It's Difficult To Pick Outstanding Congressman

By DICK WEST
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—I recently received a billet-doux from the American Political Science Association inviting me to nominate candidates for "congressional distinguished service awards." This is a heavy responsibility to have placed on one's shoulders, and I have been giving the matter a lot of careful thought. The fact that the same responsibility has been placed on the shoulders of about five thousand other newspapermen does not, as I see it, lighten my own load one bit.

In outlining our duties as nominators, the association observed that the House and Senate "have many hard-working and distinguished members, whose services to their country often are not reflected in the daily press."

"The award program will seek to call attention to distinguished service, whether or not it is of the kind likely to come to the public's attention," it said.

I have tried to keep this point in mind in weighing the qualifications of prospective nominees, and I find that it rather adds to the burden. I mean, distinguished obscurity is a hard thing to measure.

"It's true that some of the things our congressmen do are not called to the public's attention. But on the whole, this probably is a good thing for both the congressmen and the public. Nevertheless, by dint of exhaustive research I have been able to find two relatively un-publicized actions that I regard as worthy of the association's consideration.

One of my nominees, therefore, will be Rep. W. R. Poage, a Texas Democrat who last month took a firm stand against chanting by livestock auctioneers.

Poage said he attended an auction and found he could not tell what cattle were sold, who bought them, or what the price was. Furthermore, he said, "One of the largest cowmen in Texas confided to me that he did not know when he was raising his own bid."

If cattle buyers have been raising bids without knowing it, that probably accounts for the current price of beef steaks. Therefore, I credit Poage with a truly distinguished service in demanding that auctioneers "go back to the use of the English language."

My other nominee will be Rep. Seymour Halpern (R-N. Y.), who called last week for an embargo on imports from Cuba. Buying Cuban tobacco, he said, puts money in Castro's pocket and "dangerously increases the menace to this Communist satellite."

Halpern contended that cigar smokers in the United States could switch from Havanas to Jamaican cigars without undue hardship. He pointed out that Sir Winston Churchill has been smoking Jamaicans for years.

As a clear smoker myself, I appreciate Halpern's proposal. It pains me to think that I might be aiding Communism every time I light up a cheroot.

Paar, Sullivan Seconds Meet To Set Up Debate Rules

NEW YORK (UPI)—The seconds for Jack Paar and Ed Sullivan meet today to lay down the rules of honor by which the two stars will stage their feud of words on television tonight.

"If people around the country want to stay awake for this," Paar said, "I'll guarantee it will not be a friendly debate. I don't want to see Sullivan before the debate. I don't want to give him a chance to soften me up. At the moment I'm not so crazy about Ed Sullivan."

The "Great TV Debate" between the two high-powered emcees over payment of guest stars on their programs is scheduled for broadcast on Paar's "Tonight" show on NBC-TV at 11:30 p. m.—one hour after the preliminary battle between Floyd Patterson and Ingemar Johansson for the world's heavyweight boxing championship in Miami Beach.

Sullivan's representative, Robert Frecht, meets with Paul Orr, named by Paar as his second, at 11:30 a. m. to map out detailed ground rules for the debate to make sure no one has an unfair advantage. The meeting of the seconds takes place on neutral ground in the office of publisher Bennett Cerf, of the TV show, "What's My Line," who was named moderator for the debate.

Sullivan, who named the moderator at Paar's behest, said that "Bennett Cerf is a man of great dignity and reputation who has never mixed up in any silly shannigans and that's what we need here."

Frecht, Sullivan's son-in-law and show producer, said Cerf would lend "serious dignity" to the debate.

Paar, who often has been embroiled in feuds with show business personalities, became involved in the dispute with Sullivan because he pays stars only $320 to appear on his late-hour show, while Sullivan has to spend up to $7,300 for guests on his Sunday CBS show.

Sullivan, after a few years, considered this unfair and announced recently that any stars who appeared on Paar's show for $320 would get that amount and no more for going on his program.

Paar reacted sharply. He suggested their shows have a rating contest. Sullivan counterattacked with a demand for a debate.

Needs Assistance

Mrs. Frank Russell, Longwood Girl Scout leader, has issued an appeal for assistance in the program especially from the North Orlando area.

Transportation for these girls, Mrs. Russell says, is a major problem and she asks any interested mother to call her at TE 8-3774. North Orlando calls also may be made to FA 2-2291.

Florida Symphony To Appear At Civic Center On Mar. 24

The Florida Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Henry Mazer, will be presented by the Sanford Recreation and Parks Dept. Mar. 24, at 8:15 p.m. in the Civic Center.

This 1961 season marks the 11th in the orchestra's history, and it has achieved national recognition, continuing to succeed in the face of great odds.

Henry Mazer, protégé of Fritz Reiner, and having made many successful guest appearances, conducting such orchestras as the Chicago, Pittsburgh, Buffalo and the Washington Symphony in the nation's capitol, embarks upon his second year with the Florida Symphony. So successful was the orchestra's tenth anniversary last season when Mazer was appointed to serve as Musical Director and the response from the entire community at the close of the season under his baton, that the Board of Directors decided to increase the orchestra's budget and lengthen the season from the regular 12 weeks to 15 weeks.

When members of the Florida Symphony appear on stage a week from this Friday, the audience will be looking at a group of musicians, many of whom have been playing since childhood. A number of them can boast long and dedicated study. Few cities have a component of qualified musicians for the formation of an orchestra—certain instrumentalists and persons with sufficient training must be recruited for a good symphony orchestra.

There is a great demand for their services which is all the more reason the Sanford Recreation and Parks Department takes pride in presenting a symphonic group consisting of 65 professional musicians of the highest calibre.

The thrill and enjoyment of good music has universal appeal and Mr Mazer has selected a well balanced program of interest to music lovers of all ages.

The program for this Sanford presentation will highlight selections from "My Fair Lady" by Lerner and Loewe and from "West Side Story" by Leonard Bernstein. Other selections on the program will be the "Masquerade Suite" by Aram Khachaturian and "The Blue Danube Waltz" by Strauss.

LUCY NOWLIN Civic Leaders Take Active Part In Girl Scout Week

Seminole County's civic and business leaders who are active in the Girl Scout work are taking part in observance of National Girl Scout Week. One of them is Miss Lucy Nowlin, home service representative of the Florida Power and Light Co. She explains: "My share in aiding the Scout program is to work with the cooking classes. We have planned our program to tie in with the 10 Scout requirements in order for the girls to earn their cooking badge."

"We use the Sanford Junior High School kitchen and learn to use and care for the range, use surface units and oven simultaneously, prepare and serve a complete meal and bake a cake."

"We also bring out timing of food preparation. Stress is laid on good working habits, cleanliness, setting the table, saying grace and good manners."

Unemployment Concern Stressed At Club

"If you do not concern yourself with the problem of unemployment, you may some day find yourself unemployed also."

This warning was voiced by Dan Hahn, manager of the Florida State Employment Service in a talk to the Rotary Club Monday.

In drawing a picture of the present growing unemployment situation, which is not as bad in Seminole County and Florida as in other states, Hahn used the figures for unemployment compensation insurance payments which have almost doubled since one year ago in spite of an actual increase in job openings.

Citing the case of a local carpenter who reported to the employment office seeking help, he emphasized that this was the first time in 26 years that this skilled worker had ever been unable to find work for himself. When such people, used to independence and security find themselves in a position such as this, said Hahn, they become ashamed, afraid, anxious and insecure. Multiply this by almost six million people in the same fix and the national morale begins to sink.

Hahn listed the following concrete objectives for businessmen to aim for in helping to prevent this unhealthy situation:

Strive constantly to bring in new industry. This new industry should be of a type to employ men, rather than women, in order that the family breadwinner will be secure. New industries should be diversified and not dependent on each other, so that if one is affected by layoffs, they will not reflect directly on other local firms.

Industry must pay a fair and living wage to be desirable and in Seminole County vocational and industrial training should be provided to prepare unskilled workers for industrial skills.

The unemployment compensation insurance program, he said, was a direct result of the last depression and was created to aid workers, partially offset wage losses and aid consumer purchasing power. It alleviates human distress as well as eases the burden on welfare rolls. Hahn pointed out that in an effort to give some relief to the present situation, the government is extending the present 26 weeks coverage an additional 13 weeks.

Hahn was introduced by program chairman, Dr. Phil Westgate. Student guest of the Rotary Club was Cary Cowan, president of the Senior class at Seminole High School.

Mission Services Opened Sunday in North Orlando

The first meeting of Southern Baptist Mission services held Sunday in North Orlando met with excellent response with 63 residents of the area filling out visitor cards.

Rev. V. N. Maggard, who is also organizing a Mission in Tangelo where he will remain as minister until a replacement is secured, conducted the opening services in North Orlando's Village Hall during which he introduced church officials who welcomed the local residents.

Mrs. A. Brown, member of the Tangelo mission, donated a piano to the North Orlando group when a Chapel is completed.

Rev. Maggard began a charter membership roll and stated that locations and workers are needed for Sunday School classes.

Appreciation was expressed to North Orlando officials for use of the Hall and other facilities.

Maggard advised that there would be no Sunday night services in the community but that evening meetings would be held each Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Hall.

Although the mission is sponsored by the Southern Baptist Assn. services in the community are to be non-denominational and all residents are invited to attend.

Resident Learns Some Dirt Helps

Mrs. Robert Phillips of Lake Brantley, Forest City, today made, at a first glance, an extraordinary statement for the average homeowner.

"It doesn't pay to wash the windows and doors of your home so clean," Mrs. Phillips said, going on to explain that several days ago she washed windows and plate glass doors throughout her home. Sometime later in the day, investigating an outside noise, she walked right through her "so clean you don't even know they are there" doors, severely cutting her nose, thumb and leg.

Repairs to Mrs. Phillips involved more than 30 stitches and several days' hospitalization . . . she hasn't reported on the broken doors.

Men's Club To Meet Today

The Men's Club of the Sanford First Christian Church will meet today at 8:30 p.m. for a pot-luck supper followed by a program.

It's Liston's Chance Now!

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Champion Floyd Patterson, who twice rose from the canvas to knock out Ingemar Johanson Monday night, will next defend his heavyweight crown against Sonny Liston at Philadelphia in September, it was learned authoritatively today.

Patterson and officials of the reorganized Feature Sports, Inc.—which promoted Monday night's "43 million" fight at Convention Hall—will leave Swedish Ingemar to history, despite his thrilling performance in his third title fight with Floyd.

Neither Floyd nor the FSI officials are the least interested in the loud debate over whether it was a "short count" or a "rabbit punch" that caused Ingemar to be in turn flogged twice for a knockout at 2:45 of the sixth round. They know that another fight with Johanson would not sell.

The FSI officials have practically wrapped up the fight for Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium and will announce it just as soon as a group of reputable New York businessmen buy the contract of Philadelphia Sonny, the world's top contender in all rankings.

Patterson and manager Cus D'Amato have insisted that Sonny's questionable ownership give way to new purchasers. And the ownership will be changed soon, it was learned.

Brown-haired, dimpled Ingemar who out weighed Floyd 204 1/2 pounds to 194 1/2—made a thrilling bid in the first round to become the second man ever to win back the heavy weight title. But it wasn't enough, and he wound up with a gashed right brow and a badly swollen left eye and with referee Bill Regan counting him out. It was the second time in their three title fights that Ingemar had been knocked out by Patterson, first man to recapture the title.

Ingemar flogged Patterson twice in the first round with his "Goteborg Thunderbolt" of a right fist. Each time Floyd bounced up at the count of one and took the mandatory eight count—used for the first time in a heavyweight title fight.

Patterson rallied quickly to drop Ingemar with a left hook to the face for a count of two on the canvas and the rest of the eight count on his feet.

After interesting competition in the next four rounds, in which the champion had a distinct edge, Johanson attacked desperately in the sixth round and had Floyd backing away — "while I adjusted myself" he explained. Then suddenly Floyd landed two solid left jabs that drove the ex-champion sideways. Then he hit on the left side of the head with a straight right that sent him backwards and sideways to the canvas. Ingemar tried to rise at the count of eight and almost made it — but not quite.

When the referee waved his arms to signify the knockout, the crowd—estimated at 15,000—booed him because it thought he had given Ingemar a short count.

However, neither the Swedish ex-champion; nor Edwin Ahlquist, his Swedish advisor; nor Nils Blomquist, his Swedish trainer; nor Whitey Bimstein, his American trainer, protested the count. But both Ahlquist and Bimstein did protest that the blow which felled the 28-year-old challenger was a "rabbit punch" delivered to the back of the head and neck.

Ingemar said he didn't remember what kind of a punch it was "but it hurt."

It was only the second defeat for Johanson in his 24 professional fights. And both defeats were inflicted by Floyd, who had knocked him out in the fifth round of their second fight last June 20 with left hooks. Just a year before that, Johanson had flogged Floyd seven times for a technical kayo in the third round.

In addition to Patterson's two knockdown trips to the floor Monday night, he slipped to the canvas once in the third while evading Ingemar's blows. Floyd suffered a cut on his left brow in the third session.

No official figures were announced for the fight but Feature Sports estimated the crowd at 15,000 and the gate at more than $500,000.

Irving B. Kahn, closed-circuit TV tycoon and president of Teleprompter Corporation, estimated that the total receipts for closed-circuit showings of the fight at 207 theatres and other locations in the United States and Canada would be at least $2,400,000.

In addition, he said the money already guaranteed the promotion and Teleprompter from movies, radio, and foreign radio and films would approximate $700,000.

"Those figures plus the gate," he said, "should make the fight a $3,500,000 record-maker. And Floyd and Ingemar should get between $700,000 and $1,000,000 each for their purses."

The $500,000 gate beat the old Florida state record of $395,369 established by the Jack Sharkey-Young Stripling non-title bout at Miami in 1929.

RATED AS one of the top five favorites entered for the 200-mile AMA national championship motorcycle race at Daytona Beach Sunday, will be Carroll Resweber of Cadarburg, Wis., who has won the AMA national championship for three consecutive years. Although never a winner at Daytona over the old beach-road course, Resweber is hopeful of a better showing over the new two mile course at Daytona International Speedway, where the 100-mile amateur race will be staged Saturday and the 200-mile expert classic is set for Sunday.

By MARIAN R. JONES

An outstanding evening of basketball was played at Oviedo High Gym last Saturday pitting Oviedo and Slavia Junior High girls in the preliminary, the Oviedo Cubs and Slavia Crawlers in the second and Oviedo and Slavia Junior High boys in the final game.

Whitehead's Racers Seen Sure Bet To Take SOKC Championship

With only 16 more nights of greyhound racing at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club, Fred Whitehead's dogs seem to be a cinch to win the track championship and score more than 100 victories in the process.

Through last week's races, Whitehead's runners had accounted for 85 victories, 17 more than the outfit in second place, Jack Herold's Kennels. In third place with 55 triumphs was the Hobby Flour Ranch Kennels with 55 victories followed closely by Carl Tracy's sprinters with 54 wins.

In tonight's main event Tracy's Wayne Roberts looms as the dog to beat. His impressive record of 14 in-the-money finishes out of 18 starts is hard to match.

Several other greyhounds in the featured ninth, however, have slates almost as good. Cindy Nan has four wins, Turnaround has four, Accomplished has five, Now Pauline has five, Leavitt has five, Gay L. has five and Visalia has four.

Low points were won by Dossie deGahani and she will receive a prize presented by Jennie Foulk.

Pairings for the tournament are posted at the Mayfair Country Club with the first round to be played through March 15, the second round through March 19, third round through March 22 and the final rounds to be played through March 26.

Each contestant is responsible for play of matches in which she is involved. Further information regarding the tournament may be obtained from Crella Higginbotham.

The heart's job is to keep just the right amount of blood flowing to all parts of the body.

In tonight's main event Tracy's Wayne Roberts looms as the dog to beat. His impressive record of 14 in-the-money finishes out of 18 starts is hard to match.

Several other greyhounds in the featured ninth, however, have slates almost as good. Cindy Nan has four wins, Turnaround has four, Accomplished has five, Now Pauline has five, Leavitt has five, Gay L. has five and Visalia has four.

Low points were won by Dossie deGahani and she will receive a prize presented by Jennie Foulk.

Pairings for the tournament are posted at the Mayfair Country Club with the first round to be played through March 15, the second round through March 19, third round through March 22 and the final rounds to be played through March 26.

Each contestant is responsible for play of matches in which she is involved. Further information regarding the tournament may be obtained from Crella Higginbotham.
