ONE HUNDRED MILLION HAS BEEN RECOMMENDED FOR MERCHANT MARINE

And Proposed That Shipping Board Sell the Balance of Fleet

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—A final conference of officials of leading marine transportation companies with the shipping board's special subsidy committee has been called for January 5 to pass upon a tentative plan formulated by the committee providing for the subsidizing of the American merchant marine to insure its maintenance.

The committee has formed to study the board question of subsidies at the suggestion of President Harding who made special reference to this method of assisting American ship owners in his message at the last congress.

In its present form which, members of the committee emphatically stated today, was not official and is subject to changes in any one of its features, the plan proposes both direct and indirect aid, the former thru diversion, and the latter thru establishment of a revolving loan fund of $100,000,000.

Other suggestions now comprised in the plan are understood to include: That the shipping board sell its remaining fleet as rapidly as possible at prices not to exceed the prevailing world market price for similar tonnage.

Amendment of section 11 of the merchant marine act to permit the establishment of a merchant marine loan fund of about $100,000,000 under the administration of the shipping board for the purpose of making loans at reasonable rates of interest, not to exceed five per cent per annum, on first mortgage on American flag ships; this fund not to be limited to shipping board transactions, but to be available for financing of all American ship operating organizations.

Income tax relief to create an incentive to shippers to use ships flying the American flag, providing for a reduction from net income tax payments on the basis of a small per cent of the freight paid on American flag ships, or through a greater allowance of depreciation on ships.

SUBMARINE PROBLEM LEFT TO WORLD CONFERENCE IS GAINING IN FAVOR

While Delegates Wait For Replies From Japan and France

SUBMARINE PROBLEM 24 DC WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Suggestions that the whole submarine problem will be left to the future world conference gained increasing prominence today while delegates to the Washington conference waited for formal replies from France and Japan to the American compromise proposal for submarine limitation.

DEBS TO WAR AGAINST WAR IN THE WORLD

WILL GET PLEDGE ON EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD IN THE WORLD.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—War against war is to occupy the greater part of the future activities of Eugene V. Debs according to his announcement here today. He said he could make no plans for the future until he reached his home in Terre Haute. Debs announced his determination if possible to gain a vow from every man, woman and child in this country and every other country he might visit that they would refuse to take up arms and go to war.

Try a Herald Want Ad today.

Creation of a government marine insurance, non-profit making corporation to insure its own ships and to offer hull insurance at cost to private American owners backed by a loan of $100,000,000. Other suggested schemes include the carrying in American ships of at least fifty per cent of the immigrants coming to this country; a ship licensing system; amending and revising of navigation laws; preferential through rates to American flag vessels, the extension of coastwise laws to our insular possessions, and the co-operation of shipping board and navy to secure better compensation of the merchant marine officers and men of the naval reserve.

Believing that indirect aid will not alone enable American ships to operate successfully in competition with those of others, the committee also has adopted tentatively the following methods of direct assistance:

Establishment of American shipping on an even competitive basis with that of Great Britain, by a basic payment to American ship operators to cover the general wage and subsistence differential between the ships.

Making available a portion of the remunerative fund of about $8,000,000 per annum for encouraging construction of mail carriers.

Encouragement of special services and new route through nominal bare boat characters operating under managing operator's contract until private capital is available; and through bids for the operation of prescribed routes and services.

Customs receipts and tonnage taxes form the main support of the direct aid suggested from the estimated income from customs receipts for 1922-1923 about $300,000,000, ten per cent or $30,000,000 would be set aside by the act as a special fund for paying remuneration to American ships on a basis to be adopted. Augmenting this fund there would be, the report states, tonnage taxes collected in American ports from all ships, both American and foreign tax, estimated at $2,000,000 under the present conditions, would be raised to $1,000,000 if the proposed tonnage dues under the pending measure are made effective.

SYNTHETIC GOLD WILL NOT DISTURB WALL STREET MEN

GERMANY WILL NEVER MAKE ENOUGH GOLD TO PAY DEBTS

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Wall Street was undisturbed today over the persistent rumor that German scientist has succeeded in making synthetic gold. Certain chemists are also skeptical. If Germans wait for synthetic gold to make reparations payments they will probably need longer moratorium than they now seek said Dr. Horace G. Byers, head of the Chemistry Department of Cooper Union. Professor Irving Fisher, of Yale, has gone to Germany to investigate the reported discovery.

DEBS WILL WORK FOR ALL CONVICTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Eugene V. Debs, the Socialist leader whose ten year prison sentence for violation of the espionage act was commuted on Christmas day, came here yesterday direct from the Atlanta federal penitentiary, and called upon President Harding and Attorney General Daugherty.

Mr. Daugherty said that Debs came of his own "volition," while Debs declared his visit to Washington was at the "request" of the attorney general and that he was given a railroad ticket to the Capital by the warden of the penitentiary with choice of destination, although he had planned to go immediately to his home at Terre Haute, Ind.

After his conference with Debs, the attorney general declared in a statement that there were no unusual conditions attached to the commutation of the Socialist leader's sentence, that no advice was requested, and that he hoped Debs would direct his talents to a useful purpose.

No statement was made at the White House after the conference there, but upon reaching his hotel Mr. Debs broke the silence he had maintained from the moment of quitting the penitentiary and declared he would devote his time to the freedom of all prisoners. He added that he had discussed his opinions with President Harding in order that there might be no misunderstanding as to his principles and ideals.

USED CAR SALE IN SANFORD SOON WILL ATTRACT CROWD

In tomorrow's issue of the Daily Herald will appear a big advertisement setting forth the fact that a used car sale will be pulled off in this city in which used cars will be sold at prices that will move them. W. L. Wicklander, manager of the Used Car Sales, states that owners of used cars can bring them to the sale and swap for others or have them sold. This big sale of used cars has attracted a large crowd wherever it has been put on and will no doubt attract a large crowd to Sanford. The cars will be parked on a vacant lot and sold to the highest bidder and sold at prices that will move them. Watch the Daily Herald for future announcements.

NEGROES ARE SATISFIED TO REMAIN IN FLORIDA ACCORDING TO REPORT

Figures of Department of Commerce Show Migration to North

Negro migration forms an interesting subject of investigation for the Department of Commerce which has recently released a statement dealing with the problem. Out of a total of 253,655 negroes born in Florida and reported for 1920, 36,426 were residing in other states, of a percentage of 14.40.

The following comment on the subject will prove of interest:

The Department of Commerce thru the Bureau of the Census, has issued a special statement pertaining to negro migration in the United States, as shown by the Fourteenth Decennial Census, taken as of January 1, 1920.

The total number of negroes born in and living in the United States proper, as enumerated for January 1, 1920, was 10,381,809, which total includes 88,576 negroes for whom the state of birth was not ascertained by the enumerators. The total number of whom the state of birth was reported, 10,342,734, comprised 2,288,492 or 80.1 per cent, who were living in the states in which born, and 2,054,242, or 10.9 per cent, who were living in other states. In 1910 the percentage living in other states was 16.6, and in 1900 it was 15.6.

The total number of negroes reported as born in the South (that part of the country lying south of the southern boundaries of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Kansas) was 9,600,943. Of these 7,751,361, or 80.7 per cent, were living in their native states in 1920; 1,068,788, or 11.1 per cent, were living in other Southern states, and 780,794, or 8.1 per cent, were living in the North or West. The total number of negroes reported as born in the North or West was 741,791, of whom 537,131, or 72.4 per cent, were living in their native states in 1920; 157,437, or 21.2 per cent, were living in other Northern or Western states, and 47,223, or 6.4 per cent, were living in the South. Thus the proportion of Southern born negroes who migrated to the North or West, 8.1 per cent, was only about one-fourth larger than the proportion of the negroes who were born in the North and West and migrated to the South, 6.4 per cent.

The number of negroes born in the South and living in the North or West less the number born in the North or West and living in the South was 733,571. These may be termed the survivors of the net migration of negroes from the South to the North and West. The number of Southern-born negroes living in the North and West increased from 440,534 in 1910 to 780,794 in 1920, forming 40.9 per cent of the total negro population of the North and West in the earlier year and 50.3 per cent in the later.

In general, the negroes born in the North and West and in the northern part of the South have migrated to a much greater extent than those born in the far South. Considering as one group all the negroes born in the Northern and Western states, the percentage living, in 1920, in other states than those in which born was 27.6; considering as another group those born in Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas and Oklahoma—i. e., the northern part of the South—the corresponding percentage was 24.8; but for the negroes born in the far Southern states of South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, the percentage which born was only 16.2.

Although migration to the North and West has not taken place among the far Southern negroes to the same extent, relatively to their total numbers, as among the negroes in the northern part of the South, there was nevertheless a pronounced increase in such migration from the far South during the past decade. For example: The negroes who were born in South Carolina and had migrated from that state to Pennsylvania increased from 2,113 in 1910 to 11,624 in 1920; those from Georgia to Pennsylvania increased from 1,578 to 16,106; those from Alabama to Ohio, from 781 to 17,588; those from Mississippi to Illinois, from 4,612 to 19,485; those from Louisiana to Illinois from 1,609 to 8,078, and those from Texas to Missouri from 1,007 to 4,344.

From the report, however, it would seem that Florida negroes are well satisfied with conditions in their native state and do not care to go elsewhere. Florida's percentage is much lower than other states, proving that "there is no place like home."

The migration of Southern negroes to northern and western states undoubtedly took place to a materially greater extent between 1910 and 1920 than during the preceding decade. While it is impossible to calculate exactly the extent of this migration during the recent decade, the available data indicates that approximately 400,000, or somewhat more than one-half, of the 733,571 survivors of the net negro migration from the South to the North and West prior to January 1, 1920, left the South subsequently to April 15, 1910.

SANFORD DAILY HERALD RECEIVED BLUE RIBBON FOR BEST FRONT PAGE

Sanford is usually in the forefront when it comes to competition with other cities and The Daily Herald keeps up with the procession also.

This morning The Herald received a fine blue ribbon badge for winning the first prize in the state competition among daily papers for having the best front page. This means but little in the mind of the average citizen, but among newspaper men it means much. There are better papers in Florida than in any state in the union—this has been proved time and again. The Daily Herald in winning the first prize feels that its work in getting out a good daily paper has not been in vain. The Daily Herald is said to be one of the live, wideawake dailies of the state and the winning of the first page contest among so many real good daily papers in the state of Florida not only means much to The Herald but it means much to the city of Sanford.

Our friends here who have stood by us loyally ever since the daily paper was floated can rejoice with us in this prize winning and they can be assured that in the years to come The Daily Herald will be made bigger and better and its success depends upon the support accorded by the local business men. The subscribers are standing by and the list will go over the 2,000 mark in another year. If the advertising holds up as well this paper will be made one of the largest in this part of the state in another year.

The Daily Herald is doing its part. Are you doing your part toward supporting such a daily paper?

TOO POOR TO MARRY.

"Too Poor to Marry" said a Jersey couple this morning and so they decided that life was not worth living apart; they saw no chance of getting married at prevailing prices of living and arranged to die by the poison route. It would have been much better to have married and struggled along some way to make a living, and the chances are they would have made good. They were failures. How many of us have been so poor that we hardly knew where our next meal was coming from—many of us with families—and yet we did not commit suicide. How many of us, in the past four years, have thought that life and success seemed almost hopeless and yet the idea of suicide was never in our minds. Failures are those who give up when the clouds gather. Successes are those who struggle onward and upward and get there some time, even though the way may seem hard and the pathway of life be filled with thorns. Our sympathy goes out to this young couple. We can feel for them and others in the same plight, but this life is not a rose garden and even those who are wealthy have troubles of their own of which the people around them are ignorant and know nothing about. Few of us but wish that our lot is hard and there is no use to struggle longer, but life is sweet and was given to us by the Great Creator and His loving care will be thrown around us at all times to guide and give us strength in the darkest hours. A friendly hand is sometimes stretched out to us in times of stress that would pull us from the brink of despair. Probably a wise counsel for the young couple in Jersey would have saved them from death this morning. Few of us are looking after the struggling ones and giving them a helping hand these days but there are some Good Samaritans in the world and it is always better to struggle along endeavoring to get somewhere rather than cut the cord that binds us to this earth.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF OUR WATER

There are many people attracted to Sanford by the magnificent lake and by the rivers and lakes in this county. It means much to the city from every standpoint to take advantage of our fine lake and all of the rivers and lakes in and around Sanford.

IMPROVE THE CITY DOCK

Now that the winter season is on and boats of all kinds are coming up the river to tie up at the city dock some steps should be taken looking toward an improvement of the dock and the building of a landing stage of some kind.

WHY FLAGLER DID IT

The South Florida Developer, referring to some of the operations of the Florida East Coast Railway Company, said: "A sense of public duty must have been an animating motive of the Flagler policy rather than mere addition to wealth."

wealth on the development of Florida. His reply in substance was that if he had cared to do so he could probably have become the second richest man in the world, but he had preferred to give his energies and spend his money on the development of the east coast, because he believed that in that way he could do more good for humanity than he could by increasing his fortune through the mere making of money.

Mr. Flagler grew enthusiastic about the wonderful beauty and charm of the east coast, which had been made possible through his work, and while sitting on the porch of his Palm Beach residence, looking out on beautiful Lake Worth and a superb flower garden, he said, "I have often wondered if heaven itself has anything more beautiful than this."

In the good that he had accomplished by making the east coast of Florida not only the playground and the health resort for millions of American, but especially in opening it up to the men of smaller means for trucking and fruit growing and kindred interests, Mr. Flagler always grew enthusiastic over what had been achieved. He was a true lover of humanity. He recognized his responsibility to do this material development because of the good which it would accomplish for humanity.

TRAIN DERAILED NEAR CHICAGO—NO ONE INJURED

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—The engine, express and mail car of the east-bound Pennsylvania train No. 106, Chicago to Pittsburgh, was derailed at Buffington, Indiana, today when the train struck a defective switch. Railway officials said that no one was injured.

COLD WAVE PREDICTED FOR ALL EXCEPT FLORIDA BELOW ZERO IN WEST

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—Christmas Day in Dixie will be cold, the weather bureau said today but the weather was generally fair except in the South Atlantic states. The cold wave has already overspread the plains states and the upper Mississippi valley and the temperature this morning was zero or below as far south as western Kansas.

REPORTER ENRICHED

SAVANNAH, Dec. 22.—John D. Rockefeller passed through Savannah today en route south. He was interviewed at the depot by a local newspaper reporter. When the interview was concluded Mr. Rockefeller said he would give the reporter something to remember him by. He then gave him six ten cent pieces, one for the reporter, and one each for his wife, his child and his mother and sisters. They will retain the dimes as souvenirs.

POSSE SEEKING YEGGS

FLORA, Ill., Dec. 22.—Led by Miss Mildred Kelly, bookkeeper of the State Bank of Iuka, Ill., who carried a rifle, a posse of several hundred armed citizens scoured a woods near here today for five bandits who late yesterday robbed the bank of between $15,000 and $20,000 in cash and Liberty Bonds.

CHIEF EXECUTIVES AT PLAY

Occupants of the White House Have Bought Recreation in All Forms of Strenuousness.

It is said that President Harding is the best golfer who ever lived in the White House. Though he only took up the game three years ago, he can get round the Chevy Chase course at Washington in 95, bogey being 71.

Mr. Wilson, though at one time a very good walker, was never keen on game, with the one exception of lawn tennis. He played a sound game of lawn tennis. He is a good mechanic and has on occasion shown that he could drive a locomotive.

The late Mr. Roosevelt was by far the most athletic man who ever sat in the presidential chair of the United States. Some of his feats were extraordinary. So lately as 1900 he rode 98 miles in 17 hours over slushy Virginian roads. He never stopped anywhere for more than ten minutes, except once, at midday, for lunch and to rest his horse.

He was a skillful boxer and a fine fencer. Some eighteen years ago he received a bad wound over the eye in a fencing bout. The button of his opponent's foil broke off.

"Big Bill" Taft, who was one of the heaviest of United States Presidents, took up boxing in order to get his weight down, and was successful in reducing himself. Fishing is a sport which many Presidents have enjoyed, among them Benjamin Harrison and Mr. Cleveland.

GAIN AND LOSE POPULARITY

Words Travel in Cycles, Speakers and Writers Dropping into the Mode of the Moment.

"Allotment," said the wordmonger, "is a word that is being given considerable prominence, it became popular during the war in connection with ships and loans. The 'allotment' of shipping and the 'allotment' of loans came to be current phrases. Not long ago the senate called on the President for information as to how he had 'allotted' certain funds. In a recent newspaper story about an operative benefit in one of the big cities the newspapers said that 'the allotment of boxes is to be based on the size and date of the contribution.'"

"Allotment" is so closely allied to "allot," "allege" and "apportion" that the shipping and treasury authorities might just as well have said the "allotment" of ships and the "apportionment" of funds or loans. But words come into fashion and writers and speakers fall into or "fall for" the prevailing mode in words as some persons do for the prevailing colors in socks or neckties and the prevailing style in hats. In the "alleged times"—that is, when grandfather was in business—"allotment" had somewhat of a run as a financial word and one could often hear and see the phrase "allotment of the shares of the company."

MEMBER THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Only 363 days till Christmas. Take The Daily Herald early.

The shortest day in the year was last week—the 21st—but today seems long enough.

From this time on the day will be getting longer—longer for the boss to get up the pay rolls and other trifles.

Merry Christmas is over and this will give the old man another twelve months in which to recuperate and get ready for another big Christmas.

January is the month of sales and it behooves the Sanford merchants to keep the people coming here instead of allowing them to go elsewhere to take advantage of the sales that will be put on everywhere.

The Sanford Herald is a welcome addition to our exchange table. It is a live daily, with local and telegraph news and just enough spice interspersed to make us hunt for it every time the mail comes.

Seminole county ladies will take an active part in politics this spring. And they will have some of the men trembling in their shoes before they get through the campaign.

South Lake Press of Clermont has a line of type that says "What Will Clermont be in 1922?" Well, all we can say, Bro. Lochner, is that if you do half as much in 1922 as you have done in the past six months Clermont will be a real city with 5,000 inhabitants.

After the year 1922 is ushered in there will be something stirring in politics and from the first of the year until June the woods will resound to the sonorous voice of the office seeker and the regular office seeker will find some nice little lady opposing him at many points.

Start the new year right by sending some friend in the north The Daily Herald. It will mean so much to you and to your northern friend for he will become a Sanford enthusiast and locate here eventually and it will do you and Sanford good by having him come here to live.

WHERE FLORIDA FARMERS ARE BLIND TO THEIR OWN INTERESTS.

Texas is a great state, greatest in the Union in the number of square miles within its boundary lines and great in many other respects. It ordinarily produces one-third of the cotton crop of the United States.

Happy New Year

and shelter against the wintry blasts.

And Texas is doing something in the dairy line, too, producing $33,000,000 worth of dairy products last year. But Texas can beat that record with her hens and poultry products, which last year brought to her farms and ranches the snug sum of $43,440,000 in clean cash.

It is said of Texas that while the farmers of that state market enough eggs in one year to more than reach around the world at the equator, the production is not sufficient to meet the state demand.

The above conditions are true of Florida, except that prices are higher than those quoted. We send thousands of dollars every season to Tennessee farmers for eggs and poultry which should be kept at home and go into the pockets of our own farmers.

A MENTAL HEAVYWEIGHT

Those who were fortunate in being present at Friday's meeting of the Board of Governors of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, were agreed that no finer or more sincere expressions of co-operation could have been uttered, than those expressed in a short address delivered by Mr. William T. Donnelly, of New York.

It speaks well for the possibilities of Sanford, when they attract the favorable attention of men of Mr. Donnelly's type. Too often in the past have men of affluence and influence, patronizingly patted us on the shoulder and moved on.

Here then comes Mr. Donnelly, personally unostentatious, as are all big men with real records of achievement behind them, not with something to sell but from his broad experience in city building to give us whatever assistance we may require in solving our civic problems.

Mr. Donnelly possesses an analytical mind. In his profession as engineer his is the master mind that has built dry docks, created cities, and devised the new method of water propulsion that the near future will see adopted on all inland waterways and solve transportation problems.

If turkeys and chickens were selling at ten cents apiece today I'd buy me a hot dog, yessir.

Pussyfoot Johnson will come down to Florida soon and see if he can find some of the bootleggers. Like all our winter sailors, Pussyfoot has heard somewhere that Florida's winter climate is grand.

Another week of those cigars my wife gave me for Christmas and I will be ready to swear off smoking with the rest of the boys.

A Princeton college professor says he cannot live on $10,000 a year. He has lots of company. There are millions in the United States who cannot, are not, will not and never will. I am not.

Note an advertisement in the Lakeland papers of the Straw Shoe Store. It is refreshing to see a truthful advertisement about shoes. Some people are afraid to tell the composition of their product.

"The business man of this city who is in the habit of hugging his stenographer had better quit, or we will publish his name," says an exchange. "The next day thirty-seven business men called at the office, paid their subscriptions a year in advance, left thirty-seven columns of advertising to run indefinitely and told the editor not to pay any attention to fool stories."

others in the community look to take charge of its development.

No community has ever suffered from a surplus of mental heavyweights but its development has often been seriously retarded because of a lack of them. It does not necessarily follow that in this category are included those heavy financially, for in every community will be found individuals with the mentality of a Chuck Connor who have taken advantage of circumstances and amassed considerable fortune.

Any city that can arouse the interest of Mr. Donnelly, is extremely fortunate, and more particularly so is Sanford, as he has already given this city tangible proof of his great interest in our development. During the course of his address to the Board of Governors, he referred to the occasion when he was retained by the Grand Trunk Pacific as Consulting Engineer to lay out the city of Ruppert, British Columbia, their northernmost terminal for which service he was handsomely reimbursed financially.

Mr. Donnelly is no stranger in or to Sanford. His visit of approximately ten days last winter with his two yachts, the Down and New Era, will be recalled by many. His yachts, now at Jacksonville, will be here within two weeks, and his plans are to stay in Sanford until the first of next April. His return for this extended period is conclusive proof of his interest in Sanford, and the Board of Governors are elated to know that they will have the co-operation of Mr. Donnelly in perfecting those plans they have promulgated for a Greater Sanford through the development of the water front.

of the organization. In this capacity he will upon his return to Jacksonville, confer with the local engineer from the War Department, who has charge of improvements, etc., on the St. Johns river.

Mr. Donnelly will again bring his family with him upon his return. They have been extensively entertained by the social set in all cities where they have stopped, and during their stay here, will, no doubt, be taken into the social life of Sanford.

FLORIDA STATE NEWSPAPER CONTEST

In a competition so close that it required an all-day study to decide it, the highest average scores in their respective classifications were awarded at the State Fair to the following: Weeklies, Wauchula Florida Advocate; seven-column dailies, Miami Herald; six column dailies, Orlando Morning Sentinel.

These papers are on exhibit in the building devoted to the interests of the University of Florida, since the contest was conducted under the auspices of Director B. C. Riley of the General Extension Division of the University. He obtained the services of Bristow Adams, head of the Journalism work to judge these papers. During the past year he has judged similar state-wide contests in New York, Kansas, North Dakota and Minnesota.

The Florida weekly papers, according to Professor Adams, present a higher average, especially in typography, than those of most other states, and he found the decisions exceedingly difficult, so that he had to take into account extreme niceties of headline writing and other details before he could render final judgment. He is particularly interested in the weekly paper as an exponent of community ideals and as a service agency equivalent to church and school.

Three prizes in each of three classes are given to the weekly papers: first, second and third places for best front page, best editorial page, and best handling of farm news. Among the dailies only one prize is offered for each of the three features, though the daily papers are divided into two groups, somewhat arbitrarily, according to the number of columns. Since the number of columns which a paper chooses to use is a matter of individual states or expediency, the contest among the dailies would have been more nearly commensurate to that of the weeklies, according to the judge, if there had been no distinction on this basis. In the weeklies, the papers ranged from three columns to eight. Because there were so few seven-column dailies entered, for example, the sweeping victory of the Miami Herald loses some of its significance. The metropolitan papers of Jacksonville and Tampa were not entered in the contests.

The front-page contest for weeklies was especially close, but the final decision on first-page make-up gives first place to the Fort Pierce News-Tribune; second, Wauchula Florida Advocate; third, Lake Wales Highlander. Other papers that were close to these, and deserving of high mention are: the Sarasota Times, Leesburg Commercial, Cocoa Tribune, and Kissimmee Valley Gazette. Even this additional list leaves out some that were almost in the same class.

For editorial pages of weeklies the awards are: First, Fort Lauderdale Herald; second, Titusville Star-Advocate; third, Leesburg Commercial.

For best handling of farm news in weeklies, the papers are ranked: First, Wauchula Florida Advocate; second, Lake Worth Herald; third, Bay County Beacon-Tribune, of Panama City, with the Sarasota Times a very close runner-up.

For seven-column dailies, the Miami Herald took first place for front page, for editorial page, and for farm news, which gave it the general average blue ribbon in its class, practically without contest.

Competition was more keen among

The Bank of Safety Security-Service

The Peoples Bank of Sanford

the six-column dailies. The Sanford Daily Herald took the blue for front page; the Orlando Morning Sentinel, for editorial page; and the South Jacksonville Journal for the best handling of farm news. On its general average, the Orlando Morning Sentinel took the major blue ribbon among the six-column dailies.

The contest should be looked upon as a distinct success, says Professor Adams, who contends that there is just as much reason for such competitions among papers as there is among live-stock, fruits and household products, or any other thing in which the quality may be improved through the impetus of comparisons and rivalries. Whether the contestants and the public agree with the awards is a minor consideration, he thinks, if they will begin to recognize some of the standards that go into the making of a good paper, and will take the same pride in a creditable sheet that they will take in any other local institution of outstanding value.

The Florida papers, he says, can hold their own with the best in any other section of the country, and with the possible exception of those of California, are doing more to present the advantage of Florida, than is being done by the papers of any state in the union.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, R. ### THE WEATHER

For Florida: Generally fair tonight and Wednesday; little change in temperature.

Dick Terheun, Jr., of Miami, is the guest of his parents in this city for the holidays.

B. A. Howard spent Christmas with home folks, going back to Okcochobee City today.

Zeb Ratliff has returned from a visit to Miami where he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Abornathy and had the pleasure of the company of his little baby daughter.

The American Legion dance that was to have been held Saturday night will be held Friday night at the court house in order that the business men will be able to attend. Announce the change in date to all your friends.

Charlie and Bates Barnes, of the Herald force, went to Okcochobee City today where they will rejuvenate the machines and otherwise put the News office in shape and will probably make their home there for some time.

Col. George Rigby, mayor of Ormond, and former resident of this city was here a short time today visiting his many old friends. He had lunch with the Rotary Club at the Valdez Hotel and enjoyed the visit very much.

L. A. Russell, head of the Russell Piano Co., of Augusta, Ga., is in the city today with Manager Hintermister looking over the situation regarding the opening of a large retail store in the city. The Russell Co. is one of the largest wholesale piano houses in the South and they have decided to make Sanford headquarters for the wholesale business and are doing a fine business over the state. Mr.

SANFORD'S TEMPERATURE

Looks like snow today and it is probably snowing farther north. Our weather book for 1922 says cold weather for the first week in January and it is probably getting ready for it. 80 yesterday was some summer weather when you think about it but the atmospheric conditions seem to be changing and a little cool weather can be expected so let's go from here and make the balance of the week a busy week. Have you a little Daily Herald in your home?

LANE'S SUBDIVISION APPEALS TO BUYERS AND HOME BUILDERS

Edward Lane reports the sale of several more lots in his new subdivision today and he is greatly pleased with the results of his advertisement

In the Daily Herald. Two visitors to the city last week saw the advertisement and purchased lots in the new subdivision and will come back here to live as soon as they can build houses. Lane's new subdivision is on the Sanford-Orlando road and fronts Rose Court extending west to Oak avenue giving a very pretty layout of city lots in one of the fastest growing sections of the city and all of the lots are high and dry and so reasonable that they are selling fast. See Mr. Lane at once and pick out a lot.

SCREEN MASTERPIECE IS GEORGE LOANE TUCKER'S LATEST "LADIES MUST LIVE"

Declared to be a screen masterpiece equal if not superior to his enormous successful production of "The Miracle Man," George Loane Tucker's last picture production, "Ladies Must Live," will be the feature at the Star Theatre today. Betty Compton, who made a great hit in "The Miracle Man" in which she played opposite Thomas Meighan, is the featured player in "Ladies Must Live."

Although succumbing gradually to fatal illness just as the final scenes of the picture were taken, Mr. Tucker, lying on a stretcher, supervised the cutting of the 140,000 feet of film that had been taken. This had to be reduced to the limited number of reels but when the work was completed, experts asserted that the picture, from every standpoint, was the best production Mr. Tucker ever made.

The story deals with the troubles of certain women who, since ladies must live, plan to make that living as easily as possible. In the development of this theme, the genius of Mr. Tucker found its finest expression, the result being a picture of supreme interest and appeal to every film fan. Robert Ellis and Jack Gilbert have the two leading men's roles. The picture is based on a novel by Alice Duer Miller.

There will be a big sale of used cars in Sanford one day next week, the announcement to be made in the Daily Herald in a few days. If you are in the market for a used car watch the Herald for the time and place.
