AS INSEPARABLY AS SOME MIGHT THINK AND FUTURE TREATIES UNNECESSARY

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Preliminary reconnoitering gave way today to more direct negotiations in endeavors of the armament conference to find solution for the problems of the Far East.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Baron Kato, in behalf of the Japanese delegation today asked and received from conference heads several days delay for examination of the far eastern proposals submitted yesterday by China.

Chris. Webb Killed on Trestle at Monroe By A. C. L. Train 83

Well Known Resident of Monroe Killed While Walking Trestle Last Night

The body of Chris. Webb, a well known resident of the Lake Monroe section was found at the south end of the railroad draw bridge early this morning. The body was badly mangled, being almost cut in two and the supposition is that Webb was on the trestle walking toward his home when he was hit by A. C. L. train No. 83 and killed without anyone on the train knowing anything about it.

Decensed was a resident of the Lake Monroe section for many years and was engaged in the blacksmith business, in boring wells and in farming and was well and favorably known by a large circle of friends who will mourn his loss.

He leaves a daughter in Palatka and two sons residing in this section and the sympathy of the community goes out to them in their affliction.

NO SOLDIERS WERE HUNG DURING WAR

UNWARRANTED HANGINGS NEVER MADE SAYS OFFICER IN CHARGE

(By The Associated Press) OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 17.—Charges of unwarranted hangings of American soldiers overseas recently made by Senator Watson, of Georgia, were denied here today by Colonel William O. Gilbert, who had charge of death, dismissal and penitentiary cases at American Expeditionary Forces headquarters, Chaumont, France. If there had been hangings without trial, rumors would have reached officers even though there was no official record, he said.

ULSTER WILL NOT YIELD HER POSITION IN IRELAND ONE PART PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—All parties in Ireland, with the exception of the Nationalists, who, however, are now largely incorporated with Sinn Fein, have had their say in the negotiations regarding the future of Ireland.

The southern Unionists, who are opposed to a dual parliament for the island, saw Prime Minister Lloyd George, Lord Middleton stating the case for them, while the Ulsterites had before them the government's refusal of their counter-proposals for a settlement of the Irish question. It was understood that the government's reply to Ulster contained no new suggestions or proposals, leaving the situation apparently deadlocked.

John Miller Andrews, secretary of labor, in the Ulster cabinet, upon his return to Belfast made it clear, in a statement to the press, that the government's proposal to Ulster was for a single parliament for a united Ireland, and that Ulster had replied that she must have a separate parliament—a suggestion which neither the Sinn Feiners nor the southern Unionists would agree to.

OFFICER LOVED SISTERS, UNABLE TO TELL WHICH, GIRLS DREW DEATH LOTS

Swiss Love Story That Outrivals All of Our Present Day Fiction

GENEVA, Nov. 17.—(By The Associated Press).—A love tragedy of twin sisters who drew lots for death by poison became known in Innsbruck court when one of them was tried for murder. She was acquitted after she told the story. The girls, daughters of a farmer named Goldhelm, fell in love with a former Hungarian officer, who was unable to distinguish between them, and courted both, thinking he was always with the same sister. The officer, when he realized the situation, asked the girls to decide which would marry him. They solved the problem by preparing a glass of water and a glass of poison. They drew lots and the loser died. When the sur-

There was no suggestion in American proposals that any yards would be scrapped as all the United States has will be needed during the proposed ten years naval building holiday in maintenance and repair to fleet retained.

MILITARY REGULATIONS SHOULD BE FOLLOWED REGARDING THE FLAG.

(By The Associated Press) JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 17.—The laxity of some persons in observing military regulations in the use of the American flag for decorative purposes has aroused the ire of Major W. L. Carbine, veteran of the Spanish and world wars, and he is authority for the statement that hereafter infractions of flag etiquette will be prosecuted. The Jacksonville veteran in a letter to a local newspaper referred to use of the flag for decorative purposes on Armistice Day and pointed out that it should never be festooned but allowed to fly free and explained other details. Irregular use of the flag was undoubtedly caused by unfamiliarity with the rules of flag usage laid down by the army and navy, he continued, and so far as he is concerned the violators will be given another chance.

"Nothing will be done about it this time," the major said. "Nothing has been said about it before and there is no reason why the public should have known better. But hereafter, if there are any infringements on the rules of the flag there will be action in the courts. I mean it."

Making Sanford Headquarters for State of Florida

AN AUGUSTA FIRM

THAT RECOGNIZED OUR SUPERIOR ADVANTAGES IN FREIGHT RATES.

Sanford is fast becoming the place for the location of all lines of business in the wholesale as well as retail business. This city being at the head of navigation on the St. Johns river, half way between Tampa and Jacksonville, easily accessible to any part of the great south Florida sections and middle Florida as well and with a very low freight rate, has a location second to none in the State. Wholesale firms of all kinds are either locating here or contemplate locating here as soon as suitable quarters can be arranged, and it seems that at least a dozen big firms made this decision in the past few months and all that is keeping them out at present is the finding of a large warehouse.

The L. A. Russell Co., of Augusta, Ga., is among the firms that was fortunate in securing a warehouse that would enable them to come in at once and this well known Georgia music house will take the Miller warehouse in the western part of the city, and as soon as possible will open a down town place where they will sell wholesale and retail all kinds of pianos and talking machines. They are now shipping several carloads of pianos and machines to this city, and will be ready for business about the first of December. The Russell Co., have been located at Augusta, Ga., but wanted Sanford as their headquarters for all of Florida and south Georgia, and aside from the pianos, they handle this firm also manufactures talking machines and will cover the entire state with a large force of salesmen, shipping all of their pianos and materials to Sanford and distributing it from this city.

J. H. Huntermaster is already here to represent them and will have charge of their business here.

Hays Discriminates Against Service Men Says Senator Fletcher

Actions of Postmaster General Will Be Investigated

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Senator Fletcher, Democrat, Florida, charged in the senate yesterday that Postmaster General Hays was discriminating against former service men in the appointment of postmasters. He asserted that Mr. Hays had obtained a re-examination of applicants after it had been determined that a former service man ranked highest.

Senator King, Democrat, Utah, demanded, in consequence of the Fletcher charges, that a congressional inquiry into Mr. Hays' actions be held. Further discussion on the subject was temporarily cut off by a demand of Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon, for consideration of regular business.

NEWSPAPER CONTEST WINNERS WERE GIVEN OUT YESTERDAY, DAILY HERALD WINS ONE PRIZE

The Front Page Contest Among Six Column Dailies Was Very Close

The winners in the state newspaper contest put on by the General Extension Division of the University of Florida were announced last night after exceedingly close contests in a number of the classes in which there were approximately a hundred and twenty-five entries. After spending a day in determining the winners, Bristow Adams, who judged the contest, awarded the three highest average scores for weeklies as follows: The Florida Advocate of Wauchula; for 7-column dailies, the Miami Herald; and for 8-column dailies, the Orlando Morning Sentinel won the highest average score. Bristow Adams is head of the Journalism Department at Cornell University and has judged similar state-wide contests in New York, Kansas, South Dakota and Minnesota. Professor Adams says that it was especially difficult to pick the winners, especially among the weeklies, most of which are of high class, especially in front-page make-up, and setting a higher average than in the other states where he has judged them. The metropolitan papers of Jacksonville and Tampa were not entered in the competition.

Prof. Adams says that he found the weekly papers most interesting and hardest to rank. They represented the largest numbers in entries, and first, second and third prizes were given for front page make-up, for editorial page, and for best handling of farm news. The contest which was conducted under the auspices of the General Extension Division was inaugurated by B. C. Riley, director, in order to center the attention of the public upon the value of our newspapers to their communities and the state.

For the dailies, only first prizes were awarded in these three classes, in addition to the general prizes already mentioned.

The complete list of awards follows:

Best front-page, weeklies: First, Fort Pierce News-Tribune; second, Florida Advocate, of Wauchula; third, Lake Wales Highlander. Others particularly deserving of mention in this class are: The Sarasota Times, Leesburg Commercial, Cocoa Tribune and the Kissimmee Valley Gazette.

Best editorial page, weeklies: First, Fort Lauderdale Herald; second, Titusville Star-Advocate; third, Leesburg Commercial.

Best farm news treatment: First, Wauchula Florida Advocate; second, Lake Worth Herald; third, Bay County Beacon-Tribune, of Panama City; with the Sarasota Times as a close contender.

Among the seven-column dailies, the Miami Herald had things all its own way, partly because there were comparatively few of such papers entered. That should not detract from the sterling worth of this paper which won firsts on front page, editorials and farm news.

In the six-column dailies the competition was closer. The best front page was that of the Sanford Daily Herald; the best editorial page, Orlando Morning Sentinel; and the best farm news treatment, South Jacksonville Journal.

Sanford Fire Dept. Has Good Record; Wants No Advice

At every fire of any consequence the firemen are called upon to undergo a fusillade of criticisms, curses and general brow-beating. No attention is paid to this as it usually comes from irresponsibles who do not own a cent's worth of property nor fought a fire in their life. No other fire department has any better record than ours, compared to its strength and no set of men are more willing to risk injury and possibly their lives, to save the property and lives of the citizens. Thousands of dollars of expensive equipment are placed in the firemen's care and they are expected to be free to exercise their utmost ability in its care and use. It is not encouraging to these men to sacrifice their home life and nearly all social enjoyment and go out in the discharge of their duties to be subjected to abuse. The records of the fire department show that it saves annually many times its cost of maintenance and is a valuable asset in the growth of the city in which all true citizens are interested.

Give the men your support instead of abuse so when they go to a fire they will feel more like giving their best attention to business instead of having to defend themselves.

DEDICATE THE NEW PAVILION.

Our new pavilion on the lake front will be ready for occupancy Saturday or Sunday, and we should dedicate it in proper style by having the Chamber of Commerce turn it over to the city officials and the people of Sanford, and let the band play and everybody turn out for a Sunday afternoon spent in our own city on our own lake—quite the prettiest in the country. To the tourist and convention committee, in due the congratulations for arranging all the details of the new pavilion, and to those big hearted men who gave all their time and attention to the building, and especially to the chairman of the committee, Deane Turner, should we sing praises. This pavilion, to the editor of the Herald, is one of the best moves that has been made in Sanford in the past ten years, or since the bulkhead was built. Let us put it into commission in the proper style next Sunday.

GOOD BANDS ARE A NECESSITY.

Good bands are a necessity in every live city, and they are never seen in dead towns. A good live band keeps the city alive and should be supported just as other municipal projects are supported, and the Herald wishes to congratulate the city commissioners and the chamber of commerce upon their latest step in assisting the Sanford band. now and expect to pay them for a season's concert, and this band music will attract many people who would not be attracted otherwise. And then, the home people are entitled to good music, and Sanford, believing in home products, refuses to send for a band from elsewhere, but will pay their own band for the winter season concert.

The DeLand News wants the home band paid also and writes the following about the band:

The regular Friday night concerts by the DeLand band, which have been a feature here for the past ten or eleven years, have been greatly missed during the past few months. These band concerts in the past have brought people to DeLand from all sections of the county, and have been greatly enjoyed.

The city has never made any provision for paying the members of the band for their services. Mr. Bushnell has been leading the band and training the young men for many years; the city paid a small stipend for the rent of hall and for the purchase of new music—about $600 per year. The only other funds ever given the band by the citizens was the small amount raised by the News a couple of years ago, to purchase a silver set for Leader Bushnell and family, and a hundred dollars or so left over, which was turned into the general fund. Nothing more has been done by the city for the band.

Years ago, members of city council, bond trustees, and practically all persons chosen for honorary positions served absolutely without emolument. But times have changed. Members of council are now paid regular salaries, bond trustees draw a percentage, and even members of the state legislature have increased their earnings. Members of congress have nearly doubled their salaries.

The time has passed when people do things for the public good. And this is only right. There is no reason why the patriotic citizen should devote his time for the benefit of all, while other citizens use their time for their own benefit exclusively.

DeLand should provide a fund for the employment of the band that will pay the members a reasonable wage for the time they put in. As one of the largest tax-payers in DeLand the writer hopes to see a reasonable amount raised by taxation to pay the band. We hope no effort will be made to raise funds by subscription, which is a system that places the entire burden on a few patriotic, generous people, and permits the stingy cus, though benefited more than others, to escape entirely.

Let's have the band, and let's pay the boys a fair stipend for their time.

LOOKS LIKE A WINNER

Acceptance in principle, by both Great Britain and Japan, of Secretary Hughes' proposals for naval reduction, shows that this country has, at least, made a hit at the beginning of the armament conference.

Mr. Hughes, at one stroke, has disarmed, for the time being, all those critics who were arguing that the American desire for disarmament was only half hearted. He has put the other nations on the defensive, and in a position where they must "show cause" or submit to the odium of being classed as advocates of militarism. He has taken the wind out of the Japanese sails by complying with Japan's expressed desires of discussing arms reduction before attempting a settlement of the Eastern question generally.

The best that can be said of the Hughes plan, however, is that it is a start in the right direction and would effect a saving of a good many million dollars annually to the tax payers. And this is much to the good that in rejoicing over it the public might conceivably lose sight of the fact that it neither makes future wars less likely nor alters the relative strength of the probable belligerents in case of war.

It is a practical rather than an ideal reduction. It does not convert swords into plowshares, but by keeping down the size of the sword all around, it leaves more room for the development of those peaceful vocations, which, by the way, are just as essential to the successful management of war as the more militant trades.

Acceptance in detail may be forecast, because, as the other nations pretty well understand, if the present naval competition should go on, this country with its immense resources, could and would soon have a navy which would put all the other countries to shame. America can afford to make the offer announced by Mr. Hughes, because it has nothing to lose by letting its navy rest while building up its other industries; the other nations can not afford to reject the offer, because the alternative would leave them in a poorer situation relative to this country than they now enjoy.—Lakeland Telegram.

JUST KIDS—An Ounce of Prevention, Etc! By Ad Carter

TAMPA HAS A BAND OF ITS OWN THIS SEASON.

Perhaps nothing conduces more to the credit and reputation of a city, than the existence of a first class band. It carries the city's fame abroad as nothing else can; and it adds much to the pleasure and satisfaction of the home citizens. Especially is it important to any city that aspires to become a "tourist town," for the tourist must be amused, if it is hoped to hold him for any considerable length of time, or impress him with the desirability of returning next year. Other towns in Florida are preparing to pay large sums to secure musical entertainment for their winter visitors. Tampa will not be compelled to go abroad for its music this winter. It has always been conspicuous among southern cities for its love of good music, and the extent and variety of talent capable of producing it. Some far-sighted and music-loving citizens have brought this talent together, which is under the auspices of the American Legion, and is known as the American Legion band. It has been organized only about two months, has 40 or more members, all experts in their individual lines, and some in several lines. They have made but few public appearances as yet, but those few have excited general commendation and applause. We understand they contemplate making short tours in immediate vicinity of Tampa during the coming winter, and we can assure the cities that shall be fortunate enough to secure them that they will have an enjoyable musical treat coming to them.—Tampa Times.

CONTROLLING CUTWORMS.

Cutworms are the almost hairless caterpillars of several species of moths. The eggs are laid mostly on grass in heavy sod land. The larvae feed on the grasses. Consequently, on land which has had considerable grass, cutworms are most troublesome. When such land is plowed the natural food of the caterpillars is cut off and they are forced to concentrate on plants set out later. They are especially troublesome to such crops as cabbage and beets. The cut surface of the plant on which they feed is so small that it is impractical to attempt to poison them by direct application of the poison to the plants attacked. They are best combated by means of a poisoned bait, a good one being: Bran 20 pounds, cottonseed meal 5 pounds, paris green 1 pound. Thoroughly mix these while dry and then add 2-1-2 gallons of water and 2 quarts of syrup. The mixture should be thoroughly damp but not sloppy so that it will fall in fine flakes when sown broadcast over the ground. Professor J. R. Watson of the Florida Experiment Station recommends this remedy and says that it should be put out after sunset so that it will remain moist all night. If sown properly, it will fall in small flakes that will not be dangerous to fowls and game. It should be broadcast or scattered along the rows or about the bases of the plants to be protected.

Herald Will Publish Big Christmas Edition of Daily and Weekly

The Daily and Weekly Herald will publish a big Christmas edition—or one for the Daily and Weekly Herald the same week. The Weekly will have the special edition on Friday, December 18th, and the Daily will have a special on Saturday, December 19th, thus giving all the people the chance to read the specials and do their Christmas shopping in plenty of time before the great day comes round. The Herald for many years published a Christmas edition until it had almost become a regular custom but during the war and shortly after and then with the Daily Herald coming on the special edition was cut out with the result that the merchants of Sanford have asked that it be restored this season—especially the regular advertisers who realize that in the special Christmas spirit of the Christmas edition there is a pulling power that cannot be achieved in the regular schedule. So the management of the Herald despite the fact that the shop is busy and running over with work and advertising have consented to give the people this year a regular treat in the shape of a weekly and a daily Christmas edition and the merchants will get space in both papers for one price, making it one of the best pieces of advertising literature that has ever been offered the public. The Daily and Weekly Herald cover this section of Florida like the mist that falls from the clouds each morning and there is not a home in Sanford and very few in Seminole county that does not see the Daily or Weekly Herald. And then outside of our own county there are other counties and other states and other countries even that get the two Herald and it is safe to assert that an advertisement in the Herald now gets results that few can show.

And then the business men of Sanford will be doing the people a good turn by making it possible for them to have a fine holiday paper, a joy to young and old alike for aside from the advertising the special editions will be filled with good reading of a local nature and with Christmas stories and pictures for the little folks. It will be one of the celebrated Herald Specials—this explains it all.

Watch for the special Herald editions. They will be the greatest advertising mediums that have ever been offered to you. Our solicitors will call upon you in plenty of time and meantime have your Christmas copy lined up. There will not be a business house in Sanford left out.

GOVERNOR PROCLAIMS THANKSGIVING DAY.

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 17.—Urging the people of the States of Florida to gather on November 24, Thanksgiving day, in their churches and homes for the purpose of giving thanks to God for the blessings received during the year, Gov. Cary A. Hardee has issued his official Thanksgiving day proclamation. The proclamation follows in full:

In pursuit of the time honored custom of our fathers and in accordance with the law of the state,

I, Cary A. Hardee, governor, do hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-fourth day of November, 1921, as a day of Thanksgiving, devotion and prayer throughout the state.

Let me urge all our people to gather on this day in their respective churches and home to give thanks to Almighty God for the manifold blessings vouchsafed unto us during the year through which we are passing.

Our harvests have been plentiful; we have been free from epidemic and disastrous calamity; our people have been happy and prosperous; our nation is again at peace with all the world; our statesmen in the armament conference are grappling with problems, the successful solution of which may hasten the time when "peace on earth, good will toward men" shall be no more a dream. Truly we have cause for Thanksgiving and much rejoice. Gratefully remembering these many mercies, let us pray God for a continuance of His divine blessings, as we, by our works, may prove ourselves worthy.

In testimony whereof, I have re-entirely set my hand caused the great seal of the State of Florida, to be affixed at Tallahassee, the capital, this fifteenth day of November, A. D., 1921
CARY A. HARDEE.

By the governor attested:
H. CLAY CRAWFORD,
Secretary of State.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUBS

A delightful social event of yesterday afternoon was the bridge party given by Mrs. George D. Bishop at her home on Park avenue, there being five tables, and the guests included the members of the Fortnightly and Monday Bridge Clubs.

Quantities of lovely golden cosmos and yellow and purple wild flowers were used in decorating the rooms where the card tables were placed.

An unusually interesting game of bridge was played during the afternoon, and high score was made by Mrs. Forest Lake, the next high score being made by Mrs. Harry Lewis, both prizes were dainty gold lingerie clasps. In cutting for the consolation Mrs. J. M. Wallace was the fortunate one and was given a bottle of perfume.

After the awarding of prizes, Mrs. Bishop served a delicious salad course as refreshments.

TWO HUNDRED ATTEND RECEPTION TO MRS. TRAMMELL

About two hundred guests from central Florida attended the reception to Mrs. Park Trammell given by Mrs. F. W. Shepherd at the Woman's Club here. The interior of the club was beautifully decorated with flowers and plants. A three piece orchestra furnished music for the occasion.

In the receiving line were Mrs. F. W. Shepherd, hostess; Mrs. Park Trammell, the honor guest; Mrs. Geo. W. Phillips and Mrs. C. P. Dickinson, sisters of Mrs. Trammell; Mesdames J. K. List, W. F. Blackman, DeHaven Hatcher, C. A. Vincent and C. H. Ward.

During the afternoon Miss Elizabeth Welch, of Apopka, aunt of Mrs. Trammell, poured, assisted by Mrs. H. E. Shepherd, Chicago, and Miss Lona Bell Blanton, Orlando.

Receiving at the door were Mrs. F. J. Lindergreen and Mrs. J. O. Hale, while Mrs. J. A. Treat introduced the guests to the receiving line.

Others assisting Mrs. Shepherd were: Mrs. W. M. Kennedy, Mrs. Walter Schultz, Mrs. H. E. Cole, Mrs. Dudley Matthews, Mrs. W. M. Burr, and Miss Nannie Harris.

Refreshments were served by a number of young girls and consisted of ice cream and cake, coffee and bonbons. Out-of-town guests were present from Sanford, Kissimmee, Orlando, Apopka, Winter Garden and other nearby towns. The event was one of the largest and most important of the early season's functions.—Tampa Tribune.

Nell Shipman in New Outdoor Production at The Star Theatre

The biggest outdoor picture of the year, Nell Shipman in "The Girl from God's Country," will show at the Star Theatre Friday and Saturday, matinee and night, commencing at 3:30 p. m. and 7:00 p. m.

Nell Shipman is star, author and director of this picture, and her work in two entirely different roles offers theatre-goers the dramatic treat of the decade in motion pictures.

Thrilling scenes galore have been provided in this picture, and the sensational battle in airplanes 6,000 feet in the air will offer something new in the melodramatic type of picture.

Brownie, the Nell Shipman bear, and the usual array of animal actors are in evidence in "The Girl from God's Country." Their work in this picture will delight grown-ups and children alike.

Many of the scenes were taken in the Canadian North Woods, where beautiful snow effects provide unusual backgrounds.

The excellent cast, headed by Nell Shipman, includes Boyd Irwin, Edward Burns, Al F. Wilson, George Horrell, Walt Whitman, C. K. Van Auken, Lillian Leighton, L. M. Wells, Milla Davenport and others.

"The Girl from God's Country" is released by the F. B. Warren Corporation.

MANY THANKS.

Editor Sanford Herald: Will you give us the privilege of expressing in your paper the deep heartfelt appreciation of the regard and kindness shown the old Confederate Veterans by the good people of Sanford on Armistice Day. The occasion awakened cherished memories and made us realize afresh, that the principle for which we fought has lost none of its lustre by the lapse of years. Many thanks, J. HILL JONES.

WELFARE DEPARTMENT OF THE WOMAN'S CLUBS

The Welfare Department of the Woman's Club, under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Henry Wight, most certainly deserves its name for what this week alone it has done for the children of Sanford. Besides the Better English Week prizes of last week and Cho Cho, the health clown, this week, they arranged through the courtesy of Mr. Herndon, to give a free matinee at the Star Theatre on Wednesday afternoon to the school children, showing besides the regular picture a number of slides of the "City Beautiful" from the House Beautiful Magazine. These will prove an inspiration and an example to follow in making Sanford a "City Beautiful." In doing this they received most courteous co-operation from Manager Herndon of the Star Theatre. The Civic committee of the Department is to be congratulated on this excellent work.

BEST AUTO ROUTES TO THE STATE

WILLIS POWELL GIVES ROUTES FOR MOTORISTS TO FOLLOW

In touring the motorist must head for concentration points. There may be slight detours here and there, but at all times the general direction must be to the concentration point. Concentration points only are given in these logues.

I direct all people in Illinois, Ohio, Indiana and Michigan to Florida via the Eastern route, either starting south from Hagerstown, Md., or Washington, D. C.

Washington to Richmond, 133 miles.
Richmond to Durham, 175 miles (or via Raleigh) to Durham.
Durham to Charlotte, 175 miles.
Charlotte to Greenville, 116 miles.
Greenville to Athens, 101 miles.
Athens to Macon, 109 miles.
Macon to Valdosta, 151 miles—total of 960 miles to Valdosta.

From Cincinnati the best and most direct line of travel is via Falmouth, Cynthia, Paris, Richmond, Mt. Vernon, Corbin, Ky., Jacksboro, Clinton, Rockwood, Chattanooga, Rome, Atlanta to Macon, then over the main route via Valdosta into Florida. The line through southern Kentucky via Mt. Vernon and Corbin was opened September 1 and a large celebration was held by local motorists who organized a party of several hundred cars to drive over the new link.

From North and West the Dixie highway route concentrates at Nashville, thence Shelbyville, Tullahoma, Winchester, Cowan, Monticello, Jasper, Chattanooga, Rome, Atlanta, Macon, Valdosta.

From North and West Nashville, Huntsville, Gadsden, Talladega, Opelika, Columbia, Ga., Richland, Dawson, Albany, Thomasville, Valdosta (or direct to Madison, Fla., via Quitman.)

The second named route via Huntsville is 113 miles longer than the one over the mountains via Monticello.

From Valdosta to Madison, Fla., 30 miles. To Lake City, 15 miles.

Option of Valdosta to Lake City via Jasper, 70 miles.

Lake City to Gainesville and Ocala, 93 miles.

At Ocala you can take a fair to good road to Bartow, Clearwater and St. Petersburg and Tampa.

Ocala to Leesburg, 36 miles. Total of 1172 miles from Washington to Leesburg, Fla.

Leesburg is the diverging point to all points in East, West and South Florida, and many take this route to go to St. Augustine and Jacksonville, Daytona, etc.

At Leesburg road conditions for the rest of Florida are perfect, no matter in which direction you travel.

At Leesburg via Grand Island, one mile of Eustis to Umatilla, Altoona, Crow's Bluff, DeLand, Daytona and all East Coast points.

At Leesburg via Grand Island, Eustis, Mt. Dora for Sanford and all points north and south and to East coast to Titusville.

From Eustis to Tavares and Orlando.

At Mt. Dora for Orlando via Apopka.

At Leesburg via Tavares, Minneola for Orlando and all points north and south.

At Leesburg via Oklawaha, Maccotie, Groveland for Auburndale and thence east or west and south to Tampa, St. Petersburg and Fort Myers, and entire net work of South Florida and West coast roads.

From Leesburg over all points further inland the roads are either sand-clay, brick or asphalt.

By following these logues you will not be far from wrong and if you have some trouble on the road you will have plenty of help in digging or pushing you out. The road as a whole is not perfect, yet day by day 150 cars are rolling into Florida by the Valdosta-Madison, or Valdosta-Lake City route, and within a few weeks this will be increased to 300 cars daily.

The roads will be in best condition from now until spring thaws set in in the states north of Florida.

To avoid trouble do not let garage men or hotel men route you against instructions herewith given. There may be slight detours which you will have to follow but strike out for the next concentration point.

Along the lines given there is a string of garages, service stations, and plenty of company along the road.

That the Eastern route is fairly passable is evidenced by many making the trip in six days' time, and one intrepid driver did the 1,200 miles in four days' driving.

The Eastern route is practically a high-gear route from Washington to Florida as it skirts the mountains. Over the Central route you cannot escape the Cumberland mountains.

By Willis Powell, secretary of the Lake County Chamber of Commerce.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

IF YOUR BACK HURTS OR BLADDER BOTHERS YOU, DRINK LOTS OF WATER.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

IF MIXED WITH SULPHUR IT DARKENS SO NATURALLY NOBODY CAN TELL.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.—Adv.
