Little do the people of this community realize the tremendous importance to this region of the International Press Foundation's location for Press City, only seven miles from Sanforda

The development which is to go forward at Press City will materially aid the city of Sanford in many ways. Those people who can visualize the Sanford of tomorrow are the people who are buying Sanford properties today.

Sanford Grove, an exclusive residential sub-division lying directly in the heart of the city's growth, is also on the main highway to Press City. Geneva Avenue will soon be one of the heavily traveled arteries of this entire section, and connecting, as it does, with Mellonville Avenue and Sanford Avenue provides direct communication with shopping center of Sanford.

Eight States To Overthrow Prohibition?

Those eight states which are to hold referendums, or referenda", take your choice, to decide if their people are for or against the prohibition of the use and sale of intoxicating liquors have an idea that the result of their elections will be a great step toward the return of the open saloon, and the good old days of legalized liquor traffic.
