MISSING VESSELS MYSTERY MAY BE CLEARED UP DIVERTED TO RUSSIA

New York Police Say Radicals Could Have Taken Them

THEY COULD JOIN

SHIPS FORCES, OVERPOWER THE CREWS AND SKIP TO SOVIET RUSSIA

NEW YORK, June 23.—Disappearance at sea of several American ships within the past few months was linked by the New York police last night with plans, revealed to them in a series of raids on radical headquarters a year and a half ago, for the seizure of these vessels at sea and their diversion to Russian soviet ports.

The police said they were informed "through certain confidential sources" that officials of the Union of Russian Workers of the United States and Canada, an organization since broke up, had urged its members who were out of employment, especially those with knowledge of the sea, to seek employment on American ships, overpower the other members of the crew and direct the vessels to Russia.

The identity of these "confidential sources" was not revealed by the police. All the information which came into their possession, with the enormous amount of literature and documents seized, they said, was turned over to the department of justice.

So far as known these plans were never put into execution prior to the raids, but police said they formed the chief subject of discussion at several secret meetings of the Russian organization.

The organization, police declared, was composed largely of Russian anarchists, who used the labor union movement as a camouflage. Their headquarters were repeatedly raided by the police during 1919 and 1920, and numerous arrests were made. Eventually the majority of these arrested were deported to Russia, most of them aboard the United States army transport Buford.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Department of justice officials said last night they would communicate with their New York office and with Detective Sergeant J. J. Gegan, chief of the bomb squad, to obtain all available information on the reported seizure more than a year ago from the United Russian Workers of the United States and Canada of documents containing plans for the capture of American ships and their diversions to Russian ports.

Raids upon communistic organizations in November, 1919, and in May, 1920, officials said, had netted tons of documents revealing many radical plans but there were no schemes for the seizure of American ships so far as they could recall.

Department officials expect to complete within a month the process of solving the mystery of the disappearance of the crew of the schooner Carroll E. Deering, with several government agents working on the problems, officials said yesterday, the various possibilities could be run down in that time.

Senate Receds From All Amendments to Soldier Bill

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 23.—An agreement upon 106,000 men for the navy enlisted personnel for the next fiscal year, a reduction of about 14,000, was reached yesterday by senate and house conferees on the navy appropriation bill.

Formal and final agreement on the bill was deferred until today, but the conferees said they had paved the way for a complete agreement subject to approval by the house and senate.

A reduction of about $80,000,000 in the senate bill, and an increase of about $18,000,000 over the house bill was said to have been virtually settled. This would bring the total outlay of the bill to about $414,000,000.

The conferees also agreed to an enlisted personnel for the marine corps of 21,000 men.

The conferees agreed to provide only for one airplane carrier with an initial appropriation of $3,000,000.

The senate had provided for two. The Borah amendment requesting the president to call a naval disarmament conference of Great Britain, Japan and the United States is not to be settled in conference but will be brought before the house for a vote.

Congressional action on the army appropriation bill, carrying a total of approximately $228,000,000 was voted to recede from its amendments unacceptable to the house and accept the report of its conferees on compromised terms.

Jax Invites State to Attend Big Celebration Next Week

JACKSONVILLE, June 23.—When the St. Johns river bridge between Jacksonville and South Jacksonville is opened with the big celebration, June 30th through July 2nd, the last link in the continuous Dixie Highway to its most southerly terminus will have been completed and the "open road" to Florida will stretch in unbroken continuity before motorists of the United States leading to the many spots of health and recreation in this "Land of Flowers."

Throughout the eastern portion of the United States this event is regarded as having great significance and the celebration plans already have caused widespread comment.

The celebration will prove, according to the general committee, the greatest event of its kind the South has ever known and it will attract attendance from many other states. Florida cities and counties will be well represented here during the three big days and many large official delegations already have been appointed.

The governor and his cabinet will be present as will be the entire state road department, headed by Hon. W. B. Phillips, chairman. The mayors of many other cities are coming and many county commission boards also will be present.

To Win Presidency of of American Feder- ation of Labor

GOMPERS RECORD

AND WILL STAND OR FALL ON WHAT HE HAS ACCOM- PLISHED

(By The Associated Press)

DENVER, June 23.—Government ownership of railroads and nationalization of coal mines were the two major issues on which John L. Lewis hopes to win the presidency of the American Federation of Labor it was learned today. On the other hand, President Samuel Gompers is striving for re-election upon his record of the last forty-one years as leader of the American Labor movement.

DENVER, June 23.—Reaffirming its stand for government ownership with democratic operation of the railroads, the convention of the American Federation of Labor yesterday directed its executive council to draw up proposed legislation designed to give the workers through government regulation equal rights and privileges with capital in organized enterprises.

In authorizing the legislative program, the convention overthrew the majority report of the resolutions committee, which provided only aid for the railroad unions in their fight for government ownership of the railroads.

The debate was long and stormy. Opponents of the majority report declared its declarations were "socialistic and red" and were designed to extend government ownership to all basic industries of the country, including the mines, textile, iron and steel, newspaper and book industries. They were answered with the argument that the declaration set forth "a sane and constructive policy for organized labor" and that there was no socialism, bolshevism, communism nor anarchism in it.

One of the chief supports of the resolution involving the application of the principles of government ownership to all basic industries was President John L. Lewis, of the United Mine Workers, who is a candidate for the presidency of the federation.

It is also possible that other vessels will be ordered here by Edwin Denby, secretary of the navy, who has been asked to co-operate in making the celebration a success.

These houses are too well known to need any explanation and the advertisement in The Herald in a few days will explain the plan to those who are contemplating building. W. S. Entsminger expects to make Sanford headquarters before long and the new firm will have about four counties in this part of the state for the "Quickbilt" houses.

Their headquarters for the present will be at Longwood and C. W. Entsminger will explain the houses to anyone interested.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

SAYS BACKACHE IS SIGN YOU HAVE BEEN EATING TOO MUCH MEAT.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means that you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clogged you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.—Adv.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK WILL ERECT FOUR STORY BUILDING IN NEAR FUTURE—MODERN IN DETAIL

To Contain Finest Vaults and Banking Fixtures
in The State of Florida—Estimated Cost of Improvements Will Be Around $100,000.00

WILL BE FOUR STORIES ON FIRST STREET AND PARK AVENUE AND THREE STORIES ON PARK AVENUE ANNEX BUILDING

(From Saturday's Daily)
The First National Bank is contemplating the erection of a five story bank and office building on the present site of the bank and adding another story to the annex building on Park Avenue. Both the buildings will be connected and a modern elevator service will be installed serving both buildings. The banking rooms and vaults will be among the finest in the state and accommodations will be made in the safety deposit vault to serve one thousand customers. The estimated cost of these improvements will be around $100,000.00.

This modest statement was made to the Herald this morning by President F. P. Forster, of the First National Bank. It means so much to Sanford that an ordinary article could not be written about it so we leave it to the imagination of the reader. The third and fourth floors of the new building will contain office rooms and the third floor of the new annex building will also be made into modern office rooms. This building will be the first of the kind to be erected in this city and will fill a long felt want in the line of up-to-date offices that can be used ensuite or single with elevator service and all the modern conveniences. It means that Sanford is getting into the modern big city class and first street will soon contain many more buildings of this kind.

The first applicant for offices was in early today at the bank and has already leased a suite. The honor goes to Col. George W. Knight, who recognized the many advantages of this modern building and has made the first application for offices. This demonstrates that the First National Bank building will be one of the most popular office buildings in the city and will be rented long before the building is finished.

Bridge Will Open On Promised Date; Jax Will Celebrate

JACKSONVILLE, June 21.—With construction being rushed at top speed on the St. Johns river bridge, no doubt, now exists that the bridge will be ready and opened July 1st when arrangements have been made for elaborate dedication ceremonies in connection with the Duval County Bridge Celebration.

Three days of entertainment with carnival and Mardi Gras features are assured all visitors. A band tournament in which at least six well known Florida bands will participate has been arranged and the amateur base ball championship of Florida will be decided in a series of games to be played under the auspices of the celebration committee.

A magnificent naval parade with decorated boats and probably ships detailed here by the navy also has been arranged. The largest civic parade ever attempted in Florida is assured, with nearly one hundred handsomely decorated floats already entered and more being listed every day.

Frank C. Grover, general chairman of the Celebration committee and his co-workers are exerting every effort to make this celebration an unequalled success and are meeting with county-wide and state-wide support in their endeavors.

G. Z. Phillips, chairman of the transportation committee expects to be able to announce within a few days that low round trip rates have been granted by every line entering Jacksonville.

WILSON HANGS IN ORLANDO TODAY, KILLED WOMAN

WILSON HUNG AT 1:07.

(From Friday's Daily)
Communications from Orlando today said that Wilson was hung at 1:07 and was pronounced dead at 1:21. He never talked about the crime and before the trap was sprung thanked everyone for their kindness to him, especially all the county officials. He remarked about the rope not having the official number of knots required by law and said the black cap did not suit him. He exhibited remarkable nerve throughout and never showed any nervousness. The hanging was made without a hitch. The remains were taken to the county poor farms for burial.

John P. Wilson, convicted in the circuit court here for the murder of Mrs. George E. Dyal at Goldenrod on the night of December 31st last, and sentenced to hang will pay the penalty of his crime on the gallows in the Orange county jail today between the hours of 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. Sheriff Karel has stated that only officials of the law, clergymen and newspaper men will be allowed in the jail to witness the execution. Governor Hardee to whom a petition was addressed by a number of Orlando and Orange county citizens asking that Wilson's sentence be commuted to life imprisonment, has as yet made no move to stay the execution and it is not believed the governor will grant a reprieve to the condemned man.

Wilson, who since his sentence has refused to talk to newspaper men, still keeps his silence. Again yesterday he was asked if he had a statement to make to the public through the press and he replied with a slight display of temper that "they had lied too much about him now."

"Have you given up all hope of a reprieve from the governor?" he was asked, but he would not answer. "Can we tell the people that you are sorry for what you have done?" was another question that we put to him, but he had thrown himself on his cot and appeared absorbed in a magazine.

Apparently the man has iron nerves and will go to his death tomorrow with the same show of sangfroid he displayed on that fateful night last December when he sat on the deck in the office of the Orange county jail and told of how he had shot to death in cold blood a woman for whom he bore an illegitimate love.—Orlando Sentinel.

COMMUNITY CLUB MET AT GENEVA, HAD BIG SUPPER

BIG CROWD PRESENT AND EVERYONE HAD FINE TIME.

(From Saturday's Daily)
The Community club of Geneva held their first big party last night and invited their friends from all parts of the county to be with them and partake of the chicken pillau and ice cream and cake and other things. Of course there was a small sum charged for the eats, but you received such a large plate of the pillau and there were so many good things went with it and the money all went for the club and everybody was satisfied. In fact, you never go to Geneva without being fed to the limit and last night was no exception to the rule.

After the multitude had been fed, the president, Mrs. P. T. Wakefield, called on R. J. Holly for a few words on community building and he responded with much praise for the good work of the Geneva folks in forming this community club and wished them success and a new community club.

The big surprise came when Hon. E. H. Kilbee was called upon and he told the ladies that there was a certain bunch of boosters in Geneva who owned a lot and had some money that they would donate to the Community club for their new building. He was applauded loud and long and he went on to say that the people of Geneva appreciated The Herald.

Many of those present expressed themselves as being greatly pleased at the efforts of The Herald to give them a good paper and now that the mail was coming to Geneva promptly on account of the change in the system that all of them would like to take The Daily Herald—their own county daily—and they would do so.

After several other good talks and the determination to go forward with the Community club and put Geneva on the map the people dispersed with the feeling that they had been well fed and well entertained, and that whenever Geneva invited them again they would be there.

The Geneva section is one of the liveliest parts of Seminole county and they are waking up to their wonderful possibilities.

SUCCEEDED OR FAIL

This is the most vital question with the Celery farmers in and around Sanford. With the proper strain of seed together with the proper management from the time of planting to marketing there is no doubt of success. Therefore, it is very essential that the farmer should be very careful in selecting his seed, knowing the source of supply, knowing the house he obtains these seed through and being thoroughly convinced that the quality is O. K.

If the planter will follow the following instructions they will get the information and at the same time will be convinced of the proper seed to plant. We have the invoice from the grower, the B-L from France to their destination and last but not least the seed is in 5 pound sealed packages sealed with Vilmorin's seal. When we have said Vilmorin Celery Seed, we have said it all so far as quality is concerned. Give us your order and join the satisfied band.—The L. Allen Seed Co., Sanford, Fla. 44-2tc

MAYOR MARTIN WAS GUEST CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AT MONTHLY BANQUET

About One Hundred
Members Sat Down
To Big Feast
WAS BIRTHDAY, TOO

AND HE RECEIVED FINE BIRTH-DAY CAKE FROM THE VALDEZ HOTEL

Despite the inclement weather there were a large number of members present at the monthly banquet of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce to hear Jacksonville's popular executive, Mayor John W. Martin.

The Business and Professional Women's Club also had a large number of their members present on this occasion.

President Ball presided as toastmaster and during the course of the dinner called for short talks from Mr. E. T. Woodruff who took the opportunity to discuss that important project, the St. Johns-Indian river canal.

The mayor received a very unexpected and agreeable surprise when he was presented with a birthday cake in honor of his birthday. He made a very fitting tribute to the donor, Mrs. C. H. Campbell, for this evidence of thoughtfulness and kindness on her part. The cake was presented by Forest Lake, who also spoke briefly on the subject, "What the Chamber of Commerce has Done for Sanford." F. P. Forster, Seminole county's representative in the last legislature, was called upon by the president to discuss Roads and Bridges and was followed shortly afterward by Miss Moll Whitner, who, in a few well timed remarks, spoke of the activities of the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Mayor Martin's address was one that was in accord with his reputation as a brilliant talker and this reputation was even greatly enhanced by his address before the gathering last evening.

Those present, who were already acquainted with him, were glad of the opportunity to renew the acquaintance. It was generally admitted that the mayor has made a host of new friends as a result of his visit here. The mayor's strong personality and fine record of accomplishments in Jacksonville, should stand him in good stead now that he has announced his intention of entering the next gubernatorial race. His subject was along the lines of civic pride and the development of those lines which are absolutely essential to the building up of the municipality, state and nation. He also argued for a greater co-operation between the various sections of the state, stating that the sectional feeling would always be the means of deferring that development of the state which could otherwise be expedited by a closer co-operation. Mayor Martin also paid a eulogy to Sanford and the wonderful resources which it possesses.

The Sanford Chamber of Commerce was very much pleased to have the honor of entertaining the mayor and when the invitation was extended to him some two months ago to address the Chamber of Commerce, it was not known at the time that he would be a candidate for governor. The organization considers it an additional honor that they had the opportunity of hearing him make his first address since his announcement. Also to have had the pleasure of helping him celebrate his birthday on the day on which he was re-elected as mayor of Jacksonville.

MOTOR PARTY TO CORONADO

(From Monday's Daily)
Yesterday was an ideal day for a picnic and a congenial group of Sanford folks motored over to Coronado Beach where they enjoyed the day with surf bathing and other water sports. At noon a bounteous picnic dinner was served at the pavilion and supper was enjoyed at New Smyrna enroute home.
Among those enjoying this delightful trip were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Purdon, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, Messrs. Archie Betts and C. F. Chapman and Little Louise Purdon, Wilson Smith and Braxton Perkins.

SPORT WORLD

SANFORD 5, TAMPA 0.

(From Wednesday's Daily)
While en route to Palatka to play a series of three games with that crack team of theirs, a team representing the Cox Sporting Goods company of Tampa; stopped in Sanford to be blown off to the tune of 5-0.

Tampa, under the personal direction of Mr. Cox, and ably managed by Mr. Cooney, have a nice bunch of boys. Both Mr. Cox and Mr. Cooney are perfect gentlemen and have with them a crowd of young men that proved to be one of the nicest ball clubs that has been in Sanford this season. And to give them all that is coming to them we must admit that were it not for an accident on the road that kept these boys traveling all day up until time if the game—their car having caught fire and several of the boys' fingers were burned in putting out the blaze—this team would have made it harder for Sanford.

There was some delay in getting started on account of the Tampa boys not being here on time, but the large crowd that witnessed the game was not kept waiting long and after the game got under way the fans were well repaid for their wait.
Sanford scored two runs in the first inning and one more in the fourth, after which the heavens opened up and rained so hard that it drove most of the fans down town thinking that it was over, but the diamond was in fine condition—really better—after the rain and the game went on.

Sanford scored twice again in the sixth and all this time Ammon's delivery, backed up by errorless support behind him, was a little too much for Tampa and they failed to score once.

Rive and Ammon were both back in the game and their presence brot the club back to its proper strength and the way the entire club was working yesterday with the fast double-plays, etc., it begins to look harder each day for Palatka on the Fourth, and if these same two players had been in the game at Eustis Monday we believe the score would have been different.

Kissimmee plays here Thursday, Eustis will be here next Tuesday, and Winter Park next Thursday, after which Sanford again plays away from home for several games; two with Palatka on the Fourth. There will be plenty of big dolings at Palatka on the Fourth for those fans who are contemplating this trip. A large crowd will leave here on the boat Sunday, take in the two games, band concerts, dancing, etc., on the Fourth to return on the midnight train that night.

The box score for yesterday's game is as follows:

GOOD BALL GAMES HERE

Sanford is not in the big league this season but Sanford has a ball team that gives the fans just as many thrills as if it was the big league stuff. The players are big league players, even if they are off duty, and the games here are of the kind that makes for real enjoyment. The public should encourage the boys by coming out to the games and later Sanford will have a real amusement park that will embrace a ball park, athletic field and fair grounds. If you want to see a real ball game attend the game here with Kissimmee tomorrow.

CONCRETE BRIDGE WILL CHANGE OWNERSHIP

FRANCHISE GRANTED NINE YEARS AGO, OUT NEXT YEAR

The franchise to Michael Sholtz, associates and assigns for the construction, maintenance and the right to collect tolls over the cement bridge across the Halifax river at Daytona was granted on April 1, 1912, on April fools day nine years ago. If the contention of attorneys of the county is correct, and the right to collect tolls ceases upon the expiration of the time for which franchise was granted, and any bridge or toll road franchise granted for ten years ceases upon the expiration of the franchise and the road or bridge automatically goes to the public, the cement bridge at Daytona will become public property and be a free bridge on the first day of next May.

This bridge has been estimated at a value of $80,000 and will be a nice pick-up for the county next year, if the contention of the county is correct.—DeLand News.

Irish Sympathizers Lose Out in Fight in Federation Meeting

Wanted to Overthrow Resolution That Cout Out Proposal

(By The Associated Press)
DENVER, June 22.—Irish sympathizers supporting a resolution calling for a boycott against British goods was overwhelmingly defeated in an attempt to have the American Federation of Labor convention overthrow the ruling by President Compters which prevented reconsideration of their proposal. After a stormy debate a resolution was adopted expressing sympathy for the Irish cause. Unanimously adopted resolution urging modification of the Volstead act to permit manufacture and sale of beer.

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is aching; if what you eat sours and forms acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling just right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before eating more food.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate, which is inexpensive and almost tasteless.

Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast.

WHO WANTS THIS PRISONER?

JACKSONVILLE, June 22.—Richard Hilliard, Jr., is in the Duval county jail here but doesn't know how long he will be there or whether he really belongs in that particular lock-up. He was at liberty on bail awaiting trial in Federal court and while enjoying his freedom was arrested in Seminole county and convicted of forgery. Hilliard escaped after serving three months of a one year sentence and upon his recapture was delivered to the Seminole county jailer. Then Federal Judge Call issued a writ of habeas corpus upon the Seminole sheriff who replied that he hadn't Hilliard in his possession but would tell the judge where he could be found. The necessary orders were issued and Hilliard was brought here. Now he is wondering who will have charge of him next.

MELLON FAVORS $3,010,000 FOR VETS' HOSPITALS

INCLUDES $300,000 FOR GOVERNMENT PLANT AT LAKE CITY.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Approval of seven hospital projects involving a total expenditure of $3,010,000, as recommended by the board of consultants on hospitalization for the treatment of former service men was announced today by Secretary Mellon. Expenditure of $500,000 at the United States public hospital service Hospital No. 42, Perryville, Md., was approved for the erection of buildings to accommodate 300 neuro-psychiatric patients and improvement of existing facilities.

At Lake City, Florida, expenditure of $300,000 was approved for the construction of buildings and for improvements intended to add a tuberculosis unit of 100 beds.

Representatives of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars protested today against the alleged treatment of veterans to the senate special committee dealing with activities affecting former service men. John T. Taylor, vice-chairman of the legislative committee of the American Legion, complained particularly of "the failure of the government to provide adequate hospital facilities," asserting that there are now 15,000 former service men who cannot be given needed medical treatment.

The bureau of war risk insurance, Mr. Taylor also charged, had failed to assist those entitled to give aid, and he appealed for more sympathetic treatment of veterans, many of whom, he said, now suffer "because they do not know their rights or how to obtain them."

"We ask you to humanize the various bureaus dealing with former-service men," Edwin S. Bettelheim, Jr., of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, told the committee, urging especially that congress compel the bureau of war risk insurance to help the veterans. He cited cases in support of the charge that the board had been negligent in the settlement of disability claims.

Senator Calder of New York, a member of the committee, said a veteran had appealed to him for assistance in a disability case which had been pending for many months, but that the man died before the settlement reached him.

"There are people in that bureau who should not have been permitted to enter Washington," exclaimed Senator Pomerene, Democrat, Ohio.

Will Make Crystal Lake a Great Swimming Place

The work of making Crystal Lake a real amusement place and swimming hole begun some time ago by the Men's Club of the Congressional church seems to have taken a big start, assisted by the big-hearted people of all the churches. Two bath houses will be erected at once—in fact the work has already started on them and they will be made convenient for men and women and it is hoped that those who use them will be ladies and gentlemen and not destroy this property after it has been donated and built for the public.

A. J. Lossing, of the Quick Transfer Co., hauled the lumber free of charge from town to the lake. W. F. Fields and Harry Kent and Mr. Campbell are making the bath houses. The Hill Lumber Co., furnished all the lumber and other materials free of charge and S. O. Chase, who owns the land, gave them free use of the space for the bath houses.

This is the right spirit of co-operation on the part of the people and the public should meet them half way and take care of this property. At various times the tables and other property at Crystal Lake have been demolished by people who did not stop to think what they were doing. Take care of it and enjoy it is the wish of the donors.

Indianapolis to Grow Poppies From France in Honor of Galbraith

INDIANAPOLIS, June 22.—Poppies from the battlefields of France will be grown at the national headquarters of the American Legion here in memory of Commander Galbraith, who was killed in an automobile accident here recently.

What is so rare as a day in June? Not the bridegroom, surely, for he is well done.

KEEP YOUR MONEY HOME WHEN MAKING INVESTMENTS, WHERE IT WILL BE SAFE

Many Good Investments Here in Sanford—Valdez Hotel Stock Good

(From Wednesday's Daily) It is passing strange that with so many good solid investments right in Sanford the people with money to invest would go far afield looking for investments when they are overlooking the best bet right at home. There are many good investments here and the Herald has called attention to them from time to time with the idea that our money could be kept at home where it would not only foster home enterprises but where it would be used in many different ways. You cannot grind with the water that has passed the mill and you cannot get a chance to use the money again that has passed out of your city.

Among the real good investments is the Valdez Hotel first mortgage bonds, interest payable semi-annually at 8 per cent. The officers are all Sanford men, well known in the community, business men who know what it means to Sanford to have a real hotel and who went ahead and built it. They now ask the community to come in and take some of the stock in order that part of the indebtedness can be wiped out and more people interest themselves in this great project and help to make the city bigger and better in many ways. The advertisement calling attention to this investment appears in this issue of the Herald. Would it be asking too much of those folks with money to invest to read the advertisement and then go to the First National Bank or the Seminole Bank and get all the particulars on this gilt edge investment? And also remember that you cannot go to the local bank and get an endorsement of many of the stocks that you are putting your money into every day—remember that. Your home banker knows what is good and what is bad and he will tell you more in a moment about investments than you will ever know in a year from other people. Look up this Valdez Hotel stock. Investigate it. Keep your money at home and help to build your own town.

STATE NEWS

DeLAND, June 22.—Members of the DeLand Hi-Y Club of the DeLand High school conducted a union Sunday night service at the Presbyterian church recently. Franklin B. Talton, president of the club, acted as master of ceremonies and other members delivered addresses on appropriation subjects.

TAVARES, June 22.—Business concerns that plaster trees, fences and other objects along the highways in Lake county with signs and other advertising devices, in future must patronize the newspapers if they would call the attention of the public to their wares. Road Commissioner Heller has ordered the five road crews in the county to destroy all signs wherever found.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 22.—No evening services will be held in Protestant churches in St. Petersburg until the middle of September according to an announcement by the Ministerial Association, the summer open air, union services in Williams Park having begun last Sunday. The ministers will conduct the services in rotation and each will preside at least once during the summer.

CARRABELLE, June 22.—Liberty and Wakulla counties are at loggerheads regarding the prosecution of Turner Overstreet, negro, charged with having caused the death of Hezekiah Brown, his nephew. Overstreet is charged, while fishing with Brown in a boat on Sanborn Lake, struck his nephew on the head with a paddle. Brown fell into the water and was drowned. Sheriff Morrison, of Wakulla county arrested Overstreet. The controversy between the two counties arose over whether Brown was drowned in Wakulla or Liberty, as some persons claim the lake is in Wakulla and others declare it is in Liberty. An inquest has not yet been held as it has not been decided whether the Wakulla or Liberty coroner has jurisdiction.

TALLAHASSEE, June 22.—Wakulla Beach, better known as East Goose Creek, is to be connected with Tallahassee by a direct highway, grading of which already is under way. The beach is slightly more than twenty miles from the capital and with the completion of the new road it is expected to become a popular watering place for Tallahasseeans and other citizens of this section of the state.

CLEARWATER, June 22.—The city council will require 20 mills for the coming year's budget it had been announced, because of the increased expenses due to the development of the city and to care for the floating indebtedness accumulated during the last year. An audit shows the financial affairs of the city to be in excellent condition.

TAMPA, June 22.—A realty company here has given the city the use free of charge until July, 1922, of two blocks of land adjoining Benjamin Field in West Tampa and after improvements now being planned are completed, Tampa will have one of the largest landing fields in the state for aviators.

OCALA, June 22.—The first section of Ocala's White Way has been placed in commission, the lights on ornamental posts about the court house square having been lighted Saturday night for the first time. As rapidly as it is possible to do so the White Way will be extended on the principal streets in the business district. The city owns its electric light plant and furnishes power for its citizens, streets and public buildings at less cost than the majority of the cities of the state.

JACKSONVILLE, June 22.—Final transfer back to the state of Florida of 582 acres of the state camp site at Black Point, near here, upon which Camp Johnston was established during the war, is expected within the next ten days according to Adjutant General C. P. Lovell.

"In securing the grounds for the state again, Florida comes into possession of a gift of not less than 160 buildings, including four great warehouses, mess halls and equipment, light and power transformer station, water, sewerage, improved rifle range, etc.," said Gen. Lovell. "The improvements which the government is giving to Florida in lieu of its loan of the former state encampment grounds to the War Department, during the period of the war, could not possibly be duplicated for a quarter of a million dollars."

"The War Department does not give but leaves for the state's use the well equipped fire department and all its fire fighting apparatus, and to my way of thinking, the state has certainly been the gainer in the transaction. In accepting the settlement the state waives any and all claims, past, present or future, in connection with the government's use of Black Point as a part of the Camp Johnston reservation during the period of the war."

With completion of the transfer the site again will become officially the state encampment grounds and preparations are under way for the holding of the first state encampment of the Florida National Guard since its reorganization. The encampment will be held in August.

LAKELAND, June 22.—Prentiss C. Dodge and Wm. LeBaw Keen have leased the job department of the Lake Land Telegram. The Telegram, in announcing the arrangement, stated that it would enable the Telegram's staff to devote more time to the interests of the newspaper than heretofore possible because of the necessity of devoting a certain amount of attention to the job business.

JACKSONVILLE, June 18.—A statewide movement has been launched by the Florida department of the Colonial Dames of America for the preservation of Forts Marion and Mantanzas at St. Augustine, which have been recommended for abandonment by Secretary of War Weeks.

Mrs. Blon Barnett of Jacksonville has been named chairman of a publicity committee which will direct its efforts toward retaining the historic features of the forts.

Secretary Weeks, recommending the abandonment of the reservations, stated they were of no further use as military posts and should not be carried as war department charges. He pointed out, however, that they could be disposed of only by authority of congress, which, of course, could make ample provision for their preservation as historic relics.

PALATKA, June 18.—The city of Palatka soon will purchase the "old" water plant now operated by a Boston syndicate, and consolidate it with the municipal plant, as a result of legislative authority to issue bonds to cover the purchase and expense of consolidation.

Eighty-five thousand dollars will be paid for the plant and approximately $45,000 will be expended in effecting

What Henry Ford Says About Machine Power Farming

"In the tractor the farmer now has a machine in which is harnessed one of the most adaptable, efficient, economical sources of power in the world—the internal combustion engine.

"The tractor will multiply the productive capacity of each individual farm worker from three to four times over.

"It will put the farmer on a par with the city manufacturer. It will enable the farmer to work fewer hours in the day, giving him more time to enjoy life.

"It will enable each worker to earn so much more that he can be paid more and still leave a greater profit for the man who hires him. It will enable the farmer to work fewer hours in the day, giving him more time to enjoy life.

"I believe the tractor will make farming what it ought to be—the most pleasant, the most healthful, the most profitable business on earth."

the consolidation and improving the city's water system. Each plant's supply of water will be kept separate the plant now operated by the city supplying the fire mains, while the plant to be acquired will furnish water for general purposes.

GAINESVILLE, June 21.—The college of agriculture of the University of Florida is urging Florida farmers to investigate bee culture, declaring that any farmer who owns and cares for bees does not get "stung." The sunshine and flowers of the state make it possible for the bees to produce large quantities of honey, the average for Florida bees some years ago being 86 pounds to the colony or almost twice the average produced in any state in the country. The bees serve a good purpose in addition to the production of useful food inasmuch as they care for the proper pollination of fruit trees by carrying fertilizing pollen from flower to flower.

JACKSONVILLE, June 21.—Failure of federal officers to have a proper warrant when they seized a quantity of intoxicants in the residence of D. R. Armstrong, at Miami, recently has resulted in Armstrong having his liquor returned to him by order of Federal Judge Call. Papers in the case show that the officers seized the following: Twenty-nine cases of cognac, eight cases of Canadian Club whiskey, two cases of Colon whiskey, twelve cases of Gibley gin, sixteen cases of Bacardi rum, two cases of Strathmill Scotch whiskey and two cases of Geneva gin.

MIAMI, June 21.—The police here are continuing their investigation of a mysterious explosion in a garage at the rear of a negro undertaking establishment several nights ago. The explosion, which the police attributed to dynamite, wrecked a touring car, smashed rough boxes that had contained caskets, blew out a part of the building, demolished the glass sides of a hearse and tore shingles from the roof of a nearby house. The police believe an enemy of the undertaker was responsible.

It is believed that dynamite was placed under the hood of the touring car as the motor was blown to bits. Only a part of the body of the machine can be salvaged.

JACKSONVILLE, June 21.—It has been suggested to Lieut. W. H. Cahoon, of the local police department, that reformed safe crackers be employed to assist the police in running down bootleggers here. The police have discovered that some suspected bootleggers have their stores of liquor in safes but since the detectives cannot work the combinations to seize the moonshine as evidence, all they can do is suspect the individual and abandon the proposed raid. In one instance recently liquor was trailed to a small safe. The odor of moonshine permeated the atmosphere and the officers were positive it contained liquor but they could not get into it.

CARRABELLE, June 21.—E. J. Hogan, a former marshal, is being held on a charge of rifling the mails as a result of his arrest Saturday night by persons who were watching the postoffice at Sopahoppy. Postmaster Becton, at Sopahoppy, had been missing articles from the office and established a guard. It is charged that Hogan was caught in the act of opening parcel post packages.

ST. AUGUSTINE, June 21.—The local Board of Trade is raising a fund to defray the expenses of a delegate to Toledo, Ohio, and Mooseheart, Ill., in connection with the proposal of the Loyal Order of Moose to establish in the Southeast a branch of the national home. St. Augustine is anxious to have the branch established here and expects to wage a vigorous campaign toward that end.

Irish Submarine Line Permits Dignitaries to Get to the U. S.

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, June 22.—Two submarines, flying the Irish republic flag, maintain a regular under sea passenger service between this country and Ireland for officials and agents of the Irish republic, according to Captain B. J. Shanley, wounded veteran of the Sixty-ninth regiment of New York. He is also secretary of the New York council of the American association for the recognition of the Irish Republic.

Eamonn de Valera, "president of the Irish republic, arrived in this country in 1919 in an Irish submarine. Shanley declared, and left secretly for Ireland several months ago in the same fashion. Several other diplomats have patronized the same line, he says. The line is still in commission and "functioning regularly," although he refused to give any information about the present whereabouts of the mayor of Cork, who disappeared from the United States after he had been given until June 6 to reship for Ireland as a seaman by the department of labor, is said to have returned to Ireland by the submarine route.

ORLANDO, June 22.—News of the death of William S. Branch last evening at 7:30 cast a gloom over the whole community. Mr. Branch had been ailing for over a year and the end was not unexpected. The deceased had been a resident of Orlando for eighteen years, was active in all things pertaining to the advancement of Orlando and Orange county, and an ardent booster for Orlando; an ardent Christian, an elder in the Presbyterian church, and belonged to the order of the Knights of Pythias.

Jax Sailor Boys Reported Safe, Eagle Boat Out of Oil

(By The Associated Press) JACKSONVILLE, June 22.—Fears for the safety of Eagle boat 39, with Jacksonville naval reservists, which left here last Friday, were dispelled today when it was learned that the vessel run out of fuel and was forced to anchor 120 miles north of Key West. The reservists should have arrived at Key West Saturday night. A tug is now towing the ship to the latter port.

CLEARWATER, June 21.—Waterfowl are making a nesting place of Anderson's Island, opposite Clearwater and more than 200 pairs of birds have set about raising families.

CLEARWATER, June 22.—There is great activity in building here, several homes of the $15,000 class being under construction in the Harbor Oaks section alone. The Stevenson's Creek property of Dr. Discus and J. B. Payne is a busy place as the foundation for the new hotel to be built there already has been placed and building material is arriving by the carload.

NEW ENTERPRISES LISTED AMONG SANFORD FIRMS— WILL OPERATE BUSINESS HERE

Automotive Supply Co., and Nash-Link Ab- stract Co.

(From Saturday's Daily)
Among the new enterprises listed this week for Sanford are the Automotive Supply Company and the Nash-Link Abstract Corporation, letters patent for these two corporations now pending publication.

The Automotive Supply Co., is composed of A. B. Cheney, president; J. E. W. Sistrunk, vice-president and J. N. Schweers, secretary and treasurer. These gentlemen are well known in the automobile supply world having formerly been located at Augusta, Ga. The increase in the auto business in Florida and the central location of Sanford appealed to them so strongly that they were prevailed upon to open the business in this city and have been located here for the past several months, the initial business being so heavy that it determined their locating here permanently.

The Automotive Supply Co., will cover the state of Florida and part of Georgia and Alabama and have a fine trade in this line. The new company expect to purchase a building site and erect suitable buildings commensurate with their remarkable growth in every part of the business and Sanford will meet them half way in this respect and see that they are located here in the wholesale district. The extremely low freight rate of Sanford has made this city the headquarters for many distributing firms and more of them are on the way.

The Nash-Link Abstract Company is composed of George S. Nash, president; W. R. Link, vice-president and E. S. Baker, secretary and treasurer. All of them are well known in this part of Florida and they are expected to open an office here in the next two or three weeks. They will do a general abstract business in Lake, Seminole and Volusia counties and examine and guarantee and insure titles to land.

The Lecture of Dr. Julian DeNazire

(From Saturday's Daily)
It was a pity that a large representative body of Sanford's citizens could not, or did not, hear Dr. DeNazire's fine lecture on sanitation Thursday evening at the Central Park. Those who were present were most fortunate in having an opportunity of listening to the presentation of so vital a matter as the sanitation of our own city and state. For Sanford, with all her advantages, social and commercial, must be on the alert in regard to anything that might menace or mar her brilliant prospect of solid and abiding prosperity.

The State Board of Health has wisely projected an itinerary for examining more intimately the local conditions of our towns and cities, and for helping any who may need advice to meet menacing situations, and affording information as to how to relieve and overcome them.

Dr. DeNazire instructed us as to what a fly can do in the poisoning of food and the conveying of disease germs; while his fondness for filth was finely demonstrated and clearly discussed.

The fecundity of this familiar germ-bearer is amazing. From one female billions may be hatched in a year.

The lecture was replete with valuable information and the fine charts were illuminating and instructive.

Dr. DeNazire is a live wire and was as brilliant and courteous to the few who heard him as he would have been to the large loyal Sanford audiences who ought to have sustained him in his great work of health conservation.

The Board of Health has chosen wisely in selecting an intelligent, earnest, practical representative to look after the great vital interest committed to their keeping.

(From Monday's Daily)
J. E. Pace seems fated to have a run of bad luck this month. The other day his fine home was destroyed by fire and today, at about 1:00 o'clock, the north half of the roof on his warehouse and office building was taken off by a whirlwind that seemed to gather in that portion of the city and confined its attention to the Pace building alone. It did not touch the buildings near by. The roof on the north end was caught by the swirling eddies of wind and rolled up as neatly as Jim Cowan could have done it if he was taking it off.

Pace Home a Land- mark in the Early Life of This City

The recent fire that totally destroyed the J. E. Pace home on Melonville avenue did more than destroy a home—it took away one of the old landmarks of this section and destroyed many old and valuable heirlooms, much valuable personal property and family jewels and plate.

The fire when first discovered was such a small blaze on the roof that the family were sure it could be easily extinguished by neighbors, or at least kept in check until the chemical fire engine of the fire department could get on the scene with the fire fighters. However, it gained such rapid headway and was so difficult to reach with ladders that by the time the fire department arrived it was beyond control of the chemical and, being outside of the fire limits, no water could be had with which to fight it systematically.

The loss of this splendid home brings to mind many stories of the early days of old Melonville—before Sanford was even started. The home was one of the finest of early days and all the lumber came from Georgia and was hewn out by hand as there were no saw mills in this part of the state and no railroads. The lumber came up the river by boat and the home was originally built by George C. Brantley in 1872, and for many years was the gathering place for the people for many miles around. It occupied a beautiful site among the oak trees and palmettos and the natural scenery along the river and was also in the center of a fine orange grove before the big freeze. There were no wire nails used in the construction of this home, all the parts being put together with wooden pins and pegs. The lumber was pure heart timber of the kind that is difficult to obtain in these days. The home stood for many years in its solemn grandeur with its broad verandas, with the cupola on top from which the surrounding country could be seen and was a landmark for the mariners on Lake Monroe.

About twelve years ago George Gould, anchoring in the lake with his yacht, was so much taken with the site and the appearance of this stately mansion that he offered Mr. Pace $100,000 cash for the home and the land that went with it, but Mr. Pace would not part with the place and, indeed, aside from the traditions that cluster around the home and the fact that he and his family had lived there so many years, the celery lands have probably brought the owner that much money since.

Mr. Pace, in attempting to get into the second floor and rescue some of his valuables, was caught by the fire and had to climb down one of the ladders with the blaze all around him. He expects to build a new home on the site of the old building, but it will never be the same old home, for money could not buy such a place in these days of camouflaging the real thing in the building line.

DEATH OF MISS RANDALL.

Young Deane Turner Hit By a Live Wire, Fell From the Pole

BURNED IN SIDE AND HAD BAD
CUT ON HIS HEAD.

(From Monday's Daily)
Little Deane Turner had a narrow escape from death about 10 a. m. this morning when he climbed an electric light pole near the corner of Magnolia avenue and Sixth street and hit a live wire. The shock tore him from the pole and he dropped to the ground, about 18 feet. He happened to fall in the grass plot between the street and the side walk, but it seems that in falling his head hit one of the iron foot braces on the pole, making an ugly wound in his head. He was also badly burned in the left side by the live wire.

Albert Connelly, who was also on the pole, but above Deane, was made to stay there by some of the folks who happened up at that time, and the Southern Utilities company shut off the power until he could be taken down.

Deane is under the care of Dr. Marshall as the Herald goes to press and the extent of his injuries are unknown, but both of these lads had a very narrow escape and it should prove a warning to all boys in the future when they contemplate climbing poles. Live wires are the most dangerous things in the world.

Little Deane is one of the most popular boys in the city, being the son of Mr. and Mrs. Deane Turner and his many friends are hoping his injuries will prove lighter than is supposed.

Dr. Alderman Cleared of Charges Brought to Board

Exonerated of "even the breath of suspicion," Dr. R. H. Alderman, president of Southern College, the Florida Methodist Conference's state college located temporarily at Clearwater Beach, has come through the searching investigation of two inquisitorial bodies, with the leading laymen and members of the clergy "more confident of his proper leadership than before through having learned so thoroughly his efforts, his task and his results." Statements by J. Edgar Wall, Tampa, chairman of the trustees of Southern College, and Rev. W. P. Buhman, Ocala, presiding elder, both chairmen of bodies which investigated charges preferred by Rev. E. M. Stanton, Jr., formerly a faculty member, and Rev. S. T. Harris, a ministerial student, completely exonerated Dr. Alderman, and expressed every confidence in his integrity, character and ability.

Both chairmen, as well as Rev. Stanton and Rev. Harris stated that at no time have charges of misappropriating funds been preferred against the president of the college.

'Tis good to have lived for the good that you can do.

Ask anybody wherever you go about Sanford NOW. It has undergone a great change in the past year.

With but little difference in the plans of anyone. Where is that old-fashioned Republican who would change the tariff?

Some people measure success by the amount of money they have made. We measure it by the amount of good we have accomplished in Sanford.

There is no place in the wide world that is quite as good as this old town of Sanford. Those who have been away lately will tell you so. We are simply doing things here.

And where is that old-fashioned Republican who would cut out the war tax and the income tax and the rest of the burdens that are inflicted on the country at the expense of the little fellow?

Real estate is moving in this town and moving every day. If you want to possess a bit of city business property or suburban property for your future home get it now. It will never be any cheaper.

The beaches are popular now and Sanford folks have the best location in the state where they can get to the ocean in a little more than one hour's drive over good roads. You can take a dip and get back that night or early in the morning ready for work.

It would be well for administration officials to ponder over the problem of the war taxes and income taxes. They will cause a revolution in this country if allowed to prevail much longer. It is an imposition on the public and the public does not purpose to stand it.

The greatest thing in the world is the home and no home can be a real home unless you either own it or own an equity in it with the idea of buying it just like paying rent. It makes you have a better feeling for your home town and a better feeling with the world in general.

The new oiled roads seem to be all right but they are just like other roads. They will need repairing when holes are formed. Our roads have never been taken care of in the proper manner and after spending large sums on good roads they are allowed to go without any repairs for years.

We heard much about the price of necessities dropping. Ice cream and cold drinks are almost a necessity in the summer. Have they dropped? Ice is a necessity. Has it dropped? And on down the list with dozens of commodities still sticking the price to the ultimate consumer. O, change of administration, where is thy victory?

Sanford and New Smyrna people are endeavoring to organize a company to build a bridge at Osteen. If the bridge is to be confiscated at the end of ten years, heavy tolls will have to be charged in the meantime to make it a paying investment. The proposition, however, will probably be to sell the bridge to the counties after the next meeting of the legislature.—DeLand News.

The sins of the legislature find them out long after they have adjourned. For instance the members of the legislature thought they were voting a one cent tax on oils and gasoline. Now cometh the Standard Oil and all the other oilers and they say to the distributors, "put on a cent" and the distributors say to the garage man "put on a cent" and there is two cents tax instead of the one cent tax the legislators thought they were voting. Does this tax fall on the oil man? It does not. It falls where everything else in the world falls, even to the ax—on the head of the consumer. And now the auto owner, poor or otherwise, has to pay two cents more on the gallon of oil and gas and has to pay an automobile license tax on the number of pounds wrapped up in his little old car and if it is a big car it will be fifty dollars instead of ten or fifteen. And the legislators were innocent of these little bills having teeth in them when they voted for these little taxes. Little taxes that pile up like the grains of sand put in the sugar, yes, uh, uh.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK—TOWN BUILDERS

A short terse item in today's Daily Herald bears the cheerful intelligence that the First National Bank will build a four story building on their present site and will also add another story to the annex building on Park avenue making this building three stories with elevators in both buildings making the bank and the office building among the very latest and the best in the state.

The item sounds like the First National Bank. They never say much but they do more. The Herald can hardly ever get a news item from the First National Bank because all the officials from F. P. Forster down are so busy building a greater bank that they have but little time to talk. However, we intend to notice this latest wrinkle of the biggest bank in Seminole county for the reason that it not only marks the prosperity of the banking institution and denotes their progressiveness but it marks an epoch in the city of Sanford. A few years ago the First National Bank built a beautiful white marble bank building. It seemed at the time that they were taking on a big contract to build such a fine building here. It seemed at the time that this building would house the bank for many years to come. The remarkable growth of the city and of the bank can be seen in this latest decision on the part of the officials of the bank to make these improvements that will amount to more than $100,000.

This bank is located on one of the busiest corners of the city and when a conservative banking institution like the First National starts to tearing down a perfectly good white marble bank to erect thereon a four story bank and office building it means more to Sanford than any similar proceeding could indicate in the growth of the city and the confidence of the home people in their home town. This paper started something the other day that has been heard round the world. We made the statement that First street and the majority of the fine residences in this city had been built by home people. It was something that no one had ever stopped to contemplate. That Sanford money had built our hotels, our new business blocks, our homes and public buildings—no foreign capital had ever been dumped in here to assist us in any way. Just Sanford money and our beautiful and fast growing city has been built with home money entirely. We call them Town Builders. We mentioned the First National Bank in the list but we had no idea at the time that they were contemplating such a big step forward and now we take pleasure in again noting them among Sanford's Town Builders.

To Mr. Forster, B. F. Whitner and every official of the bank and their employees we say: Go to it. You are the stuff!

A COUNTY FIRE TRUCK

The Sanford Fire Department has been called upon many times to go to outlying points not only in the suburbs of Sanford but to many other towns in the county. As the chemical trucks are all that we have they sometimes are able to put out the blaze upon arrival as happened at Oviedo some time ago when they arrived in time to save a home but usually the blaze is so large that the chemical is of little use. This city or the county could have a truck here that would be able to run a line of hose to a lake, pond or flowing well and pump a stream of water sufficient to put out any ordinary fire. It would pay for itself in saving one home and all its contents at the present price of property. And then think of the saving in the business district of Sanford or any of the towns in the county. Right here in Sanford where we are supposed to have fire protection the pipes could burst and there would be no protection at a big fire. Your auto truck with a pumping outfit would then throw a line of hose to the lake or better still we could have a permanent line established all the time to the lake and the city could be saved even though the waterworks plant be out of commission. This city and every place in the county would have good fire protection with an arrangement of this kind. The DeLand News says something in the following about this particular fire truck and its good work:

"W. L. Scott makes a suggestion that might prove profitable. He says the county should own a fire truck, which should be kept at the county seat for use anywhere in the county. The DeLand fire truck and power pump Sunday afternoon saved at least its own total cost and the cost of one year's maintenance. This is the third or fourth time the DeLand fire truck has been sent out of town and has done good work. But while the DeLand truck is out of town, the town is at the mercy of any fire which may start, and the town would probably be liable for the damage. Only a few months ago, but for the DeLand fire truck which went to the assistance of the Daytona fire department, many thousands of dollars additional loss would doubtless have been sustained. In case of a fire at Port Orange or Ormond, the Daytona truck would respond, and a phone message to DeLand would hasten the county truck to Daytona as an emergency equipment. In case of a fire on this side of the county, the county truck could respond, or could take the place of the DeLand truck which was sent to the fire. This would prevent the present necessity of leaving any town at the mercy of the flames and would practically double the equipment available in the larger towns of the county, all over the county.

Immediately upon the sounding of the fire whistle, every lawn sprinkler which may be in use should be turned off. There is an ordinance to this effect, but it is not obeyed, and the custom of using unnecessary water during a fire may result in great loss. Fire records recently made public show that $112,000,000 loss was suffered in the United States during the first four months of the present year, the largest fire loss in such length of time, with the possible exception of the Baltimore, San Francisco and one or two other fires. Most fires are the result of carelessness, and are preventable.

W. S. BRANCH

When the editor of the Herald went to Orlando some fourteen years ago or more to take charge of the Daily Reporter-Star he knew only three people in that city. At a time like that a real friend is one who goes out of his way to make you feel at home and among the many friends of this kind in Orlando was W. S. Branch, who departed this life Wednesday after 67 years well spent in the benefit of mankind. Having known and loved the departed one we publish the following from the pen of C. E. Howard for it so nearly echoes the sentiments in our own heart:

"Some men come to the city and the city swallows them up.

"Other men arrive and become a living part of the city.

"Some men live on the city and others cause the city to live.

"Some men live and die and the place they occupied remembers them no more.

"Other men live and though their physical presence is no more they have impressed themselves so indelibly upon the scene of their activities that they live forever in the hearts and memories of their fellow men. Mr. William S. Branch was not an obtrusively forward man. He never thrust himself into place or jostled others for a place, but it may be said of him, as of very few that he naturally and easily filled his place.

"He helped mankind, too, because he loved them. He was a sufferer himself and not very hopeful where he was concerned, but he was hopeful for others. He was a good business man. He made a business place for himself, where at the time he opened his store of actual business necessities for office, literary and musical interests it seemed there was no opening. He was a thorough churchman in the best sense of the term, for he used himself up for his church as Elder in the Presbyterian church and as assistant Sunday School superintendent in his school. No matter how hard the business pressure was and notwithstanding his oft-time physical incapacity he was always there until it became impossible.

"He was a true friend; never fickle in his allegiance and always helpful when occasion demanded. He was a brother whose heart beat true. The pity of it is that, although his life was well rounded he had to leave us so soon."

WHAT A CHANGE

What a wonderful change has come over Sanford in the past six months. You cannot find a knocker in the entire city. Everybody knows that Sanford will soon be a city of ten thousand people or more and every person in the city is pulling for that mark. Every person in Sanford is boosting and building and talking Sanford and we have the greatest bunch of live wires here now that any city in the state possesses. It all comes from taking up the horn and throwing away the hammer and getting faith in your city. It all comes from having a live daily paper to keep you in touch with the world all the time and keeping your city on the map every hour in the day instead of doing it every week. It all comes from that wonderful spirit that has come to Sanford that makes us all one big family of boosters pulling for a big city and abolishing any jealousy, or small town stuff of knocking the builders because they want to build a big city. All together, men, for the benefit of Sanford, The City Substantial. All for one and one for all. Let's go.

If the beach resorts at Daytona and Coronado and all the other places would advertise and let the people of the interior know what they were doing and give their rates it is cinch that more people would go to the beach. Open up and let them hear from you.

DeCOTTES INVESTIGATING LAW-LESSNESS.

Our new state attorney, George DeCottes, of Sanford, who took office a few days ago, is said to be holding an examination of witnesses in Daytona today in an endeavor to locate the lawlessness which has afflicted (or aided) that community and the beach for the past few months. If Mr. DeCottes can give the people confidence in the integrity of their courts, he will end this era of lawlessness immediately, there will be no more of it whatever. If other officers of the court fail to give him the assistance which a fair and impartial enforcement of justice demand, all he will have to do is to make the fact known—the people will do the rest. The News has great confidence in the ability of Mr. DeCottes, and sincerely hopes that lawlessness in Volusia county has ended—it leads to anarchy.

Mr. DeCottes gave the following letter to Daytona papers for publication yesterday:

"Will you kindly, through the columns of your paper, give due publicity to the fact that I will be present at the city hall, Daytona, Fla., on Wednesday, June 22, 1921, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of making an investigation of the lawlessness and disorder, consisting of mob violence, that has been prevalent in your community for the past several months.

"I request and court the assistance and co-operation of all self-respecting and law-abiding citizens of Volusia county in connection with the investigation to be made by me.

"And I hereby call upon and ask all persons who may be in possession of facts that might lead to the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties to materially assist me in this investigation by giving to me next week, when in Daytona, such information as they may have in their possession.

"Yours truly,
"GEO. A. DeCOTTES,
"State Attorney."

The News has been charged, by some, with favoring the lawlessness which has been going on in the East Coast section of the county. In this connection, and at this time the News wishes it distinctly understood that this paper has never stood for lawlessness—whether it was committed by the people themselves or by the courts. The News recognizes the people themselves as the highest courts. It wants to see the people govern themselves through properly constituted channels, believing that this is better than to enforce the law summarily; but when the courts become the tools of designing politicians, the people must then take the matter into their own hands until such time as the courts may be cleaned.

If Mr. DeCottes can conduct his court so that the people have confidence in it, there will be no more summary justice in Volusia county.—DeLand News.

HITTING THE STRIDE

Sanford has hit her stride, thank goodness. We have watched and waited and prayed for it many years and now it is here. Our fine city has hit the gallop and nothing can stop our prosperity. We are too far ahead of the hounds to be overtaken by the small things that formerly rose up to vex our spirits. We are too far ahead to stop and note the small things that at one time looked like mountains. We will have every building, every enterprise, every business and every amusement that Sanford needs. This sounds like a big undertaking but Sanford is doing big things now. If you don't believe it look around your city and then take a trip over the state and compare Sanford with any of them. Talk to the people you meet and see if Sanford has that reputation of being a live one or a dead one. That is the best test of all and the people of Florida are talking about the wonderful growth of Sanford, the wonderful spirit that predominates the people, the change that our city has experienced and that good feeling that it has hit its stride.

The new phase would be "hitting on six."

WORTHINGTON RETURNS.

C. C. Worthington, who resigned his position as editorial writer of the Times to go with his son, J. E. Worthington, to the Lake Wales Highlander, found that he couldn't stay away from Tampa. So he is back at his old job now, has oiled up his old typewriter and resumed his contributions to the editorial page of the Times.

Mr. Worthington is a deep student of public questions, a fluent and forceful writer and an enthusiastic believer in the future of Tampa and Florida. The oldest worker on the Times in years, he is one of the youngest in thought.

The men and women who make the Times are glad to have him back in their ranks, and so also will Times readers welcome his return.—Tampa Times.

DOWN IN SANFORD

For many years we have regarded Sanford as one of the places in the United States blessed with every natural advantage, but lacking in the essential human equation. Sanford enjoys nearly every natural advantage that Palatka does, and some that Palatka does not enjoy. The two cities have much in common, and have needed much in common. Like Palatka, however, Sanford is having a revolution—a revolution of the spirit.

Palatka is the center of the early potato industry; Sanford is the Celery City. Palatka is the transportation center of the state, while Sanford is so close by with an insignificant water rate that it enjoys many of the advantages that Palatka does. Both are producing and distributing centers and it is with generous spirit that Palatka views the evidence of progress narrated each day in The Herald. The more recent of these is the construction of a four-story office building by the First National Bank, the recent completion of two new hotels and plans on foot for a third new one—to be one of the handsomest in the state, with a wonderful frontage on Lake Monroe.

Only twenty-three miles separate Sanford from Orlando, yet Orlando has outstripped her sister city with half the natural advantages. Orlando had the spirit which was slow to awake in Sanford. Orlando advertised, welcomed the stranger, made the tourist comfortable and happy and pulled together. Orlando put in up-to-date stores, advertised and Sanford people went there to trade. Sanford waited for the crops to grow and prayed for good market prices and overlooked the great tide of homeseekers coming into the state, and whose final location was dependent in ninety cases out of a hundred on printed matter.

But it is different now, Sanford bankers have seen a star. Vision has come to the merchants and business men. Local enterprises are receiving encouragement at home and we doubt not that before long Sanford will realize that in its daily newspaper, long struggling to keep its head above water, it has an asset that may not be paying dividends to its promoters, but is making handsome returns to the community.

'Business is learning that money paid for advertising in the local paper may not bring them four-fold return by the next mail, but that it contributes to the indirect benefits every community derives from having its progressiveness and industry indexed by the paper it supports.

We rejoice in Sanford's progress and feel sure that Palatka has the good wishes of her sister city—the bright pendant on the tiara of the St. Johns.—Palatka News.

GIVE DECOTTES ALL INFORMATION

The determined effort which State Attorney Geo. A. DeCottes is making to clear up the mystery surrounding the recent acts of lawlessness in this vicinity is meeting with great favor among all citizens who have felt that an end might be brought to such occurrences, with an official in office who would, without favor, make a thorough investigation, to determine wherein lies the cause of the affairs, and to bring to justice, if possible, those guilty of crimes.

No good, however, will come of such efforts unless the citizens of the community stand back of the official, lending him their support in every way. Mr. DeCottes has requested that all citizens of the community that may be able to furnish information leading to the apprehension of the guilty parties meet with him at the Daytona City Hall Wednesday afternoon.

At that time the state's attorney will attempt to ferret out the guilty ones, and bring them to justice. If there is anyone in the community who has information to furnish the state's attorney, it is his duty to give it, at that time.

A majority of citizens in the past have realized that it would be useless to give such information to the officials, as it had been in the past, and no results followed. These citizens may be assured by Mr. DeCottes' attitude, knowing that he will follow through the investigation to the finish, if proper testimony and facts are given him on which to work.

There is no one, we believe, not even the members of the alleged Ku Klux Klan, but will rejoice that this circuit now has an official who will do his duty as he sees it, without favor extended to certain classes. No community, where justice is swift and vision is known to support an organization such as is alleged to be operating capital in Volusia county so freely.

The advent of Geo. A. DeCottes in CLEARWATER, June 22.—The office, we believe, means the end of the outrages; lawlessness, bootlegging, the late Mrs. Fitzgerald of Sea Ora wiretapping and other crimes in this lodge. The fund will be used to promote community, if the citizens will stand side a set of new metal book racks.

MY AUTO, 'TIS OF THEE

My auto, 'tis of thee, short road to poverty—of thee I chafe. I blew a pile of dough on you three years ago; now you refuse to go—or won't or can't. Through town and countryside, you were my joy and pride, a happy day. I loved thy gaudy hue, the nice white tires new; but you're down and out for true, in every way. To thee, old rattle-box, came many bumps and knocks; for thee I grieve. Badly thy top is torn; frayed are thy seats and worn; the whooping cough affects thy horn. I do believe. Thy perfume swells the breeze, while good folks choke and wheeze as we pass by. I paid for thee a price 'twould buy a mansion twice; now everybody's yelling "ice"—I wonder why. Thy motor has the grip, thy spark plugs have the pip, and woe is thine. I, too, have suffered chills, fatigue and kindred ills, endeavoring to pay my bills, since thou wert mine. Gone is my bank roll now, no more 'twould choke a cow, as once before. Yet, if I had the mon, so help me, John—amen, I'd buy a car again and speed some more.—Hardware World.

State division will be talked this summer and it will be talked until the legislature meets next time and the South Florida legislators will go to Tallahassee pledged to have state vision and nothing will stop them—not even the improvements on the old capitol.

Gales Swept Coast of Texas Yesterday, Causes High Tides

HOUSTON, Texas, June 23.—Terrific winds with rising tides are reported along the Texas Gulf coast today. A 60-mile gale with tide rising rapidly, was sweeping Corpus Christi, according to word received here. Wind with a maximum velocity of 75 miles was reported from Point Island. Life saving crews on Padre and Brazos islands took refuge on shore. The wind at Galveston and Port Arthur was reported 40 miles an hour. Tides were rising. Radios from sea declared high winds were sweeping landward. The storm was coming from the northeast. The storm swept the Padre and Brazos islands, off shore, and hundreds of vacationists fled to the mainland for safety. Flood warnings were given to people who live in the low lands of Galveston, where the United States weather service reported a 6-foot rise in the tide. The city is nine feet above the low tide level and no extra precautions were taken within the sea wall proper. Water, however, falling in sheets, drenched the island city. Many ships off the Gulf Coast were believed at the mercy of the gale. Spray was breaking over the sea wall at Galveston, according to later reports received here. Weather observers said they did not expect further raise in the tide at Galveston and declared the sea wall, 15 feet high, running along the Gulf side of Galveston island, would check any danger.

Caught Big Tarpon, Sanford Fishermen There With the Goods

Sanford fishermen do not get any practice on deep sea fishing around Sanford but they are good enough to take the big ones no matter where they find them and they do not get too big for Sanford fishermen to rope them in. A party of Sanford fishermen have just returned from a trip to Boca Grande where they landed 17 tarpon in all, some of them running well over 100 pounds. In the party were F. F. Dutton, Charles Whitner, W. A. Leffler, Walter Hand, all of Sanford and W. A. Judy, of the Peck-Judy Co., of Jacksonville.

At the conclusion of the card game the party motored out to Silver Lake where a delightful swimming party was enjoyed followed by a delicious picnic supper.

PROMENADE AND DANCE

Miss LeClaire Jones entertained most delightfully last night at a Promenade and Dance at her home on Park avenue in honor of Miss Mary Elizabeth Puleston, who leaves July 5th for Camp Junaluska, N. Refreshments of pineapple sherbet and cake were served at a late hour. There were about eighteen couples who enjoyed Miss Jones' hospitality. Mrs. Allen Jones, Mrs. Frank Akers, Misses Daphne Wimbish, Ada May Adams, Carolyn and Lillie Ruth Spencer and Mrs. Virginia Coney assisted the hostess in entertaining her guests.

Next Sunday will be the last Sunday Dr. George Hyman will occupy the pulpit at the Baptist church before leaving for his vacation. Conwell in Philadelphia. He will spend one week at the Northfield Conference in Massachusetts.

Dr. Hyman will be glad to greet the members of the church and his friends at the services on next Sunday, June 26th. His subject in the morning will be, "A Pastor's Word to His People." In the evening, "Understanding Self."

A JOOLY GOOD TIME

Mrs. Turner and Mrs. F. R. Mitchell, of the Methodist church, combined their Sunday school classes and gave them a picnic at West Side Park yesterday afternoon, simplicity being the keynote of the affair. The children enjoyed various games, the one affording the most fun was a bag race, a fancy cut sugar cookie being the prize for the winner. Marathon stunts and other games were enjoyed. Mr. Mitchell joined the party after work hours and led the boys in a fine game of ball, as he, too, enjoys ball and is a real boy among the boys. A six o'clock supper was served—not luncheon, but a supper, with a whole lot of good, home-made food, besides watermelon, peanuts and lemonade; lots of good lemonade made in a brand new tub loaned by the Hill Hardware company. Many thanks to Mr. Newman.

Well, the boys pronounced themselves really full, and so the party dispersed with a promise to be at Sunday school Sunday, and bring another fellow if they could.

THE BAPTIST BOYS CLUB

The Baptist Boys Club will hold its monthly dinner at the Temple dining room, on Friday evening at 7:30. The club is composed of 89 boys, 9 big brothers and two big sisters. One hundred plates with chicken will be served. The desert will be watermelon. Several short talks will be made. The boys will elect the officers for the next three months. The boys of Sanford interested in joining the club may take up the matter with Dr. George Hyman or Mr. Ed. Henderson.

More Poultry Pin Money

You can get more eggs and make more money by feeding hens more material for making whites of eggs. No grain feed contains anything like enough white-making material (protein). As a result, many yolks are formed in the hen's body that are never laid.

Purina Poultry Chows
fed together, make more eggs because they supply the scientific balance of all the elements a hen requires to produce the highest number of whites and yolks of which she is capable. Purina Poultry Chows are sold under an iron-bound guarantee of More Eggs or Money Back.

PIRATES IN THE ATLANTIC MANY SHIPS ARE MISSING NO TRACE OF THEM FOUND

ON MAINE SHORE

BOTTLE IS PICKED UP NEAR HATTERAS PURPORTS TO BE EXPLANATION

(By The Associated Press)
PORTLAND, Me., June 21.—The theory that pirates are afloat in the North Atlantic found credence here. Belief in this explanation of the fate of recently missing ships has grown with the establishment of the fact that a message in a bottle picked up near Hatteras two months ago purporting to explain the disappearance of five masted schooner Carroll A. Deering mystery ship of Diamond Shoals, written by Henry Bates, of Islesboro, Maine, a member of the crew. The question of its genuineness was settled today by hand writing experts. Note stated schooner was captured by oil burning craft something like submarine chaser, that members of the crew were being handcuffed and everything being taken off.

THE U. S. USCO TREAD

Here is the U. S. Usco Tread, with a long-established standard of service among motorists who have an eye to value, as well as to price. While selling for less than the other tires in the U. S. Pacific line, the Usco has earned a reputation for quality and dependable economy which is not exceeded by any tire in its class.

Which one of your neighbors gets the best mileage out of his tires?

EVERY once in a while you hear a motorist say as he kicks a rear tire with an admiring foot, "there's a lucky tire!" Give him a chance and he'll tell you all about it. And then you'll find that what he calls "luck" is simply his first experience with a quality standard tire.

It all comes to this—buy a U. S. Tire anywhere in this country and you get definite, predictable value for your money no matter what weight car you drive.

The man who has been guessing his way through "overstocks," "discontinued lines," "job lots" and the like, will find it refreshing to talk with the local U. S. Tire dealer who is concentrating on a full, completely sized line of U. S. Tires.

For the first time he will hear some straight quality tire facts—and get the difference between chance and certainty in tire buying.

The U. S. Tires he sees in stock are fresh, live tires. They come direct to the dealer from his neighboring Factory Branch.

There are 92 of these Branches established and maintained by the U. S. Tire makers.

Giving your dealer a continuous moving stock of new, fresh tires built on the certainty of quality first every time

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

TAKE SALTS AT FIRST SIGN OF BLADDER IRRITATION OR BACKACHE

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Adv.

No Split in Season of Florida State League, Announced

ORLANDO, June 22.—Pres. Walter W. Rose of the Florida State league officially announced today that there would be no split in the base ball season this year. Jacksonville and Lakeland voted in the affirmative, Tampa, St. Petersburg and Daytona in the negative. President Baxter of Orlando refused to vote because of criticism from other clubs that Orlando was prompted to split the season from selfish motives.

Paper Publishers to Seek More Equitable Valuation for Taxes

ASHEVILLE, June 22.—Urging that something be done to remedy the alleged discriminatory methods of the internal revenue bureau in applying income tax rates on the value of newspaper property in the South, the Southern Newspaper Publishers' association, at the second day's session of the nineteenth annual convention here today, authorized appointment of a committee to take up the matter with the department. The committee will be appointed by the officers to be elected tomorrow for the ensuing year. The election and the appointment of committees will end the business sessions of the convention.

E. W. Barnett, Birmingham, Age-Herald, made a report today on the establishment of paper mills in the South, and distributed copies of the Age-Herald printed on paper made from Alabama spruce pine. A motion was made by W. T. Anderson, Macon, Telegraph, that Mr. Barrett be appointed chairman of a committee to investigate the possibilities for paper manufacturing in the South, but Mr. Barrett declined the appointment.

It has been the custom of the association to promote officers and W. A. Elliott, Jacksonville, Times-Union, is expected to become president.

FLORIDA HOTEL PUTS RATES DOWN FOR THE SUMMER

MELBOURNE HOTEL WOULD GO AFTER THE SUMMER TRADE

"See Florida First" is a fine slogan and one that should be adopted by every loyal citizen of the state. A great many of us depend upon our information concerning the wonderful resources and attractions of this state, gained from the tourists from other states who stop here on their travels over the state, and many of us know more about other states than we do of our own. We simply take it for granted that we have the best state in the Union, but we are unable to give out first hand information regarding the state as a whole; and what is true of ourselves is equally true of others in other sections of the state. And, so we would say; if you must go somewhere this summer, "See Florida First." And to you of some where else in Florida, we invite you to come and see Melbourne and enjoy our fine summer climate and our fine ocean beaches. If you have never been here before, you will be surprised at the wonderful advantages offered you here in the "Mid-way City."

As an extraordinary inducement for you to come to Melbourne one of our modern hotels has reduced its rates to practically one-half the rate charged during the winter months. Summer rates for Florida people is now the slogan of Orange Spot Park. These rates are published in another column of this issue, and they will be advertised in other papers in the state and his publicity will bring many people to Melbourne during the coming summer who have never been here before. This write up is contributed for the good of the cause, and with the hope that other hotels and other papers in Florida will follow suit—with the view of inducing more Florida people to "See Florida First."—Melbourne Times.

Earl Bernard Is Kidnapped From His Home

By Band of Armed Men, Whereabouts Are Unknown

(By The Associated Press)

CORK, June 21.—James Francis Bernard, fourth Earl of Bandon, was kidnapped this morning from his residence at Bantry by a band of armed men. Castle Bernard, his home, was set afire and this afternoon was still burning. Earl Bandon's whereabouts is still unknown.

A man feels a little proud of his college education until his ten-year-old son asks him to help work tomorrow's problem.

VALUABLE FIND IS MADE ON ORLANDO BEACH PROPERTY

NEW DISCOVERY WILL NO DOUBT SEND LOTS OF PEOPLE TO ORLANDO BEACH NOW

Carl Dann's real estate office will no doubt be stamped this afternoon and tomorrow owing to an advertisement which he is carrying in this afternoon's Reporter-Star. The story told by Mr. Dann and corroborated by other witnesses is to the effect that a valuable find was made on the property, which they are developing, with a market value of from three to twelve hundred per cent greater than the cost of the lot.

Since the passage of the 19th amendment the coast line of Florida has been a rendezvous for smugglers who deal in spirits. It so happened that some of the "Captain Kids" decided that Orlando Beach offered a desirable shelter for the protection of their "spirits" and deposited two cases of gin and a cask of liquor in the heavy underbrush which is so common along the shore line.

Dann had a force of men clearing streets through his new subdivision. In an attempt to burn the brush they had taken from the roadway, the fire got beyond their control and swept the entire peninsula to the inlet. When the smoke had cleared away, two cases of gin and the remains of a cask of liquor were found within six feet of the street where the men had cleared for the street. All that was saved of the gin were the broken bottles.

A large crowd of fortune hunters were seen yesterday searching for another find, but so far none has been reported.—Reporter-Star.

Senator Trammell Introduces Bill For Benefit of Growers

Settlement of Claims to Be Made Within Sixty Days After Filing

Senator Park Trammell Friday introduced in the senate a bill requiring the settlements of claims against the railroads and express companies for lost freight, damage to freight and overcharges within sixty days from filing of claim. The measure provides an attorney's fee, if the claimant has to bring suit and recovers an amount in excess of that offered by the common carrier within the said sixty days. The bill is much the same as the Florida law upon the subject, Senator Trammell being the author of the state law, except that the bill introduced in the senate applies only to inter-state shipments.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

LOOK YOUNG! BRING BACK ITS NATURAL COLOR, GLOSS AND ATTRACTIVENESS

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store, all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; but morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—Adv.

STONEMAN FAVORS STATE DIVISION.

F. W. Stoneman, editor of the Miami Herald, in a recent issue of that publication, gave some interesting facts in support of his contention that state division would be beneficial to the southern portion of the peninsula, which section of the state not only pays the greater part of the taxes, but receives the small end of the state's payroll when they are returned to the people in the way of expenditures.

The Herald says: There is no task, no matter how hopeless, that cannot be successfully carried out if energy, persistence and intelligence are used to obtain the desired results.

When one speaks of dividing the state of Florida into two states, the scheme on its face, seems too difficult of achievement, so much would have to be done in the way of education and legislation, before it could be accomplished, that the listener, while recognizing the advisability of a state division campaign, can see nothing but failure in the project.

But if there is one thing that stands out clear and distinct, as the result, or one of the results of the meeting of the legislature this year, it is that the southern portion of the state can never make that progress Providence seems to have designed for it, as long as it is tied politically and geographically to the northern part of the state.

Loyal as we may all be to the whole state of Florida, yet the history of the past twenty-five years indicates beyond the peradventure of a doubt, that political control lies in the northern counties of the state and that those counties, despite the proposed constitutional amendment with reference to the reapportionment of representation in the legislature, will continue tenaciously to hold the political supremacy.

If political control were exercised for the benefit of the whole state, if the southern counties fared as well in legislation as do the northern counties, perhaps there would be no necessity for criticism nor would there be any talk of state division. But the real facts are that while the southern part of the state is taxed heavily and out of proportion to the northern counties, the vast bulk of the state's money is spent in the northern counties.

For instance, it is said that 19 counties in Florida pay more than 66 per cent of the taxes of the state, and it does not take one over-informed to understand that more than 80 per cent of the taxes collected in the state are spent in the counties in the upper part of the state. Practically all the great state institutions are located in the northern counties, and, certainly, the vast program of road building contemplating the expenditure of great sums of money in that section of the state long before the authorities can reach the southern counties, where roads are already built, with their statewide road program.

Legislation, so far as South Florida is concerned, practically amounts to a denial of representation and of political equality, reasons enough in themselves for political separation.

But the underlying reason why the people of Florida should seriously consider state division along equitable lines with reference to territory and population, is that the two sections of the state have entirely different interests and have an entirely different view as to the progress the state should make, and these interests and these views can never be reconciled. The result is that each section of the state is a drag on the other and hinders the other's progress along the lines compatible with the happiness of the people involved.

There is as much difference between South Florida and North Florida as there is between the state of Florida and the state of Ohio, and there is no more reason for continuing them under one form of state government than there would be to unite the state of Alabama and the state of Georgia under one constitution.

If the division could be made, each of the states thus formed could work out its own destiny in its own way, to the very great benefit of each.

Certainly, every activity in South Florida would receive new life and greater permanency if it could be permitted to create a new state and solve its own problems unhindered by the necessity of bringing along the backward counties and developing them. Much time is being wasted and progress in the South is hindered by the sentiment which objects to the division of the state.

South Florida should now begin to preach state division and to work in all possible and honorable ways for a new state for itself.—Miami Herald.

Sure enough, the old bus went back on me

IT WAS a whale.
 OF A hill, and the old bus.
 GROANED AND shuddered.
 AND FINALLY stalled.
 AND YOU could try eggs.
 ON THE radiator.
 WELL, WHAT I know.
 ABOUT BUZZ wagons.
 COULD BE written big
 ON A postage stamp.
 BUT I fiddled around.
 AND TORE my new shirt.
 AND GOT all smeared up.
 THE ENGINE would start.
 BUT LIZZIE wouldn't.
 NOT ON that hill.
 SO I quit and lit up.
 ONE OF my cigarettes.
 AND THOUGHT it over.
 THEN I had a hunch.

PUSHED HER around.
 PULLED A thing-a-ma-jig.
 AND THE blame boat.
 BACKED UP the hill.
 WITHOUT EVEN hesitating.
 SO I learned a trick.
 WHICH EVERY driver.
 SHOULD REMEMBER.
 WHEN IN doubt, light up.
 A "SATISFY" cigarette.
 FOR WITH one of those.
 GEARED TO your teeth.
 YOU CAN start anything.
