LLOYD-GEORGE GIVES VIEWS ON VARIOUS PROBLEMS.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—David Lloyd-George in his address at the lord mayor's banquet at the Guild hall last night discussed briefly and pointedly various problems with which the government is dealing. He plunged immediately into foreign affairs and appealed for the patience for faith in the world settlement, declaring that the highest wisdom demanded that prejudices and dislikes be kept under control of Europe to be saved from becoming a welter of raging hatreds.

Referring to the "questions between Germany and the allies," Mr. George said that the real test of German sincerity was disarmament, and he added, "the report I have to give on that subject is very satisfactory."

"The German army is rapidly being reduced to 100,000. There are still too many rifles at large in Germany, but they are a greater menace to Germany's internal peace than to Germany's neighbors."

Another important point said the premier, was reparations. "Germany is prepared to submit certain proposals for the liquidation of her obligations," he continued, "and personally I am pleased with them. They will be considered at the conferences and it is satisfactory to note that Germany realizes that her first duty is to repair the devastation the German armies wrought.

"I wish I could speak as hopefully of the Russian problem, where we have to do with men professing the ridiculous, crazy creed of Bolshevism, who unfortunately fail to realize how important it is they should respect their obligations."

Speaking of the Irish question the premier said:

"Unless I am mistaken, by the steps we have taken, we have murdered by the throat. Do not pay too much attention to detailed accounts of disturbances and what they call the horrors of reprisals given out by partisans, who slur over the horrors of murder. There will be no real peace, no conciliation whilst this murder conspiracy is scattered."

"We are getting the right sort of men and are dispersing the terrorists. The government will seek further powers, if necessary to deal with the situation. If it is war, as the terrorists say, then they cannot complain if the government employs some of the rules of war against them."

On Sunday afternoon at two o'clock the marriage of Miss Gladys Lazette of Oveido to Ralph Hill of Bassford, of Jacksonville, Fla., was solemnized at the Methodist church. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and ferns with an arch in the center of the altar. The decorating was done by the S. S. class of which Miss Lazette was a member under the able direction of Mrs. I. W. Lawton, teacher of the class. The bridal party marched into the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march beautifully rendered by Mrs. T. L. Lingo. Leading the party were Messrs. Joe Leinhart and R. R. Wright, following Mr. Linhart were the bride and maid of honor, Miss Olive Lezette, sister of the bride. The groom and his best man, C. CAMPERS RETURN

The party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Purden, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith and little daughter, Evelyn, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holly, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Holly and Robert Holly returned late last night from Camp N. N. N. at the ranch on the Leonlockhatchie and they had a grand time. They used the ranch house for sleeping quarters and cooked out in the yard at the big camp fire. Henry Purden and Don Smith were the champions in the fishing line taking a fine string of speckled perch and trout and they divided honors in the hunting line with Reginald Holly and about fifty squirrels were brought into camp while there. Ralph Wight and Bob Kennedy happened along for dinner and swelled the larder with a brace of ducks and some snipe and they were such good fellows they were made to stay over for supper. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hand and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Betts came out for Sunday dinner bringing a big basket of lunch and they found the table piled high with everything in the game line and had a big Sunday dinner of baked duck, fried squirrel and snipe and fish and everything. The party had glorious weather and enjoyed the trip so much that the ladies are importing their husbands to take them again about Thanksgiving time and maybe the camping idea will become a permanent thing. The camp was named the N. N. N. camp for reasons known only to those who were there and while it is not a permanent name the next camp will have to go some if there is any more enjoyment than the first one. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lawson could not go on the trip as Mr. Lawson was taken ill at the last moment but he loaned the party his truck and the only drawback was the fact that the Lawsons had to stay home at the last minute. The camp also had a mascot in the shape of a stray fox terrier who was promptly named "Doodles" in honor of one of the ladies. S. M. Lloyd and R. J. Holly qualified as first class camp cooks and they can cook flap jacks and fry squirrels with the best of them now. In fact everybody in camp was on the job and the boys think it is fine to have the girls along to show them how to really cook ducks as they should be cooked. Henry Purden is also recommended to anyone wanting a good truck driver and cook combined although at present he is very busy at his old job with the A. C. L. Railway.

THE PEOPLE WILL NOT STAND FOR IT.

It has been publicly denied that John J. Mendenhall, now serving a life sentence for the murder of Mrs. Charles Elliot, of this city, and still under indictment for the murder, at the same time of her daughter, Susie Elliot, will seek, or is seeking a pardon. This public denial came following the united protest of the women's clubs of the state after a "rumor" got out that application would be made for executive clemency prior to Jan. 1, 1920.

When we see what the mere rumor applying for a pardon for Mendenhall has done, what will be the result in Florida when the application for the pardon is published? The Tribune does not believe there would be housing accommodations enough in Tallahassee to take care of those who would flock to the capital protesting against the pardoning of this man, found guilty of the most cold-blooded, spectacular murder of the elder woman and who still has hanging over his head in case he should be pardoned, another charge of murder, that of the younger woman.

The Tribune kept silent while the rumor was being spread, and later denied; but now that it is proven Mendenhall is actually working for a pardon and is admittedly seeking to overcome the protest of the women of the state against his release, the Tribune declares that Mendenhall must not be released from the punishment of his crime.

"Let justice be tempered with mercy" will be urged. True; but there is always to remain, Justice. Justice demanded of Mendenhall his life in explanation of this bloody crime; Mercy stepped in and spared that life for the very purpose which seems to have been attained by him—repentance for his sin; but Mercy stops short of defeating the lawful ends of Justice, and to pardon him would be to set at defiance Justice and to encourage hope in criminal breasts that no matter how dastardly the crime, a pardon will come upon showing that the prisoner is repentant.—Tampa Tribune.

DIVERSION ORDER HITS AT FLORIDA

Holding that the new reassignment and diversion rules of the Interstate Commerce Commission give an unfair advantage to California and the rest of the long haul states, and discriminate against Florida, with its proximity to the great markets of the nation, representatives of Florida fruit and vegetable growers will formally protest to the commission against the decision in case No. 10,173.

They declare that Florida, requiring only 25 to 36 hours for the movement of its products east or west, should not be discriminated against under a ruling made to fit other states which require from five to seven days to reach their markets and establish a diverting point.

J. J. Stowers, representing the shippers and growers' associations of Florida, Mississippi and Alabama, left Jacksonville Friday to enter oral protest before the commerce commission, and many other representatives of Florida's biggest shippers of fruits and produce will also appear, as Florida growers are intensely interested in the hearing.

E. D. Dow, traffic manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange, left Friday to attend it.

J. F. Thomas, vice-president of the Saver-Thomas Co., fruit and vegetable shippers, Jacksonville, also left to attend the informal hearing and will confer with Florida, Mississippi, and Tennessee representatives prior to entering the hearing on Tuesday and the preliminary conference on Monday next between interested growers and shippers.

Mr. Thomas will represent at this hearing the interests of several Florida shippers.

Marshall & Bell, attorneys, Washington, D. C., will represent the Florida interests who have membership in the American Fruit & Vegetable Shipping Association, with headquarters at Chicago, Ill. Memberships of the Florida growers and shippers in the American Fruit and Vegetable Shipping Association is as follows: Nix & Bugbee, Hastings; Chase & Co., and Sayer-Thomas Co., Jacksonville; R. O. Applegate, Jr., Miami; Nocatee Fruit Co., Nocatee; Standard Growers' (Inc.), A. J. Nye, Dr. P. Phillips Co., Orlando; American Fruit Growers' (Inc.), E. F. Six Kinds of Safety

Have you every paused to consider the safety of the bank where you deposit your money?

The first consideration is the capital, which should be ample to meet the requirements of the community the bank is to serve.

The next question to consider is the officers in charge. They should be men of experience; high character and successful. Without men of ability no institution can succeed.

Then there is the question of confidence. The public should have confidence in the officers and in the bank.

These three principles determine the success of a bank. We adopted these principles in the outset of our career and we expect to live up to this high standard and increase our usefulness to the community as the years go by.

We Offer You:

- 1ST: LARGE CAPITAL AND WORKING RESERVE.
- 2ND: TRAINED MEN IN CHARGE—MEN OF SEVERAL YEARS EXPERIENCE.
- 3RD: THE CONFIDENCE OF THE PUBLIC, WHICH IS PROVEN BY THE DAILY ADDITION TO OUR LINE OF DEPOSITORS.
- 4TH: PROTECTION BY TWO EXAMINATIONS EACH YEAR BY THE STATE BANKING DEPARTMENT, TWO AUDITS EACH YEAR BY AN INDEPENDENT RECOGNIZED PUBLIC AUDIT COMPANY AND TWO SWORN STATEMENTS SUBMITTED TO THE STATE COMPTROLLER BY THE CASHIER, GIVING THE BANK'S CONDITION IN DETAIL, ALL OF WHICH INSURES REGULAR, SYSTEMATIC AND THOROUGH OPERATION OF THE BANK.
- 5TH: THE ADVICE OF A COMPETENT BOARD OF DIRECTORS, WHO MEET WITH THE OFFICERS REGULARLY EACH MONTH AND ADVISE THEM AS TO THE OPERATION OF THE BANK.
- 6TH: INSURANCE OF ALL DEPOSITS EVERY DAY OF THE YEAR. THIS IS A PROTECTION NOT COMMONLY FOUND IN BANKS AND IS AN ABSOLUTE PROTECTION FOR YOUR FUNDS, IN ADDITION TO ALL THE OTHER USUAL SAFEGUARDS.

THESE ARE REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD DO BUSINESS WITH US, AND WE BELIEVE THAT NO BANK CAN OFFER BETTER INDUCEMENTS.

WINTER PARK LAD IS RUN OVER BY TRUCK AND NECK IS BROKEN

WINTER PARK, Nov. 22.—As the result of a broken neck, due to being run over by a heavy truck, James Arthur Stephens, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Stephens, is dead. The accident occurred Saturday afternoon at the corner of England and Park streets.

The lad, who was riding a bicycle, swung sharply around the corner of England street into Park street, directly in front of an oncoming truck. The lad became confused and attempts by the driver to avoid a collision were of no avail.

The injured boy was taken to a nearby doctor's office and upon examination was found that his neck was broken and the boy died fifteen minutes later.

A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of death due to an unavoidable accident, absolving the driver from all blame.

Mr. Stephens and family are new residents of Winter Park, having moved here from Georgia a few weeks ago.

CIRCUS PARADE A MIGHTY PAGEANTRY

When the circus' glad-voiced callope pipes forth on the street tomorrow morning at 10:30, starting the parade over the usual route there will be many spectators on the curbstones to cry "Welcome to our City" to Big Zulu, the skyscraper elephant and the lesser members of the two elephant herds. It will be the finest circus parade that has been gotten off the front steps and sidewalks for an age.

The first thing to dazzle the eyes is the band wagon in the lead with its ten dapple grays. Dotted here and there down the rest of the line are other bands, chimes and calliopes. There are elephants, camels, ponies and high-stepping thoroughbreds. In all there are 200 all prize winners from the world's prize stock shows.

The menagerie cages are open, displaying all sorts of creatures from jungle and plain; beautiful tableaux wagons and floats—all resplendent in gold and glitter—are interspersed in the lineup. Taken as a whole the Sparks Circus parade is a thing of beauty and well worth seeing.

The performance tomorrow afternoon begins at 2 o'clock and in the evening at 8 o'clock, the doors opening at 1 and 7 to permit an inspection of the menagerie and horse fair for which this circus is famous.

Thanksgiving this week.

and after that get ready for Christmas.

With maybe a few bank holidays thrown in for good measure.

The best season in our history shows us in the face. Get your buckles ready for the shower of gold that is bound to come to Sanford.

This weather is ideal for the crops, ideal for hunting, ideal for the winter visitors. In fact this season is one of the best from the weather standpoint that one could want.

Mayor Peters, of Boston, will stop the flitting on Boston Common. Well, mayor, give us your hand. If you stop it on Boston Common it can be stopped anywhere. And mayor, you have a big job on hand, but we believe you are big enough for the job.

Everybody pull for a bigger Sanford and in pulling remember that your Chamber of Commerce is the place where the pulling counts. No village, hamlet, town or city ever amounted to anything without a good board of trade or chamber of commerce or boosters club of some kind. It takes concentrated effort to make a real town and concentrated effort can only be obtained through a club that has all the business men of the city enrolled as members.

Don't worry about the outcome of the reconstruction period. The way to get through any depression is to look at things on the bright side and when money is tight spend less. If you cannot afford this thing and that thing that is really unnecessary cut it out until you can afford it. The world would be better off if put on a cash basis and each one was made to pay for what they obtained at the time they obtained it. And the world is coming to this period in a few short years. We are all spending more than we are able to spend. The financial situation is summed up in an article in this issue.

Now is the time to advertise. From this week on until the last horn blows New Year's Day there will be a stream of shoppers in and out of the city and they will come here if you advertise and bring them in. If you bring them here they will buy, for Sanford merchants have the goods but unless you advertise even your own people will go to some other town that advertises and gets them by the prices. There never was a time when advertising would get you such sweeping results. And our subscribers are patronizing the merchants who display their wares in the Daily and Weekly Herald. Don't forget that.

TELLING EVERYTHING.

The editor is popularly supposed to see everything, hear everything, know everything and publish everything that is going on.

But sometimes he doesn't see it—down't want to see it—because, being an editor and trained to weigh all angles of every question, he knows that it is better for the community if he does not see it.

There are many things the editor does not publish because they con-

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE CONSUMING ANNUALLY $175,000,000.00 WORTH OF PERFUME, $80,000,000.00 WORTH OF CANDY, $42,000,000.00 WORTH OF CHEWING GUM. WE ARE A SWEET SMELLING, CANDY, CHEWING PEOPLE. tain no element of news, are distressing to many innocent people, and their publication could serve no good purpose.

Sometimes the editor is criticised for his forbearance, but at least some of his critics do not stop to remember that possibly the paper is just as forbearing regarding an incident or two of their own lives.

There are many things to be considered before putting it in cold type.

MORE PRAISE FOR PRESS.

Small city dailies and the country weekly press of Florida may become affected with what is vulgarly known as the "swell head" if the words of praise heaped upon them continue. However, that may be, it is with pardonable pride that the press of Florida may consider itself just a jump or two ahead of the press of any other state, population considered.

Further commendation for the small town press is given by the Jacksonville Metropolis, which says:

"When the editors of large dailies advocate state and national policies which later are overwhelmingly defeated by the people, it is indicative that something vitally essential has been omitted from their arguments; for after all is said, the press is one of the three most powerful institutions in our government. Its strength is based on the power of suggestion and if this strength loses its virility, then there is reason to begin searching for causes.

"But that is only a preface to the subject. The editor of the small city daily or the town weekly is not carried to extremes by his own ideas. He is closely associated with his people; he is at all times susceptible to their opinions; his hand is never removed from the public pulse. The enthusiasm and the throbs of the community are a part of his being. That is the vital essential!

"To the men of the neighborhood he is "Bill" or "Tom" or "Frank." They drop by his shop, discuss the issues of the day with him, criticize his sheet, praise it, offer suggestions that oftentimes are practical, more often impractical but suggested in a spirit of real friendship; and after they are gone, he sits down to his typewriter, and unconsciously perhaps his expressions are rationalized and made more solid by the association of ideas.

"Florida has more high class small city dailies and town weeklies than any state in the union. These papers wield a strong and wholesome influence for they are accurate reflections of the existing conditions and pulsate with the many phases of local environment.

"Another happy feature of the Florida papers is that their editors have the courage of convictions. They do not evade issues. They either defend or attack them. It is a tendency in some states among editors of this class to refrain from participation in local affairs other than by treating the subject as news matter, most of which is packed on the front page, and the inside section is filled with "boiler-plate." But happily this is not the case in Florida. The editors maintain the editorial pages for a constructive purpose, and in preparing copy usually they toss the gloves aside.

"This state has a wonderful institution in its press. The radical element is confined to a minority and is completely overshadowed by the constructive contemporaries.

"It would be a blessing to the 'big league' editors if they could drop from their high horses into the companionship and confidence of those moving about them, as long since their brothers of less self-importance have done. Then true the large dailies, in proportion, would be as powerful as the small dailies and weeklies."

AN EXPERIMENT IN CO-OPERATIVE SLAUGHTERING

Florida has many thousand cattle grazing on millions of unoccupied acres. The cattle owners have claimed and been granted special privileges, against which many truckers, farmers and town residents are complaining and protesting. Still, notwithstanding their privilege, the stockmen have grievances of their own, among the most prominent of which are: First, the low price of meat on the hoof. Second, the high price of meat off the hoof.

They might take a lesson from the cattle growers of a county in South Dakota, who likewise got tired of selling their stock to the packers at a low price, and buying it back as beef, at a high price. Those South Dakota stockmen decided it would be better to sell to themselves and buy from themselves, and they formed what they called a community meat ring, with that end in view. The results are given below, and show what can be accomplished by co-operation. Florida stockmen can do the same if they will, and by so doing render a valuable service to the community, and secure a profit to themselves, which now goes to foreign packers. The figures:

PAID FINE IN PENNIES

Albert Dornier paid the fine of George Devaux in pennies this morning in police court. Young Devaux was ariding on top of the cars coming into Sanford last night from Jacksonville as he was short on money and wanted to get to Plant City to join his mother? He was arrested here for taking the outside of the car instead of the inside and Albert took him under his wing and fixed him up so he could proceed on his way rejoicing. Albert plays this penny game on the court whenever he gets the chance but he does not perturb either Judge Maines or Chief Speer as they are perfectly willing to take the money as long as Albert wishes to shell it out whether it is in pennies or in dollars, and with all of it Albert has a big heart and is always doing something for somebody somewhere.

CRANE PARDONED AND ORDERED RELEASED FROM PRISON

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 22.—The state board of pardons announced recently that former state Senator Jas. E. Crane, convicted in Hillsborough county of grand embezzlement and sentenced to five years in the state prison in September, 1918, has been granted a conditional pardon and immediate release from prison.

J. C. Black, former tax collector of Liberty county, was granted a conditional pardon also. Black also was convicted of grand embezzlement April 26, 1919, and sentenced to four years in the state prison at Raiford.

James E. Crane was convicted of embezzlement of about $21,000 of the sinking fund of the hard road bond issue of 1903. He was one of the board of bond trustees for that bond issue and its secretary and received the monies from the county tax collector. It was understood that Mr. Crane invested the county's money in an unfortunate land speculation. He was unable to meet the demand for it when payment was due on certain of the bonds.—The Tampa Tribune.

SWEET POTATOES ON THE TABLE.

Sweet potatoes on the table is the title of a bulletin recently issued by the Home Demonstration Division of the Florida State College for Women. Miss Sarah W. Partridge wrote this bulletin. Miss Partridge is state agent for extension work with women and girls, and she is a recognized authority on subjects of this nature. In this bulletin the sweet potato is compared with the Irish potato and the comparison is in favor of the sweet. There are few people who know that the sweet potato is actually better for food than the Irish potato. The fuel or energy value of the raw sweet potato is found to be 50 per cent greater than that of the Irish potato, while the fuel or energy value of the cooked is greater by more than 100 per cent.

In this bulletin there are 21 recipes from Southern chefs and housewives. Fried potatoes, croquettes, mashed methods, half shelled, glazed, candied, souped, and just about anything in the category of cooking are told of in this pamphlet. It even tells how to make a potato cake. If you cannot cook potatoes or if you would like to be a better potato cook, write to the Home Demonstration Division, Florida State College, Tallahassee, and ask for a copy of Bulletin 32. It will help you.

BEAUTIFUL POST CARDS AT THE HERALD, EACH 1c

We admire the fight that the Palatka News and the Sanford Herald are making to force free bridges in this state. They are beginning at home with their own sections in an effort to abolish the toll bridges and if necessary will carry the fight to the end of having the county construct another bridge. This business of charging people money to cross a public thoroughfare, just because there is no other way around it, is an injustice and when a stranger comes into the state and meets with such a hold-up, he don't get a very favorable impression. Perhaps that is one reason that so many people have in the past known more about the east coast of Florida than the west.—Lakeland Star.

Everybody should send postcards to their friends. The Herald has them of Sanford and also Thanksgiving cards, holiday cards, etc. They are only one cent each and worth twice as much. Send a card today.
