The Seminole High School band really played the celebrity game in St. Petersburg-Tampa last weekend.

The bandmen stayed in the same hotel with the Milwaukee Braves. On top of that there was a sports banquet in the hotel the same night.

Famous sports figures were plentiful including Stan Musial, Casey Stengel, Yogi Berra, Bobby Bragan and many others.

Jack Beckwith is the only one who managed to get a Musial autograph.

The Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals has just released its list of accredited hospitals. Seminole Memorial Hospital is one of about 7,000 in the United States on the annual list. Listing is a badge of recognition which the hospital can display to its community to prove that it conforms to high standards of patient care.

Orchids to Postmaster Cecile Heard for her own private "beautification" program at the Sanford Post Office. That array of vari-colored posies was breath-taking Sunday afternoon. Quite some different than the drab landscaping BC (before 'Cie).

Why is it the neighbors always are willing to be of assistance with one of these do-it-yourself construction programs... But with advice only? R. E. Porter was in his backyard laying brick for a barbecue pit and three neighbors offered advice (only), plus the use of some do-it-yourself books. But not one offered to handle the trowel for a while.

Advice to newcomers from the North: Don't let these overcast skies of late away you from being careful of sunburn. You can get just as burned... of not more so... as you can when the sun is out.

Things we never knew until now dept: According to the Virginia Commission on Constitutional Government, Florida has never... repeat, has never... approved the federal bill giving women the right to vote. How about that?

Have you mailed in your contribution to the Easter Seal campaign yet? If not, hurry and do it. In 1964, the affiliated Easter Seal Societies and centers in Florida provided rehabilitation treatments to more than 9,000 handicapped children and adults. You can help.

To give you an idea where your Easter Seal dollars go, consider that treatment is given to thousands of children and adults who suffer from crippling caused by amputation, speech and hearing disorders, cerebral palsy, arthritis, strokes, cardiac disease, poliomyelitis, muscular dystrophy, spina bifida, blindness, accident and many orthopedic and neuromuscular cases.

The joint effort of all Easter Seal Societies in Camp Challenge, Florida's Easter Seal Camp, only about 15 miles west of Sanford. This camp, especially designed for people in wheelchairs and on crutches or braces was established in 1961 on 50 acres of donated land. More than 500 campers have been able to go there in the past four years.

New England Digging From Late Snows

United Press International Thundershowers fell across sections of the Southeast today as New England continued digging out from a severe late season snow storm.

Red Cross workers positioned themselves at potential flooding points along rivers in the Upper Mississippi Basin for their annual "disaster watch."

Jackson, Miss., reported more than an inch of rain today, and other southern cities were drenched Monday.

Monroe, La., Tuscaloosa, Ala., and Longview, Tex., reported heavy rainfall from one to two inches.

The surprise snowstorm Monday dumped at least seven inches of snow on parts of New England and caused three weather-related deaths before blowing out to sea.

Brattleboro, Vt., Haverhill, Mass., and Bennington, Vt., each reported seven-inch snows. Ski areas reported excellent snow conditions on the slopes.

SIXTEEN MONTHS older and 50 pounds heavier, Kenneth Harriett, who will be 14 on May 4, today greeted an old friend on his arrival in Sanford, J. M. (Botts) Crowley (right), of Cincinnati, erstwhile big league baseball player. Crowley was host at his home for Fire Lt. George Manning Harriett Sr. (left) and Mrs. Harriett, Kenny's parents, when the boy underwent a rare and delicate liver operation in November 1963 at Cincinnati.

VD Upswing Reported In Seminole Co.

A sharp increase in venereal disease is reported in Seminole County for 1964. Dr. Frank Leone, Seminole County Health director, said today.

There were 120 known cases of venereal disease last year compared to just 11 known cases in the county five years ago, the health officials declared.

Statistics reveal there were 105 cases of syphilis and 23 cases of gonorrhea in Seminole last year.

Dr. Leone and Joe Garcia, epidemiologist for the health department, attributed some of the increase in VD to increasing promiscuity among younger people.

Some of the cases of venereal disease were reported in the sub-teens, they said.

Known treated venereal disease cases in Florida last year amounted to 12,310. This figure ranks Florida third in the nation in total infectious cases of syphilis behind California and New York.

Dr. Leone urges anyone who suspects that they have a venereal disease to tell their family doctor.

2 Americans, 15 Others Die In Explosion

SAIGON (UPI) — A Viet Cong suicide squadron fought police and U. S. Marine guards today and bombed the U. S. Embassy with 200 to 250 pounds of TNT, inflicting heavy loss of life.

Massive retaliation against the Hanoi regime seemed a certainty.

The thunderous explosion killed at least two Americans and 15 Vietnamese and wounded 150 others. Several of the terrorists were blown to bits.

Deputy U. S. Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson emerged from the rubble with blood streaming down his face.

Johnson Ponders Requit

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson and his top military and diplomatic aides, shocked by the terrorist bomb attack on the U. S. Embassy in Saigon, today pondered the next move in the Viet Nam crisis.

The Chief Executive, Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, who flew here from Saigon this weekend for consultations, all were informed of the bombing shortly after it occurred Monday night.

There were indications that this latest Red attack, aimed as it was directly at the U. S. presence in South Viet Nam, had stiffened the President's determination to press forward with the military drive to force the Communists to stop fighting.

Commie Blast Boldest On U. S. Facilities

SAIGON (UPI) — The bombing of the U. S. Embassy today was the boldest in a series of Communist terror attacks against American installations in South Viet Nam.

Following is a brief rundown of other major bombings:

Feb. 9, 1964: Two bombs exploded under the bleachers of a U. S. servicemen's softball park in Saigon. Two American soldiers killed and more than 20 other Americans wounded.

Feb. 16, 1964: A bomb exploded in the lobby of a movie theater in Saigon's American community. Three U. S. soldiers killed. Fifty Americans and Vietnamese wounded.

Social Events Will Spark Bomb Derby

The Navy's Protective Reconnaissance-Bombing Derby, besides being one of the most comprehensive air readiness exercises in the United States Atlantic Fleet, is considered one of the major social events of the year in the local community.

Highlighting a series of social occasions at this year's Derby, April 5-10, will be a reception on the eve of the final day.

The reception is the traditional meeting ground for Navy and civilians amid a festive atmosphere of food, drink, music, entertainment and colorful decorations.

The event, which attracted some 1,000 persons last year, will be held from 8 until 11 p.m., April 9, in the Sanford Naval Air Station ballroom. As a change from previous years, the men will wear black tie. Naval officers will wear dinner dress white or service dress white uniforms. Ladies will enjoy the evening with a variety of cocktail dresses and evening gowns.

Attending the reception will be some of the Navy's top flag officers, Sanford area business and civic leaders, representatives from companies holding defense contracts, retired Naval officers living in the area and Sanford Naval officers.

Among the high ranking Naval officers planning to attend are Vice Adm. Paul D.

Area Travel Pattern Survey Under Way

One out of every 10 homes in Seminole County will be visited within the next few weeks in a survey of travel patterns.

The survey, conducted by Wilbur Smith & Associates for the State Road Department, began Monday and will continue for three or four months.

Approximately 30 local women will be hired to visit the homes and interview families.

The city and county law enforcement agencies are co-operating in the survey and each interviewer will carry proper identification.

City Manager Warren E. Knowles has written a letter to accompany the Sanford interviewers asking for residents to co-operate and assist in the survey.

Each family to be interviewed will get a letter of intent from the Orange-Seminole Joint Planning Commission three days prior to the visit by the woman interviewer.

Purpose of the survey is to develop a transportation and road plan. All answers will be held confidential.

Women hired to make interviews in Seminole County include: Juanita Maston, Rt. 1, Sanford; Dorothy Bernosky, 229 Bradshaw, Sanford; Annal L. Rowley, 425 Raider Avenue, Longwood; Vera L. Willford, 2430 E. Laurel, Sanford; Patricia Wallen, 109 Temple Drive, Sanford.

'Space Look' Slated For June

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI) — Astronaut Edward White may become the first American to take a personal peek into space when he and fellow Gemini pilot James McDivitt make a four-day voyage into orbit late this spring.

Also, informed sources said, the flight—which would set a U. S. space endurance record—is set for a blast-off at Cape Kennedy in June, about one month ahead of schedule.

Officially, the federal space agency's current plans are much more modest.

As far as public announcements are concerned, the McDivitt-White mission is set for sometime after July 1, and the "personal look at space" is an experiment awaiting a flight beyond that.

If all goes well, McDivitt and White—pilot and co-pilot, respectively—will fly their Gemini-4 capsule nearly three times longer in space than the 22.9 orbits that astronaut L. Gordon Cooper established as a U. S. record about 23 months ago.

Sources close to the $1.25 billion Gemini project said officials are seriously considering giving White the chance at the first "space look."

According to the proposal, the Gemini-4 capsule would be depressurized and White would open his hatch on the right-hand side sometime midway through the 17,500-mile-per-hour voyage.

Then the astronaut would stand up in his seat and stick his head and shoulders outside the cabin, to see what it looks like on the outside. White also would carry a camera

Attorney Fees May Get Axe In Road Suits

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—A Legislative Council roads committee is tempering with wisdom its determination to get a bill to cut down attorneys' fees in road condemnation suits through the coming session of the Legislature.

The committee agreed to seek endorsement of the full legislative council for a bill which would be less ambitious than the one attempted in 1963. It failed. The philosophy this time is "get a foot in the door" with a bill that has a chance of passing.

The committee also heard a report on how much Florida owes on bonds sold to finance state, county and city road construction. The total is $627.6 million. The largest part of it was the $279.2 million debt for county roads which is backed by the two cents portion of the gasoline tax which goes for county roads.

The $157.2 million in Sunshine State Parkway bonds is second largest. Also being paid off are $149.4 million in municipal bonds and $26 million in county road bonds secured by county funds derived from surplus gasoline taxes.

The bill approved by the committee dealing with attorneys' fees would leave it to the judge in condemnation suits to set the fee for the landowner's attorney, who must be paid by the state, but the fee would be based on a percentage of the difference between what the state offered for the property and what a jury sets as the final price.

At present, the fee to attorneys in these cases is also set by the judge, but is based on the full amount of the price set by the jury.

During the 1963 session, the House approved a bill which would have set an unvarying fee for attorneys, cutting down drastically their pay. The bill was killed overwhelmingly in a Senate committee before it ever got to the floor.

State's Magic Appeal Told In FP&L Report

The story of Florida's magic appeal and amazing progress will be carried to every state in the Union and many foreign countries by a colorful new publication just off the press.

Florida Power & Light Company's 1964 annual report — sporting a cover that invites the reader to "Explore Florida" — is in the mail this week to more than 40,000 people all across the land who own shares in the electric utility.

Keyed to FP&L's year-round program of boosting Florida, the 14-page publication helps "sell" the state wherever it goes. It is illustrated with brilliant color photos of Floridians at work and play, and looks more like a popular picture magazine than a corporation report. The presentation is designed to dramatize Florida's appeal and phenomenal growth.

"In 1964, Florida's amazing vitality set the pace for new gains in all layers of the state's prospering three-ply economy," says FP&L board chairman McGregor Smith in his message to stockholders. "Tourism was at an all-time high, industry chalked up rapid expansion and agriculture harvested its biggest total cash income in history. In fact, by most any measure you might choose, our state's progress and economic strength are strikingly apparent."

In the leading feature headlined "Florida... Its Magic Appeal Nourishes a Thriving Economy," the state's growth story is detailed. Industry, agriculture and Florida's wealth of natural and man-made attractions are portrayed with a splash of color photos.

Other companies play up their products in their annual reports, but Florida is the "product" FP&L is promoting.

The report is being mailed out magazine-style without an envelope to attract increased attention. This is not uncommon today, but FP&L pioneered the technique a number of years back when it was standard procedure to mail annual reports in envelopes.

The report presents an informal format and an easy-to-read typographical presentation. It should prove as appealing to the average reader as the analyst checking statistics and business activity.

With FP&L serving prime growth areas of the state, the report notes that Florida's progress is vividly reflected by the expansion of Florida Power & Light.

Indicative of the state's growth are figures showing that FP&L last year added new customers at the rate of 3,600 per month. At the same time, the company's generating capability was increased to 2,963,000 kilowatts — a jump of 300 per cent since 1954. Electricity sales were up 12 per cent, an increase of 320 per cent during the past decade.

Workers Needed For Enterprise PTC Festival

By Mrs. Ritchie Harris
Ken Hicks, chairman of the Spring Festival to be sponsored May 8 by the Enterprise School Parent-Teacher Council, has issued a call for volunteers to help with the event.

Taking the form of a big Western and Country Music Show, the festival will include games such as darts, fish shoot, bean bag toss, ring toss, shoot for the basketball and horse rides. There will be prizes offered for the best western and country outfits. Any person with talent for entertainment along lines of the overall theme is asked to contact Hicks.

There will be a white elephant sale and a handicrafts booth. Those with items to donate for the white elephant sale are asked to call Mrs. Fred Perick Jr. to arrange for pickup of items. Mrs. Louise Meis may be called on handicraft articles.

Stepped-Up Plan Announced

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Army and Air Force will begin two year college ROTC programs next fall in a move to expand their supply of potential officers.

Traditionally, College Reserve Officer Training has been a four-year affair.

Under the new optional plan, ROTC training will be provided juniors and seniors who may then obtain regular or reserve commissions in the Army and Air Force.

Supreme Court Rules

Employer Can Close Business But...

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court unanimously decided Monday that an employer has the right to close his entire business for any reason he pleases but said he cannot shut down just part of his operation for anti-union purposes.

The unanimous decision came in the case of the Darlington (S. C.) Manufacturing Company which closed its mill in 1956 after a majority of the workers voted to be represented by the Textile Workers Union (AFL-CIO).

Some 500 people in the town of about 8,000 population lost their jobs.

The case, which has been before the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) and the courts for about eight years, is one of the best known in recent labor history.

The opinion, by Justice John M. Harlan, sent the case back to the board for more hearings.

The NLRB found Darlington had violated federal labor law by threatening employees and closing the plant for anti-union reasons.

It attributed the same violations to Deering Milliken, Inc., a parent corporation which was the exclusive sales agent for 27 Milliken mills along the Atlantic Seaboard.

The board held the whole system constituted a single employer, commonly controlled by the Milliken family.

However, the 4th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, decided that an employer had a right to close all or part of a business, no matter what the reason.

The appeals court did not decide whether Darlington was an entity in itself or part of the Milliken complex.

Allamonte PTA To Meet Today

By Julia Bartos

Up to date activities and financing at Allamonte Elementary School will be discussed by Principal Frank Gore at today's 7:30 p. m. meeting of the school's Parent-Teacher Association.

Reports will be given on the installation of blinds for use with audio-visual work, which soon will be completed, and on progress of the five-classroom addition now under construction at the school.

Third grade homeroom mothers will be hostesses and will be in charge of refreshments.

At a meeting of the PTA executive board last week, committees were named to review the by-laws of PTA and to recommend a new slate of officers for the coming year.

Leading the by-laws study group is Mrs. W. J. Swafford with Mrs. T. Wells, Mrs. Thomas Householder and Mrs. M. X. Ashner, assisting. Mrs. Guy Nuss and Mrs. T. Wells were named to the nominating committee.

"It's a pleasure to Bank at the Atlantic."

Sure there's a difference between the luxury '65 Chevrolet and expensive cars

You can put most of it in your savings account

Maybe you've only seen them on the street so far. If so, come on in and see a Jet-smooth '65 Chevrolet right in our showroom. We think you'll do a double-take when you get up close enough for a look at that price sticker. Most people do. Because the major difference between this one and cars that cost quite a bit more is simply—price.

Take room, for example. Chevrolet has more of it than many expensive cars do. You get extra foot room with the new frame and forward engine design. And those handsome curved side windows are one reason for all of the extra shoulder room, front and rear.

And there's plenty of luxury. The smartly functional instrument panel is easy to read, puts everything at your fingertips as well. Color-keyed interiors feature tastefully rich fabrics and vinyl, foam-cushioned seating and plush deep-twist carpeting. And even the low-cost Bel Air and Biscayne include these luxury touches.

There's a great choice of power, from Chevrolet's economical, spirited

140-hp Turbo-Thrift Six on up. And that famous Jet-smooth ride is even better this year. A new Full Coil suspension, new wider tread and over 700 sound and shock absorbers work together to give you the feeling there's a foot of air between you and the road.

You can tailor the car exactly to your taste, too. Our catalog lists nearly 200 ways to do that—and our salesmen can show you how easily your present car and realistic monthly payments will have you driving a beautiful '65 Chevrolet nearly as quickly as you've read this message.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have read your column for many years and wondered how anyone could write to a stranger about their problems. Now I find myself doing just that. I feel that I am writing this not for myself alone, but for many others just like me.

I am a big, heavy woman—not by choice. I am just "big" and have been this way all my life. I can't imagine myself ever having been little enough to have been a baby.

Abby, we big people have hearts and feelings the same as little women. We are usually the butt of jokes. No one seems to think we can be hurt. Let me tell you, Abby, my heart is breaking as I write this letter. I want love and companionship like any other woman. Aren't there any men who like fat girls? No woman turns away from a man because he is big and fat. But men shun big, fat women. Why? Don't suggest diets because that won't help our bigness. Please don't just throw this letter aside. Answer it, Abby, for all of us who are—

BIG AND LONELY

DEAR BIG AND LONELY: My heart goes out to everyone who was not really created "equal." And that goes for the undersized as well as for the oversized person. But "big" people need not be FAT. I AM going to suggest dieting because half your problem could be solved if you were merely a "big" woman—not a big, fat one. You plead for acceptance for the big, fat woman. First try trimming yourself down. Big girls everywhere are enjoying the love and companionship of big men. And some "little men" have shown themselves to be "big" by choosing a bigger woman.

DEAR ABBY: If I were GLENDALE, whose husband brought home a painting of a nude woman, I wouldn't make a fuss at all. I would hang the picture on our bedroom wall, over HIS side of the bed. And on MY side I would hang a life-sized picture of GREGORY PECK, and dream!

GERTRUDE

DEAR ABBY: My mother died two years ago and my father recently married again. I like my new mother, but I can't bring myself to call her "Mom." I have tried, Abby, and I always end up feeling so guilty I go up to my room and cry it out. I loved my own mother very much and I know I will never love my stepmother that way. I am the

TUESDAY, MARCH 30, 1965

TV Time's Show of the Night: 10-11 p.m. NBC. Bell Telephone Hour (Color) (Rerun) A lovely hour devoted to the lyrics of the late Oscar Hammerstein II. Henry Fonda hosts; singing is entrusted to Florence Henderson, Susan Watson, John Heardon, Barbara McNair, John Raitt, Johnny Harmon, Gretchen Wyler and the chorus. The songs come from "Show Boat," "Carousel," "Flower Drum Song," "South Pacific," "Oklahoma," and many other wonderful shows.

11 Noon-1:30 p.m. NBC. "Call My Bluff" (Premiere) (Color). New game show involves bluffing, poker style, with word definitions. Celebrity captains for premiere week are Orson Bean and Peggy Cass. Bill Layden hosts. 12:30-1:30 p.m. NBC. "I'll Bet." (Premiere) (Color). Jack Narz hosts new game show pitting celebrity couples against each other. Sort of a "Do You Trust Your Wife's Husband?" "Know Your Spouse?" Dan Blocker and Patricia Blair are opening celebs.

7:30-8:30 p.m. NBC. Mr. Novak: "The Student Who Never Was." An intriguing if somewhat far-fetched drama. A brilliant problem student creates a mythical "X" transfer student and gets four friends to join him in a group impersonation. The "gag" flops pathetically, but there are some touching moments and young Robert Walker gives a sensitive performance as the ringleader.

7:30-8:30 p.m. ABC. Combat "The Hell Machine." Saunders and a couple of other Americans take a German tank into a Trojan horse as they try to escape from the enemy. Frank Gorshin guests as one of the Amer-

8-8:30 p.m. CBS. (Not shown in New York metropolitan area). This is the postponed airing of Jackie Clark's starring episode which the young comic had hoped would be a pilot to his own series. The series apparently didn't make it, though Clark's routine (here dramatized) garners a few laughs.

8:30-9:30 p.m. CBS. The Red Skelton Hour. TV's Perry Mason in a change of pace plays the devil tonight. In Skelton's comedy sketch, George Appleby would sell his soul to be a bachelor, and Raymond Burr appears to do business. The Kinks, a musical group from England (what another?), supply the songs tonight and in the silent spot Red is a man searching for a treasure in a mansion he just purchased.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

One of the more unusual forms of the duck play is the lead of a low trump in the lead to retain control of the suit until you have a chance to draw the defenders' trumps. This play is exemplified in hand nine of the Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament.

The official bidding is shown in the box. North and South don't have to follow that bidding in order to get their bidding par, provided they arrive at the spade slam.

West is instructed to open the king of hearts and South should have no trouble finding the correct line of play. Naturally, he wins the first trick and then he should lead a low trump from his hand.

He won't make the hand unless trumps break 3-2 and he wants to lose his trump trick without giving up dummy's ability to ruff a second heart lead.

East wins the trick and is directed to force dummy by leading a second heart. South must get back to his hand and the correct way to do it is to cash one of dummy's high diamonds and ruff the next one.

The hand is set up so that South can make the hand if he ruffs a heart in dummy at trick two; cashes the ace and king of trumps and then plays out dummy's diamonds and clubs in the correct order. The fact that this play works does not make it correct but South gets two consolation points instead of the six he would get if he adopted the best line.

Benefit Game Slated Friday

By Jane Casselberry

The South Seminoles Junior High School athletic program will benefit from a Student-Faculty Basketball game to be played Friday, April 2, at 7:30 p.m. in the Lyman High gymnasium.

The doubleheader will feature games between the girl students and distaff members of the faculty and the boys and the men teachers.

Cheerleaders will endeavor to stir up some enthusiasm for their teams in this battle of youth vs. experience. Whatever the outcome it promises to be an evening of fun and the public is invited.

Extension Club To Hear Report On Officers

By Donna Estes

The nominating committee will recommend a slate of officers for the coming year and elections will be held at the regular meeting of the Longwood Extension Homemakers Club scheduled for 10 a.m. Thursday at the Civic League Building on Church Street.

Mrs. Felix Mege, president, will conduct the meeting and a Chinese auction will take place with Mrs. Hazel Rutherford and Mrs. T. Zull in charge.

Mrs. Ralph Newcomer, health and safety chairman, will present a program on health.

Hostesses for the dessert luncheon following the meeting will be Mrs. M. L. Timley, chairman, assisted by Mrs. P. Hibbins, Mrs. P. Knight, Mrs. Charles Crowell and Mrs. Ellen Sliker.

We The Women:

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: My husband is so jealous that he thinks nothing of talking our children that he wishes they had never been born. He is especially hateful toward our 16-year-old girl. He has caused her to lose her steady date. She has to be in bed at 10 p.m. He screams at her for wearing curlers around the house on Saturday mornings and last Sunday called her "scum" for being two minutes late at Communion. How can I manage such a man?

ANSWER: What you really mean is "How can I change him into another kind of man?" You want him changed from an abusive husband and father into a benevolent one.

He wants everything different, too. Though he has children, he wishes he didn't. Having them, he wants them changed. He wants his attractive daughter to attract no boys, to turn herself back into a 12-year-old with a 12-year-old's bedtime and make no move of any kind which inconveniences him.

But neither of you can change the other and to insist that you should possess this transforming power is foolish. You could get together, of course, and admit the mutual dissatisfaction and seek the help of a marriage counselor who might be able to help you each begin to change yourselves.

But I have the feeling that this suggestion will not be acceptable. It seems that you have to choose between the two remaining alternatives. You can either break with your husband or say to yourself, "I will stay with this marriage because staying with it is more advantageous to me than breaking it."

That's called "adjustment." Many married people accept it as the solution. One of the partners, the more grown-up

The women won when they discovered the deodorant, "Right Guard," which was really created for men. They loved it! It is invisible, you can spray it on clothes, does not stain and has a fresh fragrance. Since the women began usurping this, Right Guard now comes in a stunning new feminine style container. This is the one deodorant for the family. The new container matches any bathroom decor and it does a real job. It's so important to men, women and children.

Be sure to shop for new shoes now while the styles are being displayed. Some more comfortable ideas have entered the picture. Toes are rounded just a bit, and true rounded toes can be found. A few ankle straps are seen in high styling. And, of course, you can find shoe coloring at any notion counter and you can color any shoe to match or harmonize with any outfit.

There is a new idea in removing nail polish. Just try the Delph Pad; one pad will do all ten fingernails. This is modern, and so convenient. Use one pad and toes it away—no bottles and no bits of cotton. Simply slick a pad up

HOW TO GET RICH SLOW (but sure)

Every dollar you invest in Series B Savings Bonds grows $3 1/2 times in 7 years and then multiplies. You can count on it.

It's not as exciting as drilling a wildcat oil well, or diving for sunken gold. But it's mighty reliable. Especially when you use the Payroll Savings Plan to help you make sure you buy Bonds regularly.

This famous plan takes the bookkeeping out of saving money by making it automatic. You just tell your employer you want him to set aside a small amount from your check each payday.

(That a week will add up to twelve $25 Bonds a year. But you can have more or less deducted as you choose.)

Then you forget all about it. Savings come easily and almost painlessly. You never see the small amount that's deducted as you hardly miss it.

There's a unique satisfaction in moving money this way, too. Everytime you slip another Bond into your pocket, you know you're helping your country as well as yourself. Uncle Sam uses the money to help America resist the forces that threaten our freedom.

Another thing about getting rich slow with U.S. Savings Bonds is that almost anybody can do it. So why not sign up for Payroll Savings before next payday?

Quick facts about Series B Savings Bonds:

- You get $4 for every $5 of maturity
- You can get your money when you need it
- Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen
- You can buy Bonds where you want or bank

Miss Sibyl Grant Engaged

By Donna Estes
Mr. and Mrs. J. Russell Grant of 533 Palmetto Street, Longwood, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Sibyl Jo-Ann Grant, to James Vernon Coombs, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Coombs, of Forest City Road, Apopka.

The bride-elect is a native of Florida, has resided in Longwood for 20 years and attended Lyman Elementary School where she graduated with the high school class in 1959.

In high school she served as president of the student council and was active in the 4-H Club and the Future Teachers Association. She was awarded the DAR good citizenship award in her senior year and won the Voice of Democracy public speaking contest sponsored by the Sanford-Seminole County Jaycees.

Miss Grant attended Pentecostal Bible Institute, Tupelo, Miss., holds Local License in the United Pentecostal Church, heads the Youth Department of the First Pentecostal Church of Longwood and assists in the music department and Sunday School.

MISS GRANT

She presently is employed as secretary for Grant's Crawler Parts and Service, Inc., Longwood.

Her fiancé is a native of North Carolina, attended school in Lakeland and graduated from high school in Austin, Tex. He served four years in the U. S. Air Force, stationed in Korea and Hawaii, and is active in Sunday School and the Youth Department of the First Pentecostal Church of Longwood.

He is employed by Wind-Dial as a meat cutter.

The wedding will take place in mid-June with complete plans to be announced at a later date.

Ladies Society Of BLFE Meets This Thursday

The Ladies Society of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers will meet Thursday at 9 a. m. at the home of Mrs. H. E. Turner, 210 West 17th Street.

Plans for a social will be finalized at the meeting and the quarterly treasurer's report will be given.

All members are asked to make an effort to attend the meeting.

Miss Sharon Sheffield Bride Of J.N. Oglesby

By Mrs. Ritchie Harris
Miss Sharon Ann Sheffield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sheffield, of Sanford, and Joseph N. Oglesby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Oglesby, were united in marriage at the home of the groom on Thursday evening, March 25, at 7:30 p. m.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH N. OGLESBY

Rev. Paul Bickes, pastor of the Nazarene Church officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony before an altar accented on either side with standing baskets of iris and white glads, and floral candle holders with burning white tapers. There were other arrangements of white glads and iris used throughout the area. The family Bible was used during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white formal gown of chautilly lace over beidal satin. The fitted bodice featured a scooped neckline with long traditional pointed sleeves. A modified chapel train was attached to a tailored bow at the back. Her veil of illusion fell from a tiara of pearls and iridescents and she carried a cascade orchid bouquet.

Mrs. Margarie Oglesby, sister-in-law of the groom, served as matron of honor. She was attired in a royal blue suit with white accessories and her flowers were pink carnations.

Fred Oglesby served as his brother's best man.

The bride's mother chose for the occasion Navy blue with blue accessories and her corsage was pink carnations and roses.

The groom's mother was attired in lavender with white accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony the reception was held at the home, after which the young couple departed for a wedding trip.

Upon their return they will reside at their home on Madison Street, Enterprise.

N. Orlando Guests Depart For Home

By Margaret Cosby
Mr. and Mrs. Otto Van Skiver of Sussex, N. J., have recently completed a six-week vacation in Central Florida, staying at the home of her son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Longcore, Roxanne and Judy, of 31 South Cortez Avenue, North Orlando.

This is the Van Skivers' fourth trip to Florida since he retired five years ago. They cannot quite bring themselves to leave their home in Sussex and their family and friends to move to Florida but they do enjoy wintering here.

As in the past, they always find plenty to do, with varied activities starting with nearby Big Tree and the new shopping malls. This year they visited Silver Springs, Cypress Gardens, Cape Kennedy and made several trips to Daytona Beach, always a pleasant experience with its regularly changing face.

One of the things they like to do is to note changes in scenery and the new developments in this area since their previous visits. Although they will miss their "sunny south" relatives, they say that it will be "good to be home once again."

Then, too, they soon will be off on another trek, this time to Niagara Falls.

MR. AND MRS. OTTO VAN SKIVER with granddaughters, Roxie, left, and Judy, before departing for their home in Sussex, N. J., after a six weeks stay with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Longcore, 31 South Cortez Ave., North Orlando.

The Garden Gate

PALM CIRCLE
There are many different species of the genus camellia though until recent years only one, Camellia Japonica, was widely known or grown in gardens. All camellias are native to Eastern Asia from Korea to India.

Camellia Japonica first reached Europe in the late 17th century with the first knowledge of them coming from Japan though the plants came from China until the last century. The first introduction died of too tender care (it was kept too warm). But in 1792 began a rapid import from China. By 1797 at least one variety had reached this country and soon others followed.

Sasanqua Camellias, native to Japan, were clearly described as early as 1712 but did not reach Europe until 1879. The popularity of Japonica Camellia reached its peak in Europe and America about 1880 and then declined until the 1920s.

Temperature is the principal factor limiting Camellia culture. Not too much cold, but too little seems to be the trouble. Lack of rainfall, or low relative humidity, is another problem which limits camellia growing in some areas of suitable temperature. Soil conditions are another limiting factor unless the soil is somewhat acid. They resemble orange trees in this respect and thrive under similar conditions.

Camellias do not tolerate poorly drained soils and must be planted high, even above the general soil level if the water table is near the surface.

Many a fine plant has died from being planted too deep and best results are attained by planting under light shade such as pine trees. Care is not difficult. Fertilize two or three times a year with 6-6-6, water in dry periods and spray with Malathion with two tablespoons of summer oil added to control tea scale, spraying thoroughly. They are worth all the trouble! Happy gardening.

HOT SAUCE
Use canned pitted dark sweet cherries to make a hot sauce for pound cake and ice cream.

Combine 1/2 cup of sugar, 4 teaspoons of cornstarch, 1/2 teaspoon of salt and 1/2 teaspoon of cloves. Gradually mix in the syrup from 2 cans (1 pound each) pitted dark sweet cherries. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until mixture thickens and boils for 1 minute. Remove from heat, blend in 2 tablespoons of lemon juice and 1 teaspoon of brandy flavoring. Stir in cherries and heat. Serve over ice cream and pound cake. Makes 8 servings.

THE EASTER BONNET is as traditional as the Easter basket on the special Sunday in spring. Flowers are still in the fashion picture but this time are combined with straw and fabric as in the bonnet (upper left) decked with sprigs of bavardia. Another version of the bonnet (upper right) is in two-toned green straw with scallop details at the sides. These are by Lilly Dacha. The double hat, new this spring, combines a straw brim over a fabric cap. Tiny sailor (lower left) has ribbed cotton baby cap that ties under the chin. Coolie hat (lower right) is in natural straw. These are Hattie Carnegie designs.

Ritual Of Jewels Given Zeta Xi Chapter Pledges

Eleanor Butler was hostess recently to the regular meeting of Zeta Xi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

Plans were finalized for the "crazy hats" covered dish luncheon honoring the new pledges. Mrs. Butler will also serve as hostess with the members wearing their creations.

The slate of officers was approved for the coming year with the following elected: president, Eleanor Butler; vice president, Dora Lee Russell; recording secretary, Flo Winsa; corresponding secretary, Jan Carr; treasurer, Grace Marie Stinecipher; circulating committee, presentative, Marchetta Doranney, with Pat Beers serving as alternate.

The Ritual of Jewels was given two pledges, Flora Mae Wells and Kathy Downer, in a beautiful and impressive ceremony.

The "Baby of the Year" contest is foremost these days on the chapter's busy agenda. The contestants pictures are appearing in Touchstone, Ben Franklin's and Roundtable and Anderson's and will remain at these locations throughout the contest. Proceeds will benefit the Little Red School House.

Mrs. Ray Murray Jr. Feted With Miscellaneous Shower

Mrs. Ray Murray Jr. was honored recently with a miscellaneous bridal shower at the Fellowship Hall of Oaklawn Baptist Church with Mrs. Leland Todd, Mrs. J. E. Andrews and Mrs. L. R. Rice serving as hostesses.

A yellow and white color scheme was carried out in the decor. The refreshment table, covered in yellow linen and overlaid with a hand crocheted cloth, was centered with an arrangement of white glads, yellow snapdragons and white delphinium, flanked on either side by tall yellow tapers in crystal holders. Gracing one end of the table was a crystal punch bowl with crystal appointments used to serve nuts and mints to complement the delicious lemon ice box cake.

Two amusing bridal games were conducted by Mrs. Andrews with Mrs. Michael Reed awarded the prize.

Attending the delightful shower were Mrs. R. M. Fryer, mother of the bride, Mrs. Ray N. Murray Sr., mother of the groom, and the Misses: Pat Taylor, Herman Wellborn, David Heverly, Willard

Bradley, Gene Estridge, Polly Jones, W. F. Mann, W. J. Payne, Michael Reed, Frances Shearin, T. V. Metts Sr., Guy Miller, James Hayes and Diane Swain.

Personals

Recent houseguests of Cdr. (U.S.N., ret.) and Mrs. Russell G. Pearson of Summerlin Avenue were their daughter and her husband, Dr. and Mrs. Robert D. Burns, and children, Bobby and Cynthia, of Kenyon College, Ohio.

Arriving Saturday on two weeks leave was a Pearson son, Lt. James E. Pearson, from San Diego, Calif., who will report for duty aboard the USS Cochran in Honolulu when his leave expires.

Top Defense Aides To Attend Derby

Annual Reconnaissance Bombing Derby, scheduled next week at Sanford Naval Air Station, each year attracts many of the country's top defense officials most concerned with evaluating the Navy's air attack and reconnaissance potential, and this year is no exception.

Already indicating they will attend this year's readiness exercise are seven admirals, a general and some 20 Navy captains and Army colonels.

Among the attendees will be the top Naval air officer in both the Atlantic and Pacific Fleets.

They are Vice Adm. Paul Stroop, commander of Naval Air Force Pacific Fleet, and Vice Adm. Charles Booth II, who assumes command of Naval Air Force Atlantic Fleet Wednesday.

Also expected to attend are Vice Adm. Robert Stroh, deputy director of the Joint Strategic Target Planning Staff, Offutt AFB; Rear Adm. Robert Goldthwaite, commander of Fleet Air Jacksonville; Rear Adm. D. F. Smith Jr., chief of Naval Air Base Training, Pensacola; Rear Adm. Forsyth Massey, Strike Command chief of staff, and Rear Adm. Joseph Jaap, commander in chief of Pacific's representative for Strategic Target Planning.

In addition to providing an unusual opportunity to see the capabilities and readiness of Reconnaissance Attack Wing One, the Derby, with its many social events, gives the military defense contractors and civic leaders in the Sanford area a chance to get together.

The first social event on the week's schedule will be a barbecue the night of April 8 sponsored by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

The following afternoon a "Screen Door Open" golf meet will be held with military and civilians pairing off at Mayfair Country Club.

A reception-cocktail party, attended by an estimated 1,000 last year, will be held the evening of April 9 at Naval Air Station ballroom.

Saturday, April 10 and the final day of the exercise, an air show-open house will be held followed by a Navy Appreciation Day picnic sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The air show, the only event open to the general public, will feature aerial demonstrations by the Navy's Blue Angels, the "Flying Professor," a comedy Piper Cub act, and Sanford's own RA-5C Vigilantes and A-1H Skywarriors.

'Mr. Death' Is Safety Reminder

The safety conscious Sanford Naval Air Station has found the "thinking man's" way of getting its point across again.

The station safety program is assigned to a different department or squadron each month, with the Marine Barracks having had it for March, under the supervision of Wes Giles, ground safety officer for the station.

During the month of March, Giles provided his horse, Blaze, to assist the Marine Barracks with their safety program.

Blaze, along with his rider, R. J. Reno, a private attached to the Marine Barracks, trotted back and forth between two large signs which read "Death Rides with the Careless Driver."

The signs, placed at the entrance to the main gate facing the incoming traffic, and about one block from the gate entrance facing the outgoing traffic, called attention to the horse and its rider, dressed in a black cloak, death mask and scythe, indicating that "death does ride with the careless driver."

The idea of the horse and its rider so inspired the Florida Highway Patrol's safety officer, Sgt. Bob Kilgo, star of the weekly TV program, "It's the Law," and Channel 6's camera crew that they filmed the scene.

Also filmed for the program were scenes including Capt. C. D. Swanson, station commanding officer; the station safety council in session; and a demonstration with "Hercules Annie," a rubber model used in instructing respiration, by Mrs. Peg Horner and Mrs.

Martha Kilpatrick, American Red Cross volunteers.

The safety program was featured on "It's a Law" last Saturday on channel 6.

Also appearing on the program were R. C. Walters, EOL and W. S. Brown, EON2, petty officers in charge of the drivers training school aboard the station. This school includes 10 hours of instructions in and out of the classroom for military and their dependents. This school is required for enlisted personnel before they can obtain a military driver's license.

The drivers training school probably is the most effective means of safety education a board the Sanford Naval Air Station, although safety lectures are given to various departments and squadrons by Kilgo and Giles.

Pre-School Child Welfare Funds Asked For Workshops

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — A Florida organization concerned with the welfare of the pre-school child plans to ask the state for money to set up workshops for day care centers.

In Duval and Orange counties, the State Department of Public Welfare is the licensing agency.

Because some day care centers are not regulated, the buildings may be unsafe and in a poor neighborhood, playgrounds may not be fenced, the rooms may be dirty, poor food served and the house may have diseased pets, the State Health Department said in a recent publication.

Had as a few of the centers are, they can sometimes be better than leaving the child at home.

The State Health Department said some children have been burned to death when they were left at home alone by working mothers and an alarming number of children do not go to school because they are kept at home to care for younger children.

The licensing in Alachua, Broward, Escambia, Hillsborough, Leon, Manatee, Martin, Okaloosa, Palm Beach, Polk and Sarasota counties is handled by the county health departments.

'Astronautess' Jane Orbits Seminole

EDITOR'S NOTE: While the eyes of the world were on Gemini Astronauts Grisson and Young, Herald reporter Jane Casselberry was orbiting Seminole and Orange Counties in order to get a bird's eye view of Florida Forest Service operations from its fire patrol plane.

By Jane Casselberry

When Florida Forest Service air patrol pilot Ivan Walden of Leesburg made an unscheduled landing at Flying Seminole Ranch on SR 419 at Chuluota, at the request of County Ranger Al Harris he acquired a passenger . . . me.

To obtain first hand experience for an article on the Forest Service's air ground operations, I climbed aboard his Cessna 140 for the one-hour circuit of Seminole and Orange Counties.

We flew along the shore of Lake Jessup west to Apopka then south to Martin Plant and McCoy Air Force Base and east to Bithlo, taking time to check out several fires spotted enroute.

During the three worst months of the year for fires—January, February, and March—the plane is under contract to the Forest Service patrolling from 12.5 p. m. on dry days, averaging 125 hours a month.

At this time the woods are tinder dry as a result of frost and low rainfall and the combination with high winds results in fire danger.

Although when viewed from the air the area appears to be 95 per cent water and highways, Seminole has 133,000 forest acres.

Since January 1 of this year, Harris notes, there have been 32 wild fires in the county as compared to a total of 88 for all last year. Most of these are due to carelessness.

Harris terms the patrol plane his most useful piece of equipment during the period of high fire frequency. It is in communication by radio with the six lookout towers in Seminole and Orange, as well as with trucks and fire fighters on the scene.

Use of the plane pays off economically, saving the taxpayers thousands of dollars each year. The Forest Service is able to operate with less men and equipment as a result of the pilot sorting out the smoke of innocent trash fires from wildfires, and reporting them while they are still small and easier to suppress.

The pilot also supplies vital information on the location of the fire and what equipment will be needed, eliminating a lot of unnecessary running around for ground crews.

In addition, land owners are saved many thousands of acres from burning due to the quick detection and suppression.

The "spies in the sky" are also useful in law enforcement and apprehending fire bugs. In addition to the contract plane, the service also has its own planes available, when needed, out of Ocala through out the year. They are often called upon to assist other law enforcement agencies in hunting down fugitives.

The state also has two aerial tankers obtained through the surplus equipment program which are being used experimentally to suppress hot, fast moving fires from the air.

So remember . . . when you are tempted to leave your trash fire or campfire unattended, Smokey, the Bear is watching you . . . and from the air yet!

Food Fiesta Scores Big

By Mrs. H. I. Johnson
A capacity "standing room only" crowd of men, women and students attended the second annual Mr. and Mrs. Creative Cooking School at the Sanford Civic Center Tuesday evening.

The group watched with mouths watering as Miss Mary Metag, "Mary Logan" of Swift and Company, prepared and displayed delectable dishes under a large overhead mirror.

Throughout the evening Miss Metag read comical poems concerning cooking, which added a note of entertainment to the cooking school.

One of the highlights was the selection of three men from the audience, J. E. Cole, Allen Kendall and John Marvin, who were each given a loaf of Vienna bread, an assortment of sandwich fillings and told to prepare sandwiches any way they desired. To the delight of the crowd each man cut his loaf of bread in a different fashion and made fancy sandwiches.

The school was opened by County Agent Cecil Tucker, who introduced Miss Myrtle Wilson, home extension service agent, who, in turn, told the audience "How To Live To Eat Or Eat To Live."

J. C. Adams, merchandising manager of Swifts, one of the sponsors of the school, called attention to the sponsorship by the Florida Power and Light Company, Publix Supermarkets, The Sanford Herald, Seminole County Extension Service and Florida Power Corporation.

Ralph Bloodworth, meat supervisor for Publix, gave out numerous door prizes during the evening.

Miss Metag's first dish was a brisket boneless roast, garnished with baked potatoes, covered with sour cream, a slice of cheese and sprigs of parsley.

The "Beau Catcher" fried chicken proved a popular recipe, judging by the reaction of the audience as this dish was prepared for baking. Pieces of chicken were dipped in buttermilk, then in flour and baked for one hour.

Rich date chocolate cake also was a favorite, with dates put in the cake and a special topping of nuts and chocolate chips spread over the top before baking. This is especially effective for large parties.

Canned ham with spicy current jelly glaze, sweet and sour pot roast, garden fresh salad also were prepared and recipe booklets for all the foods shown at the school were presented to the audience.

A special recipe for teenage parties was "little pizzas," made by using canned biscuits, spread with tomato paste with small pieces of brown-and-serve sausage links and cheese.

Frank and bean boats were prepared by cutting a loaf of Vienna bread in half, adding a dressing of shredded cheese, baked beans and other ingredients then this was broiled a few minutes. After the first broiling, sliced frankfurters were placed on top, cheese squares and pickles added and then broiled again.

Beef fondue, porterhouse steaks and various kinds of sandwiches were some of the other preparations.

Those attending the school proclaimed it a "complete success" and declared they will be looking forward to another one next year.

En garde!
Tomorrow is that day. All Fools Day, that is. Watch out for the practical joker.

We have a letter on White House stationery from Stan Musial.

Stan reminds us that the 1965 Youth Fitness Campaign is about to begin. "The Man" tells us that 17 states have stepped up their school physical education requirements since 1961, and there has been a 27 per cent increase in the number of health and physical education teachers employed by schools.

Musial, consultant to the President on physical fitness, says overweight and lack of exercise still are serious health problems for millions of Americans.

Waterways committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce will finalize plans for the Sanford-St. Johns River scenic cruise at a meeting at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, Chairman Sam Levy announced.

Board Of Regents Sworn Into Office

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Haydon Burns told his new Board of Regents today to concern itself with making policy for state universities and leave the day-to-day operation of the system to the staff.

Burns said some previous boards had often cost the university system the loss of a valuable professor or department head by requiring that board action be taken on the salary before the man could be hired.

He also told the regents, which includes the first Negro and the second woman ever to serve in this capacity in Florida, to adopt a policy on academic freedom soon, suggesting the members might want to reaffirm the policy hammered out after long study by its predecessor boards.

The nine new regents, serving terms of from one to nine years, signed their commissions in the office of the secretary of state, then were sworn in at formal ceremonies in the governor's office conducted by Supreme Court Justice Eralyn Thomas in his formal black robes.

The new regents, appointed by Burns after the mass resignations of regents named by former Gov. Farris Bryant, were approved by the Cabinet Board of Education Tuesday as required by law. They also must be confirmed by the State Senate which meets next week for a 60-day session.

Governor Burns said it is his hope that the board will delegate routine of university operations to Executive Director Broward Culpepper and his staff "and hold yourself as a policy-making board."

He said that the board is required to act on every salary in excess of $15,000 a year but he hoped he would be able to get that board would soon set some dollar level at which Culpepper can proceed to approve faculty.

Otherwise, he said, if forced to wait for formal board action, delays of from three to five weeks can result.

"This board is not bound by precedents or previous policy," he said, but added the new regents might want to reaffirm the major policy established by predecessors in some fields such as that of academic freedom.

Base To Award $114,500 Job

J. D. Manley Construction Company of Leesburg, with a bid of $114,500 is the apparent low bidder to repair a portion of the aircraft parking apron at Sanford Naval Air Station.

The contract calls for the replacing of approximately 10,500 square yards of concrete on the north, east and west sides of hangar 4 which houses the station aircraft control tower.

Ens. William Hilderbrand, assistant station resident officer in charge of construction, reports work is expected to begin about May 1, with completion in mid-August.

Job Seekers Get Warning

COLUMBUS, Ga. (UPI) — Police had an all-points bulletin out today for a man accused of swindling persons while pretending to give them a job.

Mrs. Effie M. Sentell told officers that she gave the man $350 "deposit" on the promise of receiving a $600 a month job. She said she answered an ad in Columbus newspapers.

She made the deposit, Mrs. Sentell said, but became suspicious and could not reach the man at his next stop in Atlanta. She said she tried to call the company, but was told it did not exist.

Mrs. Sentell said her check for $350 was cashed in Orlando, Fla.

ATHENS (UPI) — A "very strong" earthquake shook Greece for six seconds today, causing panic and damage in a wide area. Information trickling into Athens indicated early fears of heavy casualties were unjustified.

New University Delay Opposed

TALLAHASSEE—The Legislature urged Tuesday not to delay opening of the proposed East Central Florida University near Oviedo for an extra year.

"The need is now," John Krider, executive secretary of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, told a House appropriations sub-committee.

Krider was a member of a Central Florida delegation which appeared before the sub-committee to ask for $7 million appropriation to get the new university opened in the fall of 1968.

"The area needs this uni-

'Vapor Trails' Scheduled Here

The Vapor Trails, a team of Navy sky divers, has been added to the cast for the air show climaxing the Sanford Naval Air Station's six day Reconnaissance Bombing Derby on Saturday, April 10.

The Derby, one of the Navy's major recreational exercises, will begin Monday.

The addition of the Vapor Trails, a parachute exhibition team from the Jacksonville Naval Air Station, sounds out an air show program that already includes the Navy's famous Blue Angels flight precision team; Piper Cub aerobatic ace Dick Schram ("The Flying Professor") and air power demonstrations by Sanford-based RA-5C Vigilante and A-3B twin jet aircraft.

Take off time for the first event is 9:10 a.m. April 10. The air station gates will swing open to the public at 8 a.m.

The Vapor Trails have appeared in air shows throughout the southeastern United States and won awards in many parachute meets. They

Pickets Leave

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — Construction workers returned to their jobs today at America's space center, ending a two-day walkout that idled $200 million in space building and cost the government $400,000.

The pickets who had turned away 3,900 of 4,700 building tradesmen Monday and Tuesday were not at space center entrances today.

Fair Exhibition Faces 'Battle'

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The $1.2 million World's Fair exhibit bill faced a see-saw battle Wednesday in the House appropriations committee.

Veteran lawmaker George Stone, of Escambia, said Tuesday he would fight any move to consider the bill before the committee considers the general appropriations measure.

The committee already had agreed not to consider individual money bills.

Airliner Dives Into Ocean, 51 Persons Dead

TANGIER, Morocco (UPI) — A Spanish airliner flying a group of Scandinavian tourists to Morocco encountered heavy fog on its landing approach today and crashed into the sea, killing 51 persons.

Two women and a man were plucked out of the water by a fishing boat and rushed to El Kouroubi Hospital in Tangier. They were reported suffering from minor injuries and shock.

A fleet of rescue vessels, mostly fishing boats, picked up 46 bodies. Five other of the 49 passengers and five crewmen were missing and presumed dead. The passengers were mostly Swedes and Danes; the air crew was Spanish.

The plane was a twin-engine Convair of the Iberian Airlines and was flying from Malaga in southern Spain to Tangier. Moroccan authorities said it reported into the Tangier tower but then failed to answer a query. Rescue operations were launched immediately.

The Convair fell into the Atlantic three miles off the North African coast near the western entrance to the Strait of Gibraltar, British, Spanish, Moroccan and U. S. planes and ships joined the search for possible survivors, although officials said "there is little hope of finding any others alive."

The American planes came from the U. S. Navy base at Rota in the Spanish coast.

Spectacular Retaliation Is Ruled Out

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson is grimly determined to press even more fiercely the battle against the Viet Nam Reds. But he has ruled out for now any single spectacular stroke in retaliation for the bombing of the U. S. Embassy in Saigon.

The Chief Executive said that the terror bombing of the embassy—"this wanton act of ruthlessness"—only reinforced American determination to "continue and to strengthen" aid to South Viet Nam.

Administration officials said there would be an increase in U. S. air strikes on military installations in Communist North Viet Nam and stronger offensives against the Viet Cong guerrillas in South Viet Nam.

But, for the time being, the President has ruled out any single stroke such as bombing the Red capital of Hanoi.

Johnson planned to confer today or Thursday with his ambassador to South Viet Nam, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor. He has not seen Taylor since the general arrived from Saigon for consultations Sunday.

PILOT RESCUED

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Navy jet pilot shot down during an attack on a Communist installation close to Red China was found alive today in a life raft in the South China Sea.

A Defense Department spokesman announced the rescue of Cdr. William M. Donnelly, husband of Mrs. Mildred Donnelly, La Jolla, Calif. He was reported to be in good condition, although he was listed with minor injuries.

At the same time, the Pentagon listed as dead a second missing pilot who took part in the raid on Bach Long Vi Island. He was identified as Lt. Cdr. Kenneth E. Hume, husband of Mrs. Caroline Hume, San Diego, Calif.

2 MARINES DIE

SAIGON (UPI) — Communist Viet Cong guerrillas today shot down three U. S. helicopters flying Vietnamese soldiers into a major battle only 30 miles from the big American airbase at Da Nang.

Two U. S. Marines were killed and 16 other Americans injured.

U. S. and South Vietnamese planes struck again in North Viet Nam today, the second consecutive day. The raids were carried out despite increasingly tough statements by Communist China.

'Quake Toll

SANTIAGO, Chile (UPI) — Officials here said today that an earthquake which killed 250 persons in central Chile Sunday caused damage estimated at $3 million and left 27,000 persons homeless.
