Petticoat Influence Is Coming Back According To Style Makers

By JANE EADS
NEW YORK, Apr. 17.—(AP)—

The "petticoat influence" may be taken literally as far as feminine costuming is concerned this season.

For that relic of the days when modesty was indeed in flower figured importantly in showings of summer fashion at the Hotel Astor by the Garment Retailers of America.

And along with this strictly feminine garment there appeared numerous other accessories to aid and abet the "womanly woman" in her seasonal metamorphosis from the athletic or flapper type.

Gloves are a new feature of afternoon and evening frocks, ruffled and cuffed and lace-trimmed, they are usually but three or four inches below the elbow. Long sleeves are either flaring at the wrist or leg-of-mutton shaped above the elbow.

Skirts are extremely revealing, tough gauzy skirts in the brightest hues, long capes, and huge hats will be worn to protect the rose-petal and milk-white complexion which maid will have for her new ensemble.

More than 1000 tailors and department houses from all parts of the country were at the show, with the chief little jabs—

TAX MEASURE IS PASSED BY SENATE TODAY

Much Revenue Is Anticipated From Bill Providing Collection On Inheritance

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 17.—(AP)—The Senate passed, 81 to 4, a bill providing for a state inheritance tax as proposed by the voters in the last general election. It now goes to the House. The bill repeals the prohibition against the state's levying an inheritance tax and entitles Florida to a return from the federal government of 80 percent of the federal inheritance tax now collected in this state.

The House postponed a consideration of the bill until Monday. Senator A. H. Wagz, Palm Beach, chairman of the senate finance taxation committee, joined with the same House committee to introduce a bill in both branches. He declared the measure would add between two and four million dollars annually to the state's income without the slightest increase in taxation.

The bill provides that if the federal measure should be repealed, the Florida law thereby automatically is repealed.

A bill to abolish the office of state game commissioner was introduced by Danie of Pinellas, Rowe and Lea, Manatee. Reports that publishers of the state are being solicited for funds to fight bills to reduce advertising rates and eliminate the publication of tax rolls were referred to the house lobbying committee. The House adjourned to Monday.

Commerce Body Will Hold Meet Monday

Further details surrounding the organization and proposed membership drive of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce will be discussed at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon to be held at the Valdez Hotel Monday at noon.

A large representation from towns in the county is expected, and every member of the newly elected Board of Directors is asked to attend for the purpose of becoming acquainted with the out-of-town members of the Board as well as familiarizing themselves with the machinery of the new trade body.

The government has not yet fixed the date for the election to be held at the Valdez Hotel Monday at noon.

Declarating the government had not only failed to fulfill the terms of the truce, but deliberately incited others not to observe it, Patel started his listeners by saying that the future of the Nationalists would be of a kind unknown in history, in its intensity and results.

"Those who are afraid of death on the gallows," Patel shouted, "should migrate to foreign countries and dispose of their property. In the next fight you will have to face bullets and the gallows. You win independence only by giving your lives. It is better for you to remain naked than to wear foreign cloth. You must not be deceived by the Delhi truce; it is only temporary and gives us the possibility of strengthening our forces and determining our future policy."

Heating of Patel's provocative utterances and Gandhi's continued counsels to members of the Congress not to relax their fight, Lord Irwin, addressing the Bombay Mill Owners' Association, warned that such a belligerent spirit would wreck all chances of peace.

"I deeply regret the tendency to regard the immediate future as a period of truce which advantage may be taken to reorganize the forces for future struggle," he said, "because the state of mind such a tendency represents is not only inconsistent with a whole-hearted discharge of the obligations the settlement proposes, but it contains within it dangerous germs of trouble."

"It is a continuous menace to the peace which was our intention, and which it remains my dearest desire to see established."

Pillar Of Fire From Gas Pipe Kills Four

KILGORE, Texas, Apr. 17.—(AP)—A pillar of fire from a leaking gas pipe line burned a man and woman and two children to death in their tent near here today. The victims were Mrs. Kate Dodson, her two children, and Burt Bishop. Her husband and other children are believed to have escaped. The column of fire, shooting 300 feet in the air ignited a nearby tent but the fire did not spread.

Bathing suits are extremely revealing, tough gauzy skirts in the brightest hues, long capes, and huge hats will be worn to protect the rose-petal and milk-white complexion which maid will have for her new ensemble.

More than 1000 tailors and department houses from all parts of the country were at the show, with the chief little jabs—

PAPWORTH IS ELECTED HEAD OF TRADEBODY

Final Organization Of County Chamber Of Commerce Consummated Last Night

Final organization of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, termed by each of more than a dozen speakers as the most important forward step since Seminole county was created, was effected, at the Court House last night when an audience, representing every section of the county, after hearing the purposes of the organization, decided that the by-laws of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, modified and strengthened but little, were adaptable to the new trade body, and elected officers and directors.

Harry M. Papworth, president of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, was the unanimous choice of the Board of Directors for the presidency of the new organization, as was F. W. Bender and Linton E. Allen for secretary and treasurer respectively. Ben F. Haines, of Altamonte Springs was elected first vice-president; H. W. Loder, Longwood, was elected second vice-president, and L. P. Mills, Oviedo, was elected third vice-president.

The meeting was presided over by R. J. Holly, who extended a welcome on behalf of the sponsors of the new trade body, to the several delegates from towns in the county. He urged the united support of every person present, and maintained that any of the many accomplishments of the Sanford trade body during the past year was justification enough for the existence and expansion of the organization.

Harry M. Papworth was the second speaker, and, before outlining the purposes and plans of the proposed trade body, he briefly discussed some of the reasons the expansion idea was based on. "I consider it the duty of every person in this county to become affiliated with the Chamber of Commerce," he said, "and when I say join or become affiliated, I don't mean that we the officials should go up and down the streets begging members. The Chamber of Commerce is not a club, it is part of the machinery of a City, and people should be proud to be members."

He declared as one of the purposes of the organization which should be entered into with enthusiasm by every member was the instilling of a spirit of civic pride and unselfishness. "The everlasting teamwork of every living soul" would bring success to the said, as he concluded his remarks.

After F. W. Bender, secretary of the Sanford trade body, read the by-laws and charter of that body, and had pointed out minor changes which would be necessary to the new organization, he asked that it be adopted. Mr. Papworth moved for adoption, and, after several speakers were heard, it was seconded, and carried unanimously.

Important changes in the by-laws concerned the membership fee and the voting power of each community. It was decided to reduce the yearly membership from $12 to $8, payable semi-annually or in advance. The voting power will be centered in a Board of Governors composed of 64 members, 34 from Sanford, and three from each of the 10 towns in the county. Some discussion was raised as to the advisability of giving Sanford the balance of power, but it was finally decided that since the Sanford Chamber of Commerce had performed so efficiently during the past year, and since it was offering to extend its scope to the smaller towns for the one purpose of building up the county, that no interference could be expected which might be detrimental to any of the communities.

Short inspirational talks were made by the following: Judge James G. Sharpen, John Malach, Fred R. Wilson, H. J. Lehman, F. P. Forster, L. P. Mills, Oviedo, R. F. Haines, Altamonte, H. W. Loder, Longwood, J. A. Logan, Gardner, Gus Schmalz, Lake Monroe, John Fox, Paula, and F. G. Thomas, Dublin, Ga.

YEAH?

By PETER SCHAUER

Heavy hitting and large scores, fine pitching performance, the split-hitter, Burleigh Grimes, and a sorry exhibition by the Brooklyn Robins, were outstanding features of yesterday's big league games.

Unappreciable upsets were although there is food thought in the Athletics having been let down with four runs by Bill Hadley of the Senators, who won, 7 to 1. The Braves, in winning from the Robins in that seven-error affair made their victory a credible one by gathering 17 hits, 11 of them singles. "Reb" Rebold held the Robins to eight hits, all singles.

The aging Burleigh Grimes, of the weighty paunch and drooping jowls, made things safe for the Cardinals by pitching the first shut-out game of the year, a 10 to 0 victory over the Reds, allowed but seven hits, three of which were gathered by Nick Callan, the former American Association outfielder who is in left field for the Reds this year. The Cards touched Rod Lucas, the well-lipped wonder, for 13 hits.

At Roger Horsey's home run into the right field stands in the fifth inning of the game between the Cubs and the Pirates proved to be the margin of victory in the Cubs' 6 to 5 win. Bob Smith's pitching was too good for the Pirates, who batted but seven hits, bunching them to score five runs in the fifth and sixth innings. Willoughby let the Cubs off with 16 hits.

Chuck Klein again demonstrated his batting prowess, for, besides getting his third home run in two days, he led the Phillies to a 10 to 7 win over the Giants by getting four hits in four times at bat, including a home run and a triple. That Klein certainly needs to be reckoned with again this year. He is evidently taking up where he left off last year when he had 40 home runs, 250 hits, and led all the National League sluggers by making those 250 hits good for 45 bases. The Phillies, in driving out 13 hits, sent five pitchers to the showers, while the Giants, who were doing some heavy-hitting of their own in scoring 11 hits, assailed Dudney and Benge to no avail.

Connie Mack used two first basemen, two second basemen, two catchers, and three pitchers, Barnshaw, Mahaffey, and Carter, in an effort to stem the attack of Walter Johnson's Senators, but it was no use. Hadley had the A's eating from his hand to get credit for the second best pitching feat of the day.

The Red Sox used 20 men against the Yankees yesterday afternoon trying to win, and, since they scored their seven runs in the last four innings, they would have won if it been a 10-inning game, which it wasn't. The Red Sox led the score in the ninth, only to have the Yanks score the winning run with two out. Gehrig's home run for the Yanks, Bill Brillhart and Berry, nickname Johnson and Sherid for clarity, The Yanks got 13, and the Hoss 8 hits.

Although the Detroit Tigers got 14 hits off him, Sam Greer, aided by some slugging on the part of Gosselin, Kress, Farrell, and Schmitz, pitched the Browns a 5 to 4 win over the Tigers. Waite Hoyt was touched for 12 hits in the meantime, five of which were bunched in the seventh to give the Browns three runs, and the game.

It took 10-innings, but the White Sox managed to win out, 7 to 6, against Indiana, shoddy 10 hits, including a homer by Averill, but it was no use, the Sox made their 10 hits, Billie, Harber, and Thomas, the work of the 16 the Indians got off Garaway and McLean.

Who are the leaders to date? Come Klein, Phillips, 2; Greer, 1; Hadley, six wins.

TY COBB IS BEING SUED BY WIFE IN DIVORCE ACTION

Former Major League Star Decides He's Surprised At News

AUGUSTA, Ga., Apr. 16.—(AP)—Ty Cobb, former star of American League baseball, diamonds, was made defendant in a suit for divorce yesterday by his wife, Mrs. Charlie Marian Lombard Cobb.

In a petition filed in Richmond county superior court, Mrs. Cobb charged the baseball player with cruel treatment, asked temporary alimony, and custody of their four minor children, Shirley, 19; Herbert, 14; Beverly, 11, and Howell, 9.

Tyrus R. Cobb, Jr., the eldest son, is 21 years of age and a student at Yale.

Judge Franklin set April 25 for hearing of Mrs. Cobb's alimony petition. The divorce action will be heard in the May term of court. It must be acted on favorably by juries in two terms of court to become effective.

The divorce petition gave no details regarding the cruelty charge, and Mrs. Cobb declined to amplify them. Cobb is in California.

The Cobb's were married here Aug. 6, 1908. Mrs. Cobb is a native of Richmond county, and they had made their home in Augusta since their marriage.

Ty Cobb played constantly in the major leagues for 24 years—longer than any other man, pitchers excepted. A native of Banks county, Georgia, where he was born in 1886, Cobb went to the Detroit Tigers in 1905. He played continuously with Detroit, for the last several years as manager, until the season of 1927, when he went to the Philadelphia Athletics, winding up his major league career with the Athletics in 1927.

Since that season Cobb has been out of baseball. On several occasions he has been mentioned as a prospective buyer and minor league club, but a year ago he said he was satisfied to leave baseball alone.

He said his retirement had enabled him for the first time since his marriage to spend his time with his family.

Cobb has been closely connected with the sports activity of Augusta for the past year as chairman of the chamber of commerce committee on sports. He took part in promotion of the southeastern open golf tournament at Augusta last month, and has been a prominent figure in Georgia horse and dog shows.

He said if conditions were improved he would make his trial early Thursday, about 7 or 8 a.m.

Weather bureau reports Wednesday said a disturbance moving northward across the northern part of the peninsula, would cause moderate shifting winds here Thursday and that the skies would be overcast.

"Naturally I am surprised and shocked," he said.

"I do not know what to say except that I have always loved my wife, my children and my home. I am sorry such apparently hasty action as this was taken in my absence from home and without having consulted me in the matter."

"A family is an institution where the children's interests should come first and even now I say that Mrs. Cobb and I should think of our children and not bring them into any court proceedings."

"My present trip to California was to attend the opening of the San Francisco baseball club's new Seafair stadium and seek a home with a view toward living in this state."

Pantages Bound Over On Charge Involving Girls

The decision by the Justice court yesterday followed four and one-half hours of pleading by the state and defense on the testimony offered during the two days of the hearing.

Prefacing his decision with a brief review of the evidence, Judge Muno concluded:

"A review of the testimony shows it is sufficient to convince me at least beyond a question of probability that what has been related here took place and there is sufficient cause to believe that the defendants committed the things charged. The motion to dismiss the complaints is denied and the defendants will be held for trial in the superior court."

The court denied a plea for a reduction of $25,000 bail under which each of the defendants had been held.

Floyd And Will Be Scene Of Max Schmeling Fight

Bout With Stribling Will Be German's 1st Battle In Year

SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 16—(AP)—Max Schmeling, world's heavyweight champion, was told officially Wednesday that Cleveland had been selected as the site for his title conflict with W. L. (Young) Stribling, and that the date will be the night of July 4.

The bout, 15 rounds to a decision, will be the German's first defense of the title he won a year ago on a soul from Jack Sharkey. The new municipal stadium at Cleveland, with a seating capacity of 60,000, will be the scene of the fight.

Although a contract with Cobb has not been definitely decided upon, Dick Dunn, representing the Madison Square Garden Corporation of Ohio, promoter of the bout, said the "biggest outside money will be $25,000."

Announcement of the selection of Cleveland was made here because Schmeling's manager, South Bend last night, in an exhibition, and yesterday was the date agreed upon for the naming of the battleground. Schmeling will go to French Lick Springs, Ind., today for a two-weeks rest before finishing his tour. He has five more exhibition engagements and will wind up in Chicago May 8.

Joe Jacobs, the champion's manager, said Schmeling would be in training near Cleveland by the latter part of May. He will spend six weeks in camp, but will only train five weeks.

Dunn, for years right-hand man to the late Tex Rickard, said Cleveland was selected because of its central location. He regards the new municipal stadium as an ideal boxing arena and expects the crowd to draw upwards of 60,000.

FRIDAY NIGHT BETTY

THE SALT OF THE EARTH

This seems to be as great a period of social unrest and revolutions as any other in history. Hard times, people dissatisfied with government, and whether the government is good or bad, all seem to be followed by a demand of the masses which is soon to be followed by another. We gather from Collier's Weekly whom our editor has recently returned from Cuba where he conducted an exhaustive study of political conditions there.

A summary of the situation in Cuba, given to Mr. Shepard by a distinguished Cuban authority, says: "We would have had a revolution here, just like one of the other Latin-American countries, if it were not for the fact that the United States, under the Platt amendment, always intervenes in Cuban affairs. The fact is that Machado is hiding behind the Stars and Stripes. But if he can step in to help Machado, Hoover would find it necessary to recognize any new government just as he has done in other Latin-American countries."

Mr. Shepard, commenting on the situation, says:

"It is the same day after his return from Cuba now, and the same feeling that anything might happen. When I was in Mexico waiting for Huerta to come to the end of his rope, I heard many stories of killing of men being taken to the graveside and buried without even telling them who they were."

"There's a saying in Havana that every citizen who leaves a coat carries a revolver. And even on hot days men are wearing coats, against the usual Havana custom."

III Health Made "Life Wretched"

"I was in such bad health life just seemed wretched. I suffered with stomach trouble and indigestion and hardly had strength to drag around. My liver was inactive, my tongue coated, and I had to take harsh laxatives constantly. Sargon put my stomach in perfect condition. Sargon Pills overcame my constipation, and the coat on my tongue is gone. I haven't felt so fine in two years." — Mrs. Nancy Rogers, 641 Ernest St., Jacksonville.
