DAWES WILL RETIRE FROM LONDON POST

Announcement Of His Intention To Resign As Ambassador To England Is Surprise

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—(A.P.)—Charles Dawes left for London today after announcing his intention to resign as ambassador to England. The announcement was a surprise to many here.

Railroads Get Right To Raise Citrus Rate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—(A.P.)—The Interstate Commerce Commission today authorized the railroads serving Florida to make a 55 percent reduction in freight rates on citrus fruits to points in the Southern territory effective on 15 days notice. The roads were denied permission, however, to lower their rates on citrus to New York and other Eastern points on short notice. They still can file rates, however, giving 30 days notice as required by the statute. The move of the railroads was taken to meet truck competition.

AIRSHIP RESCUES 2 FLIERS FORCED DOWN IN GLADES

Aviators, On Way To Miami Races, Spend Night With Insects

MIAMI, Jan. 9.—(A.P.)—Forced down in the dense Florida Everglades Thursday by motor trouble, Art Rigney, pilot, and J. L. MacLennan, his passenger of Tampa, were rescued yesterday by the Goodyear semi-rigidible Puritan.

They were brought here and landed in front of the All-American air meet grandstand as an unexpected climax to a day packed with thrills. They had nothing but water until they were taken aboard the Puritan at 3:05 p.m. yesterday afternoon. The orange juice and water furnished them by the Puritan crew, "tasted mighty good."

As the route here, the Tampans flew a route seldom taken by aviators crossing the Everglades. Rigney piloted his bird plane into a forced landing when the throttle rod of the motor broke, and he could not get sufficient gasoline to the engine to maintain its power.

Another flier, Ernest S. Hensley, flying here with two passengers, chose the same route by chance and landed the stranded plane as he steamed along the Miami-Ocala canal.

He reported his discovery when (Continued on Page Three).

Kiwanis To Serve All-State Product Dinners For Month

Sanford Kiwanis apparently think that if a little is good, more will be better.

Learning that the State Department of Agriculture, through Mary A. Stennis one of its heads, had issued an appeal that during the week of Jan. 10, 1932, civic clubs, restaurants, and home owners serve an all-state product meal on at least one occasion, the Kiwanis have decided to go that plan one better, and will have served them during the entire month an all-state product luncheon.

Next Wednesday Kiwanis are gathering at the Montezuma to be offered the following: meat: Seminoles County fried chicken; green snap beans; baked stuffed potatoes; Sanford mints; hot corn muffins or rolls; butter; grapefruit; clove slaw; tropical pine, and coffee.

Mike Stennis, who has been in Sanford as a guest of the Seminoles County Better Farming Show, assisted members of the club in arranging their menu for the coming meeting. The points out that 12 Florida products will be used in next Wednesday's meal, wheat and coffee being the only "foreign" products. "These two foods are used, not of necessity, but to show a friendly spirit to our neighbors," he said.

Boys Band Will Be Organized Monday

Sanford, Edger A. Bell, Ocala, this morning reminded all Sanford or Seminole County boys 15 years old or younger, that an organization meeting for the purpose of organizing a boys' band here, will be held at the Elks Club Monday night at 7:45 o'clock.

ATLANTIC CITY, AS CONVENTION SITE, LOOMING

Raskob Denies Conspiracy To Spike Dry Issue Appeared

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—(A.P.)—With Chairman Raskob advocating sending a Democratic convention to the city with the highest bid, the offer of $200,000 gave impetus today to the cause of Atlantic City at the National Committee meeting. San Francisco bid $250,000 and Chicago they offered $200,000 to meet the Atlantic City bid. Kansas City is yet unheard from.

Stories of a Smith, Raskob, Shouse alliance against the nomination of Franklin Roosevelt were scathingly denied by John Raskob, chairman of the Democratic National Committee. He referred to a newspaper story saying the Smith, Raskob, and Shouse group is behind a candidate in opposition to one supposed to be favored by the Roosevelt forces.

Proposals of Raskob for a prohibition referendum in the Democratic presidential nomination, last night submitted by the national committee without recommendation and without being read.

The cohorts of democracy heard from their last three standard bearers last night the call for a militant campaign to capture the presidency next fall.

One after another Alfred E. Smith, John W. Davis and James M. Cox—presidential candidates in 1928, 1932 and 1936—decried conditions under the Hoover administration as appalling.

Their forum was a dinner in which party leaders and enthusiasts (Continued on Page Four).

Air Tour Planning To Be Here Jan. 19 To Spend Evening

Forty-nine airplanes and three aviators are already signed and will arrive in Sanford at 1:00 o'clock Tuesday, Jan. 19, as part of the Florida State Air Tour. They will perform stunts and provide an air show from 1:00 o'clock until evening, and will spend the night in Sanford.

That information is contained in a telegram from George W. McHenry, Sanford, member of the Florida State Aviation Association, now in Miami, attending the rates. Mr. McHenry said that all plans for the third annual tour are now complete, 43 planes having already asked permission to enter, with approximately 10 more expected before the tour begins.

The planes will leave Miami Monday morning, Jan. 18, and will fly to Vero Beach, to spend the night. Among the towns where noon or eight stops will be made are Baitow, Ft. Myers, Clearwater, Tampa, Orlando, Sanford, Deland, Ocala, Palatka, Gainesville, Gainesville, Perry, and Tallahassee.

The party will spend three days at Tampa in a monster air show which will rival anything ever held there, and will disband at Jacksonville with a big air show on Jan. 22 and 23.

Mr. McHenry said that more than 100,000 people are expected in this tour than in any other, and that many prominent aviators headed by Mrs. Betty Lind, Doug Davis, Art Davis, Mike Deacon and others, will be with the tour until the finish.

Breuering Claims His Nation Can't Pay

BERLIN, Jan. 9.—(A.P.)—Chancellor Brüning today told the world her ability to pay reparations is at an end. He told Sir Horace Rumbold, British ambassador, that not only for the present but for the future Germany will be unable to pay. The German delegation also will argue, he said, that as long as the present reparations policy continues, economic recovery for Germany and the world will be impossible.

REED SUBMITS VICTORY PLAN FOR HIS PARTY

Hands-Off Policy In Foreign Affairs Is 1 Plank Suggested

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Jan. 9.—(A.P.)—James A. Reed, former United States senator, who has said he would consider it a compliment to have the Missouri delegation support him for the Democratic presidential nomination, last night submitted a 7-point "victory" platform for the party.

Simplification of government at home and a "hands off" foreign policy were the keynote numbers at a Jackson Day banquet here at the man who was Missouri's favorite son aspirant for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1928.

"These beneficent objects will never be accomplished by the present Republican body," Reed stated in a prepared address, holding the Hoover administration responsible for a government which "has its nose in every kitchen and its finger in every enterprise."

"The remedy," Reed said, "is to return to the old policy of government," Reed said. "First, decentralization should be the order of the day. We should begin that by withdrawing the United States from every European controversy in which we are not directly and immediately concerned. We should provide for our own protection, always remembering that while the largest and most powerful nation on earth, we are, nevertheless, unless prepared (Continued on Page Three).

Dwight Davis Resigns From Philippine Post

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—(A.P.)—Dwight Davis resigned today as Governor-General of the Philippines, and his successor will be Theodore Roosevelt, governor of Porto Rico. After conferring with President Hoover, Davis said there was no understanding as to when the resignation was effective. Illness of Mrs. Davis is one of the reasons given for resignation.

Jack Toomer Scores Close One-Up Victory Over Dann In Golf Match

On the thirty-sixth hole of an intensely played golf match as has been staged between a pair of Florida's finest amateur golfers, Jack Toomer, Jacksonville, present state amateur champion, scored a close one-up victory over Carl Dann, Jr. of Orlando, national champion of golf club champions. Toomer holed out for a par four, after sensational recovery, while Dann took a five when his three-foot putt hung on the edge of the cup.

Toomer thereby scored his first victory over Dann in three states although in so doing, he had the battle of his competitive career. Dann defeated Toomer in North Carolina tournament play last year, and did not meet him again until the Jacksonville Amateur Invitational tournament of two weeks ago. Dann soundly defeated Toomer in that final play, six and five, and Toomer, whose putting skill had apparently failed him, sought a return match.

BRITAIN MAKES INDIAN POLICY MORE SEVERE

Death Sentence Voted For Any Person Convicted Of Breaking Emergency Orders

BOMBAY, India, Jan. 9.—(A.P.)—Great Britain stiffened its policy in India still further yesterday by promulgation of a new ordinance empowering judges to pass any sentence, including the sentence of death, upon any person convicted of disobeying the rules of emergency orders recently enacted.

The roundup of nationalist leaders continued and the ordinance outlawing the Congress party was extended to Delhi province and the presidency of Madras. Dr. Ambedkar, active president of the Congress, and Dr. Choksey, another prominent leader, were among those arrested during the day.

Meanwhile, the powerful Bombay Cotton Brokers' Association, which usually acts the pace for other important business organizations, drafted a resolution condemning the government's policy. It will be acted upon Monday.

The Hindustan republican society, a secret organization standing for independence through violent methods, plastered some sections of the city with flaming red posters of warning.

"We are a bunch of Vanishing Empire," the posters read. "We warned British officials to leave India. They refused. We warned our society will kill any officer. Therefore, beware! We also warn all nationalists not to interfere with our solemn duty."

The cotton brokers' resolution demanded Viceroy Lord Willingdon's intervention before his return to India as "an insult to the whole nation."

"The unheard-of ordinance enacted by the government deprives all classes of their elementary rights by placing them virtually under the regime of unbridled despotism," says the resolution. "In their far-reaching effects they are worse than martial law, and this condition inevitably will result in endless misery to the people. It will not only cause complete cessation of trade, but will destroy the good will between India and Great Britain."

JOHN IS HURIED

STANKE, Jan. 9.—(A.P.)—Business houses here were closed today during the funeral of State Senator E. M. Johns, who died in Jacksonville Wednesday. Governor Carlton, members of the cabinet, and other state officials attended. Johns was president-elect of the Senate.

Better Farming Show To Come To Successful End With Event This Evening

The fourth annual Seminole County Better Farming Show is scheduled to come to a successful conclusion at the Armory tonight, with every indication that a record throng of spectators will have passed through the building to set a new attendance record.

Sponsors of the show, which brought out more than 1000 in official entries of seven different farm products displayed are well pleased with the efforts of the public, some tangible results of the productivity of the county's soil and climate. They assert that from the trend of information brought by spectators from the various crops, in fact, poultry and plant products, experts at the show, there is every reason to believe that an immeasurable amount of good had been done.

The show was opened at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon by L. County Better Farming Show, state marketing board member, who led a group of interested and active known out-of-town visitors through the exhibits after he had made a short address.

Thursday's attendance was limited, but last night's attendance proved to be beyond all expectations, resulting in a record throng of spectators. The show was covered by radio from all stations.

Alex R. Johnson, general superintendent of the show, today morning expressed the appreciation of his group to the following firms or individuals who contributed to the success of the show: Bauman Bros., Sanford; Seminole Agricultural Club, Ocala; Agricultural Club, Ocala; and Co., Ocala. Through the courtesy of John H. Kratzer, Pennsylvania aviator who with his brother, spends his winters in Sanford, this city has a representative at the Miami Air Races now going on, and will be well advertised along the route of the Third Annual Air Tour of Florida, covering most of the larger cities next week.

Mr. Kratzer, and his brother left here shortly before noon today for Miami. They expected to reach there about two hours after the take-off, for a tailwind of real proportions was with them.

ACTION OF U. S. FAILS TO SWAY JAP ATTITUDE

However, Spokesman Of Emperor Avers U. S. Trading Rights Will Be Protected

TOKYO, Jan. 9.—(A.P.)—America's representations over the occupation of Manchuria failed yesterday to sway Japan in her attitude toward China.

Claiming equal interest, Premier Inukai's month old cabinet underlined its resignation as the aftermath of an attempt to assassinate Emperor Hirohito.

An official spokesman, replying informally to Secretary of State Stimson's note invoking the nine-power treaty, the pact of Paris and the open door policy, pledged that American commercial rights in Manchuria would not be harmed but reiterated that Japan cannot change her military policy.

Japan recognizes China's sovereignty over Manchuria, he said, but insists that the national government has never exercised authority over Marshal Chang Hsueh-liang's regime. If this view is accepted, he added, the administrative integrity of China has not been destroyed. Japan's military operations for Manchuria virtually is an independent state.

Japan's activities in Manchuria have not infringed existing international agreements of peace, he said. (Continued on Page Four).

ATLANTIAN'S DIN

ATLANTA, Jan. 9.—(A.P.)—Three workmen in the stereotyping department of the Atlanta Journal were killed today in the plant by a small elevator from the top floor. The dead are Edward G. Way, Henry Bell and Frank G. O'Connell. One man, a helper, was injured.

A Successful Farm Show

Seminole County has scored again in the game of co-operation and the Fourth Annual Seminole County Better Farm Show bids fair to take its place among this year's outstanding achievements in this section. Just as the net result of everyone's working wholeheartedly together was responsible for the great success of last month's Progress Day, so the co-operation of many different groups and organizations has resulted in making the Better Farm Show an undertaking of which Sanford can be justly proud.

Arranged under the sponsorship of the Sanford and Orlando Agricultural clubs, the Better Farm Show owes its success primarily to the assistance given these clubs by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, the Seminole Chapter of the Future Farmers of America, the Seminole County Farm Women's club, the merchants of Sanford, the University of Florida teachers, the Florida Forest Service, the U. S. Bureau of Entomology, and L. M. Rhodes of the State Marketing Bureau, and C. C. Woodward of the State Game and Fish Commission.

Alex Johnson, head of the vocational training department of the Seminole High School, and his committee, composed of Karl Lehmann, C. R. Dawson, Roy Pippin, and J. A. Battline, have done a notable piece of work in carrying out the innumerable details of the Better Farm Show and in assuring its complete success. The organizing genius and capacity for inspiring co-operation which invariably mark the work of Karl Lehmann are evident throughout the show.

The Better Farm Show originated in a poultry exhibition held in the Welaka Building three or four years ago with scarcely more than one hundred entries. It has been held every year since then with increasing success until last year in the Basket Building there were over four hundred entries and this year in the Armory there were over one thousand which we believe proves beyond all question of doubt that the idea of a Better Farm Show is well received and will remain a permanent annual fixture in our community.

We echo the statement of Mr. Rhodes that a county so well adapted to agriculture as Seminole should have an annual Farm Show and lends itself most admirably to the organization of a great Seminole County Fair which should be one of the outstanding events of the Florida winter season. The successful start which the Farm Show has made prefigures the ultimate success of the County Fair into which it is sure to grow.

What You Are Buying

With the annual Chamber of Commerce drive for citizenship getting under way early Wednesday morning, this week-end should afford a convenient opportunity for sound thinking along the lines of community betterment and the help which you can render in making this county a better place in which to live. We believe that your membership in the Chamber of Commerce is the first step you can take in the right direction, for, as an article in the Nation's Business points out, your membership is but the signification of your willingness to co-operate.

In describing "What you get when you buy", the Nation's Business says:

- "You don't buy a paper—you buy news.
 - "You don't buy glasses—you buy vision.
 - "You don't buy cinema tickets—you buy thrills.
 - "You don't buy an awning—you buy shade.
 - "You don't buy life insurance—you buy education for the children, cancellation of the mortgage and an income for the wife.
 - "You don't buy a membership in the chamber of commerce—you buy co-operation of the most able business men of the town.
- "Big business men, men of national and international influence, are strong believers in the importance of the functions of a chamber of commerce and the invaluable service which it renders to business and the community as a whole. We hear these men of prominence continually extolling by deed and word to the value of organized community cooperation."

SANFORD, TWENTY YEARS AGO

The principal of the colored school reports that the water is so deep around the school building that the new building had to be deserted today and the old building used.

Mrs. Henry Wight has returned from a visit to her father, Dr. Roushelle, at Thomasville, Ga.

S. A. Irwin has returned from Ohio where he was called by the serious illness of his mother.

The members of the Sewing Circle who were present at the last meeting were delightfully entertained by Miss Margaret Roberts in her charming home in the usual way the circle enjoys these pleasant meetings. Miss Roberts' guests were: Mrs. Morton Henson, president; Mrs. J. C. Bennett, Mrs. R. C. Maxwell, Mrs. W. W. Long, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Deane Turner, Mrs. C. C. Butt, and the Misses Emma and Estelle Beard, Ruth Standish, Beale Long, Alice Walner and Carrie Kitchener.

Plans for the promotion of the National Conservation Exposition to be held for one month each year in some city of the South-east, have been completed at Washington. While the exposition will have for its object the advancement of the conservation of the nation's resources, its field is to be especially in the South. The first exposition will be held in the fall of 1932.

With the passing of the holidays, before which a true excitement among candidates and non-candidates is rampant in this city and throughout the state in the 1932 campaign is rapidly increasing. Following the meeting of the state executive committee in Jacksonville, Jan. 10, when it is expected that a call for a primary some time in May will be issued, the storm will break in earnest.

C. E. Fulton and family, of Philadelphia, have returned here and will reside at Lake George. Mr. Fulton has been a short resident of St. Louis, Mo. He has a stock of approximately 100,000 dollars in the state which would disburse any amount—the fruit of good service.

We have not heard of any formidable opposition to any of the officers who constitute the Governor's Cabinet. They have made good records, which opposing candidates would find it difficult to successfully attack. We mention Mr. Gray's case specifically, because he has been called upon to do more in a political way than is usually required of a state official.

Gandhi's Release Being Sought By Legal Manager

BOMBAY, India, Jan. 5.—(A.P.)—All signs were made yesterday by nationalist attorneys to test the legality of the arrest of Mahatma Gandhi. Five committees were organized in a first class campaign of the Gandhian experiment, when the main strategy at Calcutta.

The attorneys announced they would apply for a writ of habeas corpus which would set free the leader of Indian nationalism in his detention for independence from British authority.

Sanford, Jan. 5.—(A.P.)—Sanford, all India nationalist, announced today under the leadership of public and nationalist organizations were reported. The organization announced they would apply for a writ of habeas corpus which would set free the leader of Indian nationalism in his detention for independence from British authority.

THE JAPANESE INSULT AND APOLOGY

ST. PETERSBURG INDEPENDENT

Regardless of how it is settled at this time, the incident of the attack on United States Consul Chamberlain by Japanese soldiers has created a situation which is likely to become more disturbing, if not dangerous, as the people of the United States are more thoroughly informed as to the causes behind such a rash act.

It is impossible to believe that the Japanese soldiers and the interpreter with them were not fully aware of what they were doing. Consul Chamberlain has emphatically stated in his report which was forwarded to the state department that his automobile was flying the United States flag, that when halted his identification and passports were properly presented, and that he is unable to account for the conduct of the Japanese.

But the last part of his report was diplomatically phrased, no doubt. Consul Chamberlain should know precisely why he was subjected to such brutal indignities and his country's flag and his country's honor.

It is because of the growing and defiant Japanese power in the Orient. With oriental subtlety that power has been expanded since the defeat of Russia. The "Yankees" know that Japan's goal is the Orient; that politically and militarily it is supreme there. If any of the powers doubt this, they have the shipping affairs in which Japan is concerned.

The incident may be diplomatically smoothed over, but the injury is done. If Japan did not feel that it can be arrogant if it wishes the United States, through its representative in the Orient, would not have had to ask for an explanation and an apology. The Japanese government would have hastened to satisfy both as soon as it realized what had occurred. The Japanese government was in no hurry about apologizing and before it did so it countered with a charge that Consul Chamberlain had been insulting—a statement which undoubtedly was false.

Failure of the United States to exact full and satisfactory reparations for the unexcused insult would be equivalent to forfeiting whatever prestige it may have in the Far East, and the American people have firmly believed that Japan has considerable power and has displayed its indifference to whatever the powers think or what actions they may take. Japan has made it plain that it has not the slightest fear that any attempt will be made to check or in any way hinder its operations in Manchuria, and perhaps in China proper. Japan now insults the United States and seeks to excuse the act of its soldiers who committed the deed.

The blows struck Consul Chamberlain are decisive. They indicate more clearly than anything short of military conquest could that Japan has taken over authority in the Orient and will brook no interference which it may consider to be incompatible with its imperialistic policy.

PAUM BEACH REFUNDING PLAN

PAUM BEACH POST

The entire debt of the city is to be refunded by issuance of long-term bonds to be exchanged therefor.

The new bonds will run for 35 years with no principal maturities before the end of the 35-year term, but all bonds will be callable by the city at its option at any time after 10 years.

Bonds issued to refund principal will bear an interest of the present rate of interest for the first 10 years; after 10 years the new bonds will bear the same rate as the old bonds bore.

That due interest coupons will be refunded by 35-year bonds which will bear no interest for the first 10 years and will bear 3 per cent interest after 10 years.

The amount of money to be raised by taxation for the first three years of the new bonds, will be exactly the same amount of money which was levied for 1930, beginning with the fourth year there will be slight increases in the tax levies, but for the first 10 years these increases will not at any time exceed 10 per cent of the amount levied for 1930.

Economy in the operation of the municipal government is assured by fixing the amount to be levied in each year for that purpose.

All money raised from whatever source over and above the amount necessary for the payment of operating expenses and interest on the refunding bonds will go to the benefit of the city.

The result of the contract will be that during the first 10 years of the new refunding bonds the city will be enabled to retire its bonds at the market value, thereby saving the difference between the par value and the market value, taxpayers will be permitted to retire their assessment liens and (as certificates by the purchase of bonds) at great discounts and the city will for the 10-year period will be stabilized.

They arrived here and the Goodyear semi-rigid blimp, "Puritan" and "Reliance" and an auxiliary plane, immediately started on the rescue mission. The airship sighted the pair from markings given by Rigney and the blimp drifted down to the thick head-high growth of grass. Rigney and "Reliance" climbed aboard. They suffered from the night of exposure in the Everglades but neither was injured when the plane came down.

Rigney was greeted by his wife in a fond embrace as he stepped from the rescue ship.

It was a night of battling mosquitoes the fliers said. When they first landed, they soon were convinced they could not hope to walk out and so they decided to "just sit by and hope while waiting."

The rescue took the edge off the thrilling race and exhibition of the day, which included the running of three 15-mile races for trophies donated by foreign governments.

At Davis, Lansing, Mich., pushed his Waco airplane over the 15-mile distance at an average speed of 107.51 miles an hour to win the French trophy event for airplanes of 225 or less horsepower.

Karl Voelter, Pittsburgh, was right behind Davis in a Wright-powered Traveler, with Clyde Pangborn, round-the-world flier, third in a Pittman.

The color of the meet took another foreign touch in the Ecuador trophy event, won by John Livingston, Aurora, Ill. In his Fleet Wing monoplane Livingston averaged 141.84 miles an hour to win the event, the trophy for which was donated by the government of Ecuador.

Livingston won by the length of his plane from John P. Morris, Pittsburgh, while Barton Stevenson, Kansas City, Mo., was third. Both Morris and Stevenson flew Monoplanes. The race was for planes of 125 horsepower or less.

Art Caranahan, Bloomington, Ill., in a Monoplane, won the Italian trophy race at an average speed of 120.175 miles an hour for the 15 miles. Howard B. Allen, Miami, in a Waco, was second and John K. Lagrange, Kansas City, Mo., also in a Waco, third.

The Italian trophy race brought its share of color to a day's performance that included dazzling prospecting in the sky by civilian stunt pilots, equally startling maneuvers by Navy and Marine Corps planes and visually perfect formations flying by Army bombers from Langley field, Va.

During night flying during a blimp aerial attack on the City of Miami by service and civilian planes, with a defense by anti-aircraft batteries, was last night's feature of the air race program. The event called for detonation of 2000 pounds of dynamite to simulate exploding bombs.

Several scope fliers weathered to the North including 20 "safety fliers" from New York were expected here today.

All most officials considered favorable the proposal to continue the air meet through Sunday, in order to let late arrivals participate in various races and exhibitions. Such procedure would follow the plan of last year's air meet, which was at that time the largest meet in the world from point of attendance.

an easy victim to the average and rapidly of growth in the number of federal statutes which impose upon the federal government powers or duties that can as well be performed by the private citizen.

Fourth, We should wipe out innumerable bonds and burdens and discharge an army of spies, snipers and tax-eaters.

Fifth, We should cease attempting to either punish, regulate or destroy the business of the United States. By that I do not mean we should repeal the laws against combinations in restraint of trade, for such laws are themselves protective of trade. Upon the contrary, those laws should be strengthened and every attempt at monopoly or unfair trade practices should be, in the interests of fair trade, strictly prohibited and punished.

Sixth, We should demand that the federal reserve banking system should no longer be made the agent and banker of the state by selling bonds of the nation and the fraudulent practices of these institutions should be prohibited and punished.

Seventh, We should immediately lower tariff duties, and as rapidly as the tropic of cancer of our government will permit, wipe them out. This must be accomplished in order:

(a) To relieve the present burdens of our people.

(b) In order that our manufacturing industries may be able to compete in the markets of the world thus furnishing employment for American labor.

Seventh, The laws regulating the habits and lives of the people, insofar as such laws should ever be passed, should be left to the several states; such doctrine of state sovereignty in its high and proper sense should be restored.

Reed, known for frequent vitriolic verbal attacks on prohibition, at no time in his address referred directly to the issue which may receive attention at this summer's convention.

He assailed entry of government into the cotton and wheat markets through the federal farm board, resulting in a general paralysis in the markets for farm products.

Declaring Congress "without any right whatsoever, except the right of power," cancelled the $12,000,000,000 of foreign indebtedness. Reed directed another verbal thrust at the moratorium. He said a movement is afoot to cancel all foreign indebtedness, and urged the United States to "preserve her integrity, protect her assets and attend to her own business and let the world attend to its business."

Standard theatergoers will have the pleasure of seeing one of Hollywood's most celebrated juvenile film stars in the flesh when Jackie "Freckles" Ray, former Our Gang Comedy star, appears in person on the stage of the Milane Theater for a two-day run commencing Tuesday.

"Freckles" will present the same act that has captivated many fans and friends the world over on his recent round-the-world personal appearance tour.

Jackie is on his way to Miami before returning to Hollywood where he will start shooting on his new starring all colored talking version of "Pec's Bad Boy."

The little red-headed freckled-faced funster is just a plain fun-loving American boy and has warmed many a heart by his inimitable antics on the screen and stage and during the remainder of his stay in Sanford he will keep open house at his hotel and greet all of his friends and admirers.

"Freckles" belongs to 183 different organizations and is the youngest member of the Kiwanis International. On his personal appearance tour, he has been greeted and entertained by the leading clubs and organizations of which he is a member.

The Our Gang leaders caused considerable excitement recently when being entertained by President and Mrs. Hoover at the White House. After luncheon, the Chief Executive asked the film star what he thought of the White House. "Freckles," after giving the question a moment's thought replied, "I wonder how my pal Al Smith would look here."

Jackie Cooper Stars In Film Here Sunday

Jackie Cooper, the phenomenal teenaged boy who learned to effectively with wit and bravado Robert Coogan in the first "Pinky" story to reach the screen, "Skippy," co-stars again with Coogan in a new Shantytown adventure, "Society," which opens a two days run at the Milane Theatre, Sunday.

Paramount, which produced the first Crosby hit, in its successful story has maintained as much of the original cast and a technical staff as possible.

In addition to Cooper as "Skippy" and Coogan as "Society," five other members of the "Skippy" cast carry on in roles which they created. They are Jackie Earl as "Daddy," Willard Robertson as "Dr. Skinner," Emil Bennett as "Mrs. Skinner," Helen Jerome Eddy as "Mrs. Wayne," and Guy Oliver as "Mr. Morgan."

Norman Taurog again directs. Sam Mintz and Don Marquis contribute to the adaptation and dialogue, the same capacities they occupied for "Skippy," and all in all, "Society" should prove quite satisfying and entertaining.

PAUL REVERE

An American patriot of revolutionary days, who, believing that a good thing should be passed along to everybody, jumped on his horse, one April night in 1835, and split the wind throughout the neighborhood, yelling: "Wake up! Wake up! You
