

Mrs. Hoover On Way To Sanford Aboard Government Boat

Plans Under Way Here To Extend Her Welcome By City, County, C. Of C. Officials

Mrs. Herbert Hoover, America's First Lady who is in Florida on a brief vacation cruise aboard the motor yacht "Sequoia," left Palatka this morning with the announced intention of visiting DeLand and Sanford before returning to Jacksonville. The time of her arrival in Sanford was not made known, however.

Immediately upon receipt of the news at noon today, trade body officials set in motion plans to make her reception and undetermined stay here a cordial and long remembered one. A committee composed of city, county, and trade body heads, including a representative from the Women's Civic Committee, will act as a reception committee upon her arrival, and see that Mrs. Hoover and her party are given a genuinely cordial welcome.

Mrs. Hoover and her party have been in Florida waters for several days on the "Sequoia," which is making an official survey of Florida inland waterways. Yesterday she motored to the University of Florida in the two government owned automobiles which are following the yacht. Captain and Mrs. Joel T. Boone, the former the personal physician of the Hoover family, are among the guests aboard the yacht.

Hagan Approves Of Senate's Decision In Barring Penalty

Representative L. P. Hagan this morning expressed approval of the recent decision of Circuit Judge Paul C. Allison, Sarasota, in declaring unconstitutional that section of Florida's motor vehicle license law requiring the payment of a 25 percent penalty on tag purchases after Feb. 1.

An opponent of the bill to set the penalty at such a figure, Mr. Hagan expressed the hope that Judge Allison's decision would meet with the approval of the Supreme Court and be upheld by that body.

"I heartily commend the decision of the court in this case," Mr. Hagan stated. "Because it is in line with my thought in the matter, I consider it a grave mistake for the state to enforce such a drastic penalty because a taxpayer who has been unable to raise enough money to purchase an automobile license tag at a certain date."

DIRECT APPEAL IS BROADCAST BY LINDBERGH

Distraught Family Of Kidnaped Baby Says It Will Not Betray Anything Agreed To

TRENTON, Mar. 4.—(A.P.)—Colonel and Mrs. Charles Lindbergh today issued an appeal direct to the kidnapers of their baby assuring the criminals that entire confidence might be placed "in any promise we may make."

The appeal was issued through the office of Governor Moore and was given to the press in the hope that kidnapers will read it and immediately open negotiations. "We urge those who have the child to send any representative they desire to meet a representative of ours who will be suitable to them at any time and any place they may designate."

Shortly after the appeal was issued, the governor sent a telegram to President Hoover inviting him to send a representative to a conference on the case in the governor's office tomorrow. Telegrams also were sent to the mayors of Newark, Jersey City, Buffalo, Detroit, Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Philadelphia, and New York urging them to send a representative to the conference saying it is "imperative that coordinated efforts be made to apprehend the abductors and restore the child."

Betty Gow, nurse of the baby, was subjected to a lengthy examination by police. No statement was issued, however, as to the nature of the questioning or what the police hoped to develop by the examination.

Officials refused to answer when asked whether Lindbergh or his representative established contact with kidnapers and the contents of numerous notes purporting to shed light on the case were carefully guarded.

As a 15-hour period during which the famous flier had expected some word from the kidnapers came to an uneventful end at noon, Governor Moore concluded a conference with the Lindberghs.

The aviator-father, he said, "expects something to happen any minute."

But the governor quickly made it clear he knew of no foundation for such an expectation; that no contact had been made with the kidnapers by either police or the Lindberghs; that investigators had succeeded merely in fixing the approximate hour of the abduction and deciding that two persons were responsible.

"What," he was then asked, "is the basis for Colonel Lindbergh's interpretation that something will happen any minute?"

"Oh, I guess it's just psychic," he replied.

However, Colonel Lindbergh reiterated (Continued on Page Six)

Florida Senators Make Strong Fight To Have Fly Probe

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—(A.P.)—Florida's two Democratic senators, Fletcher and Trammell, yesterday made a vigorous effort to have launched a federal investigation of losses suffered by Florida fruit growers in the campaign against the Mediterranean fruit fly, but the Senate declined its approval.

The motion to suspend the rules to consider the amendment offered by Senator Trammell, was defeated by a 34 to 28 vote.

Under the amendment the amount of $25,000 would have been provided for the investigation, but no effort would have been made to compensate losses at this time. Senator Trammell declared the money would provide only for a survey to determine what the damages were.

In debating his amendment Trammell expressed doubt that there were ever any fruit fly in Florida. Senator McNary vigorously opposed the Trammell proposal. McNary who is chairman of the agriculture committee, urged the Florida state to withdraw its motion with the understanding that a bill containing similar provisions which is now before the Senate would be given early consideration.

WORLD IS TENSE AWAITING WORD ON LINDY CHILD

Words Of Regret And Sympathy Are Sent From All Sections

NEW YORK, Mar. 4.—(A.P.)—The world waited, tense, emotional—now hopeful and now despondent—while the hours dragged by without news of the lost son of Charles A. Lindbergh.

The wishful face of the curly-headed baby, whose chubby hands have tugged at the heart strings of the world, appeared in newspaper photographs from coast to coast.

The description of the child, who was stolen while he lay asleep in his crib at Hopewell, was in the mind of almost every citizen of the country. His appealing picture was engraved in the heart of every parent.

The hours brought many clues—and many disappointments. They brought strange and mysterious activities by the authorities, now working frantically, desperately, to discover some trace of this child.

Haggard officers, sleepless for 48 hours, stimulated occasionally by some clue that, in the end, proved fruitless, conferred in the police offices of every Eastern city, while the search spread farther and farther from the center of the net at Hopewell.

For time was on the side of the kidnapers. Each hour was a victory for the criminals and a cruel defeat to the hopes of millions.

RIVER BOARD HAS MEETING AT CITY HALL

Goal Is Set At Construction Of Canal Connecting Monroe With Indian River

Two veteran water transportation enthusiasts, one a former member of the Rivers and Harbors Committee of Congress, the other a former War Department engineer, yesterday noon pictured the importance and value of a St. Johns-Indian River canal near here, in a manner which brought confidence that such a project, although sought for more than 20 years, may soon see a fulfillment.

Colonel Gilbert A. Youngberg, Jacksonville, retired United States Army engineer, was the principal speaker at the joint meeting of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and directors of the St. Johns River Improvement Association at the City Club.

His was a comprehensive address based on observations and surveys he has had an active part in over a period of many years; probably the most detailed presentation of the actual and potential advantages of the proposed canal to the state and counties and cities lining both the St. John's and Indian Rivers.

Former Congressman J. J. Kindred, of New York City, prominent Rivers and Harbors committee man for many years was the second speaker, confining his remarks to approval of Col. Youngberg's plan.

Murray Proclaims His Platform For Presidential Race

FARGO, N.D., Mar. 4.—(A.P.)—Return the farmer to prosperity and the nation will be prosperous, Governor Murray of Oklahoma declared yesterday in a presidential campaign speech of the credit structure to take it "out of the hands of the stock and grain gamblers and the international bankers."

"We send a poker player to jail for 30 days. On the basis of the harm inflicted by the grain and stock speculators, we should send them to prison for life," the governor shouted.

It was the keynote address in his campaign for votes in the Mar. 15 North Dakota presidential preference primary. Murray will make a half dozen other speeches in the state this week.

Speculation is rife on the securities and commodities markets. Governor Murray asserted. He said speculators have gained control of national and international credit, wresting it "from real producers of wealth, the farmers, the workers, the middle class."

He urged coinage of money, both silver and gold "on the basis of the materials the money represents, real wealth, our wheat, cotton and other products."

He accused other aspirants for the presidency of avoiding "the real issues of today, our lack of prosperity."

"They haven't anything to offer, they fear to say anything, for they believe this depression will wear off. Wear off—a silly thought!"

"It won't wear off. We have to get government back where it belongs, in the hands of the people instead of the politicians."

"I wouldn't accept the presidency if it came at the hands of the politicians. My hands wouldn't be free. That is why I am going directly to you people for my support."

"It is my belief that it is the government's duty to keep the farmer prosperous, if I were president that would be my first aim."

On the platform in the crowded municipal auditorium listened the governor's brother, George T. Murray, a Berthold, N. D., farmer. They met yesterday for the first time in 34 years.

China Rejects New Series Of Demands To End Hostilities

PROMINENT MEN STRESS NEED OF CANAL TO COAST

Retired Engineer Of U.S. Army Delivers Talk To C.O.C. Men

Meeting in executive session at the City Hall yesterday morning, the officers and directors of the St. Johns River Improvement Association, gathered from nine counties deriving immediate benefits from the actualities and potentialities of that river, passed a resolution which was termed the next step in the plan of securing governmental aid in developing the St. Johns and Indian Rivers.

Having selected as its principal goal the construction of a canal connecting the St. Johns and Indian Rivers near the eastern portion of Seminole County, having had an official survey of the proposed route declined because War Department engineers and officials are reported to have said that commercial traffic did not warrant the expenditure asked; but heartened by an important act recently passed by Congress and signed by the President, the directors passed a resolution calling on the State Canal Commission to request and work for an early resurvey of the project as outlined in the first survey.

The resolution is based on three important points, revealed from data recently gathered from of (Continued on page Eight)

Shanghai Is Quiet But Outbreak Of Fighting Is Reported At Point To Northward

(By The Associated Press)
The Chinese National Government today rejected the series of new Japanese demands presented as a basis for further peace parleys just as the city of Shanghai, surrounded by war for a month, began quietly to get down to work again.

Announcement was made by Lo Wen K'an, foreign minister. Another disturbing report came in to Chinese official advisers from Nanking which said a new battle is under way at Taitsang 25 miles north of Shanghai. Dispatches said the Japanese Eleventh Division attacked the Chinese there and a severe battle is under way.

Japanese naval and military officials denied any fighting at Taitsang, however, travelers arriving in Shanghai from Chungking, Taitsang, said they heard artillery fire to the northwest. Shanghai was quiet.

Japanese government officials at Tokyo said they were confident the conflict is over in China, despite declarations made by W. W. Yen, Chinese representative to the League of Nations assembly that peace parleys at Shanghai had broken down.

Meanwhile the government newspaper Jitsuei said Soviet Russia is increasing its army in the Far East for defense of the Siberian frontier against a "Japanese attack."

Some units of the Japanese army were reported to have moved into the 15-mile zone.

Suspects Fail To Aid In Solution Of Miami Club Holdup

MIAMI, Mar. 3. (A.P.)—Three suspects held secretly in county jail for 64 hours had failed yesterday to give county officials any information identifying them with the unsuccessful attempt to hold up the Embassy night club Saturday and the subsequent killing of six persons in a gun battle.

Presence in jail of the three suspects, who names the sheriff's office refused to give, became known when city detectives, who had searched the haunts of the men since Saturday, learned of their arrest and the questioning.

County Solicitor Pine yesterday issued capias charging Eugene Eckman, St. Louis, and George Meyers, Tulsa, Okla., with armed robbery. As members of the bandit gang that made the daring raid, Eckman and Meyers were wounded during the gun battle with police. They are in county jail, having been removed from a hospital yesterday.

East Coast Boxer Confident He Will Defeat Orlandoan

Eddie Stewart, well-known East Coast boxer arrived in Sanford late this afternoon and declared himself ready to dispose of Billy Hood, Orlando scrapper, in a win-take-all bout at the Princess Theater tonight, starting at 8:15 o'clock.

Stewart, with a long list of knockout and decision victories to his credit, will enter the ring in the main bout tonight, conceding about five pounds advantage to the Orlando youth, who is fast developing into one of Florida's most able boxers. The East Coast lad expects to trade punches for only one round, and then station his better opponent to the canvas for the count and the purse.

In Stewart's last appearance here he and Hood fought a rough and tumble draw before a small but enthusiastic crowd. That fight gave Stewart an opportunity to size up the ability of the boy he expects to whip tonight, and he confided an important weakness in Hood to friends here as being the item which will bring about Hood's defeat.

An eight round preliminary will bring Rufus "Six-Second" Lynch of Kissimmee into action against K. O. Robinson, Orlando. Lynch is probably the toughest young fighter in Central Florida, and has a wide following among the prize fight fans in Sanford. He is a veteran of ring battles although he is still a youngster in years, and whenever he appears in Orlando rings, large crowds are on hand, knowing they will see a real battle.

A selected preliminary will precede the two main fights. The show is being staged by the Campbell-Lossing Post of the American Legion. Reduced admission prices have been placed in effect, and women are to be admitted free.

PENSACOLA—Site survey to be made here and other points in West Florida for proposed emergency landing fields.

Fine Collection Of Spanish Paintings Shown At Rollins

WINTER PARK, Fla. Mar. 4.—Students of Florida history as well as lovers of art are having the opportunity during these first two weeks of March to see in the Woman's Club a remarkable collection of paintings of the Spanish "Conquistadores," the work of Senor Luis Usabal.

The collection, which includes life-size portraits of fourteen "Conquistadores" as well as one of Cervantes and an imaginative interpretation of Don Quixote, has been brought to Winter Park under the joint auspices of the Woman's Club and Rollins College. Senor Usabal, who is a native of Valencia, Spain, is here during the length of the exhibition.

In the absence of pictorial records, Senor Usabal has necessarily drawn upon his imagination for his interpretation of the "Conquistadores." But in doing so he has shown himself to be not only a dynamic artist, but a profound psychologist, a sound historian, and an inspired poet. His figures seem to step forth from the canvases with all of the verve which characterized their exploits in the Americas.

The interest of Floridians in the Usabal collection has been drawn particularly to his interpretation of Ponce de Leon, whose name and exploits are so inextricably intertwined with the history and literature of the United States; Alvar Nunez Cabeza de Vaca, who began his remarkable travels in 1528 at Tampa Bay; Hernando de Soto, whose memory lives in more Florida place names than any other personage; and Pedro Menendez de Aviles, founder of St. Augustine, the oldest city of the United States.

Other "Conquistadores" represented include Diego de Almagro, Francisco Coronado, Hernan Cortez, Pedro de Valdivia, "Pedro" de Alvarado, Vasco Nunez de Balboa, Francisco Pizarro, Ferdinand Magellan, Columbus, and Padre Juniper Serra.

Senor Usabal came to the United States several years ago on a commission to paint the motion picture luminaries of Hollywood. As a result of his interest in the history of California, he conceived the idea of putting on canvas this series of portraits of the "Conquistadores" who had so much to do with the opening up of the West to colonization.

The exhibition which will remain here until March 12, is open on week-days from 10 to 5 and on Sundays from 3 to 5.

RIVER BOARD HAS MEETING AT CITY HALL

ficial tonnage sources; from a more comprehensive study of flood-control advantages which will be brought about by the erection of the canal, and, primarily because of the fact that through the efforts of Senator Duncan U. Fletcher and Congresswoman Ruth Bryan Owen, pleasure craft tonnage now occupies the same importance as commercial tonnage in the eyes of the War Department.

H. M. Papworth, Sanford director of the Association, offered a resolution creating a standing committee which should attend all call meetings of any cross-state ship or large canal sponsoring organization, to lend moral support to any reasonable plan. The resolution was unanimously passed.

Several reports were read from committees, all indicating that the Association is a healthy, growing affair adding the names of prominent Floridians to its cause daily. It was announced that Edward M. Ball, of the Florida National Bank had requested membership in the Association.

Ocala was selected as the April meeting place of the Board, with the Marion County Chamber of Commerce acting as host. The Ocala meeting will take place at 10:00 o'clock, Apr. 12.

Charles L. Heath, DeLand, president of the Association, presided over the meeting which preceded a joint luncheon of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, and the directors.

Others present at the morning executive session were: Congressman J. J. Kindred, of New York City, for 10 years a member of the Rivers and Harbors Committee of Congress, who briefly spoke in favor of the canal; State Senator W. F. Glynn, Crescent City; J. W. Campbell, N. J. Tilghman, Col. A. B. Kratz, Palatka; George W. Gibbs, Jacksonville; G. A. Dreke, J. C. Polley, of DeLand; A. F. Knott, of Yanketown; H. K. Jackson, St. Augustine; R. T. Stroud, H. L. Smith, Ocala; J. K. Treshar, Orlando; W. C. Lawson, Benson Springs; G. W. Hulvey, H. M. Corpe, Green Cove Springs, and J. L. Marenlette, D. J. Garrett, Fred T. Williams, Fred H. DIRECT APPEAL IN BROADCAST BY LINDBERGH

From a consideration of a suggestion that the kidnappers search for the child, and an appeal made, on the basis of the blue-eyed, 20-month-old child who was snatched from the nest last Tuesday.

Also in the day police disclosed receipt by Colonel Lindbergh of a second ransom demand. The letter postmarked New York and unsigned called for the payment of $50,000.

Handwriting experts immediately sought to determine whether it was written by the same person who scribbled the note left pinned to the window all of the morning the night of the kidnapping.

The contents of the second letter were made public, but the authorities continued to withhold the text of the first note, which was understood, also to demand $50,000.

Clear and possible leads developed and explored with the passage of each minute. Nearly 2000 letters, suburban said, had been received by Colonel Lindbergh from all parts of the country, apparently written by "verna" offering assistance and information purporting to come from the kidnappers.

In Boston a woman about 60 years old posted an airmail letter to Colonel Lindbergh. On the envelope were written these words:

"Please spare no effort to have this message concerning Colonel Lindbergh's son rushed with all possible speed; this is no hoax but is a vitally important communication."

Authority was sought at once and obtained from Colonel Lindbergh to open the letter. It read in part:

"I know that your son is held by two men and a woman at (here a street address and the words Provinceline, N. J., were written). Investigators believed the writer meant Provinceline, a village not far from here."

The Boston Evening American in a copyrighted story said Henry G. Wilson, self-styled clairvoyant, admitted he wrote the letter. He said he received the information contained in the letter, "through spirit control" from a Miss McLeod, whose sister mailed the message.

A search on Provinceline road near Princeton, N. J., disclosed there was no such address as the one mentioned in the letter. State police headquarters at Trenton also discarded the letter as a possible clue.

The Lindbergh garage was converted into a police substation and by midnight approximately 325 questions had been left in for the most rigid sort of questioning.

Not a step was being overlooked by the smoothly organized detective machinery that might be productive of some hint, some indication of who stole the world's most famous baby.

Miss Betty Gow, the nursemaid who discovered the empty crib Tuesday night, and her predecessor, who was discharged, were rigidly questioned in what John J. Toohey, secretary of the governor, called an attempt to determine whether the abduction was an "inside job."

All employees of the Lindberghs and the Morrises were finger-printed and questioned. A complete check also was being made of their past history.

"There is no reason, however, to suspect any employee," Toohey said.

Two finger prints, not sufficient to be classified definitely were found on the pane of the window through which the baby was taken. They were studied by experts.

While the business-like little group of state troopers and crack detectives were working in the garage, beside 15 newly-installed telephones, the mother who had lost her only child paced up and down in the big hilltop house.

Her own mother, Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow, was with her and so were many close friends, all trying to keep her mind off the one sad, but she could not forget. Occasionally she was seen in the new-fashioned nursery, pausing and looking out the window, through which her early-born son had been taken.

The governor's secretary said Mrs. Lindbergh had no intention of leaving her husband's hill home for the sake of her mother's residence in Englewood, Ill. and Mrs. Morrow will remain here, Toohey said.

Wednesday night, Colonel Lindbergh had one hour of sleep. But Tuesday night they were kept almost and worried when he came down in spite of their worst fears. Wednesday night's rest was the first the young father had had since the kidnapping.

The colonel who had blazed a trail for his country in a dark night of helplessness waiting for the return of his son, was the first to see the baby with his eyes.

at home dog at his heels.

Wednesday he had slouched through those same thickets in the hope of stumbling on a clue. Thursday it was simply for relaxation.

The text of the second kidnap note read:

"You read this and keep your mouth closed, don't open your trap to a living soul. Your father has plenty of money so do as you are instructed. If you do no harm will come to you. You know the fate of the Smith girl, who received a similar letter and did contrary to our instructions by making it known to her friends and her father. She was dropped out of the picture and just so will you if you tell anybody about the contents of this letter."

"We want $50,000 and we will forward instructions for the delivery of same."

"Do not set a trap or the price will be high and the penalty severe."

The "Smith girl" phrase may have referred to Frances St. John Smith of New York, who disappeared from Smith college in January, 1928. Her body was found in the Connecticut River in March, 1929. Medical authorities and police investigators pointed out they were certain she was a suicide.

Also both the father of Colonel Lindbergh, once a Minnesota congressman, and the father of his wife, Senator Dwight Morrow, are dead.

Governor Morrow, in explaining why police had decided two persons took part in the abduction, pointed out that the window of the nursery, from which the Lindbergh heir was taken, is "pretty narrow" and that it would have been difficult for anyone to climb out of it while holding a baby.

"The police think," he continued, "that one of the kidnappers entered the nursery and the other waited at the top of the ladder. Then the baby was handed through the window to the man outside."

He said the time of the abduction had been narrowed down to between 8:30 and 9:15 P. M. Colonel Lindbergh came home at 8:30, using the same road the kidnappers must have used. There was no car in the road at that time. At 9:15 he went to his desk which is under the nursery. If a ladder had been raised to the nursery window then, he would have seen it. He remained at the desk until the nurse screamed that the baby was missing.

There was no car in the road at that time. At 9:15 he went to his desk which is under the nursery. If a ladder had been raised to the nursery window then, he would have seen it. He remained at the desk until the nurse screamed that the baby was missing.

Your Income Tax

PERSONAL EXEMPTIONS

In addition to the personal exemption of $1,500 for single persons and $2,000 for married persons living together and heads of families, a taxpayer may claim a credit of $100 for each dependent, defined by income tax law and regulations as a person under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective. The term "mentally or physically defective" means not only cripples and those mentally or physically defective" means health, and the aged.

In order to claim the $400 credit the taxpayer must furnish the dependent his or her chief support. The credit is based upon actual financial dependency and not mere legal dependency. For example, a father whose children receive half or more of their support from a trust fund or other separate source, is not entitled to the credit.

Neither relationship nor residence are factors in claiming the $400 credit for a dependent. The taxpayer and the dependent may be residents of different cities. If husband and wife both contribute to the support of a dependent, the $400 credit must be taken by the one contributing the chief support, and may not be divided between them.

A single person who supports in his home an aged mother is entitled not only to the $400 credit for a dependent, but also to the personal exemption of $1,500 as the head of a family. A widower supporting under similar circumstances a dependent child under 18 years of age also is entitled to the personal exemption of $1,500 as the head of a family, also the $400 credit for a dependent.

To claim the $400 for each dependent the taxpayer must have been furnishing the chief support on the last day of the taxable year, December 31, if the return is filed on the calendar-year basis. If during the year his support of such dependent ceased, he is not entitled to this credit.

Wealthy Kidnap Victim Reveals Ideas On Crime

captors hit me on the head after forcing my chauffeur and me to drive away from my own home at 6 o'clock one afternoon last December. I realized they would hurt me physically at will and would kill me without hesitation if that would serve their purpose or help them to escape.

I was so incensed that I felt that whatever happened I wanted to bring these men to justice.

The extreme penalty for convicted kidnappers should be death, but I believe circumstances and conditions should govern cases as they do in murder. The death penalty is the one most forceful weapon to protect society against the underworld.

I have two lines of thought about the legislation pending in Congress which would make kidnapping a federal offense. First, I would say that the states should be able to take care of their own affairs.

My attitude is, also, that since the failure of the federal government to enforce prohibition, the federal law doesn't mean as much as it used to and might be equally an ineffective in curbing kidnapping.

When I was growing up, the federal law meant something. It was generally felt that if federal authorities got after you, you might as well give up. I don't believe people feel that way now. With all the kidnapping and crime generally that has been reported lately, it seems to me that prosecutors must get responsible men to serve on juries. Many men who can't spare time for jury service do find time for much less important things.

A jury failed to convict the first man tried in connection with my abduction. He is Paul Schmitt, who confessed that he rented to the kidnappers the filthy place where I was held two days while former Senator James A. Reed and other friends tried to effect my release. Paul Schmitt admitted he knew his house was to be used to hold someone who would be kidnapped. Yet the jury could not reach a verdict. To thwart such things as this we must have juries that will convict persons involved in any way in kidnapping.
