FRENCH ARE IN POSSESSION TERRITORY BETWEEN CITIES OF COLONGE AND COBLENZ

AND COBLENZ, MAYENCE,
BRIDGEHEAD SECURING
RAILWAY LINES

WAS UNOCCUPIED

Before and Operations Planned to Strengthen Rhineland Customs Control

(By The Associated Press) DUSSELDORF, Feb. 26.—The French are in possession of strips of territory between Cologne, Coblenz and Mayence bridgeheads, thereby securing railway lines that have been heretofore in unoccupied territory. Their operation is planned to strengthen the Rhineland customs control. Between twelve and fifteen thousand civilian workers from France and Belgium are awaiting the order that will put them at work on the railway lines throughout the Ruhr and Rhineland.

ESSEN, Feb. 26.—The storm center of the Ruhr has shifted to Bochum. Because of the general hostile attitude there a state of siege has been declared.

The French moved ten tanks and numerous machine guns to the center of the town and civilians are prohibited from being on the streets after 9 o'clock at night.

Last night 500 persons were arrested for disregarding the order of the French but most of them were released today.

Bochum from the beginning stubbornly has refused to comply quietly with many orders of the French commander, and there has been more or less trouble. Owing to the fact that the oberburgmaster has disregarded certain requisitions by the French, he and twenty-two members of the city council were arrested Friday during the sitting of the council. The French have taken over the headquarters of the chamber of commerce and searched the building for secret documents. It was this organization which was presumed to have inaugurated the boycott which began at Bochum against the French and Belgians and spread to other towns in the Ruhr. The chamber is supposed to have been aiding the Germans generally. The newspapers claim the chamber building and its furniture and paintings were unnecessarily damaged by the troops. The papers head their articles dealing with the situation with "new wild scenes in Bochum" and similar captions.

DUSSELDORF, Feb. 26.—Rapid progress is being made by the French and Belgians in operating the Rhineland and Ruhr railroad systems. It was announced yesterday that passenger trains are to be run from Essen and Dusseldorf direct to Paris beginning tomorrow.

In connection with the improved transportation situation, it was stated that the plans for taking over these railroad lines within a week practically has been completed by the occupation authorities. The lines will be operated by French and Belgian civilian workers, some 12,000 to 15,000 of whom are already here awaiting to take up their tasks.

General Payot plans to bring in as many more men as they are needed. Before this step is taken, however, it was announced at French headquarters that an opportunity would be given the striking German railroad men to join the transportation force. It was said four hundred German railway workers had agreed to resume work.

Under the plan all German railroad men will be given ample opportunity to return to their jobs. Those who refuse to do so will be expelled from occupied territory, on the ground that they constitute a menace to the community. It is estimated that there are 60,000 German railroad men in the Ruhr district alone of whom 40,000 are striking.

PLAN FOR ENLARGEMENT OF ROLLINS COLLEGE WITH THREE DENOMINATIONS

Congregational, Northern Presbyterians and the Southern Presbyterians in Control

A new plan for the future administration of Rollins College has been put up to the board and will soon be given to the public in its entirety. It will make the college stronger in every way and will not only have the support of the Congregational boards but of the Southern Presbyterians and the Northern Presbyterians thus bringing together these three denominations in center on the upbuilding of a greater Rollins College and it is said that it will be one of the best endowed colleges in the South. The following dispatch on this matter sent out from Winter Park is all that has been given to the press until the matter has been definitely settled:

"At the invitation of the Administration of Rollins College, the Representatives of the Congregational, Presbyterians of the U. S. and of the Presbyterians in the U. S. Denominations, met in the College office and after a conference they presented to the trustees of the college a plan for the enlargement of Rollins College, in which the three denominations will unite. The plan, unanimously accepted, includes the representation of the three denominations on the board of trustees, the enlargement of the endowment, and the co-operation of the denominations in protecting the entire interest of the College. This plan will be presented to the denominations for their approval."

HARDING'S LETTER PROPHETIC CHANGE OF POLICY SHOWN, COX SAYS IS GOOD OMEN

Administration Has At Least Yielded to Public Opinion

MIAMI, Feb. 26.—That President Harding and Secretary Hughes have yielded to the demand of public opinion for American cooperation in international relationships was the conclusion of James M. Cox, former Democratic nominee for president, in a statement issued here yesterday. The Democratic leader's statement dealt with the president's request that the senate authorize American membership in the international court set up by the League of Nations.

"The real significance of the whole affair," he said, "is that the principle of international relationships is now recognized by those who have, in their official status, maintained an opposition to it. The suggested proposition that we be given a voice in the election of the judges of the international court is sound. In this connection Mr. Hughes, however, should be reminded that when America was asked to submit nominations for the judges, they were not made, and the one man responsible was Charles C. Hughes, himself."

"If I were a member of the senate I would at this session of congress vote to approve our membership in the court, even accepting Mr. Hughes' reservation that while we associate ourselves with the child of the League of Nations, we claim no relationship with the parent. The substance of the plan is accomplished, and no harm will ensue from indulging Mr. Hughes' capriciousness. He was at one time as much opposed to the court as the League."

Responsibility for delay in American participation in the world court was placed by Mr. Cox on the secretary of state.

Whether senatorial concurrence is given or not, the changed attitude on the part of the administration will have a helpful influence in the early involved affairs of the world, Mr. Cox declared. His statements follow:

"The presidential recommendation that the United States become associated with the international court of justice is the best news that has come out of Washington in a long time. It is fortunate that the matter was not submitted to the senate earlier in the congressional term."

"While the subject is not a new one, and the senators are familiar with every detail involved, we may reasonably expect a plan for delay on the ground that the proposal involves too important issues for hasty action. Whether senatorial concurrence is given or not, the changed attitude will have a helpful influence in the early involved affairs of the world. International law is as essential as local or national laws. We can easily understand how useless the latter would be without our courts, and yet until a very recent time international laws have existed without and established tribunals to interpret them, in their application to disputes between nations. The covenant of the League of Nations created the international court, and it is functioning in a way that confirms the faith of its sponsors."

"That American participation in this great judicial organization will yield the results predicted by both the president and Secretary of State Hughes seems assured. By the same philosophy we can assume that what it will accomplish in the future could have been accomplished in a critical period when we denied our co-operation. The development is another triumph of public opinion in American affairs—and a demonstration of the power of our religious thought, when aroused and organized. The federated churches of the country have not for a moment relinquished their efforts even in the face of repeated announcements of a policy of isolation by the state department."

"The president and secretary of state are agreed in their expressed opinions that there is a prepondering public opinion for the change. De-

BIG BELL BRAND CELERY IS SOME BIG CELERY

Mr. Shaefer, the mail carrier brought to the Herald office today a crate of celery from the farm of John Bell at Lake Monroe and the crate ran eight bunches in the crate. One can hardly imagine such a thing this year when celery is running to small sizes altogether. This celery is a special Bell Brand of the golden and John says he does not have to pick it out—it all runs the same. The celery is 1 1/2 inches in circumference and weighs five pounds for each stalk. If that is not the prize celery, what is it?

Another "Klan Story" Deals With Distribution Literature in St. Louis

(By The Associated Press) EAST ST. LOUIS, Feb. 26.—Chief of Police Mulcahy announced that Ben Morrow, who was arrested Saturday at midnight charged with distributing anonymous election matter has signed a statement under oath that he was employed by the Klan at ten dollars a day as "precinct committeeman."

SHARP FALL COTTON PRICES WHICH BEGAN IN YEAR 1920 DUE TO CREDIT DEFLATION

MEAT PACKERS ARE CHARGED WITH VIOLATION

OF VIOLATING CONTRACT OF
THE STOCKYARD
ACT

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Armour & Co. and Morris & Co., Chicago packers were served by Secretary of Agriculture with complaint charging them with violation of the packer stockyards act in connection with tentative acquisition of plants and business of Morris & Co. by Armour interests. Secretary Wallace set April 2nd for the hearing in Washington. Armour & Co., of Illinois; Armour & Co., of Delaware; J. Ogden Armour and Morris Company were named in complaint. Complaint stated on December 30th Armour entered a written contract with Morris & Co. to acquire all its assets. In so doing it was charged the parties to the contract violated the packer stockyards act.

AND GREAT INCREASE IN HIGH PRICED INVENTORY COTTON GOODS

REPORT IS MADE
To Congress by Federal Trade Commission in Accordance With Resolution

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The sharp fall in cotton prices which began in April, 1920 and continued for more than a year, were due to the general credit deflation and great increase in high priced inventories subsequent to the buyers' strike, the federal trade commission has set forth in a report submitted to congress today. The price inquiry made by the commission in accordance with a resolution adopted by congress last March. The post war deflation, the commission described as of worldwide character affecting all commodities in this country in varying degrees and cotton, from which prices had gone higher before the break, more than any other in low level of prices reached.

Tallahassee Saved From Blue Laws At Last Minute

WERE ABOUT TO CLOSE ALL
SODA WATER AND BOOT-
LEGGING PLACES

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 26.—A last minute reprieve stayed the execution of Tallahassee's blue law decree which was to have been put into effect yesterday, and which would have made it unlawful to sell ice cream, sodas, cigarettes, cigars or operate gasoline filling stations the city's only Sabbath vias.

Biblical Version of Creation is a Fable, Says Dr. Percy Grant

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The Biblical version of the Garden of Eden and the story of "Adam, the apple and poor Eve" is a fable, Dr. Percy Grant, rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Ascension, told his congregation yesterday. He made a plea for a thorough house-cleaning by the churches.

"There is no need of a new religion, if the church will not clean house of all its fetishes," he said. "The fundamentalists in religion believe that they will attain happiness in the world to come through the belief in the miraculous conception of Christ, his death and ascension into heaven. This theory is as unworthy of modern intelligence as would be the belief today in theories of the Egyptian priests of the past."

"We cannot adhere to fables in religion any longer for the young people of today are not going to believe what their grand parents did. The mind must contribute something to religion."

Dr. Grant, who recently was the center of a storm because of his expressions denying the deity of Christ arrayed himself yesterday on the side of evolution. He declared he had rather "be on the upgrade with the descendants of the ape than on the down grade with Adam as representing the degenerate son of God." He said that the old testament version of a "God of vengeance," was not Christianity, but part of a pagan system.

Dr. Grant defended Sunday motion pictures and theatre performances. "Are people to sit all day in a tenement house on their one day of rest and just think?" he asked. "No, they want to be moved by the passions of life and travel far in their imaginations to other lands portrayed on the stage and screen."

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—The theft of thousands of dollars worth of registered mail from a New York Central train between Syracuse and Albany several days ago was reported by authoritative sources today. The robbery was said to have been similar to that in the Grand Central terminal yesterday.

Dry Leader Again Attacks Employee of Rockefeller's

(By The Associated Press) ALBANY, Feb. 26.—William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the New York Anti-Saloon League, has again declared he was the victim of a "wet" conspiracy and renewed his attack on Raymond H. Fosdick, federal representative of the Rockefeller's in an address at the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church.

Intimating that Mr. Fosdick had influenced the Rockefeller's against him, Mr. Anderson charged that Tammany and the "wet" Republican "machine politicians" with criminal liquor interests had combined to "get him," and to disrupt the league. He also intimated that Mr. Fosdick had received confidential information he had imparted to the latter.

"In addition to these influences arrayed against me," he said, "there are involved in the 'wet' financial interests who have used as a de facto stool pigeon a 'wet' talking, personally hostile employee of the John D. Rockefeller's, themselves staunch friends of prohibition. The power and scope of the influences, interested in 'getting me' are the best proof of the effectiveness of my work and the failure of ordinary methods to eliminate me."

"The Four Horsemen" Smashes all Records

The long-awaited Rex Ingram production of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" will be the feature at the Princess Theatre today and tomorrow. This is the picture that cost Metro $1,000,000 to make, and from all accounts the $1,000,000 was well spent, as critics agree that all other efforts at production on a grand scale have been surpassed and record runs have been made in New York, Chicago, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Los Angeles and other cities where the picture has been previously shown.

Fifty principals and 2,500 extras were engaged in the filming of the photodrama, an entire French village and an elaborate chateau were erected to be destroyed under artillery bombardment.

The appeal of the story itself has already been proved through the success of the novel by Vicente Blasco Ibanez, upon which the photodrama is founded.

The cast includes Rodolph Valentino and Alice Terry. The scenario was written by June Mathis, John Seitz was responsible for the photography, and the technical directors were Amos Myers and Joseph Calder. Walter Mayo was assistant to Rex Ingram.

SOCIAL SERVICE DEPARTMENT
The Social Service Department of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. H. H. Chappel on Celery avenue.

The subject for the evening being, "Mexico." Two very interesting papers were read.

After the business session and program a social hour was enjoyed. The hostess served hot chocolate and sandwiches. About forty members were present.

PIPE ORGAN CLUB
The regular weekly meeting of the Pipe Organ Club met with Mrs. Robert Merriwether on West First street. When the roll was called seventeen members answered with quotations or interesting incidents in the life of Washington.

Something interesting concerning his life that many may not know was that he died during the last hour of the day. Upon the last day of the week of the last month of the year of the 18th century. After a short business session adjourned to social hour. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Harris, served delicious refreshments of fruit salad, hot chocolates and sandwiches.

Mrs. Merriwether's rooms were made very attractive with baskets of rose buds, and cunning little hatchets were given each member.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. A. M. Phillips, 312 Oak Ave.

DEPENDABLES CLASS
Mrs. W. S. Thornion entertained the members of the Dependables Class last evening at her home on West First Street.

George Washington decorations were effectively used in the various rooms. Baskets of red roses were also used.

The evening was merrily spent with games of all kinds and several clever contests were played. Prizes were given for these.

At a late hour the hostess served refreshments and miniature red baskets of mints and nuts were given as favors.

The members of the class present were: Misses Deamarius Musson, Elizabeth Flowers, Maude Tyre, Martha Brown, Nonie Williams, Ethel Diller, Nina Mae Cook, Marion Hand, Patyie Lyle, Mrs. Herminia Hartley. The extra guests were: Miss Mae James of Columbia, S. C., Miss Virginia Packard, of Detroit, Mich., and Miss Mildred Hand.

BOOK LOVERS CLUB
Mrs. L. P. Hagan entertained the members of the Book-Lovers Club most pleasantly yesterday afternoon at her home on Park avenue.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses and sweet peas combined with greenery.

Exchanging books and discussion of current events caused the afternoon to pass all too quickly and late in the afternoon the hostess served chicken salad, hot rolls, potato chips, coffee, ice cream and cake.

Besides the regular club members, Mrs. Hagan had as her guests Mrs. T. S. Huff, Mrs. George Davis Hart, Miss Virginia Thomas and Mrs. Rose Arrington. The club members present were Mrs. Henry McLaughlin, Mrs. E. P. Morse, Mrs. J. E. Pace, Mrs. Stella Arrington, Mrs. J. C. Bennett, Miss Annie Hawkins, Mrs. A. E. Hill, Mrs. Harry Ward and Mrs. Fred Williams.

N. DeV. HOWARD CHAPTER U. D. C.
The N. DeV. Howard Chapter U. D. C. met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. L. Perkins with Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. W. Morton Thigpen as hostesses.

Mrs. George Fox, president, presided in her usual gracious manner. Reports were given from the officers and various committees. Mrs. DeCottes reported that A. J. Richardson kindly offered the use of the Palm Room at the Valdez Hotel for the future meeting place of the Chapter. The Daughters gave a rising vote of thanks, and the secretary was instructed to write Mr. Richardson and express their appreciation.

A letter was read from Mrs. William Harney, of Jacksonville, appealing for things needed for the comfort for the Old Veterans at the Old Soldiers Home. The request was complied with.

Mrs. H. H. Chappell read a most interesting paper on "Florida During the War" written by Mrs. Murphy of Jacksonville, which was exceptionally instructive and interesting.

After the business had been transacted, a social hour was enjoyed. The hostess serving tea and chicken sandwiches.

MRS. SCOTT ENTERTAINED
One of the most delightful social events of this week was the tea given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. W. M. Scott at her attractive home on Oak avenue, honoring Mrs. E. L. Markell and mother, Mrs. Williams, of New York, and Mrs. James Barnes, who is the guest of Mrs. W. E. Scoggins.

Exquisite sweet peas, snap dragons and roses were artistically used in the rooms.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Scott, Mrs. E. L. Markell, Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Williams. Mrs. Scott was lovely in white crepe with beaded medallions. Mrs. Markell's French frock was of printed crepe, while Mrs. Barnes wore a beaded costume of blue Georgette over Satin. Mrs. Williams was attired in black and grey.

During the afternoon Mrs. Barnes, who is a talented reader, delighted the guests with a group of readings, and was encored, to which she graciously responded.

In the dining room, the lace covered tea table was centered with a vase of snap dragons and candy tuft. At either corner were cream candles in silver holders and placed at intervals were composites and crystal dishes of mints, bon-bons and stuffed dates. Mrs. S. E. Barrett presided at the coffee service while Mrs. Frank Woodruff poured tea. Refreshments of sandwiches, wafers, cake, mints, stuffed dates, tea and coffee were served by Misses Mildred Holly and Naomi Scoggins.

About a hundred guests were invited to meet these charming honorees and the cordial hospitality of Mrs. Scott was reflected in every detail of this lovely affair.

WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY PARTY
The ladies of the G. I. A. spent a most delightful evening at the home of Mrs. L. M. Telford with Mesdames Telford, Crossby, Leonard and Crawford as hostesses on Thursday, February 22nd.

The guests were met at the door by a miniature "George and Martha Washington," impersonated by Ellen Telford and Maria Moye, whose clever costumes were exact reproductions of the real Martha and George. They were presented to the hostesses, who were also gowned in exquisite Colonial costumes.

The decorations of red roses, hearts and American flags were very effective over the entire lower floor.

Mrs. Lilla, in a charming colonial gown, gave a most interesting and instructive paper on the "Life of Washington." She was assisted in this by readings given by Ellen Telford and Maria Moye.

Miss Maude Carraway rendered several delightful piano selections. A heart counting contest in which Mrs. Byron Walker won the prize, afforded much amusement. The booby prize was won by Mrs. Calhoun and the guest prize was presented to Mrs. Belding, a charming Ohio G. I. A.

The hostesses whose birthdays were being honored were the recipients of many exquisite towels of all kinds.

At a late hour delicious refreshments were served, carrying out the color scheme of red, white and blue. Ambrosia topped with red cherries, cake in red, white and blue layers surmounted with miniature flags, hot coffee and whipped cream were much enjoyed by the guests who beside the hostesses were: Mesdames Belding, Lilla, Graham, Jim Moye, Mack Moye, Smith, Minarik, Grow, Bandy, Griffin, Lyle, Tyre, Gunter, McConnell, Calhoun, Jenkins, Courier, Walker and Misses Patyie Lyle, Maude Carraway, Ellen Telford and Maria Moye.

MISTAKES IN NEWSPAPERS

We hear a lot about the mistakes in the Herald. We hear more about the mistakes than we do about the times when there are no mistakes. In other words, people would rather point out your failings than your success and this is especially true of a newspaper. There are 99 chances to make mistakes in a newspaper where there is one chance to make one in other lines and in a newspaper everyone sees the mistakes and they cannot be buried as they can in other lines of business.

"Mistakes are made in the best regulated households, and in every newspaper shop, whether well regulated or not. Probably there was never a newspaper printed which did not have a few mistakes to its discredit. The Topic is no exception to this rule, and when the publishers find these mistakes, especially in news items, they try to make a correction in the next issue. When the correction comes out with a worse error than the original item, the Topic thinks it is playing in hard luck indeed, and the people who are affected probably believe worse things than that. Two weeks ago an account was given of a golden wedding celebration at the Grandview, when Mrs. Charles Gillespie did herself proud with a wonderful surprise dinner honoring the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Feilbach. In the account, credit for the feast was given to Mr. instead of Mrs. Gillespie, much to the chagrin of those good people, and also of the Topic, when the mistake was pointed out. Last week a correction was attempted and after the papers were printed and sent out to subscribers, the embarrassing discovery was made that the one name which would have corrected the item, had disappeared entirely from the "correction," which ended with the words, "The account should have credited the dinner, which was a veritable feast, to"—the name, Mrs. Gillespie, had disappeared. If this correction goes askew, we will begin to feel that we, and Mrs. Gillespie, are doomed."

SOMEBODY ASKS: "WHAT IS A CITY PLAN?"

Almost every modern city is today becoming interested in a city plan. Since the discussion of the subject has arisen in Lakeland, following the change in the method of our civic government, scores of residents have expressed their desire to know something about this thing called city planning—just what it is.

Possibly the best definition is that a city plan is a state of mind; it is a realization that things are that ought not to be and things are not that ought to be. Translated into plain United States, it means that a disreputable barn or shed or hog pen is out of place on a residential lot or a city park or even a factory site. It means an expression of civic pride in the providing of playgrounds, well lighted streets, recreational centers, civic centers, parks, boulevards, suitable meeting places, in fact, everything that will be of assistance in making people more satisfied with and more comfortable in the enjoyment of their environment.

In this day and generation people are not satisfied with the ugly and the ugly; they desire and must have and, indeed, ought to have, all those things that are worth while and that, when obtained by Lakeland, will make this city one of the most attractive in the country.—Lakeland Star-Telegram.

MAKING OUR PRODUCTS KNOWN

As far as The Florida Tropical News has been able to learn there is but one industry in Florida that is causing itself to be known nationally, and that is the citrus fruit business handled by the Florida Citrus Exchange of Tampa. This exchange is using space where it counts—where it means the expenditure of much money. For instance, the Citrus Exchange, through its advertising agency, that of the Thomas Advertising Service of Jacksonville and Tampa, is using such nationally read publications as the Delimitator, Good Housekeeping, Modern Priscilla, Factorial Review, Woman's World, Woman's Home Companion, Saturday Evening Post, People's Home Journal, Literary Digest, and medical and nursing journals, all of which have a combined circulation of almost 15,000,000.

The Exchange is buying good space in the country's best publications. It is putting good money back of a good article—Florida citrus fruits, the state's oranges and grapefruit. It is telling the world that there is no better fruit of that kind, and it points to the advantages that are to be had by consuming "Sealdsweet" products. It is doing this nationally. In Florida it is using numerous of the daily and weekly newspapers to acquaint even Floridians with the goodness of the "Sealdsweet" brands.

This work is one of the best that can be done for Florida. The men who advertise Florida products nationally, and the men who make every effort to convince their friends and neighbors that Florida oranges and grapefruit are the best in the world, are doing a wonderfully constructive thing—creating faith. Once faith is established the work is not so hard, yet the advertising must go on to constantly create renewal of that faith—even the sun is said to be growing cold.

Florida could well stand to have a whole flock of such institutions as the Florida Citrus Exchange, which is an aggregation of men engaged in one industry who are spending good money week after week in demonstrating their own faith in Florida-grown products and creating a new faith in millions of them.—Tropical News.

The announcement that the Congregational and the northern and southern Presbyterians will get together on the administration of Rollins College is good news to all. It should make a bigger and better Rollins College and we are all interested in Rollins since it is one of our local colleges and close at hand.

If anyone has a kink on this brand of weather they should be deported to London in the winter time. And the cold weather in the northern states is bringing the tourists to Florida. Sanford will get some of them as they drift northward. And we have a gulf link for them this season and good hotels.

We hope every reader will take note of what the Kissimmee-Gazette says in this issue about the Ku Klux Klan in Osceola county. It stands for this county and every other county as well.

It is said that there are 300,000 tourists in Florida this season. This is something for Sanford to think about.

Get busy on the mosquito campaign. This is the time to kill them with a club while they are asleep.

FROM OTHER SANCTUMS

KU KLUX KLAN IN KISSIMMEE

Kissimmee has had a lot of unpleasant publicity this week. It is the kind of publicity which is misleading to the people not conversant with the facts. From it the average reader would get the idea that Osceola county is terror-stricken, wild, and unsafe, instead of as law abiding a county as one can find. The average reader will not stop to consider that the particular instance which precipitated the publicity was brought upon himself by the man who made the affidavit, by intrusion where he knew he was not wanted. Alleged responsibility for threats is bound to be believed in some quarters, regardless of where the threats originated. Many outside readers will not detect the twisted facts which leave a lying impression of Osceola county in the columns of the Tampa Times when its reporter goes to the lengths of misrepresentation exhibited in Thursday's issue. And the resultant mental state, from reading such sensational stuff, is one of the exaggerated fear, one of belief that Osceola county is lawless. Osceola county is not lawless. It has been done an injustice by the highly colored reports, by the thread of imagination which runs through all sensational reading matter.

The Ku Klux Klan is pictured as creating a reign of terror in this county. Outsiders might believe that danger to life and property exists from the Klan. Residents of Kissimmee have a fairly good idea of who are Klansmen here. If current belief as to personed is true, some of, and many of, the very best men in the community belong to the organization. No sane man who knows these men would for a minute consider them responsible for, or acquiescent in, some of the things which rumor has claimed have taken place. No thinking man would for a moment believe that these men, many of whom have been active workers for the public good, are guilty of, or sanction, sending threatening notes to other merchants in the cities of this county. But they get the blame for those dastardly tricks, and the unthinking swallow the blame whole.

Then, there is the anti-Klan organization. Here too are good men, conscientious men interested in the welfare of the community also, praised and cursed as are the Klansmen. Thus two factions are created, two factions of men who should be pulling together for the common good, but opposed to each other, to the detriment of their community.

Last summer these two factions were somewhat bitter, and wild stories were circulated. This paper finally refused to print matter from either side, and causing nothing but harm. Sane heads prevailed, both sides quit agitating, and Kissimmee went forward. Till now no mention of the Ku Klux and "antits" has been made by the Gazette. But the time has come when we cannot keep silent, for again agitation is threatened, and agitation, not constructive, causes more harm than the thing which started it. Until recently the community has been busy, working together to take advantage of Osceola's wonderful resources, to rear the city which can be, and which will be. But outside publicity has come, unfair publicity we believe, unfortunate publicity we know. We say "unfortunate publicity" advisedly. Why?

Because it has made harder the thing which the best men of the Klan and of the "antits" and of the "neutrals" have been working to bring about. That thing is harmony, or co-operation. Achievement of result was well under way. For a long time no factional feeling had been apparent. Cool, clear-headed judgment held sway. Klan members had realized the light in which they had been placed, a false one they contend. Non-participants in either faction had recognized that frequently the Klan had been blamed for acts for which it was not responsible. "Antits" recognized this fact too. If we are correctly informed, and we believe we are, a movement has been on foot some time to disband the Klan, and the "antits" in this opportunity. Reputed Klansmen have stated that while they had in no way renounced the ideals which appealed to and made members of, the best men in the Klan everywhere, they believed, for the good of the community, that the local organization should return its charter, and disband. Their usefulness, they believed; had been hampered by accusation of acts entirely foreign to their purposes and ideals. New conditions had arisen, therefore, which were detrimental to the best good of the community. And, while clinging to their ideals they were ready to give up the machinery which left open uncombattable opportunities for discrediting their organization. We believe this action was the right one to take. We believe it is still the right thing to do. Knowing many of these men who are reputed to be Klansmen, and knowing them to be men of the highest ideals, men who would sacrifice, and who have sacrificed, for the good of Kissimmee and Saint Cloud, and Osceola county, we believe they will take such action. For present conditions, regardless of the intricacies which have brought them into being, are hurting the community. They are hurting business. They are making hard-headed achievements crumble. They are retarding progress. They are interfering with proper enforcement of laws, they are tying the hands of authorities. They are discrediting men of good repute, they are hurting well-earned reputations. They are providing opportunities for unkind and dangerous acts. They are causing heartaches.

BRITISH DEBT SETTLEMENT GREAT HELP TO BUSINESS

CONDITIONS IN THE EAST DISCUSSED BY BABSON

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Roger W. Babson is now on his annual trip of inspection. With some 10,000 miles of travelling he will study conditions in 23 leading centers of the United States. His report divided into eight sections presents an unusually valuable picture of current business conditions. Section two, which is issued today, treats of New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Ohio.

"As New England was the first section hit by the depression and the first to recover," says Mr. Babson, "so New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, being the second section to be hit, naturally is the second section to recover. In 1920 the center of the depression was at Bridgeport, Conn., but by 1921 the center of depression had moved to Akron, Ohio. From Connecticut to Ohio, however, business is today in fair shape. The steel industry is back to 85 per cent of its capacity; coal mining is very active; the cement factories of these states are getting on much better. New York City is feeling fairly optimistic. The hotels are full and the retail stores are doing a good business. There, however, is no such riotous spending of money in the restaurants and theatres as during the boom times. The principal industry of New York City is banking and jobbing. The bankers are not especially optimistic over the prospect of lower money rates for 1923, excepting those who sell bonds. Of course, as money rates decline the demand for bonds increases and bond prices strengthen. Certain banks have already been obliged to reduce their dividends and more reductions may be expected by other institutions.

"The jobbers of New York City are facing some uncertainty. Their work is very largely importing and exporting. The tariff has been lowered considerably, but the effect of the tariff on foreign trade which the Department of Commerce is issuing. Whatever the tariff does show these exporters and importers find it much more difficult to do business. That, of course, means a smaller margin of profit for all concerned. However, there has been a distinct feeling for the better throughout the East since President Harding's message on the British Debt Payment plan. In the matter of the British debt, the cancellation of debts, repudiation of contracts, accompanied by a general depreciation of foreign bonds, is surely was stimulating to have the British come forward and fairly state that they are determined to pay us principal and interest in full. Considering that of the $19,000,000,000 owed to the United States, over one-half of it was by England, this is a tremendous step toward the restoration of international confidence and commerce. The general impression in the east today is that in a matter of a few days we can be enabled to buy our farm products. Now is our chance for us to demonstrate that it pays for a nation to meet her obligations and protect her creditors. In view of this and other events, the keenest bankers of New York look for a rather active stock market during the year 1923, believing that the market will swing both ways between very low limits, that going as low as 1922, and 1923.

"Every time that I visit the Mohawk valley of New York State I am more impressed with its great activity and its potential resources. I should not be surprised to see the country, lying between Albany and Buffalo, traversed by the New York Central, the West Shore and the Erie Canal, become the greatest manufacturing section of the United States. Its climate is ideal; its labor conditions are good; it abounds in agricultural resources, thus assuring a reasonable cost of living; the greatest bituminous coal mines of the country are located to the south and the greatest number of available water powers are located to the north. These conditions are certainly ideal for general manufacturing of all kinds. This valley is close not only to our greatest American cities, but it is well located for export trade.

"In case we ever establish reciprocity with Canada, this would still further help the states of New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania. Moreover, let me add that we do not appreciate our Canadian opportunities. Canada is a wonderful country, and both Canada and the United States are making a great mistake in erecting tariff walls. The United States should freely purchase raw materials from Canada who should reciprocate by buying manufactured goods of us. The Creator expected such reciprocity to take place and both countries are making a great mistake by trying to block the natural flow of commerce.

"Ohio is coming along slowly, but surely. Of course, the agricultural in-pania. Personally, I am very fond of all of these states and hate to leave them." General business activities for the United States as reflected by the index of the Babsonchart continues to hold steady at 3 per cent above normal.

New York Salesman Robbed of Diamonds By Two Bandits

In Elevator in Downtown District of Chicago Today

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—Henry Hart, a New York jewelry salesman, was robbed of unset diamonds which he valued at $100,000 by two armed men in an elevator in a downtown building today. The robbers threw the elevator operator from the cage at the sixth floor, he told the police and with Hart a prisoner mounted several floors higher. They stopped the elevator menacing him with revolvers and took his satchel and diamonds. Hart said they then left him on an upper floor.

French Confiscate Twelve Billion Marks From Berlin Train

CITRUS REVIEW FOR THE WEEK

ORLANDO, Feb. 24.—The weekly citrus review by F. L. Skelly as issued from the office of the American Fruit Growers, Inc., says:
Oranges: During the past week the f. o. b. demand for oranges was very strong at prices very generally satisfactory. The auction markets, after showing considerable strength were inclined to be easier toward the end of the week. The early arrivals of the heavier volume of California navel shipments were then just beginning to manifest themselves. The outlook for good Florida oranges, well packed, continues very satisfactory.
Grapefruit: Extra good quality of grapefruit has commanded exceptionally good prices in the auction markets during the last week, the f. o. b. markets being steady with good inquiry but at generally moderate prices on fruit of ordinary quality. Present steady demand with a continuation of shipments in reasonable volume would indicate a good reception for well packed fruit in desirable sizes during the week.
Tangerines: The remaining tangerines of good quality are now in a very strong position.
Severe weather over much of the country handicapped the distribution of fruit and retarded the movement of fruit into consumption around the first part of the week. As the weather has moderated, consumption has increased and demand has developed in proportion.

WITH FLORIDA CENTER OF TRAINING CAMPS, MAJORS START WORK

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Heralding the approach of spring and another diamond campaign, advance caravans of nearly all of the sixteen major league baseball clubs are now on their way south for the annual conditioning process. Training camps, scattered in lands of the palmetto and cactus from Florida to Catalina Island, Calif., will be in full swing for all of the clubs by the second week of March...

Interest among fans is centered largely in the prospects of the New York Giants and Yankees repeating their triumphs of the past two seasons in the face of increasing strength among several of their more dangerous rivals.

While they are not discounting the opposition they will encounter this year, Managers McGraw, of the Giants, and Huggins of the Yankees, are confident their teams will keep the National and American league pennants in the same city for the third straight year.

Both pilots declare that their teams will be decidedly stronger although they plan relatively little rebuilding. The Pittsburgh Pirates in McGraw's opinion, loom as the club the Giants must eliminate to stay at the top of the heap, while the Yankee leader expects his strongest battle from Ty Cobb's Detroit Tigers.

McGraw has announced that he will stand pat on his 1923 championship line-up, with the possible exception of center field, devoting most of his attention to bolstering weaknesses in pitching staff which nearly cost club pennant last season.

McGraw's veteran and hard-hitting aggregation, in McGraw's belief, will prove formidable obstacle, under the leadership of Bill McKechnie, who took the Pirate helm around mid-season last year and developed the club into a dangerous contender in the closing month of the campaign.

Cincinnati, reorganized with a brilliant young infield and good pitching also figures strongly in McGraw's calculations, while the Chicago Cubs, with a pitching staff above the ordinary, promise to bear watching.

Huggins bases much of his confidence in 1923 prospects upon his belief that the Yankee pitching staff, the deciding factor in last year's race will be even more consistent this year and that Babe Ruth, if he returns in 1921 form, will bolster with the morale and attacking strength of the club. The diminutive pilot figures Carl Mays and Sam Jones, whose pitching was a disappointment last season will flash old time form, while Bob Shawkey and Joe Bush, 1922 mainstays, will be more effective than ever. Ruth's determination to regain the home-run hitting laurels he lost last year, has been demonstrated by the strict program of conditioning to which he adhered during the winter on his Massachusetts farm.

The Tigers, formidable last season will be much stronger, according to the Yankee view, as a result of the acquisition of Del Pratt, veteran second baseman, and Rip Collins, south-paw twirler from the Red Sox in exchange for Howard Ehmke, pitcher. Cobb has an unusual array of heavy hitters, flanked by a promising corps of young pitchers, a combination which will be hard to keep from the tip.

The St. Louis Browns, unless they are strengthened in several positions are not rated as high as last year, when they finished just a game behind the Yankees in a thrilling finish, nor as dangerous as the Tigers. The Chicago White Sox, with a ten mtht developed fast last year and boasted a brilliant string of young pitchers last year, and Connie Mack's Athletics, who are about due to emerge from the depths, may figure prominently this season in the pennant chase.

Florida is the most popular training ground this year, seven clubs choosing the Everglades state for their conditioning. Texas, Alabama and Arkansas each have two clubs in their confines, while Louisiana, Georgia and California each have one.

Table listing 1923 training sites for various teams: National League (New York, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Chicago, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Boston) and American League (New York, St. Louis, Detroit, Chicago, Cleveland, Washington, Philadelphia, Boston).

Cobb, Collins and Speaker Cost $1,200

How times have changed! Not so many years ago a major league ball club could obtain almost as many players as it could take down south for $50,000 or so. Nowadays it costs more than that for even a single player.

Just reflect back to the old days, or less than 20 years ago. There was Tyrus Raymond Cobb, generally acknowledged the greatest player the game has ever known. Ty cost the Detroit club just $700. That was back in 1905.

The following season Connie Mack of the Athletics grabbed off the youthful Eddie Collins off the campus at Columbia university for traveling expenses only. And in 1908 the Boston Americans obtained Tris Speaker from the Little Rock club for a paltry $500. Here are three of the oldest men in the American league, in point of service. They have outlasted many of the later day stars, who cost many thousands of dollars more. And the combined expenditure for this trio was exactly $1,200.

Then there was Babe Ruth. Even the great Bambino, though coming to the big leagues when prices were higher, was bought by the Boston Red Sox from Providence for only $2,700. And the same may be said of Walter Johnson, Babe Adams, Joe Wood and others of the older galaxy of stars. Each of them was obtained for practically a song. They were cheap investments, but as events later proved, turned out to be some of the most famous stars in the history of the game.

But times have changed, and a big league magnate now has to talk in terms of around five and six figures in order to buy talent with which to bolster his club.

LAKELAND — Contract for the erection of Lakeland's $700,000 hotel has been let and the actual work is expected to get under way shortly. The hotel is being erected by the Adair Realty and Trust Company, of Atlanta, Ga.

FLORIDA LASSIES HOLD TRACK MEET

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 26.—A galaxy of young women from state high schools will meet in field and track competition at the State College for Women here April 6 and 7. Arrangements for the tournament have been completed and entries are coming in from a representative body of schools according to Miss Helen Warlow, district governor for Florida, of the National Woman's Track Association.

An elimination contest also will be held. Outdoor events will include races, hurdles, javelin throws, discus throws and shotputting. The program also includes volley ball contest. The events will be staged on the new college athletic field which is expected to be completed in time.

The meeting will be the second of its kind to be held at the college. Last year's meeting developed two young women stars, one of whom, Miss Anne Warwick, of Jacksonville, later went to Paris for the Olympic games.

Miss Lucy Fletcher, of Greensboro, who established a record for the discus throw, was also named to attend the Paris meeting, but withdrew from athletics to marry.

RUTH RECOVERS FROM BAD COLD

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Feb. 24.—Babe Ruth's famous cold, celebrated in dispatches from this Spa for the last few days, has finally abated and he was able Thursday to play his first 36-hole tour of the golf meadows. His recovery eased his own chest no more than the troubled bosoms of the two colonels who own the New York Yankees, of which he is the stock, fixtures and good-will.

Ruth had a slight case of influenza, but good care prevented anything so serious as flu. Carl Mays, the Yanks' underhand pitcher arrived Thursday from his home in Southwest Missouri, where he spent the winter hunting and fishing. He said he now weighs 16 pounds less than he did during the world's series last fall.

Wallie Schang, catcher of the American League champions, warmed up Pitchers Uhl and Golevick of the Cleveland Indians for half an hour and then hiked with them for five miles over the mountains. Pitchers Herb Pennock, Bob Shawkey and Joe Bush are expected in the Yank camp Saturday.

Most Major League Swaps Are Lotteries

A major league swap can be classed as a blindfolded lottery without libeling anybody. It is legal in baseball business, but as to the winner and the loser—well, it is a snatch-grab exchange with the ultimate result, success or failure, not known until months later.

Branch Rickey, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, today is laughing and sniffling at Charles E. Ebbets and Wilbur Robinson of the Brooklyn Superbas. And why not?

Didn't Rickey exchange Ferdinand Schupp and Harold Janvrin for Ed Pfeffer during the summer of 1921? Of course he did.

And didn't Pfeffer have one of the most prosperous seasons of his long career with the Cardinals during 1922. And at the same time move your finger around the list of National League players and try to locate Schupp and Janvrin. It can't be done.

Schupp is now located with Kansas City in the American Association, and Janvrin recently was released to the Seattle club of the Pacific Coast league.

Pfeffer was the winning pitcher of the Cardinals' staff in 1922, winning 19 and losing 12 games, while with an earned run average of 3.58 he surpassed such artists as Alexander, McQuillan, Meadows and Grimes.

Of course there are other trades that are not on the right side of Rickey's ledger. There was one of several years ago with the Phillies, when the Cardinals parted with Lee Meadows, Genu Paulette and a wad of coin for Elmer Jacobs, Frank Woodward and Douglas Baird.

Rickey drew dead timber from the Phillies while Meadows today is rated in the $50,000 class.

ORLANDO — Approximately fifty automobiles filled with Orange county boosters are expected to be in line for the motorcycle to Polk county on March 1. Stops will be made en route where the "friendsippers" will be entertained. The itinerary also calls for a stop at Southern College, Lakeland.

FOR THE MOVIE FAN

Some program for this week. Another chance for the ladies to see the "oiled hair" star.

Rodolph Valentino and Alice Terry will hold the boards today and tomorrow in "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse."

This picture is one of the greatest movies ever produced and was shown here before but so many people failed to see it that Osborne has brought it back at reduced prices.

And as usual Osborne invites some family every night to be his guests and tonight Mr. and Mrs. Braxton Baggett and Mrs. Baggett's mother, Mrs. Messer will see "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" without charge. Bring this slip with you, brick, it's your ticket. Thanks.

Then on Wednesday Dorothy Phillips will star in "Hurricane Gal" You will see ships stagger and sprawl through gale-mad nights—destroyers roar in pursuit of scurrying smugglers—air planes diving to attack. Oh well, wait and see the picture.

Thursday—Miriam Cooper in "Kindred of the Dust" by Peter B. Kyne.

And then the head ringer for Friday and Saturday will be Rex Ingram's production, "The Prisoner of Zenda" starring Ramon Navarro, Alice Terry, Lewis Stone and Barbara La Marr. Don't fail to see it.

VANGUARD OF CARDS ON WAY TO SPRING CAMP IN MANATEE

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 26.—The vanguard of the St. Louis Cardinals composed of thirteen recruits and three regulars departed yesterday for the team's cording to Manager Branch Rickey, training camp at Bradenton, Fla., who is convalescing from an operation for appendicitis who said he expected to be in the camp within a short time. All but two men on the club's roster signed contracts before they left.

36 YEARS AGO IN SANFORD

On Thursday of last week Mr. J. E. Pace, owner of the famous Speer and other orange groves, closed the bargain with and became the owner of Dr. A. C. Caldwell's beautiful grove on Orange avenue, near Fort Reed. The purchase price, we are informed, was $20,000 and by its purchase Mr. Pace shows his confidence in Florida's future.

On Monday last the steamers Anita and Sylvia Glen began running as a daylight line between Palatka and Sanford. Our friend Fred Pixley, formerly clerk on the steamer Jacksonville, is purser on the steamer Anita, and looks as natural as of yore. Up to this time the Sylvan Glen has been unable to cross Volusia bar and the Anita has been running between Sanford and the bar while the Glen runs between Palatka and the bar.

A telegraph office has been established in the Sanford House for the especial convenience of the hotel guests and for the benefit of all who wish to use it. Miss Ina I. Chaney, of Milford, Mass., is in charge, and all who have any business with her will find her an agreeable and accommodating lady. Citizens may leave their messages there when too busy to walk down to the J. T. & K. W. depot.

We find the following item in the Springville, N. Y., Journal and Herald, of the 21st inst.:

"Dick" Holland has started for a warmer climate. With his brother Nelson, of Buffalo, he has gone to East Saginaw, Mich., to join his other brothers, Dwight, Charles and Lute, and together the five will set out on a grand tour via Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans to Florida. At Fort Reed, near Sanford, they will visit their brother Herbert, and after basking in the sunshine, hunting and fishing a few weeks, will return home via and New York. They are to be envied.

The Apopka City Union wants Orange cut into two counties, starting on John's Lake, near the residence of Judge Speer, and running directly to the St. Johns river, either north or south of Sanford. This division, the Union thinks, would place Apopka City "without a rival as its fitness for the seat of the new county."—Tavares Herald.

Well, Bro. Greenalt, we can see how the line could be drawn south of Sanford, but there is nothing north of Sanford in Orange county but water, which separates us from Volusia county. The Union evidently means to say either east or west of Sanford.

Last Tuesday morning at about ten o'clock the moving of the Hitchhiker frame building was stopped by an injunction issued at the instance of Messrs. B. R. Swoope, D. L. Way, Walter Tomlinson and Seth French, all of whom own property either immediately adjoining or near the lot on which the frame building was to have been placed. Mr. Hitchhiker was moving by the authority of an ordinance passed by our city council several weeks since, and the case is likely to prove decidedly interesting before it is finally settled.

For the present the building occupies a position in the middle of First street, across the head of Magnolia avenue, and the organ still plays.

Later.—The injunction case was to have been argued before Judge Foster at Orlando yesterday, but was postponed until today, when it will come up before Judge Foster at his office in this city.

THE GREAT AWAKENING OF FLORIDA STATE

A special correspondent of the Christian Science Monitor, writing for that publication from Orlando, has the following to say regarding Florida and her future:

"Florida is awakening from its Rip Van Winkle sleep of centuries and actually beginning to take advantage of its soil and its climate. While the peninsula state is devoting an abundance of time any money to the ever-increasing 'crop' of tourists, to construction and highways, yet the native 'Cracker' and the new son of Florida from Iowa or Maine are turning their attention to the soil, the foundation of permanent wealth. Greater impetus has been given agricultural development in Florida in the last 18 months than any previous five years in the state's history. Daily tales are written of new tracts of land being cleared for the plow and the planting of new orange and grapefruit groves, celery, lettuce, cucumbers, strawberries, grapes, corn and tomatoes. There is a growing pride in being known as a 'farmer' or horticulturist. Possibly this pride is increased when it is known that a bright statistician has figured that a carload of vegetables or fruit is leaving Florida by rail or water every five minutes throughout the year."

"A general survey of Florida indicates nothing but optimism and progress. Yet the folks away down here in the land of sunshine and flowers are not satisfied. They are demanding those improvements which come with time, falling to old, thickly settled communities of New England. The people are turning their eyes and minds toward cultural attainments, such as new libraries, literary clubs, and clubhouses, highway beautification; to recreational advantages as larger and more adequate country clubs and golf courses, municipal parks and playgrounds; to matters of legislation that will provide statewide fencing laws against roaming cattle, funds for the advancement of the youngest state university in the United States, the University of Florida, and the betterment of the public school system. People are crying for a state publicity fund so that Florida may take its place with California, for instance, and spread the message of Florida in a true and dignified manner."

THE EVIL OF THE PREACHY STORY

Once as a child I got from a Sunday school library a book called "Willie Trying to be Good"—I don't know what there was that allured me in the title, but anyway I chose it. Willie was a most self righteous, unnatural,

Mr. and Mrs. A. Laffler of St. Petersburg were among the arrivals here Saturday and are stopping at the Montezuma for a short visit.

As I remember, on finishing the book I threw it across the room in such a forceful disgust as to make a great deal of repairing necessary before it went back to the library and the next time I was out of doors and thoughts of the saintly Willie popped into my mind, I picked a quarrel with a wholly innocent and inoffensive little neighbor girl, although I was by nature a peaceable child, just to show how different I was from Willie.

So I am not referring at all to the books with a moral. I merely mean that all truly great literature worthy of the name has expressed quite unself-consciously men's natural love and admiration for what is truly great and good and their natural perception of the ugliness of what is evil and false and that this point of view so instinctually valuable is all unconsciously absorbed by the child; the very spirit of the work communicates itself to his spirit, if the selections made for his reading are wise.—By Olive Despreux Miller of the Child Welfare Magazine.

BRITISH DEBT FUNDING BILL IS APPROVED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The British debt funding arrangement last night was one step nearer completion as congressional approval of the act ratifying the recently negotiated settlement with Great Britain having been completed yesterday. Only the signature of President Harding is required to permit the treasury to exchange formal loan agreements. Congressional action was completed when the house accepted senate changes in the British settlement bill without modification.

As a result of the congressional approval and with the signature of the president assumed to be certain, treasury officials began the drafting of industries which are to be exchanged between the United States and Great Britain and which will put into operation the program for refunding over sixty-two years the British war-time debt of $4,600,000,000.

The industries will embody the terms accepted by the British government and prescribe the methods of payment all of which were tentatively worked out between the two debt refunding commissions in their recent negotiations. British internal bonds covering the amount of the debt will be deposited with the United States treasury.

Under Secretary Gilbert of the treasury was unable to state last night the date on which the agreement will go into operation. A series of conferences is being held between officials of the treasury and A. Rowe Dutton, the British treasury representative, who remained here after his commission's work was concluded and the conferences will determine the final form of the contractual agreement which will be put into legal form the terms agreed upon in the negotiations. The British government probably will be represented by Sir Auckland Geddes, its ambassador here, in formally signing the document which puts the funding plan into operation.

"The movement of fruit and vegetables from Sept. 15, 1922, to Feb. 8, 1923, was tremendous. All-rail shipments of the products of Florida's soil for that period via Jacksonville, Hampton and High Springs total 27,842 carloads. This does not include the great amount of products that has been shipped by water and by individuals who have used parcel post and express. No wonder the people want to be called farmers, when the records show that 14,559 carloads of oranges, 8,729 carloads of grapefruit, 1,693 carloads of lettuce, 727 carloads of vegetables and 768 carloads of celery have been shipped via all-rail from Florida farming and fruit centers since Sept. 15. And, in addition, the records show four carloads of pineapples; tomatoes, 348; cabbage, 189; strawberries, 182; cucumbers, 5; peppers, 138, plus an average of 500 carloads more daily of all fruit and vegetables until March 1 or 15. The cucumber, tomato, celery, and lettuce season has only started. It has been Florida's greatest and richest agricultural and horticultural year. The shipment of citrus fruits has broken all records, and the prices have been good. Florida farmers are indeed wearing the smile that won't come off."

"North and West Florida are making heavy demands for Satsuma nursery stock, and the supply is practically exhausted." This indicates an activity which is gratifying. Celery in the Sanford district is 10 per cent heavier than last year when 3,500 cars were shipped out of the state. Watermelon seeds in Central Florida will be in the ground by Washington's birthday. Upland cotton growing in Florida is taking a new lease on life, due to the state plant board's discovery of a method to eradicate the boll weevil. Apiaries are increasing enormously. Banana growing is becoming a settled and paying industry. Saw grass, while far from a fruit, is an important product of the soil and a paper mill at Leesburg, Lake county, will soon produce paper for newspapers, box factories and general commercial use, the factory being past the experimental stage. Florida lends all states in tomato shipments. Florida produces limes, lemons, figs, peaches, plums, avocados, pears, potatoes, beans, cantaloupes, oats, peanuts, soy, sugar and pecans. Florida has 1,000,000 people and in 10 years should be able to feed 10 times that number.

"Sentiment is growing daily over the matter of spending millions for nation-wide publicity so that the United States will realize what Florida is doing. The question of enlisting state aid in this matter will come before the state legislature which meets in April. The time has come for spreading the joyful news of agricultural progress, says the growers and shipper's, and printer's ink is the only medium. The demand has become accelerated as the wealth of Florida soil has mounted."

"Everything in Florida is not centered around soil, however. Mid-winter days in Sunshine Land are made pleasant for native or visitor by a round of social gaiety, band concerts, in the open air, motoring, fishing, hunting, golfing, by the staging of the county fairs, the arrival of the major league baseball teams for spring training, conventions and fraternal gatherings. Reports indicate that there are more visitors in the state than ever before."

Following the above exhortation, the writer calls attention to the progressive spirit that pervades the cities and communities throughout the state, giving detailed account of the accomplishments in a number of cities in Central and South Florida, concluding with the following statement:

HOUSE PASSES ENEMY ALIENS PROPERTY BILL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The administration bill directing the return of as much as $10,000 of each estate of former enemy aliens held by the alien property custodian was passed yesterday by the house. It now goes to the senate.

The vote was 300 to 11 and came after the house had rejected amendments proposing restoration of all the property; return of all of the property of Austrian nationals, and the declaration of policy by congress that all of the property would be restored ultimately.

Aside from the return of all trusts of $10,000 or less and a like amount of trusts, whose value exceeds this amount, the bill would provide that all income accruing from the various trusts after the measure became effective should be repaid to the national owners of the property.

Colonel Thomas W. Miller, the alien property custodian, estimates that this measure if enacted into law would divorce his office from custody over approximately 93 per cent of the individuals whose property had been seized. There would be returned, however, only about $45,000,000 out of the $47,000,000 and made value of the property held. This total does not take into account the value of the German ships seized after America's declaration of war and now held by the government.

Patents to be returned under the bill would include only such as were not in litigation and not held by the war and navy departments. This would exclude the thousands of patents sold for the chemical foundation for the recovery of which the government has instituted court action.

TALLAHASSEE — Florida had one establishment engaged primarily in the manufacture of brushes in 1921, reporting the value of products at $3,000 or more, according to figures prepared by the Bureau of Census and sent here by the department of commerce. The total value of products for the country was $35,178,000 as compared with $39,000,000 in 1919 and $17,890,000 in 1914.
