Swearingen,
"Attorney-General."

Xmas Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dresner entertained at Christmas dinner Mr. and Mrs. Moses and Mr. A. B. Feld, who has recently established a business on First street. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers. After dinner callers were Mr. L. Flataw of New York and Mr. Glickson of Chicago.

Death of Oliver Farnell

Oliver Farnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Farnell of Oviedo, died at his home on Tuesday afternoon, following an attack of pneumonia from which he has suffered for several weeks.

Oliver was a student at Stetson University, DeLand, where he was enrolled in the military branch. While at school he contracted influenza, which later developed into pneumonia and while everything possible was done to save his life he finally succumbed after a long illness.

Interment was made at Oviedo on Christmas Day at 2 o'clock. He was well and favorably known in Sanford, where he lived for some time, being employed at Roberts Grocery.

He leaves a father, mother and one brother.

Notice Woman's Club

On account of the regular January meeting of the Woman's Club falling on New Year's Day, it was decided at the December meeting to hold the meeting Tuesday, December 31st, at 2:30 p. m. It is earnestly desired that every member be present to consider matters of importance and deep interest to every club member.

Informal Christmas Dance

Mrs. Marie Smith and Mrs. Ella Löffler were hostesses at an informal dance Christmas evening at The Gables.

The living room was beautifully decorated with roses, carnations, palms and ferns, while the reception and dining rooms were decorated in the Christmas colors, red and green.

The music was furnished by Miss Florence Frank and Dr. Browne. During the intermission the guests were entertained with music on the Victrola.

The guests for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fodder, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hoy, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crone, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Albin, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Wight, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Perkins of Daytona Beach, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Britt, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Wiggins, Mrs. Adele Lane, Mrs. R. C. Bullock, Mrs. Claude Howard, Misses Pauline Gordon, Marion Clark, Margaret Clark, Ronnie Murrell, Florence Frank, Mell Whitner; Messrs. T. P. Wilcox, Felix Frank, Billie Löffler, Browne and Dr. R. L. Brown.

Rev. Frank D. Hunt will preach at the service and not only the congregation of the church is invited but friends of Mr. Whitner from elsewhere. An appropriate service is planned.

FOOD, FEED & FORAGE DRIVE JANUARY 20th

FARMERS OF FLORIDA WILL BE URGED TO PRODUCE MORE CROPS IN 1919 THAN HAS BEEN KNOWN IN HISTORY OF STATE

A greater food, feed and forage campaign will begin on Jan. 20 and close on Feb. 1. This is a nationwide movement, and all agencies interested in food, feed and forage production and conservation are being asked to cooperate.

The necessity for producing large food, feed and forage crops, as well as conserving these to the greatest advantage, has never been more apparent than at the present time. The world's supply of food is shown to be far short of what it should be. Prices therefore are ranging relatively high for the products. Our soldiers and sailors cannot be disbanded before our next crops are beginning to come in. We will therefore, be the first of all the states in the Union to produce these crops, and be in the best place to receive good prices for them.

Labor will be more easily obtained than it was last year. This labor will likewise be quite as efficient as any we have had heretofore. In addition to this, there will be an opportunity to get improved farm machinery that could not be obtained a year ago.

Transportation difficulties will continue, even after normal conditions in other lines have been attained. This is due to the fact that the railroads have not been able to increase their carrying capacity. Through government reorganization of the railroads they have been able to do the work only in a moderately good way, and will be quite insufficient for peace times.

The following table gives a brief outline of the food that Florida should produce this next year, together with the increased percentage we should produce in 1919.

Crop	Crop Production
	1918	Increase for 1919 over 1918
Corn	1,070,000	15%
Peanuts	510,000	25%
Sugar Cane	16,300	25%
Sweet Potatoes	3,800	25%
Forage	105,000	10%
Peanut Hay	153,000	25%

Live Stock	Number Increase in 1918 for 1919 over 1918
	Meat Hogs	1,333,000
Dairy Cows	145,000	25%
Beef Cattle	865,000	15%
Poultry	1,750,000	33-35%

Four Short Courses in Agriculture

Jan. 7-17 are the dates for the Farmers' Short Courses to be held at the University of Florida College of Agriculture. Four courses are offered, each one complete within itself. These are: Animal Husbandry and General Agriculture; Poultry Husbandry; Course in Tractors; Citrus Culture and Spraying Machinery.

Much of the work in each course will consist of field and shop practice and demonstration work. The farmers will have advantage of getting information from and studying under men who have had wide experience in the different lines of farm work. Any one who anticipates attending should write at once for a catalog, which gives the details of each course.

Address all inquiries to the Dean, College of Agriculture, Gainesville.

Guests at Arcadia

Mrs. B. W. Herndon, Miss Norma Herndon, Mrs. J. M. Wallace and Mr. Charles Whitner motored down to Arcadia last Friday where they attended the officers' dance at the headquarters. They had a most enjoyable time and as this was probably the last dance of many of the officers and it was staged on a large scale the decorations and music and many other stunts being worthy of note among the social events of the season.

COUNTY HAPPENINGS

A BUNCH OF INTERESTING ITEMS FROM CORRESPONDENTS—EVENTS OF SEMINOLE COUNTY—EFFICIENT REPORTERS FOR THE HERALD

WEST GENEVA AVENUE

A letter received from J. O. Mansfield of Tampa, 318 Fulton street, says he has hopes of his two sons, Fred and Percy Mansfield who were reported sunk with the Tampa. There is a young man come home from London that was with the convoy that the Tampa was with, and says that the boat he was on picked up the wireless from the Tampa that the war torpedo and sinking and the crew was taken prisoners.

I see by the paper that the Red Cross is still finding new prison camps in Germany. What would the government do without the Red Cross.

Mr. Roy Lee and family went to Witter Park to spend Xmas with his wife's people.

Mrs. J. E. Vaughn and Miss Gladys Robinson were in Sanford Tuesday shopping and hunting Santa Claus.

Mr. Paul Mansfield from Tampa is spending Xmas with his aunt, Mrs. J. E. Vaughn.

We are having warm weather and plenty of rain for Xmas week.

I saw four airplanes pass over Tuesday but did not call for Xmas.

I see Mr. Cyrus Smith is back in Sanford again. His many friends are glad to see him.

Ex-Kaiser is confined to bed with chills. His chills will be greater than they have been before the end of time with him.

A sight was seen last Sunday morning on the Lake Mary road a horse hitched to a wagon dragging a rope and a young man lying across the seat with his head hanging down like something was wrong with him. He must have had the flu.

UPSALA AND GRAPEVILLE

With little Tim, "God bless every body" and a "Happy New Year" to all.

Paul Mansfield who came up from Tampa to check up his aunt, Mrs. A. Vaughn was a Christmas caller at the home of T. O. Tyler.

Clarence Bergquist was a dinner guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. Edwin Lundquist on Sunday as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Krell of Arcadia came up last week to spend the holiday with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Tyler.

Rev. Sessions was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Erickson last Sunday.

We thought there would be no service on account of the rain but quite a number braved the weather.

ing clouds and a good service was held and a splendid collection taken up for the kiddies. We understand the sermon was on "Sowing and Reaping," using Jacob's life as an illustration.

Dr. Puleston was called out again to Leroy Hodgins, as his wife's foot did not seem to heal properly, though at last the infection is killed and blood poisoning is no longer feared.

Roy Lee, wife and baby and their mother, Mrs. Ehrbert left Saturday for Winter Park to stay till over Christmas in hopes the change will benefit them.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lundquist were made happy in having their children and their little ones home for a Christmas tree and again on Christmas Day. Those present were Edwin, Hilmer, Henry and Elmer with their wives and children. Only Garde of Pensacola and Aaron of Jacksonville were absent.

Mr. Tom Tyner's family were also all together and enjoyed a fine tree and a reunion. We had a good slice of the fruit cake.

For our part we are glad to see Editor Holly has returned, Sanford needs him. Wish he would come out here and write up our roads. Maybe then we might get something done on them. Don't blame the country folks for sending off for their things in preference to getting stuck in the mud trying to get into Sanford. If even the ditches were kept open twist here and there it would help.

We expect next Sunday to have Rev. Mr. Bergquist in the church on Jerusalem, a city in which he passed some time. Sunday school will be as usual at 2:00. Rev. Mr. Erickson, leader. The address of Jerusalem will follow at 3 o'clock.

LONGWOOD PICK UPS

The closing exercises of the Longwood school was held Friday evening.

Miss Lillian Waits of Williston is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Waits.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar were shopping in Sanford Monday.

Mrs. H. R. Chapman was the guest of Miss Mabel Harrold Tuesday.

Miss Olive Dinkel of Southern School, Commerce, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dinkel.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Morton of Orlando were visitors in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Hunt and children of Oxnedo spent Xmas with Mrs. Hunt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen.

PROVED SPIRIT OF DEMOCRACY

Voluntary Basis of Food Saving Showed Heart of America Beat True for Freedom.

To the voluntary service and sacrifice of the American people must be attributed the continued health, strength and morale of the Allied armies and the civil populace.

Upon this spirit of service and sacrifice will depend Europe's fate in the months to come. In the past year we have carried out an export program, the magnitude of which is almost beyond comprehension. But with the new demands that have come, with the liberation of nations freed from German oppression, our exports must be almost doubled. Instead of 11,829,000 tons, we must ship twenty millions tons of food to Europe in the coming year—as much as can be pushed through our ports.

If the Allies had not been fed by America it would have been impossible for them to maintain their defense against Germany.

Meeting this world need on a purely voluntary basis, the American people have conclusively proved that democracy is a success and that in time of need it will rise to its own defense.

If there were no other accomplishment to its credit the very fact that it has shown the strength of democracy has in itself more than justified the existence of the Food Administration in the eyes of the world.

Less than four months after the United States declared war the United States Food Administrator expressed his determination to meet America's food problem on a basis of voluntary action and reiterated his confidence that awakened democracy would prove irresistible.

"Many thinking Americans," said Mr. Hoover, "and the whole world have been watching anxiously the last four months in the fear that democratic America could not organize to meet autocratic Germany. Germany has been confident that it could not be done. Contrary proof is immediately at our door, and our people have already demonstrated their ability to mobilize, organize, endure and prepare voluntarily and efficiently in many directions and upon the mere word of inspiration aside from the remarkable assemblage of our Army and finances."

The history of the Food Administration has clearly shown that the trust of those who put their faith in democracy has not been misplaced.

be proud to be a food Saver

MUST INCREASE FOOD EXPORTS

America Called on by End of War to Supply Added Millions.

ECONOMY STILL NEEDED.

Over Three Times Pre-War Shipments Required—Situation in Wheat and Fats Proves Government's Policy Sound.

With the guns in Europe silenced, we have now to consider a new world food situation. But there can be no hope that the volume of our exports can be lightened to the slightest degree with the cessation of hostilities. Millions of people liberated from the Prussian yoke are now depending upon us for the food which will keep them from starvation.

With food the United States made it possible for the forces of democracy to hold out to victory. To insure democracy in the world, we must continue to live simply in order that we may supply these liberated nations of Europe with food. Hunger among a people inevitably breeds anarchy. American food must complete the work of making the world safe for democracy.

Last year we sent 11,829,000 tons of food to Europe. For the present year, with only the European Allies to feed, we had originally pledged ourselves to a program that would have increased our exports to 17,500,000 tons. Now, to feed the liberated nations, we will have to export a total of not less than 20,000,000 tons—practically the limit of loading capacity at our ports. Reviewing the world food situation, we find that some foods will be obtainable in quantities sufficient to meet all world needs under a regime of economical consumption. On the other hand, there will be marked world shortages in some important commodities.

Return to Normal Bread Loaf.

With American farmers wheat crops which American farmers have grown, and the supplies of Australia, the Argentine and other markets now accessible to shipping, there are bread grains enough to enable the nations to return to their normal wheat loaf, provided we continue to mill flour at a high percentage of extraction and maintain economy in eating and the avoidance of waste.

In fats there will be a heavy shortage—about 3,000,000,000 pounds—in pork products, dairy products and vegetable oils. While there will be a shortage of about three million tons in rich protein feeds for dairy animals, there will be sufficient supplies of other feed-stuffs to allow economical consumption.

In the matter of beef, the world's supplies are limited to the capacity of the available refrigerating ships. The supplies of beef in Australia, the Argentine and the United States are sufficient to load these ships. There will be a shortage in the importing countries, but we cannot hope to expand exports materially for the next months in view of the bottle neck in transportation.

We will have a sufficient supply of sugar to allow normal consumption in this country if the other nations retain their present short rations or increase them only slightly. For the countries of Europe, however, to increase their present rations to a substantial extent will necessitate our sharing a part of our own supplies with them.

Twenty Million Tons of Food.

Of the world total, North America will furnish more than 60 per cent. The United States, including the West Indies, will be called upon to furnish 20,000,000 tons of food of all kinds as compared with our pre-war exports of about 6,000,000 tons.

While we will be able to change our program in many respects, even a casual survey of the world supplies in comparison to world demands shows conclusively that Europe will know famine unless the American people bring their home consumption down to the barest minimum that will maintain health and strength.

There are conditions of famine in Europe that will be beyond our power to remedy. There are 40,000,000 people in North Russia whom there is small chance of reaching with food this winter. Their transportation is demoralized in complete anarchy, and shortly many of their ports will be frozen, even if internal transport could be realized.

To Preserve Civilization.

At this moment Germany has not alone sucked the food and animals from all those masses of people she has dominated and left starving, but she has left behind her a total wreckage of social institutions, and this mass of people is now confronted with absolute anarchy.

If we value our own safety and the social organization of the world, if we value the preservation of civilization itself, we cannot permit growth of this cancer in the world's vitals.

Famine is the mother of anarchy. From the inability of governments to secure food for their people grows revolution and chaos. From an ability to supply their people grows stability of government and the defeat of anarchy. Did we put it on no higher plane than our interests in the protection of our institutions, we must bestir ourselves in solution of this problem.

"A HAVEN OF REST" OF "A MILLIONAIRES' PARADISE"

It is located between two sparkling, crystal lakes, surrounded by beautiful, tropical trees, and in a community of magnificent homes. It is only three miles from one of Florida's leading industrial cities, and is one-half mile from the Dixie Highway. It is equipped with all modern conveniences; has eleven acres in the lot; an eight room modern house, a large variety of fruits, and a landscape that an artist would revel at an opportunity to paint. After seeing this place one would think of the price reaching in to seven figures, but we have it listed at the astonishing price of only $8,500.00.

FORD THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Place your order now, in order to insure yourself of the earliest possible delivery. Production is coming through in limited quantities at present. It takes some time to turn the big factory back from 100% Government work to 100% production of Ford cars. So first come, first served. The demand is big from every part of the country, and the Ford Motor Co. will be impartial in the effort to serve fairly everyone of the great army of Ford Dealers. This means that for some time to come we are not going to have enough cars to supply the demand, so, as above stated those who place their orders first, will have first delivery.

Diversify Your Fruit Growing

This is just as important as to grow several farm crops. The fruit grower who makes most money doesn't depend upon any one thing. If some crops fail for a year or two for low prices, he has others to market which yield well and bring good returns.

Plant Jewell Peach Trees

They thrive in all the high pine lands of central and south Florida. Early maturing, rich and juicy, the Jewell is a favorite market sort. Every farmer and fruit grower should have an orchard of these peaches. Plant trees this season and you can sell peaches from them in two years.

Send Today For Griffing's Catalog

This new book describes our splendid stock of Jewell and other good peaches, Japan persimmons, plums, etc., peonies and nut trees, roses and a varied assortment of trees, plants and shrubs for home ground planting. ## LETTERS FROM THE BOYS

Letters From Arthur Dickins
 Dad's Christmas Letter
 Sunday, November 24, 1918

Dear Dad:
 Just a few lines to let you know that I am still alive and kicking. You can't imagine how hard it is for me to write when I have received no mail at all. If I only had two or three letters which I could answer, it would be a great help.

I understand that it will be all right to say nearly anything in this letter, so I am going to tell you some of the places I have been since I crossed the pond. We landed in Liverpool, England, from there we went to London, from London we boarded a tram which took us to Winchester, from Winchester to Southampton, then crossed the channel to La Havre. Then we lost no time in going to the Champagne front where I was put in the old Rainbow Division. We were taken off the Champagne front and sent to Chateau Thierry where we lost a great many men. Joe Chittenden and Oscar Speer were wounded there. Do you remember my "Dog Tag" No. 1351313?

Well, you can't tell me it is not lucky, because I have been through too many places for it to be very unlucky. Well, papa, this is supposed to reach you by Christmas; so I hope everything is fine when it arrives. I often wonder how the trade is running. Guess you are real rushed now that it is nearing the holidays.

I met a negro that used to be porter in the Sanford House. He knew me right away, but I don't ever remember seeing him before. Giv's everyone my love.

From your son,
 A. L. Dickins.

Somewhere at Sea, Dec. 7, 1918

Dearest Mother:
 Well, I guess by the time you receive this note, you will have already found out that I am in the old U. S. A. again, because if I can possibly scrape up sixty-five cents, I am going to wire papa and let him know where I am. I hope this will be a pleasant surprise to all of you. I tell you it surely suits me. Of course, I do not know where I am going; most likely to some New York hospital, but I am going to do everything in my power to get home on pass for Christmas, and then after that I am going to try to be sent to a southern hospital.

Mother, we have certainly had some awful weather so far on the voyage, and to night the bunks are standing on their ends. We have been on the sea a week yesterday, and I tell you the first four days I was one seasick mortal, but I am feeling as good as I ever felt in my life.

Now, mother, I know you want to know what I am doing out home for. Well, I cannot tell you exactly. It is my hip that has been worrying me; it is in my hip bone. The doctor says it is not very serious and is something that will come around very quickly with treatment in the United States; but the dam's French weather would not be very good for it. Now, please do not be worried about me, because I hope I will see you in a very little while, and you can judge from my looks that I am some distance from dead.

Well, I will go down now and see if I can get my bunk now for another night. Give my love to all.

From your loving son,
 Arthur L. Dickins.

Embarkation Hospital, Ward 17,
 Camp Stuart, Virginia,
 Dec. 15, 1918

Dearest Mother:

I arrived in the harbor yesterday, but did not unload until this a. m. From all I can hear, we stay here about forty-eight hours and then are sent to the nearest hospital. I mean military hospital, to our homes; so if that is true I am liable to spend this Christmas home, that is if I can get enough money to secure a uniform and come home on. I have reached the old U. S. A. without receiving any pay. All the money I have had since I have been in France was the money I drew on papa. I guess we will get paid some of these days, but I most likely will have to wait until my service record is sent over. I am going to telegraph you this afternoon. Well, mother, here's hoping I will learn where I am really going soon, so I can give you my correct address. I want to let this letter off as soon as possible, so will close for the time being.

Hoping everyone is well, I remain,
 Your loving son,
 Arthur L. Dickins.

Letter From Virgil Smith
 Somewhere in France,
 Sunday Night, Nov. 10.

My Dear Mother:
 This week has been better than last. I received your letters of Oct. 6 and 12, also one from Dwight and I was glad to get them sure.

I know you are very much interested in today's papers in regard to the armistice terms. This place is a wild over it. It is talked about from morning till night. Well, I hope it is finished, and I want it to be a sure finish. "Poor old kaiser," he is having a hard time now. But he deserves more than they can give him. Things are going fine, and we had just as soon get the kaiser himself before we stop, as not.

Every man is in fine spirits, talking of when they expect to get home, varying from three to nine months. Of course we don't know, but have got something to talk about worth while.

I think the influenza is decreasing here, have not heard how it is in the states lately.

I am still going from morning till night, happy as a bee.

Now, mother, I'll stop for tonight and finish tomorrow some time.

Monday night, Nov. 11.—Tonight, mother, closes the first day in the new epoch in World's History. This has been the greatest day in the world's history. Democracy has won and thank God we have won and brought this terrible struggle to an end. I don't mean it is all over, but the biggest part is over now.

The population of France certainly had a right to go wild today (for Oct. 6 and 12, also one from Dwight news came).

This morning I witnessed a sight that impressed me more than I can tell and I will never forget it. Four thousand miles from home, in a strange land, people speaking strange language I watched a quickly prepared parade of three nations who have fought for the same cause. Four and a half long years they have struggled together and at last they are crowned with victory. The French led the procession, while the "Yankee" infantry band played the Franch national anthem. The parade was formed opposite the reviewing stand, where the high officials of the allied countries viewed them. The crowds surrounded our boys and did everything they could to show their appreciation.

I would have given nearly half my life to have been in old Sanford town when they received the news. Well, I am over here and am proud of it, so that is all.

Mother, there is so much to say I don't know what to say. All the boys are in the best of spirits everywhere.

May God spare me for a hasty return and keep you safe. Kiss little sister for me and "nello" to all.

Devotedly,
 Virgil.

Letter From Guy Smith
 A. P. O. 716.
 Monday, Nov. 25, 1918.

Dear Mother:

Will write a few lines to let you know I came the whole trip without being seasick at all and I enjoyed it every bit too. The nurses would sing and then us boys would sing, and so we spent the time very well.

I am in France at a rest camp now

Do your New Year's resolving early.
Paris seems to be large enough to accommodate two presidents.

Christmas comes but once a year, and very fortunately Christmas has been asked this important and leading question so many times upon his return.

Among the problems of reconstruction will be getting dependencies on the navy and long trousers on the army again.

The government is perfectly reconciled this Christmas to having you buy extravagantly of one commodity—War Savings Stamps.

After the restrictions on sugar and what were relaxed and we might reasonably hope to have a piece of cake, just see what has happened to the price of sugar.

There will be no difficulty in resolving to get on the water wagon this year. Your only trouble will be that you will probably find it crowded.

The most dissatisfied persons in this country are the young men who tenants who had just paid three hundred dollars for their outfits when the armistice was signed.

ADVICE TO "FLU" CONVALESCENTS

SPAIN AND ENGLAND REPORT INCREASE IN TUBERCULOSIS AFTER INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC.

U. S. Public Health Service Warns Public Against Tuberculosis One Million Cases Tuberculosis in United States—Each a Source of Danger.

Influenza Convalescents Should Have Lungs Examined—Colds Which Hang On Often Beginning of Tuberculosis.

Be aware tuberculosis after influenza. Do not take to worry if you take precautions in time. Do not diagnose your own condition.

Washington, D. C., December 27.—The Surgeon General, according to a report made to the United States Public Health Service, the epidemic of influenza in Spain has already caused an increase in the number of deaths from pulmonary tuberculosis.

It is not too late to get after it. Few people in the north think about going to Florida until January, some come in February and many of those who were interested spoke about coming in March.

Since the epidemic has been put to rest in our community and what it needs to do to be cured is its answer and it is the answer to many problems that to many many seem difficult.

WHAT SANFORD NEEDS MOST Since New York is the center of commercial gravity in America one must needs go to the great metropolis to get the proper angle on all that pertains to commercial life and a visit to New York and the subsequent side journeys on the way will give the man from Sanford a vivid illustration of his home town.

Some husbands are much richer. And some more handsome too. But a true husband never surrenders his business to his wife and that magic word is ADVERTISING.

Having just returned from a visit to eastern points where we were in his statement to the public Surgeon General Hise points out how those who have had influenza should protect themselves against tuberculosis.

I guess it will be quite awhile before you get this, and maybe you will get a few more at the same time, cause I'll write as often as I can, but I won't probably hear from each other for a month or two at a time.

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chief in Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, "He'll Print 'em"--- So Says Saunterer.

Did you have a Merry Christmas? I did, the best one I have ever had. Seems to me that Christmas means more to me than it used to—yes I know that when I was a boy Christmas and Santa Claus meant something to me—meant a time when, if I had been real good I got lots of presents. Then too, I remember when I saw Santa Claus, and how I was really disappointed. But Christmas now means to me, a time of good cheer, a time to show a spirit of self sacrifice and meekness, a time to let my very soul rejoice, not with the mere gaudy of fun but with that deep feeling of gladness that I am permitted to share the glad Christmas times again, and a time also when the wonders of God are made more wonderful, a time to live in that great past when on that great day the Christ Child was born. Until a person can like to appreciate the great truths set out by the teachings of Christmas times—he might not have lived. Then let's you and I strive hard to make our fellow creatures appreciate themselves and their responsibilities more fully so that, God being our helper, these fellow creatures may on the next Christmas time feel the glad spirit—that being accomplished our work would not have been in vain.

Consider not the grouch—for he is passing. Most of the joy of life is in the contact with pleasing personalities. A grouch is worse than a rainy day in December. All of which brings us to the man on the job, who is trying to get ahead. There isn't a business anywhere, worth working for, that won't pay a premium for a smiling face and a governable temper. Business today is totally a matter of cooperation. There isn't room for the sour individual who can't work unless he has a private cave cut off from human contact. This type is passing out—with the horse and buggy, the Saturday night bath, and the farm hand breakfast. Just doing our little job well isn't enough. We must do it cheerfully and with a smile. If we don't we will interfere with others, make it harder for them to do their work, all of which is unprofitable. The reason for this is clear: all of us have worked over and under men and women with dispositions that pricked us like thorns. When they passed our way the sun went under a cloud. Our production dropped. If these were subordinates we fired them miserably at the first opportunity; if we were subordinates we quit at the first chance to get another job of equal pay.—Selected.

Now at the beginning of the new year and just when large numbers of visitors will be coming into Sanford from all directions, it may be well to suggest to the city council to have the old pillars and old buildings and other unsightly sights along the lake front removed and the stretch of reclaimed land along the bulkhead sowed with some fast growing grass. It may take a few dollars and a few days' time to get the landscape cleared off and the grass to growing but when you once get a nice lawn started all there will be to do is to fertilize once a year and keep the grass trimmed and nice. The bulkhead made into a nice lawn would afford a splendid place to put some seats so that our winter visitors and some of our townsmen who have nothing else to occupy their time might go down and enjoy the refreshing breezes of dear old Lake Monroe.

Next Wednesday will be the annual resolution day and that being a fact—you know every New Year's Day is resolution day. More good resolutions made on New Year's Day than any other day in the year—some made and kept, some made and some made and broken—but such is the nature of the New Year's resolution. And after all I say that there is more good than harm done by making resolutions at this time. This being the time for resolutions, let the citizens of Sanford and Seminole county, both as individuals and as a body, make resolutions that they will at any and all times stand pat for their city and county, that they will take more pride in and will live up their community spirit. Another good resolution for any citizen to make would be to resolve to support with all his effort and means the new hotel project, for you and I know that if Sanford and the county need anything bad it needs a new tourist and commercial hotel and as said in these columns a few days ago, the hotel plan as submitted by E. A. Douglas is a very good one. Let us hope that it is not to be out of the people's hotel is the nearest to a hotel they may plan submitted before this. To use Doug's own words "the walls are up anyway." This hotel proposition is bound to be a boomer and it being a boomer is bound to boom Sanford and the surrounding country. Now resolve.

Half a Century Ago

Half a Century Ago, every community could be supplied to some extent with locally dressed meat, drawing on live stock raised nearby. Now two-thirds of the consuming centers, with millions of people, are one to two thousand miles away from the principal live-stock producing sections, which are sparsely settled. The American meat packing industry of today is the development of the best way to perform a national service. The function of providing meat had to develop accordingly. Those men who first grasped the elements of the changing problem created the best facilities to meet it—large packing plants and branch houses at strategic points, refrigerating equipment (including cars), car routes, trained organization, profitable outlets for former waste—which became the natural, inevitable channels for the vast flow of meat across the country. If there were a better way to perform this necessary service, American ingenuity and enterprise would have discovered it, and others would now be using it. During 1918, Swift & Company has earned a profit on meats (and meat by-products) of less than 2 1/2 cents per dollar of sales—too small a profit to have any appreciable effect on prices.

MEAT PRODUCERS DID FULL DUTY

Increase in American Hogs Will Help to Meet World Fat Shortage.

FARMERS SAVE SITUATION.

Government Justified—In Stimulation of Pork Production—Sevenfold Increase Over Pre-War Exports.

Through increased production and conservation we will be able this year to export seven times our pre-war average exports of pork products. With the heavy demands being made in caring for the millions who have been freed from German oppression, the Department of Agriculture and the Food Administration are justified today in our every action of stimulation of hog production. In the coming year the greatest world shortage will be in fats, and pork will help to save this situation. The efficacy of the policy of stimulated production has built up in this country supplies which will enable us to supply a very large part of the fat deficiency of the world. In beef there must be a shortage in Europe, due largely to limited refrigeration ship capacity. All freezer ships available, however, will be filled by America, Argentina, and Australia. The contribution made by the producers of this country to the war program as applying particularly to animal food products is illustrated by the following: Reports compiled by the U. S. Department of Agriculture indicate an increase in cattle of 10,238,000 head and 12,441,000 hogs. These figures were completed to January 1 last. In this period there was a decrease in sheep of 819,000 head. The indications are that this decrease will show an increase, according to recent reports. Since January 1 unofficial information indicates an increase in hogs of not less than 5 per cent, and not more than 15 per cent, as compared with one year ago, with an increase in the average weight. Following the request of the U. S. Food Administration for an increase in hog production for marketing in the fall of 1918 and the spring of 1919 the increase may yield not less than 1,000,000 pounds more of pork products than were available last year. Without this increase the shipping program arranged by Mr. Hoover regarding animal food products would have been impossible. The dressed hog products during the three months ending September 30, 1917, amounted to 298,172,000 pounds, while for the corresponding months of 1918 the dressed hog products totaled 1,277,589,000, an increase of over 374,000,000 pounds for the quarter. During the same period for 1917 the records of inspected slaughter of dressed beef showed 1,262,000,000 pounds as against 1,434,000,000 pounds for the three month period ending September 1, this year.

SAVE 16,000,000 BUSHELS OF WHEAT THAT FORMERLY WAS LOST IN THRESHING

Farmers, Urged by Food Administration, Provide Seven Extra Loaves of Bread for Every American.

FARMERS, SAVE SITUATION.

Government Justified—In Stimulation of Pork Production—Sevenfold Increase Over Pre-War Exports.

By adopting cleaner threshing methods and by literally combing harvest fields to gather grain formerly wasted, threshermen and farmers of the United States this year saved fully 16,000,000 bushels of wheat, estimated as equivalent to about seven one-pound loaves of bread for every person in the country. This result, accomplished by corresponding savings of barley, oats, rye and other grains, is shown by reports from 33 grain states to the U. S. Food Administration. Other states, although not prepared to furnish definite figures of conservation in the grain belts, report greatly reduced harvest losses. This rural food saving achievement, accomplished in scarcely six months' time, was in direct response to requests by the Food Administration, which asked farmers and threshermen to reduce harvest losses from about 3 1/2 per cent—the estimated average in normal times—to the lowest possible minimum. Country grain threshing committees carried into every grain growing community the official recommendations for accomplishing the results desired. In numerous instances drivers of racks with leaky bottoms were sent from the fields to repair their equipment and frequently had order threshing machines were stopped until the cause of waste was removed. But in proportion to the number of persons engaged in gathering the nation's grain crop, cases of compulsion were comparatively rare. The Food Administration freely attributes the success of the grain threshing campaign to patriotic service by farmers, threshermen and their crews. Incidentally grain growers of the United States are many millions of dollars "in pocket" as a result of the grain saved.

SUGAR SHOWED OUR BACKBONE

American Willingness to Give Up Luxury Demonstrated Nation's War Conscience.

STAND WITH THE ALLIES.

By Reducing Consumption People of the United States Averted a Famine at Home in Spite of Low Supplies.

The fact that the people of the United States were able to reduce by more than one-half million tons their July, August, September and October consumption of sugar proves conclusively that their war conscience was thoroughly awakened and that the country as a whole stood ready to follow the injunctions of the Government. Our normal consumption of sugar in the four-month period beginning with July has been 400,000 tons per month, a total of 1,600,000 for the quarter year. In July, when our sugar stringency began to reach its height, consumption was reduced to 200,000 tons. In August only 825,000 tons went into distribution and in September only 270,000 tons. In October the distribution fell to 20,000 tons. If the general public had failed to observe the injunctions of the Food Administration this country would have been in the throes of a sugar famine before the end of August. Our visible supplies were so low as to bring great anxiety to those familiar with the sugar situation. They feared that it would be absolutely impossible to reduce consumption to a point where sugar would no longer be a mere luxury in the American diet. Few acknowledgments of the Food Administration will stand forth so predominantly as this reduced consumption of sugar. By it we have been able to bridge over the period of stringency until the new beet and Louisiana cane sugar crops were in sight. Now the nation is in a position so that if we choose we may return to our normal home use of sugar, and Europe, with the release of ships to go far afield, can maintain its recent restricted rations. If, however, those nations are to increase their use of sugar very considerably it must be to our continued sharing with them through limiting our own consumption.

NO ONE SUFFERED HERE.

The marvel of our voluntary food-saving, now that we are "letting ourselves" is that no one ever actually suffered any hardship from it; that we all are better in health and spirit and better satisfied with ourselves because of our friendly self-denial. Food control in America held the price of breadstuffs steady, prevented vicious speculation and extortion and preserved tranquillity at home. In no other nation is there so willing a sense of voluntary self-sacrifice as in America that was shown in the abstention from wheat. End more wheat it came, more pork, it came; since sugar, it was done. So Americans met the challenge of German starvation. Good will rules the new world as four governed the old world. Through sharing food America helps make the whole world kin. Food control made self-denial from shortage, kept the train on food prices, gave the nation's full strength exercise. Starvation by Germany challenged all the world; food conservation in America answered the challenge. Food conservation in America has been the result of individual devotion to the national cause.

AMERICAN SPIRIT

It is interesting to recall the confidence with which the United States Food Administrator viewed the gloomy outlook in July of 1917, when this country had been in the war for less than four months and the Germans were steadily sending the "western front" nearer and nearer to Paris. Even though the situation in Europe may be gloomy today, he declared in a public statement, "no American who has knowledge of the results already obtained in every direction need have one atom of fear that democracy will not defend itself in these United States."

LOYALTY IN LITTLE THINGS LAST PROOF OF PATRIOTISM

Americans without murmuring cut their sugar allowance from four pounds a month to three and then as long as sugar be to two pounds for loyalty's sake. Optimistic Thought. Concealing secrets is sometimes less advantageous to a man than eloquence.

Pay Your Pledge

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 26.—The necessity of making prompt payments of the first installment of subscriptions to the United War Work Campaign becomes all the more apparent as word is received almost daily of the enlarged program of entertainment mapped out for the men overseas.

In the camps of the country men of the development battalions are being discharged along with the officers who desire immediate separation from the service, and the Y. M. C. A. and K. of C. organizations in the camps are rendering the great service in connection with the departure of the soldiers.

In Europe more than 2,000,000 American soldiers are calling upon the seven war work organizations for assistance of all kinds. As a result of the let up in the intensive training program there is naturally more time for athletics and entertainments and the morale and spirit of the men must be maintained properly. There are many comforts and services needed by the men and officers who are being returned.

Both at home and abroad the seven great organizations to be benefited by the November drive are in need of immediate funds to keep their work from lagging, and persons who did not make the first payments on their subscriptions on Monday, December 2nd, when these payments were due are urged to do so without delay.

Sneezing Superstitions. In Sweden it has been maintained that ill-fate is inseparable of sneezing and the power to do so has been deemed evidence of the possession of a certain degree of intelligence. It was a Finnish belief that a sneeze during a conversation for a bargain proved that what you said was the truth. The Chinese believe that a sneeze on New Year's eve means bad luck through the coming year. The Japanese hold that one sneeze means that some one is praising you, two show blame, whereas, if you sneeze three times, you are merely ill.

America's Pledge of Food Gave Heart to the Allies in Their Darkest Hour

Whatever is necessary America will send. That was America's pledge to the interrelated food council. And because the American food army had hitherto made good they took heart and went forward.

Farm enterprise and much soft corn increased pork supplies—total shipment increased exports—food shipments doubled.

FAITH JUSTIFIED BY EVENTS.
I do not believe that drastic force need be applied to maintain economic distribution and sane use of supplies by the great majority of American people, and I have learned a deep and abiding faith in the intelligence of the average American business man, whose aid we anticipate and depend on to remedy the evils developed by the war.—Herbert Hoover, August 10, 1917.

Trainloads of Tomatoes

Grown by One E. Frank Coe Customer

Last year one Florida customer shipped over three hundred carloads of big, sound, deliciously-flavored tomatoes to northern markets.

This grower used E. Frank Coe's Fertilizers, rich in available plant foods, and he credits to them the heavy yield and superior quality of his crop. Our new book, "Market Crops for Florida" which is full of money-making suggestions. It is sent free upon request.

E. Frank Coe's fertilizers are "making good" in a similar way for hundreds of Florida growers. You can use them profitably and we tell you how, in our new book, "Market Crops for Florida" which is full of money-making suggestions. It is sent free upon request.
