Casualties Light As Exercise Swift Strike Moves Ahead

O FT. BRAGG, N. C. (UPI) -Combat-ready Strategic Army Corps (STRAC) troops, backed by jet-age air support, used the Carolina sandhills to test their warpreparedness today in the most massive military maneuvers held in this country since 1941.

The 4,418 STRAC troops from the 82nd Airborne Division who staged a mass jump near Camden, S. C., Tuesday awaited reinforcements and supplies today in an airlift from this sprawling reservation.

Officers directing the maneuvers, called "Exercise Swift Strike," said only eight paratroopers were injured seriously enough to be hospitalized in the jump. The worst easualty was a broken leg.

The initial action phase of the maneuvers went "very handsomely," one of the officers directing the war games said. The exercise will continue for two weeks and involves 40,000 troops, including numerous Reserve and National Guard units now on emergency alert by order of President Kennedy.

Lt. Gen. Paul D. Adams, commanding general of the 3rd Army, said the injury total Tuesday was "extremely light" for the huge number of men jumping over "unprepared terrain."

The mock war between the aggressor "Jacksonian guards," troops from Ft. Jackson, S. C., and the defenders is being staged to provide realistic peacetime training for the nation's top soldiers, airmen, reservists and guardsmen.

Air Force jet fighter-bombers flew sorties over the area to "soften up" the enemy before the massive paradrop. The four F103 Thunderchief mach- planes used in this phase of the exercise have been dubbed "reusable missiles" because of their firepower capabilities.

The entire air operation was eoordinated from a flying command post, a 600-mile an hour modified version of the jet KC135.

The command post circled over the battle area for more than three hours, directing aerial attacks of fighter aircraft against ground targets, communicating with personnel on the ground and in the air and aiding troop carrier planes over the drop zone.

The Tactical Air Command at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base, Goldsboro, N. C., accepted delivery of the new aerial command post only last Saturday, Directing the exercise from the new jet is Maj. Gen. Maurice A. Preston, commander of the 19th Air Force at Seymour Johnson. On the ground watching wave after wave of troop carriers drop their human cargo were 8,000 spectators, including the secretaries of the Army and Air Force. Spectators had a ringside seat when parachutes carrying a three-quarter ton truck loaded with C-rations broke free and the truck fell 1,200 feet to earth, about 100 yards from the reviewing Exercise plans call for the 1.500 aggressor troops to be reinforced Thursday by paratroopers from the lift Airborne of Ft. Campbell, Ky.

We may imagine we understand very well how sweeping is the Communist propaganda effort engineered by Moscow and Peiping. Yet the real extent of it can still provide a shock.

Here, for instance, is a practice question from a Red Chinese schoolboy's arithmetic book "In the United States the number of half-starved people is twice the number of the unemployed, and is five million less than the number of people who have to live in alums. As one half of the number of the alum dwellers is 11.5 million, what is the number of unemployed in the United States?" The deep tragedy in this is not so much that the United States is being maligned as it is that growing numbers of young Chinese are being fed these and countless other cruel distortions in the course of per-haps the most massive educational uplift ever attempted William Benton, onetime U. S. senator and now publisher of the Encyclopedia Britannica, reports on this effect in a Saturday Review article detailing the findings a special task force under britanica auspices.

Twelve years ago, at the moment of Red triumph in China, the mainland had 350,000 schools serving some 25 million pupils. Today, with its population of 700 million, the number of schools is one million and enrollment a staggering 108 million. For contrast, latest figures for the United States shows us with around 145,000 schools serving roughly 40 million students at all levels. Our 40 per cent enrollment rice this past 10 years in the colleges, viewed here as amering, must be set beside a 500 per cent gain in Red

On top of this, Peiping has mounted a huge war on illiteracy. People able to read and write now comprise half the population, compared with only a fifth 12 years ago. Adult education goes forward on unprecedented scale, in factories, basements, kitchens, barns, under the open sky itself.

No such enterprise could be managed without strain, dislocation, major flaw. Whole schools have been uprooted and moved about. Children are shifted from familiar setting to remote province like pawns. Teachers and facilities are woefully short. Many teachers are abused and made to do the work of menial servants.

The worst aspect of Pelping's effort remains, however, that it serves warped, limited goals. The product is not to be good men, good and well-rounded Chinese, but narrow specialists who are at best good Chinese Com-

Peiping's "gain" is thus a sad waste of humanity's substance.

This cas was a dilly, unlike shall brawls where two layers square off and then pobrack & EE.

R all started during the sixth ing of the second game of a doubleheader when Tony Gonzalez, trying to score from second, was thrown out at the plate by Roberto Clemente. Pirate catcher Hal Smith tagged Gonzalez with such vigor that the Philadelphia center fielder came up punching. Players from both dugouts immediately streamed onto the field and promptly were joined by shock troops from both bullpens. At one time, six different fights were going on simultaneously. Ancient Connie Mack Stadium looked him the old Roman Coliseum, with players rolling and wrestling in the dirt, spikes flashing and even the traditional peace-makers getting in several fine licks.

Police were stationed at each duzout after some semblance of order was restored, and manager Gene Mauch announced the Phils were playing the game under pretest because Hal Smith was not elected. Later Mauch said he was going to furget the protest because he had no real grounds for complaint.

Dear abby:

DEAR ABBY: I can't mention any names, but I would like your opinion of the following situation: A well-to-do, recently retired man complained that he didn't appreciate sitting home alone five afternoons a week while his wife went out and played cards. She told him she loved playing cards, and refused to give it up. He asked her how much she could win in a good day. She told him about $10. So now he pays her $10 a day for every day she stays home with him. A FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: A man who has to "pay" his wife to stay home with him is in pretty sad shape. But if she is satisfied, and he is happy, why don't we keep our noses out of their business?

DEAR ABBY: I am a woman, 42, and am expecting my tenth child. The trouble is that my eldest is expecting her second child. And, Abby, the whole town is talking. They are saying I don't want to get old and if it theref'y reason I am pregnant is because my daughter is. This is not true. My husband and I love children, and have always wanted a big family. People say that now that we are grandparents we should leave the business of increasing the population to the younger generation. We are able to support our children. What should I tell my jealous PREGNANT GRANDMA

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR GRANDMA: What makes you think you have to tell them anything? A married woman needs no "excuse" for having a baby.

DEAR ABBY: My husband has a thick head of hair of which he is very proud. But he refuses to shampoo it more than once every six months. He uses a lot of hair oil, and claims that water will make his hair fall out. We have quarreled about this frequently, and I can't get anywhere with him. Our pillow cases are stained, and his head smells of rancid oil. Can you help me convince him that he should wash his hair TIRED OF ARGUING

Kennedy Opposed To Branding Nazi Group Subversive

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Alty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has informed a senator that he opposes branding the American Nazi Party as a subversive group because it would give the Nazia free publicity.

Kennedy said in a letter to Sen Kenneth B. Keating (R.N.Y.) that the Justice Department and "all sensible Americans" despise the Nazi doctrines. The party is being watched closely, he said. But the Cabinet officer said that steps to place the Nazis on the attorney general's list of subversive organizations would give party leader George Lincoln Rockwell a public forum to spread his "obnoxious doctrines." Kennedy said the practical way to deal with Rockwell and his followers was for local authorities to prosecute them when they violate the law.

Church Groups Picnic The R.A.'s, G.A.'s and friends of the Forest City Baptist Church had a picnic and swimming party on Aug. 1, at Sanlando Springs, with 30 boys and girls attending.
Those in charge were Mrs. Richard Brown, Mrs. K. D. Wynne, and Mr, and Mrs. David Walden.

As early as 1867, J. C. Maxwell of Edinburgh introduced a theory of ethereal waves.

New, Added Bargains To Spark Friday Night Specials

Downtown Sanford merchants again are planning a host of specials for the Friday night open hours when the shops and stores will continue their new evening hours until 9 p. m.

The big prize to be given away at the drawing will be a first class brand-name portable television set, a handy item for some lucky person to win.

Tickets will be available in most stores between the hours of 5:30 p.m. and 9 p. m. with the drawing to take place as soon after 9 p. m. as all tickets are in the big wire cage.

Friday night should be a good night for men shoppers, especially with stores featuring suits, shoes and other accessories in big summer's end bargains. The evening hours provide many men with time to shop who can't get to town during the day.

Furniture buys are extra good this week, as are back to school clothing for school age and college bound students. Department stores are featuring the latest fall styles and colors in ready-made clothing as well as beautiful new fabrics for the homemaker who sews.

Some new specials added by other merchants who are taking advantage of the successful Friday night premiere are offering big savings on automobiles, boats, and musical instruments.

Many stores still are offering summer merchandise at one-half price, a good bargain for shoppers needing bathing suits, summer clothing, costume jewelry and many other items.
