THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
. . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read you Bible daily.

Little arms reach up, I stoop and lift the precious weight of baby son into my arms and smell his sweetness. Prayers of praise and thanks fill my heart.

Cuddling him close, I remember the night of his birth when Mary and I were told that our baby could not live until daybreak. How we prayed in those early morning hours, holding hands and clinging fast to our belief that God in His goodness would spare our son. How grateful we were for the courage and strength God's love and nearness supplied. How glad we were for the Church where we had learned to love and worship the God who gives us all life.

Do you wonder that Sunday morning finds us both in church joyfully worshipping and giving thanks to God?

Attend the church of your choice. Whatever your need, it stands ready to help.

AROUND THE CLOCK

By LARRY VERSHEL

Ho-Hum — Industrial Board and City Commission met behind closed doors this morning at the Florida State Bank.

I had been invited but was shown the door by the executive director.

* * *

At the first Industrial Board meeting in March the minutes reflect that the press would be invited to all meetings. Since they hired an executive director they have apparently changed their mind.

* * *

A CONVERSATION WITH A SPARROW —

REPORTER — Okay what did they talk about in there?

SPARROW — Why didn't you go. I thought you had some stock in that bank?

REPORTER — I do, 1 do.

SPARROW — Well, the industrial board got a run down from the city on acquisition of the Naval Air Station. Talked about surplus property at the base . . . GSA cutting budget and won't be much left out there when the base is phased out.

REPORTER — We heard this all before.

SPARROW — So why all the secret meetings?

REPORTER — Guess they just want to keep the taxpayers in the dark.

* * *

Closed door session started at 8 and at 9:10 the mayor walked out . . . Didn't mention the meeting and questioned him about triplets born to one of his calves . . . University of Florida interested in it . . . Very, very rare . . . Just like commission meeting in public. Anyway, I went back in the bank and someone put a sign on the door "Meeting in Progress."

I sat on the stairs smoking a cigaret and looked at the sign without thinking about a thing.

* * *

City Manager Pete Knowles meeting with the department heads this morning on ways to cut the budget . . . Have to come up with $35,000. Needless to say the meeting was behind closed doors again.

* * *

FEA incorporated sanctions on June 2 . . . Said no teacher could leave one county and teach in another. However, they didn't say anything when an Orange County Supervisor of education went to Seminole to become Supt. of Schools.

* * *

That was on July 3.

* * *

Some kids stole stop sign faces at the intersection of Red Bug Rd. and Tuskawilow yesterday. A few hours later two cars slammed into one another and three persons were sent to the hospital.

* * *

Nice kids!

Allz of Sanford expansion will start in about 10 days . . . adding 20,000 square feet to the plant on Hwy. 17-92 and about 100 more people.

A CONVERSATION WITH SEMINOLE EDUCATION PRESIDENT BUD LAYER:

REPORTER — How many teachers have resigned?

LAYER — After Kirk's speech, quite a few.

REPORTER — Well, how many?

LAYER — Over 100.

REPORTER — How many over 100?

LAYER — Over 100!

REPORTER — Under 200?

LAYER — Over 200!

REPORTER — More than 200?

LAYER — Over 100!

How come Longwood in its recently adopted budget of revenues for the new fiscal year shows $5,500 anticipated in road and bridge funds from the county when the county in its budget shows anticipation of only $4,700 to the city in road and bridge moneys?

How come Longwood's water meter reader, earning $2.00 an hour, is chauffeured from meter to meter by another city employee also earning $2.00 per hour. Instead of raising rates some 25 per cent, why doesn't the City Council eliminate the chauffeur?

Fireman Hurt In Blaze

* * *

One Casselberry volunteer fireman was hospitalized as result of smoke inhalation and valuable electronic testing equipment damaged in a fire at Continental Testing Labs, Inc., Plant No. 2 at Fern Plaza, Fern Park, at 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

William Meyerhoffer of 341 Melody Lane, Casselberry was taken to Florida Sanitarium and Hospital by Niblack's Ambulance Service and was reported resting comfortably early today.

Casselberry Volunteer Fire Department fought the fire for three hours handicapped by the dense smoke from smoldering insulation in the ceiling.

John G. Broderick, manager, said that an accurate estimate would not be available until later today, but that he expect damaged to be at least $10,000 as equipment belonging to their customers was destroyed as well as testing equipment.

He stated that the plant will be out of operation for at least three weeks and the cause of the blaze was as yet undetermined.

Broderick commended the Casselberry Fire Department for the careful way in which they fought the fire in order to keep water damage to the valuable equipment to a minimum.

A Sanford police car was smashed up at 13th St. and French Ave. after the officer was escorting an ambulance to the hospital in the aftermath of a child hit by a car at 10th and Mulberry yesterday afternoon.

Police Chief Ben Butler said a three year old girl, Linda Allaway, was hit by a car operated by Charles Crawford at about 1:30 p.m.

The girl was rushed to the hospital and was being escorted by Police officer John Moore. A car slammed into the city vehicle causing some $1,000 in damages, Butler said, there were no charges. Driver of the other vehicle was from DeBary and her name was not released at press time.

The little girl had apparently darted in front of the Crawford vehicle. Moore was slightly hurt in the police car smashup and received first aid at the hospital.

In another accident late last night, a car operated by Jesse Smith of Oviedo hit a vehicle operated by Miller Croly of Winter Park at Red Bug Rd. and Tuskawilla. Both Croly, a passenger in his car, Robert Wagner of Winter Park, and Smith were taken to Winter Park Hospital and treated for injuries. All were reported in fair condition.

On Friday afternoon a car operated by Orlando Electrician William Elliott ran off the road at I-4 at Wymore Rd. Elliott died at Florida Sanitarium shortly after the accident. The mishap occurred shortly before noon.

CAL CONKLIN

Use Of Facility Clarified

Jetport or purchase.

This above, in a nutshell, is what the City of Sanford must accomplish in order to acquire title to the Sanford Naval Air Station property, after the Navy moves out next July 1.

Don Bradford, director of the U. S. Office of Economic Adjustment, at Washington, this morning in a telephone interview, clarified the confusion which followed a visit here last week of the U. S. General Services Administration representatives from Atlanta.

The two GSA agents left the Impression Sanford must purchase the property.

Bradford today explained that a "use plan" by the city will determine whether the federal government will turn over the property on a $1 token sale or whether the city will have to enter into competition for the outright purchase of the land and buildings.

"If Sanford plans to use the property solely for industrial development," Bradford said, "then the city must buy the property."

However, he added, if the city plans to set up a jetport "then in all probability it can acquire the land and buildings for $1."

He explained the Office of Economic Opportunity presently is conducting a study for an airport complex to serve all of Central Florida from the present Sanford Naval Air Station.

"If the Federal Aviation Agency certifies a need for an airport," Bradford said, "then it also will have to certify necessary revenue-producing properties to support the airport."

The OEO study, he said, will supplement the question whether an airport needs should be justified by FAA. He added the study will be far-reaching, to Tampa, Miami and Jacksonville and covering the needs for the next 20 years.

Sanford Industrial Commission and Sanford City Commission met in a closed-door session this morning (the press was barred) to determine the role the SIC shall play in the move to acquire the Navy base and all or part of its equipment.

Open House

Lake Monroe-Wilson School will have open house at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, with sponsored guests to be Rupert Jenkins, new principal, and Mrs. Mary Groome, the principal. Parents of children in the school and residents of the area are invited to attend.

Utility Regulations On Agenda

Procedures and requirements needed in order that charges and services of private utilities in Seminole County may be regulated will be reported by Cal Conklin of Clark, Dietz and Associates at the meeting of the County Commission slated to be in at 9 a.m. Tuesday at the Courthouse.

Conklin is knowledgable about private utilities and recently was interviewed on the matter by the Orange-Seminole Joint Planning Council.

Appeals have been made to the county by citizens over the past few years on charges made by private utilities with the Commission determining on each occasion that it could not regulate the utilities.

In other business, J. C. Lavender will report on increased usage of the sanitary landfills in the county by Orange County commercial operators. The security guard posted at the Sanlando pit has been having difficulties determining which portion of garbage dumped is Orange County garbage, Lavender will say.

Casselberry To Ponder Bingo Play

Reconsideration will be given to permitting Bingo games to operate within the city limits of the City of Casselberry at the meeting of the City Council scheduled for 8 p. m. today at the Woman's Club Building on Overbrook Drive.

SJC Gets $103,083

Release this month of $103,083 to the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction for Seminole Junior College was announced today by Comptroller Fred O. (Bud) Dickinson Jr.

Dickinson noted the bulk of this amount was comprised of funds of the Minimum Foundation Program as provided by the 1967 Legislative Appropriations Act. Additional amount was derived from the state sales tax revenue.

Sits As Equalization Board

City Faces Reappraisal Woes

The City Commission will sit as a board of equalization tonight at 8 to hear complaints from property owners regarding a complete reappraisal of 8,000 parcels in the city limits.

The reassessment will be between 85 to 90 per cent of the sales price, According to Assessor Max Coberly real estate valuations jumped close to $5 million as a result of the extensive property and building reappraisal. The total figure submitted by Coberly was $58,589,550. Last year's figure was $53,967,820. It is expected that the board of equalization will add some $84,000 to the operating budget starting Oct 1.

No decision on the reappraisal will be made tonight. The board will simply review all the complaints and report their findings later.

Non-exempt property was estimated at $40,709,656, while exempt property totals $14,879,894.

After the regular meeting tonight the board will once again try to hack away at its $1,000,000 plus budget still needing to cut $35,000 to keep the millage line at 16.

City Manager W. E. Knowles met with Department heads this morning in an attempt to cut budget appropriations from various departments and his results will be discussed tonight.

Mrs. Kathleen Anderson, state regional coordinator for the Division of Mental Retardation, was present to advise the group on state aid available for such a council.

"No state aid is available for capital outlay for facilities," Mrs. Anderson said, "But moneys can be obtained in grants from the state for salaries, office personnel, office supplies, rent, utilities, etc."

Goals of the new organization as suggested by Mrs. Anderson are to conduct surveys to determine needs for the mentally retarded and to council parents on facilities available in the county to assist the mentally retarded.

Hurricane 'Beulah' Kills 18, Hits Dominican

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Beulah struck the Barahona Peninsula of the Dominican Republic with 125 miles an hour winds today and threatened eastern Cuba.

Beulah already had left 16 dead in the eastern Carribean and a report from Barahona said 1,000 were homeless there.

This morning Beulah was about 90 miles southeast of Port Au Prince, Haiti, and just off the eastern edge of Bharona Peninsula, some 230 miles southeast of Miami.

The thundering storm skirted Santo Domingo, the Dominican Republic's coastal capital, with its most intense winds which raged to more than 125 miles an hour.

But gale force winds and heavy rains hit Santo Domingo Sunday night as they did parts of Puerto Rico earlier Sunday.

Danger still remained for the Dominican Republic's Barahona Peninsula. The forecast called for Beulah to go inland on the peninsula to the southwest of Santo Domingo and cross the country into Haiti which shares the island of Hispaniola.

Hurricane Flora tore through Haiti—an economically poor Negro nation—in October of 1963 on its way to Cuba. Flora was blamed with killing 6,000 persons.

A hurricane watch was posted for Cuba early today.

"It poses a threat to southeastern Cuba if it continues on its forecast track," said Joseph Pelissier, a forecaster in the National Hurricane Center in Miami.

Meanwhile, Hurricane Doria churned along the East Coast of the United States on a course expected to take her 250 miles east of the Virginia Capes. Hurricane Chloe swirled across the Atlantic more than 1,000 miles east-southeast of Bermuda still days from land, and in the Pacific tropical storm Lily dissipated rapidly 385 miles southwest of Los Angeles without hitting land.

Beulah dealt Puerto Rico's south and west coasts punishing slaps—taking one life and smashing at least a dozen homes—before charging across the Caribbean toward the Dominican Republic.

The death was the 15th attributed to Beulah. The earlier 15 deaths were on St. Vincent and Martinique Islands.

Santo Domingo's weather station reported Hurricane Beulah dumped torrential rains on the capital and brought winds that gusted to 40 m.p.h. Sunday night.

Jaime Lockward, assistant news editor of the newspaper El Caribe in Sante Domingo, said the winds bowled over some trees—including a huge one that blocked traffic for several hours on the city's main street—but caused no major damage.

After Beulah took a westerly turn away from a course that would have taken her very near the capital, refugees ordered out of their houses in low-lying sections of Santo Domingo were allowed to return home, Lockward said.

The hurricane warnings caused the national lottery, movies, horse racing programs and other public functions to be closed Sunday. The government ordered the sale of alcoholic beverages stopped.

Monetary loss was set at $150,000 in Ponce. Puerto Rico's second largest city. Beulah whirled within 40 miles of Cabo Rojo, a town of 29,000 on the southeast tip of the island. All roads but one leading to the area were flooded and officials were unable to assess the damage immediately.

At Guayama, the raging surf smashed through a temporary housing project. Waves 16 feet high flooded inland as much as 100 yards in some areas. top winds were clocked unofficially at about 50 m.p.h.

Beulah also took a heavy toll in drowned cattle and other livestock.

Hurricane Doria's northeasterly movement oft the United States coast caused the Weather Bureau to issue a warning that small craft should remain in safe harbor from Plymouth, Mass., southward to South Carolina.

Reconnaissance aircraft reported Doria had gales extending out 150 miles to the east and 75 miles to the west from the 80 m.p.h. winds around the eye.

Hurricane Chloe poses the least threat to land now, according to weather Bureau reports. The reconnaissance planes which located Chloe more than 1,000 miles east - southeast of Bermuda found winds up to 80 m.p.h. near the center with gales out 200 miles to the north and 100 miles to the south.

Doria was near latitude 35.2 north, longitude 73.4 west, or about 100 miles east of Cape Hatteras, N.C., at last report.

Chloe was near latitude 26.5 north and longitude 47.0 west.

Broward Teachers Defy Work Order

FORT LAUDERDALE (AP)—Broward County schools Sunday were ordered reopened Tuesday but "spokesmen for more than 2,800 teachers who have handed in resignations over a salary dispute said they would not show up.

The action came after the county school board made a formal pay offer and heard directors of the Broward County Classroom Teachers Association say they would not recommend it to their membership.

Board Chairman W. Samuel Tucker said at a special session Sunday night the back to work order would stand. He said, "The children will be there. The teacher will be there."

"No we won't," shouted CTA members attending the board meeting. Directors of the group scheduled a meeting for 10 a.m. Monday at which the teachers will consider the board's compromise bid.

The board and the CTA were only about $50 apart at the board's last offer, but CTA officials said they wanted a more concreate pay proposal.

The board proposed a $5,650 base pay contingent on a millage election in November. The teachers would get $5,508 immediately and the rest retroactive to the start of the school year if voters approve.

CTA President David Pierce said the group wanted an immediate raise to $5,650 with no strings attached, and another $58 if the county commission approved a four per cent emergency increase in property taxes for this year.

The school board ordered its attorneys to begin preparations for legal action against the teachers whose resignations forced schools to close.

Tucker said he did not want to comment on the prospect of legal action against the teachers. "I don't want to raise any feelings," he said.

School Supt. Myron Ashmore said he felt if legal action is taken it could "precipitate a statewide walkout of members of the Florida Education Association."

Indians Chide Whites' Logic

FORT LAUDERDALE (AP) —Indians got into the dispute over teachers' pay demands Sunday.

More than 30 Seminoles, misty in full Indian garb, pitched in front of the Broward County board of education offices while the board was meeting with representatives of the Classroom Teachers Association.

Some of the pickets were students and others parents. One carried a sign suggesting the board "make peace or we make war."

"Pass peace pipes, not political pipes," another said.

One Seminole man says "Indian go to school.' Indian goes. White man closes schools He is crazy."

Robert F. Kennedy

Bobby Attacks Cigarette Smoking

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., said today he will introduce three bills to regulate the cigarette industry because, he said, it is "peddling a deadly weapon" through what he called a largely ineffective self-regulation code.

His promise to introduce the bills in the Senate tuesday was coupled with a declaration that cigarette companies are "dealing in people's lives for financial gain."

Kennedy made the announcement in a speech prepared for the three-day World Conference on Smoking and Health which opened today.

Satellites Satisfy Engineers' Dream

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—One satellite, with bees in its bonnet, and another, with bugs in its system, have fulfilled the dreams of U. S. space engineers just by landing in one piece.

The first, called the astrobug satellite, was snagged in flight over the Pacific Saturday as it came down from space after 30 trips around the earth.

The second, called Surveyor 5, landed gently on the moon Sunday after scientists at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory here feared some leaks—the bugs—in a helium pressure system had killed the mission.

Surveyor Project Manager Howard Haglund told a news conference sunday night the Surveyor 5 landed on a gentle slope, perhaps as much as 10 degrees off horizontal, about 18 miles northwest of its original aiming point in the dry Sea of Tranquility.

The Surveyor program manager, Ben Milwitsky, credited fast-figuring engineers with saving the mission after a valve stuck and caused a loss of the helium—used to force rocket fuel into three small braking engines that help guide the descent.

Milwitsky said the engineers who designed the flight pattern saved the mission by doing in 40 hours what usually takes a week of planning. He said they redesigned the mission after the helium problem cropped up. They held off firing the main retro rocket until the very last second saving every ounce of helium possible.

Congressmen Eye Final Adjournment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress returns today from its third long 1967 vacation, eyeing a massive pile of legislation it must dispose of one way or another before final adjournment. If it is to quit for keeps by Thanksgiving day as its leaders now hope, it will have to do more in the next two months than it has in the past eight.

How it copes with the major jobs ahead could be determined largely by what members heard from their constituents during the two-weeks Labor Day lull. Most of them went home for grass roots soundings.

The immediate problems are relatively simple.

The Senate's program for the week calls for consideration of an election reform bill, a compromise $70-billion defense appropriation measure and a controversial $10-billion money bill including funds for model cities and rent subsidies.

A less pretentious agenda faces the House. It will act on the defense appropriation bill, Appalachian regional development measure and assorted odds and ends.

Then come the big headaches, if committees can get them ready and the leaders decide to order showdown voting.

Topping the vexing problems is the administration's $10 billion tax increase proposal on which the House Ways and Means Committee still has another week of open hearings. It may take a month to whip the bill into shape for House consideration and then it must start all over in the Senate.

The house already has passed a bill broadening the Social Security program. The Senate votes to vote on it next month. Then it must go to a compromise committee and back through both branches.

The House also has passed bills to protect civil rights workers and to punish persons who cross state lines to incite rioting. The Senate Judiciary Committee has shown no inclination to speed them up, although they are on the "must" program for final action before adjournment.

Nearing a House vote are bills to increase postal rates and raise the pay of postal and other government employes.

Pay hikes for military personnel are provided for in another bill before the House Armed Services Committee.

Three big appropriation bills involving a total of about $9 billion haven't emerged from committee but must be acted on this year. They finance military construction programs, foreign aid and conventional antipoverty projects. The bills can't even start their perilous trip through Congress until separate pending measures authorizing them have been enacted.

Ford, Union To Resume Negotiations

DETROIT (AP) — Bargainers for both the United Auto Workers and the Ford Motor Co. meet today to discuss the possibility of resuming negotiations as the strike by 160,000 UAW members against Ford entered its fifth day.

There was no indication whether the get-together, termed "a kind of probing meeting" by one union source, would lead a quick return to the bargaining table.

Ken Bannon, director of the UAW's Ford Department, represents the union and Sidney P. McKenna, Ford director of labor relations, the company.

Earl Mazey, UAW secretary-treasurer, predicted that the nation's No. 2 automaker would not be interested in serious negotiating until its supply of new cars ran out.

The company says its supply of 3,000 1968 models ready for introduction Sept. 21 will last about 30 days.

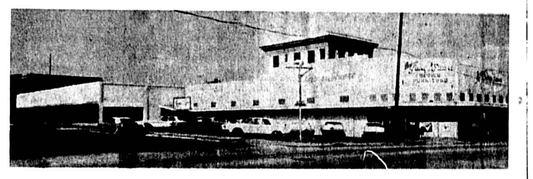
Some 700 people attended a rally Sunday night in Detroit's Cobo Hall sponsored by the International Society of Skilled Trades (ISST), which is attempting to lure skilled workers out of the UAW.

The ISST picketed General Motors plants in Flint and Saginaw last month in an effort to make good its threat to get craftsmen out of the UAW.

The ISST has failed in several attempts to win representation elections from the National Labor Relations Board in shops organized by the UAW.

The average auto worker now makes $4.70 an hour in wages and fringe benefits.

'Check With George Stuart' Is A 'Must'



HOME OF GEORGE STUART INC., 133 East Robinson, downtown Orlando. Since inaugurating a far-reaching advertising program business has boomed

Invest $50,000 to $60,000 in your telephone bill annually, triple that figure in advertising and you come up with the success story of a business supply department store doing better than $2 million volume business—the largest in the South right here in Central Florida.

Most business men feel that kind of money can be put to better use. But not George Stuart, president of George Stuart, Inc., of Orlando. He has had businessmen and individuals checking with him for some 35 years —and they are still checking. His trade mark "Check With George Stuart" is as synonymous with advertising as a typewriter is with a secretary—they both go together.

G. STUART

"The numerous benefits we gain from our phone service, coupled with an advertising program via the daily newspapers and various other media including direct mailing, we feel that we come out making money," says Stuart.

In nature the plan is rather simple, he explains:

"In addition to normal service, we have direct lines to six other cities within a radius of 100 miles of Orlando. They are Sanford, Daytona Beach, Cocoa, DeLand, Titusville and South Brevard. If a customer wants to order something from us, he doesn't have to call long distance. He merely has to pick up his phone and dial us direct."

George Stuart, Inc., is listed in more than two dozen White and Yellow Pages directories in as many cities.

"We send out mailings to some 35,000 business establishments in the area," Stuart continued. "This is what makes our telephone program so successful. We do it continually.

"We work on the theory made popular by the big mail-order houses. To get an order, put something before the customer to make him want to buy. Then make it easy for him to order it.

"We don't sell to them. They buy from us," he adds.

"Take our newspaper advertisements, for instance. We insist that every detail of an item we have for sale is brought out in the layout—precise in size, color, etc. The description must be perfect. Just like it is on our display floor. Then, our customer is as close to the item as his phone, even though he may be 75 miles away."

What about outside salesmen?

"We have no 'hot' salesmen," explains Stuart, "but we have no cold salesmen. They go out only if a customer wants us to bring a desk or something by the office . . . or if we get a lead from our direct mail.

"To cover our present territory, we would need 175 salesmen. Each salesman would have to handle 200 accounts—remember there are 35,000 business firms in our market area —and would have to average 20 calls a day in order to call on each customer twice a month."

It is estimated that by 1970, the Greater Orlando-Sanford area will have a population in excess of one million.

"That's when our phone service and advertising is really going to pay off," Stuart concludes.

White Demonstrators Scattered By Police

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Hundreds of residents of the virtually all-white South Side were scattered by repeated rounds of police tear gas Sunday night in a near riotous aftermath to a Negro open housing march.

"Let's go to the North Side," shouted South Side youths milling along what they mistakenly believed would be the route of the Negro marchers. "North North!!"

Police, who tried to persuade the throngs to disperse were pelted with wood, bottles and bricks. They retaliated with tear gas firing down residential streets after whites who retreated there.

The 2,500 marchers, who had taken a different route through the South Side in a 14th straight day of demonstrations, were already back at their headquarters in the nearly all-Negro North Side when the white uprising started. Nineteen persons were arrested and three were injured before it was over. Only minor incidents had occurred during the open housing march, held under heavy police guard.

After a series of tear gas attacks, about 500 youths finally formed a parade line. Police allowed half the group to move all the way across a viaduct leading out of the South Side. At the end of the viaduct, police stopped the march cold with a show of force, and persuasion.

Meeting The Crisis

Whether it is artificial or real, a crisis exists in education in Florida.

Gov. Kirk's television speech announcing a 15 month study of the intricate problem offers nothing at all for the present.

The militant professional leadership of the teacher organizations think it is just another stall, the kind of thing they have been getting out of Tallahassee for a decade.

Claude Kirk did not create the mess. He inherited it.

No matter who fathered the situation, it confronts Seminole County and all of Florida.

About a week ago a Herald editorial suggested some kind of "third force" was needed to solve the riddle. We still think so.

Leaders of classroom teachers organization have asked us if this newspaper would support a special legislative session to deal with the impasse this year.

The answer is yes. Under certain conditions.

The United States congress backs away in a hurry from "compulsory arbitration" in labor-management disputes.

We suggest voluntary arbitration agreed on by the governor, the State Legislature and the teachers.

Both the executive and legislative arms of Florida government should be represented. Certainly so should the teaching profession.

Let a fourth member of the arbitration panel come from within Florida as a member of the public at large, perhaps some trusted and respected man such as U.S. Sen. Spessard Holland.

As the balance wheel and chairman, let an outsider, a dispassionate expert with no personal ax to grind, sit at the head of the table.

While the Governor's 80 member commission gathers its facts and does the long range study over the next 15 months, let the smaller, tighter board decide what can be done at once.

Virtually all the figures, the background material have been put together in various files. Spread it all on the table and sort the facts from the propaganda of both sides.

Let all who consent to this arbitration board and are represented on it agree in advance that they and the people they represent, will be bound by the results and live with them until the long-range study can be completed.

The crisis is here. Be it of manufactured or substantive material, the specter will not just go away. Nor will it wait.

We certainly can support such a concept of meeting the crisis.

We believe a great majority of Floridians would think the same way.

From The Teacher's View

Officials of the Seminole Education Association are going around speaking to various parent teacher groups and organizations throughout the county to inform the public on school problems as seen by the teachers.

Tuesday Bud Layer, president of the SEA will speak to the Pine Crest PTA and the following night he will address the Democratic women's club.

We urge all school parents as well as those who do not have children in school to attend the meeting Tuesday.

This will be an opportunity to question Mr. Layer on school financing and the conditions in various local schools.

There is no better way for the people to find out for themselves what is going on in Seminole County than to talk to a teacher and visit the schools. Mr. Layer, at Pine Crest tomorrow will discuss the overcrowded situation in some classrooms and the importance of having adequate education aids, textbooks and other supplies.

Mr. Layer will explain why the Florida Education Association invoked sanctions in the state and what financing is necessary to solve the educational problems.

We urge you to hear what he has to say.

Analysis Of The News

WASHINGTON (AP)—A long, cold autumn seems likely to be the price Congress will have to pay for dawdling through the long, hot summer.

It's off again on its third vacation since convening last January. And when it returns Sept. 11, the end of the 1967 session won't be in sight.

Legislative leaders no longer have a fixed target date for final adjournment, although they hopefully look to mid-November as the get- away period. In the optimistic opening days of the session, they plugged for July 31 as going-home day. Then they backed it up to Labor Day. They'd settle now for Thanksgiving Day.

Although much has been done during the first eight months, much more remains to be done if the scheduled business is to be disposed of before the end of the year. And most of the remaining legislation is highly controversial.

It deals with tax increases, higher postal rates, pay raises, Social Security, the antipoverty program, civil rights, foreign aid and election law reforms to list a few.

A tax bill is scheduled to hit the House floor in mid-October, and then it starts all over in the Senate.

The Social Security measure, broadening benefits, has passed the House but isn't expected to reach a Senate vote until late in October.

The election reform bill is the Senate's unfinished business when Congress returns. It hasn't been acted on by the House. Also nearing the voting stage in the Senate are a $2.6 billion antipoverty bill and a house housing measure including a House-rejected provision to exterminate rats in slum areas.

Major unfinished business on the House calendar is a compromise $70 billion defense appropriation bill with a controversial provision banning naval ship contract awards to British shipyards.

House-passed bills to protect civil rights workers and to make it a federal crime to cross state lines to incite rioting are languishing in the Senate Judiciary Committee headed by Sen. James Eastland, D-Miss.

The House Post Office and Civil Service Committee hopes to have ready soon bills to hike postal rates and to boost the pay of postal and civil service employes. Pay raises for military personnel are being considered by the House Armed Services Committee. The pay bills are "must" for the pre-election year session.

Only six of the 17 appropriation bills have gone to President Johnson. Eight of the remaining 11 have passed the House only. The three that haven't been considered by either branch finance the foreign-aid program, military construction, and antipoverty programs. They can't be considered until separate legislation is enacted putting spending ceilings on the programs.

The money bills enacted involved presidential requests or $93.5 billion in new funds and reflected congressional cuts of $1.9 billion. This includes the Defense Department measure over which there is no controversy as to appropriations. Economy-voting isn't keeping pace with economy-talking.

But despite the long holidays and delays over censuring Sen. Thomas J Dodd, D-Conn., and unseating Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., Congress has pretty much to show for its work to date.

It has enacted a new draft law, extended the Teachers Corps and other education programs, increased the national debt limit twice, provided benefits for "cold war" veterans and halted a threatened railroad strike.

"If We Can Find the Key to That One, It'll Lead Right Into the White House!"

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Lois asks for some frank counsel on the psychology of fashions, so scrapbook this case! For millions of silly American women fail to adapt to their own needs. They haven't an iota of understanding about the psychology of dress, perfume, cosmetics and hats.

CASE D-549: Lois D., aged 27, conducts a Charm School.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "I wish you would wake up a lot of modern women to the simple psychology of styles and fashions.

"Many girls will thus adopt the very fads that make them look their worst!

"Can't you warn women against being such silly sheep?"

Once each semester at Northwestern University I would schedule a public lecture on "Charm."

My students could then invite their friends and relatives.

So we'd require the auditorium at our Law School to hold the crowd.

Although I don't claim to be an artist, I'd even illustrate on the blackboard many of the psychological points about women's fashions.

For example, I'd show why ultra short skirts (miniskirts) are absolutely taboo for fat girls and those with bowlegs or knock-knees!

If a girl has bowlegs, which look like a pair of parentheses ( ), then a longer skirt will hide the upper half of the arcs.

This will then make the lower lower halves seem less bent!

And if she will wear hose with seams, then she should carefully avoid letting the seams follow the curved legs.

Instead, move those seams slightly to the inside and keep them straight, for then the straight seams will help neutralize the outward curves of her bowlegs.

Don't blindly follow the bizarre women's styles or madly stampede into adopting fads that make you look ludicrous or top-heavy!

You can always vary the length of your skirt by a couple of inches without being obvious.

So always adapt the fad to your own cosmetic advantage!

Lengthen the skirts slightly to hide your knock-knees or knotty knees and bowlegs.

If you are too fat, then a diet is obviously the best remedy.

But meanwhile, you can reduce your apparent obesity by as much as 10% merely by the way you dress.

For instance, fat women should avoid anything that makes the eyes of their companion travel East and West, or crosswise.

Thus, omit belted frocks and jacket suits where the lower line of the jacket adds another crosswise line.

Instead, pick fabrics with fine vertical pin stripe to make the eyes go up and down (North and South) and thus create the psychological illusion of more height.

Checkered patterns, plus large flowered designs, also make you seem fatter! Light colors "fatten" your appearance! Dark hues slenderize!

Fatties, don't use square-cut necks in your dresses. And avoid a tight strand of beads that crosses your throat.

Instead, use a deep V-neck and also a long strand of beads to add more of those vertical lines that slenderize your figure.

Also, avoid rings on your stubby, fat fingers, for they also exaggerate your plumpness.

Avoid thick or fur coats and mink stoles, for they make an average wife look elephantine!

Slender girls can use the above rules in reverse in order to make themselves appear less skinny or "bony." More tomorrow!

LETTERS

To The Editor

Editor, Herald:

Is there some reason unbeknown that we change horses in the middle of the stream? I am referring to the Industrial Commission taking over the labors that heretofore have been very ably and amply provided by our Chamber, with a minimum cost to all.

My humble belief is, to sustain this Industrial Commission would be in error, and recommend it be dissolved immediately.

Our growth, and we have made great strides thus far, can only be contributed to our Commissioners and excellent City Manager. They are responsible for the fruition of improvements we now enjoy. And all had the solid backing of the Chamber. Many originating in the minds of the Chamber members.

Now please don't think that I am trying to beat the drum or wave a flag for the Chamber of Commerce, I definitely am not. But I ask you in all sincerity why trade a going and known good thing that we get for free, for an unknown factor that costs.

Very truly yours,
Merle W. Warner

Ed. Note: Since Mr. Warner is chairman of the Civil Service Board he might be interested to know that just the other day we had a letter from an attorney asking that the civil service board be dissolved.

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Deputies searched for a bank robbery suspect on a remote farm road north of Portland.

A flashlight was too weak so two television news photographers turned on their floodlights.

An hour later, in color, Oregon television viewers saw the suspect put up his hands and surrender.

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Nine out of 10 U.S. men who wear toupees—now a $7.5-million industry—say they do so because it's important in their business to look younger. The hairpieces cost $300 up, last from three to four years.

Plankton, the basic food stuff of the sea, has more nutritive value than a pound of beefsteak. It keeps whales healthy and would do the same for people if science could find a way to harvest it economically.

There's also enough gold in the sea to make every man on earth a millionaire—if it could only be mined cheaply. It is estimated that the sea's waters hold in suspension 10 billion tons of gold—about 100,000 times as much as has ever been taken from the earth.

Your child's intelligence quotient isn't a fixed thing. It can shrink or grow. Studies have shown that the quality of a child's home life can make a difference of 25 points in his IQ—and whether he goes to a good or bad school can make a difference of 10 points.

Why do people grow old and die? One theory is that the human body in time simply becomes allergic to itself. The body begins to reject the new cells it creates to replenish the worn cells, and this process gradually weakens and kills it.

Quotable notables: "My definition of an educated man is the fellow who knows the right thing to do at the time it has to be done. You can be sincere and still be stupid."—Charles Kettering.

Carefree: Few statesmen have ever matched Winston Churchill's aplomb. On the eve of his important meetings with Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin and President Franklin D. Roosevelt during World War II, Sir Winston, instead of fretting about problems, calmly climbed into bed, surrounded himself with hot water bottles, and read a novel by Charles Dickens.

The Good Old Days: The Rev. Elijah Craig, a Baptist minister and educator from Georgetown, Ky., is being honored as the founder of the bourbon whisky industry in 1789. The good preacher charged the same for a gallon of his bourbon as he did for a bushel of corn meal—25 cents.

Opportunity: If your daughter is looking for a career, don't let her overlook her typewriter. Some two million women now hold secretarial positions, and the U.S. Department of Labor estimates business will need another two million over the next 10 years.

Highway safety tip: A clean blackboard eraser carried in the glove compartment of your car makes a handy gadget for cleaning fogged windows, says John Whyte, famed Manhattan model.

History lesson: Can you name the first U.S. coin to bear the likeness of a living president? It was the 1926 Sesquicentennial Commemorative Half Dollar, which had the Liberty Bell on one side and the heads of George Washington and Calvin Coolidge on the other.

Worth remembering: "We need not worry so much about what man descends from—it's what he descends to that shames the human race."

The price of victory: In Massachusetts you can be fined up to $200 for tearing down a football goal post.

Folklore: Witches traditionally hold Sabbaths four times a year at which Satan appears in the form of a goat. If a girl sleeps with a piece of wedding cake under her pillow she'll dream of her future husband. Step on an ant, and you'll bring on a rain. Actresses believe that knitting on stage will bring bad luck.

It was Ralph Waldo Emerson who observed, "The louder he talked of his honor, the faster we counted our spoons."

Lynda Bird To Wed Marine Captain

WASHINGTON (AP) — A White House wedding in early December is planned for Lynda Bird Johnson and Marine Capt. Charles S. Robb, who met the President's daughter in the line of duty.

Smiling, holding hands, the young couple flew back from Texas Sunday night aboard the presidential jet plane after President and Mrs. Johnson announced their engagement from the LBJ ranch.

Lynda, 23, the Johnsons' older daughter, showed off her sparkling diamond engagement ring, but ignored photographers' requests to kiss her 28 year-old fiance, a tall, slender, dark-haired young man from Milwaukee, Wis.

The surprise announcement of Lynda's engagement ended continued speculation over the romantic interest of the president's daughter. She had numerous beaus through the years and broke an engagement to a young Navy lieutenant three years ago.

Until Robb came along, Lynda had been dating Hollywood actor George Hamilton more than anyone else. A few weeks ago, though, Hamilton declared "marriage is not in the immediate future."

Robb, who plans to make the Marines his career and is scheduled to go to Vietnam in February, first met Lynda a little more than a year ago when he was assigned to the White House as a military social aide. She called on him to make a fourth at bridge for a third floor solarium card game.

They didn't start dating steadily, though, until the past four months.

There was excitement and happiness in the Johnson family over Lynda's news, and her younger sister, Luci, 20, now Mrs. Patrick J. Nugent and mother of an 11-week son, shared it.

In Milwaukee Robb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Robb, said Chuck told them about a month ago he'd "decided to take the big step."

"He swore me to utter secrecy," Mrs. Robb told newsmen.

The young Marine's father, an airline sales executive, said "we were worried that he was going to be a confirmed bachelor all his life."

The romance between Lynda and the young marine attracted attention in recent weeks as they spent weekends on the beach at nearby Rehoboth Beach, Del., and were constantly photographed.

Both are Episcopalians and they plan to be married by an Episcopalian minister in the White House. It will be early in December, but no exact date has been set.

It will be the first White House wedding of a president's daughter since Woodrow Wilson's daughter, Eleanor, was married there in 1914 to Secretary of the Treasury William McAdoo.

Lynda, a history major, was graduated with honors from the University of Texas in June 1965 and now holds a $10,000-a-year, part-time magazine writing job. She has not indicated whether she will continue working after her marriage.

Robb, who has two brothers and a sister, was born in Phoenix, Ariz., attended Cornell University for a year and then transferred to the University of Wisconsin. He was graduated with honors, too, in 1961, having majored in business administration.

Town Of 600 Ready To Welcome 'Miss America'

MORAN, Kan. (AP) — This town of nearly 600 is going to have a welcome party for Debra Dene Barnes that will be "a blast royal," says Ken Hutton, city councilman.

Hutton headed a committee that raised $1,300 to send Debra's father and 16-year-old sister to Atlantic City so they could see her crowned as Miss America Saturday night.

The town already has let off a lot of steam. Right after the people got the word she had won, the streets filled with celebrators, cars honked, firecrackers exploded, the American Legion's electric cannon kept booming away, fire truck and ambulance sirens added to the din.

"The law was bent a little but nobody burned the barn," said Hutton.

It was 4 a.m. before things quieted down.

Kansas boosters were quick to point out that the current Mrs. America also is a Kansan. Mrs. John B. Cochran of Mission was named Mrs. America in San Diego in May.

And Debra is the second Miss America from Kansas in three years. Debbie Bryant of Overland Park, now Mrs. Roderick Wilson of Lawrence, won the crown two years ago.

Jim Crow, director of the local pageant at Pittsburg where Debra got her start toward becoming Miss Kansas, said she "worked close to five hours a day designing and making her clothes and practicing for her talent competition."

"It takes as much time as a girl wants to spend in preparing for a pageant of this nature," Crow said. "Debbie is a girl who put in enough to be a winner."

People in Moran recalled Debra's high school years, when she was football queen, head cheerleader, drum majorette and first in her graduating class.

Crooms 'Panthers' Tackle Ocala

By BOB THOMAS
Sports Staff

The Crooms High Fighting Panthers open the 1967 football campaign Saturday, Sept. 16, as they travel to Ocala to play the Howard High Wild Bulls.

Last year, the Bulls slipped by the boys from Pantherland by a score of 7-6. Crooms was inside the Howard's 10-yard stripe five different times, but could manufacture a score only once.

With 17 members returning, and nine of which are letter men the Panthers coaching staff feels they can do-both the

Athlete Nixes Political Seat

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP)— Former New York Yankee second baseman Bobby Richardson says he has "no plans whatever for a political career.

Richardson, whose home is Sumter, S.C., has been mentioned in published reports as a possible candidate for South Carolina's 5th District seat now held by Rep. Tom Gettys, a Democrat.

Since his retirement from baseball after the 1966 season, Richardson, 32, has been in the insurance business.

Nearly 360,000 people saw the Seminoles play last year, not including the millions who watched the regionally televised game with Virginia Tech and the nationally televised Sun Bowl Game. The attendance was 40,000 more than 1965. Biggest crowd of the season was at Miami when over 55,000 saw the Seminoles run a 25-20 defeat on the Hurricanes.

Auburn's Tigers Loaded With QB's

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

But instead of worrying about it, he seems absolutely delighted.

The "problem" concerns his No. 1 quarterback. With three contenders for the job, he still doesn't know which one will start when the Tigers open their season against Chattanooga Sept. 23.

Jordan said he had hoped the team's first game-style scrimmage of the year would help settle the question Saturday. But instead of settling it, the drill only seemed to confuse the issue.

After it was over, Jordan said he still didn't know. All three candidates turned in top performances.

Junior Larry Blakeney completed three of five passes for 71 yards and one touchdown, then picked up another 28 yards on running plays. Loran Carter, another junior, completed four of seven passes for 57 yards.

And sophomore Dwight Brisendine, his first pass of the day going for a touchdown, his six of nine for 65 yards and added another 61 yards on the ground.

Scrimmages were the order of the day around the circuit.

At the University of Kentucky, quarterback Dicky Lyons — the nation's No. 2 punt returner last year — was up to his old tricks again as he reeled off three touchdowns, two on punt returns of 84 and 37 yards, to lead the varsity to a 36-0 victory over the freshmen.

The University of Florida, although its first all-out drill of the year, racked up nine touchdowns and seven conversions as the varsity walloped the "B" team and freshmen 61-0.

"Overall, it was a good offensive scrimmage," said Gator Coach Ray Graves.

America's Cup Race For Grab

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—The world's most prized yachting trophy, the America's Cup, goes up for grabs Tuesday with the United States' Intrepid a slight favorite to extend this country's long domination against an Australian challenge.

Dame Pattie, designed by Warwick Hood and skippered by Jock Sturrock, is the Australian challenger in the best-of-7 series for 12-meter yachts.

Intrepid, designed by Olin Stephens specifically for this defense, will be skippered by Bus Mosbacher of White Plains, N.Y., a 46-year-old veteran.

The United States never has lost a series in 19 challenges, dating back to 1851, and the silver cup has never moved from its stand at the New York Yacht Club. The last previous challenge was in 1932—the only other one by Australia.

In that one, Mosbacher, sailing Weatherly, beat Sturrock in Gretel four races to one.

The Australians insist that this time will be different.

Jonas Leads Panthers Over Neptunes 42-17, With 6 Aerials

It was billed as a battle of quarterbacks, being that of Don Jonas of the Panthers, and league leading passer Junior Edge of the Neptunes. It turned out to be Jonas trying to break the C.F.L. record of six touchdown passes in one game. He tied this record, as Orlando bombed the Neps 42-17.

By winning, the Panthers took over first place in the Eastern Division and are now the only unbeaten team in the league.

The first score of the game was registered when the Panthers marched from their own 45 yard line to pay dirt. This occurred with 10:25 left in the first quarter, as Bland snagged a Jonas pass and sprinted by the Neps. defenders to get the initial 6 points. Jonas added the attempt after and the Panthers led by 7-0.

The opportunity was following the kick-off when the Norfolk fullback, Jerry Fredricks fumbled the ball and linebacker Bobby Green of the Panthers recovered. It took one shot from Jonas to Bland, with the conversion after to make the score 14-0 Panthers.

Norfolk offense faltered in the first quarter after they had driven to the Panthers 21 yd. line. Joe Hightower then kicked a field goal.

After the kick-off Orlando went 80 yards on a series of Jonas passes to Sammy Weir, then scored with a pass to Lamarr Richardson from the Neps. 19 on the first play of the second quarter.

Weir showed his talent on the Panthers next drive as he took a Jonas aerial and pranced 21 yards to pay dirt. This set the score 28-3 Orlando.

Norfolk then feeling the pressure from the Orlando defense righted their offense when Edge rocketed a 53 yard pass to Donnie Floyd, who then galloped 19 yards to the end zone.

Lofton's Hungry Lions Have Pads Popping!

By LARRY NEELY
Sports Staff

Pads have been popping for four weeks at John Courier Field as the Oviedo Lions prepare for what has been called one of their toughest schedules ever. The Fighting Lions, however, should be able to give any team a tough go at it on the gridiron.

Lion Coach Herman Lofton has signaled-out last year's backfield running star Simon Harper to be the first string signal caller. Over the last few weeks, Harper has managed to wear the grease off his fingers and should be able to handle the quarterback job fairly well.

The entire defense in the Lion's first game against Chiefland will center on stopping their opponent's backfield ferre Willie Gibsons. Gibsons has been rated as one of the top ten running backs in the state and could move his 200 pound frame fast enough to run the 100 in 10 seconds flat.

Chiefland's coaching staff headed by Doyle McCall has done a fine job in the past year. McCall led Chiefland to a 10-0 record two years ago and last year polished off the season with an impressive eight wins and two losses.

Weight will be an asset to Oviedo's starting squad this year which will average 175 pounds. None of the weight is fat as Coaches Herman Lofton and David Miller have been putting the Lions through their paces for at least 40 hours a week.

The Lion's offensive scheme is pretty well set with Harper at the quarterback slot, Jon Patton as fullback, swift junior Randy Janson as a running

And speaking about tough openers, Houston and Mississippi State also have rough going in their early weeks. The Cougars from Texas meet the Seminoles and then travel to Michigan State. The Bulldogs open with SEC rivals Georgia and Florida.

Jerry Pressley and Roy Johnson will fill in the defensive end positions with Simon Harper and Mark Colbert as tackles, and first year Tommy Moon playing the nose man as defensive center. Steve Bratton and Joe Patton will play the defensive line-backing positions with Johnny Smith in the monster.

The three defensive backfield slots have still not been set.

Who Sez White Sox 'Is' Dead?

How Joe Horlen Twisted The Tigers Tail

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Joel Horlen twisted the Tigers' tail and the Chicago White Sox never let go of the poor beast.

Horlen capped a weekend of flambuoyance for Chicago and Detroit by pitching a no-hitter and beating the Tigers 6-0 in the first game of a Sunday doubleheader. The White Sox completed the sweep with three pitchers sharing the five-hit 4-0 nightcap victory.

The two victories moved Chicago into a third place tie with the Tigers, who only 24 hours earlier held on to a piece of the American League lead by rallying for seven runs in the ninth inning and a 7-3 victory over the Sox. The late-inning heroics was tough to top but Horlen did.

The quietly efficient Minnesota Twins, meanwhile, remained in first place with a 4-2 victory over Baltimore, and Boston clung to second place by beating New York 9-1. The Red Sox are one-half game behind Minnesota and Chicago and Detroit both stand 1½ games off the pace.

In other American League games Sunday, Washington rallied for three ninth inning runs and a 3-2 victory over California and Cleveland split a doubleheader with Kansas City, winning 1-0 before losing 5-2.

"I knew the importance of this game," said Horlen after his masterpiece. "If we lose this one, we're really down mentally. Especially after yesterday. We were the deadest I've seen us all year."

So the 26-year-old right-hander methodically went about reviving the corpse. He allowed only two base runners, one on an error, the other on a hit batsman.

The White Sox gave him a quick five-run edge in the first inning with Wayne Causey's two-run triple the key blow. It was Causey who threw out Jerry Lumpe in the ninth inning for Horlen's closest call.

Lumpe lashed the ball through the box and Causey went behind second base to throw him out. "I just knew I had to get the ball," Causey said later. "I thought after that maybe I should have straightened before throwing off balance. I thought the ball got there just as his foot was going down on the base."

Wins Honor

CINCINNATI (AP) — Dick Douglass, Denver, Colo., pro and his amateur partner Hale Irwin, Boulder, Colo., shot a set end straight 65 Sunday to win the $30,000 U.S. Pro-Amateur Golf Tournament by two strokes with a 36-hole total of 130—10 under par over the Losantiville Country Club course.

4 From Florida In The Money

CINCINNATI (AP) — Four Florida golfers finished in the money in the $30,000 pro amateur golf tournament over the Losantiville course Sunday.

Bob Toski of North Key Largo teamed with amateur Donnie Iverson of LaCrosse, Wisc., to finish at 65-67—132 and earn $905.

Bert Green of Jacksonville and his partner Tony Bloom of Cincinnati had 68-68—136 and Green won $705.

J.C. Goosen of Largo and Jack Tuthill of Pensacola had 67-70—137 and Goosen's share was $537.50.

The error cost Perry a shot at the 34-year-old record set by Hubbell, the former Giants ace who now directs the club's farm system. But the slender fireballer can take solace in a late spurt that has boosted his season mark to 13-15 while lowering his era to 2.75.

Maury Wills lashed a two-run triple in the eighth inning and scored on an infield out, capping a four-run uprising that carried the Pirates past St. Louis.

Lee May cracked a two-run homer and winning pitcher Jim Maloney's RBI single climaxed a decisive two-run burst in the fifth inning, leading the Reds' attack at New York.

Tony Gonzalez collected three hits and Cookie Rojas slugged the first grand slam homer of his career as the Phillies outscored Atlanta to give Jim Bunning his 12th victory.

Jim Wynn earned Houston a split at Los Angeles and took over the league home run lead by slamming his 36th of the year in the 11th inning of the nightcap. Bo Belinsky, who pitched nine brilliant innings, and winner Dave Eilers limited the Dodgers to three hits.

The Dodgers struck for four runs in the seventh inning of the opener to overcome a 1-0 Houston lead and give rookie Bill Singer his 11th victory in 17 decisions.

Winning Ways

CHICAGO (AP) — Horse racing's top money winning jockey, Bill Shoemaker, guided Vitrolic to a 30-length victory in the second division of Saturday's Arlington Washington Futurity — called the world's richest thoroughbred race.

It was Shoemaker's fourth triumph in the Futurity for 2 year olds which had a combined purse of $511,750.

T.V. Commercial with veteran jockey Pete Anderson aboard won the first division. Each winner collected $156,874 and his amateur partner Hale Irwin, Boulder, Colo., shot a set and second place finishers picked up $35,000.

A record entry of 18 colts and fillies went into two divisions of the event at Arlington Park.

Third Time In A Row

Proud Nicklaus Wins Series

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Jack Nicklaus is a proud man and because of his fierce pride he again is the World Series of Golf champion.

Nicklaus captured his third Series trophy and the top prize of $50,000 Sunday when he shot a 37-33—70 for a 36-hole total of 144 and a one-stroke victory over Masters champion Gay Brewer.

But his triumph was forged out of disgust with himself after shooting a four-over-par 74 in Saturday's first round rainstorm to trail the field.

Instead of calling its quits Saturday, the wet and chilled Nicklaus went out to the practice tee and hit golf balls until darkness forced him to quit.

"I had played like an idiot Saturday," said Nicklaus. "I have too much personal pride to allow myself to play that badly. I didn't care how much it rained, I had to figure out a way to hit the ball solidly again."

JACK NICKLAUS

For the final round Nicklaus came out trailing British Open champion Roberto de Vicenzo by four strokes, Brewer by three strokes and PGA titlist Don January by one.

In the face of 25 to 35 mile an hour winds, Jack matched Firestone's par of 35-35—70, bagging five birdies in the process. Brewer finished second and earned $15,000 with a 38-36—74 and a 145 total. De Vicenzo took third money of $7,500 with 39-37—76 and 146 while January shot a 38-40—78 and 151, settling for $5,000 in the playoff of champions.

Nicklaus, who heads the official money list with $156,000 this year, now has boosted his unofficial golf earnings for 1967 to $218,000.

The Limpkin
(Aramus guarauna)
The large-sized, white-spotted limpkin is a gawky, timid bird — one of the most unusual in America. Named for its odd longing gait, it was known to the Indians as the "Crying Bird" because its loud cry resembled the wailing of a lost child. Few people have seen a Limpkin; fewer still have watched the bird enjoying its favorite diet of snails. Preferring low altitudes, it rises from the marsh with a quick spring, with neck fully extended and legs straight out behind. It flies with slow, steady beats and a quick upward jerk of the wings.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Like most people who write to you, I have a problem. I have been tossed out of my girl friend's house on my ear. Her mother said we were getting in too deep for our own good. (She had proof.) Her parents decided that we weren't to see, write to, or contact each other for a year.

Then, if we still felt the same way about each other, OK. I really can't blame them for trying to keep us apart, because they had good reasons, but Abby, I think a whole year is too long.

It has been five months now, and I really miss the girl. I have tried dating others, but none of them compares to her. I love her, and I'd be willing to do anything in the world if I could see her sooner. What should I do? Try to talk to her parents and ask them to shorten the probation time? I've just got to see her. It might help to know our ages. She is 18 and I am 19. Thank you for any advice you can give me.

MISERABLE

DEAR MISERABLE: Sweat out the balance of the time, Romeo. It will help to establish you as a more mature and responsible person in her parents' eyes. (Impatience and unwillingness to accept restraint typify adolescence.) I think your girl friend's parents are far more understanding and forgiving than most parents would have been under the circumstances.

And once you're off probation, don't do anything to earn their mistrust again.

DEAR ABBY: Recently I attended a piano recital at a small community music hall in San Francisco. While listening to the concert I became aware of a very attractive, nicely dressed young woman seated near me. Our eyes met several times during intermission and also after the concert as we were leaving.

I wanted to introduce myself, but she was with an older woman and I didn't want to intrude. Now I am sorry, for I think I may have cheated myself out of something worthwhile. I would go to that same music hall again if I were sure she'd be there, as I would love to meet her.

Should I have been more brazen? What does an earnest man do under the circumstances?

DON

DEAR DON: Under the circumstances, an earnest man might have directed an appropriate remark to the young lady concerning the concert. Her reactions would have either opened the door for further conversation, or closed it.

DEAR ABBY: In March of 1965 I wrote to you saying I was a widower who was very fond of a lady who had two cats, and I hated cats.

I asked you if you thought I should ask the lady to choose between me and the cats, and you said, "NO, if you are fond of the lady, try to learn to like her cats."

Well, Abby, I took your advice, and we were married in April of '66. And now I actually like those cats, and I LOVE the lady. Thank you.

PITTSBURGH CATNIK

DEAR CATNIK: Would that all my advice turned out to be so purrrrrrr-fect!

Jim: "The name 'single suit play' is given to that class of plays which involved one suit only. It is good policy to know the correct technique here but it's even more important to bear in mind that the best single suit play may have shortcomings when other suits must be considered."

Oswald: "With some card combinations the best single suit play is not much better than the second best. Thus the best way to play today's spade suit is to take two tromp finesses. This play will win against all combinations except when East holds both the king and queen. If East holds both those cards you have no way to get out with the loss of two spade tricks if the king and queen are protected. If they are by by themselves, the second best play is to play out the ace right away. This will win but that second best play loses two spade tricks if West holds king queen plus either the seven, deuce or both."

Jim: "These plays are close enought percentagewise so that the man who bangs down the ace won't lose much in the long run. Thus, they both succeed with today's hand provided spades are the only suit to worry about."

Oswald: "That isn't the case today. West has opened the jack of hearts against your six-spade contract and you must consider the possibility that this is a singleton lead. You win the first heart in your own hand and play your jack of spades. Some opponents cover with the king or queen if they hold both, but you don't really expect this friendly type of play. Anyway this West doesn't cover and when he fails to cover you should rise with dummy's ace; drop East's king and make your slam.

Jim: "In other words, considering spades only you won't have made the best play—considering the whole hand you will have."

Polly's Pointers

By Polly Cramer

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY — Wonder if problem of sweaty hands made me remember my Girl Scout days and how we used to dry our hands by swinging them in the air until dry. Then keep the hands open and moving and they will stay dry. When the problem is really severe, a cotton ball dipped in alcohol cuts oils and quickly evaporates. Keep up the good work, Polly.—SANDY, AN AVID READER

DEAR POLLY — The reader whose hands perspire excessively should try the occasional use of an antiperspirant in the palms of the hands. This should help, but do look for one that retards perspiration and accelerates moisture evaporation rather than one that closes the pores completely. Do not use if there is any break in the skin. —E.A.Q.

DEAR POLLY— I want to pass on some safety reminders: Keep your doors locked day and night. Never open a door to a stranger. When it is dark enough to turn on the lights, pull the shades and drapes all the way. Don't open the door to anyone you don't know. Don't let anyone in and help me rearrange the clutter.

What I had in mind was a woman who could be referred to as "a real jewel." Well, all the jewels I interviewed retreated to their velvet boxes. Now, actually that is a misleading sentence. I don't want to give the impression I interviewed them because the truth is that they interviewed ME. But only after I passed the tests at the agency.

After I promised to replace any equipment over two years of age and signed a form stating I would install central vacuum cleaning and send the children to boarding school, the agency consented to send somebody out to look us over.

The first lady escorted at the few Japanese ornaments we have in the living room, then stabbed her finger toward the dining room rug. "That's Oriental, too!" she accused. I allowed as much as how it was and then made the mistake of telling her it was Chinese.

"Well, I don't work for no Commies!" she said and stalked out to her Cadillac.

The next two candidates didn't even get out of their limousines and the t-y after that would have given us a chance but I couldn't meet their conditions. One wanted us to cut down all the shrubbery and pour cement over the lawn because they might harbor insects and the other not only said we had to get rid of the children and the dog but told us we had to quit smoking as well.

The last woman who came considered us for a moment and then said if we would eat off paper plates she thought she could drop in three times a week and throw them into the garbage can. However, she couldn't see her way to take on any dusting or ironing.

Well, I was willing to meet anyone halfway but we have such a big family that if I bought all those plates I couldn't afford her. However, until the Feds catch up with me I think we will manage, because, you see, I have drawn up my own set of child labor laws.

Beauty after Forty

by Edyth Thornton McLeod

"Dear Edyth Thornton McLeod: I find myself miserable and just about giving up trying to have a pleasant life at 59. I am far too much overweight to keep up with my small circle of old friends. I look a mess and feel left out of everything. I live with a bachelor son and keep house for him. He is away a great deal and he tells me I should have my friends drop by. He's also nice about leaving money for me. However, I just stay at home and sit. Is there any help for me?" — Reader.

Of course help is always available to make life more pleasant but you are the one who must help yourself! If you just sit and moan there's no help forthcoming. First, please take my advice. See a doctor and have a physical checkup. Make up your mind to get rid of all that excess weight. Find something to do, a hobby would help. Have your friends drop by. Your son seems to know what's needed, follow his advice. After consulting your doctor, if you should need a proper diet, send for a copy of FIGURE CONTROL. It's simple to follow. To obtain it, send me a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope and 25 cents in coin. But follow the diet. This is most important!

"I have a purple linen dress and would like something dramatic for accessories. I'm going to visit a friend in Florida. My hair is brown, no gray, yet. I'm 40, very tall and slim." — Nell.

I would prefer a clear red in accessories. The purple-red combination is very important in some of the latest designer's collections. Be sure you also have a matching red lipstick.

"I have pure white hair which I find very becoming because I have true brunette coloring. But my hair is yellowing very fast and looks gray. How can I prevent the yellowing?" — B. B.

Today the modern shampoos for white and gray hair keep it from getting that unattractive yellow cast. I can't understand why your hair yellows unless it's the soap or shampoo you're using. Try a color rinse, one of the new ones which are made for white or gray hair. Shop your cosmetic counter for the right one. The saleswoman can help you. The soft bluish cast is lovely for white hair.

Be calm.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Be kind with a good pal who has a most depressing way of talking and could get on your nerves. This person has your interests at heart. Steer clear of some social affairs or you get into an argument with one who is belligerent.

8:30-9 p.m. (ABC) "The Rat Patrol." (Color). (Season Premiere). "The Truce at Aburah." Another episode of adventure and action opens the second season of "The Rat Patrol." Here the four soldiers in the patrol battle it out with the Afrika Korps behind their lines in the North African desert during World War II. A stray bullet during the shooting hits a child and endangers her life.

9-10 p.m. (NBC) The Danny Thomas Hour. "Wonderful World of Burlesque IV." (Color). (Premiere). This is the first of six musical specials which will be interspersed with 16 original dramas on this series. Nobody understands burlesque like Danny Thomas, except maybe Phil Silvers who joins him tonight in some real bazzygyants humor. Cyd Charisse graces the show with some fine dancing and Nanette Fabray and Tennessee Ernie Ford join the festivities with an assortment of skits, including the traditional hotel lobby routine with the entire group. Funny, fast and elaborately staged.

10-11 p.m. (CBS) The Carol Burnett Show. (Color). (Premieres). The girl with the rubber mouth is trying it with a weekly series, and she's bitten off a bit more than she can chew. It's a funny show tonight, with guest Jim Nabors and her regular company of Harvey Korman, Lyle Waggoner and Vicki Lawrence, who not only looks just like Carol but sings and dances too. Carol is wonderful as always in her char lady role, this time singing "Georgy Girl" in a discotheque, and she and Nabors are funny indeed as an accident-prone pair of skiers. Altogether a fine show, but it's unlikely that she will be able to sustain the quality.

10-11 p.m. (NBC) I Spy. "Let's Kill Karlovassi." (Color). (Season Premiere). The boys are back for their third season with a funny, suspenseful episode that's right up to their standard.

"Candid Chatter"

By DORIS WILLIAMS

Where've I been and what've I been doin'? Well, not exactly playing tiddly winks. It has been a mad rush on the track attempting to have a field day with unsteen brides.

However, I did have a unique experience recently in the viewing of a TV (extinct with me) movie with my daughter. For things beyond my comprehension, I stagely can't seem to "crack up" over today's mattress blobs.

For all I know the hero of this particular episode might have been one LARRY VERNEEL in his PRIME.

DORIS BURTON was perfectly stunning at the champagne opening of her husband's new suite of offices. She reflected the optimism of the fall fashion scene in a striking mocha frock.

Also among the glamor gals attending the gala—and I might add as rare as a priceless jewel, was LOIS HOUSHOLDER, all decked-out in orchid from head to toe.

Speaking of champagne, Seminole County Mutual Concert Association has set the date for the annual Champagne Ball as Dec. 2 at the Civic Center.

So, ladies, get those formals out of the moth balls right now and plan for a busy fall social whirl. Better yet, get even with your husbands and exercise the typical woman's battle cry — CHARGE (new ones, that is!)

Another interesting event coming up is the "Harvest Moon Dance" being sponsored this month to benefit Seminole County Mental Health Association. The dance is designed for all ages—teenagers to grandma and grandpa. Dress will be "country style."

Well, Sanford's own DEBBY DALTON has captured another title, "Miss Central Florida Teen."

Debby spent an exciting summer (including working for The Herald) touring the western states with American Cheerleaders Association. She was one of five from throughout the entire country selected to make the fabulous tour—yes, even Las Vegas and Disneyland.

Now she is headed for University of Florida to begin her freshman year, majoring in journalism. What a poor ill mixed-up kid!

Speaking of potential cover girls, recently had the privilege of meeting Miss Seminole Plaza, JOYE DAVIDSON, who is also a real doll—so go, Joye, go!

Sanfordites are still raving over the SAMUEL-BLANK wedding and reception.

ANN and LEE SAMUEL left no stone unturned! The buffet dinner dance was really the last word and would you believe, everybody was most favorably impressed.

You'll have to admit, MACK CLEVELAND JR. and C. VERNON MIZE really have an eye for beauty and not necessarily their new law offices.

Pretty MYRA MEEKS now occupies one of the secretarial chairs (no, not Mack's lap).

Speaking of the Meeks family, MR. AND MRS. CHARLES MEEKS entertained at an elaborate buffet dinner following the STEED-MEEKS wedding rehearsal.

Their Mayfair home reflected the ultimate in tasteful bridal decor and a delectable buffet dinner was served to more than 50 guests.

The former VIRGINIA CHAPMAN'S husband is South American and doesn't speak one word of Inglis. From the looks of the happy couple, I detect that Virginia will have no problems with communication. On top of that, she speaks Espanol fluently.

WILLIAM H. STEMPER JR. has done it again! Bill, a past state master counselor of Florida Order of DeMolay, has the distinction of being the first Floridian in 34 years to receive the award for outstanding service and leadership from International Supreme Council.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. William Stemper of Sanford, Bill is attending Stetson University where he is a pre-law student. There he was president of Men's Judiciary Council, resident advisor and has been selected for membership in "The Green Circle" for his leadership ability.

Among the interesting sites visited by MR. AND MRS. R. D. BATTEN, 2108 Palmetto Ave., on a tour of Florida's lower west coast was the state-owned Ringling Museums, the foremost cultural center in southwestern United States.

TO DAN W. GOODSON — Your kind words are overwhelming! After all, it was my pleasure!

LEE MOORE is appealing for advisors for Sanford Junior Achievement Program, now entering its second year. Both men and women are needed as business advisors to new area enterprises.

TO NAVAL OFFICERS WIVES — NOWC executive board met at the home of BILLIE KIMMONS for the September meeting.

All wives are reminded of the FRAN CARLTON exercise course beginning Sept. 12. Civilian wives may also take the course.

The NOWC LUNCHEON sponsored by RVAH-6, is scheduled for Sept. 14 at Deltona Inn. Reservation cancellations will be accepted no later than Sept. 12.

Navy Wives Garden Club will resume this month with complete information furnished later.

NORMA WHEETLEY, club vice president, has been named chairman of a gala Black and White Masquerade Dinner-Dance and Cocktail Party to be held Sept. 29 in the Jade Room of Orlando Air Force Base Officers Club.

Cocktail hour begins at 6:30 p.m., dinner at 8 and dancing from 9 til. Festive black and white decorations will be used in entirety to reflect a mystic glow of black candlelight.

Civilians also are invited to the spectacular social event and tickets are available through squadron representatives.

Dinner Honors Bridal Party

A rehearsal dinner was given in The Church of God Annex at 22nd Street and French Avenue, following the rehearsal for the wedding of Miss Jeanette Herman and Mark Rumler. Co-hostesses were the mother of the groom, Mrs. W. H. Rumler, Mrs. H. D. Whitten and Mrs. Laverne Bloodworth.

Arches of greenery and mums and large wedding bells decorated the party area. Tables were overlaid with white cloths, centered with arrangements of white mums, blue glads and greenery. Burning tapers in crystal holders illuminated the room. Place cards were wedding bells. The buffet table was laden with turkey, ham, vegetables, German salad, gelatins, cake, iced tea and coffee.

Guests were the bridal couple, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Herman, parents of the bride; Mrs. Virgil Picklesimer, sister of the bride; Cally Green, Linda Mansell, Brenda Kilpatrick, Glenda McMurray, Judy Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Brown, Terry Schreiber, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Walker, Jerry Herman, Kevin and Keith Picklesimer, Marsha and Wynona Bloodworth, Mr. and Mrs. Wyle Bloodworth and Rev. Lynn Allred.

MR. AND MRS. JEFFREY DAVIS WINLAND

Double Ring Rites Unite Miss Hall, J.D. Winland

By JANE CASSELBERRY

Dana Lee Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hall, of Casselberry, became the bride of Jeffrey Davis Winland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Winland, of St. Petersburg, at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, Sept. 2, 1967, at Casselberry Community Methodist Church.

Rev. Delmas Copeland officiated at the double ring, candlelight ceremony and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

The church was decorated with lighted candelabra and altar vases of white gladioli and yellow daisies.

Mrs. Dixie Carter, soloist, sang "How Great Thou Art" and "Wedding Prayer" accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Charles Pierce.

The bride chose for her wedding a street length gown with white daisy lace cape over a white satin sheath and a bouffant shoulder length veil of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white daisies.

The maid of honor, Miss Pat Morten, and bridesmaid, Miss Sue Winland, sister of the groom, wore matching yellow street length dresses and accessories and short yellow veils. They carried bouquets of yellow daisies.

The best man was David Kemin, St. Petersburg, and ushers were William Hall, brother of the bride, and David Ingersoll, Clermont, cousin of the groom.

Miss Betsy Newman kept the bride's book.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece beige lace suit and the mother of the groom chose a lime green A-line dress of beaded knit. Both wore corsages of yellow carnations.

A reception was held following the ceremony in Weaver Hall of the church. The beautifully three-tiered wedding cake was flanked by yellow candles in silver candlesticks and asparagus fern and white chrysanthemums decorated the table which was overlaid with a white damask cloth. Pale yellow sherbet punch was served from a crystal bowl.

The bride chose for her going-away outfit a brown suit and matching accessories.

Following the wedding trip to Daytona Beach the couple will be at home at 130 S. Miller St., Apartment 8, Orlando.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Dan Davis and family, DeLand; Blase Kastler, St. Petersburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beard, St. Petersburg.

Azalea Gardeners Set Meeting

Azalea Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry McLaulin, 117 W. 19th St., at 8 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 14.

© GAS SERVICE WORKS LIKE MAGIC

and OLD STOVE ROUNDUP...

NOW'S THE TIME TO JOIN THE "PEOPLE WHO LIVE IN GAS HOUSES!"

CALORIC and HARDWICK RANGES

Top values in two great lines by America's foremost manufacturers—with features specially adapted to Florida's demanding climate—and all the advantages of modern "flavorful flame" cooking. Fast, full heat when you turn it on . . . no hangover heat to aggravate boil-overs and overcook food when you have it off. Exact temperature control. Closed-door broiling for cool, clean kitchens. Dependable service by the utility company itself. And results that have sold gas fuel to 95% of the "Pros"!

MAYTAG HALO-OF-HEAT DRYERS

Home economists agree a laundry dryer is the greatest work-saver since the washing machine. And home economists have proved that gas dries clothes twice as fast for half the cost of non-flame types. Now, at lowest prices, you can have the finest dryer of all—the new Maytag Halo-of-Heat Dryer—for just $30 a week. What's more, you can try it before you buy it . . . ask about a 30-day home trial absolutely free!

ARKLA GASLIGHTS and GRILLS

You can make every outdoor occasion a "spectacular" with gaslights and a patio gasgrill. Your choice of dramatic luau torches or conventional styles add a soft glow of glamor—and double as an accepted status symbol. And modern gasgrills assure perfect cooks in a matter of minutes—no waiting, no messy fuel, no fanning and fret ration, no ashes, no soot—just fast, clean perfection every time!

HEATERS and WATER HEATERS

Fast, dependable, uninterrupted heat when Florida's sudden cold snaps bog down fuel deliveries and overload power lines. And plenty of hot, hot water for baths, dishes, laundry, cooking, cleaning, showers and shaves. Don't let anyone kid you—gas water heaters outperform their non-flame counterparts time after time after time. Won't you let us prove it?

MRS. EDDIE NEWSOM

Allen-Newsom

Nuptials Spoken

Miss Margaret Kaye Allen became the bride of Eddie Newsom, Aug. 12 at 7 p.m. in the First Baptist Church, Los Alamos, N. M.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Allen, 3177 B Nickel St., Los Alamos, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Newsom, Cameron Avenue, Sanford.

Rev. J. Howard Reynolds officiated at the impressive double ring, candlelight ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of Alencon lace with sabrina neckline, long tapered sleeves and basque top with sheath skirt. Three rows at the waist accented the full length detachable train.

She wore a lavaliere that was worn by her mother and grandmother at their weddings. The full length veil of silk illusion was attached to a princess crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations outlined in green ivy with a white orchid in the center.

Mrs. Jean McLeod, Albuquerque, N. M., was matron of honor and maid of honor was Miss Linda McElroy, Midland, Texas. Bridesmaids were the Misses Charlotte Nicholson, Belen, Karen Blandford and Nancy Knobeloch. The attendants were identically gowned in turquois blue formal length Empire waist gowns of georgette over taffeta with floor length trains. Headdresses matched the gowns and they carried bouquets of white carnations with white ribbon streamers.

Flower girl, Miss Kathy Lawrence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lawrence, wore a floor length dress identical to those of the other attendants. Sammy Leach, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Leach, Gainesville, Texas, was ring bearer.

Serving as best man was Gary Montgomery, Seattle, Wash., and groomsmen-ushers were Mike Allen, brother of the bride, Carlos Leach, Bob Gregerson, Bruce Runyon and Tim Leach. Lighting the candles were Doug Leach and Bobby Morgan.

Mrs. Robert Turner, organist, presented a program of nuptial music including the traditional wedding marches and accompanied soloist, Swain Marrow. He sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Allen chose a blue sheath of re-embroidered lace over beige taffeta with matching jacket and a cymbidium orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at "The Lodge." The bride's table was centered with a five-tiered wedding cake and flanked by a silver candelabra and an arrangement of blue carnations.

WHO NEEDS MEN?

LANGLEY, B.C. (AP) — Two years ago, Doris McQuarrie and Frances Pendleton bought a 44-acre farm in this tranquil Fraser Valley community. Last summer they built their first poultry barn and stocked it with 4,000 laying hens. Now they are thinking of adding a string of beef cattle. And, since the whole business is automated, everything was accomplished without a man around the house!

Miss Rita Beasley, C.W. Victor Exchange Vows

Miss Rita Wood Beasley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Beasley, Sanford, and Charles Wald Victor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Victor, Ft. Lauderdale, were united in Holy Matrimony, Sept. 2, at 3 p.m. in the First Methodist Church, Sanford.

The pastor, Rev. Robert M. Jenkins, officiated at the candlelight, double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with tall baskets of white mums, tuberoses, stephanotis and greenery, white candles in brass holders and four potted palms.

Miss Joan Wilke, organist, presented a program of appropriate wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of silk organza over taffeta in a controlled silhouette with hour glass shaped bodice and modified sweetheart neckline. The bodice was fashioned with Alencon lace, seed pearls and sequins. The gown featured a chapel train trimmed with motifs of delicate lace and her bouffant veil of silk illusion was held by a satin petal headpiece accented by seed pearls.

She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis. The bridal gown was the same one worn by her sister, Diana, at her wedding.

Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Sylvia Beasley. She wore a formal length crepe gown of shocking pink and pale pink, with matching accessories and a diamond drop necklace. Her silk illusion veil was attached to a headpiece of bows matching the ensemble and she carried a single long stemmed pink rose.

Joe Thomason, Augusta, Ga., was best man and serving as usher was W. H. Beasley Jr., brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a Siamese pink silk dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore a citron colored ensemble, with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The refreshment table was overlaid with a white lace cloth and on one end was a floral arrangement of mums, daisies, tuberoses and greenery in a crystal container. The crystal punch bowl and two tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom was placed on the other end. Pink orchids frozen in an ice ring floated in the fruit punch. U. S. Military Aid Used For Sports?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 32 shotguns allocated to Iran under the military assistance program are for riot control, not hunting or clay pigeon shooting, U.S. officials insist. And suspicious congressmen were told the converted seaplane tender turned over to Ethiopia and maintained at $80,000 a year by the United States is a training ship for the Ethiopian navy, not a yacht for Emperor Haile Selassie.

But it does have wallpaper—about $124 worth.

These items got a prolonged going-over at closed hearings of a House Appropriations subcommittee April 5. The censored testimony was made public today.

Defending the allocations was Vice Adm. L. C. Heinz, director of military assistance.

Rep. Silvio O. Conte, R-Mass., observed that 20 shotguns have been delivered to Iran in the past 17 years and two more are included in the current budget.

"We delivered 16,000 rounds of ammunition for those shotguns, and they are asking for 5,000 shotgun shells in this budget," Conte said. "That is 21,000 rounds of shotgun shells for 20 shotguns. That covers a lot of clay pigeons. Their shoulders must be black and blue."

But Heinz quickly put in that the Iranian Gendarmerie—"less than an army and more than a police"—has other shotguns and the ammunition is for all of them.

Rep. Otto Passman, D-La., suggested, "So we won't become bored, let's sidetrack a bit: What is some of the game they have out there? They have quail and dove, do they not?"

"I do not admit that there was any diversion," Heinz replied. In a moment, however, Conte had him in a discussion of U.S. Air Force training using shotguns. This target practice, Conte drew from Heinz, uses clay pigeons.

"That is good enough," Passman said, and the questioning went on:

Heinz: "This is not diversion, I say this is training."

The shotguns were described as "riot type, 12-gauge, 20-inch barrel."

Rebuff

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. officials say Hanoi has rebuffed repeated attempts to gain freedom—or at least Geneva Convention protection — for American prisoners of war.

Meter Maids Put Money In

LOVELY RITA Meter Maid — This is a meter maid in Surfers Paradise, Australia, in her "hot weather uniform." Her name really is Annette Welch.

GOLD COAST CITY, Australia (AP)—The Meter Maids of Surfers Paradise are here to stay, says Ken Bolton who dreamed up the idea two years ago.

The Meter Maids are the lovelies who trip around in their golden bikinis (or a little more in cold weather) and put five-cent coins in expired parking meters of visitors.

Now they've been joined by the Courtesy Maids, likewise lovelies, who wear a golden dress with a very miniskirt and one bare shoulder. They dish out information to the visitor.

Surfers Paradise is in the center of the City of the Gold Coast, a 21-mile stretch of holiday playground on the Pacific that starts 30 miles south of Brisbane.

But for the thousands of Americans who are likely to visit on leave from Vietnam later in the year, let us say this right now: The chance of dating a Meter or Courtesy Maid is remote—her are either married or "going steady;" but there are plenty of other girls around.

These days one of the girls rides a motorcycle to get quicker around the dozen meters among the 400 that are scattered over three miles of streets.

"I love the job," says Veronica Taylor, 22. "Who wouldn't walking around in the sun? But no dates with the people I meet.

My boy friend would kill me if I can tell when some man is approaching and going to ask for a date and I put him off."

Veronica, suntanned and blonde, says she walks 20 miles a day, puts about $2 of coins into meters every day.

Ken Bolton, who is publicity officer for the Surfers Paradise Progress Association, says the girls are paid 20 Australian dollars ($23.60 U. S.) a week, and that the scheme costs 150 Australian dollars ($176 U.S.) a week in salaries, five-cent pieces and clothes.

The girls have four "uniforms," all golden. When it's warm, which is most of the time, they wear the bikinis; when it's cooler, they add a hip-length jacket; when it's cold they wear slacks, and when they go out to be the attraction at some local function, they wear golden evening dresses.

"We started the scheme in April, 1965, when the irritation of the parking meters began," says Bolton. "The shopkeepers provide the money and gain goodwill. If them but not all unfortunately, contribute 50 cents ($5 U. S. cents) a week. The girls drop in and collect it."

And what do the police think about it all?

"They have their job and I have mine," says the traffic cop writing a ticket for a driver to find when he gets back to his auto on the expired meter.

"We still book plenty. Many drivers don't know that the girls only feed a meter once."

Marines Battle Commies To Bloody Standstill

SAIGON (AP) — Outmanbased four to one, U.S. Marines battled nearly 3,000 North Vietnamese to a bloody standstill, killing at least 140, the U.S. Command announced today.

Marine casualties were 34 killed and 185 wounded in the six-hour battle just below the demilitarized zone. It was the seventh day of stepped-up military activity in the northern war zone, and there was no sign of any letup.

South Vietnamese troops also were heavily engaged Sunday and today in the northern area. They reported killing 70 Communist troops Sunday, and the Reds replied early today with a coordinated mortar and ground attack on the provincial capital of Hoi An, three district headquarters and five militia outposts.

In almost daily fighting since last Monday, including several large-scale engagements, the allied commands have reported more than 900 of the enemy killed in the five northern provinces. Reported U.S. casualties have totaled 149 killed and 867 wounded, nearly all of them Marines.

In the skies over North Vietnam, meanwhile swarms of Navy planes virtually knocked out the Cam Pha port facilities northeast of Haiphong from which the North Vietnamese export coal to Red China and Russia to pay for arms. Until the raid Sunday, the port, which was used by Russian coaling ships, had been on the Pentagon's list of restricted targets.

Striking deep into North Vietnam, Air Force planes ran into MIG17s and one Communist jet was probably downed by an F105 Thunderchief pilot who said it flipped over and disappeared after his cannon fire had ripped into its wing.

Marine forces today were sweeping the bloody field 4½ miles south of the demilitarized zone where they hit the north Vietnamese regiment Sunday night.

The Marines had been moving from the nearby bunkered fortress of Con Thien when the fight erupted among low hills and thick brush. There were four Marine companies—less than 800 men at field strength—initially split into two sweeping flanks.

While the Marines called in air and artillery strikes, the Reds replied with the big 140mm Russian rockets which are among their heaviest weapons.

As dusk settled, Air Force Dragon ships lit the battered terrain with flares and kept up a blistering rain of fire from miniguns which spew about 6,000 bullets per minute. Air observers in light spotter planes reported Communist dead stacking up in some positions during the battle. After six hours the firing faded out and the north Vietnamese vanished into the heavy jungles a few hundred yards south of the battlefield.

The coordinated air raids on the port of Cam pha by pilots from the carrier Oriskany and Coral Sea toppled four big cranes, wrecked wharves and left them in flames, and set fires smoldering in the big coal piles.

South Vietnamese President-elect Nguyen Van Thieu told the American public Sunday that the best way to conduct the war is to have U. S. troops do most of the heavy fighting and South Vietnamese troops most of the pacification.

On the NBC radio-television program "Meet the Press," recorded in Saigon last Friday, Thieu repeated his intention of suggesting peace talks to Hanoi and offering a one-week bombing pause if Hanoi demanded a sign of good faith.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK — After Pete Knowles presented the City Commission last night with a revised budget the Mayor looked it over and demanded: "Why are the drapes for the Civic Center cut out?"

Industrial Board Slashed + Lock Up 2 Pools + No Recreation Center

City Gets Revised, 'Skeleton' Budget

A revised $1,096,700 balanced budget cutting $5,000 from the Industrial Board, closing two swimming pools, eliminating a Goldsboro recreation center but including that controversial lakefront paving project was presented to the City Commission for approval last night.

Commissioners wanted more time to study City Manager's W. E. Knowles "skeleton" budget which keeps the millage line at 16 and agreed to discuss it in more detail within the next week.

The biggest surprise in the proposed new budget was a $5,000 slice of the Industrial Board's $49,411 budget. The $5,000 cut would curb advertising and promotional materials.

The budget also includes $12,448 for materials to pave a 190 car parking lot of the marina complex. Originally, the commission declined to consider the paving and voted for a stabilization project.

Knowles also proposed knocking off $20,000 for a down payment on a proposed $100,000 Goldsboro recreation center which was supposed to have been constructed on State Farmers Market property on 13th Street.

At the same time both the Goldsboro and Ft. Mellon Park pools were stricken from the budget at a savings at $13,655. However, Knowles left some $500 in the pools budget for maintenance.

Knowles also virtually knocked off the Youth Wing activities at the Civic Center at a savings of $400, proposing it be closed from Monday through Thursday and kept opened on Friday and Saturday.

The proposed operating budget was $1,268,791 before yesterday. However, Knowles met with department heads in the morning and sliced off some $172,991.

The anticipated revenue has been estimated at $1,216,900 and surplus to contingency at $14,997, giving the city a contingency of $34,997.

In his revised budget memo Knowles said this budget "more-ly delays items, projects and equipment. If adopted, this will mean that next year's budget will be larger and more of a hardship."

Department budgets hardest hit were firemen, who suffered losses up to $50,000, recreation, police and streets.

SNAS Acey-Ducy Club Is Gutted By Flames

Second major fire in 13 months struck the Sanford Naval Air Station early today.

Lounge area of the Acey-Ducy Club for first and second class petty officers was gutted by flames. One fireman suffered smoke inhalation.

The blaze was discovered at 2:10 a.m. The station fire department fought the flames for an hour before the fire was contained. The firemen remained on the scene until 6 a.m.

Entire interior of the club was destroyed by the blaze, at this time still is of unknown origin. There has been no official estimate of the damage, described as very extensive, but it has been reported the loss will exceed $5,000.

Navy Exchange building, and its contents were destroyed by flames on Aug. 16, 1966.

Ignore Planner On 46

Despite the pleas of the County Planner the County Commission by a 3-2 majority today overrode the zoning board and agreed to rezone an area of SR 46 from Agricultural to Commercial.

Voting for the rezoning was John Fitzpatrick, Lawrence Swofford and Ed Yarborough. Chairman John Alexander and Robert Parker voted "no" on the decision.

Planner Jack Goodin called the rezoning attempt scattered commercial zoning.

"This is an insignificant zoning change but it could destroy Sanford's growth along its main artery," Goodin charged.

Fitzpatrick and Swofford argued that more commercial development was needed in this area while Alexander wanted to back the zoning board. "It's the best possible recommendation," he added.

The property in question is described as M. M. Smith's subdivision.

Effort by the Commission to determine need and ways and means of regulating private utility companies in Seminole County apparently hit a blank wall with a report by Engineer Cal Conklin that compliance with county franchise law may be "elective" by the utilities.

Conklin of the firm of Clark, Dietz and Associates gave a comprehensive one and one-half hour report to the Board on necessary measures to implement the local bill passed by the Legislature some years ago to regulate utility companies in the county.

The report was made at no charge to the county.

If the county should decide to implement the law, utilities within municipalities would not be affected, Conklin said, and "participation by private utilities would be purely voluntary."

He stated there are 20 private water companies and 10 private sewerage companies currently operating within the county and that none are operating under the authority of any governmental body where rates or quality of service is concerned.

Conklin advised expenditure of $9,000 to $10,000 would be necessary to do a study to determine fair rates for the companies in addition to an expenditure of $10,000 to $15,000 annually to investigate complaints if the Board decided to implement the law and still "The utilities could continue to operate without a franchise."

In other business, the Commission deferred action until the next meeting on request of the City of Winter Park to use the Osceola Outlying Air Field for "hot pursuit training" by the Winter Park Police Department. Recommendations were requested of the county attorney as to the county's liability if use is permitted and of the sheriff to determine if county police agencies could benefit out of the training.

W. L. LAYER, president of the Seminole Education Association, will speak to the Pine Crest PTA tonight at 8. Layer will discuss sanctions and the crisis in education.

No Double Sessions For First Graders

First graders at Pine Crest Elementary School in Sanford will not be faced with double sessions due to a plan worked out by Principal Harold Heckenbach, The Herald learned today.

Four additional teachers will be hired to work with those already on hand in first and second grades, cutting the teacher-pupil ratio down through a system of "team teaching," Heckenbach advised.

This will be of especial value in first grades where teachers now are handling from 35-37 children per classroom, he said.

Port Working Plans Ready By Sept. 30

Preliminary working plans for the construction of the Port of Sanford will be submitted by Sept. 30 to the Seminole County Port Authority for study.

Raymond Morris, of Lockwood Greene Engineers, Spartanburg, S.C. also reported last night that the completed constructions plans will be submitted to the board about Dec. 1 for advertising for bids to build.

Chairman Andrew Carraway expressed the hope that "the port will be in operation and doing business by this time next year." He expressed this view as the board approved an advertisement for the Florida Journal of Commerce's annual directory.

Ellsworth Bassett, newly appointed board member, was elected secretary.

Plans will be presented to general membership of the organization at a meeting to be held at the Chamber of Commerce Building at 3 p.m. Thursday.

Outlines for the first major sales promotion to be sponsored this fall by We Care Merchants of Sanford will be submitted for committee approval at a 7 a.m. breakfast Wednesday at Rose and Wilk's Restaurant.

Making the presentation will be B. J. Smith, independent advertising consultant, who is in charge of planning and handling details of the campaigns this year.

Plans will be presented to general membership of the organization at a meeting to be held at the Chamber of Commerce Building at 3 p.m. Thursday.

Krider Defends Role Of Chamber

By JANE CASSELBERRY

"From the looks of things you don't need any help," John Krider, director of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce told a group of South Seminole citizens Monday referring to the building boom in South Seminole County.

Speaking before the sponsored businessmen's luncheon group at the TradeWinds Cafeteria, Krider stated, "South Seminole stands to gain the most from Disney World, Florida Tech and the Navy Training South Seminole Jaycee Center, but you must do it yourself . . . use your own ingenuity and the Chamber of Commerce will give help where needed."

Murmurs of discontent have been heard from area businessmen, who feel the Chamber is helping Sanford to the exclusion of the rest of the county and proposals have been made either to form their own South Seminole C of C or join with Maitland.

Krider told the group that two previous attempts to organize a South Seminole C of C with his assistance failed for lack of funds. "It would take a minimum of $25,000 a year to operate effectively," he stated. He told the men they would be better off supporting a stronger Jaycee organization rather than joining the Maitland C of C, which he referred to as "an ice cream and cake group only interested in parades and beauty contests."

He pointed out that the South (Continued on Page 2 Col. 4)

Casselberry Keeps Hands Off 'Bingo'

State law supersedes local law, Casselberry City Attorney Kenneth McIntosh told the Casselberry Council last night and thus laid to rest controversy which has been brewing in the municipality concerning whether bingo should be permitted in the city.

McIntosh reported the state bingo law "is not enabling legislation but active legislation" and authorizes bingo and guest games, "present city law not withstanding," according to information he had gained from the attorney general's office earlier yesterday.

Final remarks by McIntosh on the subject, "I recommend no action be taken on Ordinance 156" brought resounding applause from the nearly filled meeting room at the Woman's Club Building.

North Orlando Cuts Time Limit On Dogs

Time limit on keeping impounded dogs in North Orlando was cut to three days with passing Monday night of a new dog ordinance by the village council.

Passed to act as an amendment to the original dog ordinance, the measure was deemed necessary due to costs imposed on the village with the former 10-day "keeping" period.

Announcement that the village dump "definitely will be closed this month" was made by Lloyd Brown, acting mayor, who also advised that "no trespassing" signs will be posted and chains will be put up to bar the area. Where the village residents are to dump trash was not mentioned.

Council will add a policy rider insuring village police in the amount of $10,000 in the event of accidental death during performance of duty until such time as insurance renewals are due and put up for bids. Decision for the additional coverage was in compliance with State Bill 1243, which states the village is liable for its police department.

Small Turnout At Equalization

Most property owners in Sanford apparently are satisfied with the recent reappraisal, if attendance at the Board of Equalization meeting last night is any indication.

Considering 80 per cent of Sanford property owners had their valuations raised, the City Commission sitting as an equalization board, heard complaints from only about 30 residents.

The majority of them were persons with fixed incomes, who cited jumps from $100 to $2,000 and said "high taxes would run us out of town."

The board said it would review all complaints and has scheduled another meeting Wednesday at 7 p.m.

The biggest property owner complaint was from Sanford Plaza, Inc., represented by attorney, C. Vernon Mize. Mize asked the board to reconsider the plaza valuation hike from $630,000 to $780,000.

Other property owners complaining were about rental properties — "when the base is moved out we'll feel the pinch" and that valuations had come up some 40 to 50 per cent during a two-year period.

Some 8,000 parcels were reassessed between 85-90 per cent of the sales price. The total revaluation figure totaled $55,389,550 and jumped over $5 million over the previous year. Non-exempt property was estimated at $40,709,656.

City Sets Hearing On Complex Zoning

City Commission last night set Sept. 25 for a public hearing on rezoning the lakefront project as C-2 commercial.

The action follows recommendations made by the zoning and planning board last week.

In other action, the commission: GAVE a 60 day extension for condemnation of a home at 201 South Maple Avenue;

DELAYED action on paying for work on piers at the lakefront pending approval from the engineers at a cost of $38,118;

Authorized the insurance committee to provide coverage for fire and police officers under $10,000 death benefits;

AGREED to meet with newly formed beautification committee on projects.
