Latin America To Get Helping Hand From U. S. Baseball

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Mar. 24 (AP)—American baseball is about to extend its helping hand to the West Indies and the Latin Americas.

Robert L. Finch, publicity chief of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (the minors), leaves Sunday from New York on a flying jaunt which will take him to Havana, San Juan for a two-day confab with President Jorge L. Cordova of the Puerto Rican Professional League, the Dominican Republic where the Dodgers are training, and Balboa. While in Balboa, Finch will decide whether to move to Venezuela.

Following his personal talks with the league chiefs, Finch will return to Havana for April 8 and 9 conferences with representatives of all the Caribbean, Central and South American circuits interested in setting up a post-season championship series.

Meanwhile, teams in 458 cities from Vancouver, B. C., Canada, on the north, to Havana, on the south, and from San Francisco on the west to Geneva in the east, are poised for the opening of the minor league pennant races.

Fifty-eight leagues, under the leadership of Minor League Pres George M. (Red) Trautman, will follow the March 30 opening of the Pacific Coast League into action.

Trautman estimated 2500 to 3000 rookies, first year men, will make their start this season on the long trail toward the Majors.

Association clubs will play a few more than 52,000 games this year. Last year's paid attendance for 52 leagues and 388 clubs was about 41,000,000. Trautman expects this season's gate to equal or surpass that figure.

Among the hantus in South Africa, cattle are regarded as a measure of wealth and killing cattle to eat is so frowned upon, except on ceremonial occasions, that owners of large cattle herds often suffer from malnutrition.

Hubbell Named On Cobb's All Time Baseball Team

BOSTON, Mar. 24 (AP)—Hospitalized here by an ailing gall bladder, Ty Cobb, one of baseball's greatest sluggers, today had some words of advice for one of his most promising diamond successors—Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox.

"Learn to hit to left field," the 61-year-old Georgia Peach told the American League's current triple batting champion.

"You should be able to hit to all fields, regardless of how the defenses are stacked against you."

"Joe Jackson could hit them anywhere, regardless of how they shifted against him. And Babe Ruth always could overcome defenses by chinking up his bat and punching into left field."

Asked how he would react against the current and almost universal "Williams Shift," Ty Cobb replied:

"If they ever insulted me in that fashion, I'd switch from the left to the right side of the batter's box, get away from the plate and push the enemy back into their natural fielding stations."

"If Williams keeps hitting against this shift, he's going to lose a lot of base hits during the course of a season. He'll find it almost impossible to slip a ground ball through the right side of the infield when his opponents get way back on the grass and cover every foot from first to second base."

After dropping those pearls of hitting wisdom for Williams who has the greatest respect for all the oldtime slugging masters, Cobb was easily persuaded to pick the all-star team of his own golden baseball era.

"It would include George Sisler on first base, Eddie Collins at second, Honus Wagner at short, Buck Weaver at third and Jackson, Ruth and Tris Speaker in the outfield."

"Mickey Cochrane would be their catcher. And even they would need pitchers. I suppose I'd give them Walter Johnson, O'Pete Alexander, Christy Mathewson and, for good measure, Carl Hubbell and Eddie Plank."

Training Camp Notes

CLEARWATER Mar. 24 (AP)—Newcomers are injecting new life in the Philadelphia Phillies.

Three of them came through with good performances yesterday.

Rookie Southpaw Curt Simmons pitched three hit ball for four innings as the Phils downed the Yankees, 6-5. Ritchie Ashburn, rookie centerfielder, smashed out three hits, scored three runs and turned in a couple of fine catches.

The veteran Bert Haas, obtained in a trade with Cincinnati, batted in three runs with a single and two doubles.

LOS ANGELES Mar. 24 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs' hospital list is gradually getting smaller, but still it's quite imposing.

Phil Cavaretta, Bob Sheffing and Lloyd Lowe now have their arms working well after treatment at Boys Springs. But Billy Nicholson still has shoulder miseries and Len Merullo is troubled both with a lame arm and bad back.

SARASOTA Mar. 24 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox will be without the services of veteran outfielder Wally Moses for several days.

Moses was struck by one of Harry Brecheen's pitches in yesterday's exhibition game with the St. Louis Cards. The Sox won, 3-2.

SCRAMENTO, Calif. Mar. 24 (AP)—Several members of the New York Giants, including Manager Mel Ott and outfielder Wildard Marshall, have been laid up with colds. Marshall remained out of the Giants' game with Pittsburgh yesterday.

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. Mar. 24 (AP)—Catcher Joe Tipton appeared today to be a rookie certain to stick with the Cleveland Indians because of his stick work.

Joe rapped timely singles to score the Tribe's tying and winning runs yesterday as Cleveland beat the St. Louis Browns, 6-5.

CLEARWATER Mar. 24 (AP)—Ewell Blackwell, Cincinnati Reds' mound ace who has given up no runs and just four hits in eight exhibition innings, makes his third start today against the Philadelphia Phillies.

"Whistling for a wind" is believed to have originated among the Vikings, who hoped that if they whistled, Thor, the god of winds, might whistle in reply, thereby filling their sails with wind.

Fire Chief Cleveland Gives Fire Warnings

There's an extra reason to beware the idea of March. Fire Chief Cleveland reminded local residents today, pointing out that March is the worst month of the year in terms of fire hazards.

Chief Cleveland cited figures released by Fire Protection Institute which indicate that losses this month may set an all-time record unless home owners and businessmen take steps to safeguard their property.

Last year more than $74,433,000 worth of property was destroyed by fire during March. It was the costliest month in a year that saw nearly 700 million dollars of fire waste. Reports for January of this year show a ten per cent increase in fire loss compared with January a year ago.

Chief Cleveland believes two simple rules can help safeguard local property owners.

1. Do all you can to PREVENT a fire by eliminating the causes of fire, chiefly carelessness.

2. Be prepared to PROTECT yourself against fire by keeping approved fire extinguishers handy on each floor. A fire multiplies fifty times in eight minutes but most fires can be brought under control if you know how to fight them when they first break out.

When Alexander Mackenzie first explored the Mackenzie River in 1789 he noted a fire in a seam of coal on its banks, a fire which has been burning ever since.

WEDNESDAY, MAR. 24, 1948

DOBLE VERSE TODAY

CAN YOU INDULGE IN HEATHEN DISPLAY, EXTRAVAGANCE AND WASTE WHEN YOU KNOW THAT MANY ARE SUFFERING FROM THE LACK OF HARDEST NECESSITIES?—Luke 14:13. When thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind.

Another reason, we suppose, for the tax reduction bill just at this time is to make the American people think that they can give a billion dollars to Europe without its costing anybody anything.

"Babe Ruth Day" in Sanford last week proved very helpful to the hospital. The Chamber of Commerce has presented the hospital association with a check for $1,000 derived from the benefit baseball game. And believe us, the hospital needs that money.

There is considerable talk these days about French Foreign Minister Bidault and British Foreign Minister Bevin coming to Washington sometime next month for a heart to heart talk with Secretary Marshall. May be they want to find out if Truman really meant what he said last week, or whether we are going to pull another Palestine on them.

Did you know that married men live longer than bachelors? Did you know that the average bachelor has just twice as much chance of dying before middle age as a married man? Well, that's what the U. S. Census Bureau statistics show anyway. If you don't believe us, look it up. May be it's because married men have to stay in in better condition, get tougher.

If you have trouble sleeping, do not risk your life with sleeping pills. Try singing yourself to sleep. That, at least, is the advice of Blackburn Sims in the Journal of Living. You do not actually sing out loud, hence you do not disturb other guests in the house. You simply start singing some of the old favorite lullabies, quietly to yourself, not even humming, just thinking the words and the tune. Before you have finished more than three or four, you will be asleep. At least that's what Mr. Sims says. In any event, you haven't done yourself any harm.

You have seen in these columns from time to time advice on being careful about getting hurt. You have seen statistics on how many people fall down stairs every year and get killed, how many people slip up in the bathtub and break their spines, how many women fall off chairs while hanging curtains and break their curtain rods. Well, the man who prepares these statistics for us and all the other newspapers in the country, a Mr. Paul Jones of Chicago, slipped and fell on the icy driveway in front of his home the other day and broke his arm in two places. So, for the moment he is just another statistic.

The New Deal has not done away entirely with the profits of business, and some concerns still make more than is good for them, but on the whole that time has passed when a man could build a better mousetrap than his neighbor and expect to make any real money on it. The Institute of Life Insurance reveals that in 1929 some 22 percent of all personal incomes represented rentals, dividends and interest, while 78 percent represented salaries and wages. But by 1947 only 11 percent of such incomes came from rentals, dividends and interest, while 89 percent came from salaries and wages. We seem to be approaching the time when saving for a rainy day will be out of the question.

Madison Of Virginia

It looks as if the founding fathers of the republic are coming into their own. A large-scale life of James Madison, by Irving Brant, has been under way since 1914, and now announcement is made of an equally vast life of Jefferson by Prof. Dumas Malone of Columbia University, the first volume of which will appear on Jefferson's birthday, April 13.

Madison has always bulked larger with the historians than with the average American. His luminous intellect appeals to scholars, while his rather drab personality does not register with most people. If any one man is entitled to the credit for the adoption of the Constitution, it is Madison, both by his work as a member of the Constitutional Convention and by his share in the "Federalist," that magazine filled with arguments for ratification which chiefly put the Constitution through. His wisdom as floor leader of the first Congress was invaluable to Alexander Hamilton, striving to put the new nation on a sound financial footing.

As secretary of state under Jefferson Madison was servicable but not great. As President he was the first chief executive to show that success in subordinate positions does not necessarily make a great executive. Some later presidents have hammered this point home. The United States was lucky not to lose the War of 1812, for which we were totally unprepared; and for this Madison must take much of the blame.

But we weathered his administration, which could not blot out the great contributions he had made previously to our national welfare.

Election In Korea

Korea's first post-war election day is to be May 9. Under the auspices of the United Nations, the people of the ancient "Hermit Kingdom" will go to the polls to choose representatives who in turn are to begin the task of setting up a people's government.

Perhaps it should be said more accurately that the people of half of Korea will go to the polls. The northern half of the country is occupied by Russian troops and Russia has refused to have anything to do with the United Nations commission delegated to conduct the election. The United Nations decided to hold the election anyway, but there has been no indication of a change of the Russian mind. Probably the election will be restricted to the southern portion, occupied by the United States.

The decision to go ahead with the election could be interpreted as a gentle sort of suggestion to Russia that the other nations intend to restore order in the world with or without Russian co-operation. But what will be the result in Korea? If Russia still refuses to yield, Korea will become divided as sharply as Germany, a situation Koreans can hardly be expected to accept as satisfactory. By Occidental logic Russia is to be censured for non-co-operation, but the Oriental mind is not easily fathomed. The Koreans may blame us for their division.

Gift-Of-The-Month

The book-of-the-month idea is spreading. You may now get candy-of-the-month and the necktie-of-the-month, while the food lover may look forward to the monthly receipt of a consignment of delectables. Other imitators will doubtless follow.

So far, so good. But what if the tax collector got the idea? "Tax-of-the-month" would not be so inviting. "But," says the man at the next desk, "that's what most of us get now with all this withholding stuff. It's a nuisance to be doctored, but anyhow, then it's over." Well, take it as you like it. We'll take vanilla.

Fraser Asks Voters To Choose Carefully

KISSIMMEE, Mar. 22.—(Special)—"Weigh carefully the qualifications of each candidate aspiring to this office and from a business viewpoint, decide for yourselves which one possesses the greatest business ability," Edwin G. (Ed) Fraser, candidate for State Comptroller, urged voters here last night.

"In addition to having a statewide reputation as a successful business man, I have 12 years of legislative experience in Tallahassee to give me a broader knowledge of our State government," the Macclenny nurseryman added.

"Certainly," Fraser said, "Your State Democratic Executive Committee."

"Self-Denial Week" Is Practiced By Salvation Army

The week preceding Easter is "Self-Denial Week" for the Salvation Army Corps, including 32,000 officers and cadets in 97 countries, and is devoted to raising funds for home and foreign missions, stated Capt. Byrd Hudson of the local Salvation Army Corps this morning.

This self-denial week, practiced by the Salvation Army for more than 62 years, was conceived by John Carlisle who in 1866 wrote to General William Booth, Salvation Army founder as follows: "By going without pudding every day for one year, I calculate I shall have 50 shillings. This I will do, and will remit the amount named as quickly as possible."

The idea spread and the first "Self-Denial Week" in England resulted in Salvationists raising about $20,000, a large sum in those days. Last year $441,630 was raised in this country and sent to Europe, China, Japan, Korea, Philippines, India, South America and Africa, said Capt. Hudson.

By ADELAIDE KERR

AP Newfeatures Writer
The threadbare young Russian found before the desk in the Tolstoy Foundation in New York, six months after he first reached there from a displaced persons camp in Italy. He was one of millions of Soviets who had been seized as prisoners of war or forced labor and who neither wanted to nor dared go back home. He was one of several hundred from the Tolstoy Foundation has helped to reach the United States.

On that first day in the Foundation office his face had shone with happiness. Today tears coursed slowly down his face; his rough hand knotted beneath his tumpy sleeves.

"They wouldn't let me into the American army, because of my eyes," he was saying in swift Russian.

She spoke of Alexandra Tolstoy, tall gray-haired, hard-working president of the Tolstoy Foundation, the youngest daughter of the famous Russian novelist and moral philosopher. She founded the Foundation in New York in 1919 after she left the USSR and became an American citizen. Its first aim was to help the White Russians who fled their homeland after the Russian Revolution.

Since World War II its aid has been directed toward the Russian displaced persons.

"By the Yalta Agreement these men had to be returned to Russia," Miss Tolstoy said recently. "Rather than go back, many committed suicide. Others change their nationality and go into hiding."

"The Tolstoy Foundation has helped a number of these Russian D.P.'s reach America. Those who must come in under an affidavit given by some American citizen or organization guaranteeing their support for five years, in case they fail to get jobs. Much of this work we do in cooperation with the Church World Service.

We run Reed Farm near Nyack, N. Y., where 65 to 125 can live until they learn English and orient themselves in the United States. We also send food and used clothing abroad."

Miss Tolstoy pushed back the papers on a crowded desk and went on:

"There are hundreds of thousands of Russians still in D.P. camps in Europe and many write me they live in unappealable conditions—unheated barracks, inadequate food. Instead of being allowed to sit there in fostering misery and anger, I feel they should be used in some of the world's work, when there is so much to be done. There are public works projects in many countries on which they could be used. And because of their strong feeling against Communism (and

Plane Victims

Two bodies were located about a mile from the wreckage when searchers persisted on the possibility that there were more than the five officially listed men aboard.

Lieut. P. A. Toomey, casualty officer of the Fairfield-Suisun air base, said the identification of two men who boarded the plane first before it departed was not immediately known.

In addition to the survivors, the bodies known to be aboard were: Capt. Frederic J. Ziegler, Jr., Portland; Capt. William H. Tolson, Fairfield, Calif.; Capt. Wiley A. Garber, Oakland, Calif.; 1st Lt. Donald H. Gates, Vallejo, Calif.; Sgt. Stephen J. Pressley, Oakland, Calif.; and Pvt. Otto Ralph Hon, Longview, Wash.

Mr. Harding was quoted as saying the plane flew into a "pinch-point" at about 2,000 feet altitude. He said the plane flipped over, but by the time it was righted again, they had lost altitude and crashed.

The crash occurred about 10 miles northeast of here.

Nation they could constitute a terrific force for democracy.

"The Russian D.P. who escaped from Europe and settled 700 more D.P.'s on a project of irrigating land in French Morocco for irrigation. They are self-supporting now and he has repaid part of the five thousand."

Miss Tolstoy, who served as her father's secretary and accountant, told him she left his family, worked with the Soviets a while after his death. Under the USSR she organized a set of experimental schools in Tula.

"But they put such tight restrictions on me I couldn't go on, she said. "If I had objected, I would have been sent to Siberia. So I asked to be sent to Japan and America to study the educational methods of those countries and I never went back."

Laying Addresses

leged group in power. The situation that now faces this country in Europe, Mr. Layne continued, is due to the combination of America's desire to be done with war quickly, and Stalin's policy of expansion.

"When we withdrew our troops, we left the continent open to the encroachment of the Great Bear, that understands only one language—force," he said. "The question that now faces this nation is what to do about it, how to handle such a nation."

"There is one thing that each person with the precious power of franchise should do and that is to demand of each candidate for a policy-forming office an expression of his position on this important world problem," he said.

"At present there is a great deal of pussy-footing which is sacrificing the position of the United States for the hoped-for benefit of office-seeking politicians."

Civilization seems bent on committing suicide, what with a war of bacteria, atomic, and still unannounced devices of a similar deadliness imminent, he continued, but in his opinion there is still time to save it. To do so will require the very active effort of all right-thinking people demanding positive action by the leaders of nations.

President George Toomey announced the personnel of the committees for the coming year, naming Victor Greene and H. D. Dugan on attendance; George Stine, John Kinder, Roy Mann and Herman Lehman for program; J. E. Mungler, D. C. Howard, C. E. Howard and L. I. Frazier assigned to visitation; Robert S. Brown will have charge of the music.

"That's far tittle from my question," Gurney told him after Linfield gave lengthy but indirect replies.

Gurney asked again if Linfield has ever been or now is a member of the Communist group. Linfield refused past of Wallace's pledge and added: "I've never supported such groups. I never will."

As the hearings continued, Congress members waited for military chiefs to give them an outline of what the nation needs for its defense machinery.

But two lawmakers came out for keeping manpower demands within narrow limits. Those

Sanford Drops Contest To Tars By 3 to 2 Count

Manager Hal Gruber's Florida State League entry tangled in a six inning game with the Jacksonville Tars of the South Atlantic League yesterday and showed promise of being a potent club when the curtain goes up on the 1948 season.

The Sanfordites dropped a 3 to 2 decision to the Tars, but that was a trivial matter to the Sanford skinner.

"The team looked good, and shows prospect of being a pretty fair club. Of course, it is still a little early to say that any man has a position nailed down, but several of the fellows are handling themselves nicely and handling complications, will be in there when we open against Orlando," Gruber declared.

Joe Schultz pitched four innings of hitless ball against the Sally Leaguers, but the Tars found the offerings of Bob Peppers in their liking and scored three runs in the last two frames.

Millers Schedule Tiff With Columbus

Manager Frank Shellenback's Minneapolis Millers were scheduled to meet the Newark Bears in an exhibition contest at the Municipal Park this afternoon.

Tomorrow the Millers meet the Columbus Cardinals in a contest, which is scheduled to start at 2:00 o'clock, at the local ball orchard.

Sanford uniform again yesterday and declared that he is ready to go.

Manager Gruber had George Street on first base, Lloyd Clifton on second, Johnny McManus at short and Tim Tyler at the hot corner. In the outfield were Les Bosher, Connie Kavakis and Frank Giordano. Len Matto and Rudy Karson, a Ft. Smith, Ark., batsman, worked behind the plate.

One story about the first importation of export brass workers into the United States from England says the men were hidden in casks and smuggled on board a ship.

COMMENTS from the SIDELINES

Swimming Pool . . .

Last week The Herald published a warning to Seminole County adults and children alike from Dr. Frank Quillman, director of the Seminole County Health Unit, concerning the water in the lakes and streams around our city.

Dr. Quillman advised the public against swimming in contaminated lakes and streams and declared that public bathing places must have a permit approved by his department.

"Safe water is the first requisite in protecting the health of patrons," Dr. Quillman asserted.

Isn't it time for our City fathers to be thinking about building the long awaited and long promised swimming pool so that it

Millers' Scribes Write About City And Team's Camp

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, Jr. Herald Sports Writer

Haley Hall, sports scribe for the Minneapolis Tribune, is ranked as one of the best sport reporters in the business, and his jovial fellow is really turning on the steam about Sanford and the Minneapolis Millers' training camp here.

Hall is sending news releases daily from this Central Florida baseball capital, and these stories are printed in the Minneapolis Tribune, one of the leading newspapers in the Middle West.

His stories are carrying Sanford date lines and are giving the people of the frozen north country bits of information concerning Sanford and Central Florida.

The Millers were rained out of their first day of practice and the jovial Hall flowered the rainy weather with, "A flourish of unseasonable weather," as he put it in the March 8 edition of the Tribune.

In addition to Hall's mighty pen work in the Tribune, he is filing for the Minneapolis Star. Hall sends over 2,000 words daily from this Spring training headquarters of the Millers.

Yesterday Eddie Jines of the Minneapolis Times arrived in Sanford and began sending releases to his paper. He plans to send nearly 2,000 words to Minneapolis daily.

There are over 4,000 words being filed daily from here on the Millers' work, so we can see that Sanford is getting a large amount of publicity in the Mid West.

These people out there are yearning for information about Florida and in time we will be getting a fair share of their tourist traveling, and the baseball coverage is one of the best ways to get the people interested in Sanford and learning about our facilities.

ICE CREAM BOMBS

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, Mar. 24 (AP)—Ice cream cans loaded with nitrolycerin, TNT and acetone are used as aerial bombs by government forces fighting the rebels of Jose Figueres.

War Secretary Rene Picado said today "our home made bombs, weighing up to 250 pounds, are used effectively to keep the forces of Figueres dispersed." They are dumped out the door of a DC-3 plane flying over rebel positions.

Harold E. Stassen proposed today a joint discussion of American foreign policy with General MacArthur by means of a radio hookup.

Republican convention candidates pledged to Stassen and MacArthur are entered in the Wisconsin delegate election Apr. 6.

Stassen currently is making a personal campaign in the state in behalf of his delegates.

Stassen suggested that arrangements be made for MacArthur to speak over a direct wire from Tokyo with the former Wisconsin governor speaking from a radio station at Madison, Wis.

Stassen made his request in a telegram to Philip F. LaFollette, former Wisconsin governor who is a MacArthur candidate for delegate-at-large.

General MacArthur says he decided to announce his availability for public office after threats of pressure against him by the American Communist Party.

Calif. Drought

The water shortage began with subnormal rainfall a year ago. It became critical this year when a dry January and February heralded the most severe winter drought in 70 years.

Huge mountain reservoirs that store water for irrigation and power hold but a fraction of their capacity. Some, which are small because of natural limitations but drain larger watersheds, will spill over when mountain snows thaw. But the majority will not approach their capacity.

Palestine Fight

(Continued from Page One) appear to be losing their fight to prevent chaos in Palestine. Many observers said the situation deteriorated even in the past 24 hours.

Three principal cities—Jerusalem, Haifa and Tel Aviv—are virtually battlegrounds. Sheik Hसन Bey Salameh, the man assigned by the Arabs to conquer all-Jewish Tel Aviv, has declared he is ready to do it as soon as the British leave.

Tax Slash

Doughton was for many years (when Democrats controlled Congress) head of the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee. The present bill was written by his successor in that job, Rep. Knutson (R-Minn).

The Senate vote on the bill last Monday was 78 to 11. But some Democrats in both House and Senate who voted for the bill might switch and vote to uphold a veto.

The House originally voted last February for a $6,600,000,000 tax cut. The Senate trimmed that down. One purpose was to try to win enough votes to seat a veto.

As finally sent to the White House, the bill cuts taxes 12.6 per cent for those with the smallest incomes on which taxes must be paid. The cut ranges down to 5 per cent on the biggest incomes.

Under the bill all tax withholdings from wages and salaries would be reduced on May 1. But the tax cut would be figured from Jan. 1. Taxpayers would get refunds next year on over-payments between Jan. 1 and May 1.

Other main things the bill would do: 1. Increase individual exemptions from $500 to $600. 2. Apply to all states the community property principle where by husbands and wives may split the family income for tax reporting purposes, getting lower rates.

3. Provide special exemptions for elderly persons and for the blind. The House vote came after a debate marked by arguments from some Democrats that America's stop-Communism program will require expenditure of new billions to build up military strength, and a tax cut may throw the Treasury again into red ink.

Although it is commonly believed that strong gales may be expected at the time of the equinox—when the sun apparently crosses the celestial equator—continued observations have failed to show any unusual prevalence of storms at this season.

Pilot Club

(Continued from Page One) expenditures amounting to $55 during the past month. This constituted seven and a half quarts of milk daily to needy persons in addition to a case of canned milk.

Mrs. Esther Rice reported that $75.34 was realized from the rummage sale held last Saturday.

Military Men Ask Draft Of Men 19 To 25

Forrestal Seeks Increase of 349,500 Officers and Men For Armed Forces

WASHINGTON, Mar. 25 (AP)—The nation's top military leaders asked Congress today for an immediate expansion of the Armed Services and the drafting of men 19 to 25 years of age.

Secretary of Defense Forrestal grimly outlined the recent turn of world events in urging steps to make United States military might match that of Communist Russia. Forrestal said the odds still favor peace and the free nations of the world.

But he asked Congress to approve immediately:

1. An increase in the present authorized strength of Army, Navy, Marine and Air Force manpower by 349,500 officers and men.

2. Another $3,000,000,000 in cash and contract authority for the Armed Services to cover this expansion. This presumably would be in addition to $11,000,000,000 already in the budget.
3. Drafting by Selective Service of men from 19 to 25 years inclusive. He said this would provide 1,355,000 men but added that only about 220,000 probably (Continued on Page Three)

New Tourist Court Is Open For Guests On Lake Boulevard

Colonial Tourist Court, the first of its type to face Seminole Boulevard and Lake Monroe, was opened Saturday for guests by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mynes, who live immediately west of the court.

The court includes four attractive duplex units which face a patio. Being within the shade and shrubbery have been planted by A. F. Ramsey, florist.

Considerable excavation of land in the rear by means of a bulldozer was necessary in order to build up the area occupied by the buildings which include an office for registration. This created a scenic lake in the rear, covering two and a half acres to a depth of five feet. It is fed by artesian wells, and Mr. Mynes plans to stock it with fish.

The buildings were designed from Mr. Mynes' plans by Elton Moulton, architect, and were erected by Paul Campbell, contractor. They are of frame construction with red roofs and grey cedar shingle siding with cement finished porches on the sides facing the patio. Within the city limits they have city water, sewer outlets and electric lights. Rooms are large and tastefully furnished. Pink and green is the color scheme, with alternate rooms having pink walls and green furniture and green walls and pink furniture. Flooring is of asphalt tile, and bathrooms including showers, and finished with glazed tile.

Plumbing is by Hodges, electric work by Batten Electrical Co. Windows have Seminole Venetian blinds. Glass work is by the Seneker Paint and Glass Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Mynes came here from Huntington, W. Va. Four and a half years ago. They have two young daughters.

Title Data For New Bridge Is Studied

Title data for the new Highway 46 bridge over the St. Johns river, about 200 feet south of the present Geneva Bridge which can be used continually until the new bridge is finished. Titles obtained include those of Volusia county owned land between the present bridges.

Work is also proceeding on obtaining of title to land between Sanford to Lake Jessup for the lake front route of the highway which will pass through Indian Mound Village, said Mr. Higgins.

QUINTUPLETS

LOUISVILLE, Mar. 25 (AP)—Mrs. Roman V. Girdgale, 31, was reported resting comfortably at a hospital here today after giving birth yesterday to quintuplets—three girls and two boys.

Senators Seeks "Marshall Plan" Adoption For American Schools

WASHINGTON, Mar. 25 (AP)—Senator Hill (D-Ma) today called for adoption of a "Marshall Plan" for American education. Speaking for a bill to provide $300,000,000 in federal aid to states, Hill said in a speech prepared for the Senate:

"The foreign aid program, the need for increased military preparedness in the tensions of the hour—these will cost the United States billions of dollars. They are necessary steps to protect America and safeguard Democracy.

"But it is foolish to attempt to save Democracy abroad if we let Democracy break down at home. Yet that is what we are doing in our neglect of the public school system—the foundation stone in the structure of American Democracy.

"We need a Marshall Plan here at home for American education." Hill said in a speech prepared for the pending bill. It would provide the more wealthy states with at least $5 and the poorer states up to $22 for each school age child, every year starting July 1, 1949. A similar bill has been pending since last year before the House Education Committee.

Hill said in his speech:

"We are told (by opponents of the measure) that the federal government, with its public debt and its commitments under the Marshall Plan, cannot afford to help the state school systems.

"This is less than candid. We have swallowed the camel and gag at the gnat."

Salvation Army Leader Speaks At Kiwanis Luncheon

Interest and work of Kiwanis and other civic organizations including Rotary, Lions and Pilots, was highly commended yesterday by Brigadier Ernest Pickering, Salvation Army head of operations in Georgia, Florida and South Carolina in a talk to Kiwanians at the Tourist Center yesterday. He was introduced by Capt. Byrd Hudson.

He declared that if the work of all of these organizations for underprivileged children could be added up, the result would be impressive. One word sums up all of this work, he said, and that word is "Others."

"I regret to state that our minds and hearts were made heavy when because of the disbelief of a little boy, the teaching of religion was ruled out of the schools," he declared.

He traced the sources of juvenile delinquency from broken homes, but declared that all of these did not come from hovels.

MacArthur For President Campaign Runs Into Political Difficulties

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

MacArthur-for-President supporters stepped up their Western campaign today but ran into a fumble and a fight. National headquarters in Washington first announced that the general, if elected, will allot at least four cabinet posts to the West.

Later this was revised to say that such a geographical allocation had only been "recommended." The new version did not say by whom.

Ervin Hohensee, executive secretary of the MacArthur-for-President group, said the distribution would be: Labor to Ohio, Interior to California, Commerce to the Northwest, Agriculture to the Southwest and the Attorney General to New York.

"Other announcements will follow shortly," the statement said. Hohensee declined to tell a reporter whether MacArthur had authorized the statement.

In California, meanwhile, two groups of the allied commander's supporters split over plans to enter his name in the state Republican Primary June 1.

One group, the "Draft MacArthur For President Club" planned

House Passes Extension Of Rent Control

WASHINGTON, Mar. 25 (AP)—Congress today legislation keeping rent controls for another year. Voice vote approval by the Senate completed congressional action on the measure. It came into law a few hours after the House passed, 230 to 95, a compromise of differing measures originally passed by the Senate and House.

Measure Revises Provision Which Would Strip Federal Authorities' Control

WASHINGTON, Mar. 25 (AP)—A compromise one-year continuation of rent control was voted by the House today. The Senate is expected to follow suit and send the legislation to President Truman by nightfall.

Without the legislation the present controls, affecting about 13,000,000 dwelling places and 50,000,000 persons, would end a week from today.

The compromise written by a Senate House Conference Committee after the two chambers had passed differing bills, modifies the "local option" feature of the House version by giving a special federal court the last word on rent boards whenever local boards and federal officials disagree.

As passed by the House, prior to drafting of the compromise late yesterday, the bill would have given the local boards—nominated by the governors of the various states—absolute authority to raise rents of decedent areas.

Merchants Group Had Barbecue Last Night

Sanford baseball players headed by Hal Gruber, Fuller Warren of Jacksonville, candidate for governor, and Judge Sidney Herlong of Tavares, candidate for the House of Representatives in Washington, were among the many guests at the Sanford Merchants Association at their barbecue at the Elks Club grounds last evening.

In addition, practically all candidates for local offices were present. W. E. Hathaway prepared the barbecue meat in such a manner as to earn the praise of all present, and Fuller mentioned it in his downtown address last evening. The barbecue sauce was reported to have been just right. Andrew Stine had charge of arrangements for the Merchants' Association.

Arms Confiscated

MANILA, Mar. 25 (AP)—The Administration reported today it had confiscated firearms and ammunition valued at $3,000,000 in the past two years in its peace and order campaign.

Mariano Roque, undersecretary of Interior, said the firearms totaled 230,000.

The confiscated weapons presumably were those of peasants in central Luzon, where Hukbalahap guerrillas and government patrols clash frequently. President Roxas outlawed the Hukb by decree recently.

Candidates For Governor Putting Their Campaign Slogans In Rhyme

Florida candidates are having a time putting their campaign slogans in rhyme.

Many of the major candidates with some leading themselves to a campaign jingle have taken advantage of that type of stick-in-the-mud publicity.

Supporters of Dan McAty, candidate for governor, proclaim "Dan's The Man." Some of his campaign workers even have tee shirts with the slogan boldly stamped across them.

W. A. Simons, also seeking the governorship, invites Floridians to "Join Hands With Shands."

Richard W. Levin of Palatka, candidate for attorney general, thinks it would be nice for the voters to start "Serving With Levin."

Richard Mack of Coral Gables, campaigning for return to the State Railroad Commission, employs the crisp request: "Put Mack Back."

Comptroller C. M. Goff, also seeking a return to office, has a lengthy jingle that reads: "Vote For C. M. Goff on the 4th of May."

Not everyone uses poetry, of course.

Ed Fraser of MacLennan, seeking the comptroller ship, uses the tried political phrase: "The People's Choice." He was elected to the position for which he now is running but the Supreme Court ruled he was ineligible under the Constitution at that time.

Fuller Warren, another candidate for governor, doesn't go in for rhyme but uses a triple-W slogan—"Win With Warren." Supporters of Colin English for governor are using "Everybody's Talking English." He waged a successful campaign for State Superintendent of Schools in 1936 with the hardly disputable slogan—"We Need English In Our Schools."

Attorney General Tom Watson, running for governor, is distributing red, white and blue buttons which list a certification for each letter of his name.

While their numbers bandied through literature and sales talks throughout the state, the candidates continued their speaking tours in every section of Florida today.

McAty scheduled speeches in

Warren Denies He Said He Favored Appeasing Russia

Fuller Warren, Jacksonville candidate for governor, addressed a large crowd in downtown Sanford last night in the interest of his candidacy for governor. He said he is most optimistic over the outlook for his election.

Warren, candidate for governor, denied last night that he was in favor of appeasement of Russia, as he had stated at a Sanford Rotary dinner two years ago that he would seek to avoid war with Russia by appeasement, as charged in Gainesville Monday night by another candidate, Dick Cooper of Deland.

Without mentioning Cooper's name, Mr. Warren accused the candidate who made the charge of misquoting and un-American tactics and said, "Anyone who attempts to mislead the voters by telling lies is admitting that he is trying to avoid the real issues and doesn't want to measure up to the qualifications of a governor."

"Two years ago, in September," Mr. Warren explained, "I spoke to the Sanford Rotary Club and reminded them that one of their fine principles was the establishment of peace throughout the world. . . . I told them that we ought to do everything possible to keep this country from having war with Russia, even UP TO THE POINT OF APPEASEMENT. . . . When someone says—up to the water's edge, they don't mean into the water, or when someone else says, 'Up to the fence, they don't mean over the fence,' so when I said, 'Up to the point of appeasement, I didn't mean—Appeasement.'"

Outlining his qualifications for governor, Mr. Warren said that

Voice of America Warns Italian Voters

NEW YORK, Mar. 25 (AP)—The Voice of America program warned Italian voters yesterday that unless they "smash the Mussolini fifth column," Italy cannot hope for continued assistance from the United States.

The State Department program was the first in a series prepared for hearing to Italy prior to that country's parliamentary election April 18.

Yesterday's broadcast was made by Luigi Antonini, vice-president of the AFL International Government Workers Union.

Antonini commended Italian workers for their "increasing rebellion" against the "USES of the totalitarian bloc of (Palumbo) Togliatti and (Di Pietro) Nenni, which follows the orders of the ferocious Moscow tyranny."

NO TAKERS

CHICAGO, Mar. 25 (AP)—A lot of high priced fresh meat cuts are going begging this week in the nation's butcher shops, sources in the wholesale meat trade reported today.

They attributed this condition to buyer resistance to high prices, heavy sales of Easter hams and poultry and fairly good receipts of meat animals, despite the strike of CIO meat handlers.

NATIONAL GUARD

All members of the National Guard unit, Company I, are requested to report in khaki uniforms for company drill tonight at 8:00 o'clock, said Capt. Roy Green today.

Capt. John Pope announced that plans are being made for Army Day celebration on April 6. Details will be announced later.

BERRY SUIT

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 25 (AP)—Wallace Berry of the films admits he offered to settle for $3,000 the maternity suit filed by Mrs. Gloria Schumm but he denies he is the father of her six-week old son, John.

Counsel for the 43-year-old actor informed domestic relations court that he proposed the settlement rather than waste more time and money in the litigation.
