Malpractice Bill Still Not Answer

The question of equity in medical malpractice insurance has not been answered by the bill passed last week by the Florida legislature and signed into law by Gov. Reubin Askew.

Though the bill has won praise from many doctors and indications are that the skyrocketing of malpractice insurance rates may stop - and perhaps reverse - the thrust of the bill is toward eliminating what the American Medical Association (AMA) terms "nuisance suits."

If these "nuisance suits" represent a major problem, it seems unlikely that the Florida bill will help ease that problem. Doctors seem to feel the bill's privision for arbitration of disputes under the malpractice statutes will lighten the court load and lower the cost to the doctor's insurance carrier of defending lawsuits.

We fail to see how the arbitration panel can help in this area. If a suit is, in reality, a "nuisance suit," then the person who brings that suit is certainly not going to go along with any arbitration finding that he feels is unsatisfactory. He will go to court anyway.

After all, those who file "nuisance suits" are out to make some money and one Seminole County doctor told The Herald that despite the new law, "Malpractice suits are still an easy way for people to make money.

The Florida bill provides guaranteed insurance did not scratch in the tiniest the hardcore supcoverage to every doctor in the state, up to $100,000 a claim. Doctors and hospitals can get additional coverage by contributing to a patient's com-

In recent months, in Florida and in other states, doctors have been threatening to go on strike, in some cases have ceased performing all but the most urgent surgery as part of an intensive AMA lobbying effort to change the rules under which they do business with their insurance

Our fear is that the AMA, and its local medical society affiliates, would be better encouraged to crack down on chronic malpractitioners if the insurance setup was one that would promote low rates for the competent and weed out the in-

We don't think there can be any argument with the fact that malpractice insurance rates have soared out of sight. One Seminole County physician was paying less than $300 per year for his insurance 12 years ago. This year he is paying $7,000. Another doctor has seen his premiums go from $1,100 in 1972 to $5,200 in 1975.

One local physician sees the bill as a means of "bringing some doctors back into practice." This doctor says that high insurance rates have driven many young practitioners out of the profession entirely, or into the military service, where malpractice insurance is not a factor.

Another Seminole County doctor says that while he has no way of guessing whether the insurance companies will be able to lower their rates under the new law, "I would certainly hope that if the rates do come down, all of us will make an effort to reflect any downward changes back to the

Certainly, any change in the law that may result in lower charges to the over-burdened consumer of medical service is going to be welcomed. However, the over-riding question concerning the malpractice issue is more important than even cost. Unfortunately, the new law in Florida does not address itself to that problem.

What is needed now, is stiffer regulation of medical practices, better-trained doctors, and a watchful medical society that can clamp down on those doctors who, through impatience, incompetence or just plain overwork, are dragging down the high standards of their honored

Army, Air Force Plan To Cut Officer Corps

WASHINGTON (AP) - Many Army and Air Force officers, mostly captains, are due to get word in the months ahead that they'll be forced to leave the military as the services gear nown from the vietnam era. An Army personnel board is meeting this month to pick 2, 150 from among 2,700 officers being considered for involuntary separation during the fiscal year starting July

1. In a departure from past practice, the board was told to give equal consideration to regular officers and reservists on active duty. Maj. Gen. George W. Putnam, the Army's chief of personnel, estimated about 900 would be regulars. He said "we found we were cutting out reserve officers who were more qualified" than regulars being kept. But the Air Force is confining its cuts to reservists and will sever between 1,200 to 3,000 during the next fiscal year, depending on how many leave voluntarily.

Amtrak Bill Is Signed

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Ford says a bill providing $1.1 billion for the National Railroad Passenger Corp. (Amtrak) should result in improved intercity rail passenger service.

Ford signed the legislation Sunday but expressed reservations about a requirement that Congress be given an opportunity to approve or veto any plans by Amtrak to modify routes or services planned as part of an improvement program.

Ford said he has been advised by the attorney general that this is "an unconstitutional exercise of constitutional power" and that he is "seriously concerned about the increasing frequency with which Congress passes legislation containing such provisions."

Loopholes Cost $58.2 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) - Federal tax loopholes saved the 160,000 richest taxpayers in the United States a total of $7.3 billion last fiscal year, a new Treasury Department Over all, tax loopholes cost the Treasury $58.2 billion in 1974. The 160,000 richest taxpayers were those with gross incomes of $100,000 and more for the fiscal year that ended last June 30. The study said they saved an average of $45,662 through tax loopholes last year.

Stanley Cup: Another Sip Tonight

BUFFALO (AP) - There have been complaints throughout this National Hockey League championship series that the season lasts far too long, that the players are mentally and -Daysically weary, and that the day after Memorial Day is no time to be playing a winter sport.

Yet the Buffalo Sabres hope with all their might that the season will last two games longer. Trailing the Philadelphia Flyers three victories to two in the Stanley Cup's final series, a loss would mean the start of an unbearable summer. A victory in tonight's sixth game would send the series back to Philadelphia for Thursday night's deciding contest. For their part, the Flyers would be more than happy to end the fans for a victory parade Wednesday morning. "We must win today," said Philadelphia center Terry Crisp. "We blew two games in Buffalo already and they'll give us a good game today. The toughest game to win is always the last

It's also the toughest to lose, and the Sabres have no intention of going down without a fight - if they are to go down at all. "We've got to give all we've got," said Buffalo defenseman Jim Schoenfeld. "That's all there is to it. You don't hold back for anything and hope you can win two more hockey games. But we've got to get an early lead to do it."

The series has fallen into a pattern over the last three games: The Flyers have taken the lead within minutes of the opening faceoff. In Games 3 and 4, the Sabres battled back to win on their fog-clouded Memorial Auditorium home ice. The fog returned for Monday's practice, thanks to temperatures in the low 70s, and was expected to make its return to game action Tuesday night. In the other two games here the haze stopped play a total

In Philadelphia Sunday, Buffalo could not extricate itself from the early deficit, Flyers' badman Dave Schultz scored twice while Bob Kelly, Reggie Leach and Gary Dornhoefer added single goals to give Philadelphia a 5-1 triumph and send them to

That it not to say, however, that Plyers Coach Fred Shero was pleased with the proceeding. He would not meet with newsmen after the game, saying he wanted to look at films of the contest while the game still was fresh in his mind. He later revealed that he was angry with his players.

"I was mad at the team for losing their discipline after they got that big lead," Shero said Monday after showing up late for the trip here, "I was constantly lecturing them on the bench, They started to float. They let up. It was a good game for our

Indians Erupt After Plea From Robby

It may never go down in history alongside Knute Rockne's legendary "win one for the Gipper" tearjerker, but the Cleveland Indians got the same result Monday from Manager Frank Robinson's little pep talk.

They went out and clobbered the California Angels 9-3 after Robinson talked them out of boycotting the game to protest his three-day suspension. And before turning the reins over to coach Dave Garcia, he also asked them to "play as hard for Dave as you have been for me."

Elsewhere in the American League, the Oakland A's edged the Baltimore Orioles 6-5 in 11 innings, the Boston Red Sox outslugged the Texas Rangers 7-5, the Kansas City Royals nipped the New York Yankees 6-5 in 11 innings, the Chicago White Sox downed the Milwaukee Brewers 4-2 and the Detroit Tigers defeated the Minnesota Twins 6-2. Coach Tom McCraw said Robinson's pep talk "was nothing dramatic. He hasn't lost his cool all year." But the Indians, who had dropped 23 of 38 starts under Robinson's leadership, battered four California pitchers for 13 hits, including Charlie Spikes' first home run of the season. A's 6, Orioles 5 Gene Tenace drove in his fifth run of the game with a two-out single in the 11th inning. It was Baltimore's fifth consecutive setback and ninth in 10 games and dropped the Orioles into last place in the AL East. Red Sox 7, Rangers 5

Dwight Evans' tie-breaking two-run homer in the eighth inning capped a late-inning exchange of home runs and enabled Boston to open a 11/2 game lead over Milwaukee in the AL East. Evans' fifth home run of the season came off reliever Steve Foucault, who also yielded a three-run homer to Bernie Carbo in the seventh when the Red Sox scored four times and erased a 3-1 deficit. It was Carbo's eighth. Royals 6, Yankees 5

Frank White's suicide squeeze bunt scored Jim Wohlford with an unearned run in the 11th inning, capping a late Kansas City

After being held to one run and three hits for seven innings by Doc Medich, the Royals tied the score with two runs in the eighth and two in the ninth. Chris Chambliss paced the Yankees to a 5-1 lead with two doubles and a single. He scored three times. White Sox 4, Brewers 2

Bucky Dent and Brian Downing belted consecutive two-out homers off Jim Colborn in the ninth inning. Dent's first home run of the season broke a 2-2 tie and Downing followed with homer No. 3. Jorge Orta hit his third home run in the third inning after the White Sox took a 1-0 lead in the second on a walk and singles by Tony Muser and Dent. Tigers 6, Twins 2

Home runs by Dan Meyer and Aurelio Rodriguez backed the six-hit pitching of Vern Ruhle as Detroit ended the Twins' fourgame winning streak. Both homers came in the first two innings off Bill Campbell, a relief specialist, who was making his third major league start and first since 1973. Rodriguez added a tworun double off Tom Burgmeier.

Evil Knievel Last Jump

LONDON (AP) - Evel Knievel said he would never jump again after suffering painful injuries in a motorcycle leap over 13 single-deck London buses that he thought failed to set a distance record.

But promoters of the stunt and most of the newsmen who watched the 35-year-old American daredevil hit the dust at 100 miles an hour Monday night accepted the claim of his aides that he had set a new flying motorcycle mark of 140

"In two or three days, Evel may and in maider the decision not to ride again, said his publicity man. "He is in considerable pain and the last thing in the world he wants to be thinking about at this stage is riding a bike." A few persons said they thought Knievel's 750cc Harley Davidson touched the roof of the 13th bus and that caused him to fall before 70,000 screaming spectators in London's Wembley Stadium. But most of the experts agreed he cleared the buses and crashed on landing.

The publicity man, Brian Cartnell, said the motorcycle split a plywood plank when it came down, throwing Evel and the bike into the air. The motorcycle landed on top of him. He limped to a microphone, his costume in tatters and his face blackened, and told the crowd:

"Ladies and gentlemen of this wonderful country, I have got to tell you that you are the last people to see me jump. shall never jump again and that is the truth. I am through." Then he was rushed to the London Hospital. Cartnell said he had a crushed vertebra in the middle of his back, a fracture of the right hand, other spinal damage and severe

The 140-foot jump bettered Knievel's previous mark of 104 feet, set in Toronto, and was the second longest he had ever attempted. The longest was his unsuccessful attempt to rocket over the Snake River Canyon in Idaho last September. Before that, he had tried to hurtle himself over cars, trucks and other objects more than 300 times. He failed in 11 attempts and broke 50 bones.

The accident forced Knievel to cancel the rest of a British

NBA Trainer:

Strike Possible

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) - The National Basketball Players Association could soon face a strike, once its players do not receive what they will ask the management, a trainer said Monday at the NBPA con-Trainer Bill Base of the Milwaukee Bucks said, "The players will decide the strategy on how to respond to demands of the management." Base said that the players have formed a united front to

He explained that the management have all the right to offer fewer advantages to the players, but stressed that the players also have a right to make their choice. "A strike would be bad for everybody, the management, the players and the crowds. The players and the management would lose money, and the fan would not have the games to see. But I can assure you that this group is willing to fight for their rights until the very end," Base

Warrior Fans Celebrate

OAKLAND (AP) - The Golden State fans cut down the nets after the Warriors won the third straight game of the championship series, but after the fourth victory, they stole owner Franklin Mieuli's hat and broke through police lines at San Francisco International Airport. "We're number one, we're number one," an exuberant crowd of 3,000 chanted Monday as the Warriors came home kings of the National Basketball Association. The throng was restrained by a cordon of police until they caught sight of their deplaning heroes. Sixty San Mateo County Sheriff's deputies and airport police stood by helplessly when the fans surged past them, swarming over taxi cabs for a better look at the Warriors. They waved signs such as "Go Warriors Go" and "Only the Warriors do things right in Washington," where they beat the Bullets 96-95 Sunday for the title.
